- In class, the teacher used "pyloric valve" to mean the sphincter muscle of the pylorus that separates....
- The article explained what "pyloric valve" means with a simple example.

---

pyloric vein (noun)

Receives veins from the upper surfaces of the stomach and empties into the portal vein.

- In class, the teacher used "pyloric vein" to mean receives veins from the upper surfaces of the....
- The article explained what "pyloric vein" means with a simple example.

---

quartic polynomial (noun)

A polynomial of the fourth degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quartic polynomial."

- He looked up “quartic polynomial” because he had never seen it before.

---

racoons (noun)

An omnivorous nocturnal mammal native to North America and Central America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “racoons.”
- The article explained what “racoons” means with a simple example.

---

ranier (noun)

A mountain peak in central Washington; highest peak in the Cascade Range; (14,410 feet high).

- They discussed “ranier” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “ranier” because he had never seen it before.

---

ranitidine (noun)

A histamine blocker and antacid (trade name Zantac) used to treat peptic ulcers and gastritis and esophageal reflux.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ranitidine.”
- He looked up “ranitidine” because he had never seen it before.

---

rapturously (adverb)

In an ecstatic manner.

- He answered “rapturously,” which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Place “rapturously” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

redacting (verb)

Formulate in a particular style or language.

- In everyday English, people use “redacting” when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use “redacting” until he saw an example.

---

redbud (noun)

Small shrubby tree of eastern North America similar to the Judas tree having usually pink flowers; found in damp sheltered underwood.

- In class, the teacher used “redbud” to mean small shrubby tree of eastern north america similar....
- Understanding “redbud” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reenactors (noun)

A person who enacts a role in an event that occurred earlier.

- He looked up “reenactors” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reenactors.”

---

rehoused (verb)

Put up in a new or different housing.

- He did not know how to use “rehoused” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “rehoused” in real sentences.

---

rein orchis (noun)

Any of several American wildflowers with a kidney-shaped lip.

- In class, the teacher used “rein orchis” to mean any of several american wildflowers with a....
- Understanding “rein orchis” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

renos (noun)

A city in western Nevada at the foot of the Sierra Nevada Mountains; known for gambling casinos and easy divorce and remarriage.

- They discussed “renos” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “renos” because he had never seen it before.

---

reposing (verb)

To put something (eg trust) in something.

- He was reposing on the couch.
- Can you use “reposing” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

residuary (adjective)

Entitled to the residue of an estate (after payment of debts and specific gifts).

- The residuary part of the estate.
- The residuary beneficiary.

---

respire (verb)

Draw air into, and expel out of, the lungs.

- Learners should practice how to use "respire" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "respire" and when to wait.

---

rhabdomyosarcoma (noun)

A highly malignant neoplasm derived from striated muscle.

- The article explained what "rhabdomyosarcoma" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rhabdomyosarcoma."

---

rhodesian ridgeback (noun)

A powerful short-haired African hunting dog having a crest of reversed hair along the spine.

- They discussed "rhodesian ridgeback" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rhodesian ridgeback" to mean a powerful short-haired african hunting dog having....

---

riyals (noun)

The basic unit of money in Qatar.

- In class, the teacher used "riyals" to mean the basic unit of money in qatar.
- Understanding "riyals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

road mender (noun)

A workman who is employed to repair roads.

- The article explained what "road mender" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "road mender" to mean a workman who is employed to repair roads.

---

roamer (noun)

Someone who leads a wandering unsettled life.

- He looked up "roamer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "roamer" during the group presentation.

---

robert ranke graves (noun)

English writer known for his interest in mythology and in the classics (1895-1985).

- They discussed "robert ranke graves" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "robert ranke graves" means with a simple example.

---

roundhead (noun)

A supporter of parliament and Oliver Cromwell during the English Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "roundhead" to mean a supporter of parliament and oliver cromwell....
- The article explained what "roundhead" means with a simple example.

---

rubus occidentalis (noun)

Raspberry native to eastern North America having black thimble-shaped fruit.

- They discussed "rubus occidentalis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubus occidentalis."

---

rugger (noun)

A form of football played with an oval ball.

- He looked up "rugger" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rugger" to mean a form of football played with an oval ball.

---

sadi carnot (noun)

French physicist who founded thermodynamics (1796-1832).

- He looked up “sadi carnot” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “sadi carnot” during the group presentation.

---

sailcloth (noun)

A strong fabric (such as cotton canvas) used for making sails and tents.

- The article explained what “sailcloth” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “sailcloth” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salix arctica (noun)

Low creeping shrub of Arctic Europe and America.

- Understanding “salix arctica” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “salix arctica” because he had never seen it before.

---

salmonids (noun)

Soft-finned fishes of cold and temperate waters.

- He looked up “salmonids” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “salmonids.”

---

saqqara (noun)

A town in northern Egypt; site of the oldest Egyptian pyramids.

- Understanding “saqqara” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “saqqara.”

---

saunters (noun)

A careless leisurely gait.

- The article explained what “saunters” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “saunters” during the group presentation.

---

sawan (noun)

The fifth month of the Hindu calendar.

- He looked up “sawan” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sawan.”

---

sawfly (noun)

Insect whose female has a saw-like ovipositor for inserting eggs into the leaf or stem tissue of a host plant.

- Understanding “sawfly” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “sawfly” during the group presentation.

---

saxophonists (noun)

A musician who plays the saxophone.

- They discussed “saxophonists” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “saxophonists” because he had never seen it before.

---

scouter (noun)

An adult member of the Boy Scouts movement.

- They discussed “scouter” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “scouter” to mean an adult member of the boy scouts movement.

---

scuttles (verb)

To move about or proceed hurriedly.

- He did not know how to use “scuttles” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “scuttles” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

seaworthiness (noun)

Fitness to traverse the seas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “seaworthiness.”
- He looked up “seaworthiness” because he had never seen it before.

septet (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of six and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "septet."
- Understanding "septet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

serialize (verb)

Arrange serially.

- Serialize the numbers.
- She tried to use "serialize" carefully so everyone would understand.

servitors (noun)

Someone who performs the duties of an attendant for someone else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "servitors."
- They discussed "servitors" during the group presentation.

sharpshooting (verb)

Aim and shoot with great precision.

- Can you use "sharpshooting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "sharpshooting" when talking about this idea.

shortish (adjective)

Somewhat short.

- Would you call this situation "shortish"? Explain why.
- Students compared "shortish" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

shrivels (verb)

Wither, as with a loss of moisture.

- The coach explained when to use "shrivels" and when to wait.
- Can you use "shrivels" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sidelong (adverb)

With the side toward someone or something; - Nathaniel Hawthorne.

- Seated sidelong to the window.
- The plow lay sidelong on the ground.

skeets (noun)

The sport of shooting at clay pigeons that are hurled upward in such a way as to simulate the flight of a bird.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skeets."
- He looked up "skeets" because he had never seen it before.

skimped (verb)

Supply sparingly and with restricted quantities.

- He did not know how to use "skimped" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "skimped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

slaked lime (noun)

A caustic substance produced by heating limestone.

- The article explained what "slaked lime" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "slaked lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slappers (noun)

A hitter who slaps (usually another person) with an open hand.

- He looked up "slappers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "slappers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slavering (verb)

Let saliva drivel from the mouth.

- He did not know how to use "slavering" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "slavering" and when to wait.

---

smegma (noun)

A white secretion of the sebaceous glands of the foreskin.

- He looked up "smegma" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "smegma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

smoggy (adjective)

Clouded with a mixture of smoke and fog.

- The smoggy atmosphere of Los Angeles.
- Would you call this situation "smoggy"? Explain why.

---

sneezy (adjective)

Inclined to sneeze.

- Students compared "sneezy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sneezy."

---

snivelling (verb)

Cry or whine with snuffling.

- Stop snivelling–you got yourself into this mess!
- In everyday English, people use "snivelling" when talking about this idea.

---

snowiest (adjective)

Of the white color of snow.

- Students compared "snowiest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "snowiest" when it is of the white color of snow.

---

sodium thiosulfate (noun)

A compound used as a fixing agent in photographic developing.

- The article explained what "sodium thiosulfate" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sodium thiosulfate" to mean a compound used as a fixing agent in photographic....

---

songster (noun)

A composer of words or music for popular songs.

- The article explained what "songster" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "songster" during the group presentation.

---

spangles (noun)

Adornment consisting of a small piece of shiny material used to decorate clothing.

- The article explained what "spangles" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spangles" to mean adornment consisting of a small piece of shiny....

---

spigots (noun)

A regulator for controlling the flow of a liquid from a reservoir.

- The article explained what "spigots" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spigots."

---

spurted (verb)

Gush forth in a sudden stream or jet.

- Can you use "spurted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "spurted" and when to wait.

---

squatty (adjective)

Short and thick; as e.g. having short legs and heavy musculature.

- A squatty red smokestack.
- The speaker chose "squatty" because it captured the feeling precisely.

stabilises (verb)

Make stable and keep from fluctuating or put into an equilibrium.

- Can you use “stabilises” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “stabilises” and when to wait.

stative (adjective)

(used of verbs (e.g. ‘be’ or ‘own’) and most participial adjectives) expressing existence or a state rather than an action.

- It is useful to describe something as “stative” when it is (used of verbs (e.g. ‘be’ or ‘own’) and most....
- A “stative” approach may work better in this case.

stenciling (verb)

Mark or print with a stencil.

- The coach explained when to use “stenciling” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “stenciling” in real sentences.

stratify (verb)

Divide society into social classes or castes.

- Stratify seeds.
- The coach explained when to use “stratify” and when to wait.

strawberry hemangioma (noun)

A congenital bright red superficial vascular tumor resembling a strawberry; tends to decrease in size during childhood.

- The article explained what “strawberry hemangioma” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “strawberry hemangioma.”

sukiyaki (noun)

Thin beef strips (or chicken or pork) cooked briefly at the table with onions and greens and soy sauce.

- He looked up “sukiyaki” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “sukiyaki” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sunup (noun)

The first light of day.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sunup.”
- Understanding “sunup” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

supernormal (adjective)

Beyond the range of the normal or scientifically explainable.

- Supernormal intimations.
- Years of supernormal employment during the war.

supping (noun)

Ingestion of liquid food with a spoon or by drinking.

- In class, the teacher used “supping” to mean ingestion of liquid food with a spoon or by drinking.
- The article explained what “supping” means with a simple example.

switchboards (noun)

Telephone central where circuits are completed with patchcords.

- The article explained what “switchboards” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “switchboards” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

swop (verb)

Exchange or give (something) in exchange for.

- Can you use “swop” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “swop” when talking about this idea.

szell (noun)

United States conductor (born in Hungary) (1897-1970).

- Understanding "szell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "szell" because he had never seen it before.

---

taif (noun)

A city in western Saudi Arabia to the east of Mecca.

- In class, the teacher used "taif" to mean a city in western saudi arabia to the east of mecca.
- Understanding "taif" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tailless (adjective)

Not having a tail.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tailless."
- Students compared "tailless" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

tensely (adverb)

In a tense manner.

- He sat down tensely.
- Place "tensely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

terre adelie (noun)

A costal region of Antarctica to the south of Australia; noted for its large colonies of penguins.

- Understanding "terre adelie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "terre adelie" to mean a costal region of antarctica to the south of....

---

thrusted (verb)

Impose urgently, importunately, or inexorably.

- Can you use "thrusted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "thrusted" and when to wait.

---

tidily (adverb)

In a tidy manner.

- The door gave access to a tidily furnished sitting-room where chintz and oak predominated.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "tidily" naturally.

---

titres (noun)

The concentration of a solution as determined by titration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "titres."
- The article explained what "titres" means with a simple example.

---

toolboxes (noun)

A box or chest or cabinet for holding hand tools.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toolboxes."
- Understanding "toolboxes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trailheads (noun)

The beginning of a trail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trailheads."
- The article explained what "trailheads" means with a simple example.

---

treasuring (verb)

Be fond of; be attached to.

- Learners should practice how to use "treasuring" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "treasuring" and when to wait.

---

trilled (adjective)

Uttered with a trill.

- Would you call this situation "trilled"? Explain why.

- A "trilled" approach may work better in this case.

---

trondheim fiord (noun)

A long narrow inlet of the Norwegian Sea.

- He looked up "trondheim fiord" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "trondheim fiord" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tump over (verb)

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position.

- The cat knocked over the flower vase.
- The clumsy customer turned over the vase.

---

tutankhamen (noun)

Pharaoh of Egypt around 1358 BC; his tomb was discovered almost intact by Howard Carter in 1922.

- Understanding "tutankhamen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tutankhamen" because he had never seen it before.

---

twigged (verb)

Understand, usually after some initial difficulty.

- The lightning bolt twigged in several directions.
- In everyday English, people use "twigged" when talking about this idea.

---

unbuckle (verb)

Undo the buckle of.

- Unbuckle your seat belt.
- He did not know how to use "unbuckle" until he saw an example.

---

uncleared (adjective)

Not cleared; not rid of objects or obstructions.

- Uncleared land.
- Many cars were stuck in the snow on uncleared streets.

---

unlikelihood (noun)

The improbability of a specified outcome.

- The article explained what "unlikelihood" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unlikelihood."

---

unprepossessing (adjective)

Creating an unfavorable or neutral first impression.

- It is useful to describe something as "unprepossessing" when it is creating an unfavorable or neutral first impression.
- The speaker chose "unprepossessing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

usufruct (noun)

A legal right to use and derive profit from property belonging to someone else provided that the property itself is not injured in any way.

- The article explained what "usufruct" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "usufruct."

---

varnishing (verb)

Cover with varnish.

- Can you use "varnishing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "varnishing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

vileness (noun)

The quality of being disgusting to the senses or emotions.

- The vileness of his language surprised us.
- The article explained what "vileness" means with a simple example.

---

visual percept (noun)

A percept that arises from the eyes; an image in the visual system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual percept."
- The article explained what "visual percept" means with a simple example.

---

volar (adjective)

Relating to the palm of the hand or the sole of the foot.

- The volar surface.
- Would you call this situation "volar"? Explain why.

---

wassermann (noun)

A blood test to detect syphilis; a complement fixation test is used to detect antibodies to the syphilis organism treponema; a positive reaction indicates the presence of antibodies and therefore syphilis infection.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wassermann."
- The article explained what "wassermann" means with a simple example.

---

wassermann test (noun)

A blood test to detect syphilis; a complement fixation test is used to detect antibodies to the syphilis organism treponema; a positive reaction indicates the presence of antibodies and therefore syphilis infection.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wassermann test."
- The article explained what "wassermann test" means with a simple example.

---

western mugwort (noun)

Perennial cottony-white herb of southwestern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western mugwort."
- The article explained what "western mugwort" means with a simple example.

---

western redbud (noun)

Shrub of western United States having pink or crimson flowers; often forms thickets.

- He looked up "western redbud" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western redbud."

---

whiteheads (noun)

A small whitish lump in the skin due to a clogged sebaceous gland.

- In class, the teacher used "whiteheads" to mean a small whitish lump in the skin due to a clogged....
- He looked up "whiteheads" because he had never seen it before.

---

windowsills (noun)

The sill of a window; the horizontal member at the bottom of the window frame.

- The article explained what "windowsills" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "windowsills" during the group presentation.

---

worthily (adverb)

In a worthy manner; with worthiness.

- Place "worthily" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "worthily" naturally.

---

wretchedly (adverb)

In a wretched manner.

- 'I can't remember who I am,' I said, wretchedly.
- Using "wretchedly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

xanthine (noun)

Crystalline oxidation product of the metabolism of nucleoproteins; precursor of uric acid; found in many organs and in urine.

- They discussed "xanthine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "xanthine" to mean crystalline oxidation product of the metabolism of....

---

xxs (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of nineteen and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "xxs."
- He looked up "xxs" because he had never seen it before.

---

zebu (noun)

Domesticated ox having a humped back and long horns and a large dewlap; used chiefly as a draft animal in India and east Asia.

- In class, the teacher used "zebu" to mean domesticated ox having a humped back and long horns....
- They discussed "zebu" during the group presentation.

---

zigzagged (verb)

Travel along a zigzag path.

- She tried to use "zigzagged" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "zigzagged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

zinnias (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Zinnia cultivated for their variously and brightly colored flower heads.

- Understanding "zinnias" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "zinnias" because he had never seen it before.

---

beau brummell (noun)

English dandy who was a fashion leader during the Regency (1778-1840).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beau brummell."
- They discussed "beau brummell" during the group presentation.

---

beetroots (noun)

Beet having a massively swollen red root; widely grown for human consumption.

- They discussed "beetroots" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "beetroots" to mean beet having a massively swollen red root; widely....

---

binger (noun)

Someone addicted to crack cocaine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binger."
- Understanding "binger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bipeds (noun)

An animal with two feet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bipeds."
- Understanding "bipeds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black guillemot (noun)

Northern Atlantic guillemot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black guillemot."
- They discussed "black guillemot" during the group presentation.

---

black lovage (noun)

European herb somewhat resembling celery widely naturalized in Britain coastal regions and often cultivated as a potherb.

- The article explained what "black lovage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "black lovage" to mean european herb somewhat resembling celery widely....

---

bollock (noun)

One of the two male reproductive glands that produce spermatozoa and secrete androgens.

- He looked up "bollock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bollock" to mean one of the two male reproductive glands that....

---

braw (adjective)

Brightly colored and showy.

- 'braw' is a Scottish word.

- Would you call this situation "braw"? Explain why.

---

brays (verb)

Reduce to small pieces or particles by pounding or abrading.

- He did not know how to use "brays" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "brays" when talking about this idea.

---

broaches (noun)

A decorative pin worn by women.

- They discussed "broaches" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "broaches."

---

brusquely (adverb)

In a blunt direct manner.

- She spoke "brusquely," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "brusquely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

bucketful (noun)

The quantity contained in a bucket.

- They discussed "bucketful" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bucketful" means with a simple example.

---

bura (noun)

A Chadic language spoken south of Lake Chad.

- In class, the teacher used "bura" to mean a chadic language spoken south of lake chad.
- The article explained what "bura" means with a simple example.

---

bures (verb)

Remove the burrs from.

- He did not know how to use "bures" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "bures" when talking about this idea.

---

butterfly orchis (noun)

Mexican epiphytic orchid having pale green or yellow-green flowers with white purple-veined lip.

- They discussed "butterfly orchis" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "butterfly orchis" to mean mexican epiphytic orchid having pale green or....

---

buttonwood (noun)

Very large spreading plane tree of eastern and central North America to Mexico.

- They discussed "buttonwood" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buttonwood."

---

cadaveric (adjective)

Of or relating to a cadaver or corpse.

- It is useful to describe something as "cadaveric" when it is of or relating to a cadaver or corpse.
- Would you call this situation "cadaveric"? Explain why.

---

cancan (noun)

A high-kicking dance of French origin performed by a female chorus line.

- In class, the teacher used "cancan" to mean a high-kicking dance of french origin performed by....
- He looked up "cancan" because he had never seen it before.

---

cantered (verb)

Ride at a cantering pace.

- He cantered the horse across the meadow.
- The men cantered away.

---

carissa grandiflora (noun)

Very large closely branched South African shrub having forked bright green spines and shiny leaves.

- The article explained what “carissa grandiflora” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “carissa grandiflora” during the group presentation.

---

carlo goldoni (noun)

Prolific Italian dramatist (1707-1793).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “carlo goldoni.”
- They discussed “carlo goldoni” during the group presentation.

---

cataclysms (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- Understanding “cataclysms” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cataclysms.”

---

catchier (adjective)

Having concealed difficulty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “catchier.”
- Students compared “catchier” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cattail millet (noun)

Tall grass having cattail like spikes; grown in Africa and Asia for its grain and in the United States chiefly for forage; sometimes used in making beer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cattail millet.”
- The article explained what “cattail millet” means with a simple example.

---

cers (noun)

An emotional response that has been acquired by conditioning.

- The article explained what “cers” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cers” to mean an emotional response that has been acquired by....

---

ceylonese (adjective)

Of or relating to Sri Lanka (formerly Ceylon) or its people or culture.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “ceylonese.”
- The speaker chose “ceylonese” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cherubic (adjective)

Having a sweet nature befitting an angel or cherub.

- A cherubic face.
- The speaker chose “cherubic” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

chessmen (noun)

Any of 16 white and 16 black pieces used in playing the game of chess.

- Understanding “chessmen” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “chessmen” because he had never seen it before.

---

chickweed (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Stellaria.

- They discussed “chickweed” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “chickweed” means with a simple example.

---

childproof (verb)

Make safe against children.

- Childproof the apartment.
- The coach explained when to use “childproof” and when to wait.

---

choleric (adjective)

Easily moved to anger; - H.G.Wells.

- Men of the choleric type take to kicking and smashing.
- A choleric outburst.

---

chrism (noun)

A consecrated ointment consisting of a mixture of oil and balsam.

- He looked up "chrism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chrism" during the group presentation.

---

cicerone (noun)

A guide who conducts and informs sightseers.

- In class, the teacher used "cicerone" to mean a guide who conducts and informs sightseers.
- Understanding "cicerone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cimetidine (noun)

A drug (trade name Tagamet) used to treat peptic ulcers by decreasing the secretion of stomach acid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cimetidine."
- Understanding "cimetidine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cistercians (noun)

Member of an order of monks noted for austerity and a vow of silence.

- In class, the teacher used "cistercians" to mean member of an order of monks noted for austerity and....
- The article explained what "cistercians" means with a simple example.

---

citrulline (noun)

An amino acid that does not occur in proteins but is an intermediate in the conversion of ornithine to arginine.

- The article explained what "citrulline" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "citrulline" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clasts (noun)

(geology) a constituent fragment of a clastic rock.

- Understanding "clasts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "clasts" to mean (geology) a constituent fragment of a clastic rock.

---

clomiphene (noun)

A fertility drug (trade name Clomid) that is used to stimulate ovulation and that has been associated with multiple births.

- He looked up "clomiphene" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clomiphene."

---

cloudier (adjective)

Lacking definite form or limits; - H.T.Moore.

- The speaker chose "cloudier" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "cloudier" approach may work better in this case.

---

cockcroft and walton voltage multiplier (noun)

A high-voltage machine in which rectifiers charge capacitors that discharge and drive charged particles through an accelerating tube.

- The article explained what "cockcroft and walton voltage multiplier" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cockcroft and walton voltage multiplier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cockcroft-walton voltage multiplier (noun)

A high-voltage machine in which rectifiers charge capacitors that discharge and drive charged particles through an accelerating tube.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cockcroft-walton voltage multiplier."
- The article explained what "cockcroft-walton voltage multiplier" means with a simple example.

---

codger (noun)

Used affectionately to refer to an eccentric but amusing old man.

- He looked up "codger" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "codger."

codpiece (noun)

(15th-16th century) a flap for the crotch of men's tight-fitting breeches.

- In class, the teacher used "codpiece" to mean (15th-16th century) a flap for the crotch of men's....
- They discussed "codpiece" during the group presentation.

cognizable (adjective)

Capable of being known.

- Students compared "cognizable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "cognizable"? Explain why.

collates (verb)

To assemble in proper sequence.

- In everyday English, people use "collates" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "collates" until he saw an example.

colly (verb)

Make soiled, filthy, or dirty.

- Can you use "colly" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "colly" when talking about this idea.

common chickweed (noun)

A common low-growing annual garden weed with small white flowers; cosmopolitan; so-called because it is eaten by chickens.

- Understanding "common chickweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common chickweed."

common duckweed (noun)

Of temperate regions except eastern Asia and Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common duckweed."
- He looked up "common duckweed" because he had never seen it before.

coned (verb)

Commit to memory; learn by heart.

- He did not know how to use "coned" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "coned" and when to wait.

conjunctival layer of eyelids (noun)

The part of the conjunctiva lining the posterior surface of the eyelids; continuous with the bulbar conjunctiva.

- They discussed "conjunctival layer of eyelids" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "conjunctival layer of eyelids" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

contrarians (noun)

An investor who deliberately decides to go against the prevailing wisdom of other investors.

- In class, the teacher used "contrarians" to mean an investor who deliberately decides to go against....
- They discussed "contrarians" during the group presentation.

coronets (noun)

A small crown; usually indicates a high rank but below that of sovereign.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coronets."
- The article explained what "coronets" means with a simple example.

countersuit (noun)

A suit brought against someone who has sued you.

- The article explained what "countersuit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "countersuit" to mean a suit brought against someone who has sued you.

cozies (noun)

A padded cloth covering to keep a teapot warm.

- They discussed "cozies" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cozies" to mean a padded cloth covering to keep a teapot warm.

---

craftiness (noun)

The quality of being crafty.

- In class, the teacher used "craftiness" to mean the quality of being crafty.
- The article explained what "craftiness" means with a simple example.

---

crookes radiometer (noun)

Electromagnetic radiometer consisting of a small paddlewheel that rotates when placed in daylight.

- He looked up "crookes radiometer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crookes radiometer."

---

culver's root (noun)

A tall perennial herb having spikes of small white or purple flowers; common in eastern North America.

- They discussed "culver's root" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "culver's root" means with a simple example.

---

cyclooxygenase (noun)

Either of two related enzymes that control the production of prostaglandins and are blocked by aspirin.

- They discussed "cyclooxygenase" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cyclooxygenase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cyclopean (adjective)

Of or relating to or resembling the Cyclops.

- Cyclopean eye.
- Students compared "cyclopean" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

daguerre (noun)

French inventor of the first practical photographic process, the daguerreotype (1789-1851).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daguerre."
- The article explained what "daguerre" means with a simple example.

---

danse du ventre (noun)

A Middle Eastern dance in which the dancer makes sensuous movements of the hips and abdomen.

- In class, the teacher used "danse du ventre" to mean a middle eastern dance in which the dancer makes....
- The article explained what "danse du ventre" means with a simple example.

---

decrepitude (noun)

A state of deterioration due to old age or long use.

- Understanding "decrepitude" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decrepitude."

---

deftness (noun)

Skillful performance or ability without difficulty.

- Understanding "deftness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "deftness" to mean skillful performance or ability without difficulty.

---

dehiscence (noun)

(biology) release of material by splitting open of an organ or tissue; the natural bursting open at maturity of a fruit or other reproductive body to release seeds or spores or the bursting open of a surgically closed wound.

- The article explained what "dehiscence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dehiscence" during the group presentation.

---

deicing (verb)

Make or become free of frost or ice.

- In everyday English, people use "deicing" when talking about this idea.

- She tried to use “deicing” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

demurely (adverb)

In a demure manner.

- The army girl, tall and demurely pretty, threw a quick side-glance at her.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “demurely” naturally.

---

denature (verb)

Make (alcohol) unfit for drinking without impairing usefulness for other purposes.

- The coach explained when to use “denature” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “denature” until he saw an example.

---

destabilisation (noun)

The action of destabilizing; making something less stable (especially of a government or country or economy).

- The article explained what “destabilisation” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “destabilisation” to mean the action of destabilizing; making something less....

---

detriments (noun)

A damage or loss.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “detriments.”
- The article explained what “detriments” means with a simple example.

---

devanagari (noun)

A syllabic script used in writing Sanskrit and Hindi.

- He looked up “devanagari” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “devanagari” to mean a syllabic script used in writing sanskrit and hindi.

---

devanagari script (noun)

A syllabic script used in writing Sanskrit and Hindi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “devanagari script.”
- He looked up “devanagari script” because he had never seen it before.

---

devotionals (noun)

A short religious service.

- He looked up “devotionals” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “devotionals” to mean a short religious service.

---

dieted (verb)

Follow a regimen or a diet, as for health reasons.

- He did not know how to use “dieted” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “dieted” in real sentences.

---

diopter (noun)

A unit of measurement of the refractive power of a lens which is equal to the reciprocal of the focal length measured in meters; used by oculists.

- The article explained what “diopter” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “diopter” to mean a unit of measurement of the refractive power of a....

---

disembowel (verb)

Remove the entrails of.

- He did not know how to use “disembowel” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “disembowel” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

disrobing (verb)

Get undressed.

- Can you use “disrobing” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “disrobing” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

distention (noun)

The act of expanding by pressure from within.

- The article explained what "distention" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "distention" to mean the act of expanding by pressure from within.

---

doggerel (noun)

A comic verse of irregular measure.

- He had heard some silly doggerel that kept running through his mind.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doggerel."

---

doggerel verse (noun)

A comic verse of irregular measure.

- He had heard some silly doggerel that kept running through his mind.
- In class, the teacher used "doggerel verse" to mean a comic verse of irregular measure.

---

dowland (noun)

English lutenist and composer of songs for the lute (1563-1626).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dowland."
- He looked up "dowland" because he had never seen it before.

---

draft evader (noun)

Someone who is drafted and illegally refuses to serve.

- He looked up "draft evader" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "draft evader" to mean someone who is drafted and illegally refuses to serve.

---

duckweed (noun)

Any small or minute aquatic plant of the family Lemnaceae that float on or near the surface of shallow ponds.

- He looked up "duckweed" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "duckweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duckweed family (noun)

Family of small free-floating thalloid plants.

- In class, the teacher used "duckweed family" to mean family of small free-floating thalloid plants.
- They discussed "duckweed family" during the group presentation.

---

dunkerque (noun)

A seaport in northern France on the North Sea; scene of the evacuation of British forces in 1940 during World War II.

- Understanding "dunkerque" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dunkerque" to mean a seaport in northern france on the north sea;....

---

dunlin (noun)

Small common sandpiper that breeds in northern or Arctic regions and winters in southern United States or Mediterranean regions.

- Understanding "dunlin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dunlin" to mean small common sandpiper that breeds in northern or....

---

electrocardiography (noun)

Diagnostic procedure consisting of recording the activity of the heart electronically with a cardiograph (and producing a cardiogram).

- They discussed "electrocardiography" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "electrocardiography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electrostatics (noun)

The branch of physics that deals with static electricity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatics."
- He looked up "electrostatics" because he had never seen it before.

---

emend (verb)

Make improvements or corrections to.

- The text was emended in the second edition.
- He did not know how to use "emend" until he saw an example.

---

employes (verb)

Put into service; make work or employ for a particular purpose or for its inherent or natural purpose.

- She tried to use "employes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "employes" when talking about this idea.

---

endodontics (noun)

The branch of dentistry dealing with diseases of the dental pulp.

- Understanding "endodontics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "endodontics" means with a simple example.

---

epigastric artery (noun)

One of three arteries supplying the anterior walls of the abdomen.

- He looked up "epigastric artery" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "epigastric artery" to mean one of three arteries supplying the anterior walls....

---

etonian (noun)

A student enrolled in (or graduated from) Eton College.

- In class, the teacher used "etonian" to mean a student enrolled in (or graduated from) eton college.
- Understanding "etonian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

europes (noun)

The nations of the European continent collectively.

- The article explained what "europes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "europes" to mean the nations of the european continent collectively.

---

excoriating (verb)

Tear or wear off the skin or make sore by abrading.

- He did not know how to use "excoriating" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "excoriating" and when to wait.

---

excretes (verb)

Eliminate from the body.

- In everyday English, people use "excretes" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "excretes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

exordium (noun)

(rhetoric) the introductory section of an oration or discourse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exordium."
- The article explained what "exordium" means with a simple example.

---

exoteric (adjective)

Suitable for the general public.

- Writings of an exoteric nature.
- The speaker chose "exoteric" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

expectorant (noun)

A medicine promoting expectoration.

- The article explained what "expectorant" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "expectorant."

---

extortionists (noun)

A criminal who extorts money from someone by threatening to expose embarrassing information about them.

- The article explained what "extortionists" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "extortionists" during the group presentation.

fagus americana (noun)

North American forest tree with light green leaves and edible nuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fagus americana."
- He looked up "fagus americana" because he had never seen it before.

false glottis (noun)

The opening between the false vocal folds.

- The article explained what "false glottis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "false glottis" to mean the opening between the false vocal folds.

fascinations (noun)

The capacity to attract intense interest.

- He held the children spellbound with magic tricks and other fascinations.
- He looked up "fascinations" because he had never seen it before.

fastidiously (adverb)

In a fastidious and painstaking manner.

- He writes extremely musical music, of which the sound is fastidiously calculated and yet agreeably spontaneous and imaginative.
- Place "fastidiously" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

fenestra (noun)

A small opening covered with membrane (especially one in the bone between the middle and inner ear).

- He looked up "fenestra" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fenestra" during the group presentation.

fertilizes (verb)

Provide with fertilizers or add nutrients to.

- In everyday English, people use "fertilizes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "fertilizes" in real sentences.

fettered (adjective)

Bound by chains fastened around the ankles.

- A "fettered" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "fettered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

fidgets (noun)

A feeling of agitation expressed in continual motion.

- He's got the fidgets.
- He looked up "fidgets" because he had never seen it before.

field chickweed (noun)

Densely tufted perennial chickweed of north temperate zone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "field chickweed."
- He looked up "field chickweed" because he had never seen it before.

filariasis (noun)

A disease caused by nematodes in the blood or tissues of the body causing blockage of lymphatic vessels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "filariasis."
- He looked up "filariasis" because he had never seen it before.

finalisation (noun)

The act of finalizing.

- The article explained what "finalisation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "finalisation" to mean the act of finalizing.

finger's breadth (noun)

The length of breadth of a finger used as a linear measure.

- The article explained what "finger's breadth" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "finger's breadth" to mean the length of breadth of a finger used as a linear....

---

firebrands (noun)

Someone who deliberately foments trouble.

- In class, the teacher used "firebrands" to mean someone who deliberately foments trouble.
- The article explained what "firebrands" means with a simple example.

---

fishponds (noun)

A freshwater pond with fish.

- Understanding "fishponds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fishponds" because he had never seen it before.

---

flashbulbs (noun)

A lamp for providing momentary light to take a photograph.

- In class, the teacher used "flashbulbs" to mean a lamp for providing momentary light to take a....
- He looked up "flashbulbs" because he had never seen it before.

---

flatworms (noun)

Parasitic or free-living worms having a flattened body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flatworms."
- Understanding "flatworms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flossy (adjective)

Like down or as soft as down.

- It is useful to describe something as "flossy" when it is like down or as soft as down.
- Students compared "flossy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fluster (noun)

A disposition that is confused or nervous and upset.

- They discussed "fluster" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fluster" to mean a disposition that is confused or nervous and upset.

---

flying gurnard (noun)

Tropical fish with huge fanlike pectoral fins for underwater gliding; unrelated to searobins.

- Understanding "flying gurnard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flying gurnard."

---

foliated (adjective)

Ornamented with foliage or foils.

- A foliated capital.
- It is useful to describe something as "foliated" when it is ornamented with foliage or foils.

---

footrest (noun)

A low seat or a stool to rest the feet of a seated person.

- He looked up "footrest" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "footrest" during the group presentation.

---

forelock (noun)

A lock of hair growing (or falling) over the forehead.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forelock."
- He looked up "forelock" because he had never seen it before.

---

foreskins (noun)

A fold of skin covering the tip of the penis.

- Understanding "foreskins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "foreskins" to mean a fold of skin covering the tip of the penis.

---

forint (noun)

The basic unit of money in Hungary.

- He looked up "forint" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forint."

---

formidably (adverb)

In a formidable manner.

- The constant risk that attends the exchanges of human beings formidably armed.
- Using "formidably" can make your explanation more exact.

---

forsakes (verb)

Leave someone who needs or counts on you; leave in the lurch.

- The coach explained when to use "forsakes" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "forsakes" in real sentences.

---

fossae (noun)

A concavity in a surface (especially an anatomical depression).

- They discussed "fossae" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fossae" because he had never seen it before.

---

fragonard (noun)

French artist whose rococo paintings typified the frivolity of life in the royal court of France in the 18th century (1732-1806).

- In class, the teacher used "fragonard" to mean french artist whose rococo paintings typified the....
- They discussed "fragonard" during the group presentation.

---

frankfurters (noun)

A smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork usually smoked; often served on a bread roll.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frankfurters."
- They discussed "frankfurters" during the group presentation.

---

galvanise (verb)

To stimulate to action.

- Learners should practice how to use "galvanise" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "galvanise" when talking about this idea.

---

gambol (noun)

Gay or light-hearted recreational activity for diversion or amusement.

- Understanding "gambol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gambol."

---

gentrify (verb)

Renovate so as to make it conform to middle-class aspirations.

- Gentrify a row of old houses.
- Gentrify the old center of town.

---

genus jatropha (noun)

A mainly tropical genus of American plant belonging to the family Euphorbiaceae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus jatropha."
- He looked up "genus jatropha" because he had never seen it before.

---

genus medicago (noun)

A genus of herbs that resemble clover.

- They discussed "genus medicago" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "genus medicago" to mean a genus of herbs that resemble clover.

---

genus nerium (noun)

One species: oleander.

- He looked up "genus nerium" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "genus nerium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genus orchis (noun)

Type genus of the orchid family; hardy terrestrial orchids of the temperate the northern hemisphere.

- Understanding "genus orchis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus orchis."

---

genus rissa (noun)

A genus of Laridae.

- Understanding "genus rissa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "genus rissa" because he had never seen it before.

---

genus sterna (noun)

A genus of Sterninae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus sterna."
- Understanding "genus sterna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

germanys (noun)

A republic in central Europe; split into East Germany and West Germany after World War II and reunited in 1990.

- In class, the teacher used "germanys" to mean a republic in central europe; split into east....
- Understanding "germanys" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gilas (noun)

A river that rises in western New Mexico and flows westward through southern Arizona to become a tributary of the Colorado River.

- In class, the teacher used "gilas" to mean a river that rises in western new mexico and flows....
- They discussed "gilas" during the group presentation.

---

glassing (verb)

Become glassy or take on a glass-like appearance.

- The coach explained when to use "glassing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "glassing" until he saw an example.

---

glomerulonephritis (noun)

Nephritis marked by inflammation of the glomeruli of the kidney; characterized by decreased production of urine and by the presence of blood and protein in the urine and by edema.

- Understanding "glomerulonephritis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "glomerulonephritis" because he had never seen it before.

---

glottis (noun)

The vocal apparatus of the larynx; the true vocal folds and the space between them where the voice tone is generated.

- In class, the teacher used "glottis" to mean the vocal apparatus of the larynx; the true vocal....
- The article explained what "glottis" means with a simple example.

---

goldie's shield fern (noun)

North American fern with a blackish lustrous stipe.

- He looked up "goldie's shield fern" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "goldie's shield fern" during the group presentation.

---

goldie's wood fern (noun)

North American fern with a blackish lustrous stipe.

- He looked up "goldie's wood fern" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "goldie's wood fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

goudy (noun)

United States printer noted for designing typefaces (1865-1947).

- In class, the teacher used "goudy" to mean united states printer noted for designing typefaces....
- He looked up "goudy" because he had never seen it before.

---

granges (noun)

An outlying farm.

- They discussed "granges" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "granges" to mean an outlying farm.

---

granulomas (noun)

A tumor composed of granulation tissue resulting from injury or inflammation or infection.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "granulomas."
- Understanding "granulomas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

great duckweed (noun)

Cosmopolitan except South America and New Zealand and some oceanic islands.

- The article explained what "great duckweed" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great duckweed."

---

groupware (noun)

Software that can be used by a group of people who are working on the same information but may be distributed in space.

- He looked up "groupware" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "groupware."

---

grumblings (noun)

A loud low dull continuous noise.

- Understanding "grumblings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "grumblings" during the group presentation.

---

guillemot (noun)

Small black or brown speckled auks of northern seas.

- In class, the teacher used "guillemot" to mean small black or brown speckled auks of northern seas.
- They discussed "guillemot" during the group presentation.

---

gurnard (noun)

Bottom-dwelling coastal fishes with spiny armored heads and fingerlike pectoral fins used for crawling along the sea bottom.

- They discussed "gurnard" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gurnard" means with a simple example.

---

hairlines (noun)

The natural margin formed by hair on the head.

- They discussed "hairlines" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hairlines."

---

halle-an-der-saale (noun)

A city in the Saxony region of Germany on the Saale River; a member of the Hanseatic League during the 13th and 14th centuries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "halle-an-der-saale."
- He looked up "halle-an-der-saale" because he had never seen it before.

---

harold clayton urey (noun)

United States chemist who discovered deuterium (1893-1981).

- They discussed "harold clayton urey" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "harold clayton urey" to mean united states chemist who discovered deuterium....

---

harped (verb)

Come back to.

- She harped the Saint-Saens beautifully.
- The coach explained when to use "harped" and when to wait.

haughtily (adverb)

In a haughty manner.

- He peered haughtily down his nose.
- Using "haughtily" can make your explanation more exact.

heebie-jeebies (noun)

Extreme nervousness.

- Understanding "heebie-jeebies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heebie-jeebies" during the group presentation.

hejaz (noun)

A coastal region of the western Arabian Peninsula bordering on the Red Sea; includes both Mecca and Medina; formerly an independent kingdom until it united with Nejd to form the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

- Understanding "hejaz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hejaz" to mean a coastal region of the western arabian peninsula....

henpecked (adjective)

Harassed by persistent nagging.

- A "henpecked" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "henpecked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

henry engelhard steinway (noun)

United States piano maker (born in Germany) who founded a famous piano manufacturing firm in New York (1797-1871).

- In class, the teacher used "henry engelhard steinway" to mean united states piano maker (born in germany) who....
- The article explained what "henry engelhard steinway" means with a simple example.

herero (noun)

A Banto language spoken by the Herero in Namibia, Botswana, and Angola.

- The article explained what "herero" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "herero" during the group presentation.

heterozygosity (noun)

The state of being heterozygous; having two different alleles of the same gene.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heterozygosity."
- Understanding "heterozygosity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hews (verb)

Make or shape as with an axe.

- Can you use "hews" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "hews" until he saw an example.

hindbrain (noun)

The posterior portion of the brain including cerebellum and brainstem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hindbrain."
- He looked up "hindbrain" because he had never seen it before.

honkers (noun)

A driver who causes his car's horn to make a loud honking sound.

- In class, the teacher used "honkers" to mean a driver who causes his car's horn to make a loud....
- He looked up "honkers" because he had never seen it before.

hortensia (noun)

Very tall branching herb with showy much-doubled yellow flower heads.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hortensia."
- He looked up "hortensia" because he had never seen it before.

hypnos (noun)

(Greek mythology) the Greek god of sleep; the son of Nyx.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hypnos."
- He looked up "hypnos" because he had never seen it before.

---

hypnotics (noun)

A drug that induces sleep.

- The article explained what "hypnotics" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hypnotics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

icecaps (noun)

A mass of ice and snow that permanently covers a large area of land (e.g., the polar regions or a mountain peak).

- Understanding "icecaps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "icecaps" means with a simple example.

---

icosahedral (adjective)

Of or relating to an icosahedron.

- A "icosahedral" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "icosahedral" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

iiss (noun)

The most notorious and possibly the most important arm of Iraq's security system.

- Understanding "iiss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "iiss" to mean the most notorious and possibly the most important....

---

imminence (noun)

The state of being imminent and liable to happen soon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imminence."
- They discussed "imminence" during the group presentation.

---

immunised (adjective)

Having been rendered unsusceptible to a disease.

- A "immunised" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "immunised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

impellers (noun)

The blade of a rotor (as in the compressor of a jet engine).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "impellers."
- He looked up "impellers" because he had never seen it before.

---

inaudibly (adverb)

In an inaudible manner.

- She spoke inaudibly low.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "inaudibly" naturally.

---

indian chickweed (noun)

Annual prostrate mat-forming weed having whorled leaves and small greenish-white flowers; widespread throughout North America.

- He looked up "indian chickweed" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "indian chickweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inferior epigastric vein (noun)

Empties into the external iliac vein.

- The article explained what "inferior epigastric vein" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inferior epigastric vein."

---

ingrates (noun)

A person who shows no gratitude.

- The article explained what "ingrates" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ingrates" to mean a person who shows no gratitude.

---

inspiratory (adjective)

Pertaining to the drawing in phase of respiration.

- Would you call this situation "inspiratory"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "inspiratory" when it is pertaining to the drawing in phase of respiration.

---

insurrectionists (noun)

A person who takes part in an armed rebellion against the constituted authority (especially in the hope of improving conditions).

- He looked up "insurrectionists" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insurrectionists."

---

intercessors (noun)

A negotiator who acts as a link between parties.

- Understanding "intercessors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intercessors."

---

interlinear (adjective)

Written between lines of text.

- A "interlinear" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "interlinear" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

interweaves (verb)

Interlace by or as if by weaving.

- In everyday English, people use "interweaves" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "interweaves" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

itemised (verb)

Specify individually.

- Learners should practice how to use "itemised" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "itemised" and when to wait.

---

itemizing (verb)

Specify individually.

- The coach explained when to use "itemizing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "itemizing" until he saw an example.

---

izanami (noun)

Sister and consort of Izanami; mother of the islands and gods of Japan.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "izanami."
- He looked up "izanami" because he had never seen it before.

---

jatropha (noun)

A mainly tropical genus of American plant belonging to the family Euphorbiaceae.

- They discussed "jatropha" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "jatropha" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jerkins (noun)

A tight sleeveless and collarless jacket (often made of leather) worn by men in former times.

- Understanding "jerkins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jerkins" means with a simple example.

---

john dowland (noun)

English lutenist and composer of songs for the lute (1563-1626).

- Understanding "john dowland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "john dowland" means with a simple example.

joseph alois schumpeter (noun)

United States economist (born in Czechoslovakia) (1883-1950).

- The article explained what "joseph alois schumpeter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph alois schumpeter."

josip broz (noun)

Yugoslav statesman who led the resistance to German occupation during World War II and established a communist state after the war (1892-1980).

- In class, the teacher used "josip broz" to mean yugoslav statesman who led the resistance to german....
- The article explained what "josip broz" means with a simple example.

judgeships (noun)

The position of judge.

- He looked up "judgeships" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "judgeships."

karl gunnar myrdal (noun)

Swedish economist (1898-1987).

- Understanding "karl gunnar myrdal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "karl gunnar myrdal" to mean swedish economist (1898-1987).

kittiwakes (noun)

Small pearl-grey gull of northern regions; nests on cliffs and has a rudimentary hind toe.

- Understanding "kittiwakes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "kittiwakes" means with a simple example.

kleptomania (noun)

An irresistible impulse to steal in the absence of any economic motive.

- The article explained what "kleptomania" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "kleptomania" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kronecker (noun)

German mathematician (1823-1891).

- He looked up "kronecker" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kronecker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

kronecker delta (noun)

A function of two variables i and j that equals 1 when i=j and equals 0 otherwise.

- In class, the teacher used "kronecker delta" to mean a function of two variables i and j that equals 1....
- They discussed "kronecker delta" during the group presentation.

lairds (noun)

A landowner.

- The article explained what "lairds" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lairds" to mean a landowner.

lake nyasa (noun)

A long lake in southeastern Africa between Tanzania, Mozambique, and Malawi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake nyasa."
- He looked up "lake nyasa" because he had never seen it before.

lambast (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- She tried to use "lambast" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "lambast" in real sentences.

langur (noun)

Slender long-tailed monkey of Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "langur."
- They discussed "langur" during the group presentation.

---

lashkar-e-taiba (noun)

A brutal terrorist group active in Kashmir; fights against India with the goal of restoring Islamic rule of India.

- In class, the teacher used "lashkar-e-taiba" to mean a brutal terrorist group active in kashmir; fights....
- The article explained what "lashkar-e-taiba" means with a simple example.

---

lati (noun)

A broad flat muscle on either side of the back.

- In class, the teacher used "lati" to mean a broad flat muscle on either side of the back.
- The article explained what "lati" means with a simple example.

---

lesser duckweed (noun)

Of temperate regions except eastern Asia and Australia.

- In class, the teacher used "lesser duckweed" to mean of temperate regions except eastern asia and australia.
- Understanding "lesser duckweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lexicons (noun)

A reference book containing an alphabetical list of words with information about them.

- They discussed "lexicons" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lexicons."

---

libels (noun)

A false and malicious publication printed for the purpose of defaming a living person.

- They discussed "libels" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "libels" means with a simple example.

---

lickety cut (adverb)

Without delay.

- She tackled the job lickety-split.
- The narrator describes the scene "lickety cut" in the final chapter.

---

lickety split (adverb)

Without delay.

- She tackled the job lickety-split.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "lickety split" naturally.

---

linnaean (adjective)

Of or relating to Linnaeus or to the system of taxonomic classification that Linnaeus proposed.

- Students compared "linnaean" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "linnaean."

---

lithographed (verb)

Make by lithography.

- In everyday English, people use "lithographed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "lithographed" until he saw an example.

---

logotype (noun)

A company emblem or device.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "logotype."
- He looked up "logotype" because he had never seen it before.

---

lovage (noun)

Herb native to southern Europe; cultivated for its edible stalks and foliage and seeds.

- Understanding "lovage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "lovage" means with a simple example.

---

macaca radiata (noun)

Indian macaque with a bonnet-like tuft of hair.

- In class, the teacher used "macaca radiata" to mean indian macaque with a bonnet-like tuft of hair.
- The article explained what "macaca radiata" means with a simple example.

---

male orchis (noun)

Eurasian orchid with showy pink or purple flowers in a loose spike.

- The article explained what "male orchis" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "male orchis" during the group presentation.

---

mamma's boy (noun)

A boy excessively attached to his mother; lacking normal masculine interests.

- They discussed "mamma's boy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mamma's boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marabou stork (noun)

Large African black-and-white carrion-eating stork; its downy underwing feathers are used to trim garments.

- In class, the teacher used "marabou stork" to mean large african black-and-white carrion-eating stork;....
- They discussed "marabou stork" during the group presentation.

---

marcel lajos breuer (noun)

United States architect (born in Hungary) who was associated with the Bauhaus in the 1920's (1902-1981).

- Understanding "marcel lajos breuer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "marcel lajos breuer" because he had never seen it before.

---

medicago (noun)

A genus of herbs that resemble clover.

- The article explained what "medicago" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "medicago" during the group presentation.

---

merrymaking (noun)

A boisterous celebration; a merry festivity.

- Understanding "merrymaking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "merrymaking" to mean a boisterous celebration; a merry festivity.

---

mess of pottage (noun)

Anything of trivial value.

- Esau sold his birthright to Jacob for a mess of pottage.
- The article explained what "mess of pottage" means with a simple example.

---

metallized (verb)

Coat with metal.

- He did not know how to use "metallized" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "metallized" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

metallized dye (noun)

Acid dye in which the negative ion contains a chelated metal atom.

- They discussed "metallized dye" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "metallized dye" because he had never seen it before.

---

middlebrow (noun)

Someone who is neither a highbrow nor a lowbrow.

- The article explained what "middlebrow" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "middlebrow" during the group presentation.

---

militarists (noun)

A person who advocates war or warlike policies.

- They discussed "militarists" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "militarists" means with a simple example.

---

miniver (noun)

Trimming on ceremonial robes consisting of white or light grey fur.

- In class, the teacher used "miniver" to mean trimming on ceremonial robes consisting of white or....
- He looked up "miniver" because he had never seen it before.

---

mismatching (verb)

Match badly; match two objects or people that do not go together.

- She tried to use "mismatching" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "mismatching" until he saw an example.

---

missourian (noun)

A native or resident of Missouri.

- In class, the teacher used "missourian" to mean a native or resident of missouri.
- They discussed "missourian" during the group presentation.

---

miters (noun)

The surface of a beveled end of a piece where a miter joint is made.

- In class, the teacher used "miters" to mean the surface of a beveled end of a piece where a....
- Understanding "miters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monastics (noun)

A male religious living in a cloister and devoting himself to contemplation and prayer and work.

- They discussed "monastics" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "monastics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monthlies (noun)

A periodical that is published every month (or 12 issues per year).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monthlies."
- They discussed "monthlies" during the group presentation.

---

motorcoach (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- The article explained what "motorcoach" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "motorcoach" to mean a vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public....

---

mouse-ear chickweed (noun)

Any of various plants related to the common chickweed.

- They discussed "mouse-ear chickweed" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mouse-ear chickweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

moviegoer (noun)

Someone who goes to see movies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moviegoer."
- He looked up "moviegoer" because he had never seen it before.

---

mulches (noun)

A protective covering of rotting vegetable matter spread to reduce evaporation and soil erosion.

- The article explained what "mulches" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mulches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

munros (noun)

British writer of short stories (1870-1916).

- He looked up "munros" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "munros" during the group presentation.

---

napier's bones (noun)

A set of graduated rods formerly used to do multiplication and division by a method invented by John Napier.

- He looked up "napier's bones" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "napier's bones."

---

nauruan (adjective)

Of or relating to the island republic of Nauru or its residents.

- It is useful to describe something as "nauruan" when it is of or relating to the island republic of nauru or....
- Students compared "nauruan" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ncdc (noun)

The part of NOAA that maintains the world's largest active archive of weather data.

- In class, the teacher used "ncdc" to mean the part of noaa that maintains the world's largest....
- They discussed "ncdc" during the group presentation.

---

nembutal (noun)

A barbiturate (trade name Nembutal) used as a sedative and hypnotic and antispasmodic.

- He looked up "nembutal" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nembutal" during the group presentation.

---

nephrectomy (noun)

Surgical removal of a kidney.

- He looked up "nephrectomy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nephrectomy."

---

nerium (noun)

One species: oleander.

- Understanding "nerium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nerium."

---

nibelungen (noun)

(German mythology) a companion or follower of Siegfried.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nibelungen."
- He looked up "nibelungen" because he had never seen it before.

---

nilo-saharan (noun)

A family of East African languages spoken by Nilotic peoples from the Sahara south to Kenya and Tanzania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nilo-saharan."
- He looked up "nilo-saharan" because he had never seen it before.

---

nilo-saharan language (noun)

A family of East African languages spoken by Nilotic peoples from the Sahara south to Kenya and Tanzania.

- They discussed "nilo-saharan language" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nilo-saharan language" because he had never seen it before.

---

nitrogen trichloride (noun)

A yellow pungent volatile oil (trade name Agene) formerly used for bleaching and aging flour.

- The article explained what "nitrogen trichloride" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nitrogen trichloride" to mean a yellow pungent volatile oil (trade name agene)....

---

nonsmoker (noun)

A passenger car for passengers who want to avoid tobacco smoke.

- He looked up "nonsmoker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nonsmoker."

nonuniform (adjective)

Not homogeneous.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nonuniform."
- A "nonuniform" approach may work better in this case.

northlands (noun)

Any region lying in or toward the north.

- They discussed "northlands" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "northlands" means with a simple example.

notepaper (noun)

Writing paper intended for writing short notes or letters.

- Understanding "notepaper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "notepaper" because he had never seen it before.

oakleys (noun)

United States sharpshooter who was featured in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show (1860-1926).

- He looked up "oakleys" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oakleys."

obviated (verb)

Prevent the occurrence of; prevent from happening.

- Learners should practice how to use "obviated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "obviated" when talking about this idea.

ofo (noun)

A member of the Siouan people living in the Yazoo river valley in Mississippi.

- In class, the teacher used "ofo" to mean a member of the siouan people living in the yazoo....
- The article explained what "ofo" means with a simple example.

old codger (noun)

Used affectionately to refer to an eccentric but amusing old man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old codger."
- They discussed "old codger" during the group presentation.

oligodendrocytes (noun)

A cell of the oligodendroglia.

- He looked up "oligodendrocytes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "oligodendrocytes" during the group presentation.

omnibuses (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- The article explained what "omnibuses" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "omnibuses" to mean a vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public....

ontogenetic (adjective)

Of or relating to the origin and development of individual organisms.

- Ontogenetic development.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ontogenetic."

orchis (noun)

One of the two male reproductive glands that produce spermatozoa and secrete androgens.

- In class, the teacher used "orchis" to mean one of the two male reproductive glands that....
- They discussed "orchis" during the group presentation.

organismal (adjective)

Of or relating to or belonging to an organism (considered as a whole).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "organismal."
- A "organismal" approach may work better in this case.

---

ostracize (verb)

Avoid speaking to or dealing with.

- Ever since I spoke up, my colleagues ostracize me.
- She tried to use "ostracize" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

otic ganglion (noun)

An autonomic ganglion whose postganglionic fibers are distributed to the parotid gland.

- Understanding "otic ganglion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "otic ganglion" to mean an autonomic ganglion whose postganglionic fibers....

---

overpricing (verb)

Price excessively high.

- The coach explained when to use "overpricing" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "overpricing" in real sentences.

---

oversteps (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- Can you use "oversteps" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "oversteps" and when to wait.

---

palling (verb)

Become friends; act friendly towards.

- He did not know how to use "palling" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "palling" in real sentences.

---

palpitating (adjective)

Having a slight and rapid trembling motion.

- My palpitating heart.
- A "palpitating" approach may work better in this case.

---

paraguayans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Paraguay.

- He looked up "paraguayans" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paraguayans."

---

parol evidence rule (noun)

A rule that oral evidence cannot be used to contradict the terms of a written contract.

- The article explained what "parol evidence rule" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "parol evidence rule" to mean a rule that oral evidence cannot be used to....

---

pealed (verb)

Sound loudly and sonorously.

- Can you use "pealed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "pealed" until he saw an example.

---

pedicab (noun)

A tricycle (usually propelled by pedalling); used in the Orient for transporting passengers for hire.

- Boys who once pulled rickshaws now pedal pedicabs.
- He looked up "pedicab" because he had never seen it before.

---

peelings (noun)

Loss of bits of outer skin by peeling or shedding or coming off in scales.

- The article explained what "peelings" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "peelings" during the group presentation.

---

pennyroyal (noun)

Eurasian perennial mint have small lilac-blue flowers and ovate leaves; yields an aromatic oil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pennyroyal."
- He looked up "pennyroyal" because he had never seen it before.

---

pennyroyal oil (noun)

Oil from European pennyroyal having an odor like mint; used chiefly in soaps.

- The article explained what "pennyroyal oil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pennyroyal oil" to mean oil from european pennyroyal having an odor like....

---

pensively (adverb)

In a pensive manner.

- Pensively he stared at the painting.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "pensively" naturally.

---

persistency (noun)

Persistent determination.

- The article explained what "persistency" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "persistency" to mean persistent determination.

---

pfennig (noun)

100 pfennigs formerly equaled 1 Deutsche Mark in Germany.

- They discussed "pfennig" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pfennig" to mean 100 pfennigs formerly equaled 1 deutsche mark in....

---

pharmacopeia (noun)

(pharmacology) a book containing a compilation of pharmaceutical products with their formulas and methods of preparation.

- Postexposure prophylaxis is an integral part of the pharmacopeia in preventing severe disease after acute infections.
- He looked up "pharmacopeia" because he had never seen it before.

---

photomontage (noun)

A montage that uses photographic images.

- They discussed "photomontage" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "photomontage" because he had never seen it before.

---

pixy (noun)

(folklore) fairies that are somewhat mischievous.

- Understanding "pixy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pixy" means with a simple example.

---

plasmapheresis (noun)

Plasma is separated from whole blood and the rest is returned to the donor.

- They discussed "plasmapheresis" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "plasmapheresis" means with a simple example.

---

plunderers (noun)

Someone who takes spoils or plunder (as in war).

- In class, the teacher used "plunderers" to mean someone who takes spoils or plunder (as in war).
- He looked up "plunderers" because he had never seen it before.

---

plutocrat (noun)

Someone who exercises power by virtue of wealth.

- In class, the teacher used "plutocrat" to mean someone who exercises power by virtue of wealth.
- Understanding "plutocrat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

polyvalent (adjective)

Containing several antibodies each capable of counteracting a specific antigen.

- A polyvalent vaccine.
- Students compared "polyvalent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pomelo (noun)

Southeastern Asian tree producing large fruits resembling grapefruits.

- He looked up "pomelo" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pomelo" to mean southeastern asian tree producing large fruits....

---

pomelo tree (noun)

Southeastern Asian tree producing large fruits resembling grapefruits.

- In class, the teacher used "pomelo tree" to mean southeastern asian tree producing large fruits....
- The article explained what "pomelo tree" means with a simple example.

---

popularising (verb)

Make understandable to the general public.

- Can you use "popularising" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "popularising" until he saw an example.

---

postern (noun)

A small gate in the rear of a fort or castle.

- They discussed "postern" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "postern."

---

potato peelings (noun)

Crisp fried potato peeling.

- Understanding "potato peelings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "potato peelings" to mean crisp fried potato peeling.

---

pottage (noun)

A stew of vegetables and (sometimes) meat.

- In class, the teacher used "pottage" to mean a stew of vegetables and (sometimes) meat.
- The article explained what "pottage" means with a simple example.

---

pranced (verb)

To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.

- Can you use "pranced" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pranced" and when to wait.

---

preachings (noun)

An address of a religious nature (usually delivered during a church service).

- He looked up "preachings" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preachings."

---

preceptors (noun)

Teacher at a university or college (especially at Cambridge or Oxford).

- The article explained what "preceptors" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "preceptors" during the group presentation.

---

prefixing (verb)

Attach a prefix to.

- Learners should practice how to use "prefixing" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "prefixing" and when to wait.

---

prising (verb)

To move or force, especially in an effort to get something open; :.

- She tried to use “prising” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “prising” and when to wait.

---

problematically (adverb)

In such a way as to pose a problem.

- She spoke “problematically,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place “problematically” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

proffering (verb)

Present for acceptance or rejection.

- Learners should practice how to use “proffering” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “proffering” when talking about this idea.

---

prole (noun)

A member of the working class (not necessarily employed).

- In class, the teacher used “prole” to mean a member of the working class (not necessarily....
- The article explained what “prole” means with a simple example.

---

psychophysics (noun)

The branch of psychology concerned with quantitative relations between physical stimuli and their psychological effects.

- They discussed “psychophysics” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “psychophysics” to mean the branch of psychology concerned with....

---

pterygoid plexus (noun)

A plexus of veins draining the region of the pterygoid muscles and draining into the internal maxillary and anterior facial veins.

- Understanding “pterygoid plexus” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “pterygoid plexus” means with a simple example.

---

pung (noun)

A one-horse sleigh consisting of a box on runners.

- He looked up “pung” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “pung” to mean a one-horse sleigh consisting of a box on runners.

---

purple orchis (noun)

North American orchid having a spike of violet-purple flowers mixed with white; sepals and petals form a hood.

- In class, the teacher used “purple orchis” to mean north american orchid having a spike of....
- The article explained what “purple orchis” means with a simple example.

---

quicks (noun)

Any area of the body that is highly sensitive to pain (as the flesh underneath the skin or a fingernail or toenail).

- Understanding “quicks” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “quicks.”

---

quicky (noun)

Hurried repair.

- Understanding “quicky” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “quicky” during the group presentation.

---

quintillion (noun)

The number that is represented as a one followed by 18 zeros.

- Understanding “quintillion” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “quintillion” means with a simple example.

---

raconteurs (noun)

A person skilled in telling anecdotes.

- Understanding “raconteurs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “raconteurs” because he had never seen it before.

ranunculus occidentalis (noun)

Perennial of western North America.

- Understanding "ranunculus occidentalis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ranunculus occidentalis" during the group presentation.

rationalistic (adjective)

Of or relating to the philosophical doctrine of rationalism.

- It is useful to describe something as "rationalistic" when it is of or relating to the philosophical doctrine of....
- A "rationalistic" approach may work better in this case.

rectus lateralis (noun)

The ocular muscle whose contraction turns the eyeball outward.

- They discussed "rectus lateralis" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rectus lateralis" means with a simple example.

rededicate (verb)

Dedicate anew.

- They were asked to rededicate themselves to their country.
- She tried to use "rededicate" carefully so everyone would understand.

reorienting (verb)

Set or arrange in a new or different determinate position.

- She tried to use "reorienting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "reorienting" in real sentences.

reprocess (verb)

Use again after processing.

- The coach explained when to use "reprocess" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "reprocess" in real sentences.

reprove (verb)

Take to task.

- In everyday English, people use "reprove" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "reprove" in real sentences.

resolvable (adjective)

Capable of being settled or resolved.

- All disputed points are potentially resolvable.
- A resolvable quarrel.

reverser (adjective)

Of the transmission gear causing backward movement in a motor vehicle.

- Would you call this situation "reverser"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "reverser" because it captured the feeling precisely.

revolutionists (noun)

A radical supporter of political or social revolution.

- Understanding "revolutionists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "revolutionists" during the group presentation.

rheum (noun)

A watery discharge from the mucous membranes (especially from the eyes or nose).

- They discussed "rheum" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rheum" means with a simple example.

rhymer (noun)

A writer who composes rhymes; a maker of poor verses (usually used as terms of contempt for minor or inferior poets).

- The article explained what "rhymer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rhymer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rissa (noun)

A genus of Laridae.

- In class, the teacher used "rissa" to mean a genus of laridae.
- The article explained what "rissa" means with a simple example.

---

rotationally (adverb)

In a rotational manner.

- The required influence lines are found by subjecting the model to small displacements horizontally, vertically and rotationally.
- He answered "rotationally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

roundheads (noun)

A supporter of parliament and Oliver Cromwell during the English Civil War.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roundheads."
- They discussed "roundheads" during the group presentation.

---

rousers (noun)

Someone who rouses others from sleep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rousers."
- The article explained what "rousers" means with a simple example.

---

runts (noun)

Disparaging terms for small people.

- Understanding "runts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "runts" during the group presentation.

---

satins (noun)

A smooth fabric of silk or rayon; has a glossy face and a dull back.

- He looked up "satins" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "satins."

---

scats (verb)

Flee; take to one's heels; cut and run.

- She tried to use "scats" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "scats" until he saw an example.

---

scorches (verb)

Burn slightly and superficially so as to affect color.

- Learners should practice how to use "scorches" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "scorches" until he saw an example.

---

secularisation (noun)

The activity of changing something (art or education or society or morality etc.) so it is no longer under the control or influence of religion.

- He looked up "secularisation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secularisation."

---

semitones (noun)

The musical interval between adjacent keys on a keyboard instrument.

- They discussed "semitones" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "semitones" to mean the musical interval between adjacent keys on a....

---

senecio vulgaris (noun)

Eurasian weed with heads of small yellow flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "senecio vulgaris."

- Understanding "senecio vulgaris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

senti (noun)

100 senti equal 1 kroon in Estonia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "senti."
- The article explained what "senti" means with a simple example.

---

sericulture (noun)

The production of raw silk by raising silkworms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sericulture."
- The article explained what "sericulture" means with a simple example.

---

shacked (verb)

Move, proceed, or walk draggingly or slowly.

- In everyday English, people use "shacked" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "shacked" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

shakiness (noun)

The quality of being unstable and insecure.

- The shakiness of the present regime.
- The article explained what "shakiness" means with a simple example.

---

shorthorn (noun)

English breed of short-horned cattle.

- The article explained what "shorthorn" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shorthorn" to mean english breed of short-horned cattle.

---

sickbay (noun)

(nautical) a room for the treatment of the sick or injured (as on a ship).

- He looked up "sickbay" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sickbay" to mean (nautical) a room for the treatment of the sick or....

---

sidewinders (noun)

Air-to-air missile with infrared homing device.

- The article explained what "sidewinders" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sidewinders" during the group presentation.

---

sightly (adjective)

Very pleasing to the eye.

- Students compared "sightly" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "sightly" when it is very pleasing to the eye.

---

simper (noun)

A silly self-conscious smile.

- Understanding "simper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simper."

---

skivvies (noun)

Men's underwear consisting of cotton T-shirt and shorts.

- Understanding "skivvies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "skivvies" because he had never seen it before.

---

skywards (adverb)

Toward the sky.

- Look skywards!
- He answered "skywards," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sloganeering (noun)

Persuasion by means of empty slogans.

- In class, the teacher used "sloganeering" to mean persuasion by means of empty slogans.
- They discussed "sloganeering" during the group presentation.

---

smudgy (adjective)

Smeared with something that soils or stains; these words are often used in combination; ; - Henry Roth.

- A "smudgy" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "smudgy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

solingen (noun)

A city in west central Germany noted for cutlery.

- They discussed "solingen" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "solingen" to mean a city in west central germany noted for cutlery.

---

sorbent (noun)

A material that sorbs another substance; i.e. that has the capacity or tendency to take it up by either absorption or adsorption.

- The article explained what "sorbent" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sorbent" during the group presentation.

---

sorbent material (noun)

A material that sorbs another substance; i.e. that has the capacity or tendency to take it up by either absorption or adsorption.

- In class, the teacher used "sorbent material" to mean a material that sorbs another substance; i.e. that....
- The article explained what "sorbent material" means with a simple example.

---

sots (noun)

A chronic drinker.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sots."
- The article explained what "sots" means with a simple example.

---

spackle (noun)

Powder (containing gypsum plaster and glue) that when mixed with water forms a plastic paste used to fill cracks and holes in plaster.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spackle."
- They discussed "spackle" during the group presentation.

---

spandrels (noun)

An approximately triangular surface area between two adjacent arches and the horizontal plane above them.

- In class, the teacher used "spandrels" to mean an approximately triangular surface area between....
- He looked up "spandrels" because he had never seen it before.

---

specifiers (noun)

Someone who draws up specifications giving details (as for obtaining a patent).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "specifiers."
- They discussed "specifiers" during the group presentation.

---

splats (noun)

A slat of wood in the middle of the back of a straight chair.

- The article explained what "splats" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "splats" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spoliation (noun)

The act of stripping and taking by force.

- He looked up "spoliation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spoliation."

---

spruces (verb)

Dress and groom with particular care, as for a special occasion.

- He did not know how to use “spruces” until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use “spruces” in real sentences.

---

spurge nettle (noun)

A stinging herb of tropical America.

- Understanding “spurge nettle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “spurge nettle.”

---

squirrel’s-foot fern (noun)

Feathery fern of tropical Asia and Malaysia.

- They discussed “squirrel’s-foot fern” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “squirrel’s-foot fern” means with a simple example.

---

stalagmite (noun)

A cylinder of calcium carbonate projecting upward from the floor of a limestone cave.

- They discussed “stalagmite” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “stalagmite” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

standardising (verb)

Cause to conform to standard or norm.

- Can you use “standardising” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “standardising” when talking about this idea.

---

star-duckweed (noun)

Cosmopolitan in temperate regions except North America.

- They discussed “star-duckweed” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “star-duckweed” because he had never seen it before.

---

sterna (noun)

A genus of Sterninae.

- They discussed “sterna” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “sterna” to mean a genus of sterninae.

---

stethoscopes (noun)

A medical instrument for listening to the sounds generated inside the body.

- Understanding “stethoscopes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stethoscopes.”

---

stockmen (noun)

Farmer who breed or raises livestock.

- He looked up “stockmen” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “stockmen.”

---

subtropics (noun)

Regions adjacent to the tropics.

- He looked up “subtropics” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “subtropics” to mean regions adjacent to the tropics.

---

suggestibility (noun)

Susceptibility or responsiveness to suggestion.

- He looked up “suggestibility” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “suggestibility.”

---

sundried (adjective)

Dried naturally by the sun.

- Students compared “sundried” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “sundried” when it is dried naturally by the sun.

superficial epigastric vein (noun)

Empties into the great saphenous vein.

- He looked up "superficial epigastric vein" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "superficial epigastric vein."

superior epigastric veins (noun)

Veins that accompany the superior epigastric artery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "superior epigastric veins."
- They discussed "superior epigastric veins" during the group presentation.

supernatants (noun)

The clear liquid that lies above a sediment or precipitate.

- In class, the teacher used "supernatants" to mean the clear liquid that lies above a sediment or....
- Understanding "supernatants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sweetmeats (noun)

A sweetened delicacy (as a preserve or pastry).

- He looked up "sweetmeats" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweetmeats."

tacticians (noun)

A person who is skilled at planning tactics.

- The article explained what "tacticians" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tacticians" to mean a person who is skilled at planning tactics.

take time by the forelock (verb)

Act quickly and decisively; not let slip an opportunity.

- In everyday English, people use "take time by the forelock" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "take time by the forelock" carefully so everyone would understand.

tampers (verb)

Intrude in other people's affairs or business; interfere unwantedly.

- She tried to use "tampers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "tampers" and when to wait.

tandoor (noun)

A clay oven used in northern India and Pakistan.

- The article explained what "tandoor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tandoor" to mean a clay oven used in northern india and pakistan.

thomases (noun)

The Apostle who would not believe the resurrection of Jesus until he saw Jesus with his own eyes.

- He looked up "thomases" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomases."

threadlike (adjective)

Thin in diameter; resembling a thread.

- The speaker chose "threadlike" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "threadlike"? Explain why.

tingled (verb)

Cause a stinging or tingling sensation.

- He did not know how to use "tingled" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "tingled" in real sentences.

tranquilized (verb)

Cause to be calm or quiet as by administering a sedative to.

- Learners should practice how to use "tranquilized" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "tranquilized" until he saw an example.

---

trendsetting (adjective)

Initiating or popularizing a trend.

- A "trendsetting" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "trendsetting"? Explain why.

---

trichloride (noun)

Any compound containing three chlorine atoms in each molecule.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trichloride."
- The article explained what "trichloride" means with a simple example.

---

true glottis (noun)

The space between the two true vocal folds.

- In class, the teacher used "true glottis" to mean the space between the two true vocal folds.
- The article explained what "true glottis" means with a simple example.

---

tub gurnard (noun)

A kind of gurnard.

- Understanding "tub gurnard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tub gurnard" means with a simple example.

---

tularemia (noun)

A highly infectious disease of rodents (especially rabbits and squirrels) and sometimes transmitted to humans by ticks or flies or by handling infected animals.

- He looked up "tularemia" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tularemia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twilights (noun)

A condition of decline following successes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twilights."
- Understanding "twilights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

uncured (adjective)

Not seasoned.

- Uncured pelts.
- Would you call this situation "uncured"? Explain why.

---

undershirts (noun)

A collarless men's undergarment for the upper part of the body.

- They discussed "undershirts" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "undershirts" because he had never seen it before.

---

uneventfully (adverb)

In an uneventful manner.

- The space shuttle landed uneventfully.
- Using "uneventfully" can make your explanation more exact.

---

unexploited (adjective)

Undeveloped or unused.

- Vast unexploited (or undeveloped) natural resources.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unexploited."

---

unfenced (adjective)

Not enclosed by a fence.

- It is useful to describe something as "unfenced" when it is not enclosed by a fence.

- Would you call this situation "unfenced"? Explain why.

---

ungoverned (adjective)

Not restrained or controlled.

- Ungoverned rage.
- Ungoverned youth.

---

unlatched (adjective)

Not firmly fastened or secured.

- Went through the unlatched gate into the street.
- Students compared "unlatched" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unsettles (verb)

Disturb the composure of.

- In everyday English, people use "unsettles" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "unsettles" in real sentences.

---

unstained (adjective)

(of reputation) free from blemishes.

- A "unstained" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "unstained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

untypical (adjective)

Not representative of a group, class, or type.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "untypical."
- Students compared "untypical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

updrafts (noun)

A strong upward air current.

- The article explained what "updrafts" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "updrafts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

valproic acid (noun)

Anticonvulsant (trade name Depokene) used to prevent some kinds of seizures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "valproic acid."
- The article explained what "valproic acid" means with a simple example.

---

vamping (verb)

Provide (a shoe) with a new vamp.

- The coach explained when to use "vamping" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "vamping" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

varices (noun)

Abnormally enlarged or twisted blood vessel or lymphatic vessel.

- They discussed "varices" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "varices."

---

ventolin (noun)

A bronchodilator (trade names Ventolin or Proventil) used for asthma and emphysema and other lung conditions; available in oral or inhalant forms; side effects are tachycardia and shakiness.

- The article explained what "ventolin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ventolin" to mean a bronchodilator (trade names ventolin or....

---

verbalizing (verb)

Articulate; either verbally or with a cry, shout, or noise.

- He did not know how to use "verbalizing" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "verbalizing" and when to wait.

---

vervain (noun)

Any of numerous tropical or subtropical American plants of the genus Verbena grown for their showy spikes of variously colored flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vervain."
- He looked up "vervain" because he had never seen it before.

---

vervain family (noun)

Family of New World tropical and subtropical herbs and shrubs and trees.

- The article explained what "vervain family" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vervain family."

---

vervain sage (noun)

Eurasian sage with blue flowers and foliage like verbena; naturalized in United States.

- They discussed "vervain sage" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "vervain sage" because he had never seen it before.

---

vestibules (noun)

A large entrance or reception room or area.

- Understanding "vestibules" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vestibules" because he had never seen it before.

---

vicomte ferdinand marie de lesseps (noun)

French diplomat who supervised the construction of the Suez Canal (1805-1894).

- Understanding "vicomte ferdinand marie de lesseps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vicomte ferdinand marie de lesseps" to mean french diplomat who supervised the construction of....

---

volute (noun)

A structure consisting of something wound in a continuous series of loops.

- They discussed "volute" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "volute" because he had never seen it before.

---

volute spring (noun)

A spring in the shape of a coil.

- In class, the teacher used "volute spring" to mean a spring in the shape of a coil.
- He looked up "volute spring" because he had never seen it before.

---

vulgarities (noun)

The quality of lacking taste and refinement.

- They discussed "vulgarities" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vulgarities."

---

vulpes vulpes (noun)

The common Old World fox; having reddish-brown fur; commonly considered a single circumpolar species.

- In class, the teacher used "vulpes vulpes" to mean the common old world fox; having reddish-brown fur;....
- The article explained what "vulpes vulpes" means with a simple example.

---

waggling (verb)

Move unsteadily or with a weaving or rolling motion.

- She tried to use "waggling" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "waggling" when talking about this idea.

---

wassily kandinsky (noun)

Russian painter who was a pioneer of abstract art (1866-1944).

- Understanding "wassily kandinsky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wassily kandinsky" because he had never seen it before.

---

water chickweed (noun)

Small Indian lettuce of northern regions.

- Understanding "water chickweed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "water chickweed" because he had never seen it before.

---

welkin (noun)

The apparent surface of the imaginary sphere on which celestial bodies appear to be projected.

- Understanding "welkin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "welkin" to mean the apparent surface of the imaginary sphere on....

---

whelming (verb)

Overcome, as with emotions or perceptual stimuli.

- Can you use "whelming" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "whelming" until he saw an example.

---

wigged (adjective)

Wearing a wig.

- The judges all wigged and robed.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wigged."

---

will keith kellog (noun)

United States food manufacturer who (with his brother) developed a breakfast cereal of crisp flakes of rolled and toasted wheat and corn; he established a company to manufacture the cereal (1860-1951).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "will keith kellog."
- He looked up "will keith kellog" because he had never seen it before.

---

winkles (verb)

Emit or reflect light in a flickering manner.

- In everyday English, people use "winkles" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "winkles" until he saw an example.

---

winter aconite (noun)

Small Old World perennial herb grown for its bright yellow flowers which appear in early spring often before snow is gone.

- Understanding "winter aconite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winter aconite."

---

wisecrack (verb)

Make a comment, usually ironic.

- She tried to use "wisecrack" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "wisecrack" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

xts (noun)

The presence of an unwanted signal via an accidental coupling.

- The article explained what "xts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "xts" to mean the presence of an unwanted signal via an....

---

yangs (noun)

The bright positive masculine principle in Chinese dualistic cosmology.

- In class, the teacher used "yangs" to mean the bright positive masculine principle in chinese....
- The article explained what "yangs" means with a simple example.

---

yellow gurnard (noun)

A kind of gurnard.

- The article explained what "yellow gurnard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "yellow gurnard" during the group presentation.

---

ytterbium (noun)

A soft silvery metallic element; a rare earth of the lanthanide series; it occurs in gadolinite and monazite and xenotime.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ytterbium."
- The article explained what "ytterbium" means with a simple example.

abate (verb)

Become less in amount or intensity.

- The storm abated.
- He did not know how to use "abate" until he saw an example.

abominable snowman (noun)

A large hairy humanoid creature said to live in the Himalayas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abominable snowman."
- The article explained what "abominable snowman" means with a simple example.

accesses (noun)

A way of entering or leaving.

- Understanding "accesses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "accesses" during the group presentation.

acoustic gramophone (noun)

An antique record player; the sound of the vibrating needle is amplified acoustically.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acoustic gramophone."
- He looked up "acoustic gramophone" because he had never seen it before.

adenosine (noun)

(biochemistry) a nucleoside that is a structural component of nucleic acids; it is present in all living cells in a combined form as a constituent of DNA and RNA and ADP and ATP and AMP.

- Understanding "adenosine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "adenosine" to mean (biochemistry) a nucleoside that is a structural....

adios (noun)

A farewell remark.

- In class, the teacher used "adios" to mean a farewell remark.
- They discussed "adios" during the group presentation.

adjuster (noun)

One who investigates insurance claims or claims for damages and recommends an effective settlement.

- Understanding "adjuster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adjuster."

adjutant stork (noun)

Large Indian stork with a military gait.

- Understanding "adjutant stork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "adjutant stork" because he had never seen it before.

affaires (noun)

A usually secretive or illicit sexual relationship.

- They discussed "affaires" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "affaires" to mean a usually secretive or illicit sexual relationship.

aftertaste (noun)

An afterimage of a taste.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aftertaste."
- He looked up "aftertaste" because he had never seen it before.

albino luciano (noun)

The first Pope to assume a double name; he reigned for only 34 days (1912-1978).

- He looked up "albino luciano" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "albino luciano."

alexander selkirk (noun)

Scottish sailor who was put ashore on a deserted island off the coast of Chile for five years (providing the basis for Daniel Defoe's novel about Robinson Crusoe) (1676-1721).

- The article explained what "alexander selkirk" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alexander selkirk."

---

alleviated (adjective)

(of pain or sorrow) made easier to bear.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "alleviated."
- Would you call this situation "alleviated"? Explain why.

---

ambiance (noun)

A particular environment or surrounding influence.

- In class, the teacher used "ambiance" to mean a particular environment or surrounding influence.
- The article explained what "ambiance" means with a simple example.

---

amphibian genus (noun)

Any genus of amphibians.

- The article explained what "amphibian genus" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "amphibian genus" during the group presentation.

---

analgesic (noun)

A medicine used to relieve pain.

- They discussed "analgesic" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "analgesic" means with a simple example.

---

anti-semite (noun)

Someone who hates and would persecute Jews.

- He looked up "anti-semite" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anti-semite."

---

approximated (verb)

Judge tentatively or form an estimate of (quantities or time).

- The coach explained when to use "approximated" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "approximated" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ascends (verb)

Go back in order of genealogical succession.

- Jupiter ascends.
- He did not know how to use "ascends" until he saw an example.

---

aspirants (noun)

An ambitious and aspiring young person.

- The article explained what "aspirants" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aspirants" to mean an ambitious and aspiring young person.

---

atlantic sea bream (noun)

Sea bream of warm Atlantic waters.

- He looked up "atlantic sea bream" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "atlantic sea bream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

auditory modality (noun)

The ability to hear; the auditory faculty.

- He looked up "auditory modality" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "auditory modality."

---

authentically (adverb)

Genuinely; with authority.

- It is authentically British.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "authentically" naturally.

---

automaton (noun)

Someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or apathetic way.

- Only an automaton wouldn't have noticed.
- In class, the teacher used "automaton" to mean someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or....

---

avalanches (noun)

A sudden appearance of an overwhelming number of things.

- Understanding "avalanches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "avalanches."

---

baboons (noun)

Large terrestrial monkeys having doglike muzzles.

- Understanding "baboons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "baboons" to mean large terrestrial monkeys having doglike muzzles.

---

bade (noun)

A Chadic language spoken in northern Nigeria.

- In class, the teacher used "bade" to mean a chadic language spoken in northern nigeria.
- The article explained what "bade" means with a simple example.

---

banded rattlesnake (noun)

Widely distributed in rugged ground of eastern United States.

- Understanding "banded rattlesnake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "banded rattlesnake" to mean widely distributed in rugged ground of eastern....

---

baptize (verb)

Administer baptism to.

- The parents had the child baptized.
- Can you use "baptize" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

barium dioxide (noun)

A white toxic powder obtained by heating barium oxide in air.

- He looked up "barium dioxide" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "barium dioxide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

baron jean baptiste joseph fourier (noun)

French mathematician who developed Fourier analysis and studied the conduction of heat (1768-1830).

- The article explained what "baron jean baptiste joseph fourier" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "baron jean baptiste joseph fourier" during the group presentation.

---

bathrobe (noun)

A loose-fitting robe of towelling; worn after a bath or swim.

- They discussed "bathrobe" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bathrobe."

---

belly whopper (noun)

A dive in which the abdomen bears the main force of impact with the water.

- The article explained what "belly whopper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "belly whopper" to mean a dive in which the abdomen bears the main force of....

---

berliner (noun)

An inhabitant of Berlin.

- They discussed "berliner" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "berliner" because he had never seen it before.

---

billiard parlour (noun)

A room in which billiards is played.

- Understanding "billiard parlour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "billiard parlour" to mean a room in which billiards is played.

---

blackboard eraser (noun)

An eraser that removes chalk marks from blackboard.

- They discussed "blackboard eraser" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "blackboard eraser" to mean an eraser that removes chalk marks from blackboard.

---

blocs (noun)

A group of countries in special alliance.

- The article explained what "blocs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blocs" to mean a group of countries in special alliance.

---

bloodless revolution (noun)

The revolution against James II; there was little armed resistance to William and Mary in England although battles were fought in Scotland and Ireland (1688-1689).

- He looked up "bloodless revolution" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bloodless revolution."

---

bluish-lilac (adjective)

Of lavender tinged with blue.

- The speaker chose "bluish-lilac" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "bluish-lilac" when it is of lavender tinged with blue.

---

bolo (noun)

A cord fastened around the neck with an ornamental clasp and worn as a necktie.

- Understanding "bolo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bolo" means with a simple example.

---

bookie (noun)

A gambler who accepts and pays off bets (especially on horse races).

- The article explained what "bookie" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bookie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bookmakers (noun)

A maker of books; someone who edits or publishes or binds books.

- Understanding "bookmakers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bookmakers" to mean a maker of books; someone who edits or publishes or....

---

bothersome (adjective)

Causing irritation or annoyance.

- Aircraft noise is particularly bothersome near the airport.
- It is useful to describe something as "bothersome" when it is causing irritation or annoyance.

---

brained (verb)

Kill by smashing someone's skull.

- He did not know how to use "brained" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "brained" when talking about this idea.

---

bundling (noun)

The act of shoving hastily.

- She complained about bundling the children off to school.
- They discussed "bundling" during the group presentation.

---

busby (noun)

Tall hat; worn by some British soldiers on ceremonial occasions.

- The article explained what "busby" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "busby" to mean tall hat; worn by some british soldiers on....

---

caching (verb)

Save up as for future use.

- In everyday English, people use "caching" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "caching" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

calamities (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- Understanding "calamities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "calamities" during the group presentation.

---

campgrounds (noun)

A site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

- They discussed "campgrounds" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "campgrounds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canfield (noun)

A form of solitaire that involves gambling.

- In class, the teacher used "canfield" to mean a form of solitaire that involves gambling.
- He looked up "canfield" because he had never seen it before.

---

cardiac arrhythmia (noun)

An abnormal rate of muscle contractions in the heart.

- In class, the teacher used "cardiac arrhythmia" to mean an abnormal rate of muscle contractions in the heart.
- The article explained what "cardiac arrhythmia" means with a simple example.

---

cardinal richelieu (noun)

French prelate and statesman; principal minister to Louis XIII (1585-1642).

- He looked up "cardinal richelieu" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cardinal richelieu" during the group presentation.

---

carnivore (noun)

A terrestrial or aquatic flesh-eating mammal.

- Terrestrial carnivores have four or five clawed digits on each limb.
- Tyrannosaurus Rex was a large carnivore.

---

carrion crow (noun)

American vulture smaller than the turkey buzzard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carrion crow."
- He looked up "carrion crow" because he had never seen it before.

---

casement (noun)

A window sash that is hinged (usually on one side).

- Understanding "casement" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "casement" means with a simple example.

---

casement window (noun)

A window with one or more casements.

- Understanding "casement window" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "casement window" because he had never seen it before.

---

cassava starch (noun)

A starch made by leaching and drying the root of the cassava plant; the source of tapioca; a staple food in the tropics.

- They discussed "cassava starch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cassava starch" means with a simple example.

catalans (noun)

The Romance language spoken in Catalonia in eastern Spain (related to Spanish and Occitan).

- They discussed "catalans" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catalans."

cataloging (verb)

Make an itemized list or catalog of; classify.

- He did not know how to use "cataloging" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "cataloging" in a sentence that fits this situation?

catnip (noun)

Hairy aromatic perennial herb having whorls of small white purple-spotted flowers in a terminal spike; used in the past as a domestic remedy; strongly attractive to cats.

- The article explained what "catnip" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "catnip" to mean hairy aromatic perennial herb having whorls of....

caudal anesthesia (noun)

Regional anesthesia resulting from injection of an anesthetic into the caudal end of the spinal canal; now largely replaced by epidural anesthesia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caudal anesthesia."
- Understanding "caudal anesthesia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

causative (adjective)

Producing an effect.

- Poverty as a causative factor in crime.
- A "causative" approach may work better in this case.

cesspool (noun)

A covered cistern; waste water and sewage flow into it.

- Understanding "cesspool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cesspool" during the group presentation.

chalky (adjective)

Of something having the color of chalk.

- She turned chalky white.
- It is useful to describe something as "chalky" when it is of something having the color of chalk.

charge d'affaires (noun)

The official temporarily in charge of a diplomatic mission in the absence of the ambassador.

- Understanding "charge d'affaires" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "charge d'affaires" during the group presentation.

charles augustus lindbergh (noun)

United States aviator who in 1927 made the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean (1902-1974).

- Understanding "charles augustus lindbergh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "charles augustus lindbergh" during the group presentation.

chipmunks (noun)

A burrowing ground squirrel of western America and Asia; has cheek pouches and a light and dark stripe running down the body.

- In class, the teacher used "chipmunks" to mean a burrowing ground squirrel of western america and....
- They discussed "chipmunks" during the group presentation.

churned (verb)

Stir (cream) vigorously in order to make butter.

- Can you use "churned" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "churned" and when to wait.

churned-up (adjective)

Moving with or producing or produced by vigorous agitation.

- A car stuck in the churned-up mud.
- A "churned-up" approach may work better in this case.

---

claims adjuster (noun)

One who investigates insurance claims or claims for damages and recommends an effective settlement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "claims adjuster."
- Understanding "claims adjuster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clara josephine schumann (noun)

German pianist and composer of piano music; renowned for her interpretation of music, especially the music of her husband Robert Schumann (1819-1896).

- They discussed "clara josephine schumann" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "clara josephine schumann" means with a simple example.

---

clio (noun)

(Greek mythology) the Muse of history.

- The article explained what "clio" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "clio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coal scuttle (noun)

Container for coal; shaped to permit pouring the coal onto the fire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coal scuttle."
- They discussed "coal scuttle" during the group presentation.

---

cognitive neuroscientist (noun)

A cognitive scientist who studies the neurophysiological foundations of mental phenomena.

- The article explained what "cognitive neuroscientist" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cognitive neuroscientist" during the group presentation.

---

cold gangrene (noun)

(pathology) gangrene that develops in the presence of arterial obstruction and is characterized by dryness of the dead tissue and a dark brown color.

- They discussed "cold gangrene" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cold gangrene."

---

commissar (noun)

An official of the Communist Party who was assigned to teach party principles to a military unit.

- Understanding "commissar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "commissar" because he had never seen it before.

---

common grape hyacinth (noun)

Prolific species having particularly beautiful dark blue flowers.

- Understanding "common grape hyacinth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common grape hyacinth."

---

conformed (verb)

Adapt or conform oneself to new or different conditions.

- In everyday English, people use "conformed" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "conformed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

congestive (adjective)

Relating to or affected by an abnormal collection of blood or other fluid.

- Congestive heart disease.
- A "congestive" approach may work better in this case.

---

consulates (noun)

Diplomatic building that serves as the residence or workplace of a consul.

- The article explained what "consulates" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "consulates" to mean diplomatic building that serves as the residence or....

---

corrupts (verb)

Place under suspicion or cast doubt upon.

- The coach explained when to use "corrupts" and when to wait.
- Can you use "corrupts" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cupola (noun)

A vertical cylindrical furnace for melting iron for casting.

- Understanding "cupola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cupola" because he had never seen it before.

---

cutaneous anthrax (noun)

A form of anthrax infection that begins as papule that becomes a vesicle and breaks with a discharge of toxins; symptoms of septicemia are severe with vomiting and high fever and profuse sweating; the infection is often fatal.

- The article explained what "cutaneous anthrax" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cutaneous anthrax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dabble (verb)

Bob forward and under so as to feed off the bottom of a body of water.

- She dabbles in astronomy.
- She tried to use "dabble" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dame agatha mary clarissa christie (noun)

Prolific English writer of detective stories (1890-1976).

- They discussed "dame agatha mary clarissa christie" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dame agatha mary clarissa christie."

---

darting (verb)

Move along rapidly and lightly; skim or dart.

- Can you use "darting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "darting" and when to wait.

---

dass (noun)

Any of several small ungulate mammals of Africa and Asia with rodent-like incisors and feet with hooflike toes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dass."
- The article explained what "dass" means with a simple example.

---

de spinoza (noun)

Dutch philosopher who espoused a pantheistic system (1632-1677).

- The article explained what "de spinoza" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "de spinoza" during the group presentation.

---

debunk (verb)

Expose while ridiculing; especially of pretentious or false claims and ideas.

- The physicist debunked the psychic's claims.
- In everyday English, people use "debunk" when talking about this idea.

---

decays (noun)

An inferior state resulting from the process of decaying.

- The article explained what "decays" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "decays" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decking (verb)

Knock down with force.

- He did not know how to use "decking" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "decking" when talking about this idea.

decrypt (verb)

Convert code into ordinary language.

- Can you use "decrypt" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "decrypt" and when to wait.

defectors (noun)

A person who abandons their duty (as on a military post).

- They discussed "defectors" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "defectors."

degenerates (noun)

A person whose behavior deviates from what is acceptable especially in sexual behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "degenerates."
- They discussed "degenerates" during the group presentation.

depositions (noun)

The natural process of laying down a deposit of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depositions."
- Understanding "depositions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

Psychology & the Mind

catharsis (noun)

The process of releasing strong or repressed emotions, often through art, drama, or talking, which brings a feeling of relief.

- Writing the memoir was a catharsis that helped her come to terms with her grief.
- Ancient Greek tragedy was believed to provide catharsis for its audience.

equanimity (noun)

Calmness and composure, especially in a difficult situation.

- She accepted the disappointing news with remarkable equanimity.
- Years of meditation taught him to face crises with equanimity.

volition (noun)

The power of using one's own will to make choices or decisions; a conscious choice.

- She left the company of her own volition; nobody forced her out.
- Philosophers still debate whether human volition is truly free.

sublimation (noun)

In psychology, the channeling of unacceptable impulses into socially acceptable activities.

- Freud described artistic creation as a form of sublimation.
- Sports can serve as sublimation of aggressive energy.

dissociation (noun)

A mental process in which a person disconnects from thoughts, feelings, memories, or sense of identity.

- Severe trauma can lead to dissociation as a coping mechanism.
- During the panic attack she experienced brief dissociation.

neuroplasticity (noun)

The brain's ability to reorganize itself by forming new neural connections throughout life.

- Neuroplasticity allows stroke patients to regain lost functions through therapy.
- Learning a new language exploits neuroplasticity.

anhedonia (noun)

The inability to feel pleasure from activities that are normally enjoyable.

- Anhedonia is a common symptom of clinical depression.
- He described his anhedonia as feeling emotionally flat.

rumination (noun)

The habit of repeatedly thinking about the same negative thoughts or problems.

- Rumination kept her awake long into the night.
- Therapy helped him interrupt patterns of rumination.

---

affect (noun)

In psychology, an observable expression of emotion or mood.

- The patient's affect was flat and unresponsive.
- Clinicians note affect carefully during mental-status exams.

---

schema (noun)

A mental framework that helps organize and interpret information.

- Childhood experiences shape lasting cognitive schemas.
- The new evidence did not fit her existing schema of the world.

---

abreaction (noun)

The release of emotional tension by recalling and reliving a repressed traumatic experience.

- The therapy session produced a powerful abreaction.
- Some treatments aim for abreaction as a path to healing.

---

metacognition (noun)

Awareness and understanding of one's own thought processes; thinking about thinking.

- Teaching metacognition helps students become better learners.
- Metacognition includes knowing when you do not understand something.

---

despondent (adjective)

Without or almost without hope.

- Despondent about his failure.
- Would you call this situation "despondent"? Explain why.

---

despot (noun)

A cruel and oppressive dictator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "despot."
- He looked up "despot" because he had never seen it before.

---

detachments (noun)

The state of being isolated or detached.

- He looked up "detachments" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detachments."

---

dialectical (adjective)

Of or relating to or employing dialectic.

- The dialectical method.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dialectical."

---

digestible (adjective)

Capable of being converted into assimilable condition in the alimentary canal.

- Would you call this situation "digestible"? Explain why.
- A "digestible" approach may work better in this case.

---

disassembled (verb)

Take apart into its constituent pieces.

- The coach explained when to use "disassembled" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "disassembled" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

disgusts (verb)

Cause aversion in; offend the moral sense of.

- This spoilt food disgusts me.
- The coach explained when to use "disgusts" and when to wait.

---

dishonorable (adjective)

Lacking honor or integrity; deserving dishonor.

- Dishonorable in thought and deed.
- Would you call this situation "dishonorable"? Explain why.

---

disraeli (noun)

British statesman who as Prime Minister bought controlling interest in the Suez Canal and made Queen Victoria the empress of India (1804-1881).

- They discussed "disraeli" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "disraeli" means with a simple example.

---

dogging (adjective)

Relentless and indefatigable in pursuit or as if in pursuit.

- Impossible to escape the dogging fears.
- The speaker chose "dogging" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dopey (adjective)

Having or revealing stupidity.

- A dopey answer.
- A dopey kid.

---

dry gangrene (noun)

(pathology) gangrene that develops in the presence of arterial obstruction and is characterized by dryness of the dead tissue and a dark brown color.

- In class, the teacher used "dry gangrene" to mean (pathology) gangrene that develops in the presence....
- The article explained what "dry gangrene" means with a simple example.

---

dubrovnik (noun)

A port city in southwestern Croatia on the Adriatic; a popular tourist center.

- Understanding "dubrovnik" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dubrovnik" to mean a port city in southwestern croatia on the....

---

ducky (noun)

A special loved one.

- He looked up "ducky" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ducky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dusky-footed wood rat (noun)

A wood rat with dusky feet.

- Understanding "dusky-footed wood rat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dusky-footed wood rat" means with a simple example.

---

easel (noun)

An upright tripod for displaying something (usually an artist's canvas).

- In class, the teacher used "easel" to mean an upright tripod for displaying something (usually....
- He looked up "easel" because he had never seen it before.

---

eastwards (adverb)

Toward the east.

- She spoke "eastwards," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "eastwards" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

ecs (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- The article explained what "ecs" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ecs" during the group presentation.

eldorado (noun)

An imaginary place of great wealth and opportunity; sought in South America by 16th-century explorers.

- Understanding "eldorado" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "eldorado" during the group presentation.

eliminations (noun)

The bodily process of discharging waste matter.

- Understanding "eliminations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "eliminations" during the group presentation.

elizabeth haldane (noun)

Scottish writer and sister of Richard Haldane and John Haldane (1862-1937).

- The article explained what "elizabeth haldane" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "elizabeth haldane" to mean scottish writer and sister of richard haldane and....

ellipse (noun)

A closed plane curve resulting from the intersection of a circular cone and a plane cutting completely through it.

- The sums of the distances from the foci to any point on an ellipse is constant.
- In class, the teacher used "ellipse" to mean a closed plane curve resulting from the....

elysium (noun)

A place or condition of ideal happiness.

- Understanding "elysium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elysium."

enormity (noun)

Vastness of size or extent.

- In careful usage the noun enormity is not used to express the idea of great size.
- Universities recognized the enormity of their task.

eons (noun)

An immeasurably long period of time.

- Oh, that happened eons ago.
- They discussed "eons" during the group presentation.

epistle of paul the apostle to titus (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's epistle to Titus; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- In class, the teacher used "epistle of paul the apostle to titus" to mean a new testament book containing saint paul's....
- The article explained what "epistle of paul the apostle to titus" means with a simple example.

espouse (verb)

Choose and follow; as of theories, ideas, policies, strategies or plans.

- The candidate espouses Republican ideals.
- The coach explained when to use "espouse" and when to wait.

exemplar (noun)

Something to be imitated.

- An exemplar of success.
- He looked up "exemplar" because he had never seen it before.

extramarital (adjective)

Characterized by adultery.

- Extramarital affairs.
- Students compared "extramarital" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

extramarital sex (noun)

Sexual intercourse between individuals who are not married to one another.

- In class, the teacher used "extramarital sex" to mean sexual intercourse between individuals who are not....
- He looked up "extramarital sex" because he had never seen it before.

---

fairy armadillo (noun)

Very small Argentine armadillo with pale silky hair and pink plates on head and neck.

- Understanding "fairy armadillo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fairy armadillo" to mean very small argentine armadillo with pale silky hair....

---

fandango (noun)

A provocative Spanish courtship dance in triple time; performed by a man and a woman playing castanets.

- Understanding "fandango" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fandango" to mean a provocative spanish courtship dance in triple....

---

farc (noun)

A powerful and wealthy terrorist organization formed in 1957 as the guerilla arm of the Colombian communist party; opposed to the United States; has strong ties to drug dealers.

- He looked up "farc" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "farc" to mean a powerful and wealthy terrorist organization....

---

farina (noun)

Fine meal made from cereal grain especially wheat; often used as a cooked cereal or in puddings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farina."
- He looked up "farina" because he had never seen it before.

---

fearlessly (adverb)

Without fear.

- Fearlessly, he led the troops into combat.
- She spoke "fearlessly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

fete (noun)

An organized series of acts and performances (usually in one place).

- In class, the teacher used "fete" to mean an organized series of acts and performances....
- Understanding "fete" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fete day (noun)

A day designated for feasting.

- Understanding "fete day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fete day" to mean a day designated for feasting.

---

feynman (noun)

United States physicist who contributed to the theory of the interaction of photons and electrons (1918-1988).

- In class, the teacher used "feynman" to mean united states physicist who contributed to the....
- Understanding "feynman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fibonacci sequence (noun)

A sequence of numbers in which each number equals the sum of the two preceding numbers.

- The article explained what "fibonacci sequence" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fibonacci sequence" during the group presentation.

---

firewalls (noun)

(colloquial) the application of maximum thrust.

- The article explained what "firewalls" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "firewalls" to mean (colloquial) the application of maximum thrust.

---

fisherman's bend (noun)

A knot for tying a line to a spar or ring.

- He looked up "fisherman's bend" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "fisherman's bend" to mean a knot for tying a line to a spar or ring.

---

fmri (noun)

A form of magnetic resonance imaging of the brain that registers blood flow to functioning areas of the brain.

- He looked up "fmri" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fmri."

---

formalism (noun)

The practice of scrupulous adherence to prescribed or external forms.

- He looked up "formalism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "formalism."

---

fortuitous (adjective)

Occurring by happy chance.

- Profits were enhanced by a fortuitous drop in the cost of raw materials.
- Fortuitous encounters–strange accidents of fortune.

---

francis turner palgrave (noun)

English poet (1824-1897).

- In class, the teacher used "francis turner palgrave" to mean english poet (1824-1897).
- They discussed "francis turner palgrave" during the group presentation.

---

freestanding (adjective)

Standing apart; not attached to or supported by anything.

- A freestanding bell tower.
- Would you call this situation "freestanding"? Explain why.

---

frenetic (adjective)

Excessively agitated; distraught with fear or other violent emotion.

- Frenetic screams followed the accident.
- Would you call this situation "frenetic"? Explain why.

---

fridges (noun)

A refrigerator in which the coolant is pumped around by an electric motor.

- Understanding "fridges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fridges" to mean a refrigerator in which the coolant is pumped....

---

frolic (noun)

Gay or light-hearted recreational activity for diversion or amusement.

- Their frolic in the surf threatened to become ugly.
- The article explained what "frolic" means with a simple example.

---

funeral pyre (noun)

Wood heaped for burning a dead body as a funeral rite.

- They discussed "funeral pyre" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "funeral pyre."

---

funneled (verb)

Move or pour through a funnel.

- In everyday English, people use "funneled" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "funneled" in real sentences.

---

fussing (verb)

Worry unnecessarily or excessively.

- He did not know how to use "fussing" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "fussing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

gaff (noun)

An iron hook with a handle; used for landing large fish.

- Understanding "gaff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gaff" because he had never seen it before.

---

galleys (noun)

The kitchen area for food preparation on an airliner.

- The article explained what "galleys" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "galleys" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ganesha (noun)

Hindu god of wisdom or prophecy; the god who removes obstacles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ganesha."
- The article explained what "ganesha" means with a simple example.

---

gangrene (noun)

The localized death of living cells (as from infection or the interruption of blood supply).

- They discussed "gangrene" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gangrene."

---

gas gangrene (noun)

(pathology) a deadly form of gangrene usually caused by clostridium bacteria that produce toxins that cause tissue death; can be used as a bioweapon.

- He looked up "gas gangrene" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gas gangrene" during the group presentation.

---

gatekeepers (noun)

Someone who controls access to something.

- There are too many gatekeepers between the field officers and the chief.
- He looked up "gatekeepers" because he had never seen it before.

---

genus poa (noun)

Chiefly perennial grasses of cool temperate regions.

- He looked up "genus poa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus poa."

---

gilgamesh (noun)

A legendary Sumerian king who was the hero of an epic collection of mythic stories.

- The article explained what "gilgamesh" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gilgamesh" during the group presentation.

---

giuseppe garibaldi (noun)

Italian patriot whose conquest of Sicily and Naples led to the formation of the Italian state (1807-1882).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giuseppe garibaldi."
- He looked up "giuseppe garibaldi" because he had never seen it before.

---

glides (noun)

The act of moving smoothly along a surface while remaining in contact with it.

- Understanding "glides" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "glides" during the group presentation.

---

glosses (noun)

An outward or token appearance or form that is deliberately misleading.

- In class, the teacher used "glosses" to mean an outward or token appearance or form that is....
- They discussed "glosses" during the group presentation.

---

gluttony (noun)

Eating to excess (personified as one of the deadly sins).

- Understanding "gluttony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "gluttony" during the group presentation.

---

goatee (noun)

A small chin beard trimmed to a point; named for its resemblance to a goat's beard.

- They discussed "goatee" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goatee."

---

granddad (noun)

The father of your father or mother.

- They discussed "granddad" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "granddad" because he had never seen it before.

---

gregorian chant (noun)

A liturgical chant of the Roman Catholic Church.

- He looked up "gregorian chant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gregorian chant" during the group presentation.

---

greyhounds (noun)

A tall slender dog of an ancient breed noted for swiftness and keen sight; used as a racing dog.

- He looked up "greyhounds" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "greyhounds" during the group presentation.

---

grieved (verb)

Cause to feel sorrow.

- The coach explained when to use "grieved" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "grieved" in real sentences.

---

grist (noun)

Grain intended to be or that has been ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grist."
- He looked up "grist" because he had never seen it before.

---

grope (noun)

The act of groping; and instance of groping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grope."
- Understanding "grope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grope for (verb)

Feel searchingly.

- She groped for his keys in the dark.
- Learners should practice how to use "grope for" in real sentences.

---

guardsmen (noun)

A soldier who is a member of a unit called 'the guard' or 'guards'.

- In class, the teacher used "guardsmen" to mean a soldier who is a member of a unit called 'the....
- The article explained what "guardsmen" means with a simple example.

---

gutenberg (noun)

German printer who was the first in Europe to print using movable type and the first to use a press (1400-1468).

- The article explained what "gutenberg" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gutenberg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hadron (noun)

Any elementary particle that interacts strongly with other particles.

- In class, the teacher used "hadron" to mean any elementary particle that interacts strongly....
- The article explained what "hadron" means with a simple example.

---

hammerhead (noun)

A stupid person; these words are used to express a low opinion of someone's intelligence.

- He looked up "hammerhead" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hammerhead" during the group presentation.

---

hampers (verb)

Prevent the progress or free movement of.

- She tried to use "hampers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "hampers" until he saw an example.

---

hangman (noun)

An executioner who hangs the condemned person.

- He looked up "hangman" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hangman."

---

harrier eagle (noun)

Any of numerous large Old World hawks intermediate in some respects between typical hawks and typical eagles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harrier eagle."
- Understanding "harrier eagle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

haughty (adjective)

Having or showing arrogant superiority to and disdain of those one views as unworthy; ; ; ; ; ; ; - W.L.Shirer.

- Haughty aristocrats.
- It is useful to describe something as "haughty" when it is having or showing arrogant superiority to and....

---

headmistress (noun)

A woman headmaster.

- Understanding "headmistress" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "headmistress" during the group presentation.

---

heavyweights (noun)

A wrestler who weighs more than 214 pounds.

- Understanding "heavyweights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "heavyweights" because he had never seen it before.

---

hela (noun)

(Norse mythology) goddess of the dead and queen of the underworld.

- Understanding "hela" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hela" to mean (norse mythology) goddess of the dead and queen of....

---

hermit thrush (noun)

North American thrush noted for its complex and appealing song.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hermit thrush."
- Understanding "hermit thrush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

herpes encephalitis (noun)

Common form of acute encephalitis caused by herpes simplex 1; usually affects the temporal and frontal lobes.

- Understanding "herpes encephalitis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "herpes encephalitis" during the group presentation.

---

hobbits (noun)

An imaginary being similar to a person but smaller and with hairy feet; invented by J.R.R. Tolkien.

- The article explained what "hobbits" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hobbits."

---

hogging (verb)

Take greedily; take more than one's share.

- Can you use "hogging" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "hogging" until he saw an example.

---

hoisting (verb)

Move from one place to another by lifting.

- He did not know how to use "hoisting" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hoisting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

holy sepulchre (noun)

The sepulcher in which Christ's body lay between burial and resurrection.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holy sepulchre."
- The article explained what "holy sepulchre" means with a simple example.

---

horatio walpole (noun)

English writer and historian; son of Sir Robert Walpole (1717-1797).

- He looked up "horatio walpole" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "horatio walpole" during the group presentation.

---

horseradish (noun)

The root of the horseradish plant; it is grated or ground and used for seasoning.

- He looked up "horseradish" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horseradish."

---

hotshot (noun)

Someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field.

- The article explained what "hotshot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotshot."

---

householders (noun)

Someone who owns a home.

- They discussed "householders" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "householders" because he had never seen it before.

---

hus (noun)

Czechoslovakian religious reformer who anticipated the Reformation; he questioned the infallibility of the Catholic Church was excommunicated (1409) for attacking the corruption of the clergy; he was burned at the stake (1372-1415).

- In class, the teacher used "hus" to mean czechoslovakian religious reformer who anticipated....
- The article explained what "hus" means with a simple example.

---

hydrogen bromide (noun)

A colorless gas that yields hydrobromic acid in solution with water.

- Understanding "hydrogen bromide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hydrogen bromide" because he had never seen it before.

---

hydroxyl radical (noun)

The monovalent group -OH in such compounds as bases and some acids and alcohols.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hydroxyl radical."
- Understanding "hydroxyl radical" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hypoglycemia (noun)

Abnormally low blood sugar usually resulting from excessive insulin or a poor diet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hypoglycemia."
- Understanding "hypoglycemia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hypothyroidism (noun)

An underactive thyroid gland; a glandular disorder resulting from insufficient production of thyroid hormones.

- In class, the teacher used "hypothyroidism" to mean an underactive thyroid gland; a glandular disorder....
- They discussed "hypothyroidism" during the group presentation.

immeasurably (adverb)

To an immeasurable degree; beyond measurement.

- The war left him immeasurably fearful of what man can do to man.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "immeasurably" naturally.

imprecise (adjective)

Not precise.

- Imprecise astronomical observations.
- The terms he used were imprecise and emotional.

indigent (adjective)

Poor enough to need help from others.

- Students compared "indigent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "indigent."

inlay (noun)

A decoration made by fitting pieces of wood into prepared slots in a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inlay."
- Understanding "inlay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

intramural (adjective)

Carried on within the bounds of an institution or community.

- Most of the students participated actively in the college's intramural sports program.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "intramural."

invasion of iwo (noun)

A bloody and prolonged operation on the island of Iwo Jima in which American marines landed and defeated Japanese defenders (February and March 1945).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "invasion of iwo."
- He looked up "invasion of iwo" because he had never seen it before.

invulnerable (adjective)

Immune to attack; impregnable.

- Gunners raked the beach from invulnerable positions on the cliffs.
- The speaker chose "invulnerable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

irreconcilable (adjective)

Impossible to reconcile.

- Irreconcilable differences.
- It is useful to describe something as "irreconcilable" when it is impossible to reconcile.

jack william nicklaus (noun)

United States golfer considered by many to be the greatest golfer of all time (born in 1940).

- In class, the teacher used "jack william nicklaus" to mean united states golfer considered by many to be the....
- He looked up "jack william nicklaus" because he had never seen it before.

janitors (noun)

Someone employed to clean and maintain a building.

- He looked up "janitors" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "janitors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jawbone (noun)

The jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.

- He looked up "jawbone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "jawbone" to mean the jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.

jittery (adjective)

Characterized by jerky movements.

- A jittery ride.
- A "jittery" approach may work better in this case.

---

john scott haldane (noun)

Scottish physiologist and brother of Richard Haldane and Elizabeth Haldane; noted for research into industrial diseases (1860-1936).

- They discussed "john scott haldane" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john scott haldane."

---

joseph priestley (noun)

English chemist who isolated many gases and discovered oxygen (independently of Scheele) (1733-1804).

- In class, the teacher used "joseph priestley" to mean english chemist who isolated many gases and....
- The article explained what "joseph priestley" means with a simple example.

---

judicious (adjective)

Marked by the exercise of good judgment or common sense in practical matters.

- Judicious use of one's money.
- The speaker chose "judicious" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

kegs (noun)

The quantity contained in a keg.

- In class, the teacher used "kegs" to mean the quantity contained in a keg.
- The article explained what "kegs" means with a simple example.

---

kickback (noun)

A commercial bribe paid by a seller to a purchasing agent in order to induce the agent to enter into the transaction.

- The article explained what "kickback" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kickback" to mean a commercial bribe paid by a seller to a purchasing....

---

kinsman (noun)

A male relative.

- The article explained what "kinsman" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "kinsman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

klamath falls (noun)

A town in southern Oregon near the California border.

- He looked up "klamath falls" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "klamath falls."

---

laboured (adjective)

Requiring or showing effort.

- It is useful to describe something as "laboured" when it is requiring or showing effort.
- The speaker chose "laboured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lake tanganyika (noun)

The longest lake in the world in central Africa between Tanzania and Congo in the Great Rift Valley.

- Understanding "lake tanganyika" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lake tanganyika" means with a simple example.

---

laudable (adjective)

Worthy of high praise.

- Applaudable efforts to save the environment.
- Laudable motives of improving housing conditions.

---

lessens (verb)

Decrease in size, extent, or range.

- In everyday English, people use "lessens" when talking about this idea.

- He did not know how to use "lessens" until he saw an example.

---

lessing (noun)

German playwright and leader of the Enlightenment (1729-1781).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lessing."
- The article explained what "lessing" means with a simple example.

---

liberalisation (noun)

The act of making less strict.

- Understanding "liberalisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "liberalisation" to mean the act of making less strict.

---

liftoff (noun)

The initial ascent of a rocket from its launching pad.

- Understanding "liftoff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liftoff."

---

linnaeus (noun)

Swedish botanist who proposed the modern system of biological nomenclature (1707-1778).

- They discussed "linnaeus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "linnaeus" to mean swedish botanist who proposed the modern system of....

---

liszt (noun)

Hungarian composer and piano virtuoso (1811-1886).

- Understanding "liszt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liszt."

---

logarithmic (adjective)

Of or relating to or using logarithms.

- Logarithmic function.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "logarithmic."

---

logarithmic scale (noun)

Scale on which actual distances from the origin are proportional to the logarithms of the corresponding scale numbers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "logarithmic scale."
- He looked up "logarithmic scale" because he had never seen it before.

---

loudness (noun)

The magnitude of sound (usually in a specified direction).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loudness."
- The article explained what "loudness" means with a simple example.

---

lower jawbone (noun)

The jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lower jawbone."
- The article explained what "lower jawbone" means with a simple example.

---

luxor (noun)

A city in central Egypt on the east bank of the Nile that is a center for visitors to the ruins of and around Thebes.

- In class, the teacher used "luxor" to mean a city in central egypt on the east bank of the....
- Understanding "luxor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

macroeconomics (noun)

The branch of economics that studies the overall working of a national economy.

- Understanding "macroeconomics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "macroeconomics" to mean the branch of economics that studies the overall....

---

majorca (noun)

The largest of the Balearic Islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "majorca."
- He looked up "majorca" because he had never seen it before.

---

mannheim (noun)

A city in southwestern Germany at the confluence of the Rhine and Neckar rivers.

- They discussed "mannheim" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mannheim" means with a simple example.

---

manors (noun)

The landed estate of a lord (including the house on it).

- Understanding "manors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manors."

---

mantras (noun)

A commonly repeated word or phrase.

- Understanding "mantras" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mantras" means with a simple example.

---

mediterranean snapdragon (noun)

Perennial native to the Mediterranean but widely cultivated for its purple or pink flowers.

- He looked up "mediterranean snapdragon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mediterranean snapdragon" during the group presentation.

---

megawatt (noun)

A unit of power equal to one million watts.

- In class, the teacher used "megawatt" to mean a unit of power equal to one million watts.
- They discussed "megawatt" during the group presentation.

---

mesozoic (adjective)

Of or relating to or denoting the Mesozoic era.

- The speaker chose "mesozoic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "mesozoic"? Explain why.

---

mesozoic era (noun)

From 230 million to 63 million years ago.

- They discussed "mesozoic era" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mesozoic era" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

militarized (adjective)

Issued military arms.

- It is useful to describe something as "militarized" when it is issued military arms.
- Students compared "militarized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mimosa bush (noun)

Tropical American thorny shrub or small tree; fragrant yellow flowers used in making perfumery.

- Understanding "mimosa bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mimosa bush" during the group presentation.

---

misinterpretation (noun)

Putting the wrong interpretation on.

- His misinterpretation of the question caused his error.
- The article explained what "misinterpretation" means with a simple example.

---

mobbed (verb)

Press tightly together or cram.

- He did not know how to use “mobbed” until he saw an example.
- She tried to use “mobbed” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

mobilised (verb)

Make ready for action or use.

- The coach explained when to use “mobilised” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “mobilised” in real sentences.

---

modified radical mastectomy (noun)

Removal of a breast and the pectoralis minor and some lymph nodes in the adjacent armpit.

- They discussed “modified radical mastectomy” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “modified radical mastectomy” because he had never seen it before.

---

moneys (noun)

The most common medium of exchange; functions as legal tender.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “moneys.”
- The article explained what “moneys” means with a simple example.

---

moorland (noun)

Open land usually with peaty soil covered with heather and bracken and moss.

- Understanding “moorland” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “moorland” to mean open land usually with peaty soil covered with....

---

morristown (noun)

A town in northern New Jersey where the Continental Army spent two winters.

- Understanding “morristown” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “morristown” because he had never seen it before.

---

naively (adverb)

In a naive manner.

- He believed, naively, that she would leave him her money.
- Place “naively” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

nappies (noun)

Garment consisting of a folded cloth drawn up between the legs and fastened at the waist; worn by infants to catch excrement.

- Understanding “nappies” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “nappies” during the group presentation.

---

narcissus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a beautiful young man who fell in love with his own reflection.

- The article explained what “narcissus” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “narcissus.”

---

neva (noun)

A river in northwestern Russia flowing generally west into the Gulf of Finland.

- In class, the teacher used “neva” to mean a river in northwestern russia flowing generally....
- The article explained what “neva” means with a simple example.

---

neva river (noun)

A river in northwestern Russia flowing generally west into the Gulf of Finland.

- Understanding “neva river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “neva river” to mean a river in northwestern russia flowing generally....

---

nitrates (verb)

Treat with nitric acid, so as to change an organic compound into a nitrate.

- The coach explained when to use “nitrates” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “nitrates” carefully so everyone would understand.

nlrb (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government charged with mediating disputes between management and labor unions.

- He looked up "nlrb" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nlrb."

northumbria (noun)

An Anglo-Saxon kingdom in northern England until 876.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northumbria."
- He looked up "northumbria" because he had never seen it before.

npa (noun)

A terrorist organization that is the militant wing of the Communist Party of the Philippines; a Maoist organization formed to overthrow the government; uses hit squads called Sparrow Units; opposes United States military presence in the Philippines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "npa."
- They discussed "npa" during the group presentation.

npcs (noun)

An agency that serves as the focal point for all Intelligence Community activities related to nonproliferation of weapons of mass destruction and their missile delivery systems.

- He looked up "npcs" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "npcs" during the group presentation.

nurse's aide (noun)

Someone who assists a nurse in tasks that require little formal training.

- In class, the teacher used "nurse's aide" to mean someone who assists a nurse in tasks that require....
- The article explained what "nurse's aide" means with a simple example.

occipital (adjective)

Of or relating to the occiput.

- Occipital bone.
- Students compared "occipital" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

old squaw (noun)

A common long-tailed sea duck of the northern parts of the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "old squaw" to mean a common long-tailed sea duck of the northern parts....
- He looked up "old squaw" because he had never seen it before.

ophthalmic (adjective)

Of or relating to the eye.

- Ophthalmic defect.
- Ophthalmic surgery.

ordinating (verb)

Bring (components or parts) into proper or desirable coordination correlation.

- In everyday English, people use "ordinating" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "ordinating" in real sentences.

ostentatious (adjective)

Intended to attract notice and impress others.

- An ostentatious sable coat.
- Students compared "ostentatious" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

oversize (adjective)

Larger than normal for its kind.

- A "oversize" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "oversize"? Explain why.

ozark plateau (noun)

An area of low mountains in northwestern Arkansas and southeastern Missouri and northeastern Oklahoma.

- They discussed "ozark plateau" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ozark plateau" because he had never seen it before.

---

padlock (noun)

A detachable lock; has a hinged shackle that can be passed through the staple of a hasp or the links in a chain and then snapped shut.

- Understanding "padlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "padlock" because he had never seen it before.

---

palau (noun)

A republic in the western central Pacific Ocean in association with the United States.

- The article explained what "palau" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "palau" to mean a republic in the western central pacific ocean in....

---

pancho villa (noun)

Mexican revolutionary leader (1877-1923).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pancho villa."
- Understanding "pancho villa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

panini (noun)

Indian grammarian whose grammatical rules for Sanskrit are the first known example of descriptive linguistics (circa 400 BC).

- The article explained what "panini" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "panini" to mean indian grammarian whose grammatical rules for....

---

paras (noun)

(obstetrics) the number of liveborn children a woman has delivered.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paras."
- He looked up "paras" because he had never seen it before.

---

patina (noun)

A fine coating of oxide on the surface of a metal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patina."
- The article explained what "patina" means with a simple example.

---

permeated (verb)

Spread or diffuse through.

- An atmosphere of distrust has permeated this administration.
- In everyday English, people use "permeated" when talking about this idea.

---

perspiration (noun)

The process of the sweat glands of the skin secreting a salty fluid.

- Perspiration is a homeostatic process.
- He looked up "perspiration" because he had never seen it before.

---

phenotypic (adjective)

Of or relating to or constituting a phenotype.

- Phenotypical profile.
- A "phenotypic" approach may work better in this case.

---

philippians (noun)

A New Testament book containing an epistle from Saint Paul to the church at Philippi in Macedonia.

- The article explained what "philippians" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "philippians" during the group presentation.

---

plagiarized (adjective)

Copied and passed off as your own.

- Used plagiarized data in his thesis.

- A work dotted with plagiarized phrases.

---

plasmid (noun)

A small cellular inclusion consisting of a ring of DNA that is not in a chromosome but is capable of autonomous replication.

- Understanding "plasmid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plasmid."

---

pleaser (noun)

A pleasing entertainer.

- He is quite the crowd pleaser.
- He looked up "pleaser" because he had never seen it before.

---

pliocene (noun)

From 13 million to 2 million years ago; growth of mountains; cooling of climate; more and larger mammals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pliocene."
- The article explained what "pliocene" means with a simple example.

---

plummeting (verb)

Drop sharply.

- The coach explained when to use "plummeting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "plummeting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

poach (verb)

Cook in a simmering liquid.

- Poached apricots.
- People are poaching elephants for their ivory.

---

polices (noun)

The force of policemen and officers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polices."
- Understanding "polices" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

policyholders (noun)

A person who holds an insurance policy; usually, the client in whose name an insurance policy is written.

- They discussed "policyholders" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "policyholders."

---

political commissar (noun)

An official of the Communist Party who was assigned to teach party principles to a military unit.

- They discussed "political commissar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "political commissar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pontifical (noun)

The vestments and other insignia of a pontiff (especially a bishop).

- The article explained what "pontifical" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pontifical" during the group presentation.

---

potash alum (noun)

A white crystalline double sulfate of aluminum: the potassium double sulfate of aluminum.

- Understanding "potash alum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "potash alum" means with a simple example.

---

potato wart fungus (noun)

Fungus causing potato wart disease in potato tubers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato wart fungus."
- The article explained what "potato wart fungus" means with a simple example.

---

practice bundling (verb)

Sleep fully clothed in the same bed with one's betrothed.

- The coach explained when to use "practice bundling" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "practice bundling" until he saw an example.

---

precluded (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- The coach explained when to use "precluded" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "precluded" in real sentences.

---

prescriptive linguistics (noun)

An account of how a language should be used instead of how it is actually used; a prescription for the 'correct' phonology and morphology and syntax and semantics.

- He looked up "prescriptive linguistics" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "prescriptive linguistics" to mean an account of how a language should be used instead....

---

primus stove (noun)

A portable paraffin cooking stove; used by campers.

- They discussed "primus stove" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "primus stove" means with a simple example.

---

prostrate (verb)

Render helpless or defenseless.

- They prostrated the enemy.
- She prostrated herself with frustration.

---

protease inhibitor (noun)

An antiviral drug used against HIV; interrupts HIV replication by binding and blocking HIV protease; often used in combination with other drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "protease inhibitor."
- The article explained what "protease inhibitor" means with a simple example.

---

pubes (noun)

The lower part of the abdomen just above the external genital organs.

- The article explained what "pubes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pubes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

publicised (adjective)

Made known; especially made widely known.

- Students compared "publicised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "publicised."

---

pushover (noun)

Any undertaking that is easy to do.

- He looked up "pushover" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pushover" to mean any undertaking that is easy to do.

---

pythagoras (noun)

Greek philosopher and mathematician who proved the Pythagorean theorem; considered to be the first true mathematician (circa 580-500 BC).

- He looked up "pythagoras" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pythagoras."

---

quicksand (noun)

A treacherous situation that tends to entrap and destroy.

- The article explained what "quicksand" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "quicksand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quilting (noun)

A material used for making a quilt, or a quilted fabric.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quilting."
- The article explained what "quilting" means with a simple example.

---

raincoat (noun)

A water-resistant coat.

- The article explained what "raincoat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "raincoat" to mean a water-resistant coat.

---

rasputin (noun)

Siberian peasant monk who was religious advisor in the court of Nicholas II; was assassinated by Russian noblemen who feared that his debauchery would weaken the monarchy (1872-1916).

- He looked up "rasputin" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rasputin" during the group presentation.

---

rebecca rolfe (noun)

A Powhatan woman (the daughter of Powhatan) who befriended the English at Jamestown and is said to have saved Captain John Smith's life (1595-1617).

- They discussed "rebecca rolfe" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rebecca rolfe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reconsidering (verb)

Consider again; give new consideration to; usually with a view to changing.

- She tried to use "reconsidering" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "reconsidering" when talking about this idea.

---

red-bellied turtle (noun)

Freshwater turtle of Chesapeake Bay tributaries having red markings on the lower shell.

- The article explained what "red-bellied turtle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "red-bellied turtle" during the group presentation.

---

redeveloped (verb)

Formulate or develop again, of an improved theory or hypothesis.

- In everyday English, people use "redeveloped" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "redeveloped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

refreshingly (adverb)

In a manner that relieves fatigue and restores vitality.

- The air was refreshingly cool.
- She was refreshingly free from shyness.

---

refrigerate (verb)

Cool or chill in or as if in a refrigerator.

- Refrigerate this medicine.
- Many foods must be refrigerated or else they will spoil.

---

refutes (verb)

Overthrow by argument, evidence, or proof.

- The coach explained when to use "refutes" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "refutes" until he saw an example.

---

renditions (noun)

An explanation of something that is not immediately obvious.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "renditions."
- The article explained what "renditions" means with a simple example.

---

repelling (adjective)

Highly offensive; arousing aversion or disgust.

- Would you call this situation "repelling"? Explain why.
- A "repelling" approach may work better in this case.

representational (adjective)

(used especially of art) depicting objects, figures,or scenes as seen.

- Representational art.
- Representational images.

representational process (noun)

Any basic cognitive process in which some entity comes to stand for or represent something else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "representational process."
- The article explained what "representational process" means with a simple example.

republicanism (noun)

The political orientation of those who hold that a republic is the best form of government.

- He looked up "republicanism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republicanism."

restaurateur (noun)

The proprietor of a restaurant.

- They discussed "restaurateur" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "restaurateur."

richard feynman (noun)

United States physicist who contributed to the theory of the interaction of photons and electrons (1918-1988).

- The article explained what "richard feynman" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "richard feynman" during the group presentation.

rickety (adjective)

Inclined to shake as from weakness or defect.

- A rickety table.
- Rickety limbs and joints.

ricotta (noun)

Soft Italian cheese like cottage cheese.

- Understanding "ricotta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ricotta" means with a simple example.

sacra (noun)

Wedge-shaped bone consisting of five fused vertebrae forming the posterior part of the pelvis; its base connects with the lowest lumbar vertebra and its tip with the coccyx.

- In class, the teacher used "sacra" to mean wedge-shaped bone consisting of five fused....
- He looked up "sacra" because he had never seen it before.

saddens (verb)

Make unhappy.

- Learners should practice how to use "saddens" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "saddens" until he saw an example.

salinger (noun)

United States writer (born 1919).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salinger."
- He looked up "salinger" because he had never seen it before.

sappy (adjective)

Abounding in sap.

- Sappy maple trees.
- Sappy kindling wood.

sasquatch (noun)

Large hairy humanoid creature said to live in wilderness areas of the United States and Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sasquatch."
- He looked up "sasquatch" because he had never seen it before.

---

saucers (noun)

A small shallow dish for holding a cup at the table.

- Understanding "saucers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "saucers" means with a simple example.

---

saviors (noun)

A person who rescues you from harm or danger.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saviors."
- He looked up "saviors" because he had never seen it before.

---

scaly fern (noun)

Small European fern with chaffy leathery fronds.

- The article explained what "scaly fern" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scaly fern" to mean small european fern with chaffy leathery fronds.

---

scrub palmetto (noun)

Small hardy clump-forming spiny palm of southern United States.

- They discussed "scrub palmetto" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "scrub palmetto" means with a simple example.

---

selkirk mountains (noun)

A range of the Rocky Mountains in southeastern British Columbia.

- The article explained what "selkirk mountains" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "selkirk mountains" to mean a range of the rocky mountains in southeastern....

---

semite (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Semites.

- Semite peoples.
- A "semite" approach may work better in this case.

---

separations (noun)

The space where a division or parting occurs.

- They discussed "separations" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "separations" to mean the space where a division or parting occurs.

---

sepulchre (noun)

A chamber that is used as a grave.

- They discussed "sepulchre" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sepulchre" because he had never seen it before.

---

shallots (noun)

Small mild-flavored onion-like or garlic-like clustered bulbs used for seasoning.

- He looked up "shallots" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shallots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shifters (noun)

A mechanical device for engaging and disengaging gears.

- Understanding "shifters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shifters" during the group presentation.

---

shih-tzu (noun)

A Chinese breed of small dog similar to a Pekingese.

- In class, the teacher used "shih-tzu" to mean a chinese breed of small dog similar to a pekingese.

- They discussed "shih-tzu" during the group presentation.

---

shill (noun)

A decoy who acts as an enthusiastic customer in order to stimulate the participation of others.

- In class, the teacher used "shill" to mean a decoy who acts as an enthusiastic customer in....
- Understanding "shill" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shins (noun)

A cut of meat from the lower part of the leg.

- The article explained what "shins" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shins" to mean a cut of meat from the lower part of the leg.

---

shorted (verb)

Cheat someone by not returning him enough money.

- He did not know how to use "shorted" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "shorted" and when to wait.

---

sipped (verb)

Drink in sips.

- In everyday English, people use "sipped" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "sipped" until he saw an example.

---

siting (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- Learners should practice how to use "siting" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "siting" when talking about this idea.

---

sixpence (noun)

A small coin of the United Kingdom worth six pennies; not minted since 1970.

- They discussed "sixpence" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sixpence" to mean a small coin of the united kingdom worth six....

---

skank (noun)

A rhythmic dance to reggae music performed by bending forward and extending the hands while bending the knees.

- Understanding "skank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skank."

---

skateboards (noun)

A board with wheels that is ridden in a standing or crouching position and propelled by foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skateboards."
- Understanding "skateboards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skinhead (noun)

A young person who belongs to a British or American group that shave their heads and gather at rock concerts or engage in white supremacist demonstrations.

- They discussed "skinhead" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skinhead."

---

slats (noun)

A thin strip (wood or metal).

- They discussed "slats" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "slats" because he had never seen it before.

---

slop jar (noun)

A large pail used to receive waste water from a washbasin or chamber pot.

- The article explained what "slop jar" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "slop jar" during the group presentation.

---

sneezed (verb)

Exhale spasmodically, as when an irritant entered one's nose.

- Learners should practice how to use "sneezed" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "sneezed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

snorkel (noun)

Air passage provided by a retractable device containing intake and exhaust pipes; permits a submarine to stay submerged for extended periods of time.

- He looked up "snorkel" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "snorkel" during the group presentation.

---

solenoid (noun)

A coil of wire around an iron core; becomes a magnet when current passes through the coil.

- The article explained what "solenoid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "solenoid" to mean a coil of wire around an iron core; becomes a....

---

songbird (noun)

Any bird having a musical call.

- He looked up "songbird" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "songbird" during the group presentation.

---

sonora lac (noun)

Resembling lac; secreted by a scale living on twigs of certain Mexican shrubs; used locally as medicine.

- He looked up "sonora lac" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sonora lac" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sorties (noun)

A military action in which besieged troops burst forth from their position.

- The article explained what "sorties" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sorties."

---

speer (noun)

German Nazi architect who worked for Hitler (1905-1981).

- The article explained what "speer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "speer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spinal anaesthesia (noun)

Anesthesia of the lower half of the body; caused by injury to the spinal cord or by injecting an anesthetic beneath the arachnoid membrane that surrounds the spinal cord.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinal anaesthesia."
- The article explained what "spinal anaesthesia" means with a simple example.

---

spinoza (noun)

Dutch philosopher who espoused a pantheistic system (1632-1677).

- He looked up "spinoza" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spinoza" to mean dutch philosopher who espoused a pantheistic system....

---

splendidly (adverb)

In an impressively beautiful manner.

- He did splendidly in the exam.
- He answered "splendidly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sprawled (verb)

Go, come, or spread in a rambling or irregular way.

- She tried to use "sprawled" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "sprawled" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

squaw (noun)

An American Indian woman.

- The article explained what “squaw” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “squaw” to mean an american indian woman.

---

squaw man (noun)

A white man married to a North American Indian woman.

- The article explained what “squaw man” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “squaw man” to mean a white man married to a north american indian woman.

---

squirting cucumber (noun)

Mediterranean vine having oblong fruit that when ripe expels its seeds and juice violently when touched.

- In class, the teacher used “squirting cucumber” to mean mediterranean vine having oblong fruit that when....
- The article explained what “squirting cucumber” means with a simple example.

---

stabilised (adjective)

Made stable or firm.

- Students compared “stabilised” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “stabilised.”

---

stiller (adjective)

Used of pictures; of a single or static photograph not presented so as to create the illusion of motion; or representing objects not capable of motion.

- A “stiller” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “stiller”? Explain why.

---

storehouse (noun)

A depository for goods.

- Storehouses were built close to the docks.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “storehouse.”

---

straighter (adjective)

Free from curves or angles.

- A “straighter” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “straighter” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

striptease (noun)

A form of erotic entertainment in which a dancer gradually undresses to music.

- In class, the teacher used “striptease” to mean a form of erotic entertainment in which a dancer....
- He looked up “striptease” because he had never seen it before.

---

striptease artist (noun)

A performer who provides erotic entertainment by undressing to music.

- They discussed “striptease artist” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “striptease artist” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

suckling reflex (noun)

Reflex behavior in newborn mammals; includes finding and grasping the nipple in the mouth and sucking on it and swallowing the milk.

- In class, the teacher used “suckling reflex” to mean reflex behavior in newborn mammals; includes....
- He looked up “suckling reflex” because he had never seen it before.

---

sumerian (noun)

A member of a people who inhabited ancient Sumer.

- He looked up “sumerian” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “sumerian.”

---

supersede (verb)

Take the place or move into the position of.

- The coach explained when to use “supersede” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “supersede” until he saw an example.

swimsuits (noun)

Tight fitting garment worn for swimming.

- Understanding "swimsuits" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swimsuits."

swooped (verb)

Move down on as if in an attack.

- The raptor swooped down on its prey.
- The teacher swooped down upon the new students.

synergistic (adjective)

Of or relating to the theological doctrine of synergism.

- Students compared "synergistic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "synergistic"? Explain why.

tanganyika (noun)

A former state in East Africa; united with Zanzibar in 1964 to form Tanzania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tanganyika."
- He looked up "tanganyika" because he had never seen it before.

tantric (adjective)

Of or relating to Tantrism.

- Tantric rituals.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tantric."

taoist (adjective)

Of or relating to the popular Chinese religious system based on the teachings of Lao-tzu but including a pantheon of gods along with divination and magic.

- Taoist temples.
- It is useful to describe something as "taoist" when it is of or relating to the popular chinese religious....

tassel flower (noun)

Young leaves widely used as leaf vegetables; seeds used as cereal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tassel flower."
- They discussed "tassel flower" during the group presentation.

tassel-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a tassel.

- It is useful to describe something as "tassel-shaped" when it is shaped like a tassel.
- The speaker chose "tassel-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.

tats (noun)

A projective technique using black-and-white pictures; subjects tell a story about each picture.

- In class, the teacher used "tats" to mean a projective technique using black-and-white....
- The article explained what "tats" means with a simple example.

telegrams (noun)

A message transmitted by telegraph.

- He looked up "telegrams" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "telegrams" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thais (noun)

A branch of the Tai languages.

- The article explained what "thais" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thais."

thermally (adverb)

By means of heat or with respect to thermal properties.

- He answered "thermally," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- The narrator describes the scene "thermally" in the final chapter.

---

thicket-forming (adjective)

Tending to form dense thickets.

- A "thicket-forming" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "thicket-forming"? Explain why.

---

thoracic aorta (noun)

A branch of the descending aorta; divides into the iliac arteries.

- Understanding "thoracic aorta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thoracic aorta" during the group presentation.

---

throb (noun)

An instance of rapid strong pulsation (of the heart).

- He felt a throbbing in his head.
- The article explained what "throb" means with a simple example.

---

ticketed (verb)

Issue a ticket or a fine to as a penalty.

- Move your car or else you will be ticketed!
- Ticketed passengers can board now.

---

tinned goods (noun)

Food preserved by canning.

- Understanding "tinned goods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tinned goods" because he had never seen it before.

---

tinned meat (noun)

Meat preserved in a can or tin.

- They discussed "tinned meat" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tinned meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toda (noun)

The Dravidian language spoken by the Toda in southern India.

- He looked up "toda" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "toda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tormenting (verb)

Torment emotionally or mentally.

- In everyday English, people use "tormenting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "tormenting" until he saw an example.

---

aberrant (adjective)

Markedly different from an accepted norm.

- Aberrant behavior.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "aberrant."

---

absinthe (noun)

Strong green liqueur flavored with wormwood and anise.

- In class, the teacher used "absinthe" to mean strong green liqueur flavored with wormwood and anise.
- The article explained what "absinthe" means with a simple example.

---

absinthe oil (noun)

A dark bitter oil obtained from wormwood leaves; flavors absinthe liqueurs.

- Understanding "absinthe oil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "absinthe oil" during the group presentation.

---

absolved (adjective)

Freed from any question of guilt.

- Is absolved from all blame.
- Would you call this situation "absolved"? Explain why.

---

abstaining (verb)

Choose not to consume.

- Learners should practice how to use "abstaining" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "abstaining" when talking about this idea.

---

accumulator register (noun)

(computer science) a register that has a built-in adder that adds an input number to the contents of the register.

- The article explained what "accumulator register" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "accumulator register" during the group presentation.

---

acetaminophen (noun)

An analgesic for mild pain but not for inflammation; also used as an antipyretic; (Datril, Tylenol, Panadol, Phenaphen, Tempra, and Anacin III are trademarks of brands of acetaminophen tablets).

- He looked up "acetaminophen" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "acetaminophen" to mean an analgesic for mild pain but not for....

---

adamantly (adverb)

Inflexibly; unshakably.

- Adamantly opposed to the marriage.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "adamantly" naturally.

---

adder (noun)

A person who adds numbers.

- Understanding "adder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "adder" during the group presentation.

---

administratively (adverb)

By or for an administrator.

- This decision was made administratively.
- Using "administratively" can make your explanation more exact.

---

adolf loos (noun)

Austrian architect (1870-1933).

- They discussed "adolf loos" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "adolf loos" means with a simple example.

---

advisories (noun)

An announcement that usually advises or warns the public of some threat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "advisories."
- Understanding "advisories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

affinities (noun)

A natural attraction or feeling of kinship.

- Understanding "affinities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "affinities" means with a simple example.

---

agamemnon (noun)

(Greek mythology) the king who lead the Greeks against Troy in the Trojan War.

- They discussed "agamemnon" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "agamemnon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ageless (adjective)

Continuing forever or indefinitely.

- The ageless themes of love and revenge.
- Would you call this situation "ageless"? Explain why.

---

agitators (noun)

One who agitates; a political troublemaker.

- Understanding "agitators" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "agitators" because he had never seen it before.

---

agonists (noun)

A muscle that contracts while another relaxes.

- Understanding "agonists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "agonists" during the group presentation.

---

ahab (noun)

According to the Old Testament he was a pagan king of Israel and husband of Jezebel (9th century BC).

- In class, the teacher used "ahab" to mean according to the old testament he was a pagan king....
- The article explained what "ahab" means with a simple example.

---

airframe (noun)

The framework and covering of an airplane or rocket (excluding the engines).

- They discussed "airframe" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "airframe."

---

algal (adjective)

Of or relating to alga.

- The speaker chose "algal" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "algal"? Explain why.

---

allay (verb)

Lessen the intensity of or calm.

- In everyday English, people use "allay" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "allay" in real sentences.

---

alpha centauri (noun)

Brightest star in Centaurus; second nearest star to the sun.

- They discussed "alpha centauri" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alpha centauri."

---

anachronistic (adjective)

Chronologically misplaced.

- English public schools are anachronistic.
- Would you call this situation "anachronistic"? Explain why.

---

anatomically (adverb)

With respect to anatomy.

- Anatomically correct.
- He answered "anatomically," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

andorra (noun)

A small republic in the eastern Pyrenees between Spain and France.

- They discussed "andorra" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "andorra" to mean a small republic in the eastern pyrenees between....

---

annoyingly (adverb)

In an annoying manner or to an annoying degree.

- Place "annoyingly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "annoyingly" in the final chapter.

---

answerable (adjective)

Morally or legally responsible to a higher authority.

- Parents are answerable for their child's acts.
- Students compared "answerable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

anterior vertebral vein (noun)

A vein that accompanies the ascending cervical artery and opens into the vertebral vein.

- They discussed "anterior vertebral vein" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "anterior vertebral vein" to mean a vein that accompanies the ascending cervical....

---

apropos (adverb)

Introducing a different topic; in point of fact.

- Your letter arrived apropos.
- Place "apropos" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

archimedes (noun)

Greek mathematician and physicist noted for his work in hydrostatics and mechanics and geometry (287-212 BC).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archimedes."
- He looked up "archimedes" because he had never seen it before.

---

aromatic aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aromatic aster."
- He looked up "aromatic aster" because he had never seen it before.

---

ashley montagu (noun)

United States anthropologist (born in England) who popularized anthropology (1905-).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ashley montagu."
- Understanding "ashley montagu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assembler (noun)

A program to convert assembly language into machine language.

- He looked up "assembler" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assembler."

---

asymptotic (adjective)

Relating to or of the nature of an asymptote.

- An asymptotic function.
- The speaker chose "asymptotic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

aviators (noun)

Someone who operates an aircraft.

- The article explained what "aviators" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "aviators" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

awning deck (noun)

A deck at the top of a passenger ship.

- The article explained what "awning deck" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "awning deck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

backfires (noun)

A miscalculation that recoils on its maker.

- Understanding "backfires" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "backfires" means with a simple example.

bailiffs (noun)

An officer of the court who is employed to execute writs and processes and make arrests etc.

- He looked up "bailiffs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bailiffs" to mean an officer of the court who is employed to execute....

ballgame (noun)

A particular situation that is radically different from the preceding situation.

- HDTV looks the same but it's really a whole new ballgame.
- They discussed "ballgame" during the group presentation.

barricaded (adjective)

Preventing entry or exit or a course of action.

- A barricaded street.
- A "barricaded" approach may work better in this case.

bedlam (noun)

A state of extreme confusion and disorder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bedlam."
- He looked up "bedlam" because he had never seen it before.

beeping (verb)

Call, summon, or alert with a beeper.

- The coach explained when to use "beeping" and when to wait.
- Can you use "beeping" in a sentence that fits this situation?

beluga (noun)

Small northern whale that is white when adult.

- In class, the teacher used "beluga" to mean small northern whale that is white when adult.
- The article explained what "beluga" means with a simple example.

benjamin britten (noun)

Major English composer of the 20th century; noted for his operas (1913-1976).

- Understanding "benjamin britten" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "benjamin britten" means with a simple example.

beta centauri (noun)

The second brightest star in Centaurus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beta centauri."
- He looked up "beta centauri" because he had never seen it before.

beveridge (noun)

British economist (born in India) whose report on social insurance provided the basis for most of the social legislation on which the welfare state in the United Kingdom is based (1879-1963).

- They discussed "beveridge" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "beveridge" because he had never seen it before.

bibliographic (adjective)

Relating to or dealing with bibliography.

- The speaker chose "bibliographic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "bibliographic" when it is relating to or dealing with bibliography.

binomial distribution (noun)

A theoretical distribution of the number of successes in a finite set of independent trials with a constant probability of success.

- The article explained what "binomial distribution" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binomial distribution."

biopsies (noun)

Examination of tissues or liquids from the living body to determine the existence or cause of a disease.

- He looked up "biopsies" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "biopsies" to mean examination of tissues or liquids from the living....

---

black bream (noun)

Important dark-colored edible food and game fish of Australia.

- He looked up "black bream" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black bream."

---

black hollander (noun)

Old World willow with light green leaves cultivated for use in basketry.

- In class, the teacher used "black hollander" to mean old world willow with light green leaves cultivated....
- The article explained what "black hollander" means with a simple example.

---

blackest (adjective)

Of or belonging to a racial group having dark skin especially of sub-Saharan African origin; - Martin Luther King Jr.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blackest."
- Would you call this situation "blackest"? Explain why.

---

blood coagulation (noun)

A process in which liquid blood is changed into a semisolid mass (a blood clot).

- In class, the teacher used "blood coagulation" to mean a process in which liquid blood is changed into a....
- The article explained what "blood coagulation" means with a simple example.

---

bloodless (adjective)

Destitute of blood or apparently so; - John Dryden.

- The bloodless carcass of my Hector sold.
- An insipid and bloodless young man.

---

bookshelves (noun)

A shelf on which to keep books.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bookshelves."
- They discussed "bookshelves" during the group presentation.

---

boreal (adjective)

Toward or located in the north.

- The boreal signs of the Zodiac.
- A "boreal" approach may work better in this case.

---

brackish (adjective)

Distasteful and unpleasant; spoiled by mixture.

- A thin brackish gruel.
- A brackish lagoon.

---

brazilian trumpeter (noun)

Trumpeter of Brazil and Guiana; often kept to protect poultry in Brazil.

- Understanding "brazilian trumpeter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "brazilian trumpeter" means with a simple example.

---

bream (noun)

Flesh of various freshwater fishes of North America or of Europe.

- The article explained what "bream" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bream" to mean flesh of various freshwater fishes of north america....

---

broad-leaved (adjective)

Having relatively broad rather than needlelike or scalelike leaves.

- Would you call this situation "broad-leaved"? Explain why.

- It is useful to describe something as “broad-leaved” when it is having relatively broad rather than needlelike or....

---

buckling (verb)

Bend out of shape, as under pressure or from heat.

- Can you use “buckling” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “buckling” when talking about this idea.

---

buries (verb)

Enclose or envelop completely, as if by swallowing.

- She tried to use “buries” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “buries” in real sentences.

---

burlap (noun)

Coarse jute fabric.

- He looked up “burlap” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “burlap” during the group presentation.

---

burlap bag (noun)

A bag made of burlap.

- He looked up “burlap bag” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “burlap bag” during the group presentation.

---

byproducts (noun)

A secondary and sometimes unexpected consequence.

- They discussed “byproducts” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “byproducts” to mean a secondary and sometimes unexpected consequence.

---

cackling (verb)

Talk or utter in a cackling manner.

- Learners should practice how to use “cackling” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “cackling” until he saw an example.

---

cadiz (noun)

An ancient port city in southwestern Spain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cadiz.”
- He looked up “cadiz” because he had never seen it before.

---

calabria (noun)

A region of southern Italy (forming the toe of the Italian ‘boot’).

- They discussed “calabria” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “calabria” means with a simple example.

---

calcium lactate (noun)

A white crystalline salt made by the action of lactic acid on calcium carbonate; used in foods (as a baking powder) and given medically as a source of calcium.

- In class, the teacher used “calcium lactate” to mean a white crystalline salt made by the action of....
- Understanding “calcium lactate” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

california fuchsia (noun)

Shrublet of southwestern United States to Mexico having brilliant scarlet flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “california fuchsia.”
- They discussed “california fuchsia” during the group presentation.

---

capitalise (verb)

Convert (a company’s reserve funds) into capital.

- He did not know how to use “capitalise” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “capitalise” when talking about this idea.

---

capstone (noun)

A stone that forms the top of wall or building.

- The article explained what "capstone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capstone" to mean a stone that forms the top of wall or building.

---

cardinal tetra (noun)

Small bright red and blue aquarium fish from streams in Brazil and Colombia.

- Understanding "cardinal tetra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardinal tetra."

---

carpal tunnel syndrome (noun)

A painful disorder caused by compression of a nerve in the carpal tunnel; characterized by discomfort and weakness in the hands and fingers and by sensations of tingling, burning or numbness.

- Understanding "carpal tunnel syndrome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "carpal tunnel syndrome" because he had never seen it before.

---

carpeting (noun)

Floor covering consisting of a piece of thick heavy fabric (usually with nap or pile).

- The article explained what "carpeting" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpeting."

---

catalysis (noun)

Acceleration of a chemical reaction induced the presence of material that is chemically unchanged at the end of the reaction.

- Of the top 50 commodity chemicals, 30 are created directly by catalysis and another 6 are made from raw materials that are catalytically produced.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catalysis."

---

centralization (noun)

The act of consolidating power under a central control.

- They discussed "centralization" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "centralization" because he had never seen it before.

---

cervical vertebra (noun)

One of 7 vertebrae in the human spine located in the neck region.

- He looked up "cervical vertebra" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cervical vertebra" to mean one of 7 vertebrae in the human spine located in....

---

changeover (noun)

An event that results in a transformation.

- Understanding "changeover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "changeover" means with a simple example.

---

chemical irritant (noun)

A substance producing irritation.

- The article explained what "chemical irritant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chemical irritant" to mean a substance producing irritation.

---

chilean hazelnut (noun)

Chilean shrub bearing coral-red fruit with an edible seed resembling a hazelnut.

- They discussed "chilean hazelnut" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chilean hazelnut" because he had never seen it before.

---

chins (noun)

The protruding part of the lower jaw.

- They discussed "chins" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "chins" to mean the protruding part of the lower jaw.

---

chiseled (adjective)

Having a clean and distinct outline as if precisely cut along the edges.

- A finely chiseled nose.
- A "chiseled" approach may work better in this case.

---

cistern (noun)

A tank that holds the water used to flush a toilet.

- He looked up "cistern" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cistern."

---

citric acid (noun)

A weak water-soluble acid found in many fruits (especially citrus fruits); used as a flavoring agent.

- The article explained what "citric acid" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "citric acid" to mean a weak water-soluble acid found in many fruits....

---

citric acid cycle (noun)

In all plants and animals: a series of enzymatic reactions in mitochondria involving oxidative metabolism of acetyl compounds to produce high-energy phosphate compounds that are the source of cellular energy.

- They discussed "citric acid cycle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "citric acid cycle" because he had never seen it before.

---

classifieds (noun)

A short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in small print) and appearing along with other ads of the same type.

- He looked up "classifieds" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "classifieds" to mean a short ad in a newspaper or magazine (usually in....

---

cleverness (noun)

The property of being ingenious.

- The cleverness of its design.
- Understanding "cleverness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coagulation (noun)

The process of forming semisolid lumps in a liquid.

- He looked up "coagulation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "coagulation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coagulation factor (noun)

Any of the factors in the blood whose actions are essential for blood coagulation.

- The article explained what "coagulation factor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "coagulation factor" during the group presentation.

---

coder (noun)

A person who designs and writes and tests computer programs.

- The article explained what "coder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "coder" during the group presentation.

---

coldly (adverb)

In a cold unemotional manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "coldly" in the final chapter.
- She spoke "coldly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

colloquially (adverb)

With the use of colloquial expressions.

- This building is colloquially referred to as The Barn.
- Place "colloquially" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

congruent (adjective)

Coinciding when superimposed.

- The speaker chose "congruent" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "congruent" when it is coinciding when superimposed.

contributory (adjective)

Tending to bring about; being partly responsible for.

- A contributory factor.
- It is useful to describe something as "contributory" when it is tending to bring about; being partly responsible for.

cornelia otis skinner (noun)

United States actress noted for her one-woman shows (1901-1979).

- In class, the teacher used "cornelia otis skinner" to mean united states actress noted for her one-woman shows....
- They discussed "cornelia otis skinner" during the group presentation.

counterintuitive (adjective)

Contrary to what common sense would suggest.

- The speaker chose "counterintuitive" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "counterintuitive" when it is contrary to what common sense would suggest.

coursing (noun)

Hunting with dogs (usually greyhounds) that are trained to chase game (such as hares) by sight instead of by scent.

- He looked up "coursing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "coursing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cross-linguistically (adverb)

By comparing languages.

- She studied the phenomenon cross-linguistically.
- Place "cross-linguistically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

crucify (verb)

Kill by nailing onto a cross.

- Can you use "crucify" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "crucify" when talking about this idea.

crystallized fruit (noun)

Fruit cooked in sugar syrup and encrusted with a sugar crystals.

- Understanding "crystallized fruit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "crystallized fruit" during the group presentation.

cuticle (noun)

The dead skin at the base of a fingernail or toenail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cuticle."
- He looked up "cuticle" because he had never seen it before.

daniel patrick moynihan (noun)

United States politician and educator (1927-2003).

- He looked up "daniel patrick moynihan" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "daniel patrick moynihan" to mean united states politician and educator (1927-2003).

darwinian (adjective)

Of or relating to Charles Darwin's theory of organic evolution.

- Darwinian theories.
- The speaker chose "darwinian" because it captured the feeling precisely.

dateline (noun)

An imaginary line on the surface of the earth following (approximately) the 180th meridian.

- He looked up "dateline" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dateline."

dauntless (adjective)

Invulnerable to fear or intimidation.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dauntless."
- A "dauntless" approach may work better in this case.

---

davids (noun)

French neoclassical painter who actively supported the French Revolution (1748-1825).

- They discussed "davids" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "davids" means with a simple example.

---

death adder (noun)

Venomous Australian snake resembling an adder.

- In class, the teacher used "death adder" to mean venomous australian snake resembling an adder.
- He looked up "death adder" because he had never seen it before.

---

degas (noun)

French impressionist painter (1834-1917).

- In class, the teacher used "degas" to mean french impressionist painter (1834-1917).
- The article explained what "degas" means with a simple example.

---

depleting (verb)

Use up (resources or materials).

- She tried to use "depleting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "depleting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

despatch (noun)

The property of being prompt and efficient.

- He looked up "despatch" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "despatch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

devotions (noun)

(usually plural) religious observance or prayers (usually spoken silently).

- He returned to his devotions.
- The article explained what "devotions" means with a simple example.

---

dietitian (noun)

A specialist in the study of nutrition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dietitian."
- He looked up "dietitian" because he had never seen it before.

---

differentials (noun)

A quality that differentiates between similar things.

- Understanding "differentials" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "differentials."

---

dinka (noun)

A Nilotic language.

- The article explained what "dinka" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dinka" to mean a nilotic language.

---

dismissals (noun)

A judgment disposing of the matter without a trial.

- He looked up "dismissals" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dismissals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disobeyed (verb)

Refuse to go along with; refuse to follow; be disobedient.

- He disobeyed his supervisor and was fired.

- The coach explained when to use "disobeyed" and when to wait.

---

disobeying (verb)

Refuse to go along with; refuse to follow; be disobedient.

- Can you use "disobeying" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "disobeying" until he saw an example.

---

disorientation (noun)

A wild delusion (especially one induced by a hallucinogenic drug).

- His disorientation was the result of inattention.
- He looked up "disorientation" because he had never seen it before.

---

dispositions (noun)

An attitude of mind especially one that favors one alternative over others.

- In class, the teacher used "dispositions" to mean an attitude of mind especially one that favors one....
- Understanding "dispositions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

diurnal (adjective)

Of or belonging to or active during the day.

- Diurnal animals are active during the day.
- Diurnal flowers are open during the day and closed at night.

---

divisible (adjective)

Capable of being or liable to be divided or separated.

- Even numbers are divisible by two.
- The Americans fought a bloody war to prove that their nation is not divisible.

---

domineering (adjective)

Tending to domineer.

- A "domineering" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "domineering."

---

dominos (noun)

Any of several games played with small rectangular blocks.

- They discussed "dominos" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dominos" because he had never seen it before.

---

dorsal vertebra (noun)

One of 12 vertebrae in the human vertebral column; thoracic vertebrae extend from the seventh cervical vertebra down to the first lumbar vertebra.

- In class, the teacher used "dorsal vertebra" to mean one of 12 vertebrae in the human vertebral column;....
- The article explained what "dorsal vertebra" means with a simple example.

---

downes (verb)

Improve or perfect by pruning or polishing.

- She tried to use "downes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "downes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dunking (verb)

Immerse briefly into a liquid so as to wet, coat, or saturate.

- She tried to use "dunking" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "dunking" until he saw an example.

---

dura (noun)

The outermost (and toughest) of the 3 meninges.

- Understanding "dura" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dura" means with a simple example.

---

dwarfed (verb)

Make appear small by comparison.

- The lack of sunlight dwarfed these pines.
- Can you use "dwarfed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

edible mussel (noun)

A mussel with a dark shell that lives attached to rocks.

- Understanding "edible mussel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "edible mussel" to mean a mussel with a dark shell that lives attached to rocks.

---

edward benjamin britten (noun)

Major English composer of the 20th century; noted for his operas (1913-1976).

- They discussed "edward benjamin britten" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "edward benjamin britten" because he had never seen it before.

---

elastic modulus (noun)

(physics) the ratio of the applied stress to the change in shape of an elastic body.

- Understanding "elastic modulus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "elastic modulus" to mean (physics) the ratio of the applied stress to the....

---

electrics (noun)

A car that is powered by electricity.

- He looked up "electrics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrics."

---

elizabeth cady stanton (noun)

United States suffragist and feminist; called for reform of the practices that perpetuated sexual inequality (1815-1902).

- In class, the teacher used "elizabeth cady stanton" to mean united states suffragist and feminist; called for....
- They discussed "elizabeth cady stanton" during the group presentation.

---

elizabethan sonnet (noun)

A sonnet consisting three quatrains and a concluding couplet in iambic pentameter with the rhyme pattern abab cdcd efef gg.

- In class, the teacher used "elizabethan sonnet" to mean a sonnet consisting three quatrains and a....
- The article explained what "elizabethan sonnet" means with a simple example.

---

emancipated (adjective)

Free from traditional social restraints.

- An emancipated young woman pursuing her career.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "emancipated."

---

embellishment (noun)

The act of adding extraneous decorations to something.

- The mystery has been heightened by many embellishments in subsequent retellings.
- They discussed "embellishment" during the group presentation.

---

emblazoned (verb)

Decorate with colors.

- Can you use "emblazoned" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "emblazoned" when talking about this idea.

---

encodes (verb)

Convert information into code.

- He did not know how to use "encodes" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "encodes" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

environmentalism (noun)

The activity of protecting the environment from pollution or destruction.

- They discussed "environmentalism" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "environmentalism."

---

equalization (noun)

The act of making equal or uniform.

- In class, the teacher used "equalization" to mean the act of making equal or uniform.
- He looked up "equalization" because he had never seen it before.

---

erupting (verb)

Become active and spew forth lava and rocks.

- She tried to use "erupting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "erupting" when talking about this idea.

---

esophageal smear (noun)

Alimentary tract smear of material obtained from the esophagus.

- The article explained what "esophageal smear" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "esophageal smear."

---

etchings (noun)

An etched plate made with the use of acid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "etchings."
- He looked up "etchings" because he had never seen it before.

---

eugenia (noun)

Tropical trees and shrubs with aromatic leaves and often valuable hard wood.

- Understanding "eugenia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "eugenia" because he had never seen it before.

---

european bream (noun)

European freshwater fish having a flattened body and silvery scales; of little value as food.

- He looked up "european bream" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "european bream" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

european sea bream (noun)

Food fish of European coastal waters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european sea bream."
- They discussed "european sea bream" during the group presentation.

---

exclaiming (noun)

An abrupt excited utterance.

- There was much exclaiming over it.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exclaiming."

---

exogenous obesity (noun)

Obesity caused by overeating.

- In class, the teacher used "exogenous obesity" to mean obesity caused by overeating.
- They discussed "exogenous obesity" during the group presentation.

---

fabulously (adverb)

Exceedingly; extremely.

- She plays fabulously well.
- She spoke "fabulously," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

faithless (adjective)

Having the character of, or characteristic of, a traitor.

- The faithless Benedict Arnold.
- The speaker chose "faithless" because it captured the feeling precisely.

falsetto (noun)

A male singing voice with artificially high tones in an upper register.

- Understanding "falsetto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "falsetto."

felix mendelssohn (noun)

German musician and romantic composer of orchestral and choral works (1809-1847).

- In class, the teacher used "felix mendelssohn" to mean german musician and romantic composer of orchestral....
- He looked up "felix mendelssohn" because he had never seen it before.

festering (noun)

A fluid product of inflammation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "festering."
- The article explained what "festering" means with a simple example.

fibonacci number (noun)

A number in the Fibonacci sequence.

- They discussed "fibonacci number" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fibonacci number" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

firecracker (noun)

Firework consisting of a small explosive charge and fuse in a heavy paper casing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firecracker."
- He looked up "firecracker" because he had never seen it before.

firecrackers (noun)

Firework consisting of a small explosive charge and fuse in a heavy paper casing.

- Understanding "firecrackers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "firecrackers" means with a simple example.

flabbergasted (adjective)

As if struck dumb with astonishment and surprise.

- The flabbergasted aldermen were speechless.
- It is useful to describe something as "flabbergasted" when it is as if struck dumb with astonishment and surprise.

flame nettle (noun)

Any of various Old World tropical plants of the genus Coleus having multicolored decorative leaves and spikes of blue flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flame nettle."
- Understanding "flame nettle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flanker (noun)

A back stationed wide of the scrimmage line; used as a pass receiver.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flanker."
- They discussed "flanker" during the group presentation.

flanker back (noun)

A back stationed wide of the scrimmage line; used as a pass receiver.

- Understanding "flanker back" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "flanker back" during the group presentation.

flathead (noun)

Food fish of the Indonesian region of the Pacific; resembles gurnards.

- The article explained what "flathead" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flathead" during the group presentation.

follicle-stimulating hormone (noun)

A gonadotropic hormone that is secreted by the anterior pituitary and stimulates growth of Graafian follicles in female mammals, and activates the cells in male mammals that form sperm.

- In class, the teacher used "follicle-stimulating hormone" to mean a gonadotropic hormone that is secreted by the....
- Understanding "follicle-stimulating hormone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

forehand stroke (noun)

(sports) a return made with the palm of the hand facing the direction of the stroke (as in tennis or badminton or squash).

- They discussed "forehand stroke" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "forehand stroke" means with a simple example.

---

forges (verb)

Make a copy of with the intent to deceive.

- The coach explained when to use "forges" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "forges" until he saw an example.

---

fortran (noun)

A high-level programing language for mathematical and scientific purposes; stands for formula translation.

- Understanding "fortran" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fortran" because he had never seen it before.

---

fortran program (noun)

A program written in FORTRAN.

- Understanding "fortran program" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fortran program."

---

francis henry compton crick (noun)

English biochemist who (with Watson in 1953) helped discover the helical structure of DNA (1916-2004).

- He looked up "francis henry compton crick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "francis henry compton crick."

---

francisco fernandez de cordova (noun)

Spanish explorer who discovered Yucatan (1475-1526).

- He looked up "francisco fernandez de cordova" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "francisco fernandez de cordova" during the group presentation.

---

frowns (noun)

A facial expression of dislike or displeasure.

- They discussed "frowns" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "frowns" because he had never seen it before.

---

frs (noun)

The central bank of the United States; incorporates 12 Federal Reserve branch banks and all national banks and state-chartered commercial banks and some trust companies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frs."
- Understanding "frs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

frustrates (verb)

Hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires) of.

- In everyday English, people use "frustrates" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "frustrates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fuchsia (noun)

Any of various tropical shrubs widely cultivated for their showy drooping purplish or reddish or white flowers; Central and South America and New Zealand and Tahiti.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuchsia."
- They discussed "fuchsia" during the group presentation.

---

fukuoka (noun)

A city in southern Japan on Kyushu.

- Understanding "fukuoka" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "fukuoka" means with a simple example.

---

genital wart (noun)

A small benign wart on or around the genitals and anus.

- In class, the teacher used "genital wart" to mean a small benign wart on or around the genitals and anus.
- They discussed "genital wart" during the group presentation.

---

genus aix (noun)

Wood duck and mandarin duck.

- In class, the teacher used "genus aix" to mean wood duck and mandarin duck.
- Understanding "genus aix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genus pinus (noun)

Type genus of the Pinaceae: large genus of true pines.

- The article explained what "genus pinus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus pinus."

---

giant armadillo (noun)

About three feet long exclusive of tail.

- In class, the teacher used "giant armadillo" to mean about three feet long exclusive of tail.
- He looked up "giant armadillo" because he had never seen it before.

---

gillies (noun)

A young male attendant on a Scottish Highlander chief.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gillies."
- He looked up "gillies" because he had never seen it before.

---

glittery (adjective)

Having brief brilliant points or flashes of light.

- Glittery costume jewelry.
- Would you call this situation "glittery"? Explain why.

---

globular (adjective)

Having the shape of a sphere or ball; ; ; - Zane Grey.

- Little globular houses like mud-wasp nests.
- Students compared "globular" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

goat herder (noun)

A person who tends a flock of goats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goat herder."
- He looked up "goat herder" because he had never seen it before.

---

goddam (adjective)

Expletives used informally as intensifiers.

- I'll be damned (or blessed or darned or goddamned) if I'll do any such thing.
- He's a damn (or goddam or goddamned) fool.

---

grandmas (noun)

The mother of your father or mother.

- They discussed "grandmas" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "grandmas" means with a simple example.

---

grape hyacinth (noun)

Any of various early flowering spring hyacinths native to Eurasia having dense spikes of rounded blue flowers resembling bunches of small grapes.

- They discussed "grape hyacinth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "grape hyacinth" means with a simple example.

---

grass bacillus (noun)

A species of bacillus found in soil and decomposing organic matter; some strains produce antibiotics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grass bacillus."
- He looked up "grass bacillus" because he had never seen it before.

---

groaned (verb)

Indicate pain, discomfort, or displeasure.

- The students groaned when the professor got out the exam booklets.
- The coach explained when to use "groaned" and when to wait.

---

guildhall (noun)

The hall of a guild or corporation.

- Understanding "guildhall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "guildhall" to mean the hall of a guild or corporation.

---

gumbo soil (noun)

Any of various fine-grained silty soils that become waxy and very sticky mud when saturated with water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gumbo soil."
- They discussed "gumbo soil" during the group presentation.

---

gun moll (noun)

The girlfriend of a gangster.

- In class, the teacher used "gun moll" to mean the girlfriend of a gangster.
- They discussed "gun moll" during the group presentation.

---

haldane (noun)

Scottish statesman and brother of Elizabeth and John Haldane (1856-1928).

- The article explained what "haldane" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haldane."

---

halibut-liver oil (noun)

A fatty oil from halibut livers that is used as a source of vitamin A.

- In class, the teacher used "halibut-liver oil" to mean a fatty oil from halibut livers that is used as a....
- He looked up "halibut-liver oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

hanuman (noun)

Langur of southern Asia; regarded as sacred in India.

- In class, the teacher used "hanuman" to mean langur of southern asia; regarded as sacred in india.
- The article explained what "hanuman" means with a simple example.

---

harnessed antelope (noun)

Any of several antelopes of the genus Tragelaphus having striped markings resembling a harness.

- The article explained what "harnessed antelope" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "harnessed antelope" during the group presentation.

---

haulage (noun)

The act of drawing or hauling something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haulage."
- The article explained what "haulage" means with a simple example.

---

headland (noun)

A natural elevation (especially a rocky one that juts out into the sea).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "headland."
- The article explained what "headland" means with a simple example.

---

headstrong (adjective)

Habitually disposed to disobedience and opposition.

- The speaker chose "headstrong" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "headstrong" when it is habitually disposed to disobedience and opposition.

---

hedgehogs (noun)

Relatively large rodents with sharp erectile bristles mingled with the fur.

- In class, the teacher used "hedgehogs" to mean relatively large rodents with sharp erectile....
- He looked up "hedgehogs" because he had never seen it before.

---

helen laura sumner woodbury (noun)

United States social economist (1876-1933).

- He looked up "helen laura sumner woodbury" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "helen laura sumner woodbury."

---

herbivores (noun)

Any animal that feeds chiefly on grass and other plants.

- Horses are herbivores.
- The sauropod dinosaurs were apparently herbivores.

---

hildebrand (noun)

The Italian pope who fought to establish the supremacy of the pope over the Roman Catholic Church and the supremacy of the church over the state (1020-1085).

- They discussed "hildebrand" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "hildebrand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hn (noun)

A colorless explosive liquid that is volatile and poisonous and foul-smelling.

- He looked up "hn" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hollander (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Holland.

- They discussed "hollander" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hollander" to mean a native or inhabitant of holland.

---

homeward-bound (adjective)

Oriented toward home.

- Homeward-bound commuters.
- Would you call this situation "homeward-bound"? Explain why.

---

hooligan (noun)

A cruel and brutal fellow.

- The article explained what "hooligan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hooligan" to mean a cruel and brutal fellow.

---

humongous (adjective)

(used informally) very large.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "humongous."
- The speaker chose "humongous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hunchback (noun)

An abnormal backward curve to the vertebral column.

- They discussed "hunchback" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hunchback" means with a simple example.

---

hydroxyl (noun)

The monovalent group -OH in such compounds as bases and some acids and alcohols.

- They discussed "hydroxyl" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hydroxyl."

hydroxyl group (noun)

The monovalent group -OH in such compounds as bases and some acids and alcohols.

- In class, the teacher used "hydroxyl group" to mean the monovalent group -oh in such compounds as bases....
- They discussed "hydroxyl group" during the group presentation.

hypo (noun)

A compound used as a fixing agent in photographic developing.

- He looked up "hypo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hypo."

impurity (noun)

Worthless or dangerous material that should be removed.

- They discussed "impurity" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "impurity."

inactivated (verb)

Release from military service or remove from the active list of military service.

- Learners should practice how to use "inactivated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "inactivated" when talking about this idea.

inalienable (adjective)

Incapable of being repudiated or transferred to another.

- It is useful to describe something as "inalienable" when it is incapable of being repudiated or transferred to another.
- Would you call this situation "inalienable"? Explain why.

incisions (noun)

A depression scratched or carved into a surface.

- The article explained what "incisions" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "incisions" during the group presentation.

incongruous (adjective)

Lacking in harmony or compatibility or appropriateness.

- A plan incongruous with reason.
- Incongruous behavior.

indonesians (noun)

The dialect of Malay used as the national language of the Republic of Indonesia or of Malaysia.

- The article explained what "indonesians" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "indonesians" to mean the dialect of malay used as the national language....

infantile fixation (noun)

An abnormal state in which development has stopped prematurely.

- He looked up "infantile fixation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "infantile fixation" to mean an abnormal state in which development has stopped....

informations (noun)

A collection of facts from which conclusions may be drawn.

- The article explained what "informations" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "informations" during the group presentation.

inge (noun)

English prelate noted for his pessimistic sermons and articles (1860-1954).

- They discussed "inge" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inge."

innkeeper (noun)

The owner or manager of an inn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "innkeeper."
- Understanding "innkeeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insufficiency (noun)

A lack of competence.

- They discussed "insufficiency" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "insufficiency" because he had never seen it before.

---

interdependence (noun)

A reciprocal relation between interdependent entities (objects or individuals or groups).

- The article explained what "interdependence" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "interdependence" to mean a reciprocal relation between interdependent....

---

interleukin (noun)

Any of several lymphokines that promote macrophages and killer T cells and B cells and other components of the immune system.

- In class, the teacher used "interleukin" to mean any of several lymphokines that promote macrophages....
- The article explained what "interleukin" means with a simple example.

---

intifada (noun)

An uprising by Palestinian Arabs (in both the Gaza Strip and the West Bank) against Israel in the late 1980s and again in 2000.

- The first intifada ended when Israel granted limited autonomy to the Palestine National Authority in 1993.
- He looked up "intifada" because he had never seen it before.

---

intracranial (adjective)

Within the skull.

- It is useful to describe something as "intracranial" when it is within the skull.
- Students compared "intracranial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

intruding (adjective)

Projecting inward.

- Would you call this situation "intruding"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "intruding" when it is projecting inward.

---

irreducible (adjective)

Incapable of being made smaller or simpler.

- An irreducible minimum.
- An irreducible formula.

---

ivor armstrong richards (noun)

English literary critic who collaborated with C. K. Ogden and contributed to the development of Basic English (1893-1979).

- The article explained what "ivor armstrong richards" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ivor armstrong richards" to mean english literary critic who collaborated with c. k.....

---

iwo (noun)

A bloody and prolonged operation on the island of Iwo Jima in which American marines landed and defeated Japanese defenders (February and March 1945).

- They discussed "iwo" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "iwo" means with a simple example.

---

jack nicklaus (noun)

United States golfer considered by many to be the greatest golfer of all time (born in 1940).

- The article explained what "jack nicklaus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jack nicklaus" to mean united states golfer considered by many to be the....

---

jean arp (noun)

Alsatian artist and poet who was cofounder of dadaism in Zurich; noted for abstract organic sculptures (1887-1966).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jean arp."

- They discussed "jean arp" during the group presentation.

---

jiggle (noun)

A slight irregular shaking motion.

- Understanding "jiggle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jiggle."

---

jingles (noun)

A comic verse of irregular measure.

- He looked up "jingles" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jingles."

---

john haldane (noun)

Scottish physiologist and brother of Richard Haldane and Elizabeth Haldane; noted for research into industrial diseases (1860-1936).

- He looked up "john haldane" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john haldane."

---

jose julian marti (noun)

Cuban poet and revolutionary who fought for Cuban independence from Spain (1853-1895).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jose julian marti."
- Understanding "jose julian marti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jumbled (adjective)

In utter disorder.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "jumbled."
- A "jumbled" approach may work better in this case.

---

karl friedrich gauss (noun)

German mathematician who developed the theory of numbers and who applied mathematics to electricity and magnetism and astronomy and geodesy (1777-1855).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "karl friedrich gauss."
- Understanding "karl friedrich gauss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ketones (noun)

Any of a class of organic compounds having a carbonyl group linked to a carbon atom in each of two hydrocarbon radicals.

- They discussed "ketones" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ketones" because he had never seen it before.

---

kitsch (noun)

Excessively garish or sentimental art; usually considered in bad taste.

- He looked up "kitsch" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kitsch" during the group presentation.

---

klamath (noun)

A river flowing southwest from Oregon through northern California to the Pacific Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "klamath" to mean a river flowing southwest from oregon through....
- They discussed "klamath" during the group presentation.

---

klamath river (noun)

A river flowing southwest from Oregon through northern California to the Pacific Ocean.

- Understanding "klamath river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "klamath river" during the group presentation.

---

kleenex (noun)

A piece of soft absorbent paper (usually two or more thin layers) used as a disposable handkerchief.

- He looked up "kleenex" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kleenex."

---

labours (noun)

A social class comprising those who do manual labor or work for wages.

- He looked up "labours" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labours."

---

law of archimedes (noun)

(hydrostatics) the apparent loss in weight of a body immersed in a fluid is equal to the weight of the displaced fluid.

- Understanding "law of archimedes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "law of archimedes."

---

lazily (adverb)

In a slow and lazy manner.

- I watched the blue smoke drift lazily away on the still air.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "lazily" naturally.

---

lead-acid accumulator (noun)

A battery with lead electrodes with dilute sulphuric acid as the electrolyte; each cell generates about 2 volts.

- He looked up "lead-acid accumulator" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lead-acid accumulator."

---

leather-leaved (adjective)

Having leathery leaves.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "leather-leaved."
- Would you call this situation "leather-leaved"? Explain why.

---

leger (noun)

A record in which commercial accounts are recorded.

- They discussed "leger" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "leger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leger line (noun)

A short line; a notation for extending the range above or below the staff.

- They discussed "leger line" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "leger line" to mean a short line; a notation for extending the range....

---

leprechaun (noun)

A mischievous elf in Irish folklore.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leprechaun."
- He looked up "leprechaun" because he had never seen it before.

---

lethargy (noun)

Inactivity; showing an unusual lack of energy.

- In class, the teacher used "lethargy" to mean inactivity; showing an unusual lack of energy.
- The article explained what "lethargy" means with a simple example.

---

lettered (adjective)

Highly educated; having extensive information or understanding.

- A "lettered" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "lettered"? Explain why.

---

lifeblood (noun)

An essential or life-giving force.

- Water is the lifeblood of India.
- Understanding "lifeblood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lilian alicia marks (noun)

English ballet dancer (born 1910).

- Understanding "lilian alicia marks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lilian alicia marks" to mean english ballet dancer (born in 1910).

---

lilo (noun)

A type of inflatable air mattress.

- In class, the teacher used "lilo" to mean a type of inflatable air mattress.
- He looked up "lilo" because he had never seen it before.

---

linguistically (adverb)

With respect to the science of linguistics.

- Linguistically interesting data.
- Linguistically impaired children.

---

littoral (noun)

The region of the shore of a lake or sea or ocean.

- They discussed "littoral" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "littoral" means with a simple example.

---

littoral zone (noun)

The region of the shore of a lake or sea or ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "littoral zone."
- Understanding "littoral zone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lowes (verb)

Make a low noise, characteristic of bovines.

- She tried to use "lowes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "lowes" and when to wait.

---

lumbering (noun)

The trade of cutting or preparing or selling timber.

- They discussed "lumbering" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lumbering" means with a simple example.

---

macular area (noun)

A small yellowish central area of the retina that is rich in cones and that mediates clear detailed vision.

- In class, the teacher used "macular area" to mean a small yellowish central area of the retina that....
- He looked up "macular area" because he had never seen it before.

---

madhouse (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- Understanding "madhouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "madhouse" because he had never seen it before.

---

maelstrom (noun)

A powerful circular current of water (usually the result of conflicting tides).

- Understanding "maelstrom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "maelstrom" to mean a powerful circular current of water (usually the....

---

mahan (noun)

United States naval officer and historian (1840-1914).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mahan."
- The article explained what "mahan" means with a simple example.

---

maligned (verb)

Speak unfavorably about.

- He did not know how to use "maligned" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "maligned" in real sentences.

marchers (noun)

An inhabitant of a border district.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marchers."
- He looked up "marchers" because he had never seen it before.

mazes (noun)

Something jumbled or confused.

- He looked up "mazes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mazes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

meander (verb)

To move or cause to move in a sinuous, spiral, or circular course.

- The path meanders through the vineyards.
- Learners should practice how to use "meander" in real sentences.

meshes (noun)

The number of openings per linear inch of a screen; measures size of particles.

- The article explained what "meshes" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "meshes" during the group presentation.

microscopes (noun)

Magnifier of the image of small objects.

- The article explained what "microscopes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "microscopes" to mean magnifier of the image of small objects.

milk adder (noun)

Nonvenomous tan and brown king snake with an arrow-shaped occipital spot; southeastern ones have red stripes like coral snakes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milk adder."
- He looked up "milk adder" because he had never seen it before.

milkshakes (noun)

Frothy drink of milk and flavoring and sometimes fruit or ice cream.

- In class, the teacher used "milkshakes" to mean frothy drink of milk and flavoring and sometimes....
- They discussed "milkshakes" during the group presentation.

mimosa (noun)

A mixed drink containing champagne and orange juice.

- He looked up "mimosa" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mimosa" during the group presentation.

minty (adjective)

Relating to or suggestive of mint.

- The speaker chose "minty" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "minty" when it is relating to or suggestive of mint.

misbehaving (verb)

Behave badly.

- Can you use "misbehaving" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "misbehaving" and when to wait.

misusing (verb)

Change the inherent purpose or function of something.

- In everyday English, people use "misusing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "misusing" in real sentences.

moldy (adjective)

Covered with or smelling of mold.

- Moldy bread.
- A moldy (or musty) odor.

---

moll (noun)

The girlfriend of a gangster.

- He looked up "moll" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "moll" during the group presentation.

---

monorail (noun)

A railway having a single track.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monorail."
- He looked up "monorail" because he had never seen it before.

---

moraine (noun)

Accumulated earth and stones deposited by a glacier.

- The article explained what "moraine" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moraine."

---

moreton bay pine (noun)

Pine of Australia and New Guinea; yields a valuable light even-textured wood.

- Understanding "moreton bay pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "moreton bay pine" to mean pine of australia and new guinea; yields a valuable....

---

morpheus (noun)

The Roman god of sleep and dreams.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morpheus."
- He looked up "morpheus" because he had never seen it before.

---

morphing (verb)

Cause to change shape in a computer animation.

- The coach explained when to use "morphing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "morphing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

moss campion (noun)

Tuft- or mat-forming dwarf perennial of Arctic regions of western and central Europe and North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moss campion."
- He looked up "moss campion" because he had never seen it before.

---

mullah omar (noun)

Reclusive Afghanistani politician and leader of the Taliban who imposed a strict interpretation of shariah law on Afghanistan (born in 1960).

- Understanding "mullah omar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mullah omar."

---

nanking (noun)

A city in eastern China on the Yangtze River; a former capital of China; the scene of a Japanese massacre in the 1930s.

- He looked up "nanking" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nanking" to mean a city in eastern china on the yangtze river; a....

---

nationalised (verb)

Make national in character or scope.

- In everyday English, people use "nationalised" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "nationalised" until he saw an example.

---

native fuchsia (noun)

Erect deciduous shrub or tree to 10 feet with maroon flowers; New Zealand.

- Understanding "native fuchsia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "native fuchsia" means with a simple example.

---

nepalese rupee (noun)

The basic unit of money in Nepal; equal to 100 paisa.

- In class, the teacher used "nepalese rupee" to mean the basic unit of money in nepal; equal to 100 paisa.
- He looked up "nepalese rupee" because he had never seen it before.

---

nerve block anaesthesia (noun)

Anesthesia of an area supplied by a nerve; produced by an anesthetic agent applied to the nerve.

- The article explained what "nerve block anaesthesia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nerve block anaesthesia" to mean anesthesia of an area supplied by a nerve; produced....

---

new ballgame (noun)

A particular situation that is radically different from the preceding situation.

- HDTV looks the same but it's really a whole new ballgame.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new ballgame."

---

new caledonian yew (noun)

Large yew native to New Caledonia; cultivated in eastern Australia and New Zealand and Hawaii.

- The article explained what "new caledonian yew" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "new caledonian yew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

newtonian mechanics (noun)

The branch of mechanics based on Newton's laws of motion.

- In class, the teacher used "newtonian mechanics" to mean the branch of mechanics based on newton's laws of....
- Understanding "newtonian mechanics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nicklaus (noun)

United States golfer considered by many to be the greatest golfer of all time (born in 1940).

- In class, the teacher used "nicklaus" to mean united states golfer considered by many to be the....
- They discussed "nicklaus" during the group presentation.

---

nicol prism (noun)

Optical device that produces plane-polarized light.

- He looked up "nicol prism" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nicol prism."

---

nonviolence (noun)

Peaceful resistance to a government by fasting or refusing to cooperate.

- Understanding "nonviolence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nonviolence" because he had never seen it before.

---

oboe (noun)

A slender double-reed instrument; a woodwind with a conical bore and a double-reed mouthpiece.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oboe."
- Understanding "oboe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ochre (noun)

A moderate yellow-orange to orange color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ochre."
- They discussed "ochre" during the group presentation.

---

offset lithography (noun)

Offset printing by lithography.

- Understanding "offset lithography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "offset lithography" because he had never seen it before.

---

ogle (verb)

Look at with amorous intentions.

- In everyday English, people use "ogle" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "ogle" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oligarch (noun)

One of the rulers in an oligarchy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oligarch."
- Understanding "oligarch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

opulence (noun)

Wealth as evidenced by sumptuous living.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opulence."
- They discussed "opulence" during the group presentation.

---

orang (noun)

Large long-armed ape of Borneo and Sumatra having arboreal habits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orang."
- He looked up "orang" because he had never seen it before.

---

overeating (noun)

Eating to excess (personified as one of the deadly sins).

- Understanding "overeating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overeating."

---

overheads (noun)

A transparency for use with an overhead projector.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overheads."
- Understanding "overheads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overlays (noun)

A layer of decorative material (such as gold leaf or wood veneer) applied over a surface.

- The article explained what "overlays" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "overlays" during the group presentation.

---

overreacted (verb)

Show an exaggerated response to something.

- She tried to use "overreacted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "overreacted" until he saw an example.

---

oxidase (noun)

Any of the enzymes that catalyze biological oxidation.

- They discussed "oxidase" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oxidase."

---

paget (noun)

English pathologist who discovered the cause of trichinosis (1814-1899).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paget."
- They discussed "paget" during the group presentation.

---

paleozoic (adjective)

Of or relating to or denoting the Paleozoic era.

- It is useful to describe something as "paleozoic" when it is of or relating to or denoting the paleozoic era.
- The speaker chose "paleozoic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

paleozoic era (noun)

From 544 million to about 230 million years ago.

- Understanding “paleozoic era” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “paleozoic era” to mean from 544 million to about 230 million years ago.

---

pali (noun)

An ancient Prakrit language (derived from Sanskrit) that is the scriptural and liturgical language of Theravada Buddhism.

- Understanding “pali” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “pali” during the group presentation.

---

palpitations (noun)

A rapid and irregular heart beat.

- Understanding “palpitations” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “palpitations” because he had never seen it before.

---

pancreatitis (noun)

Inflammation of the pancreas; usually marked by abdominal pain.

- The article explained what “pancreatitis” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pancreatitis.”

---

pandemonium (noun)

A state of extreme confusion and disorder.

- They discussed “pandemonium” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “pandemonium” because he had never seen it before.

---

parlors (noun)

A room in a private house or establishment where people can sit and talk and relax.

- The article explained what “parlors” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “parlors” to mean a room in a private house or establishment where....

---

patronising (adjective)

(used of behavior or attitude) characteristic of those who treat others with condescension.

- Students compared “patronising” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “patronising.”

---

payoffs (noun)

A recompense for worthy acts or retribution for wrongdoing.

- He looked up “payoffs” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “payoffs.”

---

peacemaker (noun)

A belt-fed machine gun capable of firing more than 500 rounds per minute; used by United States troops in World War II and the Korean War.

- In class, the teacher used “peacemaker” to mean a belt-fed machine gun capable of firing more than....
- They discussed “peacemaker” during the group presentation.

---

pectoral medallion (noun)

An adornment worn on the chest or breast.

- The article explained what “pectoral medallion” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “pectoral medallion” to mean an adornment worn on the chest or breast.

---

permeates (verb)

Spread or diffuse through.

- Water permeates sand easily.
- Learners should practice how to use “permeates” in real sentences.

---

pernicious anemia (noun)

A chronic progressive anemia of older adults; thought to result from a lack of intrinsic factor (a substance secreted by the stomach that is responsible for the absorption of vitamin B12).

- In class, the teacher used “pernicious anemia” to mean a chronic progressive anemia of older adults;....
- Understanding “pernicious anemia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

perpetuates (verb)

Cause to continue or prevail.

- She tried to use “perpetuates” carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use “perpetuates” until he saw an example.

personable (adjective)

(of persons) pleasant in appearance and personality.

- A “personable” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “personable”? Explain why.

personalize (verb)

Make personal or more personal.

- Personalized service.
- She tried to use “personalize” carefully so everyone would understand.

perturbed (adjective)

Thrown into a state of agitated confusion; (‘rattled’ is an informal term).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “perturbed.”
- Students compared “perturbed” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

phenotypes (noun)

What an organism looks like as a consequence of the interaction of its genotype and the environment.

- They discussed “phenotypes” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “phenotypes” to mean what an organism looks like as a consequence of the....

philanthropists (noun)

Someone who makes charitable donations intended to increase human well-being.

- In class, the teacher used “philanthropists” to mean someone who makes charitable donations intended to....
- The article explained what “philanthropists” means with a simple example.

phoenician (noun)

A member of an ancient Semitic people who dominated trade in the first millennium B.C.

- He looked up “phoenician” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “phoenician” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

phone tapper (noun)

Someone who wiretaps a telephone or telegraph wire.

- He looked up “phone tapper” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “phone tapper” to mean someone who wiretaps a telephone or telegraph wire.

phoney (noun)

A person who professes beliefs and opinions that he or she does not hold in order to conceal his or her real feelings or motives.

- They discussed “phoney” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “phoney.”

physiological sphincter (noun)

A sphincter that is not recognizable at autopsy because its resting arrangement cannot be distinguished from adjacent tissue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “physiological sphincter.”
- The article explained what “physiological sphincter” means with a simple example.

pig’s ears (noun)

An edible agaric with a brown fruiting body that is often compound.

- The article explained what “pig’s ears” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “pig’s ears” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

piping guan (noun)

A kind of guan.

- Understanding "piping guan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piping guan."

---

platypus (noun)

Small densely furred aquatic monotreme of Australia and Tasmania having a broad bill and tail and webbed feet; only species in the family Ornithorhynchidae.

- He looked up "platypus" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "platypus."

---

plows (verb)

To break and turn over earth especially with a plow.

- Can you use "plows" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "plows" and when to wait.

---

pollutant (noun)

Waste matter that contaminates the water or air or soil.

- They discussed "pollutant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pollutant" means with a simple example.

---

polypropylene (noun)

A polymer of propylene used as a thermoplastic molding material.

- Understanding "polypropylene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "polypropylene" during the group presentation.

---

prankster (noun)

Someone who plays practical jokes on others.

- Understanding "prankster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prankster."

---

priestley (noun)

English chemist who isolated many gases and discovered oxygen (independently of Scheele) (1733-1804).

- The article explained what "priestley" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "priestley" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

profitably (adverb)

In a productive way.

- Place "profitably" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "profitably," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

proliferate (verb)

Cause to grow or increase rapidly.

- We must not proliferate nuclear arms.
- Pizza parlors proliferate in this area.

---

propagandist (noun)

A person who disseminates messages calculated to assist some cause or some government.

- Understanding "propagandist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "propagandist" during the group presentation.

---

publically (adverb)

In a manner accessible to or observable by the public; openly.

- The narrator describes the scene "publically" in the final chapter.
- He answered "publically," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

punting (noun)

(football) a kick in which the football is dropped from the hands and kicked before it touches the ground.

- Punting is an important part of the game.

- They discussed "punting" during the group presentation.

---

pyre (noun)

Wood heaped for burning a dead body as a funeral rite.

- He looked up "pyre" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pyre."

---

quibble (noun)

An evasion of the point of an argument by raising irrelevant distinctions or objections.

- Understanding "quibble" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "quibble" to mean an evasion of the point of an argument by raising....

---

rabble-rousing (adjective)

Arousing to action or rebellion.

- Would you call this situation "rabble-rousing"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rabble-rousing."

---

radical mastectomy (noun)

Removal of a breast and the underlying muscles (pectoralis major and pectoralis minor) and lymph nodes in the adjacent armpit.

- He looked up "radical mastectomy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "radical mastectomy" during the group presentation.

---

ravishing (adjective)

Stunningly beautiful.

- A ravishing blonde.
- A "ravishing" approach may work better in this case.

---

readout (noun)

The output of a computer in readable form.

- In class, the teacher used "readout" to mean the output of a computer in readable form.
- The article explained what "readout" means with a simple example.

---

recidivism (noun)

Habitual relapse into crime.

- The article explained what "recidivism" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recidivism" to mean habitual relapse into crime.

---

recollect (verb)

Recall knowledge from memory; have a recollection.

- In everyday English, people use "recollect" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "recollect" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

reis (noun)

The basic unit of money in Brazil; equal to 100 centavos.

- The article explained what "reis" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reis" during the group presentation.

---

reiterates (verb)

To say, state, or perform again.

- Learners should practice how to use "reiterates" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "reiterates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

relievers (noun)

A person who reduces the intensity (e.g., of fears) and calms and pacifies.

- They discussed "relievers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "relievers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

repeatable (adjective)

Able or fit to be repeated or quoted.

- What he said was not repeatable in polite company.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "repeatable."

---

replicates (verb)

Make or do or perform again.

- Learners should practice how to use "replicates" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "replicates" until he saw an example.

---

requisition (noun)

An official form on which a request in made.

- First you have to fill out the requisition.
- In class, the teacher used "requisition" to mean an official form on which a request in made.

---

requisition form (noun)

An official form on which a request in made.

- First you have to fill out the requisition.
- In class, the teacher used "requisition form" to mean an official form on which a request in made.

---

resettled (adjective)

Settled in a new location.

- It is useful to describe something as "resettled" when it is settled in a new location.
- Students compared "resettled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

resistances (noun)

The military action of resisting the enemy's advance.

- In class, the teacher used "resistances" to mean the military action of resisting the enemy's advance.
- They discussed "resistances" during the group presentation.

---

restarts (verb)

Take up or begin anew.

- Learners should practice how to use "restarts" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "restarts" until he saw an example.

---

retrace (verb)

To go back over again.

- We retraced the route we took last summer.
- The coach explained when to use "retrace" and when to wait.

---

reusing (verb)

Use again after processing.

- In everyday English, people use "reusing" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "reusing" until he saw an example.

---

rhea silvia (noun)

(Roman mythology) a vestal virgin who became the mother by Mars of the twins Romulus and Remus.

- He looked up "rhea silvia" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rhea silvia" during the group presentation.

---

richard haldane (noun)

Scottish statesman and brother of Elizabeth and John Haldane (1856-1928).

- In class, the teacher used "richard haldane" to mean scottish statesman and brother of elizabeth and....
- He looked up "richard haldane" because he had never seen it before.

---

rip van winkle (noun)

The title character in a story by Washington Irving about a man who sleeps for 20 years and doesn't recognize the world when he wakens.

- Understanding "rip van winkle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rip van winkle" to mean the title character in a story by washington irving....

---

rivet (verb)

Hold (someone's attention).

- The discovery of the skull riveted the paleontologists.
- She tried to use "rivet" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rivet line (noun)

A line of rivets at a seam.

- The fuselage cracked along the rivet line.
- Understanding "rivet line" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roadhouse (noun)

An inn (usually outside city limits on a main road) providing meals and liquor and dancing and (sometimes) gambling.

- He looked up "roadhouse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roadhouse."

---

romulus (noun)

(Roman mythology) founder of Rome; suckled with his twin brother Remus by a wolf after their parents (Mars and Rhea Silvia) abandoned them; Romulus killed Remus in an argument over the building of Rome.

- They discussed "romulus" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "romulus" because he had never seen it before.

---

roughing (verb)

Prepare in preliminary or sketchy form.

- In everyday English, people use "roughing" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "roughing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ruffles (verb)

To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.

- In everyday English, people use "ruffles" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "ruffles" in real sentences.

---

ruinous (adjective)

Extremely harmful; bringing physical or financial ruin.

- A ruinous course of action.
- A ruinous war.

---

sadat (noun)

Egyptian statesman who (as president of Egypt) negotiated a peace treaty with Menachem Begin (then prime minister of Israel) (1918-1981).

- The article explained what "sadat" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sadat" during the group presentation.

---

saint ignatius of loyola (noun)

Spaniard and Roman Catholic theologian and founder of the Society of Jesus; a leading opponent of the Reformation (1491-1556).

- In class, the teacher used "saint ignatius of loyola" to mean spaniard and roman catholic theologian and founder....
- The article explained what "saint ignatius of loyola" means with a simple example.

---

saintly (adjective)

Marked by utter benignity; resembling or befitting an angel or saint.

- A saintly concern for his fellow men.
- Students compared "saintly" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

scalability (noun)

The quality of being scalable.

- They discussed "scalability" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scalability."

scuttle (verb)

To move about or proceed hurriedly.

- The coach explained when to use "scuttle" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "scuttle" in real sentences.

sea bream (noun)

Flesh of any of various saltwater fishes of the family Sparidae or the family Bramidae.

- In class, the teacher used "sea bream" to mean flesh of any of various saltwater fishes of the....
- The article explained what "sea bream" means with a simple example.

second marquis of rockingham (noun)

English statesman who served as prime minister and who opposed the war with the American colonies (1730-1782).

- Understanding "second marquis of rockingham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "second marquis of rockingham" because he had never seen it before.

selkirk (noun)

Scottish sailor who was put ashore on a deserted island off the coast of Chile for five years (providing the basis for Daniel Defoe's novel about Robinson Crusoe) (1676-1721).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "selkirk."
- The article explained what "selkirk" means with a simple example.

seltzer (noun)

Effervescent beverage artificially charged with carbon dioxide.

- The article explained what "seltzer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seltzer."

showy sunflower (noun)

Tall rough-leaved perennial with a few large flower heads; central United States.

- The article explained what "showy sunflower" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "showy sunflower" to mean tall rough-leaved perennial with a few large flower....

sir james paget (noun)

English pathologist who discovered the cause of trichinosis (1814-1899).

- The article explained what "sir james paget" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sir james paget" during the group presentation.

sir william gerald golding (noun)

English novelist (1911-1993).

- In class, the teacher used "sir william gerald golding" to mean english novelist (1911-1993).
- The article explained what "sir william gerald golding" means with a simple example.

skyward (adjective)

Directed toward heaven or the sky.

- A "skyward" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "skyward" when it is directed toward heaven or the sky.

slim-waisted (adjective)

Having a small waist.

- A "slim-waisted" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "slim-waisted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

slings (noun)

A shoe that has a strap that wraps around the heel.

- Understanding "slings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slings."

slop basin (noun)

A bowl into which the dregs of teacups and coffee cups are emptied at the table.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slop basin."
- He looked up "slop basin" because he had never seen it before.

---

slop-seller (noun)

A dealer in cheap ready-made clothing.

- He looked up "slop-seller" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slop-seller."

---

slouch hat (noun)

A soft felt hat with a wide flexible brim.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slouch hat."
- He looked up "slouch hat" because he had never seen it before.

---

solomons (noun)

The northernmost islands are part of Papua New Guinea; the remainder form an independent state within the British Commonwealth.

- Understanding "solomons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "solomons" to mean the northernmost islands are part of papua new....

---

spinster (noun)

An elderly unmarried woman.

- In class, the teacher used "spinster" to mean an elderly unmarried woman.
- They discussed "spinster" during the group presentation.

---

spliced (verb)

Join together so as to form new genetic combinations.

- The couple got spliced on Hawaii.
- She tried to use "spliced" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

sprinted (verb)

Run very fast, usually for a short distance.

- In everyday English, people use "sprinted" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "sprinted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

spud (verb)

Initiate drilling operations, as for petroleum.

- The well was spudded in April.
- Learners should practice how to use "spud" in real sentences.

---

squalor (noun)

Sordid dirtiness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "squalor."
- He looked up "squalor" because he had never seen it before.

---

stabilisation (noun)

The act of stabilizing something or making it more stable.

- In class, the teacher used "stabilisation" to mean the act of stabilizing something or making it more....
- They discussed "stabilisation" during the group presentation.

---

startle (noun)

A sudden involuntary movement.

- They discussed "startle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "startle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

startle reaction (noun)

A complicated involuntary reaction to a sudden unexpected stimulus (especially a loud noise); involves flexion of most skeletal muscles and a variety of visceral reactions.

- Understanding "startle reaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "startle reaction" during the group presentation.

---

startle response (noun)

A complicated involuntary reaction to a sudden unexpected stimulus (especially a loud noise); involves flexion of most skeletal muscles and a variety of visceral reactions.

- He looked up "startle response" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "startle response."

---

staunchly (adverb)

In a staunch manner.

- He staunchly defended his principles.
- Using "staunchly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

steadfastly (adverb)

With resolute determination.

- He answered "steadfastly," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- The narrator describes the scene "steadfastly" in the final chapter.

---

straying (adjective)

Unable to find your way.

- Found the straying sheep.
- A "straying" approach may work better in this case.

---

streaking (verb)

Move quickly in a straight line.

- She tried to use "streaking" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "streaking" when talking about this idea.

---

stubby (adjective)

Short and blunt.

- Stubby fingers.
- A stubby pencil.

---

subjugated (adjective)

Reduced to submission.

- Subjugated peoples.
- Would you call this situation "subjugated"? Explain why.

---

subsidizing (verb)

Support through subsidies.

- Can you use "subsidizing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "subsidizing" and when to wait.

---

subterfuge (noun)

Something intended to misrepresent the true nature of an activity.

- He wasn't sick–it was just a subterfuge.
- He looked up "subterfuge" because he had never seen it before.

---

supercharger (noun)

Compressor that forces increased oxygen into the cylinders of an internal-combustion engine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supercharger."
- Understanding "supercharger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

surfactants (noun)

A chemical agent capable of reducing the surface tension of a liquid in which it is dissolved.

- He looked up "surfactants" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surfactants."

---

surreptitiously (adverb)

In a surreptitious manner.

- He was watching her surreptitiously as she waited in the hotel lobby.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "surreptitiously" naturally.

---

symonds (noun)

English writer (1840-1893).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "symonds."
- Understanding "symonds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

table-tennis racquet (noun)

Paddle used to play table tennis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "table-tennis racquet."
- Understanding "table-tennis racquet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tablecloth (noun)

A covering spread over a dining table.

- Understanding "tablecloth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tablecloth" means with a simple example.

---

tacitly (adverb)

In a tacit manner; by unexpressed agreement.

- They are tacitly expected to work 10 hours a day.
- He answered "tacitly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

tailing (noun)

The act of following someone secretly.

- In class, the teacher used "tailing" to mean the act of following someone secretly.
- The article explained what "tailing" means with a simple example.

---

tailings (noun)

The act of following someone secretly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tailings."
- They discussed "tailings" during the group presentation.

---

tapper (noun)

A person who strikes a surface lightly and usually repeatedly.

- Finger tappers irritated her.
- He looked up "tapper" because he had never seen it before.

---

tardy (adjective)

After the expected or usual time; delayed.

- Tardy children are sent to the principal.
- Always tardy in making dental appointments.

---

tassel (noun)

Adornment consisting of a bunch of cords fastened at one end.

- He looked up "tassel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tassel" to mean adornment consisting of a bunch of cords fastened....

---

tennis racquet (noun)

A racket used to play tennis.

- In class, the teacher used "tennis racquet" to mean a racket used to play tennis.
- The article explained what "tennis racquet" means with a simple example.

---

teutonic deity (noun)

(German mythology) a deity worshipped by the ancient Teutons.

- He looked up “teutonic deity” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “teutonic deity.”

---

thicket (noun)

A dense growth of bushes.

- He looked up “thicket” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thicket.”

---

threefold (adjective)

Having more than one decidedly dissimilar aspects or qualities; ; - R.W.Emerson; -Frederick Harrison.

- A threefold increase.
- The speaker chose “threefold” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

thruster (noun)

A small rocket engine that provides the thrust needed to maneuver a spacecraft.

- The article explained what “thruster” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thruster.”

---

ths (noun)

The fifth day of the week; the fourth working day.

- They discussed “ths” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “ths” means with a simple example.

---

tidying (verb)

Put (things or places) in order.

- The coach explained when to use “tidying” and when to wait.
- Can you use “tidying” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tinned (adjective)

Sealed in a can or jar.

- It is useful to describe something as “tinned” when it is sealed in a can or jar.
- Students compared “tinned” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

toasting (noun)

Cooking to a brown crispiness over a fire or on a grill.

- Proper toasting should brown both sides of a piece of bread.
- The article explained what “toasting” means with a simple example.

---

torchwood family (noun)

Resinous or aromatic chiefly tropical shrubs or trees.

- The article explained what “torchwood family” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “torchwood family” to mean resinous or aromatic chiefly tropical shrubs or trees.

---

transcribe (verb)

Rewrite in a different script.

- Transcribe the oral history of this tribe.
- The anthropologist transcribed the sentences of the native informant.

---

trapeze (noun)

A swing used by circus acrobats.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trapeze.”
- He looked up “trapeze” because he had never seen it before.

---

tree fuchsia (noun)

Erect deciduous shrub or tree to 10 feet with maroon flowers; New Zealand.

- The article explained what “tree fuchsia” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “tree fuchsia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

triangulation (noun)

A trigonometric method of determining the position of a fixed point from the angles to it from two fixed points a known distance apart; useful in navigation.

- They discussed "triangulation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "triangulation."

trifling (noun)

The deliberate act of delaying and playing instead of working.

- They discussed "trifling" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "trifling" to mean the deliberate act of delaying and playing instead....

twirl (noun)

The act of rotating rapidly.

- He looked up "twirl" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "twirl" to mean the act of rotating rapidly.

unconsciousness (noun)

A state lacking normal awareness of the self or environment.

- In class, the teacher used "unconsciousness" to mean a state lacking normal awareness of the self or....
- Understanding "unconsciousness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

unconvincing (adjective)

Having a probability too low to inspire belief.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unconvincing."
- The speaker chose "unconvincing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

undaunted (adjective)

Resolutely courageous.

- Undaunted in the face of death.
- Would you call this situation "undaunted"? Explain why.

underlining (verb)

Give extra weight to (a communication).

- Can you use "underlining" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "underlining" and when to wait.

underpinned (verb)

Support with evidence or authority or make more certain or confirm.

- The coach explained when to use "underpinned" and when to wait.
- Can you use "underpinned" in a sentence that fits this situation?

undeserved (adjective)

Not deserved or earned.

- Has an undeserved reputation as a coward.
- The speaker chose "undeserved" because it captured the feeling precisely.

unearth (verb)

Recover through digging.

- The CIA unearthed a plot to kill the President.
- In everyday English, people use "unearth" when talking about this idea.

unsaid (adjective)

Not made explicit.

- Things left unsaid.
- Would you call this situation "unsaid"? Explain why.

unsurprising (adjective)

Not causing surprise.

- A "unsurprising" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "unsurprising"? Explain why.

---

uppers (noun)

Piece of leather or synthetic material that forms the part of a shoe or boot above the sole that encases the foot.

- Uppers come in many styles.
- They discussed "uppers" during the group presentation.

---

uta (noun)

A reptile genus of Iguanidae.

- In class, the teacher used "uta" to mean a reptile genus of iguanidae.
- Understanding "uta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

uttering (verb)

Express audibly; utter sounds (not necessarily words).

- Learners should practice how to use "uttering" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "uttering" and when to wait.

---

velvety (adjective)

Resembling velvet in having a smooth soft surface.

- The speaker chose "velvety" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "velvety"? Explain why.

---

vim (noun)

A healthy capacity for vigorous activity.

- He seemed full of vim and vigor.
- Understanding "vim" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wallabies (noun)

Any of various small or medium-sized kangaroos; often brightly colored.

- In class, the teacher used "wallabies" to mean any of various small or medium-sized kangaroos;....
- They discussed "wallabies" during the group presentation.

---

wildflower (noun)

Wild or uncultivated flowering plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wildflower."
- The article explained what "wildflower" means with a simple example.

---

william inge (noun)

United States playwright (1913-1973).

- Understanding "william inge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "william inge" during the group presentation.

---

wine-maker's yeast (noun)

Used in making wine.

- He looked up "wine-maker's yeast" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wine-maker's yeast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

winemaker (noun)

Someone who makes wine.

- The article explained what "winemaker" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "winemaker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wiretap (verb)

Tap a telephone or telegraph wire to get information.

- She tried to use "wiretap" carefully so everyone would understand.

- The coach explained when to use "wiretap" and when to wait.

---

woeful (adjective)

Of very poor quality or condition.

- Woeful treatment of the accused.
- Woeful errors of judgment.

---

xhosa (noun)

A Bantu language closely related to Zulu.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "xhosa."
- The article explained what "xhosa" means with a simple example.

---

yardstick (noun)

A measure or standard used for comparison.

- On what kind of yardstick is he basing his judgment?
- Understanding "yardstick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yellow ochre (noun)

Pigment consisting of a limonite mixed with clay and silica.

- They discussed "yellow ochre" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow ochre."

---

abounds (verb)

Be in a state of movement or action.

- The coach explained when to use "abounds" and when to wait.
- Can you use "abounds" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

accumulator (noun)

A voltaic battery that stores electric charge.

- Understanding "accumulator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "accumulator" because he had never seen it before.

---

aerosols (noun)

A cloud of solid or liquid particles in a gas.

- Understanding "aerosols" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "aerosols" during the group presentation.

---

airfields (noun)

A place where planes take off and land.

- They discussed "airfields" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "airfields" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

allude (verb)

Make a more or less disguised reference to.

- He alluded to the problem but did not mention it.
- Can you use "allude" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

alpine salamander (noun)

Ovoviviparous amphibian of the Alps.

- The article explained what "alpine salamander" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alpine salamander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ambrose everett burnside (noun)

United States general in the American Civil War who was defeated by Robert E. Lee at the Battle of Fredericksburg (1824-1881).

- In class, the teacher used "ambrose everett burnside" to mean united states general in the american civil war who....
- The article explained what "ambrose everett burnside" means with a simple example.

---

american shrew mole (noun)

Greyish-black shrew mole of the United States and Canada.

- In class, the teacher used "american shrew mole" to mean greyish-black shrew mole of the united states and....
- They discussed "american shrew mole" during the group presentation.

---

anas (noun)

Type genus of the Anatidae: freshwater ducks.

- They discussed "anas" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anas."

---

androgynous (adjective)

Having both male and female characteristics.

- The speaker chose "androgynous" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "androgynous" when it is having both male and female characteristics.

---

animus (noun)

A feeling of ill will arousing active hostility.

- They discussed "animus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "animus" to mean a feeling of ill will arousing active hostility.

---

anion (noun)

A negatively charged ion.

- They discussed "anion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "anion" to mean a negatively charged ion.

---

antipathy (noun)

The object of a feeling of intense aversion; something to be avoided.

- Cats were his greatest antipathy.
- In class, the teacher used "antipathy" to mean the object of a feeling of intense aversion;....

---

anubis (noun)

Egyptian god of tombs and ruler of the underworld; usually depicted as a man with the head of a jackal.

- In class, the teacher used "anubis" to mean egyptian god of tombs and ruler of the underworld;....
- He looked up "anubis" because he had never seen it before.

---

archdeacon (noun)

(Anglican Church) an ecclesiastical dignitary usually ranking just below a bishop.

- In class, the teacher used "archdeacon" to mean (anglican church) an ecclesiastical dignitary....
- He looked up "archdeacon" because he had never seen it before.

---

arginine (noun)

A bitter tasting amino acid found in proteins and necessary for nutrition; its absence from the diet leads to a reduced production of spermatozoa.

- They discussed "arginine" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "arginine" means with a simple example.

---

armadillo (noun)

Burrowing chiefly nocturnal mammal with body covered with strong horny plates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "armadillo."
- They discussed "armadillo" during the group presentation.

---

armband (noun)

A band worn around the upper arm.

- They discussed "armband" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "armband" means with a simple example.

---

arp (noun)

Alsatian artist and poet who was cofounder of dadaism in Zurich; noted for abstract organic sculptures (1887-1966).

- They discussed "arp" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "arp" to mean alsatian artist and poet who was cofounder of....

---

artefact (noun)

A man-made object taken as a whole.

- Understanding "artefact" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "artefact" during the group presentation.

---

ass-kisser (noun)

A person who tries to please someone in order to gain a personal advantage.

- The article explained what "ass-kisser" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ass-kisser" to mean a person who tries to please someone in order to....

---

atlantic halibut (noun)

Largest United States flatfish.

- They discussed "atlantic halibut" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "atlantic halibut" means with a simple example.

---

australian nettle tree (noun)

Any of several tall Australian trees of the genus Laportea.

- He looked up "australian nettle tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "australian nettle tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

awning (noun)

A canopy made of canvas to shelter people or things from rain or sun.

- Understanding "awning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "awning" because he had never seen it before.

---

awol (adjective)

Absent without permission.

- The soldier was AWOL for almost a week.
- The speaker chose "awol" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

azure aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- He looked up "azure aster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "azure aster" during the group presentation.

---

bacillus (noun)

Aerobic rod-shaped spore-producing bacterium; often occurring in chainlike formations; found primarily in soil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bacillus."
- The article explained what "bacillus" means with a simple example.

---

balmy (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- It used to drive my husband balmy.
- Balmy days and nights.

---

barbeque (noun)

A rack to hold meat for cooking over hot charcoal usually out of doors.

- They discussed "barbeque" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barbeque."

---

bards (noun)

An ornamental caparison for a horse.

- Understanding "bards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bards" because he had never seen it before.

berber (noun)

A member of an indigenous people of northern Africa.

- Understanding "berber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "berber."

bicycling (noun)

Riding a bicycle.

- In class, the teacher used "bicycling" to mean riding a bicycle.
- They discussed "bicycling" during the group presentation.

binomial (adjective)

Of or relating to or consisting of two terms.

- Binomial expression.
- The speaker chose "binomial" because it captured the feeling precisely.

bladder sphincter (noun)

The sphincter muscle of the urinary bladder; made up of a thickened muscular layer of bladder around the urethral opening.

- He looked up "bladder sphincter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bladder sphincter" during the group presentation.

blinders (noun)

Blind consisting of a leather eyepatch sewn to the side of the halter that prevents a horse from seeing something on either side.

- They discussed "blinders" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "blinders" because he had never seen it before.

bloodhound (noun)

A breed of large powerful hound of European origin having very acute smell and used in tracking.

- Understanding "bloodhound" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bloodhound" to mean a breed of large powerful hound of european origin....

bog aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- They discussed "bog aster" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bog aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

booger (noun)

An imaginary monster used to frighten children.

- Understanding "booger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "booger" means with a simple example.

bowes (verb)

Bend one's knee or body, or lower one's head.

- The coach explained when to use "bowes" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bowes" carefully so everyone would understand.

brandishing (verb)

Move or swing back and forth.

- In everyday English, people use "brandishing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "brandishing" in real sentences.

bratislava (noun)

Capital and largest city of Slovakia.

- The article explained what "bratislava" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bratislava" during the group presentation.

bromide (noun)

A trite or obvious remark.

- In class, the teacher used "bromide" to mean a trite or obvious remark.
- They discussed "bromide" during the group presentation.

---

bull nettle (noun)

Coarse prickly weed having pale yellow flowers and yellow berrylike fruit; common throughout southern and eastern United States.

- They discussed "bull nettle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bull nettle" means with a simple example.

---

cabana (noun)

A small tent used as a dressing room beside the sea or a swimming pool.

- He looked up "cabana" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabana."

---

cadaver (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- The cadaver was intended for dissection.
- In class, the teacher used "cadaver" to mean the dead body of a human being.

---

caked (verb)

Form a coat over.

- Learners should practice how to use "caked" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "caked" when talking about this idea.

---

calcium bicarbonate (noun)

A bicarbonate that is a major cause of hard water.

- He looked up "calcium bicarbonate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "calcium bicarbonate" to mean a bicarbonate that is a major cause of hard water.

---

calderon de la barca (noun)

Spanish poet and dramatist considered one of the great Spanish writers (1600-1681).

- They discussed "calderon de la barca" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "calderon de la barca" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carnation (noun)

A pink or reddish-pink color.

- They discussed "carnation" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carnation."

---

carnation family (noun)

Large family of herbs or subshrubs (usually with stems swollen at the nodes).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carnation family."
- He looked up "carnation family" because he had never seen it before.

---

carrion flower (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Stapelia having succulent leafless toothed stems resembling cacti and large foul-smelling (often star-shaped) flowers.

- The article explained what "carrion flower" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carrion flower."

---

censuses (noun)

A periodic count of the population.

- The article explained what "censuses" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "censuses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cervical plexus (noun)

A nerve plexus lying beneath the sternocleidomastoid muscle.

- He looked up "cervical plexus" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "cervical plexus" during the group presentation.

---

chesterton (noun)

Conservative English writer of the Roman Catholic persuasion; in addition to volumes of criticism and polemics he wrote detective novels featuring Father Brown (1874-1936).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chesterton."
- The article explained what "chesterton" means with a simple example.

---

chickpeas (noun)

The seed of the chickpea plant.

- The article explained what "chickpeas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chickpeas" to mean the seed of the chickpea plant.

---

child molester (noun)

A man who has sex (usually sodomy) with a boy as the passive partner.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "child molester."
- He looked up "child molester" because he had never seen it before.

---

chili con carne (noun)

Ground beef and chili peppers or chili powder often with tomatoes and kidney beans.

- He looked up "chili con carne" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chili con carne" during the group presentation.

---

choppers (noun)

A butcher's knife having a large square blade.

- He looked up "choppers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "choppers."

---

chronicler (noun)

Someone who writes chronicles.

- The article explained what "chronicler" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chronicler" during the group presentation.

---

chub (noun)

European freshwater game fish with a thick spindle-shaped body.

- He looked up "chub" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chub."

---

chuffed (adjective)

Very pleased.

- I'm chuffed to have won.
- A "chuffed" approach may work better in this case.

---

chutes (noun)

Sloping channel through which things can descend.

- He looked up "chutes" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chutes" to mean sloping channel through which things can descend.

---

circus acrobat (noun)

An acrobat who performs acrobatic feats in a circus.

- The article explained what "circus acrobat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "circus acrobat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

citric (adjective)

Of or related to citric acid.

- Would you call this situation "citric"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "citric" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

clawing (verb)

Move as if by clawing, seizing, or digging.

- In everyday English, people use "clawing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "clawing" in real sentences.

---

cls (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one hundredth of a liter.

- He looked up "cls" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cls" to mean a metric unit of volume equal to one hundredth of a....

---

co-discoverer (noun)

Someone who is the first of two or more people to discover something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "co-discoverer."
- He looked up "co-discoverer" because he had never seen it before.

---

cobblestone (noun)

Rectangular paving stone with curved top; once used to make roads.

- He looked up "cobblestone" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cobblestone."

---

communique (noun)

An official report (usually sent in haste).

- They discussed "communique" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "communique" because he had never seen it before.

---

compacted (verb)

Make more compact by or as if by pressing.

- She tried to use "compacted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "compacted" and when to wait.

---

complementing (verb)

Make complete or perfect; supply what is wanting or form the complement to.

- She tried to use "complementing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "complementing" and when to wait.

---

condiment (noun)

A preparation (a sauce or relish or spice) to enhance flavor or enjoyment.

- Mustard and ketchup are condiments.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "condiment."

---

confederations (noun)

The state of being allied or confederated.

- He looked up "confederations" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "confederations" to mean the state of being allied or confederated.

---

conservationist (noun)

Someone who works to protect the environment from destruction or pollution.

- They discussed "conservationist" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "conservationist" to mean someone who works to protect the environment from....

---

convergent thinker (noun)

A thinker who focuses on the problem as stated and tries to synthesize information and knowledge to achieve a solution.

- In class, the teacher used "convergent thinker" to mean a thinker who focuses on the problem as stated and....
- He looked up "convergent thinker" because he had never seen it before.

---

corkscrew flower (noun)

Perennial tropical American vine cultivated for its racemes of showy yellow and purple flowers having the corolla keel coiled like a snail shell; sometimes placed in genus Phaseolus.

- He looked up “corkscrew flower” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “corkscrew flower” during the group presentation.

---

corroboration (noun)

Confirmation that some fact or statement is true through the use of documentary evidence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “corroboration.”
- Understanding “corroboration” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cots (noun)

A small bed that folds up for storage or transport.

- The article explained what “cots” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cots” to mean a small bed that folds up for storage or transport.

---

crew neckline (noun)

A plain straight neckline opening from shoulder to shoulder of sweaters.

- He looked up “crew neckline” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “crew neckline” during the group presentation.

---

croquet (noun)

A game in which players hit a wooden ball through a series of hoops; the winner is the first to traverse all the hoops and hit a peg.

- The article explained what “croquet” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “croquet” to mean a game in which players hit a wooden ball through a....

---

croquet ball (noun)

A wooden ball used in playing croquet.

- Understanding “croquet ball” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “croquet ball” because he had never seen it before.

---

croquet equipment (noun)

Sports equipment used in playing croquet.

- They discussed “croquet equipment” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “croquet equipment” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crosshairs (noun)

A center of interest.

- The war on terrorism has put Saddam Hussein in the crosshairs.
- The article explained what “crosshairs” means with a simple example.

---

crystallized (adjective)

Having become fixed and definite in form; - Psychological Abstracts.

- Distinguish between crystallized and uncrystallized opinion.
- Students compared “crystallized” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cuddled (verb)

Move or arrange oneself in a comfortable and cozy position.

- We cuddled against each other to keep warm.
- I cuddled the baby.

---

cuppa (noun)

A cup of tea.

- The article explained what “cuppa” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cuppa.”

---

degrades (verb)

Reduce in worth or character, usually verbally.

- In everyday English, people use “degrades” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “degrades” in real sentences.

delectable (adjective)

Capable of arousing desire.

- The delectable Miss Haynes.
- The speaker chose "delectable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

demotion (noun)

Act of lowering in rank or position.

- They discussed "demotion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "demotion" to mean act of lowering in rank or position.

denizens (noun)

A plant or animal naturalized in a region.

- Denizens of field and forest.
- Denizens of the deep.

derailment (noun)

An accident in which a train runs off its track.

- They discussed "derailment" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "derailment" because he had never seen it before.

descriptors (noun)

The phonological or orthographic sound or appearance of a word that can be used to describe or identify something.

- Understanding "descriptors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "descriptors" during the group presentation.

devil nettle (noun)

A stinging herb of tropical America.

- He looked up "devil nettle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "devil nettle" during the group presentation.

discoverer (noun)

Someone who is the first to observe something.

- He looked up "discoverer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "discoverer."

dislodged (verb)

Remove or force from a position of dwelling previously occupied.

- The new employee dislodged her by moving into her office space.
- The dentist dislodged the piece of food that had been stuck under my gums.

dissociative disorder (noun)

Dissociation so severe that the usually integrated functions of consciousness and perception of self break down.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dissociative disorder."
- They discussed "dissociative disorder" during the group presentation.

diverging lens (noun)

A lens such that a parallel beam of light passing through it is caused to diverge or spread out.

- The article explained what "diverging lens" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "diverging lens" during the group presentation.

doubters (noun)

Someone who habitually doubts accepted beliefs.

- Understanding "doubters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "doubters" during the group presentation.

dragoons (verb)

Compel by coercion, threats, or crude means.

- In everyday English, people use "dragoons" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "dragoons" in real sentences.

---

dreadfully (adverb)

In a dreadful manner.

- There was a dreadfully bloody accident on the road this morning.
- He answered "dreadfully," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

dredged (verb)

Remove with a power shovel, usually from a bottom of a body of water.

- He did not know how to use "dredged" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "dredged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

echelons (noun)

A diffraction grating consisting of a pile of plates of equal thickness arranged stepwise with a constant offset.

- The article explained what "echelons" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "echelons" to mean a diffraction grating consisting of a pile of....

---

edward thatch (noun)

An English pirate who operated in the Caribbean and off the Atlantic coast of North America (died in 1718).

- The article explained what "edward thatch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "edward thatch" to mean an english pirate who operated in the caribbean and....

---

eec (noun)

An international organization of European countries formed after World War II to reduce trade barriers and increase cooperation among its members.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eec."
- Understanding "eec" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elation (noun)

An exhilarating psychological state of pride and optimism; an absence of depression.

- He looked up "elation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elation."

---

elucidate (verb)

Make free from confusion or ambiguity; make clear.

- She tried to use "elucidate" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "elucidate" and when to wait.

---

emitters (noun)

The electrode in a transistor where electrons originate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emitters."
- The article explained what "emitters" means with a simple example.

---

empty-bellied (adjective)

Needing nourishment.

- Empty-bellied children.
- A "empty-bellied" approach may work better in this case.

---

engraver (noun)

A printmaker who prints from an engraved printing plate.

- In class, the teacher used "engraver" to mean a printmaker who prints from an engraved printing plate.
- They discussed "engraver" during the group presentation.

---

enlarging (verb)

Add details, as to an account or idea; clarify the meaning of and discourse in a learned way, usually in writing.

- In everyday English, people use "enlarging" when talking about this idea.

- Learners should practice how to use "enlarging" in real sentences.

---

envisage (verb)

Form a mental image of something that is not present or that is not the case.

- The coach explained when to use "envisage" and when to wait.
- Can you use "envisage" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

eon (noun)

An immeasurably long period of time.

- Oh, that happened eons ago.
- He looked up "eon" because he had never seen it before.

---

etcetera (noun)

Additional unspecified odds and ends; more of the same.

- His report was full of etceteras.
- They discussed "etcetera" during the group presentation.

---

eugene victor debs (noun)

United States labor organizer who ran for President as a socialist (1855-1926).

- He looked up "eugene victor debs" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "eugene victor debs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evictions (noun)

The expulsion of someone (such as a tenant) from the possession of land by process of law.

- Understanding "evictions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "evictions" to mean the expulsion of someone (such as a tenant) from....

---

excavator (noun)

A workman who excavates for foundations of buildings or for quarrying.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "excavator."
- He looked up "excavator" because he had never seen it before.

---

exclusionary rule (noun)

A rule that provides that otherwise admissible evidence cannot be used in a criminal trial if it was the result of illegal police conduct.

- Understanding "exclusionary rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "exclusionary rule" to mean a rule that provides that otherwise admissible....

---

excommunication (noun)

The act of banishing a member of a church from the communion of believers and the privileges of the church; cutting a person off from a religious society.

- They discussed "excommunication" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "excommunication."

---

fads (noun)

An interest followed with exaggerated zeal.

- He always follows the latest fads.
- In class, the teacher used "fads" to mean an interest followed with exaggerated zeal.

---

fairing (verb)

Join so that the external surfaces blend smoothly.

- The coach explained when to use "fairing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "fairing" until he saw an example.

---

fan-leaved (adjective)

Having fan-shaped leaves.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fan-leaved."
- A "fan-leaved" approach may work better in this case.

---

fatwa (noun)

A ruling on a point of Islamic law that is given by a recognized authority.

- The article explained what "fatwa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fatwa" to mean a ruling on a point of islamic law that is given by....

fawkes (noun)

English conspirator who was executed for his role in a plot to blow up James I and the Houses of Parliament (1570-1606).

- They discussed "fawkes" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "fawkes" because he had never seen it before.

fen orchid (noun)

Small terrestrial orchid of eastern North America and Europe having two nearly basal leaves and dull yellow-green racemose flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "fen orchid" to mean small terrestrial orchid of eastern north america....
- They discussed "fen orchid" during the group presentation.

ferdinand magellan (noun)

Portuguese navigator in the service of Spain; he commanded an expedition that was the first to circumnavigate the world (1480-1521).

- He looked up "ferdinand magellan" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ferdinand magellan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fine-leaved (adjective)

Having fine leaves.

- Would you call this situation "fine-leaved"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "fine-leaved" because it captured the feeling precisely.

flamingos (noun)

Large pink to scarlet web-footed wading bird with down-bent bill; inhabits brackish lakes.

- In class, the teacher used "flamingos" to mean large pink to scarlet web-footed wading bird with....
- Understanding "flamingos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flippers (noun)

The flat broad limb of aquatic animals specialized for swimming.

- They discussed "flippers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flippers."

flog (verb)

Beat severely with a whip or rod.

- The teacher often flogged the students.
- The coach explained when to use "flog" and when to wait.

flogged (verb)

Beat severely with a whip or rod.

- The teacher often flogged the students.
- She tried to use "flogged" carefully so everyone would understand.

fluorine (noun)

A nonmetallic univalent element belonging to the halogens; usually a yellow irritating toxic flammable gas; a powerful oxidizing agent; recovered from fluorite or cryolite or fluorapatite.

- He looked up "fluorine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fluorine."

flushes (noun)

The swift release of a store of affective force.

- In class, the teacher used "flushes" to mean the swift release of a store of affective force.
- He looked up "flushes" because he had never seen it before.

folic acid (noun)

A B vitamin that is essential for cell growth and reproduction.

- He looked up "folic acid" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "folic acid."

---

forehand (noun)

(sports) a return made with the palm of the hand facing the direction of the stroke (as in tennis or badminton or squash).

- They discussed "forehand" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forehand."

---

forehand drive (noun)

(sports) hard straight return made on the forehand side (as in tennis or badminton or squash).

- They discussed "forehand drive" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forehand drive."

---

forehand shot (noun)

(sports) a return made with the palm of the hand facing the direction of the stroke (as in tennis or badminton or squash).

- The article explained what "forehand shot" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forehand shot."

---

foucault pendulum (noun)

Pendulum with a long wire; can swing in any direction; the change in the swing plane demonstrates the earth's rotation.

- The article explained what "foucault pendulum" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "foucault pendulum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foursquare (noun)

(geometry) a plane rectangle with four equal sides and four right angles; a four-sided regular polygon.

- The article explained what "foursquare" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "foursquare" to mean (geometry) a plane rectangle with four equal sides....

---

friedrich august von hayek (noun)

English economist (born in Austria) noted for work on the optimum allocation of resources (1899-1992).

- In class, the teacher used "friedrich august von hayek" to mean english economist (born in austria) noted for work....
- The article explained what "friedrich august von hayek" means with a simple example.

---

fuego (noun)

A volcano in south central Guatemala.

- In class, the teacher used "fuego" to mean a volcano in south central guatemala.
- The article explained what "fuego" means with a simple example.

---

gabon franc (noun)

The basic unit of money in Gabon.

- They discussed "gabon franc" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gabon franc" to mean the basic unit of money in gabon.

---

gcses (noun)

The basic level of a subject taken in school.

- They discussed "gcses" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gcses" to mean the basic level of a subject taken in school.

---

genus agave (noun)

Type genus of the Agavaceae; in some classifications considered a genus of Amaryllidaceae.

- Understanding "genus agave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "genus agave" because he had never seen it before.

---

genus iguana (noun)

Type genus of the Iguanidae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus iguana."
- The article explained what "genus iguana" means with a simple example.

genus proteus (noun)

Type genus of the Proteidae.

- Understanding "genus proteus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "genus proteus" because he had never seen it before.

givens (noun)

An assumption that is taken for granted.

- He looked up "givens" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "givens" to mean an assumption that is taken for granted.

glandular plague (noun)

The most common form of the plague in humans; characterized by chills, prostration, delirium and the formation of buboes in the armpits and groin; does not spread from person to person.

- He looked up "glandular plague" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "glandular plague" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

glimpsed (verb)

Catch a glimpse of or see briefly.

- We glimpsed the Queen as she got into her limousine.
- Can you use "glimpsed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

glyph (noun)

Glyptic art in the form of a symbolic figure carved or incised in relief.

- Understanding "glyph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "glyph" means with a simple example.

gob (noun)

A lump of slimy stuff.

- A gob of phlegm.
- In class, the teacher used "gob" to mean a lump of slimy stuff.

grammatically (adverb)

In a grammatical manner.

- This child already speaks grammatically.
- Using "grammatically" can make your explanation more exact.

gramophone (noun)

An antique record player; the sound of the vibrating needle is amplified acoustically.

- He looked up "gramophone" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gramophone" to mean an antique record player; the sound of the....

gratefully (adverb)

In a thankful manner; with thanks.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "gratefully" naturally.
- Using "gratefully" can make your explanation more exact.

gregorian telescope (noun)

A reflecting telescope that has a paraboloidal primary mirror and a hyperboloidal secondary mirror; light is brought to a focus through an aperture in the center of the primary mirror.

- He looked up "gregorian telescope" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gregorian telescope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gumbo (noun)

A soup or stew thickened with okra pods.

- He looked up "gumbo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gumbo."

gunnery sergeant (noun)

A noncommissioned officer ranking above a staff sergeant in the marines.

- The article explained what "gunnery sergeant" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gunnery sergeant" during the group presentation.

---

gustav ludwig hertz (noun)

German physicist who with James Franck proved the existence of the stationary energy states postulated by Bohr (1887-1975).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gustav ludwig hertz."
- They discussed "gustav ludwig hertz" during the group presentation.

---

guy fawkes (noun)

English conspirator who was executed for his role in a plot to blow up James I and the Houses of Parliament (1570-1606).

- In class, the teacher used "guy fawkes" to mean english conspirator who was executed for his role....
- The article explained what "guy fawkes" means with a simple example.

---

guy fawkes day (noun)

Day for the celebration of the discovery of the Gunpowder Plot.

- Understanding "guy fawkes day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "guy fawkes day" because he had never seen it before.

---

guy fawkes night (noun)

Effigies of Guy Fawkes are burned on this night.

- In class, the teacher used "guy fawkes night" to mean effigies of guy fawkes are burned on this night.
- The article explained what "guy fawkes night" means with a simple example.

---

hadrian (noun)

Roman Emperor who was the adoptive son of Trajan; travelled throughout his empire to strengthen its frontiers and encourage learning and architecture; on a visit to Britain in 122 he ordered the construction of Hadrian's Wall (76-138).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hadrian."
- The article explained what "hadrian" means with a simple example.

---

harlequin opal (noun)

A reddish opal with small patches of brilliant color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harlequin opal."
- They discussed "harlequin opal" during the group presentation.

---

harrier (noun)

A hound that resembles a foxhound but is smaller; used to hunt rabbits.

- They discussed "harrier" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harrier."

---

harshest (adjective)

Of textures that are rough to the touch or substances consisting of relatively large particles.

- Would you call this situation "harshest"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "harshest."

---

hdl cholesterol (noun)

The cholesterol in high-density lipoproteins; the 'good' cholesterol; a high level in the blood is thought to lower the risk of coronary artery disease.

- Understanding "hdl cholesterol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hdl cholesterol" during the group presentation.

---

heeded (verb)

Pay close attention to; give heed to.

- Can you use "heeded" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "heeded" when talking about this idea.

---

heyward (noun)

United States writer (1885-1940).

- In class, the teacher used "heyward" to mean united states writer (1885-1940).

- The article explained what "heyward" means with a simple example.

---

hibernate (verb)

Be in an inactive or dormant state.

- Bears must eat a lot of food before they hibernate in their caves.
- The coach explained when to use "hibernate" and when to wait.

---

himalaya mountains (noun)

A mountain range extending 1500 miles on the border between India and Tibet; this range contains the world's highest mountain.

- In class, the teacher used "himalaya mountains" to mean a mountain range extending 1500 miles on the border....
- Understanding "himalaya mountains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hollering (noun)

A very loud utterance (like the sound of an animal).

- He looked up "hollering" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hollering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

homeward (adjective)

Oriented toward home.

- In a homeward direction.
- Homeward-bound commuters.

---

hotdogs (noun)

A smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork usually smoked; often served on a bread roll.

- He looked up "hotdogs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hotdogs."

---

hounded (verb)

Pursue or chase relentlessly.

- The detectives hounded the suspect until they found him.
- He did not know how to use "hounded" until he saw an example.

---

huckleberry finn (noun)

A mischievous boy in a novel by Mark Twain.

- They discussed "huckleberry finn" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "huckleberry finn" to mean a mischievous boy in a novel by mark twain.

---

human immunodeficiency virus (noun)

The virus that causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS); it replicates in and kills the helper T cells.

- In class, the teacher used "human immunodeficiency virus" to mean the virus that causes acquired immune deficiency....
- The article explained what "human immunodeficiency virus" means with a simple example.

---

huntingdon elm (noun)

Erect vigorous hybrid ornamental elm tree.

- Understanding "huntingdon elm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "huntingdon elm."

---

idiot savant (noun)

Person who is mentally retarded in general but who displays remarkable aptitude in some limited field (usually involving memory).

- He looked up "idiot savant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "idiot savant" to mean person who is mentally retarded in general but who....

---

igg (noun)

One of the five major classes of immunoglobulins; the main antibody defense against bacteria.

- They discussed "igg" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "igg" because he had never seen it before.

---

ignatius of loyola (noun)

Spaniard and Roman Catholic theologian and founder of the Society of Jesus; a leading opponent of the Reformation (1491-1556).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ignatius of loyola."
- Understanding "ignatius of loyola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

imitations (noun)

A representation of a person that is exaggerated for comic effect.

- The article explained what "imitations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "imitations" to mean a representation of a person that is exaggerated....

---

impediments (noun)

Any structure that makes progress difficult.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "impediments."
- He looked up "impediments" because he had never seen it before.

---

implode (verb)

Burst inward.

- The bottle imploded.
- She tried to use "implode" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

in a pig's eye (adverb)

Very unlikely.

- The narrator describes the scene "in a pig's eye" in the final chapter.
- Using "in a pig's eye" can make your explanation more exact.

---

in utero (adverb)

In the uterus.

- The child was infected in utero from the mother.
- She spoke "in utero," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

inane (adjective)

Devoid of intelligence.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inane."
- Students compared "inane" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

industrialisation (noun)

The development of industry on an extensive scale.

- He looked up "industrialisation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "industrialisation" during the group presentation.

---

ineptitude (noun)

Having no qualities that would render it valuable or useful.

- The article explained what "ineptitude" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ineptitude" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inshore (adjective)

(of winds) coming from the sea toward the land.

- An inshore breeze.
- Students compared "inshore" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

instigating (verb)

Serve as the inciting cause of.

- In everyday English, people use "instigating" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "instigating" until he saw an example.

---

intelligentsia (noun)

An educated and intellectual elite.

- In class, the teacher used "intelligentsia" to mean an educated and intellectual elite.
- Understanding "intelligentsia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intensities (noun)

The magnitude of sound (usually in a specified direction).

- They discussed "intensities" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intensities."

---

interagency support (noun)

Provision of logistic (or administrative) support by one or more of the military services to one or more departments or agencies of the United States government.

- Understanding "interagency support" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interagency support."

---

interconnect (verb)

Be interwoven or interconnected.

- The bones are interconnected via the muscle.
- She tried to use "interconnect" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

interrelated (adjective)

Reciprocally connected.

- A "interrelated" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "interrelated" when it is reciprocally connected.

---

interviewee (noun)

A person who is interviewed.

- The article explained what "interviewee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "interviewee" to mean a person who is interviewed.

---

irritant (noun)

Something that causes irritation and annoyance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "irritant."
- The article explained what "irritant" means with a simple example.

---

jak (noun)

Immense East Indian fruit resembling breadfruit; it contains an edible pulp and nutritious seeds that are commonly roasted.

- He looked up "jak" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jak."

---

jakob ludwig karl grimm (noun)

The older of the two Grimm brothers remembered best for their fairy stories; also author of Grimm's law describing consonant changes in Germanic languages (1785-1863).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jakob ludwig karl grimm."
- He looked up "jakob ludwig karl grimm" because he had never seen it before.

---

jurist (noun)

A legal scholar versed in civil law or the law of nations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jurist."
- He looked up "jurist" because he had never seen it before.

---

kickbacks (noun)

A commercial bribe paid by a seller to a purchasing agent in order to induce the agent to enter into the transaction.

- He looked up "kickbacks" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kickbacks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kisser (noun)

The human face ('kisser' and 'smiler' and 'mug' are informal terms for 'face' and 'phiz' is British).

- The article explained what "kisser" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kisser."

kyushu (noun)

The southernmost of the four main islands of Japan; contains coal fields.

- The article explained what "kyushu" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kyushu" to mean the southernmost of the four main islands of japan;....

labia (noun)

A liplike structure that bounds a bodily orifice (especially any of the four labiate folds of a woman's vulva).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labia."
- He looked up "labia" because he had never seen it before.

lakeshore (noun)

The shore of a lake.

- He looked up "lakeshore" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lakeshore."

lakota (noun)

A member of the large western branch of Sioux people which was made up of several groups that lived on the plains.

- In class, the teacher used "lakota" to mean a member of the large western branch of sioux....
- The article explained what "lakota" means with a simple example.

large-leaved (adjective)

Having relatively large leaves.

- A "large-leaved" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "large-leaved" when it is having relatively large leaves.

lateral ventricle (noun)

Either of two horseshoe-shaped ventricles one in each cerebral hemisphere; they communicate with the third ventricle via the foramen of Monro.

- They discussed "lateral ventricle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lateral ventricle" means with a simple example.

leaved (adjective)

Having leaves or leaves as specified; often used in combination.

- Four-leaved clover.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "leaved."

leeks (noun)

Related to onions; white cylindrical bulb and flat dark-green leaves.

- He looked up "leeks" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "leeks" to mean related to onions; white cylindrical bulb and flat....

leibniz (noun)

German philosopher and mathematician who thought of the universe as consisting of independent monads and who devised a system of the calculus independent of Newton (1646-1716).

- They discussed "leibniz" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leibniz."

leonidas (noun)

King of Sparta and hero of the battle of Thermopylae where he was killed by the Persians (died in 480 BC).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leonidas."
- The article explained what "leonidas" means with a simple example.

longfellow (noun)

United States poet remembered for his long narrative poems (1807-1882).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "longfellow."
- Understanding "longfellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lop (verb)

Cultivate, tend, and cut back the growth of.

- Can you use "lop" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "lop" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

lop off (verb)

Remove by or as if by cutting.

- Cut off the ear.
- Lop off the dead branch.

---

lysine (noun)

An essential amino acid found in proteins; occurs especially in gelatin and casein.

- In class, the teacher used "lysine" to mean an essential amino acid found in proteins; occurs....
- Understanding "lysine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

machiavelli (noun)

A statesman of Florence who advocated a strong central government (1469-1527).

- They discussed "machiavelli" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "machiavelli" because he had never seen it before.

---

malian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Mali or its people.

- Malian deserts.
- Would you call this situation "malian"? Explain why.

---

manicured (verb)

Trim carefully and neatly.

- The coach explained when to use "manicured" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "manicured" in real sentences.

---

marcel proust (noun)

French novelist (1871-1922).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marcel proust."
- He looked up "marcel proust" because he had never seen it before.

---

marconi rig (noun)

A rig of triangular sails for a yacht.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marconi rig."
- They discussed "marconi rig" during the group presentation.

---

marquise (noun)

A noblewoman ranking below a duchess and above a countess.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marquise."
- Understanding "marquise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

masked shrew (noun)

Commonest shrew of moist habitats in North America.

- Understanding "masked shrew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "masked shrew" because he had never seen it before.

---

mastectomy (noun)

Surgical removal of a breast to remove a malignant tumor.

- Understanding "mastectomy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mastectomy" because he had never seen it before.

---

maturity-onset diabetes mellitus (noun)

Mild form of diabetes mellitus that develops gradually in adults; can be precipitated by obesity or severe stress or menopause or other factors; can usually be controlled by diet and hypoglycemic agents without injections of insulin.

- They discussed "maturity-onset diabetes mellitus" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maturity-onset diabetes mellitus."

---

mauve-pink (adjective)

Of pink tinged with mauve.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mauve-pink."
- Would you call this situation "mauve-pink"? Explain why.

---

medellin (noun)

City in western Colombia; important coffee center.

- Understanding "medellin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "medellin" during the group presentation.

---

mesquite gum (noun)

A gum obtained from mesquite pods; resembles gum arabic.

- Understanding "mesquite gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mesquite gum" means with a simple example.

---

meteoric (adjective)

Of or pertaining to atmospheric phenomena, especially weather and weather conditions.

- Meteoric (or meteorological) phenomena.
- Meteoric shower.

---

mew gull (noun)

The common gull of Eurasia and northeastern North America.

- They discussed "mew gull" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mew gull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

midair (noun)

Some point in the air; above ground level.

- The planes collided in midair.
- In class, the teacher used "midair" to mean some point in the air; above ground level.

---

militaries (noun)

The military forces of a nation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "militaries."
- He looked up "militaries" because he had never seen it before.

---

militiamen (noun)

A member of the militia; serves only during emergencies.

- The article explained what "militiamen" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "militiamen" during the group presentation.

---

molester (noun)

Someone who subjects others to unwanted or improper sexual activities.

- They discussed "molester" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "molester" means with a simple example.

---

monomer (noun)

A simple compound whose molecules can join together to form polymers.

- The article explained what "monomer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "monomer" during the group presentation.

---

moynihan (noun)

United States politician and educator (1927-2003).

- The article explained what "moynihan" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moynihan."

---

muff (verb)

Make a mess of, destroy or ruin.

- The coach explained when to use "muff" and when to wait.
- Can you use "muff" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

muffler (noun)

A tubular acoustic device inserted in the exhaust system that is designed to reduce noise.

- The article explained what "muffler" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "muffler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

multitudes (noun)

A large indefinite number.

- In class, the teacher used "multitudes" to mean a large indefinite number.
- The article explained what "multitudes" means with a simple example.

---

mussel shrimp (noun)

Tiny marine and freshwater crustaceans with a shrimp-like body enclosed in a bivalve shell.

- In class, the teacher used "mussel shrimp" to mean tiny marine and freshwater crustaceans with a....
- The article explained what "mussel shrimp" means with a simple example.

---

mutton snapper (noun)

Similar to and often marketed as 'red snapper'.

- Understanding "mutton snapper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mutton snapper" during the group presentation.

---

narrowest (adjective)

Lacking tolerance or flexibility or breadth of view.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "narrowest."
- The speaker chose "narrowest" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

necessitating (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Can you use "necessitating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "necessitating" and when to wait.

---

neckline (noun)

The line formed by the edge of a garment around the neck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neckline."
- Understanding "neckline" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

neuroscientist (noun)

A neurobiologist who specializes in the study of the brain.

- They discussed "neuroscientist" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "neuroscientist" means with a simple example.

---

neutralizing (verb)

Make politically neutral and thus inoffensive.

- Learners should practice how to use "neutralizing" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "neutralizing" until he saw an example.

---

ney (noun)

French marshal in the Napoleonic Wars (1769-1815).

- Understanding "ney" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ney" during the group presentation.

---

nightmarish (adjective)

Extremely alarming.

- It is useful to describe something as “nightmarish” when it is extremely alarming.
- Students compared “nightmarish” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

nitric bacterium (noun)

Any of the nitrobacteria that oxidize nitrites into nitrates.

- They discussed “nitric bacterium” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “nitric bacterium” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nitrous bacterium (noun)

Any of the nitrobacteria that oxidize ammonia into nitrites.

- In class, the teacher used “nitrous bacterium” to mean any of the nitrobacteria that oxidize ammonia into....
- The article explained what “nitrous bacterium” means with a simple example.

---

noc (noun)

An undercover agent who is given no official cover.

- Understanding “noc” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “noc” to mean an undercover agent who is given no official cover.

---

northern harrier (noun)

Common harrier of North America and Europe; nests in marshes and open land.

- They discussed “northern harrier” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “northern harrier” because he had never seen it before.

---

northwards (adverb)

In a northern direction.

- She spoke “northwards,” and the audience immediately understood her point.
- He answered “northwards,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

nudged (verb)

To push against gently.

- She nudged my elbow when she saw her friend enter the restaurant.
- Can you use “nudged” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

oat cell carcinoma (noun)

Highly malignant carcinoma composed of small round or egg-shaped cells with little cytoplasm; lung cancers are frequently oat cell carcinomas.

- They discussed “oat cell carcinoma” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “oat cell carcinoma” means with a simple example.

---

obliquely (adverb)

To, toward or at one side.

- Place “obliquely” carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered “obliquely,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

operationally (adverb)

In respect to operation.

- Reported the machine operationally satisfactory.
- A well-trained staff that is operationally adequate.

---

ophthalmologist (noun)

A medical doctor specializing in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the eye.

- He looked up “ophthalmologist” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ophthalmologist.”

---

origination fee (noun)

A fee charged to a borrower (especially for a mortgage loan) to cover the costs of initiating the loan.

- They discussed “origination fee” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “origination fee” to mean a fee charged to a borrower (especially for a....

outermost (adjective)

Situated at the farthest possible point from a center.

- Would you call this situation "outermost"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "outermost" when it is situated at the farthest possible point from a center.

overheat (verb)

Get excessively and undesirably hot.

- The car engines overheated.
- The room was overheated.

overlords (noun)

A person who has general authority over others.

- Understanding "overlords" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "overlords" during the group presentation.

overzealous (adjective)

Marked by excessive enthusiasm for and intense devotion to a cause or idea.

- The speaker chose "overzealous" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "overzealous" approach may work better in this case.

ovid (noun)

Roman poet remembered for his elegiac verses on love (43 BC - AD 17).

- Understanding "ovid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ovid" because he had never seen it before.

pacific halibut (noun)

A righteye flounder found in the Pacific.

- Understanding "pacific halibut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pacific halibut."

painted nettle (noun)

Perennial aromatic herb of southeastern Asia having large usually bright-colored or blotched leaves and spikes of blue-violet flowers; sometimes placed in genus Solenostemon.

- The article explained what "painted nettle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "painted nettle" during the group presentation.

palgrave (noun)

English poet (1824-1897).

- He looked up "palgrave" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palgrave."

paperbacks (noun)

A book with paper covers.

- Understanding "paperbacks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "paperbacks" during the group presentation.

paraffin wax (noun)

From crude petroleum; used for candles and for preservative or waterproof coatings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paraffin wax."
- The article explained what "paraffin wax" means with a simple example.

peasantry (noun)

The class of peasants.

- They discussed "peasantry" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "peasantry" to mean the class of peasants.

pelvic girdle (noun)

The structure of the vertebrate skeleton supporting the lower limbs in humans and the hind limbs or corresponding parts in other vertebrates.

- He looked up "pelvic girdle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pelvic girdle" during the group presentation.

---

perennial salt marsh aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- He looked up "perennial salt marsh aster" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "perennial salt marsh aster" to mean a variety of aster.

---

persisting (adjective)

Relentless and indefatigable in pursuit or as if in pursuit.

- Students compared "persisting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "persisting" approach may work better in this case.

---

photocopy (noun)

A photographic copy of written or printed or graphic work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photocopy."
- The article explained what "photocopy" means with a simple example.

---

pitman (noun)

English educator who invented a system of phonetic shorthand (1813-1897).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pitman."
- They discussed "pitman" during the group presentation.

---

plate tectonics (noun)

The branch of geology studying the folding and faulting of the earth's crust.

- Understanding "plate tectonics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "plate tectonics" means with a simple example.

---

plying (verb)

Join together as by twisting, weaving, or molding.

- He did not know how to use "plying" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "plying" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pole vaulting (noun)

A competition that involves jumping over a high crossbar with the aid of a long pole.

- In class, the teacher used "pole vaulting" to mean a competition that involves jumping over a high....
- They discussed "pole vaulting" during the group presentation.

---

porosity (noun)

The property of being porous; being able to absorb fluids.

- They discussed "porosity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "porosity" means with a simple example.

---

pouting (verb)

Be in a huff and display one's displeasure.

- She is pouting because she didn't get what she wanted.
- Learners should practice how to use "pouting" in real sentences.

---

prefixes (noun)

An affix that is added in front of the word.

- In class, the teacher used "prefixes" to mean an affix that is added in front of the word.
- Understanding "prefixes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prefrontal lobe (noun)

The anterior part of the frontal lobe.

- They discussed "prefrontal lobe" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "prefrontal lobe" means with a simple example.

---

prejudicial (adjective)

(sometimes followed by 'to') causing harm or injury.

- The reporter's coverage resulted in prejudicial publicity for the defendant.
- It is useful to describe something as "prejudicial" when it is (sometimes followed by 'to') causing harm or injury.

---

preliminaries (noun)

Something that serves as a preceding event or introduces what follows.

- He looked up "preliminaries" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "preliminaries" during the group presentation.

---

preponderance (noun)

A superiority in numbers or amount.

- A preponderance of evidence against the defendant.
- The preponderance of good over evil.

---

presbyterians (noun)

A follower of Calvinism as taught in the Presbyterian Church.

- The article explained what "presbyterians" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "presbyterians" to mean a follower of calvinism as taught in the....

---

preyed (verb)

Profit from in an exploitatory manner.

- Can you use "preyed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "preyed" until he saw an example.

---

probiotics (noun)

A beneficial bacterium found in the intestinal tract of healthy mammals; often considered to be a plant.

- In class, the teacher used "probiotics" to mean a beneficial bacterium found in the intestinal....
- The article explained what "probiotics" means with a simple example.

---

procrastinating (verb)

Postpone or delay needlessly.

- The coach explained when to use "procrastinating" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "procrastinating" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

protege (noun)

A person who receives support and protection from an influential patron who furthers the protege's career.

- Understanding "protege" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "protege" means with a simple example.

---

pulmonary embolism (noun)

Blockage of the pulmonary artery by foreign matter or by a blood clot.

- The article explained what "pulmonary embolism" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulmonary embolism."

---

pulsar (noun)

A degenerate neutron star; small and extremely dense; rotates very fast and emits regular pulses of polarized radiation.

- The article explained what "pulsar" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pulsar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purplish pink (noun)

A pink dye that was discovered in 1859, the year a battle was fought at Solferino.

- The article explained what "purplish pink" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "purplish pink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

putrid (adjective)

Of or relating to or attended by putrefaction.

- Putrid decomposition.
- Students compared "putrid" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pylons (noun)

A large vertical steel tower supporting high-tension power lines.

- Power pylons are a favorite target for terrorists.
- They discussed "pylons" during the group presentation.

---

pyramidal tract (noun)

Any of the important motor nerves on each side of the central nervous system that run from the sensorimotor areas of the cortex through the brainstem to motor neurons of the cranial nerve nuclei and the ventral root of the spinal cord.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pyramidal tract."
- The article explained what "pyramidal tract" means with a simple example.

---

racquet (noun)

A sports implement (usually consisting of a handle and an oval frame with a tightly interlaced network of strings) used to strike a ball (or shuttlecock) in various games.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racquet."
- The article explained what "racquet" means with a simple example.

---

radio-gramophone (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a combination of a radio receiver and a record player.

- In class, the teacher used "radio-gramophone" to mean electronic equipment consisting of a combination of....
- The article explained what "radio-gramophone" means with a simple example.

---

ramped (verb)

Creep up – used especially of plants.

- The roses ramped over the wall.
- The ramped auditorium.

---

rapped (verb)

Make light, repeated taps on a surface.

- Learners should practice how to use "rapped" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "rapped" when talking about this idea.

---

rawalpindi (noun)

An ancient city in northeastern Pakistan; served as capital of Pakistan while Islamabad was being built.

- They discussed "rawalpindi" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rawalpindi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reactivated (verb)

Activate (an old file) anew.

- Learners should practice how to use "reactivated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "reactivated" when talking about this idea.

---

recessions (noun)

The withdrawal of the clergy and choir from the chancel to the vestry at the end of a church service.

- In class, the teacher used "recessions" to mean the withdrawal of the clergy and choir from the....
- The article explained what "recessions" means with a simple example.

---

red-bellied snake (noun)

Harmless woodland snake of southeastern United States.

- They discussed "red-bellied snake" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "red-bellied snake" to mean harmless woodland snake of southeastern united states.

---

refractory anemia (noun)

Any of various anemic conditions that are not successfully treated by any means other than blood transfusions (and that are not associated with another primary disease).

- In class, the teacher used "refractory anemia" to mean any of various anemic conditions that are not....
- Understanding "refractory anemia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

regalia (noun)

Paraphernalia indicative of royalty (or other high office).

- They discussed "regalia" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "regalia" means with a simple example.

---

repainted (verb)

Paint again.

- He repainted the same scenery many times during his life.
- He repainted the wall after the child smeared it with tomato sauce.

---

reproducible (adjective)

Capable of being reproduced.

- Astonishingly reproducible results can be obtained.
- Would you call this situation "reproducible"? Explain why.

---

retrial (noun)

A new trial in which issues already litigated and to which the court has already rendered a verdict or decision are reexamined by the same court; occurs when the initial trial is found to have been improper or unfair due to procedural errors.

- They discussed "retrial" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "retrial" means with a simple example.

---

rippling (noun)

A small wave on the surface of a liquid.

- They discussed "rippling" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rippling."

---

ris (noun)

A state in New England; one of the original 13 colonies; the smallest state.

- He looked up "ris" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ris" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ritualistic (adjective)

Of or characterized by or adhering to ritualism.

- A feudal or ritualistic society.
- The ritualistic killing of a sheep.

---

rollback (noun)

The act of forcing the enemy to withdraw.

- Understanding "rollback" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rollback" during the group presentation.

---

roman nettle (noun)

Annual European nettle with stinging foliage and small clusters of green flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman nettle."
- He looked up "roman nettle" because he had never seen it before.

---

rorschach (noun)

A projective tests using bilaterally symmetrical inkblots; subjects state what they see in the inkblot.

- The article explained what "rorschach" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rorschach."

---

rorschach test (noun)

A projective tests using bilaterally symmetrical inkblots; subjects state what they see in the inkblot.

- The article explained what "rorschach test" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rorschach test."

rota (noun)

A roster of names showing the order in which people should perform certain duties.

- In class, the teacher used "rota" to mean a roster of names showing the order in which people....
- They discussed "rota" during the group presentation.

royally (adverb)

In a royal manner.

- They were royally treated.
- He answered "royally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

rube (noun)

A person who is not very intelligent or interested in culture.

- He looked up "rube" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rube."

rusk (noun)

Slice of sweet raised bread baked again until it is brown and hard and crisp.

- The article explained what "rusk" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rusk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

salvadoran (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of El Salvador or its people.

- Salvadoran coffee.
- Salvadoran guerillas.

salvadoran capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of El Salvador; has suffered from recurrent earthquakes.

- The article explained what "salvadoran capital" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salvadoran capital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scaly-tailed (adjective)

Having a scaly tail.

- It is useful to describe something as "scaly-tailed" when it is having a scaly tail.
- Students compared "scaly-tailed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

schematics (noun)

Diagram of an electrical or mechanical system.

- He looked up "schematics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schematics."

scoliosis (noun)

An abnormal lateral curve to the vertebral column.

- In class, the teacher used "scoliosis" to mean an abnormal lateral curve to the vertebral column.
- The article explained what "scoliosis" means with a simple example.

scotch marigold (noun)

The common European annual marigold.

- They discussed "scotch marigold" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scotch marigold" to mean the common european annual marigold.

sea chub (noun)

Schooling fishes mostly of Indian and western Pacific oceans; two species in western Atlantic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea chub."
- He looked up "sea chub" because he had never seen it before.

separatism (noun)

A disposition toward schism and secession from a larger group; the principles and practices of separatists.

- Separatism is a serious problem in Quebec.
- Demands for some form of separatism on grounds of religion have been perceived as a threat to mainstream education.

---

septa (noun)

A partition or wall especially in an ovary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "septa."
- Understanding "septa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serfs (noun)

(Middle Ages) a person who is bound to the land and owned by the feudal lord.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serfs."
- The article explained what "serfs" means with a simple example.

---

severe combined immunodeficiency (noun)

A congenital disease affecting T cells that can result from a mutation in any one of several different genes; children with it are susceptible to infectious disease; if untreated it is lethal within the first year or two of life.

- They discussed "severe combined immunodeficiency" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "severe combined immunodeficiency" because he had never seen it before.

---

severe combined immunodeficiency disease (noun)

A congenital disease affecting T cells that can result from a mutation in any one of several different genes; children with it are susceptible to infectious disease; if untreated it is lethal within the first year or two of life.

- The article explained what "severe combined immunodeficiency disease" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "severe combined immunodeficiency disease."

---

shacks (verb)

Move, proceed, or walk draggingly or slowly.

- Can you use "shacks" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "shacks" when talking about this idea.

---

shari (noun)

An African river that flows northwest into Lake Chad.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shari."
- He looked up "shari" because he had never seen it before.

---

shari river (noun)

An African river that flows northwest into Lake Chad.

- The article explained what "shari river" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shari river" to mean an african river that flows northwest into lake chad.

---

shock absorber (noun)

A mechanical damper; absorbs energy of sudden impulses.

- The old car needed a new set of shocks.
- In class, the teacher used "shock absorber" to mean a mechanical damper; absorbs energy of sudden impulses.

---

showrooms (noun)

An area where merchandise (such as cars) can be displayed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "showrooms."
- They discussed "showrooms" during the group presentation.

---

shrew mole (noun)

Slender mole having a long snout and tail.

- In class, the teacher used "shrew mole" to mean slender mole having a long snout and tail.
- The article explained what "shrew mole" means with a simple example.

---

shuttered (adjective)

Provided with shutters or shutters as specified; often used in combination.

- A church with a shuttered belfry and spire.
- Green-shuttered cottages.

---

silurian (noun)

From 425 million to 405 million years ago; first air-breathing animals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silurian."
- Understanding "silurian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silurian period (noun)

From 425 million to 405 million years ago; first air-breathing animals.

- He looked up "silurian period" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "silurian period" during the group presentation.

---

silver bromide (noun)

A bromide that darkens when exposed to light; used in making photographic emulsions.

- The article explained what "silver bromide" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "silver bromide" to mean a bromide that darkens when exposed to light; used....

---

silver-leaved (adjective)

Having silvery leaves.

- A "silver-leaved" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "silver-leaved" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

simple mastectomy (noun)

Removal of a breast leaving the underlying muscles and the lymph nodes intact.

- In class, the teacher used "simple mastectomy" to mean removal of a breast leaving the underlying muscles....
- The article explained what "simple mastectomy" means with a simple example.

---

singling (verb)

Hit a single.

- Can you use "singling" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "singling" until he saw an example.

---

sinning (noun)

An act that is regarded by theologians as a transgression of God's will.

- Understanding "sinning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sinning" means with a simple example.

---

skeet (noun)

The sport of shooting at clay pigeons that are hurled upward in such a way as to simulate the flight of a bird.

- In class, the teacher used "skeet" to mean the sport of shooting at clay pigeons that are....
- Understanding "skeet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

skeet shooting (noun)

The sport of shooting at clay pigeons that are hurled upward in such a way as to simulate the flight of a bird.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skeet shooting."
- The article explained what "skeet shooting" means with a simple example.

---

slender salamander (noun)

Any of several small slim salamanders of the Pacific coast of the United States.

- They discussed "slender salamander" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slender salamander."

---

slop chest (noun)

Commissary maintained aboard merchant ships to sell merchandise to the crew.

- They discussed "slop chest" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "slop chest" to mean commissary maintained aboard merchant ships to sell....

slouch (noun)

An incompetent person; usually used in negative constructions.

- He's no slouch when it comes to baseball.
- In class, the teacher used "slouch" to mean an incompetent person; usually used in negative....

snake charmer (noun)

A performer who uses movements and music to control snakes.

- He looked up "snake charmer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snake charmer."

snapdragon (noun)

A garden plant of the genus Antirrhinum having showy white or yellow or crimson flowers resembling the face of a dragon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snapdragon."
- They discussed "snapdragon" during the group presentation.

sneer (noun)

A facial expression of contempt or scorn; the upper lip curls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sneer."
- Understanding "sneer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

snub-nosed (adjective)

Having a blunt nose.

- A snub-nosed automatic.
- Would you call this situation "snub-nosed"? Explain why.

sodium bicarbonate (noun)

A white soluble compound (NaHCO3) used in effervescent drinks and in baking powders and as an antacid.

- They discussed "sodium bicarbonate" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sodium bicarbonate" means with a simple example.

somalis (noun)

The Cushitic language spoken by the Somali.

- He looked up "somalis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "somalis."

sorcerers (noun)

One who practices magic or sorcery.

- In class, the teacher used "sorcerers" to mean one who practices magic or sorcery.
- The article explained what "sorcerers" means with a simple example.

sorensen (noun)

Danish chemist who devised the pH scale (1868-1939).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sorensen."
- The article explained what "sorensen" means with a simple example.

sorrowful (adjective)

Experiencing or marked by or expressing sorrow especially that associated with irreparable loss; ; ; ; - Proverbs 14:13.

- Sorrowful widows.
- A sorrowful tale of death and despair.

spewed (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- Learners should practice how to use "spewed" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "spewed" until he saw an example.

splat (noun)

A slat of wood in the middle of the back of a straight chair.

- He heard a splat as it hit the floor.
- Understanding "splat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spokesmen (noun)

A male spokesperson.

- The article explained what "spokesmen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spokesmen" to mean a male spokesperson.

---

squash rackets (noun)

A game played in an enclosed court by two or four players who strike the ball with long-handled rackets.

- Understanding "squash rackets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "squash rackets" during the group presentation.

---

stabilise (verb)

Make stable and keep from fluctuating or put into an equilibrium.

- Learners should practice how to use "stabilise" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "stabilise" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stiletto heel (noun)

A very high narrow heel on women's shoes.

- Understanding "stiletto heel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stiletto heel" because he had never seen it before.

---

stopover (noun)

A stopping place on a journey.

- There is a stopover to change planes in Chicago.
- They made a stopover to visit their friends.

---

sump pump (noun)

A suction pump for removing liquid from a sump.

- They discussed "sump pump" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sump pump" means with a simple example.

---

swiss chard (noun)

Long succulent whitish stalks with large green leaves.

- They discussed "swiss chard" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "swiss chard" means with a simple example.

---

tanzanian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Tanzania.

- The article explained what "tanzanian monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tanzanian monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

technicolor (noun)

A trademarked method of making color motion pictures.

- Understanding "technicolor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "technicolor" means with a simple example.

---

texas armadillo (noun)

Having nine hinged bands of bony plates; ranges from Texas to Paraguay.

- In class, the teacher used "texas armadillo" to mean having nine hinged bands of bony plates; ranges....
- Understanding "texas armadillo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thatch palm (noun)

Small palm of southern Florida and West Indies closely resembling the silvertop palmetto.

- Understanding "thatch palm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up "thatch palm" because he had never seen it before.

thinning shears (noun)

Shears with one serrate blade; used for thinning hair.

- They discussed "thinning shears" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "thinning shears" because he had never seen it before.

three-cornered leek (noun)

European leek naturalized in Great Britain; leaves are triangular.

- Understanding "three-cornered leek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "three-cornered leek" to mean european leek naturalized in great britain; leaves....

thrush nightingale (noun)

Large nightingale of eastern Europe.

- He looked up "thrush nightingale" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "thrush nightingale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

thwarting (noun)

An act of hindering someone's plans or efforts.

- In class, the teacher used "thwarting" to mean an act of hindering someone's plans or efforts.
- The article explained what "thwarting" means with a simple example.

tidbits (noun)

A small tasty bit of food.

- They discussed "tidbits" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tidbits" means with a simple example.

tightens (verb)

Make tight or tighter.

- Learners should practice how to use "tightens" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "tightens" carefully so everyone would understand.

toffee-nosed (adjective)

Snobbish; pretentiously superior.

- The speaker chose "toffee-nosed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "toffee-nosed" approach may work better in this case.

touts (verb)

Advertize in strongly positive terms.

- He did not know how to use "touts" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "touts" when talking about this idea.

transduction (noun)

The process whereby a transducer accepts energy in one form and gives back related energy in a different form.

- The transduction of acoustic waves into voltages by a microphone.
- Understanding "transduction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

triads (noun)

A set of three similar things considered as a unit.

- They discussed "triads" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "triads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

trinket (noun)

Cheap showy jewelry or ornament on clothing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trinket."
- They discussed "trinket" during the group presentation.

triplet (noun)

A set of three similar things considered as a unit.

- He looked up "triplet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "triplet" to mean a set of three similar things considered as a unit.

---

triplet code (noun)

The normal version of the genetic code in which a sequence of three nucleotides codes for the synthesis of a specific amino acid.

- The article explained what "triplet code" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "triplet code" during the group presentation.

---

trolleys (noun)

A wheeled vehicle that runs on rails and is propelled by electricity.

- In class, the teacher used "trolleys" to mean a wheeled vehicle that runs on rails and is....
- The article explained what "trolleys" means with a simple example.

---

troublemaker (noun)

Someone who deliberately stirs up trouble.

- The article explained what "troublemaker" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "troublemaker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trumpeter (noun)

A musician who plays the trumpet or cornet.

- He looked up "trumpeter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trumpeter."

---

trusses (noun)

A framework of beams (rafters, posts, struts) forming a rigid structure that supports a roof or bridge or other structure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trusses."
- He looked up "trusses" because he had never seen it before.

---

tufted (adjective)

(of a bird or animal) having a usually ornamental tuft or process on the head; often used in combination.

- Tufted duck.
- Tufted loosestrife.

---

tumult (noun)

A state of commotion and noise and confusion.

- They discussed "tumult" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tumult" to mean a state of commotion and noise and confusion.

---

turkmen monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Turkmenistan.

- They discussed "turkmen monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "turkmen monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

two-leaved (adjective)

Having two leaves.

- Would you call this situation "two-leaved"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-leaved."

---

typhoons (noun)

A tropical cyclone occurring in the western Pacific or Indian oceans.

- In class, the teacher used "typhoons" to mean a tropical cyclone occurring in the western pacific....
- Understanding "typhoons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

uninitiated (adjective)

Not initiated; deficient in relevant experience.

- It seemed a bizarre ceremony to uninitiated western eyes.
- It is useful to describe something as "uninitiated" when it is not initiated; deficient in relevant experience.

---

uninspired (adjective)

Having no intellectual or emotional or spiritual excitement.

- The production was professional but uninspired.
- Uninspired writing.

---

unrestrained (adjective)

Marked by uncontrolled excitement or emotion.

- Students compared "unrestrained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unrestrained."

---

unsanitary (adjective)

Not sanitary or healthful.

- Unsanitary open sewers.
- Grim and unsanitary conditions.

---

untoward (adjective)

Not in keeping with accepted standards of what is right or proper in polite society.

- Moved to curb their untoward ribaldry.
- Made a place for themselves under the most untoward conditions.

---

uppermost (adverb)

In or into the most prominent position, as in the mind.

- Say what comes uppermost.
- The blade turned uppermost.

---

ushers (verb)

Take (someone) to their seats, as in theaters or auditoriums.

- Learners should practice how to use "ushers" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "ushers" when talking about this idea.

---

usurp (verb)

Seize and take control without authority and possibly with force; take as one's right or possession.

- He usurped my rights.
- Gloom had usurped mirth at the party after the news of the terrorist act broke.

---

utes (noun)

The Shoshonean language spoken by the Utes.

- They discussed "utes" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "utes."

---

vasectomy (noun)

Surgical procedure that removes all or part of the vas deferens (usually as a means of sterilization); is sometimes reversible.

- The article explained what "vasectomy" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vasectomy."

---

vd (noun)

A communicable infection transmitted by sexual intercourse or genital contact.

- Understanding "vd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vd" means with a simple example.

---

ventricular aneurysm (noun)

A localized dilation or protrusion on the wall of the left ventricle of the heart (occurring after a myocardial infarction).

- The article explained what "ventricular aneurysm" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ventricular aneurysm" during the group presentation.

verdant (adjective)

Characterized by abundance of verdure.

- It is useful to describe something as "verdant" when it is characterized by abundance of verdure.
- The speaker chose "verdant" because it captured the feeling precisely.

vestibule of the vagina (noun)

The space between the labia minora containing the orifice of the urethra.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vestibule of the vagina."
- They discussed "vestibule of the vagina" during the group presentation.

vicarage (noun)

An official residence provided by a church for its parson or vicar or rector.

- In class, the teacher used "vicarage" to mean an official residence provided by a church for its....
- The article explained what "vicarage" means with a simple example.

videotaped (verb)

Record on videotape.

- He did not know how to use "videotaped" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "videotaped" and when to wait.

vilified (verb)

Spread negative information about.

- The Nazi propaganda vilified the Jews.
- The coach explained when to use "vilified" and when to wait.

waistline (noun)

The narrowing of the body between the ribs and hips.

- He looked up "waistline" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "waistline" during the group presentation.

weatherman (noun)

Predicts the weather.

- In class, the teacher used "weatherman" to mean predicts the weather.
- They discussed "weatherman" during the group presentation.

white separatism (noun)

A social system in which white people live separately from members of other races.

- Understanding "white separatism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "white separatism" means with a simple example.

white snapdragon (noun)

California plant with slender racemes of white flowers.

- Understanding "white snapdragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white snapdragon."

whopper (noun)

A gross untruth; a blatant lie.

- They discussed "whopper" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "whopper" to mean a gross untruth; a blatant lie.

wild snapdragon (noun)

Common European perennial having showy yellow and orange flowers; a naturalized weed in North America.

- The article explained what "wild snapdragon" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wild snapdragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wolf's bane (noun)

Poisonous Eurasian perennial herb with broad rounded leaves and yellow flowers and fibrous rootstock.

- In class, the teacher used "wolf's bane" to mean poisonous eurasian perennial herb with broad....
- He looked up "wolf's bane" because he had never seen it before.

---

womans (noun)

An adult female person (as opposed to a man).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "womans."
- Understanding "womans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

woolen (adjective)

Of or related to or made of wool.

- A woolen sweater.
- It is useful to describe something as "woolen" when it is of or related to or made of wool.

---

wringing (verb)

Twist and compress, as if in pain or anguish.

- He did not know how to use "wringing" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "wringing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wristwatch (noun)

A watch that is worn strapped to the wrist.

- In class, the teacher used "wristwatch" to mean a watch that is worn strapped to the wrist.
- The article explained what "wristwatch" means with a simple example.

---

writ of habeas corpus (noun)

A writ ordering a prisoner to be brought before a judge.

- The article explained what "writ of habeas corpus" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "writ of habeas corpus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yangtze (noun)

The longest river of Asia; flows eastward from Tibet into the East China Sea near Shanghai.

- Understanding "yangtze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "yangtze" to mean the longest river of asia; flows eastward from....

---

yangtze river (noun)

The longest river of Asia; flows eastward from Tibet into the East China Sea near Shanghai.

- He looked up "yangtze river" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "yangtze river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yerevan (noun)

Capital of Armenia.

- In class, the teacher used "yerevan" to mean capital of armenia.
- He looked up "yerevan" because he had never seen it before.

---

yule log (noun)

Large log traditionally burned at Christmas.

- The article explained what "yule log" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "yule log" to mean large log traditionally burned at christmas.

---

abdominal aortic aneurysm (noun)

An aneurysm of the abdominal aorta associated with old age and hypertension.

- They discussed "abdominal aortic aneurysm" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "abdominal aortic aneurysm" means with a simple example.

---

abdominal nerve plexus (noun)

A large plexus of sympathetic nerves in the abdomen behind the stomach.

- Understanding "abdominal nerve plexus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abdominal nerve plexus."

---

abo antibodies (noun)

Blood type antibodies.

- He looked up "abo antibodies" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "abo antibodies" during the group presentation.

---

abrahams (noun)

The first of the Old Testament patriarchs and the father of Isaac; according to Genesis, God promised to give Abraham's family (the Hebrews) the land of Canaan (the Promised Land); God tested Abraham by asking him to sacrifice his son.

- The article explained what "abrahams" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "abrahams" to mean the first of the old testament patriarchs and the....

---

absorber (noun)

(physics) material in a nuclear reactor that absorbs radiation.

- Understanding "absorber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "absorber" means with a simple example.

---

accessory vertebral vein (noun)

A vein that accompanies the vertebral vein but passes through the foramen of the transverse process of the 7th cervical vertebra and empties into the brachiocephalic vein.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "accessory vertebral vein."
- The article explained what "accessory vertebral vein" means with a simple example.

---

acetyl radical (noun)

The organic group of acetic acid (CH3CO-).

- Understanding "acetyl radical" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "acetyl radical" because he had never seen it before.

---

adjourn (verb)

Close at the end of a session.

- The court adjourned.
- We adjourned for lunch.

---

african sandalwood (noun)

Small shrubby African tree with hard wood used as a dyewood yielding a red dye.

- In class, the teacher used "african sandalwood" to mean small shrubby african tree with hard wood used as a....
- The article explained what "african sandalwood" means with a simple example.

---

airliners (noun)

A commercial airplane that carries passengers.

- The article explained what "airliners" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "airliners" to mean a commercial airplane that carries passengers.

---

aku (noun)

A Kwa language spoken by the Yoruba in southwestern Nigeria.

- The article explained what "aku" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aku" to mean a kwa language spoken by the yoruba in southwestern....

---

alabaster (noun)

A compact fine-textured, usually white gypsum used for carving.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alabaster."
- He looked up "alabaster" because he had never seen it before.

---

albert schweitzer (noun)

French philosopher and physician and organist who spent most of his life as a medical missionary in Gabon (1875-1965).

- He looked up "albert schweitzer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "albert schweitzer" to mean french philosopher and physician and organist who....

alexander pushkin (noun)

Russian poet (1799-1837).

- He looked up "alexander pushkin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alexander pushkin."

allegro (noun)

A musical composition or musical passage to be performed quickly in a brisk lively manner.

- He looked up "allegro" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "allegro" to mean a musical composition or musical passage to be....

allergens (noun)

Any substance that can cause an allergy.

- The article explained what "allergens" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "allergens."

anaesthesia (noun)

Loss of bodily sensation with or without loss of consciousness.

- In class, the teacher used "anaesthesia" to mean loss of bodily sensation with or without loss of....
- They discussed "anaesthesia" during the group presentation.

andaman marble (noun)

Large Asiatic tree having hard marbled zebrawood.

- They discussed "andaman marble" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "andaman marble."

approximations (noun)

An approximate calculation of quantity or degree or worth.

- He looked up "approximations" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "approximations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aqua vitae (noun)

Strong distilled liquor or brandy.

- The article explained what "aqua vitae" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "aqua vitae" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aquifers (noun)

Underground bed or layer yielding ground water for wells and springs etc.

- In class, the teacher used "aquifers" to mean underground bed or layer yielding ground water for....
- The article explained what "aquifers" means with a simple example.

arching (adjective)

Forming or resembling an arch.

- It is useful to describe something as "arching" when it is forming or resembling an arch.
- Students compared "arching" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

arrhythmia (noun)

An abnormal rate of muscle contractions in the heart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arrhythmia."
- Understanding "arrhythmia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

atticus atlas (noun)

Giant saturniid moth widespread in Asia; sometimes cultured for silk.

- He looked up "atticus atlas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atticus atlas."

aurora borealis (noun)

The aurora of the northern hemisphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aurora borealis."
- Understanding "aurora borealis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

australian nettle (noun)

Any of several tall Australian trees of the genus Laportea.

- Understanding "australian nettle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "australian nettle" to mean any of several tall australian trees of the genus....

---

bahraini (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Bahrain or its people or language.

- Bahraini beaches.
- Would you call this situation "bahraini"? Explain why.

---

ball nettle (noun)

Coarse prickly weed having pale yellow flowers and yellow berrylike fruit; common throughout southern and eastern United States.

- The article explained what "ball nettle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ball nettle" during the group presentation.

---

bandaged (adjective)

Covered or wrapped with a bandage.

- The bandaged wound on the back of his head.
- Would you call this situation "bandaged"? Explain why.

---

banded gecko (noun)

Any of several geckos with dark bands across the body and differing from typical geckos in having movable eyelids; of United States southwest and Florida Gulf Coast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banded gecko."
- They discussed "banded gecko" during the group presentation.

---

barium (noun)

A soft silvery metallic element of the alkali earth group; found in barite.

- He looked up "barium" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barium."

---

bauxite (noun)

A clay-like mineral; the chief ore of aluminum; composed of aluminum oxides and aluminum hydroxides; used as an abrasive and catalyst.

- He looked up "bauxite" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bauxite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bean weevil (noun)

Larvae live in and feed on growing or stored beans.

- He looked up "bean weevil" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bean weevil."

---

befall (verb)

Happen, occur, or be the case in the course of events or by chance; ; (Santayana).

- He promised that no harm would befall her.
- She tried to use "befall" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

behead (verb)

Cut the head of.

- The French King was beheaded during the Revolution.
- Can you use "behead" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

bel canto (noun)

A style of operatic singing.

- Understanding "bel canto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed “bel canto” during the group presentation.

---

bellied (adjective)

Having a belly; often used in combination.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “bellied.”
- Would you call this situation “bellied”? Explain why.

---

bestsellers (noun)

A book that has had a large and rapid sale.

- He looked up “bestsellers” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “bestsellers” to mean a book that has had a large and rapid sale.

---

bicarbonate of soda (noun)

A white soluble compound (NaHCO3) used in effervescent drinks and in baking powders and as an antacid.

- He looked up “bicarbonate of soda” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “bicarbonate of soda” during the group presentation.

---

big-bellied (adjective)

Having a prominent belly.

- Students compared “big-bellied” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “big-bellied” when it is having a prominent belly.

---

biometrics (noun)

A branch of biology that studies biological phenomena and observations by means of statistical analysis.

- They discussed “biometrics” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “biometrics” to mean a branch of biology that studies biological....

---

bladed (adjective)

Having a blade or blades; often used in combination.

- A single-bladed leaf.
- Narrow-bladed grass.

---

blenheim (noun)

The First Duke of Marlborough and Prince Eugene of Savoy defeated the French in 1704 during the War of the Spanish Succession.

- Understanding “blenheim” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blenheim.”

---

blindsided (verb)

Catch unawares, especially with harmful consequences.

- The economic downturn blindsided many investors.
- The coach explained when to use “blindsided” and when to wait.

---

block anaesthesia (noun)

Anesthesia of an area supplied by a nerve; produced by an anesthetic agent applied to the nerve.

- The article explained what “block anaesthesia” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “block anaesthesia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bloodlines (noun)

The descendants of one individual.

- They discussed “bloodlines” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “bloodlines” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blowback (noun)

The backward escape of gases and unburned gunpowder after a gun is fired.

- The article explained what “blowback” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blowback.”

---

boathouse (noun)

A shed at the edge of a river or lake; used to store boats.

- He looked up "boathouse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boathouse."

---

bonfires (noun)

A large outdoor fire that is lighted as a signal or in celebration.

- He looked up "bonfires" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bonfires" during the group presentation.

---

box girder (noun)

A beam built up from boards; has a hollow rectangular cross section.

- Understanding "box girder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "box girder" means with a simple example.

---

brickwork (noun)

Masonry done with bricks and mortar.

- Understanding "brickwork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "brickwork" because he had never seen it before.

---

britten (noun)

Major English composer of the 20th century; noted for his operas (1913-1976).

- He looked up "britten" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "britten."

---

brooms (verb)

Sweep with a broom or as if with a broom.

- The coach explained when to use "brooms" and when to wait.
- Can you use "brooms" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

calumet (noun)

A highly decorated ceremonial pipe of Amerindians; smoked on ceremonial occasions (especially as a token of peace).

- The article explained what "calumet" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calumet."

---

cardamom (noun)

Rhizomatous herb of India having aromatic seeds used as seasoning.

- Understanding "cardamom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardamom."

---

carpal bone (noun)

Any of the eight small bones of the wrist of primates.

- They discussed "carpal bone" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpal bone."

---

carpal tunnel (noun)

A passageway in the wrist through which nerves and the flexor muscles of the hands pass.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carpal tunnel."
- Understanding "carpal tunnel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carrion (noun)

The dead and rotting body of an animal; unfit for human food.

- In class, the teacher used "carrion" to mean the dead and rotting body of an animal; unfit for....
- Understanding "carrion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

casks (noun)

A cylindrical container that holds liquids.

- They discussed "casks" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "casks" to mean a cylindrical container that holds liquids.

---

cellist (noun)

Someone who plays a violoncello.

- Understanding "cellist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cellist" during the group presentation.

---

champion lode (noun)

The main vein of ore in a deposit.

- The article explained what "champion lode" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "champion lode" to mean the main vein of ore in a deposit.

---

chard (noun)

Long succulent whitish stalks with large green leaves.

- He looked up "chard" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chard plant (noun)

Beet lacking swollen root; grown as a vegetable for its edible leaves and stalks.

- The article explained what "chard plant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chard plant" to mean beet lacking swollen root; grown as a vegetable for....

---

charmer (noun)

A person who charms others (usually by personal attractiveness).

- In class, the teacher used "charmer" to mean a person who charms others (usually by personal....
- They discussed "charmer" during the group presentation.

---

che guevara (noun)

An Argentine revolutionary leader who was Fidel Castro's chief lieutenant in the Cuban revolution; active in other Latin American countries; was captured and executed by the Bolivian army (1928-1967).

- The article explained what "che guevara" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "che guevara" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chicken cordon bleu (noun)

Thin slices of chicken stuffed with cheese and ham and then sauteed.

- He looked up "chicken cordon bleu" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chicken cordon bleu."

---

choctaw (noun)

A member of the Muskhogean people formerly living in Alabama.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "choctaw."
- He looked up "choctaw" because he had never seen it before.

---

clarence darrow (noun)

United States lawyer famous for his defense of lost causes (1857-1938).

- He looked up "clarence darrow" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "clarence darrow" during the group presentation.

---

closings (noun)

The last section of a communication.

- Understanding "closings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "closings."

---

cobwebs (noun)

A dense elaborate spider web that is more efficient than the orb web.

- The article explained what "cobwebs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cobwebs" to mean a dense elaborate spider web that is more efficient....

cogent (adjective)

Powerfully persuasive.

- A cogent argument.
- Students compared "cogent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

cogent evidence (noun)

Any factual evidence that helps to establish the truth of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cogent evidence."
- The article explained what "cogent evidence" means with a simple example.

collaborates (verb)

Work together on a common enterprise of project.

- In everyday English, people use "collaborates" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "collaborates" until he saw an example.

collages (noun)

A paste-up made by sticking together pieces of paper or photographs to form an artistic image.

- Understanding "collages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "collages" during the group presentation.

colonels (noun)

A commissioned military officer in the United States Army or Air Force or Marines who ranks above a lieutenant colonel and below a brigadier general.

- They discussed "colonels" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "colonels" to mean a commissioned military officer in the united....

comprehensible (adjective)

Capable of being comprehended or understood.

- An idea comprehensible to the average mind.
- It is useful to describe something as "comprehensible" when it is capable of being comprehended or understood.

compressing (noun)

Applying pressure.

- In class, the teacher used "compressing" to mean applying pressure.
- The article explained what "compressing" means with a simple example.

condense (verb)

Cause a gas or vapor to change into a liquid.

- The cold air condensed the steam.
- Water condenses.

condescension (noun)

The trait of displaying arrogance by patronizing those considered inferior.

- The queen's condescension was intended to make us feel comfortable.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "condescension."

corkscrew (noun)

A bottle opener that pulls corks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corkscrew."
- They discussed "corkscrew" during the group presentation.

corn campion (noun)

European annual having large trumpet-shaped reddish-purple flowers and poisonous seed; a common weed in grainfields and beside roadways; naturalized in America.

- The article explained what "corn campion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "corn campion" to mean european annual having large trumpet-shaped....

corpus sternum (noun)

The large central part of the breastbone.

- In class, the teacher used "corpus sternum" to mean the large central part of the breastbone.
- He looked up "corpus sternum" because he had never seen it before.

---

cortical cataract (noun)

A cataract that affects the lens cortex.

- In class, the teacher used "cortical cataract" to mean a cataract that affects the lens cortex.
- The article explained what "cortical cataract" means with a simple example.

---

council of ephesus (noun)

The third ecumenical council in 431 which declared Mary as mother of God and condemned Pelagius.

- The article explained what "council of ephesus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "council of ephesus" to mean the third ecumenical council in 431 which declared....

---

counsels (noun)

A lawyer who pleads cases in court.

- In class, the teacher used "counsels" to mean a lawyer who pleads cases in court.
- The article explained what "counsels" means with a simple example.

---

creamer (noun)

A small pitcher for serving cream.

- The article explained what "creamer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "creamer" during the group presentation.

---

creases (noun)

An angular or rounded shape made by folding.

- He looked up "creases" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "creases" to mean an angular or rounded shape made by folding.

---

creatine phosphate (noun)

An organic compound of creatine and phosphoric acid; found in the muscles of vertebrates where its hydrolysis releases energy for muscular contraction.

- They discussed "creatine phosphate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "creatine phosphate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cribs (noun)

The cards discarded by players at cribbage.

- The article explained what "cribs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cribs" to mean the cards discarded by players at cribbage.

---

croissants (noun)

Very rich flaky crescent-shaped roll.

- They discussed "croissants" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "croissants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cse (noun)

Canadian agency that gathers communications intelligence and assist law enforcement and security agencies.

- The article explained what "cse" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cse" during the group presentation.

---

custodians (noun)

One having charge of buildings or grounds or animals.

- They discussed "custodians" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "custodians" means with a simple example.

---

cyan (noun)

A primary subtractive color for light; has a blue-green color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cyan."
- The article explained what "cyan" means with a simple example.

david ben gurion (noun)

Israeli statesman (born in Poland) and active Zionist who organized resistance against the British after World War II; prime minister of Israel (1886-1973).

- They discussed "david ben gurion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "david ben gurion" to mean israeli statesman (born in poland) and active....

dead nettle (noun)

A plants of the genus Pilea having drooping green flower clusters and smooth translucent stems and leaves.

- Understanding "dead nettle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dead nettle" during the group presentation.

delves (verb)

Turn up, loosen, or remove earth.

- Can you use "delves" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "delves" and when to wait.

deserter (noun)

A person who abandons their duty (as on a military post).

- He looked up "deserter" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "deserter" to mean a person who abandons their duty (as on a military....

developmentally challenged (noun)

People collectively who are mentally retarded.

- Understanding "developmentally challenged" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "developmentally challenged" because he had never seen it before.

dewar (noun)

Vacuum flask that holds liquid air or helium for scientific experiments.

- The article explained what "dewar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dewar" to mean vacuum flask that holds liquid air or helium for....

dictation (noun)

An authoritative direction or instruction to do something.

- He signed and mailed his dictation without bothering to read it.
- They discussed "dictation" during the group presentation.

diction (noun)

The manner in which something is expressed in words; - G.S.Patton.

- Understanding "diction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diction."

dink (noun)

A soft return so that the tennis ball drops abruptly after crossing the net.

- Understanding "dink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dink" during the group presentation.

disbursement (noun)

The act of spending or disbursing money.

- They discussed "disbursement" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "disbursement" because he had never seen it before.

disguising (verb)

Make unrecognizable.

- The coach explained when to use "disguising" and when to wait.
- Can you use "disguising" in a sentence that fits this situation?

dishonour (noun)

A state of shame or disgrace.

- The article explained what "dishonour" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dishonour."

---

dissociative (adjective)

Tending to produce dissociation.

- The speaker chose "dissociative" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dissociative."

---

diverging (adjective)

Tending to move apart in different directions.

- A "diverging" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "diverging."

---

donald arthur glaser (noun)

United States physicist who invented the bubble chamber to study subatomic particles (born in 1926).

- He looked up "donald arthur glaser" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "donald arthur glaser."

---

dorothy leigh sayers (noun)

English writer of detective fiction (1893-1957).

- The article explained what "dorothy leigh sayers" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dorothy leigh sayers" during the group presentation.

---

durations (noun)

The property of enduring or continuing in time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "durations."
- He looked up "durations" because he had never seen it before.

---

earpiece (noun)

Electro-acoustic transducer for converting electric signals into sounds; it is held over or inserted into the ear.

- Understanding "earpiece" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "earpiece" to mean electro-acoustic transducer for converting electric....

---

elegy (noun)

A mournful poem; a lament for the dead.

- In class, the teacher used "elegy" to mean a mournful poem; a lament for the dead.
- The article explained what "elegy" means with a simple example.

---

elia (noun)

English essayist (1775-1834).

- The article explained what "elia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "elia" to mean english essayist (1775-1834).

---

emf (noun)

The rate at which energy is drawn from a source that produces a flow of electricity in a circuit; expressed in volts.

- In class, the teacher used "emf" to mean the rate at which energy is drawn from a source....
- He looked up "emf" because he had never seen it before.

---

encircling (adjective)

Being all around the edges; enclosing.

- His encircling arms.
- Students compared "encircling" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ene (noun)

The compass point midway between northeast and east.

- In class, the teacher used "ene" to mean the compass point midway between northeast and east.

- He looked up “ene” because he had never seen it before.

---

entitle (verb)

Give a title to someone; make someone a member of the nobility.

- The Freedom of Information Act entitles you to request your FBI file.
- Can you use “entitle” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

entomologist (noun)

A zoologist who studies insects.

- Understanding “entomologist” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “entomologist.”

---

ephesus (noun)

The third ecumenical council in 431 which declared Mary as mother of God and condemned Pelagius.

- The article explained what “ephesus” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “ephesus” during the group presentation.

---

epidermis (noun)

The outer layer of the skin covering the exterior body surface of vertebrates.

- Understanding “epidermis” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “epidermis” during the group presentation.

---

epinephrine (noun)

A catecholamine secreted by the adrenal medulla in response to stress (trade name Adrenalin); stimulates autonomic nerve action.

- They discussed “epinephrine” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “epinephrine” means with a simple example.

---

erections (noun)

A structure that has been erected.

- In class, the teacher used “erections” to mean a structure that has been erected.
- He looked up “erections” because he had never seen it before.

---

escalators (noun)

A stairway whose steps move continuously on a circulating belt.

- They discussed “escalators” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “escalators” to mean a stairway whose steps move continuously on a....

---

ethiopians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Ethiopia.

- Understanding “ethiopians” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ethiopians.”

---

evacuees (noun)

A person who has been evacuated from a dangerous place.

- The article explained what “evacuees” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “evacuees” to mean a person who has been evacuated from a dangerous place.

---

evens (noun)

The latter part of the day (the period of decreasing daylight from late afternoon until nightfall).

- They discussed “evens” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “evens” means with a simple example.

---

evs (noun)

A unit of energy equal to the work done by an electron accelerated through a potential difference of 1 volt.

- He looked up “evs” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “evs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exogenous depression (noun)

An inappropriate state of depression that is precipitated by events in the person's life (to be distinguished from normal grief).

- They discussed "exogenous depression" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "exogenous depression" means with a simple example.

---

faeces (noun)

Solid excretory product evacuated from the bowels.

- The article explained what "faeces" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "faeces" during the group presentation.

---

false nettle (noun)

Any of several flowering weeds of the genus Boehmeria lacking stinging hairs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false nettle."
- The article explained what "false nettle" means with a simple example.

---

faltering (noun)

The act of pausing uncertainly.

- Understanding "faltering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "faltering."

---

fan vaulting (noun)

An elaborate system of vaulting in which the ribs diverge like fans.

- The article explained what "fan vaulting" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fan vaulting" during the group presentation.

---

fictions (noun)

A deliberately false or improbable account.

- They discussed "fictions" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fictions" to mean a deliberately false or improbable account.

---

finalizing (verb)

Make final; put the last touches on; put into final form.

- He did not know how to use "finalizing" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "finalizing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fire hydrant (noun)

An upright hydrant for drawing water to use in fighting a fire.

- He looked up "fire hydrant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fire hydrant" during the group presentation.

---

fiver (noun)

A United States bill worth 5 dollars.

- In class, the teacher used "fiver" to mean a united states bill worth 5 dollars.
- Understanding "fiver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flabby (adjective)

Out of condition; not strong or robust; incapable of exertion or endurance.

- Flabby around the middle.
- It is useful to describe something as "flabby" when it is out of condition; not strong or robust; incapable....

---

flat-bellied (adjective)

Lacking a prominent belly.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flat-bellied."
- A "flat-bellied" approach may work better in this case.

---

floodgates (noun)

Something that restrains a flood or outpouring.

- Suspension of surveillance opened the floodgates to illegal immigrants.
- Understanding "floodgates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

floorboards (noun)

The floor of an automobile.

- They discussed "floorboards" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "floorboards" because he had never seen it before.

---

flour weevil (noun)

An insect that infests flour and stored grains.

- In class, the teacher used "flour weevil" to mean an insect that infests flour and stored grains.
- The article explained what "flour weevil" means with a simple example.

---

fluctuated (verb)

Move or sway in a rising and falling or wavelike pattern.

- He did not know how to use "fluctuated" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "fluctuated" in real sentences.

---

fluctuates (verb)

Move or sway in a rising and falling or wavelike pattern.

- The stock market fluctuates.
- She tried to use "fluctuates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fornication (noun)

Extramarital sex that willfully and maliciously interferes with marriage relations.

- He looked up "fornication" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fornication."

---

fortuna (noun)

(Roman mythology) the goddess of fortune and good luck; counterpart of Greek Tyche.

- They discussed "fortuna" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fortuna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

frailty (noun)

The state of being weak in health or body (especially from old age).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frailty."
- He looked up "frailty" because he had never seen it before.

---

friendliest (adjective)

Of or belonging to your own country's forces or those of an ally.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "friendliest."
- The speaker chose "friendliest" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

frowning (adjective)

Showing displeasure or anger.

- Students compared "frowning" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "frowning"? Explain why.

---

ful (noun)

A family of languages of the Fulani of West Africa and used as a lingua franca in the sub-Saharan regions from Senegal to Chad; the best known of the West African languages.

- The article explained what "ful" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ful."

---

gaggle (verb)

Make a noise characteristic of a goose.

- In everyday English, people use "gaggle" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "gaggle" until he saw an example.

gamma-interferon (noun)

A form of interferon that is produced by T cells and macrophages; involved in the activation of phagocytes.

- In class, the teacher used "gamma-interferon" to mean a form of interferon that is produced by t cells....
- The article explained what "gamma-interferon" means with a simple example.

gauging (verb)

Measure precisely and against a standard.

- Learners should practice how to use "gauging" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "gauging" until he saw an example.

gazebo (noun)

A small roofed building affording shade and rest.

- Understanding "gazebo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gazebo" during the group presentation.

gees (noun)

A unit of force equal to the force exerted by gravity; used to indicate the force to which a body is subjected when it is accelerated.

- In class, the teacher used "gees" to mean a unit of force equal to the force exerted by....
- Understanding "gees" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

general anaesthesia (noun)

A state of total unconsciousness resulting from anesthetic drugs (as for a major surgical operation).

- He looked up "general anaesthesia" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "general anaesthesia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

genus galleria (noun)

A genus of Pyralidae.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus galleria."
- Understanding "genus galleria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

girder (noun)

A beam made usually of steel; a main support in a structure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "girder."
- The article explained what "girder" means with a simple example.

gonorrhea (noun)

A common venereal disease caused by the bacterium Neisseria gonorrhoeae; symptoms are painful urination and pain around the urethra.

- They discussed "gonorrhea" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gonorrhea" means with a simple example.

gouge (noun)

An impression in a surface (as made by a blow).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gouge."
- He looked up "gouge" because he had never seen it before.

gouge out (verb)

Make gouges into a surface.

- The woman's spiked heels gouged out the wooden floor.
- He did not know how to use "gouge out" until he saw an example.

great bellied (adjective)

Having a prominent belly.

- It is useful to describe something as "great bellied" when it is having a prominent belly.
- The speaker chose "great bellied" because it captured the feeling precisely.

gregarious (adjective)

(of animals) tending to form a group with others of the same species.

- Gregarious bird species.
- It is useful to describe something as "gregarious" when it is (of animals) tending to form a group with others of....

---

grunting (verb)

Issue a grunting, low, animal-like noise.

- She tried to use "grunting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "grunting" when talking about this idea.

---

halibut (noun)

Lean flesh of very large flatfish of Atlantic or Pacific.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "halibut."
- He looked up "halibut" because he had never seen it before.

---

halley (noun)

English astronomer who used Newton's laws of motion to predict the period of a comet (1656-1742).

- The article explained what "halley" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "halley" to mean english astronomer who used newton's laws of motion....

---

ham-fisted (adjective)

Lacking physical movement skills, especially with the hands; ; ; ; - Mary H. Vorse.

- Students compared "ham-fisted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "ham-fisted"? Explain why.

---

heinrich himmler (noun)

German Nazi who was chief of the SS and the Gestapo and who oversaw the genocide of six million Jews (1900-1945).

- He looked up "heinrich himmler" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "heinrich himmler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hemispheres (noun)

Either half of the cerebrum.

- They discussed "hemispheres" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hemispheres" because he had never seen it before.

---

henry laurens (noun)

Leader of the American Revolution and president of the Continental Congress (1724-1792).

- In class, the teacher used "henry laurens" to mean leader of the american revolution and president of....
- The article explained what "henry laurens" means with a simple example.

---

herder (noun)

German philosopher who advocated intuition over reason (1744-1803).

- He looked up "herder" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "herder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hermann hesse (noun)

Swiss writer (born in Germany) whose novels and poems express his interests in eastern spiritual values (1877-1962).

- They discussed "hermann hesse" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hermann hesse" to mean swiss writer (born in germany) whose novels and....

---

himalaya (noun)

A mountain range extending 1500 miles on the border between India and Tibet; this range contains the world's highest mountain.

- He looked up "himalaya" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "himalaya."

---

histone (noun)

A simple protein containing mainly basic amino acids; present in cell nuclei in association with nucleic acids.

- In class, the teacher used "histone" to mean a simple protein containing mainly basic amino....

- He looked up "histone" because he had never seen it before.

---

hmong (noun)

A language of uncertain affiliation spoken by the Hmong.

- The article explained what "hmong" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hmong."

---

hmong language (noun)

A language of uncertain affiliation spoken by the Hmong.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hmong language."
- He looked up "hmong language" because he had never seen it before.

---

hocking (verb)

Leave as a guarantee in return for money.

- Can you use "hocking" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "hocking" until he saw an example.

---

holiest (adjective)

Belonging to or derived from or associated with a divine power.

- Students compared "holiest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "holiest."

---

holograms (noun)

The intermediate photograph (or photographic record) that contains information for reproducing a three-dimensional image by holography.

- In class, the teacher used "holograms" to mean the intermediate photograph (or photographic....
- He looked up "holograms" because he had never seen it before.

---

holotype (noun)

The original specimen from which the description of a new species is made.

- Understanding "holotype" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "holotype" because he had never seen it before.

---

horse nettle (noun)

Coarse prickly weed having pale yellow flowers and yellow berrylike fruit; common throughout southern and eastern United States.

- They discussed "horse nettle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horse nettle."

---

hospitalised (verb)

Admit into a hospital.

- He did not know how to use "hospitalised" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hospitalised" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hula-hula (noun)

A Polynesian rain dance performed by a woman.

- The article explained what "hula-hula" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hula-hula."

---

hydrant (noun)

A faucet for drawing water from a pipe or cask.

- In class, the teacher used "hydrant" to mean a faucet for drawing water from a pipe or cask.
- He looked up "hydrant" because he had never seen it before.

---

icao (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with civil aviation.

- He looked up "icao" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "icao" to mean the united nations agency concerned with civil aviation.

---

ignites (verb)

Cause to start burning; subject to fire or great heat.

- The ostentatious way of living of the rich ignites the hatred of the poor.
- He did not know how to use "ignites" until he saw an example.

---

immortalized (verb)

Be or provide a memorial to a person or an event.

- This melody immortalized its composer.
- Can you use "immortalized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

immunodeficiency (noun)

Immunological disorder in which some part of the body's immune system is inadequate and resistance to infectious diseases is reduced.

- In class, the teacher used "immunodeficiency" to mean immunological disorder in which some part of the....
- The article explained what "immunodeficiency" means with a simple example.

---

incidences (noun)

The striking of a light beam on a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "incidences."
- He looked up "incidences" because he had never seen it before.

---

inconveniences (verb)

To cause inconvenience or discomfort to.

- Can you use "inconveniences" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "inconveniences" and when to wait.

---

incubators (noun)

Apparatus consisting of a box designed to maintain a constant temperature by the use of a thermostat; used for chicks or premature infants.

- Understanding "incubators" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "incubators" during the group presentation.

---

inefficiencies (noun)

Unskillfulness resulting from a lack of efficiency.

- Understanding "inefficiencies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "inefficiencies" to mean unskillfulness resulting from a lack of efficiency.

---

inferior alveolar artery (noun)

The alveolar artery that goes through the mandibular canal to supply the lower teeth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inferior alveolar artery."
- He looked up "inferior alveolar artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

infusions (noun)

The act of infusing or introducing a certain modifying element or quality.

- In class, the teacher used "infusions" to mean the act of infusing or introducing a certain....
- Understanding "infusions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inhalation anaesthetic (noun)

A gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.

- In class, the teacher used "inhalation anaesthetic" to mean a gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.
- The article explained what "inhalation anaesthetic" means with a simple example.

---

inhalation general anaesthetic (noun)

A gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.

- He looked up "inhalation general anaesthetic" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "inhalation general anaesthetic" to mean a gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.

---

injunctions (noun)

(law) a judicial remedy issued in order to prohibit a party from doing or continuing to do a certain activity.

- He looked up "injunctions" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "injunctions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inlaid (adjective)

Adorned by inlays.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inlaid."
- Students compared "inlaid" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

intermediate vector boson (noun)

A gauge boson that mediates weak interactions between particles.

- They discussed "intermediate vector boson" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "intermediate vector boson" to mean a gauge boson that mediates weak interactions....

---

interstitial plasma cell pneumonia (noun)

Pneumonia occurring in infants or in persons with impaired immune systems (as AIDS victims).

- He looked up "interstitial plasma cell pneumonia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interstitial plasma cell pneumonia."

---

invents (verb)

Come up with (an idea, plan, explanation, theory, or principle) after a mental effort.

- Can you use "invents" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "invents" and when to wait.

---

jaundice (noun)

A rough and bitter manner.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jaundice."
- He looked up "jaundice" because he had never seen it before.

---

jean baptiste joseph fourier (noun)

French mathematician who developed Fourier analysis and studied the conduction of heat (1768-1830).

- They discussed "jean baptiste joseph fourier" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "jean baptiste joseph fourier" to mean french mathematician who developed fourier analysis....

---

jewelers (noun)

Someone in the business of selling jewelry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jewelers."
- He looked up "jewelers" because he had never seen it before.

---

jonathan trumbull (noun)

American Revolutionary leader who as governor of Connecticut provided supplies for the Continental Army (1710-1785).

- In class, the teacher used "jonathan trumbull" to mean american revolutionary leader who as governor of....
- Understanding "jonathan trumbull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

joyfully (adverb)

In a joyous and gleeful manner.

- He answered "joyfully," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "joyfully" can make your explanation more exact.

---

judeo-christian (adjective)

Being historically related to both Judaism and Christianity.

- The Judeo-Christian tradition.
- The speaker chose "judeo-christian" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

judeo-spanish (noun)

The Spanish dialect spoken by Sephardic Jews but written in the Hebrew script.

- In class, the teacher used "judeo-spanish" to mean the spanish dialect spoken by sephardic jews but....
- They discussed "judeo-spanish" during the group presentation.

julio iglesias (noun)

Spanish singer noted for his ballads and love songs (born in 1943).

- In class, the teacher used "julio iglesias" to mean spanish singer noted for his ballads and love songs....
- They discussed "julio iglesias" during the group presentation.

kibbutz (noun)

A collective farm or settlement owned by its members in modern Israel; children are reared collectively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kibbutz."
- He looked up "kibbutz" because he had never seen it before.

kilns (noun)

A furnace for firing or burning or drying such things as porcelain or bricks.

- They discussed "kilns" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "kilns" means with a simple example.

larynx (noun)

A cartilaginous structure at the top of the trachea; contains elastic vocal cords that are the source of the vocal tone in speech.

- He looked up "larynx" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "larynx."

lassie (noun)

A girl or young woman who is unmarried.

- They discussed "lassie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lassie" because he had never seen it before.

laurens (noun)

Leader of the American Revolution and president of the Continental Congress (1724-1792).

- In class, the teacher used "laurens" to mean leader of the american revolution and president of....
- He looked up "laurens" because he had never seen it before.

lewiston (noun)

A town in southwestern Maine to the north of Portland.

- The article explained what "lewiston" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lewiston" during the group presentation.

licorice fern (noun)

Fern having rootstock of a sweetish flavor.

- They discussed "licorice fern" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "licorice fern" because he had never seen it before.

lifter (noun)

A thief who steals goods that are in a store.

- He looked up "lifter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lifter" during the group presentation.

lightbulb (noun)

Electric lamp consisting of a transparent or translucent glass housing containing a wire filament (usually tungsten) that emits light when heated by electricity.

- The article explained what "lightbulb" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lightbulb."

lithography (noun)

A method of planographic printing from a metal or stone surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lithography."
- He looked up "lithography" because he had never seen it before.

loathsome (adjective)

Highly offensive; arousing aversion or disgust.

- A loathsome disease.
- It is useful to describe something as "loathsome" when it is highly offensive; arousing aversion or disgust.

---

local anaesthesia (noun)

Loss of sensation in a small area of the body (as when a local anesthetic is injected for a tooth extraction).

- The article explained what "local anaesthesia" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "local anaesthesia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lode (noun)

A deposit of valuable ore occurring within definite boundaries separating it from surrounding rocks.

- In class, the teacher used "lode" to mean a deposit of valuable ore occurring within definite....
- Understanding "lode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

loggers (noun)

A person who fells trees.

- They discussed "loggers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "loggers" means with a simple example.

---

loins (noun)

The region of the hips and groin and lower abdomen.

- The article explained what "loins" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "loins" to mean the region of the hips and groin and lower abdomen.

---

magnitudes (noun)

The property of relative size or extent (whether large or small).

- They discussed "magnitudes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "magnitudes" to mean the property of relative size or extent (whether....

---

maharaja (noun)

A great raja; a Hindu prince or king in India ranking above a raja.

- They discussed "maharaja" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "maharaja" because he had never seen it before.

---

maltese lira (noun)

The basic unit of money on Malta; equal to 100 cents.

- The article explained what "maltese lira" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "maltese lira" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

manipulates (verb)

Influence or control shrewdly or deviously.

- She manipulates her boss.
- He did not know how to use "manipulates" until he saw an example.

---

marchand de vin (noun)

Brown sauce with mushrooms and red wine or Madeira.

- In class, the teacher used "marchand de vin" to mean brown sauce with mushrooms and red wine or madeira.
- They discussed "marchand de vin" during the group presentation.

---

matriarch (noun)

A feisty older woman with a big bosom (as drawn in cartoons).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matriarch."
- He looked up "matriarch" because he had never seen it before.

---

mauve (adjective)

Of a pale to moderate greyish violet color.

- Would you call this situation "mauve"? Explain why.

- A "mauve" approach may work better in this case.

---

mauve-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with mauve.

- The speaker chose "mauve-blue" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "mauve-blue" when it is of blue tinged with mauve.

---

meir (noun)

Israeli statesman (born in Russia) (1898-1978).

- The article explained what "meir" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "meir" to mean israeli statesman (born in russia) (1898-1978).

---

memento mori (noun)

A reminder (as a death's head) of your mortality.

- He looked up "memento mori" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memento mori."

---

microfilm (noun)

Film on which materials are photographed at greatly reduced size; useful for storage; a magnification system is used to read the material.

- Understanding "microfilm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "microfilm" during the group presentation.

---

miocene epoch (noun)

From 25 million to 13 million years ago; appearance of grazing mammals.

- They discussed "miocene epoch" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "miocene epoch" means with a simple example.

---

mistletoe cactus (noun)

A plant of the genus Rhipsalis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mistletoe cactus."
- The article explained what "mistletoe cactus" means with a simple example.

---

mitts (noun)

The (prehensile) extremity of the superior limb.

- The article explained what "mitts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mitts" to mean the (prehensile) extremity of the superior limb.

---

modems (noun)

(from a combination of MOdulate and DEModulate) electronic equipment consisting of a device used to connect computers by a telephone line.

- The article explained what "modems" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "modems" during the group presentation.

---

modicum (noun)

A small or moderate or token amount; - Ian Jack.

- England still expects a modicum of eccentricity in its artists.
- In class, the teacher used "modicum" to mean a small or moderate or token amount; - ian jack.

---

mole salamander (noun)

Brownish-black burrowing salamander of southeastern United States.

- The article explained what "mole salamander" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mole salamander" to mean brownish-black burrowing salamander of southeastern....

---

monochromatic vision (noun)

Complete color blindness; colors can be differentiated only on the basis of brightness.

- The article explained what "monochromatic vision" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "monochromatic vision" to mean complete color blindness; colors can be....

---

montagu (noun)

United States anthropologist (born in England) who popularized anthropology (1905-).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "montagu."
- He looked up "montagu" because he had never seen it before.

---

moreton bay (noun)

An arm of the Tasman Sea forming a bay to the east of Brisbane.

- He looked up "moreton bay" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moreton bay."

---

moro reflex (noun)

A normal reflex of young infants; a sudden loud noise causes the child to stretch out the arms and flex the legs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moro reflex."
- He looked up "moro reflex" because he had never seen it before.

---

mother lode (noun)

The main vein of ore in a deposit.

- The article explained what "mother lode" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother lode."

---

motorbikes (noun)

Small motorcycle with a low frame and small wheels and elevated handlebars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motorbikes."
- The article explained what "motorbikes" means with a simple example.

---

mount kilimanjaro (noun)

The highest peak in Africa; located in northeastern Tanzania; 19,340 feet high.

- In class, the teacher used "mount kilimanjaro" to mean the highest peak in africa; located in northeastern....
- The article explained what "mount kilimanjaro" means with a simple example.

---

mournful widow (noun)

Old World annual having fragrant purple to deep crimson flower heads; naturalized in United States.

- He looked up "mournful widow" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mournful widow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mouthwash (noun)

A medicated solution used for gargling and rinsing the mouth.

- Understanding "mouthwash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mouthwash" during the group presentation.

---

mss (noun)

The form of a literary work submitted for publication.

- The article explained what "mss" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mss" to mean the form of a literary work submitted for publication.

---

mujahideen (noun)

A military force of Muslim guerilla warriors engaged in a jihad.

- In class, the teacher used "mujahideen" to mean a military force of muslim guerilla warriors....
- Understanding "mujahideen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

multipliers (noun)

The number by which a multiplicand is multiplied.

- He looked up "multipliers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "multipliers."

---

nationalization (noun)

The action of forming or becoming a nation.

- In class, the teacher used "nationalization" to mean the action of forming or becoming a nation.
- Understanding "nationalization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nauseating (adjective)

Causing or able to cause nausea.

- A nauseating smell.
- The speaker chose "nauseating" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

neo-darwinism (noun)

A modern Darwinian theory that explains new species in terms of genetic mutations.

- The article explained what "neo-darwinism" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "neo-darwinism" to mean a modern darwinian theory that explains new species....

---

nettle (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- The coach explained when to use "nettle" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "nettle" in real sentences.

---

nettle family (noun)

A family of plants of order Urticales including many nettles with stinging hairs.

- In class, the teacher used "nettle family" to mean a family of plants of order urticales including....
- The article explained what "nettle family" means with a simple example.

---

nettle tree (noun)

Any of various trees of the genus Celtis having inconspicuous flowers and small berrylike fruits.

- In class, the teacher used "nettle tree" to mean any of various trees of the genus celtis having....
- The article explained what "nettle tree" means with a simple example.

---

newtonian (adjective)

Of or relating to or inspired by Sir Isaac Newton or his science.

- Newtonian physics.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "newtonian."

---

normans (noun)

An inhabitant of Normandy.

- He looked up "normans" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "normans" during the group presentation.

---

omits (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- The coach explained when to use "omits" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "omits" until he saw an example.

---

omniscient (adjective)

Infinitely wise.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "omniscient."
- Would you call this situation "omniscient"? Explain why.

---

origination (noun)

The act of starting something for the first time; introducing something new.

- They discussed "origination" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "origination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orlando di lasso (noun)

Belgian composer (1532-1594).

- In class, the teacher used "orlando di lasso" to mean belgian composer (1532-1594).
- The article explained what "orlando di lasso" means with a simple example.

overdosed (verb)

Dose too heavily.

- The rock star overdosed and was found dead in his hotel room.
- He did not know how to use "overdosed" until he saw an example.

overpopulation (noun)

Too much population.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overpopulation."
- He looked up "overpopulation" because he had never seen it before.

overran (verb)

Occupy in large numbers or live on a host.

- The Crusaders overran much of the Holy Land.
- The plane overran the runway.

overshadow (verb)

Be greater in significance than.

- The tragedy overshadowed the couple's happiness.
- The tall tree overshadowed the house.

pacer (noun)

A horse trained to a special gait in which both feet on one side leave the ground together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pacer."
- He looked up "pacer" because he had never seen it before.

parka squirrel (noun)

Large ground squirrel of the North American far north.

- In class, the teacher used "parka squirrel" to mean large ground squirrel of the north american far north.
- The article explained what "parka squirrel" means with a simple example.

paroled (verb)

Release a criminal from detention and place him on parole.

- The prisoner was paroled after serving 10 years in prison.
- He did not know how to use "paroled" until he saw an example.

partaking (verb)

Have, give, or receive a share of.

- Can you use "partaking" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "partaking" carefully so everyone would understand.

parvati (noun)

Wife of Siva and a benevolent aspect of Devi: Hindu goddess of plenty.

- The article explained what "parvati" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "parvati" to mean wife of siva and a benevolent aspect of devi: hindu....

patriarchs (noun)

A man who is older and higher in rank than yourself.

- They discussed "patriarchs" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "patriarchs" to mean a man who is older and higher in rank than yourself.

pavilions (noun)

Large and often sumptuous tent.

- The article explained what "pavilions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pavilions" to mean large and often sumptuous tent.

pe-tsai (noun)

Plant with an elongated head of broad stalked leaves resembling celery; used as a vegetable in east Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pe-tsai."
- Understanding "pe-tsai" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peacocks (noun)

European butterfly having reddish-brown wings each marked with a purple eyespot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peacocks."
- Understanding "peacocks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pedicure (noun)

Professional care for the feet and toenails.

- The article explained what "pedicure" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pedicure" to mean professional care for the feet and toenails.

---

pheromone (noun)

A chemical substance secreted externally by some animals (especially insects) that influences the physiology or behavior of other animals of the same species.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pheromone."
- He looked up "pheromone" because he had never seen it before.

---

philistines (noun)

A person who is uninterested in intellectual pursuits.

- Understanding "philistines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "philistines."

---

phonograph recording disk (noun)

A disk coated with cellulose acetate.

- In class, the teacher used "phonograph recording disk" to mean a disk coated with cellulose acetate.
- The article explained what "phonograph recording disk" means with a simple example.

---

pine hyacinth (noun)

Erect clematis of Florida having pink to purple flowers.

- Understanding "pine hyacinth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pine hyacinth."

---

pinkish-orange (adjective)

Of orange tinged with pink.

- A "pinkish-orange" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pinkish-orange."

---

pinkish-purple (adjective)

Of purple tinged with pink.

- The speaker chose "pinkish-purple" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pinkish-purple."

---

placard (noun)

A sign posted in a public place as an advertisement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "placard."
- The article explained what "placard" means with a simple example.

---

plutarch (noun)

Greek biographer who wrote Parallel Lives (46?-120 AD).

- The article explained what "plutarch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plutarch."

---

polyps (noun)

A small vascular growth on the surface of a mucous membrane.

- In some species of coelenterate, polyps are a phase in the life cycle that alternates with a medusoid phase.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polyps."

---

possum haw (noun)

Deciduous shrub of southeastern and central United States.

- They discussed "possum haw" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "possum haw" because he had never seen it before.

---

posterior pituitary gland (noun)

The posterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily glandular in nature.

- He looked up "posterior pituitary gland" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "posterior pituitary gland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

postmodernism (noun)

Genre of art and literature and especially architecture in reaction against principles and practices of established modernism.

- In class, the teacher used "postmodernism" to mean genre of art and literature and especially....
- They discussed "postmodernism" during the group presentation.

---

pothole (noun)

A pit or hole produced by wear or weathering (especially in a road surface).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pothole."
- He looked up "pothole" because he had never seen it before.

---

potting (verb)

Plant in a pot.

- He did not know how to use "potting" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "potting" in real sentences.

---

preconceptions (noun)

An opinion formed beforehand without adequate evidence.

- He did not even try to confirm his preconceptions.
- He looked up "preconceptions" because he had never seen it before.

---

presides (verb)

Act as president.

- He did not know how to use "presides" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "presides" in real sentences.

---

primeval (adjective)

Having existed from the beginning; in an earliest or original stage or state.

- The forest primeval.
- It is useful to describe something as "primeval" when it is having existed from the beginning; in an earliest....

---

projective geometry (noun)

The geometry of properties that remain invariant under projection.

- They discussed "projective geometry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "projective geometry" because he had never seen it before.

---

promiscuity (noun)

Indulging in promiscuous (casual and indiscriminate) sexual relations.

- In class, the teacher used "promiscuity" to mean indulging in promiscuous (casual and....
- The article explained what "promiscuity" means with a simple example.

---

provisioning (verb)

Supply with provisions.

- He did not know how to use "provisioning" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "provisioning" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

puddings (noun)

Any of various soft thick unsweetened baked dishes.

- He looked up "puddings" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "puddings" to mean any of various soft thick unsweetened baked dishes.

---

purplish (adjective)

Of a color intermediate between red and blue.

- A "purplish" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "purplish"? Explain why.

---

purplish blue (noun)

A shade of blue tinged with purple.

- They discussed "purplish blue" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "purplish blue" to mean a shade of blue tinged with purple.

---

purplish red (noun)

A red with a tinge of purple.

- He looked up "purplish red" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "purplish red" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purplish-black (adjective)

Of black tinged with purple.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "purplish-black."
- Would you call this situation "purplish-black"? Explain why.

---

purplish-blue (adjective)

Of blue tinged with purple.

- It is useful to describe something as "purplish-blue" when it is of blue tinged with purple.
- The speaker chose "purplish-blue" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

purplish-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with purple.

- Would you call this situation "purplish-brown"? Explain why.
- Students compared "purplish-brown" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

purplish-green (adjective)

Of green tinged with purple.

- The speaker chose "purplish-green" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "purplish-green" when it is of green tinged with purple.

---

purplish-red (noun)

A red with a tinge of purple.

- They discussed "purplish-red" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "purplish-red" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

purplish-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with purple.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "purplish-white."
- The speaker chose "purplish-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pygmy mouse (noun)

Very small dark greyish brown mouse resembling a house mouse; of Texas and Mexico.

- They discussed "pygmy mouse" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pygmy mouse" because he had never seen it before.

---

rabbinic (adjective)

Of or relating to rabbis or their teachings.

- Rabbinical school.
- Students compared "rabbinic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rakes (noun)

Degree of deviation from a horizontal plane.

- In class, the teacher used "rakes" to mean degree of deviation from a horizontal plane.
- The article explained what "rakes" means with a simple example.

---

ranching (noun)

Farming for the raising of livestock (particularly cattle).

- Understanding "ranching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ranching" during the group presentation.

---

rationalization (noun)

The cognitive process of making something seem consistent with or based on reason.

- He looked up "rationalization" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rationalization" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ravel (noun)

A row of unravelled stitches.

- He looked up "ravel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ravel."

---

ravel out (verb)

Disentangle.

- Can you unravel the mystery?
- She tried to use "ravel out" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reachable (adjective)

Easily approached.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "reachable."
- A "reachable" approach may work better in this case.

---

reaffirms (verb)

Affirm once again.

- He did not know how to use "reaffirms" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "reaffirms" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

reappears (verb)

Appear again.

- In everyday English, people use "reappears" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "reappears" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rearview mirror (noun)

Car mirror that reflects the view out of the rear window.

- Understanding "rearview mirror" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "rearview mirror" means with a simple example.

---

rebelling (verb)

Take part in a rebellion; renounce a former allegiance.

- Learners should practice how to use "rebelling" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "rebelling" until he saw an example.

---

recede (verb)

Become faint or more distant.

- The unhappy memories of her childhood receded as she grew older.
- The coach explained when to use "recede" and when to wait.

reciprocating (verb)

Act, feel, or give mutually or in return.

- Learners should practice how to use "reciprocating" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "reciprocating" when talking about this idea.

reciprocating engine (noun)

An internal-combustion engine in which the crankshaft is turned by pistons moving up and down in cylinders.

- Understanding "reciprocating engine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reciprocating engine" means with a simple example.

reciprocating saw (noun)

A portable power saw with a reciprocating blade; can be used with a variety of blades depending on the application and kind of cut; generally have a plate that rides on the surface that is being cut.

- The article explained what "reciprocating saw" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "reciprocating saw" to mean a portable power saw with a reciprocating blade;...

red sandalwood (noun)

East Indian tree with racemes of yellow-white flowers; cultivated as an ornamental.

- They discussed "red sandalwood" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "red sandalwood" means with a simple example.

reductase (noun)

An enzyme that catalyses the biochemical reduction of some specified substance.

- In class, the teacher used "reductase" to mean an enzyme that catalyses the biochemical reduction....
- Understanding "reductase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

reestablish (verb)

Bring back into original existence, use, function, or position.

- Reestablish peace in the region.
- The coach explained when to use "reestablish" and when to wait.

regional anaesthesia (noun)

Loss of sensation in a region of the body produced by application of an anesthetic agent to all the nerves supplying that region (as when an epidural anesthetic is administered to the pelvic region during childbirth).

- They discussed "regional anaesthesia" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "regional anaesthesia."

reintroduce (verb)

Introduce anew.

- We haven't met in a long time, so let me reintroduce myself.
- Learners should practice how to use "reintroduce" in real sentences.

reintroduction (noun)

An act of renewed introduction.

- They discussed "reintroduction" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reintroduction."

rekindle (verb)

Kindle anew, as of a fire.

- Rekindle hopes.
- Rekindle her love.

relapsed (verb)

Deteriorate in health.

- He relapsed.
- She tried to use "relapsed" carefully so everyone would understand.

relented (verb)

Give in, as to influence or pressure.

- He did not know how to use "relented" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "relented" and when to wait.

---

reposition (noun)

Depositing in a warehouse.

- They decided to reposition their furniture in a recommended repository in Brooklyn.
- Understanding "reposition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reproduces (verb)

Recreate a sound, image, idea, mood, atmosphere, etc.

- This DVD player reproduces the sound of the piano very well.
- The coach explained when to use "reproduces" and when to wait.

---

reverts (verb)

Go back to a previous state.

- He did not know how to use "reverts" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "reverts" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

revulsion (noun)

Intense aversion.

- The article explained what "revulsion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "revulsion" to mean intense aversion.

---

rhs (noun)

A white hard metallic element that is one of the platinum group and is found in platinum ores; used in alloys with platinum.

- The article explained what "rhs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rhs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

richelieu (noun)

French prelate and statesman; principal minister to Louis XIII (1585-1642).

- In class, the teacher used "richelieu" to mean french prelate and statesman; principal minister to....
- The article explained what "richelieu" means with a simple example.

---

rinsing (noun)

The removal of soap with clean water in the final stage of washing.

- In class, the teacher used "rinsing" to mean the removal of soap with clean water in the final....
- He looked up "rinsing" because he had never seen it before.

---

rock'n'roll (noun)

A genre of popular music originating in the 1950s; a blend of black rhythm-and-blues with white country-and-western.

- Rock is a generic term for the range of styles that evolved out of rock'n'roll.
- He looked up "rock'n'roll" because he had never seen it before.

---

rose-mauve (adjective)

Of mauve tinged with rose.

- Would you call this situation "rose-mauve"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "rose-mauve" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

rotary actuator (noun)

(computer science) the actuator that moves a read/write head to the proper data track.

- In class, the teacher used "rotary actuator" to mean (computer science) the actuator that moves a....
- He looked up "rotary actuator" because he had never seen it before.

---

rubicon (noun)

A line that when crossed permits of no return and typically results in irrevocable commitment.

- He looked up “rubicon” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “rubicon” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

safeties (noun)

The state of being certain that adverse effects will not be caused by some agent under defined conditions.

- In class, the teacher used “safeties” to mean the state of being certain that adverse effects....
- He looked up “safeties” because he had never seen it before.

---

samaritans (noun)

A member of the people inhabiting Samaria in biblical times.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “samaritans.”
- He looked up “samaritans” because he had never seen it before.

---

sanctified (adjective)

Made or declared or believed to be holy; devoted to a deity or some religious ceremony or use.

- Sanctified wine.
- It is useful to describe something as “sanctified” when it is made or declared or believed to be holy; devoted to....

---

sandalwood (noun)

Close-grained fragrant yellowish heartwood of the true sandalwood; has insect repelling properties and is used for carving and cabinetwork.

- In class, the teacher used “sandalwood” to mean close-grained fragrant yellowish heartwood of the....
- They discussed “sandalwood” during the group presentation.

---

sandalwood family (noun)

Chiefly tropical herbs or shrubs or trees bearing nuts or one-seeded fruit.

- Understanding “sandalwood family” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “sandalwood family” during the group presentation.

---

sandalwood tree (noun)

Parasitic tree of Indonesia and Malaysia having fragrant close-grained yellowish heartwood with insect repelling properties and used, e.g., for making chests.

- Understanding “sandalwood tree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “sandalwood tree” during the group presentation.

---

sanding (verb)

Rub with sandpaper.

- She tried to use “sanding” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “sanding” in real sentences.

---

savant (noun)

Someone who has been admitted to membership in a scholarly field.

- They discussed “savant” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “savant” to mean someone who has been admitted to membership in a....

---

scape (noun)

(architecture) upright consisting of the vertical part of a column.

- Understanding “scape” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “scape” because he had never seen it before.

---

schoolgirls (noun)

A girl attending school.

- They discussed “schoolgirls” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “schoolgirls” to mean a girl attending school.

---

scrawny (adjective)

Inferior in size or quality.

- Scrawny cattle.
- A long scrawny neck.

scrub typhus (noun)

Transmitted by larval mites and widespread in Asia.

- In class, the teacher used "scrub typhus" to mean transmitted by larval mites and widespread in asia.
- Understanding "scrub typhus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

seabirds (noun)

A bird that frequents coastal waters and the open ocean: gulls; pelicans; gannets; cormorants; albatrosses; petrels; etc.

- They discussed "seabirds" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "seabirds" means with a simple example.

sear (verb)

Cause to wither or parch from exposure to heat.

- Can you use "sear" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "sear" when talking about this idea.

sequins (noun)

Adornment consisting of a small piece of shiny material used to decorate clothing.

- Understanding "sequins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sequins."

shackled (adjective)

Bound by chains fastened around the ankles.

- The speaker chose "shackled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "shackled" when it is bound by chains fastened around the ankles.

silver thatch (noun)

Small stocky fan palm of southern Florida and Cuba.

- The article explained what "silver thatch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "silver thatch" to mean small stocky fan palm of southern florida and cuba.

sir james dewar (noun)

Scottish chemist and physicist noted for his work in cryogenics and his invention of the Dewar flask (1842-1923).

- They discussed "sir james dewar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sir james dewar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slop (noun)

(usually plural) weak or watery unappetizing food or drink.

- He lived on the thin slops that food kitchens provided.
- They waded through the slop.

slop bowl (noun)

A bowl into which the dregs of teacups and coffee cups are emptied at the table.

- Understanding "slop bowl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "slop bowl" because he had never seen it before.

smothering (adjective)

Causing difficulty in breathing especially through lack of fresh air and presence of heat.

- The smothering soft voices.
- Smothering heat.

snot-nosed (adjective)

(used colloquially) overly conceited or arrogant; -Laurent Le Sage.

- A house full of snot-nosed kids.
- Would you call this situation "snot-nosed"? Explain why.

solvency (noun)

The ability to meet maturing obligations as they come due.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solvency."
- He looked up "solvency" because he had never seen it before.

---

spyware (noun)

Computer software that obtains information from a user's computer without the user's knowledge or consent.

- They discussed "spyware" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spyware."

---

stagnant hypoxia (noun)

Hypoxia resulting from slow peripheral circulation (such as follows congestive cardiac failure).

- He looked up "stagnant hypoxia" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "stagnant hypoxia" during the group presentation.

---

stamens (noun)

The male reproductive organ of a flower.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stamens."
- He looked up "stamens" because he had never seen it before.

---

stocky (adjective)

Having a short and solid form or stature.

- Stocky legs.
- The speaker chose "stocky" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

strait of magellan (noun)

The strait separating South America from Tierra del Fuego and other islands to the south of the continent; discovered by Ferdinand Magellan in 1520; an important route around South America before the Panama Canal was built.

- The article explained what "strait of magellan" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "strait of magellan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

strutting (verb)

To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.

- The coach explained when to use "strutting" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "strutting" in real sentences.

---

subsidence (noun)

An abatement in intensity or degree (as in the manifestations of a disease).

- They discussed "subsidence" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "subsidence" because he had never seen it before.

---

subtracted (verb)

Take off or away.

- This prefix was subtracted when the word was borrowed from French.
- He did not know how to use "subtracted" until he saw an example.

---

sullen (adjective)

Showing a brooding ill humor; ; ; ; ; - Bruce Bliven.

- A sullen crowd.
- A "sullen" approach may work better in this case.

---

sump (noun)

An oil reservoir in an internal combustion engine.

- The article explained what "sump" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

supervises (verb)

Keep tabs on; keep an eye on; keep under surveillance.

- In everyday English, people use "supervises" when talking about this idea.

- She tried to use "supervises" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

swirls (verb)

Turn in a twisting or spinning motion.

- The coach explained when to use "swirls" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "swirls" until he saw an example.

---

symbiosis (noun)

The relation between two different species of organisms that are interdependent; each gains benefits from the other.

- He looked up "symbiosis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "symbiosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sympathise (verb)

To feel or express sympathy or compassion.

- In everyday English, people use "sympathise" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "sympathise" until he saw an example.

---

synchronize (verb)

Make synchronous and adjust in time or manner.

- Let's synchronize our efforts.
- Synchronize this film.

---

taffy (noun)

Chewy candy of sugar or syrup boiled until thick and pulled until glossy.

- He looked up "taffy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taffy."

---

taffy apple (noun)

An apple that is covered with a candy-like substance (usually caramelized sugar).

- Understanding "taffy apple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "taffy apple" to mean an apple that is covered with a candy-like....

---

tantalizing (adjective)

Arousing desire or expectation for something unattainable or mockingly out of reach.

- A tantalizing taste of success.
- A tantalizing aroma.

---

taos (noun)

A member of the Pueblo people living in northern New Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taos."
- They discussed "taos" during the group presentation.

---

taster (noun)

Someone who samples food or drink for its quality.

- They discussed "taster" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taster."

---

teacup (noun)

A cup from which tea is drunk.

- In class, the teacher used "teacup" to mean a cup from which tea is drunk.
- He looked up "teacup" because he had never seen it before.

---

technicalities (noun)

A detail that is considered insignificant.

- They discussed "technicalities" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "technicalities" because he had never seen it before.

---

tectonics (noun)

The branch of geology studying the folding and faulting of the earth's crust.

- In class, the teacher used "tectonics" to mean the branch of geology studying the folding and....
- He looked up "tectonics" because he had never seen it before.

---

tepid (adjective)

Feeling or showing little interest or enthusiasm.

- Tepid bath water.
- It is useful to describe something as "tepid" when it is feeling or showing little interest or enthusiasm.

---

terrifies (verb)

Fill with terror; frighten greatly.

- Can you use "terrifies" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "terrifies" and when to wait.

---

testes (noun)

One of the two male reproductive glands that produce spermatozoa and secrete androgens.

- He looked up "testes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "testes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thatch (noun)

A house roof made with a plant material (as straw).

- In class, the teacher used "thatch" to mean a house roof made with a plant material (as straw).
- The article explained what "thatch" means with a simple example.

---

thatch tree (noun)

Small palm of southern Florida and West Indies closely resembling the silvertop palmetto.

- Understanding "thatch tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "thatch tree" to mean small palm of southern florida and west indies....

---

thawed (adjective)

No longer frozen solid.

- The thawed ice was treacherous.
- The thawed ground was muddy.

---

thicken (verb)

Make thick or thicker.

- Thicken the sauce.
- The sauce thickened.

---

throated (adjective)

Having a throat as specified.

- Deep-throated.
- White-throated.

---

thumbnails (noun)

The nail of the thumb.

- They discussed "thumbnails" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thumbnails."

---

tightrope walker (noun)

An acrobat who performs on a tightrope or slack rope.

- He looked up "tightrope walker" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tightrope walker."

---

tko (noun)

A knockout declared by the referee who judges one boxer unable to continue.

- He looked up "tko" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tko" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transitive verb form (noun)

A verb (or verb construction) that requires an object in order to be grammatical.

- In class, the teacher used "transitive verb form" to mean a verb (or verb construction) that requires an....
- They discussed "transitive verb form" during the group presentation.

---

tripe (noun)

Lining of the stomach of a ruminant (especially a bovine) used as food.

- Understanding "tripe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tripe" means with a simple example.

---

tristram (noun)

(Middle Ages) the nephew of the king of Cornwall who (according to legend) fell in love with his uncle's bride (Iseult) after they mistakenly drank a love potion that left them eternally in love with each other.

- He looked up "tristram" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tristram" during the group presentation.

---

trotted (verb)

Run at a moderately swift pace.

- She trotted the horse home.
- Learners should practice how to use "trotted" in real sentences.

---

troughs (noun)

A container (usually in a barn or stable) from which cattle or horses feed.

- In class, the teacher used "troughs" to mean a container (usually in a barn or stable) from....
- Understanding "troughs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

true sandalwood (noun)

Parasitic tree of Indonesia and Malaysia having fragrant close-grained yellowish heartwood with insect repelling properties and used, e.g., for making chests.

- In class, the teacher used "true sandalwood" to mean parasitic tree of indonesia and malaysia having....
- They discussed "true sandalwood" during the group presentation.

---

tweeter (noun)

A loudspeaker that reproduces higher audio frequency sounds.

- The sound system had both tweeters and woofers.
- In class, the teacher used "tweeter" to mean a loudspeaker that reproduces higher audio....

---

twinning (adjective)

Producing two offspring at a time.

- Would you call this situation "twinning"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "twinning" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

typewriters (noun)

Hand-operated character printer for printing written messages one character at a time.

- He looked up "typewriters" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "typewriters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

umbilical hernia (noun)

Protrusion of the intestine and omentum through a hernia in the abdominal wall near the navel; usually self correcting after birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "umbilical hernia."
- They discussed "umbilical hernia" during the group presentation.

---

unabated (adjective)

Continuing at full strength or intensity.

- The winds are unabated.
- The popularity of his books among young people continued unabated.

unafraid (adjective)

Free from fear or doubt; easy in mind.

- Would you call this situation "unafraid"? Explain why.
- A "unafraid" approach may work better in this case.

unambiguously (adverb)

In an unambiguous manner.

- He answered "unambiguously," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- The narrator describes the scene "unambiguously" in the final chapter.

unearned (adjective)

Not gained by merit or labor or service.

- Accepted the unearned rewards that came his ways as well as the unearned criticism.
- Unearned income.

unearned income (noun)

Personal income that you did not earn (e.g., dividends or interest or rent income).

- They discussed "unearned income" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "unearned income" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

unearned revenue (noun)

Personal income that you did not earn (e.g., dividends or interest or rent income).

- In class, the teacher used "unearned revenue" to mean personal income that you did not earn (e.g.,....
- The article explained what "unearned revenue" means with a simple example.

unearned run (noun)

A run that was scored as a result of an error by the other team.

- They discussed "unearned run" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "unearned run" to mean a run that was scored as a result of an error by....

unenforceable (adjective)

Not enforceable; not capable of being brought about by compulsion.

- An unenforceable law.
- Unenforceable reforms.

uninhabitable (adjective)

Not fit for habitation.

- Students compared "uninhabitable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "uninhabitable" approach may work better in this case.

unread (adjective)

Not informed through reading; - V.L.Parrington.

- He seems to have been wholly unread in political theory.
- The speaker chose "unread" because it captured the feeling precisely.

unsaturated (adjective)

(of color) not chromatically pure; diluted.

- An unsaturated red.
- An unsaturated salt solution.

unsurpassed (adjective)

Not capable of being improved on.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unsurpassed."
- Students compared "unsurpassed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

urns (noun)

A large vase that usually has a pedestal or feet.

- In class, the teacher used "urns" to mean a large vase that usually has a pedestal or feet.
- The article explained what "urns" means with a simple example.

---

uterine cervix (noun)

Necklike opening to the uterus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uterine cervix."
- He looked up "uterine cervix" because he had never seen it before.

---

validates (verb)

Make valid or confirm the validity of.

- In everyday English, people use "validates" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "validates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

valparaiso (noun)

The chief port and second largest city of Chile; located on a wide harbor in central Chile.

- In class, the teacher used "valparaiso" to mean the chief port and second largest city of chile;....
- The article explained what "valparaiso" means with a simple example.

---

vats (noun)

A large open vessel for holding or storing liquids.

- Understanding "vats" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vats."

---

vaulting (noun)

A light leap by a horse in which both hind legs leave the ground before the forelegs come down.

- Arches and vaulting.
- He looked up "vaulting" because he had never seen it before.

---

vaulting horse (noun)

A gymnastic horse without pommels and with one end elongated; used lengthwise for vaulting.

- They discussed "vaulting horse" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "vaulting horse" because he had never seen it before.

---

venerated (verb)

Regard with feelings of respect and reverence; consider hallowed or exalted or be in awe of.

- The coach explained when to use "venerated" and when to wait.
- Can you use "venerated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

vivien leigh (noun)

English film actress (1913-1967).

- He looked up "vivien leigh" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vivien leigh."

---

waiving (verb)

Do without or cease to hold or adhere to.

- Can you use "waiving" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "waiving" when talking about this idea.

---

waring (verb)

Spend extravagantly.

- Learners should practice how to use "waring" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "waring" until he saw an example.

---

waxy (adjective)

Having the paleness of wax; - Bram Stoker.

- A thin face with a waxy paleness.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "waxy."

west nile encephalitis virus (noun)

The flavivirus that causes West Nile encephalitis.

- They discussed "west nile encephalitis virus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "west nile encephalitis virus" to mean the flavivirus that causes west nile encephalitis.

wests (noun)

The cardinal compass point that is a 270 degrees.

- Understanding "wests" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wests."

whimper (noun)

A complaint uttered in a plaintive whining way.

- Understanding "whimper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "whimper" because he had never seen it before.

white dead nettle (noun)

European dead nettle with white flowers.

- The article explained what "white dead nettle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "white dead nettle" to mean european dead nettle with white flowers.

white horse nettle (noun)

Weedy nightshade with silvery foliage and violet or blue or white flowers; roundish berry widely used to curdle milk; central United States to South America.

- In class, the teacher used "white horse nettle" to mean weedy nightshade with silvery foliage and violet or....
- The article explained what "white horse nettle" means with a simple example.

wiles (noun)

The use of tricks to deceive someone (usually to extract money from them).

- Understanding "wiles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wiles" means with a simple example.

william dudley haywood (noun)

United States labor leader and militant socialist who was one of the founders of the Industrial Workers of the World (1869-1928).

- They discussed "william dudley haywood" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "william dudley haywood" means with a simple example.

wilson's thrush (noun)

Tawny brown North American thrush noted for its song.

- In class, the teacher used "wilson's thrush" to mean tawny brown north american thrush noted for its song.
- The article explained what "wilson's thrush" means with a simple example.

windshield wiper (noun)

A mechanical device that cleans the windshield.

- In class, the teacher used "windshield wiper" to mean a mechanical device that cleans the windshield.
- Understanding "windshield wiper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wine taster (noun)

A taster who evaluates the quality of wines.

- He looked up "wine taster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wine taster" during the group presentation.

winkle (verb)

Emit or reflect light in a flickering manner.

- Does a constellation twinkle more brightly than a single star?
- She tried to use "winkle" carefully so everyone would understand.

winkle out (verb)

Force from a place or position.

- The committee winkled out the unqualified candidates.
- Learners should practice how to use "winkle out" in real sentences.

---

wistful (adjective)

Showing pensive sadness.

- The sensitive and wistful response of a poet to the gentler phases of beauty.
- Would you call this situation "wistful"? Explain why.

---

wolfram (noun)

A heavy grey-white metallic element; the pure form is used mainly in electrical applications; it is found in several ores including wolframite and scheelite.

- He looked up "wolfram" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wolfram."

---

wolfram steel (noun)

A very hard heat-resistant steel containing tungsten.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wolfram steel."
- He looked up "wolfram steel" because he had never seen it before.

---

wood nettle (noun)

American perennial herb found in rich woods and provided with stinging hairs; provides fibers used for textiles.

- The article explained what "wood nettle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "wood nettle" during the group presentation.

---

yachting cap (noun)

A cap with a flat circular top and a visor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yachting cap."
- He looked up "yachting cap" because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow-bellied (adjective)

Easily frightened.

- It is useful to describe something as "yellow-bellied" when it is easily frightened.
- The speaker chose "yellow-bellied" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

yellow-breasted bunting (noun)

Common in Russia and Siberia.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow-breasted bunting" to mean common in russia and siberia.
- The article explained what "yellow-breasted bunting" means with a simple example.

---

yeoman (noun)

In former times was free and cultivated his own land.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yeoman."
- They discussed "yeoman" during the group presentation.

---

yeoman of the guard (noun)

Officer in the (ceremonial) bodyguard of the British monarch.

- He looked up "yeoman of the guard" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yeoman of the guard."

---

yue dialect (noun)

The dialect of Chinese spoken in Canton and neighboring provinces and in Hong Kong and elsewhere outside China.

- They discussed "yue dialect" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "yue dialect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

yule (noun)

Period extending from Dec. 24 to Jan. 6.

- The article explained what "yule" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yule."

---

acadia (noun)

The French-speaking part of the Canadian Maritime Provinces.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acadia."
- He looked up "acadia" because he had never seen it before.

---

acadia national park (noun)

A national park in Maine showing marine erosion and glaciation; includes seashore and also the highest point on the Atlantic coast.

- They discussed "acadia national park" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "acadia national park" to mean a national park in maine showing marine erosion and....

---

acetyl (noun)

The organic group of acetic acid (CH3CO-).

- In class, the teacher used "acetyl" to mean the organic group of acetic acid (ch3co-).
- He looked up "acetyl" because he had never seen it before.

---

acetyl group (noun)

The organic group of acetic acid (CH3CO-).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acetyl group."
- Understanding "acetyl group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

achievers (noun)

A person with a record of successes.

- In class, the teacher used "achievers" to mean a person with a record of successes.
- The article explained what "achievers" means with a simple example.

---

acrobat (noun)

An athlete who performs acts requiring skill and agility and coordination.

- In class, the teacher used "acrobat" to mean an athlete who performs acts requiring skill and....
- He looked up "acrobat" because he had never seen it before.

---

actuators (noun)

A mechanism that puts something into automatic action.

- He looked up "actuators" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "actuators" to mean a mechanism that puts something into automatic action.

---

addis ababa (noun)

The capital of Ethiopia and the country's largest city; located in central Ethiopia.

- He looked up "addis ababa" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "addis ababa" during the group presentation.

---

adult-onset diabetes mellitus (noun)

Mild form of diabetes mellitus that develops gradually in adults; can be precipitated by obesity or severe stress or menopause or other factors; can usually be controlled by diet and hypoglycemic agents without injections of insulin.

- Understanding "adult-onset diabetes mellitus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "adult-onset diabetes mellitus" during the group presentation.

---

agar-agar (noun)

A colloidal extract of algae; used especially in culture media and as a gelling agent in foods.

- The article explained what "agar-agar" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agar-agar."

---

agora (noun)

A place of assembly for the people in ancient Greece.

- In class, the teacher used "agora" to mean a place of assembly for the people in ancient greece.
- He looked up "agora" because he had never seen it before.

alumina (noun)

Any of various forms of aluminum oxide occurring naturally as corundum.

- They discussed "alumina" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "alumina" to mean any of various forms of aluminum oxide occurring....

amicably (adverb)

In an amicable manner.

- They separated amicably.
- He answered "amicably," which changed the tone of the conversation.

amphibian (noun)

An airplane designed to take off and land on water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amphibian."
- The article explained what "amphibian" means with a simple example.

amphibian family (noun)

Any family of amphibians.

- The article explained what "amphibian family" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amphibian family" to mean any family of amphibians.

amputee (noun)

Someone who has had a limb removed by amputation.

- The article explained what "amputee" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "amputee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

analogues (noun)

Something having the property of being analogous to something else.

- They discussed "analogues" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "analogues."

anchovies (noun)

Tiny fishes usually canned or salted; used for hors d'oeuvres or as seasoning in sauces.

- In class, the teacher used "anchovies" to mean tiny fishes usually canned or salted; used for hors....
- Understanding "anchovies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ashtray (noun)

A receptacle for the ash from smokers' cigars or cigarettes.

- Understanding "ashtray" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ashtray" because he had never seen it before.

askew (adjective)

Turned or twisted toward one side; - G.K.Chesterton.

- A "askew" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "askew."

assyria (noun)

An ancient kingdom in northern Mesopotamia which is in present-day Iraq.

- Understanding "assyria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "assyria" because he had never seen it before.

astana (noun)

Remote city of Kazakhstan that (ostensibly for security reasons) was made the capital in 1998.

- Understanding "astana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "astana" during the group presentation.

athenians (noun)

A resident of Athens.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "athenians."
- He looked up "athenians" because he had never seen it before.

---

attendee (noun)

A person who is present and participates in a meeting.

- The gathering satisfied both organizers and attendees.
- Understanding "attendee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

authenticate (verb)

Establish the authenticity of something.

- Can you use "authenticate" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "authenticate" until he saw an example.

---

autonomic nervous system (noun)

The part of the nervous system of vertebrates that controls involuntary actions of the smooth muscles and heart and glands.

- In class, the teacher used "autonomic nervous system" to mean the part of the nervous system of vertebrates that....
- He looked up "autonomic nervous system" because he had never seen it before.

---

awoken (verb)

Stop sleeping.

- In everyday English, people use "awoken" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "awoken" until he saw an example.

---

backtrack (verb)

Retrace one's course.

- The coach explained when to use "backtrack" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "backtrack" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

baffle (verb)

Hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires) of.

- She tried to use "baffle" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "baffle" when talking about this idea.

---

baffle board (noun)

A flat plate that controls or directs the flow of fluid or energy.

- Understanding "baffle board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "baffle board" to mean a flat plate that controls or directs the flow of....

---

balk (noun)

The area on a billiard table behind the balkline.

- A player with ball in hand must play from the balk.
- Understanding "balk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

balm of gilead (noun)

Small evergreen tree of Africa and Asia; leaves have a strong aromatic odor when bruised.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "balm of gilead."
- He looked up "balm of gilead" because he had never seen it before.

---

banquets (noun)

A meal that is well prepared and greatly enjoyed.

- The article explained what "banquets" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banquets."

---

bas mitzvah (noun)

(Judaism) an initiation ceremony marking the 12th birthday of a Jewish girl and signifying the beginning of religious responsibility.

- The article explained what "bas mitzvah" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "bas mitzvah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beckons (verb)

Signal with the hands or nod.

- In everyday English, people use "beckons" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "beckons" in real sentences.

---

bel esprit (noun)

A witty or clever person with a fine mind.

- In class, the teacher used "bel esprit" to mean a witty or clever person with a fine mind.
- He looked up "bel esprit" because he had never seen it before.

---

belles (noun)

A young woman who is the most charming and beautiful of several rivals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "belles."
- Understanding "belles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ben gurion (noun)

Israeli statesman (born in Poland) and active Zionist who organized resistance against the British after World War II; prime minister of Israel (1886-1973).

- They discussed "ben gurion" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ben gurion" because he had never seen it before.

---

bermuda buttercup (noun)

South African bulbous wood sorrel with showy yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "bermuda buttercup" to mean south african bulbous wood sorrel with showy yellow....
- They discussed "bermuda buttercup" during the group presentation.

---

bested (verb)

Get the better of.

- Can you use "bested" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "bested" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

biting midge (noun)

Minute two-winged insect that sucks the blood of mammals and birds and other insects.

- They discussed "biting midge" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "biting midge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bligh (noun)

British admiral; was captain of the H.M.S. Bounty in 1789 when part of the crew mutinied and set him afloat in an open boat; a few weeks later he arrived safely in Timor 4,000 miles away (1754-1817).

- Understanding "bligh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bligh" means with a simple example.

---

bloating (verb)

Become bloated or swollen or puff up.

- She tried to use "bloating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "bloating" when talking about this idea.

---

bodybuilders (noun)

Someone who does special exercises to develop a brawny musculature.

- He looked up "bodybuilders" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bodybuilders."

---

braised (adjective)

Cooked by browning in fat and then simmering in a closed container.

- Students compared "braised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "braised."

breakups (noun)

The termination or disintegration of a relationship (between persons or nations).

- The article explained what "breakups" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "breakups" to mean the termination or disintegration of a relationship....

brecht (noun)

German dramatist and poet who developed a style of epic theater (1898-1956).

- Understanding "brecht" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "brecht" during the group presentation.

brest (noun)

A port city in northwestern France (in Brittany); the chief naval station of France.

- He looked up "brest" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "brest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bulimia (noun)

A disorder of eating seen among young women who go on eating binges and then feel guilt and depression and self-condemnation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bulimia."
- They discussed "bulimia" during the group presentation.

burrowing (verb)

Move through by or as by digging.

- Can you use "burrowing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "burrowing" carefully so everyone would understand.

butcher's broom (noun)

Shrub with stiff flattened stems resembling leaves (cladophylls); used for making brooms.

- Understanding "butcher's broom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "butcher's broom" means with a simple example.

buyback (noun)

The act of purchasing back something previously sold.

- They discussed "buyback" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "buyback" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

byes (noun)

You advance to the next round in a tournament without playing an opponent.

- They said their good-byes.
- The article explained what "byes" means with a simple example.

cairn terrier (noun)

Small rough-haired breed of terrier from Scotland.

- Understanding "cairn terrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cairn terrier" during the group presentation.

campion (noun)

Any plant of the genus Silene.

- They discussed "campion" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "campion" to mean any plant of the genus silene.

canter (noun)

A smooth three-beat gait; between a trot and a gallop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canter."
- The article explained what "canter" means with a simple example.

cantilever (verb)

Construct with girders and beams such that only one end is fixed.

- Frank Lloyd Wright liked to cantilever his buildings.
- Can you use "cantilever" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cantilever bridge (noun)

Bridge constructed of two cantilevers that meet in the middle.

- In class, the teacher used "cantilever bridge" to mean bridge constructed of two cantilevers that meet in....
- He looked up "cantilever bridge" because he had never seen it before.

---

cape hyacinth (noun)

Southern African herb with white bell-shaped flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape hyacinth."
- The article explained what "cape hyacinth" means with a simple example.

---

captain bligh (noun)

British admiral; was captain of the H.M.S. Bounty in 1789 when part of the crew mutinied and set him afloat in an open boat; a few weeks later he arrived safely in Timor 4,000 miles away (1754-1817).

- Understanding "captain bligh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "captain bligh."

---

caressing (noun)

Affectionate play (or foreplay without contact with the genital organs).

- They discussed "caressing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caressing."

---

carpal (adjective)

Of or relating to the wrist.

- Carpal tunnel syndrome.
- The speaker chose "carpal" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cements (noun)

Concrete pavement is sometimes referred to as cement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cements."
- Understanding "cements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chalked (verb)

Write, draw, or trace with chalk.

- She tried to use "chalked" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "chalked" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cine-camera (noun)

A camera that takes a sequence of photographs that can give the illusion of motion when viewed in rapid succession.

- The article explained what "cine-camera" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cine-camera."

---

cine-film (noun)

Photographic film several hundred feet long and wound on a spool; to be used in a movie camera.

- Understanding "cine-film" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cine-film" because he had never seen it before.

---

cloaks (verb)

Cover as if with clothing.

- Can you use "cloaks" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "cloaks" when talking about this idea.

---

coastguard (noun)

A military service responsible for the safety of maritime traffic in coastal waters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coastguard."

- They discussed "coastguard" during the group presentation.

---

coasting (verb)

Move effortlessly; by force of gravity.

- The coach explained when to use "coasting" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "coasting" until he saw an example.

---

cobble (noun)

Rectangular paving stone with curved top; once used to make roads.

- The article explained what "cobble" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cobble" during the group presentation.

---

cobble together (verb)

Put together hastily.

- Can you use "cobble together" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "cobble together" and when to wait.

---

cobble up (verb)

Put together hastily.

- Learners should practice how to use "cobble up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "cobble up" when talking about this idea.

---

coco de macao (noun)

Tall feather palm of northern Brazil with hard-shelled nuts yielding valuable oil and a kind of vegetable ivory.

- He looked up "coco de macao" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coco de macao."

---

colonisation (noun)

The act of colonizing; the establishment of colonies.

- Understanding "colonisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "colonisation" means with a simple example.

---

common scurvy grass (noun)

A widely distributed Arctic cress reputed to have value in treatment or prevention of scurvy; a concentrated source of vitamin C.

- The article explained what "common scurvy grass" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common scurvy grass" to mean a widely distributed arctic cress reputed to have....

---

conduits (noun)

A passage (a pipe or tunnel) through which water or electric wires can pass.

- The computers were connected through a system of conduits.
- The article explained what "conduits" means with a simple example.

---

contaminating (adjective)

Spreading pollution or contamination; especially radioactive contamination.

- Would you call this situation "contaminating"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "contaminating" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

convulsions (noun)

A sudden uncontrollable attack.

- Convulsions of laughter.
- The convulsions of the stock market.

---

coopers (noun)

A craftsman who makes or repairs wooden barrels or tubs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coopers."
- He looked up "coopers" because he had never seen it before.

---

copernicus (noun)

A conspicuous crater on the Moon.

- The article explained what "copernicus" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "copernicus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cordon bleu (noun)

A chef famous for his great skill.

- The article explained what "cordon bleu" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cordon bleu" to mean a chef famous for his great skill.

---

cornbread (noun)

Bread made primarily of cornmeal.

- Understanding "cornbread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cornbread" because he had never seen it before.

---

corneal graft (noun)

A surgical procedure in which part or all of a damaged or diseased cornea is replaced by healthy corneal tissue from a donor.

- Understanding "corneal graft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "corneal graft" because he had never seen it before.

---

costas (noun)

A riblike part of a plant or animal (such as a middle rib of a leaf or a thickened vein of an insect wing).

- They discussed "costas" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "costas" to mean a riblike part of a plant or animal (such as a....

---

creamed (verb)

Beat thoroughly and conclusively in a competition or fight.

- Can you use "creamed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "creamed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

creeped (verb)

To go stealthily or furtively.

- She tried to use "creeped" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "creeped" when talking about this idea.

---

creeping buttercup (noun)

Perennial European herb with long creeping stolons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creeping buttercup."
- The article explained what "creeping buttercup" means with a simple example.

---

crepe fern (noun)

Fern of rain forests of tropical Australia and New Zealand and South Africa.

- Understanding "crepe fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crepe fern."

---

crowbar (noun)

A heavy iron lever with one end forged into a wedge.

- Understanding "crowbar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "crowbar" during the group presentation.

---

crudely (adverb)

In a crude or unrefined manner.

- He was crudely bold.
- Place "crudely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

cuckoo-bumblebee (noun)

A bee that is parasitic in the nests of bumblebees.

- In class, the teacher used "cuckoo-bumblebee" to mean a bee that is parasitic in the nests of bumblebees.
- Understanding "cuckoo-bumblebee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cuisines (noun)

The practice or manner of preparing food or the food so prepared.

- The article explained what "cuisines" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cuisines."

---

cytoplasmic (adjective)

Of or relating to cytoplasm.

- Students compared "cytoplasmic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "cytoplasmic" when it is of or relating to cytoplasm.

---

dedicates (verb)

Inscribe or address by way of compliment.

- The coach explained when to use "dedicates" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "dedicates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

deleterious (adjective)

Harmful to living things.

- Deleterious chemical additives.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "deleterious."

---

delft (noun)

A style of glazed earthenware; usually white with blue decoration.

- They discussed "delft" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "delft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delineated (adjective)

Represented accurately or precisely.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "delineated."
- A "delineated" approach may work better in this case.

---

demeanour (noun)

(behavioral attributes) the way a person behaves toward other people.

- In class, the teacher used "demeanour" to mean (behavioral attributes) the way a person behaves....
- Understanding "demeanour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

depressants (noun)

A drug that reduces excitability and calms a person.

- Understanding "depressants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depressants."

---

detritus (noun)

The remains of something that has been destroyed or broken up.

- Understanding "detritus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "detritus" because he had never seen it before.

---

dicky-bird (noun)

Small bird; adults talking to children sometimes use these words to refer to small birds.

- He looked up "dicky-bird" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dicky-bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dimple (noun)

A small natural hollow in the cheek or chin.

- His dimple appeared whenever he smiled.
- There are approximately 336 dimples on a golf ball.

disengagement (noun)

To break off a military action with an enemy.

- The article explained what "disengagement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "disengagement" to mean to break off a military action with an enemy.

dishing (verb)

Provide (usually but not necessarily food).

- The coach explained when to use "dishing" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "dishing" in real sentences.

disintegrating (verb)

Lose a stored charge, magnetic flux, or current.

- Learners should practice how to use "disintegrating" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "disintegrating" carefully so everyone would understand.

disown (verb)

Prevent deliberately (as by making a will) from inheriting.

- Learners should practice how to use "disown" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "disown" carefully so everyone would understand.

disproved (verb)

Prove to be false.

- The physicist disproved his colleagues' theories.
- The coach explained when to use "disproved" and when to wait.

distilleries (noun)

A plant and works where alcoholic drinks are made by distillation.

- The article explained what "distilleries" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "distilleries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

distilling (verb)

Undergo condensation; change from a gaseous to a liquid state and fall in drops.

- Can you use "distilling" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "distilling" and when to wait.

distorts (verb)

Alter the shape of (something) by stress.

- The coach explained when to use "distorts" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "distorts" in real sentences.

divinely (adverb)

By divine means.

- The divinely appointed means of rescue from temporal existence.
- Place "divinely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

donald glaser (noun)

United States physicist who invented the bubble chamber to study subatomic particles (born in 1926).

- In class, the teacher used "donald glaser" to mean united states physicist who invented the bubble....
- The article explained what "donald glaser" means with a simple example.

dormer (noun)

A gabled extension built out from a sloping roof to accommodate a vertical window.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dormer."
- They discussed "dormer" during the group presentation.

dormer window (noun)

The window in a gabled extension built to accommodate a window.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dormer window."
- He looked up "dormer window" because he had never seen it before.

---

downplayed (verb)

Understate the importance or quality of.

- He did not know how to use "downplayed" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "downplayed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

driftwood (noun)

Wood that is floating or that has been washed ashore.

- In class, the teacher used "driftwood" to mean wood that is floating or that has been washed ashore.
- They discussed "driftwood" during the group presentation.

---

drivel (verb)

Let saliva drivel from the mouth.

- The coach explained when to use "drivel" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "drivel" until he saw an example.

---

duffel coat (noun)

A warm coat made of duffel; usually has a hood and fastens with toggles.

- They discussed "duffel coat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "duffel coat" means with a simple example.

---

durga (noun)

Hindu goddess of war; a malevolent aspect of Devi.

- The inaccessible Durga.
- The article explained what "durga" means with a simple example.

---

dyslexic (adjective)

Of or relating to or symptomatic of dyslexia.

- A "dyslexic" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dyslexic."

---

dystopia (noun)

A work of fiction describing an imaginary place where life is extremely bad because of deprivation or oppression or terror.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dystopia."
- The article explained what "dystopia" means with a simple example.

---

eateries (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- He looked up "eateries" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eateries."

---

edmund kean (noun)

English actor noted for his portrayals of Shakespeare's great tragic characters (1789-1833).

- He looked up "edmund kean" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "edmund kean" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

effeminate (adjective)

Having unsuitable feminine qualities.

- It is useful to describe something as "effeminate" when it is having unsuitable feminine qualities.
- The speaker chose "effeminate" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

electrolysis (noun)

Removing superfluous or unwanted hair by passing an electric current through the hair root.

- In class, the teacher used "electrolysis" to mean removing superfluous or unwanted hair by passing an....

- The article explained what "electrolysis" means with a simple example.

---

embarks (verb)

Set out on (an enterprise or subject of study).

- In everyday English, people use "embarks" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "embarks" in real sentences.

---

emile zola (noun)

French novelist and critic; defender of Dreyfus (1840-1902).

- He looked up "emile zola" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "emile zola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

emotionless (adjective)

Unmoved by feeling; ; -Margaret Deland.

- He kept his emotionless objectivity and faith in the cause he served.
- Would you call this situation "emotionless"? Explain why.

---

emphysema (noun)

An abnormal condition of the lungs marked by decreased respiratory function; associated with smoking or chronic bronchitis or old age.

- The article explained what "emphysema" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "emphysema" to mean an abnormal condition of the lungs marked by....

---

endometriosis (noun)

The presence of endometrium elsewhere than in the lining of the uterus; causes premenstrual pain and dysmenorrhea.

- The article explained what "endometriosis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "endometriosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

entitles (verb)

Give a title to someone; make someone a member of the nobility.

- The Freedom of Information Act entitles you to request your FBI file.
- She tried to use "entitles" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

epistle to the hebrews (noun)

A New Testament book traditionally included among the epistle of Saint Paul but now generally considered not to have been written by him.

- In class, the teacher used "epistle to the hebrews" to mean a new testament book traditionally included among....
- The article explained what "epistle to the hebrews" means with a simple example.

---

eritrean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Eritrea or its people.

- Eritrean civil war.
- It is useful to describe something as "eritrean" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of eritrea or....

---

estradiol patch (noun)

A transdermal patch that allows estradiol to be absorbed into the blood stream; used in treating estrogen deficiency and in hormone replacement therapy.

- The article explained what "estradiol patch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "estradiol patch."

---

excision (noun)

The omission that is made when an editorial change shortens a written passage.

- Both parties agreed on the excision of the proposed clause.
- Understanding "excision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exogenous (adjective)

Derived or originating externally.

- A "exogenous" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "exogenous."

---

expandable (adjective)

Able to expand or be expanded.

- It is useful to describe something as "expandable" when it is able to expand or be expanded.
- The speaker chose "expandable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

extractor (noun)

An instrument for extracting tight-fitting components.

- He looked up "extractor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extractor."

---

faerie (noun)

A small being, human in form, playful and having magical powers.

- Understanding "faerie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "faerie" to mean a small being, human in form, playful and having....

---

false pretence (noun)

(law) an offense involving intent to defraud and false representation and obtaining property as a result of that misrepresentation.

- They discussed "false pretence" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false pretence."

---

faulted (verb)

Put or pin the blame on.

- In everyday English, people use "faulted" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "faulted" in real sentences.

---

ferrets (verb)

Search and discover through persistent investigation.

- Can you use "ferrets" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "ferrets" and when to wait.

---

fet (noun)

A transistor in which most current flows in a channel whose effective resistance can be controlled by a transverse electric field.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fet."
- They discussed "fet" during the group presentation.

---

fillies (noun)

A young female horse under the age of four.

- In class, the teacher used "fillies" to mean a young female horse under the age of four.
- The article explained what "fillies" means with a simple example.

---

fleshed (verb)

Remove adhering flesh from (hides) when preparing leather manufacture.

- He did not know how to use "fleshed" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "fleshed" and when to wait.

---

fleshed out (adjective)

Given substance or detail; completed.

- A plan fleshed out with statistics and details.
- The speaker chose "fleshed out" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fleur-de-lis (noun)

(heraldry) charge consisting of a conventionalized representation of an iris.

- The article explained what "fleur-de-lis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fleur-de-lis" to mean (heraldry) charge consisting of a conventionalized....

---

footballs (noun)

The inflated oblong ball used in playing American football.

- In class, the teacher used "footballs" to mean the inflated oblong ball used in playing american....
- The article explained what "footballs" means with a simple example.

---

foresaw (verb)

Picture to oneself; imagine possible.

- In everyday English, people use "foresaw" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "foresaw" in real sentences.

---

foreskin (noun)

A fold of skin covering the tip of the penis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foreskin."
- He looked up "foreskin" because he had never seen it before.

---

friendlier (adjective)

Of or belonging to your own country's forces or those of an ally.

- Students compared "friendlier" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "friendlier."

---

futurist (noun)

A theologian who believes that the Scripture prophecies of the Apocalypse (the Book of Revelation) will be fulfilled in the future.

- Understanding "futurist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "futurist" during the group presentation.

---

ganja (noun)

A strong-smelling plant from whose dried leaves a number of euphoriant and hallucinogenic drugs are prepared.

- The article explained what "ganja" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ganja" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genial (adjective)

Of or relating to the chin or median part of the lower jaw.

- It is useful to describe something as "genial" when it is of or relating to the chin or median part of the....
- The speaker chose "genial" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

genus hibiscus (noun)

Large genus of tropical and subtropical herbs and shrubs and trees often grown as ornamentals for their profusion of large flowers in a variety of colors.

- Understanding "genus hibiscus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus hibiscus."

---

geophysics (noun)

Geology that uses physical principles to study properties of the earth.

- In class, the teacher used "geophysics" to mean geology that uses physical principles to study....
- The article explained what "geophysics" means with a simple example.

---

glandular disorder (noun)

A disorder of the glands of the body.

- He looked up "glandular disorder" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "glandular disorder" during the group presentation.

---

glandular fever (noun)

An acute disease characterized by fever and swollen lymph nodes and an abnormal increase of mononuclear leucocytes or monocytes in the bloodstream; not highly contagious; some believe it can be transmitted by kissing.

- He looked up "glandular fever" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "glandular fever" to mean an acute disease characterized by fever and swollen....

---

globe artichoke (noun)

A thistlelike flower head with edible fleshy leaves and heart.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "globe artichoke."
- The article explained what "globe artichoke" means with a simple example.

goalless (adjective)

Having no points scores.

- It is useful to describe something as "goalless" when it is having no points scores.
- A "goalless" approach may work better in this case.

gopher tortoise (noun)

Burrowing edible land tortoise of southeastern North America.

- In class, the teacher used "gopher tortoise" to mean burrowing edible land tortoise of southeastern....
- The article explained what "gopher tortoise" means with a simple example.

grafted (verb)

Cause to grow together parts from different plants.

- Can you use "grafted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "grafted" and when to wait.

gulliver (noun)

A fictional Englishman who travels to the imaginary land of Lilliput in a satirical novel by Jonathan Swift.

- He looked up "gulliver" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gulliver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gunnery (noun)

Guns collectively.

- Understanding "gunnery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gunnery."

hairdo (noun)

The arrangement of the hair (especially a woman's hair).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hairdo."
- Understanding "hairdo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

haitians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Haiti.

- The article explained what "haitians" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "haitians" to mean a native or inhabitant of haiti.

hallucinating (adjective)

Experiencing delirium.

- A "hallucinating" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hallucinating."

headlong (adverb)

In a hasty and foolhardy manner.

- He fell headlong in love with his cousin.
- The runner slid headlong into third base.

henry of navarre (noun)

King of France from 1589 to 1610; although he was leader of the Huguenot armies, when he succeeded the Catholic Henry III and founded the Bourbon dynasty in 1589 he established religious freedom in France.

- In class, the teacher used "henry of navarre" to mean king of france from 1589 to 1610; although he was....
- They discussed "henry of navarre" during the group presentation.

herrick (noun)

English lyric poet (1591-1674).

- In class, the teacher used "herrick" to mean english lyric poet (1591-1674).
- The article explained what "herrick" means with a simple example.

hesitating (adjective)

Lacking decisiveness of character; unable to act or decide quickly or firmly.

- Students compared "hesitating" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "hesitating" when it is lacking decisiveness of character; unable to act or....

---

heuristic program (noun)

A commonsense rule (or set of rules) intended to increase the probability of solving some problem.

- He looked up "heuristic program" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heuristic program."

---

heuristic rule (noun)

A commonsense rule (or set of rules) intended to increase the probability of solving some problem.

- Understanding "heuristic rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "heuristic rule" means with a simple example.

---

hick (noun)

A person who is not very intelligent or interested in culture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hick."
- He looked up "hick" because he had never seen it before.

---

hindu-arabic numeral (noun)

One of the symbols 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,0.

- They discussed "hindu-arabic numeral" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hindu-arabic numeral."

---

hombre (noun)

An informal term for a youth or man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hombre."
- The article explained what "hombre" means with a simple example.

---

homology (noun)

The quality of being similar or corresponding in position or value or structure or function.

- Understanding "homology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "homology" means with a simple example.

---

honey mesquite (noun)

Thorny deep-rooted drought-resistant shrub native to southwestern United States and Mexico bearing pods rich in sugar and important as livestock feed; tends to form extensive thickets.

- He looked up "honey mesquite" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "honey mesquite" during the group presentation.

---

hopefuls (noun)

An ambitious and aspiring young person.

- Two executive hopefuls joined the firm.
- In class, the teacher used "hopefuls" to mean an ambitious and aspiring young person.

---

hopi (noun)

The Shoshonean language spoken by the Hopi.

- In class, the teacher used "hopi" to mean the shoshonean language spoken by the hopi.
- He looked up "hopi" because he had never seen it before.

---

howes (noun)

Canadian hockey player who holds the record for playing the most games (born 1928).

- He looked up "howes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "howes."

---

huckleberry oak (noun)

A low spreading or prostrate shrub of southwestern United States with small acorns and leaves resembling those of the huckleberry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "huckleberry oak."

- Understanding "huckleberry oak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

humerus (noun)

Bone extending from the shoulder to the elbow.

- The article explained what "humerus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "humerus."

---

hydroxy acid (noun)

Any acid that has hydroxyl groups in addition to the hydroxyl group in the acid itself.

- In class, the teacher used "hydroxy acid" to mean any acid that has hydroxyl groups in addition to....
- The article explained what "hydroxy acid" means with a simple example.

---

hypertrophy (noun)

Abnormal enlargement of a body part or organ.

- In class, the teacher used "hypertrophy" to mean abnormal enlargement of a body part or organ.
- Understanding "hypertrophy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

iceman (noun)

A professional killer.

- The article explained what "iceman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "iceman" to mean a professional killer.

---

ill-proportioned (adjective)

Lacking pleasing proportions.

- The speaker chose "ill-proportioned" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "ill-proportioned"? Explain why.

---

incestuous (adjective)

Resembling incest as by excessive intimacy.

- Would you call this situation "incestuous"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "incestuous."

---

indira nehru gandhi (noun)

Daughter of Nehru who served as prime minister of India from 1966 to 1977 (1917-1984).

- In class, the teacher used "indira nehru gandhi" to mean daughter of nehru who served as prime minister of....
- Understanding "indira nehru gandhi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

iniquity (noun)

Absence of moral or spiritual values.

- He looked up "iniquity" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "iniquity" to mean absence of moral or spiritual values.

---

initiator (noun)

A person who initiates a course of action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "initiator."
- They discussed "initiator" during the group presentation.

---

innovating (verb)

Bring something new to an environment.

- He did not know how to use "innovating" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "innovating" when talking about this idea.

---

insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus (noun)

Severe diabetes mellitus with an early onset; characterized by polyuria and excessive thirst and increased appetite and weight loss and episodic ketoacidosis; diet and insulin injections are required to control the disease.

- Understanding "insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus" during the group presentation.

interviewees (noun)

A person who is interviewed.

- He looked up "interviewees" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "interviewees" during the group presentation.

invert soap (noun)

A class of synthetic detergents in which the surface-active part of the molecule is the cation.

- The article explained what "invert soap" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "invert soap" to mean a class of synthetic detergents in which the....

ironclad (noun)

A wooden warship of the 19th century that is plated with iron or steel armor.

- He looked up "ironclad" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ironclad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ivory-billed woodpecker (noun)

Large black-and-white woodpecker of southern United States and Cuba having an ivory bill; nearly extinct.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivory-billed woodpecker."
- Understanding "ivory-billed woodpecker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jerusalem artichoke (noun)

Sunflower tuber eaten raw or boiled or sliced thin and fried as Saratoga chips.

- He looked up "jerusalem artichoke" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "jerusalem artichoke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

johannes brahms (noun)

German composer who developed the romantic style of both lyrical and classical music (1833-1897).

- They discussed "johannes brahms" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "johannes brahms" to mean german composer who developed the romantic style of....

john trumbull (noun)

American painter of historical scenes (1756-1843).

- In class, the teacher used "john trumbull" to mean american painter of historical scenes (1756-1843).
- Understanding "john trumbull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

joiner (noun)

A woodworker whose work involves making things by joining pieces of wood.

- They discussed "joiner" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "joiner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jupiter's beard (noun)

Silvery hairy European shrub with evergreen foliage and pale yellow flowers.

- The article explained what "jupiter's beard" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jupiter's beard."

kiddies (noun)

A young child.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kiddies."
- He looked up "kiddies" because he had never seen it before.

kilimanjaro (noun)

The highest peak in Africa; located in northeastern Tanzania; 19,340 feet high.

- They discussed "kilimanjaro" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kilimanjaro."

kirchner (noun)

German expressionist painter (1880-1938).

- Understanding "kirchner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kirchner" because he had never seen it before.

---

lactate (noun)

A salt or ester of lactic acid.

- Understanding "lactate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lactate" because he had never seen it before.

---

landers (noun)

A space vehicle that is designed to land on the moon or another planet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landers."
- He looked up "landers" because he had never seen it before.

---

lao-zi (noun)

Chinese philosopher regarded as the founder of Taoism (6th century BC).

- In class, the teacher used "lao-zi" to mean chinese philosopher regarded as the founder of....
- They discussed "lao-zi" during the group presentation.

---

lapped (verb)

Move with or cause to move with a whistling or hissing sound.

- The cat lapped up the milk.
- Learners should practice how to use "lapped" in real sentences.

---

lather (noun)

The froth produced by soaps or detergents.

- He looked up "lather" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lather."

---

leaching (noun)

The process of leaching.

- They discussed "leaching" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "leaching" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

leaf scorch (noun)

Plant disease causing a burned or scorched appearance of the foliage.

- Understanding "leaf scorch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "leaf scorch" during the group presentation.

---

ledges (noun)

A projecting ridge on a mountain or submerged under water.

- He looked up "ledges" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ledges."

---

legal ouster (noun)

The expulsion of someone (such as a tenant) from the possession of land by process of law.

- They discussed "legal ouster" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "legal ouster" to mean the expulsion of someone (such as a tenant) from....

---

limestone salamander (noun)

Similar to Shasta salamander; lives in cliff crevices and taluses.

- He looked up "limestone salamander" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "limestone salamander" during the group presentation.

---

loathed (verb)

Find repugnant.

- He did not know how to use "loathed" until he saw an example.

- She tried to use "loathed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

lovelace (noun)

English poet (1618-1857).

- The article explained what "lovelace" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lovelace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

luge (noun)

A racing sled for one or two people.

- The article explained what "luge" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "luge" to mean a racing sled for one or two people.

---

lumberjack (noun)

A short warm outer jacket.

- In class, the teacher used "lumberjack" to mean a short warm outer jacket.
- The article explained what "lumberjack" means with a simple example.

---

lye (noun)

A strong solution of sodium or potassium hydroxide.

- In class, the teacher used "lye" to mean a strong solution of sodium or potassium hydroxide.
- Understanding "lye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marauders (noun)

Someone who attacks in search of booty.

- He looked up "marauders" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "marauders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marsh marigold (noun)

Swamp plant of Europe and North America having bright yellow flowers resembling buttercups.

- Understanding "marsh marigold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "marsh marigold" means with a simple example.

---

meadow clary (noun)

Tall perennial Old World salvia with violet-blue flowers; found in open grasslands.

- Understanding "meadow clary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "meadow clary" means with a simple example.

---

meld (verb)

Lose its distinct outline or shape; blend gradually.

- The coach explained when to use "meld" and when to wait.
- Can you use "meld" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

mended (verb)

Restore by replacing a part or putting together what is torn or broken.

- In everyday English, people use "mended" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "mended" in real sentences.

---

mendelssohn (noun)

German musician and romantic composer of orchestral and choral works (1809-1847).

- Understanding "mendelssohn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mendelssohn" because he had never seen it before.

---

mettle (noun)

The courage to carry on.

- The article explained what "mettle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mettle" to mean the courage to carry on.

---

militancy (noun)

A militant aggressiveness.

- He looked up "militancy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "militancy."

---

molars (noun)

Grinding tooth with a broad crown; located behind the premolars.

- In class, the teacher used "molars" to mean grinding tooth with a broad crown; located behind....
- The article explained what "molars" means with a simple example.

---

monochromatic (adjective)

(of light or other electromagnetic radiation) having only one wavelength.

- Monochromatic light.
- The speaker chose "monochromatic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

motherly (adverb)

In a maternal manner; as a mother.

- She spoke "motherly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "motherly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

moveable feast (noun)

A religious holiday that falls on different dates in different years.

- Understanding "moveable feast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moveable feast."

---

mucous membrane (noun)

Mucus-secreting membrane lining all body cavities or passages that communicate with the exterior.

- The article explained what "mucous membrane" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mucous membrane" to mean mucus-secreting membrane lining all body cavities....

---

nannies (noun)

A woman who is the custodian of children.

- He looked up "nannies" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nannies."

---

non-insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus (noun)

Mild form of diabetes mellitus that develops gradually in adults; can be precipitated by obesity or severe stress or menopause or other factors; can usually be controlled by diet and hypoglycemic agents without injections of insulin.

- In class, the teacher used "non-insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus" to mean mild form of diabetes mellitus that develops....
- They discussed "non-insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus" during the group presentation.

---

northernmost (adjective)

Situated farthest north.

- Alaska is our northernmost state.
- A "northernmost" approach may work better in this case.

---

notifies (verb)

Inform (somebody) of something.

- Can you use "notifies" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "notifies" and when to wait.

---

nunavut (noun)

An Arctic territory in northern Canada created in 1999 and governed solely by the Inuit; includes the eastern part of what was the Northwest Territories and most of the islands of the Arctic Archipelago.

- Nunavut is the homeland of the Inuit people.
- They discussed "nunavut" during the group presentation.

---

nuttall oak (noun)

Similar to the pin oak; grows in damp sites in Mississippi River basin.

- The article explained what "nuttall oak" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nuttall oak" to mean similar to the pin oak; grows in damp sites in....

---

of unsound mind (adjective)

Not of sound mind, memory, or understanding; in law, not competent to go to trial.

- A "of unsound mind" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "of unsound mind" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

officiated (verb)

Perform duties attached to a particular office or place or function.

- His wife officiated as his private secretary.
- Who officiated at your wedding?

---

okey (noun)

An endorsement.

- Understanding "okey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "okey" to mean an endorsement.

---

optically (adverb)

In an optical manner.

- Optically distorted.
- The narrator describes the scene "optically" in the final chapter.

---

ouster (noun)

A person who ousts or supplants someone else.

- Understanding "ouster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ouster" because he had never seen it before.

---

outdo (verb)

Be or do something to a greater degree.

- She outdoes all other athletes.
- In everyday English, people use "outdo" when talking about this idea.

---

outlive (verb)

Live longer than.

- She outlived her husband by many years.
- She tried to use "outlive" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oxymoron (noun)

Conjoining contradictory terms (as in 'deafening silence').

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oxymoron."
- The article explained what "oxymoron" means with a simple example.

---

ozark mountains (noun)

An area of low mountains in northwestern Arkansas and southeastern Missouri and northeastern Oklahoma.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ozark mountains."
- He looked up "ozark mountains" because he had never seen it before.

---

palmetto (noun)

Any of several low-growing palms with fan-shaped leaves.

- In class, the teacher used "palmetto" to mean any of several low-growing palms with fan-shaped leaves.
- Understanding "palmetto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

palmetto state (noun)

A state in the Deep South; one of the original 13 colonies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "palmetto state."

- The article explained what “palmetto state” means with a simple example.

panamanian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Panama.

- They discussed “panamanian monetary unit” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “panamanian monetary unit” means with a simple example.

parasitic jaeger (noun)

A variety of jaeger.

- In class, the teacher used “parasitic jaeger” to mean a variety of jaeger.
- The article explained what “parasitic jaeger” means with a simple example.

parietal cortex (noun)

That part of the cerebral cortex in either hemisphere of the brain lying below the crown of the head.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “parietal cortex.”
- He looked up “parietal cortex” because he had never seen it before.

pastels (noun)

Any of various pale or light colors.

- Understanding “pastels” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pastels” because he had never seen it before.

patronize (verb)

Be a regular customer or client of.

- We patronize this store.
- The coach explained when to use “patronize” and when to wait.

phonograph needle (noun)

A stylus that formerly made sound by following a groove in a phonograph record.

- The article explained what “phonograph needle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “phonograph needle” to mean a stylus that formerly made sound by following a....

phonological (adjective)

Of or relating to phonology.

- The phonological component of language.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “phonological.”

phonological system (noun)

The system of phones used in a particular language.

- Understanding “phonological system” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “phonological system” means with a simple example.

pinkish (adjective)

Of a light shade of red.

- Would you call this situation “pinkish”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “pinkish” because it captured the feeling precisely.

pinkish-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with pink.

- Students compared “pinkish-white” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “pinkish-white.”

plundering (noun)

The act of stealing valuable things from a place.

- The plundering of the Parthenon.
- His plundering of the great authors.

poa (noun)

Chiefly perennial grasses of cool temperate regions.

- Understanding "poa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "poa" to mean chiefly perennial grasses of cool temperate regions.

---

polymorphism (noun)

(chemistry) the existence of different kinds of crystal of the same chemical compound.

- They discussed "polymorphism" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "polymorphism" because he had never seen it before.

---

polyurethane foam (noun)

A foam made by adding water to polyurethane plastics.

- They discussed "polyurethane foam" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "polyurethane foam" to mean a foam made by adding water to polyurethane plastics.

---

pontoon (noun)

A float supporting a seaplane.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pontoon."
- Understanding "pontoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pontoon bridge (noun)

A temporary bridge built over a series of pontoons.

- In class, the teacher used "pontoon bridge" to mean a temporary bridge built over a series of pontoons.
- The article explained what "pontoon bridge" means with a simple example.

---

pontoon plane (noun)

A seaplane equipped with pontoons for landing or taking off from water.

- The article explained what "pontoon plane" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pontoon plane" to mean a seaplane equipped with pontoons for landing or....

---

port vila (noun)

Capital of Vanuatu.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "port vila."
- He looked up "port vila" because he had never seen it before.

---

postoperative (adjective)

Happening or done after a surgical operation.

- Postoperative complications.
- Postoperative care.

---

prairie gourd vine (noun)

Perennial vine of dry parts of central and southwestern United States and Mexico having small hard mottled green inedible fruit.

- The article explained what "prairie gourd vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prairie gourd vine" to mean perennial vine of dry parts of central and....

---

prescribes (verb)

Issue commands or orders for.

- Learners should practice how to use "prescribes" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "prescribes" when talking about this idea.

---

pretrial (noun)

(law) a conference held before the trial begins to bring the parties together to outline discovery proceedings and to define the issues to be tried; more useful in civil than in criminal cases.

- The article explained what "pretrial" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pretrial."

---

pretrial conference (noun)

(law) a conference held before the trial begins to bring the parties together to outline discovery proceedings and to define the issues to be tried; more useful in civil than in criminal cases.

- The article explained what "pretrial conference" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pretrial conference."

---

primus (noun)

A portable paraffin cooking stove; used by campers.

- In class, the teacher used "primus" to mean a portable paraffin cooking stove; used by campers.
- He looked up "primus" because he had never seen it before.

---

prisoner's base (noun)

A children's game; two teams capture opposing players by tagging them and taking them to their own base.

- The article explained what "prisoner's base" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "prisoner's base" to mean a children's game; two teams capture opposing....

---

probationary (adjective)

Under terms not final or fully worked out or agreed upon.

- Probationary employees.
- Students compared "probationary" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

professorship (noun)

The position of professor.

- The article explained what "professorship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "professorship" to mean the position of professor.

---

promontory (noun)

A natural elevation (especially a rocky one that juts out into the sea).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "promontory."
- They discussed "promontory" during the group presentation.

---

proportioned (verb)

Give pleasant proportions to.

- In everyday English, people use "proportioned" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "proportioned" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

prozac (noun)

A selective-serotonin reuptake inhibitor commonly prescribed as an antidepressant (trade names Prozac or Sarafem); it is thought to work by increasing the activity of serotonin in the brain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prozac."
- He looked up "prozac" because he had never seen it before.

---

psychics (noun)

A person apparently sensitive to things beyond the natural range of perception.

- In class, the teacher used "psychics" to mean a person apparently sensitive to things beyond the....
- Understanding "psychics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pulmonary stenosis (noun)

Abnormal narrowing of the opening into the pulmonary artery from the right ventricle.

- They discussed "pulmonary stenosis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulmonary stenosis."

---

pushkin (noun)

Russian poet (1799-1837).

- Understanding "pushkin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pushkin" to mean russian poet (1799-1837).

---

pygmy (noun)

An unusually small individual.

- Understanding "pygmy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pygmy."

pyramidal tent (noun)

A large tent shaped like a pyramid; can hold half a dozen people.

- He looked up “pyramidal tent” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pyramidal tent.”

quakes (verb)

Shake with seismic vibrations.

- She tried to use “quakes” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “quakes” in real sentences.

quarrying (noun)

The extraction of building stone or slate from an open surface quarry.

- He looked up “quarrying” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “quarrying” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

quin (noun)

One of five children born at the same time from the same pregnancy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “quin.”
- He looked up “quin” because he had never seen it before.

raines (verb)

Precipitate as rain.

- Learners should practice how to use “raines” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “raines” and when to wait.

rattlesnake fern (noun)

American fern whose clustered sporangia resemble a snake’s rattle.

- The article explained what “rattlesnake fern” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “rattlesnake fern” to mean american fern whose clustered sporangia resemble a....

rearrangement (noun)

Changing an arrangement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rearrangement.”
- The article explained what “rearrangement” means with a simple example.

red campion (noun)

Biennial European catchfly having red or pink flowers; sometimes placed in genus Lychnis.

- He looked up “red campion” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red campion.”

red-breasted snipe (noun)

A dowitcher with a red breast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “red-breasted snipe.”
- The article explained what “red-breasted snipe” means with a simple example.

refocus (verb)

Put again into focus or focus more sharply.

- Refocus the image until it is very sharp.
- The group needs to refocus its goals.

regains (verb)

Come upon after searching; find the location of something that was missed or lost.

- Can you use “regains” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “regains” and when to wait.

registries (noun)

An official written record of names or events or transactions.

- The article explained what "registries" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "registries" to mean an official written record of names or events or....

---

relevancy (noun)

The relation of something to the matter at hand.

- The article explained what "relevancy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "relevancy" to mean the relation of something to the matter at hand.

---

renegotiate (verb)

Revise the terms of in order to limit or regain excess profits gained by the contractor.

- He did not know how to use "renegotiate" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "renegotiate" when talking about this idea.

---

resurfacing (verb)

Reappear on the surface.

- Can you use "resurfacing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "resurfacing" when talking about this idea.

---

revolutionary proletarian nucleus (noun)

A clandestine group of leftist extremists who oppose Italy's labor policies and foreign policy; responsible for bombing building in the historic center of Rome from 2000 to 2002.

- The article explained what "revolutionary proletarian nucleus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "revolutionary proletarian nucleus" to mean a clandestine group of leftist extremists who....

---

rice weevil (noun)

Brown weevil that infests stored grain especially rice.

- They discussed "rice weevil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rice weevil" to mean brown weevil that infests stored grain especially rice.

---

richard lovelace (noun)

English poet (1618-1857).

- In class, the teacher used "richard lovelace" to mean english poet (1618-1857).
- They discussed "richard lovelace" during the group presentation.

---

riven (verb)

Separate or cut with a tool, such as a sharp instrument.

- She tried to use "riven" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "riven" when talking about this idea.

---

roan (noun)

A horse having a brownish coat thickly sprinkled with white or gray.

- In class, the teacher used "roan" to mean a horse having a brownish coat thickly sprinkled....
- He looked up "roan" because he had never seen it before.

---

robert herrick (noun)

English lyric poet (1591-1674).

- Understanding "robert herrick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "robert herrick" to mean english lyric poet (1591-1674).

---

roman hyacinth (noun)

Hyacinth with loosely flowered spikes, several growing from one bulb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roman hyacinth."
- They discussed "roman hyacinth" during the group presentation.

---

rose campion (noun)

An old cottage garden plant of southeastern Europe widely cultivated for its attractive white woolly foliage and showy crimson flowers.

- He looked up "rose campion" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "rose campion" during the group presentation.

---

rusting (noun)

The formation of reddish-brown ferric oxides on iron by low-temperature oxidation in the presence of water.

- In class, the teacher used "rusting" to mean the formation of reddish-brown ferric oxides on....
- Understanding "rusting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rustle (noun)

A light noise, like the noise of silk clothing or leaves blowing in the wind.

- They discussed "rustle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rustle" because he had never seen it before.

---

saluted (verb)

Recognize with a gesture prescribed by a military regulation; assume a prescribed position.

- A terrible stench saluted our nostrils.
- The coach explained when to use "saluted" and when to wait.

---

sarcoma (noun)

A usually malignant tumor arising from connective tissue (bone or muscle etc.); one of the four major types of cancer.

- He looked up "sarcoma" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sarcoma" to mean a usually malignant tumor arising from connective....

---

saw palmetto (noun)

Small hardy clump-forming spiny palm of southern United States.

- The article explained what "saw palmetto" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "saw palmetto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

schweitzer (noun)

French philosopher and physician and organist who spent most of his life as a medical missionary in Gabon (1875-1965).

- He looked up "schweitzer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "schweitzer" during the group presentation.

---

scurvy grass (noun)

A widely distributed Arctic cress reputed to have value in treatment or prevention of scurvy; a concentrated source of vitamin C.

- In class, the teacher used "scurvy grass" to mean a widely distributed arctic cress reputed to have....
- Understanding "scurvy grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secretarial (adjective)

Of or relating to a secretary or to a secretary's work.

- The speaker chose "secretarial" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "secretarial."

---

secretarial assistant (noun)

An assistant who handles correspondence and clerical work for a boss or an organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secretarial assistant."
- He looked up "secretarial assistant" because he had never seen it before.

---

secretarial school (noun)

A school where secretarial skills (typing and shorthand and filing etc) are taught.

- They discussed "secretarial school" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "secretarial school" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secrete (verb)

Generate and separate from cells or bodily fluids.

- Secrete digestive juices.
- The money was secreted from his children.

---

seed weevil (noun)

A small beetle that infests the seeds of legumes.

- The article explained what "seed weevil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "seed weevil" to mean a small beetle that infests the seeds of legumes.

---

senegalese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Senegal or its people.

- Senegalese villages.
- Senegalese herdsmen.

---

sinn fein (noun)

An Irish republican political movement founded in 1905 to promote independence from England and unification of Ireland; became the political branch of the Irish Republican Army.

- Understanding "sinn fein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sinn fein" to mean an irish republican political movement founded in....

---

skids (verb)

Move obliquely or sideways, usually in an uncontrolled manner.

- She tried to use "skids" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "skids" until he saw an example.

---

snarling (verb)

Utter in an angry, sharp, or abrupt tone.

- The coach explained when to use "snarling" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "snarling" in real sentences.

---

snatches (noun)

The act of catching an object with the hands.

- Overheard snatches of their conversation.
- They discussed "snatches" during the group presentation.

---

soya bean (noun)

A source of oil; used for forage and soil improvement and as food.

- In class, the teacher used "soya bean" to mean a source of oil; used for forage and soil....
- He looked up "soya bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

spillway (noun)

A channel that carries excess water over or around a dam or other obstruction.

- The article explained what "spillway" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "spillway" during the group presentation.

---

splintered (verb)

Withdraw from an organization or communion.

- The wood splintered.
- She tried to use "splintered" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stadia (noun)

A large structure for open-air sports or entertainments.

- In class, the teacher used "stadia" to mean a large structure for open-air sports or entertainments.
- Understanding "stadia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

standardize (verb)

Cause to conform to standard or norm.

- The weights and measures were standardized.
- Can you use "standardize" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

stanzas (noun)

A fixed number of lines of verse forming a unit of a poem.

- He looked up "stanzas" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stanzas" to mean a fixed number of lines of verse forming a unit of....

---

starved aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- He looked up "starved aster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "starved aster" during the group presentation.

---

stetson (noun)

A hat made of felt with a creased crown.

- He looked up "stetson" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "stetson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stigmatized (verb)

To accuse or condemn or openly or formally or brand as disgraceful.

- She was stigmatized by society because she had a child out of wedlock.
- Can you use "stigmatized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

stillborn infant (noun)

Infant who shows no signs of life after birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stillborn infant."
- The article explained what "stillborn infant" means with a simple example.

---

stock buyback (noun)

A corporation's purchase of its own outstanding stock; increases earnings/share so stock price rises (which can discourage a takeover attempt).

- The article explained what "stock buyback" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stock buyback."

---

strapless (noun)

A woman's garment that exposes the shoulders and has no shoulder straps.

- The article explained what "strapless" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "strapless" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stratified sampling (noun)

The population is divided into subpopulations (strata) and random samples are taken of each stratum.

- In class, the teacher used "stratified sampling" to mean the population is divided into subpopulations....
- He looked up "stratified sampling" because he had never seen it before.

---

strep throat (noun)

An infection of the oral pharynx and tonsils by streptococcus.

- In class, the teacher used "strep throat" to mean an infection of the oral pharynx and tonsils by....
- They discussed "strep throat" during the group presentation.

---

stupor (noun)

The feeling of distress and disbelief that you have when something bad happens accidentally.

- Someone stole his wallet while he was in a drunken stupor.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stupor."

---

subcontractor (noun)

Someone who enters into a subcontract with the primary contractor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subcontractor."
- The article explained what "subcontractor" means with a simple example.

---

swifts (noun)

An English satirist born in Ireland (1667-1745).

- In class, the teacher used "swifts" to mean an english satirist born in ireland (1667-1745).
- He looked up "swifts" because he had never seen it before.

systolic (adjective)

Of or relating to a systole or happening during a systole.

- Would you call this situation "systolic"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "systolic" when it is of or relating to a systole or happening during a....

systolic pressure (noun)

The blood pressure (as measured by a sphygmomanometer) during the contraction of the left ventricle of the heart.

- They discussed "systolic pressure" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "systolic pressure" because he had never seen it before.

tanking (verb)

Store in a tank by causing (something) to flow into it.

- The coach explained when to use "tanking" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tanking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tanzanian (adjective)

Of or relating to the republic of Tanzania or its people.

- Students compared "tanzanian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "tanzanian"? Explain why.

tarantula (noun)

Large hairy tropical spider with fangs that can inflict painful but not highly venomous bites.

- In class, the teacher used "tarantula" to mean large hairy tropical spider with fangs that can....
- He looked up "tarantula" because he had never seen it before.

tern (noun)

Small slender gull having narrow wings and a forked tail.

- The article explained what "tern" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tern" to mean small slender gull having narrow wings and a forked....

tetra (noun)

Brightly colored tropical freshwater fishes.

- He looked up "tetra" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tetra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

the great unwashed (noun)

The common people generally.

- Separate the warriors from the mass.
- Power to the people.

thinned (adjective)

Mixed with water.

- A cup of thinned soup.
- Would you call this situation "thinned"? Explain why.

tightrope (noun)

Tightly stretched rope or wire on which acrobats perform high above the ground.

- He looked up "tightrope" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tightrope" to mean tightly stretched rope or wire on which acrobats....

tightrope walking (noun)

Walking on a tightrope or slack rope.

- They discussed "tightrope walking" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tightrope walking" to mean walking on a tightrope or slack rope.

tink (verb)

Make or emit a high sound.

- Tinkling bells.
- Learners should practice how to use "tink" in real sentences.

---

trade unionism (noun)

The system or principles and theory of labor unions.

- Understanding "trade unionism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "trade unionism" during the group presentation.

---

trailblazer (noun)

Someone who marks a trail by leaving blazes on trees.

- He looked up "trailblazer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trailblazer."

---

trainings (noun)

The result of good upbringing (especially knowledge of correct social behavior).

- The article explained what "trainings" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "trainings" during the group presentation.

---

transitive verb (noun)

A verb (or verb construction) that requires an object in order to be grammatical.

- In class, the teacher used "transitive verb" to mean a verb (or verb construction) that requires an....
- Understanding "transitive verb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

translocation (noun)

(genetics) an exchange of chromosome parts.

- Translocations can result in serious congenital disorders.
- They discussed "translocation" during the group presentation.

---

treasuries (noun)

The funds of a government or institution or individual.

- The article explained what "treasuries" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "treasuries" during the group presentation.

---

trepidation (noun)

A feeling of alarm or dread.

- They discussed "trepidation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "trepidation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trumbull (noun)

American painter of historical scenes (1756-1843).

- They discussed "trumbull" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "trumbull" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

turkmen (noun)

The Turkic language spoken by the Turkoman.

- In class, the teacher used "turkmen" to mean the turkic language spoken by the turkoman.
- The article explained what "turkmen" means with a simple example.

---

tutored (verb)

Be a tutor to someone; give individual instruction.

- She tutored me in Spanish.
- Can you use "tutored" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

typified (verb)

Express indirectly by an image, form, or model; be a symbol.

- The coach explained when to use "typified" and when to wait.

- Learners should practice how to use "typified" in real sentences.

---

unanticipated (adjective)

Not anticipated; - H.W.Glidden.

- Unanticipated and disconcerting lines of development.
- A "unanticipated" approach may work better in this case.

---

unblock (verb)

Clear or remove an obstruction from.

- The procedure unblocked his arteries.
- Learners should practice how to use "unblock" in real sentences.

---

unionism (noun)

The system or principles and theory of labor unions.

- In class, the teacher used "unionism" to mean the system or principles and theory of labor unions.
- He looked up "unionism" because he had never seen it before.

---

united arab emirate monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in the United Arab Emirates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "united arab emirate monetary unit."
- He looked up "united arab emirate monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

unsavory (adjective)

Not pleasing in odor or taste.

- The speaker chose "unsavory" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "unsavory"? Explain why.

---

unselfish (adjective)

Disregarding your own advantages and welfare over those of others.

- A "unselfish" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "unselfish"? Explain why.

---

unsound (adjective)

Not in good condition; damaged or decayed.

- An unsound foundation.
- Unsound banking practices.

---

unverified (adjective)

Lacking proof or substantiation.

- A "unverified" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "unverified" when it is lacking proof or substantiation.

---

unwashed (adjective)

Of or associated with the great masses of people.

- The unwashed masses.
- A sink full of unwashed dishes.

---

urination (noun)

The discharge of urine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urination."
- He looked up "urination" because he had never seen it before.

---

utterance (noun)

The use of uttered sounds for auditory communication.

- They discussed "utterance" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "utterance" because he had never seen it before.

---

valedictorian (noun)

The student with the best grades who usually delivers the valedictory address at commencement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "valedictorian."
- Understanding "valedictorian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

venn diagram (noun)

A diagram that uses circles to represent mathematical or logical sets pictorially inside a rectangle (the universal set); elements that are common to more than one set are represented by intersections of the circles.

- Understanding "venn diagram" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venn diagram."

---

verso (noun)

The side of a coin or medal that does not bear the principal design.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "verso."
- They discussed "verso" during the group presentation.

---

vestibule of the ear (noun)

The central cavity of the bony labyrinth of the ear.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vestibule of the ear."
- Understanding "vestibule of the ear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vibrational (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterized by vibration.

- The speaker chose "vibrational" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "vibrational" when it is of or relating to or characterized by vibration.

---

vicariously (adverb)

Indirectly, as, by, or through a substitute.

- She enjoyed the wedding vicariously.
- Place "vicariously" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

vila (noun)

Capital of Vanuatu.

- Understanding "vila" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vila" means with a simple example.

---

voided (verb)

Take away the legal force of or render ineffective.

- The chemist voided the glass bottle.
- The concert hall was voided of the audience.

---

volumetric (adjective)

Of or relating to measurement by volume.

- Volumetric analysis.
- It is useful to describe something as "volumetric" when it is of or relating to measurement by volume.

---

volumetric analysis (noun)

Determination of the volume of gases (or changes in their volume) during combination.

- In class, the teacher used "volumetric analysis" to mean determination of the volume of gases (or changes in....
- They discussed "volumetric analysis" during the group presentation.

---

vroom (noun)

The roaring sound made by a motor that is running at high speed.

- They discussed "vroom" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vroom" to mean the roaring sound made by a motor that is running....

---

wagers (noun)

The money risked on a gamble.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wagers."
- They discussed "wagers" during the group presentation.

---

waterbury (noun)

A city in west central Connecticut.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waterbury."
- The article explained what "waterbury" means with a simple example.

---

wean (verb)

Gradually deprive (infants and young mammals) of mother's milk.

- She weaned her baby when he was 3 months old and started him on powdered milk.
- The kitten was weaned and fed by its owner with a bottle.

---

well-proportioned (adjective)

Of pleasing proportions.

- Students compared "well-proportioned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "well-proportioned."

---

welling (verb)

Come up, as of a liquid.

- The coach explained when to use "welling" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "welling" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

west nile encephalitis (noun)

Encephalitis caused by the West Nile virus; can be fatal in humans and horses and birds.

- He looked up "west nile encephalitis" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "west nile encephalitis" to mean encephalitis caused by the west nile virus; can be....

---

western honey mesquite (noun)

Thorny deep-rooted drought-resistant shrub native to southwestern United States and Mexico bearing pods rich in sugar and important as livestock feed; tends to form extensive thickets.

- Understanding "western honey mesquite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "western honey mesquite" because he had never seen it before.

---

whisked (verb)

Whip with or as if with a wire whisk.

- The President was whisked away in his limo.
- He whisked into the house.

---

white campion (noun)

Bluish-green herb having sticky stems and clusters of large evening-opening white flowers with much-inflated calyx; sometimes placed in genus Lychnis.

- In class, the teacher used "white campion" to mean bluish-green herb having sticky stems and clusters....
- Understanding "white campion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

william bligh (noun)

British admiral; was captain of the H.M.S. Bounty in 1789 when part of the crew mutinied and set him afloat in an open boat; a few weeks later he arrived safely in Timor 4,000 miles away (1754-1817).

- They discussed "william bligh" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "william bligh" because he had never seen it before.

---

wimp (noun)

A person who lacks confidence, is irresolute and wishy-washy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wimp."
- He looked up "wimp" because he had never seen it before.

---

workhorse (noun)

Machine that performs dependably under heavy use.

- The IBM main frame computers have been the workhorse of the business world.
- In class, the teacher used "workhorse" to mean machine that performs dependably under heavy use.

worm salamander (noun)

Any of several small slim salamanders of the Pacific coast of the United States.

- The article explained what "worm salamander" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "worm salamander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wristbands (noun)

A band of cloth or leather or metal links attached to a wristwatch and wrapped around the wrist.

- The article explained what "wristbands" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wristbands" to mean a band of cloth or leather or metal links attached....

yachting (noun)

Water travel for pleasure.

- The article explained what "yachting" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "yachting" during the group presentation.

zeroes (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- He looked up "zeroes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "zeroes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

zooms (noun)

The act of rising upward into the air.

- He looked up "zooms" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zooms."

abatement (noun)

An interruption in the intensity or amount of something.

- Laws enforcing noise abatement.
- The article explained what "abatement" means with a simple example.

accentuated (verb)

To stress, single out as important.

- Can you use "accentuated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "accentuated" and when to wait.

acidification (noun)

The process of becoming acid or being converted into an acid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acidification."
- Understanding "acidification" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

acropolis (noun)

The citadel in ancient Greek towns.

- In class, the teacher used "acropolis" to mean the citadel in ancient greek towns.
- He looked up "acropolis" because he had never seen it before.

acute inclusion body encephalitis (noun)

Common form of acute encephalitis caused by herpes simplex 1; usually affects the temporal and frontal lobes.

- The article explained what "acute inclusion body encephalitis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "acute inclusion body encephalitis" to mean common form of acute encephalitis caused by herpes....

adaption (noun)

The process of adapting to something (such as environmental conditions).

- Understanding "adaption" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "adaption" means with a simple example.

adipose tumor (noun)

A tumor consisting of fatty tissue.

- Understanding "adipose tumor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "adipose tumor" to mean a tumor consisting of fatty tissue.

---

agnes de mille (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer who introduced formal dance to a wide audience (1905-1993).

- Understanding "agnes de mille" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "agnes de mille" during the group presentation.

---

agnes george de mille (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer who introduced formal dance to a wide audience (1905-1993).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agnes george de mille."
- The article explained what "agnes george de mille" means with a simple example.

---

aix (noun)

Wood duck and mandarin duck.

- He looked up "aix" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "aix" to mean wood duck and mandarin duck.

---

amplifying (verb)

To enlarge beyond bounds or the truth.

- The coach explained when to use "amplifying" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "amplifying" in real sentences.

---

anal sphincter (noun)

The sphincter muscle of the anus.

- He looked up "anal sphincter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anal sphincter."

---

anorexic (noun)

A person suffering from anorexia nervosa.

- They discussed "anorexic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "anorexic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

anterior pituitary gland (noun)

The anterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily glandular in nature.

- They discussed "anterior pituitary gland" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "anterior pituitary gland" to mean the anterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily....

---

anthropomorphic (adjective)

Suggesting human characteristics for animals or inanimate things.

- The speaker chose "anthropomorphic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "anthropomorphic" when it is suggesting human characteristics for animals or....

---

aprons (noun)

A paved surface where aircraft stand while not being used.

- They discussed "aprons" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aprons."

---

archiving (verb)

Put into an archive.

- Can you use "archiving" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "archiving" and when to wait.

---

argentine hemorrhagic fever (noun)

Hemorrhagic fever with neurological signs; caused by the Junin virus.

- In class, the teacher used "argentine hemorrhagic fever" to mean hemorrhagic fever with neurological signs; caused....

- They discussed "argentine hemorrhagic fever" during the group presentation.

---

armoury (noun)

A collection of resources.

- The article explained what "armoury" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "armoury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

arraigned (verb)

Call before a court to answer an indictment.

- He did not know how to use "arraigned" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "arraigned" and when to wait.

---

artichoke (noun)

A thistlelike flower head with edible fleshy leaves and heart.

- In class, the teacher used "artichoke" to mean a thistlelike flower head with edible fleshy leaves....
- The article explained what "artichoke" means with a simple example.

---

artichoke heart (noun)

The tender fleshy center of the immature artichoke flower.

- In class, the teacher used "artichoke heart" to mean the tender fleshy center of the immature artichoke....
- They discussed "artichoke heart" during the group presentation.

---

artichoke plant (noun)

Mediterranean thistlelike plant widely cultivated for its large edible flower head.

- They discussed "artichoke plant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "artichoke plant."

---

atlas vertebra (noun)

The 1st cervical vertebra.

- Understanding "atlas vertebra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "atlas vertebra" because he had never seen it before.

---

attendances (noun)

The frequency with which a person is present.

- He looked up "attendances" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "attendances" to mean the frequency with which a person is present.

---

auditory hallucination (noun)

Illusory auditory perception of strange nonverbal sounds.

- Understanding "auditory hallucination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "auditory hallucination" to mean illusory auditory perception of strange nonverbal....

---

autonomic (adjective)

Relating to or controlled by the autonomic nervous system.

- Autonomic reflexes.
- The speaker chose "autonomic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

avignon (noun)

A town in southeastern France on the Rhone River; the seat of the papacy from 1309 to 1378 and the residence of antipopes during the Great Schism.

- He looked up "avignon" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "avignon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

azerbaijani monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Azerbaijan.

- They discussed "azerbaijani monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "azerbaijani monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in azerbaijan.

---

baboon (noun)

Large terrestrial monkeys having doglike muzzles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baboon."
- He looked up "baboon" because he had never seen it before.

backfield (noun)

The offensive football players who line up behind the linemen.

- They discussed "backfield" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "backfield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bakes (verb)

Cook and make edible by putting in a hot oven.

- She tried to use "bakes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "bakes" when talking about this idea.

balled (verb)

Form into a ball by winding or rolling.

- Learners should practice how to use "balled" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "balled" and when to wait.

bally (adjective)

Informal intensifiers.

- What a bally (or blinking) nuisance.
- Students compared "bally" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

bandung (noun)

A city in Indonesia; located on western Java (southeast of Jakarta); a resort known for its climate.

- The article explained what "bandung" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bandung" during the group presentation.

barnum (noun)

United States showman who popularized the circus (1810-1891).

- The article explained what "barnum" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "barnum" during the group presentation.

beaux (noun)

A man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

- They discussed "beaux" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "beaux" to mean a man who is the lover of a girl or young woman.

beaux arts (noun)

The study and creation of visual works of art.

- They discussed "beaux arts" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "beaux arts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

beeps (noun)

A short high tone produced as a signal or warning.

- They discussed "beeps" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "beeps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

begotten (adjective)

(of offspring) generated by procreation.

- Naturally begotten child.
- Students compared "begotten" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

beleaguered (verb)

Surround so as to force to give up.

- Can you use “beleaguered” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “beleaguered” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

benito mussolini (noun)

Italian fascist dictator (1883-1945).

- In class, the teacher used “benito mussolini” to mean italian fascist dictator (1883-1945).
- They discussed “benito mussolini” during the group presentation.

---

bennie (noun)

A form of amphetamine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bennie.”
- He looked up “bennie” because he had never seen it before.

---

bicarbonate (noun)

A salt of carbonic acid (containing the anion HCO3) in which one hydrogen atom has been replaced; an acid carbonate.

- In class, the teacher used “bicarbonate” to mean a salt of carbonic acid (containing the anion hco3)....
- The article explained what “bicarbonate” means with a simple example.

---

biome (noun)

A major biotic community characterized by the dominant forms of plant life and the prevailing climate.

- Understanding “biome” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “biome” because he had never seen it before.

---

birthed (verb)

Cause to be born.

- Learners should practice how to use “birthed” in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use “birthed” until he saw an example.

---

black weevil (noun)

Brown weevil that infests stored grain especially rice.

- They discussed “black weevil” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “black weevil” to mean brown weevil that infests stored grain especially rice.

---

blonde lilian (noun)

North American dogtooth having solitary white flowers with yellow centers and blue or pink exteriors.

- The article explained what “blonde lilian” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “blonde lilian” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boarder (noun)

Someone who forces their way aboard ship.

- Stand by to repel boarders.
- The article explained what “boarder” means with a simple example.

---

boudoir (noun)

A lady’s bedroom or private sitting room.

- In class, the teacher used “boudoir” to mean a lady’s bedroom or private sitting room.
- The article explained what “boudoir” means with a simple example.

---

bough (noun)

Any of the larger branches of a tree.

- They discussed “bough” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “bough” to mean any of the larger branches of a tree.

---

bounding (verb)

Move forward by leaps and bounds.

- She tried to use “bounding” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “bounding” and when to wait.

bowery (noun)

A street in Manhattan noted for cheap hotels frequented by homeless derelicts.

- He looked up "bowery" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bowery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

browned (adjective)

(of skin) deeply suntanned.

- The speaker chose "browned" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "browned"? Explain why.

browned off (adjective)

Greatly annoyed; out of patience.

- Would you call this situation "browned off"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "browned off" when it is greatly annoyed; out of patience.

bse (noun)

A fatal disease of cattle that affects the central nervous system; causes staggering and agitation.

- Understanding "bse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bse" because he had never seen it before.

buffalo bur (noun)

North American nightshade with prickly foliage and racemose yellow flowers.

- He looked up "buffalo bur" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "buffalo bur" during the group presentation.

bulk modulus (noun)

The ratio of the change in pressure acting on a volume to the fractional change in volume.

- The article explained what "bulk modulus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bulk modulus" to mean the ratio of the change in pressure acting on a....

bur oak (noun)

Medium to large deciduous oak of central and eastern North America with ovoid acorns deeply immersed in large fringed cups; yields tough close-grained wood.

- He looked up "bur oak" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bur oak" during the group presentation.

bur reed (noun)

Marsh plant having elongated linear leaves and round prickly fruit.

- The article explained what "bur reed" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bur reed."

bur-reed family (noun)

Coextensive with the genus Sparganium.

- In class, the teacher used "bur-reed family" to mean coextensive with the genus sparganium.
- The article explained what "bur-reed family" means with a simple example.

burundi franc (noun)

The basic unit of money in Burundi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burundi franc."
- He looked up "burundi franc" because he had never seen it before.

buttercup squash (noun)

Drum-shaped squash with dark green rind marked in silver or grey.

- The article explained what "buttercup squash" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "buttercup squash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capo (noun)

The head of a branch of an organized crime syndicate.

- They discussed "capo" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capo."

---

cardiac sphincter (noun)

The valve between the distal end of the esophagus and the stomach; the physiological sphincter at the esophagogastric junction.

- The article explained what "cardiac sphincter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cardiac sphincter" to mean the valve between the distal end of the esophagus....

---

cartesian coordinate (noun)

One of the coordinates in a system of coordinates that locates a point on a plane or in space by its distance from two lines or three planes respectively; the two lines or the intersections of the three planes are the coordinate axes.

- He looked up "cartesian coordinate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cartesian coordinate."

---

cartesian coordinate system (noun)

A coordinate system for which the coordinates of a point are its distances from a set perpendicular lines that intersect at the origin of the system.

- They discussed "cartesian coordinate system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cartesian coordinate system."

---

cashew nut (noun)

Kidney-shaped nut edible only when roasted.

- Understanding "cashew nut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cashew nut" to mean kidney-shaped nut edible only when roasted.

---

catalyzed (verb)

Change by catalysis or cause to catalyze.

- Can you use "catalyzed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "catalyzed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

categorised (adjective)

Arranged into categories.

- Students compared "categorised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "categorised" when it is arranged into categories.

---

caterer (noun)

Someone who provides food and service (as for a party).

- He looked up "caterer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "caterer" to mean someone who provides food and service (as for a party).

---

caudal fin (noun)

The tail of fishes and some other aquatic vertebrates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caudal fin."
- The article explained what "caudal fin" means with a simple example.

---

cay (noun)

A coral reef off the southern coast of Florida.

- They discussed "cay" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

celibate (noun)

An unmarried person who has taken a religious vow of chastity.

- The article explained what "celibate" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "celibate" during the group presentation.

---

chancel (noun)

Area around the altar of a church for the clergy and choir; often enclosed by a lattice or railing.

- He looked up "chancel" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chancel."

---

chang kuo (noun)

One of the 8 immortals of Taoism.

- He looked up "chang kuo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chang kuo."

---

chekhov (noun)

Russian dramatist whose plays are concerned with the difficulty of communication between people (1860-1904).

- In class, the teacher used "chekhov" to mean russian dramatist whose plays are concerned with....
- The article explained what "chekhov" means with a simple example.

---

chiming (verb)

Emit a sound.

- In everyday English, people use "chiming" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "chiming" until he saw an example.

---

christendom (noun)

The collective body of Christians throughout the world and history (found predominantly in Europe and the Americas and Australia).

- For a thousand years the Roman Catholic Church was the principal church of Christendom.
- Understanding "christendom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

claude elwood shannon (noun)

United States electrical engineer who pioneered mathematical communication theory (1916-2001).

- They discussed "claude elwood shannon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "claude elwood shannon" to mean united states electrical engineer who pioneered....

---

common hyacinth (noun)

Widely grown for its fragrance and its white, pink, blue, or purplish flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common hyacinth."
- The article explained what "common hyacinth" means with a simple example.

---

commonality (noun)

A class composed of persons lacking clerical or noble rank.

- Understanding "commonality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commonality."

---

concave polygon (noun)

A polygon such that there is a straight line that cuts it in four or more points.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concave polygon."
- He looked up "concave polygon" because he had never seen it before.

---

congratulates (verb)

Say something to someone that expresses praise.

- Learners should practice how to use "congratulates" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "congratulates" when talking about this idea.

---

congratulation (noun)

The act of acknowledging that someone has an occasion for celebration.

- I sent them my sincere congratulations on their marriage.
- Understanding "congratulation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

congratulatory (adjective)

Expressive of sympathetic pleasure or joy on account of someone's success or good fortune.

- A congratulatory telegram.
- The usual congratulatory crowd was conspicuously absent.

---

conquers (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- The coach explained when to use "conquers" and when to wait.
- Can you use "conquers" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

continuance (noun)

The property of enduring or continuing in time.

- They discussed "continuance" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "continuance" means with a simple example.

---

cordless (adjective)

Not having a cord.

- Cordless telephone.
- A "cordless" approach may work better in this case.

---

corn marigold (noun)

European herb with bright yellow flowers; a common weed in grain fields.

- They discussed "corn marigold" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "corn marigold" to mean european herb with bright yellow flowers; a common....

---

costumed (adjective)

Dressed in clothing characteristic of a period, country, or class.

- Students compared "costumed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "costumed."

---

council of basel-ferrara-florence (noun)

The council in 1431-1439 that concentrated on the elimination of heresies and on reforms within the Roman Catholic Church.

- He looked up "council of basel-ferrara-florence" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "council of basel-ferrara-florence."

---

countrywide (adjective)

Occurring or extending throughout a country or nation.

- A countrywide fund-raising campaign.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "countrywide."

---

creepers (noun)

A person who crawls or creeps along the ground.

- They discussed "creepers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "creepers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crony (noun)

A close friend who accompanies his buddies in their activities.

- The article explained what "crony" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "crony" during the group presentation.

---

cryptographic (adjective)

Of or relating to cryptanalysis.

- The speaker chose "cryptographic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cryptographic."

---

dabbled (adjective)

Covered with bright patches (often used in combination).

- Waves dabbled with moonlight.
- It is useful to describe something as "dabbled" when it is covered with bright patches (often used in combination).

---

daffodils (noun)

Any of numerous varieties of Narcissus plants having showy often yellow flowers with a trumpet-shaped central crown.

- He looked up "daffodils" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daffodils."

---

dalian (noun)

A port and shipbuilding center in northeastern China on the Liaodong Peninsula; now a part of Luda.

- They discussed "dalian" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dalian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

darwinism (noun)

A theory of organic evolution claiming that new species arise and are perpetuated by natural selection.

- Understanding "darwinism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "darwinism" because he had never seen it before.

---

day boarder (noun)

A schoolchild at a boarding school who has meals at school but sleeps at home.

- They discussed "day boarder" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "day boarder" means with a simple example.

---

de jure (adjective)

By right; according to law.

- De jure recognition of the new government.
- A "de jure" approach may work better in this case.

---

deadwood (noun)

A branch or a part of a tree that is dead.

- They discussed "deadwood" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deadwood."

---

deceleration (noun)

The act of decelerating; decreasing the speed.

- He initiated deceleration by braking.
- The deceleration of the arms race.

---

defaulting (verb)

Fail to pay up.

- In everyday English, people use "defaulting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "defaulting" in real sentences.

---

desert iguana (noun)

Small long-tailed lizard of arid areas of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "desert iguana" to mean small long-tailed lizard of arid areas of....
- They discussed "desert iguana" during the group presentation.

---

detergents (noun)

A surface-active chemical widely used in industry and laundering.

- The article explained what "detergents" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "detergents."

---

developmentally (adverb)

With respect to development.

- Developmentally retarded.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "developmentally" naturally.

---

dickheads (noun)

Insulting terms of address for people who are stupid or irritating or ridiculous.

- He looked up "dickheads" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dickheads."

dicky (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- He looked up "dicky" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dicky" to mean a small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned....

dicky-seat (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- He looked up "dicky-seat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dicky-seat" during the group presentation.

diffused (adjective)

(of light rays) subjected to scattering by reflection from a rough surface or transmission through a translucent material.

- Diffused light.
- Would you call this situation "diffused"? Explain why.

dint (noun)

Interchangeable with 'means' in the expression 'by means of'.

- They discussed "dint" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dint" because he had never seen it before.

dioceses (noun)

The territorial jurisdiction of a bishop.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dioceses."
- The article explained what "dioceses" means with a simple example.

disagreeable (adjective)

Not agreeing with your tastes or expectations.

- Found the task disagreeable and decided to abandon it.
- A disagreeable old man.

disagreeable person (noun)

A person who is not pleasant or agreeable.

- The article explained what "disagreeable person" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "disagreeable person" during the group presentation.

disagreeable woman (noun)

A woman who is an unpleasant person.

- In class, the teacher used "disagreeable woman" to mean a woman who is an unpleasant person.
- They discussed "disagreeable woman" during the group presentation.

disapproving (adjective)

Expressing or manifesting disapproval.

- It is useful to describe something as "disapproving" when it is expressing or manifesting disapproval.
- Students compared "disapproving" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

disembodied (adjective)

Not having a material body.

- A "disembodied" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "disembodied" because it captured the feeling precisely.

disembodied spirit (noun)

Any incorporeal supernatural being that can become visible (or audible) to human beings.

- Understanding "disembodied spirit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "disembodied spirit" because he had never seen it before.

dishonored (adjective)

Suffering shame.

- The speaker chose "dishonored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "dishonored" when it is suffering shame.

---

dockyard (noun)

An establishment on the waterfront where vessels are built or fitted out or repaired.

- The article explained what "dockyard" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dockyard" to mean an establishment on the waterfront where vessels....

---

doctored (verb)

Alter and make impure, as with the intention to deceive.

- Learners should practice how to use "doctored" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "doctored" and when to wait.

---

duffel (noun)

A large cylindrical bag of heavy cloth; for carrying personal belongings.

- In class, the teacher used "duffel" to mean a large cylindrical bag of heavy cloth; for....
- Understanding "duffel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

duffel bag (noun)

A large cylindrical bag of heavy cloth; for carrying personal belongings.

- In class, the teacher used "duffel bag" to mean a large cylindrical bag of heavy cloth; for....
- Understanding "duffel bag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ebola hemorrhagic fever (noun)

A severe and often fatal disease in humans and nonhuman primates (monkeys and chimpanzees) caused by the Ebola virus; characterized by high fever and severe internal bleeding; can be spread from person to person; is largely limited to Africa.

- Understanding "ebola hemorrhagic fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ebola hemorrhagic fever."

---

economic mobilisation (noun)

Mobilization of the economy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "economic mobilisation."
- The article explained what "economic mobilisation" means with a simple example.

---

edible sea urchin (noun)

A sea urchin that can be eaten.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edible sea urchin."
- They discussed "edible sea urchin" during the group presentation.

---

eindhoven (noun)

City in southeastern Netherlands noted for electrical industry.

- In class, the teacher used "eindhoven" to mean city in southeastern netherlands noted for....
- Understanding "eindhoven" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elisha graves otis (noun)

United States inventor who manufactured the first elevator with a safety device (1811-1861).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elisha graves otis."
- They discussed "elisha graves otis" during the group presentation.

---

elmore john leonard (noun)

United States writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

- Understanding "elmore john leonard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "elmore john leonard" to mean united states writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

---

elmore leonard (noun)

United States writer of thrillers (born in 1925).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elmore leonard."

- The article explained what "elmore leonard" means with a simple example.

---

emaciated (adjective)

Very thin especially from disease or hunger or cold.

- Emaciated bony hands.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "emaciated."

---

emcee (noun)

A person who acts as host at formal occasions (makes an introductory speech and introduces other speakers).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emcee."
- Understanding "emcee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

endoscopy (noun)

Visual examination of the interior of a hollow body organ by use of an endoscope.

- Understanding "endoscopy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "endoscopy" to mean visual examination of the interior of a hollow body....

---

envied (verb)

Be envious of; set one's heart on.

- He did not know how to use "envied" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "envied" when talking about this idea.

---

ergonomic (adjective)

Of or relating to ergonomics.

- The speaker chose "ergonomic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "ergonomic"? Explain why.

---

esophageal veins (noun)

Small veins from the esophagus emptying into the brachiocephalic vein or the azygos veins.

- He looked up "esophageal veins" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "esophageal veins."

---

especial (adjective)

Surpassing what is common or usual or expected.

- He paid especial attention to her.
- Students compared "especial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

estradiol (noun)

The most powerful female hormone that occurs naturally; synthesized and used to treat estrogen deficiency and breast cancer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "estradiol."
- The article explained what "estradiol" means with a simple example.

---

ethyl acetate (noun)

A fragrant colorless flammable volatile liquid ester made from ethanol and acetic acid; used in flavorings and perfumes and as a solvent for plastics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ethyl acetate."
- They discussed "ethyl acetate" during the group presentation.

---

exemplify (verb)

Be characteristic of.

- Can you use "exemplify" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "exemplify" until he saw an example.

---

external jugular vein (noun)

Formed by the junction of the posterior auricular and the retromandibular veins; empties into the subclavian vein.

- The article explained what "external jugular vein" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "external jugular vein."

---

fanaticism (noun)

Excessive intolerance of opposing views.

- They discussed "fanaticism" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fanaticism" means with a simple example.

---

fattening (adjective)

Subject to or used in the process of finishing or fattening up for slaughter.

- A fattening hog.
- Fattening pens.

---

feller (noun)

A person who fells trees.

- He looked up "feller" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "feller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fig marigold (noun)

Any of several South African plants of the genus Mesembryanthemum cultivated for showy pink or white flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fig marigold."
- They discussed "fig marigold" during the group presentation.

---

fillets (noun)

A longitudinal slice or boned side of a fish.

- They discussed "fillets" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fillets" means with a simple example.

---

fingernail (noun)

The nail at the end of a finger.

- They discussed "fingernail" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fingernail" means with a simple example.

---

fireside (noun)

An area near a fireplace (usually paved and extending out into a room).

- Fighting in defense of their firesides.
- The article explained what "fireside" means with a simple example.

---

fissures (noun)

A long narrow depression in a surface.

- Understanding "fissures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "fissures" because he had never seen it before.

---

flinging (verb)

Throw with force or recklessness.

- Learners should practice how to use "flinging" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "flinging" when talking about this idea.

---

floodplain (noun)

A low plain adjacent to a river that is formed chiefly of river sediment and is subject to flooding.

- Understanding "floodplain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "floodplain" because he had never seen it before.

---

foodies (noun)

A person devoted to refined sensuous enjoyment (especially good food and drink).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foodies."
- He looked up "foodies" because he had never seen it before.

---

fractional distillation (noun)

Fractionation of a liquid by distillation.

- They discussed "fractional distillation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fractional distillation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

franchisees (verb)

Grant a franchise to.

- He did not know how to use "franchisees" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "franchisees" in real sentences.

---

francis ford coppola (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1939).

- The article explained what "francis ford coppola" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "francis ford coppola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freemasonry (noun)

A natural or instinctive fellowship between people of similar interests.

- He enjoyed the freemasonry of the Press.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freemasonry."

---

fringe-toed lizard (noun)

With long pointed scales around toes; of deserts of United States and Mexico.

- He looked up "fringe-toed lizard" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fringe-toed lizard" during the group presentation.

---

fugue (noun)

A dreamlike state of altered consciousness that may last for hours or days.

- In class, the teacher used "fugue" to mean a dreamlike state of altered consciousness that may....
- Understanding "fugue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gauze bandage (noun)

(medicine) bleached cotton cloth of plain weave used for bandages and dressings.

- In class, the teacher used "gauze bandage" to mean (medicine) bleached cotton cloth of plain weave....
- They discussed "gauze bandage" during the group presentation.

---

gelding (noun)

Castrated male horse.

- He looked up "gelding" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gelding."

---

genus aquila (noun)

A genus of Accipitridae.

- The article explained what "genus aquila" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "genus aquila" during the group presentation.

---

genus sepia (noun)

Type genus of the Sepiidae.

- He looked up "genus sepia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus sepia."

---

glandular (adjective)

Relating to or affecting or functioning as a gland.

- Glandular malfunctions.
- It is useful to describe something as "glandular" when it is relating to or affecting or functioning as a gland.

---

glandular cancer (noun)

Malignant tumor originating in glandular epithelium.

- He looked up "glandular cancer" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "glandular cancer" during the group presentation.

glandular disease (noun)

A disorder of the glands of the body.

- He looked up "glandular disease" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glandular disease."

glaser (noun)

United States physicist who invented the bubble chamber to study subatomic particles (born in 1926).

- Understanding "glaser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "glaser" means with a simple example.

glean (verb)

Gather, as of natural products.

- In everyday English, people use "glean" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "glean" in real sentences.

glenda jackson (noun)

English film actress who later became a member of British Parliament (born in 1936).

- He looked up "glenda jackson" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "glenda jackson" during the group presentation.

gliders (noun)

Aircraft supported only by the dynamic action of air against its surfaces.

- Understanding "gliders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gliders."

golding (noun)

English novelist (1911-1993).

- Understanding "golding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "golding" to mean english novelist (1911-1993).

gregorian calendar month (noun)

A month in the Gregorian calendar.

- He looked up "gregorian calendar month" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gregorian calendar month."

gregorian mode (noun)

Any of a system of modes used in Gregorian chants up until 1600; derived historically from the Greek mode.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gregorian mode."
- Understanding "gregorian mode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

growls (verb)

To utter or emit low dull rumbling sounds.

- The coach explained when to use "growls" and when to wait.
- Can you use "growls" in a sentence that fits this situation?

gutsy (adjective)

Marked by courage and determination in the face of difficulties or danger; robust and uninhibited; ; -Judith Crist.

- You have to admire her; it was a gutsy thing to do.
- The gutsy...intensity of her musical involvement.

handiwork (noun)

A work produced by hand labor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "handiwork."
- The article explained what "handiwork" means with a simple example.

handlebars (noun)

The shaped bar used to steer a bicycle.

- In class, the teacher used "handlebars" to mean the shaped bar used to steer a bicycle.
- The article explained what "handlebars" means with a simple example.

---

hangouts (noun)

A frequently visited place.

- The article explained what "hangouts" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hangouts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hastened (verb)

Act or move at high speed.

- The coach explained when to use "hastened" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "hastened" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

hawai'i (noun)

A state in the United States in the central Pacific on the Hawaiian Islands.

- In class, the teacher used "hawai'i" to mean a state in the united states in the central pacific....
- The article explained what "hawai'i" means with a simple example.

---

hedge trimmer (noun)

A garden tool for trimming hedges.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hedge trimmer."
- They discussed "hedge trimmer" during the group presentation.

---

heinrich rudolph hertz (noun)

German physicist who was the first to produce electromagnetic waves artificially (1857-1894).

- The article explained what "heinrich rudolph hertz" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "heinrich rudolph hertz" to mean german physicist who was the first to produce....

---

homelands (noun)

The country where you were born.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homelands."
- He looked up "homelands" because he had never seen it before.

---

homicidal (adjective)

Characteristic of or capable of or having a tendency toward killing another human being.

- A homicidal rage.
- Would you call this situation "homicidal"? Explain why.

---

hotdog bun (noun)

A long bun shaped to hold a frankfurter.

- In class, the teacher used "hotdog bun" to mean a long bun shaped to hold a frankfurter.
- He looked up "hotdog bun" because he had never seen it before.

---

hovers (verb)

Be suspended in the air, as if in defiance of gravity.

- In everyday English, people use "hovers" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "hovers" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

huck finn (noun)

A mischievous boy in a novel by Mark Twain.

- He looked up "huck finn" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "huck finn" during the group presentation.

---

hurrying (noun)

Changing location rapidly.

- In class, the teacher used "hurrying" to mean changing location rapidly.

- They discussed "hurrying" during the group presentation.

hyacinth (noun)

A red transparent variety of zircon used as a gemstone.

- He looked up "hyacinth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hyacinth" during the group presentation.

hydroxy (adjective)

Being or containing a hydroxyl group.

- A "hydroxy" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "hydroxy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

iceland lichen (noun)

Lichen with branched flattened partly erect thallus that grows in mountainous and Arctic regions; used as a medicine or food for humans and livestock; a source of glycerol.

- They discussed "iceland lichen" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iceland lichen."

imitates (verb)

Appear like, as in behavior or appearance.

- Learners should practice how to use "imitates" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "imitates" when talking about this idea.

impersonator (noun)

Someone who (fraudulently) assumes the appearance of another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "impersonator."
- He looked up "impersonator" because he had never seen it before.

infantile paralysis (noun)

An acute viral disease marked by inflammation of nerve cells of the brain stem and spinal cord.

- Understanding "infantile paralysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "infantile paralysis" to mean an acute viral disease marked by inflammation of....

internal jugular vein (noun)

A continuation of the sigmoid sinus of the dura mater; joins the subclavian vein to form the brachiocephalic vein.

- The article explained what "internal jugular vein" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "internal jugular vein" to mean a continuation of the sigmoid sinus of the dura....

interstitial pneumonia (noun)

Chronic lung disease affecting the interstitial tissue of the lungs.

- Understanding "interstitial pneumonia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "interstitial pneumonia" during the group presentation.

intricately (adverb)

With elaboration.

- Place "intricately" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "intricately," which changed the tone of the conversation.

invert sugar (noun)

A mixture of equal parts of glucose and fructose resulting from the hydrolysis of sucrose; found naturally in fruits; sweeter than glucose.

- In class, the teacher used "invert sugar" to mean a mixture of equal parts of glucose and fructose....
- He looked up "invert sugar" because he had never seen it before.

invigorating (adjective)

Imparting strength and vitality.

- The invigorating mountain air.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "invigorating."

inwardly (adverb)

With respect to private feelings.

- Inwardly, she was raging.
- Place "inwardly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

italic (noun)

A typeface with letters slanting upward to the right.

- In class, the teacher used "italic" to mean a typeface with letters slanting upward to the right.
- Understanding "italic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

italic language (noun)

A branch of the Indo-European languages of which Latin is the chief representative.

- He looked up "italic language" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "italic language."

---

jan steen (noun)

Dutch genre painter (1626-1679).

- In class, the teacher used "jan steen" to mean dutch genre painter (1626-1679).
- They discussed "jan steen" during the group presentation.

---

jersey lillie (noun)

British actress and mistress of the prince who later became Edward VII (1853-1929).

- They discussed "jersey lillie" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "jersey lillie" means with a simple example.

---

john kenneth galbraith (noun)

United States economist (born in Canada) who served as ambassador to India (born in 1908).

- Understanding "john kenneth galbraith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john kenneth galbraith."

---

jorge luis borges (noun)

Argentinian writer remembered for his short stories (1899-1986).

- In class, the teacher used "jorge luis borges" to mean argentinian writer remembered for his short stories....
- The article explained what "jorge luis borges" means with a simple example.

---

josef hoffmann (noun)

Austrian architect known for his use of rectilinear units (1870-1956).

- Understanding "josef hoffmann" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "josef hoffmann" during the group presentation.

---

katharine houghton hepburn (noun)

United States film actress who appeared in many films with Spencer Tracy (1907-2003).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "katharine houghton hepburn."
- The article explained what "katharine houghton hepburn" means with a simple example.

---

khyber pass (noun)

A mountain pass of great strategic and commercial value in the Hindu Kush on the border between northern Pakistan and western Afghanistan; a route by which invaders entered India.

- In class, the teacher used "khyber pass" to mean a mountain pass of great strategic and commercial....
- The article explained what "khyber pass" means with a simple example.

---

klaus fuchs (noun)

British physicist who was born in Germany and fled Nazi persecution; in the 1940s he passed secret information to the USSR about the development of the atom bomb in the United States (1911-1988).

- The article explained what "klaus fuchs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "klaus fuchs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

laban (noun)

Hungarian choreographer who developed Labanotation (1879-1958).

- In class, the teacher used "laban" to mean hungarian choreographer who developed labanotation....
- Understanding "laban" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lanky (adjective)

Tall and thin and having long slender limbs.

- A lanky kid transformed almost overnight into a handsome young man.
- The speaker chose "lanky" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

late-ripening (adjective)

Of plants that ripen in the fall.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "late-ripening."
- The speaker chose "late-ripening" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

leave no stone unturned (verb)

Search thoroughly and exhaustively.

- The police left no stone unturned in looking for the President's murderer.
- Learners should practice how to use "leave no stone unturned" in real sentences.

---

lesser antilles (noun)

A group of islands in the southeastern West Indies.

- He looked up "lesser antilles" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lesser antilles" during the group presentation.

---

linebackers (noun)

A defensive football player who takes a position close behind the linemen.

- The article explained what "linebackers" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "linebackers" during the group presentation.

---

loin of lamb (noun)

Meat from a loin of lamb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loin of lamb."
- He looked up "loin of lamb" because he had never seen it before.

---

long-horned grasshopper (noun)

Grasshoppers with long threadlike antennae and well-developed stridulating organs on the forewings of the male.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long-horned grasshopper."
- The article explained what "long-horned grasshopper" means with a simple example.

---

loveless (adjective)

Without love.

- A loveless marriage.
- A loveless childhood.

---

lurid (adjective)

Glaringly vivid and graphic; marked by sensationalism.

- Lurid details of the accident.
- Lurid crimes.

---

luzon (noun)

The main island of the Philippines.

- He looked up "luzon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luzon."

---

malays (noun)

A western subfamily of Western Malayo-Polynesian languages.

- They discussed "malays" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "malays" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

marconi (noun)

Italian electrical engineer who invented wireless telegraphy and in 1901 transmitted radio signals across the Atlantic Ocean (1874-1937).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marconi."
- He looked up "marconi" because he had never seen it before.

marine iguana (noun)

Shore-dwelling seaweed-eating lizard of the Galapagos Islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine iguana."
- The article explained what "marine iguana" means with a simple example.

marine mussel (noun)

Marine bivalve mollusk having a dark elongated shell; live attached to solid objects especially in intertidal zones.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine mussel."
- He looked up "marine mussel" because he had never seen it before.

marti (noun)

Cuban poet and revolutionary who fought for Cuban independence from Spain (1853-1895).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marti."
- Understanding "marti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mary flannery o'connor (noun)

United States writer (1925-1964).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mary flannery o'connor."
- He looked up "mary flannery o'connor" because he had never seen it before.

max karl ernst ludwig planck (noun)

German physicist whose explanation of blackbody radiation in the context of quantized energy emissions initiated quantum theory (1858-1947).

- The article explained what "max karl ernst ludwig planck" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "max karl ernst ludwig planck" to mean german physicist whose explanation of blackbody....

meadow buttercup (noun)

Perennial European buttercup with yellow spring flowers widely naturalized especially in eastern North America.

- The article explained what "meadow buttercup" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "meadow buttercup" to mean perennial european buttercup with yellow spring....

mediterranean water shrew (noun)

A type of water shrew.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mediterranean water shrew."
- They discussed "mediterranean water shrew" during the group presentation.

merited (adjective)

Properly deserved.

- A merited success.
- Would you call this situation "merited"? Explain why.

mesquite (noun)

Any of several small spiny trees or shrubs of the genus Prosopis having small flowers in axillary cylindrical spikes followed by large pods rich in sugar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mesquite."
- The article explained what "mesquite" means with a simple example.

microns (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one millionth of a meter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "microns."
- He looked up "microns" because he had never seen it before.

misnomer (noun)

An incorrect or unsuitable name.

- He looked up "misnomer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "misnomer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mobilisation (noun)

Act of marshaling and organizing and making ready for use or action.

- In class, the teacher used "mobilisation" to mean act of marshaling and organizing and making ready....
- Understanding "mobilisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mobsters (noun)

A criminal who is a member of gang.

- The article explained what "mobsters" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mobsters" to mean a criminal who is a member of gang.

---

molest (verb)

Annoy continually or chronically.

- Learners should practice how to use "molest" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "molest" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

monetization (noun)

Establishing something (e.g. gold or silver) as the legal tender of a country.

- They discussed "monetization" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "monetization" to mean establishing something (e.g. gold or silver) as the....

---

morgantown (noun)

A city in northern West Virginia on the Monongahela river near the Pennsylvania border; site of the University of West Virginia.

- Understanding "morgantown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "morgantown" to mean a city in northern west virginia on the monongahela....

---

mournful (adjective)

Filled with or evoking sadness.

- Stared with mournful eyes.
- Mournful news.

---

mullah (noun)

A Muslim trained in the doctrine and law of Islam; the head of a mosque.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mullah."
- He looked up "mullah" because he had never seen it before.

---

mumbled (verb)

Grind with the gums; chew without teeth and with great difficulty.

- The old man had no teeth left and mumbled his food.
- The coach explained when to use "mumbled" and when to wait.

---

muscled (verb)

Make one's way by force.

- He muscled his way into the office.
- He did not know how to use "muscled" until he saw an example.

---

nerve-wracking (adjective)

Extremely irritating to the nerves.

- The speaker chose "nerve-wracking" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "nerve-wracking"? Explain why.

---

nettles (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- He did not know how to use "nettles" until he saw an example.

- She tried to use “nettles” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

nicked (verb)

Cut slightly, with a razor.

- The barber’s knife nicked his cheek.
- The coach explained when to use “nicked” and when to wait.

---

nodules (noun)

Small rounded wartlike protuberance on a plant.

- In class, the teacher used “nodules” to mean small rounded wartlike protuberance on a plant.
- He looked up “nodules” because he had never seen it before.

---

nutmeg-yew (noun)

California evergreen having a fruit resembling a nutmeg but with a strong turpentine flavor.

- He looked up “nutmeg-yew” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “nutmeg-yew” to mean california evergreen having a fruit resembling a....

---

nws (noun)

The compass point midway between north and west; at 315 degrees.

- Understanding “nws” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “nws” because he had never seen it before.

---

obstinate (adjective)

Tenaciously unwilling or marked by tenacious unwillingness to yield.

- The speaker chose “obstinate” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “obstinate” when it is tenaciously unwilling or marked by tenacious....

---

oddities (noun)

A strange attitude or habit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “oddities.”
- He looked up “oddities” because he had never seen it before.

---

ontological (adjective)

Of or relating to ontology.

- Ontological speculations.
- The speaker chose “ontological” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

opined (verb)

Express one’s opinion openly and without fear or hesitation.

- In everyday English, people use “opined” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “opined” in real sentences.

---

optimisation (noun)

The act of rendering optimal.

- He looked up “optimisation” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “optimisation” to mean the act of rendering optimal.

---

opts (verb)

Select as an alternative over another.

- The coach explained when to use “opts” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “opts” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oreos (noun)

Chocolate cookie with white cream filling.

- In class, the teacher used “oreos” to mean chocolate cookie with white cream filling.
- He looked up “oreos” because he had never seen it before.

---

orphanages (noun)

The condition of being a child without living parents.

- Understanding "orphanages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "orphanages" because he had never seen it before.

---

ospreys (noun)

Large harmless hawk found worldwide that feeds on fish and builds a bulky nest often occupied for years.

- The article explained what "ospreys" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ospreys" to mean large harmless hawk found worldwide that feeds on....

---

outbuildings (noun)

A building that is subordinate to and separate from a main building.

- The article explained what "outbuildings" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "outbuildings" during the group presentation.

---

overrule (verb)

Rule against.

- The Republicans were overruled when the House voted on the bill.
- She tried to use "overrule" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oxidative phosphorylation (noun)

An enzymatic process in cell metabolism that synthesizes ATP from ADP.

- He looked up "oxidative phosphorylation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "oxidative phosphorylation" during the group presentation.

---

pacify (verb)

Fight violence and try to establish peace in (a location).

- The U.N. troops are working to pacify Bosnia.
- Learners should practice how to use "pacify" in real sentences.

---

palatine artery (noun)

One of several arteries supplying the face.

- They discussed "palatine artery" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "palatine artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

pales (noun)

A wooden strip forming part of a fence.

- They discussed "pales" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pales" to mean a wooden strip forming part of a fence.

---

palmyra palm (noun)

Tall fan palm of Africa and India and Malaysia yielding a hard wood and sweet sap that is a source of palm wine and sugar; leaves used for thatching and weaving.

- He looked up "palmyra palm" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "palmyra palm" during the group presentation.

---

pansy violet (noun)

Common violet of the eastern United States with large pale blue or purple flowers resembling pansies.

- He looked up "pansy violet" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pansy violet" during the group presentation.

---

paraffin (noun)

A series of non-aromatic saturated hydrocarbons with the general formula CnH(2n+2).

- They discussed "paraffin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paraffin."

---

paraffin oil (noun)

(British usage) kerosine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paraffin oil."
- He looked up "paraffin oil" because he had never seen it before.

---

paraffin scale (noun)

Partly refined paraffin wax.

- They discussed "paraffin scale" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "paraffin scale" because he had never seen it before.

---

paraffin series (noun)

A series of non-aromatic saturated hydrocarbons with the general formula CnH(2n+2).

- He looked up "paraffin series" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "paraffin series" to mean a series of non-aromatic saturated hydrocarbons....

---

pays de la loire (noun)

An agricultural region of western France on the Bay of Biscay.

- He looked up "pays de la loire" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pays de la loire" during the group presentation.

---

pds (noun)

A silver-white metallic element of the platinum group that resembles platinum; occurs in some copper and nickel ores; does not tarnish at ordinary temperatures and is used (alloyed with gold) in jewelry.

- The article explained what "pds" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pds."

---

peculiarities (noun)

An odd or unusual characteristic.

- The article explained what "peculiarities" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "peculiarities" during the group presentation.

---

periodontal (adjective)

Of or relating to or involving or practicing periodontics.

- Periodontal disease.
- The speaker chose "periodontal" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

periodontal disease (noun)

A disease that attacks the gum and bone and around the teeth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "periodontal disease."
- Understanding "periodontal disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peruse (verb)

Examine or consider with attention and in detail.

- Please peruse this report at your leisure.
- Learners should practice how to use "peruse" in real sentences.

---

petulant (adjective)

Easily irritated or annoyed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "petulant."
- The speaker chose "petulant" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

philology (noun)

The humanistic study of language and literature.

- They discussed "philology" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "philology" to mean the humanistic study of language and literature.

---

phonograph recording (noun)

Sound recording consisting of a disk with a continuous groove; used to reproduce music by rotating while a phonograph needle tracks in the groove.

- The article explained what "phonograph recording" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phonograph recording."

photographer's model (noun)

A model who poses for photographers.

- He looked up "photographer's model" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "photographer's model" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pinot chardonnay (noun)

Dry white table wine resembling Chablis but made from Chardonnay grapes.

- They discussed "pinot chardonnay" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pinot chardonnay."

pinus (noun)

Type genus of the Pinaceae: large genus of true pines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pinus."
- They discussed "pinus" during the group presentation.

piqued (verb)

Cause to feel resentment or indignation.

- Learners should practice how to use "piqued" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "piqued" until he saw an example.

pis (noun)

The scientist in charge of an experiment or research project.

- Understanding "pis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pis" during the group presentation.

platitudes (noun)

A trite or obvious remark.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "platitudes."
- The article explained what "platitudes" means with a simple example.

pleated (verb)

Pleat or gather into a ruffle.

- In everyday English, people use "pleated" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "pleated" until he saw an example.

pled (verb)

Offer as an excuse or plea.

- Can you use "pled" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "pled" carefully so everyone would understand.

pointedly (adverb)

In such a manner as to make something clearly evident.

- He pointedly ignored the question.
- He answered "pointedly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

pollinators (noun)

An insect that carries pollen from one flower to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pollinators."
- The article explained what "pollinators" means with a simple example.

polygons (noun)

A closed plane figure bounded by straight sides.

- The article explained what "polygons" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "polygons" to mean a closed plane figure bounded by straight sides.

pork loin (noun)

Meat from a loin of pork.

- He looked up "pork loin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pork loin."

---

pretence (noun)

An artful or simulated semblance.

- Understanding "pretence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pretence" because he had never seen it before.

---

preterm infant (noun)

An infant that is born prior to 37 weeks of gestation.

- They discussed "preterm infant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preterm infant."

---

principality of monaco (noun)

A constitutional monarchy in a tiny enclave on the French Riviera.

- He looked up "principality of monaco" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "principality of monaco."

---

progressions (noun)

A series with a definite pattern of advance.

- In class, the teacher used "progressions" to mean a series with a definite pattern of advance.
- The article explained what "progressions" means with a simple example.

---

projective device (noun)

Any personality test designed to yield information about someone's personality on the basis of their unrestricted response to ambiguous objects or situations.

- They discussed "projective device" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "projective device."

---

projective technique (noun)

Any personality test designed to yield information about someone's personality on the basis of their unrestricted response to ambiguous objects or situations.

- They discussed "projective technique" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "projective technique" because he had never seen it before.

---

psychotherapist (noun)

A therapist who deals with mental and emotional disorders.

- He looked up "psychotherapist" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "psychotherapist" to mean a therapist who deals with mental and emotional....

---

punctuality (noun)

The quality or habit of adhering to an appointed time.

- In class, the teacher used "punctuality" to mean the quality or habit of adhering to an appointed time.
- They discussed "punctuality" during the group presentation.

---

purring (verb)

Make a soft swishing sound.

- Can you use "purring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "purring" and when to wait.

---

pyramidal bone (noun)

A wrist bone that articulates with the pisiform and hamate and lunate bones.

- They discussed "pyramidal bone" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pyramidal bone" means with a simple example.

---

pyramidal motor system (noun)

Any of the important motor nerves on each side of the central nervous system that run from the sensorimotor areas of the cortex through the brainstem to motor neurons of the cranial nerve nuclei and the ventral root of the spinal cord.

- The article explained what "pyramidal motor system" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "pyramidal motor system" during the group presentation.

---

rashes (noun)

A series of unexpected and unpleasant occurrences.

- He looked up "rashes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rashes" during the group presentation.

---

rattlesnake orchid (noun)

Any of various orchids of the genus Pholidota having numerous white to brown flowers in spiraling racemes clothed in slightly inflated bracts and resembling a rattlesnake's tail.

- They discussed "rattlesnake orchid" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rattlesnake orchid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reals (noun)

The basic unit of money in Brazil; equal to 100 centavos.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reals."
- He looked up "reals" because he had never seen it before.

---

rebuffed (verb)

Reject outright and bluntly.

- Can you use "rebuffed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "rebuffed" and when to wait.

---

recuperate (verb)

Regain a former condition after a financial loss.

- The company managed to recuperate.
- Recuperate one's losses.

---

renoir (noun)

French impressionist painter (1841-1919).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "renoir."
- He looked up "renoir" because he had never seen it before.

---

revoking (verb)

Fail to follow suit when able and required to do so.

- He did not know how to use "revoking" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "revoking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rigidly (adverb)

In a rigid manner.

- The body was rigidly erect.
- He answered "rigidly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

ripening (noun)

Coming to full development; becoming mature.

- Understanding "ripening" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ripening" to mean coming to full development; becoming mature.

---

riskier (adjective)

Not financially safe or secure.

- A "riskier" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "riskier" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rivets (verb)

Hold (someone's attention).

- In everyday English, people use "rivets" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "rivets" in real sentences.

---

rollo (noun)

Norse chieftain who became the first duke of Normandy (860-931).

- In class, the teacher used "rollo" to mean norse chieftain who became the first duke of....
- He looked up "rollo" because he had never seen it before.

---

rots (noun)

A state of decay usually accompanied by an offensive odor.

- In class, the teacher used "rots" to mean a state of decay usually accompanied by an....
- The article explained what "rots" means with a simple example.

---

sable antelope (noun)

Large black East African antelope with sharp backward-curving horns.

- The article explained what "sable antelope" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sable antelope."

---

sabre-toothed (adjective)

Having teeth that resemble sabers.

- The speaker chose "sabre-toothed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "sabre-toothed" when it is having teeth that resemble sabers.

---

saint kitts (noun)

The largest of the islands comprising Saint Christopher-Nevis.

- In class, the teacher used "saint kitts" to mean the largest of the islands comprising saint....
- The article explained what "saint kitts" means with a simple example.

---

salina (noun)

A town in central Kansas.

- Understanding "salina" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "salina" during the group presentation.

---

salome (noun)

Woman whose dancing beguiled Herod into giving her the head of John the Baptist.

- They discussed "salome" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "salome" because he had never seen it before.

---

sama-veda (noun)

A collection of mantras and tunes for use with the Rig-Veda.

- The article explained what "sama-veda" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sama-veda" to mean a collection of mantras and tunes for use with the....

---

sandpaper (noun)

Stiff paper coated with powdered emery or sand.

- He looked up "sandpaper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sandpaper."

---

sandstorm (noun)

A windstorm that lifts up clouds of dust or sand.

- The article explained what "sandstorm" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sandstorm."

---

sao jose dos campos (noun)

A city in southeastern Brazil to the northeast of Sao Paulo.

- The article explained what "sao jose dos campos" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sao jose dos campos" to mean a city in southeastern brazil to the northeast of....

---

saul bellow (noun)

United States author (born in Canada) whose novels influenced American literature after World War II (1915-2005).

- He looked up "saul bellow" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "saul bellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scepter (noun)

The imperial authority symbolized by a scepter.

- Understanding "scepter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "scepter" means with a simple example.

---

scorch (verb)

Burn slightly and superficially so as to affect color.

- The flames scorched the ceiling.
- The heat scorched the countryside.

---

scribble (verb)

Write down quickly without much attention to detail.

- The coach explained when to use "scribble" and when to wait.
- Can you use "scribble" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

scurvy (noun)

A condition caused by deficiency of ascorbic acid (vitamin C).

- In class, the teacher used "scurvy" to mean a condition caused by deficiency of ascorbic acid....
- The article explained what "scurvy" means with a simple example.

---

searchlight (noun)

A light source with reflectors that projects a beam of light in a particular direction.

- Understanding "searchlight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "searchlight."

---

sentries (noun)

A person employed to keep watch for some anticipated event.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sentries."
- The article explained what "sentries" means with a simple example.

---

sharpie (noun)

A pen with indelible ink that will write on any surface.

- He looked up "sharpie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sharpie."

---

sheeting (noun)

Fabric from which bed sheets are made.

- The article explained what "sheeting" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sheeting" during the group presentation.

---

shipwrecked (verb)

Cause to experience shipwreck.

- They were shipwrecked in one of the mysteries at sea.
- You have shipwrecked my career.

---

short-horned grasshopper (noun)

Grasshopper with short antennae.

- The article explained what "short-horned grasshopper" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "short-horned grasshopper" during the group presentation.

---

shudders (noun)

An almost pleasurable sensation of fright.

- Understanding "shudders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shudders."

sickened (verb)

Cause aversion in; offend the moral sense of.

- The pornographic pictures sickened us.
- The mold on the food sickened the diners.

singaporeans (noun)

An inhabitant of Singapore.

- In class, the teacher used "singaporeans" to mean an inhabitant of singapore.
- Understanding "singaporeans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

singly (adverb)

One by one; one at a time.

- They were arranged singly.
- The fine points are treated singly.

sir stephen harold spender (noun)

English poet and critic (1909-1995).

- Understanding "sir stephen harold spender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir stephen harold spender."

sitters (noun)

An organism (person or animal) that sits.

- Understanding "sitters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sitters" during the group presentation.

skyrocketing (verb)

Shoot up abruptly, like a rocket.

- Can you use "skyrocketing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "skyrocketing" until he saw an example.

sot (noun)

A chronic drinker.

- In class, the teacher used "sot" to mean a chronic drinker.
- He looked up "sot" because he had never seen it before.

soweto (noun)

A large collection of African townships to the southwest of Johannesburg in South Africa; inhabited solely by Black Africans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soweto."
- He looked up "soweto" because he had never seen it before.

soya milk (noun)

A milk substitute containing soybean flour and water; used in some infant formulas and in making tofu.

- They discussed "soya milk" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "soya milk" means with a simple example.

spar buoy (noun)

A buoy resembling a vertical log.

- They discussed "spar buoy" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spar buoy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sported (verb)

Wear or display in an ostentatious or proud manner.

- Can you use "sported" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "sported" until he saw an example.

spotlights (noun)

A focus of public attention.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spotlights."
- He looked up "spotlights" because he had never seen it before.

---

squealing (adjective)

Having or making a high-pitched sound such as that made by a mouse or a rusty hinge.

- The speaker chose "squealing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "squealing" when it is having or making a high-pitched sound such as that....

---

stallions (noun)

Uncastrated adult male horse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stallions."
- He looked up "stallions" because he had never seen it before.

---

stiletto (noun)

A small dagger with a tapered blade.

- In class, the teacher used "stiletto" to mean a small dagger with a tapered blade.
- They discussed "stiletto" during the group presentation.

---

stinking yew (noun)

Rare small evergreen of northern Florida; its glossy green leaves have an unpleasant fetid smell when crushed.

- Understanding "stinking yew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stinking yew" because he had never seen it before.

---

stipe (noun)

Supporting stalk or stem-like structure especially of a pistil or fern frond or supporting a mushroom cap.

- The article explained what "stipe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stipe" to mean supporting stalk or stem-like structure especially....

---

stockpiling (noun)

Accumulating and storing a reserve supply.

- The stockpiling of war materials.
- The article explained what "stockpiling" means with a simple example.

---

stooge (verb)

Act as a stooge, in a compliant or subordinate manner.

- He stooged for the flamboyant Senator.
- His role was to stooge for the popular comedian.

---

strep (adjective)

Of or relating to or caused by streptococci.

- It is useful to describe something as "strep" when it is of or relating to or caused by streptococci.
- A "strep" approach may work better in this case.

---

stringing (verb)

String together; tie or fasten with a string.

- In everyday English, people use "stringing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "stringing" in real sentences.

---

striped hyena (noun)

Of northern Africa and Arabia and India.

- Understanding "striped hyena" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "striped hyena" means with a simple example.

---

subjugation (noun)

The act of subjugating by cruelty.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subjugation."

- He looked up "subjugation" because he had never seen it before.

---

summer hyacinth (noun)

Southern African herb with white bell-shaped flowers.

- They discussed "summer hyacinth" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "summer hyacinth" to mean southern african herb with white bell-shaped flowers.

---

sunnis (noun)

A member of the branch of Islam that accepts the first four caliphs as rightful successors to Muhammad.

- In class, the teacher used "sunnis" to mean a member of the branch of islam that accepts the....
- He looked up "sunnis" because he had never seen it before.

---

superior alveolar artery (noun)

The alveolar artery that supplies the upper teeth.

- He looked up "superior alveolar artery" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "superior alveolar artery."

---

tangential (adjective)

Of or relating to or acting along or in the direction of a tangent.

- Tangential forces.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tangential."

---

teardrop (noun)

A drop of the clear salty saline solution secreted by the lacrimal glands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teardrop."
- He looked up "teardrop" because he had never seen it before.

---

tera (noun)

A three-tone Chadic language.

- Understanding "tera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tera" means with a simple example.

---

theseus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a hero and king of Athens who was noted for his many great deeds: killed Procrustes and the Minotaur and defeated the Amazons and united Attica.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theseus."
- They discussed "theseus" during the group presentation.

---

thieving (noun)

The act of taking something from someone unlawfully.

- The thieving is awful at Kennedy International.
- He looked up "thieving" because he had never seen it before.

---

thought transference (noun)

Apparent communication from one mind to another without using sensory perceptions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thought transference."
- He looked up "thought transference" because he had never seen it before.

---

tien shan (noun)

A major mountain range of central Asia; extends 1,500 miles.

- Understanding "tien shan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tien shan" to mean a major mountain range of central asia; extends....

---

toga (noun)

A one-piece cloak worn by men in ancient Rome.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toga."
- The article explained what "toga" means with a simple example.

---

toiletries (noun)

Artifacts used in making your toilet (washing and taking care of your body).

- In class, the teacher used "toiletries" to mean artifacts used in making your toilet (washing and....
- He looked up "toiletries" because he had never seen it before.

---

transference (noun)

The act of transfering something from one form to another.

- Understanding "transference" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "transference" to mean the act of transfering something from one form to....

---

traverses (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- Can you use "traverses" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "traverses" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tribulation (noun)

An annoying or frustrating or catastrophic event.

- Life is full of tribulations.
- The article explained what "tribulation" means with a simple example.

---

trill (noun)

The articulation of a consonant (especially the consonant 'r') with a rapid flutter of the tongue against the palate or uvula.

- He pronounced his R's with a distinct trill.
- They discussed "trill" during the group presentation.

---

twisty (adjective)

Marked by repeated turns and bends.

- Had to steer the car down a twisty track.
- Would you call this situation "twisty"? Explain why.

---

unchanging (adjective)

Showing little if any change.

- Would you call this situation "unchanging"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "unchanging" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

unfunded (adjective)

Not furnished with funds.

- An unfunded project.
- A "unfunded" approach may work better in this case.

---

universality (noun)

The quality of being universal; existing everywhere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "universality."
- The article explained what "universality" means with a simple example.

---

unsteady (adjective)

Subject to change or variation.

- Her unsteady walk.
- His hand was unsteady as he poured the wine.

---

untied (adjective)

Not bound by shackles and chains.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "untied."
- A "untied" approach may work better in this case.

---

uplink (noun)

A transmission from Earth to a spacecraft or the path of such a transmission.

- They discussed "uplink" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uplink."

---

vaccinate (verb)

Perform vaccinations or produce immunity in by inoculation.

- We vaccinate against scarlet fever.
- The nurse vaccinated the children in the school.

---

veered (verb)

Shift to a clockwise direction.

- The wind veered.
- The motorbike veered to the right.

---

vestibule (noun)

A large entrance or reception room or area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vestibule."
- They discussed "vestibule" during the group presentation.

---

vestry (noun)

A room in a church where sacred vessels and vestments are kept or meetings are held.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vestry."
- He looked up "vestry" because he had never seen it before.

---

villa-lobos (noun)

Brazilian composer (1887-1959).

- Understanding "villa-lobos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "villa-lobos" because he had never seen it before.

---

violet-streaked (adjective)

Having streaks of violet color.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "violet-streaked."
- Students compared "violet-streaked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

voluptuous (adjective)

(of a woman's body) having a large bosom and pleasing curves.

- A voluptuous woman.
- Lucullus spent the remainder of his days in voluptuous magnificence.

---

wagering (verb)

Stake on the outcome of an issue.

- Learners should practice how to use "wagering" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "wagering" and when to wait.

---

water hyacinth (noun)

A tropical floating aquatic plant having spikes of large blue flowers; troublesome in clogging waterways especially in southern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water hyacinth."
- He looked up "water hyacinth" because he had never seen it before.

---

weevil (noun)

Any of several families of mostly small beetles that feed on plants and plant products; especially snout beetles and seed beetles.

- He looked up "weevil" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "weevil" to mean any of several families of mostly small beetles....

---

welsh springer spaniel (noun)

A red-and-white breed slightly smaller than the English springer spaniel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welsh springer spaniel."
- He looked up "welsh springer spaniel" because he had never seen it before.

whirling (noun)

The act of rotating in a circle or spiral.

- He looked up "whirling" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whirling."

wild hyacinth (noun)

Eastern camas; eastern and central North America.

- In class, the teacher used "wild hyacinth" to mean eastern camas; eastern and central north america.
- Understanding "wild hyacinth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

william golding (noun)

English novelist (1911-1993).

- They discussed "william golding" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "william golding" to mean english novelist (1911-1993).

windward isles (noun)

A group of islands in the southeastern West Indies; the southern part of the Lesser Antilles.

- In class, the teacher used "windward isles" to mean a group of islands in the southeastern west indies;....
- Understanding "windward isles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wintry (adjective)

Characteristic of or occurring in winter.

- Suffered severe wintry weather.
- Brown wintry grasses.

wood hyacinth (noun)

Sometimes placed in genus Scilla.

- The article explained what "wood hyacinth" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wood hyacinth" to mean sometimes placed in genus scilla.

worshipers (noun)

A person who has religious faith.

- In class, the teacher used "worshipers" to mean a person who has religious faith.
- Understanding "worshipers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

xe (noun)

A colorless odorless inert gaseous element occurring in the earth's atmosphere in trace amounts.

- They discussed "xe" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "xe" because he had never seen it before.

yellow bristle grass (noun)

Common weedy and bristly grass found in nearly all temperate areas.

- They discussed "yellow bristle grass" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "yellow bristle grass" to mean common weedy and bristly grass found in nearly all....

zealots (noun)

A fervent and even militant proponent of something.

- Understanding "zealots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "zealots" to mean a fervent and even militant proponent of something.

aaron's rod (noun)

Tall-stalked very woolly mullein with densely packed yellow flowers; ancient Greeks and Romans dipped the stalks in tallow for funeral torches.

- Understanding "aaron's rod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "aaron's rod" to mean tall-stalked very woolly mullein with densely....

abduct (verb)

Take away to an undisclosed location against their will and usually in order to extract a ransom.

- This muscle abducts.
- In everyday English, people use "abduct" when talking about this idea.

---

abolitionist (noun)

A reformer who favors abolishing slavery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abolitionist."
- The article explained what "abolitionist" means with a simple example.

---

aether (noun)

A medium that was once supposed to fill all space and to support the propagation of electromagnetic waves.

- The article explained what "aether" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "aether" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

affluence (noun)

Abundant wealth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "affluence."
- The article explained what "affluence" means with a simple example.

---

agave (noun)

Tropical American plants with basal rosettes of fibrous sword-shaped leaves and flowers in tall spikes; some cultivated for ornament or for fiber.

- In class, the teacher used "agave" to mean tropical american plants with basal rosettes of....
- The article explained what "agave" means with a simple example.

---

agave family (noun)

Chiefly tropical and xerophytic plants: includes Dracenaceae (Dracaenaceae); comprises plants that in some classifications are divided between the Amaryllidaceae and the Liliaceae.

- Understanding "agave family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "agave family" to mean chiefly tropical and xerophytic plants: includes....

---

alan stewart paton (noun)

South African writer (1903-1988).

- In class, the teacher used "alan stewart paton" to mean south african writer (1903-1988).
- Understanding "alan stewart paton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

algebras (noun)

The mathematics of generalized arithmetical operations.

- They discussed "algebras" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "algebras" to mean the mathematics of generalized arithmetical operations.

---

alhambra (noun)

A fortified Moorish palace built near Granada by Muslim kings in the Middle Ages.

- Understanding "alhambra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "alhambra" because he had never seen it before.

---

alveolar artery (noun)

A branch of the maxillary artery that supplies the alveolar process.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alveolar artery."
- They discussed "alveolar artery" during the group presentation.

---

amazons (noun)

A major South American river; arises in the Andes and flows eastward into the South Atlantic; the world's 2nd longest river (4000 miles).

- They discussed "amazons" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "amazons" because he had never seen it before.

---

american agave (noun)

Widely cultivated American monocarpic plant with greenish-white flowers on a tall stalk; blooms only after ten to twenty years and then dies.

- In class, the teacher used "american agave" to mean widely cultivated american monocarpic plant with....

- Understanding "american agave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amphetamine sulfate (noun)

A sulfate derivative of amphetamine that is used as a stimulant for the central nervous system.

- They discussed "amphetamine sulfate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amphetamine sulfate."

---

andaman sea (noun)

Part of the Bay of Bengal to the west of the Malay Peninsula.

- The article explained what "andaman sea" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "andaman sea" during the group presentation.

---

annular eclipse (noun)

Only a thin outer disk of the sun can be seen.

- Understanding "annular eclipse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "annular eclipse."

---

apothecary (noun)

A health professional trained in the art of preparing and dispensing drugs.

- He looked up "apothecary" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "apothecary" to mean a health professional trained in the art of....

---

applauds (verb)

Clap one's hands or shout after performances to indicate approval.

- Learners should practice how to use "applauds" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "applauds" until he saw an example.

---

apricots (noun)

A shade of pink tinged with yellow.

- They discussed "apricots" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apricots."

---

argus pheasant (noun)

Large brilliantly patterned East Indian pheasant.

- Understanding "argus pheasant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "argus pheasant" to mean large brilliantly patterned east indian pheasant.

---

attica (noun)

The territory of Athens in ancient Greece where the Ionic dialect was spoken.

- In class, the teacher used "attica" to mean the territory of athens in ancient greece where the....
- Understanding "attica" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

authoring (verb)

Be the author of.

- He did not know how to use "authoring" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "authoring" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

authoring language (noun)

Software that can be used to develop interactive computer programs without the technically demanding task of computer programming.

- The article explained what "authoring language" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "authoring language" during the group presentation.

---

azerbaijani republic (noun)

A landlocked republic in southwestern Asia; formerly an Asian soviet.

- He looked up "azerbaijani republic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "azerbaijani republic."

---

backwoods (noun)

A remote and undeveloped area.

- The article explained what "backwoods" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "backwoods."

---

bacon rind (noun)

The rind of bacon.

- He looked up "bacon rind" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bacon rind" during the group presentation.

---

baddies (noun)

The principal bad character in a film or work of fiction.

- Understanding "baddies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baddies."

---

bagpipes (noun)

A tubular wind instrument; the player blows air into a bag and squeezes it out through the drone.

- The article explained what "bagpipes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bagpipes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

balsamic (adjective)

Of or relating to or containing balsam.

- A balsamic fragrance.
- It is useful to describe something as "balsamic" when it is of or relating to or containing balsam.

---

barf (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- In everyday English, people use "barf" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "barf" in real sentences.

---

batten (noun)

A strip fixed to something to hold it firm.

- Understanding "batten" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "batten" means with a simple example.

---

batten down (verb)

Furnish with battens.

- Batten ships.
- Learners should practice how to use "batten down" in real sentences.

---

battle of marston moor (noun)

A battle in 1644 in which the Parliamentarians under the earl of Manchester defeated the Royalists under Prince Rupert.

- Understanding "battle of marston moor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "battle of marston moor" during the group presentation.

---

beaks (noun)

A beaklike, tapering tip on certain plant structures.

- Understanding "beaks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "beaks" means with a simple example.

---

becket bend (noun)

A hitch used for temporarily tying a rope to the middle of another rope (or to an eye).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "becket bend."
- He looked up "becket bend" because he had never seen it before.

---

beef loin (noun)

Cut of meat from a loin of beef.

- He looked up "beef loin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beef loin."

---

beefy (adjective)

Muscular and heavily built.

- A beefy wrestler.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "beefy."

---

benedictine (noun)

A French liqueur originally made by Benedictine monks.

- In class, the teacher used "benedictine" to mean a french liqueur originally made by benedictine monks.
- The article explained what "benedictine" means with a simple example.

---

benedictine order (noun)

A Roman Catholic monastic order founded in the 6th century; noted for liturgical worship and for scholarly activities.

- Understanding "benedictine order" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "benedictine order" means with a simple example.

---

berks (noun)

A stupid person who is easy to take advantage of.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "berks."
- He looked up "berks" because he had never seen it before.

---

beseech (verb)

Ask for or request earnestly.

- He did not know how to use "beseech" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "beseech" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

beta-interferon (noun)

A form of interferon that is produced by fibroblasts and have antiviral effects; used in the treatment of multiple sclerosis.

- They discussed "beta-interferon" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "beta-interferon" because he had never seen it before.

---

billiard parlor (noun)

A room in which billiards is played.

- They discussed "billiard parlor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "billiard parlor" to mean a room in which billiards is played.

---

black huckleberry (noun)

Low shrub of the eastern United States bearing shiny black edible fruit; best known of the huckleberries.

- The article explained what "black huckleberry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "black huckleberry" during the group presentation.

---

blaise pascal (noun)

French mathematician and philosopher and Jansenist; invented an adding machine; contributed (with Fermat) to the theory of probability (1623-1662).

- In class, the teacher used "blaise pascal" to mean french mathematician and philosopher and jansenist;....
- The article explained what "blaise pascal" means with a simple example.

---

blasters (noun)

A workman employed to blast with explosives.

- In class, the teacher used "blasters" to mean a workman employed to blast with explosives.
- The article explained what "blasters" means with a simple example.

---

boars (noun)

Old World wild swine having a narrow body and prominent tusks from which most domestic swine come; introduced in United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boars."
- He looked up "boars" because he had never seen it before.

bodega (noun)

A small Hispanic shop selling wine and groceries.

- He looked up "bodega" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bodega."

bombard (verb)

Cast, hurl, or throw repeatedly with some missile.

- The governor was bombarded with requests to grant a pardon to the convicted killer.
- Can you use "bombard" in a sentence that fits this situation?

box huckleberry (noun)

Creeping evergreen shrub of southeastern United States having small shiny boxlike leaves and flavorless berries.

- The article explained what "box huckleberry" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "box huckleberry" during the group presentation.

bristle brush (noun)

A brush that is made with the short stiff hairs of an animal or plant.

- They discussed "bristle brush" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bristle brush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bristle grass (noun)

Grasses of grasslands and woodlands having large gracefully arching spikes with long bristles beneath each spikelet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bristle grass."
- He looked up "bristle grass" because he had never seen it before.

bristle-pointed (adjective)

Pointed like bristles.

- The speaker chose "bristle-pointed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bristle-pointed."

brittany spaniel (noun)

Tall active short-tailed French breed of bird dog having a usually smooth orange- or liver-and-white coat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brittany spaniel."
- The article explained what "brittany spaniel" means with a simple example.

broads (noun)

Slang term for a woman.

- They discussed "broads" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "broads" means with a simple example.

brush-tailed porcupine (noun)

Porcupine with a tuft of large beaded bristles on the tail.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brush-tailed porcupine."
- He looked up "brush-tailed porcupine" because he had never seen it before.

bur grass (noun)

A grass of the genus Cenchrus.

- They discussed "bur grass" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "bur grass" means with a simple example.

camcorder (noun)

A portable television camera and videocassette recorder.

- Understanding "camcorder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "camcorder" because he had never seen it before.

canola (noun)

Vegetable oil made from rapeseed; it is high in monounsaturated fatty acids.

- He looked up "canola" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "canola" to mean vegetable oil made from rapeseed; it is high in....

canola oil (noun)

Vegetable oil made from rapeseed; it is high in monounsaturated fatty acids.

- In class, the teacher used "canola oil" to mean vegetable oil made from rapeseed; it is high in....
- They discussed "canola oil" during the group presentation.

cape marigold (noun)

Any of several South African plants grown for the profusion of usually yellow daisylike flowers and mounds of aromatic foliage.

- He looked up "cape marigold" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape marigold."

capillary tubing (noun)

A tube of small internal diameter; holds liquid by capillary action.

- He looked up "capillary tubing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "capillary tubing" to mean a tube of small internal diameter; holds liquid by....

casters (noun)

A worker who casts molten metal into finished products.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "casters."
- The article explained what "casters" means with a simple example.

castrated (adjective)

Deprived of sexual capacity or sexual attributes.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "castrated."
- Students compared "castrated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

cavity resonator (noun)

A hollow chamber whose dimensions allow the resonant oscillation of electromagnetic or acoustic waves.

- The article explained what "cavity resonator" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cavity resonator."

charles sanders peirce (noun)

United States philosopher and logician; pioneer of pragmatism (1839-1914).

- Understanding "charles sanders peirce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles sanders peirce."

chinook jargon (noun)

A pidgin incorporating Chinook and French and English words; formerly used as a lingua franca in northwestern North America.

- He looked up "chinook jargon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinook jargon."

chipmunk (noun)

A burrowing ground squirrel of western America and Asia; has cheek pouches and a light and dark stripe running down the body.

- They discussed "chipmunk" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "chipmunk" to mean a burrowing ground squirrel of western america and....

chronicling (verb)

Record in chronological order; make a historical record.

- The coach explained when to use "chronicling" and when to wait.
- Can you use "chronicling" in a sentence that fits this situation?

chucking (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- The coach explained when to use "chucking" and when to wait.

- She tried to use “chucking” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

chutney (noun)

A spicy condiment made of chopped fruits or vegetables cooked in vinegar and sugar with ginger and spices.

- In class, the teacher used “chutney” to mean a spicy condiment made of chopped fruits or....
- They discussed “chutney” during the group presentation.

---

clary sage (noun)

Fresh leaves used in omelets and fritters and with lamb.

- The article explained what “clary sage” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “clary sage.”

---

climbing salamander (noun)

Any of several North American salamanders adapted for climbing with well-developed limbs and long somewhat squared-off toes.

- The article explained what “climbing salamander” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “climbing salamander.”

---

cochin (noun)

Asian breed of large fowl with dense plumage and feathered legs.

- He looked up “cochin” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cochin.”

---

cochin china (noun)

Asian breed of large fowl with dense plumage and feathered legs.

- They discussed “cochin china” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “cochin china” means with a simple example.

---

coda (noun)

The closing section of a musical composition.

- They discussed “coda” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “coda” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coders (noun)

A person who designs and writes and tests computer programs.

- He looked up “coders” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “coders.”

---

colluded (verb)

Act in unison or agreement and in secret towards a deceitful or illegal purpose.

- The coach explained when to use “colluded” and when to wait.
- She tried to use “colluded” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

colonoscopy (noun)

Visual examination of the colon (with a colonoscope) from the cecum to the rectum; requires sedation.

- Understanding “colonoscopy” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “colonoscopy” means with a simple example.

---

commies (noun)

A socialist who advocates communism.

- They discussed “commies” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “commies.”

---

common iguana (noun)

Large herbivorous tropical American arboreal lizards with a spiny crest along the back; used as human food in Central America and South America.

- Understanding “common iguana” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “common iguana” to mean large herbivorous tropical american arboreal....

---

composting (verb)

Convert to compost.

- He did not know how to use "composting" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "composting" and when to wait.

---

conceiving (verb)

Judge or regard; look upon; judge.

- He did not know how to use "conceiving" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "conceiving" and when to wait.

---

conciliation (noun)

The state of manifesting goodwill and cooperation after being reconciled.

- There was a brief period of conciliation but the fighting soon resumed.
- He looked up "conciliation" because he had never seen it before.

---

concurred (verb)

Be in accord; be in agreement.

- He did not know how to use "concurred" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "concurred" when talking about this idea.

---

congenital abnormality (noun)

A defect that is present at birth.

- He looked up "congenital abnormality" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "congenital abnormality."

---

conjugation (noun)

The act of making or becoming a single unit.

- The article explained what "conjugation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "conjugation" during the group presentation.

---

coos (noun)

The sound made by a pigeon.

- He looked up "coos" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "coos" during the group presentation.

---

corollary (noun)

A practical consequence that follows naturally.

- Blind jealousy is a frequent corollary of passionate love.
- They discussed "corollary" during the group presentation.

---

counterbalance (verb)

Oppose and mitigate the effects of by contrary actions.

- She tried to use "counterbalance" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "counterbalance" when talking about this idea.

---

courtiers (noun)

An attendant at the court of a sovereign.

- Understanding "courtiers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "courtiers" during the group presentation.

---

crepe myrtle (noun)

Ornamental shrub from eastern India commonly planted in the southern United States.

- He looked up "crepe myrtle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crepe myrtle."

---

cringing (adjective)

Totally submissive.

- The speaker chose "cringing" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "cringing" when it is totally submissive.

---

culminate (verb)

End, especially to reach a final or climactic stage.

- The meeting culminated in a tearful embrace.
- Seurat culminated pointillism.

---

customised (verb)

Make according to requirements.

- She tried to use "customised" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "customised" when talking about this idea.

---

cybercrime (noun)

Crime committed using a computer and the internet to steal a person's identity or sell contraband or stalk victims or disrupt operations with malevolent programs.

- They discussed "cybercrime" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cybercrime" because he had never seen it before.

---

cytochrome (noun)

(biochemistry) a class of hemoprotein whose principal biological function is electron transfer (especially in cellular respiration).

- They discussed "cytochrome" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cytochrome" means with a simple example.

---

cytochrome c (noun)

The most abundant and stable cytochrome; involved in energy transfer.

- He looked up "cytochrome c" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cytochrome c" during the group presentation.

---

czechoslovak (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the former republic of Czechoslovakia.

- Understanding "czechoslovak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "czechoslovak" during the group presentation.

---

dangling modifier (noun)

A word or phrase apparently modifying an unintended word because of its placement in a sentence: e.g., 'when young' in 'when young, circuses appeal to all of us'.

- They discussed "dangling modifier" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dangling modifier" means with a simple example.

---

defaced (verb)

Mar or spoil the appearance of.

- Scars defaced her cheeks.
- The coach explained when to use "defaced" and when to wait.

---

dendritic (adjective)

(neuroscience) of or relating to or resembling a dendrite.

- Dendritic fiber.
- Would you call this situation "dendritic"? Explain why.

---

deporting (verb)

Hand over to the authorities of another country.

- Learners should practice how to use "deporting" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "deporting" and when to wait.

---

desecration (noun)

Blasphemous behavior; the act of depriving something of its sacred character.

- Desecration of the Holy Sabbath.
- They discussed "desecration" during the group presentation.

destinies (noun)

The ultimate agency regarded as predetermining the course of events (often personified as a woman).

- Understanding "destinies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "destinies" means with a simple example.

didactic (adjective)

Instructive (especially excessively).

- A "didactic" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "didactic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

diversifying (verb)

Vary in order to spread risk or to expand.

- In everyday English, people use "diversifying" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "diversifying" in real sentences.

domestication (noun)

The attribute of having been domesticated.

- Her explorer husband resisted all her attempts at domestication.
- The article explained what "domestication" means with a simple example.

domingo de guzman (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) Spanish priest who founded an order whose members became known as Dominicans or Black Friars (circa 1170-1221).

- He looked up "domingo de guzman" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "domingo de guzman" to mean (roman catholic church) spanish priest who founded....

dominicans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the Dominican Republic.

- They discussed "dominicans" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dominicans" because he had never seen it before.

dominick (noun)

American breed of chicken having barred grey plumage raised for meat and brown eggs.

- In class, the teacher used "dominick" to mean american breed of chicken having barred grey....
- The article explained what "dominick" means with a simple example.

donning (verb)

Put clothing on one's body.

- He did not know how to use "donning" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "donning" in a sentence that fits this situation?

drape (noun)

The manner in which fabric hangs or falls.

- She adjusted the drape of her skirt.
- Understanding "drape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

drop scone (noun)

A scone made by dropping a spoonful of batter on a griddle.

- The article explained what "drop scone" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "drop scone" during the group presentation.

droplet (noun)

A tiny drop.

- In class, the teacher used "droplet" to mean a tiny drop.
- He looked up "droplet" because he had never seen it before.

drunkard (noun)

A chronic drinker.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drunkard."
- They discussed "drunkard" during the group presentation.

---

duds (noun)

Informal terms for clothing.

- In class, the teacher used "duds" to mean informal terms for clothing.
- He looked up "duds" because he had never seen it before.

---

eastern chipmunk (noun)

Small striped semiterrestrial eastern American squirrel with cheek pouches.

- They discussed "eastern chipmunk" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern chipmunk."

---

eastern red-backed salamander (noun)

Common salamander of eastern North America.

- Understanding "eastern red-backed salamander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "eastern red-backed salamander" means with a simple example.

---

einstein's general theory of relativity (noun)

A generalization of special relativity to include gravity (based on the principle of equivalence).

- Understanding "einstein's general theory of relativity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "einstein's general theory of relativity" to mean a generalization of special relativity to include....

---

einstein's special theory of relativity (noun)

A physical theory of relativity based on the assumption that the speed of light in a vacuum is a constant and the assumption that the laws of physics are invariant in all inertial systems.

- They discussed "einstein's special theory of relativity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "einstein's special theory of relativity" to mean a physical theory of relativity based on the....

---

einstein's theory of relativity (noun)

(physics) the theory that space and time are relative concepts rather than absolute concepts.

- He looked up "einstein's theory of relativity" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "einstein's theory of relativity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electives (noun)

A course that the student can select from among alternatives.

- He looked up "electives" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "electives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

electro-acoustic transducer (noun)

A transducer that converts electrical to acoustic energy or vice versa.

- The article explained what "electro-acoustic transducer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "electro-acoustic transducer" to mean a transducer that converts electrical to acoustic....

---

emphasising (verb)

To stress, single out as important.

- Learners should practice how to use "emphasising" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "emphasising" when talking about this idea.

---

endpoints (noun)

A place where something ends or is complete.

- Understanding "endpoints" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "endpoints" to mean a place where something ends or is complete.

---

enforcers (noun)

One whose job it is to execute unpleasant tasks for a superior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enforcers."

- The article explained what "enforcers" means with a simple example.

---

engrossing (adjective)

Capable of arousing and holding the attention.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "engrossing."
- The speaker chose "engrossing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

epidemic encephalitis (noun)

An encephalitis that was epidemic between 1915 and 1926; symptoms include paralysis of the extrinsic eye muscle and extreme muscular weakness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epidemic encephalitis."
- The article explained what "epidemic encephalitis" means with a simple example.

---

epistles (noun)

A book of the New Testament written in the form of a letter from an Apostle.

- The article explained what "epistles" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "epistles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

epithelium (noun)

Membranous tissue covering internal organs and other internal surfaces of the body.

- He looked up "epithelium" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epithelium."

---

epsilon toxin (noun)

A bacterial toxin produced by clostridium perfringens; causes intense abdominal cramps and diarrhea that begins 8-22 hours after consumption of foods containing large numbers of these bacteria.

- In class, the teacher used "epsilon toxin" to mean a bacterial toxin produced by clostridium....
- The article explained what "epsilon toxin" means with a simple example.

---

ergonomics (noun)

The branch of engineering science in which biological science is used to study the relation between workers and their environments.

- He looked up "ergonomics" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ergonomics."

---

eukaryotic (adjective)

Having cells with 'good' or membrane-bound nuclei.

- Would you call this situation "eukaryotic"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "eukaryotic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

evaporates (verb)

Become less intense and fade away gradually.

- She tried to use "evaporates" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "evaporates" until he saw an example.

---

evers (noun)

United States civil rights worker in Mississippi; was killed by a sniper (1925-1963).

- The article explained what "evers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "evers" to mean united states civil rights worker in mississippi;....

---

excitable (adjective)

Capable of responding to stimuli.

- The speaker chose "excitable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "excitable" approach may work better in this case.

---

excitable area (noun)

The cortical area that influences motor movements.

- In class, the teacher used "excitable area" to mean the cortical area that influences motor movements.
- The article explained what "excitable area" means with a simple example.

---

fanned (adjective)

Especially spread in a fan shape.

- The peacock's fanned tail.
- Would you call this situation "fanned"? Explain why.

---

fes (noun)

A city in north central Morocco; religious center.

- In class, the teacher used "fes" to mean a city in north central morocco; religious center.
- They discussed "fes" during the group presentation.

---

fevers (noun)

A rise in the temperature of the body; frequently a symptom of infection.

- The article explained what "fevers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fevers" to mean a rise in the temperature of the body; frequently a....

---

finger cymbals (noun)

A percussion instrument consisting of a pair of hollow pieces of wood or bone (usually held between the thumb and fingers) that are made to click together (as by Spanish dancers) in rhythm with the dance.

- He looked up "finger cymbals" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "finger cymbals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flag-waver (noun)

An extreme bellicose nationalist.

- Understanding "flag-waver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "flag-waver" because he had never seen it before.

---

flannery o'connor (noun)

United States writer (1925-1964).

- Understanding "flannery o'connor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "flannery o'connor" to mean united states writer (1925-1964).

---

flaring (adjective)

Streaming or flapping or spreading wide as if in a current of air.

- Ran quickly, her flaring coat behind her.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flaring."

---

flirtation (noun)

Playful behavior intended to arouse sexual interest.

- He looked up "flirtation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flirtation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fora (noun)

A public facility to meet for open discussion.

- He looked up "fora" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fora" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fords (noun)

A shallow area in a stream that can be forded.

- Understanding "fords" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fords" during the group presentation.

---

foresters (noun)

English writer of adventure novels featuring Captain Horatio Hornblower (1899-1966).

- They discussed "foresters" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foresters."

---

formulaic (adjective)

Characterized by or in accordance with some formula.

- Would you call this situation "formulaic"? Explain why.
- A "formulaic" approach may work better in this case.

---

fourth ventricle (noun)

An irregular ventricle between the third ventricle and the central canal of the spinal cord.

- In class, the teacher used "fourth ventricle" to mean an irregular ventricle between the third ventricle....
- They discussed "fourth ventricle" during the group presentation.

---

franz joseph haydn (noun)

Prolific Austrian composer who influenced the classical form of the symphony (1732-1809).

- Understanding "franz joseph haydn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "franz joseph haydn" to mean prolific austrian composer who influenced the....

---

frisky (adjective)

Playful like a lively kitten.

- Students compared "frisky" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "frisky"? Explain why.

---

funnily (adverb)

In a strange manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "funnily" in the final chapter.
- He answered "funnily," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

garden huckleberry (noun)

Improved garden variety of black nightshade having small edible orange or black berries.

- They discussed "garden huckleberry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "garden huckleberry" because he had never seen it before.

---

garrisons (noun)

The troops who maintain and guard a fortified place.

- In class, the teacher used "garrisons" to mean the troops who maintain and guard a fortified place.
- The article explained what "garrisons" means with a simple example.

---

gauge boson (noun)

A particle that mediates the interaction of two elementary particles.

- In class, the teacher used "gauge boson" to mean a particle that mediates the interaction of two....
- They discussed "gauge boson" during the group presentation.

---

genus sonora (noun)

Ground snakes.

- In class, the teacher used "genus sonora" to mean ground snakes.
- The article explained what "genus sonora" means with a simple example.

---

gerrymandering (verb)

Divide unfairly and to one's advantage; of voting districts.

- She tried to use "gerrymandering" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "gerrymandering" until he saw an example.

---

giant scallop (noun)

A large scallop inhabiting deep waters of the Atlantic coast of North America.

- They discussed "giant scallop" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "giant scallop" to mean a large scallop inhabiting deep waters of the....

---

givers (noun)

Someone who devotes himself completely.

- There are no greater givers than those who give themselves.
- Understanding "givers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

goody-goody (noun)

A person who behaves extremely well in order to please a superior.

- The article explained what "goody-goody" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goody-goody."

gregorian (adjective)

Of or relating to Pope Gregory XIII or the calendar he introduced in 1582.

- Students compared "gregorian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gregorian."

grisly (adjective)

Shockingly repellent; inspiring horror.

- A grisly murder.
- It is useful to describe something as "grisly" when it is shockingly repellent; inspiring horror.

guesswork (noun)

An estimate based on little or no information.

- In class, the teacher used "guesswork" to mean an estimate based on little or no information.
- He looked up "guesswork" because he had never seen it before.

gymnasts (noun)

An athlete who is skilled in gymnastics.

- He looked up "gymnasts" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gymnasts" during the group presentation.

haemorrhage (noun)

The flow of blood from a ruptured blood vessel.

- The article explained what "haemorrhage" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "haemorrhage" during the group presentation.

hairdressers (noun)

Someone who cuts or beautifies hair.

- They discussed "hairdressers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hairdressers" means with a simple example.

handsets (noun)

Telephone set with the mouthpiece and earpiece mounted on a single handle.

- In class, the teacher used "handsets" to mean telephone set with the mouthpiece and earpiece....
- They discussed "handsets" during the group presentation.

hdl (noun)

A lipoprotein that transports cholesterol in the blood; composed of a high proportion of protein and relatively little cholesterol; high levels are thought to be associated with decreased risk of coronary heart disease and atherosclerosis.

- In class, the teacher used "hdl" to mean a lipoprotein that transports cholesterol in the....
- He looked up "hdl" because he had never seen it before.

he-huckleberry (noun)

Deciduous much-branched shrub with dense downy panicles of small bell-shaped white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "he-huckleberry" to mean deciduous much-branched shrub with dense downy....
- The article explained what "he-huckleberry" means with a simple example.

heart ventricle (noun)

A chamber of the heart that receives blood from an atrium and pumps it to the arteries.

- In class, the teacher used "heart ventricle" to mean a chamber of the heart that receives blood from an....
- The article explained what "heart ventricle" means with a simple example.

hiram ulysses grant (noun)

18th President of the United States; commander of the Union armies in the American Civil War (1822-1885).

- They discussed "hiram ulysses grant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hiram ulysses grant" means with a simple example.

---

hollows (noun)

A cavity or space in something.

- Hunger had caused the hollows in their cheeks.
- Understanding "hollows" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

homeostasis (noun)

(physiology) metabolic equilibrium actively maintained by several complex biological mechanisms that operate via the autonomic nervous system to offset disrupting changes.

- They discussed "homeostasis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homeostasis."

---

horn-rimmed (adjective)

Having the frame made of horn or tortoise shell or plastic that simulates either.

- Horn-rimmed glasses.
- It is useful to describe something as "horn-rimmed" when it is having the frame made of horn or tortoise shell or....

---

horned asp (noun)

Highly venomous viper of northern Africa and southwestern Asia having a horny spine above each eye.

- In class, the teacher used "horned asp" to mean highly venomous viper of northern africa and....
- The article explained what "horned asp" means with a simple example.

---

huckleberry (noun)

Any of various dark-fruited as distinguished from blue-fruited blueberries.

- Understanding "huckleberry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "huckleberry" because he had never seen it before.

---

iguana (noun)

Large herbivorous tropical American arboreal lizards with a spiny crest along the back; used as human food in Central America and South America.

- They discussed "iguana" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iguana."

---

impassable (adjective)

Incapable of being passed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "impassable."
- The speaker chose "impassable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

impatiently (adverb)

With impatience; in an impatient manner.

- He answered her impatiently.
- He answered "impatiently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

imprints (noun)

A concavity in a surface produced by pressing.

- He looked up "imprints" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "imprints" during the group presentation.

---

incinerator (noun)

A furnace for incinerating (especially to dispose of refuse).

- In class, the teacher used "incinerator" to mean a furnace for incinerating (especially to dispose....
- He looked up "incinerator" because he had never seen it before.

---

inclinations (noun)

An attitude of mind especially one that favors one alternative over others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inclinations."

- Understanding "inclinations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

individualistic (adjective)

Marked by or expressing individuality.

- An individualistic way of dressing.
- The speaker chose "individualistic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

insolent (adjective)

Unrestrained by convention or propriety; ; ; - Los Angeles Times; ; ; - Bertrand Russell.

- The modern world with its quick material successes and insolent belief in the boundless possibilities of progress.
- It is useful to describe something as "insolent" when it is unrestrained by convention or propriety; ; ; - los....

---

instituting (verb)

Set up or lay the groundwork for.

- Learners should practice how to use "instituting" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "instituting" until he saw an example.

---

insulator (noun)

A material such as glass or porcelain with negligible electrical or thermal conductivity.

- The article explained what "insulator" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "insulator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

invert (verb)

Make an inversion (in a musical composition).

- Here the theme is inverted.
- When forming a question, invert the subject and the verb.

---

invertebrate (noun)

Any animal lacking a backbone or notochord; the term is not used as a scientific classification.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "invertebrate."
- Understanding "invertebrate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

invertebrate foot (noun)

Any of various organs of locomotion or attachment in invertebrates.

- They discussed "invertebrate foot" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "invertebrate foot" to mean any of various organs of locomotion or attachment....

---

iridium (noun)

A heavy brittle metallic element of the platinum group; used in alloys; occurs in natural alloys with platinum or osmium.

- They discussed "iridium" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "iridium" means with a simple example.

---

irrefutable (adjective)

Impossible to deny or disprove.

- An irrefutable argument.
- The speaker chose "irrefutable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

jacobi (noun)

German mathematician (1804-1851).

- He looked up "jacobi" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jacobi" during the group presentation.

---

jammer (noun)

A transmitter used to broadcast electronic jamming.

- In class, the teacher used "jammer" to mean a transmitter used to broadcast electronic jamming.
- The article explained what "jammer" means with a simple example.

---

jewry (noun)

Jews collectively.

- The article explained what "jewry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jewry" to mean jews collectively.

---

jnr (noun)

A son who has the same first name as his father.

- In class, the teacher used "jnr" to mean a son who has the same first name as his father.
- Understanding "jnr" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jovial (adjective)

Full of or showing high-spirited merriment; ; - Wordsworth.

- A jovial old gentleman.
- The speaker chose "jovial" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

jugular vein (noun)

Veins in the neck that return blood from the head.

- He looked up "jugular vein" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jugular vein."

---

juvenile wart (noun)

A small benign growth on the faces of hands of children.

- In class, the teacher used "juvenile wart" to mean a small benign growth on the faces of hands of children.
- The article explained what "juvenile wart" means with a simple example.

---

kam-sui (noun)

A group of Kadai languages.

- They discussed "kam-sui" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "kam-sui" means with a simple example.

---

kbs (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1000 bits.

- Understanding "kbs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kbs" to mean a unit of information equal to 1000 bits.

---

keynesian (noun)

A follower of the economic theories of John Maynard Keynes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "keynesian."
- The article explained what "keynesian" means with a simple example.

---

kidnappings (noun)

(law) the unlawful act of capturing and carrying away a person against their will and holding them in false imprisonment.

- In class, the teacher used "kidnappings" to mean (law) the unlawful act of capturing and carrying....
- The article explained what "kidnappings" means with a simple example.

---

lady's leek (noun)

Widely distributed North American wild onion with white to rose flowers.

- The article explained what "lady's leek" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lady's leek" to mean widely distributed north american wild onion with....

---

landlocked salmon (noun)

Atlantic salmon confined to lakes of New England and southeastern Canada.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landlocked salmon."
- He looked up "landlocked salmon" because he had never seen it before.

---

lap-streaked (adjective)

Having overlapping hull planks.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lap-streaked."
- Students compared "lap-streaked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lasso (noun)

A long noosed rope used to catch animals.

- In class, the teacher used "lasso" to mean a long noosed rope used to catch animals.
- The article explained what "lasso" means with a simple example.

---

lattes (noun)

Strong espresso coffee with a topping of frothed steamed milk.

- They discussed "lattes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lattes" to mean strong espresso coffee with a topping of frothed....

---

launder (verb)

Cleanse with a cleaning agent, such as soap, and water.

- In everyday English, people use "launder" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "launder" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

le havre (noun)

A port city in northern France on the English Channel at the mouth of the Seine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "le havre."
- He looked up "le havre" because he had never seen it before.

---

left ventricle (noun)

The chamber on the left side of the heart that receives arterial blood from the left atrium and pumps it into the aorta.

- The article explained what "left ventricle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "left ventricle" to mean the chamber on the left side of the heart that....

---

legislated (verb)

Make laws, bills, etc. or bring into effect by legislation.

- The coach explained when to use "legislated" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "legislated" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

lemma (noun)

A subsidiary proposition that is assumed to be true in order to prove another proposition.

- Understanding "lemma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lemma" because he had never seen it before.

---

lemon rind (noun)

The rind of a lemon.

- He looked up "lemon rind" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lemon rind."

---

liao dynasty (noun)

The dynasty that ruled much of Manchuria and northeastern China from 947 to 1125.

- The article explained what "liao dynasty" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "liao dynasty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lillie (noun)

British actress (born in Canada) (1898-1989).

- They discussed "lillie" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lillie" means with a simple example.

---

lingual artery (noun)

An artery originating from the external carotid artery and supplying the under side of the tongue.

- The article explained what "lingual artery" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lingual artery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lit crit (noun)

The informed analysis and evaluation of literature.

- The article explained what "lit crit" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lit crit" during the group presentation.

loaders (noun)

A laborer who loads and unloads vessels in a port.

- Understanding "loaders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loaders."

manatee (noun)

Sirenian mammal of tropical coastal waters of America; the flat tail is rounded.

- They discussed "manatee" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "manatee" because he had never seen it before.

marquis de sade (noun)

French soldier and writer whose descriptions of sexual perversion gave rise to the term 'sadism' (1740-1814).

- Understanding "marquis de sade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "marquis de sade" means with a simple example.

marston moor (noun)

A battle in 1644 in which the Parliamentarians under the earl of Manchester defeated the Royalists under Prince Rupert.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marston moor."
- They discussed "marston moor" during the group presentation.

mesothelioma (noun)

A form of carcinoma of the mesothelium lining lungs or abdomen or heart; usually associated with exposure to asbestos dust.

- The article explained what "mesothelioma" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mesothelioma."

mib (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1024 kibibytes or 2^20 (1,048,576) bytes.

- In class, the teacher used "mib" to mean a unit of information equal to 1024 kibibytes or....
- He looked up "mib" because he had never seen it before.

mire (noun)

A difficulty or embarrassment that is hard to extricate yourself from.

- The country is still trying to climb out of the mire left by its previous president.
- Caught in the mire of poverty.

modulate (verb)

Fix or adjust the time, amount, degree, or rate of.

- Modulate the pitch.
- Modulate the melody.

moira shearer (noun)

Scottish ballet dancer and actress (born in 1926).

- In class, the teacher used "moira shearer" to mean scottish ballet dancer and actress (born in 1926).
- The article explained what "moira shearer" means with a simple example.

moisturizing (verb)

Make (more) humid.

- Learners should practice how to use "moisturizing" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "moisturizing" and when to wait.

molybdenum (noun)

A polyvalent metallic element that resembles chromium and tungsten in its properties; used to strengthen and harden steel.

- He looked up "molybdenum" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "molybdenum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

molybdenum steel (noun)

Steel containing 10-15% molybdenum; properties are similar to tungsten steel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "molybdenum steel."
- The article explained what "molybdenum steel" means with a simple example.

---

moorish arch (noun)

A round arch that widens before rounding off.

- The article explained what "moorish arch" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "moorish arch" during the group presentation.

---

motorcade (noun)

A procession of people traveling in motor cars.

- He looked up "motorcade" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motorcade."

---

motorcyclist (noun)

A traveler who rides a motorcycle.

- He looked up "motorcyclist" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "motorcyclist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mount athos (noun)

An autonomous area in northeastern Greece that is the site of several Greek Orthodox monasteries founded in the tenth century.

- He looked up "mount athos" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount athos."

---

muhammad ali jinnah (noun)

Indian statesman who was the founder of Pakistan as a Muslim state (1876-1948).

- In class, the teacher used "muhammad ali jinnah" to mean indian statesman who was the founder of pakistan as....
- They discussed "muhammad ali jinnah" during the group presentation.

---

mussel (noun)

Black marine bivalves usually steamed in wine.

- They discussed "mussel" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mussel" means with a simple example.

---

nanotubes (noun)

A fullerene molecule having a cylindrical or toroidal shape.

- The article explained what "nanotubes" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nanotubes" during the group presentation.

---

neapolitan ice cream (noun)

A block of ice cream with 3 or 4 layers of different colors and flavors.

- In class, the teacher used "neapolitan ice cream" to mean a block of ice cream with 3 or 4 layers of....
- The article explained what "neapolitan ice cream" means with a simple example.

---

necessitates (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Can you use "necessitates" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "necessitates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

netherlands antilles (noun)

A group of islands in the Lesser Antilles just to the north of Venezuela that are administered by The Netherlands.

- He looked up "netherlands antilles" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "netherlands antilles."

---

nonchalant (adjective)

Marked by blithe unconcern.

- Drove his car with nonchalant abandon.
- Was polite in a teasing nonchalant manner.

---

nyx (noun)

(Greek mythology) Greek goddess of the night; daughter of Chaos; counterpart of Roman Nox.

- The article explained what "nyx" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nyx" to mean (greek mythology) greek goddess of the night;....

---

oilfield (noun)

A region rich in petroleum deposits (especially one with producing oil wells).

- In class, the teacher used "oilfield" to mean a region rich in petroleum deposits (especially one....
- Understanding "oilfield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

opportune (adjective)

Suitable or at a time that is suitable or advantageous especially for a particular purpose.

- An opportune place to make camp.
- An opportune arrival.

---

oppressor (noun)

A person of authority who subjects others to undue pressures.

- The article explained what "oppressor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "oppressor" during the group presentation.

---

orcas (noun)

Predatory black-and-white toothed whale with large dorsal fin; common in cold seas.

- Understanding "orcas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orcas."

---

orchestration (noun)

An arrangement of events that attempts to achieve a maximum effect.

- The skillful orchestration of his political campaign.
- The article explained what "orchestration" means with a simple example.

---

ouija (noun)

A board with the alphabet on it; used with a planchette to spell out supernatural messages.

- Understanding "ouija" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ouija."

---

ouija board (noun)

A board with the alphabet on it; used with a planchette to spell out supernatural messages.

- Understanding "ouija board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ouija board" means with a simple example.

---

palmyra (noun)

Tall fan palm of Africa and India and Malaysia yielding a hard wood and sweet sap that is a source of palm wine and sugar; leaves used for thatching and weaving.

- Understanding "palmyra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "palmyra" means with a simple example.

---

panamanian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Panama or its people.

- Panamanian economy.
- It is useful to describe something as "panamanian" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of panama or....

---

panamanian capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Panama.

- He looked up "panamanian capital" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panamanian capital."

---

parametric statistic (noun)

Any statistic computed by procedures that assume the data were drawn from a particular distribution.

- He looked up "parametric statistic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parametric statistic."

---

parapet (noun)

A low wall along the edge of a roof or balcony.

- They discussed "parapet" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parapet."

---

pas de trois (noun)

(ballet) a dance for three people.

- He looked up "pas de trois" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pas de trois."

---

patterning (verb)

Plan or create according to a model or models.

- The coach explained when to use "patterning" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "patterning" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pease pudding (noun)

A pudding made with strained split peas mixed with egg.

- The article explained what "pease pudding" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pease pudding" during the group presentation.

---

pejorative (adjective)

Expressing disapproval.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pejorative."
- Would you call this situation "pejorative"? Explain why.

---

penalize (verb)

Impose a penalty on; inflict punishment on.

- The students were penalized for showing up late for class.
- The coach explained when to use "penalize" and when to wait.

---

penning (noun)

The act of creating written works.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "penning."
- Understanding "penning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

percy grainger (noun)

United States composer (born in Australia) who lived in London and collected English folk songs (1882-1961).

- He looked up "percy grainger" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "percy grainger" during the group presentation.

---

perseus (noun)

A conspicuous constellation in the northern hemisphere; between Auriga and Cassiopeia and crossed by the Milky Way.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perseus."
- He looked up "perseus" because he had never seen it before.

---

petitioning (verb)

Write a petition for something to somebody; request formally and in writing.

- Learners should practice how to use "petitioning" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "petitioning" when talking about this idea.

---

pharaohs (noun)

The title of the ancient Egyptian kings.

- Understanding "pharaohs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pharaohs" because he had never seen it before.

---

phonograph (noun)

Machine in which rotating records cause a stylus to vibrate and the vibrations are amplified acoustically or electronically.

- He looked up "phonograph" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phonograph."

---

phonograph album (noun)

An album for holding phonograph records.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phonograph album."
- They discussed "phonograph album" during the group presentation.

---

phonograph record (noun)

Sound recording consisting of a disk with a continuous groove; used to reproduce music by rotating while a phonograph needle tracks in the groove.

- The article explained what "phonograph record" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "phonograph record" to mean sound recording consisting of a disk with a....

---

pied-a-terre (noun)

Lodging for occasional or secondary use.

- They bought a pied-a-terre in London.
- They discussed "pied-a-terre" during the group presentation.

---

piggyback (adverb)

On the back or shoulder or astraddle on the hip.

- She carried her child piggyback.
- The trailer rode piggyback across the country.

---

piggyback plant (noun)

Vigorous perennial herb with flowers in erect racemes and having young plants develop at the junction of a leaf blade and the leafstalk.

- Understanding "piggyback plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "piggyback plant" to mean vigorous perennial herb with flowers in erect....

---

pistachio nut (noun)

Nut of Mediterranean trees having an edible green kernel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pistachio nut."
- They discussed "pistachio nut" during the group presentation.

---

pix chest (noun)

A chest in which coins from the mint are held to await assay.

- He looked up "pix chest" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pix chest" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

planetarium (noun)

An apparatus or model for representing the solar systems.

- He looked up "planetarium" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "planetarium" during the group presentation.

---

pocketed bat (noun)

Small brown bat of California and northern Mexico.

- Understanding "pocketed bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pocketed bat" to mean small brown bat of california and northern mexico.

porches (noun)

A structure attached to the exterior of a building often forming a covered entrance.

- In class, the teacher used "porches" to mean a structure attached to the exterior of a building....
- The article explained what "porches" means with a simple example.

portico (noun)

A porch or entrance to a building consisting of a covered and often columned area.

- In class, the teacher used "portico" to mean a porch or entrance to a building consisting of a....
- They discussed "portico" during the group presentation.

postmortem examination (noun)

An examination and dissection of a dead body to determine cause of death or the changes produced by disease.

- They discussed "postmortem examination" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "postmortem examination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

postures (noun)

The arrangement of the body and its limbs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "postures."
- Understanding "postures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pot marigold (noun)

The common European annual marigold.

- In class, the teacher used "pot marigold" to mean the common european annual marigold.
- They discussed "pot marigold" during the group presentation.

premarital (adjective)

Relating to events before a marriage.

- A "premarital" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "premarital" when it is relating to events before a marriage.

procreation (noun)

The sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

- Understanding "procreation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "procreation" to mean the sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

projective test (noun)

Any personality test designed to yield information about someone's personality on the basis of their unrestricted response to ambiguous objects or situations.

- The article explained what "projective test" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "projective test" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

proteus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a prophetic god who served Poseidon; was capable of changing his shape at will.

- In class, the teacher used "proteus" to mean (greek mythology) a prophetic god who served....
- The article explained what "proteus" means with a simple example.

pyramidal (adjective)

Resembling a pyramid.

- The speaker chose "pyramidal" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "pyramidal"? Explain why.

quadratic polynomial (noun)

A polynomial of the second degree.

- In class, the teacher used "quadratic polynomial" to mean a polynomial of the second degree.
- He looked up "quadratic polynomial" because he had never seen it before.

quarks (noun)

(physics) hypothetical truly fundamental particle in mesons and baryons; there are supposed to be six flavors of quarks (and their antiquarks), which come in pairs; each has an electric charge of +2/3 or -1/3.

- Quarks have not been observed directly but theoretical predictions based on their existence have been confirmed experimentally.
- The article explained what "quarks" means with a simple example.

---

quashed (verb)

Put down by force or intimidation.

- In everyday English, people use "quashed" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "quashed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

queried (verb)

Pose a question.

- Can you use "queried" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "queried" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

quivering (noun)

The act of vibrating.

- Understanding "quivering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quivering."

---

radio-phonograph (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a combination of a radio receiver and a record player.

- In class, the teacher used "radio-phonograph" to mean electronic equipment consisting of a combination of....
- Understanding "radio-phonograph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rainforests (noun)

A forest with heavy annual rainfall.

- In class, the teacher used "rainforests" to mean a forest with heavy annual rainfall.
- Understanding "rainforests" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ramparts (noun)

An embankment built around a space for defensive purposes.

- They stormed the ramparts of the city.
- He looked up "ramparts" because he had never seen it before.

---

rascals (noun)

A deceitful and unreliable scoundrel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rascals."
- He looked up "rascals" because he had never seen it before.

---

rat typhus (noun)

Acute infection caused by rickettsia and transmitted by the bite of an infected flea; characterized by fever and chills and muscle aches and a rash.

- In class, the teacher used "rat typhus" to mean acute infection caused by rickettsia and....
- The article explained what "rat typhus" means with a simple example.

---

rebooted (verb)

Cause to load (an operating system) and start the initial processes.

- Learners should practice how to use "rebooted" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "rebooted" and when to wait.

---

receivership (noun)

The state of property that is in the hands of a receiver.

- The business is in receivership.
- They discussed "receivership" during the group presentation.

---

redux (adjective)

Brought back.

- The Victorian era redux.

- 'Rabbit Redux' by John Updike.

---

refills (noun)

A prescription drug that is provided again.

- The article explained what "refills" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "refills" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

replenished (verb)

Fill something that had previously been emptied.

- Can you use "replenished" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "replenished" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

replenishment (noun)

Filling again by supplying what has been used up.

- Understanding "replenishment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "replenishment."

---

retaliatory eviction (noun)

An eviction in reprisal for the tenant's good-faith complaints against the landlord; illegal in many states.

- The article explained what "retaliatory eviction" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retaliatory eviction."

---

right ventricle (noun)

The chamber on the right side of the heart that receives venous blood from the right atrium and pumps it into the pulmonary trunk.

- He looked up "right ventricle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "right ventricle" during the group presentation.

---

riveted (verb)

Hold (someone's attention).

- The discovery of the skull riveted the paleontologists.
- He did not know how to use "riveted" until he saw an example.

---

robert maynard hutchins (noun)

United States educator who was president of the University of Chicago (1899-1977).

- Understanding "robert maynard hutchins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert maynard hutchins."

---

romantics (noun)

An artist of the Romantic Movement or someone influenced by Romanticism.

- He looked up "romantics" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "romantics" during the group presentation.

---

rosebud cherry (noun)

Shrub or tree native to Japan cultivated as an ornamental for its rose-pink flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rosebud cherry."
- Understanding "rosebud cherry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rosette (noun)

A cluster of leaves growing in crowded circles from a common center or crown (usually at or close to the ground).

- In class, the teacher used "rosette" to mean a cluster of leaves growing in crowded circles from....
- The article explained what "rosette" means with a simple example.

---

sacs (noun)

A structure resembling a bag in an animal.

- In class, the teacher used "sacs" to mean a structure resembling a bag in an animal.
- The article explained what "sacs" means with a simple example.

---

saluting (verb)

Recognize with a gesture prescribed by a military regulation; assume a prescribed position.

- Can you use "saluting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "saluting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

saxophonist (noun)

A musician who plays the saxophone.

- He looked up "saxophonist" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "saxophonist" during the group presentation.

---

scallop shell (noun)

A shell of a scallop.

- He looked up "scallop shell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scallop shell."

---

scone (noun)

Small biscuit (rich with cream and eggs) cut into diamonds or sticks and baked in an oven or (especially originally) on a griddle.

- Understanding "scone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scone."

---

scotch woodcock (noun)

Creamy scrambled eggs on toast spread with anchovy paste.

- The article explained what "scotch woodcock" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "scotch woodcock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scs (noun)

A state in the Deep South; one of the original 13 colonies.

- They discussed "scs" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scs."

---

seeping (adjective)

Leaking out slowly.

- The speaker chose "seeping" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "seeping."

---

seminoles (noun)

A member of the Muskhogean people who moved into Florida in the 18th century.

- The article explained what "seminoles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "seminoles" during the group presentation.

---

serendipity (noun)

Good luck in making unexpected and fortunate discoveries.

- In class, the teacher used "serendipity" to mean good luck in making unexpected and fortunate....
- Understanding "serendipity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

serial monogamy (noun)

A succession of short monogamous relationships (as by someone who undergoes multiple divorces).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serial monogamy."
- He looked up "serial monogamy" because he had never seen it before.

---

shad roe (noun)

Roe of shad; may be parboiled or baked or sauteed gently.

- In class, the teacher used "shad roe" to mean roe of shad; may be parboiled or baked or sauteed....
- The article explained what "shad roe" means with a simple example.

---

shareholding (noun)

A holding in the form of shares of corporations.

- In class, the teacher used "shareholding" to mean a holding in the form of shares of corporations.
- He looked up "shareholding" because he had never seen it before.

---

shem (noun)

(Old Testament) eldest son of Noah.

- The article explained what "shem" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shem" to mean (old testament) eldest son of noah.

---

shim (noun)

A thin wedge of material (wood or metal or stone) for driving into crevices.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shim."
- He looked up "shim" because he had never seen it before.

---

shona (noun)

A member of a Bantu tribe living in present-day Zimbabwe.

- The article explained what "shona" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shona."

---

shrew-sized (adjective)

Having the approximate size of a shrew.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "shrew-sized."
- Would you call this situation "shrew-sized"? Explain why.

---

sian (noun)

A city of central China; capital of ancient Chinese empire 221-206 BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sian."
- The article explained what "sian" means with a simple example.

---

siege of yorktown (noun)

In 1781 the British under Cornwallis surrendered after a siege of three weeks by American and French troops; the surrender ended the American Revolution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "siege of yorktown."
- Understanding "siege of yorktown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sir edward elgar (noun)

British composer of choral and orchestral works including two symphonies as well as songs and chamber music and music for brass band (1857-1934).

- He looked up "sir edward elgar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sir edward elgar" to mean british composer of choral and orchestral works....

---

sir edward william elgar (noun)

British composer of choral and orchestral works including two symphonies as well as songs and chamber music and music for brass band (1857-1934).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir edward william elgar."
- He looked up "sir edward william elgar" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir thomas stamford raffles (noun)

British colonial administrator who founded Singapore (1781-1826).

- The article explained what "sir thomas stamford raffles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sir thomas stamford raffles" during the group presentation.

---

ski parka (noun)

A parka to be worn while skiing.

- He looked up "ski parka" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ski parka" during the group presentation.

---

sophomores (noun)

A second-year undergraduate.

- They discussed "sophomores" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sophomores" to mean a second-year undergraduate.

soya (noun)

The most highly proteinaceous vegetable known; the fruit of the soybean plant is used in a variety of foods and as fodder (especially as a replacement for animal protein).

- In class, the teacher used "soya" to mean the most highly proteinaceous vegetable known; the....
- The article explained what "soya" means with a simple example.

splattered (adjective)

Covered with bright patches (often used in combination).

- Kitchen walls splattered with grease.
- It is useful to describe something as "splattered" when it is covered with bright patches (often used in combination).

spotted salamander (noun)

Glossy black North American salamander with yellow spots.

- The article explained what "spotted salamander" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spotted salamander" to mean glossy black north american salamander with yellow....

squander (verb)

Spend thoughtlessly; throw away.

- You squandered the opportunity to get and advanced degree.
- In everyday English, people use "squander" when talking about this idea.

stalkers (noun)

Someone who walks with long stiff strides.

- The article explained what "stalkers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "stalkers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steen (noun)

Dutch genre painter (1626-1679).

- The article explained what "steen" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "steen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steeple (noun)

A tall tower that forms the superstructure of a building (usually a church or temple) and that tapers to a point at the top.

- He looked up "steeple" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "steeple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sth (noun)

A hormone produced by the anterior pituitary gland; promotes growth in humans.

- They discussed "sth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sth" means with a simple example.

stillborn (adjective)

Failing to accomplish an intended result.

- A stillborn plot to assassinate the President.
- A stillborn baby.

suckling pig (noun)

Whole young pig suitable for roasting.

- He looked up "suckling pig" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "suckling pig" during the group presentation.

sulfuric acid (noun)

(H2SO4) a highly corrosive acid made from sulfur dioxide; widely used in the chemical industry.

- Understanding "sulfuric acid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sulfuric acid" to mean (h2so4) a highly corrosive acid made from sulfur....

superintendents (noun)

A person who directs and manages an organization.

- They discussed "superintendents" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "superintendents" to mean a person who directs and manages an organization.

---

suspenders (noun)

Elastic straps that hold trousers up (usually used in the plural).

- Understanding "suspenders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "suspenders" to mean elastic straps that hold trousers up (usually used....

---

swerved (verb)

Turn sharply; change direction abruptly.

- Learners should practice how to use "swerved" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "swerved" until he saw an example.

---

syndicates (noun)

An association of companies for some definite purpose.

- They discussed "syndicates" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "syndicates."

---

tajik (noun)

The Iranian language of the Tajik that is closely related to Farsi; spoken in Iran and Tajikistan.

- The article explained what "tajik" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tajik" to mean the iranian language of the tajik that is closely....

---

tamer (noun)

An animal trainer who tames wild animals.

- The article explained what "tamer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tamer."

---

taunted (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- Can you use "taunted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "taunted" when talking about this idea.

---

taverns (noun)

A building with a bar that is licensed to sell alcoholic drinks.

- The article explained what "taverns" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "taverns" to mean a building with a bar that is licensed to sell....

---

tawny owl (noun)

Reddish-brown European owl having a round head with black eyes.

- The article explained what "tawny owl" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tawny owl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tawny-coloured (adjective)

Having a tawny color.

- A "tawny-coloured" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "tawny-coloured."

---

teasers (noun)

A particularly baffling problem that is said to have a correct solution.

- The article explained what "teasers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "teasers" to mean a particularly baffling problem that is said to....

---

teenaged (adjective)

Being of the age 13 through 19.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "teenaged."

- A "teenaged" approach may work better in this case.

---

thematically (adverb)

With regard to thematic content.

- Thematically related.
- Using "thematically" can make your explanation more exact.

---

third ventricle (noun)

A narrow ventricle in the midplane below the corpus callosum; communicates with the fourth ventricle via the Sylvian aqueduct.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third ventricle."
- He looked up "third ventricle" because he had never seen it before.

---

toke (noun)

A puff of a marijuana or hashish cigarette.

- The boys took a few tokes on a joint.
- The article explained what "toke" means with a simple example.

---

toting (verb)

Determine the sum of.

- Can you use "toting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "toting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

trademarked (adjective)

(of goods and merchandise) labeled with proprietary (and legally registered) identification guaranteeing exclusive use.

- Trademarked goods.
- Students compared "trademarked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

trampling (noun)

The sound of heavy treading or stomping.

- Understanding "trampling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trampling" because he had never seen it before.

---

tramways (noun)

The track on which trams or streetcars run.

- In class, the teacher used "tramways" to mean the track on which trams or streetcars run.
- They discussed "tramways" during the group presentation.

---

transcended (verb)

Be superior or better than some standard.

- He did not know how to use "transcended" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "transcended" in real sentences.

---

trap-and-drain auger (noun)

A plumber's snake for clearing a trap and drain.

- In class, the teacher used "trap-and-drain auger" to mean a plumber's snake for clearing a trap and drain.
- The article explained what "trap-and-drain auger" means with a simple example.

---

twit (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- Learners should practice how to use "twit" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "twit" when talking about this idea.

---

unconcerned (adjective)

Lacking in interest or care or feeling.

- The average American...is unconcerned that his or her plight is the result of a complex of personal and economic and governmental actions...beyond the normal citizen's comprehension and control.
- Blithely unconcerned about his friend's plight.

---

underbelly (noun)

The quality of being weak or unprotected; - Winston Churchill.

- The soft underbelly of the Axis.
- He looked up "underbelly" because he had never seen it before.

---

underperforming (verb)

Perform less well or with less success than expected.

- In everyday English, people use "underperforming" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "underperforming" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

underwater archeology (noun)

The archeology of underwater sites.

- In class, the teacher used "underwater archeology" to mean the archeology of underwater sites.
- Understanding "underwater archeology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unlisted (adjective)

Not having your name entered on a voting list.

- An unlisted voter.
- Would you call this situation "unlisted"? Explain why.

---

unlisted security (noun)

A security traded in the over-the-counter market.

- He looked up "unlisted security" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "unlisted security" to mean a security traded in the over-the-counter market.

---

unlisted stock (noun)

Stock that is not listed and traded on an organized exchange.

- In class, the teacher used "unlisted stock" to mean stock that is not listed and traded on an organized....
- He looked up "unlisted stock" because he had never seen it before.

---

unpredictability (noun)

The trait of being unpredictably irresolute.

- Understanding "unpredictability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "unpredictability" because he had never seen it before.

---

ventricle (noun)

A chamber of the heart that receives blood from an atrium and pumps it to the arteries.

- In class, the teacher used "ventricle" to mean a chamber of the heart that receives blood from an....
- He looked up "ventricle" because he had never seen it before.

---

vichy (noun)

A town in central France (south of Paris) noted for hot mineral springs; was capital of the unoccupied part of France during World War II.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vichy."
- The article explained what "vichy" means with a simple example.

---

vichy water (noun)

Sparkling mineral water from springs at Vichy, France or water similar to it.

- He looked up "vichy water" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vichy water" during the group presentation.

---

vulva (noun)

External parts of the female genitalia.

- In class, the teacher used "vulva" to mean external parts of the female genitalia.
- They discussed "vulva" during the group presentation.

---

waistband (noun)

A band of material around the waist that strengthens a skirt or trousers.

- The article explained what "waistband" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waistband."

---

wavy-grained (adjective)

Of timber; having fibers running irregularly rather than in parallel.

- It is useful to describe something as "wavy-grained" when it is of timber; having fibers running irregularly rather....
- Would you call this situation "wavy-grained"? Explain why.

---

wayland (noun)

(European mythology) a supernatural smith and king of the elves; identified with Norse Volund.

- Understanding "wayland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wayland" during the group presentation.

---

wayland the smith (noun)

(European mythology) a supernatural smith and king of the elves; identified with Norse Volund.

- In class, the teacher used "wayland the smith" to mean (european mythology) a supernatural smith and king....
- The article explained what "wayland the smith" means with a simple example.

---

western red-backed salamander (noun)

Salamander of the Pacific coast of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "western red-backed salamander" to mean salamander of the pacific coast of north america.
- Understanding "western red-backed salamander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

whistled (verb)

Move with, or as with, a whistling sound.

- The bullets whistled past him.
- She whistled a melody.

---

william seward burroughs (noun)

United States inventor who patented the first practical adding machine (1855-1898).

- In class, the teacher used "william seward burroughs" to mean united states inventor who patented the first....
- The article explained what "william seward burroughs" means with a simple example.

---

winless (adjective)

Having no wins.

- The team had a very disappointing winless season.
- A "winless" approach may work better in this case.

---

wipeout (noun)

An event (or the result of an event) that completely destroys something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wipeout."
- Understanding "wipeout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wizardry (noun)

Exceptional creative ability.

- He looked up "wizardry" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wizardry" to mean exceptional creative ability.

---

wood's alloy (noun)

A fusible alloy that is half bismuth plus lead, tin, and cadmium; melts at about 160 degrees Fahrenheit.

- Understanding "wood's alloy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wood's alloy" during the group presentation.

---

woollen (adjective)

Of or related to or made of wool.

- It is useful to describe something as "woollen" when it is of or related to or made of wool.
- A "woollen" approach may work better in this case.

zonal (adjective)

Associated with or divided into zones.

- A zonal pattern of cell structure.
- Zonal division.

a cappella singing (noun)

Singing without instrumental accompaniment.

- In class, the teacher used "a cappella singing" to mean singing without instrumental accompaniment.
- The article explained what "a cappella singing" means with a simple example.

aarp (noun)

An association of people to promote the welfare of senior citizens.

- In class, the teacher used "aarp" to mean an association of people to promote the welfare of....
- Understanding "aarp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

abstractions (noun)

A concept or idea not associated with any specific instance.

- The article explained what "abstractions" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "abstractions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

acceptor (noun)

The person (or institution) who accepts a check or draft and becomes responsible for paying the party named in the draft when it matures.

- The article explained what "acceptor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "acceptor" to mean the person (or institution) who accepts a check or....

acrobatics (noun)

The performance of stunts while in flight in an aircraft.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acrobatics."
- Understanding "acrobatics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

adipose tissue (noun)

A kind of body tissue containing stored fat that serves as a source of energy; it also cushions and insulates vital organs.

- Fatty tissue protected them from the severe cold.
- Understanding "adipose tissue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aerobics (noun)

Exercise that increases the need for oxygen.

- In class, the teacher used "aerobics" to mean exercise that increases the need for oxygen.
- Understanding "aerobics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

african marigold (noun)

A stout branching annual with large yellow to orange flower heads; Mexico and Central America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "african marigold."
- He looked up "african marigold" because he had never seen it before.

alan paton (noun)

South African writer (1903-1988).

- In class, the teacher used "alan paton" to mean south african writer (1903-1988).
- Understanding "alan paton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alertness (noun)

The process of paying close and continuous attention.

- They discussed "alertness" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "alertness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alfred charles kinsey (noun)

United States zoologist best known for his interview studies of sexual behavior (1894-1956).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alfred charles kinsey."
- He looked up "alfred charles kinsey" because he had never seen it before.

---

alleyway (noun)

A narrow street with walls on both sides.

- Understanding "alleyway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "alleyway" during the group presentation.

---

alpha-interferon (noun)

A form of interferon that is produced endogenously and commercially for its pharmacological effects (including regulation of the immune system and antiviral and antineoplastic effects).

- The article explained what "alpha-interferon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alpha-interferon."

---

amenity (noun)

Pleasantness resulting from agreeable conditions.

- The article explained what "amenity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amenity" to mean pleasantness resulting from agreeable conditions.

---

american water shrew (noun)

Water shrew of North America.

- He looked up "american water shrew" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "american water shrew" during the group presentation.

---

angrier (adjective)

(of the elements) as if showing violent anger.

- It is useful to describe something as "angrier" when it is (of the elements) as if showing violent anger.
- The speaker chose "angrier" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

antilles (noun)

A group of islands in the West Indies.

- Understanding "antilles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "antilles" to mean a group of islands in the west indies.

---

arabic numeral (noun)

One of the symbols 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,0.

- In class, the teacher used "arabic numeral" to mean one of the symbols 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,0.
- They discussed "arabic numeral" during the group presentation.

---

arnhem (noun)

A city in the central Netherlands on the lower Rhine River; site of a battle in 1944 during World War II.

- They discussed "arnhem" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "arnhem" means with a simple example.

---

arno (noun)

A river in central Italy rising in the Apennines and flowing through Florence and Pisa to the Ligurian Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "arno" to mean a river in central italy rising in the apennines....
- He looked up "arno" because he had never seen it before.

---

arno river (noun)

A river in central Italy rising in the Apennines and flowing through Florence and Pisa to the Ligurian Sea.

- Understanding "arno river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arno river."

---

ascribe (verb)

Attribute or credit to.

- In everyday English, people use "ascribe" when talking about this idea.

- Learners should practice how to use “ascribe” in real sentences.

---

athlete’s foot (noun)

Fungal infection of the feet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “athlete’s foot.”
- They discussed “athlete’s foot” during the group presentation.

---

athlete’s heart (noun)

Enlarged heart commonly found among athletes trained for endurance.

- The article explained what “athlete’s heart” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “athlete’s heart” to mean enlarged heart commonly found among athletes....

---

athos (noun)

An autonomous area in northeastern Greece that is the site of several Greek Orthodox monasteries founded in the tenth century.

- The article explained what “athos” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “athos” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

attenuated (adjective)

Of an electrical signal; reduced in amplitude with little or no distortion.

- The speaker chose “attenuated” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “attenuated” when it is of an electrical signal; reduced in amplitude with....

---

augsburg confession (noun)

The document drawn up in 1555 to defend the catholicity of Lutheran doctrine and to justify innovations in Lutheran practice; is still in effect today.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “augsburg confession.”
- He looked up “augsburg confession” because he had never seen it before.

---

august wilhelm von hoffmann (noun)

German chemist (1818-1892).

- They discussed “august wilhelm von hoffmann” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “august wilhelm von hoffmann.”

---

avenging (verb)

Take revenge for a perceived wrong.

- Can you use “avenging” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “avenging” when talking about this idea.

---

axis vertebra (noun)

The 2nd cervical vertebra; serves as a pivot for turning the head.

- Understanding “axis vertebra” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “axis vertebra” means with a simple example.

---

azerbaijani (noun)

The Turkic language spoken by the Azerbaijani.

- In class, the teacher used “azerbaijani” to mean the turkic language spoken by the azerbaijani.
- He looked up “azerbaijani” because he had never seen it before.

---

baker’s eczema (noun)

Allergic eczema caused by flour or other ingredients handled by bakers.

- In class, the teacher used “baker’s eczema” to mean allergic eczema caused by flour or other....
- He looked up “baker’s eczema” because he had never seen it before.

---

bandana (noun)

Large and brightly colored handkerchief; often used as a neckerchief.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bandana.”
- They discussed “bandana” during the group presentation.

---

bangles (noun)

Cheap showy jewelry or ornament on clothing.

- In class, the teacher used "bangles" to mean cheap showy jewelry or ornament on clothing.
- He looked up "bangles" because he had never seen it before.

---

barbarism (noun)

A brutal barbarous savage act.

- They discussed "barbarism" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "barbarism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bareback (adjective)

Riding without a saddle.

- A bareback rider.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bareback."

---

bas bleu (noun)

A woman having literary or intellectual interests.

- He looked up "bas bleu" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bas bleu" during the group presentation.

---

battle of ypres (noun)

Battle in World War I (1914); heavy but indecisive fighting as the Allies and the Germans both tried to break through the lines of the others.

- In class, the teacher used "battle of ypres" to mean battle in world war i (1914); heavy but indecisive....
- The article explained what "battle of ypres" means with a simple example.

---

battlefront (noun)

The line along which opposing armies face each other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battlefront."
- They discussed "battlefront" during the group presentation.

---

bay scallop (noun)

A small scallop inhabiting shallow waters and mud flats of the Atlantic coast of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "bay scallop" to mean a small scallop inhabiting shallow waters and mud....
- They discussed "bay scallop" during the group presentation.

---

beard lichen (noun)

Greenish grey pendulous lichen growing on trees.

- They discussed "beard lichen" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beard lichen."

---

beaters (noun)

A worker who rouses wild game from under cover for a hunter.

- He looked up "beaters" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "beaters" to mean a worker who rouses wild game from under cover for....

---

benjamin peirce (noun)

United States mathematician and astronomer remembered for his studies of Uranus and Saturn and Neptune (1809-1880).

- In class, the teacher used "benjamin peirce" to mean united states mathematician and astronomer....
- Understanding "benjamin peirce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bernard baruch (noun)

Economic advisor to United States Presidents (1870-1965).

- The article explained what "bernard baruch" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bernard baruch" during the group presentation.

---

berne (noun)

The capital of Switzerland; located in western Switzerland.

- Understanding "berne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "berne" because he had never seen it before.

---

big marigold (noun)

A stout branching annual with large yellow to orange flower heads; Mexico and Central America.

- The article explained what "big marigold" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "big marigold" during the group presentation.

---

billet (noun)

A short personal letter.

- In class, the teacher used "billet" to mean a short personal letter.
- The article explained what "billet" means with a simple example.

---

binaries (noun)

A pre-compiled, pre-linked program that is ready to run under a given operating system; a binary for one operating system will not run on a different operating system.

- The same source code can be compiled to produce different binaries for different operating systems.
- They discussed "binaries" during the group presentation.

---

black margate (noun)

Dusky grey food fish found from Louisiana and Florida southward.

- In class, the teacher used "black margate" to mean dusky grey food fish found from louisiana and....
- They discussed "black margate" during the group presentation.

---

black-footed albatross (noun)

A variety of albatross with black feet.

- Understanding "black-footed albatross" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "black-footed albatross" means with a simple example.

---

blackmailing (verb)

Exert pressure on someone through threats.

- The coach explained when to use "blackmailing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "blackmailing" until he saw an example.

---

blissfully (adverb)

In a blissful manner.

- He was blissfully unaware of the danger.
- The narrator describes the scene "blissfully" in the final chapter.

---

bloodied (verb)

Cover with blood.

- Learners should practice how to use "bloodied" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "bloodied" when talking about this idea.

---

boneless (adjective)

Being without a bone or bones.

- Jellyfish are boneless.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "boneless."

---

brainless (adjective)

Not using intelligence.

- The speaker chose "brainless" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "brainless"? Explain why.

---

breadcrumbs (noun)

Crumb of bread; used especially for coating or thickening.

- He looked up "breadcrumbs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "breadcrumbs" to mean crumb of bread; used especially for coating or....

bridged (verb)

Make a bridge across.

- Can you use "bridged" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "bridged" carefully so everyone would understand.

bridged-t (noun)

A circuit consisting of a T-network with an additional shunt bridging the two series circuits.

- In class, the teacher used "bridged-t" to mean a circuit consisting of a t-network with an....
- He looked up "bridged-t" because he had never seen it before.

brightening (verb)

Make lighter or brighter.

- He did not know how to use "brightening" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "brightening" in a sentence that fits this situation?

bristle (verb)

Have or be thickly covered with or as if with bristles.

- The garden bristled with toddlers.
- The dog's fur bristled.

bristle at (verb)

Show anger or indignation.

- She bristled at his insolent remarks.
- Learners should practice how to use "bristle at" in real sentences.

bristle up (verb)

Show anger or indignation.

- She bristled at his insolent remarks.
- The coach explained when to use "bristle up" and when to wait.

buffaloes (noun)

A city on Lake Erie in western New York (near Niagara Falls).

- The article explained what "buffaloes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "buffaloes" to mean a city on lake erie in western new york (near....

bulkhead (noun)

A partition that divides a ship or plane into compartments.

- He looked up "bulkhead" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bulkhead" to mean a partition that divides a ship or plane into....

bur (noun)

Seed vessel having hooks or prickles.

- They discussed "bur" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bur."

burglaries (noun)

Entering a building unlawfully with intent to commit a felony or to steal valuable property.

- He looked up "burglaries" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "burglaries" to mean entering a building unlawfully with intent to....

bush hibiscus (noun)

Southern and western Australian shrub with unlobed or shallowly lobed toothed leaves and purple flowers; sometimes placed in genus Hibiscus.

- He looked up "bush hibiscus" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bush hibiscus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cacti (noun)

Any succulent plant of the family Cactaceae native chiefly to arid regions of the New World and usually having spines.

- In class, the teacher used "cacti" to mean any succulent plant of the family cactaceae native....
- The article explained what "cacti" means with a simple example.

---

canaries (noun)

A group of mountainous islands in the Atlantic off the northwest coast of Africa forming Spanish provinces.

- He looked up "canaries" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canaries."

---

cancer borealis (noun)

Large red deep-water crab of the eastern coast of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cancer borealis."
- Understanding "cancer borealis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carded (verb)

Ask someone for identification to determine whether he or she is old enough to consume liquor.

- I was carded when I tried to buy a beer!
- He did not know how to use "carded" until he saw an example.

---

cardiac plexus (noun)

A plexus of nerves supplying the heart and nearby structures.

- In class, the teacher used "cardiac plexus" to mean a plexus of nerves supplying the heart and nearby....
- The article explained what "cardiac plexus" means with a simple example.

---

cartagena bark (noun)

Colombian tree; source of Cartagena bark (a cinchona bark).

- Understanding "cartagena bark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cartagena bark" during the group presentation.

---

carte du jour (noun)

A list of dishes available at a restaurant.

- Understanding "carte du jour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carte du jour."

---

cashew (noun)

Kidney-shaped nut edible only when roasted.

- They discussed "cashew" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cashew" means with a simple example.

---

cashew tree (noun)

Tropical American evergreen tree bearing kidney-shaped nuts that are edible only when roasted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cashew tree."
- They discussed "cashew tree" during the group presentation.

---

cashiers (noun)

An employee of a bank who receives and pays out money.

- He looked up "cashiers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cashiers."

---

cave dweller (noun)

Someone who lives in a cave.

- He looked up "cave dweller" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cave dweller."

---

cavernous (adjective)

Filled with vascular sinuses and capable of becoming distended and rigid as the result of being filled with blood.

- Vast cavernous chambers hollowed out of limestone.

- Students compared "cavernous" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

certificate of indebtedness (noun)

A written promise to repay a debt.

- He looked up "certificate of indebtedness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "certificate of indebtedness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ch'in shih huang ti (noun)

The first Qin emperor who unified China, built much of the Great Wall, standardized weights and measures, and created a common currency and legal system (died 210 BC).

- They discussed "ch'in shih huang ti" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ch'in shih huang ti" to mean the first qin emperor who unified china, built much....

---

chaff (verb)

Be silly or tease one another.

- Learners should practice how to use "chaff" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "chaff" when talking about this idea.

---

changeable (adjective)

Capable of or tending to change in form or quality or nature.

- Changeable behavior.
- Changeable moods.

---

chaperone (noun)

One who accompanies and supervises a young woman or gatherings of young people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chaperone."
- They discussed "chaperone" during the group presentation.

---

cheese rind (noun)

The rind of a cheese.

- Understanding "cheese rind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cheese rind" during the group presentation.

---

chlorophyll (noun)

Any of a group of green pigments found in photosynthetic organisms; there are four naturally occurring forms.

- In class, the teacher used "chlorophyll" to mean any of a group of green pigments found in....
- Understanding "chlorophyll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chlorophyll a (noun)

A blue-black plant pigment having a blue-green alcohol solution; found in all higher plants.

- The article explained what "chlorophyll a" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chlorophyll a" to mean a blue-black plant pigment having a blue-green....

---

chlorophyll b (noun)

A dark-green plant pigment having a brilliant green alcohol solution; generally characteristic of higher plants.

- He looked up "chlorophyll b" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chlorophyll b."

---

chlorophyll c (noun)

The chlorophyll present in brown algae, diatoms, and flagellates.

- They discussed "chlorophyll c" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chlorophyll c" because he had never seen it before.

---

chlorophyll d (noun)

The chlorophyll found (together with chlorophyll a) in red algae.

- In class, the teacher used "chlorophyll d" to mean the chlorophyll found (together with chlorophyll a)....
- He looked up "chlorophyll d" because he had never seen it before.

---

chroma (noun)

Chromatic purity: freedom from dilution with white and hence vivid in hue.

- He looked up "chroma" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "chroma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ciudad de mexico (noun)

The capital and largest city of Mexico is a political and cultural and commercial and industrial center; one of the world's largest cities.

- He looked up "ciudad de mexico" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ciudad de mexico."

---

ciudad victoria (noun)

A city in east central Mexico.

- The article explained what "ciudad victoria" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ciudad victoria" during the group presentation.

---

claret (noun)

A dark purplish-red color.

- They discussed "claret" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "claret" means with a simple example.

---

claret cup (noun)

A punch made of claret and brandy with lemon juice and sugar and sometimes sherry or curacao and fresh fruit.

- They discussed "claret cup" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "claret cup" means with a simple example.

---

cliff dweller (noun)

A member of the Anasazi people living in the southwestern United States who built rock or adobe dwellings on ledges in the sides of caves.

- The article explained what "cliff dweller" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cliff dweller" to mean a member of the anasazi people living in the....

---

cloister (verb)

Seclude from the world in or as if in a cloister.

- She cloistered herself in the office.
- Cloister the garden.

---

closet auger (noun)

A snake used to unblock toilets.

- Understanding "closet auger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "closet auger" because he had never seen it before.

---

clothe (verb)

Cover as if with clothing.

- The mountain was clothed in tropical trees.
- In everyday English, people use "clothe" when talking about this idea.

---

clutched (verb)

Hold firmly, usually with one's hands.

- She clutched my arm when she got scared.
- She clutched her purse.

---

cochlear (adjective)

Of or relating to the cochlea of the ear.

- Cochlear implant.
- A "cochlear" approach may work better in this case.

---

common marigold (noun)

The common European annual marigold.

- He looked up "common marigold" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common marigold."

---

common shrew (noun)

Common American shrew.

- He looked up "common shrew" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "common shrew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

complainants (noun)

A person who brings an action in a court of law.

- They discussed "complainants" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "complainants."

---

comps (noun)

An intensive examination testing a student's proficiency in some special field of knowledge.

- She took her comps in English literature.
- In class, the teacher used "comps" to mean an intensive examination testing a student's....

---

concomitant (noun)

An event or situation that happens at the same time as or in connection with another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concomitant."
- He looked up "concomitant" because he had never seen it before.

---

conical buoy (noun)

A buoy resembling a cone.

- Understanding "conical buoy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "conical buoy" means with a simple example.

---

constipated (adjective)

Have difficult or incomplete or infrequent evacuation of the bowels.

- It is useful to describe something as "constipated" when it is have difficult or incomplete or infrequent....
- Students compared "constipated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

consults (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- The professor consults for industry.
- In everyday English, people use "consults" when talking about this idea.

---

consummated (adjective)

Brought to completion.

- A consummated transaction.
- Would you call this situation "consummated"? Explain why.

---

contemplates (verb)

Look at thoughtfully; observe deep in thought.

- He did not know how to use "contemplates" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "contemplates" when talking about this idea.

---

coppola (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1939).

- In class, the teacher used "coppola" to mean united states filmmaker (born in 1939).
- Understanding "coppola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cornish pasty (noun)

Meat pie with filling of meat and vegetables.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cornish pasty."
- Understanding "cornish pasty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

coronary thrombosis (noun)

Obstruction of blood flow in a coronary artery by a blood clot (thrombus).

- The article explained what "coronary thrombosis" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coronary thrombosis."

cottage dweller (noun)

Someone who lives in a cottage.

- Understanding "cottage dweller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cottage dweller."

creationism (noun)

The literal belief in the account of Creation given in the Book of Genesis.

- Creationism denies the theory of evolution of species.
- In class, the teacher used "creationism" to mean the literal belief in the account of creation given....

credential (noun)

A document attesting to the truth of certain stated facts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "credential."
- Understanding "credential" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

creeping st john's wort (noun)

Creeping evergreen shrub with bright yellow star-shaped summer flowers; useful as ground cover.

- The article explained what "creeping st john's wort" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creeping st john's wort."

crump (verb)

Explode heavily or with a loud dull noise.

- He did not know how to use "crump" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "crump" and when to wait.

crunches (noun)

A critical situation that arises because of a shortage (as a shortage of time or money or resources).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crunches."
- They discussed "crunches" during the group presentation.

curiosities (noun)

A state in which you want to learn more about something.

- The article explained what "curiosities" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "curiosities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cymbals (noun)

A percussion instrument consisting of a concave brass disk; makes a loud crashing sound when hit with a drumstick or when two are struck together.

- The article explained what "cymbals" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cymbals."

dame myra hess (noun)

English pianist (1890-1965).

- The article explained what "dame myra hess" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dame myra hess."

darkening (adjective)

Becoming dark or darker as from waning light or clouding over.

- The darkening sky.
- A "darkening" approach may work better in this case.

darrow (noun)

United States lawyer famous for his defense of lost causes (1857-1938).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "darrow."
- He looked up "darrow" because he had never seen it before.

---

death's-head moth (noun)

European hawkmoth with markings on the back resembling a human skull.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death's-head moth."
- Understanding "death's-head moth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

debs (noun)

United States labor organizer who ran for President as a socialist (1855-1926).

- In class, the teacher used "debs" to mean united states labor organizer who ran for president....
- The article explained what "debs" means with a simple example.

---

debunking (noun)

The exposure of falseness or pretensions.

- The debunking of religion has been too successful.
- The article explained what "debunking" means with a simple example.

---

decompose (verb)

Lose a stored charge, magnetic flux, or current.

- The bodies decomposed in the heat.
- He did not know how to use "decompose" until he saw an example.

---

ded (noun)

A doctor's degree in education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ded."
- Understanding "ded" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deed of conveyance (noun)

A legal document signed and sealed and delivered to effect a transfer of property and to show the legal right to possess it.

- He signed the deed.
- In class, the teacher used "deed of conveyance" to mean a legal document signed and sealed and delivered to....

---

deepens (verb)

Make more intense, stronger, or more marked; ,.

- She tried to use "deepens" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "deepens" in real sentences.

---

deformities (noun)

An appearance that has been spoiled or is misshapen.

- The article explained what "deformities" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "deformities" to mean an appearance that has been spoiled or is misshapen.

---

denier (noun)

A unit of measurement for the fineness of silk or nylon or rayon.

- With an evening dress one wears 10 denier stockings.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "denier."

---

denounces (verb)

To accuse or condemn or openly or formally or brand as disgraceful.

- The coach explained when to use "denounces" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "denounces" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

destabilizing (verb)

Make unstable.

- He did not know how to use "destabilizing" until he saw an example.

- In everyday English, people use "destabilizing" when talking about this idea.

---

detaining (verb)

Cause to be slowed down or delayed.

- He did not know how to use "detaining" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "detaining" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

determinism (noun)

(philosophy) a philosophical theory holding that all events are inevitable consequences of antecedent sufficient causes; often understood as denying the possibility of free will.

- The article explained what "determinism" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "determinism" during the group presentation.

---

digesting (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- The coach explained when to use "digesting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "digesting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dimmed (adjective)

Made dim or less bright.

- The dimmed houselights brought a hush of anticipation.
- Dimmed headlights.

---

dingo (noun)

Wolflike yellowish-brown wild dog of Australia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dingo."
- They discussed "dingo" during the group presentation.

---

dipole molecule (noun)

A molecule that is a permanent dipole.

- They discussed "dipole molecule" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dipole molecule" to mean a molecule that is a permanent dipole.

---

disaffected (adjective)

Discontented as toward authority.

- Students compared "disaffected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disaffected."

---

disheartened (adjective)

Made less hopeful or enthusiastic.

- The disheartened instructor tried vainly to arouse their interest.
- Students compared "disheartened" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

dispossessed (adjective)

Physically or spiritually homeless or deprived of security; - James Stern.

- The speaker chose "dispossessed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "dispossessed" approach may work better in this case.

---

dissecting (verb)

Make a mathematical, chemical, or grammatical analysis of; break down into components or essential features.

- Can you use "dissecting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "dissecting" until he saw an example.

---

domicile (verb)

Make one's home in a particular place or community.

- The coach explained when to use "domicile" and when to wait.
- Can you use "domicile" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dominions (noun)

Dominance or power through legal authority.

- He looked up "dominions" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dominions" during the group presentation.

---

donne (noun)

English clergyman and metaphysical poet celebrated as a preacher (1572-1631).

- He looked up "donne" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "donne" to mean english clergyman and metaphysical poet celebrated....

---

dreamland (noun)

A pleasing country existing only in dreams or imagination.

- In class, the teacher used "dreamland" to mean a pleasing country existing only in dreams or....
- The article explained what "dreamland" means with a simple example.

---

dumbfounded (adjective)

As if struck dumb with astonishment and surprise.

- A circle of policement stood dumbfounded by her denial of having seen the accident.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dumbfounded."

---

ecc (noun)

(telecommunication) a coding system that incorporates extra parity bits in order to detect errors.

- They discussed "ecc" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ecc."

---

edward henry harriman (noun)

United States railway tycoon (1848-1909).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edward henry harriman."
- He looked up "edward henry harriman" because he had never seen it before.

---

effing (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- He did not know how to use "effing" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "effing" in real sentences.

---

egotistical (adjective)

Characteristic of false pride; having an exaggerated sense of self-importance.

- An egotistical disregard of others.
- It is useful to describe something as "egotistical" when it is characteristic of false pride; having an....

---

elgar (noun)

British composer of choral and orchestral works including two symphonies as well as songs and chamber music and music for brass band (1857-1934).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elgar."
- He looked up "elgar" because he had never seen it before.

---

emile herzog (noun)

French writer best known for his biographies (1885-1967).

- They discussed "emile herzog" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "emile herzog" because he had never seen it before.

---

emirate (noun)

The domain controlled by an emir.

- They discussed "emirate" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "emirate" to mean the domain controlled by an emir.

---

encrusted (adjective)

Having a hardened crust as a covering.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “encrusted.”
- Students compared “encrusted” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

english springer spaniel (noun)

A breed having typically a black-and-white coat.

- Understanding “english springer spaniel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “english springer spaniel” during the group presentation.

---

enticed (verb)

Provoke someone to do something through (often false or exaggerated) promises or persuasion.

- Learners should practice how to use “enticed” in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use “enticed” and when to wait.

---

erecting prism (noun)

A right-angled optical prism used to turn an inverted image upright.

- Understanding “erecting prism” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “erecting prism.”

---

erudite (adjective)

Having or showing profound knowledge.

- An erudite professor.
- Students compared “erudite” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

estuaries (noun)

The wide part of a river where it nears the sea; fresh and salt water mix.

- The article explained what “estuaries” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “estuaries” to mean the wide part of a river where it nears the sea;....

---

european water shrew (noun)

Widely distributed Old World water shrew.

- They discussed “european water shrew” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “european water shrew” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

faintest (adjective)

Lacking conviction or boldness or courage.

- Haven’t the faintest idea.
- Students compared “faintest” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fasteners (noun)

A person who fastens or makes fast.

- They discussed “fasteners” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “fasteners” because he had never seen it before.

---

fervour (noun)

The state of being emotionally aroused and worked up.

- The article explained what “fervour” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fervour.”

---

field marigold (noun)

European herb with bright yellow flowers; a common weed in grain fields.

- The article explained what “field marigold” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “field marigold” during the group presentation.

---

fiends (noun)

A person motivated by irrational enthusiasm (as for a cause); –Winston Churchill.

- The article explained what “fiends” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “fiends” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finders (noun)

Someone who is the first to observe something.

- The article explained what "finders" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "finders."

first battle of ypres (noun)

Battle in World War I (1914); heavy but indecisive fighting as the Allies and the Germans both tried to break through the lines of the others.

- Understanding "first battle of ypres" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "first battle of ypres" to mean battle in world war i (1914); heavy but indecisive....

flattening (verb)

Make flat or flatter.

- Learners should practice how to use "flattening" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "flattening" until he saw an example.

flirts (verb)

Talk or behave amorously, without serious intentions.

- My husband never flirts with other women.
- Learners should practice how to use "flirts" in real sentences.

fluid flywheel (noun)

A kind of fluid coupling in which the flywheel is the driving rotor.

- In class, the teacher used "fluid flywheel" to mean a kind of fluid coupling in which the flywheel is....
- They discussed "fluid flywheel" during the group presentation.

foregone conclusion (noun)

Something that is certain.

- Understanding "foregone conclusion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "foregone conclusion" to mean something that is certain.

foursome (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

- The foursome teed off before 9 a.m.
- He looked up "foursome" because he had never seen it before.

franchising (verb)

Grant a franchise to.

- Learners should practice how to use "franchising" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "franchising" when talking about this idea.

french marigold (noun)

Strong-scented bushy annual with orange or yellow flower heads marked with red; Mexico and Guatemala.

- The article explained what "french marigold" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "french marigold" to mean strong-scented bushy annual with orange or yellow....

friedrich engels (noun)

Socialist who wrote the Communist Manifesto with Karl Marx in 1848 (1820-1895).

- In class, the teacher used "friedrich engels" to mean socialist who wrote the communist manifesto with....
- The article explained what "friedrich engels" means with a simple example.

fringed pink (noun)

Low wiry-stemmed branching herb or southern California having fringed pink flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fringed pink."
- Understanding "fringed pink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

froth (noun)

A mass of small bubbles formed in or on a liquid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "froth."
- The article explained what "froth" means with a simple example.

---

froth at the mouth (verb)

Be in a state of uncontrolled anger.

- Learners should practice how to use "froth at the mouth" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "froth at the mouth" when talking about this idea.

---

furlough (noun)

A temporary leave of absence from military duty.

- In class, the teacher used "furlough" to mean a temporary leave of absence from military duty.
- The article explained what "furlough" means with a simple example.

---

galatians (noun)

A New Testament book containing the epistle from Saint Paul to the Galatians.

- In class, the teacher used "galatians" to mean a new testament book containing the epistle from....
- They discussed "galatians" during the group presentation.

---

galicia (noun)

A region (and former kingdom) in northwestern Spain on the Atlantic and the Bay of Biscay.

- In class, the teacher used "galicia" to mean a region (and former kingdom) in northwestern spain....
- The article explained what "galicia" means with a simple example.

---

galleria (noun)

A genus of Pyralidae.

- They discussed "galleria" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "galleria" to mean a genus of pyralidae.

---

gallic acid (noun)

A colorless crystalline acid obtained from tannin.

- The article explained what "gallic acid" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gallic acid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gambled (verb)

Take a risk in the hope of a favorable outcome.

- She tried to use "gambled" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "gambled" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

garnering (verb)

Acquire or deserve by one's efforts or actions.

- In everyday English, people use "garnering" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "garnering" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

gaseous nebula (noun)

A cluster of stars within an intricate cloud of gas and dust.

- In class, the teacher used "gaseous nebula" to mean a cluster of stars within an intricate cloud of gas....
- He looked up "gaseous nebula" because he had never seen it before.

---

generative grammar (noun)

(linguistics) a type of grammar that describes syntax in terms of a set of logical rules that can generate all and only the infinite number of grammatical sentences in a language and assigns them all the correct structural description.

- They discussed "generative grammar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "generative grammar" because he had never seen it before.

---

gentlemen's agreement (noun)

A personal agreement based on honor and not legally binding.

- The article explained what "gentlemen's agreement" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentlemen's agreement."

---

george orson welles (noun)

United States actor and filmmaker (1915-1985).

- Understanding "george orson welles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "george orson welles" to mean united states actor and filmmaker (1915-1985).

---

ghettos (noun)

Any segregated mode of living or working that results from bias or stereotyping.

- He looked up "ghettos" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ghettos" during the group presentation.

---

giant salamander (noun)

Large (up to more than three feet) edible salamander of Asia.

- The article explained what "giant salamander" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "giant salamander" to mean large (up to more than three feet) edible....

---

gnawing (verb)

Bite or chew on with the teeth.

- In everyday English, people use "gnawing" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "gnawing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

greater antilles (noun)

A group of islands in the western West Indies.

- In class, the teacher used "greater antilles" to mean a group of islands in the western west indies.
- They discussed "greater antilles" during the group presentation.

---

growths (noun)

A progression from simpler to more complex forms.

- Understanding "growths" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "growths" during the group presentation.

---

guadalupe cypress (noun)

Relatively low wide-spreading endemic on Guadalupe Island; cultivated for its bluish foliage.

- The article explained what "guadalupe cypress" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "guadalupe cypress" to mean relatively low wide-spreading endemic on guadalupe....

---

guile (noun)

The use of tricks to deceive someone (usually to extract money from them).

- In class, the teacher used "guile" to mean the use of tricks to deceive someone (usually to....
- The article explained what "guile" means with a simple example.

---

gung ho (adjective)

Very enthusiastic and dedicated.

- Would you call this situation "gung ho"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "gung ho" when it is very enthusiastic and dedicated.

---

gunter grass (noun)

German writer of novels and poetry and plays (born 1927).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gunter grass."
- The article explained what "gunter grass" means with a simple example.

---

half-heartedly (adverb)

Without enthusiasm; in a half-hearted manner.

- She tried half-heartedly.
- She spoke "half-heartedly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

hallows (verb)

Render holy by means of religious rites.

- Learners should practice how to use "hallows" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "hallows" and when to wait.

---

hangovers (noun)

Something that has survived from the past.

- Hangovers from the 19th century.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hangovers."

---

heft (noun)

The property of being large in mass.

- The article explained what "heft" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "heft" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heft up (verb)

Lift or elevate.

- Learners should practice how to use "heft up" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "heft up" when talking about this idea.

---

hideaway (noun)

A hiding place; usually a remote place used by outlaws.

- He looked up "hideaway" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hideaway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hilarity (noun)

Great merriment.

- In class, the teacher used "hilarity" to mean great merriment.
- Understanding "hilarity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hillsides (noun)

The side or slope of a hill.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hillsides."
- Understanding "hillsides" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

himalayan rhubarb (noun)

Asian herb (Himalayas).

- In class, the teacher used "himalayan rhubarb" to mean asian herb (himalayas).
- He looked up "himalayan rhubarb" because he had never seen it before.

---

hindu numeral (noun)

One of the symbols 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,0.

- He looked up "hindu numeral" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hindu numeral" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hog-nosed skunk (noun)

Large naked-muzzled skunk with white back and tail; of southwestern North America and Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "hog-nosed skunk" to mean large naked-muzzled skunk with white back and tail;....
- They discussed "hog-nosed skunk" during the group presentation.

---

homey (adjective)

Having a feeling of home; cozy and comfortable.

- A homey little inn.
- It is useful to describe something as "homey" when it is having a feeling of home; cozy and comfortable.

---

horace greeley (noun)

United States journalist with political ambitions (1811-1872).

- The article explained what "horace greeley" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horace greeley."

---

ice-cream sundae (noun)

Ice cream served with a topping.

- In class, the teacher used "ice-cream sundae" to mean ice cream served with a topping.
- He looked up "ice-cream sundae" because he had never seen it before.

---

ils (noun)

A midwestern state in north-central United States.

- He looked up "ils" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ils."

---

imparted (verb)

Transmit or serve as the medium for transmission.

- She tried to use "imparted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "imparted" and when to wait.

---

impersonate (verb)

Pretend to be someone you are not; sometimes with fraudulent intentions.

- She impersonates Madonna.
- In everyday English, people use "impersonate" when talking about this idea.

---

impropriety (noun)

An indecent or improper act.

- Understanding "impropriety" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "impropriety" to mean an indecent or improper act.

---

in a beastly manner (adverb)

In an inhumane manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "in a beastly manner" in the final chapter.
- Using "in a beastly manner" can make your explanation more exact.

---

inactivation (noun)

The process of rendering inactive.

- The gene inactivation system.
- Thermal inactivation of serum samples.

---

inclusion body encephalitis (noun)

A rare chronic progressive encephalitis caused by the measles virus and occurring primarily in children and young adults; death usually occurs within three years; characterized by primary measles infection before the age of two years.

- They discussed "inclusion body encephalitis" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "inclusion body encephalitis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

incompatibility (noun)

The quality of being unable to exist or work in congenial combination.

- The article explained what "incompatibility" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "incompatibility."

---

instalments (noun)

The act of installing something (as equipment).

- Understanding "instalments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "instalments" during the group presentation.

---

intermediates (verb)

Act between parties with a view to reconciling differences.

- The coach explained when to use "intermediates" and when to wait.
- Can you use "intermediates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

interment (noun)

The ritual placing of a corpse in a grave.

- He looked up "interment" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "interment" to mean the ritual placing of a corpse in a grave.

intermittent tetanus (noun)

Clinical neurological syndrome characterized by muscular twitching and cramps and (when severe) seizures; associated with calcium deficiency (hypoparathyroidism) or vitamin D deficiency or alkalosis.

- They discussed "intermittent tetanus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "intermittent tetanus" to mean clinical neurological syndrome characterized by....

introverts (noun)

(psychology) a person who tends to shrink from social contacts and to become preoccupied with their own thoughts.

- He looked up "introverts" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "introverts."

irked (verb)

Irritate or vex.

- He did not know how to use "irked" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "irked" carefully so everyone would understand.

john donne (noun)

English clergyman and metaphysical poet celebrated as a preacher (1572-1631).

- They discussed "john donne" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "john donne" means with a simple example.

john venn (noun)

English logician who introduced Venn diagrams (1834-1923).

- Understanding "john venn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "john venn" during the group presentation.

junkyard (noun)

A field where junk is collected and stored for resale.

- Understanding "junkyard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "junkyard" during the group presentation.

jurists (noun)

A legal scholar versed in civil law or the law of nations.

- Understanding "jurists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jurists" means with a simple example.

juxtaposed (adjective)

Placed side by side often for comparison.

- Juxtaposed pictures.
- The speaker chose "juxtaposed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

kennels (noun)

Outbuilding that serves as a shelter for a dog.

- Understanding "kennels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "kennels" during the group presentation.

kingship (noun)

The dignity or rank or position of a king.

- The article explained what "kingship" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kingship" to mean the dignity or rank or position of a king.

kinshasa (noun)

The capital of the Democratic Republic of the Congo on the Congo river opposite Brazzaville.

- He looked up "kinshasa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kinshasa."

---

lakeland terrier (noun)

Breed of wire-haired terrier originally from the Lake District of England and used for hunting.

- They discussed "lakeland terrier" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lakeland terrier" means with a simple example.

---

least shrew (noun)

Small brown shrew of grassy regions of eastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "least shrew" to mean small brown shrew of grassy regions of eastern....
- He looked up "least shrew" because he had never seen it before.

---

lemon meringue pie (noun)

Pie containing lemon custard and topped with meringue.

- They discussed "lemon meringue pie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lemon meringue pie" because he had never seen it before.

---

leyte invasion (noun)

A battle in World War II; the return of United States troops to the Philippines began with landings on Leyte Island in October 1944; the battle marked first use of kamikaze aircraft by the Japanese.

- He looked up "leyte invasion" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leyte invasion."

---

lifelike (adjective)

Evoking lifelike images within the mind.

- A lifelike portrait.
- A lifelike pose.

---

light-heartedly (adverb)

In a light-hearted manner.

- He light-heartedly overlooks some of the basic facts of life.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "light-heartedly" naturally.

---

lioness (noun)

A female lion.

- The article explained what "lioness" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lioness" during the group presentation.

---

locates (verb)

Take up residence and become established.

- In everyday English, people use "locates" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "locates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

loin (noun)

A cut of meat taken from the side and back of an animal between the ribs and the rump.

- Understanding "loin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "loin" because he had never seen it before.

---

loire (noun)

The longest French river; rises in the Massif Central and flows north and west to the Atlantic Ocean.

- They discussed "loire" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loire."

---

loire river (noun)

The longest French river; rises in the Massif Central and flows north and west to the Atlantic Ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loire river."
- He looked up "loire river" because he had never seen it before.

---

loire valley (noun)

The valley of the Loire River where many French wines originated.

- In class, the teacher used "loire valley" to mean the valley of the loire river where many french....
- The article explained what "loire valley" means with a simple example.

---

loveable (adjective)

Having characteristics that attract love or affection.

- Would you call this situation "loveable"? Explain why.
- A "loveable" approach may work better in this case.

---

machinist (noun)

A craftsman skilled in operating machine tools.

- In class, the teacher used "machinist" to mean a craftsman skilled in operating machine tools.
- Understanding "machinist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

magna carta (noun)

The royal charter of political rights given to rebellious English barons by King John in 1215.

- The article explained what "magna carta" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "magna carta" to mean the royal charter of political rights given to....

---

mandible (noun)

The jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.

- In class, the teacher used "mandible" to mean the jaw in vertebrates that is hinged to open the mouth.
- They discussed "mandible" during the group presentation.

---

manhole (noun)

A hole (usually with a flush cover) through which a person can gain access to an underground structure.

- Understanding "manhole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "manhole" to mean a hole (usually with a flush cover) through which a....

---

manhole cover (noun)

A flush iron cover for a manhole (as in a street).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manhole cover."
- He looked up "manhole cover" because he had never seen it before.

---

margate (noun)

A grunt with a red mouth that is found from Florida to Brazil.

- They discussed "margate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "margate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marginalised (verb)

Relegate to a lower or outer edge, as of specific groups of people.

- The coach explained when to use "marginalised" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "marginalised" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

marigold (noun)

Any of various tropical American plants of the genus Tagetes widely cultivated for their showy yellow or orange flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marigold."
- The article explained what "marigold" means with a simple example.

---

marinade (noun)

Mixtures of vinegar or wine and oil with various spices and seasonings; used for soaking foods before cooking.

- They discussed "marinade" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "marinade" to mean mixtures of vinegar or wine and oil with various....

mass spectroscopic (adjective)

Relating to or involving mass spectroscopy.

- A "mass spectroscopic" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "mass spectroscopic"? Explain why.

matted (adjective)

Not reflecting light; not glossy.

- Tried to push through the matted undergrowth.
- The speaker chose "matted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

melancholic (adjective)

Characterized by or causing or expressing sadness.

- Her melancholic smile.
- A "melancholic" approach may work better in this case.

merlot (noun)

Black wine grape originally from the region of Bordeaux.

- They discussed "merlot" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "merlot."

methodists (noun)

A Protestant denomination founded on the principles of John Wesley and Charles Wesley.

- In class, the teacher used "methodists" to mean a protestant denomination founded on the principles....
- He looked up "methodists" because he had never seen it before.

middlemen (noun)

A person who is in a position to give you special assistance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "middlemen."
- He looked up "middlemen" because he had never seen it before.

midi-pyrenees (noun)

A region in southwestern France.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "midi-pyrenees."
- They discussed "midi-pyrenees" during the group presentation.

miguel de cervantes (noun)

Spanish writer best remembered for 'Don Quixote' which satirizes chivalry and influenced the development of the novel form (1547-1616).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miguel de cervantes."
- They discussed "miguel de cervantes" during the group presentation.

mineralogy (noun)

The branch of geology that studies minerals: their structure and properties and the ways of distinguishing them.

- They discussed "mineralogy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mineralogy."

minibus (noun)

A light bus (4 to 10 passengers).

- The article explained what "minibus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minibus" to mean a light bus (4 to 10 passengers).

misdemeanors (noun)

A crime less serious than a felony.

- The article explained what "misdemeanors" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "misdemeanors."

mocking thrush (noun)

Thrush-like American songbird able to mimic other birdsongs.

- In class, the teacher used "mocking thrush" to mean thrush-like american songbird able to mimic other....
- The article explained what "mocking thrush" means with a simple example.

---

modifies (verb)

Cause to change; make different; cause a transformation.

- She tried to use "modifies" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "modifies" when talking about this idea.

---

modulus (noun)

An integer that can be divided without remainder into the difference between two other integers.

- 2 is a modulus of 5 and 9.
- The article explained what "modulus" means with a simple example.

---

monarchies (noun)

An autocracy governed by a monarch who usually inherits the authority.

- The article explained what "monarchies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "monarchies" during the group presentation.

---

monoclonal antibody (noun)

Any of a class of antibodies produced in the laboratory by a single clone of cells or a cell line and consisting of identical antibody molecules.

- Understanding "monoclonal antibody" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "monoclonal antibody" because he had never seen it before.

---

monogamy (noun)

Having only one spouse at a time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monogamy."
- Understanding "monogamy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

monotony (noun)

The quality of wearisome constancy, routine, and lack of variety.

- He had never grown accustomed to the monotony of his work.
- They discussed "monotony" during the group presentation.

---

moorish architecture (noun)

A style of architecture common in Spain from the 13th to 16th centuries; characterized by horseshoe-shaped arches.

- Understanding "moorish architecture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "moorish architecture" because he had never seen it before.

---

mopping (noun)

Cleaning with a mop.

- He gave it a good mopping.
- In class, the teacher used "mopping" to mean cleaning with a mop.

---

mormonism (noun)

The doctrines and practices of the Mormon Church based on the Book of Mormon.

- The article explained what "mormonism" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mormonism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mortally (adverb)

In such a manner that death ensues (also in reference to hatred, jealousy, fear, etc.).

- A being of whom the forest Indians are said to be mortally afraid, with a hoof shaped like the heel of a bottle.
- She spoke "mortally," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

moveable (adjective)

Capable of being moved or conveyed from one place to another.

- The speaker chose "moveable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- Would you call this situation "moveable"? Explain why.

---

multiple myeloma (noun)

Myeloma that develops in several places at the same time.

- Understanding "multiple myeloma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "multiple myeloma" because he had never seen it before.

---

musculoskeletal (adjective)

Relating to muscles and skeleton.

- The speaker chose "musculoskeletal" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "musculoskeletal" when it is relating to muscles and skeleton.

---

musculoskeletal system (noun)

The system of muscles and tendons and ligaments and bones and joints and associated tissues that move the body and maintain its form.

- He looked up "musculoskeletal system" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "musculoskeletal system."

---

myeloma (noun)

A tumor of the bone marrow (usually malignant) composed of cells normally found in bone marrow.

- In class, the teacher used "myeloma" to mean a tumor of the bone marrow (usually malignant)....
- The article explained what "myeloma" means with a simple example.

---

nast (noun)

United States political cartoonist (1840-1902).

- In class, the teacher used "nast" to mean united states political cartoonist (1840-1902).
- They discussed "nast" during the group presentation.

---

natty (adjective)

Marked by up-to-dateness in dress and manners.

- Would you call this situation "natty"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "natty" when it is marked by up-to-dateness in dress and manners.

---

navies (noun)

An organization of military vessels belonging to a country and available for sea warfare.

- He looked up "navies" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "navies" during the group presentation.

---

neapolitan (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Naples or its people.

- A "neapolitan" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "neapolitan"? Explain why.

---

nebulous (adjective)

Of or relating to or resembling a nebula.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nebulous."
- The speaker chose "nebulous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

negated (verb)

Make ineffective by counterbalancing the effect of.

- She tried to use "negated" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "negated" when talking about this idea.

---

neurotransmitters (noun)

A neurochemical that transmits nerve impulses across a synapse.

- The article explained what "neurotransmitters" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "neurotransmitters" to mean a neurochemical that transmits nerve impulses....

---

new waver (noun)

A film maker who follows New Wave ideas.

- They discussed "new waver" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "new waver" because he had never seen it before.

---

nilsson (noun)

Swedish operatic soprano who played Wagnerian roles (born in 1918).

- In class, the teacher used "nilsson" to mean swedish operatic soprano who played wagnerian roles....
- The article explained what "nilsson" means with a simple example.

---

nozzles (noun)

A projecting spout from which a fluid is discharged.

- The article explained what "nozzles" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nozzles" to mean a projecting spout from which a fluid is discharged.

---

nucleotides (noun)

A phosphoric ester of a nucleoside; the basic structural unit of nucleic acids (DNA or RNA).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nucleotides."
- He looked up "nucleotides" because he had never seen it before.

---

obscuring (verb)

Make undecipherable or imperceptible by obscuring or concealing.

- Learners should practice how to use "obscuring" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "obscuring" and when to wait.

---

occlusion (noun)

An obstruction in a pipe or tube.

- The article explained what "occlusion" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "occlusion" during the group presentation.

---

olympic salamander (noun)

Small large-eyed semiaquatic salamander of the United States Northwest.

- The article explained what "olympic salamander" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "olympic salamander" during the group presentation.

---

orange rind (noun)

The rind of an orange.

- They discussed "orange rind" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "orange rind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orson welles (noun)

United States actor and filmmaker (1915-1985).

- The article explained what "orson welles" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "orson welles" during the group presentation.

---

outlived (verb)

Live longer than.

- She outlived her husband by many years.
- Learners should practice how to use "outlived" in real sentences.

---

overdoses (verb)

Dose too heavily.

- She tried to use "overdoses" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "overdoses" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

pacific giant salamander (noun)

Large (to 7 inches) salamander of western North America.

- He looked up "pacific giant salamander" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pacific giant salamander" to mean large (to 7 inches) salamander of western north america.

---

palatine vein (noun)

A vein that drains the region of the palate and empties into the facial vein.

- He looked up "palatine vein" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "palatine vein" to mean a vein that drains the region of the palate and....

---

palma christi (noun)

Large shrub of tropical Africa and Asia having large palmate leaves and spiny capsules containing seeds that are the source of castor oil and ricin; widely naturalized throughout the tropics.

- They discussed "palma christi" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "palma christi" to mean large shrub of tropical africa and asia having....

---

paralegal (noun)

A person with specialized training who assists lawyers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paralegal."
- The article explained what "paralegal" means with a simple example.

---

pared (verb)

Remove the edges from and cut down to the desired size.

- She tried to use "pared" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "pared" and when to wait.

---

payrolls (noun)

A list of employees and their salaries.

- He looked up "payrolls" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "payrolls" during the group presentation.

---

peppered steak (noun)

Steak covered with crushed peppercorns pan-broiled and served with brandy-and-butter sauce.

- They discussed "peppered steak" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "peppered steak" because he had never seen it before.

---

peter tchaikovsky (noun)

Important Russian composer whose works are noted for their expressive melodies (1840-1893).

- In class, the teacher used "peter tchaikovsky" to mean important russian composer whose works are noted....
- The article explained what "peter tchaikovsky" means with a simple example.

---

petit larceny (noun)

Larceny of property having a value less than some amount (the amount varies by locale).

- In class, the teacher used "petit larceny" to mean larceny of property having a value less than some....
- He looked up "petit larceny" because he had never seen it before.

---

photogenic epilepsy (noun)

Reflex epilepsy induced by a flickering light.

- They discussed "photogenic epilepsy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "photogenic epilepsy."

---

pigeon droppings (noun)

Droppings of pigeons.

- In class, the teacher used "pigeon droppings" to mean droppings of pigeons.
- The article explained what "pigeon droppings" means with a simple example.

---

pikes (noun)

A sharp point (as on the end of a spear).

- In class, the teacher used "pikes" to mean a sharp point (as on the end of a spear).
- Understanding "pikes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pining (noun)

A feeling of deep longing.

- The article explained what "pining" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pining" during the group presentation.

piranha (noun)

Small voraciously carnivorous freshwater fishes of South America that attack and destroy living animals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "piranha."
- They discussed "piranha" during the group presentation.

pix (noun)

A chest in which coins from the mint are held to await assay.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pix."
- The article explained what "pix" means with a simple example.

pocketed (verb)

Put in one's pocket.

- He pocketed the change.
- Can you use "pocketed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

poisson distribution (noun)

A theoretical distribution that is a good approximation to the binomial distribution when the probability is small and the number of trials is large.

- They discussed "poisson distribution" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "poisson distribution" to mean a theoretical distribution that is a good....

porter's beer (noun)

A very dark sweet ale brewed from roasted unmalted barley.

- Understanding "porter's beer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "porter's beer" means with a simple example.

posits (verb)

Take as a given; assume as a postulate or axiom.

- She tried to use "posits" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "posits" and when to wait.

postmortem (noun)

An examination and dissection of a dead body to determine cause of death or the changes produced by disease.

- He looked up "postmortem" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "postmortem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

postscript (noun)

A note appended to a letter after the signature.

- They discussed "postscript" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "postscript" means with a simple example.

potato scab bacteria (noun)

Cause of a potato disease characterized by brownish corky tissue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato scab bacteria."
- He looked up "potato scab bacteria" because he had never seen it before.

potato wart (noun)

Fungous disease causing dark warty spongy excrescences in the eyes of potato tubers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potato wart."
- Understanding "potato wart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

prairie golden aster (noun)

Hairy perennial with yellow flower heads in branched clusters; found almost everywhere in dry places from Canada to west central and western United States; sometimes placed in genus Chrysopsis.

- Understanding "prairie golden aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "prairie golden aster" means with a simple example.

---

prefrontal cortex (noun)

The anterior part of the frontal lobe.

- Understanding "prefrontal cortex" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "prefrontal cortex" means with a simple example.

---

prehistory (noun)

The time during the development of human culture before the appearance of the written word.

- The article explained what "prehistory" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "prehistory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prescriptive grammar (noun)

A grammar that is produced by prescriptive linguistics.

- They discussed "prescriptive grammar" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "prescriptive grammar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

preterm baby (noun)

An infant that is born prior to 37 weeks of gestation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preterm baby."
- He looked up "preterm baby" because he had never seen it before.

---

prismatic (adjective)

Of or relating to or resembling or constituting a prism.

- Prismatic form.
- It is useful to describe something as "prismatic" when it is of or relating to or resembling or constituting a prism.

---

prophesied (verb)

Predict or reveal through, or as if through, divine inspiration.

- Can you use "prophesied" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "prophesied" and when to wait.

---

prowl (verb)

Move about in or as if in a predatory manner.

- The suspicious stranger prowls the streets of the town.
- Learners should practice how to use "prowl" in real sentences.

---

prowl car (noun)

A car in which policemen cruise the streets; equipped with radiotelephonic communications to headquarters.

- In class, the teacher used "prowl car" to mean a car in which policemen cruise the streets;....
- The article explained what "prowl car" means with a simple example.

---

pugs (noun)

Small compact smooth-coated breed of Asiatic origin having a tightly curled tail and broad flat wrinkled muzzle.

- The article explained what "pugs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pugs."

---

purr (noun)

A low vibrating sound typical of a contented cat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "purr."
- The article explained what "purr" means with a simple example.

---

pussycat (noun)

A person who is regarded as easygoing and agreeable.

- He looked up "pussycat" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "pussycat" to mean a person who is regarded as easygoing and agreeable.

---

qin shi huang ti (noun)

The first Qin emperor who unified China, built much of the Great Wall, standardized weights and measures, and created a common currency and legal system (died 210 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "qin shi huang ti" to mean the first qin emperor who unified china, built much....
- Understanding "qin shi huang ti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quagmire (noun)

A soft wet area of low-lying land that sinks underfoot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quagmire."
- They discussed "quagmire" during the group presentation.

---

rackets (noun)

The auditory experience of sound that lacks musical quality; sound that is a disagreeable auditory experience.

- They discussed "rackets" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rackets."

---

radiates (verb)

Cause to be seen by emitting light as if in rays.

- The sun radiates heat.
- She radiates happiness.

---

radical hysterectomy (noun)

Surgical removal of the uterus and the ovaries and oviducts and cervix and related lymph nodes.

- He looked up "radical hysterectomy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radical hysterectomy."

---

rag gourd (noun)

Any of several tropical annual climbers having large yellow flowers and edible young fruits; grown commercially for the mature fruit's dried fibrous interior that is used as a sponge.

- The article explained what "rag gourd" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rag gourd" to mean any of several tropical annual climbers having....

---

railed (verb)

Fish with a handline over the rails of a boat.

- The yard was railed.
- Fresh fruit are railed from Italy to Belgium.

---

raindrops (noun)

A drop of rain.

- In class, the teacher used "raindrops" to mean a drop of rain.
- They discussed "raindrops" during the group presentation.

---

ransacked (adjective)

Wrongfully emptied or stripped of anything of value.

- Students compared "ransacked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ransacked."

---

readability (noun)

A quality of writing (print or handwriting) that can be easily read.

- He looked up "readability" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "readability" to mean a quality of writing (print or handwriting) that....

---

reciprocated (verb)

Act, feel, or give mutually or in return.

- In everyday English, people use "reciprocated" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "reciprocated" in real sentences.

---

redox (noun)

A reversible chemical reaction in which one reaction is an oxidation and the reverse is a reduction.

- In class, the teacher used "redox" to mean a reversible chemical reaction in which one....
- The article explained what "redox" means with a simple example.

---

reductive (adjective)

Characterized by or causing diminution or curtailment; - R.H.Rovere.

- Their views of life were reductive and depreciatory.
- A "reductive" approach may work better in this case.

---

renews (verb)

Reestablish on a new, usually improved, basis or make new or like new.

- Learners should practice how to use "renews" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "renews" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

replaying (verb)

Reproduce (a recording) on a recorder.

- He did not know how to use "replaying" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "replaying" and when to wait.

---

repose (verb)

To put something (eg trust) in something.

- The nation reposed its confidence in the King.
- These philosophers reposed the law in the people.

---

repose on (verb)

Be based on; of theories and claims, for example.

- Can you use "repose on" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "repose on" when talking about this idea.

---

reptilian (noun)

Any cold-blooded vertebrate of the class Reptilia including tortoises, turtles, snakes, lizards, alligators, crocodiles, and extinct forms.

- Understanding "reptilian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "reptilian" means with a simple example.

---

restful (adjective)

Affording physical or mental rest.

- She spent a restful night at home.
- A "restful" approach may work better in this case.

---

retraining (noun)

Training for a new occupation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retraining."
- He looked up "retraining" because he had never seen it before.

---

rewrote (verb)

Rewrite so as to make fit to suit a new or different purpose.

- The student rewrote his thesis.
- She tried to use "rewrote" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ricochet (verb)

Spring back; spring away from an impact.

- In everyday English, people use "ricochet" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "ricochet" in real sentences.

---

rifts (noun)

A personal or social separation (as between opposing factions).

- In class, the teacher used "rifts" to mean a personal or social separation (as between....

- He looked up "rifts" because he had never seen it before.

---

river arno (noun)

A river in central Italy rising in the Apennines and flowing through Florence and Pisa to the Ligurian Sea.

- Understanding "river arno" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river arno."

---

robinson crusoe (noun)

The hero of Daniel Defoe's novel about a shipwrecked English sailor who survives on a small tropical island.

- The article explained what "robinson crusoe" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "robinson crusoe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rubric (noun)

A heading that names a statute or legislative bill; may give a brief summary of the matters it deals with.

- It is usually discussed under the rubric of 'functional obesity'.
- They discussed "rubric" during the group presentation.

---

saint teresa of avila (noun)

Spanish mystic and religious reformer; author of religious classics and a Christian saint (1515-1582).

- They discussed "saint teresa of avila" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "saint teresa of avila" because he had never seen it before.

---

saint thomas a becket (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) archbishop of Canterbury from 1162 to 1170; murdered following his opposition to Henry II's attempts to control the clergy (1118-1170).

- In class, the teacher used "saint thomas a becket" to mean (roman catholic church) archbishop of canterbury....
- Understanding "saint thomas a becket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

savagely (adverb)

Wildly; like an animal.

- She cried out savagely.
- She spoke "savagely," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

sawdust saloon (noun)

A saloon whose floor is covered with sawdust.

- They discussed "sawdust saloon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sawdust saloon" to mean a saloon whose floor is covered with sawdust.

---

scallop (verb)

Decorate an edge with scallops.

- The dress had a scalloped skirt.
- Scallop the meat.

---

scavengers (noun)

A chemical agent that is added to a chemical mixture to counteract the effects of impurities.

- They discussed "scavengers" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scavengers" to mean a chemical agent that is added to a chemical....

---

schoolmaster (noun)

Food fish of warm Caribbean and Atlantic waters.

- He looked up "schoolmaster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schoolmaster."

---

schoolwork (noun)

A school task performed by a student to satisfy the teacher.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schoolwork."
- They discussed "schoolwork" during the group presentation.

---

scoffed (verb)

Treat with contemptuous disregard.

- The coach explained when to use "scoffed" and when to wait.
- Can you use "scoffed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sea scallop (noun)

A large scallop inhabiting deep waters of the Atlantic coast of North America.

- The article explained what "sea scallop" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sea scallop" during the group presentation.

---

searchers (noun)

A customs official whose job is to search baggage or goods or vehicles for contraband or dutiable items.

- In class, the teacher used "searchers" to mean a customs official whose job is to search baggage....
- Understanding "searchers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

second battle of ypres (noun)

Battle in World War I (1915); Germans wanted to try chlorine (a toxic yellow gas) as a weapon and succeeded in taking considerable territory from the Allied salient.

- Understanding "second battle of ypres" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "second battle of ypres" because he had never seen it before.

---

sedative-hypnotic (noun)

A sedative that depresses activity of the central nervous system and reduces anxiety and induces sleep.

- In class, the teacher used "sedative-hypnotic" to mean a sedative that depresses activity of the central....
- The article explained what "sedative-hypnotic" means with a simple example.

---

sedative-hypnotic drug (noun)

A sedative that depresses activity of the central nervous system and reduces anxiety and induces sleep.

- He looked up "sedative-hypnotic drug" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sedative-hypnotic drug" to mean a sedative that depresses activity of the central....

---

seedling (noun)

Young plant or tree grown from a seed.

- The article explained what "seedling" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "seedling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

setters (noun)

A long-haired dog formerly trained to crouch on finding game but now to point.

- He looked up "setters" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "setters."

---

shanty (noun)

A rhythmical work song originally sung by sailors.

- The article explained what "shanty" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "shanty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shat (verb)

Give away information about somebody.

- Learners should practice how to use "shat" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "shat" and when to wait.

---

showy daisy (noun)

Plant having branching leafy stems each branch with an especially showy solitary flower head with many narrow pink or lavender or white rays; northwestern United States mountains.

- In class, the teacher used "showy daisy" to mean plant having branching leafy stems each branch with....
- Understanding "showy daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shrew (noun)

A scolding nagging bad-tempered woman.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shrew."
- He looked up "shrew" because he had never seen it before.

---

shrimps (noun)

Any of various edible decapod crustaceans.

- In class, the teacher used "shrimps" to mean any of various edible decapod crustaceans.
- The article explained what "shrimps" means with a simple example.

---

shush (verb)

Silence (someone) by uttering 'shush!'.

- In everyday English, people use "shush" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "shush" until he saw an example.

---

sibley tent (noun)

A light conical canvas tent erected on a tripod with ventilation at the top.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sibley tent."
- He looked up "sibley tent" because he had never seen it before.

---

signor (noun)

Used as an Italian courtesy title; can be prefixed to the name or used separately.

- He looked up "signor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "signor."

---

silencer (noun)

A tubular acoustic device inserted in the exhaust system that is designed to reduce noise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silencer."
- He looked up "silencer" because he had never seen it before.

---

sind (noun)

A region of southeastern Pakistan.

- He looked up "sind" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sind."

---

sited (verb)

Assume a posture as for artistic purposes.

- In everyday English, people use "sited" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "sited" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

slacker (noun)

A person who shirks his work or duty (especially one who tries to evade military service in wartime).

- The article explained what "slacker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slacker" to mean a person who shirks his work or duty (especially....

---

sleeping hibiscus (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Malvaviscus having brilliant bell-shaped drooping flowers like incompletely opened hibiscus flowers.

- They discussed "sleeping hibiscus" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sleeping hibiscus" means with a simple example.

---

sleight (noun)

Adroitness in using the hands.

- Understanding "sleight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sleight" during the group presentation.

---

sleight of hand (noun)

Manual dexterity in the execution of tricks.

- In class, the teacher used "sleight of hand" to mean manual dexterity in the execution of tricks.
- Understanding "sleight of hand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

smoldering (adjective)

Showing scarcely suppressed anger; - James Hensel.

- Her tone was...conversational although...her eyes were smoldering.
- Would you call this situation "smoldering"? Explain why.

snowmobile (noun)

Tracked vehicle for travel on snow having skis in front.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "snowmobile."
- The article explained what "snowmobile" means with a simple example.

soapy (adjective)

Resembling or having the qualities of soap.

- A soapy consistency.
- Students compared "soapy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

soloists (noun)

A musician who performs a solo.

- Understanding "soloists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soloists."

solomon bellow (noun)

United States author (born in Canada) whose novels influenced American literature after World War II (1915-2005).

- In class, the teacher used "solomon bellow" to mean united states author (born in canada) whose novels....
- He looked up "solomon bellow" because he had never seen it before.

somatic cell nuclear transplantation (noun)

Moving a cell nucleus and its genetic material from one cell to another.

- Understanding "somatic cell nuclear transplantation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "somatic cell nuclear transplantation" because he had never seen it before.

sovereigns (noun)

A nation's ruler or head of state usually by hereditary right.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sovereigns."
- He looked up "sovereigns" because he had never seen it before.

spaceships (noun)

A spacecraft designed to carry a crew into interstellar space (especially in science fiction).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spaceships."
- He looked up "spaceships" because he had never seen it before.

spatially (adverb)

With regard to space.

- Spatially limited.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "spatially" naturally.

spectroscopic (adjective)

Of or relating to or involving spectroscopy.

- Spectroscopic analysis.
- A "spectroscopic" approach may work better in this case.

spectroscopic analysis (noun)

The use of spectroscopes to analyze spectra.

- They discussed "spectroscopic analysis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spectroscopic analysis."

speedily (adverb)

With rapid movements.

- The narrator describes the scene "speedily" in the final chapter.
- He answered "speedily," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sphincter muscle (noun)

A ring of muscle that contracts to close an opening.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sphincter muscle."
- The article explained what "sphincter muscle" means with a simple example.

---

spiky (adjective)

Having or as if having especially high-pitched spots.

- Would you call this situation "spiky"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "spiky" when it is having or as if having especially high-pitched spots.

---

sponge gourd (noun)

Any of several tropical annual climbers having large yellow flowers and edible young fruits; grown commercially for the mature fruit's dried fibrous interior that is used as a sponge.

- They discussed "sponge gourd" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sponge gourd."

---

springer spaniel (noun)

A large spaniel with wavy silky coat usually black or liver and white.

- He looked up "springer spaniel" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "springer spaniel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stephen spender (noun)

English poet and critic (1909-1995).

- Understanding "stephen spender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stephen spender" because he had never seen it before.

---

stilts (noun)

One of two stout poles with foot rests in the middle; used for walking high above the ground.

- He was so tall I thought he was on stilts.
- The article explained what "stilts" means with a simple example.

---

stockbroker belt (noun)

A wealthy residential suburb.

- He looked up "stockbroker belt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stockbroker belt."

---

stoning (noun)

The act of pelting with stones; punishment inflicted by throwing stones at the victim (even unto death).

- Understanding "stoning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "stoning" to mean the act of pelting with stones; punishment....

---

stp (noun)

Standard temperature and pressure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stp."
- He looked up "stp" because he had never seen it before.

---

straddling (verb)

Range or extend over; occupy a certain area.

- Learners should practice how to use "straddling" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "straddling" until he saw an example.

---

stratified sample (noun)

The population is divided into strata and a random sample is taken from each stratum.

- They discussed "stratified sample" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "stratified sample" means with a simple example.

---

strikeout (noun)

An out resulting from the batter getting three strikes.

- In class, the teacher used "strikeout" to mean an out resulting from the batter getting three strikes.
- He looked up "strikeout" because he had never seen it before.

---

styrofoam (noun)

A light resilient foam of polystyrene.

- In class, the teacher used "styrofoam" to mean a light resilient foam of polystyrene.
- The article explained what "styrofoam" means with a simple example.

---

subpoenaed (verb)

Serve or summon with a subpoena.

- The witness and her records were subpoenaed.
- Learners should practice how to use "subpoenaed" in real sentences.

---

subtleties (noun)

The quality of being difficult to detect or analyze.

- In class, the teacher used "subtleties" to mean the quality of being difficult to detect or analyze.
- He looked up "subtleties" because he had never seen it before.

---

succumbing (verb)

Be fatally overwhelmed.

- The coach explained when to use "succumbing" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "succumbing" in real sentences.

---

sulfuric (adjective)

Of or relating to or containing sulfur.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sulfuric."
- The speaker chose "sulfuric" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sun marigold (noun)

Any of several South African plants grown for the profusion of usually yellow daisylike flowers and mounds of aromatic foliage.

- The article explained what "sun marigold" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sun marigold" to mean any of several south african plants grown for the....

---

sunroof (noun)

An automobile roof having a sliding or raisable panel.

- 'sunshine-roof' is a British term for 'sunroof'.
- In class, the teacher used "sunroof" to mean an automobile roof having a sliding or raisable panel.

---

suppresses (verb)

To put down by force or authority.

- Can you use "suppresses" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "suppresses" when talking about this idea.

---

surrealist (noun)

An artist who is a member of the movement called surrealism.

- He looked up "surrealist" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "surrealist" to mean an artist who is a member of the movement called....

---

suspenseful (adjective)

(of a situation) characterized by or causing suspense.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "suspenseful."
- Students compared "suspenseful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

swamp cottonwood (noun)

North American poplar with large rounded scalloped leaves and brownish bark and wood.

- Understanding "swamp cottonwood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "swamp cottonwood" means with a simple example.

---

tallinn (noun)

A port city on the Gulf of Finland that is the capital and largest city of Estonia.

- He looked up "tallinn" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tallinn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tanked (verb)

Store in a tank by causing (something) to flow into it.

- Can you use "tanked" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "tanked" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tattooing (verb)

Stain (skin) with indelible color.

- Can you use "tattooing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "tattooing" and when to wait.

---

tawny eagle (noun)

Brownish eagle of Africa and parts of Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tawny eagle."
- He looked up "tawny eagle" because he had never seen it before.

---

tawny-colored (adjective)

Having a tawny color.

- Would you call this situation "tawny-colored"? Explain why.
- A "tawny-colored" approach may work better in this case.

---

tchaikovsky (noun)

Important Russian composer whose works are noted for their expressive melodies (1840-1893).

- In class, the teacher used "tchaikovsky" to mean important russian composer whose works are noted....
- Understanding "tchaikovsky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teleportation (noun)

A hypothetical mode of instantaneous transportation; matter is dematerialized at one place and recreated at another.

- Understanding "teleportation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "teleportation" means with a simple example.

---

temperamental (adjective)

Likely to perform unpredictably; ; ; - Osbert Lancaster.

- A temperamental motor; sometimes it would start and sometimes it wouldn't.
- That beautiful but temperamental instrument the flute.

---

terra cotta (noun)

A hard unglazed brownish-red earthenware.

- The article explained what "terra cotta" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "terra cotta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teutonic (adjective)

Of or pertaining to the ancient Teutons or their languages.

- Teutonic peoples such as Germans and Scandinavians and British.
- A "teutonic" approach may work better in this case.

---

third battle of ypres (noun)

Battle in World War I (1917); an Allied offensive which eventually failed because tanks bogged down in the waterlogged soil of Flanders; Germans introduced mustard gas which interfered with the Allied artillery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "third battle of ypres."
- The article explained what "third battle of ypres" means with a simple example.

---

thomas nast (noun)

United States political cartoonist (1840-1902).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas nast" to mean united states political cartoonist (1840-1902).
- He looked up "thomas nast" because he had never seen it before.

---

tiger salamander (noun)

Widely distributed brown or black North American salamander with vertical yellowish blotches.

- They discussed "tiger salamander" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tiger salamander."

---

togo franc (noun)

The basic unit of money in Togo.

- They discussed "togo franc" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "togo franc" means with a simple example.

---

tolerating (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Can you use "tolerating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "tolerating" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

toning (verb)

Utter monotonously and repetitively and rhythmically.

- Can you use "toning" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "toning" and when to wait.

---

traditionalist (noun)

One who adheres to traditional views.

- The article explained what "traditionalist" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "traditionalist" during the group presentation.

---

transient ischemic attack (noun)

Brief episode in which the brain gets insufficient blood supply; symptoms depend on the site of the blockage.

- The article explained what "transient ischemic attack" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transient ischemic attack."

---

tree shrew (noun)

Insectivorous arboreal mammal of southeast Asia that resembles a squirrel with large eyes and long sharp snout.

- The article explained what "tree shrew" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tree shrew."

---

trickier (adjective)

Having concealed difficulty.

- The speaker chose "trickier" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "trickier" when it is having concealed difficulty.

---

tripartite (adjective)

Involving three parties or elements.

- A tripartite treaty.
- A tripartite division.

---

twirling (verb)

Turn in a twisting or spinning motion.

- The coach explained when to use "twirling" and when to wait.
- Can you use "twirling" in a sentence that fits this situation?

typhus fever (noun)

Rickettsial disease transmitted by body lice and characterized by skin rash and high fever.

- They discussed "typhus fever" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "typhus fever" to mean rickettsial disease transmitted by body lice and....

ultima (noun)

The last syllable in a word.

- He looked up "ultima" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ultima" to mean the last syllable in a word.

understudy (noun)

An actor able to replace a regular performer when required.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "understudy."
- Understanding "understudy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

unguarded (adjective)

Lacking protection or a guard.

- An unguarded gate.
- His unguarded queen was open to attack.

unionized (adjective)

Being a member of or formed into a labor union.

- Unionized workers.
- A unionized shop.

unscientific (adjective)

Not consistent with the methods or principles of science.

- An unscientific lack of objectivity.
- It is useful to describe something as "unscientific" when it is not consistent with the methods or principles of....

untamed (adjective)

In a natural state; not tamed or domesticated or cultivated.

- It is useful to describe something as "untamed" when it is in a natural state; not tamed or domesticated or....
- Would you call this situation "untamed"? Explain why.

urban typhus (noun)

Acute infection caused by rickettsia and transmitted by the bite of an infected flea; characterized by fever and chills and muscle aches and a rash.

- They discussed "urban typhus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "urban typhus" to mean acute infection caused by rickettsia and....

usn (noun)

The navy of the United States of America; the agency that maintains and trains and equips combat-ready naval forces.

- In class, the teacher used "usn" to mean the navy of the united states of america; the....
- He looked up "usn" because he had never seen it before.

utilisation (noun)

The act of using.

- They discussed "utilisation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "utilisation" means with a simple example.

venn (noun)

English logician who introduced Venn diagrams (1834-1923).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "venn."
- They discussed "venn" during the group presentation.

vermilion (noun)

A variable color that is vivid red but sometimes with an orange tinge.

- The article explained what "vermilion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vermilion" to mean a variable color that is vivid red but sometimes....

---

vertebral artery (noun)

The first branch of the subclavian artery; divided into four parts.

- In class, the teacher used "vertebral artery" to mean the first branch of the subclavian artery; divided....
- He looked up "vertebral artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

vesicles (noun)

A small anatomically normal sac or bladderlike structure (especially one containing fluid).

- He looked up "vesicles" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "vesicles" to mean a small anatomically normal sac or bladderlike....

---

victorians (noun)

A person who lived during the reign of Victoria.

- He looked up "victorians" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "victorians."

---

visualizing (verb)

View the outline of by means of an X-ray.

- He did not know how to use "visualizing" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "visualizing" when talking about this idea.

---

wafers (noun)

A small adhesive disk of paste; used to seal letters.

- In class, the teacher used "wafers" to mean a small adhesive disk of paste; used to seal letters.
- They discussed "wafers" during the group presentation.

---

water shrew (noun)

Any of several small semiaquatic shrews usually living near swift-flowing streams.

- He looked up "water shrew" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "water shrew" to mean any of several small semiaquatic shrews usually....

---

waver (noun)

The act of pausing uncertainly.

- The article explained what "waver" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "waver" to mean the act of pausing uncertainly.

---

weaning (noun)

The act of substituting other food for the mother's milk in the diet of a child or young mammal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weaning."
- He looked up "weaning" because he had never seen it before.

---

webbing (noun)

A narrow closely woven tape; used in upholstery or for seat belts.

- Understanding "webbing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "webbing" because he had never seen it before.

---

whoosh (noun)

The noise produced by the sudden rush of a fluid (a gas or liquid).

- He looked up "whoosh" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "whoosh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

willem de sitter (noun)

Dutch astronomer who calculated the size of the universe and suggested that it is expanding (1872-1934).

- He looked up "willem de sitter" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "willem de sitter" to mean dutch astronomer who calculated the size of the....

---

wmd (noun)

A weapon that kills or injures civilian as well as military personnel (nuclear and chemical and biological weapons).

- He looked up "wmd" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wmd."

---

wooing (noun)

A man's courting of a woman; seeking the affections of a woman (usually with the hope of marriage).

- They discussed "wooing" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wooing."

---

workloads (noun)

Work that a person is expected to do in a specified time.

- He looked up "workloads" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "workloads" to mean work that a person is expected to do in a specified....

---

wracking (verb)

Smash or break forcefully.

- She tried to use "wracking" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "wracking" and when to wait.

---

wring (verb)

Twist and compress, as if in pain or anguish.

- Wring one's hand.
- Wring the towels.

---

wring from (verb)

Get or cause to become in a difficult or laborious manner.

- He did not know how to use "wring from" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "wring from" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

wring out (verb)

Extract (liquid) by squeezing or pressing.

- Wring out the washcloth.
- In everyday English, people use "wring out" when talking about this idea.

---

xenophon (noun)

Greek general and historian; student of Socrates (430-355 BC).

- The article explained what "xenophon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "xenophon" to mean greek general and historian; student of socrates....

---

ypres (noun)

Battle in World War I (1914); heavy but indecisive fighting as the Allies and the Germans both tried to break through the lines of the others.

- They discussed "ypres" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ypres" to mean battle in world war i (1914); heavy but indecisive....

---

zipped (verb)

Move very fast.

- The runner zipped past us at breakneck speed.
- The coach explained when to use "zipped" and when to wait.

---

a cappella (adverb)

Without musical accompaniment.

- They performed a cappella.
- Using "a cappella" can make your explanation more exact.

---

abb (noun)

An urban hit squad and guerrilla group of the Communist Party in the Philippines; formed in the 1980s.

- They discussed "abb" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "abb" to mean an urban hit squad and guerrilla group of the....

---

abel tasman (noun)

Dutch navigator who was the first European to discover Tasmania and New Zealand (1603-1659).

- In class, the teacher used "abel tasman" to mean dutch navigator who was the first european to....
- Understanding "abel tasman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

accentuate (verb)

To stress, single out as important.

- In everyday English, people use "accentuate" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "accentuate" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

acetate rayon (noun)

A fabric made from fibers of cellulose acetate.

- He looked up "acetate rayon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "acetate rayon" to mean a fabric made from fibers of cellulose acetate.

---

adipose (adjective)

Composed of animal fat.

- Adipose tissue constitutes the fat of meat.
- The speaker chose "adipose" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

adipose cell (noun)

Cells composed of fat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adipose cell."
- They discussed "adipose cell" during the group presentation.

---

adjudication (noun)

The final judgment in a legal proceeding; the act of pronouncing judgment based on the evidence presented.

- The article explained what "adjudication" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "adjudication" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

advices (noun)

A proposal for an appropriate course of action.

- The article explained what "advices" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "advices" during the group presentation.

---

affording (verb)

Have the financial means to do something or buy something.

- She tried to use "affording" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "affording" and when to wait.

---

aggravation (noun)

Action that makes a problem or a disease (or its symptoms) worse.

- The aggravation of her condition resulted from lack of care.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aggravation."

---

aggregator (noun)

A person who collects things.

- The article explained what "aggregator" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aggregator" to mean a person who collects things.

---

agua (noun)

Largest known toad species; native to Central America; valuable destroyer of insect pests.

- In class, the teacher used "agua" to mean largest known toad species; native to central....
- The article explained what "agua" means with a simple example.

---

airforce (noun)

The airborne branch of a country's armed forces.

- The article explained what "airforce" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "airforce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aldermen (noun)

A member of a municipal legislative body (as a city council).

- Aldermen usually represent city wards.
- In class, the teacher used "aldermen" to mean a member of a municipal legislative body (as a city....

---

alluvial sediment (noun)

Clay or silt or gravel carried by rushing streams and deposited where the stream slows down.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alluvial sediment."
- The article explained what "alluvial sediment" means with a simple example.

---

american ginseng (noun)

North American woodland herb similar to and used as substitute for the Chinese ginseng.

- The article explained what "american ginseng" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american ginseng" to mean north american woodland herb similar to and used as....

---

amorous (adjective)

Expressive of or exciting sexual love or romance.

- Amorous glances.
- Feeling amorous.

---

anabolic (adjective)

Of or related to the synthetic phase of metabolism.

- Some athletes take anabolic steroids to increase muscle size temporarily.
- The speaker chose "anabolic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

anemic (adjective)

Relating to anemia or suffering from anemia.

- The speaker chose "anemic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "anemic" when it is relating to anemia or suffering from anemia.

---

angle of refraction (noun)

The angle between a refracted ray and a line perpendicular to the surface between the two media at the point of refraction.

- They discussed "angle of refraction" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "angle of refraction" means with a simple example.

---

anima (noun)

(Jungian psychology) the inner self (not the external persona) that is in touch with the unconscious.

- Understanding "anima" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "anima" means with a simple example.

---

annual salt-marsh aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- He looked up "annual salt-marsh aster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "annual salt-marsh aster" during the group presentation.

---

anointing (noun)

The act of applying oil or an oily liquid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anointing."
- The article explained what "anointing" means with a simple example.

anointing of the sick (noun)

A Catholic sacrament; a priest anoints a dying person with oil and prays for salvation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anointing of the sick."
- He looked up "anointing of the sick" because he had never seen it before.

apologising (verb)

Acknowledge faults or shortcomings or failing.

- The coach explained when to use "apologising" and when to wait.
- Can you use "apologising" in a sentence that fits this situation?

appellation (noun)

Identifying word or words by which someone or something is called and classified or distinguished from others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "appellation."
- The article explained what "appellation" means with a simple example.

appendage (noun)

An external body part that projects from the body.

- The article explained what "appendage" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "appendage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

appendicitis (noun)

Inflammation of the vermiform appendix.

- They discussed "appendicitis" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "appendicitis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

appropriateness (noun)

The quality of being specially suitable.

- In class, the teacher used "appropriateness" to mean the quality of being specially suitable.
- He looked up "appropriateness" because he had never seen it before.

aquariums (noun)

A tank or pool or bowl filled with water for keeping live fish and underwater animals.

- In class, the teacher used "aquariums" to mean a tank or pool or bowl filled with water for....
- The article explained what "aquariums" means with a simple example.

artificial insemination (noun)

The introduction of semen into the oviduct or uterus by some means other than sexual intercourse.

- He looked up "artificial insemination" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "artificial insemination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

austrian schilling (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Austria.

- In class, the teacher used "austrian schilling" to mean formerly the basic unit of money in austria.
- Understanding "austrian schilling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

autumnal (adjective)

Of or characteristic of or occurring in autumn.

- The autumnal equinox.
- Autumnal fruits.

awash (adjective)

Covered with water.

- The main deck was afloat (or awash).
- The monsoon left the whole place awash.

balling (verb)

Form into a ball by winding or rolling.

- In everyday English, people use "balling" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "balling" in real sentences.

---

banishment (noun)

The state of being banished or ostracized (excluded from society by general consent).

- The article explained what "banishment" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "banishment" during the group presentation.

---

baptised (adjective)

Having undergone the Christian ritual of baptism.

- Students compared "baptised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "baptised"? Explain why.

---

basque fatherland and liberty (noun)

A terrorist organization organized in 1959 by student activists who were dissatisfied with the moderate nationalism of the traditional Basque party; want to create an independent homeland in Spain's western Pyrenees.

- In class, the teacher used "basque fatherland and liberty" to mean a terrorist organization organized in 1959 by....
- The article explained what "basque fatherland and liberty" means with a simple example.

---

basra (noun)

The second largest city in Iraq; an oil port in southern Iraq.

- They discussed "basra" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "basra" because he had never seen it before.

---

bate (verb)

Moderate or restrain; lessen the force of.

- He bated his breath when talking about this affair.
- Bate hides and skins.

---

bawling (noun)

Loud cries made while weeping.

- Understanding "bawling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bawling" to mean loud cries made while weeping.

---

bawling out (noun)

A severe scolding.

- In class, the teacher used "bawling out" to mean a severe scolding.
- The article explained what "bawling out" means with a simple example.

---

bayard (noun)

French soldier said to be fearless and chivalrous (1473-1524).

- The article explained what "bayard" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bayard."

---

bayonets (noun)

A knife that can be fixed to the end of a rifle and used as a weapon.

- They discussed "bayonets" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bayonets."

---

beastly (adjective)

Resembling a beast; showing lack of human sensibility.

- Beastly desires.
- It is useful to describe something as "beastly" when it is resembling a beast; showing lack of human sensibility.

---

becket (noun)

(nautical) a short line with an eye at one end and a knot at the other; used to secure loose items on a ship.

- He looked up "becket" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used “becket” to mean (nautical) a short line with an eye at one end and....

---

beetroot (noun)

Beet having a massively swollen red root; widely grown for human consumption.

- He looked up “beetroot” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “beetroot.”

---

belarusian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Belarus.

- They discussed “belarusian monetary unit” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “belarusian monetary unit” to mean monetary unit in belarus.

---

bengal kino (noun)

Dried juice of the dhak tree; used as an astringent.

- Understanding “bengal kino” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “bengal kino” during the group presentation.

---

beverly sills (noun)

United States operatic soprano (born in 1929).

- In class, the teacher used “beverly sills” to mean united states operatic soprano (born in 1929).
- The article explained what “beverly sills” means with a simple example.

---

big spender (noun)

One who spends lavishly and ostentatiously on entertainment.

- The last of the big spenders.
- They discussed “big spender” during the group presentation.

---

billiard saloon (noun)

A room in which billiards is played.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “billiard saloon.”
- They discussed “billiard saloon” during the group presentation.

---

birdies (noun)

(golf) a score of one stroke under par on a hole.

- In class, the teacher used “birdies” to mean (golf) a score of one stroke under par on a hole.
- They discussed “birdies” during the group presentation.

---

blockbusters (noun)

A large bomb used to demolish extensive areas (as a city block).

- The article explained what “blockbusters” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “blockbusters” to mean a large bomb used to demolish extensive areas (as a....

---

bluffing (verb)

Frighten someone by pretending to be stronger than one really is.

- He did not know how to use “bluffing” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “bluffing” when talking about this idea.

---

boomed (verb)

Make a resonant sound, like artillery.

- His deep voice boomed through the hall.
- Learners should practice how to use “boomed” in real sentences.

---

boson (noun)

Any particle that obeys Bose-Einstein statistics but not the Pauli exclusion principle; all nuclei with an even mass number are bosons.

- They discussed “boson” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “boson” means with a simple example.

---

brainchild (noun)

A product of your creative thinking and work.

- After years of work his brainchild was a tangible reality.
- Understanding "brainchild" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brawn (noun)

Possessing muscular strength.

- He looked up "brawn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brawn."

---

bridegroom (noun)

A man participant in his own marriage ceremony.

- He looked up "bridegroom" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bridegroom" during the group presentation.

---

bulwark (noun)

An embankment built around a space for defensive purposes.

- He looked up "bulwark" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bulwark."

---

candidly (adverb)

(used as intensives reflecting the speaker's attitude) it is sincerely the case that.

- Candidly, I think she doesn't have a conscience.
- He answered "candidly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

cannabis sativa (noun)

A strong-smelling plant from whose dried leaves a number of euphoriant and hallucinogenic drugs are prepared.

- They discussed "cannabis sativa" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cannabis sativa" because he had never seen it before.

---

cape may warbler (noun)

North American wood warbler; olive green and yellow striped with black.

- The article explained what "cape may warbler" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cape may warbler" to mean north american wood warbler; olive green and yellow....

---

capsized (verb)

Overturn accidentally.

- He did not know how to use "capsized" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "capsized" and when to wait.

---

cartesian plane (noun)

A plane in which all points can be described in Cartesian coordinates.

- Understanding "cartesian plane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cartesian plane" because he had never seen it before.

---

cellulose ester (noun)

Any ester of cellulose with an acid.

- They discussed "cellulose ester" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cellulose ester" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

charlestown navy yard (noun)

The navy yard in Boston where the frigate 'Constitution' is anchored.

- In class, the teacher used "charlestown navy yard" to mean the navy yard in boston where the frigate....
- The article explained what "charlestown navy yard" means with a simple example.

---

chinese hibiscus (noun)

Large showy Asiatic shrub or small tree having large single or double red to deep-red flowers.

- They discussed "chinese hibiscus" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chinese hibiscus" means with a simple example.

---

chippewa (noun)

The Algonquian language spoken by the Ojibwa.

- The article explained what "chippewa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chippewa" to mean the algonquian language spoken by the ojibwa.

---

chromosomal anomaly (noun)

Any change in the normal structure or number of chromosomes; often results in physical or mental abnormalities.

- They discussed "chromosomal anomaly" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "chromosomal anomaly" to mean any change in the normal structure or number of....

---

cinco de mayo (noun)

The fifth of May which is observed in Mexico and Mexican-American communities in the United States to commemorate the Mexican victory over the French in the Battle of Puebla in 1862.

- The article explained what "cinco de mayo" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cinco de mayo."

---

clove-scented (adjective)

Smelling of clove.

- Students compared "clove-scented" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "clove-scented"? Explain why.

---

collared lizard (noun)

Any of several robust long-tailed lizards with collars of two dark bands; of central and western United States and northern Mexico.

- He looked up "collared lizard" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "collared lizard" during the group presentation.

---

conciliatory (adjective)

Making or willing to make concessions.

- A conciliatory visit.
- It is useful to describe something as "conciliatory" when it is making or willing to make concessions.

---

condensate (noun)

A product of condensation.

- He looked up "condensate" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "condensate."

---

condiments (noun)

A preparation (a sauce or relish or spice) to enhance flavor or enjoyment.

- Mustard and ketchup are condiments.
- Understanding "condiments" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

conferring (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- Can you use "conferring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "conferring" until he saw an example.

---

conjoined twin (noun)

One of a pair of identical twins born with their bodies joined at some point.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conjoined twin."
- He looked up "conjoined twin" because he had never seen it before.

---

convening (noun)

The act of convening.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convening."
- The article explained what "convening" means with a simple example.

corn chowder (noun)

Chowder containing corn.

- Understanding "corn chowder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "corn chowder" because he had never seen it before.

corneal transplant (noun)

A surgical procedure in which part or all of a damaged or diseased cornea is replaced by healthy corneal tissue from a donor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "corneal transplant."
- The article explained what "corneal transplant" means with a simple example.

correspondingly (adverb)

In a corresponding manner.

- The temperature decreases correspondingly.
- She spoke "correspondingly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

crouched (verb)

Bend one's back forward from the waist on down.

- He crouched down.
- He did not know how to use "crouched" until he saw an example.

crown wart (noun)

A fungous disease of alfalfa which forms white excrescences at the base of the stem.

- They discussed "crown wart" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "crown wart" because he had never seen it before.

crybaby (noun)

A person who lacks confidence, is irresolute and wishy-washy.

- He looked up "crybaby" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crybaby."

crybaby tree (noun)

Small South American spiny tree with dark crimson and scarlet flowers solitary or clustered.

- In class, the teacher used "crybaby tree" to mean small south american spiny tree with dark crimson....
- He looked up "crybaby tree" because he had never seen it before.

culpability (noun)

A state of guilt.

- He looked up "culpability" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "culpability" during the group presentation.

cyberpunk (noun)

A genre of fast-paced science fiction involving oppressive futuristic computerized societies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cyberpunk."
- They discussed "cyberpunk" during the group presentation.

cystic fibrosis transport regulator (noun)

The gene that is mutated in cystic fibrosis.

- Understanding "cystic fibrosis transport regulator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cystic fibrosis transport regulator" during the group presentation.

de-energize (verb)

Deprive of energy.

- He did not know how to use "de-energize" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "de-energize" in real sentences.

deflecting (verb)

Draw someone's attention away from something.

- Can you use "deflecting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "deflecting" and when to wait.

---

desegregation (noun)

The action of incorporating a racial or religious group into a community.

- The article explained what "desegregation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desegregation."

---

deserters (noun)

A person who abandons their duty (as on a military post).

- They discussed "deserters" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "deserters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deservedly (adverb)

As deserved.

- He chalked up two goals which deservedly gave Bolton their second victory of the season.
- The narrator describes the scene "deservedly" in the final chapter.

---

devalued (adjective)

Lowered in value.

- Would you call this situation "devalued"? Explain why.
- A "devalued" approach may work better in this case.

---

digress (verb)

Lose clarity or turn aside especially from the main subject of attention or course of argument in writing, thinking, or speaking.

- She always digresses when telling a story.
- Don't digress when you give a lecture.

---

dijon (noun)

An industrial city in eastern France to the north of Lyons.

- He looked up "dijon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dijon" to mean an industrial city in eastern france to the north....

---

dipole antenna (noun)

An aerial half a wavelength long consisting of two rods connected to a transmission line at the center.

- In class, the teacher used "dipole antenna" to mean an aerial half a wavelength long consisting of two....
- Understanding "dipole antenna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disappoints (verb)

Fail to meet the hopes or expectations of.

- The coach explained when to use "disappoints" and when to wait.
- Can you use "disappoints" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

discus (noun)

An athletic competition in which a disk-shaped object is thrown as far as possible.

- The article explained what "discus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "discus" to mean an athletic competition in which a disk-shaped....

---

distinctively (adverb)

In an identifiably distinctive manner.

- The distinctively conservative district of the county.
- Using "distinctively" can make your explanation more exact.

---

diverged (verb)

Extend in a different direction.

- Their interests diverged.

- She tried to use "diverged" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dorothy sayers (noun)

English writer of detective fiction (1893-1957).

- Understanding "dorothy sayers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dorothy sayers" during the group presentation.

---

double obelisk (noun)

A character used in printing to indicate a cross reference or footnote.

- Understanding "double obelisk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "double obelisk" during the group presentation.

---

dryers (noun)

An appliance that removes moisture.

- They discussed "dryers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dryers" means with a simple example.

---

economic strangulation (noun)

Punishment of a group by cutting off commercial dealings with them.

- The economic strangulation of the Jews by the Nazi Party.
- He looked up "economic strangulation" because he had never seen it before.

---

elaborately (adverb)

With elaboration.

- It was elaborately spelled out.
- She spoke "elaborately," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

elan vital (noun)

(biology) a hypothetical force (not physical or chemical) once thought by Henri Bergson to cause the evolution and development of organisms.

- Understanding "elan vital" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "elan vital" during the group presentation.

---

elevates (verb)

Give a promotion to or assign to a higher position.

- He did not know how to use "elevates" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "elevates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

elongate leaf (noun)

A long slender leaf.

- The article explained what "elongate leaf" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elongate leaf."

---

emily jane bronte (noun)

English novelist; one of three Bronte sisters (1818-1848).

- He looked up "emily jane bronte" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "emily jane bronte" to mean english novelist; one of three bronte sisters....

---

empathize (verb)

Be understanding of.

- Can you use "empathize" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "empathize" when talking about this idea.

---

encrypt (verb)

Convert ordinary language into code.

- He did not know how to use "encrypt" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "encrypt" in real sentences.

---

endocrinology (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with the endocrine glands and their secretions.

- In class, the teacher used "endocrinology" to mean the branch of medicine dealing with the endocrine....
- The article explained what "endocrinology" means with a simple example.

---

energetically (adverb)

In an energetic manner.

- Place "energetically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "energetically," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

energize (verb)

Raise to a higher energy level.

- He did not know how to use "energize" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "energize" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

entertains (verb)

Maintain (a theory, thoughts, or feelings).

- He did not know how to use "entertains" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "entertains" when talking about this idea.

---

epistle to titus (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's epistle to Titus; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- He looked up "epistle to titus" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epistle to titus."

---

erectile dysfunction (noun)

Impotence resulting from a man's inability to have or maintain an erection of his penis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "erectile dysfunction."
- He looked up "erectile dysfunction" because he had never seen it before.

---

estimator (noun)

An expert at calculation (or at operating calculating machines).

- In class, the teacher used "estimator" to mean an expert at calculation (or at operating....
- The article explained what "estimator" means with a simple example.

---

euclidean geometry (noun)

(mathematics) geometry based on Euclid's axioms.

- He looked up "euclidean geometry" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "euclidean geometry" during the group presentation.

---

european fire salamander (noun)

A kind of European salamander.

- The article explained what "european fire salamander" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "european fire salamander."

---

excellently (adverb)

Extremely well.

- The narrator describes the scene "excellently" in the final chapter.
- He answered "excellently," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

exerts (verb)

Make a great effort at a mental or physical task.

- Can you use "exerts" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "exerts" when talking about this idea.

---

external orifice (noun)

The orifice through which urine is discharged.

- He looked up "external orifice" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "external orifice" during the group presentation.

---

extrusion (noun)

Something that bulges out or is protuberant or projects from its surroundings.

- An unexpected extrusion of toothpaste from the bottom of the tube.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extrusion."

---

facades (noun)

A showy misrepresentation intended to conceal something unpleasant.

- The article explained what "facades" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "facades" to mean a showy misrepresentation intended to conceal....

---

felled seam (noun)

Seam made by turning under or folding together and stitching the seamed materials to avoid rough edges.

- In class, the teacher used "felled seam" to mean seam made by turning under or folding together and....
- The article explained what "felled seam" means with a simple example.

---

felling (verb)

Cause to fall by or as if by delivering a blow.

- He did not know how to use "felling" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "felling" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fester (noun)

A sore that has become inflamed and formed pus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fester."
- They discussed "fester" during the group presentation.

---

feuding (verb)

Carry out a feud.

- The two professors have been feuding for years.
- Learners should practice how to use "feuding" in real sentences.

---

fire salamander (noun)

European salamander having dark skin with usually yellow spots.

- Understanding "fire salamander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fire salamander" during the group presentation.

---

flexed (verb)

Cause (a plastic object) to assume a crooked or angular form.

- She tried to use "flexed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "flexed" until he saw an example.

---

flue pipe (noun)

Organ pipe whose tone is produced by air passing across the sharp edge of a fissure or lip.

- Understanding "flue pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "flue pipe" to mean organ pipe whose tone is produced by air passing....

---

flywheel (noun)

Regulator consisting of a heavy wheel that stores kinetic energy and smooths the operation of a reciprocating engine.

- In class, the teacher used "flywheel" to mean regulator consisting of a heavy wheel that stores....
- The article explained what "flywheel" means with a simple example.

---

foams (noun)

A mass of small bubbles formed in or on a liquid.

- In class, the teacher used "foams" to mean a mass of small bubbles formed in or on a liquid.
- The article explained what "foams" means with a simple example.

foregone (adjective)

Well in the past; former.

- Dreams of foregone times.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "foregone."

foreshadowed (verb)

Indicate by signs.

- In everyday English, people use "foreshadowed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "foreshadowed" until he saw an example.

foreshadowing (noun)

The act of providing vague advance indications; representing beforehand.

- In class, the teacher used "foreshadowing" to mean the act of providing vague advance indications;....
- He looked up "foreshadowing" because he had never seen it before.

formosa (noun)

An island in southeastern Asia 100 miles off the coast of mainland China in the South China Sea.

- The article explained what "formosa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "formosa" to mean an island in southeastern asia 100 miles off the....

fortnightly (adjective)

Occurring every two weeks.

- Students compared "fortnightly" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fortnightly."

fourths (noun)

The musical interval between one note and another four notes away from it.

- They discussed "fourths" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fourths."

french polynesia (noun)

A French overseas possession in the South Pacific.

- He looked up "french polynesia" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "french polynesia" to mean a french overseas possession in the south pacific.

freshest (adjective)

Not containing or composed of salt water.

- Students compared "freshest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "freshest."

fringed (adjective)

Having edges irregularly and finely slashed.

- A large suburban community...fringed by an industrial area.
- A grass-fringed stream.

fulcrum (noun)

The pivot about which a lever turns.

- He looked up "fulcrum" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fulcrum" during the group presentation.

funnels (noun)

A conical shape with a wider and a narrower opening at the two ends.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "funnels."
- He looked up "funnels" because he had never seen it before.

galbraith (noun)

United States economist (born in Canada) who served as ambassador to India (born in 1908).

- In class, the teacher used "galbraith" to mean united states economist (born in canada) who served....
- He looked up "galbraith" because he had never seen it before.

---

gallic (adjective)

Of or pertaining to France or the people of France.

- A Gallic shrug.
- Ancient Gallic dialects.

---

gazelle hound (noun)

Old breed of tall swift keen-eyed hunting dogs resembling greyhounds; from Egypt and southwestern Asia.

- In class, the teacher used "gazelle hound" to mean old breed of tall swift keen-eyed hunting dogs....
- The article explained what "gazelle hound" means with a simple example.

---

genus aster (noun)

Large genus of herbs widely cultivated for their daisylike flowers.

- They discussed "genus aster" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "genus aster" because he had never seen it before.

---

genus mya (noun)

Type genus of the family Myacidae.

- They discussed "genus mya" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "genus mya" means with a simple example.

---

georg simon ohm (noun)

German physicist who formulated Ohm's law (1787-1854).

- In class, the teacher used "georg simon ohm" to mean german physicist who formulated ohm's law (1787-1854).
- Understanding "georg simon ohm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

george gilbert aime murphy (noun)

British classical scholar (born in Australia) who advocated the League of Nations and the United Nations (1866-1957).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george gilbert aime murphy."
- He looked up "george gilbert aime murphy" because he had never seen it before.

---

ginseng (noun)

Chinese herb with palmately compound leaves and small greenish flowers and forked aromatic roots believed to have medicinal powers.

- The article explained what "ginseng" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ginseng."

---

gnomes (noun)

A short pithy saying expressing a general truth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gnomes."
- They discussed "gnomes" during the group presentation.

---

golden warbler (noun)

Yellow-throated American wood warbler.

- In class, the teacher used "golden warbler" to mean yellow-throated american wood warbler.
- The article explained what "golden warbler" means with a simple example.

---

gophers (noun)

A zealously energetic person (especially a salesman).

- He looked up "gophers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gophers."

---

goths (noun)

A crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or refinement.

- The article explained what "goths" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "goths" to mean a crude uncouth ill-bred person lacking culture or....

---

grandest (adjective)

The most important and magnificent in adornment.

- Students compared "grandest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "grandest" approach may work better in this case.

---

green mushroom pimple (noun)

A variety of mushroom pimple.

- In class, the teacher used "green mushroom pimple" to mean a variety of mushroom pimple.
- Understanding "green mushroom pimple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grimy (adjective)

Thickly covered with ingrained dirt or soot.

- Grimy hands.
- It is useful to describe something as "grimy" when it is thickly covered with ingrained dirt or soot.

---

grunt-hoot (verb)

Communicate by hooting and grunting, as of primates.

- In everyday English, people use "grunt-hoot" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "grunt-hoot" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hairpin bend (noun)

A U-shaped bend in a road.

- In class, the teacher used "hairpin bend" to mean a u-shaped bend in a road.
- They discussed "hairpin bend" during the group presentation.

---

hairy golden aster (noun)

Hairy perennial with yellow flower heads in branched clusters; found almost everywhere in dry places from Canada to west central and western United States; sometimes placed in genus Chrysopsis.

- They discussed "hairy golden aster" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "hairy golden aster" because he had never seen it before.

---

hanukkah (noun)

(Judaism) an eight-day Jewish holiday commemorating the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem in 165 BC.

- The article explained what "hanukkah" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hanukkah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hardball (noun)

A no-nonsense attitude in business or politics.

- They play hardball in the Senate.
- He looked up "hardball" because he had never seen it before.

---

hargreaves (noun)

English inventor of the spinning jenny (1720-1778).

- Understanding "hargreaves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hargreaves" because he had never seen it before.

---

harriman (noun)

United States railway tycoon (1848-1909).

- He looked up "harriman" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harriman."

---

headstone (noun)

The central building block at the top of an arch or vault.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "headstone."
- He looked up "headstone" because he had never seen it before.

heath aster (noun)

Common North American perennial with heathlike foliage and small white flower heads.

- They discussed "heath aster" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "heath aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

herbicides (noun)

A chemical agent that destroys plants or inhibits their growth.

- He looked up "herbicides" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "herbicides" to mean a chemical agent that destroys plants or inhibits....

heterogeneity (noun)

The quality of being diverse and not comparable in kind.

- In class, the teacher used "heterogeneity" to mean the quality of being diverse and not comparable in kind.
- The article explained what "heterogeneity" means with a simple example.

hibiscus (noun)

Any plant of the genus Hibiscus.

- In class, the teacher used "hibiscus" to mean any plant of the genus hibiscus.
- They discussed "hibiscus" during the group presentation.

hin (noun)

Ancient Hebrew unit of liquid measure = 1.5 gallons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hin."
- They discussed "hin" during the group presentation.

hob (noun)

A hard steel edge tool used to cut gears.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hob."
- He looked up "hob" because he had never seen it before.

hunter-gatherer (noun)

A member of a hunting and gathering society.

- The article explained what "hunter-gatherer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunter-gatherer."

huntingdon willow (noun)

Large willow tree of Eurasia and North Africa having greyish canescent leaves and grey bark.

- In class, the teacher used "huntingdon willow" to mean large willow tree of eurasia and north africa....
- They discussed "huntingdon willow" during the group presentation.

hyperactive (adjective)

More active than normal.

- A hyperactive child.
- It is useful to describe something as "hyperactive" when it is more active than normal.

hypersensitivity reaction (noun)

An inappropriate and excessive reaction to an allergen (as pollen or dust or animal hair or certain foods); severity ranges from mild allergy to severe systemic reactions leading to anaphylactic shock.

- In class, the teacher used "hypersensitivity reaction" to mean an inappropriate and excessive reaction to an....
- The article explained what "hypersensitivity reaction" means with a simple example.

hysterectomy (noun)

Surgical removal of the uterus.

- Understanding "hysterectomy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hysterectomy" means with a simple example.

iberia (noun)

An ancient geographical region to the south of the Caucasus Mountains that corresponded approximately to the present-day Georgia.

- Understanding "iberia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "iberia" to mean an ancient geographical region to the south of the....

identically (adverb)

With complete identity; in an identical manner.

- He is fitted with an identically similar one.
- He answered "identically," which changed the tone of the conversation.

immediacy (noun)

The quickness of action or occurrence.

- The immediacy of their response.
- The immediacy of television coverage.

immunotherapy (noun)

Therapy designed to produce immunity to a disease or to enhance resistance by the immune system.

- He looked up "immunotherapy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "immunotherapy" during the group presentation.

improvising (verb)

Manage in a makeshift way; do with whatever is at hand.

- Can you use "improvising" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "improvising" when talking about this idea.

inbreeding (noun)

The act of mating closely related individuals.

- The article explained what "inbreeding" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inbreeding."

incisive (adjective)

Having or demonstrating ability to recognize or draw fine distinctions.

- Incisive comments.
- As sharp and incisive as the stroke of a fang.

inconspicuous (adjective)

Not prominent or readily noticeable.

- He pushed the string through an inconspicuous hole.
- Students compared "inconspicuous" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

indebtedness (noun)

An obligation to pay money to another party.

- In class, the teacher used "indebtedness" to mean an obligation to pay money to another party.
- He looked up "indebtedness" because he had never seen it before.

indentured (adjective)

Bound by contract.

- It is useful to describe something as "indentured" when it is bound by contract.
- The speaker chose "indentured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

index of refraction (noun)

The ratio of the velocity of light in a vacuum to that in a medium.

- He looked up "index of refraction" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "index of refraction" to mean the ratio of the velocity of light in a vacuum to....

inhabitant (noun)

A person who inhabits a particular place.

- Understanding "inhabitant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "inhabitant" means with a simple example.

---

inhospitable (adjective)

Unfavorable to life or growth.

- The barren inhospitable desert.
- Inhospitable mountain areas.

---

inoperable (adjective)

Not suitable for surgery.

- Metastasis has rendered the tumor inoperable.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inoperable."

---

instigate (verb)

Serve as the inciting cause of.

- She tried to use "instigate" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "instigate" when talking about this idea.

---

insufficiently (adverb)

To an insufficient degree.

- He was insufficiently prepared.
- Place "insufficiently" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

intercession (noun)

The act of intervening (as to mediate a dispute, etc.).

- In class, the teacher used "intercession" to mean the act of intervening (as to mediate a dispute, etc.).
- He looked up "intercession" because he had never seen it before.

---

interferon (noun)

An antiviral protein produced by cells that have been invaded by a virus; inhibits replication of the virus.

- He looked up "interferon" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "interferon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intersects (verb)

Meet at a point.

- Learners should practice how to use "intersects" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "intersects" and when to wait.

---

interstitial fluid (noun)

Liquid found between the cells of the body that provides much of the liquid environment of the body.

- In class, the teacher used "interstitial fluid" to mean liquid found between the cells of the body that....
- He looked up "interstitial fluid" because he had never seen it before.

---

ionizing radiation (noun)

High-energy radiation capable of producing ionization in substances through which it passes.

- He looked up "ionizing radiation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ionizing radiation."

---

irrevocable (adjective)

Incapable of being retracted or revoked; - Shakespeare.

- Firm and irrevocable is my doom.
- Would you call this situation "irrevocable"? Explain why.

---

irritability (noun)

A disposition to exhibit uncontrolled anger.

- Understanding "irritability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "irritability" because he had never seen it before.

islet (noun)

A small island.

- They discussed "islet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "islet" means with a simple example.

israelite (noun)

A native or inhabitant of the ancient kingdom of Israel.

- Understanding "israelite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "israelite" during the group presentation.

james hargreaves (noun)

English inventor of the spinning jenny (1720-1778).

- He looked up "james hargreaves" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "james hargreaves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jean bernard leon foucault (noun)

French physicist who determined the speed of light and showed that it travels slower in water than in air; invented the Foucault pendulum and the gyroscope (1819-1868).

- The article explained what "jean bernard leon foucault" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jean bernard leon foucault" to mean french physicist who determined the speed of light....

johann wolfgang von goethe (noun)

German poet and novelist and dramatist who lived in Weimar (1749-1832).

- In class, the teacher used "johann wolfgang von goethe" to mean german poet and novelist and dramatist who lived in....
- He looked up "johann wolfgang von goethe" because he had never seen it before.

john galbraith (noun)

United States economist (born in Canada) who served as ambassador to India (born in 1908).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john galbraith."
- He looked up "john galbraith" because he had never seen it before.

john philip sousa (noun)

A United States bandmaster and composer of military marches (1854-1932).

- He looked up "john philip sousa" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "john philip sousa" during the group presentation.

jorge borges (noun)

Argentinian writer remembered for his short stories (1899-1986).

- The article explained what "jorge borges" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jorge borges" to mean argentinian writer remembered for his short stories....

juan ramon jimenez (noun)

Spanish lyric poet (1881-1958).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juan ramon jimenez."
- They discussed "juan ramon jimenez" during the group presentation.

ker (adjective)

Denoting a quantity consisting of 1,000 items or units.

- Students compared "ker" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "ker" when it is denoting a quantity consisting of 1,000 items or units.

laity (noun)

In Christianity, members of a religious community that do not have the priestly responsibilities of ordained clergy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laity."
- The article explained what "laity" means with a simple example.

landlocked (adjective)

Surrounded entirely or almost entirely by land.

- A landlocked country.
- The speaker chose "landlocked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lao-tse (noun)

Chinese philosopher regarded as the founder of Taoism (6th century BC).

- The article explained what "lao-tse" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lao-tse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

latterly (adverb)

In the recent past.

- The spelling was first affected, but latterly the meaning also.
- The narrator describes the scene "latterly" in the final chapter.

---

leaner (noun)

(horseshoes) the throw of a horseshoe so as to lean against (but not encircle) the stake.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leaner."
- Understanding "leaner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

legos (noun)

(trademark) a child's plastic construction set for making mechanical models.

- He looked up "legos" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "legos."

---

leper lily (noun)

Eurasian checkered lily with pendant flowers usually veined and checkered with purple or maroon on a pale ground and shaped like the bells carried by lepers in medieval times; widely grown as an ornamental.

- Understanding "leper lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "leper lily" to mean eurasian checkered lily with pendant flowers....

---

leukaemia (noun)

Malignant neoplasm of blood-forming tissues; characterized by abnormal proliferation of leukocytes; one of the four major types of cancer.

- In class, the teacher used "leukaemia" to mean malignant neoplasm of blood-forming tissues;....
- He looked up "leukaemia" because he had never seen it before.

---

leyte (noun)

A battle in World War II; the return of United States troops to the Philippines began with landings on Leyte Island in October 1944; the battle marked first use of kamikaze aircraft by the Japanese.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leyte."
- The article explained what "leyte" means with a simple example.

---

leyte island (noun)

A battle in World War II; the return of United States troops to the Philippines began with landings on Leyte Island in October 1944; the battle marked first use of kamikaze aircraft by the Japanese.

- Understanding "leyte island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "leyte island" because he had never seen it before.

---

lighthouses (noun)

A tower with a light that gives warning of shoals to passing ships.

- They discussed "lighthouses" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lighthouses."

---

lingua (noun)

A mobile mass of muscular tissue covered with mucous membrane and located in the oral cavity.

- He looked up "lingua" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lingua."

---

lingual vein (noun)

A vein that receives blood from the tongue and the floor of the mouth and empties into the internal jugular or the facial vein.

- Understanding "lingual vein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- He looked up "lingual vein" because he had never seen it before.

---

llamas (noun)

Wild or domesticated South American cud-chewing animal related to camels but smaller and lacking a hump.

- He looked up "llamas" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "llamas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

long-tailed porcupine (noun)

Porcupine of Borneo and Sumatra having short spines and a long tail.

- They discussed "long-tailed porcupine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "long-tailed porcupine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

loony bin (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- In class, the teacher used "loony bin" to mean pejorative terms for an insane asylum.
- The article explained what "loony bin" means with a simple example.

---

lorenz milton hart (noun)

United States lyricist who collaborated with Richard Rodgers (1895-1943).

- Understanding "lorenz milton hart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lorenz milton hart" to mean united states lyricist who collaborated with....

---

luminaries (noun)

A celebrity who is an inspiration to others.

- He was host to a large gathering of luminaries.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luminaries."

---

lynx lynx (noun)

Of northern Eurasia.

- Understanding "lynx lynx" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lynx lynx" to mean of northern eurasia.

---

makings (noun)

The act that results in something coming to be.

- She has the makings of fine musician.
- The recipe listed all the makings for a chocolate cake.

---

maleficent (adjective)

Harmful or evil in intent or effect.

- Students compared "maleficent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "maleficent."

---

maniacs (noun)

A person who has an obsession with or excessive enthusiasm for something.

- In class, the teacher used "maniacs" to mean a person who has an obsession with or excessive....
- He looked up "maniacs" because he had never seen it before.

---

manifolds (noun)

A lightweight paper used with carbon paper to make multiple copies.

- An original and two manifolds.
- The article explained what "manifolds" means with a simple example.

---

marine archeology (noun)

The archeology of underwater sites.

- The article explained what "marine archeology" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marine archeology."

---

marrakech (noun)

A city in western Morocco; tourist center.

- In class, the teacher used "marrakech" to mean a city in western morocco; tourist center.
- He looked up "marrakech" because he had never seen it before.

---

medea (noun)

(Greek mythology) a princess of Colchis who aided Jason in taking the Golden Fleece from her father.

- He looked up "medea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "medea."

---

mesmerized (adjective)

Having your attention fixated as though by a spell.

- The speaker chose "mesmerized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mesmerized."

---

midge (noun)

Minute two-winged mosquito-like fly lacking biting mouthparts; appear in dancing swarms especially near water.

- Understanding "midge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "midge" means with a simple example.

---

milked (verb)

Exploit as much as possible.

- Cows need to be milked every morning.
- Learners should practice how to use "milked" in real sentences.

---

minotaur (noun)

(Greek mythology) a mythical monster with the head of a bull and the body of a man; slain by Theseus.

- The article explained what "minotaur" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minotaur" to mean (greek mythology) a mythical monster with the head....

---

misfit (noun)

Someone unable to adapt to their circumstances.

- He looked up "misfit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "misfit" to mean someone unable to adapt to their circumstances.

---

mooring mast (noun)

A tower for mooring airships.

- Understanding "mooring mast" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mooring mast" during the group presentation.

---

moorish (noun)

A style of architecture common in Spain from the 13th to 16th centuries; characterized by horseshoe-shaped arches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moorish."
- They discussed "moorish" during the group presentation.

---

moro islamic liberation front (noun)

A terrorist group in the southern Philippines formed in 1977 to establish an independent Islamic state for the Moros; have clashed with troops at United States bases.

- They discussed "moro islamic liberation front" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "moro islamic liberation front" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mosquitos (noun)

Two-winged insect whose female has a long proboscis to pierce the skin and suck the blood of humans and animals.

- He looked up "mosquitos" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mosquitos" to mean two-winged insect whose female has a long proboscis....

---

mottled (adjective)

Having spots or patches of color.

- A "mottled" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "mottled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mountaineer (noun)

Someone who climbs mountains.

- The article explained what "mountaineer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mountaineer" to mean someone who climbs mountains.

---

mountainside (noun)

The side or slope of a mountain.

- In class, the teacher used "mountainside" to mean the side or slope of a mountain.
- The article explained what "mountainside" means with a simple example.

---

mucous (adjective)

Of or secreting or covered with or resembling mucus.

- Mucous tissue.
- Mucous glands of the intestine.

---

murmuring (noun)

A complaint uttered in a low and indistinct tone.

- Understanding "murmuring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "murmuring" means with a simple example.

---

national liberation front of corsica (noun)

A terrorist group formed in 1976 to work for Corsican independence; attacks on Corsica are aimed at sabotaging public infrastructure and symbols of colonialism.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "national liberation front of corsica."
- He looked up "national liberation front of corsica" because he had never seen it before.

---

nationalized (verb)

Make national in character or scope.

- His heroic deeds were nationalized by the press.
- Mitterand nationalized the banks.

---

navel-gazing (noun)

Literally, the contemplation of one's navel, which is an idiom usually meaning complacent self-absorption.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "navel-gazing."
- They discussed "navel-gazing" during the group presentation.

---

neutrinos (noun)

An elementary particle with zero charge and zero mass.

- The article explained what "neutrinos" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "neutrinos" to mean an elementary particle with zero charge and zero mass.

---

nikita khrushchev (noun)

Soviet statesman and premier who denounced Stalin (1894-1971).

- The article explained what "nikita khrushchev" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nikita khrushchev" during the group presentation.

---

nips (noun)

The property of being moderately cold.

- He looked up "nips" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "nips" to mean the property of being moderately cold.

---

non-euclidean geometry (noun)

(mathematics) geometry based on axioms different from Euclid's.

- Non-Euclidean geometries discard or replace one or more of the Euclidean axioms.
- Understanding "non-euclidean geometry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nus (noun)

The 13th letter of the Greek alphabet.

- In class, the teacher used "nus" to mean the 13th letter of the greek alphabet.
- He looked up "nus" because he had never seen it before.

obelisk (noun)

A character used in printing to indicate a cross reference or footnote.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "obelisk."
- He looked up "obelisk" because he had never seen it before.

oddball (noun)

A person with an unusual or odd personality.

- Understanding "oddball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oddball" during the group presentation.

offload (verb)

Take the load off (a container or vehicle).

- Offload the van.
- He did not know how to use "offload" until he saw an example.

orange mushroom pimple (noun)

A variety of mushroom pimple.

- They discussed "orange mushroom pimple" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "orange mushroom pimple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

osteoarthritis (noun)

Chronic breakdown of cartilage in the joints; the most common form of arthritis occurring usually after middle age.

- He looked up "osteoarthritis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "osteoarthritis."

outcrop (verb)

Appear on the surface, come to the surface on the ground.

- Big boulders outcropped.
- Learners should practice how to use "outcrop" in real sentences.

outlander (noun)

A person who comes from a foreign country; someone who does not owe allegiance to your country.

- Understanding "outlander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "outlander" because he had never seen it before.

overestimated (verb)

Assign too high a value to.

- He overestimated his own powers.
- Learners should practice how to use "overestimated" in real sentences.

overloading (verb)

Fill to excess so that function is impaired.

- She tried to use "overloading" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "overloading" when talking about this idea.

overthrowing (verb)

Cause the downfall of; of rulers.

- Learners should practice how to use "overthrowing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "overthrowing" when talking about this idea.

padua (noun)

A city in Veneto.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "padua."
- He looked up "padua" because he had never seen it before.

---

pageants (noun)

An elaborate representation of scenes from history etc; usually involves a parade with rich costumes.

- They discussed "pageants" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "pageants" because he had never seen it before.

---

pair of tweezers (noun)

A hand tool for holding consisting of a compound lever for grasping.

- He looked up "pair of tweezers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pair of tweezers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

panning (verb)

Express a totally negative opinion of.

- In everyday English, people use "panning" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "panning" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

parabolic geometry (noun)

(mathematics) geometry based on Euclid's axioms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parabolic geometry."
- They discussed "parabolic geometry" during the group presentation.

---

pariah (noun)

A person who is rejected (from society or home).

- They discussed "pariah" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pariah."

---

pariah dog (noun)

Ownerless half-wild mongrel dog common around Asian villages especially India.

- The article explained what "pariah dog" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pariah dog" during the group presentation.

---

parka (noun)

A kind of heavy jacket ('windcheater' is a British term).

- They discussed "parka" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "parka" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paton (noun)

South African writer (1903-1988).

- In class, the teacher used "paton" to mean south african writer (1903-1988).
- The article explained what "paton" means with a simple example.

---

peddle (verb)

Sell or offer for sale from place to place.

- The coach explained when to use "peddle" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "peddle" in real sentences.

---

peerless (adjective)

Eminent beyond or above comparison.

- A peerless scholar.
- The speaker chose "peerless" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

permanence (noun)

The property of being able to exist for an indefinite duration.

- He looked up "permanence" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “permanence” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

permeable (adjective)

Allowing fluids or gases to pass or diffuse through.

- Permeable membranes.
- Rock that is permeable by water.

---

personhood (noun)

Being a person.

- Finding her own personhood as a campus activist.
- The article explained what “personhood” means with a simple example.

---

pigeon-toed (adjective)

Having feet that turn inward.

- A “pigeon-toed” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “pigeon-toed” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pillage (noun)

The act of stealing valuable things from a place.

- Understanding “pillage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “pillage” because he had never seen it before.

---

pistachio (noun)

Nut of Mediterranean trees having an edible green kernel.

- He looked up “pistachio” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “pistachio” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pistachio tree (noun)

Small tree of southern Europe and Asia Minor bearing small hard-shelled nuts.

- In class, the teacher used “pistachio tree” to mean small tree of southern europe and asia minor....
- They discussed “pistachio tree” during the group presentation.

---

planing (verb)

Cut or remove with or as if with a plane.

- Can you use “planing” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “planing” and when to wait.

---

planing machine (noun)

A power tool for smoothing or shaping wood.

- Understanding “planing machine” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “planing machine” during the group presentation.

---

plebiscite (noun)

A vote by the electorate determining public opinion on a question of national importance.

- He looked up “plebiscite” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “plebiscite.”

---

ploughing (noun)

Tilling the land with a plow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ploughing.”
- He looked up “ploughing” because he had never seen it before.

---

polynesia (noun)

The islands in the eastern part of Oceania.

- Understanding “polynesia” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “polynesia” to mean the islands in the eastern part of oceania.

---

polyurethane (noun)

Any of various polymers containing the urethane radical; a wide variety of synthetic forms are made and used as adhesives or plastics or paints or rubber.

- He looked up "polyurethane" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "polyurethane" to mean any of various polymers containing the urethane....

---

posit (verb)

Take as a given; assume as a postulate or axiom.

- He posited three basic laws of nature.
- She posited her hand on his shoulder.

---

powder-post termite (noun)

Extremely destructive dry-wood termite of warm regions.

- In class, the teacher used "powder-post termite" to mean extremely destructive dry-wood termite of warm regions.
- Understanding "powder-post termite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prairie aster (noun)

Violet-flowered perennial aster of central United States having solitary heads.

- The article explained what "prairie aster" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "prairie aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

precipice (noun)

A very steep cliff.

- In class, the teacher used "precipice" to mean a very steep cliff.
- They discussed "precipice" during the group presentation.

---

premature ventricular contraction (noun)

Irregularity of cardiac rhythm; recurrent occurrences can be a precursor of ventricular fibrillation.

- In class, the teacher used "premature ventricular contraction" to mean irregularity of cardiac rhythm; recurrent....
- He looked up "premature ventricular contraction" because he had never seen it before.

---

presuming (verb)

Take upon oneself; act presumptuously, without permission.

- She tried to use "presuming" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "presuming" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

puked (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- In everyday English, people use "puked" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "puked" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

quack-quack (noun)

Child's word for a duck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quack-quack."
- Understanding "quack-quack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

queued (verb)

Form a queue, form a line, stand in line.

- Can you use "queued" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "queued" until he saw an example.

---

quickie (noun)

Hurried repair.

- The article explained what "quickie" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quickie."

---

ravages (verb)

Cause extensive destruction or ruin utterly.

- Can you use "ravages" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "ravages" and when to wait.

---

ravenous (adjective)

Devouring or craving food in great quantities.

- Ravenous as wolves.
- A ravenous boy.

---

rearranging (verb)

Put into a new order or arrangement.

- The coach explained when to use "rearranging" and when to wait.
- Can you use "rearranging" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

reclusive (adjective)

Withdrawn from society; seeking solitude.

- Lived an unsocial reclusive life.
- Sitting under the reclusive calm of a shade tree.

---

red-rimmed (adjective)

Rimmed with red.

- Your red-rimmed eyes reveal that you have been crying.
- Would you call this situation "red-rimmed"? Explain why.

---

red-streaked (adjective)

Having red stripes.

- A "red-streaked" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "red-streaked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

reek (verb)

Have an element suggestive (of something).

- The building reeks of smoke.
- Marshes reeking in the sun.

---

regenerated (verb)

Return to life; get or give new life or energy.

- The snake regenerated its tail.
- Learners should practice how to use "regenerated" in real sentences.

---

regimens (noun)

(medicine) a systematic plan for therapy (often including diet).

- In class, the teacher used "regimens" to mean (medicine) a systematic plan for therapy (often....
- They discussed "regimens" during the group presentation.

---

reinstall (verb)

Install again.

- She reinstalled the washer after it had been repaired.
- She tried to use "reinstall" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

republic of djibouti (noun)

A country in northeastern Africa on the Somali peninsula; formerly under French control but became independent in 1997.

- The article explained what "republic of djibouti" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "republic of djibouti" to mean a country in northeastern africa on the somali....

---

rimmed (adjective)

Having a rim or a rim of a specified kind.

- Do you wear rimmed or rimless glasses?
- Would you call this situation "rimmed"? Explain why.

rind (noun)

The natural outer covering of food (usually removed before eating).

- The article explained what "rind" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rind" to mean the natural outer covering of food (usually removed....

riparian (adjective)

Of or relating to or located on the banks of a river or stream.

- Riparian land.
- Would you call this situation "riparian"? Explain why.

riparian forest (noun)

Woodlands along the banks of stream or river.

- The article explained what "riparian forest" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "riparian forest" during the group presentation.

riparian right (noun)

Right of access to water.

- In class, the teacher used "riparian right" to mean right of access to water.
- They discussed "riparian right" during the group presentation.

risers (noun)

A person who rises (especially from bed).

- He looked up "risers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "risers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

rock outcrop (noun)

The part of a rock formation that appears above the surface of the surrounding land.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock outcrop."
- He looked up "rock outcrop" because he had never seen it before.

roman numeral (noun)

A symbol in the old Roman notation; I,V,X,L,C,D,M represent 1,5,10,50,100,500,1000 respectively in Arabic notation.

- The article explained what "roman numeral" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roman numeral" to mean a symbol in the old roman notation; i,v,x,l,c,d,m....

rosebud (noun)

(a literary reference to) a pretty young girl.

- In class, the teacher used "rosebud" to mean (a literary reference to) a pretty young girl.
- The article explained what "rosebud" means with a simple example.

ruck (noun)

A crowd especially of ordinary or undistinguished persons or things.

- His brilliance raised him above the ruck.
- They discussed "ruck" during the group presentation.

ruck up (verb)

Become wrinkled or drawn together.

- She tried to use "ruck up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "ruck up" when talking about this idea.

runaways (noun)

Someone who flees from an uncongenial situation.

- Understanding "runaways" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "runaways" to mean someone who flees from an uncongenial situation.

salamander (noun)

Reptilian creature supposed to live in fire.

- He looked up "salamander" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salamander."

---

sats (noun)

The seventh and last day of the week; observed as the Sabbath by Jews and some Christians.

- They discussed "sats" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sats" to mean the seventh and last day of the week; observed as....

---

sauvignon blanc (noun)

White wine grape grown in California.

- In class, the teacher used "sauvignon blanc" to mean white wine grape grown in california.
- Understanding "sauvignon blanc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sawed-off shotgun (noun)

A shotgun with short barrels.

- Understanding "sawed-off shotgun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sawed-off shotgun" to mean a shotgun with short barrels.

---

scalpel (noun)

A thin straight surgical knife used in dissection and surgery.

- Understanding "scalpel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "scalpel" to mean a thin straight surgical knife used in dissection....

---

scraper (noun)

Any of various hand tools for scraping.

- Understanding "scraper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "scraper" during the group presentation.

---

screw auger (noun)

Hand tool for boring holes.

- Understanding "screw auger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "screw auger" during the group presentation.

---

scribbled (verb)

Write down quickly without much attention to detail.

- She tried to use "scribbled" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "scribbled" when talking about this idea.

---

scrutinize (verb)

To look at critically or searchingly, or in minute detail.

- He scrutinized his likeness in the mirror.
- Learners should practice how to use "scrutinize" in real sentences.

---

seatbelts (noun)

A safety belt used in a car or plane to hold you in your seat in case of an accident.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seatbelts."
- The article explained what "seatbelts" means with a simple example.

---

sedate (verb)

Cause to be calm or quiet as by administering a sedative to.

- The patient must be sedated before the operation.
- Learners should practice how to use "sedate" in real sentences.

---

shallower (adjective)

Not deep or strong; not affecting one deeply.

- A "shallower" approach may work better in this case.

- Would you call this situation "shallower"? Explain why.

---

shaves (verb)

Cut or remove with or as if with a plane.

- She tried to use "shaves" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "shaves" in real sentences.

---

shriek (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- He looked up "shriek" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shriek" during the group presentation.

---

simulates (verb)

Create a representation or model of.

- He did not know how to use "simulates" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "simulates" in real sentences.

---

singularly (adverb)

In a singular manner or to a singular degree.

- Lord T. was considered singularly licentious even for the courts of Russia and Portugal; he acquired three wives and fourteen children during his Portuguese embassy alone.
- He answered "singularly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sinkhole (noun)

A depression in the ground communicating with a subterranean passage (especially in limestone) and formed by solution or by collapse of a cavern roof.

- The article explained what "sinkhole" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sinkhole" to mean a depression in the ground communicating with a....

---

sir john suckling (noun)

English poet and courtier (1609-1642).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir john suckling."
- He looked up "sir john suckling" because he had never seen it before.

---

skimpy (adjective)

Containing little excess.

- A skimpy allowance.
- The speaker chose "skimpy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

slavs (noun)

Any member of the people of eastern Europe or Asian Russia who speak a Slavonic language.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slavs."
- He looked up "slavs" because he had never seen it before.

---

sloped (adjective)

Having an oblique or slanted direction.

- A "sloped" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "sloped"? Explain why.

---

snore (noun)

The rattling noise produced when snoring.

- They discussed "snore" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "snore" because he had never seen it before.

---

social stratification (noun)

The condition of being arranged in social strata or classes within a group.

- The article explained what "social stratification" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "social stratification" during the group presentation.

---

sonora gum (noun)

Acidulous gum resin of the creosote bush.

- They discussed "sonora gum" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sonora gum."

sooners (noun)

A native or resident of Oklahoma.

- The article explained what "sooners" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sooners."

sorceress (noun)

A woman sorcerer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sorceress."
- He looked up "sorceress" because he had never seen it before.

soured cream (noun)

Artificially soured light cream.

- He looked up "soured cream" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "soured cream."

spaceflight (noun)

A voyage outside the Earth's atmosphere.

- He looked up "spaceflight" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spaceflight" to mean a voyage outside the earth's atmosphere.

spender (noun)

Someone who spends money to purchase goods or services.

- The article explained what "spender" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "spender" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sphincter (noun)

A ring of muscle that contracts to close an opening.

- He looked up "sphincter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sphincter" during the group presentation.

spooks (noun)

A mental representation of some haunting experience.

- They discussed "spooks" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spooks" because he had never seen it before.

squires (noun)

An English country landowner.

- In class, the teacher used "squires" to mean an english country landowner.
- Understanding "squires" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stalinist (adjective)

Of or relating to Joseph Stalin or his times.

- The speaker chose "stalinist" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "stalinist."

stank (verb)

Be extremely bad in quality or in one's performance.

- He did not know how to use "stank" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "stank" when talking about this idea.

sternum (noun)

The flat bone that articulates with the clavicles and the first seven pairs of ribs.

- Understanding "sternum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sternum" during the group presentation.

---

stockbroker (noun)

An agent in the buying and selling of stocks and bonds.

- They discussed "stockbroker" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stockbroker" to mean an agent in the buying and selling of stocks and bonds.

---

stoppers (verb)

Close or secure with or as if with a stopper.

- She tried to use "stoppers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "stoppers" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

storytellers (noun)

Someone who tells a story.

- Understanding "storytellers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "storytellers" to mean someone who tells a story.

---

strait of messina (noun)

The strait separating Sicily from the tip of Italy.

- In class, the teacher used "strait of messina" to mean the strait separating sicily from the tip of italy.
- He looked up "strait of messina" because he had never seen it before.

---

strangulation (noun)

The act of suffocating (someone) by constricting the windpipe.

- Strangulation of the intestine.
- The article explained what "strangulation" means with a simple example.

---

stratification (noun)

The act or process or arranging persons into classes or social strata.

- Understanding "stratification" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "stratification" means with a simple example.

---

stratified (adjective)

Deposited or arranged in horizontal layers.

- Stratified rock.
- The speaker chose "stratified" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stratified language (noun)

A language that cannot be used as its own metalanguage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stratified language."
- They discussed "stratified language" during the group presentation.

---

streaked (adjective)

Marked with or as if with stripes or linear discolorations.

- Streaked hair.
- A "streaked" approach may work better in this case.

---

stretchy (adjective)

Capable of being easily stretched and resuming former size or shape.

- Students compared "stretchy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "stretchy" approach may work better in this case.

---

suckling (noun)

An infant considered in relation to its nurse.

- In class, the teacher used "suckling" to mean an infant considered in relation to its nurse.
- The article explained what "suckling" means with a simple example.

sucrose (noun)

A complex carbohydrate found in many plants and used as a sweetening agent.

- He looked up "sucrose" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sucrose" to mean a complex carbohydrate found in many plants and....

sundae (noun)

Ice cream served with a topping.

- He looked up "sundae" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sundae."

sundry (adjective)

Consisting of a haphazard assortment of different kinds; ; ; ; ; ; - I.A.Richards.

- Sundry sciences commonly known as social.
- A "sundry" approach may work better in this case.

supercomputer (noun)

A mainframe computer that is one of the most powerful available at a given time.

- He looked up "supercomputer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "supercomputer."

swampy (adjective)

(of soil) soft and watery.

- Swampy bayous.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "swampy."

synapse (noun)

The junction between two neurons (axon-to-dendrite) or between a neuron and a muscle.

- Nerve impulses cross a synapse through the action of neurotransmitters.
- The article explained what "synapse" means with a simple example.

takeover arbitrage (noun)

Arbitrage involving risk; as in the simultaneous purchase of stock in a target company and sale of stock in its potential acquirer; if the takeover fails the arbitrageur may lose a great deal of money.

- In class, the teacher used "takeover arbitrage" to mean arbitrage involving risk; as in the simultaneous....
- He looked up "takeover arbitrage" because he had never seen it before.

tasking (verb)

Assign a task to.

- In everyday English, people use "tasking" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "tasking" carefully so everyone would understand.

teresa of avila (noun)

Spanish mystic and religious reformer; author of religious classics and a Christian saint (1515-1582).

- In class, the teacher used "teresa of avila" to mean spanish mystic and religious reformer; author of....
- The article explained what "teresa of avila" means with a simple example.

thomas a becket (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) archbishop of Canterbury from 1162 to 1170; murdered following his opposition to Henry II's attempts to control the clergy (1118-1170).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas a becket."
- He looked up "thomas a becket" because he had never seen it before.

three-fourths (noun)

Three of four equal parts.

- Three-fourths of a pound.
- He looked up "three-fourths" because he had never seen it before.

tidings (noun)

Information about recent and important events.

- He looked up "tidings" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tidings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toothache (noun)

An ache localized in or around a tooth.

- They discussed "toothache" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toothache."

---

toothache tree (noun)

Small deciduous aromatic shrub (or tree) having spiny branches and yellowish flowers; eastern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toothache tree."
- He looked up "toothache tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

total hysterectomy (noun)

Surgical removal of the uterus and cervix.

- In class, the teacher used "total hysterectomy" to mean surgical removal of the uterus and cervix.
- They discussed "total hysterectomy" during the group presentation.

---

tranquillity (noun)

A disposition free from stress or emotion.

- He looked up "tranquillity" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tranquillity."

---

transitive (noun)

A verb (or verb construction) that requires an object in order to be grammatical.

- They discussed "transitive" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "transitive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trickling (verb)

Run or flow slowly, as in drops or in an unsteady stream.

- Can you use "trickling" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "trickling" when talking about this idea.

---

trigonometry (noun)

The mathematics of triangles and trigonometric functions.

- They discussed "trigonometry" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "trigonometry" because he had never seen it before.

---

trimmer arch (noun)

An arch built between trimmers in a floor (to support the weight of a hearth).

- Understanding "trimmer arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trimmer arch" because he had never seen it before.

---

trimmings (noun)

The accessories that normally accompany (something or some activity).

- He bought a Christmas tree and trimmings to decorate it.
- Understanding "trimmings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trouser cuff (noun)

A cuff on the bottoms of trouser legs.

- He looked up "trouser cuff" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trouser cuff."

---

turnip cabbage (noun)

A cruciferous plant with a thick bulbous edible yellow root.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turnip cabbage."

- They discussed "turnip cabbage" during the group presentation.

---

tutelage (noun)

Attention and management implying responsibility for safety.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tutelage."
- They discussed "tutelage" during the group presentation.

---

twos (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one or a numeral representing this number.

- They discussed "twos" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "twos" because he had never seen it before.

---

typhus (noun)

Rickettsial disease transmitted by body lice and characterized by skin rash and high fever.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "typhus."
- He looked up "typhus" because he had never seen it before.

---

typographical error (noun)

A mistake in printed matter resulting from mechanical failures of some kind.

- They discussed "typographical error" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "typographical error" means with a simple example.

---

uhf (noun)

300 to 3000 megahertz.

- They discussed "uhf" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "uhf" to mean 300 to 3000 megahertz.

---

unaffiliated (adjective)

Not affiliated.

- It is useful to describe something as "unaffiliated" when it is not affiliated.
- Would you call this situation "unaffiliated"? Explain why.

---

uncle remus (noun)

The fictional storyteller of tales written in the Black Vernacular and set in the South; the tales were first collected and published in book form in 1880.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uncle remus."
- He looked up "uncle remus" because he had never seen it before.

---

unconscionable (adjective)

Greatly exceeding bounds of reason or moderation.

- Unconscionable spending.
- An unconscionable liar.

---

underlines (noun)

A line drawn underneath (especially under written matter).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "underlines."
- Understanding "underlines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unflattering (adjective)

Showing or representing unfavorably.

- An unflattering portrait.
- The speaker chose "unflattering" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

unrecognizable (adjective)

Defying recognition as e.g. because of damage or alteration.

- Would you call this situation "unrecognizable"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unrecognizable."

---

uns (noun)

An organization of independent states formed in 1945 to promote international peace and security.

- In class, the teacher used "uns" to mean an organization of independent states formed in....
- He looked up "uns" because he had never seen it before.

---

unscheduled (adjective)

Not scheduled or not on a regular schedule.

- An unscheduled meeting.
- The plane made an unscheduled stop at Gander for refueling.

---

unstructured (adjective)

Lacking definite structure or organization.

- An unstructured situation with no one in authority.
- A neighborhood gang with a relatively unstructured system.

---

vagrant (noun)

A wanderer who has no established residence or visible means of support.

- They discussed "vagrant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "vagrant" means with a simple example.

---

veracruz (noun)

A major Mexican port on the Gulf of Mexico in the state of Veracruz.

- In class, the teacher used "veracruz" to mean a major mexican port on the gulf of mexico in the....
- He looked up "veracruz" because he had never seen it before.

Formal & Literary Vocabulary

quintessential (adjective)

Representing the most perfect or typical example of a quality, person, or thing.

- With its red phone boxes and rainy afternoons, the town is the quintessential English village.
- She is the quintessential professional: prepared, punctual, and precise.

---

ineffable (adjective)

Too great, extreme, or beautiful to be expressed or described in words.

- Standing beneath the northern lights, they felt an ineffable sense of wonder.
- The composer tried to capture the ineffable sorrow of that final farewell.

---

ostensibly (adverb)

According to what appears or is claimed to be true, though this may not be the real situation.

- He attended the conference ostensibly for research, but really to meet potential investors.
- The meeting was ostensibly about budgets, yet everyone knew layoffs were the true topic.

---

ephemeral (adjective)

Lasting for a very short time.

- Fame in the digital age can be ephemeral.
- Cherry blossoms are beautiful but ephemeral.

---

sanguine (adjective)

Optimistic or hopeful, especially in a difficult situation.

- Despite the losses, she remained sanguine about the company's future.
- His sanguine forecast proved far too optimistic.

---

perfunctory (adjective)

Done as a duty or routine, with little interest or care.

- He gave the report only a perfunctory glance.
- Their apology sounded perfunctory and insincere.

---

abstruse (adjective)

Difficult to understand; obscure and complex.

- The professor's abstruse lecture left most students confused.
- She enjoys abstruse mathematical puzzles.

---

prolix (adjective)

Using too many words; tediously long-winded.

- The prolix introduction delayed the main argument for pages.
- Editors cut his prolix draft by half.

---

recondite (adjective)

Little known; dealing with obscure or difficult subject matter.

- He specializes in recondite areas of medieval law.
- The book explores recondite philosophical questions.

---

pellucid (adjective)

Transparently clear in style or meaning; also, transparent like clear water.

- Her pellucid prose makes complex ideas easy to grasp.
- The lake was so pellucid that we could see the stones below.

---

inimical (adjective)

Harmful or hostile; opposing someone's interests.

- Smoking is inimical to good health.
- The climate proved inimical to the new crops.

---

vicissitude (noun)

A change of circumstances or fortune, usually one that is unwelcome or unpleasant.

- They endured the vicissitudes of a long economic crisis.
- Friendship survives the vicissitudes of life.

---

vertebral vein (noun)

A vein that goes through the foramina of the cervical vertebrae and forms a plexus around the vertebral artery; empties into the brachiocephalic vein.

- They discussed "vertebral vein" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vertebral vein" to mean a vein that goes through the foramina of the....

---

voiceless (adjective)

Produced without vibration of the vocal cords.

- Labor was voiceless.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "voiceless."

---

volga (noun)

A Russian river; the longest river in Europe; flows into the Caspian Sea.

- The article explained what "volga" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "volga."

---

volga river (noun)

A Russian river; the longest river in Europe; flows into the Caspian Sea.

- They discussed "volga river" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "volga river" because he had never seen it before.

---

volgograd (noun)

A city in the European part of Russia on the Volga; site of German defeat in World War II in the winter of 1942-43.

- They discussed "volgograd" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "volgograd" means with a simple example.

---

walkout (noun)

The act of walking out (of a meeting or organization) as a sign of protest.

- There was a walkout by the Black members as the chairman rose to speak.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walkout."

---

wands (noun)

A thin supple twig or rod.

- Stems bearing slender wands of flowers.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wands."

---

wearables (noun)

A covering designed to be worn on a person's body.

- Understanding "wearables" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "wearables" to mean a covering designed to be worn on a person's body.

---

wheat scab (noun)

A disease of the heads of wheat plants.

- In class, the teacher used "wheat scab" to mean a disease of the heads of wheat plants.
- They discussed "wheat scab" during the group presentation.

---

white prairie aster (noun)

Perennial of western North America having white flowers.

- He looked up "white prairie aster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "white prairie aster."

---

white-streaked (adjective)

Having white streaks.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "white-streaked."
- Would you call this situation "white-streaked"? Explain why.

---

willamette (noun)

A river in western Oregon that flows north into the Columbia River near Portland.

- In class, the teacher used "willamette" to mean a river in western oregon that flows north into the....
- Understanding "willamette" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

willamette river (noun)

A river in western Oregon that flows north into the Columbia River near Portland.

- Understanding "willamette river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "willamette river" because he had never seen it before.

---

willow aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- The article explained what "willow aster" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "willow aster" during the group presentation.

---

wimpy (adjective)

Weak and ineffectual.

- Would you call this situation "wimpy"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wimpy."

---

woodman (noun)

Someone who lives in the woods.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woodman."
- The article explained what "woodman" means with a simple example.

---

wordplay (noun)

A humorous play on words.

- In class, the teacher used "wordplay" to mean a humorous play on words.
- He looked up "wordplay" because he had never seen it before.

---

yellow warbler (noun)

Yellow-throated American wood warbler.

- They discussed "yellow warbler" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "yellow warbler" because he had never seen it before.

---

ablation (noun)

The erosive process that reduces the size of glaciers.

- Understanding "ablation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ablation" during the group presentation.

---

abo (noun)

A dark-skinned member of a race of people living in Australia when Europeans arrived.

- In class, the teacher used "abo" to mean a dark-skinned member of a race of people living in....
- The article explained what "abo" means with a simple example.

---

abo blood group system (noun)

A classification system for the antigens of human blood; used in blood transfusion therapy; four groups are A and B and AB and O.

- He looked up "abo blood group system" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "abo blood group system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abo group (noun)

A classification system for the antigens of human blood; used in blood transfusion therapy; four groups are A and B and AB and O.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abo group."
- He looked up "abo group" because he had never seen it before.

---

abo system (noun)

A classification system for the antigens of human blood; used in blood transfusion therapy; four groups are A and B and AB and O.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abo system."
- He looked up "abo system" because he had never seen it before.

---

accelerators (noun)

A pedal that controls the throttle valve.

- In class, the teacher used "accelerators" to mean a pedal that controls the throttle valve.
- He looked up "accelerators" because he had never seen it before.

---

acrobatic stunt (noun)

A stunt performed by an acrobat.

- In class, the teacher used "acrobatic stunt" to mean a stunt performed by an acrobat.
- He looked up "acrobatic stunt" because he had never seen it before.

---

actuator (noun)

A mechanism that puts something into automatic action.

- The article explained what "actuator" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "actuator."

---

admirals (noun)

The supreme commander of a fleet; ranks above a vice admiral and below a fleet admiral.

- They discussed "admirals" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "admirals" means with a simple example.

---

adrenalin (noun)

A catecholamine secreted by the adrenal medulla in response to stress (trade name Adrenalin); stimulates autonomic nerve action.

- In class, the teacher used "adrenalin" to mean a catecholamine secreted by the adrenal medulla in....
- He looked up "adrenalin" because he had never seen it before.

---

advertises (verb)

Make publicity for; try to sell (a product).

- She tried to use "advertises" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "advertises" until he saw an example.

---

agribusiness (noun)

A large-scale farming enterprise.

- They discussed "agribusiness" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "agribusiness" means with a simple example.

---

air embolism (noun)

Pain resulting from rapid change in pressure.

- He looked up "air embolism" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "air embolism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alexander the liberator (noun)

The son of Nicholas I who, as czar of Russia, introduced reforms that included limited emancipation of the serfs (1818-1881).

- They discussed "alexander the liberator" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "alexander the liberator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

algorithmic (adjective)

Of or relating to or having the characteristics of an algorithm.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "algorithmic."
- Would you call this situation "algorithmic"? Explain why.

---

algorithmic language (noun)

An artificial language designed to express algorithms.

- They discussed "algorithmic language" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "algorithmic language."

---

algorithmic program (noun)

A precise rule (or set of rules) specifying how to solve some problem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "algorithmic program."
- He looked up "algorithmic program" because he had never seen it before.

---

algorithmic rule (noun)

A precise rule (or set of rules) specifying how to solve some problem.

- They discussed "algorithmic rule" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "algorithmic rule" to mean a precise rule (or set of rules) specifying how to....

---

alignments (noun)

An organization of people (or countries) involved in a pact or treaty.

- In class, the teacher used "alignments" to mean an organization of people (or countries) involved....
- The article explained what "alignments" means with a simple example.

---

alleviating (verb)

Provide physical relief, as from pain.

- The coach explained when to use "alleviating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "alleviating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

alsace (noun)

A region of northeastern France famous for its wines.

- They discussed "alsace" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "alsace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alveolar arch (noun)

The part of the upper or lower jawbones in which the teeth are set.

- He looked up "alveolar arch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alveolar arch."

amass (verb)

Get or gather together.

- She is amassing a lot of data for her thesis.
- He did not know how to use "amass" until he saw an example.

amok (adverb)

Wildly; without self-control.

- Place "amok" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- She spoke "amok," and the audience immediately understood her point.

anatolia (noun)

A peninsula in southwestern Asia that forms the Asian part of Turkey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anatolia."
- Understanding "anatolia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

androgen (noun)

Male sex hormone that is produced in the testes and responsible for typical male sexual characteristics.

- In class, the teacher used "androgen" to mean male sex hormone that is produced in the testes and....
- The article explained what "androgen" means with a simple example.

angina (noun)

A heart condition marked by paroxysms of chest pain due to reduced oxygen to the heart.

- He looked up "angina" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "angina" to mean a heart condition marked by paroxysms of chest pain....

animating (adjective)

Giving spirit and vivacity.

- Students compared "animating" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "animating" when it is giving spirit and vivacity.

anthologies (noun)

A collection of selected literary passages.

- They discussed "anthologies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "anthologies" because he had never seen it before.

aortic aneurysm (noun)

An aneurysm of the aorta.

- He looked up "aortic aneurysm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aortic aneurysm."

apolitical (adjective)

Politically neutral.

- Would you call this situation "apolitical"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "apolitical" because it captured the feeling precisely.

apologist (noun)

A person who argues to defend or justify some policy or institution.

- An apologist for capital punishment.
- In class, the teacher used "apologist" to mean a person who argues to defend or justify some....

appalachia (noun)

An impoverished coal mining area in the Appalachian Mountains (from Pennsylvania to North Carolina).

- Understanding "appalachia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "appalachia" means with a simple example.

arcades (noun)

A covered passageway with shops and stalls on either side.

- The article explained what "arcades" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "arcades" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

archeology (noun)

The branch of anthropology that studies prehistoric people and their cultures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archeology."
- They discussed "archeology" during the group presentation.

---

ascending aorta (noun)

The ascending part of the aorta as it emerges from the left ventricle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ascending aorta."
- The article explained what "ascending aorta" means with a simple example.

---

asperger's syndrome (noun)

A psychiatric disorder usually noted during early school years; characterized by impaired social relations and by repetitive patterns of behavior.

- He looked up "asperger's syndrome" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "asperger's syndrome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

astrological (adjective)

Relating to or concerned with astrology.

- Astrological chart.
- It is useful to describe something as "astrological" when it is relating to or concerned with astrology.

---

attila the hun (noun)

King of the Huns; the most successful barbarian invader of the Roman Empire (406-453).

- They discussed "attila the hun" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "attila the hun" means with a simple example.

---

au fait (adjective)

Being up to particular standard or level especially in being up to date in knowledge.

- Always au fait on the latest events.
- It is useful to describe something as "au fait" when it is being up to particular standard or level especially....

---

auger (noun)

A long flexible steel coil for dislodging stoppages in curved pipes.

- He looked up "auger" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "auger" to mean a long flexible steel coil for dislodging stoppages....

---

babble (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- The two women babbled and crooned at the baby.
- Learners should practice how to use "babble" in real sentences.

---

babble out (verb)

Divulge confidential information or secrets.

- The coach explained when to use "babble out" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "babble out" until he saw an example.

---

balinese (noun)

The Indonesian language of the people of Bali.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "balinese."
- He looked up "balinese" because he had never seen it before.

---

bankruptcies (noun)

A state of complete lack of some abstract property.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bankruptcies."

- Understanding "bankruptcies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

barman (noun)

An employee who mixes and serves alcoholic drinks at a bar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barman."
- He looked up "barman" because he had never seen it before.

---

barrows (noun)

A cart for carrying small loads; has handles and one or more wheels.

- In class, the teacher used "barrows" to mean a cart for carrying small loads; has handles and....
- They discussed "barrows" during the group presentation.

---

baruch (noun)

A disciple of and secretary for the prophet Jeremiah.

- They discussed "baruch" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baruch."

---

beachfront (noun)

A strip of land running along a beach.

- Understanding "beachfront" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beachfront" during the group presentation.

---

bear's grape (noun)

Evergreen mat-forming shrub of North America and northern Eurasia having small white flowers and red berries; leaves turn red in autumn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bear's grape."
- He looked up "bear's grape" because he had never seen it before.

---

belted ammunition (noun)

Ammunition (usually of small caliber) loaded in flexible linked strips for use in a machine gun.

- They discussed "belted ammunition" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "belted ammunition" means with a simple example.

---

benin franc (noun)

The basic unit of money in Benin.

- He looked up "benin franc" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benin franc."

---

blighted (adjective)

Affected by blight; anything that mars or prevents growth or prosperity.

- A blighted rose.
- Blighted urban districts.

---

blinks (noun)

Small Indian lettuce of northern regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blinks."
- He looked up "blinks" because he had never seen it before.

---

book of baruch (noun)

An Apocryphal book ascribed to Baruch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of baruch."
- He looked up "book of baruch" because he had never seen it before.

---

book of malachi (noun)

An Old Testament book containing the prophecies of Malachi.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of malachi."
- He looked up "book of malachi" because he had never seen it before.

---

borrowings (noun)

The appropriation (of ideas or words etc) from another source.

- Understanding "borrowings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "borrowings" to mean the appropriation (of ideas or words etc) from....

---

bottom-dweller (noun)

A fish that lives and feeds on the bottom of a body of water.

- They discussed "bottom-dweller" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bottom-dweller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bouncers (noun)

A person whose duty is to throw troublemakers out of a bar or public meeting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bouncers."
- He looked up "bouncers" because he had never seen it before.

---

buoys (noun)

Bright-colored; a float attached by rope to the seabed to mark channels in a harbor or underwater hazards.

- He looked up "buoys" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "buoys" to mean bright-colored; a float attached by rope to the....

---

bushel basket (noun)

A basket large enough to hold a bushel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bushel basket."
- They discussed "bushel basket" during the group presentation.

---

cacao moth (noun)

Small moth whose larvae feed on tobacco and other dried plant products.

- The article explained what "cacao moth" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cacao moth" during the group presentation.

---

camouflaged (adjective)

Made invisible by means of protective coloring.

- Students compared "camouflaged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "camouflaged"? Explain why.

---

capital of djibouti (noun)

Port city on the Gulf of Aden; the capital and largest city of Djibouti.

- The article explained what "capital of djibouti" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "capital of djibouti" to mean port city on the gulf of aden; the capital and....

---

capital of liechtenstein (noun)

The capital and largest city of Liechtenstein.

- Understanding "capital of liechtenstein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capital of liechtenstein" during the group presentation.

---

cartesian (adjective)

Of or relating to Rene Descartes or his works.

- Cartesian linguistics.
- It is useful to describe something as "cartesian" when it is of or relating to rene descartes or his works.

---

cartesian product (noun)

The set of elements common to two or more sets.

- The article explained what "cartesian product" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cartesian product" during the group presentation.

---

castration anxiety (noun)

(psychoanalysis) anxiety resulting from real or imagined threats to your sexual functions; originally applied only to men but can in principle apply to women.

- He looked up "castration anxiety" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "castration anxiety" to mean (psychoanalysis) anxiety resulting from real or....

---

catalogued (verb)

Make an itemized list or catalog of; classify.

- He did not know how to use "catalogued" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "catalogued" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

catastrophes (noun)

An event resulting in great loss and misfortune.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catastrophes."
- The article explained what "catastrophes" means with a simple example.

---

cerberus (noun)

(Greek mythology) the three-headed dog guarding the entrance to Hades; son of Typhon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cerberus."
- They discussed "cerberus" during the group presentation.

---

chalkboard (noun)

Sheet of slate; for writing with chalk.

- The article explained what "chalkboard" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chalkboard" during the group presentation.

---

charles farrar browne (noun)

United States writer of humorous tales of an itinerant showman (1834-1867).

- They discussed "charles farrar browne" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "charles farrar browne" to mean united states writer of humorous tales of an....

---

charles lindbergh (noun)

United States aviator who in 1927 made the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean (1902-1974).

- The article explained what "charles lindbergh" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "charles lindbergh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

charles peirce (noun)

United States philosopher and logician; pioneer of pragmatism (1839-1914).

- He looked up "charles peirce" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "charles peirce" to mean united states philosopher and logician; pioneer of....

---

charlestown (noun)

A former town and present-day neighborhood of Boston; settled in 1629.

- In class, the teacher used "charlestown" to mean a former town and present-day neighborhood of....
- The article explained what "charlestown" means with a simple example.

---

charlotte bronte (noun)

English novelist; oldest of three Bronte sisters (1816-1855).

- He looked up "charlotte bronte" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charlotte bronte."

---

cheerios (noun)

A farewell remark.

- He looked up "cheerios" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheerios."

---

chef-d'oeuvre (noun)

The most outstanding work of a creative artist or craftsman.

- He looked up "chef-d'oeuvre" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chef-d'oeuvre" to mean the most outstanding work of a creative artist or....

chorizo (noun)

A spicy Spanish pork sausage.

- He looked up "chorizo" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chorizo" during the group presentation.

clever clogs (noun)

An intellectual who is ostentatiously and irritatingly knowledgeable.

- The article explained what "clever clogs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "clever clogs" to mean an intellectual who is ostentatiously and....

cockney (noun)

The nonstandard dialect of natives of the east end of London.

- He looked up "cockney" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cockney."

collated (verb)

To assemble in proper sequence.

- Learners should practice how to use "collated" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "collated" carefully so everyone would understand.

colonel blimp (noun)

A pompous reactionary cartoon character created by Sir David Low.

- He looked up "colonel blimp" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "colonel blimp" to mean a pompous reactionary cartoon character created by....

comically (adverb)

In a comical manner.

- The tone was comically desperate.
- Using "comically" can make your explanation more exact.

common wart (noun)

A benign growth (often with a rough surface).

- They discussed "common wart" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "common wart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commoners (noun)

A person who holds no title.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commoners."
- They discussed "commoners" during the group presentation.

compiles (verb)

Put together out of existing material.

- She tried to use "compiles" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "compiles" in real sentences.

conjoined (adjective)

Consisting of two or more associated entities; ; - J.K.Fairbank.

- The interplay of these conjoined yet opposed factors.
- A "conjoined" approach may work better in this case.

conjugated protein (noun)

A protein complex combining amino acids with other substances.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conjugated protein."
- Understanding "conjugated protein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

conservationists (noun)

Someone who works to protect the environment from destruction or pollution.

- In class, the teacher used "conservationists" to mean someone who works to protect the environment from....
- They discussed "conservationists" during the group presentation.

---

controversially (adverb)

Involving controversy.

- Place "controversially" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "controversially" naturally.

---

count alessandro volta (noun)

Italian physicist after whom the volt is named; studied electric currents and invented the voltaic pile (1745-1827).

- The article explained what "count alessandro volta" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "count alessandro volta" during the group presentation.

---

credo (noun)

Any system of principles or beliefs.

- The article explained what "credo" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "credo" during the group presentation.

---

crevices (noun)

A long narrow depression in a surface.

- In class, the teacher used "crevices" to mean a long narrow depression in a surface.
- He looked up "crevices" because he had never seen it before.

---

critter (noun)

A regional term for 'creature' (especially for domestic animals).

- The article explained what "critter" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "critter" during the group presentation.

---

culminates (verb)

End, especially to reach a final or climactic stage.

- In everyday English, people use "culminates" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "culminates" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cytoplasm (noun)

The protoplasm of a cell excluding the nucleus; is full of proteins that control cell metabolism.

- He looked up "cytoplasm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cytoplasm."

---

darpa (noun)

The central research and development organization for the United States Department of Defense; responsible for developing new surveillance technologies since 9/11.

- He looked up "darpa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "darpa."

---

deadbeat (noun)

Someone who fails to meet a financial obligation.

- In class, the teacher used "deadbeat" to mean someone who fails to meet a financial obligation.
- Understanding "deadbeat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deadbeat dad (noun)

A father who willfully defaults on his obligation to provide financial support for his offspring.

- They discussed "deadbeat dad" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deadbeat dad."

---

debauchery (noun)

A wild gathering involving excessive drinking and promiscuity.

- Understanding "debauchery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- They discussed "debauchery" during the group presentation.

---

decrepit (adjective)

Lacking bodily or muscular strength or vitality.

- A decrepit bus...its seats held together with friction tape.
- Would you call this situation "decrepit"? Explain why.

---

dejected (adjective)

Affected or marked by low spirits.

- Is dejected but trying to look cheerful.
- Would you call this situation "dejected"? Explain why.

---

democratization (noun)

The action of making something democratic.

- They discussed "democratization" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "democratization" to mean the action of making something democratic.

---

dented (adjective)

Of metal e.g.

- Dented fenders.
- Students compared "dented" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

deprecating (adjective)

Tending to diminish or disparage.

- Managed a deprecating smile at the compliment.
- It is useful to describe something as "deprecating" when it is tending to diminish or disparage.

---

derided (verb)

Treat or speak of with contempt.

- He derided his student's attempt to solve the biggest problem in mathematics.
- Can you use "derided" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

designates (verb)

Indicate a place, direction, person, or thing; either spatially or figuratively.

- Can you use "designates" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "designates" and when to wait.

---

despatched (verb)

Send away towards a designated goal.

- Can you use "despatched" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "despatched" and when to wait.

---

devil's turnip (noun)

White-flowered vine having thick roots and bearing small black berries; Europe to Iran.

- In class, the teacher used "devil's turnip" to mean white-flowered vine having thick roots and bearing....
- He looked up "devil's turnip" because he had never seen it before.

---

diabetes mellitus (noun)

Diabetes caused by a relative or absolute deficiency of insulin and characterized by polyuria.

- When doctors say 'diabetes' they usually mean 'diabetes mellitus'.
- He looked up "diabetes mellitus" because he had never seen it before.

---

dimples (noun)

A small natural hollow in the cheek or chin.

- There are approximately 336 dimples on a golf ball.
- In class, the teacher used "dimples" to mean a small natural hollow in the cheek or chin.

---

dirtiest (adjective)

Soiled or likely to soil with dirt or grime.

- Would you call this situation "dirtiest"? Explain why.
- A "dirtiest" approach may work better in this case.

---

dispersing medium (noun)

(of colloids) a substance in which another is colloidally dispersed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dispersing medium."
- He looked up "dispersing medium" because he had never seen it before.

---

dispersing phase (noun)

(of colloids) a substance in which another is colloidally dispersed.

- The article explained what "dispersing phase" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dispersing phase" to mean (of colloids) a substance in which another is....

---

djibouti (noun)

A country in northeastern Africa on the Somali peninsula; formerly under French control but became independent in 1997.

- In class, the teacher used "djibouti" to mean a country in northeastern africa on the somali....
- They discussed "djibouti" during the group presentation.

---

double refraction (noun)

Splitting a ray into two parallel rays polarized perpendicularly.

- Understanding "double refraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "double refraction."

---

driest (adjective)

Opposed to or prohibiting the production and sale of alcoholic beverages.

- The speaker chose "driest" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "driest" when it is opposed to or prohibiting the production and sale....

---

dry-wood termite (noun)

Any of various termites that live in and feed on dry wood that is not connected with the soil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dry-wood termite."
- He looked up "dry-wood termite" because he had never seen it before.

---

dubbing (noun)

A new soundtrack that is added to a film.

- They discussed "dubbing" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dubbing" because he had never seen it before.

---

dubuque (noun)

A town in eastern Iowa on the Mississippi River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dubuque."
- He looked up "dubuque" because he had never seen it before.

---

dweller (noun)

A person who inhabits a particular place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dweller."
- Understanding "dweller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dynastic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of a dynasty.

- A "dynastic" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "dynastic" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of a dynasty.

---

el giza (noun)

An ancient Egyptian city on the west bank of the Nile opposite Cairo; site of three Great Pyramids and the Sphinx.

- Understanding "el giza" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "el giza" means with a simple example.

---

el nino southern oscillation (noun)

A more intense El Nino that occurs every few years when the welling up of cold nutrient-rich water does not occur; kills plankton and fish and affects weather patterns.

- In class, the teacher used "el nino southern oscillation" to mean a more intense el nino that occurs every few years....
- The article explained what "el nino southern oscillation" means with a simple example.

---

elan (noun)

A feeling of strong eagerness (usually in favor of a person or cause).

- A performance of great elan and sophistication.
- Understanding "elan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

embarrassingly (adverb)

Causing embarrassment.

- The great man was embarrassingly humble and self-effacing.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "embarrassingly" naturally.

---

embolism (noun)

An insertion into a calendar.

- He looked up "embolism" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "embolism" during the group presentation.

---

emily bronte (noun)

English novelist; one of three Bronte sisters (1818-1848).

- Understanding "emily bronte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emily bronte."

---

enclose (verb)

Enclose or enfold completely with or as if with a covering.

- Darkness enclosed him.
- Can you use "enclose" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

entree (noun)

Something that provides access (to get in or get out).

- She made a graceful entree into the ballroom.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "entree."

---

enzymatic (adjective)

Of or relating to or produced by an enzyme.

- Would you call this situation "enzymatic"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "enzymatic" when it is of or relating to or produced by an enzyme.

---

eradicating (verb)

Destroy completely, as if down to the roots.

- Can you use "eradicating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "eradicating" when talking about this idea.

---

esophageal (adjective)

Relating to the esophagus.

- A "esophageal" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "esophageal."

---

essen (noun)

A city in western Germany; industrial center of the Ruhr.

- Understanding "essen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "essen" during the group presentation.

ex officio (adverb)

By virtue of position.

- The president sat on the committee ex officio.
- Place "ex officio" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

false bracken (noun)

Resembles Pteridium aquilinum; of Queensland, Australia.

- The article explained what "false bracken" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "false bracken" to mean resembles pteridium aquilinum; of queensland, australia.

fat embolism (noun)

Serious condition in which fat blocks an artery; fat can enter the blood stream after a long bone is fractured or if adipose tissue is injured or as a result of a fatty liver.

- The article explained what "fat embolism" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fat embolism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

field pansy (noun)

Common Old World viola with creamy often violet-tinged flowers.

- They discussed "field pansy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "field pansy" to mean common old world viola with creamy often....

firs (noun)

Any of various evergreen trees of the genus Abies; chiefly of upland areas.

- He looked up "firs" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "firs" during the group presentation.

first epistle to the corinthians (noun)

A New Testament book containing the first epistle from Saint Paul to the church at Corinth.

- He looked up "first epistle to the corinthians" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "first epistle to the corinthians" to mean a new testament book containing the first epistle....

flashlights (noun)

A small portable battery-powered electric lamp.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flashlights."
- The article explained what "flashlights" means with a simple example.

flat-topped white aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- He looked up "flat-topped white aster" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "flat-topped white aster" to mean a variety of aster.

flaunting (verb)

Display proudly; act ostentatiously or pretentiously.

- She tried to use "flaunting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "flaunting" when talking about this idea.

flavoring (noun)

Something added to food primarily for the savor it imparts.

- Understanding "flavoring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flavoring" means with a simple example.

flirtatious (adjective)

Like a coquette.

- It is useful to describe something as "flirtatious" when it is like a coquette.
- The speaker chose "flirtatious" because it captured the feeling precisely.

flue (noun)

A conduit to carry off smoke.

- Understanding "flue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flue" means with a simple example.

---

flue stop (noun)

An organ stop with the tone of a flue pipe.

- Understanding "flue stop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "flue stop" because he had never seen it before.

---

formulae (noun)

Something regarded as a normative example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "formulae."
- They discussed "formulae" during the group presentation.

---

frankfort (noun)

The capital of Kentucky; located in northern Kentucky.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frankfort."
- He looked up "frankfort" because he had never seen it before.

---

frederick moore vinson (noun)

United States jurist who served as chief justice of the Supreme Court (1890-1953).

- Understanding "frederick moore vinson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "frederick moore vinson" during the group presentation.

---

frescoes (noun)

A mural done with watercolors on wet plaster.

- In class, the teacher used "frescoes" to mean a mural done with watercolors on wet plaster.
- They discussed "frescoes" during the group presentation.

---

gam (noun)

A herd of whales.

- The article explained what "gam" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gam" to mean a herd of whales.

---

gas embolism (noun)

Pain resulting from rapid change in pressure.

- The article explained what "gas embolism" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gas embolism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gatherer (noun)

A person who is employed to collect payments (as for rent or taxes).

- They were a society of hunters and gatherers.
- He looked up "gatherer" because he had never seen it before.

---

generative (adjective)

Having the ability to produce or originate.

- Generative power.
- Generative forces.

---

gentleness (noun)

The property possessed by a slope that is very gradual.

- His fingers have learned gentleness.
- In class, the teacher used "gentleness" to mean the property possessed by a slope that is very gradual.

---

genus chara (noun)

Green algae common in freshwater lakes of limestone districts.

- The article explained what "genus chara" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "genus chara" to mean green algae common in freshwater lakes of limestone....

---

genus chlamydia (noun)

Type genus of the family Chlamydiaceae: disease-causing parasites.

- In class, the teacher used "genus chlamydia" to mean type genus of the family chlamydiaceae:....
- They discussed "genus chlamydia" during the group presentation.

---

genus manta (noun)

A genus of Mobulidae.

- The article explained what "genus manta" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus manta."

---

genus sequoia (noun)

Redwoods; until recently considered a genus of a separate family Taxodiaceae.

- They discussed "genus sequoia" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "genus sequoia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gerard manley hopkins (noun)

English poet (1844-1889).

- The article explained what "gerard manley hopkins" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "gerard manley hopkins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ghouls (noun)

Someone who takes bodies from graves and sells them for anatomical dissection.

- He looked up "ghouls" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ghouls."

---

gnarly (adjective)

Used of old persons or old trees; covered with knobs or knots.

- A "gnarly" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "gnarly" when it is used of old persons or old trees; covered with....

---

gnostic (adjective)

Of or relating to Gnosticism.

- Gnostic writings.
- The speaker chose "gnostic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gourd vine (noun)

Any vine of the family Cucurbitaceae that bears fruits with hard rinds.

- The article explained what "gourd vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gourd vine" to mean any vine of the family cucurbitaceae that bears....

---

graf zeppelin (noun)

A large rigid dirigible designed to carry passengers or bombs.

- They discussed "graf zeppelin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graf zeppelin."

---

gray flounder (noun)

Flounder found from North Carolina to Florida and the eastern Gulf of Mexico.

- He looked up "gray flounder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gray flounder."

---

greenbelt (noun)

A belt of parks or rural land surrounding a town or city.

- He looked up "greenbelt" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "greenbelt" to mean a belt of parks or rural land surrounding a town or....

---

grey flounder (noun)

Flounder found from North Carolina to Florida and the eastern Gulf of Mexico.

- Understanding "grey flounder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "grey flounder" because he had never seen it before.

---

guadalajara (noun)

A city in southwestern Mexico; a popular health resort and site of architecture from the Spanish colonial era.

- They discussed "guadalajara" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "guadalajara" to mean a city in southwestern mexico; a popular health....

---

handicrafts (noun)

A work produced by hand labor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "handicrafts."
- They discussed "handicrafts" during the group presentation.

---

haphazard (adjective)

Dependent upon or characterized by chance.

- A haphazard plan of action.
- A most haphazard system of record keeping.

---

hart's-tongue (noun)

Eurasian fern with simple lanceolate fronds.

- He looked up "hart's-tongue" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hart's-tongue."

---

headliners (noun)

A performer who receives prominent billing.

- They discussed "headliners" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "headliners" means with a simple example.

---

hippos (noun)

An ancient Numidian town in northwestern Africa adjoining present-day Annaba in northeastern Algeria.

- They discussed "hippos" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hippos."

---

horned chameleon (noun)

A kind of chameleon.

- He looked up "horned chameleon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "horned chameleon" to mean a kind of chameleon.

---

huck (noun)

Toweling consisting of coarse absorbent cotton or linen fabric.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "huck."
- The article explained what "huck" means with a simple example.

---

hyperion (noun)

(Greek mythology) a Titan who was the son of Gaea and Uranus and the father of Helios and Selene and Eos in ancient mythology.

- Understanding "hyperion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "hyperion" means with a simple example.

---

hypersensitivity (noun)

Pathological sensitivity.

- The article explained what "hypersensitivity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hypersensitivity" to mean pathological sensitivity.

---

ibn-sina (noun)

Arabian physician and influential Islamic philosopher; his interpretation of Aristotle influenced St. Thomas Aquinas; writings on medicine were important for almost 500 years (980-1037).

- They discussed "ibn-sina" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ibn-sina" means with a simple example.

---

inaccuracy (noun)

The quality of being inaccurate and having errors.

- Understanding "inaccuracy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "inaccuracy" means with a simple example.

---

inadmissible (adjective)

Not deserving to be admitted.

- Inadmissible evidence.
- Would you call this situation "inadmissible"? Explain why.

---

indecision (noun)

The trait of irresolution; a lack of firmness of character or purpose.

- His indecision was only momentary but the opportunity was lost.
- They discussed "indecision" during the group presentation.

---

indomitable (adjective)

Impossible to subdue.

- Would you call this situation "indomitable"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "indomitable" when it is impossible to subdue.

---

infidel (noun)

A person who does not acknowledge your god.

- They discussed "infidel" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "infidel" because he had never seen it before.

---

inhabits (verb)

Exist or be situated within.

- The coach explained when to use "inhabits" and when to wait.
- Can you use "inhabits" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

inr (noun)

An agency that is the primary source in the State Department for interpretive analyses of global developments and focal point for policy issues and activities of the Intelligence Community.

- They discussed "inr" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inr."

---

insemination (noun)

The introduction of semen into the genital tract of a female.

- He looked up "insemination" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "insemination" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insinuating (adjective)

Calculated to please or gain favor.

- A "insinuating" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "insinuating" when it is calculated to please or gain favor.

---

inst (adjective)

In or of the present month.

- Your letter of the 10th inst.
- Would you call this situation "inst"? Explain why.

---

intelligible (adjective)

Well articulated or enunciated, and loud enough to be heard distinctly.

- Intelligible pronunciation.
- Would you call this situation "intelligible"? Explain why.

interstitial tissue (noun)

Tissue between the cells of a structure or part in plant or animal.

- They discussed "interstitial tissue" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interstitial tissue."

intervenes (verb)

Occur between other event or between certain points of time.

- This interludes intervenes between the two movements.
- He did not know how to use "intervenes" until he saw an example.

ionizing (verb)

Become converted into ions.

- Can you use "ionizing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "ionizing" carefully so everyone would understand.

irrevocably (adverb)

In an irrevocable manner.

- Place "irrevocably" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- The narrator describes the scene "irrevocably" in the final chapter.

island-dweller (noun)

An inhabitant of an island.

- The article explained what "island-dweller" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "island-dweller" to mean an inhabitant of an island.

islets (noun)

A small island.

- In class, the teacher used "islets" to mean a small island.
- Understanding "islets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ivanov (noun)

Russian choreographer (1834-1905).

- They discussed "ivanov" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ivanov."

james naismith (noun)

United States educator (born in Canada) who invented the game of basketball (1861-1939).

- They discussed "james naismith" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "james naismith" because he had never seen it before.

jane goodall (noun)

English zoologist noted for her studies of chimpanzees in the wild (born in 1934).

- Understanding "jane goodall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jane goodall" because he had never seen it before.

jocks (noun)

A support for the genitals worn by men engaging in strenuous exercise.

- He looked up "jocks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jocks."

jurisdictional (adjective)

Restricted to the geographic area under a particular jurisdiction.

- The jurisdictional limits of a state.
- Would you call this situation "jurisdictional"? Explain why.

kama (noun)

Hindu god of love and erotic desire; opposite of Mara.

- Understanding "kama" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kama" to mean hindu god of love and erotic desire; opposite of mara.

---

kidnapper (noun)

Someone who unlawfully seizes and detains a victim (usually for ransom).

- He looked up "kidnapper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kidnapper."

---

knesset (noun)

The Israeli unicameral parliament.

- The article explained what "knesset" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "knesset" during the group presentation.

---

krypton (noun)

A colorless element that is one of the six inert gasses; occurs in trace amounts in air.

- They discussed "krypton" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "krypton" because he had never seen it before.

---

lapel (noun)

Lap at the front of a coat; continuation of the coat collar.

- He looked up "lapel" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lapel" during the group presentation.

---

leaped (verb)

Pass abruptly from one state or topic to another.

- Can you use "leaped" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "leaped" until he saw an example.

---

liao (noun)

The dynasty that ruled much of Manchuria and northeastern China from 947 to 1125.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liao."
- Understanding "liao" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lichen (noun)

Any of several eruptive skin diseases characterized by hard thick lesions grouped together and resembling lichens growing on rocks.

- The article explained what "lichen" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lichen."

---

liechtenstein (noun)

A small landlocked principality (constitutional monarchy) in central Europe located in the Alps between Austria and Switzerland.

- They discussed "liechtenstein" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "liechtenstein" because he had never seen it before.

---

lindbergh (noun)

United States aviator who in 1927 made the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean (1902-1974).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lindbergh."
- He looked up "lindbergh" because he had never seen it before.

---

lino (noun)

A floor covering.

- Understanding "lino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lino" because he had never seen it before.

---

litmus (noun)

A coloring material (obtained from lichens) that turns red in acid solutions and blue in alkaline solutions; used as a very rough acid-base indicator.

- He looked up "litmus" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "litmus."

---

litmus paper (noun)

Unsized paper treated with litmus for use as an acid-base indicator.

- Understanding "litmus paper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "litmus paper" means with a simple example.

---

litmus test (noun)

A test that relies on a single indicator.

- Her litmus test for good breeding is whether you split infinitives.
- He looked up "litmus test" because he had never seen it before.

---

magellan (noun)

Portuguese navigator in the service of Spain; he commanded an expedition that was the first to circumnavigate the world (1480-1521).

- They discussed "magellan" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "magellan" to mean portuguese navigator in the service of spain; he....

---

magnificently (adverb)

In an impressively beautiful manner.

- He answered "magnificently," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- Using "magnificently" can make your explanation more exact.

---

magnify (verb)

To enlarge beyond bounds or the truth.

- In everyday English, people use "magnify" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "magnify" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

malachi (noun)

A Hebrew minor prophet of the 5th century BC.

- They discussed "malachi" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "malachi."

---

manna gum (noun)

Tall tree yielding a false manna.

- Understanding "manna gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "manna gum" because he had never seen it before.

---

marcus aurelius (noun)

Emperor of Rome; nephew and son-in-law and adoptive son of Antonius Pius; Stoic philosopher; the decline of the Roman Empire began under Marcus Aurelius (121-180).

- The article explained what "marcus aurelius" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marcus aurelius."

---

margaret higgins sanger (noun)

United States nurse who campaigned for birth control and planned parenthood; she challenged Gregory Pincus to develop a birth control pill (1883-1966).

- Understanding "margaret higgins sanger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "margaret higgins sanger" to mean united states nurse who campaigned for birth....

---

marques (noun)

A name given to a product or service.

- He looked up "marques" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marques" during the group presentation.

---

matador (noun)

The principal bullfighter who is appointed to make the final passes and kill the bull.

- In class, the teacher used "matador" to mean the principal bullfighter who is appointed to make....
- The article explained what "matador" means with a simple example.

---

mendel (noun)

Augustinian monk and botanist whose experiments in breeding garden peas led to his eventual recognition as founder of the science of genetics (1822-1884).

- They discussed "mendel" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mendel."

---

meniscus (noun)

(optics) a lens that is concave on one side and convex on the other.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meniscus."
- Understanding "meniscus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

menthol (noun)

A lotion containing menthol which gives it the smell of mint.

- The article explained what "menthol" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "menthol" to mean a lotion containing menthol which gives it the....

---

methodically (adverb)

In a methodical manner.

- She worked methodically.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "methodically" naturally.

---

mightily (adverb)

(Southern regional intensive) very; to a great degree.

- They rejoiced mightily.
- He strove mightily to achieve a better position in life.

---

misjudged (verb)

Judge incorrectly.

- She tried to use "misjudged" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "misjudged" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

miso (noun)

A thick paste made from fermented soybeans and barley or rice malt; used in Japanese cooking to make soups or sauces.

- Understanding "miso" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "miso" to mean a thick paste made from fermented soybeans and....

---

misplaced modifier (noun)

A word or phrase apparently modifying an unintended word because of its placement in a sentence: e.g., 'when young' in 'when young, circuses appeal to all of us'.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "misplaced modifier."
- He looked up "misplaced modifier" because he had never seen it before.

---

monotone (noun)

A single tone repeated with different words or different rhythms (especially in rendering liturgical texts).

- The article explained what "monotone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "monotone" to mean a single tone repeated with different words or....

---

monstrosity (noun)

A person or animal that is markedly unusual or deformed.

- They regarded the atom bomb as a monstrosity.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monstrosity."

---

mount rushmore (noun)

A mountain in the Black Hills of South Dakota; the likenesses of Washington and Jefferson and Lincoln and Roosevelt are carved on it.

- He looked up "mount rushmore" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mount rushmore."

---

mount rushmore state (noun)

A state in north central United States.

- They discussed "mount rushmore state" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mount rushmore state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mourns (verb)

Observe the customs of mourning after the death of a loved one.

- The coach explained when to use "mourns" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "mourns" until he saw an example.

---

mowed (verb)

Make a sad face and thrust out one's lower lip.

- Learners should practice how to use "mowed" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "mowed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

mst (noun)

Standard time in the 7th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 105th meridian west; used in the mountain states of the United States.

- He looked up "mst" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mst."

---

muscular dystrophy (noun)

Any of several hereditary diseases of the muscular system characterized by weakness and wasting of skeletal muscles.

- Understanding "muscular dystrophy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "muscular dystrophy" during the group presentation.

---

mushroom pimple (noun)

Any of various fungi of the family Hypocreaceae.

- The article explained what "mushroom pimple" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mushroom pimple" to mean any of various fungi of the family hypocreaceae.

---

muskets (noun)

A muzzle-loading shoulder gun with a long barrel; formerly used by infantrymen.

- In class, the teacher used "muskets" to mean a muzzle-loading shoulder gun with a long barrel;....
- Understanding "muskets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mutter (noun)

A complaint uttered in a low and indistinct tone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mutter."
- He looked up "mutter" because he had never seen it before.

---

naismith (noun)

United States educator (born in Canada) who invented the game of basketball (1861-1939).

- The article explained what "naismith" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "naismith" to mean united states educator (born in canada) who....

---

navigators (noun)

The ship's officer in charge of navigation.

- In class, the teacher used "navigators" to mean the ship's officer in charge of navigation.
- The article explained what "navigators" means with a simple example.

---

neb (noun)

A long projecting or anterior elongation of an animal's head; especially the nose.

- The article explained what "neb" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "neb" to mean a long projecting or anterior elongation of an....

---

nerve plexus (noun)

A network of intersecting nerves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nerve plexus."
- They discussed "nerve plexus" during the group presentation.

new world warbler (noun)

Small bright-colored American songbird with a weak unmusical song.

- They discussed "new world warbler" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "new world warbler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nimble-fingered (adjective)

Having nimble fingers literally or figuratively; especially for stealing or picking pockets; - Harry Hansen; - Time.

- It is useful to describe something as "nimble-fingered" when it is having nimble fingers literally or figuratively;....
- Students compared "nimble-fingered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

nineveh (noun)

An ancient Assyrian city on the Tigris across from the modern city of Mosul in the northern part of what is now known as Iraq.

- They discussed "nineveh" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nineveh."

nostril (noun)

Either one of the two external openings to the nasal cavity in the nose.

- They discussed "nostril" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nostril."

nothings (noun)

Inconsequential conversation.

- They traded a few nothings as they parted.
- He looked up "nothings" because he had never seen it before.

numeral (noun)

A symbol used to represent a number.

- He learned to write the numerals before he went to school.
- In class, the teacher used "numeral" to mean a symbol used to represent a number.

oddity (noun)

A strange attitude or habit.

- They discussed "oddity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oddity" to mean a strange attitude or habit.

odious (adjective)

Unequivocally detestable; ; ; ; - Edmund Burke.

- Consequences odious to those you govern.
- A "odious" approach may work better in this case.

odo (noun)

French pope from 1088 to 1099 whose sermons called for the First Crusade (1042-1099).

- He looked up "odo" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "odo" to mean french pope from 1088 to 1099 whose sermons called....

offbeat (noun)

An unaccented beat (especially the last beat of a measure).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "offbeat."
- The article explained what "offbeat" means with a simple example.

old world warbler (noun)

Small active brownish or greyish Old World birds.

- In class, the teacher used "old world warbler" to mean small active brownish or greyish old world birds.
- The article explained what "old world warbler" means with a simple example.

omb (noun)

The executive agency that advises the President on the federal budget.

- In class, the teacher used "omb" to mean the executive agency that advises the president on....
- They discussed "omb" during the group presentation.

---

omens (noun)

A sign of something about to happen.

- In class, the teacher used "omens" to mean a sign of something about to happen.
- The article explained what "omens" means with a simple example.

---

opportunist (noun)

A person who places expediency above principle.

- The article explained what "opportunist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "opportunist" to mean a person who places expediency above principle.

---

orifice (noun)

An aperture or hole that opens into a bodily cavity.

- The orifice into the aorta from the lower left chamber of the heart.
- They discussed "orifice" during the group presentation.

---

ornamentation (noun)

The act of adding extraneous decorations to something.

- The article explained what "ornamentation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ornamentation."

---

overcoat (noun)

A heavy coat worn over clothes in winter.

- The article explained what "overcoat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overcoat."

---

overreaction (noun)

An excessive reaction; a reaction with inappropriate emotional behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overreaction."
- The article explained what "overreaction" means with a simple example.

---

overused (verb)

Make use of too often or too extensively.

- Can you use "overused" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "overused" when talking about this idea.

---

painkiller (noun)

A medicine used to relieve pain.

- They discussed "painkiller" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "painkiller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

panchayat (noun)

A village council in India or southern Pakistan.

- They discussed "panchayat" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "panchayat" to mean a village council in india or southern pakistan.

---

pansy (noun)

A timid man or boy considered childish or unassertive.

- The article explained what "pansy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pansy" during the group presentation.

---

pant-hoot (verb)

Communicate by hooting and panting, as of primates.

- The coach explained when to use "pant-hoot" and when to wait.

- Learners should practice how to use "pant-hoot" in real sentences.

---

parading (verb)

March in a procession.

- The coach explained when to use "parading" and when to wait.
- Can you use "parading" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

parietal bone (noun)

Either of two skull bones between the frontal and occipital bones and forming the top and sides of the cranium.

- In class, the teacher used "parietal bone" to mean either of two skull bones between the frontal and....
- He looked up "parietal bone" because he had never seen it before.

---

pars anterior (noun)

The anterior part of the anterior pituitary.

- In class, the teacher used "pars anterior" to mean the anterior part of the anterior pituitary.
- They discussed "pars anterior" during the group presentation.

---

parti-color (verb)

Make motley; color with different colors.

- The coach explained when to use "parti-color" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "parti-color" in real sentences.

---

pathologists (noun)

A doctor who specializes in medical diagnosis.

- They discussed "pathologists" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pathologists" to mean a doctor who specializes in medical diagnosis.

---

patter (noun)

A quick succession of light rapid sounds.

- The patter of mice.
- The patter of tiny feet.

---

pearly everlasting (noun)

An American everlasting having foliage with soft wooly hairs and corymbose heads with pearly white bracts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pearly everlasting."
- He looked up "pearly everlasting" because he had never seen it before.

---

pebble-grained (adjective)

(of leather) having a rough surface as the result of being treated with a patterned roller.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pebble-grained."
- Students compared "pebble-grained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

peerage (noun)

The peers of a kingdom considered as a group.

- The article explained what "peerage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "peerage" to mean the peers of a kingdom considered as a group.

---

peirce (noun)

United States philosopher and logician; pioneer of pragmatism (1839-1914).

- Understanding "peirce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "peirce" during the group presentation.

---

peregrine falcon (noun)

A widely distributed falcon formerly used in falconry.

- In class, the teacher used "peregrine falcon" to mean a widely distributed falcon formerly used in falconry.
- Understanding "peregrine falcon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

permissive (adjective)

Granting or inclined or able to grant permission; not strict in discipline.

- Direct primary legislation is largely permissive rather than prescriptive.
- Permissive parents.

---

permissive waste (noun)

(law) reduction in the value of an estate caused by act or neglect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permissive waste."
- He looked up "permissive waste" because he had never seen it before.

---

phrased (verb)

Put into words or an expression.

- He did not know how to use "phrased" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "phrased" in real sentences.

---

pieced (verb)

To join or unite the pieces of.

- She pieced a quilt.
- He pieced at the sandwich all morning.

---

pip-squeak (noun)

Someone who is small and insignificant.

- He looked up "pip-squeak" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pip-squeak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

placate (verb)

Cause to be more favorably inclined; gain the good will of.

- The coach explained when to use "placate" and when to wait.
- Can you use "placate" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ploughed (adjective)

(of farmland) broken and turned over with a plow.

- Students compared "ploughed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "ploughed" approach may work better in this case.

---

polynomials (noun)

A mathematical function that is the sum of a number of terms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polynomials."
- The article explained what "polynomials" means with a simple example.

---

posited (verb)

Take as a given; assume as a postulate or axiom.

- He posited three basic laws of nature.
- She posited her hand on his shoulder.

---

powdery (adjective)

As if dulled in color with a sprinkling of powder.

- A powdery blue.
- Powdery snow.

---

powdery-blue (adjective)

Of a moderate to pale blue or purplish blue.

- A "powdery-blue" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "powdery-blue"? Explain why.

---

prairie gourd (noun)

Small hard green-and-white inedible fruit of the prairie gourd plant.

- They discussed "prairie gourd" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prairie gourd" means with a simple example.

---

pram (noun)

A small vehicle with four wheels in which a baby or child is pushed around.

- In class, the teacher used "pram" to mean a small vehicle with four wheels in which a baby or....
- He looked up "pram" because he had never seen it before.

---

prescriptive (adjective)

Pertaining to giving directives or rules.

- Prescriptive grammar is concerned with norms of or rules for correct usage.
- Students compared "prescriptive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

preying (verb)

Profit from in an exploitatory manner.

- The coach explained when to use "preying" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "preying" until he saw an example.

---

punta arenas (noun)

A city in southern Chile on the Strait of Magellan; the southernmost city in the world.

- In class, the teacher used "punta arenas" to mean a city in southern chile on the strait of magellan;....
- They discussed "punta arenas" during the group presentation.

---

purifying (adjective)

Freeing from noxious matter.

- Filtration is a purifying agent.
- A "purifying" approach may work better in this case.

---

puritans (noun)

A person excessively concerned about propriety and decorum.

- He looked up "puritans" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "puritans" during the group presentation.

---

quads (noun)

A muscle of the thigh that extends the leg.

- Understanding "quads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "quads" during the group presentation.

---

radicalized (verb)

Make more radical in social or political outlook.

- Her work in the developing world radicalized her.
- She tried to use "radicalized" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rampart (noun)

An embankment built around a space for defensive purposes.

- They stormed the ramparts of the city.
- The article explained what "rampart" means with a simple example.

---

rapporteur (noun)

A recorder appointed by a committee to prepare reports of the meetings.

- He looked up "rapporteur" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rapporteur."

---

reaped (verb)

Gather, as of natural products.

- Can you use "reaped" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "reaped" and when to wait.

recesses (noun)

A pause from doing something (as work).

- The article explained what "recesses" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recesses" to mean a pause from doing something (as work).

redeemable (adjective)

Recoverable upon payment or fulfilling a condition.

- Redeemable goods in a pawnshop.
- Redeemable stocks and bonds.

redistribute (verb)

Distribute anew.

- Redistribute the troops more strategically.
- Learners should practice how to use "redistribute" in real sentences.

redistributed (adjective)

Having population and industries relocated from urban to outlying areas.

- Redistributed industries.
- Students compared "redistributed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

refraction (noun)

The amount by which a propagating wave is bent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "refraction."
- They discussed "refraction" during the group presentation.

reinvented (verb)

Bring back into existence.

- The candidate reinvented the concept of national health care so that he would get elected.
- He reinvented African music for American listeners.

rejections (noun)

The act of rejecting something.

- He looked up "rejections" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rejections."

rejuvenated (verb)

Return to life; get or give new life or energy.

- The land rejuvenated.
- The contact with his grandchildren rejuvenated him.

reminiscences (noun)

The process of remembering (especially the process of recovering information by mental effort).

- He looked up "reminiscences" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "reminiscences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

remittances (noun)

A payment of money sent to a person in another place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "remittances."
- He looked up "remittances" because he had never seen it before.

remus (noun)

(Roman mythology) the twin brother of Romulus.

- He looked up "remus" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "remus" during the group presentation.

renewals (noun)

The conversion of wasteland into land suitable for use of habitation or cultivation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "renewals."
- He looked up "renewals" because he had never seen it before.

---

renter (noun)

An owner of property who receives payment for its use by another person.

- Understanding "renter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "renter."

---

republic of vanuatu (noun)

A volcanic island republic in Melanesia; independent since 1980.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "republic of vanuatu."
- He looked up "republic of vanuatu" because he had never seen it before.

---

revels (verb)

Celebrate noisily, often indulging in drinking; engage in uproarious festivities.

- In everyday English, people use "revels" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "revels" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

revolvers (noun)

A pistol with a revolving cylinder (usually having six chambers for bullets).

- He looked up "revolvers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revolvers."

---

rhinoceros beetle (noun)

Any of various large chiefly tropical beetles having horns on the head; pest on coconuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rhinoceros beetle."
- Understanding "rhinoceros beetle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ringside (noun)

First row of seating; has an unobstructed view of a boxing or wrestling ring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ringside."
- He looked up "ringside" because he had never seen it before.

---

ringside seat (noun)

First row of seating; has an unobstructed view of a boxing or wrestling ring.

- In class, the teacher used "ringside seat" to mean first row of seating; has an unobstructed view of a....
- The article explained what "ringside seat" means with a simple example.

---

rinsed (verb)

Rinse one's mouth and throat with mouthwash.

- In everyday English, people use "rinsed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "rinsed" until he saw an example.

---

riverbank (noun)

The bank of a river.

- He looked up "riverbank" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "riverbank" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

robert abram bartlett (noun)

United States explorer who accompanied Peary's expedition to the North Pole and who led many other Arctic trips (1875-1946).

- They discussed "robert abram bartlett" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert abram bartlett."

---

robert emmet sherwood (noun)

United States playwright (1896-1955).

- They discussed "robert emmet sherwood" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert emmet sherwood."

---

rockingham (noun)

English statesman who served as prime minister and who opposed the war with the American colonies (1730-1782).

- The article explained what "rockingham" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rockingham" to mean english statesman who served as prime minister and....

---

roofed (adjective)

Covered with a roof; having a roof as specified (often used in combination).

- Roofed picnic areas.
- A slate-roofed house.

---

rowers (noun)

Someone who rows a boat.

- Understanding "rowers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "rowers" because he had never seen it before.

---

safes (noun)

A ventilated or refrigerated cupboard for securing provisions from pests.

- Understanding "safes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "safes" to mean a ventilated or refrigerated cupboard for securing....

---

scoundrel (noun)

A wicked or evil person; someone who does evil deliberately.

- The article explained what "scoundrel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "scoundrel" during the group presentation.

---

scouted (verb)

Explore, often with the goal of finding something or somebody.

- In everyday English, people use "scouted" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "scouted" in real sentences.

---

seamstress (noun)

Someone who makes or mends dresses.

- In class, the teacher used "seamstress" to mean someone who makes or mends dresses.
- They discussed "seamstress" during the group presentation.

---

second epistle to the corinthians (noun)

A New Testament book containing the second epistle from Saint Paul to the church at Corinth.

- He looked up "second epistle to the corinthians" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "second epistle to the corinthians" during the group presentation.

---

self-deprecating (adjective)

Conscious of your own shortcomings.

- The speaker chose "self-deprecating" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "self-deprecating" when it is conscious of your own shortcomings.

---

sevastopol (noun)

A city in southern Ukraine on the Black Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "sevastopol" to mean a city in southern ukraine on the black sea.
- The article explained what "sevastopol" means with a simple example.

---

shifty (adjective)

Characterized by insincerity or deceit; evasive.

- Shifty eyes.
- Shifty winds.

---

showman (noun)

A person skilled at making effective presentations.

- The article explained what "showman" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "showman" during the group presentation.

slacking (noun)

The evasion of work or duty.

- He looked up "slacking" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "slacking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

slashes (noun)

A strong sweeping cut made with a sharp instrument.

- They discussed "slashes" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "slashes" means with a simple example.

slob (noun)

A coarse obnoxious person.

- In class, the teacher used "slob" to mean a coarse obnoxious person.
- He looked up "slob" because he had never seen it before.

sneezes (verb)

Exhale spasmodically, as when an irritant entered one's nose.

- In everyday English, people use "sneezes" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "sneezes" until he saw an example.

snubbed (verb)

Reject outright and bluntly.

- She snubbed his proposal.
- Can you use "snubbed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sojourn (noun)

A temporary stay (e.g., as a guest).

- He looked up "sojourn" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sojourn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sounders (noun)

A device for making soundings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sounders."
- He looked up "sounders" because he had never seen it before.

sourdough bread (noun)

Made with a starter of a small amount of dough in which fermentation is active.

- He looked up "sourdough bread" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sourdough bread" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

soured (adjective)

Having turned bad.

- Students compared "soured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "soured."

sousa (noun)

A United States bandmaster and composer of military marches (1854-1932).

- The article explained what "sousa" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sousa" during the group presentation.

southernmost (adjective)

Situated farthest south.

- Key West is the southernmost city in the continental United States.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "southernmost."

---

speckled trout (noun)

A delicious freshwater food fish.

- The article explained what "speckled trout" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "speckled trout" to mean a delicious freshwater food fish.

---

splatter (noun)

A small quantity of something moist or liquid.

- A splatter of mud.
- The article explained what "splatter" means with a simple example.

---

sputnik (noun)

A Russian artificial satellite.

- Sputnik was the first man-made satellite to orbit the earth.
- Understanding "sputnik" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

squint-eyed (adjective)

(used especially of glances) directed to one side with or as if with doubt or suspicion or envy; - Elizabeth Bowen.

- Students compared "squint-eyed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "squint-eyed"? Explain why.

---

squirting (adjective)

Propelled violently in a usually narrow stream.

- Would you call this situation "squirting"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "squirting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stanhope (noun)

A light open horse-drawn carriage with two or four wheels and one seat.

- Understanding "stanhope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stanhope."

---

sticky aster (noun)

Wild aster having leafy stems and flower heads with narrow bright reddish-lavender or purple rays; western Colorado to Arizona.

- Understanding "sticky aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sticky aster" means with a simple example.

---

stipulate (verb)

Specify as a condition or requirement in a contract or agreement; make an express demand or provision in an agreement.

- The will stipulates that she can live in the house for the rest of her life.
- The contract stipulates the dates of the payments.

---

stipulations (noun)

A restriction that is insisted upon as a condition for an agreement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stipulations."
- The article explained what "stipulations" means with a simple example.

---

straddle (verb)

Range or extend over; occupy a certain area.

- The plants straddle the entire state.
- He did not know how to use "straddle" until he saw an example.

---

subbing (noun)

Working as a substitute for someone who is ill or on leave of absence.

- Understanding "subbing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subbing."

sussex spaniel (noun)

An English breed with short legs and a golden liver-colored coat.

- They discussed "sussex spaniel" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sussex spaniel" to mean an english breed with short legs and a golden....

swatches (noun)

A sample piece of cloth.

- Understanding "swatches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swatches."

sweet nothings (noun)

Inconsequential expressions of affection.

- He whispered sweet nothings into her ear.
- In class, the teacher used "sweet nothings" to mean inconsequential expressions of affection.

sweeten (verb)

Make sweeter, more pleasant, or more agreeable.

- Sweeten a deal.
- Can you use "sweeten" in a sentence that fits this situation?

swinger (noun)

A person who engages freely in promiscuous sex.

- They discussed "swinger" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "swinger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tabor pipe (noun)

A small fipple flute that is played with the left hand while the right hand is free to beat a tabor.

- Understanding "tabor pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tabor pipe" means with a simple example.

tallies (noun)

The act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending order.

- In class, the teacher used "tallies" to mean the act of counting; reciting numbers in ascending....
- Understanding "tallies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

talons (noun)

A sharp hooked claw especially on a bird of prey.

- The article explained what "talons" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talons."

tawny (adjective)

Of a light brown to brownish orange color; the color of tanned leather.

- A "tawny" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "tawny" when it is of a light brown to brownish orange color; the....

tawny-brown (adjective)

Of a light brown to brownish orange color; the color of tanned leather.

- Would you call this situation "tawny-brown"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "tawny-brown" when it is of a light brown to brownish orange color; the....

telescopic sight (noun)

Gunsight consisting of a telescope on a firearm for use as a sight.

- He looked up "telescopic sight" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "telescopic sight" to mean gunsight consisting of a telescope on a firearm for....

tenured (adjective)

Appointed for life and not subject to dismissal except for a grave crime.

- A tenured professor.
- The speaker chose "tenured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

terriers (noun)

Any of several usually small short-bodied breeds originally trained to hunt animals living underground.

- He looked up "terriers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "terriers."

---

thick-lipped (adjective)

Having thick lips.

- Would you call this situation "thick-lipped"? Explain why.
- Students compared "thick-lipped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

throwaway (noun)

An advertisement (usually printed on a page or in a leaflet) intended for wide distribution.

- Understanding "throwaway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "throwaway" means with a simple example.

---

thunderous (adjective)

Loud enough to cause (temporary) hearing loss.

- World events of thunderous import.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thunderous."

---

tigris (noun)

An Asian river; a tributary of the Euphrates River.

- He looked up "tigris" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tigris."

---

tigris river (noun)

An Asian river; a tributary of the Euphrates River.

- In class, the teacher used "tigris river" to mean an asian river; a tributary of the euphrates river.
- He looked up "tigris river" because he had never seen it before.

---

transcontinental (adjective)

Spanning or crossing or on the farther side of a continent.

- Transcontinental railway.
- Transcontinental travelers.

---

trims (noun)

A state of arrangement or appearance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trims."
- They discussed "trims" during the group presentation.

---

true warbler (noun)

Small active brownish or greyish Old World birds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "true warbler."
- Understanding "true warbler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tweezers (noun)

A hand tool for holding consisting of a compound lever for grasping.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tweezers."
- They discussed "tweezers" during the group presentation.

---

typographical (adjective)

Relating to or occurring or used in typography.

- A typographical error.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "typographical."

---

unbeknownst (adjective)

(usually used with 'to') occurring or existing without the knowledge of.

- She had been ill for months, unbeknownst to the family.
- Would you call this situation "unbeknownst"? Explain why.

---

unchained (adjective)

Not bound by shackles and chains.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unchained."
- Students compared "unchained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unedited (adjective)

Not changed by editing.

- Students compared "unedited" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unedited."

---

unleashes (verb)

Turn loose or free from restraint.

- She tried to use "unleashes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "unleashes" when talking about this idea.

---

uplands (noun)

Elevated (e.g., mountainous) land.

- The article explained what "uplands" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "uplands" to mean elevated (e.g., mountainous) land.

---

uppsala (noun)

A city in east central Sweden to the northwest of Stockholm.

- Understanding "uppsala" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "uppsala" means with a simple example.

---

upstanding (adjective)

Meriting respect or esteem.

- An upstanding member of the community.
- A "upstanding" approach may work better in this case.

---

urinary incontinence (noun)

Inability to control the flow of urine and involuntary urination.

- They discussed "urinary incontinence" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "urinary incontinence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vapors (noun)

A state of depression.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vapors."
- The article explained what "vapors" means with a simple example.

---

venous sinus (noun)

A wide channel containing blood; does not have the coating of an ordinary blood vessel.

- In class, the teacher used "venous sinus" to mean a wide channel containing blood; does not have the....
- The article explained what "venous sinus" means with a simple example.

---

vertebra (noun)

One of the bony segments of the spinal column.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vertebra."
- They discussed "vertebra" during the group presentation.

---

viaduct (noun)

Bridge consisting of a series of arches supported by piers used to carry a road (or railroad) over a valley.

- Understanding "viaduct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "viaduct" during the group presentation.

---

vino (noun)

Fermented juice (of grapes especially).

- In class, the teacher used "vino" to mean fermented juice (of grapes especially).
- The article explained what "vino" means with a simple example.

---

violet-flowered (adjective)

Having a violet color.

- It is useful to describe something as "violet-flowered" when it is having a violet color.
- Would you call this situation "violet-flowered"? Explain why.

---

viral hemorrhagic fever (noun)

A group of illnesses caused by a viral infection (usually restricted to a specific geographic area); fever and gastrointestinal symptoms are followed by capillary hemorrhage.

- They discussed "viral hemorrhagic fever" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "viral hemorrhagic fever" to mean a group of illnesses caused by a viral infection....

---

voracious (adjective)

Devouring or craving food in great quantities.

- Voracious sharks.
- Paying taxes to voracious governments.

---

warbler (noun)

A singer; usually a singer who adds embellishments to the song.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warbler."
- Understanding "warbler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wart (noun)

An imperfection in someone or something that is suggestive of a wart (especially in smallness or unattractiveness).

- Understanding "wart" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wart."

---

wasabi (noun)

A Japanese plant of the family Cruciferae with a thick green root.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wasabi."
- Understanding "wasabi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

waterworks (noun)

A public utility that provides water.

- The article explained what "waterworks" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "waterworks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wettest (adjective)

Containing moisture or volatile components.

- Students compared "wettest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "wettest"? Explain why.

---

whammy (noun)

A serious or devastating setback.

- He put the whammy on me.
- They discussed "whammy" during the group presentation.

---

whines (noun)

A complaint uttered in a plaintive whining way.

- In class, the teacher used "whines" to mean a complaint uttered in a plaintive whining way.
- The article explained what "whines" means with a simple example.

---

wild pansy (noun)

A common and long cultivated European herb from which most common garden pansies are derived.

- They discussed "wild pansy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild pansy."

---

wilful (adjective)

Habitually disposed to disobedience and opposition.

- A "wilful" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wilful."

---

william penn adair rogers (noun)

United States humorist remembered for his homespun commentary on politics and American society (1879-1935).

- The article explained what "william penn adair rogers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william penn adair rogers" to mean united states humorist remembered for his homespun....

---

wittgenstein (noun)

British philosopher born in Austria; a major influence on logic and logical positivism (1889-1951).

- The article explained what "wittgenstein" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wittgenstein."

---

wood warbler (noun)

European woodland warbler with dull yellow plumage.

- In class, the teacher used "wood warbler" to mean european woodland warbler with dull yellow plumage.
- The article explained what "wood warbler" means with a simple example.

---

wye (noun)

The 25th letter of the Roman alphabet.

- They discussed "wye" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wye" because he had never seen it before.

---

yams (noun)

Sweet potato with deep orange flesh that remains moist when baked.

- He looked up "yams" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "yams" to mean sweet potato with deep orange flesh that remains....

---

yorktown (noun)

A historic village in southeastern Virginia to the north of Newport News; site of the last battle of the American Revolution.

- The article explained what "yorktown" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "yorktown" to mean a historic village in southeastern virginia to the....

---

zeitgeist (noun)

The spirit of the time; the spirit characteristic of an age or generation.

- In class, the teacher used "zeitgeist" to mean the spirit of the time; the spirit characteristic....
- The article explained what "zeitgeist" means with a simple example.

---

a priori (adjective)

Involving deductive reasoning from a general principle to a necessary effect; not supported by fact.

- An a priori judgment.
- Students compared "a priori" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

abstained (verb)

Choose not to consume.

- In everyday English, people use "abstained" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "abstained" in real sentences.

accretion (noun)

An increase by natural growth or addition.

- He scraped away the accretions of paint.
- The central city surrounded by recent accretions.

acrobatic feat (noun)

A stunt performed by an acrobat.

- He looked up "acrobatic feat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "acrobatic feat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

activator (noun)

(biology) any agency bringing about activation; a molecule that increases the activity of an enzyme or a protein that increases the production of a gene product in DNA transcription.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "activator."
- He looked up "activator" because he had never seen it before.

aeroplanes (noun)

An aircraft that has a fixed wing and is powered by propellers or jets.

- He looked up "aeroplanes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "aeroplanes" during the group presentation.

affirmations (noun)

The act of affirming or asserting or stating something.

- They discussed "affirmations" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "affirmations" to mean the act of affirming or asserting or stating something.

afresh (adverb)

Again but in a new or different way.

- Start afresh.
- Using "afresh" can make your explanation more exact.

alder blight (noun)

A disease of alders caused by the woolly alder aphid (a plant louse).

- He looked up "alder blight" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alder blight" during the group presentation.

alfred bernhard nobel (noun)

Swedish chemist remembered for his invention of dynamite and for the bequest that created the Nobel prizes (1833-1896).

- In class, the teacher used "alfred bernhard nobel" to mean swedish chemist remembered for his invention of....
- He looked up "alfred bernhard nobel" because he had never seen it before.

allotments (noun)

The act of distributing by allotting or apportioning; distribution according to a plan.

- They discussed "allotments" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "allotments" because he had never seen it before.

alveolar ridge (noun)

A ridge that forms the borders of the upper and lower jaws and contains the sockets of the teeth.

- They discussed "alveolar ridge" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alveolar ridge."

anne bronte (noun)

English novelist; youngest of three Bronte sisters (1820-1849).

- Understanding "anne bronte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "anne bronte" to mean english novelist; youngest of three bronte sisters....

annular (adjective)

Shaped like a ring.

- The speaker chose “annular” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation “annular”? Explain why.

---

appetizers (noun)

Food or drink to stimulate the appetite (usually served before a meal or as the first course).

- The article explained what “appetizers” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “appetizers” during the group presentation.

---

apple maggot (noun)

Larvae bore into and feed on apples.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “apple maggot.”
- Understanding “apple maggot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

appraised (verb)

Evaluate or estimate the nature, quality, ability, extent, or significance of.

- I will have the family jewels appraised by a professional.
- He appraised the situation carefully before acting.

---

appreciable (adjective)

Enough to be estimated or measured.

- Appreciable amounts of noxious wastes are dumped into the harbor.
- Students compared “appreciable” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

aquila (noun)

The provincial capital of the Abruzzi region in central Italy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “aquila.”
- The article explained what “aquila” means with a simple example.

---

arthur schlesinger (noun)

United States historian and advisor to President Kennedy (born in 1917).

- The article explained what “arthur schlesinger” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “arthur schlesinger” to mean united states historian and advisor to president....

---

associative (adjective)

Characterized by or causing or resulting from the process of bringing ideas or events together in memory or imagination.

- Associative learning.
- The speaker chose “associative” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

assuredly (adverb)

Without a doubt.

- The grammar schools were assuredly not intended for the gentry alone.
- Place “assuredly” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

atherosclerosis (noun)

A stage of arteriosclerosis involving fatty deposits (atheromas) inside the arterial walls, thus narrowing the arteries.

- In class, the teacher used “atherosclerosis” to mean a stage of arteriosclerosis involving fatty....
- The article explained what “atherosclerosis” means with a simple example.

---

auctioneers (noun)

An agent who conducts an auction.

- He looked up “auctioneers” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “auctioneers” during the group presentation.

---

audio lingual acquisition (noun)

System of language acquisition focusing intensively on listening and speaking.

- The article explained what “audio lingual acquisition” means with a simple example.

- They discussed "audio lingual acquisition" during the group presentation.

---

aural (adjective)

Of or pertaining to hearing or the ear.

- An animal with a very sensitive aural apparatus.
- Various aural effects that precede a migraine headache.

---

automakers (noun)

A business engaged in the manufacture of automobiles.

- He looked up "automakers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "automakers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

backroom (noun)

The meeting place of a group of leaders who make their decisions via private negotiations.

- In class, the teacher used "backroom" to mean the meeting place of a group of leaders who make....
- The article explained what "backroom" means with a simple example.

---

backroom boy (noun)

An expert adviser involved in making important decisions but usually lacking official status.

- Understanding "backroom boy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "backroom boy" means with a simple example.

---

baited (verb)

Harass with persistent criticism or carping.

- He did not know how to use "baited" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "baited" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

ballast resistor (noun)

A resistor inserted into a circuit to compensate for changes (as those arising from temperature fluctuations).

- In class, the teacher used "ballast resistor" to mean a resistor inserted into a circuit to compensate....
- He looked up "ballast resistor" because he had never seen it before.

---

bap (noun)

A small loaf or roll of soft bread.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bap."
- The article explained what "bap" means with a simple example.

---

barracuda (noun)

Any voracious marine fish of the genus Sphyraena having an elongated cylindrical body and large mouth with projecting lower jaw and long strong teeth.

- The article explained what "barracuda" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "barracuda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

belarusian (adjective)

Of or pertaining to Belarus or to the people or culture of Belarus.

- It is useful to describe something as "belarusian" when it is of or pertaining to belarus or to the people or....
- Students compared "belarusian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

bench vise (noun)

A holding device attached to a workbench; has two jaws to hold workpiece firmly in place.

- They discussed "bench vise" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bench vise" to mean a holding device attached to a workbench; has two....

---

benefitting (verb)

Derive a benefit from.

- In everyday English, people use "benefitting" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "benefitting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

benevolence (noun)

An inclination to do kind or charitable acts.

- In class, the teacher used "benevolence" to mean an inclination to do kind or charitable acts.
- They discussed "benevolence" during the group presentation.

---

benzene nucleus (noun)

A closed chain of 6 carbon atoms with hydrogen atoms attached.

- In class, the teacher used "benzene nucleus" to mean a closed chain of 6 carbon atoms with hydrogen....
- He looked up "benzene nucleus" because he had never seen it before.

---

bettering (adjective)

Changing for the better.

- Students compared "bettering" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "bettering"? Explain why.

---

bewitched (adjective)

Under a spell.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bewitched."
- Students compared "bewitched" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

bitter cassava (noun)

Cassava with long tuberous edible roots and soft brittle stems; used especially to make cassiri (an intoxicating drink) and tapioca.

- He looked up "bitter cassava" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter cassava."

---

black-necked cobra (noun)

Aggressive cobra widely distributed in Africa; rarely bites but spits venom that may cause blindness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black-necked cobra."
- He looked up "black-necked cobra" because he had never seen it before.

---

blazes (noun)

A light within the field of vision that is brighter than the brightness to which the eyes are adapted.

- Go to blazes.
- Raising blazes.

---

blimp (noun)

A small nonrigid airship used for observation or as a barrage balloon.

- He looked up "blimp" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "blimp" to mean a small nonrigid airship used for observation or as....

---

bodywork (noun)

The work of making or repairing vehicle bodies.

- They discussed "bodywork" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bodywork" because he had never seen it before.

---

bondholders (noun)

A holder of bonds issued by a government or corporation.

- Understanding "bondholders" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bondholders" during the group presentation.

---

bookcase (noun)

A piece of furniture with shelves for storing books.

- They discussed "bookcase" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bookcase."

---

bracken (noun)

Fern of southeastern Asia; not hardy in cold temperate regions.

- In class, the teacher used "bracken" to mean fern of southeastern asia; not hardy in cold....
- The article explained what "bracken" means with a simple example.

---

braxton bragg (noun)

Confederate general during the American Civil War who was defeated by Grant in the battle of Chattanooga (1817-1876).

- They discussed "braxton bragg" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "braxton bragg" to mean confederate general during the american civil war....

---

bridle (noun)

The act of restraining power or action or limiting excess.

- His common sense is a bridle to his quick temper.
- Understanding "bridle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bridle at (verb)

Show anger or indignation.

- Can you use "bridle at" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "bridle at" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bridle path (noun)

A path suitable for riding or leading horses (but not for cars).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bridle path."
- The article explained what "bridle path" means with a simple example.

---

bridle road (noun)

A path suitable for riding or leading horses (but not for cars).

- In class, the teacher used "bridle road" to mean a path suitable for riding or leading horses (but....
- Understanding "bridle road" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bridle up (verb)

Show anger or indignation.

- He did not know how to use "bridle up" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "bridle up" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bronte sisters (noun)

A 19th century family of three sisters who all wrote novels.

- They discussed "bronte sisters" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bronte sisters" to mean a 19th century family of three sisters who all....

---

buckwheat cake (noun)

A pancake made with buckwheat flour.

- Understanding "buckwheat cake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "buckwheat cake" because he had never seen it before.

---

bullshitting (verb)

Speak insincerely or without regard for facts or truths.

- In everyday English, people use "bullshitting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "bullshitting" until he saw an example.

---

capital of vanuatu (noun)

Capital of Vanuatu.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of vanuatu."
- He looked up "capital of vanuatu" because he had never seen it before.

---

castration (noun)

The deletion of objectionable parts from a literary work.

- Bilateral castration results in sterilization.
- In class, the teacher used "castration" to mean the deletion of objectionable parts from a literary....

cathay (noun)

A communist nation that covers a vast territory in eastern Asia; the most populous country in the world.

- He looked up "cathay" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cathay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

caudal (adjective)

Situated in or directed toward the part of the body from which the tail arises.

- Caudal fins.
- The caudal end of the body.

caudal block (noun)

Regional anesthesia resulting from injection of an anesthetic into the caudal end of the spinal canal; now largely replaced by epidural anesthesia.

- The article explained what "caudal block" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "caudal block" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

charing (verb)

Burn slightly and superficially so as to affect color.

- Learners should practice how to use "charing" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "charing" and when to wait.

cheeseburgers (noun)

A hamburger with melted cheese on it.

- The article explained what "cheeseburgers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cheeseburgers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chews (verb)

Chew (food); to bite and grind with the teeth.

- The coach explained when to use "chews" and when to wait.
- Can you use "chews" in a sentence that fits this situation?

chiffon cake (noun)

Very light cake.

- They discussed "chiffon cake" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chiffon cake."

chiles (noun)

A republic in southern South America on the western slopes of the Andes on the south Pacific coast.

- Understanding "chiles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "chiles" during the group presentation.

choruses (noun)

A group of people assembled to sing together.

- In class, the teacher used "choruses" to mean a group of people assembled to sing together.
- The article explained what "choruses" means with a simple example.

chowder (noun)

A thick soup or stew made with milk and bacon and onions and potatoes.

- He looked up "chowder" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chowder."

chromosomal mutation (noun)

(genetics) any event that changes genetic structure; any alteration in the inherited nucleic acid sequence of the genotype of an organism.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chromosomal mutation."
- Understanding "chromosomal mutation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

clary (noun)

Aromatic herb of southern Europe; cultivated in Great Britain as a potherb and widely as an ornamental.

- They discussed "clary" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clary."

---

clinching (verb)

Secure or fasten by flattening the ends of nails or bolts.

- Can you use "clinching" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "clinching" and when to wait.

---

coaxial cable (noun)

A transmission line for high-frequency signals.

- In class, the teacher used "coaxial cable" to mean a transmission line for high-frequency signals.
- He looked up "coaxial cable" because he had never seen it before.

---

cogs (noun)

A subordinate who performs an important but routine function.

- Understanding "cogs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cogs" means with a simple example.

---

collarbone (noun)

Bone linking the scapula and sternum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "collarbone."
- The article explained what "collarbone" means with a simple example.

---

colonize (verb)

Settle as colonists or establish a colony (in).

- The British colonized the East Coast.
- Europeans colonized Africa in the 17th century.

---

condolence (noun)

An expression of sympathy with another's grief.

- They sent their condolences.
- In class, the teacher used "condolence" to mean an expression of sympathy with another's grief.

---

conjugated (adjective)

Of an organic compound; containing two or more double bonds each separated from the other by a single bond.

- A conjugated protein.
- Students compared "conjugated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

conquerors (noun)

Someone who is victorious by force of arms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conquerors."
- He looked up "conquerors" because he had never seen it before.

---

consents (verb)

Give an affirmative reply to; respond favorably to.

- Can you use "consents" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "consents" when talking about this idea.

---

constructively (adverb)

In a constructive manner.

- It is my task to look critically and constructively at the flaws and the failures.
- She spoke "constructively," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

cordoba (noun)

A city in southern Spain; center of Moorish culture.

- He looked up "cordoba" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cordoba."

---

cotter pin (noun)

A cotter consisting of a split pin that is secured (after passing through a hole) by splitting the ends apart.

- Understanding "cotter pin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cotter pin."

---

crackle (verb)

To become, or to cause to become, covered with a network of small cracks.

- The blazing sun crackled the desert sand.
- My Rice Krispies crackled in the bowl.

---

crackle china (noun)

Glazed china with a network of fine cracks on the surface.

- In class, the teacher used "crackle china" to mean glazed china with a network of fine cracks on the....
- He looked up "crackle china" because he had never seen it before.

---

crematorium (noun)

A furnace where a corpse can be burned and reduced to ashes.

- He looked up "crematorium" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "crematorium" to mean a furnace where a corpse can be burned and reduced....

---

crests (noun)

The top or extreme point of something (usually a mountain or hill).

- In class, the teacher used "crests" to mean the top or extreme point of something (usually a....
- Understanding "crests" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

croissant (noun)

Very rich flaky crescent-shaped roll.

- He looked up "croissant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "croissant" to mean very rich flaky crescent-shaped roll.

---

crustaceans (noun)

Any mainly aquatic arthropod usually having a segmented body and chitinous exoskeleton.

- He looked up "crustaceans" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crustaceans."

---

cryogenic (adjective)

Of or relating to very low temperatures.

- The speaker chose "cryogenic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "cryogenic"? Explain why.

---

curbs (noun)

The act of restraining power or action or limiting excess.

- The article explained what "curbs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "curbs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

curriculum vitae (noun)

A summary of your academic and work history.

- In class, the teacher used "curriculum vitae" to mean a summary of your academic and work history.
- They discussed "curriculum vitae" during the group presentation.

---

dally (verb)

Talk or behave amorously, without serious intentions.

- Get busy–don't dally!
- Learners should practice how to use "dally" in real sentences.

---

david hilbert (noun)

German mathematician (1862-1943).

- Understanding "david hilbert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "david hilbert" means with a simple example.

---

decoded (verb)

Convert code into ordinary language.

- The coach explained when to use "decoded" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "decoded" in real sentences.

---

decontamination (noun)

The removal of contaminants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "decontamination."
- The article explained what "decontamination" means with a simple example.

---

deja vu (noun)

The experience of thinking that a new situation had occurred before.

- They discussed "deja vu" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "deja vu" because he had never seen it before.

---

delving (verb)

Turn up, loosen, or remove earth.

- Can you use "delving" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "delving" and when to wait.

---

demonstrably (adverb)

In an obvious and provable manner.

- His documentary sources are demonstrably wrong.
- Place "demonstrably" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

deniers (noun)

A unit of measurement for the fineness of silk or nylon or rayon.

- Understanding "deniers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deniers."

---

depositors (noun)

A person who has deposited money in a bank or similar institution.

- Understanding "depositors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "depositors" to mean a person who has deposited money in a bank or....

---

despises (verb)

Look down on with disdain.

- He despises the people he has to work for.
- Learners should practice how to use "despises" in real sentences.

---

devolve (verb)

Pass on or delegate to another.

- The representative devolved his duties to his aides while he was in the hospital.
- The estate devolved to an heir that everybody had assumed to be dead.

---

devolve on (verb)

Be contingent on.

- She tried to use "devolve on" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "devolve on" in real sentences.

---

devotes (verb)

Set aside or apart for a specific purpose or use.

- Learners should practice how to use "devotes" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "devotes" and when to wait.

---

diffuser (noun)

Baffle that distributes sound waves evenly.

- He looked up "diffuser" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "diffuser" during the group presentation.

---

dispersing (verb)

To cause to separate and go in different directions.

- Learners should practice how to use "dispersing" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "dispersing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

disposals (noun)

The power to use something or someone.

- In class, the teacher used "disposals" to mean the power to use something or someone.
- They discussed "disposals" during the group presentation.

---

dupe (noun)

A person who is tricked or swindled.

- He looked up "dupe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dupe."

---

duster (noun)

A windstorm that lifts up clouds of dust or sand.

- It was the kind of duster not experienced in years.
- The article explained what "duster" means with a simple example.

---

eames chair (noun)

A chair designed by Charles Eames; originally made of molded plywood; seat and back shaped to fit the human body.

- In class, the teacher used "eames chair" to mean a chair designed by charles eames; originally made....
- The article explained what "eames chair" means with a simple example.

---

eatery (noun)

A building where people go to eat.

- Understanding "eatery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "eatery" to mean a building where people go to eat.

---

electric shaver (noun)

A razor powered by an electric motor.

- In class, the teacher used "electric shaver" to mean a razor powered by an electric motor.
- The article explained what "electric shaver" means with a simple example.

---

elms (noun)

Hard tough wood of an elm tree; used for e.g. implements and furniture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elms."
- He looked up "elms" because he had never seen it before.

---

elongate (verb)

Make long or longer by pulling and stretching.

- Can you use "elongate" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "elongate" when talking about this idea.

---

elude (verb)

Be incomprehensible to; escape understanding by.

- What you are seeing in him eludes me.
- The thief eluded the police.

embattled (adjective)

Having or resembling repeated square indentations like those in a battlement.

- An embattled city.
- Students compared "embattled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

enamored (adjective)

Marked by foolish or unreasoning fondness.

- The speaker chose "enamored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "enamored"? Explain why.

encephalitis (noun)

Inflammation of the brain usually caused by a virus; symptoms include headache and neck pain and drowsiness and nausea and fever ('phrenitis' is no longer in scientific use).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "encephalitis."
- He looked up "encephalitis" because he had never seen it before.

endowments (noun)

The act of endowing with a permanent source of income.

- In class, the teacher used "endowments" to mean the act of endowing with a permanent source of income.
- He looked up "endowments" because he had never seen it before.

entertainments (noun)

An activity that is diverting and that holds the attention.

- The article explained what "entertainments" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "entertainments" to mean an activity that is diverting and that holds the....

enthralled (adjective)

Filled with wonder and delight.

- The speaker chose "enthralled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "enthralled" when it is filled with wonder and delight.

epidural anesthesia (noun)

Regional anesthesia resulting from injection of an anesthetic into the epidural space of the spinal cord; sensation is lost in the abdominal and genital and pelvic areas; used in childbirth and gynecological surgery.

- The article explained what "epidural anesthesia" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epidural anesthesia."

escalates (verb)

Increase in extent or intensity.

- Can you use "escalates" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "escalates" until he saw an example.

eskimos (noun)

A member of a people inhabiting the Arctic (northern Canada or Greenland or Alaska or eastern Siberia); the Algonquians called them Eskimo ('eaters of raw flesh') but they call themselves the Inuit ('the people').

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eskimos."
- He looked up "eskimos" because he had never seen it before.

esplanade (noun)

A long stretch of open level ground (paved or grassy) for walking beside the seashore.

- They discussed "esplanade" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "esplanade" because he had never seen it before.

etch (verb)

Cause to stand out or be clearly defined or visible.

- A face etched with pain.
- The leafless branches etched against the sky.

ethel barrymore (noun)

United States actress; daughter of Maurice Barrymore and Georgiana Barrymore (1879-1959).

- They discussed "ethel barrymore" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "ethel barrymore" because he had never seen it before.

---

evangelists (noun)

A preacher of the Christian gospel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evangelists."
- They discussed "evangelists" during the group presentation.

---

excavating (verb)

Find by digging in the ground.

- The coach explained when to use "excavating" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "excavating" until he saw an example.

---

expelling (noun)

Any of several bodily processes by which substances go out of the body.

- Understanding "expelling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "expelling" means with a simple example.

---

fairgrounds (noun)

An open area for holding fairs or exhibitions or circuses.

- In class, the teacher used "fairgrounds" to mean an open area for holding fairs or exhibitions or....
- They discussed "fairgrounds" during the group presentation.

---

fallacies (noun)

A misconception resulting from incorrect reasoning.

- Understanding "fallacies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fallacies" during the group presentation.

---

false saber-toothed tiger (noun)

North American cat of the Miocene and Pliocene; much earlier and less specialized than members of the genus Smiledon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false saber-toothed tiger."
- He looked up "false saber-toothed tiger" because he had never seen it before.

---

fannie merritt farmer (noun)

An expert on cooking whose cookbook has undergone many editions (1857-1915).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fannie merritt farmer."
- Understanding "fannie merritt farmer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

farted (verb)

Expel intestinal gases through the anus.

- Learners should practice how to use "farted" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "farted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

favoritism (noun)

An inclination to favor some person or group.

- In class, the teacher used "favoritism" to mean an inclination to favor some person or group.
- He looked up "favoritism" because he had never seen it before.

---

fenders (noun)

A barrier that surrounds the wheels of a vehicle to block splashing water or mud.

- They discussed "fenders" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fenders" to mean a barrier that surrounds the wheels of a vehicle to....

---

fervently (adverb)

With passionate fervor.

- Both those for and against are fervently convinced they speak for the great majority of the people.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "fervently" naturally.

---

feudalism (noun)

The social system that developed in Europe in the 8th century; vassals were protected by lords who they had to serve in war.

- In class, the teacher used "feudalism" to mean the social system that developed in europe in the....
- The article explained what "feudalism" means with a simple example.

---

fiddler crab (noun)

Burrowing crab of American coastal regions having one claw much enlarged in the male.

- In class, the teacher used "fiddler crab" to mean burrowing crab of american coastal regions having....
- Understanding "fiddler crab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fireproof (verb)

Make resistant to fire.

- Learners should practice how to use "fireproof" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "fireproof" and when to wait.

---

fish chowder (noun)

Chowder containing fish.

- In class, the teacher used "fish chowder" to mean chowder containing fish.
- The article explained what "fish chowder" means with a simple example.

---

flag smut fungus (noun)

A smut fungus causing a smut in cereals and other grasses that chiefly affects leaves and stems and is characterized chains of sori within the plant tissue that later rupture releasing black masses of spores.

- They discussed "flag smut fungus" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "flag smut fungus" means with a simple example.

---

flounder (verb)

Walk with great difficulty.

- She is floundering in college.
- He did not know how to use "flounder" until he saw an example.

---

flowering quince (noun)

Asiatic ornamental shrub with spiny branches and pink or red blossoms.

- In class, the teacher used "flowering quince" to mean asiatic ornamental shrub with spiny branches and....
- Understanding "flowering quince" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flying jib (noun)

The outermost of two or more jibs.

- In class, the teacher used "flying jib" to mean the outermost of two or more jibs.
- Understanding "flying jib" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foetus (noun)

An unborn or unhatched vertebrate in the later stages of development showing the main recognizable features of the mature animal.

- Understanding "foetus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "foetus" during the group presentation.

---

fool's errand (noun)

A fruitless mission.

- In class, the teacher used "fool's errand" to mean a fruitless mission.
- The article explained what "fool's errand" means with a simple example.

---

forthright (adverb)

Directly and without evasion; not roundabout.

- Spoke forthright (or forthrightly) and to the point.
- Using "forthright" can make your explanation more exact.

forty winks (noun)

Sleeping for a short period of time (usually not in bed).

- In class, the teacher used "forty winks" to mean sleeping for a short period of time (usually not in....
- He looked up "forty winks" because he had never seen it before.

four-pronged (adjective)

Having four prongs.

- Students compared "four-pronged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "four-pronged."

french bracken (noun)

Large deeply rooted fern of worldwide distribution with upright bipinnate compound tufted fronds.

- Understanding "french bracken" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "french bracken" means with a simple example.

geiger-muller tube (noun)

An ionization chamber contained in a tube in a Geiger counter.

- They discussed "geiger-muller tube" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "geiger-muller tube" to mean an ionization chamber contained in a tube in a....

geisha (noun)

A Japanese woman trained to entertain men with conversation and singing and dancing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geisha."
- He looked up "geisha" because he had never seen it before.

geisha girl (noun)

A Japanese woman trained to entertain men with conversation and singing and dancing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geisha girl."
- The article explained what "geisha girl" means with a simple example.

gemstones (noun)

A crystalline rock that can be cut and polished for jewelry.

- The article explained what "gemstones" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gemstones" to mean a crystalline rock that can be cut and polished for....

genius loci (noun)

The guardian spirit of a place.

- Understanding "genius loci" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genius loci."

genus sorghum (noun)

Annual or perennial tropical and subtropical cereal grasses: sorghum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus sorghum."
- Understanding "genus sorghum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

geoffrey chaucer (noun)

English poet remembered as author of the Canterbury Tales (1340-1400).

- He looked up "geoffrey chaucer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geoffrey chaucer."

giant buttercup (noun)

Spectacular perennial native of wet montane grasslands of Peru; formerly included in genus Ranunculus.

- They discussed "giant buttercup" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "giant buttercup" to mean spectacular perennial native of wet montane....

giant conch (noun)

A large variety of conch.

- In class, the teacher used "giant conch" to mean a large variety of conch.
- The article explained what "giant conch" means with a simple example.

---

giza (noun)

An ancient Egyptian city on the west bank of the Nile opposite Cairo; site of three Great Pyramids and the Sphinx.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giza."
- The article explained what "giza" means with a simple example.

---

glade (noun)

A tract of land with few or no trees in the middle of a wooded area.

- They discussed "glade" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glade."

---

glassy (adjective)

Resembling glass in smoothness and shininess and slickness; ; - Willa Cather.

- The glassy surface of the lake.
- The pavement was...glassy with water.

---

gleefully (adverb)

In a joyous and gleeful manner.

- The old man had greeted her gleefully.
- Using "gleefully" can make your explanation more exact.

---

glycogen (noun)

One form in which body fuel is stored; stored primarily in the liver and broken down into glucose when needed by the body.

- He looked up "glycogen" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "glycogen" during the group presentation.

---

godsend (noun)

A sudden happening that brings good fortune (as a sudden opportunity to make money).

- Understanding "godsend" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "godsend" to mean a sudden happening that brings good fortune (as a....

---

goodall (noun)

English zoologist noted for her studies of chimpanzees in the wild (born in 1934).

- In class, the teacher used "goodall" to mean english zoologist noted for her studies of....
- They discussed "goodall" during the group presentation.

---

grainy club mushrooms (noun)

Any of various mushrooms of the class Ascomycetes.

- They discussed "grainy club mushrooms" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grainy club mushrooms" because he had never seen it before.

---

grasshoppers (noun)

A cocktail made of creme de menthe and cream (sometimes with creme de cacao).

- They discussed "grasshoppers" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "grasshoppers" to mean a cocktail made of creme de menthe and cream....

---

great barracuda (noun)

Large (up to 6 ft) greyish-brown barracuda highly regarded as a food and sport fish; may be dangerous to swimmers.

- Understanding "great barracuda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great barracuda."

---

green smut fungus (noun)

Fungus causing green smut in rice.

- He looked up "green smut fungus" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "green smut fungus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

groped (verb)

Fondle for sexual pleasure.

- He made some sexual advances at the woman in his office and groped her repeatedly.
- She groped for her glasses in the darkness of the bedroom.

---

grubby (noun)

Small sculpin of the coast of New England.

- The article explained what "grubby" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grubby" to mean small sculpin of the coast of new england.

---

guan (noun)

Any of several large turkey-like game birds of the family Cracidae; native to jungles of tropical America; resembling the curassows and valued as food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guan."
- The article explained what "guan" means with a simple example.

---

gulch (noun)

A narrow gorge with a stream running through it.

- The article explained what "gulch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gulch" to mean a narrow gorge with a stream running through it.

---

gynecologist (noun)

A specialist in gynecology.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gynecologist."
- He looked up "gynecologist" because he had never seen it before.

---

hacienda (noun)

The main house on a ranch or large estate.

- The article explained what "hacienda" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hacienda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hairpin (noun)

A double pronged pin used to hold women's hair in place.

- The article explained what "hairpin" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hairpin."

---

hannover (noun)

A port city in northwestern Germany; formerly a member of the Hanseatic League.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hannover."
- He looked up "hannover" because he had never seen it before.

---

harnesses (verb)

Control and direct with or as if by reins.

- Learners should practice how to use "harnesses" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "harnesses" and when to wait.

---

hatter (noun)

Someone who makes and sells hats.

- In class, the teacher used "hatter" to mean someone who makes and sells hats.
- They discussed "hatter" during the group presentation.

---

hausa (noun)

A member of a Negroid people living chiefly in northern Nigeria.

- Understanding "hausa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hausa" to mean a member of a negroid people living chiefly in....

---

hawes (verb)

Utter 'haw'.

- She tried to use "hawes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "hawes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hazelnut (noun)

Nut of any of several trees of the genus Corylus.

- They discussed "hazelnut" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hazelnut" means with a simple example.

---

hazelnut tree (noun)

Any of several shrubs or small trees of the genus Corylus bearing edible nuts enclosed in a leafy husk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hazelnut tree."
- They discussed "hazelnut tree" during the group presentation.

---

heir presumptive (noun)

A person who expects to inherit but whose right can be defeated by the birth of a nearer relative.

- Understanding "heir presumptive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heir presumptive."

---

hiker (noun)

A foot traveler; someone who goes on an extended walk (for pleasure).

- The article explained what "hiker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hiker" to mean a foot traveler; someone who goes on an extended....

---

hilbert (noun)

German mathematician (1862-1943).

- Understanding "hilbert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hilbert."

---

hilbert space (noun)

A metric space that is linear and complete and (usually) infinite-dimensional.

- In class, the teacher used "hilbert space" to mean a metric space that is linear and complete and....
- He looked up "hilbert space" because he had never seen it before.

---

homologous (adjective)

Having the same evolutionary origin but not necessarily the same function.

- The wing of a bat and the arm of a man are homologous.
- A homologous tissue graft.

---

horse radish (noun)

Coarse Eurasian plant cultivated for its thick white pungent root.

- In class, the teacher used "horse radish" to mean coarse eurasian plant cultivated for its thick....
- He looked up "horse radish" because he had never seen it before.

---

horseshit (noun)

Obscene words for unacceptable behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horseshit."
- He looked up "horseshit" because he had never seen it before.

---

howls (noun)

A loud sustained noise resembling the cry of a hound.

- Howls of laughter.
- They discussed "howls" during the group presentation.

---

hummer (noun)

(baseball) a pitch thrown with maximum velocity.

- In class, the teacher used "hummer" to mean (baseball) a pitch thrown with maximum velocity.
- The article explained what "hummer" means with a simple example.

---

humpback whale (noun)

Large whalebone whale with long flippers noted for arching or humping its back as it dives.

- In class, the teacher used "humpback whale" to mean large whalebone whale with long flippers noted for....
- The article explained what "humpback whale" means with a simple example.

---

hydrating (verb)

Cause to be hydrated; add water or moisture to.

- The coach explained when to use "hydrating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "hydrating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ifc (noun)

A United Nations agency that invests directly in companies and guarantees loans to private investors; affiliated with the World Bank.

- In class, the teacher used "ifc" to mean a united nations agency that invests directly in....
- The article explained what "ifc" means with a simple example.

---

iffy (adjective)

Subject to accident or chance or change.

- An iffy proposition.
- Students compared "iffy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

immovable (adjective)

Not able or intended to be moved.

- The immovable hills.
- Would you call this situation "immovable"? Explain why.

---

impaled (verb)

Kill by piercing with a spear or sharp pole.

- The enemies were impaled and left to die.
- Learners should practice how to use "impaled" in real sentences.

---

inspectorate (noun)

A body of inspectors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inspectorate."
- The article explained what "inspectorate" means with a simple example.

---

interstitial (adjective)

Of or relating to interstices.

- It is useful to describe something as "interstitial" when it is of or relating to interstices.
- A "interstitial" approach may work better in this case.

---

inverter (noun)

An electrical converter that converts direct current into alternating current.

- The article explained what "inverter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "inverter" to mean an electrical converter that converts direct....

---

irate (adjective)

Feeling or showing extreme anger.

- Irate protesters.
- A "irate" approach may work better in this case.

---

isometric exercise (noun)

Muscle-building exercises (or a system of musclebuilding exercises) involving muscular contractions against resistance without movement (the muscles contracts but the length of the muscle does not change).

- The article explained what "isometric exercise" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "isometric exercise" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

isthmus of panama (noun)

The isthmus that connects Central America and South America; was formerly called the Isthmus of Darien.

- Balboa crossed the Isthmus of Darien.
- In class, the teacher used "isthmus of panama" to mean the isthmus that connects central america and south....

japanese radish (noun)

Radish of Japan with a long hard durable root eaten raw or cooked.

- In class, the teacher used "japanese radish" to mean radish of japan with a long hard durable root eaten....
- The article explained what "japanese radish" means with a simple example.

jean-paul sartre (noun)

French writer and existentialist philosopher (1905-1980).

- He looked up "jean-paul sartre" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "jean-paul sartre" to mean french writer and existentialist philosopher....

jenny lind (noun)

Swedish soprano who toured the United States under the management of P. T. Barnum (1820-1887).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jenny lind."
- He looked up "jenny lind" because he had never seen it before.

jezebel (noun)

A shameless impudent scheming woman.

- They discussed "jezebel" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "jezebel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

joliet (noun)

French explorer (with Jacques Marquette) of the upper Mississippi River valley (1645-1700).

- They discussed "joliet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "joliet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jugular (noun)

A vital part that is vulnerable to attack.

- He always goes for the jugular.
- In class, the teacher used "jugular" to mean a vital part that is vulnerable to attack.

kean (noun)

English actor noted for his portrayals of Shakespeare's great tragic characters (1789-1833).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kean."
- He looked up "kean" because he had never seen it before.

kinsey (noun)

United States zoologist best known for his interview studies of sexual behavior (1894-1956).

- They discussed "kinsey" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kinsey."

knockdown (noun)

A blow that knocks the opponent off his feet.

- Understanding "knockdown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "knockdown" because he had never seen it before.

kor (noun)

An ancient Hebrew unit of capacity equal to 10 baths or 10 ephahs.

- Understanding "kor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "kor" during the group presentation.

kwan-yin (noun)

(Buddhism) a female Bodhisattva; often called goddess of mercy and considered an aspect of the Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara; identified with Japanese Kwannon.

- He looked up "kwan-yin" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "kwan-yin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

l'aquila (noun)

The provincial capital of the Abruzzi region in central Italy.

- He looked up "l'aquila" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "l'aquila" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lagoons (noun)

A body of water cut off from a larger body by a reef of sand or coral.

- They discussed "lagoons" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lagoons" means with a simple example.

---

laramie (noun)

A university town in southeast Wyoming.

- They discussed "laramie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "laramie" because he had never seen it before.

---

le duc tho (noun)

Vietnamese diplomat who negotiated with Henry Kissinger to end the war in Vietnam (1911-1990).

- Understanding "le duc tho" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "le duc tho" to mean vietnamese diplomat who negotiated with henry....

---

lessening (noun)

A change downward.

- Understanding "lessening" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lessening" means with a simple example.

---

lethargic (adjective)

Deficient in alertness or activity.

- Bullfrogs became lethargic with the first cold nights.
- A "lethargic" approach may work better in this case.

---

lever tumbler (noun)

A flat metal tumbler in a lever lock.

- They discussed "lever tumbler" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lever tumbler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liberator (noun)

Someone who releases people from captivity or bondage.

- He looked up "liberator" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "liberator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lido deck (noun)

An open deck including a swimming pool.

- They discussed "lido deck" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lido deck" to mean an open deck including a swimming pool.

---

ligature (noun)

The act of tying or binding things together.

- The article explained what "ligature" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ligature" to mean the act of tying or binding things together.

---

lipped (adjective)

Having a lip or lips; ; - John Keats.

- A lipped bowl.

- A virgin purest lipped.

---

littering (verb)

Make a place messy by strewing garbage around.

- Learners should practice how to use "littering" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "littering" until he saw an example.

---

livers (noun)

A person who has a special life style.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "livers."
- Understanding "livers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

longhorns (noun)

Long-horned beef cattle formerly common in southwestern United States.

- Understanding "longhorns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "longhorns."

---

loony (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- The speaker chose "loony" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "loony" when it is informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

---

louis joliet (noun)

French explorer (with Jacques Marquette) of the upper Mississippi River valley (1645-1700).

- They discussed "louis joliet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "louis joliet" means with a simple example.

---

loveliest (adjective)

Appealing to the emotions as well as the eye.

- A "loveliest" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "loveliest" when it is appealing to the emotions as well as the eye.

---

lynchburg (noun)

A city in central Virginia.

- Understanding "lynchburg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lynchburg" because he had never seen it before.

---

macao monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Macao.

- Understanding "macao monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "macao monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

maggot (noun)

The larva of the housefly and blowfly commonly found in decaying organic matter.

- The article explained what "maggot" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maggot" to mean the larva of the housefly and blowfly commonly....

---

magna cum laude (adjective)

With high honor; with high academic distinction.

- A magna cum laude graduate.
- It is useful to describe something as "magna cum laude" when it is with high honor; with high academic distinction.

---

mambo (noun)

A Latin American dance similar in rhythm to the rumba.

- Understanding "mambo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mambo" because he had never seen it before.

---

mandala (noun)

Any of various geometric designs (usually circular) symbolizing the universe; used chiefly in Hinduism and Buddhism as an aid to meditation.

- He looked up "mandala" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mandala."

---

mandolin (noun)

A stringed instrument related to the lute, usually played with a plectrum.

- He looked up "mandolin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mandolin."

---

manna ash (noun)

Southern Mediterranean ash having fragrant white flowers in dense panicles and yielding manna.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manna ash."
- Understanding "manna ash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marinated (verb)

Soak in marinade.

- Can you use "marinated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "marinated" until he saw an example.

---

marsh st-john's wort (noun)

Perennial marsh herb with pink to mauve flowers; southeastern United States.

- He looked up "marsh st-john's wort" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "marsh st-john's wort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

martinique (noun)

An island in the eastern Caribbean in the Windward Islands; administered as an overseas region of France.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "martinique."
- The article explained what "martinique" means with a simple example.

---

mbs (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1000 kilobits or 10^6 (1,000,000) bits.

- He looked up "mbs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mbs" to mean a unit of information equal to 1000 kilobits or....

---

mediaeval (adjective)

Relating to or belonging to the Middle Ages.

- It is useful to describe something as "mediaeval" when it is relating to or belonging to the middle ages.
- The speaker chose "mediaeval" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

megaphone (noun)

A cone-shaped acoustic device held to the mouth to intensify and direct the human voice.

- In class, the teacher used "megaphone" to mean a cone-shaped acoustic device held to the mouth to....
- They discussed "megaphone" during the group presentation.

---

megawatts (noun)

A unit of power equal to one million watts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "megawatts."
- He looked up "megawatts" because he had never seen it before.

---

meringue kiss (noun)

A kiss made of sugar and egg white and baked slowly.

- Understanding "meringue kiss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "meringue kiss" because he had never seen it before.

---

meryl streep (noun)

United States film actress (born in 1949).

- Understanding "meryl streep" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "meryl streep" because he had never seen it before.

---

militarism (noun)

A political orientation of a people or a government to maintain a strong military force and to be prepared to use it aggressively to defend or promote national interests.

- The article explained what "militarism" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "militarism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

millimetres (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one thousandth of a meter.

- The article explained what "millimetres" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "millimetres" to mean a metric unit of length equal to one thousandth of....

---

misfortunes (noun)

An unfortunate state resulting from unfavorable outcomes.

- The article explained what "misfortunes" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "misfortunes" during the group presentation.

---

mismatched (adjective)

(of a contest or contestants) not fairly matched as opponents.

- A "mismatched" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "mismatched" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

missus (noun)

Informal term of address for someone's wife.

- He looked up "missus" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "missus" during the group presentation.

---

modernizing (verb)

Make repairs, renovations, revisions or adjustments to.

- Viet Nam is modernizing rapidly.
- She tried to use "modernizing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

moped (noun)

A motorbike that can be pedaled or driven by a low-powered gasoline engine.

- They discussed "moped" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "moped" to mean a motorbike that can be pedaled or driven by a....

---

moss agate (noun)

An agate resembling moss with brown, black, or green markings.

- In class, the teacher used "moss agate" to mean an agate resembling moss with brown, black, or....
- The article explained what "moss agate" means with a simple example.

---

mountaineers (noun)

Someone who climbs mountains.

- He looked up "mountaineers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mountaineers" during the group presentation.

---

mugging (noun)

Assault with intent to rob.

- In class, the teacher used "mugging" to mean assault with intent to rob.
- Understanding "mugging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

multiplex (noun)

A movie theater than has several different auditoriums in the same building.

- In class, the teacher used "multiplex" to mean a movie theater than has several different....
- The article explained what "multiplex" means with a simple example.

multiplex operation (noun)

An operation in which two or more activities are interleaved.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "multiplex operation."
- He looked up "multiplex operation" because he had never seen it before.

murmur vowel (noun)

A schwa that is incidental to the pronunciation of a consonant.

- The article explained what "murmur vowel" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "murmur vowel" to mean a schwa that is incidental to the pronunciation of....

nickels (noun)

A United States coin worth one twentieth of a dollar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nickels."
- He looked up "nickels" because he had never seen it before.

nutmeg hickory (noun)

Hickory of southern United States and Mexico having hard nutmeg-shaped nuts.

- The article explained what "nutmeg hickory" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nutmeg hickory" to mean hickory of southern united states and mexico having....

obstructions (noun)

The physical condition of blocking or filling a passage with an obstruction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "obstructions."
- The article explained what "obstructions" means with a simple example.

oktoberfest (noun)

An autumn festival that involves merrymaking and drinking beer.

- He looked up "oktoberfest" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "oktoberfest" to mean an autumn festival that involves merrymaking and....

on the qui vive (noun)

Lively attentiveness.

- They discussed "on the qui vive" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "on the qui vive" means with a simple example.

oncologist (noun)

A specialist in oncology.

- The article explained what "oncologist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "oncologist" to mean a specialist in oncology.

onside (adjective)

Not offside; being within the prescribed area of play.

- It is useful to describe something as "onside" when it is not offside; being within the prescribed area of play.
- Students compared "onside" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

opel (noun)

German industrialist who was the first in Germany to use an assembly line in manufacturing automobiles (1871-1948).

- In class, the teacher used "opel" to mean german industrialist who was the first in germany....
- He looked up "opel" because he had never seen it before.

opiates (noun)

A narcotic drug that contains opium or an opium derivative.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "opiates."
- The article explained what "opiates" means with a simple example.

optimally (adverb)

In an optimal and most desirable way.

- Using "optimally" can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "optimally" naturally.

---

optionally (adverb)

In an optional manner.

- This rule is applied optionally.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "optionally" naturally.

---

oscillating (adjective)

Having periodic vibrations.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "oscillating."
- The speaker chose "oscillating" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

outperformed (verb)

Be or do something to a greater degree.

- Learners should practice how to use "outperformed" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "outperformed" until he saw an example.

---

overlaid (verb)

Put something on top of something else.

- She tried to use "overlaid" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "overlaid" and when to wait.

---

overlapped (verb)

Coincide partially or wholly.

- Learners should practice how to use "overlapped" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "overlapped" when talking about this idea.

---

palatine bone (noun)

Either of two irregularly shaped bones that form the back of the hard palate and helps to form the nasal cavity and the floor of the orbits.

- Understanding "palatine bone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "palatine bone" means with a simple example.

---

pamper (verb)

Treat with excessive indulgence.

- Grandparents often pamper the children.
- In everyday English, people use "pamper" when talking about this idea.

---

panacea (noun)

Hypothetical remedy for all ills or diseases; once sought by the alchemists.

- They discussed "panacea" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "panacea" to mean hypothetical remedy for all ills or diseases; once....

---

pants presser (noun)

A home appliance in which trousers can be hung and the wrinkles pressed out.

- He looked up "pants presser" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pants presser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

parabolic mirror (noun)

A parabolic reflector for light radiation.

- Understanding "parabolic mirror" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "parabolic mirror" to mean a parabolic reflector for light radiation.

---

parietal (adjective)

Of or relating to or associated with the parietal bones in the cranium.

- Parietal lobe.

- Students compared “parietal” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

parkes (verb)

Maneuver a vehicle into a parking space.

- The coach explained when to use “parkes” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “parkes” until he saw an example.

---

patronizing (adjective)

(used of behavior or attitude) characteristic of those who treat others with condescension.

- A “patronizing” approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose “patronizing” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pauper (noun)

A person who is very poor.

- They discussed “pauper” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pauper” to mean a person who is very poor.

---

peppered (verb)

Attack and bombard with or as if with missiles.

- Can you use “peppered” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “peppered” and when to wait.

---

pestilence (noun)

A pernicious and malign influence that is hard to get rid of.

- Racism is a pestilence at the heart of the nation.
- In class, the teacher used “pestilence” to mean a pernicious and malign influence that is hard to....

---

pews (noun)

Long bench with backs; used in church by the congregation.

- The article explained what “pews” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pews.”

---

pewter (noun)

Any of various alloys of tin with small amounts of other metals (especially lead).

- The article explained what “pewter” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “pewter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pheasant cuckoo (noun)

Australian bird with a tail like a pheasant.

- He looked up “pheasant cuckoo” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pheasant cuckoo.”

---

philosophically (adverb)

With respect to philosophy.

- The movement is philosophically indebted to Rousseau.
- She took it philosophically.

---

pineapples (noun)

A tropical American plant bearing a large fleshy edible fruit with a terminal tuft of stiff leaves; widely cultivated in the tropics.

- They discussed “pineapples” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “pineapples” to mean a tropical american plant bearing a large fleshy....

---

pipe vise (noun)

A clamp for holding pipe that is to be cut or threaded.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pipe vise.”
- Understanding “pipe vise” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pippin (noun)

Any of numerous superior eating apples with yellow or greenish yellow skin flushed with red.

- Understanding "pippin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pippin."

---

placer miner (noun)

A miner who extracts minerals from a placer by washing or dredging.

- Understanding "placer miner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "placer miner" during the group presentation.

---

plenum (noun)

A meeting of a legislative body at which all members are present.

- The plenum will vote on all tax increases.
- The article explained what "plenum" means with a simple example.

---

polygraph (noun)

A medical instrument that records several physiological processes simultaneously (e.g., pulse rate and blood pressure and respiration and perspiration).

- He looked up "polygraph" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "polygraph" to mean a medical instrument that records several....

---

potassium-argon dating (noun)

Geological dating that relies on the proportions of radioactive potassium in a rock sample and its decay product, argon.

- Understanding "potassium-argon dating" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "potassium-argon dating" to mean geological dating that relies on the proportions of....

---

precipitate (noun)

A precipitated solid substance in suspension or after settling or filtering.

- Understanding "precipitate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "precipitate" means with a simple example.

---

predicate calculus (noun)

A system of symbolic logic that represents individuals and predicates and quantification over individuals (as well as the relations between propositions).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "predicate calculus."
- The article explained what "predicate calculus" means with a simple example.

---

prickly pear cactus (noun)

Cacti having spiny flat joints and oval fruit that is edible in some species; often used as food for stock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prickly pear cactus."
- The article explained what "prickly pear cactus" means with a simple example.

---

principality (noun)

Territory ruled by a prince.

- Understanding "principality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "principality" because he had never seen it before.

---

pronged (adjective)

Having prongs or tines; usually used in combination.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pronged."
- Would you call this situation "pronged"? Explain why.

---

proofing (verb)

Activate by mixing with water and sometimes sugar or milk.

- The coach explained when to use "proofing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "proofing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

propping (verb)

Support by placing against something solid or rigid.

- In everyday English, people use "propping" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "propping" in real sentences.

---

propping up (noun)

The act of propping up with shores.

- In class, the teacher used "propping up" to mean the act of propping up with shores.
- Understanding "propping up" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

protease (noun)

Any enzyme that catalyzes the splitting of proteins into smaller peptide fractions and amino acids by a process known as proteolysis.

- The article explained what "protease" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "protease."

---

proust (noun)

French novelist (1871-1922).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "proust."
- He looked up "proust" because he had never seen it before.

---

purges (noun)

An abrupt or sudden removal of a person or group from an organization or place.

- Understanding "purges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "purges" during the group presentation.

---

px (noun)

A commissary on a United States Army post.

- He looked up "px" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "px" to mean a commissary on a united states army post.

---

qui vive (noun)

Condition of heightened watchfulness or preparation for action.

- They discussed "qui vive" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "qui vive."

---

radial asymmetry (noun)

The absence of symmetry about an axis.

- In class, the teacher used "radial asymmetry" to mean the absence of symmetry about an axis.
- The article explained what "radial asymmetry" means with a simple example.

---

radish (noun)

A cruciferous plant of the genus Raphanus having a pungent edible root.

- They discussed "radish" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "radish" means with a simple example.

---

radish plant (noun)

A cruciferous plant of the genus Raphanus having a pungent edible root.

- He looked up "radish plant" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radish plant."

---

receded (verb)

Become faint or more distant.

- The unhappy memories of her childhood receded as she grew older.
- She tried to use "receded" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reciprocate (verb)

Act, feel, or give mutually or in return.

- We always invite the neighbors and they never reciprocate!
- The engine reciprocates the propeller.

recklessness (noun)

The trait of giving little thought to danger.

- They discussed "recklessness" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "recklessness" because he had never seen it before.

regenerating (adjective)

That are generating anew.

- Regenerating fibers.
- The speaker chose "regenerating" because it captured the feeling precisely.

remaking (noun)

Creation that is created again or anew.

- In class, the teacher used "remaking" to mean creation that is created again or anew.
- The article explained what "remaking" means with a simple example.

repetitions (noun)

The repeated use of the same word or word pattern as a rhetorical device.

- In class, the teacher used "repetitions" to mean the repeated use of the same word or word pattern....
- The article explained what "repetitions" means with a simple example.

restock (verb)

Stock again.

- He restocked his land with pheasants.
- Can you use "restock" in a sentence that fits this situation?

restorations (noun)

The state of being restored to its former good condition.

- They discussed "restorations" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "restorations" means with a simple example.

reverse osmosis (noun)

(chemistry) a method of producing pure water; a solvent passes through a semipermeable membrane in a direction opposite to that for natural osmosis when it is subjected to a hydrostatic pressure greater than the osmotic pressure.

- They discussed "reverse osmosis" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "reverse osmosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

revolutionary proletarian army (noun)

An urban hit squad and guerrilla group of the Communist Party in the Philippines; formed in the 1980s.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revolutionary proletarian army."
- He looked up "revolutionary proletarian army" because he had never seen it before.

reykjavik (noun)

The capital and chief port of Iceland on the southwestern coast of Iceland; buildings are heated by natural hot water.

- He looked up "reykjavik" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "reykjavik" during the group presentation.

ribbed toad (noun)

Western North American frog with a taillike copulatory organ.

- He looked up "ribbed toad" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ribbed toad" to mean western north american frog with a taillike....

roasts (noun)

A piece of meat roasted or for roasting and of a size for slicing into more than one portion.

- Understanding "roasts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "roasts" means with a simple example.

rotunda (noun)

A building having a circular plan and a dome.

- The article explained what "rotunda" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rotunda" during the group presentation.

---

roundhouse (noun)

A hook delivered with an exaggerated swing.

- Understanding "roundhouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "roundhouse" to mean a hook delivered with an exaggerated swing.

---

rove beetle (noun)

Active beetle typically having predatory or scavenging habits.

- The article explained what "rove beetle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rove beetle" to mean active beetle typically having predatory or....

---

rowed (verb)

Propel with oars.

- He did not know how to use "rowed" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "rowed" when talking about this idea.

---

rushmore (noun)

A mountain in the Black Hills of South Dakota; the likenesses of Washington and Jefferson and Lincoln and Roosevelt are carved on it.

- The article explained what "rushmore" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rushmore" during the group presentation.

---

sanctioning (adjective)

Implying sanction or serving to sanction.

- A "sanctioning" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "sanctioning" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

savour (noun)

The taste experience when a savoury condiment is taken into the mouth.

- In class, the teacher used "savour" to mean the taste experience when a savoury condiment is....
- He looked up "savour" because he had never seen it before.

---

sawdust mushroom (noun)

An edible agaric found in piles of hardwood sawdust; the caps are black and coarsely wrinkled.

- The article explained what "sawdust mushroom" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sawdust mushroom" to mean an edible agaric found in piles of hardwood....

---

sawing (verb)

Cut with a saw.

- Can you use "sawing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "sawing" until he saw an example.

---

sawing machine (noun)

A power tool for cutting wood.

- Understanding "sawing machine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sawing machine."

---

scarab (noun)

Scarabaeid beetle considered divine by ancient Egyptians.

- Understanding "scarab" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "scarab" to mean scarabaeid beetle considered divine by ancient....

---

scissor-tailed (adjective)

(of birds) having a deeply forked tail.

- Scissor-tailed birds.

- It is useful to describe something as "scissor-tailed" when it is (of birds) having a deeply forked tail.

---

scoff (verb)

Treat with contemptuous disregard.

- Can you use "scoff" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "scoff" until he saw an example.

---

scythe (noun)

An edge tool for cutting grass; has a long handle that must be held with both hands and a curved blade that moves parallel to the ground.

- Understanding "scythe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scythe."

---

secretions (noun)

The organic process of synthesizing and releasing some substance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "secretions."
- The article explained what "secretions" means with a simple example.

---

sedated (verb)

Cause to be calm or quiet as by administering a sedative to.

- The patient must be sedated before the operation.
- The coach explained when to use "sedated" and when to wait.

---

sepia (noun)

A shade of brown with a tinge of red.

- Understanding "sepia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sepia" to mean a shade of brown with a tinge of red.

---

shamans (noun)

In societies practicing shamanism: one acting as a medium between the visible and spirit worlds; practices sorcery for healing or divination.

- The article explained what "shamans" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shamans."

---

short-spurred fragrant orchid (noun)

Similar to Gymnadenia conopsea but with smaller flowers on shorter stems and having much shorter spurs.

- In class, the teacher used "short-spurred fragrant orchid" to mean similar to gymnadenia conopsea but with smaller....
- They discussed "short-spurred fragrant orchid" during the group presentation.

---

shoulder vise (noun)

A vise with jaws that are padded in order to hold lumber without denting it.

- The article explained what "shoulder vise" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shoulder vise" to mean a vise with jaws that are padded in order to hold....

---

shoveling (verb)

Dig with or as if with a shovel.

- In everyday English, people use "shoveling" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "shoveling" until he saw an example.

---

silvers (verb)

Coat with a layer of silver or a silver amalgam.

- She tried to use "silvers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "silvers" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sketchbook (noun)

A book containing sheets of paper on which sketches can be drawn.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sketchbook."
- They discussed "sketchbook" during the group presentation.

---

skirting (adjective)

Being all around the edges; enclosing.

- The room's skirting board needs painting.
- A "skirting" approach may work better in this case.

---

skirting board (noun)

A molding covering the joint formed by a wall and the floor.

- They discussed "skirting board" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "skirting board" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

slapstick (noun)

A boisterous comedy with chases and collisions and practical jokes.

- Understanding "slapstick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "slapstick" because he had never seen it before.

---

slinging (noun)

Throwing with a wide motion (as if with a sling).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slinging."
- They discussed "slinging" during the group presentation.

---

small-for-gestational-age infant (noun)

An infant whose size and weight are considerably less than the average for babies of the same age.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "small-for-gestational-age infant."
- Understanding "small-for-gestational-age infant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

smut fungus (noun)

Any fungus of the order Ustilaginales.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smut fungus."
- He looked up "smut fungus" because he had never seen it before.

---

solar plexus (noun)

A large plexus of sympathetic nerves in the abdomen behind the stomach.

- Understanding "solar plexus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "solar plexus" to mean a large plexus of sympathetic nerves in the abdomen....

---

sour gourd (noun)

African gourd-like fruit with edible pulp.

- Understanding "sour gourd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sour gourd" because he had never seen it before.

---

sourdough (noun)

A leaven of dough in which fermentation is active; used by pioneers for making bread.

- Understanding "sourdough" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sourdough" during the group presentation.

---

southern flounder (noun)

Flounder of southern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "southern flounder."
- He looked up "southern flounder" because he had never seen it before.

---

spiking (verb)

Manifest a sharp increase.

- My hyacinths and orchids are spiking now.
- Can you use "spiking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

spires (noun)

A tall tower that forms the superstructure of a building (usually a church or temple) and that tapers to a point at the top.

- Understanding "spires" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "spires" during the group presentation.

---

spotted hyena (noun)

African hyena noted for its distinctive howl.

- He looked up "spotted hyena" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "spotted hyena" during the group presentation.

---

sprinters (noun)

Someone who runs a short distance at top speed.

- In class, the teacher used "sprinters" to mean someone who runs a short distance at top speed.
- He looked up "sprinters" because he had never seen it before.

---

sprouted (adjective)

(of growing vegetation) having just emerged from the ground.

- The corn is sprouted.
- Students compared "sprouted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

squirm (verb)

To move in a twisting or contorted motion, (especially when struggling).

- Can you use "squirm" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "squirm" and when to wait.

---

st peter's wort (noun)

European perennial St John's wort; Ireland and France to western Siberia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "st peter's wort."
- He looked up "st peter's wort" because he had never seen it before.

---

staircases (noun)

A way of access (upward and downward) consisting of a set of steps.

- In class, the teacher used "staircases" to mean a way of access (upward and downward) consisting of....
- The article explained what "staircases" means with a simple example.

---

stepdaughter (noun)

A daughter of your spouse by a former marriage.

- In class, the teacher used "stepdaughter" to mean a daughter of your spouse by a former marriage.
- The article explained what "stepdaughter" means with a simple example.

---

stiff aster (noun)

Wiry tufted perennial of the eastern United States with stiff erect rough stems, linear leaves and large violet flowers.

- They discussed "stiff aster" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "stiff aster" means with a simple example.

---

stm (noun)

What you can repeat immediately after perceiving it.

- He looked up "stm" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stm."

---

strategists (noun)

An expert in strategy (especially in warfare).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strategists."
- He looked up "strategists" because he had never seen it before.

---

stupendous (adjective)

So great in size or force or extent as to elicit awe.

- A stupendous field of grass.
- Stupendous demand.

summer flounder (noun)

Flounder of eastern coast of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "summer flounder" to mean flounder of eastern coast of north america.
- Understanding "summer flounder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sunbathing (verb)

Expose one's body to the sun.

- Can you use "sunbathing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "sunbathing" and when to wait.

surrealism (noun)

A 20th century movement of artists and writers (developing out of dadaism) who used fantastic images and incongruous juxtapositions in order to represent unconscious thoughts and dreams.

- The article explained what "surrealism" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "surrealism" during the group presentation.

surya (noun)

An important god of later Hinduism; the sun god or the sun itself worshipped as the source of warmth and light.

- In class, the teacher used "surya" to mean an important god of later hinduism; the sun god or....
- The article explained what "surya" means with a simple example.

tabor (noun)

A small drum with one head of soft calfskin.

- Understanding "tabor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tabor."

tall buttercup (noun)

Perennial European buttercup with yellow spring flowers widely naturalized especially in eastern North America.

- They discussed "tall buttercup" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tall buttercup" because he had never seen it before.

tall field buttercup (noun)

Perennial European buttercup with yellow spring flowers widely naturalized especially in eastern North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tall field buttercup."
- They discussed "tall field buttercup" during the group presentation.

tasman dwarf pine (noun)

Small shrub or Tasmania having short stiff branches.

- In class, the teacher used "tasman dwarf pine" to mean small shrub or tasmania having short stiff branches.
- They discussed "tasman dwarf pine" during the group presentation.

telepathic (adjective)

Communicating without apparent physical signals.

- The speaker chose "telepathic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "telepathic" when it is communicating without apparent physical signals.

telescopic (adjective)

Having parts that slide one within another.

- A telescopic antenna.
- A telescopic drinking cup.

tellers (noun)

An employee of a bank who receives and pays out money.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tellers."
- He looked up "tellers" because he had never seen it before.

tenderly (adverb)

With tenderness; in a tender manner.

- Tenderly she placed her arms round him.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "tenderly" naturally.

---

termite (noun)

Whitish soft-bodied ant-like social insect that feeds on wood.

- In class, the teacher used "termite" to mean whitish soft-bodied ant-like social insect that....
- He looked up "termite" because he had never seen it before.

---

thickens (verb)

Make thick or thicker.

- He did not know how to use "thickens" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "thickens" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

thongs (noun)

A thin strip of leather; often used to lash things together.

- She wore thongs in her quest for the callipygian ideal.
- They discussed "thongs" during the group presentation.

---

three-lipped (adjective)

Having three lips.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "three-lipped."
- A "three-lipped" approach may work better in this case.

---

three-pronged (adjective)

Having three prongs.

- It is useful to describe something as "three-pronged" when it is having three prongs.
- Students compared "three-pronged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

timetables (noun)

A schedule of times of arrivals and departures.

- He looked up "timetables" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "timetables" during the group presentation.

---

tortoises (noun)

Usually herbivorous land turtles having clawed elephant-like limbs; worldwide in arid area except Australia and Antarctica.

- Understanding "tortoises" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tortoises" because he had never seen it before.

---

trimmer (noun)

A worker who thins out and trims trees and shrubs.

- In class, the teacher used "trimmer" to mean a worker who thins out and trims trees and shrubs.
- They discussed "trimmer" during the group presentation.

---

tumbler pigeon (noun)

Pigeon that executes backward somersaults in flight or on the ground.

- The article explained what "tumbler pigeon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumbler pigeon."

---

two-lipped (adjective)

Having two lips.

- The speaker chose "two-lipped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "two-lipped" when it is having two lips.

---

two-pronged (adjective)

Having two prongs.

- Would you call this situation "two-pronged"? Explain why.

- A "two-pronged" approach may work better in this case.

---

underscored (verb)

Give extra weight to (a communication).

- Learners should practice how to use "underscored" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "underscored" and when to wait.

---

undiagnosed (adjective)

Eluding diagnosis.

- Undiagnosed disease.
- A "undiagnosed" approach may work better in this case.

---

unease (noun)

The trait of seeming ill at ease.

- They discussed "unease" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "unease" because he had never seen it before.

---

unrequited (adjective)

Not returned in kind.

- Unrequited (unanswered) love.
- Would you call this situation "unrequited"? Explain why.

---

uptime (noun)

A period of time when something (as a machine or factory) is functioning and available for use.

- In class, the teacher used "uptime" to mean a period of time when something (as a machine or....
- Understanding "uptime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

urinal (noun)

A plumbing fixture (usually attached to the wall) used by men to urinate.

- The article explained what "urinal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "urinal" to mean a plumbing fixture (usually attached to the wall)....

---

urls (noun)

The address of a web page on the world wide web.

- He looked up "urls" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "urls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

usurped (verb)

Seize and take control without authority and possibly with force; take as one's right or possession.

- He usurped my rights.
- Gloom had usurped mirth at the party after the news of the terrorist act broke.

---

vagabond (noun)

Anything that resembles a vagabond in having no fixed place.

- Pirate ships were vagabonds of the sea.
- In class, the teacher used "vagabond" to mean anything that resembles a vagabond in having no....

---

vanuatu (noun)

A volcanic island republic in Melanesia; independent since 1980.

- He looked up "vanuatu" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "vanuatu" to mean a volcanic island republic in melanesia;....

---

varna (noun)

A port city in northeastern Bulgaria on the Black Sea.

- Understanding "varna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "varna."

---

vaseline (noun)

A trademarked brand of petroleum jelly.

- The article explained what "vaseline" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "vaseline" during the group presentation.

---

vedas (noun)

(from the Sanskrit word for 'knowledge') any of the most ancient sacred writings of Hinduism written in early Sanskrit; traditionally believed to comprise the Samhitas, the Brahmanas, the Aranyakas, and the Upanishads.

- The article explained what "vedas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vedas" to mean (from the sanskrit word for 'knowledge') any of the....

---

vertebral arch (noun)

A structure arising dorsally from a vertebral centrum and enclosing the spinal cord.

- The article explained what "vertebral arch" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vertebral arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vestiges (noun)

An indication that something has been present.

- He looked up "vestiges" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "vestiges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vipers (noun)

Venomous Old World snakes characterized by hollow venom-conducting fangs in the upper jaw.

- They discussed "vipers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "vipers" means with a simple example.

---

visage (noun)

The appearance conveyed by a person's face.

- A stern visage.
- The article explained what "visage" means with a simple example.

---

voltage divider (noun)

Resistors connected in series across a voltage source; used to obtain a desired fraction of the voltage.

- They discussed "voltage divider" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "voltage divider."

---

war of the league of augsburg (noun)

An aggressive war waged by Louis XIV against Spain and the Holy Roman Empire and England and Holland and other states (1689-1697).

- He looked up "war of the league of augsburg" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "war of the league of augsburg."

---

webcams (noun)

A digital camera designed to take digital photographs and transmit them over the internet.

- In class, the teacher used "webcams" to mean a digital camera designed to take digital....
- They discussed "webcams" during the group presentation.

---

weeps (verb)

Shed tears because of sadness, rage, or pain.

- She tried to use "weeps" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "weeps" when talking about this idea.

---

wether (noun)

Male sheep especially a castrated one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wether."
- He looked up "wether" because he had never seen it before.

---

white-lipped (adjective)

Having white lips from fear or terror.

- Students compared “white-lipped” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “white-lipped.”

---

white-topped aster (noun)

Herb having corymbose white-rayed flowers with scaly bracts and silky indehiscent fruits.

- They discussed “white-topped aster” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “white-topped aster” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild clary (noun)

Eurasian sage with blue flowers and foliage like verbena; naturalized in United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild clary.”
- He looked up “wild clary” because he had never seen it before.

---

wild radish (noun)

Eurasian weed having yellow or mauve or white flowers and podlike fruits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “wild radish.”
- They discussed “wild radish” during the group presentation.

---

wilkie collins (noun)

English writer noted for early detective novels (1824-1889).

- They discussed “wilkie collins” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “wilkie collins” to mean english writer noted for early detective novels....

---

william cuthbert faulkner (noun)

United States novelist (originally Falkner) who wrote about people in the southern United States (1897-1962).

- He looked up “william cuthbert faulkner” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “william cuthbert faulkner” during the group presentation.

---

william wilkie collins (noun)

English writer noted for early detective novels (1824-1889).

- Understanding “william wilkie collins” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “william wilkie collins.”

---

window trimmer (noun)

Someone who decorates shop windows.

- In class, the teacher used “window trimmer” to mean someone who decorates shop windows.
- The article explained what “window trimmer” means with a simple example.

---

windward islands (noun)

A group of islands in the southeastern West Indies; the southern part of the Lesser Antilles.

- Understanding “windward islands” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “windward islands.”

---

windward passage (noun)

A channel between eastern Cuba and western Haiti that connects the Atlantic Ocean with the Caribbean Sea.

- He looked up “windward passage” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “windward passage” during the group presentation.

---

winked (verb)

Gleam or glow intermittently.

- She winked at him.
- Learners should practice how to use “winked” in real sentences.

---

winter flounder (noun)

Important American food fish in the winter.

- In class, the teacher used “winter flounder” to mean important american food fish in the winter.
- Understanding “winter flounder” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

writhing (adjective)

Moving in a twisting or snake-like or wormlike fashion.

- It is useful to describe something as "writhing" when it is moving in a twisting or snake-like or wormlike fashion.
- The speaker chose "writhing" because it captured the feeling precisely.

wuhan (noun)

A city of central China on the Chang Jiang; the commercial and industrial center of central China.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wuhan."
- The article explained what "wuhan" means with a simple example.

yardage (noun)

Distance measured in the aggregate number of yards.

- What is the yardage of this golf course?
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yardage."

yue (noun)

The dialect of Chinese spoken in Canton and neighboring provinces and in Hong Kong and elsewhere outside China.

- The article explained what "yue" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "yue" to mean the dialect of chinese spoken in canton and....

zing (noun)

A brief high-pitched buzzing or humming sound.

- The zing of the passing bullet.
- Understanding "zing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

acetone (noun)

The simplest ketone; a highly inflammable liquid widely used as an organic solvent and as material for making plastics.

- The article explained what "acetone" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "acetone" during the group presentation.

acetone body (noun)

A ketone that is an intermediate product of the breakdown of fats in the body; any of three compounds (acetoacetic acid, acetone, and/or beta-hydroxybutyric acid) found in excess in blood and urine of persons with metabolic disorders.

- The article explained what "acetone body" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acetone body."

actuarial (adjective)

Of or relating to the work of an actuary.

- Would you call this situation "actuarial"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "actuarial" when it is of or relating to the work of an actuary.

actuarial table (noun)

A table of statistical data.

- Understanding "actuarial table" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "actuarial table" during the group presentation.

adirondack mountains (noun)

A mountain range in northeastern New York State; a popular resort area.

- He looked up "adirondack mountains" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "adirondack mountains" to mean a mountain range in northeastern new york state; a....

adventist (noun)

A member of Christian denomination that expects the imminent advent of Christ.

- In class, the teacher used "adventist" to mean a member of christian denomination that expects the....
- They discussed "adventist" during the group presentation.

allot (verb)

Administer or bestow, as in small portions.

- Learners should practice how to use "allot" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "allot" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

american woodcock (noun)

Small long-billed woodcock; prized as a game bird.

- They discussed "american woodcock" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "american woodcock" because he had never seen it before.

---

amine (noun)

A compound derived from ammonia by replacing hydrogen atoms by univalent hydrocarbon radicals.

- In class, the teacher used "amine" to mean a compound derived from ammonia by replacing....
- He looked up "amine" because he had never seen it before.

---

anathema (noun)

A formal ecclesiastical curse accompanied by excommunication.

- He is an anathema to me.
- The article explained what "anathema" means with a simple example.

---

angelique (noun)

Any of various tall and stout herbs of the genus Angelica having pinnately compound leaves and small white or greenish flowers in compound umbels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angelique."
- He looked up "angelique" because he had never seen it before.

---

ant thrush (noun)

A kind of antbird.

- They discussed "ant thrush" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ant thrush" means with a simple example.

---

appropriating (verb)

Take possession of by force, as after an invasion.

- The coach explained when to use "appropriating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "appropriating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

arty-crafty (adjective)

Pretentiously artistic; cloyingly charming.

- Would you call this situation "arty-crafty"? Explain why.
- A "arty-crafty" approach may work better in this case.

---

ascertained (adjective)

Discovered or determined by scientific observation.

- Variation in the ascertained flux depends on a number of factors.
- The speaker chose "ascertained" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

audio-lingual (adjective)

Of or relating to a method of teaching language that focuses on listening and speaking.

- The speaker chose "audio-lingual" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "audio-lingual"? Explain why.

---

aurelius (noun)

Emperor of Rome; nephew and son-in-law and adoptive son of Antonius Pius; Stoic philosopher; the decline of the Roman Empire began under Marcus Aurelius (121-180).

- He looked up "aurelius" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "aurelius" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

authorise (verb)

Grant authorization or clearance for.

- She tried to use "authorise" carefully so everyone would understand.

- Learners should practice how to use “authorise” in real sentences.

---

bacchus (noun)

(classical mythology) god of wine; equivalent of Dionysus.

- The article explained what “bacchus” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “bacchus” to mean (classical mythology) god of wine; equivalent of....

---

bantam (noun)

Any of various small breeds of fowl.

- The article explained what “bantam” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bantam.”

---

barked (verb)

Speak in an unfriendly tone.

- She barked into the dictaphone.
- The dogs barked at the stranger.

---

barrack (verb)

Spur on or encourage especially by cheers and shouts.

- Learners should practice how to use “barrack” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “barrack” when talking about this idea.

---

batty (adjective)

Informal or slang terms for mentally irregular.

- Would you call this situation “batty”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “batty” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bellow (noun)

A very loud utterance (like the sound of an animal).

- His bellow filled the hallway.
- The article explained what “bellow” means with a simple example.

---

belvedere (noun)

A gazebo sited to command a fine view.

- In class, the teacher used “belvedere” to mean a gazebo sited to command a fine view.
- He looked up “belvedere” because he had never seen it before.

---

benefactors (noun)

A person who helps people or institutions (especially with financial help).

- In class, the teacher used “benefactors” to mean a person who helps people or institutions....
- The article explained what “benefactors” means with a simple example.

---

big bill haywood (noun)

United States labor leader and militant socialist who was one of the founders of the Industrial Workers of the World (1869-1928).

- He looked up “big bill haywood” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “big bill haywood” to mean united states labor leader and militant socialist....

---

big-chested (adjective)

Marked by a large or well-developed chest.

- He was big-chested, big-shouldered and heavy-armed.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “big-chested.”

---

bitty (adjective)

(used informally) very small.

- Students compared “bitty” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “bitty” approach may work better in this case.

---

black cottonwood (noun)

North American poplar with large rounded scalloped leaves and brownish bark and wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "black cottonwood."
- He looked up "black cottonwood" because he had never seen it before.

---

blurb (noun)

A promotional statement (as found on the dust jackets of books).

- The author got all his friends to write blurbs for his book.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blurb."

---

bock beer (noun)

A very strong lager traditionally brewed in the fall and aged through the winter for consumption in the spring.

- The article explained what "bock beer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bock beer" to mean a very strong lager traditionally brewed in the....

---

body politic (noun)

A politically organized body of people under a single government.

- In class, the teacher used "body politic" to mean a politically organized body of people under a....
- They discussed "body politic" during the group presentation.

---

bombardier beetle (noun)

Beetle that ejects audibly a pungent vapor when disturbed.

- In class, the teacher used "bombardier beetle" to mean beetle that ejects audibly a pungent vapor when....
- The article explained what "bombardier beetle" means with a simple example.

---

bonsai (noun)

A dwarfed ornamental tree or shrub grown in a tray or shallow pot.

- In class, the teacher used "bonsai" to mean a dwarfed ornamental tree or shrub grown in a tray....
- The article explained what "bonsai" means with a simple example.

---

bosworth field (noun)

The battle that ended the Wars of the Roses (1485); Richard III was killed and Henry Tudor was crowned as Henry VII.

- Understanding "bosworth field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bosworth field."

---

boyish (adjective)

Befitting or characteristic of a young boy.

- A boyish grin.
- Schoolboyish pranks.

---

bps (noun)

(computer science) the rate at which data is transferred (as by a modem).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bps."
- He looked up "bps" because he had never seen it before.

---

braxton-hicks contraction (noun)

Painless contractions of the muscles of the uterus that continue throughout pregnancy with increasing frequency.

- They discussed "braxton-hicks contraction" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "braxton-hicks contraction" because he had never seen it before.

---

bronte (noun)

English novelist; one of three Bronte sisters (1818-1848).

- Understanding "bronte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bronte" to mean english novelist; one of three bronte sisters....

---

buckwheat (noun)

A member of the genus Fagopyrum; annual Asian plant with clusters of small pinkish white flowers and small edible triangular seeds which are used whole or ground into flour.

- He looked up "buckwheat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buckwheat."

---

buckwheat family (noun)

A family of plants of order Polygonales chiefly of the north temperate zone; includes the buckwheats.

- In class, the teacher used "buckwheat family" to mean a family of plants of order polygonales chiefly of....
- He looked up "buckwheat family" because he had never seen it before.

---

buckwheat tree (noun)

Tree of low-lying coastal areas of southeastern United States having glossy leaves and racemes of fragrant white flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "buckwheat tree" to mean tree of low-lying coastal areas of southeastern....
- He looked up "buckwheat tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

bushel (noun)

A United States dry measure equal to 4 pecks or 2152.42 cubic inches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bushel."
- He looked up "bushel" because he had never seen it before.

---

busses (noun)

A vehicle carrying many passengers; used for public transport.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "busses."
- Understanding "busses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buttercup (noun)

Any of various plants of the genus Ranunculus.

- In class, the teacher used "buttercup" to mean any of various plants of the genus ranunculus.
- Understanding "buttercup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buttercup family (noun)

A family of Ranunculaceae.

- Understanding "buttercup family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "buttercup family" because he had never seen it before.

---

calibrate (verb)

Make fine adjustments or divide into marked intervals for optimal measuring.

- Calibrate an instrument.
- He calibrated the thermometer for the Celsius scale.

---

california buckwheat (noun)

Low-growing shrub with spreading branches and flowers in loose heads; desert regions of western United States (California to Utah).

- He looked up "california buckwheat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california buckwheat."

---

callback (noun)

A request by the manufacturer of a defective product to return the product (as for replacement or repair).

- The article explained what "callback" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "callback" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

campsites (noun)

A site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

- The article explained what "campsites" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "campsites" to mean a site where people on holiday can pitch a tent.

---

candlestick (noun)

A holder with sockets for candles.

- They discussed "candlestick" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "candlestick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

canton crepe (noun)

A soft thick crinkled dress crepe; heavier than crepe de Chine.

- Understanding "canton crepe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "canton crepe" during the group presentation.

cape canaveral (noun)

A sandy promontory (formerly Cape Kennedy) extending into the Atlantic Ocean from a barrier island off the eastern coast of Florida; the site of a NASA center for spaceflight.

- Understanding "cape canaveral" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cape canaveral" during the group presentation.

capricious (adjective)

Determined by chance or impulse or whim rather than by necessity or reason.

- A capricious refusal.
- Authoritarian rulers are frequently capricious.

carcinogenic (adjective)

Causing or tending to cause cancer.

- The carcinogenic action of certain chemicals.
- A "carcinogenic" approach may work better in this case.

cartagena (noun)

A port in southeastern Spain on the Mediterranean.

- He looked up "cartagena" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cartagena" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cataracts (noun)

A large waterfall; violent rush of water over a precipice.

- Understanding "cataracts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cataracts" to mean a large waterfall; violent rush of water over a....

cation (noun)

A positively charged ion.

- Understanding "cation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cation" means with a simple example.

caveats (noun)

A warning against certain acts.

- They discussed "caveats" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "caveats" to mean a warning against certain acts.

centaur (noun)

A conspicuous constellation in the southern hemisphere near the Southern Cross.

- He looked up "centaur" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "centaur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

centipede (noun)

Chiefly nocturnal predacious arthropod having a flattened body of 15 to 173 segments each with a pair of legs, the foremost pair being modified as prehensors.

- The article explained what "centipede" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "centipede" during the group presentation.

cerebral thrombosis (noun)

A blood clot in a cerebral artery or vein.

- In class, the teacher used "cerebral thrombosis" to mean a blood clot in a cerebral artery or vein.
- He looked up "cerebral thrombosis" because he had never seen it before.

chain tongs (noun)

A pipe wrench used for turning large pipes; an adjustable chain circles the pipe with its ends connected to the head whose teeth engage the pipe.

- He looked up "chain tongs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "chain tongs" to mean a pipe wrench used for turning large pipes; an....

---

charles eames (noun)

United States designer noted for an innovative series of chairs (1907-1978).

- The article explained what "charles eames" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "charles eames" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chiffon (noun)

A sheer fabric of silk or rayon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chiffon."
- He looked up "chiffon" because he had never seen it before.

---

china jute (noun)

Tall annual herb or subshrub of tropical Asia having velvety leaves and yellow flowers and yielding a strong fiber; naturalized in southeastern Europe and United States.

- The article explained what "china jute" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "china jute."

---

chirp (noun)

A sharp sound made by small birds or insects.

- In class, the teacher used "chirp" to mean a sharp sound made by small birds or insects.
- The article explained what "chirp" means with a simple example.

---

chloroform (noun)

A volatile liquid haloform (CHCl3); formerly used as an anesthetic.

- Chloroform was the first inhalation anesthetic.
- The article explained what "chloroform" means with a simple example.

---

chromatin (noun)

The readily stainable substance of a cell nucleus consisting of DNA and RNA and various proteins; during mitotic division it condenses into chromosomes.

- They discussed "chromatin" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chromatin" means with a simple example.

---

clays (noun)

The dead body of a human being.

- In class, the teacher used "clays" to mean the dead body of a human being.
- Understanding "clays" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clogs (verb)

Fill to excess so that function is impaired.

- She tried to use "clogs" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "clogs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

clove hitch (noun)

A knot used to fasten a line temporarily to a post or spar.

- They discussed "clove hitch" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "clove hitch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coal tongs (noun)

Tongs for taking hold of burning coals.

- In class, the teacher used "coal tongs" to mean tongs for taking hold of burning coals.
- He looked up "coal tongs" because he had never seen it before.

---

coarse-grained (adjective)

Composed of or covered with particles resembling meal in texture or consistency.

- Coarse-grained wood.

- Would you call this situation "coarse-grained"? Explain why.

---

coaxial (adjective)

Having a common axis.

- A "coaxial" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "coaxial"? Explain why.

---

colluding (verb)

Act in unison or agreement and in secret towards a deceitful or illegal purpose.

- Can you use "colluding" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "colluding" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

common buttercup (noun)

Perennial Old World buttercup with golden to sulphur yellow flowers in late spring to early summer; naturalized in North America.

- The article explained what "common buttercup" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common buttercup" to mean perennial old world buttercup with golden to....

---

commutes (noun)

A regular journey of some distance to and from your place of work.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commutes."
- The article explained what "commutes" means with a simple example.

---

completions (noun)

(American football) a successful forward pass in football.

- The article explained what "completions" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "completions."

---

conch (noun)

Any of various edible tropical marine gastropods of the genus Strombus having a brightly-colored spiral shell with large outer lip.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conch."
- He looked up "conch" because he had never seen it before.

---

concocted (verb)

Prepare or cook by mixing ingredients.

- The coach explained when to use "concocted" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "concocted" until he saw an example.

---

conditioners (noun)

A substance used in washing (clothing or hair) to make things softer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conditioners."
- The article explained what "conditioners" means with a simple example.

---

confucian (noun)

A believer in the teachings of Confucius.

- Understanding "confucian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "confucian" to mean a believer in the teachings of confucius.

---

conspirator (noun)

A member of a conspiracy.

- He looked up "conspirator" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "conspirator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

conveyance (noun)

The act of moving something from one location to another.

- They discussed "conveyance" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "conveyance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

conveyance of title (noun)

Act of transferring property title from one person to another.

- In class, the teacher used "conveyance of title" to mean act of transferring property title from one person....
- Understanding "conveyance of title" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corrie (noun)

A steep-walled semicircular basin in a mountain; may contain a lake.

- Understanding "corrie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "corrie" because he had never seen it before.

---

corsica (noun)

A region of France on the island of Corsica; birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte.

- Understanding "corsica" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "corsica" to mean a region of france on the island of corsica;....

---

cosmological constant (noun)

An arbitrary constant in the equations of general relativity theory.

- He looked up "cosmological constant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cosmological constant" to mean an arbitrary constant in the equations of general....

---

cotter (noun)

A peasant farmer in the Scottish Highlands.

- The article explained what "cotter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cotter."

---

cottonwood (noun)

American basswood of the Allegheny region.

- In class, the teacher used "cottonwood" to mean american basswood of the allegheny region.
- The article explained what "cottonwood" means with a simple example.

---

count palatine (noun)

A count who exercised royal authority in his own domain.

- The article explained what "count palatine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "count palatine" to mean a count who exercised royal authority in his own domain.

---

county palatine (noun)

The territory of a count palatine.

- He looked up "county palatine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "county palatine" to mean the territory of a count palatine.

---

cranberries (noun)

Very tart red berry used for sauce or juice.

- He looked up "cranberries" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cranberries."

---

crankshaft (noun)

A rotating shaft driven by (or driving) a crank.

- They discussed "crankshaft" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "crankshaft" because he had never seen it before.

---

crossbar (noun)

A horizontal bar that goes across something.

- They discussed "crossbar" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "crossbar" to mean a horizontal bar that goes across something.

---

cytokines (noun)

Any of various protein molecules secreted by cells of the immune system that serve to regulate the immune system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cytokines."
- He looked up "cytokines" because he had never seen it before.

---

dawning (noun)

The first light of day.

- In class, the teacher used "dawning" to mean the first light of day.
- The article explained what "dawning" means with a simple example.

---

deep-chested (adjective)

Thick in the chest.

- A deep-chested breed of dog.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "deep-chested."

---

delicacies (noun)

The quality of being beautiful and delicate in appearance.

- He looked up "delicacies" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "delicacies."

---

demarcation (noun)

A conceptual separation or distinction.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demarcation."
- They discussed "demarcation" during the group presentation.

---

demarcation line (noun)

The boundary of a specific area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demarcation line."
- He looked up "demarcation line" because he had never seen it before.

---

desalination (noun)

The removal of salt (especially from sea water).

- The article explained what "desalination" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "desalination" during the group presentation.

---

desktops (noun)

(computer science) the area of the screen in graphical user interfaces against which icons and windows appear.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desktops."
- The article explained what "desktops" means with a simple example.

---

determinations (noun)

The act of making up your mind about something.

- He looked up "determinations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "determinations."

---

dictatorships (noun)

A form of government in which the ruler is an absolute dictator (not restricted by a constitution or laws or opposition etc.).

- They discussed "dictatorships" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dictatorships."

---

diffraction grating (noun)

Optical device consisting of a surface with many parallel grooves in it; disperses a beam of light (or other electromagnetic radiation) into its wavelengths to produce its spectrum.

- The article explained what "diffraction grating" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "diffraction grating" to mean optical device consisting of a surface with many....

---

dildos (noun)

A vibrating device that substitutes for an erect penis to provide vaginal stimulation.

- The article explained what "dildos" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dildos" to mean a vibrating device that substitutes for an erect....

dim-witted (adjective)

Lacking mental capacity and subtlety.

- Would you call this situation "dim-witted"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dim-witted."

dimly (adverb)

In a manner lacking interest or vitality.

- We perceived the change only dimly.
- A dimly lit room.

dinner pail (noun)

A pail in which a workman carries his lunch or dinner.

- Understanding "dinner pail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dinner pail" because he had never seen it before.

discernment (noun)

The trait of judging wisely and objectively.

- A man of discernment.
- He looked up "discernment" because he had never seen it before.

dislodge (verb)

Remove or force from a position of dwelling previously occupied.

- The new employee dislodged her by moving into her office space.
- The dentist dislodged the piece of food that had been stuck under my gums.

dismembered (verb)

Separate the limbs from the body.

- The tiger dismembered the tourist.
- Our department was dismembered when our funding dried up.

disrepair (noun)

In need of repairs.

- The article explained what "disrepair" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "disrepair" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dissertations (noun)

A treatise advancing a new point of view resulting from research; usually a requirement for an advanced academic degree.

- He looked up "dissertations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dissertations."

doings (noun)

Manner of acting or controlling yourself.

- Understanding "doings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "doings" because he had never seen it before.

doorman (noun)

Someone who guards an entrance.

- Understanding "doorman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "doorman" during the group presentation.

duets (noun)

A pair who associate with one another.

- The article explained what "duets" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "duets" to mean a pair who associate with one another.

eames (noun)

United States designer noted for an innovative series of chairs (1907-1978).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “eames.”
- He looked up “eames” because he had never seen it before.

---

easement (noun)

The act of reducing something unpleasant (as pain or annoyance).

- He looked up “easement” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “easement.”

---

eastern cottonwood (noun)

A common poplar of eastern and central United States; cultivated in United States for its rapid growth and luxuriant foliage and in Europe for timber.

- In class, the teacher used “eastern cottonwood” to mean a common poplar of eastern and central united....
- Understanding “eastern cottonwood” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ebitda (noun)

Income before interest and taxes and depreciation and amortization have been subtracted; an indicator of a company’s profitability that is watched by investors (especially in leveraged buyouts).

- They discussed “ebitda” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “ebitda” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

edward gibbon (noun)

English historian best known for his history of the Roman Empire (1737-1794).

- He looked up “edward gibbon” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “edward gibbon.”

---

elvis aron presley (noun)

United States rock singer whose many hit records and flamboyant style greatly influenced American popular music (1935-1977).

- The article explained what “elvis aron presley” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “elvis aron presley” during the group presentation.

---

emissary vein (noun)

One of several connecting veins in the scalp and head that drain blood from sinuses in the dura mater to veins outside the skull.

- They discussed “emissary vein” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “emissary vein” to mean one of several connecting veins in the scalp and....

---

emulated (verb)

Strive to equal or match, especially by imitating.

- In everyday English, people use “emulated” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “emulated” in real sentences.

---

emulating (verb)

Strive to equal or match, especially by imitating.

- He is emulating the skating skills of his older sister.
- Learners should practice how to use “emulating” in real sentences.

---

endorphins (noun)

A neurochemical occurring naturally in the brain and having analgesic properties.

- Understanding “endorphins” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “endorphins” during the group presentation.

---

engrossed (adjective)

Giving or marked by complete attention to; ; ; - Walter de la Mare.

- That engrossed look or rapt delight.
- Students compared “engrossed” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

entwined (verb)

Spin,wind, or twist together.

- The coach explained when to use “entwined” and when to wait.

- Learners should practice how to use "entwined" in real sentences.

---

erskine preston caldwell (noun)

United States author remembered for novels about poverty and degeneration (1903-1987).

- In class, the teacher used "erskine preston caldwell" to mean united states author remembered for novels about....
- The article explained what "erskine preston caldwell" means with a simple example.

---

euclidean (adjective)

Relating to geometry as developed by Euclid.

- Would you call this situation "euclidean"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "euclidean" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

euclidean space (noun)

A space in which Euclid's axioms and definitions apply; a metric space that is linear and finite-dimensional.

- In class, the teacher used "euclidean space" to mean a space in which euclid's axioms and definitions....
- The article explained what "euclidean space" means with a simple example.

---

euler (noun)

Swiss mathematician (1707-1783).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "euler."
- Understanding "euler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evacuations (noun)

The act of removing the contents of something.

- He looked up "evacuations" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "evacuations" during the group presentation.

---

ewe (noun)

A Kwa language spoken by the Ewe in Ghana and Togo and Benin.

- The article explained what "ewe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ewe" to mean a kwa language spoken by the ewe in ghana and togo....

---

exponents (noun)

A person who pleads for a cause or propounds an idea.

- In class, the teacher used "exponents" to mean a person who pleads for a cause or propounds an idea.
- The article explained what "exponents" means with a simple example.

---

extraneous (adjective)

Not pertinent to the matter under consideration.

- An issue extraneous to the debate.
- The ballet struck me as extraneous and somewhat out of keeping with the rest of the play.

---

exuberance (noun)

Overflowing with eager enjoyment or approval.

- Understanding "exuberance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "exuberance" means with a simple example.

---

eyeglasses (noun)

Optical instrument consisting of a frame that holds a pair of lenses for correcting defective vision.

- The article explained what "eyeglasses" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eyeglasses."

---

falsehoods (noun)

The act of rendering something false as by fraudulent changes (of documents or measures etc.) or counterfeiting.

- Understanding "falsehoods" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "falsehoods" because he had never seen it before.

---

familiarize (verb)

Make familiar or conversant with.

- We familiarized ourselves with the new surroundings.
- Can you use "familiarize" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fastening (noun)

The act of fastening things together.

- They discussed "fastening" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fastening."

---

fatah-rc (noun)

A Palestinian international terrorist organization that split from the PLO in 1974; has conducted terrorist attacks in 20 countries.

- In the 1980s the Fatah-RC was considered the most dangerous and murderous Palestinian terror group.
- In class, the teacher used "fatah-rc" to mean a palestinian international terrorist organization....

---

ferrous (adjective)

Of or relating to or containing iron.

- It is useful to describe something as "ferrous" when it is of or relating to or containing iron.
- The speaker chose "ferrous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

forearms (noun)

The part of the superior limb between the elbow and the wrist.

- They discussed "forearms" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "forearms" to mean the part of the superior limb between the elbow and....

---

foreboding (noun)

A feeling of evil to come.

- A steadily escalating sense of foreboding.
- They discussed "foreboding" during the group presentation.

---

frances eliza hodgson burnett (noun)

United States writer (born in England) remembered for her novels for children (1849-1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frances eliza hodgson burnett."
- He looked up "frances eliza hodgson burnett" because he had never seen it before.

---

francis crick (noun)

English biochemist who (with Watson in 1953) helped discover the helical structure of DNA (1916-2004).

- Understanding "francis crick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "francis crick" means with a simple example.

---

franklin delano roosevelt (noun)

32nd President of the United States; elected four times; instituted New Deal to counter the Great Depression and led country during World War II (1882-1945).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franklin delano roosevelt."
- They discussed "franklin delano roosevelt" during the group presentation.

---

frieze (noun)

An architectural ornament consisting of a horizontal sculptured band between the architrave and the cornice.

- The article explained what "frieze" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "frieze" during the group presentation.

---

gai choi (noun)

Asiatic mustard used as a potherb.

- In class, the teacher used "gai choi" to mean asiatic mustard used as a potherb.
- The article explained what "gai choi" means with a simple example.

---

garden centipede (noun)

Minute arthropod often infesting the underground parts of truck-garden and greenhouse crops.

- In class, the teacher used "garden centipede" to mean minute arthropod often infesting the underground....
- He looked up "garden centipede" because he had never seen it before.

---

gatekeeper (noun)

Someone who controls access to something.

- There are too many gatekeepers between the field officers and the chief.
- The article explained what "gatekeeper" means with a simple example.

---

geiger-muller counter (noun)

Counter tube that detects ionizing radiations.

- They discussed "geiger-muller counter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geiger-muller counter."

---

golem (noun)

A mechanism that can move automatically.

- He looked up "golem" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "golem" to mean a mechanism that can move automatically.

---

goose pimple (noun)

Reflex erection of hairs of the skin in response to cold or emotional stress or skin irritation.

- Understanding "goose pimple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "goose pimple" to mean reflex erection of hairs of the skin in response to....

---

gossiping (noun)

A conversation that spreads personal information about other people.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gossiping."
- They discussed "gossiping" during the group presentation.

---

grafting (noun)

The act of grafting something onto something else.

- He looked up "grafting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grafting."

---

granules (noun)

A tiny grain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "granules."
- He looked up "granules" because he had never seen it before.

---

great proletarian cultural revolution (noun)

A radical reform in China initiated by Mao Zedong in 1965 and carried out largely by the Red Guard; intended to eliminate counterrevolutionary elements in the government it resulted in purges of the intellectuals and socioeconomic chaos.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great proletarian cultural revolution."
- They discussed "great proletarian cultural revolution" during the group presentation.

---

gridlock (noun)

A traffic jam so bad that no movement is possible.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gridlock."
- The article explained what "gridlock" means with a simple example.

---

guarantor (noun)

One who provides a warrant or guarantee to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guarantor."
- They discussed "guarantor" during the group presentation.

---

guard's van (noun)

The car on a train that is occupied by the guard.

- He looked up "guard's van" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "guard's van" to mean the car on a train that is occupied by the guard.

gujarati (noun)

The Indic language spoken by the people of India who live in Gujarat in western India.

- The article explained what "gujarati" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gujarati" during the group presentation.

gum kino (noun)

A gum obtained from various tropical plants; used as an astringent and in tanning.

- Understanding "gum kino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gum kino" because he had never seen it before.

gy (noun)

The SI unit of energy absorbed from ionizing radiation; equal to the absorption of one joule of radiation energy by one kilogram of matter; one gray equals 100 rad.

- Understanding "gy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gy" because he had never seen it before.

hares (noun)

Flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or domesticated) eaten as food.

- The article explained what "hares" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hares" to mean flesh of any of various rabbits or hares (wild or....

haywood (noun)

United States labor leader and militant socialist who was one of the founders of the Industrial Workers of the World (1869-1928).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haywood."
- He looked up "haywood" because he had never seen it before.

heart urchin (noun)

Sea urchin having a heart-shaped body in a rigid spiny shell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heart urchin."
- He looked up "heart urchin" because he had never seen it before.

hemorrhagic fever (noun)

A group of illnesses caused by a viral infection (usually restricted to a specific geographic area); fever and gastrointestinal symptoms are followed by capillary hemorrhage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hemorrhagic fever."
- They discussed "hemorrhagic fever" during the group presentation.

henri matisse (noun)

French painter and sculptor; leading figure of fauvism (1869-1954).

- He looked up "henri matisse" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "henri matisse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

herbaceous (adjective)

Characteristic of a nonwoody herb or plant part.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "herbaceous."
- The speaker chose "herbaceous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

herbaceous plant (noun)

A plant lacking a permanent woody stem; many are flowering garden plants or potherbs; some having medicinal properties; some are pests.

- In class, the teacher used "herbaceous plant" to mean a plant lacking a permanent woody stem; many are....
- He looked up "herbaceous plant" because he had never seen it before.

herbert blythe (noun)

United States actor; husband of Georgiana Emma Barrymore and father of Ethel Barrymore and John Barrymore and Lionel Barrymore (1847-1905).

- In class, the teacher used "herbert blythe" to mean united states actor; husband of georgiana emma....
- They discussed "herbert blythe" during the group presentation.

herodotus (noun)

The ancient Greek known as the father of history; his accounts of the wars between the Greeks and Persians are the first known examples of historical writing (485-425 BC).

- They discussed "herodotus" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herodotus."

---

hither (adverb)

To this place (especially toward the speaker).

- She spoke "hither," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "hither" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

homeboy (noun)

A male friend from your neighborhood or hometown.

- They discussed "homeboy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "homeboy" means with a simple example.

---

honing (verb)

Make perfect or complete.

- Can you use "honing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "honing" and when to wait.

---

honky (noun)

(slang) offensive names for a White man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "honky."
- He looked up "honky" because he had never seen it before.

---

honorably (adverb)

In an honorable manner.

- He acted honorably.
- He was honorably discharged after many years of service.

---

house centipede (noun)

Long-legged centipede common in damp places as e.g. cellars.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "house centipede."
- He looked up "house centipede" because he had never seen it before.

---

human paleontology (noun)

The scientific study of human fossils.

- In class, the teacher used "human paleontology" to mean the scientific study of human fossils.
- They discussed "human paleontology" during the group presentation.

---

humber (noun)

An estuary in central northeastern England formed by the Ouse River and the Trent River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "humber."
- He looked up "humber" because he had never seen it before.

---

humber bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge at Hull, England; 4,626 feet long.

- In class, the teacher used "humber bridge" to mean a suspension bridge at hull, england; 4,626 feet long.
- The article explained what "humber bridge" means with a simple example.

---

hunan province (noun)

A province in southeastern central China between the Nan Ling mountains and the Chang Jiang; noted for its timber and valuable mineral resources.

- In class, the teacher used "hunan province" to mean a province in southeastern central china between....
- Understanding "hunan province" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hurriedly (adverb)

In a hurried or hasty manner.

- The way they buried him so hurriedly was disgraceful.

- He answered "hurriedly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

hyping (verb)

Publicize in an exaggerated and often misleading manner.

- Can you use "hyping" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "hyping" and when to wait.

---

idioms (noun)

The style of a particular artist or school or movement.

- The article explained what "idioms" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "idioms" during the group presentation.

---

iga (noun)

One of the most common of the five major classes of immunoglobulins; the chief antibody in the membranes of the gastrointestinal and respiratory tracts.

- They discussed "iga" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "iga" means with a simple example.

---

illusory (adjective)

Based on or having the nature of an illusion.

- Secret activities offer presidents the alluring but often illusory promise that they can achieve foreign policy goals without the bothersome debate and open decision that are staples of democracy.
- A "illusory" approach may work better in this case.

---

illustrators (noun)

An artist who makes illustrations (for books or magazines or advertisements etc.).

- He looked up "illustrators" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "illustrators" during the group presentation.

---

ilo (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with the interests of labor.

- In class, the teacher used "ilo" to mean the united nations agency concerned with the....
- The article explained what "ilo" means with a simple example.

---

in the lurch (adverb)

In a difficult or vulnerable position.

- He resigned and left me in the lurch.
- She spoke "in the lurch," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

inadequacy (noun)

A lack of competence.

- Juvenile offenses often reflect an inadequacy in the parents.
- The inadequacy of unemployment benefits.

---

inadvertent (adjective)

Happening by chance or unexpectedly or unintentionally.

- With an inadvertent gesture she swept the vase off the table.
- It is useful to describe something as "inadvertent" when it is happening by chance or unexpectedly or unintentionally.

---

inaudible (adjective)

Impossible to hear; imperceptible by the ear.

- An inaudible conversation.
- A "inaudible" approach may work better in this case.

---

incapacity (noun)

Lack of physical or natural qualifications.

- They discussed "incapacity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "incapacity" because he had never seen it before.

---

industrious (adjective)

Characterized by hard work and perseverance.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "industrious."
- Students compared "industrious" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

infantile autism (noun)

A rare but serious syndrome of childhood characterized by withdrawal and lack of social responsiveness or interest in others and serious linguistic deficits.

- There is considerable dispute among specialists concerning infantile autism.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infantile autism."

---

infects (verb)

Affect in a contagious way.

- His laughter infects everyone who is in the same room.
- The coach explained when to use "infects" and when to wait.

---

inflating (verb)

Increase the amount or availability of, creating a rise in value.

- She tried to use "inflating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "inflating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ingress (noun)

(astronomy) the disappearance of a celestial body prior to an eclipse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ingress."
- He looked up "ingress" because he had never seen it before.

---

inhalation anesthetic (noun)

A gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.

- They discussed "inhalation anesthetic" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inhalation anesthetic."

---

inhalation general anesthetic (noun)

A gas that produces general anesthesia when inhaled.

- The article explained what "inhalation general anesthetic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "inhalation general anesthetic" during the group presentation.

---

insufferable (adjective)

Used of persons or their behavior.

- Insufferable insolence.
- Students compared "insufferable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

interred (adjective)

Placed in a grave.

- The speaker chose "interred" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "interred" when it is placed in a grave.

---

interrogations (noun)

A sentence of inquiry that asks for a reply.

- He had trouble phrasing his interrogations.
- He looked up "interrogations" because he had never seen it before.

---

intravenous anesthetic (noun)

An anesthetic that produces anesthesia when injected into the circulatory system.

- In class, the teacher used "intravenous anesthetic" to mean an anesthetic that produces anesthesia when....
- Understanding "intravenous anesthetic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intrusions (noun)

Any entry into an area not previously occupied.

- Understanding "intrusions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "intrusions" means with a simple example.

---

isometric (adjective)

Of or involving muscular contraction in which tension increases while length remains constant.

- The speaker chose "isometric" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "isometric" approach may work better in this case.

---

isometric line (noun)

A line connecting isometric points.

- The article explained what "isometric line" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "isometric line" to mean a line connecting isometric points.

---

jeeps (noun)

A car suitable for traveling over rough terrain.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jeeps."
- He looked up "jeeps" because he had never seen it before.

---

jib (verb)

Shift from one side of the ship to the other.

- The sail jibbed wildly.
- In everyday English, people use "jib" when talking about this idea.

---

jinnah (noun)

Indian statesman who was the founder of Pakistan as a Muslim state (1876-1948).

- Understanding "jinnah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "jinnah" during the group presentation.

---

johnny reb (noun)

'Johnny' was applied as a nickname for Confederate soldiers by the Federal soldiers in the American Civil War; 'greyback' derived from their grey Confederate uniforms.

- They discussed "johnny reb" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "johnny reb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

journeyed (verb)

Travel upon or across.

- In everyday English, people use "journeyed" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "journeyed" in real sentences.

---

jute (noun)

A plant fiber used in making rope or sacks.

- Understanding "jute" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "jute" to mean a plant fiber used in making rope or sacks.

---

kino gum (noun)

A gum obtained from various tropical plants; used as an astringent and in tanning.

- Understanding "kino gum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kino gum" because he had never seen it before.

---

laughing hyena (noun)

African hyena noted for its distinctive howl.

- Understanding "laughing hyena" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "laughing hyena" during the group presentation.

---

layoff (noun)

The act of laying off an employee or a work force.

- They discussed "layoff" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "layoff" because he had never seen it before.

leper (noun)

A person afflicted with leprosy.

- Understanding "leper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leper."

levee (noun)

A pier that provides a landing place on a river.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "levee."
- They discussed "levee" during the group presentation.

lido (noun)

A recreational facility including a swimming pool for water sports.

- He looked up "lido" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lido" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

loci (noun)

The set of all points or lines that satisfy or are determined by specific conditions.

- The article explained what "loci" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "loci" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

loos (noun)

Austrian architect (1870-1933).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loos."
- He looked up "loos" because he had never seen it before.

lorenz hart (noun)

United States lyricist who collaborated with Richard Rodgers (1895-1943).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lorenz hart."
- They discussed "lorenz hart" during the group presentation.

lotteries (noun)

Something that is regarded as a chance event.

- The article explained what "lotteries" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lotteries."

loudspeakers (noun)

Electro-acoustic transducer that converts electrical signals into sounds loud enough to be heard at a distance.

- Understanding "loudspeakers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "loudspeakers" means with a simple example.

lounging robe (noun)

A robe worn before dressing or while lounging.

- The article explained what "lounging robe" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lounging robe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lucerne (noun)

Important European leguminous forage plant with trifoliate leaves and blue-violet flowers grown widely as a pasture and hay crop.

- In class, the teacher used "lucerne" to mean important european leguminous forage plant with....
- Understanding "lucerne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lurch (verb)

Walk as if unable to control one's movements.

- The ship suddenly lurched to the left.
- The truck lurched down the road.

magnetic dipole (noun)

A dipole with opposing magnetic poles.

- The article explained what "magnetic dipole" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "magnetic dipole" to mean a dipole with opposing magnetic poles.

magnetic dipole moment (noun)

(physics) a current loop gives rise to a magnetic field characteristic of a magnetic dipole.

- An orbiting electron in an atom will have a magnetic dipole moment.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnetic dipole moment."

magnificence (noun)

The quality of being magnificent or splendid or grand.

- For magnificence and personal service there is the Queen's hotel.
- They discussed "magnificence" during the group presentation.

majored (verb)

Have as one's principal field of study.

- Learners should practice how to use "majored" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "majored" until he saw an example.

malacca cane (noun)

A cane made from the stem of a rattan palm.

- They discussed "malacca cane" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "malacca cane" means with a simple example.

malaysians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Malaysia.

- In class, the teacher used "malaysians" to mean a native or inhabitant of malaysia.
- The article explained what "malaysians" means with a simple example.

malfunctions (noun)

A failure to function normally.

- The article explained what "malfunctions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "malfunctions" to mean a failure to function normally.

mamas (noun)

A name under which Ninkhursag was worshipped.

- They discussed "mamas" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mamas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mangoes (noun)

Large evergreen tropical tree cultivated for its large oval fruit.

- Understanding "mangoes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mangoes."

manipur (noun)

State in northeastern India.

- Understanding "manipur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "manipur" because he had never seen it before.

manna from heaven (noun)

A sudden happening that brings good fortune (as a sudden opportunity to make money).

- He looked up "manna from heaven" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "manna from heaven" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

manna grass (noun)

Any of several moisture-loving grasses of the genus Glyceria having sweet flavor or odor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manna grass."
- They discussed "manna grass" during the group presentation.

margaritas (noun)

A cocktail made of tequila and triple sec with lime and lemon juice.

- They discussed "margaritas" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "margaritas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

marlene dietrich (noun)

United States film actress (born in Germany) who made many films with Josef von Sternberg and later was a successful cabaret star (1901-1992).

- Understanding "marlene dietrich" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marlene dietrich."

martens (noun)

Agile slender-bodied arboreal mustelids somewhat larger than weasels.

- In class, the teacher used "martens" to mean agile slender-bodied arboreal mustelids somewhat....
- He looked up "martens" because he had never seen it before.

maryland golden aster (noun)

Perennial golden aster of southeastern United States.

- Understanding "maryland golden aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maryland golden aster."

mason's level (noun)

A level longer than a carpenter's level.

- He looked up "mason's level" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mason's level" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

matchmaker (noun)

Someone who arranges (or tries to arrange) marriages for others.

- The article explained what "matchmaker" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "matchmaker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

matinee idol (noun)

Someone who is adored blindly and excessively.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matinee idol."
- He looked up "matinee idol" because he had never seen it before.

measly (adjective)

Contemptibly small in amount.

- A measly tip.
- The speaker chose "measly" because it captured the feeling precisely.

meringue (noun)

Sweet topping especially for pies made of beaten egg whites and sugar.

- Understanding "meringue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "meringue" to mean sweet topping especially for pies made of beaten....

mexican husk tomato (noun)

Small edible yellow to purple tomato-like fruit enclosed in a bladderlike husk.

- In class, the teacher used "mexican husk tomato" to mean small edible yellow to purple tomato-like fruit....
- They discussed "mexican husk tomato" during the group presentation.

migratory locust (noun)

Old World locust that travels in vast swarms stripping large areas of vegetation.

- Understanding "migratory locust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "migratory locust" means with a simple example.

minstrel (noun)

A performer in a minstrel show.

- Understanding "minstrel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "minstrel" means with a simple example.

---

minstrel show (noun)

A variety show in which the performers are made up in blackface.

- The article explained what "minstrel show" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "minstrel show" to mean a variety show in which the performers are made up....

---

mistletoe fig (noun)

Shrub or small tree often grown as a houseplant having foliage like mistletoe.

- He looked up "mistletoe fig" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mistletoe fig" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mistletoe rubber plant (noun)

Shrub or small tree often grown as a houseplant having foliage like mistletoe.

- They discussed "mistletoe rubber plant" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mistletoe rubber plant" because he had never seen it before.

---

moray firth (noun)

An inlet of the North Sea on the northeast coast of Scotland.

- The article explained what "moray firth" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "moray firth" during the group presentation.

---

moronic (adjective)

Having a mental age of between eight and twelve years.

- The speaker chose "moronic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "moronic" when it is having a mental age of between eight and twelve years.

---

mouthing (verb)

Articulate silently; form words with the lips only.

- He did not know how to use "mouthing" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "mouthing" when talking about this idea.

---

muddle (noun)

Informal terms for a difficult situation.

- He made a muddle of his marriage.
- They discussed "muddle" during the group presentation.

---

multidimensional (adjective)

Having or involving or marked by several dimensions or aspects.

- Multidimensional problems.
- A multidimensional proposition.

---

multidimensional language (noun)

A programming language whose expressions are assembled in more than one dimension.

- Understanding "multidimensional language" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "multidimensional language" because he had never seen it before.

---

nabbed (verb)

Tag the base runner to get him out.

- The police nabbed the suspected criminals.
- The coach explained when to use "nabbed" and when to wait.

---

nantes (noun)

A port city in western France on the Loire estuary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nantes."

- They discussed "nantes" during the group presentation.

---

narrate (verb)

Narrate or give a detailed account of.

- He did not know how to use "narrate" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "narrate" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

naturalism (noun)

An artistic movement in 19th century France; artists and writers strove for detailed realistic and factual description.

- Understanding "naturalism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "naturalism" means with a simple example.

---

navigated (verb)

Travel on water propelled by wind or by other means.

- He navigated his way to the altar.
- He did not know how to use "navigated" until he saw an example.

---

neoclassical (adjective)

Characteristic of a revival of an earlier classical style.

- A "neoclassical" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "neoclassical" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

neoliberalism (noun)

A political orientation originating in the 1960s; blends liberal political views with an emphasis on economic growth.

- Understanding "neoliberalism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "neoliberalism" during the group presentation.

---

neutered (adjective)

Having testicles or ovaries removed.

- Would you call this situation "neutered"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "neutered" when it is having testicles or ovaries removed.

---

neve (noun)

The upper part of a glacier (beyond the limit of perpetual snow) where the snow turns to ice.

- He looked up "neve" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neve."

---

newsworthy (adjective)

Sufficiently interesting to be reported in a newspaper.

- Would you call this situation "newsworthy"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "newsworthy" when it is sufficiently interesting to be reported in a newspaper.

---

nicaraguan monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Nicaragua.

- He looked up "nicaraguan monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nicaraguan monetary unit."

---

normalizing (verb)

Become normal or return to its normal state.

- Learners should practice how to use "normalizing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "normalizing" when talking about this idea.

---

northerners (noun)

An American who lives in the North (especially during the American Civil War).

- He looked up "northerners" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "northerners."

---

nts (noun)

An organization concerned to preserve historic monuments and buildings and places of historical interest or natural beauty; founded in 1895 and supported by endowment and private subscription.

- They discussed "nts" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nts" because he had never seen it before.

---

oaxaca (noun)

A city of southeastern Mexico.

- The article explained what "oaxaca" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "oaxaca" to mean a city of southeastern mexico.

---

obliterate (verb)

Remove completely from recognition or memory.

- He did not know how to use "obliterate" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "obliterate" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oeuvre (noun)

The total output of a writer or artist (or a substantial part of it).

- He studied the entire Wagnerian oeuvre.
- Understanding "oeuvre" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

omnipresent (adjective)

Being present everywhere at once.

- Students compared "omnipresent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "omnipresent"? Explain why.

---

oneida (noun)

The Iroquoian language spoken by the Oneida.

- In class, the teacher used "oneida" to mean the iroquoian language spoken by the oneida.
- The article explained what "oneida" means with a simple example.

---

ooze leather (noun)

A very soft leather made from the skins of calves and having a suede finish on the flesh side.

- In class, the teacher used "ooze leather" to mean a very soft leather made from the skins of calves....
- They discussed "ooze leather" during the group presentation.

---

osmosis (noun)

(biology, chemistry) diffusion of molecules through a semipermeable membrane from a place of higher concentration to a place of lower concentration until the concentration on both sides is equal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "osmosis."
- Understanding "osmosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

outcrops (verb)

Appear on the surface, come to the surface on the ground.

- Can you use "outcrops" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "outcrops" and when to wait.

---

overflow incontinence (noun)

Urinary incontinence that occurs when the bladder is so full that it continually leaks urine; often attributable to a blocked urethra (e.g., due to prostate enlargement) or weak bladder muscles or nerve damage.

- The article explained what "overflow incontinence" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "overflow incontinence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overhang (verb)

Be suspended over or hang over.

- Learners should practice how to use "overhang" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "overhang" until he saw an example.

---

paganism (noun)

Any of various religions other than Christianity or Judaism.

- Understanding "paganism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "paganism" means with a simple example.

---

pail (noun)

A roughly cylindrical vessel that is open at the top.

- Understanding "pail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pail" during the group presentation.

---

pair of tongs (noun)

Any of various devices for taking hold of objects; usually have two hinged legs with handles above and pointed hooks below.

- In class, the teacher used "pair of tongs" to mean any of various devices for taking hold of objects;....
- Understanding "pair of tongs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

palatine (noun)

The most important of the Seven Hills of Rome; supposedly the location of the first settlement and the site of many imperial palaces.

- In class, the teacher used "palatine" to mean the most important of the seven hills of rome;....
- The article explained what "palatine" means with a simple example.

---

paleontology (noun)

The earth science that studies fossil organisms and related remains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paleontology."
- They discussed "paleontology" during the group presentation.

---

parabolic (adjective)

Resembling or expressed by parables.

- A "parabolic" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "parabolic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

paradoxes (noun)

(logic) a statement that contradicts itself.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paradoxes."
- The article explained what "paradoxes" means with a simple example.

---

pare (verb)

Remove the edges from and cut down to the desired size.

- Pare one's fingernails.
- Pare apples.

---

pare down (verb)

Decrease gradually or bit by bit.

- She tried to use "pare down" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "pare down" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

parlance (noun)

A manner of speaking that is natural to native speakers of a language.

- He looked up "parlance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parlance."

---

permafrost (noun)

Ground that is permanently frozen.

- They discussed "permafrost" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "permafrost" because he had never seen it before.

---

permutations (noun)

An event in which one thing is substituted for another.

- The permutations...taking place in the physical world.

- The article explained what "permutations" means with a simple example.

---

persecute (verb)

Cause to suffer.

- Jews were persecuted in the former Soviet Union.
- The coach explained when to use "persecute" and when to wait.

---

pet peeve (noun)

An opportunity for complaint that is seldom missed.

- Grammatical mistakes are his pet peeve.
- In class, the teacher used "pet peeve" to mean an opportunity for complaint that is seldom missed.

---

pixies (noun)

(folklore) fairies that are somewhat mischievous.

- He looked up "pixies" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pixies."

---

pleistocene epoch (noun)

From two million to 11 thousand years ago; extensive glaciation of the northern hemisphere; the time of human evolution.

- He looked up "pleistocene epoch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pleistocene epoch."

---

plexus (noun)

A network of intersecting blood vessels or intersecting nerves or intersecting lymph vessels.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plexus."
- He looked up "plexus" because he had never seen it before.

---

politic (adjective)

Marked by artful prudence, expedience, and shrewdness.

- It is neither polite nor politic to get into other people's quarrels.
- A politic decision.

---

poncho (noun)

A blanket-like cloak with a hole in the center for the head.

- They discussed "poncho" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "poncho" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

preeminent (adjective)

Greatest in importance or degree or significance or achievement.

- A preeminent archeologist.
- A "preeminent" approach may work better in this case.

---

preemptive bid (noun)

A high bid that is intended to prevent the opposing players from bidding.

- Understanding "preemptive bid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "preemptive bid" because he had never seen it before.

---

prefabricated (verb)

To manufacture sections of (a building), especially in a factory, so that they can be easily transported to and rapidly assembled on a building site of buildings.

- Learners should practice how to use "prefabricated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "prefabricated" when talking about this idea.

---

premiering (verb)

Be performed for the first time.

- Learners should practice how to use "premiering" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "premiering" when talking about this idea.

---

presbytery (noun)

Building reserved for the officiating clergy.

- The article explained what "presbytery" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "presbytery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

preservative (noun)

A chemical compound that is added to protect against decay or decomposition.

- He looked up "preservative" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "preservative" to mean a chemical compound that is added to protect....

---

prickly custard apple (noun)

Small tropical American tree bearing large succulent slightly acid fruit.

- In class, the teacher used "prickly custard apple" to mean small tropical american tree bearing large....
- They discussed "prickly custard apple" during the group presentation.

---

prioritise (verb)

Assign a priority to.

- Learners should practice how to use "prioritise" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "prioritise" until he saw an example.

---

propelling (adjective)

Tending to or capable of propelling.

- Students compared "propelling" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "propelling"? Explain why.

---

propriety (noun)

Correct or appropriate behavior.

- He looked up "propriety" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "propriety" during the group presentation.

---

provisionally (adverb)

Temporarily and conditionally.

- They have agreed provisionally.
- Was appointed provisionally.

---

public easement (noun)

Any easement enjoyed by the public in general (as the public's right to use public streets).

- The article explained what "public easement" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "public easement" to mean any easement enjoyed by the public in general (as....

---

pythons (noun)

A soothsaying spirit or a person who is possessed by such a spirit.

- The article explained what "pythons" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pythons" to mean a soothsaying spirit or a person who is possessed....

---

quartered (verb)

Pull (a person) apart with four horses tied to his extremities, so as to execute him.

- In the old days, people were drawn and quartered for certain crimes.
- Can you use "quartered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

racetrack tout (noun)

Someone who offers advice about betting on horses (either to influence the odds or in the hope of sharing some of the winnings).

- Understanding "racetrack tout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racetrack tout."

---

radium therapy (noun)

The use of radium in radiation therapy.

- They discussed "radium therapy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radium therapy."

---

rattles (noun)

A rapid series of short loud sounds (as might be heard with a stethoscope in some types of respiratory disorders).

- They discussed "rattles" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "rattles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

razed (adjective)

Torn down and broken up.

- It is useful to describe something as "razed" when it is torn down and broken up.
- The speaker chose "razed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

recitals (noun)

A detailed statement giving facts and figures.

- The article explained what "recitals" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "recitals" during the group presentation.

---

reconstructing (verb)

Return to its original or usable and functioning condition.

- Learners should practice how to use "reconstructing" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "reconstructing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rectal reflex (noun)

Normal response to the presence of feces in the rectum.

- They discussed "rectal reflex" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "rectal reflex" to mean normal response to the presence of feces in the rectum.

---

red-shouldered hawk (noun)

North American hawk with reddish brown shoulders.

- In class, the teacher used "red-shouldered hawk" to mean north american hawk with reddish brown shoulders.
- Understanding "red-shouldered hawk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reflexive verb (noun)

A verb whose agent performs an action that is directed at the agent.

- The sentence 'he washed' has a reflexive verb.
- 'perjure' is a reflexive verb because you cannot perjure anyone but yourself.

---

rejuvenation (noun)

The phenomenon of vitality and freshness being restored.

- The annual rejuvenation of the landscape.
- He looked up "rejuvenation" because he had never seen it before.

---

repatriated (verb)

Send someone back to his homeland against his will, as of refugees.

- In everyday English, people use "repatriated" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "repatriated" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

resection (noun)

Surgical removal of part of a structure or organ.

- In class, the teacher used "resection" to mean surgical removal of part of a structure or organ.
- He looked up "resection" because he had never seen it before.

---

robles (noun)

Tall graceful deciduous California oak having leathery leaves and slender pointed acorns.

- They discussed "robles" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "robles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ruffle (verb)

To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.

- Ruffle somebody's composure.
- This play is going to ruffle some people.

ruffle up (verb)

Disturb the smoothness of.

- Ruffle the surface of the water.
- He did not know how to use "ruffle up" until he saw an example.

saber-toothed tiger (noun)

Any of many extinct cats of the Old and New Worlds having long swordlike upper canine teeth; from the Oligocene through the Pleistocene.

- He looked up "saber-toothed tiger" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saber-toothed tiger."

sarcophagus (noun)

A stone coffin (usually bearing sculpture or inscriptions).

- Understanding "sarcophagus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sarcophagus" because he had never seen it before.

sarin (noun)

A highly toxic chemical nerve agent that inhibits the activity of cholinesterase.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sarin."
- Understanding "sarin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sartre (noun)

French writer and existentialist philosopher (1905-1980).

- The article explained what "sartre" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sartre."

scab (noun)

The crustlike surface of a healing skin lesion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scab."
- They discussed "scab" during the group presentation.

schenectady (noun)

A city of eastern New York on the Mohawk river; it prospered after the opening of the Erie Canal.

- They discussed "schenectady" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "schenectady" to mean a city of eastern new york on the mohawk river; it....

schlesinger (noun)

United States historian and advisor to President Kennedy (born in 1917).

- They discussed "schlesinger" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "schlesinger" means with a simple example.

scoot (verb)

Run or move very quickly or hastily.

- Learners should practice how to use "scoot" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "scoot" and when to wait.

scratchy (adjective)

Easily irritated or annoyed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "scratchy."
- Students compared "scratchy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

scuffle (noun)

An unceremonious and disorganized struggle.

- In class, the teacher used "scuffle" to mean an unceremonious and disorganized struggle.
- The article explained what "scuffle" means with a simple example.

---

sea urchin (noun)

Shallow-water echinoderms having soft bodies enclosed in thin spiny globular shells.

- He looked up "sea urchin" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sea urchin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

secede (verb)

Withdraw from an organization or communion.

- He did not know how to use "secede" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "secede" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

second adventist (noun)

A member of Christian denomination that expects the imminent advent of Christ.

- Understanding "second adventist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second adventist."

---

seep (verb)

Pass gradually or leak through or as if through small openings.

- In everyday English, people use "seep" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "seep" in real sentences.

---

self-propelling (adjective)

Moved forward by its own force or momentum.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-propelling."
- Students compared "self-propelling" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sensuous (adjective)

Taking delight in beauty.

- The sensuous joy from all things fair.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sensuous."

---

sex chromatin (noun)

Chromatin found only in female cells.

- The presence or absence of sex chromatin in cells obtained by amniocentesis makes it possible to determine the sex of a fetus.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sex chromatin."

---

shakti (noun)

The female or generative principle; wife of Siva and a benevolent form of Devi.

- Understanding "shakti" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shakti" because he had never seen it before.

---

shamrock pea (noun)

Trailing trifoliate Asiatic and African herb having cobalt blue flowers.

- He looked up "shamrock pea" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shamrock pea."

---

shaver (noun)

A young person of either sex.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shaver."
- They discussed "shaver" during the group presentation.

---

shepherd's crook (noun)

A long staff with one end being hook shaped.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shepherd's crook."

- They discussed "shepherd's crook" during the group presentation.

---

sherpa (noun)

A member of the Himalayan people living in Nepal and Tibet who are famous for their skill as mountaineers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sherpa."
- He looked up "sherpa" because he had never seen it before.

---

showy (adjective)

Marked by ostentation but often tasteless.

- A cheap showy rhinestone bracelet.
- It is useful to describe something as "showy" when it is marked by ostentation but often tasteless.

---

sideboard (noun)

A board that forms part of the side of a bed or crib.

- They discussed "sideboard" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sideboard" because he had never seen it before.

---

silks (noun)

The brightly colored garments of a jockey; emblematic of the stable.

- He looked up "silks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "silks."

---

silliness (noun)

An impulsive scatterbrained manner.

- He looked up "silliness" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "silliness" to mean an impulsive scatterbrained manner.

---

sills (noun)

United States operatic soprano (born in 1929).

- They discussed "sills" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sills" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir hiram stevens maxim (noun)

English inventor (born in the United States) who invented the Maxim gun that was used in World War I (1840-1916).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir hiram stevens maxim."
- He looked up "sir hiram stevens maxim" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir thomas gresham (noun)

English financier (1519-1579).

- They discussed "sir thomas gresham" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sir thomas gresham" to mean english financier (1519-1579).

---

sir william huggins (noun)

English astronomer who pioneered spectroscopic analysis in astronomy and who discovered the red shift (1824-1910).

- He looked up "sir william huggins" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sir william huggins" during the group presentation.

---

skittles (noun)

A bowling game that is played by rolling a bowling ball down a bowling alley at a target of nine wooden pins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skittles."
- He looked up "skittles" because he had never seen it before.

---

skyrocket (verb)

Shoot up abruptly, like a rocket.

- Prices skyrocketed.
- Can you use "skyrocket" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sns (noun)

A silvery malleable metallic element that resists corrosion; used in many alloys and to coat other metals to prevent corrosion; obtained chiefly from cassiterite where it occurs as tin oxide.

- He looked up "sns" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sns."

---

softest (adjective)

Produced with vibration of the vocal cords.

- Would you call this situation "softest"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "softest."

---

sonora (noun)

Ground snakes.

- He looked up "sonora" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sonora."

---

spate (noun)

(often followed by 'of') a large number or amount or extent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spate."
- Understanding "spate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spellings (noun)

Forming words with letters according to the principles underlying accepted usage.

- They discussed "spellings" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spellings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

splinters (noun)

Wood in small pieces or splinters.

- In class, the teacher used "splinters" to mean wood in small pieces or splinters.
- The article explained what "splinters" means with a simple example.

---

squeezes (verb)

To compress with violence, out of natural shape or condition.

- In everyday English, people use "squeezes" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "squeezes" until he saw an example.

---

stealthy (adjective)

Marked by quiet and caution and secrecy; taking pains to avoid being observed.

- Stealthy footsteps.
- Would you call this situation "stealthy"? Explain why.

---

stereotyped (adjective)

Lacking spontaneity or originality or individuality.

- Stereotyped phrases of condolence.
- Would you call this situation "stereotyped"? Explain why.

---

storybook (noun)

A book containing a collection of stories (usually for children).

- Understanding "storybook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "storybook" because he had never seen it before.

---

stowed (verb)

Fill by packing tightly.

- She tried to use "stowed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "stowed" until he saw an example.

---

street urchin (noun)

A child who spends most of his time in the streets especially in slum areas.

- In class, the teacher used "street urchin" to mean a child who spends most of his time in the streets....
- The article explained what "street urchin" means with a simple example.

---

strobe (noun)

Scientific instrument that provides a flashing light synchronized with the periodic movement of an object; can make moving object appear stationary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strobe."
- He looked up "strobe" because he had never seen it before.

---

strobe light (noun)

Scientific instrument that provides a flashing light synchronized with the periodic movement of an object; can make moving object appear stationary.

- They discussed "strobe light" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "strobe light" to mean scientific instrument that provides a flashing....

---

stylists (noun)

An artist who is a master of a particular style.

- They discussed "stylists" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "stylists" because he had never seen it before.

---

subduction (noun)

A geological process in which one edge of a crustal plate is forced sideways and downward into the mantle below another plate.

- Understanding "subduction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "subduction" means with a simple example.

---

submersible (noun)

An apparatus intended for use under water.

- They discussed "submersible" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "submersible" because he had never seen it before.

---

suburbia (noun)

A residential district located on the outskirts of a city.

- The article explained what "suburbia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "suburbia" to mean a residential district located on the outskirts of....

---

superlative (noun)

An exaggerated expression (usually of praise).

- The critics lavished superlatives on it.
- So many highest superlatives achieved by man.

---

superlative degree (noun)

The superlative form of an adjective or adverb.

- 'fastest' is the superlative of the adjective 'fast'.
- 'least famous' is the superlative degree of the adjective 'famous'.

---

surmounted (adjective)

Having something on top.

- Columns surmounted by statues.
- It is useful to describe something as "surmounted" when it is having something on top.

---

swaziland monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Swaziland.

- In class, the teacher used "swaziland monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in swaziland.
- The article explained what "swaziland monetary unit" means with a simple example.

---

sylvan (noun)

A spirit that lives in or frequents the woods.

- The article explained what "sylvan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sylvan" to mean a spirit that lives in or frequents the woods.

symphonies (noun)

A large orchestra; can perform symphonies.

- They discussed "symphonies" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "symphonies" to mean a large orchestra; can perform symphonies.

tabby (noun)

A cat with a grey or tawny coat mottled with black.

- Understanding "tabby" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tabby" to mean a cat with a grey or tawny coat mottled with black.

tabby cat (noun)

A cat with a grey or tawny coat mottled with black.

- He looked up "tabby cat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tabby cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tamils (noun)

A member of the mixed Dravidian and Caucasian people of southern India and Sri Lanka.

- Understanding "tamils" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tamils" to mean a member of the mixed dravidian and caucasian....

tatar (noun)

The Turkic language spoken by the Tatar living from the Volga to the Ural Mountains.

- In class, the teacher used "tatar" to mean the turkic language spoken by the tatar living from....
- Understanding "tatar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tatars (noun)

The Turkic language spoken by the Tatar living from the Volga to the Ural Mountains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tatars."
- He looked up "tatars" because he had never seen it before.

technologist (noun)

A person who uses scientific knowledge to solve practical problems.

- The article explained what "technologist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "technologist" to mean a person who uses scientific knowledge to solve....

templars (noun)

A knight of a religious military order established in 1118 to protect pilgrims and the Holy Sepulcher.

- Understanding "templars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "templars" during the group presentation.

terrorize (verb)

Coerce by violence or with threats.

- She tried to use "terrorize" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "terrorize" when talking about this idea.

thorium (noun)

A soft silvery-white tetravalent radioactive metallic element; isotope 232 is used as a power source in nuclear reactors; occurs in thorite and in monazite sands.

- Understanding "thorium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thorium."

throes (noun)

Violent pangs of suffering.

- Death throes.
- The throes of dying.

tilts (verb)

To incline or bend from a vertical position.

- She tried to use "tilts" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "tilts" in real sentences.

---

to windward (noun)

The side toward the wind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "to windward."
- He looked up "to windward" because he had never seen it before.

---

tomboy (noun)

A girl who behaves in a boyish manner.

- In class, the teacher used "tomboy" to mean a girl who behaves in a boyish manner.
- The article explained what "tomboy" means with a simple example.

---

tonsils (noun)

Either of two masses of lymphatic tissue one on each side of the oral pharynx.

- In class, the teacher used "tonsils" to mean either of two masses of lymphatic tissue one on....
- Understanding "tonsils" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transfusions (noun)

The action of pouring a liquid from one vessel to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "transfusions."
- The article explained what "transfusions" means with a simple example.

---

traumas (noun)

An emotional wound or shock often having long-lasting effects.

- The article explained what "traumas" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "traumas" during the group presentation.

---

triassic (adjective)

Of or relating to or denoting the first period of the Mesozoic era.

- Would you call this situation "triassic"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "triassic."

---

triassic period (noun)

From 230 million to 190 million years ago; dinosaurs, marine reptiles; volcanic activity.

- They discussed "triassic period" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "triassic period" because he had never seen it before.

---

tricycle (noun)

A vehicle with three wheels that is moved by foot pedals.

- They discussed "tricycle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tricycle" to mean a vehicle with three wheels that is moved by foot....

---

tumour necrosis factor (noun)

A proinflammatory cytokine that is produced by white blood cells (monocytes and macrophages); has an antineoplastic effect but causes inflammation (as in rheumatoid arthritis).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumour necrosis factor."
- The article explained what "tumour necrosis factor" means with a simple example.

---

unaltered (adjective)

Remaining in an original state.

- Persisting unaltered through time.
- Students compared "unaltered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unapologetic (adjective)

Unwilling to make or express an apology.

- An unapologetic believer.

- It is useful to describe something as "unapologetic" when it is unwilling to make or express an apology.

---

unclassified (adjective)

Not subject to a security classification.

- Would you call this situation "unclassified"? Explain why.
- Students compared "unclassified" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

uncool (adjective)

(spoken slang) unfashionable and boring.

- Would you call this situation "uncool"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "uncool."

---

unfavourable (adjective)

Not encouraging or approving or pleasing; ; ; ,.

- It is useful to describe something as "unfavourable" when it is not encouraging or approving or pleasing; ; ; ,.
- Would you call this situation "unfavourable"? Explain why.

---

unmasked (verb)

Reveal the true nature of.

- The journal article unmasked the corrupt politician.
- The coach explained when to use "unmasked" and when to wait.

---

unsightly (adjective)

Unpleasant to look at.

- Unsightly billboards.
- The speaker chose "unsightly" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

uptick (noun)

A transaction in the stock market at a price above the price of the preceding transaction.

- Understanding "uptick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uptick."

---

urchin (noun)

Poor and often mischievous city child.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urchin."
- They discussed "urchin" during the group presentation.

---

vandal (noun)

A member of the Germanic people who overran Gaul and Spain and North Africa and sacked Rome in 455.

- In class, the teacher used "vandal" to mean a member of the germanic people who overran gaul....
- Understanding "vandal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vertebral canal (noun)

The canal in successive vertebrae through which the spinal cord passes.

- He looked up "vertebral canal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vertebral canal."

---

vhf (noun)

A group of illnesses caused by a viral infection (usually restricted to a specific geographic area); fever and gastrointestinal symptoms are followed by capillary hemorrhage.

- In class, the teacher used "vhf" to mean a group of illnesses caused by a viral infection....
- The article explained what "vhf" means with a simple example.

---

violators (noun)

Someone who violates the law.

- They discussed "violators" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "violators" means with a simple example.

---

vise (noun)

A holding device attached to a workbench; has two jaws to hold workpiece firmly in place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vise."
- They discussed "vise" during the group presentation.

---

walrus moustache (noun)

A bushy droopy mustache.

- The article explained what "walrus moustache" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "walrus moustache" to mean a bushy droopy mustache.

---

water buttercup (noun)

Plant of ponds and slow streams having submerged and floating leaves and white flowers; Europe and North America.

- The article explained what "water buttercup" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "water buttercup" to mean plant of ponds and slow streams having submerged....

---

watertight (adjective)

Without flaws or loopholes.

- A watertight alibi.
- A "watertight" approach may work better in this case.

---

wavering (noun)

The quality of being unsteady and subject to changes.

- The article explained what "wavering" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wavering."

---

wayne gretzky (noun)

High-scoring Canadian ice-hockey player (born in 1961).

- Understanding "wayne gretzky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wayne gretzky" because he had never seen it before.

---

western buttercup (noun)

Perennial of western North America.

- He looked up "western buttercup" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western buttercup."

---

wherefore (noun)

The cause or intention underlying an action or situation, especially in the phrase 'the whys and wherefores'.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wherefore."
- The article explained what "wherefore" means with a simple example.

---

whistling buoy (noun)

A buoy that makes a whistling noise.

- In class, the teacher used "whistling buoy" to mean a buoy that makes a whistling noise.
- The article explained what "whistling buoy" means with a simple example.

---

wild buckwheat (noun)

Low-growing shrub with spreading branches and flowers in loose heads; desert regions of western United States (California to Utah).

- In class, the teacher used "wild buckwheat" to mean low-growing shrub with spreading branches and....
- He looked up "wild buckwheat" because he had never seen it before.

---

wildflowers (noun)

Wild or uncultivated flowering plant.

- Understanding "wildflowers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wildflowers" during the group presentation.

---

windward (noun)

The direction from which the wind is coming.

- In class, the teacher used "windward" to mean the direction from which the wind is coming.
- The article explained what "windward" means with a simple example.

---

windward side (noun)

The side toward the wind.

- The article explained what "windward side" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "windward side."

---

wiper blade (noun)

A mechanical device that cleans the windshield.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wiper blade."
- The article explained what "wiper blade" means with a simple example.

---

wok (noun)

Pan with a convex bottom; used for frying in Chinese cooking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wok."
- The article explained what "wok" means with a simple example.

---

wood vise (noun)

A vise with jaws that are padded in order to hold lumber without denting it.

- In class, the teacher used "wood vise" to mean a vise with jaws that are padded in order to hold....
- He looked up "wood vise" because he had never seen it before.

---

woodcock (noun)

Game bird of the sandpiper family that resembles a snipe.

- They discussed "woodcock" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "woodcock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

zag (noun)

An angular shape characterized by sharp turns in alternating directions.

- He looked up "zag" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "zag" to mean an angular shape characterized by sharp turns in....

---

zips (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- He looked up "zips" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "zips" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abdication (noun)

A formal resignation and renunciation of powers.

- In class, the teacher used "abdication" to mean a formal resignation and renunciation of powers.
- They discussed "abdication" during the group presentation.

---

absorbent cotton (noun)

Cotton made absorbent by removal of the natural wax.

- They discussed "absorbent cotton" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "absorbent cotton" means with a simple example.

---

admittance (noun)

The act of admitting someone to enter.

- In class, the teacher used "admittance" to mean the act of admitting someone to enter.
- Understanding "admittance" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aegean civilisation (noun)

The prehistoric civilization on the islands in the Aegean sea and the surrounding countries.

- By 800 BC the entire Aegean had adopted this style of pottery.
- The article explained what "aegean civilisation" means with a simple example.

aggravate (verb)

Exasperate or irritate.

- This drug aggravates the pain.
- The coach explained when to use "aggravate" and when to wait.

alcohols (noun)

A liquor or brew containing alcohol as the active agent.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alcohols."
- He looked up "alcohols" because he had never seen it before.

alkyl radical (noun)

Any of a series of univalent groups of the general formula CnH2n+1 derived from aliphatic hydrocarbons.

- The article explained what "alkyl radical" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alkyl radical" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alpaca (noun)

A thin glossy fabric made of the wool of the Lama pacos, or made of a rayon or cotton imitation of that wool.

- He looked up "alpaca" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alpaca."

alveolar (noun)

A consonant articulated with the tip of the tongue near the gum ridge.

- Understanding "alveolar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "alveolar" because he had never seen it before.

alveolar bed (noun)

Lung tissue densely packed with alveoli.

- The article explained what "alveolar bed" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "alveolar bed" during the group presentation.

alveolar point (noun)

Craniometric point that is the most anterior point in the midline on the alveolar process of the maxilla.

- In class, the teacher used "alveolar point" to mean craniometric point that is the most anterior point....
- Understanding "alveolar point" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alveolar process (noun)

A ridge that forms the borders of the upper and lower jaws and contains the sockets of the teeth.

- The article explained what "alveolar process" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alveolar process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ambivalence (noun)

Mixed feelings or emotions.

- The article explained what "ambivalence" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ambivalence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

amphitheater (noun)

A sloping gallery with seats for spectators (as in an operating room or theater).

- He looked up "amphitheater" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "amphitheater" during the group presentation.

amyloid protein plaque (noun)

A plaque consisting of tangles of amyloid protein in nervous tissue (a pathological mark of Alzheimer's disease).

- In class, the teacher used "amyloid protein plaque" to mean a plaque consisting of tangles of amyloid protein....
- He looked up "amyloid protein plaque" because he had never seen it before.

anthropogenic (adjective)

Of or relating to the study of the origins and development of human beings.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "anthropogenic."
- Students compared "anthropogenic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

anti-tnf compound (noun)

A class of drugs that block the action of tumor necrosis factor (TNF); used in cases of rheumatoid arthritis because TNF instigates inflammation of the joints.

- He looked up "anti-tnf compound" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "anti-tnf compound" to mean a class of drugs that block the action of tumor....

---

appendages (noun)

An external body part that projects from the body.

- He looked up "appendages" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "appendages."

---

appraisals (noun)

The classification of someone or something with respect to its worth.

- He looked up "appraisals" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "appraisals" to mean the classification of someone or something with....

---

appraiser (noun)

One who estimates officially the worth or value or quality of things.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "appraiser."
- The article explained what "appraiser" means with a simple example.

---

arboretum (noun)

A facility where trees and shrubs are cultivated for exhibition.

- They discussed "arboretum" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "arboretum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

archivist (noun)

A person in charge of collecting and cataloguing archives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archivist."
- He looked up "archivist" because he had never seen it before.

---

argent (noun)

A metal tincture used in heraldry to give a silvery appearance.

- They discussed "argent" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "argent" because he had never seen it before.

---

arraignment (noun)

A legal document calling someone to court to answer an indictment.

- In class, the teacher used "arraignment" to mean a legal document calling someone to court to answer....
- The article explained what "arraignment" means with a simple example.

---

arsehole (noun)

Vulgar slang for anus.

- They discussed "arsehole" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "arsehole" because he had never seen it before.

---

asgard (noun)

(Norse mythology) the heavenly dwelling of the Norse gods (the Aesir) and slain war heroes.

- Understanding "asgard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asgard."

---

astrologer (noun)

Someone who predicts the future by the positions of the planets and sun and Moon.

- He looked up "astrologer" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “astrologer.”

babylonian weeping willow (noun)

Willow with long drooping branches and slender leaves native to China; widely cultivated as an ornamental.

- Understanding “babylonian weeping willow” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “babylonian weeping willow” to mean willow with long drooping branches and slender....

banknotes (noun)

A piece of paper money (especially one issued by a central bank).

- They discussed “banknotes” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “banknotes” means with a simple example.

beaker (noun)

A flatbottomed jar made of glass or plastic; used for chemistry.

- In class, the teacher used “beaker” to mean a flatbottomed jar made of glass or plastic; used....
- They discussed “beaker” during the group presentation.

belted (adjective)

Having or provided with a belt.

- A belted dress.
- It is useful to describe something as “belted” when it is having or provided with a belt.

bereft (adjective)

Sorrowful through loss or deprivation.

- Bereft of hope.
- Would you call this situation “bereft”? Explain why.

bezel (noun)

A sloping edge on a cutting tool.

- Understanding “bezel” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “bezel” to mean a sloping edge on a cutting tool.

bicentennial (adjective)

Of or relating to or completing a period of 200 years.

- Bicentennial celebration.
- It is useful to describe something as “bicentennial” when it is of or relating to or completing a period of 200 years.

biff (noun)

(boxing) a blow with the fist.

- They discussed “biff” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “biff” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

blackberries (verb)

Pick or gather blackberries.

- In everyday English, people use “blackberries” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “blackberries” in a sentence that fits this situation?

blameless (adjective)

Free of guilt; not subject to blame.

- Has lived a blameless life.
- Students compared “blameless” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

blindfold (verb)

Cover the eyes of (someone) to prevent him from seeing.

- The hostage was blindfolded and driven away.
- Learners should practice how to use “blindfold” in real sentences.

blister blight (noun)

A disease of Scotch pines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blister blight."
- He looked up "blister blight" because he had never seen it before.

---

bobcat (noun)

Small lynx of North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bobcat."
- They discussed "bobcat" during the group presentation.

---

bock (noun)

A very strong lager traditionally brewed in the fall and aged through the winter for consumption in the spring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bock."
- He looked up "bock" because he had never seen it before.

---

booties (noun)

A slipper that is soft and wool (for babies).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "booties."
- The article explained what "booties" means with a simple example.

---

bottlenecks (noun)

The narrow part of a bottle near the top.

- In class, the teacher used "bottlenecks" to mean the narrow part of a bottle near the top.
- He looked up "bottlenecks" because he had never seen it before.

---

bravado (noun)

A swaggering show of courage.

- The article explained what "bravado" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bravado" during the group presentation.

---

bride's bonnet (noun)

Plant with 1 or 2 white starlike flowers on short leafless stalks; Alaska to California and east to Oregon and Montana.

- In class, the teacher used "bride's bonnet" to mean plant with 1 or 2 white starlike flowers on short....
- Understanding "bride's bonnet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brokered (verb)

Act as a broker.

- Learners should practice how to use "brokered" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "brokered" when talking about this idea.

---

brown hyena (noun)

Of southern Africa.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brown hyena."
- The article explained what "brown hyena" means with a simple example.

---

bruges (noun)

A city in northwestern Belgium that is connected by canal to the North Sea; in the 13th century it was a leading member of the Hanseatic League; the old city (known as the City of Bridges) is a popular tourist attraction.

- In class, the teacher used "bruges" to mean a city in northwestern belgium that is connected by....
- They discussed "bruges" during the group presentation.

---

bucking (verb)

To strive with determination.

- John is bucking for a promotion.
- Can you use "bucking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

buffalo gourd (noun)

Perennial vine of dry parts of central and southwestern United States and Mexico having small hard mottled green inedible fruit.

- He looked up "buffalo gourd" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "buffalo gourd" to mean perennial vine of dry parts of central and....

---

buffoon (noun)

A person who amuses others by ridiculous behavior.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buffoon."
- Understanding "buffoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bumbling (adjective)

Lacking physical movement skills, especially with the hands; ; ; ; - Mary H. Vorse.

- A bumbling mechanic.
- Would you call this situation "bumbling"? Explain why.

---

buttermilk pancake (noun)

A pancake made with buttermilk.

- He looked up "buttermilk pancake" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "buttermilk pancake" during the group presentation.

---

byzantium (noun)

A continuation of the Roman Empire in the Middle East after its division in 395.

- They discussed "byzantium" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "byzantium" means with a simple example.

---

calderon (noun)

Spanish poet and dramatist considered one of the great Spanish writers (1600-1681).

- In class, the teacher used "calderon" to mean spanish poet and dramatist considered one of the....
- Understanding "calderon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

candor (noun)

The quality of being honest and straightforward in attitude and speech.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "candor."
- Understanding "candor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canines (noun)

Any of various fissiped mammals with nonretractile claws and typically long muzzles.

- They discussed "canines" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "canines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capitalizing (verb)

Convert (a company's reserve funds) into capital.

- He is capitalizing on her mistake.
- Can you use "capitalizing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

carats (noun)

A unit of weight for precious stones = 200 mg.

- Understanding "carats" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "carats" means with a simple example.

---

carbon tet (noun)

A colorless nonflammable liquid used as a solvent for fats and oils; because of its toxicity its use as a cleaning fluid or fire extinguisher has declined.

- He looked up "carbon tet" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "carbon tet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

caretakers (noun)

An official who performs the duties of an office temporarily.

- They discussed "caretakers" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "caretakers" because he had never seen it before.

cassava (noun)

A starch made by leaching and drying the root of the cassava plant; the source of tapioca; a staple food in the tropics.

- In class, the teacher used "cassava" to mean a starch made by leaching and drying the root of....
- They discussed "cassava" during the group presentation.

cellulite (noun)

Lumpy deposits of body fat especially on women's thighs etc.

- The article explained what "cellulite" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cellulite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cervantes (noun)

Spanish writer best remembered for 'Don Quixote' which satirizes chivalry and influenced the development of the novel form (1547-1616).

- They discussed "cervantes" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cervantes" because he had never seen it before.

cesar franck (noun)

French composer and teacher who influenced a generation of composers (1822-1890).

- They discussed "cesar franck" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cesar franck" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

changers (noun)

A person who changes something.

- The article explained what "changers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "changers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

charlotte anna perkins gilman (noun)

United States feminist (1860-1935).

- He looked up "charlotte anna perkins gilman" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "charlotte anna perkins gilman" to mean united states feminist (1860-1935).

chaste (adjective)

Morally pure (especially not having experienced sexual intercourse).

- A holy woman innocent and chaste.
- Would you call this situation "chaste"? Explain why.

chou en-lai (noun)

Chinese revolutionary and communist leader (1898-1976).

- The article explained what "chou en-lai" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chou en-lai" to mean chinese revolutionary and communist leader (1898-1976).

chuck-will's-widow (noun)

Large whippoorwill-like bird of the southern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "chuck-will's-widow" to mean large whippoorwill-like bird of the southern united....
- The article explained what "chuck-will's-widow" means with a simple example.

clamoring (noun)

Loud and persistent outcry from many people.

- Understanding "clamoring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clamoring."

classifying adjective (noun)

An adjective that classifies its noun (e.g., 'a nervous disease' or 'a musical instrument').

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "classifying adjective."
- He looked up "classifying adjective" because he had never seen it before.

cleft palate (noun)

A congenital fissure of the hard palate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleft palate."
- They discussed "cleft palate" during the group presentation.

---

cobbled (verb)

Pave with cobblestones.

- Can you use "cobbled" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "cobbled" and when to wait.

---

communicable (adjective)

(of disease) capable of being transmitted by infection.

- Communicable ideas.
- The speaker chose "communicable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

communicable disease (noun)

A disease that can be communicated from one person to another.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communicable disease."
- They discussed "communicable disease" during the group presentation.

---

compatriot (noun)

A person from your own country.

- He looked up "compatriot" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "compatriot."

---

computational linguist (noun)

Someone trained in computer science and linguistics who uses computers for natural language processing.

- The article explained what "computational linguist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "computational linguist" to mean someone trained in computer science and linguistics....

---

computations (noun)

The procedure of calculating; determining something by mathematical or logical methods.

- He looked up "computations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computations."

---

computerized tomography (noun)

A method of examining body organs by scanning them with X rays and using a computer to construct a series of cross-sectional scans along a single axis.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "computerized tomography."
- The article explained what "computerized tomography" means with a simple example.

---

condenser microphone (noun)

Microphone consisting of a capacitor with one plate fixed and the other forming the diaphragm moved by sound waves.

- They discussed "condenser microphone" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "condenser microphone."

---

consuls (noun)

A diplomat appointed by a government to protect its commercial interests and help its citizens in a foreign country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "consuls."
- He looked up "consuls" because he had never seen it before.

---

contraceptive diaphragm (noun)

A contraceptive device consisting of a flexible dome-shaped cup made of rubber or plastic; it is filled with spermicide and fitted over the uterine cervix.

- Understanding "contraceptive diaphragm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "contraceptive diaphragm" during the group presentation.

---

convergent (adjective)

Tending to come together from different directions.

- The speaker chose "convergent" because it captured the feeling precisely.

- Would you call this situation "convergent"? Explain why.

---

convergent thinking (noun)

Thinking that brings together information focussed on solving a problem (especially solving problems that have a single correct solution).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convergent thinking."
- He looked up "convergent thinking" because he had never seen it before.

---

cordova (noun)

A city in southern Spain; center of Moorish culture.

- In class, the teacher used "cordova" to mean a city in southern spain; center of moorish culture.
- Understanding "cordova" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cosmological (adjective)

Pertaining to the branch of astronomy dealing with the origin and history and structure and dynamics of the universe.

- Cosmological redshift.
- A cosmological argument is an argument that the universe demands the admission of an adequate external cause which is God.

---

cossack (noun)

A member of a Slavic people living in southern European Russia and Ukraine and adjacent parts of Asia and noted for their horsemanship and military skill; they formed an elite cavalry corps in czarist Russia.

- They discussed "cossack" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cossack" to mean a member of a slavic people living in southern....

---

coup d'etat (noun)

A sudden and decisive change of government illegally or by force.

- Understanding "coup d'etat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "coup d'etat" to mean a sudden and decisive change of government....

---

craps (noun)

A gambling game played with two dice; a first throw of 7 or 11 wins and a first throw of 2, 3, or 12 loses and a first throw of any other number must be repeated to win before a 7 is thrown, which loses the bet and the dice.

- The article explained what "craps" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "craps."

---

crazies (noun)

Someone deranged and possibly dangerous.

- The article explained what "crazies" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "crazies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

creaking (noun)

A squeaking sound.

- Understanding "creaking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "creaking."

---

creatine (noun)

An amino acid that does not occur in proteins but is found in the muscle tissue of vertebrates both in the free form and as phosphocreatine; supplies energy for muscle contraction.

- The article explained what "creatine" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "creatine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crepe jasmine (noun)

Tropical shrub having glossy foliage and fragrant nocturnal flowers with crimped or wavy corollas; northern India to Thailand.

- In class, the teacher used "crepe jasmine" to mean tropical shrub having glossy foliage and fragrant....
- He looked up "crepe jasmine" because he had never seen it before.

---

crick (verb)

Twist (a body part) into a strained position.

- Crick your neck.
- She tried to use "crick" carefully so everyone would understand.

crohn's disease (noun)

A serious chronic and progressive inflammation of the ileum producing frequent bouts of diarrhea with abdominal pain and nausea and fever and weight loss.

- In class, the teacher used "crohn's disease" to mean a serious chronic and progressive inflammation of....
- They discussed "crohn's disease" during the group presentation.

crumbles (verb)

Break or fall apart into fragments.

- In everyday English, people use "crumbles" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "crumbles" in real sentences.

cypher (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- The article explained what "cypher" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cypher" to mean a quantity of no importance.

dazzled (adjective)

Having vision overcome temporarily by or as if by intense light.

- She shut her dazzled eyes against the sun's brilliance.
- I fall back dazzled at beholding myself all rosy red, / At having, I myself, caused the sun to rise.

de mille (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer who introduced formal dance to a wide audience (1905-1993).

- Understanding "de mille" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "de mille" because he had never seen it before.

decomposing (verb)

Lose a stored charge, magnetic flux, or current.

- Learners should practice how to use "decomposing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "decomposing" when talking about this idea.

demetrius (noun)

Son of Antigonus Cyclops and king of Macedonia; he and his father were defeated at the battle of Ipsus (337-283 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "demetrius" to mean son of antigonus cyclops and king of macedonia; he....
- They discussed "demetrius" during the group presentation.

demetrius i (noun)

Son of Antigonus Cyclops and king of Macedonia; he and his father were defeated at the battle of Ipsus (337-283 BC).

- They discussed "demetrius i" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "demetrius i" means with a simple example.

deploys (verb)

To distribute systematically or strategically.

- The U.S. deploys its weapons in the Middle East.
- Learners should practice how to use "deploys" in real sentences.

derision (noun)

The act of deriding or treating with contempt.

- The article explained what "derision" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "derision" to mean the act of deriding or treating with contempt.

dermal (adjective)

Of or relating to or located in the dermis.

- A "dermal" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dermal."

destabilize (verb)

Make unstable.

- Terrorism destabilized the government.
- The economy destabilized rapidly.

---

diameters (noun)

The length of a straight line passing through the center of a circle and connecting two points on the circumference.

- He looked up "diameters" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diameters."

---

dollhouse (noun)

A small model of a house used as a toy by children.

- The article explained what "dollhouse" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dollhouse" during the group presentation.

---

donned (verb)

Put clothing on one's body.

- The princess donned a long blue dress.
- She tried to use "donned" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

doo-wop (noun)

A genre (usually a cappella) of Black vocal-harmony music of the 1950s that evolved in New York City from gospel singing; characterized by close four-part harmonies; the name derived from some of the nonsense syllables sung by the backup.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "doo-wop."
- They discussed "doo-wop" during the group presentation.

---

dosages (noun)

A measured portion of medicine taken at any one time.

- He looked up "dosages" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dosages" to mean a measured portion of medicine taken at any one time.

---

dramatist (noun)

Someone who writes plays.

- The article explained what "dramatist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dramatist" to mean someone who writes plays.

---

dressage (noun)

Maneuvers of a horse in response to body signals by the rider.

- In class, the teacher used "dressage" to mean maneuvers of a horse in response to body signals by....
- The article explained what "dressage" means with a simple example.

---

dunks (verb)

Immerse briefly into a liquid so as to wet, coat, or saturate.

- In everyday English, people use "dunks" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "dunks" in real sentences.

---

dusky-coloured (adjective)

Having a dark color.

- Would you call this situation "dusky-coloured"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dusky-coloured."

---

dysentery (noun)

An infection of the intestines marked by severe diarrhea.

- The article explained what "dysentery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dysentery" to mean an infection of the intestines marked by severe....

---

eas (noun)

A federal warning system that is activated by FEMA; enables the President to take over the United States airwaves to warn the whole country of major catastrophic events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eas."

- He looked up "eas" because he had never seen it before.

---

ecologically (adverb)

With respect to ecology.

- Ecologically speaking, this idea is brilliant; economically, it is a disaster.
- The narrator describes the scene "ecologically" in the final chapter.

---

elaborating (verb)

Produce from basic elements or sources; change into a more developed product.

- She tried to use "elaborating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "elaborating" in real sentences.

---

electric dipole (noun)

A dipole with equal and opposite electric charges.

- In class, the teacher used "electric dipole" to mean a dipole with equal and opposite electric charges.
- He looked up "electric dipole" because he had never seen it before.

---

electric dipole moment (noun)

The dipole moment in an electric dipole.

- He looked up "electric dipole moment" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electric dipole moment."

---

emeralds (noun)

A green transparent form of beryl; highly valued as a gemstone.

- They discussed "emeralds" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "emeralds" means with a simple example.

---

english toy spaniel (noun)

British breed having a long silky coat and rounded head with a short upturned muzzle.

- He looked up "english toy spaniel" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "english toy spaniel" during the group presentation.

---

enumerated (verb)

Determine the number or amount of.

- She enumerated the many obstacles she had encountered.
- The coach explained when to use "enumerated" and when to wait.

---

epistle of jeremiah (noun)

An Apocryphal book consisting of a letter ascribed to Jeremiah to the Jews in exile in Babylon warning them against idolatry.

- In class, the teacher used "epistle of jeremiah" to mean an apocryphal book consisting of a letter ascribed....
- He looked up "epistle of jeremiah" because he had never seen it before.

---

epistle of jude (noun)

A New Testament book attributed to Saint Jude.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epistle of jude."
- They discussed "epistle of jude" during the group presentation.

---

esprit de corps (noun)

The spirit of a group that makes the members want the group to succeed.

- The article explained what "esprit de corps" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "esprit de corps" to mean the spirit of a group that makes the members want....

---

ethyl chloride (noun)

A colorless flammable gas used as a local surface anesthetic.

- Understanding "ethyl chloride" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ethyl chloride" because he had never seen it before.

---

ethyl ether (noun)

A colorless volatile highly inflammable liquid formerly used as an inhalation anesthetic.

- Understanding "ethyl ether" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ethyl ether" means with a simple example.

---

executable (adjective)

Capable of being done with means at hand and circumstances as they are.

- Would you call this situation "executable"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "executable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

extradited (verb)

Hand over to the authorities of another country.

- They extradited the fugitive to his native country so he could be tried there.
- She tried to use "extradited" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

false mistletoe (noun)

American plants closely resembling Old World mistletoe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false mistletoe."
- The article explained what "false mistletoe" means with a simple example.

---

faltered (verb)

Move hesitatingly, as if about to give way.

- The speaker faltered when he saw his opponent enter the room.
- He did not know how to use "faltered" until he saw an example.

---

filet (noun)

A longitudinal slice or boned side of a fish.

- He looked up "filet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "filet" to mean a longitudinal slice or boned side of a fish.

---

fire tongs (noun)

Tongs for taking hold of burning coals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire tongs."
- They discussed "fire tongs" during the group presentation.

---

firmness (noun)

The trait of being resolute.

- His muscular firmness.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firmness."

---

firmness of purpose (noun)

The trait of being resolute.

- He looked up "firmness of purpose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firmness of purpose."

---

fish filet (noun)

A longitudinal slice or boned side of a fish.

- In class, the teacher used "fish filet" to mean a longitudinal slice or boned side of a fish.
- Understanding "fish filet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flipper (noun)

The flat broad limb of aquatic animals specialized for swimming.

- He looked up "flipper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "flipper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flipper-like (adjective)

Having limbs that are used as flippers.

- Would you call this situation "flipper-like"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "flipper-like" when it is having limbs that are used as flippers.

---

follicle (noun)

Any small spherical group of cells containing a cavity.

- Understanding "follicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "follicle" during the group presentation.

---

foreclosures (noun)

The legal proceedings initiated by a creditor to repossess the collateral for loan that is in default.

- In class, the teacher used "foreclosures" to mean the legal proceedings initiated by a creditor to....
- They discussed "foreclosures" during the group presentation.

---

frayed (adjective)

Worn away or tattered along the edges.

- Frayed cuffs.
- A "frayed" approach may work better in this case.

---

frenchmen (noun)

A person of French nationality.

- Understanding "frenchmen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "frenchmen" to mean a person of french nationality.

---

furlong (noun)

A unit of length equal to 220 yards.

- The article explained what "furlong" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "furlong" during the group presentation.

---

genus calypso (noun)

One species found throughout much of northern North America and Eurasia.

- The article explained what "genus calypso" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "genus calypso" to mean one species found throughout much of northern north....

---

genus candida (noun)

A genus of yeastlike imperfect fungi; sometimes included in genus Monilia of the family Moniliaceae.

- Understanding "genus candida" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus candida."

---

genus dahlia (noun)

Genus of perennial tuberous plants of Mexico and Central America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus dahlia."
- They discussed "genus dahlia" during the group presentation.

---

genus rhinoceros (noun)

Type genus of the Rhinocerotidae.

- In class, the teacher used "genus rhinoceros" to mean type genus of the rhinocerotidae.
- He looked up "genus rhinoceros" because he had never seen it before.

---

germination (noun)

The origin of some development.

- The germination of their discontent.
- They discussed "germination" during the group presentation.

---

geyser (noun)

A spring that discharges hot water and steam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "geyser."
- He looked up "geyser" because he had never seen it before.

gibbon (noun)

English historian best known for his history of the Roman Empire (1737-1794).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gibbon."
- He looked up "gibbon" because he had never seen it before.

gimp (verb)

Walk impeded by some physical limitation or injury.

- In everyday English, people use "gimp" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "gimp" in real sentences.

glorifying (verb)

Praise, glorify, or honor.

- You are glorifying a rather mediocre building.
- She tried to use "glorifying" carefully so everyone would understand.

golden aster (noun)

Any of several shrubby herbs or subshrubs of the genus Chrysopsis having bright golden-yellow flower heads that resemble asters; throughout much of United States and into Canada.

- Understanding "golden aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "golden aster" means with a simple example.

gonzo (adjective)

Conspicuously or grossly unconventional or unusual.

- A "gonzo" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "gonzo"? Explain why.

gorges (noun)

The passage between the pharynx and the stomach.

- They discussed "gorges" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gorges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

grainger (noun)

United States composer (born in Australia) who lived in London and collected English folk songs (1882-1961).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grainger."
- The article explained what "grainger" means with a simple example.

greaves (noun)

The residue that remains after animal fat has been rendered.

- They discussed "greaves" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greaves."

greening (noun)

The phenomenon of vitality and freshness being restored.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greening."
- The article explained what "greening" means with a simple example.

greenway (noun)

A belt of parks or rural land surrounding a town or city.

- Understanding "greenway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greenway."

gresham (noun)

English financier (1519-1579).

- They discussed "gresham" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gresham" to mean english financier (1519-1579).

gretzky (noun)

High-scoring Canadian ice-hockey player (born in 1961).

- He looked up "gretzky" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "gretzky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grinders (noun)

A large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split lengthwise and filled with meats and cheese (and tomato and onion and lettuce and condiments); different names are used in different sections of the United States.

- He looked up "grinders" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "grinders" to mean a large sandwich made of a long crusty roll split....

---

grooms (noun)

A man participant in his own marriage ceremony.

- The article explained what "grooms" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "grooms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grumble (verb)

To utter or emit low dull rumbling sounds.

- He grumbled a rude response.
- Stones grumbled down the cliff.

---

guevara (noun)

An Argentine revolutionary leader who was Fidel Castro's chief lieutenant in the Cuban revolution; active in other Latin American countries; was captured and executed by the Bolivian army (1928-1967).

- The article explained what "guevara" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guevara."

---

hair follicle (noun)

A small tubular cavity containing the root of a hair; small muscles and sebaceous glands are associated with them.

- He looked up "hair follicle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hair follicle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hand-loomed (adjective)

Made on a handloom.

- Students compared "hand-loomed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "hand-loomed" approach may work better in this case.

---

hani (noun)

A Loloish language.

- Understanding "hani" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hani."

---

hardback (noun)

A book with cardboard or cloth or leather covers.

- In class, the teacher used "hardback" to mean a book with cardboard or cloth or leather covers.
- The article explained what "hardback" means with a simple example.

---

haw-haw (noun)

A loud laugh that sounds like a horse neighing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haw-haw."
- He looked up "haw-haw" because he had never seen it before.

---

healthful (adjective)

Conducive to good health of body or mind.

- A healthful climate.
- A healthful environment.

---

hearse (noun)

A vehicle for carrying a coffin to a church or a cemetery; formerly drawn by horses but now usually a motor vehicle.

- Understanding "hearse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hearse" during the group presentation.

---

helplessly (adverb)

In a helpless manner.

- The crowd watched him helplessly.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "helplessly" naturally.

---

hemorrhagic stroke (noun)

Stroke caused by the rupture of a blood vessel in the brain.

- The article explained what "hemorrhagic stroke" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hemorrhagic stroke."

---

heralds (noun)

(formal) a person who announces important news.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heralds."
- They discussed "heralds" during the group presentation.

---

herbicide (noun)

A chemical agent that destroys plants or inhibits their growth.

- The article explained what "herbicide" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herbicide."

---

homemaker (noun)

A wife who manages a household while her husband earns the family income.

- They discussed "homemaker" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "homemaker" to mean a wife who manages a household while her husband....

---

horace walpole (noun)

English writer and historian; son of Sir Robert Walpole (1717-1797).

- He looked up "horace walpole" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "horace walpole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hotdog (noun)

A smooth-textured sausage of minced beef or pork usually smoked; often served on a bread roll.

- The article explained what "hotdog" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hotdog" during the group presentation.

---

hrt (noun)

Hormones (estrogen and progestin) are given to postmenopausal women; believed to protect them from heart disease and osteoporosis.

- He looked up "hrt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hrt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

huggins (noun)

English astronomer who pioneered spectroscopic analysis in astronomy and who discovered the red shift (1824-1910).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "huggins."
- The article explained what "huggins" means with a simple example.

---

hunan (noun)

A province in southeastern central China between the Nan Ling mountains and the Chang Jiang; noted for its timber and valuable mineral resources.

- He looked up "hunan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hunan."

---

hunched (adjective)

Having the back and shoulders rounded; not erect.

- The speaker chose "hunched" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "hunched" approach may work better in this case.

husk tomato (noun)

Small edible yellow to purple tomato-like fruit enclosed in a bladderlike husk.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "husk tomato."
- He looked up "husk tomato" because he had never seen it before.

hyena (noun)

Doglike nocturnal mammal of Africa and southern Asia that feeds chiefly on carrion.

- They discussed "hyena" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "hyena" to mean doglike nocturnal mammal of africa and southern....

hyena dog (noun)

A powerful doglike mammal of southern and eastern Africa that hunts in large packs; now rare in settled area.

- The article explained what "hyena dog" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hyena dog" to mean a powerful doglike mammal of southern and eastern....

hypnotized (adjective)

Having your attention fixated as though by a spell.

- Students compared "hypnotized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "hypnotized" when it is having your attention fixated as though by a spell.

ice tongs (noun)

Tongs for lifting blocks of ice.

- He looked up "ice tongs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ice tongs" to mean tongs for lifting blocks of ice.

igniting (verb)

Cause to start burning; subject to fire or great heat.

- He did not know how to use "igniting" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "igniting" carefully so everyone would understand.

illuminates (verb)

Make free from confusion or ambiguity; make clear.

- In everyday English, people use "illuminates" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "illuminates" in real sentences.

immaturity (noun)

Not having reached maturity.

- They discussed "immaturity" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "immaturity."

impeding (adjective)

Preventing movement.

- A "impeding" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "impeding" because it captured the feeling precisely.

implosion therapy (noun)

A technique used in behavior therapy; client is flooded with experiences of a particular kind until becoming either averse to them or numbed to them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "implosion therapy."
- He looked up "implosion therapy" because he had never seen it before.

impostor (noun)

A person who makes deceitful pretenses.

- They discussed "impostor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "impostor" to mean a person who makes deceitful pretenses.

incensed (adjective)

Angered at something unjust or wrong.

- Incensed at the judges' unfairness.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "incensed."

---

inclement (adjective)

Used of persons or behavior; showing no clemency or mercy.

- The harsh sentence of an inclement judge.
- A "inclement" approach may work better in this case.

---

indelible ink (noun)

Ink that cannot be erased or washed away.

- In class, the teacher used "indelible ink" to mean ink that cannot be erased or washed away.
- Understanding "indelible ink" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inferences (noun)

The reasoning involved in drawing a conclusion or making a logical judgment on the basis of circumstantial evidence and prior conclusions rather than on the basis of direct observation.

- Understanding "inferences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "inferences" means with a simple example.

---

ingesting (verb)

Serve oneself to, or consume regularly.

- She tried to use "ingesting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "ingesting" when talking about this idea.

---

intercepting (verb)

Tap a telephone or telegraph wire to get information.

- She tried to use "intercepting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "intercepting" until he saw an example.

---

iridescent (adjective)

Having a play of lustrous rainbow colors.

- An iridescent oil slick.
- A dragonfly hovered, vibrating and iridescent.

---

jacques alexandre cesar charles (noun)

French physicist and author of Charles's law which anticipated Gay-Lussac's law (1746-1823).

- Understanding "jacques alexandre cesar charles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacques alexandre cesar charles."

---

justifiably (adverb)

With good reason.

- He is justifiably bitter.
- She spoke "justifiably," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

kannada (noun)

A Dravidian language spoken in southern India.

- He looked up "kannada" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kannada."

---

kannada-speaking (adjective)

Able to communicate in Kannada.

- A "kannada-speaking" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "kannada-speaking" when it is able to communicate in kannada.

---

karl gauss (noun)

German mathematician who developed the theory of numbers and who applied mathematics to electricity and magnetism and astronomy and geodesy (1777-1855).

- The article explained what "karl gauss" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "karl gauss" during the group presentation.

---

kilowatt (noun)

A unit of power equal to 1000 watts.

- The article explained what "kilowatt" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "kilowatt" to mean a unit of power equal to 1000 watts.

---

kilowatt hour (noun)

A unit of energy equal to the work done by a power of 1000 watts operating for one hour.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kilowatt hour."
- The article explained what "kilowatt hour" means with a simple example.

---

knelt (verb)

Rest one's weight on one's knees.

- She tried to use "knelt" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "knelt" until he saw an example.

---

krebs cycle (noun)

In all plants and animals: a series of enzymatic reactions in mitochondria involving oxidative metabolism of acetyl compounds to produce high-energy phosphate compounds that are the source of cellular energy.

- The article explained what "krebs cycle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "krebs cycle" during the group presentation.

---

kyrgyz republic (noun)

A landlocked republic in west central Asia bordering on northwestern China; formerly an Asian soviet but became independent in 1991.

- Understanding "kyrgyz republic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kyrgyz republic" because he had never seen it before.

---

laborious (adjective)

Characterized by effort to the point of exhaustion; especially physical effort.

- Spent many laborious hours on the project.
- Students compared "laborious" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lag b'omer (noun)

(Judaism) Jewish holy day; the 33rd day after the 2nd day of Passover; the 18th day of Iyar.

- In class, the teacher used "lag b'omer" to mean (judaism) jewish holy day; the 33rd day after the....
- He looked up "lag b'omer" because he had never seen it before.

---

landfills (noun)

A low area that has been filled in.

- They discussed "landfills" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "landfills" to mean a low area that has been filled in.

---

late purple aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "late purple aster."
- He looked up "late purple aster" because he had never seen it before.

---

lavishly (adverb)

In a rich and lavish manner.

- Lavishly decorated.
- The United States, up to the 1920s, used fuel lavishly, mainly because it was so cheap.

---

lazar (noun)

A person afflicted with leprosy.

- He looked up "lazar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lazar."

lazar house (noun)

Hospital for persons with infectious diseases (especially leprosy).

- Understanding "lazar house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lazar house" means with a simple example.

legible (adjective)

(of handwriting, print, etc.) capable of being read or deciphered.

- Legible handwriting.
- Students compared "legible" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

lingual (noun)

A consonant that is produced with the tongue and other speech organs.

- He looked up "lingual" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lingual."

liquidate (verb)

Get rid of (someone who may be a threat) by killing.

- The mafia liquidated the informer.
- I had to liquidate my holdings to pay off my ex-husband.

lister plough (noun)

Moldboard plow with a double moldboard designed to move dirt to either side of a central furrow.

- Understanding "lister plough" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lister plough."

livable (adjective)

Fit or suitable to live in or with.

- Livable conditions.
- The speaker chose "livable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

long-eared owl (noun)

Slender European owl of coniferous forests with long ear tufts.

- He looked up "long-eared owl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long-eared owl."

loomed (verb)

Come into view indistinctly, often threateningly.

- Another air plane loomed into the sky.
- Large shadows loomed on the canyon wall.

louis pasteur (noun)

French chemist and biologist whose discovery that fermentation is caused by microorganisms resulted in the process of pasteurization (1822-1895).

- He looked up "louis pasteur" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "louis pasteur."

lowercase (noun)

The characters that were once kept in bottom half of a compositor's type case.

- They discussed "lowercase" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "lowercase" means with a simple example.

lusty (adjective)

Endowed with or exhibiting great bodily or mental health.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lusty."
- The speaker chose "lusty" because it captured the feeling precisely.

lymphatic vessel (noun)

A vascular duct that carries lymph which is eventually added to the venous blood circulation.

- They discussed "lymphatic vessel" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lymphatic vessel" because he had never seen it before.

---

lyndon baines johnson (noun)

36th President of the United States; was elected vice president and succeeded Kennedy when Kennedy was assassinated (1908-1973).

- They discussed "lyndon baines johnson" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lyndon baines johnson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

macao (noun)

A former Portuguese province on the south coast of China and two islands in the South China Sea; reverted to China in 1999.

- The article explained what "macao" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "macao" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

maddening (adjective)

Extremely annoying or displeasing.

- The ceaseless tumult of the jukebox was maddening.
- A "maddening" approach may work better in this case.

---

malnourished (adjective)

Not being provided with adequate nourishment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "malnourished."
- Would you call this situation "malnourished"? Explain why.

---

manna (noun)

Hardened sugary exudation of various trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manna."
- He looked up "manna" because he had never seen it before.

---

marmalade plum (noun)

Brown oval fruit flesh makes excellent sherbet.

- In class, the teacher used "marmalade plum" to mean brown oval fruit flesh makes excellent sherbet.
- Understanding "marmalade plum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

martin heidegger (noun)

German philosopher whose views on human existence in a world of objects and on Angst influenced the existential philosophers (1889-1976).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "martin heidegger."
- He looked up "martin heidegger" because he had never seen it before.

---

massaging (verb)

Manually manipulate (someone's body), usually for medicinal or relaxation purposes.

- Learners should practice how to use "massaging" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "massaging" when talking about this idea.

---

materiel (noun)

Equipment and supplies of a military force.

- They discussed "materiel" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "materiel" because he had never seen it before.

---

meadow leek (noun)

North American bulbous plant.

- In class, the teacher used "meadow leek" to mean north american bulbous plant.
- The article explained what "meadow leek" means with a simple example.

---

mennonite (noun)

A member of an Anabaptist movement in Holland noted for its simplicity of life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mennonite."

- He looked up "mennonite" because he had never seen it before.

---

mennonite church (noun)

Formed from the Anabaptist movement in the 16th century; noted for its simplicity of life.

- He looked up "mennonite church" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mennonite church" to mean formed from the anabaptist movement in the 16th....

---

messier (adjective)

Dirty and disorderly.

- Students compared "messier" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "messier."

---

microcosm (noun)

A miniature model of something.

- In class, the teacher used "microcosm" to mean a miniature model of something.
- He looked up "microcosm" because he had never seen it before.

---

milos (noun)

Small drought-resistant sorghums having large yellow or whitish grains.

- Understanding "milos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "milos" means with a simple example.

---

miscarriages (noun)

A natural loss of the products of conception.

- Understanding "miscarriages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "miscarriages" because he had never seen it before.

---

misdeeds (noun)

Improper or wicked or immoral behavior.

- In class, the teacher used "misdeeds" to mean improper or wicked or immoral behavior.
- The article explained what "misdeeds" means with a simple example.

---

missouri gourd (noun)

Perennial vine of dry parts of central and southwestern United States and Mexico having small hard mottled green inedible fruit.

- He looked up "missouri gourd" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "missouri gourd."

---

moaned (verb)

Indicate pain, discomfort, or displeasure.

- The coach explained when to use "moaned" and when to wait.
- Can you use "moaned" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

monrovia (noun)

The capital and chief port and largest city of Liberia.

- They discussed "monrovia" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "monrovia" means with a simple example.

---

moro (noun)

A member of the predominantly Muslim people in the southern Philippines.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "moro."
- He looked up "moro" because he had never seen it before.

---

multifaceted (adjective)

Having many aspects.

- A multifaceted undertaking.
- A "multifaceted" approach may work better in this case.

---

multiplicity (noun)

The property of being multiple.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "multiplicity."
- Understanding "multiplicity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nac (noun)

A council consisting of permanent representatives of all the member countries of NATO; has political authority and powers of decision.

- In class, the teacher used "nac" to mean a council consisting of permanent representatives....
- The article explained what "nac" means with a simple example.

---

nasal septum (noun)

A partition of bone and cartilage between the nasal cavities.

- They discussed "nasal septum" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nasal septum."

---

neurosurgeon (noun)

Someone who does surgery on the nervous system (especially the brain).

- He looked up "neurosurgeon" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "neurosurgeon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nist (noun)

An agency in the Technology Administration that makes measurements and sets standards as needed by industry or government programs.

- Understanding "nist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nist."

---

nullified (adjective)

Deprived of legal force.

- Would you call this situation "nullified"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nullified."

---

nutter (noun)

A person who is regarded as eccentric or mad.

- Understanding "nutter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "nutter" because he had never seen it before.

---

obsessively (adverb)

In a compulsive manner.

- She spoke "obsessively," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Using "obsessively" can make your explanation more exact.

---

obtuse-angled triangle (noun)

A triangle that contains an obtuse interior angle.

- In class, the teacher used "obtuse-angled triangle" to mean a triangle that contains an obtuse interior angle.
- They discussed "obtuse-angled triangle" during the group presentation.

---

occured (verb)

To be found to exist.

- In everyday English, people use "occured" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "occured" in real sentences.

---

ooze (verb)

Release (a liquid) in drops or small quantities.

- Can you use "ooze" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "ooze" and when to wait.

---

ooze out (verb)

Release (a liquid) in drops or small quantities.

- He did not know how to use "ooze out" until he saw an example.

- The coach explained when to use "ooze out" and when to wait.

---

ooze through (verb)

Run slowly and gradually.

- Blood oozed through the bandage.
- The coach explained when to use "ooze through" and when to wait.

---

oral fissure (noun)

The opening through which food is taken in and vocalizations emerge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oral fissure."
- Understanding "oral fissure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orange liqueur (noun)

Liqueur flavored with orange.

- The article explained what "orange liqueur" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "orange liqueur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

orange-flowered (adjective)

Having orange flowers.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "orange-flowered."
- The speaker chose "orange-flowered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

orangutan (noun)

Large long-armed ape of Borneo and Sumatra having arboreal habits.

- The article explained what "orangutan" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "orangutan" during the group presentation.

---

orbs (noun)

An object with a spherical shape.

- In class, the teacher used "orbs" to mean an object with a spherical shape.
- They discussed "orbs" during the group presentation.

---

oregano (noun)

Pungent leaves used as seasoning with meats and fowl and in stews and soups and omelets.

- The article explained what "oregano" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oregano."

---

organics (noun)

A fertilizer that is derived from animal or vegetable matter.

- Understanding "organics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "organics" because he had never seen it before.

---

outdone (verb)

Be or do something to a greater degree.

- The coach explained when to use "outdone" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "outdone" until he saw an example.

---

outplayed (verb)

Excel or defeat in a game.

- The Knicks outplayed the Lakers.
- He did not know how to use "outplayed" until he saw an example.

---

outrageously (adverb)

To an extravagant or immoderate degree.

- He behaved outrageously.
- The narrator describes the scene "outrageously" in the final chapter.

---

palisades (verb)

Surround with a wall in order to fortify.

- She tried to use "palisades" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "palisades" in real sentences.

---

paraphrasing (verb)

Express the same message in different words.

- She tried to use "paraphrasing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "paraphrasing" in real sentences.

---

parliamentarian (noun)

An expert in parliamentary rules and procedures.

- Understanding "parliamentarian" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "parliamentarian" during the group presentation.

---

passable (adjective)

Able to be passed or traversed or crossed.

- The road is passable.
- The speaker chose "passable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

pasteur (noun)

French chemist and biologist whose discovery that fermentation is caused by microorganisms resulted in the process of pasteurization (1822-1895).

- He looked up "pasteur" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pasteur" to mean french chemist and biologist whose discovery that....

---

pasting (verb)

Join or attach with or as if with glue.

- She tried to use "pasting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "pasting" when talking about this idea.

---

patted (verb)

Pat or squeeze fondly or playfully, especially under the chin.

- Learners should practice how to use "patted" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "patted" and when to wait.

---

pease (noun)

A leguminous plant of the genus Pisum with small white flowers and long green pods containing edible green seeds.

- He looked up "pease" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pease" during the group presentation.

---

peels (noun)

The rind of a fruit or vegetable.

- The article explained what "peels" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peels."

---

peeve (noun)

An annoyed or irritated mood.

- They discussed "peeve" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "peeve" to mean an annoyed or irritated mood.

---

pendants (noun)

An adornment that hangs from a piece of jewelry (necklace or earring).

- The article explained what "pendants" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pendants" to mean an adornment that hangs from a piece of jewelry....

---

percival lowell (noun)

United States astronomer whose studies of Mars led him to conclude that Mars was inhabited (1855-1916).

- They discussed "percival lowell" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "percival lowell" because he had never seen it before.

---

perishable (adjective)

Liable to perish; subject to destruction or death or decay.

- This minute and perishable planet.
- Perishable foods such as butter and fruit.

---

personas (noun)

An actor's portrayal of someone in a play.

- They discussed "personas" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "personas" means with a simple example.

---

pfc (noun)

A powerful greenhouse gas emitted during the production of aluminum.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pfc."
- He looked up "pfc" because he had never seen it before.

---

photojournalist (noun)

A journalist who presents a story primarily through the use of photographs.

- The article explained what "photojournalist" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "photojournalist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pinks (noun)

A person with mildly leftist political views.

- The article explained what "pinks" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pinks" to mean a person with mildly leftist political views.

---

pliny the elder (noun)

Roman author of an encyclopedic natural history; died while observing the eruption of Vesuvius (23-79).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pliny the elder."
- He looked up "pliny the elder" because he had never seen it before.

---

plunges (verb)

Dash violently or with great speed or impetuosity.

- The coach explained when to use "plunges" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "plunges" until he saw an example.

---

politburo (noun)

The chief executive and political committee of the Communist Party.

- Understanding "politburo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "politburo" during the group presentation.

---

polystyrene (noun)

A polymer of styrene; a rigid transparent thermoplastic.

- Expanded polystyrene looks like a rigid white foam and is used as packing or insulation.
- In class, the teacher used "polystyrene" to mean a polymer of styrene; a rigid transparent thermoplastic.

---

pontiff (noun)

The head of the Roman Catholic Church.

- Understanding "pontiff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pontiff" means with a simple example.

---

portrayals (noun)

A representation by picture or portraiture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "portrayals."
- He looked up "portrayals" because he had never seen it before.

postulated (verb)

Take as a given; assume as a postulate or axiom.

- Can you use "postulated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "postulated" and when to wait.

pows (noun)

A person who surrenders to (or is taken by) the enemy in time of war.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pows."
- The article explained what "pows" means with a simple example.

preemptive (adjective)

Designed or having the power to deter or prevent an anticipated situation or occurrence.

- A preemptive business offer.
- The speaker chose "preemptive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

preemptive right (noun)

The right granting to shareholders the first opportunity to buy a new issue of stock; provides protection against dilution of the shareholder's ownership interest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preemptive right."
- He looked up "preemptive right" because he had never seen it before.

pretender (noun)

A claimant to the throne or to the office of ruler (usually without just title).

- The article explained what "pretender" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pretender" to mean a claimant to the throne or to the office of ruler....

primers (noun)

The first or preliminary coat of paint or size applied to a surface.

- Understanding "primers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "primers" to mean the first or preliminary coat of paint or size....

proletarian (noun)

A member of the working class (not necessarily employed).

- The article explained what "proletarian" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "proletarian" during the group presentation.

prolonging (verb)

Lengthen in time; cause to be or last longer.

- Can you use "prolonging" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "prolonging" when talking about this idea.

prong (noun)

A pointed projection.

- He looked up "prong" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prong."

prosthesis (noun)

Corrective consisting of a replacement for a part of the body.

- He looked up "prosthesis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prosthesis."

prosthetics (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with the production and use of artificial body parts.

- Understanding "prosthetics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "prosthetics" means with a simple example.

puny (adjective)

Inferior in strength or significance.

- A puny physique.
- Puny excuses.

---

purple-flowered (adjective)

Having purple flowers.

- A "purple-flowered" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "purple-flowered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

quarrels (noun)

An arrow that is shot from a crossbow; has a head with four edges.

- The article explained what "quarrels" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "quarrels" to mean an arrow that is shot from a crossbow; has a head....

---

quilted (adjective)

Made of layers of fabric held together by patterned stitching.

- Students compared "quilted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "quilted."

---

quilts (noun)

Bedding made of two layers of cloth filled with stuffing and stitched together.

- Understanding "quilts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "quilts" because he had never seen it before.

---

radiocarbon dating (noun)

A chemical analysis used to determine the age of organic materials based on their content of the radioisotope carbon-14; believed to be reliable up to 40,000 years.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radiocarbon dating."
- They discussed "radiocarbon dating" during the group presentation.

---

radium (noun)

An intensely radioactive metallic element that occurs in minute amounts in uranium ores.

- In class, the teacher used "radium" to mean an intensely radioactive metallic element that....
- He looked up "radium" because he had never seen it before.

---

ramming (verb)

Strike or drive against with a heavy impact.

- In everyday English, people use "ramming" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "ramming" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rancid (adjective)

(used of decomposing oils or fats) having a rank smell or taste usually due to a chemical change or decomposition.

- Rancid butter.
- Rancid bacon.

---

reassess (verb)

Revise or renew one's assessment.

- In everyday English, people use "reassess" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "reassess" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reb (noun)

'Johnny' was applied as a nickname for Confederate soldiers by the Federal soldiers in the American Civil War; 'greyback' derived from their grey Confederate uniforms.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reb."
- He looked up "reb" because he had never seen it before.

---

reciprocal ohm (noun)

A unit of conductance equal to the reciprocal of an ohm.

- In class, the teacher used "reciprocal ohm" to mean a unit of conductance equal to the reciprocal of an ohm.

- The article explained what “reciprocal ohm” means with a simple example.

---

recoverable (adjective)

Capable of being recovered or regained.

- Recoverable truth of a past event.
- Students compared “recoverable” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rectangles (noun)

A parallelogram with four right angles.

- Understanding “rectangles” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “rectangles” because he had never seen it before.

---

red-winged blackbird (noun)

North American blackbird with scarlet patches on the wings.

- In class, the teacher used “red-winged blackbird” to mean north american blackbird with scarlet patches on....
- The article explained what “red-winged blackbird” means with a simple example.

---

rediscover (verb)

Discover again.

- I rediscovered the books that I enjoyed as a child.
- The coach explained when to use “rediscover” and when to wait.

---

reissued (verb)

Issue (a new version of).

- If you forget your password, it can be changed and reissued.
- The coach explained when to use “reissued” and when to wait.

---

reorganize (verb)

Organize anew, as after a setback.

- We must reorganize the company if we don’t want to go under.
- The coach explained when to use “reorganize” and when to wait.

---

replayed (verb)

Reproduce (a recording) on a recorder.

- Princeton replayed Harvard.
- We replayed the game.

---

reservists (noun)

A member of a military reserve.

- He looked up “reservists” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “reservists” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

resonator (noun)

A hollow chamber whose dimensions allow the resonant oscillation of electromagnetic or acoustic waves.

- They discussed “resonator” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “resonator.”

---

restlessness (noun)

The quality of being ceaselessly moving or active.

- The restlessness of the wind.
- Waiting gave him a feeling of restlessness.

---

retaliated (verb)

Make a counterattack and return like for like, especially evil for evil.

- The Israeli army retaliated for the Hamas bombing.
- He did not know how to use “retaliated” until he saw an example.

---

retirements (noun)

Withdrawal for prayer and study and meditation.

- Understanding "retirements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "retirements" during the group presentation.

---

revives (verb)

Be brought back to life, consciousness, or strength.

- The coach explained when to use "revives" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "revives" in real sentences.

---

revolted (verb)

Cause aversion in; offend the moral sense of.

- The people revolted when bread prices tripled again.
- He did not know how to use "revolted" until he saw an example.

---

rhea americana (noun)

Larger of two tall fast-running flightless birds similar to ostriches but three-toed; found from Brazil to Patagonia.

- The article explained what "rhea americana" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rhea americana."

---

roms (noun)

(computer science) memory whose contents can be accessed and read but cannot be changed.

- They discussed "roms" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roms."

---

royalist (noun)

An advocate of the principles of monarchy.

- They discussed "royalist" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "royalist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rush aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- They discussed "rush aster" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rush aster" means with a simple example.

---

saber-toothed (adjective)

Having teeth that resemble sabers.

- A saber-toothed tiger.
- The speaker chose "saber-toothed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sabre rattling (noun)

The ostentatious display of military power (with the implied threat that it might be used).

- He looked up "sabre rattling" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sabre rattling" during the group presentation.

---

saint christopher-nevis (noun)

A country on several of the Leeward Islands; located to the east southeast of Puerto Rico; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1983.

- In class, the teacher used "saint christopher-nevis" to mean a country on several of the leeward islands;....
- The article explained what "saint christopher-nevis" means with a simple example.

---

salah al-din battalions (noun)

The military arm of Hamas responsible for suicide bombings and other attacks on Israel.

- The article explained what "salah al-din battalions" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "salah al-din battalions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sawed (verb)

Cut with a saw.

- The coach explained when to use "sawed" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "sawed" in real sentences.

---

sawed-off (adjective)

Well below average height.

- A sawed-off shotgun.
- A sawed-off broomstick.

---

sayers (noun)

English writer of detective fiction (1893-1957).

- The article explained what "sayers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sayers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

schilling (noun)

Formerly the basic unit of money in Austria.

- The article explained what "schilling" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schilling."

---

sculpt (verb)

Create by shaping stone or wood or any other hard material.

- Sculpt a swan out of a block of ice.
- She is sculpting the block of marble into an image of her husband.

---

selectivity (noun)

The property of being selective.

- They discussed "selectivity" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "selectivity" means with a simple example.

---

senile psychosis (noun)

Dementia of the aged; results from degeneration of the brain in the absence of cerebrovascular disease.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "senile psychosis."
- They discussed "senile psychosis" during the group presentation.

---

shasta daisy (noun)

Hybrid garden flower derived from Chrysanthemum maximum and Chrysanthemum lacustre having large white flower heads resembling oxeye daisies; often placed in the genus Chrysanthemum.

- Understanding "shasta daisy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shasta daisy" because he had never seen it before.

---

shatters (verb)

Cause to break into many pieces.

- She tried to use "shatters" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "shatters" when talking about this idea.

---

shepherd's pouch (noun)

White-flowered annual European herb bearing triangular notched pods; nearly cosmopolitan as an introduced weed.

- Understanding "shepherd's pouch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "shepherd's pouch" to mean white-flowered annual european herb bearing....

---

shock-absorbent (adjective)

Having the capacity to absorb the energy of an impact.

- The material absorbs shock and is used for shock-absorbent insoles.
- A "shock-absorbent" approach may work better in this case.

---

shoot craps (verb)

Play a game of craps.

- The coach explained when to use "shoot craps" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "shoot craps" until he saw an example.

shopkeepers (noun)

A merchant who owns or manages a shop.

- They discussed "shopkeepers" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "shopkeepers" to mean a merchant who owns or manages a shop.

shoulder girdle (noun)

The bony arch formed by the collarbones and shoulder blades in humans.

- The article explained what "shoulder girdle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "shoulder girdle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sicker (adjective)

Affected by an impairment of normal physical or mental function.

- A "sicker" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "sicker" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

sierra madre oriental (noun)

A mountain range in northeastern Mexico the runs parallel to the coastline of the Gulf of Mexico.

- They discussed "sierra madre oriental" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sierra madre oriental" to mean a mountain range in northeastern mexico the runs....

signified (noun)

The meaning of a word or expression; the way in which a word or expression or situation can be interpreted.

- The signifier is linked to the signified.
- He looked up "signified" because he had never seen it before.

simon bolivar (noun)

Venezuelan statesman who led the revolt of South American colonies against Spanish rule; founded Bolivia in 1825 (1783-1830).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simon bolivar."
- He looked up "simon bolivar" because he had never seen it before.

sita (noun)

Wife of the Hindu god Rama; regarded as an ideal of womanhood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sita."
- He looked up "sita" because he had never seen it before.

sizzle (verb)

Burn or sear with a sizzling sound.

- The fat sizzled in the pan.
- Can you use "sizzle" in a sentence that fits this situation?

skated (verb)

Move along on skates.

- Learners should practice how to use "skated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "skated" when talking about this idea.

skew-whiff (adjective)

Turned or twisted toward one side; - G.K.Chesterton.

- His wig was, as the British say, skew-whiff.
- A "skew-whiff" approach may work better in this case.

skinny-dipper (noun)

A naked swimmer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skinny-dipper."
- The article explained what "skinny-dipper" means with a simple example.

slo-bid (noun)

A colorless crystalline alkaloid derived from tea leaves or made synthetically; used in medicine as a bronchial dilator.

- He looked up "slo-bid" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "slo-bid" to mean a colorless crystalline alkaloid derived from tea....

---

sloop (noun)

A sailing vessel with a single mast set about one third of the boat's length aft of the bow.

- They discussed "sloop" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sloop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sloop of war (noun)

A sailing or steam warship having cannons on only one deck.

- In class, the teacher used "sloop of war" to mean a sailing or steam warship having cannons on only....
- The article explained what "sloop of war" means with a simple example.

---

smoked haddock (noun)

Haddock usually baked but sometimes broiled with lots of butter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smoked haddock."
- He looked up "smoked haddock" because he had never seen it before.

---

smooth aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- They discussed "smooth aster" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "smooth aster" because he had never seen it before.

---

snoopy (noun)

A fictional beagle in a comic strip drawn by Charles Schulz.

- Understanding "snoopy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "snoopy" to mean a fictional beagle in a comic strip drawn by....

---

sobbed (verb)

Weep convulsively.

- He did not know how to use "sobbed" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "sobbed" in real sentences.

---

somatic delusion (noun)

A delusion concerning the body image or parts of the body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "somatic delusion."
- Understanding "somatic delusion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

southeastern pocket gopher (noun)

Gopher of Alabama and Georgia and Florida.

- Understanding "southeastern pocket gopher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "southeastern pocket gopher" during the group presentation.

---

spiral ratchet screwdriver (noun)

A screwdriver with a ratchet (so the blade turns in only one direction) and a spiral in the handle (so the blade rotates) with downward pressure on the handle.

- He looked up "spiral ratchet screwdriver" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "spiral ratchet screwdriver" to mean a screwdriver with a ratchet (so the blade turns in....

---

spotter (noun)

A person employed to keep watch for some anticipated event.

- They discussed "spotter" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "spotter" means with a simple example.

---

squint (noun)

The act of squinting; looking with the eyes partly closed.

- He looked up "squint" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "squint" during the group presentation.

---

squint-eye (noun)

A person with strabismus.

- In class, the teacher used "squint-eye" to mean a person with strabismus.
- The article explained what "squint-eye" means with a simple example.

---

statisticians (noun)

A mathematician who specializes in statistics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "statisticians."
- Understanding "statisticians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stellar parallax (noun)

The heliocentric parallax of a star.

- In class, the teacher used "stellar parallax" to mean the heliocentric parallax of a star.
- The article explained what "stellar parallax" means with a simple example.

---

stenosis (noun)

Abnormal narrowing of a bodily canal or passageway.

- In class, the teacher used "stenosis" to mean abnormal narrowing of a bodily canal or passageway.
- They discussed "stenosis" during the group presentation.

---

subcutaneous injection (noun)

An injection under the skin.

- He looked up "subcutaneous injection" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subcutaneous injection."

---

subsystems (noun)

A system that is part of some larger system.

- In class, the teacher used "subsystems" to mean a system that is part of some larger system.
- He looked up "subsystems" because he had never seen it before.

---

suffocation (noun)

The condition of being deprived of oxygen (as by having breathing stopped).

- The article explained what "suffocation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "suffocation" during the group presentation.

---

surpluses (noun)

A quantity much larger than is needed.

- In class, the teacher used "surpluses" to mean a quantity much larger than is needed.
- The article explained what "surpluses" means with a simple example.

---

surrenders (noun)

The act of surrendering (usually under agreed conditions).

- The article explained what "surrenders" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "surrenders" to mean the act of surrendering (usually under agreed....

---

sweet cassava (noun)

South American plant with roots used as a vegetable and herbage used for stock feed.

- Understanding "sweet cassava" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sweet cassava" during the group presentation.

---

switchboard operator (noun)

Someone who helps callers get the person they are calling.

- He looked up "switchboard operator" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "switchboard operator" during the group presentation.

---

syndication (noun)

Selling (an article or cartoon) for publication in many magazines or newspapers at the same time.

- He received a comfortable income from the syndication of his work.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "syndication."

tailgating (verb)

Follow at a dangerously close distance.

- The coach explained when to use "tailgating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "tailgating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tapestries (noun)

A wall hanging of heavy handwoven fabric with pictorial designs.

- In class, the teacher used "tapestries" to mean a wall hanging of heavy handwoven fabric with....
- He looked up "tapestries" because he had never seen it before.

teamsters (noun)

The driver of a team of horses doing hauling.

- In class, the teacher used "teamsters" to mean the driver of a team of horses doing hauling.
- The article explained what "teamsters" means with a simple example.

teamsters union (noun)

An industrial union of truck drivers and chauffeurs and warehouse workers.

- The article explained what "teamsters union" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "teamsters union" to mean an industrial union of truck drivers and chauffeurs....

technologists (noun)

A person who uses scientific knowledge to solve practical problems.

- He looked up "technologists" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "technologists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tenfold (adverb)

By ten times as much.

- The population increased tenfold.
- Place "tenfold" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

terrify (verb)

Fill with terror; frighten greatly.

- He did not know how to use "terrify" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "terrify" in real sentences.

the hots (noun)

Intense sexual desire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "the hots."
- They discussed "the hots" during the group presentation.

thrall (noun)

The state of being under the control of another person.

- They discussed "thrall" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "thrall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

throng (noun)

A large gathering of people.

- He looked up "throng" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "throng."

tianjin (noun)

A major industrial center in northeastern China on the Grand Canal near the Yellow Sea; 3rd largest city in China.

- They discussed "tianjin" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tianjin."

---

timothy francis leary (noun)

United States psychologist who experimented with psychoactive drugs (including LSD) and became a well-known advocate of their use (1920-1996).

- They discussed "timothy francis leary" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timothy francis leary."

---

togetherness (noun)

Affectionate closeness.

- Togetherness is the new wonder ingredient in marriage.
- They discussed "togetherness" during the group presentation.

---

tolerances (noun)

A disposition to allow freedom of choice and behavior.

- He looked up "tolerances" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tolerances" to mean a disposition to allow freedom of choice and behavior.

---

tongs (noun)

Any of various devices for taking hold of objects; usually have two hinged legs with handles above and pointed hooks below.

- The article explained what "tongs" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tongs" during the group presentation.

---

topographical (adjective)

Concerned with topography.

- A topographical engineer.
- A topographical survey.

---

traceable (adjective)

(usually followed by 'to') able to be traced to.

- A failure traceable to lack of energy.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "traceable."

---

trailing windmills (noun)

Trailing plant having crowded clusters of 3 brilliant deep pink flowers resembling a single flower blooming near the ground; found in dry gravelly or sandy soil; southwestern United States and Mexico.

- The article explained what "trailing windmills" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "trailing windmills" to mean trailing plant having crowded clusters of 3....

---

trite (adjective)

Repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.

- His remarks were trite and commonplace.
- The trite metaphor 'hard as nails'.

---

tryouts (noun)

A test of the suitability of a performer.

- In class, the teacher used "tryouts" to mean a test of the suitability of a performer.
- Understanding "tryouts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tues (noun)

The third day of the week; the second working day.

- They discussed "tues" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tues."

---

turnip greens (noun)

Tender leaves of young white turnips.

- In class, the teacher used "turnip greens" to mean tender leaves of young white turnips.
- Understanding "turnip greens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tusks (noun)

A hard smooth ivory colored dentine that makes up most of the tusks of elephants and walruses.

- In class, the teacher used "tusks" to mean a hard smooth ivory colored dentine that makes up....
- Understanding "tusks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tylenol (noun)

An analgesic for mild pain but not for inflammation; also used as an antipyretic; (Datril, Tylenol, Panadol, Phenaphen, Tempra, and Anacin III are trademarks of brands of acetaminophen tablets).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tylenol."
- He looked up "tylenol" because he had never seen it before.

undamaged (adjective)

Not harmed or spoiled; sound.

- Students compared "undamaged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "undamaged"? Explain why.

unpacked (verb)

Remove from its packing.

- In everyday English, people use "unpacked" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "unpacked" carefully so everyone would understand.

unrivalled (adjective)

Eminent beyond or above comparison.

- Students compared "unrivalled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unrivalled."

urinating (verb)

Pass after the manner of urine.

- He did not know how to use "urinating" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "urinating" carefully so everyone would understand.

verily (adverb)

In truth; certainly; ; - Ps 37:3.

- I verily think so.
- Trust in the Lord...and verily thou shalt be fed.

vertebral column (noun)

The series of vertebrae forming the axis of the skeleton and protecting the spinal cord.

- The article explained what "vertebral column" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "vertebral column" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

virgil garnett thomson (noun)

United States composer who collaborated with Gertrude Stein (1896-1989).

- In class, the teacher used "virgil garnett thomson" to mean united states composer who collaborated with....
- Understanding "virgil garnett thomson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

visual acuity (noun)

Sharpness of vision; the visual ability to resolve fine detail (usually measured by a Snellen chart).

- The article explained what "visual acuity" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual acuity."

visual modality (noun)

The ability to see; the visual faculty.

- They discussed "visual modality" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "visual modality."

visualized (adjective)

Seen in the mind as a mental image.

- The visualized scene lacked the ugly details of real life.
- Would you call this situation "visualized"? Explain why.

---

vocally (adverb)

In a vocal manner.

- She defended herself vocally.
- He answered "vocally," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

wadi (noun)

Gully or streambed in northern Africa and the Middle East that remains dry except during rainy season.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wadi."
- Understanding "wadi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wallow (noun)

An indolent or clumsy rolling about.

- A good wallow in the water.
- Understanding "wallow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

walter rudolf hess (noun)

Swiss physiologist noted for studies of the brain (1881-1973).

- In class, the teacher used "walter rudolf hess" to mean swiss physiologist noted for studies of the brain....
- The article explained what "walter rudolf hess" means with a simple example.

---

washroom (noun)

A lavatory (particularly a lavatory in a public place).

- He looked up "washroom" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "washroom."

---

whigs (noun)

A member of the Whig Party that existed in the United States before the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "whigs" to mean a member of the whig party that existed in the....
- The article explained what "whigs" means with a simple example.

---

white wood aster (noun)

Rhizomatous perennial wood aster of eastern North America with white flowers.

- The article explained what "white wood aster" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "white wood aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

widgets (noun)

A device or control that is very useful for a particular job.

- The article explained what "widgets" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "widgets" to mean a device or control that is very useful for a....

---

wily (adjective)

Marked by skill in deception.

- A wily old attorney.
- The speaker chose "wily" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

winks (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- He looked up "winks" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "winks" during the group presentation.

---

wiper arm (noun)

Contact consisting of a conducting arm that rotates over a series of fixed contacts and comes to rest on an outlet.

- The article explained what "wiper arm" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "wiper arm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wiper motor (noun)

Electric motor that moves the windshield wiper.

- He looked up "wiper motor" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wiper motor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wood's metal (noun)

A fusible alloy that is half bismuth plus lead, tin, and cadmium; melts at about 160 degrees Fahrenheit.

- In class, the teacher used "wood's metal" to mean a fusible alloy that is half bismuth plus lead,....
- They discussed "wood's metal" during the group presentation.

---

workhouse (noun)

A poorhouse where able-bodied poor are compelled to labor.

- The article explained what "workhouse" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "workhouse" to mean a poorhouse where able-bodied poor are compelled to....

---

worshiping (verb)

Love unquestioningly and uncritically or to excess; venerate as an idol.

- Learners should practice how to use "worshiping" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "worshiping" until he saw an example.

---

xian (noun)

A city of central China; capital of ancient Chinese empire 221-206 BC.

- In class, the teacher used "xian" to mean a city of central china; capital of ancient chinese....
- He looked up "xian" because he had never seen it before.

---

zinc vitriol (noun)

A colorless water-soluble powder; used as a mordant or to preserve wood or for the electrodeposition of zinc.

- The article explained what "zinc vitriol" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "zinc vitriol" during the group presentation.

---

aah (verb)

Express admiration and pleasure by uttering 'ooh' or 'aah'.

- They oohed and aahed when they unwrapped the presents.
- The coach explained when to use "aah" and when to wait.

---

abilene (noun)

A town in central Kansas to the west of Topeka; home of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

- In class, the teacher used "abilene" to mean a town in central kansas to the west of topeka;....
- Understanding "abilene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

abraham stoker (noun)

Irish writer of the horror novel about Dracula (1847-1912).

- Understanding "abraham stoker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "abraham stoker" during the group presentation.

---

abscess (noun)

Symptom consisting of a localized collection of pus surrounded by inflamed tissue.

- Understanding "abscess" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "abscess" to mean symptom consisting of a localized collection of pus....

---

absorbent (noun)

A material having capacity or tendency to absorb another substance.

- In class, the teacher used "absorbent" to mean a material having capacity or tendency to absorb....
- Understanding "absorbent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

absorbent material (noun)

A material having capacity or tendency to absorb another substance.

- The article explained what "absorbent material" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "absorbent material" to mean a material having capacity or tendency to absorb....

---

accounts receivable (noun)

A creditor's accounts of money owed to him; normally arise from the sale of products or services.

- In class, the teacher used "accounts receivable" to mean a creditor's accounts of money owed to him;....
- They discussed "accounts receivable" during the group presentation.

---

acorns (noun)

Fruit of the oak tree: a smooth thin-walled nut in a woody cup-shaped base.

- He looked up "acorns" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "acorns" during the group presentation.

---

acrobatic (adjective)

Vigorously active.

- An acrobatic dance.
- It is useful to describe something as "acrobatic" when it is vigorously active.

---

acuity (noun)

A quick and penetrating intelligence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "acuity."
- He looked up "acuity" because he had never seen it before.

---

aec (noun)

A former executive agency (from 1946 to 1974) that was responsible for research into atomic energy and its peacetime uses in the United States.

- The article explained what "aec" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aec."

---

aerial tramway (noun)

A conveyance that transports passengers or freight in carriers suspended from cables and supported by a series of towers.

- They discussed "aerial tramway" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "aerial tramway" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

afrikaans (noun)

An official language of the Republic of South Africa; closely related to Dutch and Flemish.

- Understanding "afrikaans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "afrikaans" because he had never seen it before.

---

agate (noun)

An impure form of quartz consisting of banded chalcedony; used as a gemstone and for making mortars and pestles.

- He looked up "agate" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "agate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

agate line (noun)

Space for one line of print (one column wide and 1/14 inch deep) used to measure advertising.

- He looked up "agate line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agate line."

---

airstrip (noun)

An airfield without normal airport facilities.

- Understanding "airstrip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "airstrip" means with a simple example.

---

albanians (noun)

The Indo-European language spoken by the people of Albania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "albanians."
- The article explained what "albanians" means with a simple example.

---

alkyl (noun)

Any of a series of univalent groups of the general formula CnH2n+1 derived from aliphatic hydrocarbons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alkyl."
- Understanding "alkyl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alkyl group (noun)

Any of a series of univalent groups of the general formula CnH2n+1 derived from aliphatic hydrocarbons.

- Understanding "alkyl group" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "alkyl group" to mean any of a series of univalent groups of the general....

---

amassing (verb)

Get or gather together.

- She is amassing a lot of data for her thesis.
- He did not know how to use "amassing" until he saw an example.

---

ambulatory plague (noun)

A mild form of bubonic plague.

- In class, the teacher used "ambulatory plague" to mean a mild form of bubonic plague.
- They discussed "ambulatory plague" during the group presentation.

---

american mistletoe (noun)

The traditional mistletoe of Christmas in America: grows on deciduous trees and can severely weaken the host plant.

- He looked up "american mistletoe" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "american mistletoe" during the group presentation.

---

ammonium carbonate (noun)

A carbonate of ammonium; used in the manufacture of smelling salts and baking powder and ammonium compounds.

- In class, the teacher used "ammonium carbonate" to mean a carbonate of ammonium; used in the manufacture of....
- He looked up "ammonium carbonate" because he had never seen it before.

---

amyloid plaque (noun)

A plaque consisting of tangles of amyloid protein in nervous tissue (a pathological mark of Alzheimer's disease).

- The article explained what "amyloid plaque" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amyloid plaque" to mean a plaque consisting of tangles of amyloid protein....

---

andrei markov (noun)

Russian mathematician (1856-1922).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "andrei markov."
- He looked up "andrei markov" because he had never seen it before.

---

angel's trumpet (noun)

A South American plant that is cultivated for its large fragrant trumpet-shaped flowers.

- Understanding "angel's trumpet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "angel's trumpet" to mean a south american plant that is cultivated for its....

---

antiquarian (adjective)

Of or relating to antiques or antiquities.

- A "antiquarian" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "antiquarian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

antiseptic (noun)

A substance that destroys micro-organisms that carry disease without harming body tissues.

- Understanding "antiseptic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antiseptic."

archduke (noun)

A sovereign prince of the former ruling house of Austria.

- They discussed "archduke" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archduke."

ascetic (adjective)

Pertaining to or characteristic of an ascetic or the practice of rigorous self-discipline.

- Ascetic practices.
- It is useful to describe something as "ascetic" when it is pertaining to or characteristic of an ascetic or....

aspires (verb)

Have an ambitious plan or a lofty goal.

- In everyday English, people use "aspires" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "aspires" in real sentences.

aster (noun)

Any of various chiefly fall-blooming herbs of the genus Aster with showy daisylike flowers.

- The article explained what "aster" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aster family (noun)

Plants with heads composed of many florets: aster; daisy; dandelion; goldenrod; marigold; lettuces; ragweed; sunflower; thistle; zinnia.

- They discussed "aster family" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "aster family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

atlantic manta (noun)

Largest manta (to 22 feet across wings); found worldwide but common in Gulf of Mexico and along southern coasts of United States; primarily oceanic.

- They discussed "atlantic manta" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atlantic manta."

attains (verb)

Reach a destination, either real or abstract.

- Learners should practice how to use "attains" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "attains" when talking about this idea.

attenuation (noun)

The property of something that has been weakened or reduced in thickness or density.

- Attenuation in the volume of the sound.
- Understanding "attenuation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

australasian (adjective)

Relating to or found in Australasia.

- Students compared "australasian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "australasian."

avionics (noun)

Science and technology of electronic systems and devices for aeronautics and astronautics.

- Avionics has become even more important with the development of the space program.
- Understanding "avionics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

banshee (noun)

(Irish folklore) a female spirit who wails to warn of impending death.

- In class, the teacher used "banshee" to mean (irish folklore) a female spirit who wails to warn....
- The article explained what "banshee" means with a simple example.

barbs (noun)

An aggressive remark directed at a person like a missile and intended to have a telling effect.

- In class, the teacher used "barbs" to mean an aggressive remark directed at a person like a....
- He looked up "barbs" because he had never seen it before.

---

beach aster (noun)

Slightly succulent perennial with basal leaves and hairy sticky stems each bearing a solitary flower head with narrow pink or lavender rays; coastal bluffs Oregon to southern California.

- In class, the teacher used "beach aster" to mean slightly succulent perennial with basal leaves and....
- The article explained what "beach aster" means with a simple example.

---

bear's ear (noun)

Yellow-flowered primrose native to Alps; commonly cultivated.

- Understanding "bear's ear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bear's ear" means with a simple example.

---

bedouin (noun)

A member of a nomadic tribe of Arabs.

- He looked up "bedouin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bedouin" to mean a member of a nomadic tribe of arabs.

---

beholden (adjective)

Under a moral obligation to someone.

- A "beholden" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "beholden" when it is under a moral obligation to someone.

---

beholder (noun)

A person who becomes aware (of things or events) through the senses.

- The article explained what "beholder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beholder."

---

bering strait (noun)

A strait connecting the Bering Sea to the Arctic Ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "bering strait" to mean a strait connecting the bering sea to the arctic ocean.
- The article explained what "bering strait" means with a simple example.

---

biblical aramaic (noun)

The form of Aramaic that was spoken in Palestine in the time of the New Testament.

- Understanding "biblical aramaic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "biblical aramaic" means with a simple example.

---

blue-flowered (adjective)

Having blue flowers.

- A "blue-flowered" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "blue-flowered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

blushes (verb)

Turn red, as if in embarrassment or shame.

- She tried to use "blushes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "blushes" when talking about this idea.

---

boas (noun)

A long thin fluffy scarf of feathers or fur.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boas."
- Understanding "boas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bolivar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Venezuela; equal to 100 centimos.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bolivar."

- Understanding "bolivar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bookmarks (noun)

A marker (a piece of paper or ribbon) placed between the pages of a book to mark the reader's place.

- The article explained what "bookmarks" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bookmarks" to mean a marker (a piece of paper or ribbon) placed....

---

bottle gourd (noun)

Old World climbing plant with hard-shelled bottle-shaped gourds as fruits.

- The article explained what "bottle gourd" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bottle gourd."

---

bouncing putty (noun)

A soft elastic silicone polymer that increases in elasticity with the application of force; used in the center of golf balls and as shock-absorbent padding.

- The article explained what "bouncing putty" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bouncing putty."

---

brahman (noun)

A member of the highest of the four Hindu varnas.

- Originally all brahmans were priests.
- A Boston brahman.

---

brahmin (noun)

A member of the highest of the four Hindu varnas.

- They discussed "brahmin" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "brahmin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brookes (verb)

Put up with something or somebody unpleasant.

- Can you use "brookes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "brookes" when talking about this idea.

---

brown-speckled (adjective)

Having brown speckles.

- It is useful to describe something as "brown-speckled" when it is having brown speckles.
- Would you call this situation "brown-speckled"? Explain why.

---

bungalows (noun)

A small house with a single story.

- In class, the teacher used "bungalows" to mean a small house with a single story.
- They discussed "bungalows" during the group presentation.

---

bungee cord (noun)

An elasticized rope.

- In class, the teacher used "bungee cord" to mean an elasticized rope.
- The article explained what "bungee cord" means with a simple example.

---

burg (noun)

Colloquial American term for a town.

- I've lived in this burg all my life.
- In class, the teacher used "burg" to mean colloquial american term for a town.

---

burmese rosewood (noun)

Tree of India and Burma yielding a wood resembling mahogany.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burmese rosewood."
- They discussed "burmese rosewood" during the group presentation.

---

burp (noun)

A reflex that expels gas noisily from the stomach through the mouth.

- The article explained what "burp" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "burp" to mean a reflex that expels gas noisily from the stomach....

---

burp gun (noun)

A fully automatic pistol; a small submachine gun.

- They discussed "burp gun" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "burp gun" to mean a fully automatic pistol; a small submachine gun.

---

buttoned (adjective)

Furnished or closed with buttons or something buttonlike.

- A "buttoned" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "buttoned."

---

buttoned-down (adjective)

Unimaginatively conventional; - Newsweek.

- A colorful character in the buttoned-down, dull-grey world of business.
- Students compared "buttoned-down" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

buttoned-up (adjective)

Conservative in professional manner.

- Employers are looking for buttoned-up types.
- The speaker chose "buttoned-up" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bypass condenser (noun)

A capacitor that provides low impedance over certain (high) frequencies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bypass condenser."
- Understanding "bypass condenser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

canto (noun)

The highest part (usually the melody) in a piece of choral music.

- They discussed "canto" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "canto" to mean the highest part (usually the melody) in a piece of....

---

canvass (noun)

The setting for a narrative or fictional or dramatic account.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canvass."
- Understanding "canvass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capillary artery (noun)

One of the small thin-walled arteries that end in capillaries.

- In class, the teacher used "capillary artery" to mean one of the small thin-walled arteries that end in....
- The article explained what "capillary artery" means with a simple example.

---

carolinas (noun)

The area of the states of North Carolina and South Carolina.

- Understanding "carolinas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carolinas."

---

castings (noun)

The act of creating something by casting it in a mold.

- Understanding "castings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "castings" to mean the act of creating something by casting it in a mold.

---

categorical imperative (noun)

The moral principle that behavior should be determined by duty.

- He looked up "categorical imperative" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "categorical imperative."

---

cathartic (noun)

A purging medicine; stimulates evacuation of the bowels.

- They discussed "cathartic" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cathartic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

caucuses (noun)

A closed political meeting.

- Understanding "caucuses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "caucuses" to mean a closed political meeting.

---

cellulose acetate (noun)

An ester of acetic acid; used in fibers and fabrics; photographic films and varnishes.

- They discussed "cellulose acetate" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cellulose acetate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cementing (verb)

Make fast as if with cement.

- Learners should practice how to use "cementing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "cementing" when talking about this idea.

---

centrifuge (noun)

An apparatus that uses centrifugal force to separate particles from a suspension.

- In class, the teacher used "centrifuge" to mean an apparatus that uses centrifugal force to....
- They discussed "centrifuge" during the group presentation.

---

chestnuts (noun)

A dark golden-brown or reddish-brown horse.

- The article explained what "chestnuts" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chestnuts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

china aster (noun)

Valued for their beautiful flowers in a wide range of clear bright colors; grown primarily for cutting.

- He looked up "china aster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "china aster."

---

ciao (noun)

An acknowledgment that can be used to say hello or goodbye (aloha is Hawaiian and ciao is Italian).

- He looked up "ciao" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ciao" to mean an acknowledgment that can be used to say hello or....

---

citywide (adjective)

Occurring or extending throughout a city.

- Citywide bussing.
- A citywide strike.

---

cliches (noun)

A trite or obvious remark.

- They discussed "cliches" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cliches" because he had never seen it before.

---

cocker (noun)

A small breed with wavy silky hair; originally developed in England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cocker."
- Understanding "cocker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

coffee liqueur (noun)

Coffee-flavored liqueur.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee liqueur."
- He looked up "coffee liqueur" because he had never seen it before.

comanche (noun)

The Shoshonean language spoken by the Comanche.

- Understanding "comanche" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "comanche" to mean the shoshonean language spoken by the comanche.

comatose (adjective)

In a state of deep and usually prolonged unconsciousness; unable to respond to external stimuli.

- A comatose patient.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "comatose."

comforter (noun)

A person who reduces the intensity (e.g., of fears) and calms and pacifies.

- They discussed "comforter" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "comforter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

commissary (noun)

A retail store that sells equipment and provisions (usually to military personnel).

- The article explained what "commissary" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "commissary" during the group presentation.

common scold (noun)

Someone (especially a woman) who annoys people by constantly finding fault.

- Understanding "common scold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "common scold" because he had never seen it before.

compilers (noun)

A person who compiles information (as for reference purposes).

- Understanding "compilers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "compilers" because he had never seen it before.

conclave (noun)

A confidential or secret meeting.

- The article explained what "conclave" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "conclave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

concoction (noun)

The invention of a scheme or story to suit some purpose.

- His testimony was a concoction.
- She has no peer in the concoction of mystery stories.

confers (verb)

Have a conference in order to talk something over.

- She tried to use "confers" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "confers" until he saw an example.

conspire (verb)

Engage in plotting or enter into a conspiracy, swear together.

- They conspired to overthrow the government.
- The two companies conspired to cause the value of the stock to fall.

consternation (noun)

Fear resulting from the awareness of danger.

- They discussed "consternation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "consternation" means with a simple example.

---

corneal (adjective)

Of or related to the cornea.

- Would you call this situation "corneal"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "corneal" when it is of or related to the cornea.

---

cornet (noun)

A brass musical instrument with a brilliant tone; has a narrow tube and a flared bell and is played by means of valves.

- The article explained what "cornet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cornet" to mean a brass musical instrument with a brilliant tone;....

---

cramming (verb)

Put something somewhere so that the space is completely filled.

- Learners should practice how to use "cramming" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "cramming" when talking about this idea.

---

crawler (noun)

A person who crawls or creeps along the ground.

- Understanding "crawler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "crawler" during the group presentation.

---

cruised (verb)

Look for a sexual partner in a public place.

- She cruised the neighborhood in her new convertible.
- Can you use "cruised" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cryptic coloration (noun)

Coloring that conceals or disguises an animal's shape.

- Understanding "cryptic coloration" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cryptic coloration" to mean coloring that conceals or disguises an animal's shape.

---

cuffed (verb)

Confine or restrain with or as if with manacles or handcuffs.

- The police handcuffed the suspect at the scene of the crime.
- In everyday English, people use "cuffed" when talking about this idea.

---

cutaneous vein (noun)

One of a number of veins in the subcutaneous tissue that empty into deep veins.

- The article explained what "cutaneous vein" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cutaneous vein" to mean one of a number of veins in the subcutaneous tissue....

---

cynic (noun)

A member of a group of ancient Greek philosophers who advocated the doctrine that virtue is the only good and that the essence of virtue is self-control.

- In class, the teacher used "cynic" to mean a member of a group of ancient greek philosophers....
- The article explained what "cynic" means with a simple example.

---

daemon (noun)

A person who is part mortal and part god.

- He looked up "daemon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daemon."

---

dampen (verb)

Make vague or obscure or make (an image) less visible.

- He did not know how to use "dampen" until he saw an example.

- Can you use "dampen" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dart thrower (noun)

A device resembling a sling that is used in various primitive societies to propel a dart or spear.

- Understanding "dart thrower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dart thrower" means with a simple example.

---

decommissioned (verb)

Withdraw from active service.

- The warship was decommissioned in 1998.
- In everyday English, people use "decommissioned" when talking about this idea.

---

defensible (adjective)

Capable of being defended.

- The speaker chose "defensible" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "defensible" when it is capable of being defended.

---

demolishing (noun)

Complete destruction of a building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "demolishing."
- Understanding "demolishing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dentures (noun)

A dental appliance that artificially replaces missing teeth.

- He looked up "dentures" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dentures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

descriptor (noun)

The phonological or orthographic sound or appearance of a word that can be used to describe or identify something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "descriptor."
- The article explained what "descriptor" means with a simple example.

---

diaper dermatitis (noun)

Dermatitis of the thighs and buttocks of infants; supposedly caused by ammonia in the urine in the child's diapers.

- They discussed "diaper dermatitis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diaper dermatitis."

---

diehard (noun)

One who adheres to traditional views.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diehard."
- Understanding "diehard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

differentiates (verb)

Be a distinctive feature, attribute, or trait; sometimes in a very positive sense.

- In everyday English, people use "differentiates" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "differentiates" until he saw an example.

---

dipole (noun)

A pair of equal and opposite electric charges or magnetic poles separated by a small distance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dipole."
- The article explained what "dipole" means with a simple example.

---

dipole moment (noun)

The moment of a dipole.

- They discussed "dipole moment" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dipole moment" means with a simple example.

---

discoloration (noun)

A soiled or discolored appearance.

- He looked up "discoloration" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "discoloration" to mean a soiled or discolored appearance.

disinfectant (noun)

An agent (as heat or radiation or a chemical) that destroys microorganisms that might carry disease.

- He looked up "disinfectant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "disinfectant" during the group presentation.

dissipation (noun)

Breaking up and scattering by dispersion.

- The dissipation of the mist.
- Mindless dissipation of natural resources.

distracts (verb)

Draw someone's attention away from something.

- He did not know how to use "distracts" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "distracts" carefully so everyone would understand.

divider (noun)

A person who separates something into parts or groups.

- They discussed "divider" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "divider" to mean a person who separates something into parts or groups.

downsides (noun)

A negative aspect of something that is generally positive.

- He looked up "downsides" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "downsides" during the group presentation.

drag a bunt (verb)

Hit a ball in such a way so as to make it go a short distance.

- She tried to use "drag a bunt" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "drag a bunt" in a sentence that fits this situation?

dsl (noun)

A generic name for digital lines that are provided by telephone companies to their local subscribers and that carry data at high speeds.

- They discussed "dsl" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dsl" to mean a generic name for digital lines that are provided....

dts (noun)

Acute delirium caused by alcohol poisoning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dts."
- Understanding "dts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

duchess of ferrara (noun)

Italian noblewoman and patron of the arts (1480-1519).

- The article explained what "duchess of ferrara" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "duchess of ferrara."

dusky shark (noun)

Relatively slender blue-grey shark; nearly worldwide in tropical and temperate waters.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dusky shark."
- They discussed "dusky shark" during the group presentation.

dusky-colored (adjective)

Having a dark color.

- A "dusky-colored" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dusky-colored."

---

dynamism (noun)

The activeness of an energetic personality.

- Understanding "dynamism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dynamism."

---

effigy (noun)

A representation of a person (especially in the form of sculpture).

- The coin bears an effigy of Lincoln.
- He looked up "effigy" because he had never seen it before.

---

ehrlich (noun)

German bacteriologist who found a 'magic bullet' to cure syphilis and was a pioneer in the study of immunology (1854-1915).

- The article explained what "ehrlich" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ehrlich" during the group presentation.

---

electrical shunt (noun)

A conductor having low resistance in parallel with another device to divert a fraction of the current.

- He looked up "electrical shunt" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "electrical shunt" to mean a conductor having low resistance in parallel with....

---

emil hermann fischer (noun)

German chemist noted for work on synthetic sugars and the purines (1852-1919).

- He looked up "emil hermann fischer" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "emil hermann fischer" to mean german chemist noted for work on synthetic sugars....

---

encroaching (adjective)

Gradually intrusive without right or permission.

- We moved back from the encroaching tide.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "encroaching."

---

encyclopaedia (noun)

A reference work (often in several volumes) containing articles on various topics (often arranged in alphabetical order) dealing with the entire range of human knowledge or with some particular specialty.

- They discussed "encyclopaedia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "encyclopaedia" because he had never seen it before.

---

entomology (noun)

The branch of zoology that studies insects.

- The article explained what "entomology" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "entomology" to mean the branch of zoology that studies insects.

---

erred (verb)

Wander from a direct course or at random.

- She tried to use "erred" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "erred" in real sentences.

---

everyman (noun)

The ordinary person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "everyman."
- Understanding "everyman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

excepting (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- Can you use "excepting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "excepting" when talking about this idea.

exclaims (verb)

Utter aloud; often with surprise, horror, or joy.

- She tried to use "exclaims" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "exclaims" and when to wait.

exclusives (noun)

A news report that is reported first by one news organization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exclusives."
- They discussed "exclusives" during the group presentation.

excommunicated (verb)

Exclude from a church or a religious community.

- The gay priest was excommunicated when he married his partner.
- Learners should practice how to use "excommunicated" in real sentences.

exterminated (adjective)

Destroyed completely.

- It is useful to describe something as "exterminated" when it is destroyed completely.
- Would you call this situation "exterminated"? Explain why.

extravagance (noun)

The quality of exceeding the appropriate limits of decorum or probability or truth.

- We were surprised by the extravagance of his description.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "extravagance."

factually (adverb)

As a fact or based on fact.

- They learn much, factually, about the problems of retirement and provision for old age, and, psychologically, in the sharing of their thoughts on retirement.
- The narrator describes the scene "factually" in the final chapter.

faker (noun)

A person who makes deceitful pretenses.

- They discussed "faker" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "faker" because he had never seen it before.

falconer (noun)

A person who breeds and trains hawks and who follows the sport of falconry.

- Understanding "falconer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "falconer" during the group presentation.

fallow deer (noun)

Small Eurasian deer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fallow deer."
- He looked up "fallow deer" because he had never seen it before.

figurehead (noun)

A person used as a cover for some questionable activity.

- In class, the teacher used "figurehead" to mean a person used as a cover for some questionable activity.
- The article explained what "figurehead" means with a simple example.

first baron marks of broughton (noun)

English businessman who created a retail chain (1888-1964).

- The article explained what "first baron marks of broughton" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "first baron marks of broughton" to mean english businessman who created a retail chain....

fiscally (adverb)

In financial matters.

- Fiscally irresponsible.
- Using "fiscally" can make your explanation more exact.

---

five-hundredth (adjective)

The ordinal number of five hundred in counting order.

- The speaker chose "five-hundredth" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "five-hundredth."

---

fjord (noun)

A long narrow inlet of the sea between steep cliffs; common in Norway.

- They discussed "fjord" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fjord" to mean a long narrow inlet of the sea between steep....

---

flowered (adjective)

Resembling or made of or suggestive of flowers.

- Students compared "flowered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "flowered" approach may work better in this case.

---

flume (noun)

A narrow gorge with a stream running through it.

- The article explained what "flume" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flume."

---

flyover (noun)

A flight at a low altitude (usually of military aircraft) over spectators on the ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flyover."
- He looked up "flyover" because he had never seen it before.

---

focussing (noun)

The concentration of attention or energy on something.

- They discussed "focussing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "focussing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

foils (noun)

A piece of thin and flexible sheet metal.

- Pretty girls like plain friends as foils.
- The fins of a fish act as hydrofoils.

---

four-hundredth (adjective)

The ordinal number of four hundred in counting order.

- The speaker chose "four-hundredth" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "four-hundredth" approach may work better in this case.

---

freelancers (noun)

A writer or artist who sells services to different employers without a long-term contract with any of them.

- He looked up "freelancers" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "freelancers" to mean a writer or artist who sells services to different....

---

fretting (verb)

Provide (a musical instrument) with frets.

- In everyday English, people use "fretting" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "fretting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

freudian psychology (noun)

The psychological theories of Sigmund Freud.

- The article explained what "freudian psychology" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "freudian psychology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freudian slip (noun)

A slip-up that (according to Sigmund Freud) results from the operation of unconscious wishes or conflicts and can reveal unconscious processes in normal healthy individuals.

- He looked up "freudian slip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freudian slip."

---

friedrich wilhelm nietzsche (noun)

Influential German philosopher remembered for his concept of the superman and for his rejection of Christian values; considered, along with Kierkegaard, to be a founder of existentialism (1844-1900).

- They discussed "friedrich wilhelm nietzsche" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "friedrich wilhelm nietzsche" means with a simple example.

---

frost heaving (noun)

Upthrust of ground or pavement caused by the freezing of moist soil.

- Understanding "frost heaving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "frost heaving" means with a simple example.

---

fuchs (noun)

British physicist who was born in Germany and fled Nazi persecution; in the 1940s he passed secret information to the USSR about the development of the atom bomb in the United States (1911-1988).

- The article explained what "fuchs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fuchs."

---

gales (noun)

A strong wind moving 45-90 knots; force 7 to 10 on Beaufort scale.

- Understanding "gales" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gales" because he had never seen it before.

---

gallbladder (noun)

A muscular sac attached to the liver that stores bile (secreted by the liver) until it is needed for digestion.

- In class, the teacher used "gallbladder" to mean a muscular sac attached to the liver that stores....
- The article explained what "gallbladder" means with a simple example.

---

gan jiang (noun)

A river in southeastern China that flows generally north into the Chang Jiang to the north of Nanchang.

- They discussed "gan jiang" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "gan jiang" to mean a river in southeastern china that flows generally....

---

gatherers (noun)

A person who is employed to collect payments (as for rent or taxes).

- They were a society of hunters and gatherers.
- They discussed "gatherers" during the group presentation.

---

genus nautilus (noun)

Type genus and sole recent representative of the family Nautilidae.

- They discussed "genus nautilus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "genus nautilus" to mean type genus and sole recent representative of the....

---

genus sagittarius (noun)

Type genus of the Sagittariidae.

- Understanding "genus sagittarius" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "genus sagittarius" means with a simple example.

---

geordie (noun)

The nonstandard dialect of natives of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

- The article explained what "geordie" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "geordie" during the group presentation.

gestational (adjective)

Of or relating to gestation.

- The speaker chose "gestational" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "gestational" when it is of or relating to gestation.

gestational age (noun)

The age of an embryo counting from the time of fertilization.

- In class, the teacher used "gestational age" to mean the age of an embryo counting from the time of....
- He looked up "gestational age" because he had never seen it before.

giant sequoia (noun)

Extremely lofty evergreen of southern end of western foothills of Sierra Nevada in California; largest living organism.

- Understanding "giant sequoia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "giant sequoia" during the group presentation.

gigabit (noun)

A unit of information equal to 1000 megabits or 10^9 (1,000,000,000) bits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gigabit."
- The article explained what "gigabit" means with a simple example.

girdle (noun)

A woman's close-fitting foundation garment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "girdle."
- Understanding "girdle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

glut (verb)

Overeat or eat immodestly; make a pig of oneself.

- Glut the country with cheap imports from the Orient.
- Learners should practice how to use "glut" in real sentences.

godless (adjective)

Not revering god.

- The speaker chose "godless" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "godless"? Explain why.

grain sorghum (noun)

Any of several sorghums cultivated primarily for grain.

- Understanding "grain sorghum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "grain sorghum" because he had never seen it before.

grandsons (noun)

A male grandchild.

- The article explained what "grandsons" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grandsons" during the group presentation.

gripe (noun)

Informal terms for objecting.

- I have a gripe about the service here.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gripe."

gruff (adjective)

Deep and harsh sounding as if from shouting or illness or emotion; ; ; ; - Virgil Thomson.

- Gruff voices.
- The dog's gruff barking.

gustav hertz (noun)

German physicist who with James Franck proved the existence of the stationary energy states postulated by Bohr (1887-1975).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gustav hertz."
- He looked up "gustav hertz" because he had never seen it before.

---

haji (noun)

An Arabic term of respect for someone who has made the pilgrimage to Mecca.

- He looked up "haji" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "haji" to mean an arabic term of respect for someone who has made....

---

hark (verb)

Listen; used mostly in the imperative.

- She tried to use "hark" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "hark" until he saw an example.

---

hark back (verb)

Go back to something earlier.

- This harks back to a previous remark of his.
- In everyday English, people use "hark back" when talking about this idea.

---

harlan fisk stone (noun)

United States jurist who was named chief justice of the United States Supreme Court in 1941 by Franklin D. Roosevelt (1872-1946).

- Understanding "harlan fisk stone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harlan fisk stone."

---

harmonics (noun)

The study of musical sound.

- He looked up "harmonics" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "harmonics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

harry houdini (noun)

United States magician (born in Hungary) famous for his ability to escape from chains or handcuffs or straitjackets or padlocked containers (1874-1926).

- Understanding "harry houdini" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "harry houdini" because he had never seen it before.

---

hatchery (noun)

A place where eggs are hatched under artificial conditions (especially fish eggs).

- The park authorities operated a trout hatchery.
- He looked up "hatchery" because he had never seen it before.

---

haystack (noun)

A stack of hay.

- He looked up "haystack" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "haystack" during the group presentation.

---

hearthstone (noun)

A stone that forms a hearth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hearthstone."
- They discussed "hearthstone" during the group presentation.

---

heat dissipation (noun)

Dissipation of heat.

- The article explained what "heat dissipation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "heat dissipation" to mean dissipation of heat.

---

hegel (noun)

German philosopher whose three stage process of dialectical reasoning was adopted by Karl Marx (1770-1831).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hegel."

- The article explained what "hegel" means with a simple example.

---

heidegger (noun)

German philosopher whose views on human existence in a world of objects and on Angst influenced the existential philosophers (1889-1976).

- Understanding "heidegger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heidegger" during the group presentation.

---

helical (adjective)

In the shape of a coil.

- Would you call this situation "helical"? Explain why.
- A "helical" approach may work better in this case.

---

helmut schmidt (noun)

German statesman who served as chancellor of Germany (born in 1918).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "helmut schmidt."
- He looked up "helmut schmidt" because he had never seen it before.

---

hemorrhagic (adjective)

Of or relating to a hemorrhage.

- The speaker chose "hemorrhagic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "hemorrhagic" when it is of or relating to a hemorrhage.

---

herpes simplex virus (noun)

A herpes virus that affects the skin and nervous system.

- He looked up "herpes simplex virus" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herpes simplex virus."

---

hookah (noun)

An oriental tobacco pipe with a long flexible tube connected to a container where the smoke is cooled by passing through water.

- A bipolar world with the hookah and Turkish coffee versus hamburgers and Coca Cola.
- He looked up "hookah" because he had never seen it before.

---

horizontal parallax (noun)

The maximum parallax observed when the celestial body is at the horizon.

- The article explained what "horizontal parallax" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "horizontal parallax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

humpback (noun)

An abnormal backward curve to the vertebral column.

- The article explained what "humpback" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "humpback" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hundredth (noun)

Position 100 in a countable series of things.

- In class, the teacher used "hundredth" to mean position 100 in a countable series of things.
- The article explained what "hundredth" means with a simple example.

---

iberian peninsula (noun)

A peninsula in southwestern Europe.

- The article explained what "iberian peninsula" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iberian peninsula."

---

ice lolly (noun)

Ice cream or water ice on a small wooden stick.

- In England a popsicle is called an ice lolly.
- They discussed "ice lolly" during the group presentation.

---

iglesias (noun)

Spanish singer noted for his ballads and love songs (born in 1943).

- The article explained what "iglesias" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "iglesias" to mean spanish singer noted for his ballads and love songs....

---

igneous (adjective)

Produced by the action of fire or intense heat.

- Rocks formed by igneous agents.
- Igneous rock is rock formed by solidification from a molten state; especially from molten magma.

---

igneous rock (noun)

Rock formed by the solidification of molten magma.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "igneous rock."
- He looked up "igneous rock" because he had never seen it before.

---

imams (noun)

(Islam) the man who leads prayers in a mosque; for Shiites an imam is a recognized authority on Islamic theology and law and a spiritual guide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imams."
- He looked up "imams" because he had never seen it before.

---

imperfection (noun)

The state or an instance of being imperfect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imperfection."
- He looked up "imperfection" because he had never seen it before.

---

implosion (noun)

The initial occluded phase of a stop consonant.

- The implosion of a light bulb.
- Understanding "implosion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

incredulous (adjective)

Not disposed or willing to believe; unbelieving.

- The speaker chose "incredulous" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "incredulous."

---

ingrid bergman (noun)

Swedish film actress (1915-1982).

- The article explained what "ingrid bergman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ingrid bergman" to mean swedish film actress (1915-1982).

---

inherits (verb)

Receive from a predecessor.

- Learners should practice how to use "inherits" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "inherits" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

intensification (noun)

The act of increasing the contrast of (a photographic film).

- They discussed "intensification" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "intensification" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intercepts (verb)

Tap a telephone or telegraph wire to get information.

- In everyday English, people use "intercepts" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "intercepts" in real sentences.

---

interplanetary dust (noun)

Microscopic particles in the interplanetary medium.

- He looked up "interplanetary dust" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "interplanetary dust" to mean microscopic particles in the interplanetary medium.

---

interplanetary medium (noun)

Interplanetary space including forms of energy and gas and dust.

- They discussed "interplanetary medium" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "interplanetary medium" means with a simple example.

---

interwoven (adjective)

Linked or locked closely together as by dovetailing.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "interwoven."
- Students compared "interwoven" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

intrude (verb)

Thrust oneself in as if by force.

- The colors don't intrude on the viewer.
- They intruded on our dinner party.

---

intrude on (verb)

To intrude upon, infringe, encroach on, violate.

- The neighbors intrude on your privacy.
- She tried to use "intrude on" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

irish water spaniel (noun)

Breed of large spaniels developed in Ireland having a heavy coat of liver-colored curls and a topknot of long curls and a nearly hairless tail.

- In class, the teacher used "irish water spaniel" to mean breed of large spaniels developed in ireland having....
- He looked up "irish water spaniel" because he had never seen it before.

---

iron manganese tungsten (noun)

A mineral consisting of iron and manganese tungstate in crystalline form; the principal ore of tungsten; found in quartz veins associated with granitic rocks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iron manganese tungsten."
- He looked up "iron manganese tungsten" because he had never seen it before.

---

james edmund scripps (noun)

United States newspaper publisher and half-brother of Edward Wyllis Scripps (1835-1908).

- The article explained what "james edmund scripps" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "james edmund scripps" to mean united states newspaper publisher and half-brother....

---

jeweler (noun)

Someone in the business of selling jewelry.

- In class, the teacher used "jeweler" to mean someone in the business of selling jewelry.
- Understanding "jeweler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

judith jamison (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer (born in 1944).

- They discussed "judith jamison" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "judith jamison" to mean united states dancer and choreographer (born in 1944).

---

juke joint (noun)

A small roadside establishment in the southeastern United States where you can eat and drink and dance to music provided by a jukebox.

- The article explained what "juke joint" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "juke joint" to mean a small roadside establishment in the southeastern....

---

jumble (noun)

A theory or argument made up of miscellaneous or incongruous ideas.

- The article explained what "jumble" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "jumble" to mean a theory or argument made up of miscellaneous or....

jumble sale (noun)

A sale of donated articles.

- In class, the teacher used "jumble sale" to mean a sale of donated articles.
- He looked up "jumble sale" because he had never seen it before.

king charles spaniel (noun)

A toy English spaniel with a black-and-tan coat; named after Charles II who popularized it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "king charles spaniel."
- He looked up "king charles spaniel" because he had never seen it before.

kingdom of swaziland (noun)

A landlocked monarchy in southeastern Africa; member of the commonwealth that achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1968.

- The article explained what "kingdom of swaziland" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "kingdom of swaziland" during the group presentation.

krebs (noun)

English biochemist (born in Germany) who discovered the Krebs cycle (1900-1981).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "krebs."
- He looked up "krebs" because he had never seen it before.

labors (noun)

A social class comprising those who do manual labor or work for wages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labors."
- He looked up "labors" because he had never seen it before.

latched (verb)

Fasten with a latch.

- He did not know how to use "latched" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "latched" when talking about this idea.

lengthen (verb)

Become long or longer.

- In Spring, the days lengthen.
- Lengthen this skirt, please.

lineages (noun)

The descendants of one individual.

- In class, the teacher used "lineages" to mean the descendants of one individual.
- Understanding "lineages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

liqueur (noun)

Strong highly flavored sweet liquor usually drunk after a meal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liqueur."
- He looked up "liqueur" because he had never seen it before.

liqueur glass (noun)

A small glass for serving a small amount of liqueur (typically after dinner).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liqueur glass."
- He looked up "liqueur glass" because he had never seen it before.

locksmith (noun)

Someone who makes or repairs locks.

- Understanding "locksmith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "locksmith" because he had never seen it before.

locusts (noun)

Hardwood from any of various locust trees.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locusts."
- Understanding "locusts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lolly (noun)

Ice cream or water ice on a small wooden stick.

- In England a popsicle is called an ice lolly.
- He looked up "lolly" because he had never seen it before.

---

londoners (noun)

A native or resident of London.

- Understanding "londoners" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "londoners" to mean a native or resident of london.

---

lowland scot (noun)

A native of the Lowlands of Scotland.

- Understanding "lowland scot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lowland scot."

---

lumpy jaw (noun)

The commonest and least severe form of actinomycosis; affects the face and neck regions.

- The article explained what "lumpy jaw" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lumpy jaw" to mean the commonest and least severe form of....

---

lymphatic tissue (noun)

Tissue making up the lymphatic system.

- He looked up "lymphatic tissue" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lymphatic tissue" to mean tissue making up the lymphatic system.

---

lyrically (adverb)

In a lyrical manner.

- She danced the part of the Black Swan very lyrically.
- Using "lyrically" can make your explanation more exact.

---

magnesium hydroxide (noun)

A white crystalline powder used chiefly in medicines.

- In class, the teacher used "magnesium hydroxide" to mean a white crystalline powder used chiefly in medicines.
- The article explained what "magnesium hydroxide" means with a simple example.

---

maimed (noun)

People who are wounded.

- The article explained what "maimed" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "maimed" to mean people who are wounded.

---

mallard (noun)

Wild dabbling duck from which domestic ducks are descended; widely distributed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mallard."
- He looked up "mallard" because he had never seen it before.

---

mandating (verb)

Assign under a mandate.

- He did not know how to use "mandating" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "mandating" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

manic-depressive psychosis (noun)

A mental disorder characterized by episodes of mania and depression.

- In class, the teacher used "manic-depressive psychosis" to mean a mental disorder characterized by episodes of....

- The article explained what "manic-depressive psychosis" means with a simple example.

---

manta ray (noun)

Extremely large pelagic tropical ray that feeds on plankton and small fishes; usually harmless but its size make it dangerous if harpooned.

- They discussed "manta ray" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "manta ray" to mean extremely large pelagic tropical ray that feeds on....

---

mariachi (noun)

A group of street musicians in Mexico.

- Understanding "mariachi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mariachi" to mean a group of street musicians in mexico.

---

memorizing (verb)

Commit to memory; learn by heart.

- In everyday English, people use "memorizing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "memorizing" in real sentences.

---

metabolite (noun)

Any substance involved in metabolism (either as a product of metabolism or as necessary for metabolism).

- In class, the teacher used "metabolite" to mean any substance involved in metabolism (either as a....
- He looked up "metabolite" because he had never seen it before.

---

mezzanine (noun)

Intermediate floor just above the ground floor.

- They discussed "mezzanine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mezzanine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mezzanine floor (noun)

Intermediate floor just above the ground floor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mezzanine floor."
- He looked up "mezzanine floor" because he had never seen it before.

---

migratory grasshopper (noun)

Serious pest of grain-growing and range areas of central and western United States.

- In class, the teacher used "migratory grasshopper" to mean serious pest of grain-growing and range areas of....
- Understanding "migratory grasshopper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mired (adjective)

Entangled or hindered as if e.g. in mire.

- Brilliant leadership mired in details and confusion.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mired."

---

missoula (noun)

A university town in western Montana.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "missoula."
- The article explained what "missoula" means with a simple example.

---

mistletoe (noun)

American plants closely resembling Old World mistletoe.

- He looked up "mistletoe" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mistletoe" to mean american plants closely resembling old world mistletoe.

---

mistletoe family (noun)

In some classifications considered a subfamily of Loranthaceae.

- In class, the teacher used "mistletoe family" to mean in some classifications considered a subfamily of....
- The article explained what "mistletoe family" means with a simple example.

---

modality (noun)

A method of therapy that involves physical or electrical therapeutic treatment.

- The article explained what "modality" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modality."

---

modifiers (noun)

A person who changes something.

- Understanding "modifiers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "modifiers" during the group presentation.

---

monetize (verb)

Give legal value to or establish as the legal tender of a country.

- They monetized the lira.
- He did not know how to use "monetize" until he saw an example.

---

monolith (noun)

A single great stone (often in the form of a column or obelisk).

- He looked up "monolith" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "monolith" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mooring anchor (noun)

An anchor used to hold a mooring buoy or a channel marker in place.

- Understanding "mooring anchor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mooring anchor" to mean an anchor used to hold a mooring buoy or a channel....

---

moray eel (noun)

Family of brightly colored voracious eels of warm coastal waters; generally nonaggressive to humans but larger species are dangerous if provoked.

- In class, the teacher used "moray eel" to mean family of brightly colored voracious eels of warm....
- The article explained what "moray eel" means with a simple example.

---

mouse-eared bat (noun)

A carnivorous bat with ears like a mouse.

- Understanding "mouse-eared bat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mouse-eared bat" because he had never seen it before.

---

mumble-the-peg (noun)

A game in which players throw or flip a jackknife in various ways so that the knife sticks in the ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mumble-the-peg."
- They discussed "mumble-the-peg" during the group presentation.

---

mumps (noun)

An acute contagious viral disease characterized by fever and by swelling of the parotid glands.

- He looked up "mumps" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mumps" to mean an acute contagious viral disease characterized by....

---

muscat and oman (noun)

A strategically located monarchy on the southern and eastern coasts of the Arabian Peninsula; the economy is dominated by oil.

- They discussed "muscat and oman" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "muscat and oman" because he had never seen it before.

---

mya (noun)

Type genus of the family Myacidae.

- The article explained what "mya" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mya."

---

mystics (noun)

Someone who believes in the existence of realities beyond human comprehension.

- In class, the teacher used "mystics" to mean someone who believes in the existence of realities....
- Understanding "mystics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

naturalists (noun)

A biologist knowledgeable about natural history (especially botany and zoology).

- He looked up "naturalists" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naturalists."

---

new england aster (noun)

Common perennial of eastern North America having showy purplish flowers; a parent of the Michaelmas daisy.

- He looked up "new england aster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "new england aster" during the group presentation.

---

new york aster (noun)

North American perennial herb having small autumn-blooming purple or pink or white flowers; widely naturalized in Europe.

- He looked up "new york aster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new york aster."

---

nils (noun)

A quantity of no importance.

- In class, the teacher used "nils" to mean a quantity of no importance.
- They discussed "nils" during the group presentation.

---

nord-pas-de-calais (noun)

A region in northeastern France.

- In class, the teacher used "nord-pas-de-calais" to mean a region in northeastern france.
- The article explained what "nord-pas-de-calais" means with a simple example.

---

nudist (noun)

A person who practices nudity for reasons of health or religion.

- The article explained what "nudist" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "nudist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nymphs (noun)

A larva of an insect with incomplete metamorphosis (as the dragonfly or mayfly).

- The ancient Greeks believed that nymphs inhabited forests and bodies of water.
- They discussed "nymphs" during the group presentation.

---

oblique vein of the left atrium (noun)

A tributary of the coronary sinus; on the posterior wall of the left atrium.

- Understanding "oblique vein of the left atrium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oblique vein of the left atrium."

---

ochoa (noun)

United States biochemist (born in Spain) who studied the biological synthesis of nucleic acids (1905-1993).

- In class, the teacher used "ochoa" to mean united states biochemist (born in spain) who....
- He looked up "ochoa" because he had never seen it before.

---

oder (noun)

A European river; flows into the Baltic Sea.

- In class, the teacher used "oder" to mean a european river; flows into the baltic sea.
- The article explained what "oder" means with a simple example.

---

oder river (noun)

A European river; flows into the Baltic Sea.

- Understanding "oder river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "oder river" to mean a european river; flows into the baltic sea.

old world mistletoe (noun)

Old World parasitic shrub having branching greenish stems with leathery leaves and waxy white glutinous berries; the traditional mistletoe of Christmas.

- The article explained what "old world mistletoe" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old world mistletoe."

one-hundred-millionth (noun)

One part in a hundred million equal parts.

- He looked up "one-hundred-millionth" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "one-hundred-millionth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

one-hundredth (noun)

One part in a hundred equal parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "one-hundredth."
- He looked up "one-hundredth" because he had never seen it before.

optical opacity (noun)

Opacity to light.

- They discussed "optical opacity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "optical opacity" because he had never seen it before.

organic light-emitting diode (noun)

A self-luminous diode (it glows when an electrical field is applied to the electrodes) that does not require backlighting or diffusers.

- In class, the teacher used "organic light-emitting diode" to mean a self-luminous diode (it glows when an electrical....
- The article explained what "organic light-emitting diode" means with a simple example.

orgies (noun)

A wild gathering involving excessive drinking and promiscuity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orgies."
- They discussed "orgies" during the group presentation.

outlast (verb)

Live longer than.

- Learners should practice how to use "outlast" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "outlast" carefully so everyone would understand.

pajama (noun)

A pair of loose trousers tied by a drawstring around the waist; worn by men and women in some Asian countries.

- In class, the teacher used "pajama" to mean a pair of loose trousers tied by a drawstring....
- They discussed "pajama" during the group presentation.

panics (noun)

An overwhelming feeling of fear and anxiety.

- Understanding "panics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "panics" means with a simple example.

parametric quantity (noun)

A constant in the equation of a curve that can be varied to yield a family of similar curves.

- They discussed "parametric quantity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "parametric quantity" because he had never seen it before.

paratroopers (noun)

A soldier in the paratroops.

- In class, the teacher used "paratroopers" to mean a soldier in the paratroops.
- The article explained what "paratroopers" means with a simple example.

partitioning (noun)

An analysis into mutually exclusive categories.

- Understanding "partitioning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "partitioning" because he had never seen it before.

---

pathogenesis (noun)

The origination and development of a disease.

- In class, the teacher used "pathogenesis" to mean the origination and development of a disease.
- Understanding "pathogenesis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paul ehrlich (noun)

German bacteriologist who found a 'magic bullet' to cure syphilis and was a pioneer in the study of immunology (1854-1915).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paul ehrlich."
- Understanding "paul ehrlich" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pavements (noun)

The paved surface of a thoroughfare.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pavements."
- They discussed "pavements" during the group presentation.

---

pawnee (noun)

The Caddoan language spoken by the Pawnee.

- He looked up "pawnee" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pawnee."

---

payloads (noun)

The front part of a guided missile or rocket or torpedo that carries the nuclear or explosive charge or the chemical or biological agents.

- The article explained what "payloads" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "payloads" to mean the front part of a guided missile or rocket or....

---

phoning (verb)

Get or try to get into communication (with someone) by telephone.

- He did not know how to use "phoning" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "phoning" when talking about this idea.

---

pituitary gland (noun)

The master gland of the endocrine system; located at the base of the brain.

- They discussed "pituitary gland" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pituitary gland" to mean the master gland of the endocrine system; located....

---

pliny the younger (noun)

Roman writer and nephew of Pliny the Elder; author of books of letters that commented on affairs of the day (62-113).

- Understanding "pliny the younger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pliny the younger" means with a simple example.

---

pogo stick (noun)

Plaything consisting of a pole with foot rests and a strong spring; propelled by jumping.

- The article explained what "pogo stick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pogo stick" to mean plaything consisting of a pole with foot rests and....

---

potash (noun)

A potassium compound often used in agriculture and industry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potash."
- He looked up "potash" because he had never seen it before.

---

potential divider (noun)

Resistors connected in series across a voltage source; used to obtain a desired fraction of the voltage.

- They discussed "potential divider" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "potential divider" because he had never seen it before.

---

prairie rattlesnake (noun)

Widely distributed between the Mississippi and the Rockies.

- In class, the teacher used "prairie rattlesnake" to mean widely distributed between the mississippi and the....
- He looked up "prairie rattlesnake" because he had never seen it before.

---

predisposed (adjective)

Made susceptible.

- Because of conditions in the mine, miners are predisposed to lung disease.
- Students compared "predisposed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

presentable (adjective)

Fit to be seen.

- Presentable clothes.
- The speaker chose "presentable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

prickly-seeded spinach (noun)

Southwestern Asian plant widely cultivated for its succulent edible dark green leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prickly-seeded spinach."
- He looked up "prickly-seeded spinach" because he had never seen it before.

---

processions (noun)

The group action of a collection of people or animals or vehicles moving ahead in more or less regular formation.

- Processions were forbidden.
- Understanding "processions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pronouncements (noun)

An authoritative declaration.

- In class, the teacher used "pronouncements" to mean an authoritative declaration.
- The article explained what "pronouncements" means with a simple example.

---

protectionism (noun)

The policy of imposing duties or quotas on imports in order to protect home industries from overseas competition.

- Understanding "protectionism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "protectionism" because he had never seen it before.

---

provokes (verb)

Call forth (emotions, feelings, and responses).

- Can you use "provokes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "provokes" until he saw an example.

---

psychoactive substance (noun)

A drug that can produce mood changes and distorted perceptions.

- In class, the teacher used "psychoactive substance" to mean a drug that can produce mood changes and distorted....
- They discussed "psychoactive substance" during the group presentation.

---

purports (noun)

The pervading meaning or tenor.

- They discussed "purports" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "purports" because he had never seen it before.

---

radiocarbon (noun)

A radioactive isotope of carbon.

- He looked up "radiocarbon" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "radiocarbon" during the group presentation.

---

raunchy (adjective)

Suggestive of or tending to moral looseness.

- A raunchy novel.
- It is useful to describe something as "raunchy" when it is suggestive of or tending to moral looseness.

---

ravi shankar (noun)

Indian sitar player who popularized classical Indian music in the West (born in 1920).

- He looked up "ravi shankar" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ravi shankar."

---

rea silvia (noun)

(Roman mythology) a vestal virgin who became the mother by Mars of the twins Romulus and Remus.

- Understanding "rea silvia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rea silvia" during the group presentation.

---

rebuked (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- Learners should practice how to use "rebuked" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "rebuked" until he saw an example.

---

reconstructions (noun)

The activity of constructing something again.

- The article explained what "reconstructions" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "reconstructions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

red angel's trumpet (noun)

Arborescent South American shrub having very large orange-red flowers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "red angel's trumpet."
- The article explained what "red angel's trumpet" means with a simple example.

---

red-flowered (adjective)

Having red flowers.

- Students compared "red-flowered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "red-flowered" approach may work better in this case.

---

reeks (verb)

Have an element suggestive (of something).

- The building reeks of smoke.
- The coach explained when to use "reeks" and when to wait.

---

refuges (noun)

Something or someone turned to for assistance or security.

- The article explained what "refuges" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "refuges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

relaying (verb)

Control or operate by relay.

- Can you use "relaying" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "relaying" until he saw an example.

---

remarking (verb)

Make or write a comment on.

- Learners should practice how to use "remarking" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "remarking" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rene descartes (noun)

French philosopher and mathematician; developed dualistic theory of mind and matter; introduced the use of coordinates to locate a point in two or three dimensions (1596-1650).

- In class, the teacher used “rene descartes” to mean french philosopher and mathematician; developed....
- The article explained what “rene descartes” means with a simple example.

---

resetting (verb)

Adjust again after an initial failure.

- In everyday English, people use “resetting” when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use “resetting” in real sentences.

---

reshuffle (noun)

A redistribution of something.

- There was a reshuffle of cabinet officers.
- The gambler demanded a reshuffle.

---

responder (noun)

Someone who responds.

- In class, the teacher used “responder” to mean someone who responds.
- They discussed “responder” during the group presentation.

---

retiree (noun)

Someone who has retired from active working.

- Understanding “retiree” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “retiree” during the group presentation.

---

reuben lucius goldberg (noun)

United States cartoonist who drew intricate diagrams of very complicated and impractical contraptions that accomplished little or nothing (1883-1970).

- Understanding “reuben lucius goldberg” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “reuben lucius goldberg” because he had never seen it before.

---

rho (noun)

The 17th letter of the Greek alphabet.

- They discussed “rho” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rho.”

---

rib joint pliers (noun)

A type of pliers.

- In class, the teacher used “rib joint pliers” to mean a type of pliers.
- The article explained what “rib joint pliers” means with a simple example.

---

risk arbitrage (noun)

Arbitrage involving risk; as in the simultaneous purchase of stock in a target company and sale of stock in its potential acquirer; if the takeover fails the arbitrageur may lose a great deal of money.

- Understanding “risk arbitrage” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “risk arbitrage” means with a simple example.

---

rommel (noun)

German field marshal noted for brilliant generalship in North Africa during World War II (1891-1944).

- He looked up “rommel” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “rommel” to mean german field marshal noted for brilliant....

---

rostov on don (noun)

A seaport on the Don River near the Sea of Azov in the European part of Russia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “rostov on don.”
- Understanding “rostov on don” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roughness (noun)

An unpolished unrefined quality.

- Men associate the roughness of nonstandard working-class speech with masculinity.
- The roughness of her voice was a signal to keep quiet.

rudolf hess (noun)

Nazi leader who in 1941 flew a solo flight to Scotland in an apparent attempt to negotiate a peace treaty with Great Britain but was imprisoned for life (1894-1987).

- The article explained what "rudolf hess" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rudolf hess" to mean nazi leader who in 1941 flew a solo flight to....

rudolf steiner (noun)

Austrian philosopher who founded anthroposophy (1861-1925).

- In class, the teacher used "rudolf steiner" to mean austrian philosopher who founded anthroposophy....
- The article explained what "rudolf steiner" means with a simple example.

sacrament of the eucharist (noun)

A Christian sacrament commemorating the Last Supper by consecrating bread and wine.

- In class, the teacher used "sacrament of the eucharist" to mean a christian sacrament commemorating the last supper....
- The article explained what "sacrament of the eucharist" means with a simple example.

sacred ibis (noun)

African ibis venerated by ancient Egyptians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sacred ibis."
- Understanding "sacred ibis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

salter (noun)

Someone who uses salt to preserve meat or fish or other foods.

- The article explained what "salter" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "salter" to mean someone who uses salt to preserve meat or fish or....

salve (noun)

Anything that remedies or heals or soothes.

- He needed a salve for his conscience.
- They discussed "salve" during the group presentation.

sanatorium (noun)

A hospital for recuperation or for the treatment of chronic diseases.

- They discussed "sanatorium" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sanatorium" because he had never seen it before.

satchel paige (noun)

United States baseball player; a black pitcher noted for his longevity (1906-1982).

- In class, the teacher used "satchel paige" to mean united states baseball player; a black pitcher....
- Understanding "satchel paige" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sauvignon grape (noun)

Small blue-black grape of Medoc region of France highly prized in winemaking.

- The article explained what "sauvignon grape" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sauvignon grape" during the group presentation.

savoury (noun)

An aromatic or spicy dish served at the end of dinner or as an hors d'oeuvre.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "savoury."
- He looked up "savoury" because he had never seen it before.

scaly (adjective)

Rough to the touch; covered with scales or scurf.

- It is useful to describe something as "scaly" when it is rough to the touch; covered with scales or scurf.
- Would you call this situation "scaly"? Explain why.

scold (verb)

Show one's unhappiness or critical attitude.

- He scolded about anything that he thought was wrong.
- The mother scolded the child for entering a stranger's car.

---

sea aster (noun)

A common European aster that grows in salt marshes.

- In class, the teacher used "sea aster" to mean a common european aster that grows in salt marshes.
- They discussed "sea aster" during the group presentation.

---

seducing (verb)

Lure or entice away from duty, principles, or proper conduct.

- The coach explained when to use "seducing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "seducing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sense modality (noun)

A particular sense.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sense modality."
- Understanding "sense modality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sentimentality (noun)

Extravagant or affected feeling or emotion.

- In class, the teacher used "sentimentality" to mean extravagant or affected feeling or emotion.
- Understanding "sentimentality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shawnee salad (noun)

Showy perennial herb with white flowers; leaves sometimes used as edible greens in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "shawnee salad" to mean showy perennial herb with white flowers; leaves....
- The article explained what "shawnee salad" means with a simple example.

---

shined (verb)

Be bright by reflecting or casting light.

- He did not know how to use "shined" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "shined" when talking about this idea.

---

short-toed eagle (noun)

Any of numerous large Old World hawks intermediate in some respects between typical hawks and typical eagles.

- The article explained what "short-toed eagle" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "short-toed eagle" during the group presentation.

---

shouldered arch (noun)

An arch consisting of a horizontal lintel supported at each end by corbels that project into the aperture.

- They discussed "shouldered arch" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shouldered arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shunt circuit (noun)

A closed circuit in which the current divides into two or more paths before recombining to complete the circuit.

- They discussed "shunt circuit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shunt circuit."

---

siberian millet (noun)

Millet having orange to reddish grains in long bristly spikes.

- In class, the teacher used "siberian millet" to mean millet having orange to reddish grains in long....
- The article explained what "siberian millet" means with a simple example.

---

siege of vicksburg (noun)

A decisive battle in the American Civil War (1863); after being besieged for nearly seven weeks the Confederates surrendered.

- Understanding "siege of vicksburg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "siege of vicksburg" means with a simple example.

sir frederick william herschel (noun)

English astronomer (born in Germany) who discovered infrared light and who catalogued the stars and discovered the planet Uranus (1738-1822).

- In class, the teacher used "sir frederick william herschel" to mean english astronomer (born in germany) who discovered....
- Understanding "sir frederick william herschel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sir john frederick william herschel (noun)

English astronomer (son of William Herschel) who extended the catalogue of stars to the southern hemisphere and did pioneering work in photography (1792-1871).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir john frederick william herschel."
- He looked up "sir john frederick william herschel" because he had never seen it before.

slender wild oat (noun)

Oat of southern Europe and southwestern Asia.

- The article explained what "slender wild oat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "slender wild oat" to mean oat of southern europe and southwestern asia.

small white aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- The article explained what "small white aster" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "small white aster" to mean a variety of aster.

smearing (verb)

Cover (a surface) by smearing (a substance) over it.

- She tried to use "smearing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "smearing" and when to wait.

smudge (noun)

A blemish made by dirt.

- He had a smudge on his cheek.
- The article explained what "smudge" means with a simple example.

southern aster (noun)

A variety of aster.

- They discussed "southern aster" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "southern aster" to mean a variety of aster.

speckled (adjective)

Having a pattern of dots.

- The speaker chose "speckled" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "speckled"? Explain why.

stagger bush (noun)

Deciduous shrub of coastal plain of the eastern United States having nodding pinkish-white flowers; poisonous to stock.

- The article explained what "stagger bush" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stagger bush" during the group presentation.

subsidised (adjective)

Having partial financial support from public funds.

- The speaker chose "subsidised" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "subsidised" when it is having partial financial support from public funds.

summer savoury (noun)

Herb with delicately flavored leaves with many uses.

- Understanding "summer savoury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "summer savoury" to mean herb with delicately flavored leaves with many uses.

sun myung moon (noun)

United States religious leader (born in Korea) who founded the Unification Church in 1954; was found guilty of conspiracy to evade taxes (born in 1920).

- The article explained what "sun myung moon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sun myung moon."

---

supplanted (verb)

Take the place or move into the position of.

- The computer has supplanted the slide rule.
- She tried to use "supplanted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

surety bond (noun)

A bond given to protect the recipient against loss in case the terms of a contract are not filled; a surety company assumes liability for nonperformance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surety bond."
- He looked up "surety bond" because he had never seen it before.

---

surfboard (verb)

Ride the waves of the sea with a surfboard.

- She tried to use "surfboard" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "surfboard" when talking about this idea.

---

swatch (noun)

A sample piece of cloth.

- Understanding "swatch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "swatch" to mean a sample piece of cloth.

---

sweatshirts (noun)

Cotton knit pullover with long sleeves worn during athletic activity.

- They discussed "sweatshirts" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sweatshirts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

switchboard (noun)

Telephone central where circuits are completed with patchcords.

- Understanding "switchboard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "switchboard" means with a simple example.

---

syntactic category (noun)

(grammar) a category of words having the same grammatical properties.

- In class, the teacher used "syntactic category" to mean (grammar) a category of words having the same....
- He looked up "syntactic category" because he had never seen it before.

---

synthesizer (noun)

An intellectual who synthesizes or uses synthetic methods.

- In class, the teacher used "synthesizer" to mean an intellectual who synthesizes or uses synthetic....
- The article explained what "synthesizer" means with a simple example.

---

syrian bean caper (noun)

Perennial shrub of the eastern Mediterranean region and southwestern Asia having flowers whose buds are used as capers.

- They discussed "syrian bean caper" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "syrian bean caper" means with a simple example.

---

taboos (noun)

An inhibition or ban resulting from social custom or emotional aversion.

- In class, the teacher used "taboos" to mean an inhibition or ban resulting from social custom....
- They discussed "taboos" during the group presentation.

---

tbilisi (noun)

The capital and largest city of Georgia on the Kura river.

- Understanding "tbilisi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tbilisi" during the group presentation.

---

teary-eyed (adjective)

With eyes full of tears.

- The speaker chose "teary-eyed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "teary-eyed."

---

teflon (noun)

A material used to coat cooking utensils and in industrial applications where sticking is to be avoided.

- In class, the teacher used "teflon" to mean a material used to coat cooking utensils and in....
- They discussed "teflon" during the group presentation.

---

telecoms (noun)

(often plural) systems used in transmitting messages over a distance electronically.

- Understanding "telecoms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "telecoms" to mean (often plural) systems used in transmitting....

---

tempers (noun)

A disposition to exhibit uncontrolled anger.

- In class, the teacher used "tempers" to mean a disposition to exhibit uncontrolled anger.
- They discussed "tempers" during the group presentation.

---

terrestrial dynamical time (noun)

(astronomy) a measure of time defined by Earth's orbital motion; terrestrial time is mean solar time corrected for the irregularities of the Earth's motions.

- Understanding "terrestrial dynamical time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "terrestrial dynamical time" during the group presentation.

---

terrorized (verb)

Coerce by violence or with threats.

- Learners should practice how to use "terrorized" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "terrorized" until he saw an example.

---

terrorizing (verb)

Coerce by violence or with threats.

- In everyday English, people use "terrorizing" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "terrorizing" until he saw an example.

---

tet (noun)

The New Year in Vietnam; observed for three days after the first full moon after January 20th.

- The article explained what "tet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thebes (noun)

An ancient Greek city in Boeotia destroyed by Alexander the Great in 336 BC.

- They discussed "thebes" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "thebes" means with a simple example.

---

theodore francis powys (noun)

British writer of allegorical novels; one of three literary brothers (1875-1953).

- He looked up "theodore francis powys" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "theodore francis powys" to mean british writer of allegorical novels; one of three....

---

thomas lanier williams (noun)

United States playwright (1911-1983).

- The article explained what "thomas lanier williams" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thomas lanier williams."

three-hundredth (adjective)

The ordinal number of three hundred in counting order.

- A "three-hundredth" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "three-hundredth"? Explain why.

tibetans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Tibet.

- In class, the teacher used "tibetans" to mean a native or inhabitant of tibet.
- They discussed "tibetans" during the group presentation.

timothy leary (noun)

United States psychologist who experimented with psychoactive drugs (including LSD) and became a well-known advocate of their use (1920-1996).

- They discussed "timothy leary" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "timothy leary" means with a simple example.

toenails (noun)

The nail at the end of a toe.

- They discussed "toenails" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "toenails" to mean the nail at the end of a toe.

toothpick (noun)

Pick consisting of a small strip of wood or plastic; used to pick food from between the teeth.

- The article explained what "toothpick" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toothpick" to mean pick consisting of a small strip of wood or....

touch modality (noun)

The faculty by which external objects or forces are perceived through contact with the body (especially the hands).

- Only sight and touch enable us to locate objects in the space around us.
- In class, the teacher used "touch modality" to mean the faculty by which external objects or forces are....

touting (verb)

Advertize in strongly positive terms.

- The coach explained when to use "touting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "touting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

toy spaniel (noun)

A very small spaniel.

- In class, the teacher used "toy spaniel" to mean a very small spaniel.
- They discussed "toy spaniel" during the group presentation.

tradesmen (noun)

A merchant who owns or manages a shop.

- The article explained what "tradesmen" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tradesmen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

transporters (noun)

A long truck for carrying motor vehicles.

- The article explained what "transporters" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "transporters" during the group presentation.

transvaal daisy (noun)

Widely cultivated South African perennial having flower heads with orange to flame-colored rays.

- In class, the teacher used "transvaal daisy" to mean widely cultivated south african perennial having....
- He looked up "transvaal daisy" because he had never seen it before.

trumped (verb)

Proclaim or announce with or as if with a fanfare.

- Can you use "trumped" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "trumped" until he saw an example.

---

trumped-up (adjective)

Concocted with intent to deceive.

- Trumped-up charges.
- A "trumped-up" approach may work better in this case.

---

twinkling (noun)

A very short time (as the time it takes the eye to blink or the heart to beat).

- They discussed "twinkling" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "twinkling" to mean a very short time (as the time it takes the eye to....

---

two-hundredth (adjective)

The ordinal number of two hundred in counting order.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "two-hundredth."
- The speaker chose "two-hundredth" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

undertones (noun)

A quiet or hushed tone of voice.

- Spoke in undertones.
- The article explained what "undertones" means with a simple example.

---

unfairness (noun)

Partiality that is not fair or equitable.

- In class, the teacher used "unfairness" to mean partiality that is not fair or equitable.
- The article explained what "unfairness" means with a simple example.

---

unwieldy (adjective)

Difficult to use or handle or manage because of size or weight or shape.

- We set about towing the unwieldy structure into the shelter.
- Almost dropped the unwieldy parcel.

---

urinate (verb)

Pass after the manner of urine.

- The sick men urinated blood.
- The coach explained when to use "urinate" and when to wait.

---

urology (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diagnosis and treatment of disorders of the urinary tract or urogenital system.

- They discussed "urology" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "urology" means with a simple example.

---

vertebral (adjective)

Of or relating to or constituting vertebrae.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "vertebral."
- The speaker chose "vertebral" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

vexed (adjective)

Troubled persistently especially with petty annoyances.

- The vexed parents of an unruly teenager.
- The vexed issue of priorities.

---

vibrates (verb)

Feel sudden intense sensation or emotion.

- Learners should practice how to use "vibrates" in real sentences.

- In everyday English, people use "vibrates" when talking about this idea.

---

viennese (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Vienna or its inhabitants.

- The speaker chose "viennese" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "viennese" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of vienna or....

---

vignettes (noun)

A photograph whose edges shade off gradually.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vignettes."
- He looked up "vignettes" because he had never seen it before.

---

vinson (noun)

United States jurist who served as chief justice of the Supreme Court (1890-1953).

- The article explained what "vinson" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vinson" to mean united states jurist who served as chief justice of....

---

vocalists (noun)

A person who sings.

- In class, the teacher used "vocalists" to mean a person who sings.
- The article explained what "vocalists" means with a simple example.

---

voids (verb)

Take away the legal force of or render ineffective.

- In everyday English, people use "voids" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "voids" in real sentences.

---

waitresses (verb)

Serve as a waiter or waitress in a restaurant.

- Learners should practice how to use "waitresses" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "waitresses" until he saw an example.

---

warping (noun)

A moral or mental distortion.

- He looked up "warping" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "warping."

---

welsh corgi (noun)

Either of two Welsh breeds of long-bodied short-legged dogs with erect ears and a fox-like head.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welsh corgi."
- Understanding "welsh corgi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

whacked (adjective)

(British informal) exhausted or worn out.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "whacked."
- The speaker chose "whacked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

whisperer (noun)

One who speaks in a whisper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whisperer."
- He looked up "whisperer" because he had never seen it before.

---

white-flowered (adjective)

(of plants) having white flowers.

- It is useful to describe something as "white-flowered" when it is (of plants) having white flowers.
- The speaker chose "white-flowered" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

whitewash (noun)

A defeat in which the losing person or team fails to score.

- Understanding "whitewash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "whitewash" to mean a defeat in which the losing person or team fails....

---

whitewashed (adjective)

Coated with whitewash.

- Miles of whitewashed fences.
- A "whitewashed" approach may work better in this case.

---

widths (noun)

The extent of something from side to side.

- They discussed "widths" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "widths."

---

william maxwell aitken (noun)

British newspaper publisher and politician (born in Canada); confidant of Winston Churchill (1879-1964).

- They discussed "william maxwell aitken" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "william maxwell aitken" to mean british newspaper publisher and politician (born in....

---

wingspan (noun)

Linear distance between the extremities of an airfoil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wingspan."
- Understanding "wingspan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

winter savoury (noun)

Resinous leaves used in stews and stuffings and meat loaf.

- Understanding "winter savoury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "winter savoury" to mean resinous leaves used in stews and stuffings and....

---

wiper (noun)

A mechanical device that cleans the windshield.

- They discussed "wiper" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wiper" because he had never seen it before.

---

wipers (noun)

A mechanical device that cleans the windshield.

- In class, the teacher used "wipers" to mean a mechanical device that cleans the windshield.
- The article explained what "wipers" means with a simple example.

---

wood aster (noun)

Any of several asters of eastern North America usually growing in woods.

- Understanding "wood aster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood aster."

---

wristband (noun)

A band of cloth or leather or metal links attached to a wristwatch and wrapped around the wrist.

- Understanding "wristband" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wristband" because he had never seen it before.

---

abetting (verb)

Assist or encourage, usually in some wrongdoing.

- Learners should practice how to use "abetting" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "abetting" when talking about this idea.

---

accolade (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- Understanding "accolade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "accolade" during the group presentation.

---

accommodates (verb)

Provide with something desired or needed.

- The coach explained when to use "accommodates" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "accommodates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

addicting (verb)

To cause (someone or oneself) to become dependent (on something, especially a narcotic drug).

- He did not know how to use "addicting" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "addicting" when talking about this idea.

---

adoptions (noun)

The act of accepting with approval; favorable reception.

- They discussed "adoptions" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "adoptions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

adoring (adjective)

Extravagantly or foolishly loving and indulgent.

- Adoring grandparents.
- Would you call this situation "adoring"? Explain why.

---

african clawed frog (noun)

A tongueless frog native to Africa; established in the United States as result of release of laboratory and aquarium animals.

- In class, the teacher used "african clawed frog" to mean a tongueless frog native to africa; established in....
- He looked up "african clawed frog" because he had never seen it before.

---

aimlessly (adverb)

Without aim; in an aimless manner.

- He wandered around aimlessly.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "aimlessly" naturally.

---

alfalfa (noun)

Leguminous plant grown for hay or forage.

- The article explained what "alfalfa" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alfalfa" to mean leguminous plant grown for hay or forage.

---

alleles (noun)

(genetics) either of a pair (or series) of alternative forms of a gene that can occupy the same locus on a particular chromosome and that control the same character.

- Some alleles are dominant over others.
- In class, the teacher used "alleles" to mean (genetics) either of a pair (or series) of....

---

allen ginsberg (noun)

United States poet of the beat generation (1926-1997).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "allen ginsberg."
- He looked up "allen ginsberg" because he had never seen it before.

---

alluvial cone (noun)

A fan-shaped deposit where a fast flowing stream flattens out.

- The article explained what "alluvial cone" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alluvial cone" to mean a fan-shaped deposit where a fast flowing stream....

---

american water spaniel (noun)

Breed of medium-sized spaniels originating in America having chocolate or liver-colored curly coat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american water spaniel."
- Understanding "american water spaniel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

amphetamines (noun)

A central nervous system stimulant that increases energy and decreases appetite; used to treat narcolepsy and some forms of depression.

- He looked up "amphetamines" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "amphetamines" during the group presentation.

appellant (adjective)

Of or relating to or taking account of appeals (usually legal appeals).

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "appellant."
- Would you call this situation "appellant"? Explain why.

archetypes (noun)

Something that serves as a model or a basis for making copies.

- In class, the teacher used "archetypes" to mean something that serves as a model or a basis for....
- Understanding "archetypes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

asiatic cockroach (noun)

Dark brown cockroach originally from orient now nearly cosmopolitan in distribution.

- The article explained what "asiatic cockroach" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asiatic cockroach."

atelier (noun)

A studio especially for an artist or designer.

- He looked up "atelier" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "atelier" to mean a studio especially for an artist or designer.

attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (noun)

A condition (mostly in boys) characterized by behavioral and learning disorders.

- The article explained what "attention deficit hyperactivity disorder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "attention deficit hyperactivity disorder" during the group presentation.

australasia (noun)

Australia, New Zealand, and neighboring islands in the South Pacific.

- Understanding "australasia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "australasia" means with a simple example.

axed (verb)

Chop or split with an ax.

- The NSF axed the research program and stopped funding it.
- The coach explained when to use "axed" and when to wait.

baguette (noun)

Narrow French stick loaf.

- The article explained what "baguette" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "baguette" to mean narrow french stick loaf.

barbers (noun)

A hairdresser who cuts hair and shaves beards as a trade.

- They discussed "barbers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "barbers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

baron karl wilhelm von humboldt (noun)

German philologist noted for his studies of the relation between language and culture (1767-1835).

- He looked up "baron karl wilhelm von humboldt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baron karl wilhelm von humboldt."

bear's foot (noun)

Digitate-leaved hellebore with an offensive odor and irritant qualities when taken internally.

- He looked up "bear's foot" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bear's foot" during the group presentation.

---

big-eared bat (noun)

Large carnivorous Old World bat with very large ears.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big-eared bat."
- The article explained what "big-eared bat" means with a simple example.

---

billiard marker (noun)

A device for keeping the score in a game of billiards.

- The article explained what "billiard marker" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "billiard marker" to mean a device for keeping the score in a game of billiards.

---

biodegradable pollution (noun)

Pollution that is rendered harmless by natural processes and so causes no permanent harm.

- They discussed "biodegradable pollution" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "biodegradable pollution" to mean pollution that is rendered harmless by natural....

---

bog rhubarb (noun)

Small Eurasian herb having broad leaves and lilac-pink rayless flowers; found in moist areas.

- In class, the teacher used "bog rhubarb" to mean small eurasian herb having broad leaves and....
- The article explained what "bog rhubarb" means with a simple example.

---

boil smut (noun)

A common smut attacking Indian corn causing greyish white swellings that rupture to expose a black spore mass.

- They discussed "boil smut" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "boil smut" because he had never seen it before.

---

bounties (noun)

A ship of the British navy; in 1789 part of the crew mutinied against their commander William Bligh and set him afloat in an open boat.

- The article explained what "bounties" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bounties" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breastfeed (verb)

Give suck to.

- Can you use "breastfeed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "breastfeed" and when to wait.

---

brimstone (noun)

An old name for sulfur.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brimstone."
- They discussed "brimstone" during the group presentation.

---

bunt (verb)

To strike, thrust or shove against.

- In everyday English, people use "bunt" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "bunt" in real sentences.

---

burkina faso (noun)

A desperately poor landlocked country in western Africa; was formerly Upper Volta under French rule but gained independence in 1960.

- They discussed "burkina faso" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "burkina faso" means with a simple example.

---

burly (adjective)

Muscular and heavily built.

- Had a tall burly frame.

- It is useful to describe something as "burly" when it is muscular and heavily built.

---

cadmium yellow pale (noun)

Pale-hued cadmium yellow pigment.

- Understanding "cadmium yellow pale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cadmium yellow pale."

---

canary creeper (noun)

A climber having flowers that are the color of canaries.

- Understanding "canary creeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "canary creeper" during the group presentation.

---

cannabis indica (noun)

Source of e.g. bhang and hashish as well as fiber.

- The article explained what "cannabis indica" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cannabis indica" to mean source of e.g. bhang and hashish as well as fiber.

---

capillary fracture (noun)

A fracture without separation of the fragments and the line of the break being very thin.

- They discussed "capillary fracture" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "capillary fracture" to mean a fracture without separation of the fragments and....

---

capital of swaziland (noun)

Capital of Swaziland; located in northwestern Swaziland.

- He looked up "capital of swaziland" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "capital of swaziland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carbonated (adjective)

Having carbonation (especially artificially carbonated).

- A "carbonated" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "carbonated" when it is having carbonation (especially artificially carbonated).

---

carbonated water (noun)

Effervescent beverage artificially charged with carbon dioxide.

- Understanding "carbonated water" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "carbonated water" during the group presentation.

---

carburetor (noun)

Mixes air with gasoline vapor prior to explosion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carburetor."
- Understanding "carburetor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

caruso (noun)

Outstanding Italian operatic tenor (1873-1921).

- They discussed "caruso" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "caruso" to mean outstanding italian operatic tenor (1873-1921).

---

cascading menu (noun)

A secondary menu that appears while you are holding the cursor over an item on the primary menu.

- Understanding "cascading menu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cascading menu" because he had never seen it before.

---

catacombs (noun)

An underground tunnel with recesses where bodies were buried (as in ancient Rome).

- They discussed "catacombs" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "catacombs" because he had never seen it before.

---

categorization (noun)

A group of people or things arranged by class or category.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "categorization."
- The article explained what "categorization" means with a simple example.

---

caving (verb)

Hollow out as if making a cave or opening.

- The river was caving the banks.
- She tried to use "caving" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

celts (noun)

A member of a European people who once occupied Britain and Spain and Gaul prior to Roman times.

- They discussed "celts" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "celts."

---

chara (noun)

Green algae common in freshwater lakes of limestone districts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chara."
- Understanding "chara" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cheetahs (noun)

Long-legged spotted cat of Africa and southwestern Asia having nonretractile claws; the swiftest mammal; can be trained to run down game.

- The article explained what "cheetahs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheetahs."

---

chesapeake bay retriever (noun)

American breed having a short thick oily coat ranging from brown to light tan.

- He looked up "chesapeake bay retriever" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chesapeake bay retriever."

---

chlamydia (noun)

A sexually transmitted infection caused by bacteria of the genus Chlamydia.

- He looked up "chlamydia" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chlamydia."

---

chugging (verb)

Make a dull, explosive sound.

- The coach explained when to use "chugging" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "chugging" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

classifies (verb)

Arrange or order by classes or categories.

- Learners should practice how to use "classifies" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "classifies" and when to wait.

---

cobbler (noun)

A pie made of fruit with rich biscuit dough usually only on top of the fruit.

- The article explained what "cobbler" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cobbler" to mean a pie made of fruit with rich biscuit dough usually....

---

cognizant (adjective)

(sometimes followed by 'of') having or showing knowledge or understanding or realization or perception.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cognizant."
- Students compared "cognizant" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

collared (verb)

Furnish with a collar.

- The coach explained when to use "collared" and when to wait.
- Can you use "collared" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

columnists (noun)

A journalist who writes editorials.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "columnists."
- He looked up "columnists" because he had never seen it before.

---

common st john's wort (noun)

Deciduous bushy Eurasian shrub with golden yellow flowers and reddish-purple fruits from which a soothing salve is made in Spain.

- They discussed "common st john's wort" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "common st john's wort" because he had never seen it before.

---

communes (noun)

The smallest administrative district of several European countries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "communes."
- Understanding "communes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

conceit (noun)

An artistic device or effect.

- The architect's brilliant conceit was to build the house around the tree.
- He could always come up with some inspired off-the-wall conceit.

---

concubine (noun)

A woman who cohabits with an important man.

- Understanding "concubine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "concubine" to mean a woman who cohabits with an important man.

---

conforms (verb)

Adapt or conform oneself to new or different conditions.

- Can you use "conforms" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "conforms" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

confounded (adjective)

Perplexed by many conflicting situations or statements; filled with bewilderment.

- A cloudy and confounded philosopher.
- A "confounded" approach may work better in this case.

---

conservatively (adverb)

In a conservative manner.

- We estimated the number of demonstrators conservatively at 200,000.
- Place "conservatively" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

contraption (noun)

A device or control that is very useful for a particular job.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contraption."
- Understanding "contraption" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cookbooks (noun)

A book of recipes and cooking directions.

- He looked up "cookbooks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cookbooks."

---

coolness (noun)

A lack of affection or enthusiasm.

- He performed with all the coolness of a veteran.
- In class, the teacher used "coolness" to mean a lack of affection or enthusiasm.

covertly (adverb)

In a covert manner.

- He did it covertly.
- He answered "covertly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

covet (verb)

Wish, long, or crave for (something, especially the property of another person).

- She covets her sister's house.
- He did not know how to use "covet" until he saw an example.

culpable negligence (noun)

(law) recklessly acting without reasonable caution and putting another person at risk of injury or death (or failing to do something with the same consequences).

- They discussed "culpable negligence" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "culpable negligence" to mean (law) recklessly acting without reasonable caution....

curbing (noun)

An edge between a sidewalk and a roadway consisting of a line of curbstones (usually forming part of a gutter).

- Understanding "curbing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curbing."

cutaneous sensation (noun)

A sensation localized on the skin.

- The article explained what "cutaneous sensation" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cutaneous sensation" during the group presentation.

cutaneous senses (noun)

The faculty by which external objects or forces are perceived through contact with the body (especially the hands).

- He looked up "cutaneous senses" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cutaneous senses" to mean the faculty by which external objects or forces are....

cystic fibrosis (noun)

The most common congenital disease; the child's lungs and intestines and pancreas become clogged with thick mucus; caused by defect in a single gene; no cure is known.

- He looked up "cystic fibrosis" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cystic fibrosis" to mean the most common congenital disease; the child's....

dales (noun)

An open river valley (in a hilly area).

- They discussed "dales" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dales" because he had never seen it before.

damping off fungus (noun)

Fungus causing damping off disease in seedlings.

- The article explained what "damping off fungus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "damping off fungus" to mean fungus causing damping off disease in seedlings.

dds (noun)

A doctor's degree in dental surgery.

- The article explained what "dds" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dds" during the group presentation.

deacons (noun)

A Protestant layman who assists the minister.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deacons."
- He looked up "deacons" because he had never seen it before.

defenceless (adjective)

Lacking protection or support.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "defenceless."
- Students compared "defenceless" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

depressions (noun)

A concavity in a surface produced by pressing.

- They discussed "depressions" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depressions."

---

descending aorta (noun)

The descending part of the aorta that branches into the thoracic and abdominal aortae.

- The article explained what "descending aorta" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "descending aorta" to mean the descending part of the aorta that branches into....

---

dingy (adjective)

Thickly covered with ingrained dirt or soot.

- Dingy linen.
- A dirty (or dingy) white.

---

disappearances (noun)

The act of leaving secretly or without explanation.

- They discussed "disappearances" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "disappearances" means with a simple example.

---

disengaged (verb)

Release from something that holds fast, connects, or entangles.

- In everyday English, people use "disengaged" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "disengaged" until he saw an example.

---

disillusionment (noun)

Freeing from false belief or illusions.

- The article explained what "disillusionment" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "disillusionment" during the group presentation.

---

dispatching (verb)

Kill intentionally and with premeditation.

- She tried to use "dispatching" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "dispatching" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

disseminated multiple sclerosis (noun)

A chronic progressive nervous disorder involving loss of myelin sheath around certain nerve fibers.

- They discussed "disseminated multiple sclerosis" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "disseminated multiple sclerosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disseminated sclerosis (noun)

A chronic progressive nervous disorder involving loss of myelin sheath around certain nerve fibers.

- The article explained what "disseminated sclerosis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "disseminated sclerosis" to mean a chronic progressive nervous disorder involving....

---

doodles (verb)

Make a doodle; draw aimlessly.

- She tried to use "doodles" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "doodles" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

droppings (noun)

Fecal matter of animals.

- He looked up "droppings" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "droppings" to mean fecal matter of animals.

---

drowsy (adjective)

Showing lack of attention or boredom.

- Made drowsy by the long ride.
- Would you call this situation "drowsy"? Explain why.

---

duos (noun)

A pair who associate with one another.

- They discussed "duos" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "duos" to mean a pair who associate with one another.

---

dwarf buckeye (noun)

A spreading shrub with pink flowers; found in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "dwarf buckeye" to mean a spreading shrub with pink flowers; found in....
- They discussed "dwarf buckeye" during the group presentation.

---

east india kino (noun)

Reddish or black juice or resin from certain trees of the genus Pterocarpus and used in medicine and tanning etc.

- The article explained what "east india kino" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "east india kino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elaboration (noun)

The result of improving something.

- An elaboration of the sketch followed.
- He looked up "elaboration" because he had never seen it before.

---

eminently (adverb)

In an eminent manner.

- Two subjects on which he was eminently qualified to make an original contribution.
- Using "eminently" can make your explanation more exact.

---

emphasises (noun)

The relative prominence of a syllable or musical note (especially with regard to stress or pitch).

- In class, the teacher used "emphasises" to mean the relative prominence of a syllable or musical....
- The article explained what "emphasises" means with a simple example.

---

eocene (noun)

From 58 million to 40 million years ago; presence of modern mammals.

- They discussed "eocene" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "eocene" to mean from 58 million to 40 million years ago; presence....

---

equalled (verb)

Make equal, uniform, corresponding, or matching.

- He did not know how to use "equalled" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "equalled" when talking about this idea.

---

erect bugle (noun)

Upright rhizomatous perennial with bright blue flowers; southern Europe.

- He looked up "erect bugle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "erect bugle."

---

erectile organ (noun)

An organ containing erectile tissue.

- Understanding "erectile organ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "erectile organ" during the group presentation.

---

esprit (noun)

Liveliness of mind or spirit.

- The article explained what “esprit” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “esprit” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ess (noun)

A radioactive transuranic element produced by bombarding plutonium with neutrons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ess.”
- Understanding “ess” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ethnography (noun)

The branch of anthropology that provides scientific description of individual human societies.

- They discussed “ethnography” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “ethnography” to mean the branch of anthropology that provides scientific....

---

eunuch (noun)

A man who has been castrated and is incapable of reproduction.

- Eunuchs guarded the harem.
- In class, the teacher used “eunuch” to mean a man who has been castrated and is incapable of....

---

eurasian hamster (noun)

A variety of hamster common to Europe and Asia.

- In class, the teacher used “eurasian hamster” to mean a variety of hamster common to europe and asia.
- The article explained what “eurasian hamster” means with a simple example.

---

exclaim (verb)

Utter aloud; often with surprise, horror, or joy.

- ‘I won!’ he exclaimed.
- ‘I am not a Communist,’ he exclaimed.

---

external carotid artery (noun)

The branch of the carotid artery that supplies blood to the face and tongue and external parts of the head.

- Understanding “external carotid artery” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “external carotid artery.”

---

extort (verb)

Obtain by coercion or intimidation.

- They extorted money from the executive by threatening to reveal his past to the company boss.
- Learners should practice how to use “extort” in real sentences.

---

fair to middling (adjective)

About average; acceptable.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “fair to middling.”
- A “fair to middling” approach may work better in this case.

---

falter (noun)

The act of pausing uncertainly.

- Understanding “falter” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “falter” means with a simple example.

---

fantasize (verb)

Indulge in fantasies.

- He did not know how to use “fantasize” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “fantasize” when talking about this idea.

---

fecal occult test (noun)

A test performed at home in which you collect specimens of your stool that are tested for traces of blood; used to detect colorectal cancers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fecal occult test."
- They discussed "fecal occult test" during the group presentation.

---

femoral artery (noun)

The chief artery of the thigh; a continuation of the external iliac artery.

- The article explained what "femoral artery" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "femoral artery."

---

feverish (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterized by fever.

- Would you call this situation "feverish"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "feverish" when it is of or relating to or characterized by fever.

---

fibrillation (noun)

Muscular twitching involving individual muscle fibers acting without coordination.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fibrillation."
- They discussed "fibrillation" during the group presentation.

---

field spaniel (noun)

Large usually black hunting and retrieving spaniel with a dense flat or slightly wavy coat; cross between cocker and Sussex spaniel.

- In class, the teacher used "field spaniel" to mean large usually black hunting and retrieving spaniel....
- The article explained what "field spaniel" means with a simple example.

---

fire and brimstone (noun)

(Old Testament) God's means of destroying sinners.

- His sermons were full of fire and brimstone.
- Understanding "fire and brimstone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fissure (noun)

A long narrow depression in a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fissure."
- They discussed "fissure" during the group presentation.

---

fizzy (adjective)

Hissing and bubbling.

- Would you call this situation "fizzy"? Explain why.
- A "fizzy" approach may work better in this case.

---

flutes (noun)

A groove or furrow in cloth etc (particularly a shallow concave groove on the shaft of a column).

- They discussed "flutes" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flutes."

---

forcible (adjective)

Impelled by physical force especially against resistance.

- Forcible entry.
- Students compared "forcible" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fowl cholera (noun)

An acute diarrheal disease (especially of chickens) caused by the microorganism that causes hemorrhagic septicemia.

- In class, the teacher used "fowl cholera" to mean an acute diarrheal disease (especially of chickens)....
- The article explained what "fowl cholera" means with a simple example.

---

frank whittle (noun)

English aeronautical engineer who invented the jet aircraft engine (1907-1996).

- They discussed "frank whittle" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "frank whittle" because he had never seen it before.

frederick sanger (noun)

English biochemist who determined the sequence of amino acids in insulin and who invented a technique to determine the genetic sequence of an organism (born in 1918).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frederick sanger."
- He looked up "frederick sanger" because he had never seen it before.

french indochina (noun)

The French colonies of the territory now occupied by Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "french indochina."
- He looked up "french indochina" because he had never seen it before.

frenzied (adjective)

Excessively agitated; distraught with fear or other violent emotion.

- A frenzied look in his eye.
- A frenzied attack.

freudian (adjective)

Of or relating to Sigmund Freud or his psychoanalytic ideas.

- Freudian theories.
- It is useful to describe something as "freudian" when it is of or relating to sigmund freud or his....

frightful (adjective)

Provoking horror; ; ; ; - Winston Churchill.

- A frightful crime of decapitation.
- In a frightful hurry.

fumbling (adjective)

Showing lack of skill or aptitude.

- His fumbling attempt to put up a shelf.
- It is useful to describe something as "fumbling" when it is showing lack of skill or aptitude.

gat (noun)

A gangster's pistol.

- He looked up "gat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "gat" during the group presentation.

genghis khan (noun)

Mongolian emperor whose empire stretched from the Black Sea to the Pacific Ocean (1162-1227).

- The article explained what "genghis khan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "genghis khan" to mean mongolian emperor whose empire stretched from the....

genus drosophila (noun)

A genus of Drosophilidae.

- They discussed "genus drosophila" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "genus drosophila" means with a simple example.

geopolitics (noun)

The study of the effects of economic geography on the powers of the state.

- He looked up "geopolitics" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "geopolitics" during the group presentation.

german luftwaffe (noun)

The German airforce.

- He looked up "german luftwaffe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "german luftwaffe."

gloriously (adverb)

With glory or in a glorious manner.

- Where others had failed he had gloriously succeeded.
- How gloriously happy she had been during those few fleeting moments of time.

---

go-getter (noun)

Someone whose career progresses rapidly.

- He looked up "go-getter" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "go-getter."

---

gourd (noun)

Any of numerous inedible fruits with hard rinds.

- They discussed "gourd" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gourd" means with a simple example.

---

gourd family (noun)

A family of herbaceous vines (such as cucumber or melon or squash or pumpkin).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gourd family."
- They discussed "gourd family" during the group presentation.

---

grander (adjective)

The most important and magnificent in adornment.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "grander."
- A "grander" approach may work better in this case.

---

grandfathers (noun)

The father of your father or mother.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grandfathers."
- He looked up "grandfathers" because he had never seen it before.

---

great st john's wort (noun)

Perennial shrub having large star-shaped yellow flowers in narrowly pyramidal cymes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great st john's wort."
- He looked up "great st john's wort" because he had never seen it before.

---

green woodpecker (noun)

Woodpecker of Europe and western Asia.

- He looked up "green woodpecker" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "green woodpecker" during the group presentation.

---

grins (verb)

To draw back the lips and reveal the teeth, in a smile, grimace, or snarl.

- Can you use "grins" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "grins" when talking about this idea.

---

grocers (noun)

A retail merchant who sells foodstuffs (and some household supplies).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grocers."
- The article explained what "grocers" means with a simple example.

---

halter (verb)

Prevent the progress or free movement of.

- The coach explained when to use "halter" and when to wait.
- Can you use "halter" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ham hock (noun)

A small cut of meat from the leg just above the foot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ham hock."

- He looked up "ham hock" because he had never seen it before.

---

harpoon log (noun)

A cylindrical log with a device that registers distance.

- The article explained what "harpoon log" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "harpoon log" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hawker (noun)

A person who breeds and trains hawks and who follows the sport of falconry.

- In class, the teacher used "hawker" to mean a person who breeds and trains hawks and who....
- He looked up "hawker" because he had never seen it before.

---

heisenberg (noun)

German mathematical physicist noted for stating the uncertainty principle (1901-1976).

- Understanding "heisenberg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "heisenberg" during the group presentation.

---

herpes simplex (noun)

A herpes virus that affects the skin and nervous system.

- The article explained what "herpes simplex" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "herpes simplex" to mean a herpes virus that affects the skin and nervous system.

---

high-muck-a-muck (noun)

An arrogant or conceited person of importance.

- In class, the teacher used "high-muck-a-muck" to mean an arrogant or conceited person of importance.
- He looked up "high-muck-a-muck" because he had never seen it before.

---

hijackers (noun)

A holdup man who stops a vehicle and steals from it.

- In class, the teacher used "hijackers" to mean a holdup man who stops a vehicle and steals from it.
- They discussed "hijackers" during the group presentation.

---

himalayan lilac (noun)

Robust upright shrub of mountains of northern India having oblong-elliptic leaves and pale lilac or white malodorous flowers.

- The article explained what "himalayan lilac" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "himalayan lilac."

---

historiography (noun)

A body of historical literature.

- Understanding "historiography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "historiography" during the group presentation.

---

hogarth (noun)

English artist noted for a series of engravings that satirized the affectations of his time (1697-1764).

- They discussed "hogarth" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hogarth."

---

hollowed (verb)

Remove the inner part or the core of.

- The coach explained when to use "hollowed" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "hollowed" in real sentences.

---

honey buzzard (noun)

Old World hawk that feeds on bee larvae and small rodents and reptiles.

- They discussed "honey buzzard" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "honey buzzard."

---

horned whiff (noun)

A whiff found in waters from the Bahamas and northern Gulf of Mexico to Brazil.

- He looked up "horned whiff" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "horned whiff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

houdini (noun)

United States magician (born in Hungary) famous for his ability to escape from chains or handcuffs or straitjackets or padlocked containers (1874-1926).

- Understanding "houdini" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "houdini" during the group presentation.

---

hybridization (noun)

(genetics) the act of mixing different species or varieties of animals or plants and thus to produce hybrids.

- He looked up "hybridization" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hybridization."

---

hyenas (noun)

Doglike nocturnal mammal of Africa and southern Asia that feeds chiefly on carrion.

- In class, the teacher used "hyenas" to mean doglike nocturnal mammal of africa and southern....
- They discussed "hyenas" during the group presentation.

---

ibadan (noun)

A large Yoruba city in southwestern Nigeria; site of a university.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ibadan."
- The article explained what "ibadan" means with a simple example.

---

icebreaker (noun)

A beginning that relaxes a tense or formal atmosphere.

- He told jokes as an icebreaker.
- They discussed "icebreaker" during the group presentation.

---

idling (noun)

Having no employment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idling."
- Understanding "idling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

idolatry (noun)

The worship of idols; the worship of images that are not God.

- Understanding "idolatry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "idolatry" during the group presentation.

---

iis (noun)

The most notorious and possibly the most important arm of Iraq's security system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iis."
- He looked up "iis" because he had never seen it before.

---

indelible (adjective)

Cannot be removed or erased.

- An indelible stain.
- Indelible memories.

---

indochina (noun)

A peninsula of southeastern Asia that includes Myanmar and Cambodia and Laos and Malaysia and Thailand and Vietnam.

- They discussed "indochina" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "indochina" because he had never seen it before.

---

infantile (adjective)

Of or relating to infants or infancy.

- Infantile paralysis.
- It is useful to describe something as "infantile" when it is of or relating to infants or infancy.

---

infuse (verb)

Let sit in a liquid to extract a flavor or to cleanse.

- Some physiologists infuses sugar solutions into the veins of animals.
- She tried to use "infuse" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

inheriting (adjective)

Having the legal right to inherit.

- A "inheriting" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "inheriting" when it is having the legal right to inherit.

---

insuring (verb)

Be careful or certain to do something; make certain of something.

- In everyday English, people use "insuring" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "insuring" in real sentences.

---

internal carotid artery (noun)

The branch of the carotid artery that supplies blood to the brain and eyes and internal parts of the head.

- Understanding "internal carotid artery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "internal carotid artery" to mean the branch of the carotid artery that supplies....

---

interplanetary (adjective)

Between or among planets.

- Interplanetary travel.
- Students compared "interplanetary" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

interplanetary gas (noun)

A rarefied flow of gas and charged particles (plasma) that stream from the sun and form the solar wind.

- The article explained what "interplanetary gas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "interplanetary gas" to mean a rarefied flow of gas and charged particles....

---

interplanetary space (noun)

The part of outer space within the solar system.

- Understanding "interplanetary space" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "interplanetary space" means with a simple example.

---

irreverent (adjective)

Showing lack of due respect or veneration.

- Irreverent scholars mocking sacred things.
- Noisy irreverent tourists.

---

isthmus (noun)

A cord-like tissue connecting two larger parts of an anatomical structure.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "isthmus."
- Understanding "isthmus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

itinerant (noun)

A laborer who moves from place to place as demanded by employment.

- Itinerant traders.
- Understanding "itinerant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jags (noun)

A sharp projection on an edge or surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jags."
- Understanding "jags" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jamaica caper tree (noun)

Shrub of southern Florida to West Indies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jamaica caper tree."
- They discussed "jamaica caper tree" during the group presentation.

japanese spaniel (noun)

Breed of toy dogs originating in Japan having a silky black-and-white or red-and-white coat.

- They discussed "japanese spaniel" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese spaniel."

jean francois millet (noun)

French painter of rural scenes (1814-1875).

- He looked up "jean francois millet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jean francois millet."

jeddah (noun)

Port city in western Saudi Arabia on the Red Sea; near Mecca.

- Understanding "jeddah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jeddah" means with a simple example.

jello (noun)

Fruit-flavored dessert (trade mark Jell-O) made from a commercially prepared gelatin powder.

- In class, the teacher used "jello" to mean fruit-flavored dessert (trade mark jell-o) made....
- The article explained what "jello" means with a simple example.

john griffith chaney (noun)

United States writer of novels based on experiences in the Klondike gold rush (1876-1916).

- He looked up "john griffith chaney" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john griffith chaney."

john simmons barth (noun)

United States novelist (born in 1930).

- He looked up "john simmons barth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john simmons barth."

joseph haydn (noun)

Prolific Austrian composer who influenced the classical form of the symphony (1732-1809).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joseph haydn."
- He looked up "joseph haydn" because he had never seen it before.

juke (noun)

A small roadside establishment in the southeastern United States where you can eat and drink and dance to music provided by a jukebox.

- They discussed "juke" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "juke" because he had never seen it before.

juke house (noun)

A small roadside establishment in the southeastern United States where you can eat and drink and dance to music provided by a jukebox.

- The article explained what "juke house" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "juke house" to mean a small roadside establishment in the southeastern....

juneau (noun)

The state capital of Alaska.

- In class, the teacher used "juneau" to mean the state capital of alaska.
- They discussed "juneau" during the group presentation.

kingfisher daisy (noun)

Softly hairy South African herb having flowers with bright blue rays.

- He looked up "kingfisher daisy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kingfisher daisy" during the group presentation.

---

kino (noun)

A gum obtained from various tropical plants; used as an astringent and in tanning.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kino."
- He looked up "kino" because he had never seen it before.

---

labrador retriever (noun)

Breed originally from Labrador having a short black or golden-brown coat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "labrador retriever."
- He looked up "labrador retriever" because he had never seen it before.

---

lake tana (noun)

A lake in northern Ethiopia; the largest lake in Ethiopia and the source of the Blue Nile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lake tana."
- He looked up "lake tana" because he had never seen it before.

---

lakshmi (noun)

Hindu goddess of fortune and prosperity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lakshmi."
- He looked up "lakshmi" because he had never seen it before.

---

lazio (noun)

An ancient region of west central Italy (southeast of Rome) on the Tyrrhenian Sea.

- The article explained what "lazio" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lazio" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lena calhoun horne (noun)

United States singer and actress (born in 1917).

- Understanding "lena calhoun horne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lena calhoun horne."

---

leniency (noun)

A disposition to yield to the wishes of someone.

- The article explained what "leniency" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "leniency" during the group presentation.

---

lifeboats (noun)

A strong sea boat designed to rescue people from a sinking ship.

- They discussed "lifeboats" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "lifeboats" to mean a strong sea boat designed to rescue people from a....

---

lind (noun)

Swedish soprano who toured the United States under the management of P. T. Barnum (1820-1887).

- The article explained what "lind" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lind" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

linens (noun)

A fabric woven with fibers from the flax plant.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "linens."
- They discussed "linens" during the group presentation.

---

long-eared bat (noun)

Any of various Old or New World bats having very long ears.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "long-eared bat."

- He looked up "long-eared bat" because he had never seen it before.

---

lorenz (noun)

Austrian zoologist who studied the behavior of birds and emphasized the importance of innate as opposed to learned behaviors (1903-1989).

- In class, the teacher used "lorenz" to mean austrian zoologist who studied the behavior of....
- The article explained what "lorenz" means with a simple example.

---

luftwaffe (noun)

The German airforce.

- He looked up "luftwaffe" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "luftwaffe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lurks (verb)

Lie in wait, lie in ambush, behave in a sneaky and secretive manner.

- In everyday English, people use "lurks" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "lurks" in real sentences.

---

lymphatic (adjective)

Of or relating to or produced by lymph.

- A "lymphatic" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "lymphatic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lymphatic system (noun)

The interconnected system of spaces and vessels between body tissues and organs by which lymph circulates throughout the body.

- In class, the teacher used "lymphatic system" to mean the interconnected system of spaces and vessels....
- Understanding "lymphatic system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

magdalena (noun)

A river that rises in the Andes mountains in southwestern Colombia and flows generally northward to empty into the Caribbean Sea at Barranquilla.

- He looked up "magdalena" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "magdalena" to mean a river that rises in the andes mountains in....

---

magdalena river (noun)

A river that rises in the Andes mountains in southwestern Colombia and flows generally northward to empty into the Caribbean Sea at Barranquilla.

- In class, the teacher used "magdalena river" to mean a river that rises in the andes mountains in....
- The article explained what "magdalena river" means with a simple example.

---

mahler (noun)

Austrian composer and conductor (1860-1911).

- The article explained what "mahler" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mahler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

malleable (adjective)

Capable of being shaped or bent or drawn out.

- Malleable metals such as gold.
- The speaker chose "malleable" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

maltese terrier (noun)

Breed of toy dogs having a long straight silky white coat.

- Understanding "maltese terrier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "maltese terrier" because he had never seen it before.

---

mannerisms (noun)

A deliberate pretense or exaggerated display.

- They discussed "mannerisms" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mannerisms" means with a simple example.

---

manta (noun)

A blanket that is used as a cloak or shawl.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manta."
- They discussed "manta" during the group presentation.

---

marquess (noun)

A British peer ranking below a duke and above an earl.

- They discussed "marquess" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "marquess" because he had never seen it before.

---

matinee (noun)

A theatrical performance held during the daytime (especially in the afternoon).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matinee."
- They discussed "matinee" during the group presentation.

---

mds (noun)

A licensed medical practitioner.

- In class, the teacher used "mds" to mean a licensed medical practitioner.
- The article explained what "mds" means with a simple example.

---

mediating (verb)

Act between parties with a view to reconciling differences.

- The coach explained when to use "mediating" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "mediating" until he saw an example.

---

mercurial (adjective)

Relating to or containing or caused by mercury.

- Mercurial preparations.
- Mercurial sore mouth.

---

microwaves (noun)

A short electromagnetic wave (longer than infrared but shorter than radio waves); used for radar and microwave ovens and for transmitting telephone, facsimile, video and data.

- Understanding "microwaves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "microwaves" means with a simple example.

---

middling (adverb)

To a moderately sufficient extent or degree.

- He answered "middling," which changed the tone of the conversation.
- She spoke "middling," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

millionth (noun)

Position 1,000,000 in a countable series of things.

- He looked up "millionth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "millionth" during the group presentation.

---

mollie (noun)

Popular aquarium fish.

- In class, the teacher used "mollie" to mean popular aquarium fish.
- He looked up "mollie" because he had never seen it before.

---

mores (noun)

(sociology) the conventions that embody the fundamental values of a group.

- He looked up "mores" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mores."

---

mpeg (noun)

A set of standards adopted by the moving pictures experts group for the compression of digital video and audio data or a file of data compressed according to those standards.

- They discussed "mpeg" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "mpeg" means with a simple example.

---

muscle spasm (noun)

A painful and involuntary muscular contraction.

- They discussed "muscle spasm" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "muscle spasm."

---

mysore thorn (noun)

Spreading thorny shrub of tropical Asia bearing large erect racemes of red-marked yellow flowers.

- He looked up "mysore thorn" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mysore thorn."

---

nan-ning (noun)

An industrial city in southern China.

- He looked up "nan-ning" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nan-ning."

---

narrates (verb)

Narrate or give a detailed account of.

- Learners should practice how to use "narrates" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "narrates" when talking about this idea.

---

nerve entrapment (noun)

Repeated and long-term nerve compression (usually in nerves near joints that are subject to inflammation or swelling).

- In class, the teacher used "nerve entrapment" to mean repeated and long-term nerve compression (usually....
- He looked up "nerve entrapment" because he had never seen it before.

---

nicaraguan (adjective)

Of or relating to Nicaragua or is people.

- Nicaraguan earthquakes.
- A "nicaraguan" approach may work better in this case.

---

nicaraguan capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Nicaragua.

- The article explained what "nicaraguan capital" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "nicaraguan capital" during the group presentation.

---

nim tree (noun)

Large semi-evergreen tree of the East Indies; trunk exudes a tenacious gum; bitter bark used as a tonic; seeds yield an aromatic oil; sometimes placed in genus Melia.

- Understanding "nim tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "nim tree" means with a simple example.

---

note receivable (noun)

Your right in a promissory note in which the maker promises to pay a certain amount of money at a certain time.

- In class, the teacher used "note receivable" to mean your right in a promissory note in which the maker....
- He looked up "note receivable" because he had never seen it before.

---

ocean pout (noun)

Common along northeastern coast of North America.

- He looked up "ocean pout" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ocean pout" during the group presentation.

---

one-millionth (noun)

One part in a million equal parts.

- They discussed "one-millionth" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "one-millionth" to mean one part in a million equal parts.

---

oni (noun)

The military intelligence agency that provides for the intelligence and counterintelligence and investigative and security requirements of the United States Navy.

- Understanding "oni" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oni."

---

onion mildew (noun)

Fungus causing a downy mildew on onions.

- The article explained what "onion mildew" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "onion mildew" to mean fungus causing a downy mildew on onions.

---

open-collared (adjective)

Of a shirt; not buttoned at the neck.

- Dressed casually in shorts and an open-collared shirt.
- The speaker chose "open-collared" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

outer hebrides (noun)

A 130-mile long archipelago to the northwest of Scotland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outer hebrides."
- They discussed "outer hebrides" during the group presentation.

---

outgrown (verb)

Grow too large or too mature for.

- I have outgrown these clothes.
- Can you use "outgrown" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

outpouring (noun)

The rapid and continuous delivery of linguistic communication (spoken or written).

- She attacked him with an outpouring of words.
- In class, the teacher used "outpouring" to mean the rapid and continuous delivery of linguistic....

---

overdone (adjective)

Represented as greater than is true or reasonable.

- Would you call this situation "overdone"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "overdone."

---

overreact (verb)

Show an exaggerated response to something.

- Don't overreact to the bad news–take it easy.
- He did not know how to use "overreact" until he saw an example.

---

parson (noun)

A person authorized to conduct religious worship.

- They discussed "parson" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parson."

---

pelham (noun)

A bit with a bar mouthpiece that is designed to combine a curb and snaffle.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pelham."
- Understanding "pelham" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

perceiving (verb)

To become aware of through the senses.

- Learners should practice how to use "perceiving" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "perceiving" until he saw an example.

---

peregrine (noun)

A widely distributed falcon formerly used in falconry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peregrine."
- Understanding "peregrine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

personification (noun)

A person who represents an abstract quality.

- She is the personification of optimism.
- They discussed "personification" during the group presentation.

---

pete seeger (noun)

United States folk singer who was largely responsible for the interest in folk music in the 1960s (born in 1919).

- They discussed "pete seeger" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pete seeger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peter paul rubens (noun)

Prolific Flemish baroque painter; knighted by the English king Charles I (1577-1640).

- They discussed "peter paul rubens" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "peter paul rubens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

petitioners (noun)

One praying humbly for something.

- In class, the teacher used "petitioners" to mean one praying humbly for something.
- The article explained what "petitioners" means with a simple example.

---

pheromones (noun)

A chemical substance secreted externally by some animals (especially insects) that influences the physiology or behavior of other animals of the same species.

- Understanding "pheromones" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pheromones" means with a simple example.

---

piecemeal (adverb)

A little bit at a time.

- The research structure has developed piecemeal.
- Using "piecemeal" can make your explanation more exact.

---

piglet (noun)

A young pig.

- The article explained what "piglet" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "piglet" during the group presentation.

---

pilar (adjective)

Of or relating to a hair.

- Would you call this situation "pilar"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pilar."

---

placeholder (noun)

A symbol in a logical or mathematical expression that can be replaced by the name of any member of specified set.

- The article explained what "placeholder" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "placeholder" during the group presentation.

---

plains pocket gopher (noun)

Gopher of chiefly grasslands of central North America.

- He looked up "plains pocket gopher" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "plains pocket gopher" to mean gopher of chiefly grasslands of central north america.

---

playmate (noun)

A companion at play.

- The article explained what "playmate" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "playmate" to mean a companion at play.

pliny (noun)

Roman author of an encyclopedic natural history; died while observing the eruption of Vesuvius (23-79).

- He looked up "pliny" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "pliny" during the group presentation.

poetics (noun)

Study of poetic works.

- The article explained what "poetics" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "poetics" to mean study of poetic works.

politicized (verb)

Give a political character to.

- She tried to use "politicized" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "politicized" and when to wait.

popsicle (noun)

Ice cream or water ice on a small wooden stick.

- In England a popsicle is called an ice lolly.
- They discussed "popsicle" during the group presentation.

posterior pituitary (noun)

The posterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily glandular in nature.

- In class, the teacher used "posterior pituitary" to mean the posterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily....
- The article explained what "posterior pituitary" means with a simple example.

pre-eminently (adverb)

To a preeminent degree; with superiority or distinction above others; in a preeminent manner.

- A wide variety of pre-eminently contemporary scenes.
- Using "pre-eminently" can make your explanation more exact.

predisposition (noun)

A disposition in advance to react in a particular way.

- Understanding "predisposition" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "predisposition" during the group presentation.

prefrontal (adjective)

Anterior to a frontal structure.

- A prefrontal bone.
- Prefrontal lobes.

preservatives (noun)

A chemical compound that is added to protect against decay or decomposition.

- They discussed "preservatives" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "preservatives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

presumptive (adjective)

Having a reasonable basis for belief or acceptance.

- The presumptive heir (or heir apparent).
- Presumptive evidence.

prickly shield fern (noun)

North American fern whose more or less evergreen leathery fronds are covered with pale brown chafflike scales.

- In class, the teacher used "prickly shield fern" to mean north american fern whose more or less evergreen....
- Understanding "prickly shield fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

problem solver (noun)

A thinker who focuses on the problem as stated and tries to synthesize information and knowledge to achieve a solution.

- In class, the teacher used "problem solver" to mean a thinker who focuses on the problem as stated and....
- He looked up "problem solver" because he had never seen it before.

---

psychoanalytic (adjective)

Of or relating to or incorporating the methods and theory of psychiatric treatment originated by Sigmund Freud.

- Freud's psychoanalytical theories.
- Psychoanalytic treatment.

---

psychoanalytic process (noun)

A process that is assumed to occur in psychoanalytic theory.

- He looked up "psychoanalytic process" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "psychoanalytic process" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pto (noun)

A device that transfers power from an engine (as in a tractor or other motor vehicle) to another piece of equipment (as to a pump or jackhammer).

- The article explained what "pto" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pto" to mean a device that transfers power from an engine (as in....

---

pug-nosed (adjective)

Having a blunt nose.

- A pug-nosed boy with freckles.
- Would you call this situation "pug-nosed"? Explain why.

---

pyrenees daisy (noun)

Perennial of Portugal similar to the oxeye daisy.

- They discussed "pyrenees daisy" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pyrenees daisy" means with a simple example.

---

queen anne's lace (noun)

A widely naturalized Eurasian herb with finely cut foliage and white compound umbels of small white or yellowish flowers and thin yellowish roots.

- They discussed "queen anne's lace" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "queen anne's lace" to mean a widely naturalized eurasian herb with finely cut....

---

racy (adjective)

Marked by richness and fullness of flavor.

- A racy literary style.
- Racy anecdotes.

---

raucous (adjective)

Disturbing the public peace; loud and rough.

- A raucous party.
- Would you call this situation "raucous"? Explain why.

---

receivable (adjective)

Awaiting payment.

- Accounts receivable.
- Students compared "receivable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

reconciling (adjective)

Tending to reconcile or accommodate; bringing into harmony.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "reconciling."
- Students compared "reconciling" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

reconstituted (verb)

Construct or form anew or provide with a new structure.

- The governing board was reconstituted.

- He did not know how to use "reconstituted" until he saw an example.

---

reincarnated (verb)

Be born anew in another body after death.

- The old product was reincarnated to appeal to a younger market.
- The coach explained when to use "reincarnated" and when to wait.

---

reinsurance (noun)

Sharing the risk by insurance companies; part or all of the insurer's risk is assumed by other companies in return for part of the premium paid by the insured.

- Reinsurance enables a client to get coverage that would be too great for any one company to assume.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reinsurance."

---

repress (verb)

Put down by force or intimidation.

- The coach explained when to use "repress" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "repress" in real sentences.

---

resignations (noun)

A formal document giving notice of your intention to resign.

- In class, the teacher used "resignations" to mean a formal document giving notice of your intention....
- He looked up "resignations" because he had never seen it before.

---

resolutely (adverb)

Showing firm determination or purpose.

- She resolutely refused to look at him or speak to him.
- He entered the building resolutely.

---

respectability (noun)

Honorableness by virtue of being respectable and having a good reputation.

- Understanding "respectability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "respectability" means with a simple example.

---

retainers (noun)

A fee charged in advance to retain the services of someone.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retainers."
- He looked up "retainers" because he had never seen it before.

---

retrospectively (adverb)

In a manner contemplative of past events.

- Retrospectively, he seems like a great artist.
- She spoke "retrospectively," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

revolts (verb)

Cause aversion in; offend the moral sense of.

- In everyday English, people use "revolts" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "revolts" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

robert alexander schumann (noun)

German romantic composer known for piano music and songs (1810-1856).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "robert alexander schumann."
- The article explained what "robert alexander schumann" means with a simple example.

---

roleplay (verb)

Perform on a stage or theater.

- She tried to use "roleplay" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "roleplay" until he saw an example.

---

rostov (noun)

A seaport on the Don River near the Sea of Azov in the European part of Russia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rostov."
- He looked up "rostov" because he had never seen it before.

---

rotted (adjective)

Damaged by decay; hence unsound and useless.

- Rotted beams.
- Students compared "rotted" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

rusher (noun)

A person who rushes; someone in a hurry; someone who acts precipitously.

- They discussed "rusher" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "rusher" means with a simple example.

---

sagittarius the archer (noun)

The ninth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about November 22 to December 21.

- In class, the teacher used "sagittarius the archer" to mean the ninth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this....
- The article explained what "sagittarius the archer" means with a simple example.

---

samuel taylor coleridge (noun)

English romantic poet (1772-1834).

- He looked up "samuel taylor coleridge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "samuel taylor coleridge."

---

sanctum (noun)

A place of inviolable privacy.

- He withdrew to his sanctum sanctorum, where the children could never go.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sanctum."

---

sawdust doll (noun)

A doll that is stuffed with sawdust.

- Understanding "sawdust doll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sawdust doll" means with a simple example.

---

scarface (noun)

United States gangster who terrorized Chicago during prohibition until arrested for tax evasion (1899-1947).

- Understanding "scarface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "scarface" because he had never seen it before.

---

scooping (verb)

Take out or up with or as if with a scoop.

- She tried to use "scooping" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "scooping" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

scrolled (verb)

Move through text or graphics in order to display parts that do not fit on the screen.

- The coach explained when to use "scrolled" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "scrolled" until he saw an example.

---

sensuality (noun)

Desire for sensual pleasures.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sensuality."
- He looked up "sensuality" because he had never seen it before.

---

sequoia (noun)

Either of two huge coniferous California trees that reach a height of 300 feet; sometimes placed in the Taxodiaceae.

- The article explained what "sequoia" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sequoia" to mean either of two huge coniferous california trees that....

---

sequoia national park (noun)

A national park in California that includes Mount Whitney.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sequoia national park."
- The article explained what "sequoia national park" means with a simple example.

---

serpents (noun)

An obsolete bass cornet; resembles a snake.

- Understanding "serpents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "serpents" because he had never seen it before.

---

serrated (adjective)

Notched like a saw with teeth pointing toward the apex.

- It is useful to describe something as "serrated" when it is notched like a saw with teeth pointing toward the apex.
- A "serrated" approach may work better in this case.

---

severing (noun)

The act of severing.

- The article explained what "severing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "severing."

---

shawnee cake (noun)

Form of johnnycake.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shawnee cake."
- He looked up "shawnee cake" because he had never seen it before.

---

shunt (noun)

A passage by which a bodily fluid (especially blood) is diverted from one channel to another.

- An arteriovenus shunt.
- He looked up "shunt" because he had never seen it before.

---

sigmund freud (noun)

Austrian neurologist who originated psychoanalysis (1856-1939).

- They discussed "sigmund freud" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "sigmund freud" means with a simple example.

---

sir edmund percival hillary (noun)

New Zealand mountaineer who in 1953 first attained the summit of Mount Everest with his Sherpa guide Tenzing Norgay (born in 1919).

- Understanding "sir edmund percival hillary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sir edmund percival hillary" means with a simple example.

---

sir frank whittle (noun)

English aeronautical engineer who invented the jet aircraft engine (1907-1996).

- They discussed "sir frank whittle" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sir frank whittle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sir peter paul rubens (noun)

Prolific Flemish baroque painter; knighted by the English king Charles I (1577-1640).

- They discussed "sir peter paul rubens" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sir peter paul rubens" to mean prolific flemish baroque painter; knighted by the....

---

smyrna (noun)

A port city in western Turkey.

- In class, the teacher used "smyrna" to mean a port city in western turkey.
- The article explained what "smyrna" means with a simple example.

solver (noun)

A thinker who focuses on the problem as stated and tries to synthesize information and knowledge to achieve a solution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "solver."
- The article explained what "solver" means with a simple example.

somatic chromosome (noun)

Any chromosome that is not a sex chromosome; appear in pairs in body cells but as single chromosomes in spermatozoa.

- Understanding "somatic chromosome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "somatic chromosome" means with a simple example.

southland (noun)

Any region lying in or toward the south.

- In class, the teacher used "southland" to mean any region lying in or toward the south.
- They discussed "southland" during the group presentation.

spaniel (noun)

Any of several breeds of small to medium-sized gun dogs with a long silky coat and long frilled ears.

- He looked up "spaniel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spaniel."

spearhead-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf shape) like a spear point, with flaring pointed lobes at the base.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spearhead-shaped."
- Students compared "spearhead-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

st john's wort (noun)

Any of numerous plants of the genus Hypericum having yellow flowers and transparently dotted leaves; traditionally gathered on St John's eve to ward off evil.

- Understanding "st john's wort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "st john's wort" to mean any of numerous plants of the genus hypericum....

st john's wort family (noun)

Widely distributed family of chiefly tropical trees and shrubs and vines that produce oils and resins and some usable timber.

- He looked up "st john's wort family" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "st john's wort family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stagger (verb)

To arrange in a systematic order.

- Stagger the chairs in the lecture hall.
- The drunken man staggered into the room.

stagger head (noun)

A headline with the top line flush left and succeeding lines indented to the right.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stagger head."
- He looked up "stagger head" because he had never seen it before.

stalingrad (noun)

A city in the European part of Russia on the Volga; site of German defeat in World War II in the winter of 1942-43.

- The article explained what "stalingrad" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "stalingrad" during the group presentation.

statuses (noun)

The relative position or standing of things or especially persons in a society.

- He looked up "statuses" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "statuses" to mean the relative position or standing of things or....

steels (noun)

A cutting or thrusting weapon that has a long metal blade and a hilt with a hand guard.

- Understanding "steels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steels."

---

steely (adjective)

Resembling steel as in hardness.

- Steely eyes.
- Steely nerves like those of a steeplejack.

---

stent (noun)

A slender tube inserted inside a tubular body part (as a blood vessel) to provide support during and after surgical anastomosis.

- In class, the teacher used "stent" to mean a slender tube inserted inside a tubular body part....
- They discussed "stent" during the group presentation.

---

stiffer (adjective)

Having a strong physiological or chemical effect; ; ; ,.

- A "stiffer" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "stiffer" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sugar sorghum (noun)

Any of several sorghums cultivated as a source of syrup.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sugar sorghum."
- Understanding "sugar sorghum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sunflowers (noun)

Any plant of the genus Helianthus having large flower heads with dark disk florets and showy yellow rays.

- Understanding "sunflowers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sunflowers" during the group presentation.

---

supercharged (adjective)

Fraught with great emotion.

- A "supercharged" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "supercharged"? Explain why.

---

surety (noun)

A guarantee that an obligation will be met.

- In class, the teacher used "surety" to mean a guarantee that an obligation will be met.
- The article explained what "surety" means with a simple example.

---

susquehanna (noun)

A river in the northeastern United States that rises in New York and flows southward through Pennsylvania and Maryland into Chesapeake Bay.

- Understanding "susquehanna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "susquehanna."

---

susquehanna river (noun)

A river in the northeastern United States that rises in New York and flows southward through Pennsylvania and Maryland into Chesapeake Bay.

- He looked up "susquehanna river" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "susquehanna river."

---

swaziland (noun)

A landlocked monarchy in southeastern Africa; member of the commonwealth that achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1968.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swaziland."
- He looked up "swaziland" because he had never seen it before.

---

sweatpants (noun)

Loose-fitting trousers with elastic cuffs; worn by athletes.

- In class, the teacher used "sweatpants" to mean loose-fitting trousers with elastic cuffs; worn by....

- They discussed "sweatpants" during the group presentation.

---

swedish turnip (noun)

The large yellow root of a rutabaga plant used as food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swedish turnip."
- He looked up "swedish turnip" because he had never seen it before.

---

sweethearts (noun)

A very attractive or seductive looking woman.

- They discussed "sweethearts" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweethearts."

---

symphonic poem (noun)

An orchestral composition based on literature or folk tales.

- They discussed "symphonic poem" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "symphonic poem" because he had never seen it before.

---

syntactic (adjective)

Of or relating to or conforming to the rules of syntax.

- The syntactic rules of a language.
- It is useful to describe something as "syntactic" when it is of or relating to or conforming to the rules of syntax.

---

talkie (noun)

A movie with synchronized speech and singing.

- He looked up "talkie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "talkie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

temporary expedient (noun)

An unplanned expedient.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "temporary expedient."
- He looked up "temporary expedient" because he had never seen it before.

---

the admirable crichton (noun)

Scottish man of letters and adventurer (1560-1582).

- In class, the teacher used "the admirable crichton" to mean scottish man of letters and adventurer (1560-1582).
- He looked up "the admirable crichton" because he had never seen it before.

---

theorized (verb)

To believe especially on uncertain or tentative grounds.

- Galileo theorized the motion of the stars.
- She tried to use "theorized" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

thomas stearns eliot (noun)

British poet (born in the United States) who won the Nobel prize for literature; his plays are outstanding examples of modern verse drama (1888-1965).

- The article explained what "thomas stearns eliot" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "thomas stearns eliot" during the group presentation.

---

thrusts (noun)

A sharp hand gesture (resembling a blow).

- He enlivened his editorials with barbed thrusts at politicians.
- They discussed "thrusts" during the group presentation.

---

tiebreaker (noun)

Overtime play in order to break a tie; e.g. tennis and soccer.

- He looked up "tiebreaker" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tiebreaker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tnf (noun)

A proinflammatory cytokine that is produced by white blood cells (monocytes and macrophages); has an antineoplastic effect but causes inflammation (as in rheumatoid arthritis).

- He looked up "tnf" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tnf."

---

topical anaesthetic (noun)

Anesthetic that numbs a particular area of the body.

- The article explained what "topical anaesthetic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "topical anaesthetic" to mean anesthetic that numbs a particular area of the body.

---

totalitarianism (noun)

The principle of complete and unrestricted power in government.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "totalitarianism."
- Understanding "totalitarianism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

treatises (noun)

A formal exposition.

- Understanding "treatises" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "treatises" to mean a formal exposition.

---

tropic bird (noun)

Mostly white web-footed tropical seabird often found far from land.

- Understanding "tropic bird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tropic bird."

---

tulip poplar (noun)

Tall North American deciduous timber tree having large tulip-shaped greenish yellow flowers and conelike fruit; yields soft white woods used especially for cabinet work.

- Understanding "tulip poplar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tulip poplar" because he had never seen it before.

---

turkey buzzard (noun)

A New World vulture that is common in South America and Central America and the southern United States.

- Understanding "turkey buzzard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "turkey buzzard" means with a simple example.

---

twig blight (noun)

A disease of the ends of twigs of woody plants.

- They discussed "twig blight" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "twig blight."

---

unassuming (adjective)

Not arrogant or presuming.

- Unassuming to a fault, skeptical about the value of his work.
- It is useful to describe something as "unassuming" when it is not arrogant or presuming.

---

undersecretary (noun)

A secretary immediately subordinate to the head of a department of government.

- Understanding "undersecretary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "undersecretary" to mean a secretary immediately subordinate to the head of....

---

unintelligible (adjective)

Poorly articulated or enunciated, or drowned by noise.

- Unintelligible speech.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unintelligible."

---

unorganized (adjective)

Not having or belonging to a structured whole.

- Unorganized territories lack a formal government.
- Would you call this situation "unorganized"? Explain why.

---

upholds (verb)

Keep or maintain in unaltered condition; cause to remain or last.

- He did not know how to use "upholds" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "upholds" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

usmc (noun)

An amphibious division of the United States Navy.

- Understanding "usmc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "usmc" to mean an amphibious division of the united states navy.

---

veal parmesan (noun)

Sauteed veal cutlet in a breadcrumb-and-cheese coating served with tomato sauce.

- The article explained what "veal parmesan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "veal parmesan" to mean sauteed veal cutlet in a breadcrumb-and-cheese....

---

verdi (noun)

Italian operatic composer (1813-1901).

- He looked up "verdi" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "verdi."

---

verity (noun)

An enduring or necessary ethical or religious or aesthetic truth.

- The article explained what "verity" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "verity" during the group presentation.

---

victimization (noun)

An act that exploits or victimizes someone (treats them unfairly).

- Paying Blacks less and charging them more is a form of victimization.
- His victimization infuriated him.

---

viola d'amore (noun)

Viol that is the tenor of the viol family.

- In class, the teacher used "viola d'amore" to mean viol that is the tenor of the viol family.
- He looked up "viola d'amore" because he had never seen it before.

---

water spaniel (noun)

Any dog of two large curly-coated breeds used for hunting waterfowl.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water spaniel."
- The article explained what "water spaniel" means with a simple example.

---

web-toed (adjective)

Having feet with webbed toes.

- A "web-toed" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "web-toed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

western big-eared bat (noun)

Bat of western North America having extremely large ears.

- They discussed "western big-eared bat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "western big-eared bat" means with a simple example.

---

wicks (noun)

Any piece of cord that conveys liquid by capillary action.

- They discussed "wicks" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wicks" means with a simple example.

william hogarth (noun)

English artist noted for a series of engravings that satirized the affectations of his time (1697-1764).

- Understanding "william hogarth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "william hogarth" during the group presentation.

winking (noun)

A reflex that closes and opens the eyes rapidly.

- The article explained what "winking" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "winking" to mean a reflex that closes and opens the eyes rapidly.

withering (adjective)

Wreaking or capable of wreaking complete destruction.

- The guns opened a withering fire.
- To compliments inflated I've a withering reply.

woodpecker (noun)

Bird with strong claws and a stiff tail adapted for climbing and a hard chisel-like bill for boring into wood for insects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woodpecker."
- He looked up "woodpecker" because he had never seen it before.

woolly-stemmed (adjective)

Having a woolly stem.

- Students compared "woolly-stemmed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "woolly-stemmed"? Explain why.

workstations (noun)

A desktop digital computer that is conventionally considered to be more powerful than a microcomputer.

- He looked up "workstations" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "workstations" during the group presentation.

wtc (noun)

Twin skyscrapers 110 stories high in New York City; built 1368 feet tall in 1970 to 1973; destroyed by a terrorist attack on September 11, 2001.

- He looked up "wtc" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "wtc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

xvii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of sixteen and one.

- He looked up "xvii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "xvii."

yip (noun)

A sharp high-pitched cry (especially by a dog).

- Understanding "yip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "yip" means with a simple example.

zigzag (noun)

An angular shape characterized by sharp turns in alternating directions.

- He looked up "zigzag" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "zigzag" to mean an angular shape characterized by sharp turns in....

abdominal aorta (noun)

A branch of the descending aorta.

- Understanding "abdominal aorta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "abdominal aorta" during the group presentation.

absolve (verb)

Grant remission of a sin to.

- The priest absolved him and told him to say ten Hail Mary's.
- I absolve you from this responsibility.

---

acapulco (noun)

A port and fashionable resort city on the Pacific coast of southern Mexico; known for beaches and water sports (including cliff diving).

- In class, the teacher used "acapulco" to mean a port and fashionable resort city on the pacific....
- Understanding "acapulco" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

acapulco gold (noun)

A particularly potent variety of marijuana.

- He looked up "acapulco gold" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "acapulco gold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

adieu (noun)

A farewell remark.

- He looked up "adieu" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adieu."

---

agonist (noun)

A muscle that contracts while another relaxes.

- When bending the elbow the biceps are the agonist.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agonist."

---

aground (adjective)

Stuck in a place where a ship can no longer float.

- A ship aground offshore.
- A boat aground on the beach waiting for the tide to lift it.

---

airfare (noun)

The fare charged for traveling by airplane.

- He looked up "airfare" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "airfare."

---

alan seeger (noun)

United States poet killed in World War I (1888-1916).

- They discussed "alan seeger" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alan seeger."

---

alligator snapper (noun)

Large species having three ridges on its back; found in southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "alligator snapper" to mean large species having three ridges on its back;....
- He looked up "alligator snapper" because he had never seen it before.

---

alms tray (noun)

A tray for collecting the offering from a congregation.

- The article explained what "alms tray" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alms tray" to mean a tray for collecting the offering from a congregation.

---

alternator (noun)

An old term for an electric generator that produces alternating current (especially in automobiles).

- He looked up "alternator" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "alternator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ammonium alum (noun)

A white crystalline double sulfate of aluminum: the ammonium double sulfate of aluminum.

- He looked up "ammonium alum" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ammonium alum."

---

ammonium nitrate (noun)

Used as an explosive and fertilizer and rocket propellant.

- Understanding "ammonium nitrate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ammonium nitrate" means with a simple example.

---

antiviral (adjective)

Inhibiting or stopping the growth and reproduction of viruses.

- Students compared "antiviral" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "antiviral."

---

antiviral agent (noun)

Any drug that destroys viruses.

- They discussed "antiviral agent" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antiviral agent."

---

antiviral drug (noun)

Any drug that destroys viruses.

- Understanding "antiviral drug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antiviral drug."

---

arousing (verb)

Call forth (emotions, feelings, and responses).

- She tried to use "arousing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "arousing" until he saw an example.

---

aspired (verb)

Have an ambitious plan or a lofty goal.

- Learners should practice how to use "aspired" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "aspired" when talking about this idea.

---

badlands (noun)

An eroded and barren region in southwestern South Dakota and northwestern Nebraska.

- The article explained what "badlands" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "badlands" during the group presentation.

---

badlands national park (noun)

A national park in South Dakota having multicolored peaks and spires resulting from erosion; fossil sites.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "badlands national park."
- He looked up "badlands national park" because he had never seen it before.

---

bari (noun)

Capital city of the Apulia region on the Adriatic coast.

- In class, the teacher used "bari" to mean capital city of the apulia region on the adriatic coast.
- The article explained what "bari" means with a simple example.

---

baronet (noun)

A member of the British order of honor; ranks below a baron but above a knight.

- Since he was a baronet he had to be addressed as Sir Henry Jones, Bart.
- The article explained what "baronet" means with a simple example.

---

barren ground caribou (noun)

Of tundra of northern Canada; in some classifications included in the species Rangifer tarandus.

- In class, the teacher used "barren ground caribou" to mean of tundra of northern canada; in some....
- The article explained what "barren ground caribou" means with a simple example.

---

bean caper (noun)

Perennial shrub of the eastern Mediterranean region and southwestern Asia having flowers whose buds are used as capers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bean caper."
- Understanding "bean caper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bean-caper family (noun)

Small trees, shrubs, and herbs of warm arid and saline regions; often resinous; some poisonous: genera Zygophyllum, Tribulus, Guaiacum, Larrea.

- He looked up "bean-caper family" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bean-caper family."

bearish (adjective)

Expecting prices to fall.

- Would you call this situation "bearish"? Explain why.
- Students compared "bearish" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

bebop (noun)

An early form of modern jazz (originating around 1940).

- He looked up "bebop" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bebop."

beet blight (noun)

A disease of beet plants.

- Understanding "beet blight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beet blight" during the group presentation.

belting (noun)

The material of which belts are made.

- The article explained what "belting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "belting" to mean the material of which belts are made.

big dipper (noun)

A group of seven bright stars in the constellation Ursa Major.

- He looked up "big dipper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "big dipper" to mean a group of seven bright stars in the constellation....

biometric authentication (noun)

The automatic identification of living individuals by using their physiological and behavioral characteristics.

- Negative identification can only be accomplished through biometric identification.
- If a pin or password is lost or forgotten it can be changed and reissued but a biometric identification cannot.

bitumen (noun)

Any of various naturally occurring impure mixtures of hydrocarbons.

- In class, the teacher used "bitumen" to mean any of various naturally occurring impure mixtures....
- The article explained what "bitumen" means with a simple example.

black-footed ferret (noun)

Musteline mammal of prairie regions of United States; nearly extinct.

- The article explained what "black-footed ferret" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "black-footed ferret" during the group presentation.

borges (noun)

Argentinian writer remembered for his short stories (1899-1986).

- In class, the teacher used "borges" to mean argentinian writer remembered for his short stories....
- He looked up "borges" because he had never seen it before.

broad-shouldered (adjective)

Having broad shoulders.

- Students compared "broad-shouldered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "broad-shouldered" approach may work better in this case.

---

brown thrush (noun)

Common large songbird of eastern United States having reddish-brown plumage.

- In class, the teacher used "brown thrush" to mean common large songbird of eastern united states....
- The article explained what "brown thrush" means with a simple example.

---

buss (noun)

The act of caressing with the lips (or an instance thereof).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buss."
- He looked up "buss" because he had never seen it before.

---

butterfield (noun)

English architect who designed many churches (1814-1900).

- Understanding "butterfield" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "butterfield" means with a simple example.

---

buttermilk biscuit (noun)

Very tender biscuit partially leavened with buttermilk and soda.

- In class, the teacher used "buttermilk biscuit" to mean very tender biscuit partially leavened with....
- They discussed "buttermilk biscuit" during the group presentation.

---

buzzard (noun)

A New World vulture that is common in South America and Central America and the southern United States.

- Understanding "buzzard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "buzzard" to mean a new world vulture that is common in south america....

---

bygone (noun)

Past events to be put aside.

- Let bygones be bygones.
- Understanding "bygone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cacao bean (noun)

Seed of the cacao tree; ground roasted beans are source of chocolate.

- They discussed "cacao bean" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cacao bean" because he had never seen it before.

---

calico crab (noun)

Brightly spotted crab of sandy beaches of the Atlantic coast of the United States.

- The article explained what "calico crab" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "calico crab" to mean brightly spotted crab of sandy beaches of the....

---

cannibals (noun)

A person who eats human flesh.

- The article explained what "cannibals" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cannibals" to mean a person who eats human flesh.

---

capers (noun)

A crime (especially a robbery).

- Understanding "capers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "capers" means with a simple example.

---

capillary vein (noun)

A minute vein continuous with a capillary.

- They discussed "capillary vein" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "capillary vein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carbine (noun)

Light automatic rifle.

- He looked up "carbine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "carbine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carelessness (noun)

The quality of not being careful or taking pains.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carelessness."
- Understanding "carelessness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carlos fuentes (noun)

Mexican novelist (born in 1928).

- He looked up "carlos fuentes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carlos fuentes."

carotid artery (noun)

Either of two major arteries of the neck and head; branches from the aorta.

- The article explained what "carotid artery" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carotid artery."

cedars (noun)

Any of numerous trees of the family Cupressaceae that resemble cedars.

- Understanding "cedars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cedars."

certifying (verb)

Provide evidence for; stand as proof of; show by one's behavior, attitude, or external attributes.

- She tried to use "certifying" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "certifying" in a sentence that fits this situation?

charles franklin kettering (noun)

United States electrical engineer who made numerous automotive improvements (including the electric starter) (1876-1958).

- In class, the teacher used "charles franklin kettering" to mean united states electrical engineer who made numerous....
- They discussed "charles franklin kettering" during the group presentation.

chattering (noun)

The rapid series of noises made by the parts of a machine.

- The article explained what "chattering" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chattering" during the group presentation.

chongqing (noun)

A city in south-central China on the Chang Jiang; a commercial center for western China.

- He looked up "chongqing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chongqing."

chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (noun)

A nonreversible lung disease that is a combination of emphysema and chronic bronchitis; usually patients have been heavy cigarette smokers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chronic obstructive pulmonary disease."
- Understanding "chronic obstructive pulmonary disease" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chucked (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- Can you use "chucked" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "chucked" when talking about this idea.

chuckling (verb)

Laugh quietly or with restraint.

- The coach explained when to use "chuckling" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "chuckling" in real sentences.

---

commensurate (adjective)

Corresponding in size or degree or extent.

- Pay should be commensurate with the time worked.
- The speaker chose "commensurate" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

common carotid artery (noun)

Runs upward in the neck and divides into the external and internal carotid arteries.

- In class, the teacher used "common carotid artery" to mean runs upward in the neck and divides into the....
- They discussed "common carotid artery" during the group presentation.

---

compressors (noun)

A mechanical device that compresses gasses.

- He looked up "compressors" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "compressors" during the group presentation.

---

confounding (adjective)

That confounds or contradicts or confuses.

- Would you call this situation "confounding"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "confounding" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

contaminate (verb)

Make radioactive by adding radioactive material.

- Don't drink the water–it's contaminated.
- Can you use "contaminate" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

copley (noun)

American painter who did portraits of Paul Revere and John Hancock before fleeing to England to avoid the American Revolution (1738-1815).

- He looked up "copley" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "copley" to mean american painter who did portraits of paul revere....

---

corgi (noun)

Either of two Welsh breeds of long-bodied short-legged dogs with erect ears and a fox-like head.

- He looked up "corgi" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "corgi" to mean either of two welsh breeds of long-bodied....

---

corsair (noun)

A swift pirate ship (often operating with official sanction).

- They discussed "corsair" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "corsair" means with a simple example.

---

cortes (noun)

Spanish conquistador who defeated the Aztecs and conquered Mexico (1485-1547).

- Understanding "cortes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cortes."

---

counterfeiting (verb)

Make a copy of with the intent to deceive.

- The coach explained when to use "counterfeiting" and when to wait.
- Can you use "counterfeiting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

couriers (noun)

A person who carries a message.

- In class, the teacher used "couriers" to mean a person who carries a message.

- The article explained what "couriers" means with a simple example.

---

cranking (verb)

Travel along a zigzag path.

- He did not know how to use "cranking" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "cranking" when talking about this idea.

---

cranks (noun)

A hand tool consisting of a rotating shaft with parallel handle.

- In class, the teacher used "cranks" to mean a hand tool consisting of a rotating shaft with....
- He looked up "cranks" because he had never seen it before.

---

creeping bugle (noun)

Low rhizomatous European carpeting plant having spikes of blue flowers; naturalized in parts of United States.

- In class, the teacher used "creeping bugle" to mean low rhizomatous european carpeting plant having....
- The article explained what "creeping bugle" means with a simple example.

---

crescendo (noun)

(music) a gradual increase in loudness.

- Understanding "crescendo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "crescendo" to mean (music) a gradual increase in loudness.

---

crested coral root (noun)

Orchid with yellowish-brown flowers with dark veins; southeastern Arizona to the eastern United States.

- The article explained what "crested coral root" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crested coral root" to mean orchid with yellowish-brown flowers with dark....

---

crested penguin (noun)

Small penguin of the Falkland Islands and New Zealand.

- In class, the teacher used "crested penguin" to mean small penguin of the falkland islands and new zealand.
- The article explained what "crested penguin" means with a simple example.

---

cubic centimeter (noun)

A metric unit of volume equal to one thousandth of a liter.

- Understanding "cubic centimeter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cubic centimeter" during the group presentation.

---

curly-coated retriever (noun)

An English breed having a tightly curled black or liver-colored coat; retrieves game from land or water.

- In class, the teacher used "curly-coated retriever" to mean an english breed having a tightly curled black or....
- The article explained what "curly-coated retriever" means with a simple example.

---

curly-grained (adjective)

Of timber; having fibers running irregularly rather than in parallel.

- Would you call this situation "curly-grained"? Explain why.
- Students compared "curly-grained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cuss (noun)

Profane or obscene expression usually of surprise or anger.

- He's a likable cuss.
- Understanding "cuss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dauphin (noun)

Formerly, the eldest son of the King of France and direct heir to the throne.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dauphin."
- He looked up "dauphin" because he had never seen it before.

---

davy crockett (noun)

United States frontiersman and Tennessee politician who died at the siege of the Alamo (1786-1836).

- They discussed "davy crockett" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "davy crockett" because he had never seen it before.

---

de sade (noun)

French soldier and writer whose descriptions of sexual perversion gave rise to the term 'sadism' (1740-1814).

- He looked up "de sade" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "de sade" during the group presentation.

---

death's head (noun)

A human skull (or a representation of a human skull) used as a symbol of death.

- Understanding "death's head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "death's head."

---

deformity (noun)

An appearance that has been spoiled or is misshapen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deformity."
- They discussed "deformity" during the group presentation.

---

dental amalgam (noun)

An alloy of mercury with another metal (usually silver) used by dentists to fill cavities in teeth; except for iron and platinum all metals dissolve in mercury and chemists refer to the resulting mercury mixtures as amalgams.

- He looked up "dental amalgam" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dental amalgam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dents (noun)

An appreciable consequence (especially a lessening).

- Understanding "dents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dents" during the group presentation.

---

deviated (verb)

Cause to turn away from a previous or expected course.

- The river was deviated to prevent flooding.
- The coach explained when to use "deviated" and when to wait.

---

dibs (noun)

A claim of rights.

- I have dibs on that last slice of pizza.
- He looked up "dibs" because he had never seen it before.

---

dinghy (noun)

A small boat of shallow draft with cross thwarts for seats and rowlocks for oars with which it is propelled.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dinghy."
- He looked up "dinghy" because he had never seen it before.

---

dipper (noun)

A ladle that has a cup with a long handle.

- Understanding "dipper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dipper" because he had never seen it before.

---

discourages (verb)

Admonish or counsel in terms of someone's behavior.

- Can you use "discourages" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "discourages" when talking about this idea.

---

disobey (verb)

Refuse to go along with; refuse to follow; be disobedient.

- He disobeyed his supervisor and was fired.
- Can you use "disobey" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

disseminating (verb)

Cause to become widely known.

- He did not know how to use "disseminating" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "disseminating" and when to wait.

---

dissociation constant (noun)

The equilibrium constant for a reversible dissociation.

- They discussed "dissociation constant" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dissociation constant" means with a simple example.

---

disturbs (verb)

Damage as if by shaking or jarring.

- The coach explained when to use "disturbs" and when to wait.
- Can you use "disturbs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

diverge (verb)

Extend in a different direction.

- The lines start to diverge here.
- Their interests diverged.

---

dominoes (noun)

Any of several games played with small rectangular blocks.

- He looked up "dominoes" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "dominoes" to mean any of several games played with small rectangular....

---

double dipper (noun)

Someone who draws two incomes from the government (usually by combining a salary and a pension).

- The article explained what "double dipper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "double dipper" to mean someone who draws two incomes from the government....

---

downpour (noun)

A heavy rain.

- In class, the teacher used "downpour" to mean a heavy rain.
- The article explained what "downpour" means with a simple example.

---

dressed to the nines (adjective)

Dressed in fancy or formal clothing.

- A "dressed to the nines" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "dressed to the nines" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

drifter (noun)

A wanderer who has no established residence or visible means of support.

- Understanding "drifter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "drifter" during the group presentation.

---

dusky (adjective)

Lighted by or as if by twilight; -Henry Fielding.

- The dusky night rides down the sky/And ushers in the morn.
- Gold earrings gleamed against her dusky cheeks.

---

dystrophy (noun)

Any degenerative disorder resulting from inadequate or faulty nutrition.

- In class, the teacher used "dystrophy" to mean any degenerative disorder resulting from inadequate....
- The article explained what "dystrophy" means with a simple example.

eared seal (noun)

Pinniped mammal having external ear flaps and hind limbs used for locomotion on land; valued for its soft underfur.

- In class, the teacher used "eared seal" to mean pinniped mammal having external ear flaps and hind....
- The article explained what "eared seal" means with a simple example.

eastside (adjective)

Of the eastern part of a city e.g. Manhattan.

- The eastside silk-stocking district.
- Students compared "eastside" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

eccles cake (noun)

A flat round cake of sweetened pastry filled with dried fruit.

- The article explained what "eccles cake" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "eccles cake" to mean a flat round cake of sweetened pastry filled with....

elizabeth seton (noun)

United States religious leader who was the first person born in the United States to be canonized (1774-1821).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elizabeth seton."
- The article explained what "elizabeth seton" means with a simple example.

eloquence (noun)

Powerful and effective language.

- His eloquence attracted a large congregation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eloquence."

enhancer (noun)

Anything that serves by contrast to call attention to another thing's good qualities.

- Understanding "enhancer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enhancer."

enquirer (noun)

Someone who asks a question.

- They discussed "enquirer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "enquirer" means with a simple example.

enslave (verb)

Make a slave of; bring into servitude.

- Learners should practice how to use "enslave" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "enslave" carefully so everyone would understand.

epitaph (noun)

A summary statement of commemoration for a dead person.

- The article explained what "epitaph" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epitaph."

erectile tissue (noun)

Vascular tissue capable of filling with blood and becoming rigid.

- He looked up "erectile tissue" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "erectile tissue" during the group presentation.

ernest bloch (noun)

United States composer (born in Switzerland) who composed symphonies and chamber music and choral music and a piano sonata and an opera (1880-1959).

- The article explained what "ernest bloch" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ernest bloch" to mean united states composer (born in switzerland) who....

eurasian green toad (noun)

Eurasian toad with variable chiefly green coloring.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eurasian green toad."
- He looked up "eurasian green toad" because he had never seen it before.

---

european woolly thistle (noun)

Woolly thistle of western and central Europe and Balkan Peninsula.

- In class, the teacher used "european woolly thistle" to mean woolly thistle of western and central europe and....
- Understanding "european woolly thistle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evelyn arthur saint john waugh (noun)

English author of satirical novels (1903-1966).

- They discussed "evelyn arthur saint john waugh" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "evelyn arthur saint john waugh" to mean english author of satirical novels (1903-1966).

---

even-toed (adjective)

Of or relating to or belonging to mammals of the order Artiodactyla.

- The speaker chose "even-toed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "even-toed"? Explain why.

---

exclusions (noun)

The act of forcing out someone or something.

- The article explained what "exclusions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "exclusions" to mean the act of forcing out someone or something.

---

excrement (noun)

Waste matter (as urine or sweat but especially feces) discharged from the body.

- They discussed "excrement" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "excrement" because he had never seen it before.

---

expedient (noun)

A means to an end; not necessarily a principled or ethical one.

- In class, the teacher used "expedient" to mean a means to an end; not necessarily a principled or....
- The article explained what "expedient" means with a simple example.

---

fallow (adjective)

Left unplowed and unseeded during a growing season.

- Fallow farmland.
- A fallow gold market.

---

fatah revolutionary council (noun)

A Palestinian international terrorist organization that split from the PLO in 1974; has conducted terrorist attacks in 20 countries.

- In the 1980s the Fatah-RC was considered the most dangerous and murderous Palestinian terror group.
- In class, the teacher used "fatah revolutionary council" to mean a palestinian international terrorist organization....

---

fen (noun)

Low-lying wet land with grassy vegetation; usually is a transition zone between land and water.

- The fens of eastern England.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fen."

---

fermi (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one quadrillionth of a meter.

- The article explained what "fermi" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fermi" to mean a metric unit of length equal to one quadrillionth....

---

fiddler (noun)

An unskilled person who tries to fix or mend.

- He looked up "fiddler" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fiddler."

fixed intonation (noun)

The intonation of keyboard instruments where the pitch of each note is fixed and cannot be varied by the performer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fixed intonation."
- Understanding "fixed intonation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flagging (noun)

A walk of flagstones.

- The flagging in the garden was quite imaginative.
- There was a pile of flagging waiting to be laid in place.

foal (verb)

Give birth to a foal.

- The mare foaled.
- The coach explained when to use "foal" and when to wait.

foreclosed (verb)

Keep from happening or arising; make impossible.

- Learners should practice how to use "foreclosed" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "foreclosed" and when to wait.

forlorn (adjective)

Marked by or showing hopelessness.

- The last forlorn attempt.
- A forlorn cause.

forlorn hope (noun)

A hopeless or desperate enterprise.

- In class, the teacher used "forlorn hope" to mean a hopeless or desperate enterprise.
- Understanding "forlorn hope" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

foucault (noun)

French physicist who determined the speed of light and showed that it travels slower in water than in air; invented the Foucault pendulum and the gyroscope (1819-1868).

- The article explained what "foucault" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "foucault."

fragmentary (adjective)

Consisting of small disconnected parts.

- Fragmentary remains.
- Would you call this situation "fragmentary"? Explain why.

fred sanger (noun)

English biochemist who determined the sequence of amino acids in insulin and who invented a technique to determine the genetic sequence of an organism (born in 1918).

- The article explained what "fred sanger" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fred sanger" to mean english biochemist who determined the sequence of....

frederic william maitland (noun)

English historian noted for his works on the history of English law (1850-1906).

- The article explained what "frederic william maitland" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "frederic william maitland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

freetown (noun)

Port city and the capital and largest city of Sierra Leone.

- He looked up "freetown" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "freetown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

furlongs (noun)

A unit of length equal to 220 yards.

- He looked up "furlongs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "furlongs."

---

gab (noun)

Light informal conversation for social occasions.

- He looked up "gab" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gab."

---

gateways (noun)

An entrance that can be closed by a gate.

- They discussed "gateways" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gateways."

---

gaudy (noun)

(Britain) a celebratory reunion feast or entertainment held a college.

- He looked up "gaudy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gaudy."

---

gauss (noun)

A unit of magnetic flux density equal to 1 maxwell per square centimeter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gauss."
- The article explained what "gauss" means with a simple example.

---

gazed (verb)

Look at with fixed eyes.

- Can you use "gazed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "gazed" and when to wait.

---

ginsberg (noun)

United States poet of the beat generation (1926-1997).

- The article explained what "ginsberg" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ginsberg" to mean united states poet of the beat generation (1926-1997).

---

gobble (noun)

The characteristic sound made by a turkey cock.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gobble."
- They discussed "gobble" during the group presentation.

---

gobble up (verb)

Eat a large amount of food quickly.

- The children gobbled down most of the birthday cake.
- The coach explained when to use "gobble up" and when to wait.

---

godspeed (noun)

A successful journey.

- They wished him Godspeed.
- The article explained what "godspeed" means with a simple example.

---

gopher turtle (noun)

Burrowing edible land tortoise of southeastern North America.

- They discussed "gopher turtle" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gopher turtle."

---

grandparent (noun)

A parent of your father or mother.

- He looked up "grandparent" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "grandparent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grays (noun)

A neutral achromatic color midway between white and black.

- He looked up "grays" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grays."

---

great grandparent (noun)

A parent of your grandparent.

- The article explained what "great grandparent" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great grandparent."

---

greeley (noun)

United States journalist with political ambitions (1811-1872).

- They discussed "greeley" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greeley."

---

grenade thrower (noun)

An infantryman equipped with grenades.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grenade thrower."
- The article explained what "grenade thrower" means with a simple example.

---

grout (noun)

A thin mortar that can be poured and used to fill cracks in masonry or brickwork.

- The article explained what "grout" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "grout" to mean a thin mortar that can be poured and used to fill....

---

gush (noun)

A sudden rapid flow (as of water).

- There was a little gush of blood.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gush."

---

haddock (noun)

Important food fish on both sides of the Atlantic; related to cod but usually smaller.

- He looked up "haddock" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haddock."

---

halogen (noun)

Any of five related nonmetallic elements (fluorine or chlorine or bromine or iodine or astatine) that are all monovalent and readily form negative ions.

- Understanding "halogen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "halogen" because he had never seen it before.

---

harpoon (noun)

A spear with a shaft and barbed point for throwing; used for catching large fish or whales; a strong line is attached to it.

- The article explained what "harpoon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "harpoon" to mean a spear with a shaft and barbed point for throwing;....

---

harpoon gun (noun)

A cannon or similar gun that fires harpoons.

- They discussed "harpoon gun" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "harpoon gun" because he had never seen it before.

---

harpoon line (noun)

A strong rope for making the catch fast to the harpooner's boat.

- The article explained what "harpoon line" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "harpoon line" during the group presentation.

haydn (noun)

Prolific Austrian composer who influenced the classical form of the symphony (1732-1809).

- He looked up "haydn" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "haydn" to mean prolific austrian composer who influenced the....

hazmat (noun)

An abbreviation for 'hazardous material' used on warning signs.

- NO HAZMATS IN TUNNEL.
- The article explained what "hazmat" means with a simple example.

heros (noun)

A man distinguished by exceptional courage and nobility and strength.

- They discussed "heros" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "heros" means with a simple example.

highlighter (noun)

A cosmetic used to highlight the eyes or cheekbones.

- The article explained what "highlighter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highlighter."

hock-joint (noun)

Tarsal joint of the hind leg of hoofed mammals; corresponds to the human ankle.

- In class, the teacher used "hock-joint" to mean tarsal joint of the hind leg of hoofed mammals;....
- The article explained what "hock-joint" means with a simple example.

homeopathic (adjective)

Of or relating to the practice of homeopathy.

- Homeopathic medicine.
- A "homeopathic" approach may work better in this case.

homogenous (adjective)

All of the same or similar kind or nature.

- It is useful to describe something as "homogenous" when it is all of the same or similar kind or nature.
- Students compared "homogenous" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

honduran monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Honduras.

- He looked up "honduran monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "honduran monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

humphrey bogart (noun)

United States film actor (1899-1957).

- They discussed "humphrey bogart" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "humphrey bogart" to mean united states film actor (1899-1957).

hydrology (noun)

The branch of geology that studies water on the earth and in the atmosphere: its distribution and uses and conservation.

- The article explained what "hydrology" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hydrology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hypoxia (noun)

Oxygen deficiency causing a very strong drive to correct the deficiency.

- Understanding "hypoxia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hypoxia" to mean oxygen deficiency causing a very strong drive to....

ibis (noun)

Wading birds of warm regions having long slender down-curved bills.

- The article explained what "ibis" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ibis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

idealist (noun)

Someone guided more by ideals than by practical considerations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "idealist."
- The article explained what "idealist" means with a simple example.

---

incarnations (noun)

A new personification of a familiar idea.

- They discussed "incarnations" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "incarnations."

---

incited (verb)

Give an incentive for action.

- The coach explained when to use "incited" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "incited" until he saw an example.

---

incubated (verb)

Grow under conditions that promote development.

- Can you use "incubated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "incubated" and when to wait.

---

indecisive (adjective)

Characterized by lack of decision and firmness.

- An indecisive manager brought the enterprise to a standstill.
- A long and indecisive war.

---

indefensible (adjective)

Incapable of being justified or explained.

- Would you call this situation "indefensible"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "indefensible."

---

indivisible (adjective)

Impossible of undergoing division.

- An indivisible union of states.
- One nation indivisible.

---

indivisible by (adjective)

Cannot be divided without leaving a remainder.

- A "indivisible by" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "indivisible by" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

industrialist (noun)

Someone who manages or has significant financial interest in an industrial enterprise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "industrialist."
- He looked up "industrialist" because he had never seen it before.

---

ineffectual (adjective)

Not producing an intended effect.

- It is useful to describe something as "ineffectual" when it is not producing an intended effect.
- A "ineffectual" approach may work better in this case.

---

inextricably (adverb)

In an inextricable manner.

- Motives inspired by Mammon were often inextricably blended with things pertaining to Caesar and to God.

- Place “inextricably” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

inflows (noun)

The process of flowing in.

- Understanding “inflows” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “inflows” to mean the process of flowing in.

---

ingest (verb)

Serve oneself to, or consume regularly.

- She tried to use “ingest” carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use “ingest” in real sentences.

---

inhalation anthrax (noun)

A form of anthrax infection acquired by inhalation of dust containing Bacillus anthracis; initial symptoms (chill and cough and dyspnea and rapid pulse) are followed by extreme cardiovascular collapse.

- They discussed “inhalation anthrax” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “inhalation anthrax” to mean a form of anthrax infection acquired by inhalation....

---

inhibitions (noun)

The action of prohibiting or inhibiting or forbidding (or an instance thereof).

- Understanding “inhibitions” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up “inhibitions” because he had never seen it before.

---

inner hebrides (noun)

Islands between the Outer Hebrides and the western coast of Scotland.

- In class, the teacher used “inner hebrides” to mean islands between the outer hebrides and the western....
- Understanding “inner hebrides” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

innermost (adjective)

Being deepest within the self.

- One’s innermost feelings.
- The innermost chamber.

---

insecticides (noun)

A chemical used to kill insects.

- They discussed “insecticides” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “insecticides” because he had never seen it before.

---

insoluble (adjective)

Admitting of no solution or explanation.

- An insoluble doubt.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “insoluble.”

---

insulate (verb)

Protect from heat, cold, or noise by surrounding with insulating material.

- We had his bedroom insulated before winter came.
- He did not know how to use “insulate” until he saw an example.

---

interconnection (noun)

A state of being connected reciprocally.

- An interconnection between the two buildings.
- He looked up “interconnection” because he had never seen it before.

---

intonation pattern (noun)

Intonations characteristic of questions and requests and statements.

- They discussed “intonation pattern” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “intonation pattern.”

introverted (adjective)

Given to examining own sensory and perceptual experiences.

- It is useful to describe something as "introverted" when it is given to examining own sensory and perceptual....
- The speaker chose "introverted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

invokes (verb)

Summon into action or bring into existence, often as if by magic.

- He did not know how to use "invokes" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "invokes" carefully so everyone would understand.

jitters (noun)

Extreme nervousness.

- They discussed "jitters" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "jitters" to mean extreme nervousness.

john copley (noun)

American painter who did portraits of Paul Revere and John Hancock before fleeing to England to avoid the American Revolution (1738-1815).

- They discussed "john copley" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "john copley" means with a simple example.

josiah willard gibbs (noun)

United States chemist (1839-1903).

- He looked up "josiah willard gibbs" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "josiah willard gibbs" to mean united states chemist (1839-1903).

juan ponce de leon (noun)

Spanish explorer who accompanied Columbus on his second trip in 1493; in 1513 he discovered Florida while searching for the legendary Fountain of Youth (1460-1521).

- He looked up "juan ponce de leon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juan ponce de leon."

kendal (noun)

A green dye, often used to color cloth, which is obtained from the woad plant.

- They discussed "kendal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kendal" to mean a green dye, often used to color cloth, which is....

kendal green (noun)

A green dye, often used to color cloth, which is obtained from the woad plant.

- Understanding "kendal green" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kendal green" because he had never seen it before.

keyhole (noun)

The hole where a key is inserted.

- The article explained what "keyhole" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "keyhole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

keyhole saw (noun)

A handsaw with a long narrow blade for cutting short radius curves; similar to a compass saw.

- In class, the teacher used "keyhole saw" to mean a handsaw with a long narrow blade for cutting....
- The article explained what "keyhole saw" means with a simple example.

kickers (noun)

A player who kicks the football.

- He looked up "kickers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kickers."

kiosks (noun)

Small area set off by walls for special use.

- In class, the teacher used "kiosks" to mean small area set off by walls for special use.
- Understanding "kiosks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

knighted (verb)

Raise (someone) to knighthood.

- The Beatles were knighted.
- Learners should practice how to use "knighted" in real sentences.

---

kota (noun)

A member of the Dravidian people living in the Nilgiri Hills in southern India.

- They discussed "kota" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kota" because he had never seen it before.

---

lao-tzu (noun)

Chinese philosopher regarded as the founder of Taoism (6th century BC).

- Understanding "lao-tzu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lao-tzu."

---

laredo (noun)

A city in southern Texas on the Rio Grande.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laredo."
- Understanding "laredo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lem (noun)

A spacecraft that carries astronauts from the command module to the surface of the moon and back.

- In class, the teacher used "lem" to mean a spacecraft that carries astronauts from the....
- They discussed "lem" during the group presentation.

---

leon trotsky (noun)

Russian revolutionary and Communist theorist who helped Lenin and built up the army; he was ousted from the Communist Party by Stalin and eventually assassinated in Mexico (1879-1940).

- Understanding "leon trotsky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "leon trotsky" during the group presentation.

---

lesotho monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Lesotho.

- The article explained what "lesotho monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lesotho monetary unit."

---

leveraged buyout (noun)

A buyout using borrowed money; the target company's assets are usually security for the loan.

- A leveraged buyout by upper management can be used to combat hostile takeover bids.
- They discussed "leveraged buyout" during the group presentation.

---

lexical ambiguity (noun)

The ambiguity of an individual word or phrase that can be used (in different contexts) to express two or more different meanings.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lexical ambiguity."
- Understanding "lexical ambiguity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

licensees (verb)

Authorize officially.

- Can you use "licensees" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "licensees" and when to wait.

---

lie-abed (noun)

A person who stays in bed until a relatively late hour.

- They discussed "lie-abed" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "lie-abed" means with a simple example.

light-emitting diode (noun)

Diode such that light emitted at a p-n junction is proportional to the bias current; color depends on the material used.

- The article explained what "light-emitting diode" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "light-emitting diode" during the group presentation.

lindy hop (noun)

An energetic American dance that was popular in the 1930s (probably named for the aviator Charles Lindbergh).

- The article explained what "lindy hop" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lindy hop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

line of gab (noun)

Plausible glib talk (especially useful to a salesperson).

- The article explained what "line of gab" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "line of gab" to mean plausible glib talk (especially useful to a....

little dipper (noun)

A cluster of seven stars in Ursa Minor; at the end of the dipper's handle is Polaris.

- He looked up "little dipper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little dipper."

loafers (noun)

A low leather step-in shoe; the top resembles a moccasin but it has a broad flat heel.

- He looked up "loafers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "loafers."

lymphocytes (noun)

An agranulocytic leukocyte that normally makes up a quarter of the white blood cell count but increases in the presence of infection.

- They discussed "lymphocytes" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lymphocytes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lynched (verb)

Kill without legal sanction.

- The blood-thirsty mob lynched the alleged killer of the child.
- He did not know how to use "lynched" until he saw an example.

madame curie (noun)

French chemist (born in Poland) who won two Nobel prizes; one (with her husband and Henri Becquerel) for research on radioactivity and another for her discovery of radium and polonium (1867-1934).

- They discussed "madame curie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "madame curie" because he had never seen it before.

mahdi (noun)

(Islam) a messianic leader who (according to popular Muslim belief) will appear before the end of the world and restore justice and religion.

- They discussed "mahdi" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mahdi" means with a simple example.

manipulations (noun)

Exerting shrewd or devious influence especially for one's own advantage.

- Understanding "manipulations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "manipulations" during the group presentation.

margaret sanger (noun)

United States nurse who campaigned for birth control and planned parenthood; she challenged Gregory Pincus to develop a birth control pill (1883-1966).

- They discussed "margaret sanger" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "margaret sanger" to mean united states nurse who campaigned for birth....

margarine (noun)

A spread made chiefly from vegetable oils and used as a substitute for butter.

- Understanding "margarine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "margarine" to mean a spread made chiefly from vegetable oils and used....

martin cline (noun)

American geneticist who succeeded in transferring a functioning gene from one mouse to another (born in 1934).

- In class, the teacher used "martin cline" to mean american geneticist who succeeded in transferring a....
- The article explained what "martin cline" means with a simple example.

massed (verb)

Join together into a mass or collect or form a mass.

- Can you use "massed" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "massed" when talking about this idea.

massed fire (noun)

Fire from two or more weapons directed at a single target or area (as fire by batteries of two or more warships).

- They discussed "massed fire" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "massed fire" because he had never seen it before.

mauled (verb)

Split (wood) with a maul and wedges.

- She tried to use "mauled" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "mauled" until he saw an example.

mayflower (noun)

The ship in which the Pilgrim Fathers sailed from England to Massachusetts in 1620.

- He looked up "mayflower" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mayflower" to mean the ship in which the pilgrim fathers sailed from....

mekong (noun)

An Asian river; flows through a large delta in southern Vietnam into the South China Sea.

- They discussed "mekong" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mekong" because he had never seen it before.

mekong river (noun)

An Asian river; flows through a large delta in southern Vietnam into the South China Sea.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mekong river."
- He looked up "mekong river" because he had never seen it before.

melanin (noun)

Insoluble pigments that account for the color of e.g. skin and scales and feathers.

- Understanding "melanin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "melanin" to mean insoluble pigments that account for the color of....

mental quickness (noun)

Intelligence as revealed by an ability to give correct responses without delay.

- They discussed "mental quickness" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "mental quickness" means with a simple example.

messina (noun)

A port city in northeastern Sicily on the Strait of Messina.

- Understanding "messina" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "messina" during the group presentation.

minis (noun)

A very short skirt.

- He looked up "minis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "minis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mists (noun)

A thin fog with condensation near the ground.

- Understanding "mists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mists" to mean a thin fog with condensation near the ground.

---

mobster (noun)

A criminal who is a member of gang.

- Understanding "mobster" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "mobster" because he had never seen it before.

---

montevideo (noun)

The capital and largest city of Uruguay; a cosmopolitan city and one of the busiest ports in South America.

- Understanding "montevideo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "montevideo" during the group presentation.

---

mooring tower (noun)

A tower for mooring airships.

- In class, the teacher used "mooring tower" to mean a tower for mooring airships.
- The article explained what "mooring tower" means with a simple example.

---

moulds (noun)

A distinctive nature, character, or type.

- In class, the teacher used "moulds" to mean a distinctive nature, character, or type.
- Understanding "moulds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mount godwin austen (noun)

A mountain peak in the Karakoram Range in northern Kashmir; the 2nd highest peak in the world (28,250 feet high).

- They discussed "mount godwin austen" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mount godwin austen" because he had never seen it before.

---

mouse-eared (adjective)

Having ears like a mouse's.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mouse-eared."
- Would you call this situation "mouse-eared"? Explain why.

---

murmurs (noun)

A complaint uttered in a low and indistinct tone.

- The article explained what "murmurs" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "murmurs" during the group presentation.

---

musty (adjective)

Covered with or smelling of mold.

- A moldy (or musty) odor.
- Would you call this situation "musty"? Explain why.

---

muttered (verb)

Make complaining remarks or noises under one's breath.

- The coach explained when to use "muttered" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "muttered" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

narcotic antagonist (noun)

An antagonist used to counteract the effects of narcotics (especially to counteract the depression of respiration).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "narcotic antagonist."

- He looked up "narcotic antagonist" because he had never seen it before.

---

nbs (noun)

A Latin phrase (or its abbreviation) used to indicate that special attention should be paid to something.

- The margins of his book were generously supplied with pencilled NBs.
- They discussed "nbs" during the group presentation.

---

neuropathy (noun)

Any pathology of the peripheral nerves.

- They discussed "neuropathy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "neuropathy" to mean any pathology of the peripheral nerves.

---

neurotransmitter (noun)

A neurochemical that transmits nerve impulses across a synapse.

- Understanding "neurotransmitter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neurotransmitter."

---

neutrals (noun)

One who does not side with any party in a war or dispute.

- Understanding "neutrals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "neutrals" means with a simple example.

---

nevis (noun)

One of the islands of Saint Christopher-Nevis.

- The article explained what "nevis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nevis" to mean one of the islands of saint christopher-nevis.

---

niners (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eight and one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "niners."
- He looked up "niners" because he had never seen it before.

---

normalcy (noun)

Expectedness as a consequence of being usual or regular or common.

- They discussed "normalcy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "normalcy."

---

nosy-parker (noun)

A person who meddles in the affairs of others.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nosy-parker."
- The article explained what "nosy-parker" means with a simple example.

---

nourished (adjective)

Being provided with adequate nourishment.

- A "nourished" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "nourished"? Explain why.

---

nourishing (adjective)

Of or providing nourishment.

- Good nourishing stew.
- Would you call this situation "nourishing"? Explain why.

---

obituaries (noun)

A notice of someone's death; usually includes a short biography.

- They discussed "obituaries" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "obituaries."

---

oedipus rex (noun)

(Greek mythology) a tragic king of Thebes who unknowingly killed his father Laius and married his mother Jocasta; the subject of the drama 'Oedipus Rex' by Sophocles.

- In class, the teacher used "oedipus rex" to mean (greek mythology) a tragic king of thebes who....
- They discussed "oedipus rex" during the group presentation.

---

onion smut (noun)

Smut fungus causing blackish blisters on scales and leaves of onions; especially destructive to seedlings.

- He looked up "onion smut" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "onion smut" during the group presentation.

---

optical condenser (noun)

Lens used to concentrate light on an object.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "optical condenser."
- Understanding "optical condenser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ord kangaroo rat (noun)

Most widely distributed kangaroo rat: plains and mountain areas of central and western United States.

- In class, the teacher used "ord kangaroo rat" to mean most widely distributed kangaroo rat: plains and....
- The article explained what "ord kangaroo rat" means with a simple example.

---

orissa (noun)

State in eastern India on the Bay of Bengal.

- The article explained what "orissa" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orissa."

---

orville wright (noun)

United States aviation pioneer who (with his brother Wilbur Wright) invented the airplane (1871-1948).

- In class, the teacher used "orville wright" to mean united states aviation pioneer who (with his....
- They discussed "orville wright" during the group presentation.

---

outcasts (noun)

A person who is rejected (from society or home).

- He looked up "outcasts" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "outcasts" during the group presentation.

---

outlay (noun)

The act of spending or disbursing money.

- He looked up "outlay" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "outlay."

---

outliers (noun)

A person who lives away from his place of work.

- They discussed "outliers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "outliers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overblown (adjective)

Past the stage of full bloom.

- Overblown roses.
- Overblown oratory.

---

overestimate (noun)

A calculation that results in an estimate that is too high.

- Understanding "overestimate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "overestimate" because he had never seen it before.

---

oxytocin (noun)

Hormone secreted by the posterior pituitary gland (trade name Pitocin); stimulates contractions of the uterus and ejection of milk.

- They discussed "oxytocin" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oxytocin" to mean hormone secreted by the posterior pituitary gland....

---

pandora's box (noun)

(Greek mythology) a box that Zeus gave to Pandora with instructions that she not open it; she gave in to her curiosity and opened it; all the miseries and evils flew out to afflict mankind.

- Understanding "pandora's box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pandora's box."

---

partitioned (verb)

Separate or apportion into sections.

- The Arab peninsula was partitioned by the British.
- He did not know how to use "partitioned" until he saw an example.

---

pathos (noun)

A quality that arouses emotions (especially pity or sorrow).

- The film captured all the pathos of their situation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pathos."

---

peacekeepers (noun)

The pistol of a law officer in the old West.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peacekeepers."
- Understanding "peacekeepers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

peachy-coloured (adjective)

Of something resembling a peach in color.

- Students compared "peachy-coloured" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "peachy-coloured."

---

penetrates (verb)

Insert the penis into the vagina or anus of.

- In everyday English, people use "penetrates" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "penetrates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

peninsular (adjective)

Of or forming or resembling a peninsula.

- Peninsular isolation.
- The speaker chose "peninsular" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

physicality (noun)

Preoccupation with satisfaction of physical drives and appetites.

- The article explained what "physicality" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "physicality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pickers (noun)

A person who chooses or selects out.

- The article explained what "pickers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pickers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pid (noun)

Inflammation of the female pelvic organs (especially the Fallopian tubes) caused by infection by any of several microorganisms (chiefly gonococci and chlamydia); symptoms are abdominal pain and fever and foul-smelling vaginal discharge.

- They discussed "pid" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pimple (noun)

A small inflamed elevation of the skin; a pustule or papule; common symptom in acne.

- They discussed "pimple" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "pimple" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pin tumbler (noun)

Cylindrical tumblers consisting of two parts that are held in place by springs; when they are aligned with a key the bolt can be thrown.

- In class, the teacher used "pin tumbler" to mean cylindrical tumblers consisting of two parts that....
- He looked up "pin tumbler" because he had never seen it before.

pisces the fishes (noun)

The twelfth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about February 19 to March 20.

- In class, the teacher used "pisces the fishes" to mean the twelfth sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this....
- The article explained what "pisces the fishes" means with a simple example.

platelets (noun)

Tiny bits of protoplasm found in vertebrate blood; essential for blood clotting.

- Understanding "platelets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "platelets" because he had never seen it before.

pocket billiards (noun)

Any of various games played on a pool table having 6 pockets.

- Understanding "pocket billiards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pocket billiards" means with a simple example.

poi (noun)

Hawaiian dish of taro root pounded to a paste and often allowed to ferment.

- He looked up "poi" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poi."

poison hemlock (noun)

Large branching biennial herb native to Eurasia and Africa and adventive in North America having large fernlike leaves and white flowers; usually found in damp habitats; all parts extremely poisonous.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "poison hemlock."
- He looked up "poison hemlock" because he had never seen it before.

portraiture (noun)

A word picture of a person's appearance and character.

- They discussed "portraiture" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "portraiture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

potable (noun)

Any liquid suitable for drinking.

- They discussed "potable" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "potable" to mean any liquid suitable for drinking.

potassium hydroxide (noun)

A potassium compound often used in agriculture and industry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potassium hydroxide."
- He looked up "potassium hydroxide" because he had never seen it before.

potsdam (noun)

A city in northeastern Germany; site of the Potsdam Conference in the summer of 1945.

- He looked up "potsdam" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potsdam."

potsdam conference (noun)

A conference held in Potsdam in the summer of 1945 where Roosevelt, Stalin, and Churchill drew up plans for the administration of Germany and Poland after World War II ended.

- He looked up "potsdam conference" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "potsdam conference."

pout (verb)

Be in a huff and display one's displeasure.

- She is pouting because she didn't get what she wanted.
- The girl pouted.

---

precepts (noun)

A doctrine that is taught.

- He believed all the Christian precepts.
- In class, the teacher used "precepts" to mean a doctrine that is taught.

---

primrose jasmine (noun)

Evergreen rambling yellow-flowered shrub of western China.

- In class, the teacher used "primrose jasmine" to mean evergreen rambling yellow-flowered shrub of western....
- The article explained what "primrose jasmine" means with a simple example.

---

privatized (verb)

Change from governmental to private control or ownership.

- The oil industry was privatized.
- The coach explained when to use "privatized" and when to wait.

---

psychoactive (adjective)

Affecting the mind or mood or other mental processes.

- Psychoactive drugs.
- Would you call this situation "psychoactive"? Explain why.

---

psychoactive drug (noun)

A drug that can produce mood changes and distorted perceptions.

- In class, the teacher used "psychoactive drug" to mean a drug that can produce mood changes and distorted....
- The article explained what "psychoactive drug" means with a simple example.

---

puffing (noun)

An act of forcible exhalation.

- They smoked up the room with their ceaseless puffing.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "puffing."

---

punctual (adjective)

Acting or arriving or performed exactly at the time appointed.

- She expected guests to be punctual at meals.
- He is not a particularly punctual person.

---

punishes (verb)

Impose a penalty on; inflict punishment on.

- In everyday English, people use "punishes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "punishes" in real sentences.

---

quadrangle (noun)

A rectangular area surrounded on all sides by buildings.

- He looked up "quadrangle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quadrangle."

---

quezon city (noun)

City on Luzon adjoining Manila.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quezon city."
- The article explained what "quezon city" means with a simple example.

---

quickness (noun)

Skillful performance or ability without difficulty.

- He looked up "quickness" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "quickness" to mean skillful performance or ability without difficulty.

---

quito (noun)

The capital of Ecuador.

- He looked up "quito" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "quito" to mean the capital of ecuador.

---

raceway (noun)

A canal for a current of water.

- He looked up "raceway" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raceway."

---

rafting (verb)

Travel by raft in water.

- In everyday English, people use "rafting" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "rafting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

raisin bran (noun)

Bran flakes with raisins.

- They discussed "raisin bran" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "raisin bran" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

raves (noun)

A dance party that lasts all night and electronically synthesized music is played.

- Raves are very popular in Berlin.
- They discussed "raves" during the group presentation.

---

reaffirm (verb)

Affirm once again.

- He reaffirmed his faith in the church.
- The coach explained when to use "reaffirm" and when to wait.

---

rebellions (noun)

Refusal to accept some authority or code or convention.

- The article explained what "rebellions" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rebellions" to mean refusal to accept some authority or code or convention.

---

rectal artery (noun)

One of the arteries supplying the rectal area.

- He looked up "rectal artery" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rectal artery."

---

red sprites (noun)

Atmospheric electricity (lasting 10 msec) appearing as globular flashes of red (pink to blood-red) light rising to heights of 60 miles (sometimes seen together with elves).

- The article explained what "red sprites" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "red sprites" during the group presentation.

---

reentry (noun)

The act of entering again.

- The article explained what "reentry" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reentry."

---

rephrase (verb)

Express the same message in different words.

- Learners should practice how to use "rephrase" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "rephrase" until he saw an example.

---

retrofit (noun)

The act of adding a component or accessory to something that did not have it when it was manufactured.

- The court ordered a retrofit on all automobiles.
- The article explained what "retrofit" means with a simple example.

---

ring thrush (noun)

European thrush common in rocky areas; the male has blackish plumage with a white band around the neck.

- In class, the teacher used "ring thrush" to mean european thrush common in rocky areas; the male has....
- The article explained what "ring thrush" means with a simple example.

---

robustness (noun)

The characteristic of being strong enough to withstand intellectual challenge.

- The lack of robustness in the findings may be due to the small size of the sample.
- Understanding "robustness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roleplaying (noun)

Acting a particular role (as in psychotherapy).

- Understanding "roleplaying" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "roleplaying" to mean acting a particular role (as in psychotherapy).

---

roped (verb)

Catch with a lasso.

- The coach explained when to use "roped" and when to wait.
- Can you use "roped" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rubens (noun)

Prolific Flemish baroque painter; knighted by the English king Charles I (1577-1640).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubens."
- He looked up "rubens" because he had never seen it before.

---

rubies (noun)

A transparent deep red variety of corundum; used as a gemstone and in lasers.

- Understanding "rubies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rubies" to mean a transparent deep red variety of corundum; used as....

---

run aground (verb)

Hit or reach the ground.

- In everyday English, people use "run aground" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "run aground" until he saw an example.

---

rusty blackbird (noun)

North American blackbird whose bluish-black plumage is rusty-edged in the fall.

- They discussed "rusty blackbird" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "rusty blackbird" because he had never seen it before.

---

sade (noun)

French soldier and writer whose descriptions of sexual perversion gave rise to the term 'sadism' (1740-1814).

- They discussed "sade" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sade" to mean french soldier and writer whose descriptions of....

---

salespeople (noun)

A person employed to represent a business and to sell its merchandise (as to customers in a store or to customers who are visited).

- They discussed "salespeople" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "salespeople" because he had never seen it before.

---

salutes (noun)

An act of honor or courteous recognition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salutes."
- They discussed "salutes" during the group presentation.

---

satisfactorily (adverb)

In a satisfactory manner.

- Using "satisfactorily" can make your explanation more exact.
- He answered "satisfactorily," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

saucer magnolia (noun)

Large deciduous shrub or small tree having large open rosy to purplish flowers; native to Asia; prized as an ornamental in eastern North America.

- The article explained what "saucer magnolia" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "saucer magnolia" during the group presentation.

---

savanna (noun)

A flat grassland in tropical or subtropical regions.

- In class, the teacher used "savanna" to mean a flat grassland in tropical or subtropical regions.
- The article explained what "savanna" means with a simple example.

---

scriptural (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or contained in or in accordance with the Bible.

- A "scriptural" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "scriptural"? Explain why.

---

sea of cortes (noun)

A gulf to the west of the mainland of Mexico.

- He looked up "sea of cortes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sea of cortes" during the group presentation.

---

sedans (noun)

A car that is closed and that has front and rear seats and two or four doors.

- Understanding "sedans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sedans" means with a simple example.

---

seedy (adjective)

Morally degraded; ; ; ; - Seattle Weekly; - James Joyce.

- A seedy district.
- He was soiled and seedy and fragrant with gin.

---

sei whale (noun)

Similar to but smaller than the finback whale.

- In class, the teacher used "sei whale" to mean similar to but smaller than the finback whale.
- He looked up "sei whale" because he had never seen it before.

---

shad-flower (noun)

Annual weed of Europe and North America having a rosette of basal leaves and tiny flowers followed by oblong seed capsules.

- In class, the teacher used "shad-flower" to mean annual weed of europe and north america having a....
- The article explained what "shad-flower" means with a simple example.

---

sharp-eared (adjective)

Having keen hearing.

- Would you call this situation "sharp-eared"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "sharp-eared" when it is having keen hearing.

---

shawnee (noun)

The Algonquian language spoken by the Shawnee.

- The article explained what "shawnee" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shawnee."

shiite muslim (noun)

A member of the branch of Islam that regards Ali as the legitimate successor to Mohammed and rejects the first three caliphs.

- The article explained what "shiite muslim" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shiite muslim" to mean a member of the branch of islam that regards ali as....

sick-abed (adjective)

Confined to bed (by illness).

- The speaker chose "sick-abed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sick-abed."

sir thomas raffles (noun)

British colonial administrator who founded Singapore (1781-1826).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir thomas raffles."
- They discussed "sir thomas raffles" during the group presentation.

sleet (verb)

Precipitate as a mixture of rain and snow.

- If the temperature rises above freezing, it will probably sleet.
- Can you use "sleet" in a sentence that fits this situation?

slugger (noun)

A boxer noted for an ability to deliver hard punches.

- They discussed "slugger" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "slugger" because he had never seen it before.

soldier grainy club (noun)

A variety of grainy club.

- In class, the teacher used "soldier grainy club" to mean a variety of grainy club.
- Understanding "soldier grainy club" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

song thrush (noun)

Common Old World thrush noted for its song.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "song thrush."
- Understanding "song thrush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sorghum (noun)

Economically important Old World tropical cereal grass.

- They discussed "sorghum" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sorghum" to mean economically important old world tropical cereal grass.

spasm (noun)

A painful and involuntary muscular contraction.

- Understanding "spasm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "spasm" means with a simple example.

spearhead (noun)

The leading military unit in an attack.

- They discussed "spearhead" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "spearhead" because he had never seen it before.

specialise (verb)

Devote oneself to a special area of work.

- She tried to use "specialise" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "specialise" when talking about this idea.

sprites (noun)

Atmospheric electricity (lasting 10 msec) appearing as globular flashes of red (pink to blood-red) light rising to heights of 60 miles (sometimes seen together with elves).

- He looked up "sprites" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sprites."

---

square-toed (adjective)

Exaggeratedly proper.

- Square-toed shoes.
- Would you call this situation "square-toed"? Explain why.

---

squeal (verb)

Utter a high-pitched cry, characteristic of pigs.

- In everyday English, people use "squeal" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "squeal" in real sentences.

---

squish (noun)

The noise of soft mud being walked on.

- The article explained what "squish" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "squish" to mean the noise of soft mud being walked on.

---

steppe (noun)

Extensive plain without trees (associated with eastern Russia and Siberia).

- The article explained what "steppe" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steppe."

---

stiff-necked (adjective)

Haughtily stubborn.

- A stiff-necked old Boston brahmin.
- The speaker chose "stiff-necked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stubbornness (noun)

The trait of being difficult to handle or overcome.

- In class, the teacher used "stubbornness" to mean the trait of being difficult to handle or overcome.
- Understanding "stubbornness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stubs (noun)

The part of a check that is retained as a record.

- The article explained what "stubs" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "stubs" to mean the part of a check that is retained as a record.

---

stunner (noun)

An unexpected and amazing event.

- The stunner was what happened on Saturday.
- The article explained what "stunner" means with a simple example.

---

subcutaneous (adjective)

Relating to or located below the epidermis.

- Subcutaneous implant.
- A "subcutaneous" approach may work better in this case.

---

subcutaneous test (noun)

A form of skin test in which the suspected allergen is injected into the skin.

- They discussed "subcutaneous test" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "subcutaneous test" to mean a form of skin test in which the suspected allergen....

---

subservient (adjective)

Compliant and obedient to authority; -G. B. Shaw.

- Editors and journalists who express opinions in print that are opposed to the interests of the rich are dismissed and replaced by subservient ones.

- She has become submissive and subservient.

subtitled (verb)

Supply (a movie) with subtitles.

- The coach explained when to use "subtitled" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "subtitled" until he saw an example.

subtracting (verb)

Take off or away.

- She tried to use "subtracting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "subtracting" in real sentences.

succinctly (adverb)

With concise and precise brevity; to the point.

- Please state your case as succinctly as possible.
- Using "succinctly" can make your explanation more exact.

summarily (adverb)

Without delay; in a summary manner.

- The suspected spy was summarily executed.
- The narrator describes the scene "summarily" in the final chapter.

summarised (verb)

Be a summary of.

- She tried to use "summarised" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "summarised" until he saw an example.

supplementing (verb)

Add as a supplement to what seems insufficient.

- In everyday English, people use "supplementing" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "supplementing" in real sentences.

swab (verb)

Wash with a swab or a mop.

- Swab the ship's decks.
- In everyday English, people use "swab" when talking about this idea.

swarmed (verb)

Be teeming, be abuzz.

- He did not know how to use "swarmed" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "swarmed" when talking about this idea.

swath (noun)

A path or strip (as cut by one course of mowing).

- They discussed "swath" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "swath" because he had never seen it before.

sweet sorghum (noun)

Any of several sorghums cultivated as a source of syrup.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweet sorghum."
- The article explained what "sweet sorghum" means with a simple example.

swordsman (noun)

Someone skilled at fencing.

- In class, the teacher used "swordsman" to mean someone skilled at fencing.
- Understanding "swordsman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

synapses (noun)

The side by side pairing of homologous maternal and paternal chromosomes at the start of meiosis.

- He looked up "synapses" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "synapses" during the group presentation.

---

tailors (noun)

A person whose occupation is making and altering garments.

- He looked up "tailors" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "tailors" during the group presentation.

---

tattered (adjective)

Worn to shreds; or wearing torn or ragged clothing.

- A man in a tattered shirt.
- The tattered flag.

---

technicality (noun)

A detail that is considered insignificant.

- The article explained what "technicality" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "technicality" to mean a detail that is considered insignificant.

---

tel aviv-jaffa (noun)

The largest city and financial center of Israel; located in western Israel on the Mediterranean.

- In class, the teacher used "tel aviv-jaffa" to mean the largest city and financial center of israel;....
- The article explained what "tel aviv-jaffa" means with a simple example.

---

testicle (noun)

One of the two male reproductive glands that produce spermatozoa and secrete androgens.

- The article explained what "testicle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "testicle" to mean one of the two male reproductive glands that....

---

thickening (noun)

Any material used to thicken.

- Starch is used in cooking as a thickening.
- He looked up "thickening" because he had never seen it before.

---

thrush (noun)

A woman who sings popular songs.

- He looked up "thrush" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thrush."

---

thunderbirds (noun)

(mythology) the spirit of thunder and lightning believed by some Native Americans to take the shape of a great bird.

- He looked up "thunderbirds" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "thunderbirds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tinge (noun)

A slight but appreciable amount.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tinge."
- He looked up "tinge" because he had never seen it before.

---

tinnitus (noun)

A ringing or booming sensation in one or both ears; a symptom of an ear infection or Meniere's disease.

- In class, the teacher used "tinnitus" to mean a ringing or booming sensation in one or both ears;....
- The article explained what "tinnitus" means with a simple example.

---

toed (adjective)

Having a toe or toes of a specified kind; often used in combination; five-toed".

- Long-toed;.
- Would you call this situation "toed"? Explain why.

---

toothed sword fern (noun)

Tropical American fern cultivated for its finely divided greyish-green foliage; West Indies and southern Mexico to Peru and Brazil.

- The article explained what "toothed sword fern" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "toothed sword fern" to mean tropical american fern cultivated for its finely....

---

trample (noun)

The sound of heavy treading or stomping.

- He heard the trample of many feet.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trample."

---

tribesmen (noun)

Someone who lives in a tribe.

- The article explained what "tribesmen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tribesmen" to mean someone who lives in a tribe.

---

tribulations (noun)

An annoying or frustrating or catastrophic event.

- Life is full of tribulations.
- He looked up "tribulations" because he had never seen it before.

---

tropic (adjective)

Of weather or climate; hot and humid as in the tropics.

- Tropical weather.
- Tropical islands.

---

tropic of cancer (noun)

A line of latitude about 23 degrees to the north of the equator.

- In class, the teacher used "tropic of cancer" to mean a line of latitude about 23 degrees to the north of....
- The article explained what "tropic of cancer" means with a simple example.

---

trouser clip (noun)

A clip worn around a cyclist's ankles that keeps trousers from becoming caught in the bicycle chain.

- Understanding "trouser clip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trouser clip" because he had never seen it before.

---

tuba root (noun)

Woody vine having bright green leaves and racemes of rose-tinted white flowers; the swollen roots contain rotenone.

- In class, the teacher used "tuba root" to mean woody vine having bright green leaves and racemes....
- He looked up "tuba root" because he had never seen it before.

---

turnip-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of a turnip.

- Students compared "turnip-shaped" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "turnip-shaped."

---

tux (noun)

Semiformal evening dress for men.

- They discussed "tux" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tux" to mean semiformal evening dress for men.

---

two-toed (adjective)

Having two toes.

- The speaker chose "two-toed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "two-toed" when it is having two toes.

uncomplicated (adjective)

Easy and not involved or complicated.

- Found an uncomplicated solution to the problem.
- Small and uncomplicated cars for those really interested in motoring.

unconnected (adjective)

Lacking orderly continuity.

- Students compared "unconnected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "unconnected"? Explain why.

underweight (adjective)

Being very thin.

- Would you call this situation "underweight"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "underweight" when it is being very thin.

undetectable (adjective)

Barely able to be perceived.

- Students compared "undetectable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "undetectable"? Explain why.

unprovoked (adjective)

Occurring without motivation or provocation; ; - F.D.Roosevelt.

- Unprovoked and dastardly attack.
- The speaker chose "unprovoked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

unremarkable (adjective)

Found in the ordinary course of events; ; ; - Anita Diamant.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unremarkable."
- Students compared "unremarkable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

untrustworthy (adjective)

Not worthy of trust or belief.

- An untrustworthy person.
- Would you call this situation "untrustworthy"? Explain why.

vilnius (noun)

The capital and largest city of Lithuania; located in southeastern Lithuania.

- He looked up "vilnius" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vilnius."

wane (noun)

A gradual decline (in size or strength or power or number).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wane."
- The article explained what "wane" means with a simple example.

water thrush (noun)

Brownish North American warbler found near streams.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water thrush."
- They discussed "water thrush" during the group presentation.

water-insoluble (adjective)

Not soluble in water.

- A "water-insoluble" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "water-insoluble" because it captured the feeling precisely.

well-nourished (adjective)

Properly nourished.

- It is useful to describe something as "well-nourished" when it is properly nourished.
- A "well-nourished" approach may work better in this case.

---

westerns (noun)

A film about life in the western United States during the period of exploration and development.

- The article explained what "westerns" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "westerns" to mean a film about life in the western united states....

---

wheat flag smut (noun)

Fungus affecting leaves and stems of wheat.

- He looked up "wheat flag smut" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheat flag smut."

---

whittle (verb)

Cut small bits or pare shavings from.

- Whittle a piece of wood.
- Can you use "whittle" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

whittle away (verb)

Cut away in small pieces.

- He did not know how to use "whittle away" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "whittle away" when talking about this idea.

---

whittle down (verb)

Cut away in small pieces.

- He did not know how to use "whittle down" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "whittle down" and when to wait.

---

wields (verb)

Have and exercise.

- Learners should practice how to use "wields" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "wields" until he saw an example.

---

william butterfield (noun)

English architect who designed many churches (1814-1900).

- They discussed "william butterfield" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "william butterfield" because he had never seen it before.

---

winfield scott (noun)

United States general who was a hero of the War of 1812 and who defeated Santa Anna in the Mexican War (1786-1866).

- They discussed "winfield scott" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winfield scott."

---

withstood (verb)

Resist or confront with resistance.

- Can you use "withstood" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "withstood" when talking about this idea.

---

wolf's milk (noun)

Tall European perennial naturalized and troublesome as a weed in eastern North America.

- They discussed "wolf's milk" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wolf's milk" means with a simple example.

---

wood ibis (noun)

An American stork that resembles the true ibises in having a downward-curved bill; inhabits wooded swamps of New World tropics.

- Understanding "wood ibis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood ibis."

wood thrush (noun)

Large thrush common in eastern American woodlands; noted for its melodious song.

- The article explained what "wood thrush" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wood thrush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

woolly thistle (noun)

Thistle of western North America having white woolly leaves.

- They discussed "woolly thistle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "woolly thistle" means with a simple example.

wretch (noun)

Performs some wicked deed.

- They discussed "wretch" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "wretch" to mean performs some wicked deed.

yakima (noun)

A town in south central Washington.

- In class, the teacher used "yakima" to mean a town in south central washington.
- The article explained what "yakima" means with a simple example.

yellow turnip (noun)

The large yellow root of a rutabaga plant used as food.

- In class, the teacher used "yellow turnip" to mean the large yellow root of a rutabaga plant used as food.
- The article explained what "yellow turnip" means with a simple example.

yolks (noun)

The yellow spherical part of an egg that is surrounded by the albumen.

- He looked up "yolks" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "yolks" to mean the yellow spherical part of an egg that is....

zambian monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Zambia.

- They discussed "zambian monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zambian monetary unit."

abstracted (adjective)

Lost in thought; showing preoccupation.

- The speaker chose "abstracted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "abstracted"? Explain why.

adrenal gland (noun)

Either of a pair of complex endocrine glands situated near the kidney.

- They discussed "adrenal gland" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "adrenal gland" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

al-hakim (noun)

An Ismaili caliph of Egypt who declared himself an incarnation of God and founded the Druze religious sect (985-1021).

- He looked up "al-hakim" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "al-hakim" to mean an ismaili caliph of egypt who declared himself an....

aliases (noun)

A name that has been assumed temporarily.

- In class, the teacher used "aliases" to mean a name that has been assumed temporarily.
- They discussed "aliases" during the group presentation.

allentown (noun)

A city in eastern Pennsylvania; an industrial and commercial center.

- Understanding "allentown" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "allentown" to mean a city in eastern pennsylvania; an industrial and....

---

amiable (adjective)

Disposed to please; - Hal Hinson.

- An amiable villain with a cocky sidelong grin.
- An amiable gathering.

---

amphitheatre (noun)

A sloping gallery with seats for spectators (as in an operating room or theater).

- He looked up "amphitheatre" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "amphitheatre" during the group presentation.

---

angler (noun)

A scheming person; someone who schemes to gain an advantage.

- The article explained what "angler" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "angler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

angler fish (noun)

Fishes having large mouths with a wormlike filament attached for luring prey.

- They discussed "angler fish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "angler fish" because he had never seen it before.

---

antagonism (noun)

The relation between opposing principles or forces or factors.

- The inherent antagonism of capitalism and socialism.
- They discussed "antagonism" during the group presentation.

---

antebellum (adjective)

Belonging to a period before a war especially the American Civil War.

- The speaker chose "antebellum" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "antebellum" approach may work better in this case.

---

anterior pituitary (noun)

The anterior lobe of the pituitary body; primarily glandular in nature.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anterior pituitary."
- He looked up "anterior pituitary" because he had never seen it before.

---

apathetic (adjective)

Showing little or no emotion or animation.

- A woman who became active rather than apathetic as she grew older.
- An apathetic audience.

---

apologists (noun)

A person who argues to defend or justify some policy or institution.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apologists."
- He looked up "apologists" because he had never seen it before.

---

appended (verb)

State or say further.

- He appended a glossary to his novel where he used an invented language.
- He did not know how to use "appended" until he saw an example.

---

aramaic script (noun)

An alphabetical (or perhaps syllabic) script used since the 9th century BC to write the Aramaic language; many other scripts were subsequently derived from it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aramaic script."
- Understanding "aramaic script" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

artiste (noun)

A public performer (a dancer or singer).

- Understanding "artiste" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "artiste" because he had never seen it before.

---

backhand stroke (noun)

A return made with the back of the hand facing the direction of the stroke.

- Understanding "backhand stroke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "backhand stroke" means with a simple example.

---

backwater (noun)

A place or condition in which no development or progress is occurring.

- The country is an economic backwater.
- The bayous and backwaters are breeding grounds for mosquitos.

---

ballistics (noun)

The trajectory of an object in free flight.

- He looked up "ballistics" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ballistics" during the group presentation.

---

bar billiards (noun)

A table game in which short cues are used to knock balls into holes that are guarded by wooden pegs; penalties are incurred if the pegs are knocked over.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bar billiards."
- Understanding "bar billiards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

battle of fredericksburg (noun)

An important battle in the American Civil War (1862); the Union Army under A. E. Burnside was defeated by the Confederate Army under Robert E. Lee.

- The article explained what "battle of fredericksburg" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "battle of fredericksburg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

benzene formula (noun)

A closed chain of 6 carbon atoms with hydrogen atoms attached.

- The article explained what "benzene formula" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "benzene formula" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bequest (noun)

(law) a gift of personal property by will.

- They discussed "bequest" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bequest" because he had never seen it before.

---

berths (noun)

A bed on a ship or train; usually in tiers.

- In class, the teacher used "berths" to mean a bed on a ship or train; usually in tiers.
- They discussed "berths" during the group presentation.

---

beryllium bronze (noun)

A copper-base alloy containing beryllium.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beryllium bronze."
- They discussed "beryllium bronze" during the group presentation.

---

bewildering (verb)

Be a mystery or bewildering to.

- Learners should practice how to use "bewildering" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "bewildering" when talking about this idea.

big-shouldered (adjective)

Having broad shoulders.

- Big-shouldered and heavy-armed.
- It is useful to describe something as "big-shouldered" when it is having broad shoulders.

billiards (noun)

Any of several games played on rectangular cloth-covered table (with cushioned edges) in which long tapering cue sticks are used to propel ivory (or composition) balls.

- Understanding "billiards" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "billiards" to mean any of several games played on rectangular....

binders (noun)

A machine that cuts grain and binds it in sheaves.

- They discussed "binders" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "binders" to mean a machine that cuts grain and binds it in sheaves.

biodegradable (adjective)

Capable of being decomposed by e.g. bacteria.

- A biodegradable detergent.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "biodegradable."

biosynthesis (noun)

Production of a chemical compound by a living organism.

- Understanding "biosynthesis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biosynthesis."

blackish-gray (adjective)

Of dark grey.

- A "blackish-gray" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "blackish-gray" when it is of dark grey.

blackish-grey (adjective)

Of dark grey.

- The speaker chose "blackish-grey" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "blackish-grey."

blasphemous (adjective)

Grossly irreverent toward what is held to be sacred.

- Blasphemous rites of a witches' Sabbath.
- Foul-mouthed and blasphemous.

bluish-violet (adjective)

Of violet tinted with blue.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bluish-violet."
- Would you call this situation "bluish-violet"? Explain why.

bonny (adjective)

Very pleasing to the eye.

- My bonny lass.
- There's a bonny bay beyond.

booklets (noun)

A small book usually having a paper cover.

- The article explained what "booklets" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "booklets."

bores (verb)

Make a hole, especially with a pointed power or hand tool.

- He did not know how to use "bores" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "bores" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

briar pipe (noun)

A pipe made from the root (briarroot) of the tree heath.

- In class, the teacher used "briar pipe" to mean a pipe made from the root (briarroot) of the tree heath.
- Understanding "briar pipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

briton (noun)

An inhabitant of southern Britain prior to the Anglo-Saxon invasions.

- In class, the teacher used "briton" to mean an inhabitant of southern britain prior to the....
- The article explained what "briton" means with a simple example.

---

bungee (noun)

An elasticized rope.

- In class, the teacher used "bungee" to mean an elasticized rope.
- Understanding "bungee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bureaucrat (noun)

An official of a bureaucracy.

- Understanding "bureaucrat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bureaucrat" to mean an official of a bureaucracy.

---

cable tramway (noun)

A conveyance that transports passengers or freight in carriers suspended from cables and supported by a series of towers.

- In class, the teacher used "cable tramway" to mean a conveyance that transports passengers or freight....
- They discussed "cable tramway" during the group presentation.

---

cadmium orange (noun)

Orange-hued cadmium yellow pigment.

- In class, the teacher used "cadmium orange" to mean orange-hued cadmium yellow pigment.
- The article explained what "cadmium orange" means with a simple example.

---

cadmium yellow (noun)

Pigment of cadmium sulfide and barium sulfate varying in hue from lemon yellow to orange.

- Understanding "cadmium yellow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cadmium yellow."

---

cadres (noun)

A nucleus of military personnel capable of expansion.

- Understanding "cadres" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cadres."

---

calvary clover (noun)

An annual of the Mediterranean area having spiny seed pods and leaves with dark spots.

- The article explained what "calvary clover" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calvary clover."

---

caper sauce (noun)

Allemande sauce with capers.

- He looked up "caper sauce" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "caper sauce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

carina (noun)

A keel-shaped constellation in the southern hemisphere; contains the start Canopus.

- He looked up "carina" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "carina" to mean a keel-shaped constellation in the southern....

---

carlos the jackal (noun)

Venezuelan master terrorist raised by a Marxist-Leninist father; trained and worked with many terrorist groups (born in 1949).

- They discussed "carlos the jackal" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "carlos the jackal" to mean venezuelan master terrorist raised by a....

---

carnivores (noun)

A terrestrial or aquatic flesh-eating mammal.

- Terrestrial carnivores have four or five clawed digits on each limb.
- Insectivorous plants are considered carnivores.

---

carnivorous bat (noun)

Typically having large ears and feeding primarily on insects; worldwide in distribution.

- In class, the teacher used "carnivorous bat" to mean typically having large ears and feeding primarily....
- The article explained what "carnivorous bat" means with a simple example.

---

cascading (verb)

Rush down in big quantities, like a cascade.

- Can you use "cascading" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "cascading" and when to wait.

---

celiac artery (noun)

An artery that originates from the abdominal aorta just below the diaphragm and branches into the left gastric artery and the common hepatic artery and the splenic artery.

- Understanding "celiac artery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "celiac artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

cereal oat (noun)

Widely cultivated in temperate regions for its edible grains.

- He looked up "cereal oat" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cereal oat" during the group presentation.

---

chaucer (noun)

English poet remembered as author of the Canterbury Tales (1340-1400).

- They discussed "chaucer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "chaucer" because he had never seen it before.

---

check overdraft credit (noun)

Credit provided by a bank in honoring a customer's overdrafts.

- He looked up "check overdraft credit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "check overdraft credit" to mean credit provided by a bank in honoring a customer's....

---

chin wagging (noun)

Light informal conversation for social occasions.

- Understanding "chin wagging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "chin wagging" to mean light informal conversation for social occasions.

---

chin-wagging (noun)

Light informal conversation for social occasions.

- The article explained what "chin-wagging" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chin-wagging" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chipper (adjective)

Having a cheerful, lively, and self-confident air; - Frances G. Patton; - H.M.Reynolds.

- Looking chipper, like a man...diverted by his own wit.
- The speaker chose "chipper" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cli (noun)

A user interface in which you type commands instead of choosing them from a menu or selecting an icon.

- In class, the teacher used "cli" to mean a user interface in which you type commands instead....
- He looked up "cli" because he had never seen it before.

---

cliffhanger (noun)

A contest whose outcome is uncertain up to the very end.

- They discussed "cliffhanger" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "cliffhanger" means with a simple example.

---

cline (noun)

American geneticist who succeeded in transferring a functioning gene from one mouse to another (born in 1934).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cline."
- He looked up "cline" because he had never seen it before.

---

clunky (adjective)

Lacking grace in movement or posture.

- Would you call this situation "clunky"? Explain why.
- A "clunky" approach may work better in this case.

---

collider (noun)

An accelerator in which two beams of particles are forced to collide head on.

- In class, the teacher used "collider" to mean an accelerator in which two beams of particles are....
- The article explained what "collider" means with a simple example.

---

colosseum (noun)

A large amphitheater in Rome whose construction was begun by Vespasian about AD 75 or 80.

- Understanding "colosseum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "colosseum."

---

comers (noun)

Someone with a promising future.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comers."
- They discussed "comers" during the group presentation.

---

common american shad (noun)

Shad of Atlantic coast of North America; naturalized to Pacific coast.

- They discussed "common american shad" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "common american shad" because he had never seen it before.

---

commoner (noun)

A person who holds no title.

- In class, the teacher used "commoner" to mean a person who holds no title.
- The article explained what "commoner" means with a simple example.

---

conduction anesthesia (noun)

Anesthesia of an area supplied by a nerve; produced by an anesthetic agent applied to the nerve.

- They discussed "conduction anesthesia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "conduction anesthesia" because he had never seen it before.

---

conned (verb)

Commit to memory; learn by heart.

- Can you use "conned" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "conned" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

contemporaneous (adjective)

Occurring in the same period of time.

- A rise in interest rates is often contemporaneous with an increase in inflation.
- Would you call this situation "contemporaneous"? Explain why.

---

contingencies (noun)

A possible event or occurrence or result.

- They discussed "contingencies" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "contingencies" means with a simple example.

---

convex polygon (noun)

A polygon such that no side extended cuts any other side or vertex; it can be cut by a straight line in at most two points.

- The article explained what "convex polygon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "convex polygon."

---

cornish fowl (noun)

English breed of compact domestic fowl; raised primarily to crossbreed to produce roasters.

- In class, the teacher used "cornish fowl" to mean english breed of compact domestic fowl; raised....
- Understanding "cornish fowl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

counsellors (noun)

A lawyer who pleads cases in court.

- The article explained what "counsellors" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "counsellors" to mean a lawyer who pleads cases in court.

---

cow's head (noun)

A morel with the ridged and pitted fertile portion attached to the stipe for about half its length.

- They discussed "cow's head" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "cow's head" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crediting (verb)

Ascribe an achievement to.

- He did not know how to use "crediting" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "crediting" in real sentences.

---

crested wheat grass (noun)

Eurasian grass grown in United States great plains area for forage and erosion control.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crested wheat grass."
- Understanding "crested wheat grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crossovers (noun)

The appropriation of a new style (especially in popular music) by combining elements of different genres in order to appeal to a wider audience.

- The article explained what "crossovers" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "crossovers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cutbacks (noun)

A reduction in quantity or rate.

- Understanding "cutbacks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cutbacks" means with a simple example.

---

cutthroat (noun)

Someone who murders by cutting the victim's throat.

- In class, the teacher used "cutthroat" to mean someone who murders by cutting the victim's throat.
- Understanding "cutthroat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cycle rickshaw (noun)

A tricycle (usually propelled by pedalling); used in the Orient for transporting passengers for hire.

- Boys who once pulled rickshaws now pedal pedicabs.
- He looked up "cycle rickshaw" because he had never seen it before.

cypriot monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Cyprus.

- The article explained what "cypriot monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cypriot monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in cyprus.

dailies (noun)

A newspaper that is published every day.

- They discussed "dailies" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dailies" because he had never seen it before.

decayed (adjective)

Damaged by decay; hence unsound and useless.

- A decayed foundation.
- A "decayed" approach may work better in this case.

deceptively (adverb)

In a misleading way.

- The exam looked deceptively easy.
- He answered "deceptively," which changed the tone of the conversation.

decoder (noun)

A machine that converts a coded text into ordinary language.

- In class, the teacher used "decoder" to mean a machine that converts a coded text into ordinary....
- The article explained what "decoder" means with a simple example.

decommissioning (verb)

Withdraw from active service.

- Learners should practice how to use "decommissioning" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "decommissioning" until he saw an example.

demography (noun)

The branch of sociology that studies the characteristics of human populations.

- He looked up "demography" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "demography" to mean the branch of sociology that studies the....

devilish (adjective)

Showing the cunning or ingenuity or wickedness typical of a devil.

- Devilish schemes.
- Students compared "devilish" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

disarming (noun)

Act of reducing or depriving of arms.

- He looked up "disarming" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "disarming."

disloyal (adjective)

Deserting your allegiance or duty to leader or cause or principle.

- Disloyal aides revealed his indiscretions to the papers.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disloyal."

disowned (verb)

Prevent deliberately (as by making a will) from inheriting.

- In everyday English, people use "disowned" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "disowned" in real sentences.

dog-eared (adjective)

Worn or shabby from overuse or (of pages) from having corners turned down; -Clifton Fadiman.

- A somewhat dog-eared duke...a bit run down.
- An old book with dog-eared pages.

---

domed stadium (noun)

A stadium that has a roof.

- He looked up "domed stadium" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "domed stadium" to mean a stadium that has a roof.

---

donner pass (noun)

A mountain pass in northeastern California near Lake Tahoe; site where in 1844 some members of an emigrant party survived by eating those who had died.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "donner pass."
- The article explained what "donner pass" means with a simple example.

---

dormitories (noun)

A large sleeping room containing several beds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dormitories."
- Understanding "dormitories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

douglas hemlock (noun)

Lofty douglas fir of northwestern North America having short needles and egg-shaped cones.

- He looked up "douglas hemlock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "douglas hemlock" to mean lofty douglas fir of northwestern north america....

---

dreads (verb)

Be afraid or scared of; be frightened of.

- In everyday English, people use "dreads" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "dreads" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

drowns (verb)

Be covered with or submerged in a liquid.

- In everyday English, people use "drowns" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "drowns" in real sentences.

---

druids (noun)

A pre-Christian priest among the Celts of ancient Gaul and Britain and Ireland.

- The article explained what "druids" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "druids" to mean a pre-christian priest among the celts of ancient....

---

dual carriageway (noun)

A highway divided down the middle by a barrier that separates traffic going in different directions.

- In Britain they call a divided highway a dual carriageway.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dual carriageway."

---

dueling (verb)

Fight a duel, as over one's honor or a woman.

- Learners should practice how to use "dueling" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "dueling" when talking about this idea.

---

dwarf dandelion (noun)

Small yellow-flowered herb resembling dandelions of central and southeastern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "dwarf dandelion" to mean small yellow-flowered herb resembling dandelions of....
- The article explained what "dwarf dandelion" means with a simple example.

---

eared (adjective)

Worn or shabby from overuse or (of pages) from having corners turned down; -Clifton Fadiman.

- A somewhat dog-eared duke...a bit run down.

- An old book with dog-eared pages.

---

earthen (adjective)

Made of earth (or baked clay).

- An earthen pot.
- A "earthen" approach may work better in this case.

---

eccentricity (noun)

A circularity that has a different center or deviates from a circular path.

- A circle is an ellipse with zero eccentricity.
- Understanding "eccentricity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eccles (noun)

Australian physiologist noted for his research on the conduction of impulses by nerve cells (1903-1997).

- They discussed "eccles" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "eccles" to mean australian physiologist noted for his research on....

---

electricians (noun)

A person who installs or repairs electrical or telephone lines.

- He looked up "electricians" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electricians."

---

electrocuted (verb)

Kill by electrocution, as in the electric chair.

- The serial killer was electrocuted.
- She dropped the hair dryer into the bathtub and was instantly electrocuted.

---

elizabeth cochrane seaman (noun)

Muckraking United States journalist who exposed bad conditions in mental institutions (1867-1922).

- Understanding "elizabeth cochrane seaman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "elizabeth cochrane seaman" to mean muckraking united states journalist who exposed bad....

---

els (noun)

A railway that is powered by electricity and that runs on a track that is raised above the street level.

- In class, the teacher used "els" to mean a railway that is powered by electricity and that....
- The article explained what "els" means with a simple example.

---

emissary (noun)

Someone sent on a mission to represent the interests of someone else.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emissary."
- The article explained what "emissary" means with a simple example.

---

enclosing (noun)

The act of enclosing something inside something else.

- Understanding "enclosing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "enclosing" during the group presentation.

---

entrapment (noun)

A defense that claims the defendant would not have broken the law if not tricked into doing it by law enforcement officials.

- In class, the teacher used "entrapment" to mean a defense that claims the defendant would not have....
- The article explained what "entrapment" means with a simple example.

---

erectile (adjective)

Capable of being raised to an upright position.

- Erectile feathers.
- Erectile tissue.

---

erskine caldwell (noun)

United States author remembered for novels about poverty and degeneration (1903-1987).

- They discussed "erskine caldwell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "erskine caldwell" means with a simple example.

---

eurasian otter (noun)

Otter found in Europe and Asia.

- In class, the teacher used "eurasian otter" to mean otter found in europe and asia.
- The article explained what "eurasian otter" means with a simple example.

---

evergreen millet (noun)

Tall perennial grass that spreads by creeping rhizomes and is grown for fodder; naturalized in southern United States where it is a serious pest on cultivated land.

- He looked up "evergreen millet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "evergreen millet" to mean tall perennial grass that spreads by creeping....

---

exchanger (noun)

One whose business is to exchange the money of one country for that of another country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "exchanger."
- They discussed "exchanger" during the group presentation.

---

exerting (verb)

Make a great effort at a mental or physical task.

- Learners should practice how to use "exerting" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "exerting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

expatriates (noun)

A person who is voluntarily absent from home or country.

- American expatriates.
- In class, the teacher used "expatriates" to mean a person who is voluntarily absent from home or country.

---

eyelash (noun)

Any of the short curved hairs that grow from the edges of the eyelids.

- The article explained what "eyelash" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eyelash."

---

falkland islands (noun)

A group of over 100 islands in the southern Atlantic off the coast of Argentina; a British Crown Colony.

- The article explained what "falkland islands" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "falkland islands" to mean a group of over 100 islands in the southern....

---

favouring (verb)

Promote over another.

- He did not know how to use "favouring" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "favouring" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

femoral vein (noun)

A vein that accompanies the femoral artery in the same sheath; a continuation of the popliteal vein; becomes the external iliac vein.

- Understanding "femoral vein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "femoral vein" means with a simple example.

---

ferdinand julius cohn (noun)

German botanist who is generally recognized as founding bacteriology when he recognized bacteria as plants.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ferdinand julius cohn."
- He looked up "ferdinand julius cohn" because he had never seen it before.

---

flashpoint (noun)

The lowest temperature at which the vapor of a combustible liquid can be ignited in air.

- In class, the teacher used "flashpoint" to mean the lowest temperature at which the vapor of a....
- Understanding "flashpoint" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flirted (verb)

Talk or behave amorously, without serious intentions.

- She tried to use "flirted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "flirted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

flopping (verb)

Fail utterly; collapse.

- He did not know how to use "flopping" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "flopping" in real sentences.

---

foodstuffs (noun)

A substance that can be used or prepared for use as food.

- They discussed "foodstuffs" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "foodstuffs" because he had never seen it before.

---

forego (verb)

Do without or cease to hold or adhere to.

- Learners should practice how to use "forego" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "forego" and when to wait.

---

foretold (verb)

Make a prediction about; tell in advance.

- He did not know how to use "foretold" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "foretold" in real sentences.

---

formalized (adjective)

Concerned with or characterized by rigorous adherence to recognized forms (especially in religion or art).

- Highly formalized plays like 'Waiting for Godot'.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "formalized."

---

fortification (noun)

The art or science of strengthening defenses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fortification."
- He looked up "fortification" because he had never seen it before.

---

fortresses (noun)

A fortified defensive structure.

- In class, the teacher used "fortresses" to mean a fortified defensive structure.
- The article explained what "fortresses" means with a simple example.

---

fragrances (noun)

A distinctive odor that is pleasant.

- Understanding "fragrances" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fragrances" during the group presentation.

---

franz peter schubert (noun)

Austrian composer known for his compositions for voice and piano (1797-1828).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franz peter schubert."
- The article explained what "franz peter schubert" means with a simple example.

---

fraternities (noun)

People engaged in a particular occupation.

- In class, the teacher used "fraternities" to mean people engaged in a particular occupation.
- The article explained what "fraternities" means with a simple example.

fredericksburg (noun)

A town in northeastern Virginia on the Rappahannock River.

- Understanding "fredericksburg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "fredericksburg" to mean a town in northeastern virginia on the rappahannock....

frigates (noun)

A medium size square-rigged warship of the 18th and 19th centuries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frigates."
- He looked up "frigates" because he had never seen it before.

gaba (noun)

An amino acid that is found in the central nervous system; acts as an inhibitory neurotransmitter.

- They discussed "gaba" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gaba" means with a simple example.

gaol (noun)

A correctional institution used to detain persons who are in the lawful custody of the government (either accused persons awaiting trial or convicted persons serving a sentence).

- They discussed "gaol" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gaol."

gastric ulcer (noun)

A peptic ulcer of the stomach.

- In class, the teacher used "gastric ulcer" to mean a peptic ulcer of the stomach.
- Understanding "gastric ulcer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

genus adonis (noun)

Annual or perennial herbs.

- He looked up "genus adonis" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "genus adonis" during the group presentation.

genus nestor (noun)

A genus of Psittacidae.

- The article explained what "genus nestor" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "genus nestor" during the group presentation.

genus uma (noun)

Fringe-toed lizard.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus uma."
- Understanding "genus uma" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

george segal (noun)

United States sculptor (born in 1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george segal."
- They discussed "george segal" during the group presentation.

goalkeepers (noun)

The soccer or hockey player assigned to protect the goal.

- In class, the teacher used "goalkeepers" to mean the soccer or hockey player assigned to protect the....
- Understanding "goalkeepers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

godwin austen (noun)

A mountain peak in the Karakoram Range in northern Kashmir; the 2nd highest peak in the world (28,250 feet high).

- He looked up "godwin austen" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "godwin austen" during the group presentation.

grafts (noun)

The act of grafting something onto something else.

- They discussed "grafts" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grafts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grainy (adjective)

Composed of or covered with particles resembling meal in texture or consistency.

- The photographs were grainy and indistinct.
- Would you call this situation "grainy"? Explain why.

---

grainy club (noun)

A variety of grainy club mushrooms.

- In class, the teacher used "grainy club" to mean a variety of grainy club mushrooms.
- The article explained what "grainy club" means with a simple example.

---

great commoner (noun)

United States lawyer and politician who advocated free silver and prosecuted John Scopes (1925) for teaching evolution in a Tennessee high school (1860-1925).

- They discussed "great commoner" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "great commoner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greenery (noun)

Green foliage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greenery."
- He looked up "greenery" because he had never seen it before.

---

greenhouses (noun)

A building with glass walls and roof; for the cultivation and exhibition of plants under controlled conditions.

- He looked up "greenhouses" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "greenhouses" to mean a building with glass walls and roof; for the....

---

greenland caribou (noun)

Arctic deer with large antlers in both sexes; called 'reindeer' in Eurasia and 'caribou' in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greenland caribou."
- The article explained what "greenland caribou" means with a simple example.

---

gynecology (noun)

The branch of medicine that deals with the diseases and hygiene of women.

- Understanding "gynecology" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "gynecology" means with a simple example.

---

hakim (noun)

A Muslim ruler or governor or judge.

- In class, the teacher used "hakim" to mean a muslim ruler or governor or judge.
- He looked up "hakim" because he had never seen it before.

---

handily (adverb)

In a convenient manner.

- She beat him handily.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "handily" naturally.

---

hangzhou bay (noun)

A bay formed by an inlet of the East China Sea.

- He looked up "hangzhou bay" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "hangzhou bay" during the group presentation.

---

harboring (verb)

Maintain (a theory, thoughts, or feelings).

- She is harboring a grudge against him.

- She tried to use "harboring" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

harlequin-snake (noun)

Any of several venomous New World snakes brilliantly banded in red and black and either yellow or white; widely distributed in South America and Central America.

- Understanding "harlequin-snake" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "harlequin-snake" because he had never seen it before.

---

harry lauder (noun)

Scottish ballad singer and music hall comedian (1870-1950).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harry lauder."
- They discussed "harry lauder" during the group presentation.

---

hauls (noun)

The quantity that was caught.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hauls."
- Understanding "hauls" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hayek (noun)

English economist (born in Austria) noted for work on the optimum allocation of resources (1899-1992).

- Understanding "hayek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hayek" to mean english economist (born in austria) noted for work....

---

heat exchanger (noun)

Device that transfers heat from one liquid to another without allowing them to mix.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "heat exchanger."
- They discussed "heat exchanger" during the group presentation.

---

heat of dissociation (noun)

The heat required for a fluid substance to break up into simpler constituents.

- He looked up "heat of dissociation" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "heat of dissociation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

heaving (noun)

An upward movement (especially a rhythmical rising and falling).

- The heaving of waves on a rough sea.
- He was not good at heaving passes.

---

hebrides (noun)

A group of more than 500 islands off the western coast of Scotland.

- He looked up "hebrides" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hebrides."

---

heighten (verb)

Make more intense, stronger, or more marked; ,.

- Pot smokers claim it heightens their awareness.
- The tension heightened.

---

hellenic republic (noun)

A republic in southeastern Europe on the southern part of the Balkan peninsula; known for grapes and olives and olive oil.

- In class, the teacher used "hellenic republic" to mean a republic in southeastern europe on the southern....
- He looked up "hellenic republic" because he had never seen it before.

---

henna (noun)

A reddish brown dye used especially on hair.

- In class, the teacher used "henna" to mean a reddish brown dye used especially on hair.
- He looked up "henna" because he had never seen it before.

---

hexagon (noun)

A six-sided polygon.

- Understanding "hexagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hexagon."

himmler (noun)

German Nazi who was chief of the SS and the Gestapo and who oversaw the genocide of six million Jews (1900-1945).

- In class, the teacher used "himmler" to mean german nazi who was chief of the ss and the gestapo....
- Understanding "himmler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hinders (verb)

Hinder or prevent the progress or accomplishment of.

- He did not know how to use "hinders" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hinders" in a sentence that fits this situation?

hinds (noun)

A female deer, especially an adult female red deer.

- In class, the teacher used "hinds" to mean a female deer, especially an adult female red deer.
- The article explained what "hinds" means with a simple example.

hock (verb)

Leave as a guarantee in return for money.

- Can you use "hock" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "hock" carefully so everyone would understand.

holler (noun)

A very loud utterance (like the sound of an animal).

- He looked up "holler" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "holler" during the group presentation.

holm oak (noun)

Evergreen oak of southern Europe having leaves somewhat resembling those of holly; yields a hard wood.

- They discussed "holm oak" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holm oak."

holstein (noun)

A breed of dairy cattle from northern Holland.

- In class, the teacher used "holstein" to mean a breed of dairy cattle from northern holland.
- Understanding "holstein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

honking (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- The geese were honking.
- Learners should practice how to use "honking" in real sentences.

hookups (noun)

A device providing a connection between a power source and a user.

- Some campsites have electrical hookups for trailers.
- The article explained what "hookups" means with a simple example.

hooters (noun)

A device on an automobile for making a warning noise.

- He looked up "hooters" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hooters" to mean a device on an automobile for making a warning noise.

howard pyle (noun)

United States writer and illustrator of children's books (1853-1911).

- The article explained what "howard pyle" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "howard pyle" to mean united states writer and illustrator of children's....

---

humming bird's trumpet (noun)

Shrublet of southwestern United States to Mexico having brilliant scarlet flowers.

- They discussed "humming bird's trumpet" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "humming bird's trumpet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

husk (noun)

Outer membranous covering of some fruits or seeds.

- They discussed "husk" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "husk" to mean outer membranous covering of some fruits or seeds.

---

iberian (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Iberia in the Caucasus.

- He looked up "iberian" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iberian."

---

implicate (verb)

Bring into intimate and incriminating connection.

- He is implicated in the scheme to defraud the government.
- The coach explained when to use "implicate" and when to wait.

---

implore (verb)

Call upon in supplication; entreat.

- The coach explained when to use "implore" and when to wait.
- Can you use "implore" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

impounded (verb)

Take temporary possession of as a security, by legal authority.

- The customs agents impounded the illegal shipment.
- He did not know how to use "impounded" until he saw an example.

---

indian turnip (noun)

Common American spring-flowering woodland herb having sheathing leaves and an upright club-shaped spadix with overarching green and purple spathe producing scarlet berries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "indian turnip."
- He looked up "indian turnip" because he had never seen it before.

---

indigestion (noun)

A disorder of digestive function characterized by discomfort or heartburn or nausea.

- They discussed "indigestion" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "indigestion" because he had never seen it before.

---

indra (noun)

Chief Hindu god of the Rig-Veda; god of rain and thunder.

- He looked up "indra" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "indra" during the group presentation.

---

infarction (noun)

Localized necrosis resulting from obstruction of the blood supply.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infarction."
- They discussed "infarction" during the group presentation.

---

infrastructures (noun)

The stock of basic facilities and capital equipment needed for the functioning of a country or area.

- Understanding "infrastructures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "infrastructures" during the group presentation.

intakes (noun)

An opening through which fluid is admitted to a tube or container.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intakes."
- Understanding "intakes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

interned (verb)

Work as an intern.

- During WW II, Japanese were interned in camps in the West.
- He did not know how to use "interned" until he saw an example.

intonation (noun)

The production of musical tones (by voice or instrument); especially the exactitude of the pitch relations.

- They discussed "intonation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "intonation" because he had never seen it before.

inversely (adverb)

In an inverse or contrary manner; ; - F.A.Geldard.

- Inversely related.
- Using "inversely" can make your explanation more exact.

irrigated (verb)

Supply with water, as with channels or ditches or streams.

- Can you use "irrigated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "irrigated" and when to wait.

irritates (verb)

Excite to an abnormal condition, or chafe or inflame.

- Aspirin irritates my stomach.
- It irritates me that she never closes the door after she leaves.

ishmael (noun)

A person who is rejected (from society or home).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ishmael."
- They discussed "ishmael" during the group presentation.

islamophobia (noun)

Prejudice against Muslims.

- Muslim intellectuals are afraid of growing Islamophobia in the West.
- In class, the teacher used "islamophobia" to mean prejudice against muslims.

james william fulbright (noun)

United States senator who is remembered for his creation of grants that fund exchange programs of teachers and students between the United States and other countries (1905-1995).

- In class, the teacher used "james william fulbright" to mean united states senator who is remembered for his....
- Understanding "james william fulbright" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jap clover (noun)

An annual of tropical Asia naturalized in United States.

- Understanding "jap clover" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jap clover" means with a simple example.

japanese pagoda tree (noun)

Handsome roundheaded deciduous tree having compound dark green leaves and profuse panicles of fragrant creamy-white flowers; China and Japan.

- They discussed "japanese pagoda tree" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "japanese pagoda tree" means with a simple example.

jessica tandy (noun)

United States actress (born in England) who made many stage appearances, often with her husband Hume Cronyn (1909-1994).

- In class, the teacher used "jessica tandy" to mean united states actress (born in england) who made....
- The article explained what "jessica tandy" means with a simple example.

---

john eccles (noun)

Australian physiologist noted for his research on the conduction of impulses by nerve cells (1903-1997).

- In class, the teacher used "john eccles" to mean australian physiologist noted for his research on....
- The article explained what "john eccles" means with a simple example.

---

josephus (noun)

Jewish general who led the revolt of the Jews against the Romans and then wrote a history of those events (37-100).

- They discussed "josephus" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "josephus" because he had never seen it before.

---

justly (adverb)

In accordance with moral or social standards.

- The narrator describes the scene "justly" in the final chapter.
- He answered "justly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

kaleidoscope (noun)

A complex pattern of constantly changing colors and shapes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kaleidoscope."
- The article explained what "kaleidoscope" means with a simple example.

---

karl barth (noun)

Swiss Protestant theologian (1886-1968).

- The article explained what "karl barth" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "karl barth."

---

keypad (noun)

A keyboard that is a data input device for computers; arrangement of keys is modelled after the typewriter keyboard.

- Understanding "keypad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "keypad" means with a simple example.

---

krakow (noun)

An industrial city in southern Poland on the Vistula.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "krakow."
- He looked up "krakow" because he had never seen it before.

---

lactation (noun)

The period following birth during which milk is secreted.

- Lactation normally continues until weaning.
- They discussed "lactation" during the group presentation.

---

lapping (noun)

Covering with a design in which one element covers a part of another (as with tiles or shingles).

- The article explained what "lapping" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lapping."

---

lesser hemlock (noun)

European weed naturalized in America that resembles parsley but causes nausea and poisoning when eaten.

- The article explained what "lesser hemlock" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lesser hemlock" during the group presentation.

---

lexical semantics (noun)

The branch of semantics that studies the meanings and relations of words.

- The article explained what "lexical semantics" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lexical semantics."

liberalization (noun)

The act of making less strict.

- The article explained what "liberalization" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liberalization."

licorice root (noun)

Root of licorice used in flavoring e.g. candy and liqueurs and medicines.

- In class, the teacher used "licorice root" to mean root of licorice used in flavoring e.g. candy and....
- The article explained what "licorice root" means with a simple example.

licorice stick (noun)

The ordinary clarinet with a middle range.

- In class, the teacher used "licorice stick" to mean the ordinary clarinet with a middle range.
- The article explained what "licorice stick" means with a simple example.

lindy (noun)

An energetic American dance that was popular in the 1930s (probably named for the aviator Charles Lindbergh).

- He looked up "lindy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lindy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

locking pliers (noun)

Pliers that can be locked in place.

- Understanding "locking pliers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "locking pliers" to mean pliers that can be locked in place.

looters (noun)

Someone who takes spoils or plunder (as in war).

- Understanding "looters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "looters."

lorries (noun)

A large low horse-drawn wagon without sides.

- In class, the teacher used "lorries" to mean a large low horse-drawn wagon without sides.
- They discussed "lorries" during the group presentation.

lough (noun)

A long narrow (nearly landlocked) cove in Ireland.

- The article explained what "lough" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lough" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lubricants (noun)

A substance capable of reducing friction by making surfaces smooth or slippery.

- They discussed "lubricants" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lubricants."

lucky lindy (noun)

United States aviator who in 1927 made the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean (1902-1974).

- In class, the teacher used "lucky lindy" to mean united states aviator who in 1927 made the first....
- They discussed "lucky lindy" during the group presentation.

lumpy (adjective)

Having lumps; not smooth and even in texture.

- Lumpy gravy.
- The speaker chose "lumpy" because it captured the feeling precisely.

lyricist (noun)

A person who writes the words for songs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lyricist."
- He looked up "lyricist" because he had never seen it before.

---

machined (verb)

Turn, shape, mold, or otherwise finish by machinery.

- In everyday English, people use "machined" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "machined" until he saw an example.

---

malacca (noun)

A cane made from the stem of a rattan palm.

- He looked up "malacca" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "malacca" during the group presentation.

---

malaise (noun)

Physical discomfort (as mild sickness or depression).

- In class, the teacher used "malaise" to mean physical discomfort (as mild sickness or depression).
- He looked up "malaise" because he had never seen it before.

---

mannequins (noun)

A woman who wears clothes to display fashions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mannequins."
- The article explained what "mannequins" means with a simple example.

---

maricopa (noun)

The Yuman language spoken by the Maricopa and the Halchidhoma.

- He looked up "maricopa" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "maricopa" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mathematical statistician (noun)

A mathematician who specializes in statistics.

- In class, the teacher used "mathematical statistician" to mean a mathematician who specializes in statistics.
- The article explained what "mathematical statistician" means with a simple example.

---

mdma (noun)

A stimulant drug that is chemically related to mescaline and amphetamine and is used illicitly for its euphoric and hallucinogenic effects; it was formerly used in psychotherapy but in 1985 it was declared illegal in the United States.

- MDMA is often used at parties because it enables partygoers to remain active for long periods of time.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mdma."

---

meatloaf (noun)

A baked loaf of ground meat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "meatloaf."
- Understanding "meatloaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

menial (adjective)

Used of unskilled work (especially domestic work).

- It is useful to describe something as "menial" when it is used of unskilled work (especially domestic work).
- Would you call this situation "menial"? Explain why.

---

merrily (adverb)

In a joyous manner.

- Place "merrily" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "merrily," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

metallurgical engineer (noun)

An engineer trained in the extraction and refining and alloying and fabrication of metals.

- The article explained what "metallurgical engineer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "metallurgical engineer" to mean an engineer trained in the extraction and refining....

---

miguel jose serra (noun)

Spanish missionary who founded Franciscan missions in California (1713-1784).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "miguel jose serra."
- Understanding "miguel jose serra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

minas (noun)

Tropical Asian starlings.

- Understanding "minas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "minas."

---

monogamous (adjective)

(used of relationships and of individuals) having one mate.

- Monogamous marriage.
- Monogamous for life.

---

montessori (noun)

Italian educator who developed a method of teaching mentally handicapped children and advocated a child-centered approach (1870-1952).

- The article explained what "montessori" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "montessori."

---

mooring (noun)

A place where a craft can be made fast.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mooring."
- He looked up "mooring" because he had never seen it before.

---

mooring line (noun)

(nautical) a line that holds an object (especially a boat) in place.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mooring line."
- They discussed "mooring line" during the group presentation.

---

moreau river (noun)

A river that rises in western South Dakota and flows eastward to the Missouri River.

- The article explained what "moreau river" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "moreau river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mother seton (noun)

United States religious leader who was the first person born in the United States to be canonized (1774-1821).

- He looked up "mother seton" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mother seton."

---

mount shasta (noun)

A volcanic mountain peak in the Cascade Range in northern California (14,162 feet high).

- The article explained what "mount shasta" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mount shasta" to mean a volcanic mountain peak in the cascade range in....

---

mountaineering (noun)

The activity of climbing a mountain.

- The article explained what "mountaineering" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mountaineering" to mean the activity of climbing a mountain.

---

nantucket (noun)

An island resort off Cape Cod; formerly a center of the whaling industry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nantucket."
- He looked up "nantucket" because he had never seen it before.

napalm (noun)

Gasoline jelled with aluminum soaps; highly incendiary liquid used in fire bombs and flamethrowers.

- The article explained what "napalm" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "napalm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

neared (verb)

Move towards.

- He did not know how to use "neared" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "neared" in real sentences.

necessitate (verb)

Require as useful, just, or proper.

- Learners should practice how to use "necessitate" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "necessitate" when talking about this idea.

negation (noun)

A negative statement; a statement that is a refusal or denial of some other statement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "negation."
- He looked up "negation" because he had never seen it before.

neurosurgery (noun)

Any surgery that involves the nervous system (brain or spinal cord or peripheral nerves).

- In class, the teacher used "neurosurgery" to mean any surgery that involves the nervous system (brain....
- They discussed "neurosurgery" during the group presentation.

neutrino (noun)

An elementary particle with zero charge and zero mass.

- Understanding "neutrino" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "neutrino" because he had never seen it before.

new hebrides (noun)

A volcanic island republic in Melanesia; independent since 1980.

- In class, the teacher used "new hebrides" to mean a volcanic island republic in melanesia;....
- Understanding "new hebrides" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nga (noun)

A combat support agency that provides geographic intelligence in support of national security.

- He looked up "nga" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nga."

nines (noun)

A team of professional baseball players who play and travel together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nines."
- Understanding "nines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nitrate bacterium (noun)

Any of the nitrobacteria that oxidize nitrites into nitrates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nitrate bacterium."
- The article explained what "nitrate bacterium" means with a simple example.

noble-mindedness (noun)

Elevated ideals or conduct; the quality of believing that ideals should be pursued.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "noble-mindedness."
- They discussed "noble-mindedness" during the group presentation.

north platte (noun)

A town in west central Nebraska on the Platte River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "north platte."
- The article explained what "north platte" means with a simple example.

---

north platte river (noun)

A river that rises in northern Colorado and flows northward into Wyoming and then eastward and southeastward through Nebraska where it joins the South Platte to form the Platte River.

- The article explained what "north platte river" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "north platte river" to mean a river that rises in northern colorado and flows....

---

obsessions (noun)

An irrational motive for performing trivial or repetitive actions, even against your will.

- He looked up "obsessions" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "obsessions" during the group presentation.

---

official emissary (noun)

A member of a legation.

- He looked up "official emissary" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "official emissary."

---

omelette pan (noun)

Pan for cooking omelets.

- Understanding "omelette pan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "omelette pan" because he had never seen it before.

---

one-eared (adjective)

Having a single ear.

- Students compared "one-eared" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "one-eared."

---

oneness (noun)

The quality of being united into one.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oneness."
- He looked up "oneness" because he had never seen it before.

---

opacity (noun)

The phenomenon of not permitting the passage of electromagnetic radiation.

- They discussed "opacity" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "opacity" because he had never seen it before.

---

otherworldly (adjective)

Existing outside of or not in accordance with nature; -Aldous Huxley.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "otherworldly."
- The speaker chose "otherworldly" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

overdo (verb)

Do something to an excessive degree.

- Can you use "overdo" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "overdo" and when to wait.

---

overdraft (noun)

A draft in excess of the credit balance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overdraft."
- He looked up "overdraft" because he had never seen it before.

---

overdraft credit (noun)

Credit provided by a bank in honoring a customer's overdrafts.

- Understanding "overdraft credit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "overdraft credit" to mean credit provided by a bank in honoring a customer's....

---

overturning (verb)

Cause to overturn from an upright or normal position.

- Can you use "overturning" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "overturning" until he saw an example.

---

paediatric (adjective)

Of or relating to the medical care of children.

- Would you call this situation "paediatric"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "paediatric."

---

painstakingly (adverb)

In a fastidious and painstaking manner.

- It is almost a waste of time painstakingly to learn the routines of selling.
- She spoke "painstakingly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

pan-hellenic (adjective)

Of or relating to all the Greeks.

- It is useful to describe something as "pan-hellenic" when it is of or relating to all the greeks.
- Would you call this situation "pan-hellenic"? Explain why.

---

pantyhose (noun)

A woman's tights consisting of underpants and stockings.

- The article explained what "pantyhose" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pantyhose."

---

parametric (adjective)

Of or relating to or in terms of a parameter.

- Parametric equation.
- Would you call this situation "parametric"? Explain why.

---

parentage (noun)

The state of being a parent.

- The article explained what "parentage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "parentage" to mean the state of being a parent.

---

pas de deux (noun)

(ballet) a dance for two people (usually a ballerina and a danseur noble).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pas de deux."
- The article explained what "pas de deux" means with a simple example.

---

pectoral fin (noun)

Either of a pair of fins situated just behind the head in fishes that help control the direction of movement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pectoral fin."
- The article explained what "pectoral fin" means with a simple example.

---

pentecost (noun)

(Judaism) Jewish holy day celebrated on the sixth of Sivan to celebrate Moses receiving the Ten Commandments.

- The article explained what "pentecost" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pentecost" to mean (judaism) jewish holy day celebrated on the sixth....

---

perverts (verb)

Corrupt morally or by intemperance or sensuality.

- In everyday English, people use "perverts" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "perverts" in real sentences.

---

peter seeger (noun)

United States folk singer who was largely responsible for the interest in folk music in the 1960s (born in 1919).

- They discussed "peter seeger" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "peter seeger" because he had never seen it before.

---

photographic emulsion (noun)

A light-sensitive coating on paper or film; consists of fine grains of silver bromide suspended in a gelatin.

- In class, the teacher used "photographic emulsion" to mean a light-sensitive coating on paper or film;....
- The article explained what "photographic emulsion" means with a simple example.

---

picnics (noun)

A day devoted to an outdoor social gathering.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "picnics."
- He looked up "picnics" because he had never seen it before.

---

pierre curie (noun)

French physicist; husband of Marie Curie (1859-1906).

- The article explained what "pierre curie" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pierre curie" during the group presentation.

---

pigmented (verb)

Color or dye with a pigment.

- In everyday English, people use "pigmented" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "pigmented" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

platte (noun)

A river in Nebraska that flows eastward to become a tributary of the Missouri River.

- Understanding "platte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "platte" to mean a river in nebraska that flows eastward to become a....

---

platte river (noun)

A river in Nebraska that flows eastward to become a tributary of the Missouri River.

- He looked up "platte river" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "platte river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

postponing (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- Can you use "postponing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "postponing" and when to wait.

---

potato mildew (noun)

A blight of potatoes.

- They discussed "potato mildew" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "potato mildew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

potter's clay (noun)

Clay that does not contain any iron; used in making pottery or for modeling.

- The article explained what "potter's clay" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "potter's clay" to mean clay that does not contain any iron; used in making....

---

practicable (adjective)

Usable for a specific purpose.

- A practicable solution.
- It is useful to describe something as "practicable" when it is usable for a specific purpose.

---

preconceived notion (noun)

An opinion formed beforehand without adequate evidence.

- He looked up "preconceived notion" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "preconceived notion" during the group presentation.

---

privates (noun)

External sex organ.

- Understanding "privates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "privates" means with a simple example.

---

progenitor (noun)

An ancestor in the direct line.

- They discussed "progenitor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "progenitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

protectionist (noun)

An advocate of protectionism.

- The article explained what "protectionist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "protectionist" to mean an advocate of protectionism.

---

pulsed (verb)

Expand and contract rhythmically; beat rhythmically.

- A transmitter pulsed by an electronic tube.
- A soft breeze pulsed the air.

---

punters (noun)

(football) a person who kicks the football by dropping it from the hands and contacting it with the foot before it hits the ground.

- They discussed "punters" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "punters" means with a simple example.

---

purporting (verb)

Have the often specious appearance of being, intending, or claiming.

- The coach explained when to use "purporting" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "purporting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

quantification (noun)

The act of discovering or expressing the quantity of something.

- The article explained what "quantification" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "quantification" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quentin jerome tarantino (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1963).

- In class, the teacher used "quentin jerome tarantino" to mean united states filmmaker (born in 1963).
- The article explained what "quentin jerome tarantino" means with a simple example.

---

quick-eared (adjective)

Having keen hearing.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "quick-eared."
- A "quick-eared" approach may work better in this case.

---

quiver (noun)

An almost pleasurable sensation of fright.

- Understanding "quiver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "quiver" means with a simple example.

---

radiators (noun)

A mechanism consisting of a metal honeycomb through which hot fluids circulate; heat is transferred from the fluid through the honeycomb to the airstream that is created either by the motion of the vehicle or by a fan.

- The article explained what "radiators" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "radiators" to mean a mechanism consisting of a metal honeycomb through....

radio-opacity (noun)

Opacity to X-rays or other radiation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radio-opacity."
- He looked up "radio-opacity" because he had never seen it before.

raffles (noun)

British colonial administrator who founded Singapore (1781-1826).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "raffles."
- They discussed "raffles" during the group presentation.

ratchet screwdriver (noun)

A screwdriver with a ratchet (so the blade turns in only one direction) and a spiral in the handle (so the blade rotates) with downward pressure on the handle.

- They discussed "ratchet screwdriver" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ratchet screwdriver."

reconstructive surgery (noun)

Surgery concerned with therapeutic or cosmetic reformation of tissue.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reconstructive surgery."
- He looked up "reconstructive surgery" because he had never seen it before.

refereeing (noun)

The act of umpiring.

- Understanding "refereeing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "refereeing" during the group presentation.

reflexive (noun)

A personal pronoun compounded with -self to show the agent's action affects the agent.

- He looked up "reflexive" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reflexive."

refuel (verb)

Take on more fuel, as of a plane, ship, or car.

- Can you use "refuel" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "refuel" and when to wait.

regular hexagon (noun)

A hexagon with six sides of equal length.

- Understanding "regular hexagon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "regular hexagon" during the group presentation.

reinventing (verb)

Bring back into existence.

- He did not know how to use "reinventing" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "reinventing" in real sentences.

reliving (noun)

A recurrence of a prior experience.

- The reliving of a strong emotion can be therapeutic.
- In class, the teacher used "reliving" to mean a recurrence of a prior experience.

reminisce (verb)

Recall the past.

- He did not know how to use "reminisce" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "reminisce" in a sentence that fits this situation?

reminiscing (verb)

Recall the past.

- The grandparents sat there, reminiscing all afternoon.
- Learners should practice how to use "reminiscing" in real sentences.

---

renegades (noun)

A disloyal person who betrays or deserts his cause or religion or political party or friend etc.

- In class, the teacher used "renegades" to mean a disloyal person who betrays or deserts his cause....
- He looked up "renegades" because he had never seen it before.

---

repositories (noun)

A burial vault (usually for some famous person).

- In class, the teacher used "repositories" to mean a burial vault (usually for some famous person).
- Understanding "repositories" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

resistors (noun)

An electrical device that resists the flow of electrical current.

- He looked up "resistors" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "resistors" during the group presentation.

---

rig-veda (noun)

A Veda consisting of a collection of Hindu poems dating from before 2000 BC.

- The article explained what "rig-veda" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rig-veda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

riled (adjective)

Aroused to impatience or anger.

- Riled no end by his lies.
- It is useful to describe something as "riled" when it is aroused to impatience or anger.

---

river shad (noun)

Shad that spawns in streams of the Mississippi drainage; very similar to Alosa sapidissima.

- He looked up "river shad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river shad."

---

roadster (noun)

A small lightweight carriage; drawn by a single horse.

- He looked up "roadster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roadster."

---

robert schumann (noun)

German romantic composer known for piano music and songs (1810-1856).

- They discussed "robert schumann" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "robert schumann" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rougher (adjective)

Having or caused by an irregular surface.

- Would you call this situation "rougher"? Explain why.
- Students compared "rougher" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

round-shouldered (adjective)

Having the back and shoulders rounded; not erect.

- It is useful to describe something as "round-shouldered" when it is having the back and shoulders rounded; not erect.
- A "round-shouldered" approach may work better in this case.

---

salesperson (noun)

A person employed to represent a business and to sell its merchandise (as to customers in a store or to customers who are visited).

- They discussed "salesperson" during the group presentation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salesperson."

---

samuel de champlain (noun)

French explorer in Nova Scotia who established a settlement on the site of modern Quebec (1567-1635).

- They discussed "samuel de champlain" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "samuel de champlain" to mean french explorer in nova scotia who established a....

---

schumann (noun)

German romantic composer known for piano music and songs (1810-1856).

- The article explained what "schumann" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "schumann" to mean german romantic composer known for piano music and....

---

scolding (noun)

Rebuking a person harshly.

- They discussed "scolding" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "scolding" because he had never seen it before.

---

scones (noun)

Small biscuit (rich with cream and eggs) cut into diamonds or sticks and baked in an oven or (especially originally) on a griddle.

- The article explained what "scones" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scones" to mean small biscuit (rich with cream and eggs) cut into....

---

screech owl (noun)

Small North American owl having hornlike tufts of feathers whose call sounds like a quavering whistle.

- They discussed "screech owl" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "screech owl" to mean small north american owl having hornlike tufts of....

---

sculptors (noun)

A faint constellation in the southern hemisphere near Phoenix and Cetus.

- They discussed "sculptors" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sculptors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seeger (noun)

United States poet killed in World War I (1888-1916).

- They discussed "seeger" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "seeger" means with a simple example.

---

segal (noun)

United States sculptor (born in 1924).

- Understanding "segal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "segal" because he had never seen it before.

---

sentinels (noun)

A person employed to keep watch for some anticipated event.

- The article explained what "sentinels" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sentinels" to mean a person employed to keep watch for some....

---

seton (noun)

United States religious leader who was the first person born in the United States to be canonized (1774-1821).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seton."
- He looked up "seton" because he had never seen it before.

---

shad (noun)

Herring-like food fishes that migrate from the sea to fresh water to spawn.

- Understanding "shad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shad."

---

shadowed (adjective)

Filled with shade.

- The surface of the pond is dark and shadowed.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "shadowed."

---

shadowing (noun)

The act of following someone secretly.

- He looked up "shadowing" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shadowing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shenandoah valley (noun)

A large valley between the Allegheny Mountains and the Blue Ridge Mountains in northern Virginia; site of numerous battles during the American Civil War.

- In class, the teacher used "shenandoah valley" to mean a large valley between the allegheny mountains and....
- The article explained what "shenandoah valley" means with a simple example.

---

shiite (noun)

A member of the branch of Islam that regards Ali as the legitimate successor to Mohammed and rejects the first three caliphs.

- He looked up "shiite" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shiite" during the group presentation.

---

shiraz (noun)

A city in central southwestern Iran; ruins of ancient Persepolis are nearby.

- The article explained what "shiraz" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shiraz."

---

shoo fly (noun)

Coarse South American herb grown for its blue-and-white flowers followed by a bladderlike fruit enclosing a dry berry.

- In class, the teacher used "shoo fly" to mean coarse south american herb grown for its....
- The article explained what "shoo fly" means with a simple example.

---

short-eared (adjective)

Having short ears.

- Would you call this situation "short-eared"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "short-eared" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

shouldered (adjective)

Having shoulders or shoulders as specified; usually used as a combining form.

- Stoop-shouldered.
- Broad-shouldered.

---

sir william herschel (noun)

English astronomer (born in Germany) who discovered infrared light and who catalogued the stars and discovered the planet Uranus (1738-1822).

- The article explained what "sir william herschel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sir william herschel" during the group presentation.

---

skylight (noun)

A window in a roof to admit daylight.

- The article explained what "skylight" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "skylight" to mean a window in a roof to admit daylight.

---

small-eared (adjective)

Having small ears.

- The speaker chose "small-eared" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "small-eared" approach may work better in this case.

---

snacking (verb)

Eat a snack; eat lightly.

- Learners should practice how to use "snacking" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "snacking" when talking about this idea.

---

sneaked (verb)

To go stealthily or furtively.

- He did not know how to use "sneaked" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "sneaked" and when to wait.

---

snip (verb)

Cultivate, tend, and cut back the growth of.

- The coach explained when to use "snip" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "snip" in real sentences.

---

snip off (verb)

Sever or remove by pinching or snipping.

- Nip off the flowers.
- In everyday English, people use "snip off" when talking about this idea.

---

solar parallax (noun)

The angle subtended by the mean equatorial radius of the Earth at a distance of one astronomical unit.

- Understanding "solar parallax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "solar parallax" to mean the angle subtended by the mean equatorial radius....

---

sombre (adjective)

Lacking brightness or color; dull.

- It is useful to describe something as "sombre" when it is lacking brightness or color; dull.
- A "sombre" approach may work better in this case.

---

sou (noun)

A former French coin of low denomination; often used of any small amount of money.

- He hasn't a sou to his name.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sou."

---

south platte (noun)

A tributary of the Platte River.

- The article explained what "south platte" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "south platte" during the group presentation.

---

south platte river (noun)

A tributary of the Platte River.

- They discussed "south platte river" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "south platte river."

---

spas (noun)

A fashionable hotel usually in a resort area.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spas."
- They discussed "spas" during the group presentation.

---

spear thrower (noun)

A device resembling a sling that is used in various primitive societies to propel a dart or spear.

- In class, the teacher used "spear thrower" to mean a device resembling a sling that is used in various....
- Understanding "spear thrower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spherical aberration (noun)

An optical aberration resulting in a distorted image.

- He looked up "spherical aberration" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spherical aberration."

spokes (noun)

One of the crosspieces that form the steps of a ladder.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spokes."
- Understanding "spokes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spool (noun)

A winder around which thread or tape or film or other flexible materials can be wound.

- They discussed "spool" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "spool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spotted hemlock (noun)

Tall biennial water hemlock of northeastern North America having purple-spotted stems and clusters of extremely poisonous tuberous roots resembling small sweet potatoes.

- In class, the teacher used "spotted hemlock" to mean tall biennial water hemlock of northeastern north....
- He looked up "spotted hemlock" because he had never seen it before.

spotted water hemlock (noun)

Tall biennial water hemlock of northeastern North America having purple-spotted stems and clusters of extremely poisonous tuberous roots resembling small sweet potatoes.

- The article explained what "spotted water hemlock" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "spotted water hemlock" to mean tall biennial water hemlock of northeastern north....

sprouting (noun)

The process whereby seeds or spores sprout and begin to grow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sprouting."
- He looked up "sprouting" because he had never seen it before.

spurt (noun)

The occurrence of a sudden discharge (as of liquid).

- He looked up "spurt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "spurt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sputtering (noun)

The noise of something spattering or sputtering explosively.

- They discussed "sputtering" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sputtering."

square-shouldered (adjective)

Having broad shoulders.

- The speaker chose "square-shouldered" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "square-shouldered"? Explain why.

ssa (noun)

An independent government agency responsible for the Social Security system.

- The article explained what "ssa" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ssa."

stencil (noun)

A sheet of material (metal, plastic, cardboard, waxed paper, silk, etc.) that has been perforated with a pattern (printing or a design); ink or paint can pass through the perforations to create the printed pattern on the surface below.

- He looked up "stencil" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "stencil" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

stoker (noun)

A mechanical device for stoking a furnace.

- He looked up "stoker" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "stoker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

strays (verb)

Wander from a direct course or at random.

- Learners should practice how to use "strays" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "strays" until he saw an example.

---

stressors (noun)

Any agent that causes stress to an organism.

- Understanding "stressors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stressors."

---

strictest (adjective)

Severe and unremitting in making demands.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "strictest."
- The speaker chose "strictest" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

subjectivity (noun)

Judgment based on individual personal impressions and feelings and opinions rather than external facts.

- The article explained what "subjectivity" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subjectivity."

---

subliminal (adjective)

Below the threshold of conscious perception.

- Students compared "subliminal" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "subliminal" when it is below the threshold of conscious perception.

---

substantiated (verb)

Make real or concrete; give reality or substance to.

- Our ideas must be substantiated into actions.
- He did not know how to use "substantiated" until he saw an example.

---

superstitions (noun)

An irrational belief arising from ignorance or fear.

- In class, the teacher used "superstitions" to mean an irrational belief arising from ignorance or fear.
- He looked up "superstitions" because he had never seen it before.

---

surrogates (noun)

A person appointed to represent or act on behalf of others.

- They discussed "surrogates" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "surrogates" to mean a person appointed to represent or act on behalf of....

---

swallow wort (noun)

Perennial herb with branched woody stock and bright yellow flowers.

- The article explained what "swallow wort" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "swallow wort" to mean perennial herb with branched woody stock and bright....

---

sydney pollack (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1934).

- Understanding "sydney pollack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sydney pollack" during the group presentation.

---

symphonic (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic or suggestive of a symphony.

- Symphonic choir.
- Would you call this situation "symphonic"? Explain why.

---

symphonic music (noun)

A long and complex sonata for symphony orchestra.

- The article explained what "symphonic music" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "symphonic music" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

taekwondo (noun)

A Korean martial art similar to karate.

- In class, the teacher used "taekwondo" to mean a korean martial art similar to karate.
- He looked up "taekwondo" because he had never seen it before.

---

tagalog (noun)

The language of the Tagalog on which Filipino is based.

- The article explained what "tagalog" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tagalog" during the group presentation.

---

taka (noun)

The basic unit of money in Bangladesh; equal to 100 paisa.

- The article explained what "taka" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taka."

---

teak (noun)

Tall East Indian timber tree now planted in western Africa and tropical America for its hard durable wood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teak."
- Understanding "teak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

teary (adjective)

With eyes full of tears.

- The speaker chose "teary" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "teary" when it is with eyes full of tears.

---

teases (verb)

To arouse hope, desire, or curiosity without satisfying them.

- In everyday English, people use "teases" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "teases" until he saw an example.

---

teething (noun)

The eruption through the gums of baby teeth.

- He looked up "teething" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "teething" during the group presentation.

---

teething ring (noun)

Device used for an infant to suck or bite on.

- In class, the teacher used "teething ring" to mean device used for an infant to suck or bite on.
- Understanding "teething ring" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

theory of dissociation (noun)

(chemistry) theory that describes aqueous solutions in terms of acids (which dissociate to give hydrogen ions) and bases (which dissociate to give hydroxyl ions); the product of an acid and a base is a salt and water.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theory of dissociation."
- He looked up "theory of dissociation" because he had never seen it before.

---

timber rattlesnake (noun)

Widely distributed in rugged ground of eastern United States.

- The article explained what "timber rattlesnake" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timber rattlesnake."

---

titus oates (noun)

English conspirator who claimed that there was a Jesuit plot to assassinate Charles II (1649-1705).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "titus oates."
- Understanding "titus oates" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tobacco mildew (noun)

Fungus causing a downy mildew on growing tobacco.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tobacco mildew."
- He looked up "tobacco mildew" because he had never seen it before.

---

torsion balance (noun)

Measuring instrument designed to measure small forces by the torsion they exert on a thin wire.

- In class, the teacher used "torsion balance" to mean measuring instrument designed to measure small....
- The article explained what "torsion balance" means with a simple example.

---

tortures (noun)

The deliberate, systematic, or wanton infliction of physical or mental suffering by one or more persons in an attempt to force another person to yield information or to make a confession or for any other reason.

- He looked up "tortures" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tortures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transducer (noun)

An electrical device that converts one form of energy into another.

- The article explained what "transducer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "transducer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

trouser leg (noun)

The leg of a pair of trousers.

- He looked up "trouser leg" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "trouser leg" to mean the leg of a pair of trousers.

---

tuba (noun)

The lowest brass wind instrument.

- Understanding "tuba" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "tuba" means with a simple example.

---

turnip (noun)

Root of any of several members of the mustard family.

- Understanding "turnip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "turnip" because he had never seen it before.

---

turnip bed (noun)

A bed in which turnips are growing.

- The article explained what "turnip bed" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "turnip bed" during the group presentation.

---

turnip plant (noun)

Any of several widely cultivated plants having edible roots.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turnip plant."
- They discussed "turnip plant" during the group presentation.

---

two-eared (adjective)

Having two ears.

- Students compared "two-eared" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "two-eared"? Explain why.

---

twofold (adjective)

Having more than one decidedly dissimilar aspects or qualities; ; - R.W.Emerson; -Frederick Harrison.

- The office of a clergyman is twofold; public preaching and private influence.
- A twofold increase.

---

uncontested (adjective)

Not disputed and not made the object of contention or competition.

- Uncontested authority.
- Would you call this situation "uncontested"? Explain why.

---

uncovers (verb)

Remove all or part of one's clothes to show one's body.

- In everyday English, people use "uncovers" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "uncovers" until he saw an example.

---

underwriters (noun)

A financial institution that sells insurance.

- In class, the teacher used "underwriters" to mean a financial institution that sells insurance.
- The article explained what "underwriters" means with a simple example.

---

uprooted (verb)

Destroy completely, as if down to the roots.

- The vestiges of political democracy were soon uprooted.
- The war uprooted many people.

---

upstart (noun)

A person who has suddenly risen to a higher economic status but has not gained social acceptance of others in that class.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "upstart."
- The article explained what "upstart" means with a simple example.

---

urea (noun)

The chief solid component of mammalian urine; synthesized from ammonia and carbon dioxide and used as fertilizer and in animal feed and in plastics.

- The article explained what "urea" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "urea" to mean the chief solid component of mammalian urine;....

---

vaudeville theater (noun)

A theater in which vaudeville is staged.

- In class, the teacher used "vaudeville theater" to mean a theater in which vaudeville is staged.
- The article explained what "vaudeville theater" means with a simple example.

---

vaudeville theatre (noun)

A theater in which vaudeville is staged.

- In class, the teacher used "vaudeville theatre" to mean a theater in which vaudeville is staged.
- The article explained what "vaudeville theatre" means with a simple example.

---

vicksburg (noun)

A decisive battle in the American Civil War (1863); after being besieged for nearly seven weeks the Confederates surrendered.

- He looked up "vicksburg" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vicksburg" during the group presentation.

---

villainous (adjective)

Extremely wicked.

- A villainous plot.
- A villainous band of thieves.

---

voluminous (adjective)

Large in number or quantity (especially of discourse).

- A subject of voluminous legislation.
- A voluminous skirt.

---

walkways (noun)

A path set aside for walking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "walkways."
- He looked up "walkways" because he had never seen it before.

walrus mustache (noun)

A bushy droopy mustache.

- In class, the teacher used "walrus mustache" to mean a bushy droopy mustache.
- Understanding "walrus mustache" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

weathers (noun)

The atmospheric conditions that comprise the state of the atmosphere in terms of temperature and wind and clouds and precipitation.

- The article explained what "weathers" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weathers."

weeding (verb)

Clear of weeds.

- Can you use "weeding" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "weeding" until he saw an example.

western samoan monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Western Samoa.

- In class, the teacher used "western samoan monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in western samoa.
- They discussed "western samoan monetary unit" during the group presentation.

white turnip (noun)

Widely cultivated plant having a large fleshy edible white or yellow root.

- The article explained what "white turnip" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "white turnip" to mean widely cultivated plant having a large fleshy....

widens (verb)

Become broader or wider or more extensive.

- She tried to use "widens" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "widens" in real sentences.

wonky (adjective)

Inclined to shake as from weakness or defect.

- The bridge still stands though one of the arches is wonky.
- Students compared "wonky" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

yang chen ning (noun)

United States physicist (born in China) who collaborated with Tsung Dao Lee in disproving the principle of conservation of parity (born in 1922).

- They discussed "yang chen ning" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "yang chen ning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

zebras (noun)

Any of several fleet black-and-white striped African equines.

- They discussed "zebras" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "zebras" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

zhu jiang (noun)

A river in southeast China that flows into the South China Sea.

- Understanding "zhu jiang" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zhu jiang."

aas (noun)

An associate degree in applied science.

- The article explained what "aas" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aas" to mean an associate degree in applied science.

abominable (adjective)

Unequivocally detestable; ; ; ; - Edmund Burke.

- Abominable treatment of prisoners.
- Abominable workmanship.

---

absolution (noun)

The condition of being formally forgiven by a priest in the sacrament of penance.

- Understanding "absolution" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "absolution" means with a simple example.

---

accomplishes (verb)

To gain with effort.

- In everyday English, people use "accomplishes" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "accomplishes" until he saw an example.

---

adequacy (noun)

The quality of being sufficient for the end in view.

- He questioned the adequacy of the usual sentimental interpretation of the Golden Rule.
- They discussed "adequacy" during the group presentation.

---

adopters (noun)

A person who adopts a child of other parents as his or her own child.

- Understanding "adopters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adopters."

---

al-fatah (noun)

A Palestinian political and military organization founded by Yasser Arafat in 1958 to work toward the creation of a Palestinian state; during the 1960s and 1970s trained terrorist and insurgent groups.

- Al-Fatah carried out numerous acts of international terrorism in western Europe and the Middle East in the 1970s.
- He looked up "al-fatah" because he had never seen it before.

---

alluvial deposit (noun)

Clay or silt or gravel carried by rushing streams and deposited where the stream slows down.

- In class, the teacher used "alluvial deposit" to mean clay or silt or gravel carried by rushing streams....
- Understanding "alluvial deposit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aluminium hydroxide (noun)

White crystalline compound that occurs naturally as the mineral gibbsite.

- They discussed "aluminium hydroxide" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "aluminium hydroxide" means with a simple example.

---

amalgam (noun)

A combination or blend of diverse things.

- His theory is an amalgam of earlier ideas.
- In class, the teacher used "amalgam" to mean a combination or blend of diverse things.

---

ambulatory (noun)

A covered walkway (as in a cloister).

- It has an ambulatory and seven chapels.
- Understanding "ambulatory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

american crayfish (noun)

Common large crayfishes of eastern North America.

- They discussed "american crayfish" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "american crayfish" because he had never seen it before.

---

american licorice (noun)

North American plant similar to true licorice and having a root with similar properties.

- Understanding "american licorice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "american licorice."

---

annual parallax (noun)

The parallax of a celestial body using two points in the earth's orbit around the sun as the baseline.

- In class, the teacher used "annual parallax" to mean the parallax of a celestial body using two points....
- The article explained what "annual parallax" means with a simple example.

---

annulment (noun)

The state of being cancelled or annulled.

- In class, the teacher used "annulment" to mean the state of being cancelled or annulled.
- They discussed "annulment" during the group presentation.

---

aramaic (noun)

A Semitic language originally of the ancient Arameans but still spoken by other people in southwestern Asia.

- He looked up "aramaic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aramaic."

---

aromatic hydrocarbon (noun)

A hydrocarbon that contains one or more benzene rings that are characteristic of the benzene series of organic compounds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aromatic hydrocarbon."
- They discussed "aromatic hydrocarbon" during the group presentation.

---

articulating (verb)

Speak, pronounce, or utter in a certain way.

- In everyday English, people use "articulating" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "articulating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

atoll (noun)

An island consisting of a circular coral reef surrounding a lagoon.

- In class, the teacher used "atoll" to mean an island consisting of a circular coral reef....
- Understanding "atoll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

axioms (noun)

A saying that is widely accepted on its own merits.

- The article explained what "axioms" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "axioms."

---

aztecs (noun)

A member of the Nahuatl people who established an empire in Mexico that was overthrown by Cortes in 1519.

- Understanding "aztecs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "aztecs" to mean a member of the nahuatl people who established an....

---

babbling (noun)

Gibberish resembling the sounds of a baby.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "babbling."
- The article explained what "babbling" means with a simple example.

---

bangers (noun)

Firework consisting of a small explosive charge and fuse in a heavy paper casing.

- In class, the teacher used "bangers" to mean firework consisting of a small explosive charge and....
- They discussed "bangers" during the group presentation.

---

bargained (verb)

Negotiate the terms of an exchange.

- We bargained for a beautiful rug in the bazaar.
- Can you use "bargained" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

baron wilhelm von humboldt (noun)

German philologist noted for his studies of the relation between language and culture (1767-1835).

- Understanding "baron wilhelm von humboldt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "baron wilhelm von humboldt" during the group presentation.

---

barrio (noun)

An urban area in a Spanish-speaking country.

- The article explained what "barrio" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "barrio" to mean an urban area in a spanish-speaking country.

---

basking shark (noun)

Large harmless plankton-eating northern shark; often swims slowly or floats at the sea surface.

- Understanding "basking shark" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "basking shark" because he had never seen it before.

---

bat mitzvah (verb)

Confirm in the bat mitzvah ceremony, of girls in the Jewish faith.

- The coach explained when to use "bat mitzvah" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bat mitzvah" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

battering ram (noun)

A ram used to break down doors of fortified buildings.

- He looked up "battering ram" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "battering ram" to mean a ram used to break down doors of fortified buildings.

---

battle of jena (noun)

The battle in 1806 in which Napoleon decisively defeated the Prussians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battle of jena."
- The article explained what "battle of jena" means with a simple example.

---

benzene (noun)

A colorless liquid hydrocarbon; highly inflammable; carcinogenic; the simplest of the aromatic compounds.

- They discussed "benzene" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "benzene" to mean a colorless liquid hydrocarbon; highly inflammable;....

---

benzene ring (noun)

A closed chain of 6 carbon atoms with hydrogen atoms attached.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "benzene ring."
- The article explained what "benzene ring" means with a simple example.

---

binghamton (noun)

A city in south central New York near the border with Pennsylvania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "binghamton."
- He looked up "binghamton" because he had never seen it before.

---

black rhinoceros (noun)

African rhino; in danger of extinction.

- They discussed "black rhinoceros" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "black rhinoceros" means with a simple example.

---

blackish (adjective)

Of something that is somewhat black.

- Blackish clouds.
- A "blackish" approach may work better in this case.

---

blackish-brown (adjective)

Of brown tinged with black.

- Would you call this situation "blackish-brown"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "blackish-brown" when it is of brown tinged with black.

---

blackish-red (adjective)

Of red tinged with black.

- A "blackish-red" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "blackish-red" when it is of red tinged with black.

---

blemish (noun)

A mark or flaw that spoils the appearance of something (especially on a person's body).

- A facial blemish.
- Understanding "blemish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bobbing (verb)

Make a curtsy; usually done only by girls and women; as a sign of respect.

- In everyday English, people use "bobbing" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "bobbing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bogs (verb)

Cause to slow down or get stuck.

- Can you use "bogs" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "bogs" when talking about this idea.

---

bok choi (noun)

Elongated head of dark green leaves on thick white stalks.

- They discussed "bok choi" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bok choi" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bongo drum (noun)

A small drum; played with the hands.

- The article explained what "bongo drum" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bongo drum" during the group presentation.

---

bos taurus (noun)

Domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless of sex or age; ; ; - Bible.

- In class, the teacher used "bos taurus" to mean domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless....
- He looked up "bos taurus" because he had never seen it before.

---

brainstorm (noun)

The clear (and often sudden) understanding of a complex situation.

- The article explained what "brainstorm" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "brainstorm" to mean the clear (and often sudden) understanding of a....

---

brant goose (noun)

Small dark geese that breed in the north and migrate southward.

- He looked up "brant goose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brant goose."

---

brevity (noun)

The attribute of being brief or fleeting.

- They discussed "brevity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "brevity" to mean the attribute of being brief or fleeting.

---

broad-mindedness (noun)

An inclination to tolerate or overlook opposing or shocking opinions or behavior.

- They discussed "broad-mindedness" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "broad-mindedness" because he had never seen it before.

broadside (noun)

The whole side of a vessel from stem to stern.

- The ship was broadside to the dock.
- They discussed "broadside" during the group presentation.

brush-tail porcupine (noun)

Porcupine with a tuft of large beaded bristles on the tail.

- He looked up "brush-tail porcupine" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "brush-tail porcupine" to mean porcupine with a tuft of large beaded bristles on....

bubble gum dermatitis (noun)

An allergic contact dermatitis developed around the lips of children who chew bubble gum.

- The article explained what "bubble gum dermatitis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bubble gum dermatitis" to mean an allergic contact dermatitis developed around the....

buckles (noun)

A shape distorted by twisting or folding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buckles."
- He looked up "buckles" because he had never seen it before.

burdensome (adjective)

Not easily borne; wearing.

- The burdensome task of preparing the income tax return.
- Would you call this situation "burdensome"? Explain why.

buttered (verb)

Spread butter on.

- He did not know how to use "buttered" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "buttered" in real sentences.

cadmium (noun)

A soft bluish-white ductile malleable toxic bivalent metallic element; occurs in association with zinc ores.

- He looked up "cadmium" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cadmium" during the group presentation.

cadmium cell (noun)

A standard voltaic cell (trademark Weston).

- Understanding "cadmium cell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cadmium cell" because he had never seen it before.

canadian hemlock (noun)

Common forest tree of the eastern United States and Canada; used especially for pulpwood.

- Understanding "canadian hemlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canadian hemlock."

candida (noun)

Any of the yeastlike imperfect fungi of the genus Candida.

- In class, the teacher used "candida" to mean any of the yeastlike imperfect fungi of the genus....
- They discussed "candida" during the group presentation.

capital of uzbek (noun)

The capital of Uzbekistan.

- Understanding "capital of uzbek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of uzbek."

carnivorous (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of carnivores.

- The lion and other carnivorous animals.
- Carnivorous plants are capable of trapping and digesting small animals especially insects.

---

carnivorous plant (noun)

Plants adapted to attract and capture and digest primarily insects but also other small animals.

- He looked up "carnivorous plant" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "carnivorous plant" during the group presentation.

---

carolina hemlock (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen of southeastern United States having spreading branches and widely diverging cone scales.

- He looked up "carolina hemlock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "carolina hemlock" to mean medium-sized evergreen of southeastern united....

---

cellulose nitrate (noun)

A nitric acid ester; used in lacquers and explosives.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cellulose nitrate."
- They discussed "cellulose nitrate" during the group presentation.

---

cerebral aqueduct (noun)

A canal connecting the third and fourth ventricles.

- Understanding "cerebral aqueduct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cerebral aqueduct" because he had never seen it before.

---

cfc (noun)

A fluorocarbon with chlorine; formerly used as a refrigerant and as a propellant in aerosol cans.

- The chlorine in CFCs causes depletion of atmospheric ozone.
- In class, the teacher used "cfc" to mean a fluorocarbon with chlorine; formerly used as a....

---

characteristically (adverb)

In characteristic manner.

- He arrived characteristically late.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "characteristically" naturally.

---

charles kettering (noun)

United States electrical engineer who made numerous automotive improvements (including the electric starter) (1876-1958).

- The article explained what "charles kettering" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "charles kettering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chasers (noun)

A person who is pursuing and trying to overtake or capture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chasers."
- He looked up "chasers" because he had never seen it before.

---

checkered lily (noun)

Any liliaceous plant of the genus Fritillaria having nodding variously colored flowers.

- Understanding "checkered lily" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "checkered lily" to mean any liliaceous plant of the genus fritillaria....

---

chicano (noun)

A person of Mexican descent.

- They discussed "chicano" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chicano" means with a simple example.

---

chimera (noun)

A grotesque product of the imagination.

- The article explained what "chimera" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "chimera" to mean a grotesque product of the imagination.

---

chiropractor (noun)

A therapist who practices chiropractic.

- In class, the teacher used "chiropractor" to mean a therapist who practices chiropractic.
- The article explained what "chiropractor" means with a simple example.

---

chromosomal (adjective)

Of or relating to a chromosome.

- Chromosomal defect.
- It is useful to describe something as "chromosomal" when it is of or relating to a chromosome.

---

claustrophobic (adjective)

Uncomfortably closed or hemmed in.

- A claustrophobic little room.
- It is useful to describe something as "claustrophobic" when it is uncomfortably closed or hemmed in.

---

cleave (verb)

Separate or cut with a tool, such as a sharp instrument.

- Cleave the bone.
- The water is going to cleave a channel into the rock.

---

clovis (noun)

King of the Franks who unified Gaul and established his capital at Paris and founded the Frankish monarchy; his name was rendered as Gallic 'Louis' (466-511).

- Understanding "clovis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clovis."

---

clovis culture (noun)

The Paleo-American culture of Central America and North America; distinguished chiefly by sharp fluted projectile points made of obsidian or chalcedony.

- Understanding "clovis culture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "clovis culture" to mean the paleo-american culture of central america and....

---

clovis i (noun)

King of the Franks who unified Gaul and established his capital at Paris and founded the Frankish monarchy; his name was rendered as Gallic 'Louis' (466-511).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clovis i."
- He looked up "clovis i" because he had never seen it before.

---

coinciding (adjective)

Occurring or operating at the same time.

- The speaker chose "coinciding" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "coinciding."

---

coleridge (noun)

English romantic poet (1772-1834).

- In class, the teacher used "coleridge" to mean english romantic poet (1772-1834).
- He looked up "coleridge" because he had never seen it before.

---

columbian mammoth (noun)

A variety of mammoth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "columbian mammoth."
- Understanding "columbian mammoth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common brant goose (noun)

The best known variety of brant goose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common brant goose."
- They discussed "common brant goose" during the group presentation.

---

commuted (verb)

Exchange positions without a change in value.

- The coach explained when to use "commuted" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "commuted" in real sentences.

---

computed tomography (noun)

A method of examining body organs by scanning them with X rays and using a computer to construct a series of cross-sectional scans along a single axis.

- The article explained what "computed tomography" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "computed tomography" during the group presentation.

---

conformation (noun)

Acting according to certain accepted standards.

- They discussed "conformation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "conformation" means with a simple example.

---

conveniences (noun)

Things that make you comfortable and at ease.

- Understanding "conveniences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "conveniences" to mean things that make you comfortable and at ease.

---

corinthian (noun)

A man devoted to the pursuit of pleasure.

- The article explained what "corinthian" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "corinthian" to mean a man devoted to the pursuit of pleasure.

---

corinthian order (noun)

The last Greek order; similar to the Ionic order except the capital is decorated with carvings of acanthus leaves.

- They discussed "corinthian order" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "corinthian order" to mean the last greek order; similar to the ionic order....

---

corn smut (noun)

A smut fungus attacking Indian corn.

- They discussed "corn smut" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "corn smut" to mean a smut fungus attacking indian corn.

---

counterterrorism (noun)

A strategy intended to prevent or counter terrorism.

- The article explained what "counterterrorism" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "counterterrorism."

---

crayfish (noun)

Tiny lobster-like crustaceans usually boiled briefly.

- They discussed "crayfish" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "crayfish" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crepe rubber (noun)

Crude natural rubber; used mainly for shoe soles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crepe rubber."
- Understanding "crepe rubber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cuckold (verb)

Be sexually unfaithful to one's partner in marriage.

- In everyday English, people use "cuckold" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "cuckold" in real sentences.

---

culled (verb)

Remove something that has been rejected.

- In everyday English, people use "culled" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "culled" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

cypriot pound (noun)

The basic unit of money in Cyprus; equal to 100 cents.

- He looked up "cypriot pound" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cypriot pound."

---

czechs (noun)

A native of inhabitant of the Czech Republic.

- He looked up "czechs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "czechs."

---

defraud (verb)

Deprive of by deceit.

- She defrauded the customers who trusted her.
- He did not know how to use "defraud" until he saw an example.

---

deftly (adverb)

With dexterity; in a dexterous manner.

- Lois deftly removed her scarf.
- He answered "deftly," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

dens (noun)

A hiding place; usually a remote place used by outlaws.

- In class, the teacher used "dens" to mean a hiding place; usually a remote place used by outlaws.
- The article explained what "dens" means with a simple example.

---

desertion (noun)

Withdrawing support or help despite allegiance or responsibility.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "desertion."
- He looked up "desertion" because he had never seen it before.

---

detainee (noun)

Some held in custody.

- The article explained what "detainee" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "detainee" to mean some held in custody.

---

dike (noun)

A barrier constructed to contain the flow of water or to keep out the sea.

- They discussed "dike" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "dike" to mean a barrier constructed to contain the flow of water....

---

dispensation (noun)

An exemption from some rule or obligation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dispensation."
- The article explained what "dispensation" means with a simple example.

---

dit (noun)

The shorter of the two telegraphic signals used in Morse code.

- The article explained what "dit" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dit" to mean the shorter of the two telegraphic signals used in....

---

domed (adjective)

Having a hemispherical vault or dome.

- A "domed" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "domed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

dowager (noun)

A widow holding property received from her deceased husband.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dowager."
- He looked up "dowager" because he had never seen it before.

drips (noun)

The sound of a liquid falling drop by drop.

- In class, the teacher used "drips" to mean the sound of a liquid falling drop by drop.
- The article explained what "drips" means with a simple example.

dunning (verb)

Persistently ask for overdue payment.

- He did not know how to use "dunning" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "dunning" when talking about this idea.

eastern hemlock (noun)

Common forest tree of the eastern United States and Canada; used especially for pulpwood.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern hemlock."
- He looked up "eastern hemlock" because he had never seen it before.

eaves (noun)

The overhang at the lower edge of a roof.

- He looked up "eaves" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "eaves" to mean the overhang at the lower edge of a roof.

edd (noun)

A doctor's degree in education.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "edd."
- Understanding "edd" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electrical condenser (noun)

An electrical device characterized by its capacity to store an electric charge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrical condenser."
- Understanding "electrical condenser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

eleventh cranial nerve (noun)

Arises from two sets of roots (cranial and spinal) that unite to form the nerve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eleventh cranial nerve."
- The article explained what "eleventh cranial nerve" means with a simple example.

emboldened (adjective)

Made bold or courageous.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "emboldened."
- A "emboldened" approach may work better in this case.

emerald creeper (noun)

Vigorous Philippine evergreen twining liana; grown for spectacular festoons of green flowers that resemble lobster claws.

- He looked up "emerald creeper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "emerald creeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

enema (noun)

An injection of a liquid through the anus to stimulate evacuation; sometimes used for diagnostic purposes.

- Understanding "enema" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "enema" means with a simple example.

erecting (noun)

The act of building or putting up.

- The article explained what "erecting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "erecting" to mean the act of building or putting up.

---

eroding (noun)

(geology) the mechanical process of wearing or grinding something down (as by particles washing over it).

- In class, the teacher used "eroding" to mean (geology) the mechanical process of wearing or....
- The article explained what "eroding" means with a simple example.

---

euphoric (adjective)

Exaggerated feeling of well-being or elation.

- A "euphoric" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "euphoric" when it is exaggerated feeling of well-being or elation.

---

evangelism (noun)

Zealous preaching and advocacy of the gospel.

- They discussed "evangelism" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "evangelism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evelyn waugh (noun)

English author of satirical novels (1903-1966).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evelyn waugh."
- Understanding "evelyn waugh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evoking (verb)

Deduce (a principle) or construe (a meaning).

- He did not know how to use "evoking" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "evoking" when talking about this idea.

---

excelsior (noun)

Thin curly wood shavings used for packing or stuffing.

- Understanding "excelsior" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "excelsior" because he had never seen it before.

---

exploitative (adjective)

Tending to exploit or make use of.

- Would you call this situation "exploitative"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "exploitative" when it is tending to exploit or make use of.

---

fabricating (verb)

Put together out of artificial or natural components or parts; ; ; He manufactured a popular cereal".

- Learners should practice how to use "fabricating" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "fabricating" when talking about this idea.

---

false mildew (noun)

Any of various fungi of the family Peronosporaceae parasitic on e.g. grapes and potatoes and melons.

- The article explained what "false mildew" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "false mildew."

---

fatah (noun)

A Palestinian political and military organization founded by Yasser Arafat in 1958 to work toward the creation of a Palestinian state; during the 1960s and 1970s trained terrorist and insurgent groups.

- Al-Fatah carried out numerous acts of international terrorism in western Europe and the Middle East in the 1970s.
- In class, the teacher used "fatah" to mean a palestinian political and military organization....

---

fdic (noun)

A federally sponsored corporation that insures accounts in national banks and other qualified institutions.

- He looked up "fdic" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "fdic" during the group presentation.

---

feasting (noun)

Eating an elaborate meal (often accompanied by entertainment).

- The article explained what "feasting" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "feasting" to mean eating an elaborate meal (often accompanied by....

---

ferment (noun)

A state of agitation or turbulent change or development.

- The political ferment produced new leadership.
- The article explained what "ferment" means with a simple example.

---

fetuses (noun)

An unborn or unhatched vertebrate in the later stages of development showing the main recognizable features of the mature animal.

- They discussed "fetuses" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "fetuses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

figurine (noun)

A small carved or molded figure.

- They discussed "figurine" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "figurine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

first epistle to timothy (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's first epistle to Timothy; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- The article explained what "first epistle to timothy" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "first epistle to timothy" during the group presentation.

---

flack catcher (noun)

A slick spokesperson who can turn any criticism to the advantage of their employer.

- The article explained what "flack catcher" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flack catcher" during the group presentation.

---

flocking (verb)

Move as a crowd or in a group.

- He did not know how to use "flocking" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "flocking" when talking about this idea.

---

flogging (noun)

Beating with a whip or strap or rope as a form of punishment.

- They discussed "flogging" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "flogging" means with a simple example.

---

four-pounder (noun)

An artillery gun that throws a shot weighing four pounds.

- In class, the teacher used "four-pounder" to mean an artillery gun that throws a shot weighing four....
- The article explained what "four-pounder" means with a simple example.

---

franz joseph kline (noun)

United States abstract expressionist painter (1910-1962).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franz joseph kline."
- They discussed "franz joseph kline" during the group presentation.

---

franz schubert (noun)

Austrian composer known for his compositions for voice and piano (1797-1828).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franz schubert."
- Understanding "franz schubert" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freedom from involuntary servitude (noun)

A civil right guaranteed by the 13th amendment to the US Constitution.

- He looked up "freedom from involuntary servitude" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "freedom from involuntary servitude" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

freshen (verb)

Become or make oneself fresh again.

- She freshened up after the tennis game.
- In everyday English, people use "freshen" when talking about this idea.

---

freshen up (verb)

Make brighter and prettier.

- She freshened up after the tennis game.
- Learners should practice how to use "freshen up" in real sentences.

---

frostbite (noun)

Destruction of tissue by freezing and characterized by tingling, blistering and possibly gangrene.

- In class, the teacher used "frostbite" to mean destruction of tissue by freezing and characterized....
- They discussed "frostbite" during the group presentation.

---

fuentes (noun)

Mexican novelist (born in 1928).

- In class, the teacher used "fuentes" to mean mexican novelist (born in 1928).
- He looked up "fuentes" because he had never seen it before.

---

fulbright (noun)

United States senator who is remembered for his creation of grants that fund exchange programs of teachers and students between the United States and other countries (1905-1995).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fulbright."
- The article explained what "fulbright" means with a simple example.

---

fundamentalists (noun)

A supporter of fundamentalism.

- He looked up "fundamentalists" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fundamentalists."

---

gaius julius caesar (noun)

Conqueror of Gaul and master of Italy (100-44 BC).

- Understanding "gaius julius caesar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gaius julius caesar" during the group presentation.

---

gene-splicing (noun)

The technology of preparing recombinant DNA in vitro by cutting up DNA molecules and splicing together fragments from more than one organism.

- The article explained what "gene-splicing" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gene-splicing."

---

glories (noun)

An indication of radiant light drawn around the head of a saint.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "glories."
- The article explained what "glories" means with a simple example.

---

gopher snake (noun)

Bull snake of western North America that invades rodent burrows.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gopher snake."
- The article explained what "gopher snake" means with a simple example.

---

grand inquisitor (noun)

Director of the court of Inquisition (especially in Spain and Portugal).

- They discussed "grand inquisitor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grand inquisitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

granville wilt (noun)

A bacterial wilt of tobacco plants.

- He looked up "granville wilt" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "granville wilt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

greys (noun)

A neutral achromatic color midway between white and black.

- Understanding "greys" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "greys" because he had never seen it before.

---

gulag (noun)

A Russian prison camp for political prisoners.

- In class, the teacher used "gulag" to mean a russian prison camp for political prisoners.
- They discussed "gulag" during the group presentation.

---

gyro horizon (noun)

A navigational instrument based on a gyroscope; it artificially provides a simulated horizon for the pilot.

- He looked up "gyro horizon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gyro horizon."

---

hakeem (noun)

A Muslim physician.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hakeem."
- They discussed "hakeem" during the group presentation.

---

handyman (noun)

A man skilled in various odd jobs and other small tasks.

- Understanding "handyman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "handyman" means with a simple example.

---

hangzhou (noun)

A city of eastern China on Hangzhou Bay; regarded by Marco Polo as the finest city in the world.

- He looked up "hangzhou" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hangzhou."

---

harare (noun)

The capital and largest city of Zimbabwe.

- The article explained what "harare" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harare."

---

hazing (verb)

Harass by imposing humiliating or painful tasks, as in military institutions.

- He did not know how to use "hazing" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "hazing" and when to wait.

---

hellenic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Greece or the Greeks or the Greek language.

- Would you call this situation "hellenic"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hellenic."

---

hellenic language (noun)

The Hellenic branch of the Indo-European family of languages.

- In class, the teacher used "hellenic language" to mean the hellenic branch of the indo-european family of....
- The article explained what "hellenic language" means with a simple example.

hellenistic (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of the classical Greek civilization.

- Would you call this situation "hellenistic"? Explain why.
- A "hellenistic" approach may work better in this case.

henry ward beecher (noun)

United States clergyman who was a leader for the abolition of slavery (1813-1887).

- He looked up "henry ward beecher" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "henry ward beecher" to mean united states clergyman who was a leader for the....

heretical (adjective)

Characterized by departure from accepted beliefs or standards.

- The speaker chose "heretical" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "heretical" approach may work better in this case.

herschel (noun)

English astronomer (born in Germany) who discovered infrared light and who catalogued the stars and discovered the planet Uranus (1738-1822).

- In class, the teacher used "herschel" to mean english astronomer (born in germany) who discovered....
- The article explained what "herschel" means with a simple example.

homing torpedo (noun)

A torpedo that is guided to its target (as by the sound of a ship's engines).

- They discussed "homing torpedo" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homing torpedo."

horned viper (noun)

Highly venomous viper of northern Africa and southwestern Asia having a horny spine above each eye.

- He looked up "horned viper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "horned viper" to mean highly venomous viper of northern africa and....

horst (noun)

A ridge of the earth's crust that has been forced upward between two faults and so is higher than the surrounding land.

- Understanding "horst" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "horst" to mean a ridge of the earth's crust that has been forced....

hsv-i (noun)

A herpes virus that causes oral herpes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hsv-i."
- The article explained what "hsv-i" means with a simple example.

hsv-ii (noun)

A herpes virus that can cause genital herpes.

- He looked up "hsv-ii" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hsv-ii" to mean a herpes virus that can cause genital herpes.

hummingbird moth (noun)

Any of various moths with long narrow forewings capable of powerful flight and hovering over flowers to feed.

- Understanding "hummingbird moth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hummingbird moth."

humping (verb)

Have sexual intercourse with.

- The coach explained when to use "humping" and when to wait.
- Can you use "humping" in a sentence that fits this situation?

idle pulley (noun)

A pulley on a shaft that presses against a guide belt to guide or tighten it.

- The article explained what “idle pulley” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “idle pulley” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ile-de-france (noun)

A region of north central France including Paris and the area around it.

- He looked up “ile-de-france” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ile-de-france.”

---

ile-st-louis (noun)

Island in Paris on the Seine.

- The article explained what “ile-st-louis” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “ile-st-louis” to mean island in paris on the seine.

---

immeasurable (adjective)

Impossible to measure.

- A “immeasurable” approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared “immeasurable” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

immorality (noun)

The quality of not being in accord with standards of right or good conduct.

- The immorality of basing the defense of the West on the threat of mutual assured destruction.
- The article explained what “immorality” means with a simple example.

---

immutable (adjective)

Not subject or susceptible to change or variation in form or quality or nature.

- The view of that time was that all species were immutable, created by God.
- It is useful to describe something as “immutable” when it is not subject or susceptible to change or variation....

---

impressionable (adjective)

Easily impressed or influenced.

- An impressionable youngster.
- An impressionable age.

---

impressionist (noun)

A painter who follows the theories of Impressionism.

- They discussed “impressionist” during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used “impressionist” to mean a painter who follows the theories of impressionism.

---

indian rhinoceros (noun)

Having one horn.

- The article explained what “indian rhinoceros” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “indian rhinoceros” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

indict (verb)

Accuse formally of a crime.

- He did not know how to use “indict” until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use “indict” when talking about this idea.

---

indigo bunting (noun)

Small deep blue North American bunting.

- The article explained what “indigo bunting” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “indigo bunting” during the group presentation.

---

indisputable (adjective)

Impossible to doubt or dispute.

- Indisputable (or sure) proof.

- Indisputable evidence of a witness.

---

inflationary spiral (noun)

An episode of inflation in which prices and wages increase at an increasing rate and currency rapidly loses value.

- They discussed "inflationary spiral" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inflationary spiral."

---

inquisitor (noun)

An official of the ecclesiastical court of the Inquisition.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inquisitor."
- Understanding "inquisitor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inset (noun)

An artifact that is inserted or is to be inserted.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inset."
- The article explained what "inset" means with a simple example.

---

interceptor (noun)

A fast maneuverable fighter plane designed to intercept enemy aircraft.

- They discussed "interceptor" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interceptor."

---

interpolation (noun)

A message (spoken or written) that is introduced or inserted.

- With the help of his friend's interpolations his story was eventually told.
- In class, the teacher used "interpolation" to mean a message (spoken or written) that is introduced or....

---

ischemia (noun)

Local anemia in a given body part sometimes resulting from vasoconstriction or thrombosis or embolism.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ischemia."
- He looked up "ischemia" because he had never seen it before.

---

ischemic stroke (noun)

The most common kind of stroke; caused by an interruption in the flow of blood to the brain (as from a clot blocking a blood vessel).

- The article explained what "ischemic stroke" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ischemic stroke" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

islamic republic of mauritania (noun)

A country in northwestern Africa with a provisional military government; achieved independence from France in 1960; largely western Sahara Desert.

- He looked up "islamic republic of mauritania" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "islamic republic of mauritania."

---

iterative aspect (noun)

The aspect of the verb that expresses the repetition of an action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "iterative aspect."
- He looked up "iterative aspect" because he had never seen it before.

---

jakob grimm (noun)

The older of the two Grimm brothers remembered best for their fairy stories; also author of Grimm's law describing consonant changes in Germanic languages (1785-1863).

- They discussed "jakob grimm" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "jakob grimm" because he had never seen it before.

---

japanese quince (noun)

Deciduous thorny shrub native to China having red or white blossoms.

- He looked up "japanese quince" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "japanese quince" during the group presentation.

---

jena (noun)

The battle in 1806 in which Napoleon decisively defeated the Prussians.

- In class, the teacher used "jena" to mean the battle in 1806 in which napoleon decisively....
- The article explained what "jena" means with a simple example.

john herschel (noun)

English astronomer (son of William Herschel) who extended the catalogue of stars to the southern hemisphere and did pioneering work in photography (1792-1871).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john herschel."
- They discussed "john herschel" during the group presentation.

jules verne (noun)

French writer who is considered the father of science fiction (1828-1905).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jules verne."
- He looked up "jules verne" because he had never seen it before.

junior welterweight (noun)

Weighs no more than 140 pounds.

- He looked up "junior welterweight" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "junior welterweight" to mean weighs no more than 140 pounds.

katharine hepburn (noun)

United States film actress who appeared in many films with Spencer Tracy (1907-2003).

- They discussed "katharine hepburn" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "katharine hepburn."

kettering (noun)

United States electrical engineer who made numerous automotive improvements (including the electric starter) (1876-1958).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kettering."
- He looked up "kettering" because he had never seen it before.

kidney wort (noun)

Widely spreading evergreen shrub of southwestern United States with flower heads in a leafy panicle.

- Understanding "kidney wort" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kidney wort."

kingdom of lesotho (noun)

A landlocked constitutional monarchy in southern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1966.

- In class, the teacher used "kingdom of lesotho" to mean a landlocked constitutional monarchy in southern....
- They discussed "kingdom of lesotho" during the group presentation.

kohl (noun)

A cosmetic preparation used by women in Egypt and Arabia to darken the edges of their eyelids.

- He looked up "kohl" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kohl."

lancer (noun)

(formerly) a cavalryman armed with a lance.

- They discussed "lancer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lancer."

landau (noun)

A four-wheel covered carriage with a roof divided into two parts (front and back) that can be let down separately.

- They discussed "landau" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landau."

lauder (noun)

Scottish ballad singer and music hall comedian (1870-1950).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lauder."
- The article explained what "lauder" means with a simple example.

---

laurels (noun)

A tangible symbol signifying approval or distinction.

- He looked up "laurels" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "laurels."

---

leavers (noun)

Someone who leaves.

- He looked up "leavers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "leavers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

licorice (noun)

A black candy flavored with the dried root of the licorice plant.

- Understanding "licorice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "licorice" during the group presentation.

---

lighters (noun)

A device for lighting or igniting fuel or charges or fires.

- Understanding "lighters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lighters."

---

limes (noun)

A caustic substance produced by heating limestone.

- He looked up "limes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "limes."

---

linearly (adverb)

In a linear manner.

- Linearly polarized radiation.
- It grew linearly.

---

linguists (noun)

A person who speaks more than one language.

- He looked up "linguists" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "linguists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

linkages (noun)

A mechanical system of rods or springs or pivots that transmits power or motion.

- In class, the teacher used "linkages" to mean a mechanical system of rods or springs or pivots....
- The article explained what "linkages" means with a simple example.

---

lisp compiler (noun)

A compiler for programs written in LISP.

- They discussed "lisp compiler" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lisp compiler" because he had never seen it before.

---

los alamos (noun)

A town in north central New Mexico; in 1942 it was chosen as a nuclear research site where the first atomic bombs were produced.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "los alamos."
- He looked up "los alamos" because he had never seen it before.

---

lot's wife (noun)

(Old Testament) when God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, Lot and his family were told to flee without looking back; Lot's wife was disobedient and was immediately changed into a pillar of salt.

- In class, the teacher used "lot's wife" to mean (old testament) when god destroyed sodom and....
- They discussed "lot's wife" during the group presentation.

lumbar puncture (noun)

Removal by centesis of fluid from the subarachnoid space of the lumbar region of the spinal cord for diagnostic or therapeutic purposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lumbar puncture."
- Understanding "lumbar puncture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lumped (verb)

Put together indiscriminately.

- He did not know how to use "lumped" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "lumped" carefully so everyone would understand.

lunge (noun)

The act of moving forward suddenly.

- They discussed "lunge" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lunge."

lyra (noun)

A small constellation in the northern hemisphere near Cygnus and Draco; contains the star Vega.

- Understanding "lyra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lyra" to mean a small constellation in the northern hemisphere....

maggots (noun)

The larva of the housefly and blowfly commonly found in decaying organic matter.

- He looked up "maggots" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "maggots" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

malaga (noun)

A port city and resort in Andalusia in southern Spain on the Mediterranean.

- They discussed "malaga" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "malaga" because he had never seen it before.

malayalam (noun)

A Dravidian language (closely related to Tamil) that is spoken in southwestern India.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "malayalam."
- He looked up "malayalam" because he had never seen it before.

maliciously (adverb)

With malice; in a malicious manner.

- She answered maliciously.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "maliciously" naturally.

manipulator (noun)

An agent that operates some apparatus or machine.

- Understanding "manipulator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manipulator."

marathi (noun)

An Indic language; the state language of Maharashtra in west central India; written in the Devanagari script.

- He looked up "marathi" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "marathi" to mean an indic language; the state language of....

meddle (verb)

Intrude in other people's affairs or business; interfere unwantedly.

- Don't meddle in my affairs!
- Can you use "meddle" in a sentence that fits this situation?

menagerie (noun)

A collection of live animals for study or display.

- They discussed "menagerie" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "menagerie" because he had never seen it before.

---

merino sheep (noun)

White sheep originating in Spain and producing a heavy fleece of exceptional quality.

- The article explained what "merino sheep" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "merino sheep" during the group presentation.

---

metallurgical (adjective)

Of or relating to metallurgy.

- Metallurgical engineer.
- Would you call this situation "metallurgical"? Explain why.

---

micron (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one millionth of a meter.

- In class, the teacher used "micron" to mean a metric unit of length equal to one millionth of a....
- They discussed "micron" during the group presentation.

---

midpoint (noun)

A point equidistant from the ends of a line or the extremities of a figure.

- He looked up "midpoint" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "midpoint."

---

monoclonal (noun)

Any of a class of antibodies produced in the laboratory by a single clone of cells or a cell line and consisting of identical antibody molecules.

- In class, the teacher used "monoclonal" to mean any of a class of antibodies produced in the....
- The article explained what "monoclonal" means with a simple example.

---

motorways (noun)

A broad highway designed for high-speed traffic.

- They discussed "motorways" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "motorways" to mean a broad highway designed for high-speed traffic.

---

mountain hemlock (noun)

Large evergreen of western United States; wood much harder than Canadian hemlock.

- Understanding "mountain hemlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mountain hemlock."

---

narrow-mindedness (noun)

An inclination to criticize opposing opinions or shocking behavior.

- In class, the teacher used "narrow-mindedness" to mean an inclination to criticize opposing opinions or....
- The article explained what "narrow-mindedness" means with a simple example.

---

nibble (verb)

Bite off very small pieces.

- She nibbled on her cracker.
- The woman tenderly nibbled at her baby's ear.

---

nin-sin (noun)

Chinese herb with palmately compound leaves and small greenish flowers and forked aromatic roots believed to have medicinal powers.

- He looked up "nin-sin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nin-sin."

---

northern pocket gopher (noun)

Greyish to brown gopher of western and central United States.

- The article explained what "northern pocket gopher" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "northern pocket gopher" during the group presentation.

---

nosy (adjective)

Offensively curious or inquisitive.

- He flipped through my letters in his nosy way.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "nosy."

---

nullify (verb)

Make ineffective by counterbalancing the effect of.

- In everyday English, people use "nullify" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "nullify" in real sentences.

---

nys (noun)

A Mid-Atlantic state; one of the original 13 colonies.

- He looked up "nys" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nys" during the group presentation.

---

old world crayfish (noun)

Small crayfish of Europe and Asia and western North America.

- He looked up "old world crayfish" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "old world crayfish" to mean small crayfish of europe and asia and western north....

---

oligarchy (noun)

A political system governed by a few people.

- One of his cardinal convictions was that Britain was not run as a democracy but as an oligarchy.
- The big cities were notoriously in the hands of the oligarchy of local businessmen.

---

omelette (noun)

Beaten eggs or an egg mixture cooked until just set; may be folded around e.g. ham or cheese or jelly.

- They discussed "omelette" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "omelette" to mean beaten eggs or an egg mixture cooked until just....

---

omnipotent (adjective)

Having unlimited power.

- The speaker chose "omnipotent" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "omnipotent" when it is having unlimited power.

---

oppressors (noun)

A person of authority who subjects others to undue pressures.

- He looked up "oppressors" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oppressors."

---

organic fertiliser (noun)

A fertilizer that is derived from animal or vegetable matter.

- He looked up "organic fertiliser" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "organic fertiliser" to mean a fertilizer that is derived from animal or....

---

ostrich fern (noun)

Tall fern of northern temperate regions having graceful arched fronds and sporophylls resembling ostrich plumes.

- They discussed "ostrich fern" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ostrich fern" to mean tall fern of northern temperate regions having....

---

outboard motor (noun)

Internal-combustion engine that mounts at stern of small boat.

- They discussed "outboard motor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "outboard motor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

overpower (verb)

Overcome, as with emotions or perceptual stimuli.

- He did not know how to use "overpower" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "overpower" and when to wait.

---

overtures (noun)

A tentative suggestion designed to elicit the reactions of others.

- They discussed "overtures" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "overtures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pacific hemlock (noun)

Tall evergreen of western North America; commercially important timber tree.

- Understanding "pacific hemlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pacific hemlock" to mean tall evergreen of western north america;....

---

paedophile (noun)

An adult who is sexually attracted to children.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paedophile."
- Understanding "paedophile" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pagoda (noun)

An Asian temple; usually a pyramidal tower with an upward curving roof.

- Understanding "pagoda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pagoda" to mean an asian temple; usually a pyramidal tower with an....

---

pagoda tree (noun)

Frangipani of India having an erect habit and conical form; grown in temple gardens.

- He looked up "pagoda tree" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pagoda tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paraded (verb)

March in a procession.

- The veterans paraded down the street.
- Can you use "paraded" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

parallax (noun)

The apparent displacement of an object as seen from two different points that are not on a line with the object.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parallax."
- He looked up "parallax" because he had never seen it before.

---

passers (noun)

A person who passes by casually or by chance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passers."
- They discussed "passers" during the group presentation.

---

peachy-colored (adjective)

Of something resembling a peach in color.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "peachy-colored."
- Students compared "peachy-colored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pectoral vein (noun)

Veins that drain the pectoral muscles and empty into the subclavian vein.

- He looked up "pectoral vein" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pectoral vein" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pedal pusher (noun)

Snug trousers ending at the calves; worn by women and girls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pedal pusher."
- He looked up "pedal pusher" because he had never seen it before.

---

penniless (adjective)

Not having enough money to pay for necessities.

- A "penniless" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "penniless"? Explain why.

---

pentecostal religion (noun)

Any fundamentalist Protestant Church that uses revivalistic methods to achieve experiences comparable to the Pentecostal experiences of the first Christian disciples.

- They discussed "pentecostal religion" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pentecostal religion" means with a simple example.

---

periodic apnea of the newborn (noun)

Irregular breathing of newborns; periods of rapid breathing followed by apnea; believed to be associated with sudden infant death syndrome.

- They discussed "periodic apnea of the newborn" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "periodic apnea of the newborn."

---

phalanx (noun)

A body of troops in close array.

- He looked up "phalanx" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phalanx."

---

photogenic (adjective)

Looking attractive in photographs.

- Students compared "photogenic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "photogenic" when it is looking attractive in photographs.

Philosophy & Abstract Thought

epistemology (noun)

The branch of philosophy that studies knowledge itself: what it is, how we acquire it, and how we can be sure of what we know.

- Her course on epistemology asks how we can distinguish knowledge from mere belief.
- Debates about artificial intelligence raise old questions of epistemology in a new form.

---

dialectic (noun)

A method of discovering truth through reasoned discussion of opposing ideas; the tension or interplay between conflicting forces.

- Socrates used dialectic, questioning his students until contradictions in their views emerged.
- The book explores the dialectic between individual freedom and social order.

---

tenet (noun)

One of the main principles or beliefs on which a theory, religion, or philosophy is based.

- Respect for individual liberty is a central tenet of liberal democracy.
- The scientist's findings challenged a basic tenet of classical economics.

---

ontology (noun)

The branch of philosophy concerned with the nature of being and existence.

- Ontology asks what kinds of things exist and how they relate.
- Computer scientists borrow the term ontology for structured models of knowledge.

---

teleology (noun)

The explanation of phenomena by reference to purpose or goal rather than by cause alone.

- Aristotle's biology was shaped by teleology.
- Critics reject teleological readings of evolution.

---

solipsism (noun)

The view that only one's own mind is sure to exist, or an extreme self-centered attitude.

- Taken seriously, solipsism makes shared knowledge impossible.

- His social media posts reeked of solipsism.

---

phenomenology (noun)

A philosophical approach that studies structures of experience and consciousness as they appear to us.

- Phenomenology focuses on how things are lived and felt, not merely measured.
- She wrote a thesis on the phenomenology of grief.

---

axiomatic (adjective)

Self-evidently true; based on axioms that are accepted without proof.

- It is axiomatic that all citizens deserve equal protection under the law.
- The proof begins from several axiomatic assumptions.

---

hermeneutics (noun)

The theory and method of interpretation, especially of texts.

- Biblical hermeneutics has a long scholarly tradition.
- Legal hermeneutics asks how statutes should be read.

---

nihilism (noun)

The rejection of all religious and moral principles, often in the belief that life is meaningless.

- The novel explores youthful nihilism in a collapsing society.
- Critics accused the movement of cultural nihilism.

---

contingent (adjective)

Dependent on chance or on conditions that are not necessary; possible but not certain.

- Success was contingent on securing enough funding.
- Many philosophers argue that historical events are contingent.

---

tautology (noun)

A statement that is true by definition or that repeats the same idea in different words without adding information.

- "All bachelors are unmarried" is a tautology.
- The slogan was dismissed as an empty tautology.

---

phylogenetic relation (noun)

(biology) state of relationship between organisms or groups of organisms resulting in resemblance in structure or structural parts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "phylogenetic relation."
- He looked up "phylogenetic relation" because he had never seen it before.

---

pilate (noun)

The Roman procurator of Judea who ordered that Jesus be crucified (died in AD 36).

- The article explained what "pilate" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pilate" to mean the roman procurator of judea who ordered that....

---

pirated (verb)

Take arbitrarily or by force.

- Can you use "pirated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "pirated" and when to wait.

---

placer mining (noun)

Mining valuable minerals from a placer by washing or dredging.

- The article explained what "placer mining" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "placer mining" during the group presentation.

---

plantings (noun)

A collection of plants (trees or shrubs or flowers) in a particular area.

- He looked up "plantings" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "plantings" during the group presentation.

---

plummet (noun)

The metal bob of a plumb line.

- He looked up "plummet" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "plummet" to mean the metal bob of a plumb line.

---

political detainee (noun)

Some held in custody.

- In class, the teacher used "political detainee" to mean some held in custody.
- The article explained what "political detainee" means with a simple example.

---

pollack (noun)

Lean white flesh of North Atlantic fish; similar to codfish.

- He looked up "pollack" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pollack" to mean lean white flesh of north atlantic fish; similar to....

---

polymerization (noun)

A chemical process that combines several monomers to form a polymer or polymeric compound.

- In class, the teacher used "polymerization" to mean a chemical process that combines several monomers....
- He looked up "polymerization" because he had never seen it before.

---

ponce de leon (noun)

Spanish explorer who accompanied Columbus on his second trip in 1493; in 1513 he discovered Florida while searching for the legendary Fountain of Youth (1460-1521).

- He looked up "ponce de leon" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ponce de leon."

---

pondered (verb)

Reflect deeply on a subject.

- In everyday English, people use "pondered" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "pondered" in real sentences.

---

post-impressionist (noun)

An artist of the Postimpressionist school who revolted against Impressionism.

- In class, the teacher used "post-impressionist" to mean an artist of the postimpressionist school who....
- He looked up "post-impressionist" because he had never seen it before.

---

potter's wheel (noun)

A horizontal rotating wheel holding the clay being shaped by a potter.

- The potter's wheel was invented in Asia Minor around 6500 BC.
- The article explained what "potter's wheel" means with a simple example.

---

potters (verb)

Do random, unplanned work or activities or spend time idly.

- He did not know how to use "potters" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "potters" when talking about this idea.

---

pounder (noun)

(used only in combination) something weighing a given number of pounds.

- The fisherman caught a 10-pounder.
- Their linemen are all 300-pounders.

---

prairies (noun)

A treeless grassy plain.

- They discussed "prairies" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "prairies" to mean a treeless grassy plain.

---

predicate (verb)

Affirm or declare as an attribute or quality of.

- The speech predicated the fitness of the candidate to be President.
- The predicate 'dog' is predicated of the subject 'Fido' in the sentence 'Fido is a dog'.

---

predictability (noun)

The quality of being predictable.

- The article explained what "predictability" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "predictability."

---

premature ejaculation (noun)

Ejaculation during the early stages of sexual excitement or soon after the insertion of the penis into the vagina.

- Understanding "premature ejaculation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "premature ejaculation" to mean ejaculation during the early stages of sexual....

---

puking (noun)

The reflex act of ejecting the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- In class, the teacher used "puking" to mean the reflex act of ejecting the contents of the....
- The article explained what "puking" means with a simple example.

---

pyle (noun)

United States writer and illustrator of children's books (1853-1911).

- He looked up "pyle" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pyle" to mean united states writer and illustrator of children's....

---

quaternary (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

- Understanding "quaternary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "quaternary" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of three and one.

---

quaternary period (noun)

Last 2 million years.

- They discussed "quaternary period" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "quaternary period" means with a simple example.

---

queen dowager (noun)

The widow of a king.

- They discussed "queen dowager" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "queen dowager."

---

quince bush (noun)

Small Asian tree with pinkish flowers and pear-shaped fruit; widely cultivated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quince bush."
- Understanding "quince bush" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

quintet (noun)

A musical composition for five performers.

- He looked up "quintet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quintet."

---

radiated (verb)

Cause to be seen by emitting light as if in rays.

- Her face radiated with happiness.
- Heat radiated from the metal box.

---

ramble (verb)

Continue talking or writing in a desultory manner.

- This novel rambles on and jogs.
- In everyday English, people use "ramble" when talking about this idea.

ramble on (verb)

Continue talking or writing in a desultory manner.

- This novel rambles on and jogs.
- The coach explained when to use "ramble on" and when to wait.

rana goliath (noun)

Largest living frog; up to a foot and weighing up to 10 lbs; Africa.

- In class, the teacher used "rana goliath" to mean largest living frog; up to a foot and weighing up....
- The article explained what "rana goliath" means with a simple example.

rattlesnake weed (noun)

A hawkweed with a rosette of purple-veined basal leaves; Canada to northern Georgia and Kentucky.

- The article explained what "rattlesnake weed" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rattlesnake weed" during the group presentation.

razors (noun)

Edge tool used in shaving.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "razors."
- He looked up "razors" because he had never seen it before.

reconstructive (adjective)

Helping to restore to good condition.

- Reconstructive surgery.
- It is useful to describe something as "reconstructive" when it is helping to restore to good condition.

reconstructive memory (noun)

Recall that is hypothesized to work by storing abstract features which are then used to construct the memory during recall.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reconstructive memory."
- He looked up "reconstructive memory" because he had never seen it before.

rectal vein (noun)

Any of several veins draining the walls of the anal canal and rectum.

- The article explained what "rectal vein" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "rectal vein" to mean any of several veins draining the walls of the anal....

refractory-lined (adjective)

(of furnaces) lined with material that has a high melting point.

- Would you call this situation "refractory-lined"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "refractory-lined" because it captured the feeling precisely.

refrained (verb)

Choose not to consume.

- He refrained from hitting him back.
- She tried to use "refrained" carefully so everyone would understand.

retaliatory (adjective)

Of or relating to or having the nature of retribution.

- It is useful to describe something as "retaliatory" when it is of or relating to or having the nature of retribution.
- Would you call this situation "retaliatory"? Explain why.

revolutionize (verb)

Overthrow by a revolution, of governments.

- E-mail revolutionized communication in academe.
- He did not know how to use "revolutionize" until he saw an example.

revs (verb)

Increase the number of rotations per minute.

- The coach explained when to use "revs" and when to wait.
- Can you use "revs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

rhinoceros (noun)

Massive powerful herbivorous odd-toed ungulate of southeast Asia and Africa having very thick skin and one or two horns on the snout.

- He looked up "rhinoceros" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rhinoceros" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rhinoceros family (noun)

Rhinoceroses.

- In class, the teacher used "rhinoceros family" to mean rhinoceroses.
- They discussed "rhinoceros family" during the group presentation.

---

richard coeur de lion (noun)

Son of Henry II and King of England from 1189 to 1199; a leader of the Third Crusade; on his way home from the crusade he was captured and held prisoner in the Holy Roman Empire until England ransomed him in 1194 (1157-1199).

- Understanding "richard coeur de lion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "richard coeur de lion."

---

rickshaw (noun)

A small two-wheeled cart for one passenger; pulled by one person.

- Understanding "rickshaw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rickshaw" to mean a small two-wheeled cart for one passenger; pulled....

---

ring-necked snake (noun)

Any of numerous small nonvenomous North American snakes with a yellow or orange ring around the neck.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring-necked snake."
- The article explained what "ring-necked snake" means with a simple example.

---

riser pipeline (noun)

A vertical pipe in a building.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "riser pipeline."
- He looked up "riser pipeline" because he had never seen it before.

---

rollover (noun)

The act of changing the institution that invests your pension plan without incurring a tax penalty.

- The article explained what "rollover" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "rollover" during the group presentation.

---

romp (noun)

Gay or light-hearted recreational activity for diversion or amusement.

- Understanding "romp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "romp."

---

rustling (noun)

A light noise, like the noise of silk clothing or leaves blowing in the wind.

- In class, the teacher used "rustling" to mean a light noise, like the noise of silk clothing or....
- They discussed "rustling" during the group presentation.

---

salvador dali (noun)

Surrealist Spanish painter (1904-1989).

- In class, the teacher used "salvador dali" to mean surrealist spanish painter (1904-1989).
- He looked up "salvador dali" because he had never seen it before.

---

sanger (noun)

United States nurse who campaigned for birth control and planned parenthood; she challenged Gregory Pincus to develop a birth control pill (1883-1966).

- He looked up "sanger" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sanger."

---

sarawak (noun)

A region of Malaysia on northwestern Borneo.

- Understanding "sarawak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sarawak."

---

sawdust (noun)

Fine particles of wood made by sawing wood.

- They discussed "sawdust" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sawdust."

---

sba (noun)

An independent agency of the United States government that protects the interests of small businesses and ensures that they receive a fair share of government contracts.

- He looked up "sba" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sba."

---

scavenging (verb)

Feed on carrion or refuse.

- He did not know how to use "scavenging" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "scavenging" and when to wait.

---

scoured (adjective)

Worn away as by water or ice or wind.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "scoured."
- The speaker chose "scoured" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

scrotum (noun)

The external pouch that contains the testes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scrotum."
- Understanding "scrotum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scruffy (adjective)

Shabby and untidy; ; - Mark Twain.

- A surge of ragged scruffy children.
- Would you call this situation "scruffy"? Explain why.

---

second epistle to timothy (noun)

A New Testament book containing Saint Paul's second epistle to Timothy; contains advice on pastoral matters.

- The article explained what "second epistle to timothy" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "second epistle to timothy" to mean a new testament book containing saint paul's second....

---

sewerage (noun)

A waste pipe that carries away sewage or surface water.

- They discussed "sewerage" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sewerage" because he had never seen it before.

---

sexual immorality (noun)

The evil ascribed to sexual acts that violate social conventions.

- Sexual immorality is the major reason for last year's record number of abortions.
- The article explained what "sexual immorality" means with a simple example.

---

shangri-la (noun)

Any place of complete bliss and delight and peace.

- Understanding "shangri-la" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "shangri-la" means with a simple example.

---

shasta (noun)

The Shastan language spoken by the Shasta.

- Understanding "shasta" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shasta" because he had never seen it before.

---

shenandoah national park (noun)

A national park in Virginia for the Blue Ridge Mountains.

- The article explained what "shenandoah national park" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shenandoah national park."

---

shenandoah river (noun)

A river of northern Virginia that empties into the Potomac at Harpers Ferry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shenandoah river."
- He looked up "shenandoah river" because he had never seen it before.

---

shithead (noun)

A stupid person; these words are used to express a low opinion of someone's intelligence.

- Understanding "shithead" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "shithead" during the group presentation.

---

shoo (verb)

Drive away by crying 'shoo!'.

- In everyday English, people use "shoo" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "shoo" in real sentences.

---

shoo away (verb)

Drive away by crying 'shoo!'.

- Can you use "shoo away" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "shoo away" when talking about this idea.

---

shoo off (verb)

Drive away by crying 'shoo!'.

- She tried to use "shoo off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "shoo off" when talking about this idea.

---

shoo-in (noun)

An easy victory.

- They discussed "shoo-in" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "shoo-in" because he had never seen it before.

---

sickle-cell anemia (noun)

A congenital form of anemia occurring mostly in blacks; characterized by abnormal blood cells having a crescent shape.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sickle-cell anemia."
- The article explained what "sickle-cell anemia" means with a simple example.

---

simplifies (verb)

Make simpler or easier or reduce in complexity or extent.

- In everyday English, people use "simplifies" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "simplifies" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

sinuses (noun)

An abnormal passage leading from a suppurating cavity to the body surface.

- He looked up "sinuses" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sinuses."

---

sir john herschel (noun)

English astronomer (son of William Herschel) who extended the catalogue of stars to the southern hemisphere and did pioneering work in photography (1792-1871).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sir john herschel."
- He looked up "sir john herschel" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir roger gilbert bannister (noun)

English runner who in 1954 became the first person to run a mile in less than four minutes (born in 1929).

- Understanding "sir roger gilbert bannister" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "sir roger gilbert bannister" because he had never seen it before.

---

slung (verb)

Hold or carry in a sling.

- Can you use "slung" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "slung" and when to wait.

---

smelter (noun)

An industrial plant for smelting.

- Understanding "smelter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "smelter" because he had never seen it before.

---

smoothness (noun)

The quality of having a level and even surface.

- The water was a glassy smoothness.
- The weather system of the Pacific is determined by the uninterrupted smoothness of the ocean.

---

smother (verb)

Deprive of oxygen and prevent from breathing.

- Othello smothered Desdemona with a pillow.
- Smother the meat in gravy.

---

sniffed (verb)

Inhale audibly through the nose.

- In everyday English, people use "sniffed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "sniffed" until he saw an example.

---

snorted (verb)

Indicate contempt by breathing noisily and forcefully through the nose.

- She snorted her disapproval of the proposed bridegroom.
- The critic snorted contemptuously.

---

soft-witted (adjective)

(of especially persons) lacking sense or understanding or judgment.

- It is useful to describe something as "soft-witted" when it is (of especially persons) lacking sense or....
- The speaker chose "soft-witted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

spatula-shaped (adjective)

(of a leaf shape) having a broad rounded apex and a narrow base.

- Would you call this situation "spatula-shaped"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spatula-shaped."

---

spontaneity (noun)

The quality of being spontaneous and coming from natural feelings without constraint.

- The spontaneity of his laughter.
- Understanding "spontaneity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sprain (noun)

A painful injury to a joint caused by a sudden wrenching of its ligaments.

- They discussed "sprain" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "sprain" to mean a painful injury to a joint caused by a sudden....

sprinklers (noun)

Mechanical device that attaches to a garden hose for watering lawn or garden.

- The article explained what "sprinklers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sprinklers" to mean mechanical device that attaches to a garden hose....

sss (noun)

An independent federal agency that administers compulsory military service.

- The article explained what "sss" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sss" during the group presentation.

stateless (adjective)

Without nationality or citizenship.

- Stateless persons.
- It is useful to describe something as "stateless" when it is without nationality or citizenship.

stateless person (noun)

A person forced to flee from home or country.

- They discussed "stateless person" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stateless person."

stepson (noun)

The son your spouse by a former marriage.

- In class, the teacher used "stepson" to mean the son your spouse by a former marriage.
- Understanding "stepson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

strolled (verb)

Walk leisurely and with no apparent aim.

- In everyday English, people use "strolled" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "strolled" carefully so everyone would understand.

stunningly (adverb)

In a spectacular manner.

- The narrator describes the scene "stunningly" in the final chapter.
- Using "stunningly" can make your explanation more exact.

sudbury (noun)

A city in south central Canada in Ontario; a major nickel mining center.

- Understanding "sudbury" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sudbury" during the group presentation.

surly (adjective)

Inclined to anger or bad feelings with overtones of menace.

- A surly waiter.
- A "surly" approach may work better in this case.

sutures (noun)

An immovable joint (especially between the bones of the skull).

- The article explained what "sutures" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sutures" during the group presentation.

swedish meatball (noun)

Meatballs simmered in stock.

- They discussed "swedish meatball" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "swedish meatball" means with a simple example.

sweeteners (noun)

Something added to foods to make them taste sweeter.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweeteners."
- He looked up "sweeteners" because he had never seen it before.

---

symbolized (verb)

Represent or identify by using a symbol; use symbols.

- The coach explained when to use "symbolized" and when to wait.
- Can you use "symbolized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tarnish (verb)

Make dirty or spotty, as by exposure to air; also used metaphorically.

- The silver was tarnished by the long exposure to the air.
- He did not know how to use "tarnish" until he saw an example.

---

tartar steak (noun)

Ground beef mixed with raw egg and e.g. onions and capers and anchovies; eaten raw.

- He looked up "tartar steak" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "tartar steak" to mean ground beef mixed with raw egg and e.g. onions and....

---

tasman (noun)

Dutch navigator who was the first European to discover Tasmania and New Zealand (1603-1659).

- Understanding "tasman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tasman" because he had never seen it before.

---

tasman sea (noun)

An arm of the southern Pacific Ocean between southeastern Australia and New Zealand.

- They discussed "tasman sea" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tasman sea."

---

teapot dome scandal (noun)

A government scandal involving a former United States Navy oil reserve in Wyoming that was secretly leased to a private oil company in 1921; became symbolic of the scandals of the Harding administration.

- He looked up "teapot dome scandal" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "teapot dome scandal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thatched roof (noun)

A house roof made with a plant material (as straw).

- They discussed "thatched roof" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "thatched roof" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

thrashed (verb)

Beat thoroughly and conclusively in a competition or fight.

- The feverish patient thrashed around in his bed.
- He did not know how to use "thrashed" until he saw an example.

---

tiger rattlesnake (noun)

Having irregularly cross-banded back; of arid foothills and canyons of southern Arizona and Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tiger rattlesnake."
- He looked up "tiger rattlesnake" because he had never seen it before.

---

tim leary (noun)

United States psychologist who experimented with psychoactive drugs (including LSD) and became a well-known advocate of their use (1920-1996).

- The article explained what "tim leary" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tim leary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tithe barn (noun)

Barn originally built to hold tithes paid in kind and common in England.

- The article explained what "tithe barn" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "tithe barn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tls (noun)

A soft grey malleable metallic element that resembles tin but discolors on exposure to air; it is highly toxic and is used in rodent and insect poisons; occurs in zinc blende and some iron ores.

- The article explained what "tls" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tls" to mean a soft grey malleable metallic element that....

---

torsion (noun)

A tortuous and twisted shape or position.

- Understanding "torsion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "torsion" during the group presentation.

---

tosh (noun)

Pretentious or silly talk or writing.

- Understanding "tosh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tosh."

---

touchstone (noun)

A basis for comparison; a reference point against which other things can be evaluated.

- Understanding "touchstone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "touchstone" to mean a basis for comparison; a reference point against....

---

tramway (noun)

The track on which trams or streetcars run.

- They discussed "tramway" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tramway" to mean the track on which trams or streetcars run.

---

transactional immunity (noun)

A broader form of use immunity that also protects the witness from any prosecution brought about relating to transactions to which they gave testimony.

- The article explained what "transactional immunity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "transactional immunity" to mean a broader form of use immunity that also protects....

---

trier (noun)

One (as a judge) who examines and settles a case.

- He looked up "trier" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trier."

---

tropical prawn (noun)

Edible tropical and warm-water prawn.

- In class, the teacher used "tropical prawn" to mean edible tropical and warm-water prawn.
- The article explained what "tropical prawn" means with a simple example.

---

trouser (noun)

A garment (or part of a garment) designed for or relating to trousers.

- In his trouser's pocket.
- He ripped his left trouser on the fence.

---

trouser press (noun)

A home appliance in which trousers can be hung and the wrinkles pressed out.

- The article explained what "trouser press" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trouser press."

---

trumpet creeper (noun)

A North American woody vine having pinnate leaves and large red trumpet-shaped flowers.

- They discussed "trumpet creeper" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trumpet creeper."

---

tugs (verb)

Strive and make an effort to reach a goal.

- This movie tugs at the heart strings.
- Can you use "tugs" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tumbler (noun)

A gymnast who performs rolls and somersaults and twists etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumbler."
- He looked up "tumbler" because he had never seen it before.

---

twelfth cranial nerve (noun)

Supplies intrinsic muscles of the tongue and other tongue muscles.

- He looked up "twelfth cranial nerve" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "twelfth cranial nerve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

two-handed backhand (noun)

A backhand shot made holding the racquet in both hands.

- They discussed "two-handed backhand" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "two-handed backhand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

typeface (noun)

A specific size and style of type within a type family.

- The article explained what "typeface" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "typeface" to mean a specific size and style of type within a type family.

---

uglier (adjective)

Provoking horror; ; ; ; - Winston Churchill.

- It is useful to describe something as "uglier" when it is provoking horror; ; ; ; - winston churchill.
- A "uglier" approach may work better in this case.

---

ult (adjective)

In or of the month preceding the present one.

- Your letter received on the 29th ult.
- A "ult" approach may work better in this case.

---

unbound (adjective)

Not secured within a cover.

- An unbound book.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unbound."

---

uncalled-for (adjective)

Not required or requested.

- Uncalled-for suggestions.
- It is useful to describe something as "uncalled-for" when it is not required or requested.

---

undemocratic (adjective)

Not in agreement with or according to democratic doctrine or practice or ideals.

- The union broke with its past undemocratic procedures.
- It is useful to describe something as "undemocratic" when it is not in agreement with or according to democratic....

---

undergrad (noun)

A university student who has not yet received a first degree.

- Understanding "undergrad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "undergrad."

---

underpaid (verb)

Pay too little.

- She tried to use "underpaid" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "underpaid" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

uninvited (adjective)

Unwelcome and unwanted.

- Uninvited guests.
- Uninvited thoughts.

---

unleashing (verb)

Turn loose or free from restraint.

- She tried to use "unleashing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "unleashing" in real sentences.

---

unnerving (adjective)

Inspiring fear; ; - G.H.Johnston.

- Something unnerving and prisonlike about high grey wall.
- Students compared "unnerving" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unpunished (adjective)

Not punished.

- Would he forget the crime and let it go unpunished?
- A "unpunished" approach may work better in this case.

---

unrecognized (adjective)

Not having a secure reputation.

- Short stories by unrecognized writers.
- He was unrecognized in his disguise.

---

untested (adjective)

Not tried or tested by experience.

- Still untested in battle.
- An untested drug.

---

urethra (noun)

Duct through which urine is discharged in most mammals and which serves as the male genital duct.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "urethra."
- He looked up "urethra" because he had never seen it before.

---

utilising (verb)

Put into service; make work or employ for a particular purpose or for its inherent or natural purpose.

- Learners should practice how to use "utilising" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "utilising" when talking about this idea.

---

uzbek (noun)

A member of a Turkic people of Uzbekistan and neighboring areas.

- They discussed "uzbek" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "uzbek" means with a simple example.

---

valence electron (noun)

An electron in the outer shell of an atom which can combine with other atoms to form molecules.

- In class, the teacher used "valence electron" to mean an electron in the outer shell of an atom which can....
- The article explained what "valence electron" means with a simple example.

---

valley pocket gopher (noun)

Of valleys and mountain meadows of western United States.

- He looked up "valley pocket gopher" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "valley pocket gopher."

vaudeville (noun)

A variety show with songs and comic acts etc.

- They discussed "vaudeville" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "vaudeville" to mean a variety show with songs and comic acts etc.

veils (verb)

To obscure, or conceal with or as if with a veil.

- Can you use "veils" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "veils" when talking about this idea.

verve (noun)

An energetic style.

- In class, the teacher used "verve" to mean an energetic style.
- He looked up "verve" because he had never seen it before.

vex (verb)

Cause annoyance in; disturb, especially by minor irritations.

- Vex the subject of the death penalty.
- A vexing problem.

vips (noun)

An important or influential (and often overbearing) person.

- In class, the teacher used "vips" to mean an important or influential (and often overbearing)....
- Understanding "vips" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

vox angelica (noun)

An organ stop producing a gentle tremolo effect.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vox angelica."
- Understanding "vox angelica" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wandering albatross (noun)

Very large albatross; white with wide black wings.

- In class, the teacher used "wandering albatross" to mean very large albatross; white with wide black wings.
- He looked up "wandering albatross" because he had never seen it before.

watchtower (noun)

An observation tower for a lookout to watch over prisoners or watch for fires or enemies.

- He looked up "watchtower" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "watchtower" during the group presentation.

waveform (noun)

The shape of a wave illustrated graphically by plotting the values of the period quantity against time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waveform."
- Understanding "waveform" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

weighty (adjective)

Of great gravity or crucial import; requiring serious thought.

- The weighty matters to be discussed at the peace conference.
- A weighty argument.

west coast hemlock (noun)

Tall evergreen of western North America; commercially important timber tree.

- He looked up "west coast hemlock" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "west coast hemlock" to mean tall evergreen of western north america;....

white rhinoceros (noun)

Large light-grey African rhinoceros having two horns; endangered; sometimes placed in genus Diceros.

- They discussed "white rhinoceros" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "white rhinoceros" because he had never seen it before.

---

wild licorice (noun)

North American plant similar to true licorice and having a root with similar properties.

- He looked up "wild licorice" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wild licorice" during the group presentation.

---

william fulbright (noun)

United States senator who is remembered for his creation of grants that fund exchange programs of teachers and students between the United States and other countries (1905-1995).

- He looked up "william fulbright" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "william fulbright."

---

william herschel (noun)

English astronomer (born in Germany) who discovered infrared light and who catalogued the stars and discovered the planet Uranus (1738-1822).

- The article explained what "william herschel" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william herschel" to mean english astronomer (born in germany) who discovered....

---

workbook (noun)

A student's book or booklet containing problems with spaces for solving them.

- Understanding "workbook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "workbook" means with a simple example.

---

workspace (noun)

Space allocated for your work (as in an office).

- The article explained what "workspace" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "workspace" during the group presentation.

---

worships (noun)

A feeling of profound love and admiration.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worships."
- He looked up "worships" because he had never seen it before.

---

writer's cramp (noun)

Muscular spasms of thumb and forefinger while writing with a pen or pencil.

- In class, the teacher used "writer's cramp" to mean muscular spasms of thumb and forefinger while....
- The article explained what "writer's cramp" means with a simple example.

---

x-linked recessive inheritance (noun)

Hereditary pattern in which a recessive gene on the X chromosome results in the manifestation of characteristics in male offspring and a carrier state in female offspring.

- The article explained what "x-linked recessive inheritance" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "x-linked recessive inheritance" to mean hereditary pattern in which a recessive gene on the....

---

yoko ono (noun)

United States musician (born in Japan) who married John Lennon and collaborated with him on recordings (born in 1933).

- He looked up "yoko ono" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "yoko ono" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

zephyr (noun)

A slight wind (usually refreshing).

- Understanding "zephyr" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "zephyr" because he had never seen it before.

---

zimbabwean dollar (noun)

The basic unit of money in Zimbabwe.

- He looked up "zimbabwean dollar" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "zimbabwean dollar" during the group presentation.

---

zinc sulfide (noun)

A yellow to white crystalline fluorescent compound that occurs naturally as sphalerite or wurtzite and is used as a luminous pigment.

- He looked up "zinc sulfide" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "zinc sulfide" during the group presentation.

---

zoomed (verb)

Move with a low humming noise.

- Learners should practice how to use "zoomed" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "zoomed" when talking about this idea.

---

accusers (noun)

Someone who imputes guilt or blame.

- They discussed "accusers" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "accusers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

adaptability (noun)

The ability to change (or be changed) to fit changed circumstances.

- In class, the teacher used "adaptability" to mean the ability to change (or be changed) to fit....
- He looked up "adaptability" because he had never seen it before.

---

adapters (noun)

A musician who adapts a composition for particular voices or instruments or for another style of performance.

- In class, the teacher used "adapters" to mean a musician who adapts a composition for particular....
- He looked up "adapters" because he had never seen it before.

---

adheres (verb)

Follow through or carry out a plan without deviation.

- Learners should practice how to use "adheres" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "adheres" and when to wait.

---

aggressiveness (noun)

The quality of being bold and enterprising.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aggressiveness."
- He looked up "aggressiveness" because he had never seen it before.

---

alamos (noun)

A siege and massacre at a mission in San Antonio in 1836; Mexican forces under Santa Anna besieged and massacred American rebels who were fighting to make Texas independent of Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alamos."
- The article explained what "alamos" means with a simple example.

---

albert camus (noun)

French writer who portrayed the human condition as isolated in an absurd world (1913-1960).

- The article explained what "albert camus" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "albert camus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ales (noun)

A general name for beer made with a top fermenting yeast; in some of the United States an ale is (by law) a brew of more than 4% alcohol by volume.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ales."
- Understanding "ales" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

alfred lord tennyson (noun)

Englishman and Victorian poet (1809-1892).

- The article explained what "alfred lord tennyson" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "alfred lord tennyson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

allegorical (adjective)

Used in or characteristic of or containing allegory.

- Allegorical stories.
- An allegorical painting of Victory leading an army.

---

alluvial flat (noun)

A flat resulting from repeated deposits of alluvial material by running water.

- They discussed "alluvial flat" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "alluvial flat" to mean a flat resulting from repeated deposits of alluvial....

---

alluvial plain (noun)

A flat resulting from repeated deposits of alluvial material by running water.

- In class, the teacher used "alluvial plain" to mean a flat resulting from repeated deposits of alluvial....
- He looked up "alluvial plain" because he had never seen it before.

---

alluvial soil (noun)

A fine-grained fertile soil deposited by water flowing over flood plains or in river beds.

- The article explained what "alluvial soil" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alluvial soil" to mean a fine-grained fertile soil deposited by water....

---

amigo (noun)

A friend or comrade.

- The article explained what "amigo" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "amigo" during the group presentation.

---

anode (noun)

A positively charged electrode by which electrons leave an electrical device.

- The article explained what "anode" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "anode" to mean a positively charged electrode by which electrons....

---

anthony comstock (noun)

United States reformer who led moral crusades against art and literature that he considered obscene (1844-1915).

- In class, the teacher used "anthony comstock" to mean united states reformer who led moral crusades....
- They discussed "anthony comstock" during the group presentation.

---

apparition (noun)

An act of appearing or becoming visible unexpectedly.

- Natives were amazed at the apparition of this white stranger.
- We were unprepared for the apparition that confronted us.

---

arafat (noun)

Palestinian statesman who was chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization (1929-2004).

- They discussed "arafat" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "arafat" to mean palestinian statesman who was chairman of the....

---

argon (noun)

A colorless and odorless inert gas; one of the six inert gases; comprises approximately 1% of the earth's atmosphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "argon."
- He looked up "argon" because he had never seen it before.

---

arrowhead (noun)

The pointed head or striking tip of an arrow.

- The article explained what "arrowhead" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "arrowhead."

---

asexual reproduction (noun)

Reproduction without the fusion of gametes.

- The article explained what "asexual reproduction" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asexual reproduction."

---

asp viper (noun)

Of southern Europe; similar to but smaller than the adder.

- In class, the teacher used "asp viper" to mean of southern europe; similar to but smaller than the....
- The article explained what "asp viper" means with a simple example.

---

astonishingly (adverb)

In an amazing manner; to everyone's surprise.

- Place "astonishingly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "astonishingly" naturally.

---

astonishment (noun)

The feeling that accompanies something extremely surprising.

- He looked at me in astonishment.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "astonishment."

---

atone (verb)

Turn away from sin or do penitence.

- Can you use "atone" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "atone" and when to wait.

---

backhand (noun)

A return made with the back of the hand facing the direction of the stroke.

- Understanding "backhand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "backhand" during the group presentation.

---

backhand drive (noun)

A hard straight return made on the backhand side.

- Understanding "backhand drive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "backhand drive" during the group presentation.

---

backhand shot (noun)

A return made with the back of the hand facing the direction of the stroke.

- In class, the teacher used "backhand shot" to mean a return made with the back of the hand facing the....
- Understanding "backhand shot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bangla (noun)

A Magadhan language spoken by the Bengali people; the official language of Bangladesh and Bengal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bangla."
- He looked up "bangla" because he had never seen it before.

---

bankroll (noun)

A roll of currency notes (often taken as the resources of a person or business etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bankroll."
- He looked up "bankroll" because he had never seen it before.

---

barristers (noun)

A British or Canadian lawyer who speaks in the higher courts of law on behalf of either the defense or prosecution.

- The article explained what "barristers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "barristers" to mean a british or canadian lawyer who speaks in the....

---

bath mitzvah (noun)

(Judaism) an initiation ceremony marking the 12th birthday of a Jewish girl and signifying the beginning of religious responsibility.

- In class, the teacher used "bath mitzvah" to mean (judaism) an initiation ceremony marking the 12th....
- They discussed "bath mitzvah" during the group presentation.

belittle (verb)

Lessen the authority, dignity, or reputation of.

- Don't belittle your colleagues.
- Don't belittle his influence.

berlin airlift (noun)

Airlift in 1948 that supplied food and fuel to citizens of west Berlin when the Russians closed off land access to Berlin.

- They discussed "berlin airlift" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "berlin airlift" means with a simple example.

beryllium (noun)

A light strong brittle grey toxic bivalent metallic element.

- The article explained what "beryllium" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "beryllium" to mean a light strong brittle grey toxic bivalent metallic....

betrothed (noun)

The person to whom you are engaged.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "betrothed."
- Understanding "betrothed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

billiard (adjective)

Of or relating to billiards.

- A billiard ball.
- A billiard cue.

billiard ball (noun)

Ball used in playing billiards.

- In class, the teacher used "billiard ball" to mean ball used in playing billiards.
- They discussed "billiard ball" during the group presentation.

billiard hall (noun)

A room in which billiards is played.

- In class, the teacher used "billiard hall" to mean a room in which billiards is played.
- The article explained what "billiard hall" means with a simple example.

billiard player (noun)

Someone who plays billiards.

- Understanding "billiard player" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "billiard player" to mean someone who plays billiards.

billiard room (noun)

A room in which billiards is played.

- He looked up "billiard room" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "billiard room" to mean a room in which billiards is played.

billiard table (noun)

Game equipment consisting of a heavy table on which pool is played.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "billiard table."
- The article explained what "billiard table" means with a simple example.

black hemlock (noun)

Large evergreen of western United States; wood much harder than Canadian hemlock.

- Understanding "black hemlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "black hemlock" to mean large evergreen of western united states; wood much....

bladder senna (noun)

Yellow-flowered European shrub cultivated for its succession of yellow flowers and very inflated bladdery pods and as a source of wildlife food.

- They discussed "bladder senna" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bladder senna" to mean yellow-flowered european shrub cultivated for its....

---

bloodthirsty (adjective)

Marked by eagerness to resort to violence and bloodshed; ; ; -G.W.Johnson.

- Bloodthirsty yells.
- A "bloodthirsty" approach may work better in this case.

---

bluish-purple (adjective)

Of purple tinged with blue.

- It is useful to describe something as "bluish-purple" when it is of purple tinged with blue.
- The speaker chose "bluish-purple" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bog rein orchid (noun)

Orchid with spikes of many fragrant white flowers on erect leafy stems; of wet or boggy ground through most of the West and northern North America.

- They discussed "bog rein orchid" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bog rein orchid."

---

boisterous (adjective)

Full of rough and exuberant animal spirits.

- Boisterous practical jokes.
- A boisterous crowd.

---

booksellers (noun)

The proprietor of a bookstore.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "booksellers."
- They discussed "booksellers" during the group presentation.

---

briar (noun)

A pipe made from the root (briarroot) of the tree heath.

- In class, the teacher used "briar" to mean a pipe made from the root (briarroot) of the tree heath.
- They discussed "briar" during the group presentation.

---

brightened (verb)

Make lighter or brighter.

- She tried to use "brightened" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "brightened" until he saw an example.

---

bronco busting (noun)

Breaking a bronco to saddle.

- They discussed "bronco busting" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bronco busting."

---

buckled (verb)

Bend out of shape, as under pressure or from heat.

- The highway buckled during the heat wave.
- His knees buckled.

---

burgh (noun)

A borough in Scotland.

- Understanding "burgh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burgh."

---

cacao (noun)

Tropical American tree producing cacao beans.

- They discussed "cacao" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "cacao" to mean tropical american tree producing cacao beans.

---

cacao tree (noun)

Tropical American tree producing cacao beans.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cacao tree."
- The article explained what "cacao tree" means with a simple example.

---

calcium hydroxide (noun)

A caustic substance produced by heating limestone.

- Understanding "calcium hydroxide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "calcium hydroxide" during the group presentation.

---

calypso (noun)

(Greek mythology) the sea nymph who detained Odysseus for seven years.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calypso."
- He looked up "calypso" because he had never seen it before.

---

capacitance (noun)

An electrical phenomenon whereby an electric charge is stored.

- He looked up "capacitance" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "capacitance" to mean an electrical phenomenon whereby an electric charge....

---

capacitance unit (noun)

A measure of the capacity of a circuit component to store charge.

- He looked up "capacitance unit" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "capacitance unit" to mean a measure of the capacity of a circuit component to....

---

caper (noun)

A crime (especially a robbery).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caper."
- He looked up "caper" because he had never seen it before.

---

caper family (noun)

A dilleniid dicot family of the order Rhoeadales that includes: genera Capparis, Cleome, Crateva, and Polanisia.

- The article explained what "caper family" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caper family."

---

caper tree (noun)

Shrub of southern Florida to West Indies.

- The article explained what "caper tree" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caper tree."

---

capillary vessel (noun)

Any of the minute blood vessels connecting arterioles with venules.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capillary vessel."
- Understanding "capillary vessel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capital of lesotho (noun)

The capital of Lesotho; located in northwestern Lesotho.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capital of lesotho."
- The article explained what "capital of lesotho" means with a simple example.

---

caprice (noun)

A sudden desire.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caprice."
- The article explained what "caprice" means with a simple example.

---

carlsbad (noun)

A town in southeastern New Mexico on the Pecos River near the Mexican border; potash deposits.

- In class, the teacher used "carlsbad" to mean a town in southeastern new mexico on the pecos....
- They discussed "carlsbad" during the group presentation.

---

carriageway (noun)

One of the two sides of a motorway where traffic travels in one direction only usually in two or three lanes.

- The article explained what "carriageway" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carriageway."

---

caspar (noun)

(New Testament) one of the three sages from the east who came bearing gifts for the infant Jesus.

- He looked up "caspar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "caspar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cayenne jasmine (noun)

Commonly cultivated Old World woody herb having large pinkish to red flowers.

- Understanding "cayenne jasmine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "cayenne jasmine" because he had never seen it before.

---

cecil scott forester (noun)

English writer of adventure novels featuring Captain Horatio Hornblower (1899-1966).

- The article explained what "cecil scott forester" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cecil scott forester."

---

cede (verb)

Relinquish possession or control over.

- He did not know how to use "cede" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "cede" and when to wait.

---

cerebral edema (noun)

Swelling of the brain due to the uptake of water in the neuropile and white matter.

- He looked up "cerebral edema" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cerebral edema" to mean swelling of the brain due to the uptake of water in....

---

ceres (noun)

The largest asteroid and the first discovered.

- Understanding "ceres" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ceres" to mean the largest asteroid and the first discovered.

---

chagrin (verb)

Cause to feel shame; hurt the pride of.

- Learners should practice how to use "chagrin" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "chagrin" and when to wait.

---

champlain (noun)

A lake in northeastern New York, northwestern Vermont and southern Quebec; site of many battles in the French and Indian War and in the American Revolution and in the War of 1812.

- They discussed "champlain" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "champlain" because he had never seen it before.

---

characterizing (verb)

Describe or portray the character or the qualities or peculiarities of.

- The coach explained when to use "characterizing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "characterizing" until he saw an example.

---

chock (noun)

A block of wood used to prevent the sliding or rolling of a heavy object.

- He looked up “chock” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “chock.”

---

chock up (verb)

Crowd or pack to capacity.

- Can you use “chock up” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “chock up” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

chock-a-block (adverb)

As completely as possible.

- It was chock-a-block full.
- He answered “chock-a-block,” which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

chock-full (adjective)

Packed full to capacity.

- Students compared “chock-full” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “chock-full.”

---

chronicled (verb)

Record in chronological order; make a historical record.

- Can you use “chronicled” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use “chronicled” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

circulatory failure (noun)

Failure of the cardiovascular system to supply adequate amounts of blood to body tissues.

- The article explained what “circulatory failure” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “circulatory failure.”

---

cirrhosis of the liver (noun)

A chronic disease interfering with the normal functioning of the liver; the major cause is chronic alcoholism.

- He looked up “cirrhosis of the liver” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “cirrhosis of the liver.”

---

clawed (adjective)

Having or resembling a claw or claws; often used as a combining form.

- Sharp-clawed.
- It is useful to describe something as “clawed” when it is having or resembling a claw or claws; often used as....

---

clotting factor (noun)

Any of the factors in the blood whose actions are essential for blood coagulation.

- The article explained what “clotting factor” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “clotting factor” to mean any of the factors in the blood whose actions are....

---

coerce (verb)

To cause to do through pressure or necessity, by physical, moral or intellectual means :.

- Can you use “coerce” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “coerce” and when to wait.

---

coffey still (noun)

A still consisting of an apparatus for the fractional distillation of ethanol from fermentation on an industrial scale.

- Understanding “coffey still” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “coffey still” to mean a still consisting of an apparatus for the....

---

combustible (noun)

A substance that can be burned to provide heat or power.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “combustible.”
- The article explained what “combustible” means with a simple example.

combustible material (noun)

A substance that can be burned to provide heat or power.

- He looked up "combustible material" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "combustible material" during the group presentation.

comebacks (noun)

A quick reply to a question or remark (especially a witty or critical one).

- In class, the teacher used "comebacks" to mean a quick reply to a question or remark (especially a....
- The article explained what "comebacks" means with a simple example.

comer (noun)

Someone with a promising future.

- In class, the teacher used "comer" to mean someone with a promising future.
- The article explained what "comer" means with a simple example.

common caper (noun)

Prostrate spiny shrub of the Mediterranean region cultivated for its greenish flower buds which are pickled.

- He looked up "common caper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "common caper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

common matrimony vine (noun)

Deciduous erect or spreading shrub with spiny branches and violet-purple flowers followed by orange-red berries; southeastern Europe to China.

- The article explained what "common matrimony vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common matrimony vine" to mean deciduous erect or spreading shrub with spiny....

common nutcracker (noun)

Old World nutcracker.

- The article explained what "common nutcracker" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "common nutcracker" during the group presentation.

complex conjugate (noun)

Either of two complex numbers whose real parts are identical and whose imaginary parts differ only in sign.

- In class, the teacher used "complex conjugate" to mean either of two complex numbers whose real parts are....
- He looked up "complex conjugate" because he had never seen it before.

complicates (verb)

Make more complex, intricate, or richer.

- She tried to use "complicates" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "complicates" until he saw an example.

complimenting (verb)

Say something to someone that expresses praise.

- Learners should practice how to use "complimenting" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "complimenting" until he saw an example.

compositional (adjective)

Arranging or grouping.

- A "compositional" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "compositional."

condenser (noun)

An apparatus that converts vapor into liquid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "condenser."
- Understanding "condenser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

conglomerates (noun)

A composite rock made up of particles of varying size.

- The article explained what "conglomerates" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "conglomerates" during the group presentation.

---

conjugate (verb)

Add inflections showing person, number, gender, tense, aspect, etc.

- Conjugate the verb.
- Learners should practice how to use "conjugate" in real sentences.

---

conjugate solution (noun)

A mixture of two partially miscible liquids A and B produces two conjugate solutions: one of A in B and another of B in A.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conjugate solution."
- He looked up "conjugate solution" because he had never seen it before.

---

conjured (verb)

Engage in plotting or enter into a conspiracy, swear together.

- He conjured wild birds in the air.
- Learners should practice how to use "conjured" in real sentences.

---

conjuring trick (noun)

An illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.

- In class, the teacher used "conjuring trick" to mean an illusory feat; considered magical by naive observers.
- They discussed "conjuring trick" during the group presentation.

---

coptic (adjective)

Of or relating to the Copts or their church or language or art.

- The distinctive Coptic art of 6th-century Christian Egypt.
- It is useful to describe something as "coptic" when it is of or relating to the copts or their church or....

---

coptic church (noun)

The ancient Christian church of Egypt.

- The article explained what "coptic church" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coptic church" to mean the ancient christian church of egypt.

---

cossacks (noun)

A member of a Slavic people living in southern European Russia and Ukraine and adjacent parts of Asia and noted for their horsemanship and military skill; they formed an elite cavalry corps in czarist Russia.

- In class, the teacher used "cossacks" to mean a member of a slavic people living in southern....
- They discussed "cossacks" during the group presentation.

---

cowl muscle (noun)

Either of two flat triangular muscles of the shoulder and upper back that are involved in moving the shoulders and arms.

- Understanding "cowl muscle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cowl muscle" means with a simple example.

---

cowl-shaped (adjective)

Shaped like a cowl.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cowl-shaped."
- Would you call this situation "cowl-shaped"? Explain why.

---

crepe flower (noun)

Ornamental shrub from eastern India commonly planted in the southern United States.

- Understanding "crepe flower" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "crepe flower" because he had never seen it before.

---

crested swift (noun)

Birds of southeast Asia and East Indies differing from true swifts in having upright crests and nesting in trees.

- The article explained what "crested swift" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "crested swift" during the group presentation.

---

crow blackbird (noun)

Long-tailed American blackbird having iridescent black plumage.

- The article explained what "crow blackbird" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "crow blackbird" to mean long-tailed american blackbird having iridescent....

---

cutaneous (adjective)

Relating to or existing on or affecting the skin.

- Cutaneous nerves.
- A cutaneous infection.

---

dahlia (noun)

Any of several plants of or developed from the species Dahlia pinnata having tuberous roots and showy rayed variously colored flower heads; native to the mountains of Mexico and Central America and Colombia.

- They discussed "dahlia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dahlia" because he had never seen it before.

---

dar es salaam (noun)

The capital and largest port city of Tanzania on the Indian Ocean.

- Understanding "dar es salaam" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dar es salaam" because he had never seen it before.

---

darlings (noun)

An Australian river; tributary of the Murray River.

- In class, the teacher used "darlings" to mean an australian river; tributary of the murray river.
- He looked up "darlings" because he had never seen it before.

---

david garrick (noun)

English actor and theater manager who was the foremost Shakespearean actor of his day (1717-1779).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "david garrick."
- Understanding "david garrick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

debug (verb)

Locate and correct errors in a computer program code.

- Debug this program.
- In everyday English, people use "debug" when talking about this idea.

---

decadence (noun)

The state of being degenerate in mental or moral qualities.

- Understanding "decadence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "decadence" means with a simple example.

---

deconstruction (noun)

A philosophical theory of criticism (usually of literature or film) that seeks to expose deep-seated contradictions in a work by delving below its surface meaning.

- In class, the teacher used "deconstruction" to mean a philosophical theory of criticism (usually of....
- The article explained what "deconstruction" means with a simple example.

---

defamatory (adjective)

(used of statements) harmful and often untrue; tending to discredit or malign.

- It is useful to describe something as "defamatory" when it is (used of statements) harmful and often untrue;....
- A "defamatory" approach may work better in this case.

---

depravity (noun)

A corrupt or depraved or degenerate act or practice.

- Its brothels, its opium parlors, its depravity.
- In class, the teacher used "depravity" to mean a corrupt or depraved or degenerate act or practice.

depress (verb)

Lower someone's spirits; make downhearted.

- These news depressed her.
- The glut of oil depressed gas prices.

disheartening (adjective)

Destructive of morale and self-reliance.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disheartening."
- Would you call this situation "disheartening"? Explain why.

duck pate (noun)

A pate made from duck liver.

- They discussed "duck pate" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "duck pate" because he had never seen it before.

eavesdropping (verb)

Listen without the speaker's knowledge.

- The jealous man was eavesdropping on his wife's conversations.
- Can you use "eavesdropping" in a sentence that fits this situation?

eclipses (verb)

Cause an eclipse of (a celestial body) by intervention.

- The Sun eclipses the moon today.
- The coach explained when to use "eclipses" and when to wait.

ecuadorian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Ecuador or its people.

- Ecuadorian folklore.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ecuadorian."

edibles (noun)

Any substance that can be used as food.

- Understanding "edibles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "edibles" means with a simple example.

electric receptacle (noun)

Receptacle providing a place in a wiring system where current can be taken to run electrical devices.

- The article explained what "electric receptacle" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "electric receptacle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

electrostatic precipitation (noun)

A process that removes suspended dust particles from a gas by applying a high voltage electrostatic charge to the particles and collecting them on charged plates.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatic precipitation."
- He looked up "electrostatic precipitation" because he had never seen it before.

elliptic geometry (noun)

(mathematics) a non-Euclidean geometry that regards space as like a sphere and a line as like a great circle.

- Bernhard Riemann pioneered elliptic geometry.
- He looked up "elliptic geometry" because he had never seen it before.

enclaves (noun)

An enclosed territory that is culturally distinct from the foreign territory that surrounds it.

- The article explained what "enclaves" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "enclaves" to mean an enclosed territory that is culturally distinct....

encroachment (noun)

Any entry into an area not previously occupied.

- They discussed "encroachment" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "encroachment" because he had never seen it before.

---

epileptic seizure (noun)

Convulsions accompanied by impaired consciousness.

- Understanding "epileptic seizure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epileptic seizure."

---

epistle to the romans (noun)

A New Testament book containing an exposition of the doctrines of Saint Paul; written in AD 58.

- In class, the teacher used "epistle to the romans" to mean a new testament book containing an exposition of....
- They discussed "epistle to the romans" during the group presentation.

---

epsom salts (noun)

(used with a singular noun) hydrated magnesium sulfate used as a laxative.

- The article explained what "epsom salts" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "epsom salts" to mean (used with a singular noun) hydrated magnesium....

---

equaliser (noun)

A weight that balances another weight.

- They discussed "equaliser" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "equaliser" because he had never seen it before.

---

ese (noun)

The compass point midway between east and southeast.

- They discussed "ese" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "ese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

euclid (noun)

Greek geometer (3rd century BC).

- In class, the teacher used "euclid" to mean greek geometer (3rd century bc).
- Understanding "euclid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evansville (noun)

A city in southwestern Indiana on the Ohio River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "evansville."
- Understanding "evansville" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ezra loomis pound (noun)

United States writer who lived in Europe; strongly influenced the development of modern literature (1885-1972).

- The article explained what "ezra loomis pound" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ezra loomis pound."

---

fair-mindedness (noun)

Ability to make judgments free from discrimination or dishonesty.

- They discussed "fair-mindedness" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fair-mindedness."

---

false smut (noun)

Disease of rice; grains covered by a green powder consisting of conidia.

- He looked up "false smut" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "false smut" to mean disease of rice; grains covered by a green powder....

---

false topaz (noun)

A yellow quartz.

- The article explained what "false topaz" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "false topaz" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

felled (verb)

Cause to fall by or as if by delivering a blow.

- She tried to use "felled" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "felled" in real sentences.

---

femoral pulse (noun)

Pulse of the femoral artery (felt in the groin).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "femoral pulse."
- The article explained what "femoral pulse" means with a simple example.

---

ferrara (noun)

A city in northern Italy.

- In the 13th century Ferrara was a center of Renaissance learning and the arts.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ferrara."

---

fertiliser (noun)

Any substance such as manure or a mixture of nitrates used to make soil more fertile.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fertiliser."
- Understanding "fertiliser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

finalised (verb)

Make final; put the last touches on; put into final form.

- Can you use "finalised" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "finalised" and when to wait.

---

fireflies (noun)

Tropical American click beetle having bright luminous spots.

- They discussed "fireflies" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fireflies" to mean tropical american click beetle having bright....

---

first baron tennyson (noun)

Englishman and Victorian poet (1809-1892).

- In class, the teacher used "first baron tennyson" to mean englishman and victorian poet (1809-1892).
- Understanding "first baron tennyson" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flag smut (noun)

Smut affecting leaves and stems of cereals and other grasses.

- They discussed "flag smut" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flag smut."

---

flax rust fungus (noun)

Fungus causing flax rust.

- The article explained what "flax rust fungus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flax rust fungus."

---

florentine iris (noun)

German iris having large white flowers with lavender-tinged falls and a fragrant rhizome.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "florentine iris."
- They discussed "florentine iris" during the group presentation.

---

franz kafka (noun)

Czech novelist who wrote in German about a nightmarish world of isolated and troubled individuals (1883-1924).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franz kafka."
- The article explained what "franz kafka" means with a simple example.

---

franz kline (noun)

United States abstract expressionist painter (1910-1962).

- He looked up "franz kline" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "franz kline."

freebie (noun)

Something that is free (usually provided as part of a promotional scheme).

- The road map was a freebie.
- Understanding "freebie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

frost heave (noun)

Upthrust of ground or pavement caused by the freezing of moist soil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frost heave."
- Understanding "frost heave" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

garibaldi (noun)

A loose high-necked blouse with long sleeves; styled after the red flannel shirts worn by Garibaldi's soldiers.

- The article explained what "garibaldi" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garibaldi."

garrick (noun)

English actor and theater manager who was the foremost Shakespearean actor of his day (1717-1779).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garrick."
- They discussed "garrick" during the group presentation.

geezer (noun)

A man who is (usually) old and/or eccentric.

- In class, the teacher used "geezer" to mean a man who is (usually) old and/or eccentric.
- He looked up "geezer" because he had never seen it before.

ghent (noun)

Port city in northwestern Belgium and industrial center; famous for cloth industry.

- In class, the teacher used "ghent" to mean port city in northwestern belgium and industrial....
- The article explained what "ghent" means with a simple example.

gill cleft (noun)

One of a series of slit openings in the pharynxes of fishes and aquatic amphibians through which water passes.

- He looked up "gill cleft" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gill cleft" to mean one of a series of slit openings in the pharynxes....

glassware (noun)

An article of tableware made of glass.

- The article explained what "glassware" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "glassware" to mean an article of tableware made of glass.

gooey (adjective)

Soft and sticky.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "gooey."
- The speaker chose "gooey" because it captured the feeling precisely.

gopher hole (noun)

A hole in the ground made by gophers.

- The article explained what "gopher hole" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gopher hole" to mean a hole in the ground made by gophers.

grand mufti (noun)

The chief mufti of a district.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grand mufti."
- He looked up "grand mufti" because he had never seen it before.

---

guiana highlands (noun)

A mountainous tableland in northern South America; extends from Venezuela into Guyana and northern Brazil.

- They discussed "guiana highlands" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "guiana highlands" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gutters (verb)

Burn unsteadily, feebly, or low; flicker.

- She tried to use "gutters" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "gutters" until he saw an example.

---

habitually (adverb)

According to habit or custom.

- Her habitually severe expression.
- He habitually keeps his office door closed.

---

half-witted (adjective)

Retarded in intellectual development.

- The speaker chose "half-witted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "half-witted"? Explain why.

---

halts (noun)

The state of inactivity following an interruption.

- In class, the teacher used "halts" to mean the state of inactivity following an interruption.
- Understanding "halts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hardening of the arteries (noun)

Sclerosis of the arterial walls.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hardening of the arteries."
- The article explained what "hardening of the arteries" means with a simple example.

---

harlequin (noun)

A clown or buffoon (after the Harlequin character in the commedia dell'arte).

- The article explained what "harlequin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "harlequin" to mean a clown or buffoon (after the harlequin character....

---

hdtv (noun)

A television system that has more than the usual number of lines per frame so its pictures show more detail.

- In class, the teacher used "hdtv" to mean a television system that has more than the usual....
- They discussed "hdtv" during the group presentation.

---

headgear (noun)

The hoist at the pithead of a mine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "headgear."
- The article explained what "headgear" means with a simple example.

---

heathens (noun)

A person who does not acknowledge your god.

- Understanding "heathens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "heathens" means with a simple example.

---

heinrich hertz (noun)

German physicist who was the first to produce electromagnetic waves artificially (1857-1894).

- The article explained what "heinrich hertz" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "heinrich hertz" to mean german physicist who was the first to produce....

hem and haw (verb)

Utter 'hems' and 'haws'; indicated hesitation.

- He hemmed and hawed when asked to address the crowd.
- In everyday English, people use "hem and haw" when talking about this idea.

hemlock (noun)

Poisonous drug derived from an Eurasian plant of the genus Conium.

- Socrates refused to flee and died by drinking hemlock.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hemlock."

hemlock tree (noun)

An evergreen tree.

- The article explained what "hemlock tree" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hemlock tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

henchmen (noun)

Someone who assists in a plot.

- He looked up "henchmen" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henchmen."

hep (adjective)

Informed about the latest trends.

- A "hep" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "hep"? Explain why.

hepatic lobe (noun)

Any of the five lobes forming the liver.

- Understanding "hepatic lobe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hepatic lobe" because he had never seen it before.

herbert kitchener (noun)

British field marshal (1850-1916).

- The article explained what "herbert kitchener" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herbert kitchener."

high-mindedness (noun)

Elevated ideals or conduct; the quality of believing that ideals should be pursued.

- The article explained what "high-mindedness" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "high-mindedness."

hokkaido (noun)

The second largest of the four main islands of Japan; to the north of Honshu.

- Understanding "hokkaido" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "hokkaido" during the group presentation.

holm tree (noun)

Evergreen oak of southern Europe having leaves somewhat resembling those of holly; yields a hard wood.

- Understanding "holm tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "holm tree."

homogeneous polynomial (noun)

A polynomial consisting of terms all of the same degree.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homogeneous polynomial."
- The article explained what "homogeneous polynomial" means with a simple example.

honduran (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Honduras or its people.

- A "honduran" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "honduran" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of honduras or....

---

honduran capital (noun)

The capital and largest city of Honduras.

- The article explained what "honduran capital" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "honduran capital" to mean the capital and largest city of honduras.

---

horned toad (noun)

Insectivorous lizard with hornlike spines on the head and spiny scales on the body; of western North America.

- He looked up "horned toad" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "horned toad" during the group presentation.

---

hula-hoop (noun)

Plaything consisting of a tubular plastic hoop for swinging around the hips.

- The article explained what "hula-hoop" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hula-hoop" to mean plaything consisting of a tubular plastic hoop for....

---

humanistic discipline (noun)

Studies intended to provide general knowledge and intellectual skills (rather than occupational or professional skills).

- The article explained what "humanistic discipline" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "humanistic discipline" to mean studies intended to provide general knowledge and....

---

hydraulics (noun)

Study of the mechanics of fluids.

- In class, the teacher used "hydraulics" to mean study of the mechanics of fluids.
- Understanding "hydraulics" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hydrolysis (noun)

A chemical reaction in which water reacts with a compound to produce other compounds; involves the splitting of a bond and the addition of the hydrogen cation and the hydroxide anion from the water.

- He looked up "hydrolysis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hydrolysis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hyperactivity (noun)

A condition characterized by excessive restlessness and movement.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hyperactivity."
- They discussed "hyperactivity" during the group presentation.

---

illiteracy (noun)

An inability to read.

- In class, the teacher used "illiteracy" to mean an inability to read.
- The article explained what "illiteracy" means with a simple example.

---

incitement (noun)

An act of urging on or spurring on or rousing to action or instigating.

- The incitement of mutiny.
- He looked up "incitement" because he had never seen it before.

---

inconsequential (adjective)

Lacking worth or importance.

- His work seems trivial and inconsequential.
- Students compared "inconsequential" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

indignant (adjective)

Angered at something unjust or wrong.

- An indignant denial.

- Would you call this situation "indignant"? Explain why.

---

infamy (noun)

A state of extreme dishonor; - F.D.Roosevelt.

- A date which will live in infamy.
- Understanding "infamy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

infertile (adjective)

Incapable of reproducing.

- An infertile couple.
- Would you call this situation "infertile"? Explain why.

---

infractions (noun)

A crime less serious than a felony.

- Understanding "infractions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "infractions" because he had never seen it before.

---

injector (noun)

A contrivance for injecting (e.g., water into the boiler of a steam engine or particles into an accelerator etc.).

- He looked up "injector" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "injector" to mean a contrivance for injecting (e.g., water into the....

---

insolvent (adjective)

Unable to meet or discharge financial obligations.

- An insolvent person.
- An insolvent estate.

---

intergalactic (adjective)

Between or among galaxies.

- Intergalactic space.
- Would you call this situation "intergalactic"? Explain why.

---

intergalactic space (noun)

The space between galaxies.

- The Milky Way travels through intergalactic space.
- In class, the teacher used "intergalactic space" to mean the space between galaxies.

---

internalized (verb)

Incorporate within oneself; make subjective or personal.

- He did not know how to use "internalized" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "internalized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

irregularly (adverb)

In an irregular manner.

- The patient is breathing irregularly.
- Irregularly shaped solids.

---

james harold doolittle (noun)

United States Air Force officer who electrified the world in 1942 by leading a squadron of 16 bombers on a daylight raid over Tokyo (1896-1993).

- In class, the teacher used "james harold doolittle" to mean united states air force officer who electrified the....
- He looked up "james harold doolittle" because he had never seen it before.

---

james merritt ives (noun)

United States lithographer who (with his partner Nathaniel Currier) produced thousands of prints signed 'Currier & Ives' (1824-1895).

- In class, the teacher used "james merritt ives" to mean united states lithographer who (with his partner....
- The article explained what "james merritt ives" means with a simple example.

---

johannes kepler (noun)

German astronomer who first stated laws of planetary motion (1571-1630).

- They discussed "johannes kepler" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johannes kepler."

---

jot (noun)

A slight but appreciable amount.

- The article explained what "jot" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jot down (verb)

Write briefly or hurriedly; write a short note of.

- Can you use "jot down" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "jot down" and when to wait.

---

kitties (noun)

The cumulative amount involved in a game (such as poker).

- The article explained what "kitties" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "kitties" during the group presentation.

---

lake champlain (noun)

A lake in northeastern New York, northwestern Vermont and southern Quebec; site of many battles in the French and Indian War and in the American Revolution and in the War of 1812.

- In class, the teacher used "lake champlain" to mean a lake in northeastern new york, northwestern....
- The article explained what "lake champlain" means with a simple example.

---

ldl cholesterol (noun)

The cholesterol in low-density lipoproteins; the 'bad' cholesterol; a high level in the blood is thought to be related to various pathogenic conditions.

- In class, the teacher used "ldl cholesterol" to mean the cholesterol in low-density lipoproteins; the....
- The article explained what "ldl cholesterol" means with a simple example.

---

leary (noun)

United States psychologist who experimented with psychoactive drugs (including LSD) and became a well-known advocate of their use (1920-1996).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leary."
- Understanding "leary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

legumes (noun)

An erect or climbing bean or pea plant of the family Leguminosae.

- He looked up "legumes" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "legumes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lengthening (noun)

The act of prolonging something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lengthening."
- Understanding "lengthening" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lesotho (noun)

A landlocked constitutional monarchy in southern Africa; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1966.

- He looked up "lesotho" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lesotho" during the group presentation.

---

letter of mark and reprisal (noun)

A license to a private citizen to seize property of another nation.

- They discussed "letter of mark and reprisal" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "letter of mark and reprisal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

light welterweight (noun)

An amateur boxer who weighs no more than 140 pounds.

- The article explained what "light welterweight" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "light welterweight" during the group presentation.

---

light-mindedness (noun)

Inappropriate levity.

- The article explained what "light-mindedness" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "light-mindedness."

---

lighthearted (adjective)

Carefree and happy and lighthearted.

- Her lighthearted nature.
- The speaker chose "lighthearted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

lister plow (noun)

Moldboard plow with a double moldboard designed to move dirt to either side of a central furrow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lister plow."
- Understanding "lister plow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lodgings (noun)

Temporary living quarters.

- The article explained what "lodgings" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lodgings" during the group presentation.

---

lookup (noun)

An operation that determines whether one or more of a set of items has a specified property.

- They wrote a program to do a table lookup.
- In class, the teacher used "lookup" to mean an operation that determines whether one or more of....

---

loose smut (noun)

A smut fungus of the genus Ustilago causing a smut disease of grains in which the entire head is transformed into a dusty mass of spores.

- The article explained what "loose smut" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "loose smut" during the group presentation.

---

lounges (noun)

An upholstered seat for more than one person.

- The article explained what "lounges" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "lounges" during the group presentation.

---

lounging jacket (noun)

A man's soft jacket usually with a tie belt; worn at home.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lounging jacket."
- He looked up "lounging jacket" because he had never seen it before.

---

lupin (noun)

Any plant of the genus Lupinus; bearing erect spikes of usually purplish-blue flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "lupin" to mean any plant of the genus lupinus; bearing erect....
- He looked up "lupin" because he had never seen it before.

---

marie curie (noun)

French chemist (born in Poland) who won two Nobel prizes; one (with her husband and Henri Becquerel) for research on radioactivity and another for her discovery of radium and polonium (1867-1934).

- Understanding "marie curie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "marie curie" because he had never seen it before.

---

mary ashton rice livermore (noun)

United States suffragist (1820-1905).

- He looked up "mary ashton rice livermore" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mary ashton rice livermore."

mary therese mccarthy (noun)

United States satirical novelist and literary critic (1912-1989).

- He looked up "mary therese mccarthy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mary therese mccarthy" during the group presentation.

matrimony vine (noun)

Any of various shrubs or vines of the genus Lycium with showy flowers and bright berries.

- In class, the teacher used "matrimony vine" to mean any of various shrubs or vines of the genus lycium....
- They discussed "matrimony vine" during the group presentation.

meagre (adjective)

Deficient in amount or quality or extent.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "meagre."
- Students compared "meagre" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

meditative (adjective)

Deeply or seriously thoughtful.

- It is useful to describe something as "meditative" when it is deeply or seriously thoughtful.
- A "meditative" approach may work better in this case.

mentored (verb)

Serve as a teacher or trusted counselor.

- The famous professor mentored him during his years in graduate school.
- The coach explained when to use "mentored" and when to wait.

middleman (noun)

A person who is in a position to give you special assistance.

- The article explained what "middleman" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "middleman" to mean a person who is in a position to give you special....

mildew (noun)

A fungus that produces a superficial (usually white) growth on organic matter.

- In class, the teacher used "mildew" to mean a fungus that produces a superficial (usually....
- He looked up "mildew" because he had never seen it before.

mingling (noun)

The action of people mingling and coming into contact.

- All the random mingling and idle talk made him hate literary parties.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mingling."

mishaps (noun)

An unpredictable outcome that is unfortunate.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mishaps."
- The article explained what "mishaps" means with a simple example.

monologues (noun)

A (usually long) dramatic speech by a single actor.

- He looked up "monologues" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "monologues" during the group presentation.

moulding (noun)

A decorative recessed or relieved surface on an edge.

- They discussed "moulding" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "moulding" to mean a decorative recessed or relieved surface on an edge.

mufti (noun)

A jurist who interprets Muslim religious law.

- The article explained what "mufti" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mufti" to mean a jurist who interprets muslim religious law.

---

multivariate (adjective)

Pertaining to any procedure involving two or more variables.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "multivariate."
- Students compared "multivariate" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

multivariate analysis (noun)

A generic term for any statistical technique used to analyze data from more than one variable.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "multivariate analysis."
- He looked up "multivariate analysis" because he had never seen it before.

---

mushy peas (noun)

Marrowfat peas that have been soaked overnight and then boiled; served with fish and chips.

- The article explained what "mushy peas" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mushy peas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

nadir (noun)

An extreme state of adversity; the lowest point of anything.

- He looked up "nadir" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nadir" during the group presentation.

---

nara (noun)

The independent agency that oversees management of federal government records including presidential libraries and historic collections.

- He looked up "nara" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nara."

---

neutralized (adjective)

Made neutral in some respect; deprived of distinctive characteristics.

- The speaker chose "neutralized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "neutralized" when it is made neutral in some respect; deprived of....

---

notepad (noun)

A pad of paper for keeping notes.

- The article explained what "notepad" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "notepad."

---

numerically (adverb)

In number; with regard to numbers.

- In ten years' time the Oxbridge mathematicians, scientists, and engineers will not be much more significant numerically than the Oxbridge medical schools are now.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "numerically" naturally.

---

nutcracker (noun)

A compound lever used to crack nuts open.

- In class, the teacher used "nutcracker" to mean a compound lever used to crack nuts open.
- The article explained what "nutcracker" means with a simple example.

---

nutmeg melon (noun)

A muskmelon vine with fruit that has a thin reticulated rind and sweet green flesh.

- The article explained what "nutmeg melon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nutmeg melon."

---

obs (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with childbirth and care of the mother.

- In class, the teacher used "obs" to mean the branch of medicine dealing with childbirth and....

- The article explained what "obs" means with a simple example.

---

offsetting balance (noun)

A minimum credit balance that a bank may require a borrower to keep on deposit as a condition for granting a loan; a common requirement for establishing a line of credit at a bank.

- The compensating balance increases the effective interest rate to the bank since the net amount loaned is reduced but the interest paid is unchanged.
- They discussed "offsetting balance" during the group presentation.

---

ohio buckeye (noun)

A buckeye with scaly grey bark that is found in the central United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ohio buckeye."
- The article explained what "ohio buckeye" means with a simple example.

---

old geezer (noun)

An elderly man.

- The article explained what "old geezer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "old geezer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oled (noun)

A self-luminous diode (it glows when an electrical field is applied to the electrodes) that does not require backlighting or diffusers.

- In class, the teacher used "oled" to mean a self-luminous diode (it glows when an electrical....
- Understanding "oled" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oswego tea (noun)

Perennial aromatic herb of eastern North America having variously colored tubular flowers in dense showy heads.

- He looked up "oswego tea" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "oswego tea" during the group presentation.

---

out of wedlock (adverb)

Of biological parents not married to each other.

- He was born out of wedlock.
- Place "out of wedlock" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

outboard (adjective)

Located away from the midline of a vessel or aircraft.

- The outboard section of a wing.
- Outboard rigging.

---

outlier (noun)

A person who lives away from his place of work.

- He looked up "outlier" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "outlier" to mean a person who lives away from his place of work.

---

outweighs (verb)

Weigh more heavily.

- Can you use "outweighs" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "outweighs" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pacs (noun)

Committee formed by a special-interest group to raise money for their favorite political candidates.

- The article explained what "pacs" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pacs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

paltry (adjective)

Contemptibly small in amount.

- A paltry wage.
- He considered the prize too paltry for the lives it must cost.

---

papaya juice (noun)

Juice from papayas.

- Understanding "papaya juice" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "papaya juice."

---

parachutes (verb)

Jump from an airplane and descend with a parachute.

- The coach explained when to use "parachutes" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "parachutes" in real sentences.

---

pars (noun)

A state of being essentially equal or equivalent; equally balanced.

- In class, the teacher used "pars" to mean a state of being essentially equal or equivalent;...
- They discussed "pars" during the group presentation.

---

parsing (verb)

Analyze syntactically by assigning a constituent structure to (a sentence).

- Learners should practice how to use "parsing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "parsing" when talking about this idea.

---

pentecostal (adjective)

Of or relating to or occurring at Pentecost.

- Students compared "pentecostal" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "pentecostal" approach may work better in this case.

---

peripherals (noun)

(computer science) electronic equipment connected by cable to the CPU of a computer.

- Disk drives and printers are important peripherals.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peripherals."

---

petitioner (noun)

One praying humbly for something.

- They discussed "petitioner" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "petitioner" because he had never seen it before.

---

pharisees (noun)

A self-righteous or sanctimonious person.

- He looked up "pharisees" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pharisees" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pimps (noun)

Someone who procures customers for whores (in England they call a pimp a ponce).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pimps."
- He looked up "pimps" because he had never seen it before.

---

pinkie (noun)

The finger farthest from the thumb.

- He looked up "pinkie" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pinkie."

---

placer (noun)

An alluvial deposit that contains particles of some valuable mineral.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "placer."
- Understanding "placer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plastic laminate (noun)

A laminate made by bonding plastic layers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plastic laminate."
- The article explained what "plastic laminate" means with a simple example.

---

plucking (verb)

Pull lightly but sharply with a plucking motion.

- In everyday English, people use "plucking" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "plucking" in real sentences.

---

pocket gopher (noun)

Burrowing rodent of the family Geomyidae having large external cheek pouches; of Central America and southwestern North America.

- The article explained what "pocket gopher" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pocket gopher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pollute (verb)

Make impure.

- The industrial wastes polluted the lake.
- He did not know how to use "pollute" until he saw an example.

---

porcupine provision (noun)

A measure undertaken by a corporation to discourage unwanted takeover attempts.

- He looked up "porcupine provision" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "porcupine provision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

potter's earth (noun)

Clay that does not contain any iron; used in making pottery or for modeling.

- Understanding "potter's earth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "potter's earth" means with a simple example.

---

potter's field (noun)

A cemetery for unknown or indigent people.

- He looked up "potter's field" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "potter's field" to mean a cemetery for unknown or indigent people.

---

precede (verb)

Be earlier in time; go back further.

- Stone tools precede bronze tools.
- Most English adjectives precede the noun they modify.

---

precocious (adjective)

Characterized by or characteristic of exceptionally early development or maturity (especially in mental aptitude).

- A precocious child.
- A precocious achievement.

---

preconceived (adjective)

(of an idea or opinion) formed beforehand; especially without evidence or through prejudice.

- Certain preconceived notions.
- A "preconceived" approach may work better in this case.

---

preconceived idea (noun)

An opinion formed beforehand without adequate evidence.

- Understanding "preconceived idea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preconceived idea."

---

preconceived opinion (noun)

An opinion formed beforehand without adequate evidence.

- The article explained what "preconceived opinion" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "preconceived opinion."

predictors (noun)

Information that supports a probabilistic estimate of future events.

- The weekly bulletin contains several predictors of mutual fund performance.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "predictors."

presumptuous (adjective)

Excessively forward.

- The duchess would not put up with presumptuous servants.
- It is useful to describe something as "presumptuous" when it is excessively forward.

probabilistic (adjective)

Of or relating to or based on probability.

- Probabilistic quantum theory.
- The speaker chose "probabilistic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

proms (noun)

A formal ball held for a school class toward the end of the academic year.

- The article explained what "proms" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "proms" to mean a formal ball held for a school class toward the....

pronto (adverb)

In a punctual manner.

- She spoke "pronto," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "pronto" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

provo (noun)

A city in north central Utah settled by Mormons.

- Understanding "provo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "provo."

prs (noun)

A promotion intended to create goodwill for a person or institution.

- They discussed "prs" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "prs" because he had never seen it before.

publicize (verb)

Make public.

- Can you use "publicize" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "publicize" when talking about this idea.

purview (noun)

The range of interest or activity that can be anticipated.

- In class, the teacher used "purview" to mean the range of interest or activity that can be....
- The article explained what "purview" means with a simple example.

pyramid bugle (noun)

European evergreen carpeting perennial.

- The article explained what "pyramid bugle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pyramid bugle."

quick-witted (adjective)

Mentally nimble and resourceful.

- Quick-witted debater.
- Saved an embarrassing situation with quick-witted tact.

quicken (verb)

Give new life or energy to.

- The fetus quickened.
- She tried to use "quicken" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

quicksilver (noun)

A heavy silvery toxic univalent and bivalent metallic element; the only metal that is liquid at ordinary temperatures.

- Understanding "quicksilver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "quicksilver" during the group presentation.

---

quince (noun)

Aromatic acid-tasting pear-shaped fruit used in preserves.

- The article explained what "quince" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "quince" during the group presentation.

---

quirk molding (noun)

A molding having a small groove in it.

- Understanding "quirk molding" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "quirk molding" because he had never seen it before.

---

racehorse (noun)

A horse bred for racing.

- Understanding "racehorse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "racehorse."

---

radioactive iodine uptake test (noun)

Radioactive iodine test that measures the amount of radioactive iodine taken up by the thyroid gland.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radioactive iodine uptake test."
- They discussed "radioactive iodine uptake test" during the group presentation.

---

raked (verb)

Level or smooth with a rake.

- She raked her fingers through her hair.
- The gunfire raked the coast.

---

rattlesnake root (noun)

A plant of the genus Nabalus.

- He looked up "rattlesnake root" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "rattlesnake root" during the group presentation.

---

ravioli (noun)

Small circular or square cases of dough with savory fillings.

- Understanding "ravioli" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "ravioli" means with a simple example.

---

reagents (noun)

A chemical agent for use in chemical reactions.

- They discussed "reagents" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "reagents" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rebounded (verb)

Return to a former condition.

- The coach explained when to use "rebounded" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "rebounded" in real sentences.

---

redone (verb)

Do over, as of (part of) a house.

- Can you use "redone" in a sentence that fits this situation?

- In everyday English, people use "redone" when talking about this idea.

---

revolutionized (verb)

Overthrow by a revolution, of governments.

- E-mail revolutionized communication in academe.
- In everyday English, people use "revolutionized" when talking about this idea.

---

rhyming slang (noun)

Slang that replaces words with rhyming words or expressions and then typically omits the rhyming component.

- Cockney rhyming slang.
- They discussed "rhyming slang" during the group presentation.

---

rio de la plata (noun)

An estuary between Argentina and Uruguay.

- In class, the teacher used "rio de la plata" to mean an estuary between argentina and uruguay.
- He looked up "rio de la plata" because he had never seen it before.

---

ripping chisel (noun)

A long chisel with a slightly bent cutting end; used for heavy prying or cleaning mortises.

- The article explained what "ripping chisel" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ripping chisel" during the group presentation.

---

riser pipe (noun)

A vertical pipe in a building.

- The article explained what "riser pipe" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "riser pipe" to mean a vertical pipe in a building.

---

rock harlequin (noun)

Glaucous herb of northeastern United States and Canada having loose racemes of yellow-tipped pink flowers; sometimes placed in genus Fumaria.

- He looked up "rock harlequin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rock harlequin" to mean glaucous herb of northeastern united states and....

---

round-headed leek (noun)

Old World leek with a spherical bulb.

- They discussed "round-headed leek" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "round-headed leek."

---

rove (verb)

Move about aimlessly or without any destination, often in search of food or employment.

- Learners should practice how to use "rove" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "rove" when talking about this idea.

---

salvo (noun)

A sudden outburst of cheers.

- There was a salvo of approval.
- The article explained what "salvo" means with a simple example.

---

samoan islands (noun)

A group of volcanic islands in the South Pacific midway between Hawaii and Australia; its climate and scenery and Polynesian culture make it a popular tourist stop.

- They discussed "samoan islands" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "samoan islands" because he had never seen it before.

---

sand leek (noun)

European leek cultivated and used like leeks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sand leek."
- Understanding "sand leek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scrapes (noun)

A deep bow with the foot drawn backwards (indicating excessive humility).

- The article explained what "scrapes" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "scrapes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sea dahlia (noun)

Stout herb with flowers one to a stalk; ornamental developed from a Mexican wildflower.

- Understanding "sea dahlia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea dahlia."

---

sea holm (noun)

European evergreen eryngo with twisted spiny leaves naturalized on United States east coast; roots formerly used as an aphrodisiac.

- The article explained what "sea holm" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea holm."

---

second earl of guilford (noun)

British statesman under George III whose policies led to rebellion in the American colonies (1732-1792).

- They discussed "second earl of guilford" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "second earl of guilford" means with a simple example.

---

seizes (verb)

Take possession of by force, as after an invasion.

- He did not know how to use "seizes" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "seizes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

serious-mindedness (noun)

The trait of being serious; - Robert Rice.

- They discussed "serious-mindedness" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serious-mindedness."

---

shrieking (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- He looked up "shrieking" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "shrieking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

silences (noun)

The state of being silent (as when no one is speaking).

- Understanding "silences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "silences" because he had never seen it before.

---

silhouettes (noun)

An outline of a solid object (as cast by its shadow).

- The article explained what "silhouettes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "silhouettes" to mean an outline of a solid object (as cast by its shadow).

---

simmering (noun)

Cooking in a liquid that has been brought to a boil.

- They discussed "simmering" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "simmering" because he had never seen it before.

---

simone weil (noun)

French philosopher (1909-1943).

- In class, the teacher used "simone weil" to mean french philosopher (1909-1943).
- The article explained what "simone weil" means with a simple example.

---

simple mindedness (noun)

A lack of penetration or subtlety.

- Understanding "simple mindedness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "simple mindedness" means with a simple example.

---

single-mindedness (noun)

Characterized by one unified purpose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "single-mindedness."
- He looked up "single-mindedness" because he had never seen it before.

---

sitcoms (noun)

A humorous drama based on situations that might arise in day-to-day life.

- Understanding "sitcoms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sitcoms" to mean a humorous drama based on situations that might....

---

slow-witted (adjective)

Retarded in intellectual development.

- The speaker chose "slow-witted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "slow-witted" approach may work better in this case.

---

smears (noun)

An act that brings discredit to the person who does it.

- The article explained what "smears" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "smears" to mean an act that brings discredit to the person who does it.

---

smoothed (adjective)

Made smooth by ironing.

- The speaker chose "smoothed" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "smoothed."

---

smut grass (noun)

Grass native to West Indies but common in southern United States having tufted wiry stems often infested with a dark fungus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smut grass."
- He looked up "smut grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

sodom (noun)

Any location known for vice and corruption.

- In class, the teacher used "sodom" to mean any location known for vice and corruption.
- The article explained what "sodom" means with a simple example.

---

sofas (noun)

An upholstered seat for more than one person.

- In class, the teacher used "sofas" to mean an upholstered seat for more than one person.
- Understanding "sofas" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

soldering flux (noun)

Flux applied to surfaces that are to be joined by soldering; flux cleans the surfaces and results in a better bond.

- In class, the teacher used "soldering flux" to mean flux applied to surfaces that are to be joined by....
- The article explained what "soldering flux" means with a simple example.

---

somatic sensory system (noun)

The faculty of bodily perception; sensory systems associated with the body; includes skin senses and proprioception and the internal organs.

- In class, the teacher used "somatic sensory system" to mean the faculty of bodily perception; sensory systems....
- Understanding "somatic sensory system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spatula (noun)

A hand tool with a thin flexible blade used to mix or spread soft substances.

- In class, the teacher used "spatula" to mean a hand tool with a thin flexible blade used to mix....
- He looked up "spatula" because he had never seen it before.

splicing (noun)

A junction where two things (as paper or film or magnetic tape) have been joined together.

- They discussed "splicing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "splicing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spousal equivalent (noun)

A person (not necessarily a spouse) with whom you cohabit and share a long-term sexual relationship.

- The article explained what "spousal equivalent" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "spousal equivalent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

spreadsheets (noun)

A screen-oriented interactive program enabling a user to lay out financial data on the screen.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spreadsheets."
- Understanding "spreadsheets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

squatters (noun)

Someone who settles on land without right or title.

- Understanding "squatters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "squatters" because he had never seen it before.

stanley kubrick (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1928).

- They discussed "stanley kubrick" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "stanley kubrick" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

steamers (noun)

A clam that is usually steamed in the shell.

- He looked up "steamers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steamers."

stephen girard (noun)

United States financier (born in France) who helped finance the War of 1812 (1750-1831).

- Understanding "stephen girard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stephen girard" because he had never seen it before.

stipulates (verb)

Specify as a condition or requirement in a contract or agreement; make an express demand or provision in an agreement.

- The will stipulates that she can live in the house for the rest of her life.
- The contract stipulates the dates of the payments.

strangling (noun)

The act of suffocating (someone) by constricting the windpipe.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strangling."
- Understanding "strangling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

streamlining (verb)

Contour economically or efficiently.

- In everyday English, people use "streamlining" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "streamlining" carefully so everyone would understand.

stroked (verb)

Touch lightly and repeatedly, as with brushing motions.

- He stroked his long beard.
- She tried to use "stroked" carefully so everyone would understand.

subunits (noun)

A monetary unit that is valued at a fraction (usually one hundredth) of the basic monetary unit.

- They discussed "subunits" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "subunits" to mean a monetary unit that is valued at a fraction....

---

suffocate (verb)

Feel uncomfortable for lack of fresh air.

- The child suffocated herself with a plastic bag that the parents had left on the floor.
- His job suffocated him.

---

suspends (verb)

Cause to be held in suspension in a fluid.

- In everyday English, people use "suspends" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "suspends" until he saw an example.

---

sweep oar (noun)

A long oar used in an open boat.

- Understanding "sweep oar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sweep oar" during the group presentation.

---

synchronous converter (noun)

Electrical converter consisting of a synchronous machine that converts alternating to direct current or vice versa.

- They discussed "synchronous converter" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "synchronous converter" to mean electrical converter consisting of a synchronous....

---

tandy (noun)

United States actress (born in England) who made many stage appearances, often with her husband Hume Cronyn (1909-1994).

- He looked up "tandy" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tandy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tapas (noun)

The thin fibrous bark of the paper mulberry and Pipturus albidus.

- The article explained what "tapas" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tapas."

---

tartar sauce (noun)

Mayonnaise with chopped pickles and sometimes capers and shallots and parsley and hard-cooked egg; sauce for seafood especially fried fish.

- The article explained what "tartar sauce" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tartar sauce" during the group presentation.

---

tenement (noun)

A run-down apartment house barely meeting minimal standards.

- In class, the teacher used "tenement" to mean a run-down apartment house barely meeting minimal....
- The article explained what "tenement" means with a simple example.

---

tenement district (noun)

A residential district occupied primarily with tenement houses.

- Understanding "tenement district" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenement district."

---

tenement house (noun)

A run-down apartment house barely meeting minimal standards.

- He looked up "tenement house" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "tenement house" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tetanus (noun)

A sustained muscular contraction resulting from a rapid series of nerve impulses.

- He looked up "tetanus" because he had never seen it before.

- In class, the teacher used "tetanus" to mean a sustained muscular contraction resulting from a....

---

thatched (verb)

Cover with thatch.

- In everyday English, people use "thatched" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "thatched" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

thrifty (adjective)

Careful and diligent in the use of resources.

- Students compared "thrifty" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "thrifty."

---

thrombosis (noun)

The formation or presence of a thrombus (a clot of coagulated blood attached at the site of its formation) in a blood vessel.

- In class, the teacher used "thrombosis" to mean the formation or presence of a thrombus (a clot of....
- They discussed "thrombosis" during the group presentation.

---

thunderbird (noun)

(mythology) the spirit of thunder and lightning believed by some Native Americans to take the shape of a great bird.

- The article explained what "thunderbird" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "thunderbird" to mean (mythology) the spirit of thunder and lightning....

---

tiberius (noun)

Son-in-law of Augustus who became a suspicious tyrannical Emperor of Rome after a brilliant military career (42 BC to AD 37).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tiberius."
- Understanding "tiberius" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tickles (verb)

Feel sudden intense sensation or emotion.

- Can you use "tickles" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "tickles" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tiling (noun)

The application of tiles to cover a surface.

- They discussed "tiling" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tiling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tingle (noun)

An almost pleasurable sensation of fright.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tingle."
- He looked up "tingle" because he had never seen it before.

---

tipsy cake (noun)

A trifle soaked in wine and decorated with almonds and candied fruit.

- The article explained what "tipsy cake" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "tipsy cake" during the group presentation.

---

tomato yellows (noun)

A disease of tomato plants.

- They discussed "tomato yellows" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tomato yellows" means with a simple example.

---

torrey pine (noun)

Medium-sized five-needled pine of southwestern California having long cylindrical cones.

- The article explained what "torrey pine" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "torrey pine."

---

total depravity (noun)

The Calvinist doctrine that everyone is born in a state of corruption as a result of original sin.

- He looked up "total depravity" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "total depravity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

townspeople (noun)

The people living in a municipality smaller than a city.

- He looked up "townspeople" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "townspeople" during the group presentation.

---

transvaal (noun)

A province of northeastern South Africa originally inhabited by Africans who spoke Bantu; colonized by the Boers.

- In class, the teacher used "transvaal" to mean a province of northeastern south africa originally....
- He looked up "transvaal" because he had never seen it before.

---

treads (verb)

Put down or press the foot, place the foot.

- Can you use "treads" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "treads" and when to wait.

---

tryout (noun)

A test of the suitability of a performer.

- They discussed "tryout" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "tryout" means with a simple example.

---

turmeric root (noun)

Perennial herb of northeastern United States having a thick knotted yellow rootstock and large rounded leaves.

- The article explained what "turmeric root" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "turmeric root" to mean perennial herb of northeastern united states having....

---

tuscaloosa (noun)

A university town in west central Alabama.

- In class, the teacher used "tuscaloosa" to mean a university town in west central alabama.
- The article explained what "tuscaloosa" means with a simple example.

---

tyrosine (noun)

An amino acid found in most proteins; a precursor of several hormones.

- They discussed "tyrosine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "tyrosine" to mean an amino acid found in most proteins; a precursor....

---

unbridled (adjective)

Not restrained or controlled.

- Unbridled rage.
- A "unbridled" approach may work better in this case.

---

undersea (adjective)

Beneath the surface of the sea.

- The speaker chose "undersea" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "undersea" approach may work better in this case.

---

unopposed (adjective)

Not having opposition or an opponent.

- Unopposed military forces.
- The candidate was unopposed.

---

urs (noun)

An ancient city of Sumer located on a former channel of the Euphrates River.

- He looked up "urs" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "urs" during the group presentation.

---

vacationing (noun)

The act of taking a vacation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vacationing."
- Understanding "vacationing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vamp (noun)

A seductive woman who uses her sex appeal to exploit men.

- He looked up "vamp" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "vamp" during the group presentation.

---

vamp up (verb)

Piece (something old) with a new part.

- Vamp up an old speech.
- Vamp up an excuse for not attending the meeting.

---

vassals (noun)

A person holding a fief; a person who owes allegiance and service to a feudal lord.

- The article explained what "vassals" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "vassals" during the group presentation.

---

wanton (adjective)

Casual and unrestrained in sexual behavior.

- Wanton behavior.
- The speaker chose "wanton" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

wanton away (verb)

Waste time; spend one's time idly or inefficiently.

- Wanton one's money away.
- Can you use "wanton away" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

water hemlock (noun)

Tall erect highly poisonous Eurasiatic perennial herb locally abundant in marshy areas.

- He looked up "water hemlock" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water hemlock."

---

wedlock (noun)

The state of being a married couple voluntarily joined for life (or until divorce).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wedlock."
- He looked up "wedlock" because he had never seen it before.

---

welterweight (noun)

An amateur boxer who weighs no more than 148 pounds.

- They discussed "welterweight" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "welterweight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

western hemlock (noun)

Tall evergreen of western North America; commercially important timber tree.

- They discussed "western hemlock" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "western hemlock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wholesaler (noun)

Someone who buys large quantities of goods and resells to merchants rather than to the ultimate customers.

- He looked up "wholesaler" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wholesaler."

wilson's snipe (noun)

American snipe.

- They discussed "wilson's snipe" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "wilson's snipe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wood nymph (noun)

A deity or nymph of the woods.

- The article explained what "wood nymph" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wood nymph" to mean a deity or nymph of the woods.

wry (adjective)

Humorously sarcastic or mocking.

- With a wry Scottish wit.
- A wry neck.

wry face (noun)

A disdainful grimace.

- They discussed "wry face" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "wry face" means with a simple example.

xc (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and nine.

- The article explained what "xc" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "xc" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and nine.

yon (adverb)

At or in an indicated (usually distant) place ('yon' is archaic and dialectal); ; - Calder Willingham.

- The house yonder.
- Scattered here and yon.

zambian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Zambia or its people.

- It is useful to describe something as "zambian" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of zambia or....
- A "zambian" approach may work better in this case.

ziegler (noun)

German chemist honored for his research on polymers (1898-1973).

- He looked up "ziegler" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ziegler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

zimbabwean (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Zimbabwe or its people.

- It is useful to describe something as "zimbabwean" when it is of or relating to or characteristic of zimbabwe or....
- The speaker chose "zimbabwean" because it captured the feeling precisely.

acronyms (noun)

A word formed from the initial letters of the several words in the name.

- In class, the teacher used "acronyms" to mean a word formed from the initial letters of the....
- The article explained what "acronyms" means with a simple example.

admissible (adjective)

Deserving to be admitted.

- Admissible evidence.
- The speaker chose "admissible" because it captured the feeling precisely.

airlift (verb)

Fly people or goods to or from places not accessible by other means.

- Food is airlifted into Bosnia.
- In everyday English, people use "airlift" when talking about this idea.

---

alfred tennyson (noun)

Englishman and Victorian poet (1809-1892).

- In class, the teacher used "alfred tennyson" to mean englishman and victorian poet (1809-1892).
- They discussed "alfred tennyson" during the group presentation.

---

alluvial (adjective)

Of or relating to alluvium.

- It is useful to describe something as "alluvial" when it is of or relating to alluvium.
- A "alluvial" approach may work better in this case.

---

alluvial fan (noun)

A fan-shaped deposit where a fast flowing stream flattens out.

- They discussed "alluvial fan" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alluvial fan."

---

alms dish (noun)

A tray for collecting the offering from a congregation.

- The article explained what "alms dish" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "alms dish" during the group presentation.

---

amarillo (noun)

A city in the northern panhandle of Texas.

- The article explained what "amarillo" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amarillo" to mean a city in the northern panhandle of texas.

---

ammonium chloride (noun)

A white salt used in dry cells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ammonium chloride."
- Understanding "ammonium chloride" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amon-ra (noun)

Egyptian sun god; supreme god of the universe in whom Amen and Ra were merged; principal deity during Theban supremacy.

- They discussed "amon-ra" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "amon-ra" to mean egyptian sun god; supreme god of the universe in....

---

amyloid (noun)

A non-nitrogenous food substance consisting chiefly of starch; any substance resembling starch.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amyloid."
- Understanding "amyloid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

animated oat (noun)

Mediterranean oat held to be progenitor of modern cultivated oat.

- The article explained what "animated oat" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "animated oat" to mean mediterranean oat held to be progenitor of modern....

---

anti-racketeering law (noun)

Law intended to eradicate organized crime by establishing strong sanctions and forfeiture provisions.

- The article explained what "anti-racketeering law" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anti-racketeering law."

---

apical (adjective)

Situated at an apex.

- It is useful to describe something as "apical" when it is situated at an apex.

- A "apical" approach may work better in this case.

---

appetites (noun)

A feeling of craving something; ; - Granville Hicks.

- The article explained what "appetites" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "appetites" during the group presentation.

---

armpits (noun)

The hollow under the arm where it is joined to the shoulder.

- They were up to their armpits in water.
- In class, the teacher used "armpits" to mean the hollow under the arm where it is joined to the....

---

ascendant (noun)

Position or state of being dominant or in control.

- That idea was in the ascendant.
- The article explained what "ascendant" means with a simple example.

---

asynchronous transfer mode (noun)

A means of digital communications that is capable of very high speeds; suitable for transmission of images or voice or video as well as data.

- Understanding "asynchronous transfer mode" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "asynchronous transfer mode" means with a simple example.

---

bahia grass (noun)

Perennial tropical American grass used as pasture grass in arid areas of the Gulf States.

- The article explained what "bahia grass" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bahia grass."

---

bar mitzvah (noun)

(Judaism) an initiation ceremony marking the 13th birthday of a Jewish boy and signifying the beginning of religious responsibility.

- A bar mitzvah is an important social event.
- Understanding "bar mitzvah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bartenders (noun)

An employee who mixes and serves alcoholic drinks at a bar.

- He looked up "bartenders" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bartenders" during the group presentation.

---

barth (noun)

United States novelist (born in 1930).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barth."
- They discussed "barth" during the group presentation.

---

basket hilt (noun)

A hilt with a basket-shaped guard for the hand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "basket hilt."
- They discussed "basket hilt" during the group presentation.

---

battering (noun)

The act of subjecting to strong attack.

- In class, the teacher used "battering" to mean the act of subjecting to strong attack.
- Understanding "battering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

beecher (noun)

United States clergyman who was a leader for the abolition of slavery (1813-1887).

- He looked up "beecher" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beecher."

---

belgians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Belgium.

- The article explained what “belgians” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “belgians.”

---

belle miriam silverman (noun)

United States operatic soprano (born in 1929).

- In class, the teacher used “belle miriam silverman” to mean united states operatic soprano (born in 1929).
- The article explained what “belle miriam silverman” means with a simple example.

---

bimbo (noun)

A young woman indulged by rich and powerful older men.

- They discussed “bimbo” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “bimbo” because he had never seen it before.

---

blackmailed (verb)

Exert pressure on someone through threats.

- Can you use “blackmailed” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use “blackmailed” until he saw an example.

---

blazed (verb)

Burn brightly and intensely.

- Meteors blazed across the atmosphere.
- He blazed away at the men.

---

blood clotting (noun)

A process in which liquid blood is changed into a semisolid mass (a blood clot).

- In class, the teacher used “blood clotting” to mean a process in which liquid blood is changed into a....
- They discussed “blood clotting” during the group presentation.

---

blowjobs (noun)

Slang for fellatio.

- Understanding “blowjobs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “blowjobs.”

---

blue vitriol (noun)

Hydrated blue crystalline form of copper sulfate.

- The article explained what “blue vitriol” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “blue vitriol” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bluish-gray (adjective)

Of grey tinged with blue.

- A “bluish-gray” approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation “bluish-gray”? Explain why.

---

bluish-grey (adjective)

Of grey tinged with blue.

- The speaker chose “bluish-grey” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as “bluish-grey” when it is of grey tinged with blue.

---

boarders (noun)

Someone who forces their way aboard ship.

- Stand by to repel boarders.
- He looked up “boarders” because he had never seen it before.

---

bongo (noun)

A small drum; played with the hands.

- They discussed "bongo" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bongo" to mean a small drum; played with the hands.

---

book of deuteronomy (noun)

The fifth book of the Old Testament; contains a second statement of Mosaic law.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "book of deuteronomy."
- He looked up "book of deuteronomy" because he had never seen it before.

---

book of leviticus (noun)

The third book of the Old Testament; contains Levitical law and ritual precedents.

- Understanding "book of leviticus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "book of leviticus" means with a simple example.

---

bootstrap (noun)

A strap that is looped and sewn to the top of a boot for pulling it on.

- In class, the teacher used "bootstrap" to mean a strap that is looped and sewn to the top of a....
- Understanding "bootstrap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

boswell (noun)

A devoted admirer and recorder of another's words and deeds.

- He looked up "boswell" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "boswell."

---

bouquets (noun)

An arrangement of flowers that is usually given as a present.

- In class, the teacher used "bouquets" to mean an arrangement of flowers that is usually given as....
- They discussed "bouquets" during the group presentation.

---

brahma (noun)

The Creator; one of the three major deities in the later Hindu pantheon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brahma."
- They discussed "brahma" during the group presentation.

---

braver (adjective)

Possessing or displaying courage; able to face and deal with danger or fear without flinching; - Herman Melville; - William Wordsworth.

- Familiarity with danger makes a brave man braver but less daring.
- It is useful to describe something as "braver" when it is possessing or displaying courage; able to face and....

---

brisket (noun)

A cut of meat from the breast or lower chest especially of beef.

- In class, the teacher used "brisket" to mean a cut of meat from the breast or lower chest....
- The article explained what "brisket" means with a simple example.

---

bronco buster (noun)

A person who breaks horses.

- He looked up "bronco buster" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bronco buster" during the group presentation.

---

buckeye (noun)

The inedible nutlike seed of the horse chestnut.

- In class, the teacher used "buckeye" to mean the inedible nutlike seed of the horse chestnut.
- The article explained what "buckeye" means with a simple example.

---

buckeye state (noun)

A midwestern state in north central United States in the Great Lakes region.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buckeye state."
- Understanding "buckeye state" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

burnside (noun)

United States general in the American Civil War who was defeated by Robert E. Lee at the Battle of Fredericksburg (1824-1881).

- Understanding "burnside" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "burnside" to mean united states general in the american civil war who....

cairn (noun)

A mound of stones piled up as a memorial or to mark a boundary or path.

- The article explained what "cairn" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cairn" during the group presentation.

calico bush (noun)

A North American evergreen shrub having glossy leaves and white or rose-colored flowers.

- They discussed "calico bush" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "calico bush" means with a simple example.

calico cat (noun)

A cat having black and cream-colored and yellowish markings.

- The article explained what "calico cat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "calico cat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

cancun (noun)

A popular island resort off the northeastern tip of the Yucatan peninsula.

- Understanding "cancun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cancun" during the group presentation.

cannonball (noun)

A solid projectile that in former times was fired from a cannon.

- He looked up "cannonball" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cannonball."

capillary tube (noun)

A tube of small internal diameter; holds liquid by capillary action.

- The article explained what "capillary tube" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "capillary tube" during the group presentation.

cappuccino (noun)

Equal parts of espresso and hot milk topped with cinnamon and nutmeg and usually whipped cream.

- They discussed "cappuccino" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cappuccino" because he had never seen it before.

cappuccino coffee (noun)

Equal parts of espresso and hot milk topped with cinnamon and nutmeg and usually whipped cream.

- They discussed "cappuccino coffee" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cappuccino coffee."

cardiac murmur (noun)

An abnormal sound of the heart; sometimes a sign of abnormal function of the heart valves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cardiac murmur."
- He looked up "cardiac murmur" because he had never seen it before.

caricatures (noun)

A representation of a person that is exaggerated for comic effect.

- He looked up "caricatures" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "caricatures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carpet sweeper (noun)

A cleaning implement with revolving brushes that pick up dirt as the implement is pushed over a carpet.

- In class, the teacher used "carpet sweeper" to mean a cleaning implement with revolving brushes that....
- The article explained what "carpet sweeper" means with a simple example.

---

castile soap (noun)

A good hard soap made from olive oil and sodium hydroxide.

- Understanding "castile soap" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "castile soap" means with a simple example.

---

ceasing (verb)

Have an end, in a temporal, spatial, or quantitative sense; either spatial or metaphorical.

- The coach explained when to use "ceasing" and when to wait.
- Can you use "ceasing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

championing (verb)

Protect or fight for as a champion.

- Can you use "championing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "championing" and when to wait.

---

chapels (noun)

A service conducted in a place of worship that has its own altar.

- He looked up "chapels" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "chapels" during the group presentation.

---

chilean peso (noun)

The basic unit of money in Chile; equal to 100 centesimos.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chilean peso."
- He looked up "chilean peso" because he had never seen it before.

---

chinook salmon (noun)

Pink or white flesh of large Pacific salmon.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinook salmon."
- They discussed "chinook salmon" during the group presentation.

---

chirping (verb)

Make high-pitched sounds.

- The birds were chirping in the bushes.
- Learners should practice how to use "chirping" in real sentences.

---

chisholm trail (noun)

A former cattle trail from San Antonio in Texas to Abilene in Kansas; not used after the 1880s.

- They discussed "chisholm trail" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chisholm trail" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

circulatory (adjective)

Of or relating to circulation.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "circulatory."
- Would you call this situation "circulatory"? Explain why.

---

circulatory system (noun)

The organs and tissues involved in circulating blood and lymph through the body.

- Understanding "circulatory system" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "circulatory system" to mean the organs and tissues involved in circulating....

---

citrate (noun)

A salt or ester of citric acid.

- He looked up "citrate" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "citrate."

---

citrus maxima (noun)

Southeastern Asian tree producing large fruits resembling grapefruits.

- The article explained what "citrus maxima" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "citrus maxima" during the group presentation.

---

clenched fist (noun)

A hand with the fingers clenched in the palm (as for hitting).

- Understanding "clenched fist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "clenched fist" during the group presentation.

---

climactic (adjective)

Consisting of or causing a climax.

- A climactic development.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "climactic."

---

cloaked (adjective)

Covered with or as if with clothes or a wrap or cloak.

- Fog-cloaked meadows.
- The speaker chose "cloaked" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

clocking (noun)

The time taken to traverse a measured course.

- It was a world record clocking.
- Understanding "clocking" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clotting (noun)

The process of forming semisolid lumps in a liquid.

- He looked up "clotting" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clotting."

---

clotting time (noun)

The time it takes for a sample of blood to clot; used to diagnose some clotting disorders.

- They discussed "clotting time" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "clotting time" because he had never seen it before.

---

coffee cappuccino (noun)

Equal parts of espresso and hot milk topped with cinnamon and nutmeg and usually whipped cream.

- They discussed "coffee cappuccino" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coffee cappuccino."

---

commemorates (verb)

Be or provide a memorial to a person or an event.

- This sculpture commemorates the victims of the concentration camps.
- She tried to use "commemorates" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

common topaz (noun)

A yellow quartz.

- The article explained what "common topaz" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "common topaz" to mean a yellow quartz.

---

compensatory damages (noun)

(law) compensation for losses that can readily be proven to have occurred and for which the injured party has the right to be compensated.

- In class, the teacher used "compensatory damages" to mean (law) compensation for losses that can readily be....
- Understanding "compensatory damages" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

comstock (noun)

United States reformer who led moral crusades against art and literature that he considered obscene (1844-1915).

- The article explained what "comstock" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comstock."

---

conjuring (noun)

Calling up a spirit or devil.

- The article explained what "conjuring" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "conjuring" during the group presentation.

---

consigned (verb)

Give over to another for care or safekeeping.

- Learners should practice how to use "consigned" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "consigned" when talking about this idea.

---

constructors (noun)

Someone who contracts for and supervises construction (as of a building).

- They discussed "constructors" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "constructors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

copper-bottomed (adjective)

Having a bottom of copper or sheathed with copper.

- Copper-bottomed pots.
- A copper-bottomed ship.

---

coups (noun)

A sudden and decisive change of government illegally or by force.

- Understanding "coups" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "coups" because he had never seen it before.

---

covered smut (noun)

A smut fungus causing a smut disease of grains in which the spore masses are covered or held together by the grain membranes.

- The article explained what "covered smut" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "covered smut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cowgirl (noun)

A woman cowboy.

- The article explained what "cowgirl" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cowgirl" to mean a woman cowboy.

---

cowl (noun)

A loose hood or hooded robe (as worn by a monk).

- The mechanic removed the cowling in order to repair the plane's engine.
- They discussed "cowl" during the group presentation.

---

cream of tartar (noun)

A salt used especially in baking powder.

- They discussed "cream of tartar" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "cream of tartar" because he had never seen it before.

---

cream-of-tartar tree (noun)

Australian tree having an agreeably acid fruit that resembles a gourd.

- The article explained what "cream-of-tartar tree" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cream-of-tartar tree" to mean australian tree having an agreeably acid fruit that....

---

crepe (noun)

A soft thin light fabric with a crinkled surface.

- They discussed “crepe” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “crepe” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crepe paper (noun)

Paper with a crinkled texture; usually colored and used for decorations.

- The article explained what “crepe paper” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “crepe paper” during the group presentation.

---

culling (verb)

Remove something that has been rejected.

- Learners should practice how to use “culling” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “culling” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

curie temperature (noun)

The temperature above which a ferromagnetic substance loses its ferromagnetism and becomes paramagnetic.

- Understanding “curie temperature” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “curie temperature.”

---

cycled (verb)

Cause to go through a recurring sequence.

- The coach explained when to use “cycled” and when to wait.
- Can you use “cycled” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cypriot (adjective)

Of or relating to Cyprus or its people or culture.

- Cypriot expatriates.
- Cypriote monasteries.

---

dashes (noun)

A footrace run at top speed.

- Understanding “dashes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “dashes” during the group presentation.

---

daydreaming (noun)

Absentminded dreaming while awake.

- They discussed “daydreaming” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “daydreaming” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decently (adverb)

In a decent manner.

- They don’t know how to dress decently.
- Place “decently” carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

decentralization (noun)

The spread of power away from the center to local branches or governments.

- Understanding “decentralization” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “decentralization” during the group presentation.

---

decomposed (verb)

Lose a stored charge, magnetic flux, or current.

- The bodies decomposed in the heat.
- In everyday English, people use “decomposed” when talking about this idea.

---

decorum (noun)

Propriety in manners and conduct.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “decorum.”
- Understanding “decorum” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

deft (adjective)

Skillful in physical movements; especially of the hands.

- A deft waiter.
- Deft fingers massaged her face.

desmond tutu (noun)

South African prelate and leader of the antiapartheid struggle (born in 1931).

- Understanding "desmond tutu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "desmond tutu" because he had never seen it before.

detest (verb)

Dislike intensely; feel antipathy or aversion towards.

- She detests politicians.
- Can you use "detest" in a sentence that fits this situation?

deuteronomy (noun)

The fifth book of the Old Testament; contains a second statement of Mosaic law.

- They discussed "deuteronomy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "deuteronomy" because he had never seen it before.

devising (noun)

The act that results in something coming to be.

- The devising of plans.
- They discussed "devising" during the group presentation.

diabetics (noun)

Someone who has diabetes.

- In class, the teacher used "diabetics" to mean someone who has diabetes.
- The article explained what "diabetics" means with a simple example.

diodes (noun)

A semiconductor that consists of a p-n junction.

- Understanding "diodes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "diodes" during the group presentation.

disband (verb)

Cause to break up or cease to function.

- The principal disbanded the political student organization.
- He did not know how to use "disband" until he saw an example.

discarding (verb)

Throw or cast away.

- The coach explained when to use "discarding" and when to wait.
- Can you use "discarding" in a sentence that fits this situation?

discloses (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- In everyday English, people use "discloses" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "discloses" in real sentences.

dislocation (noun)

The act of disrupting an established order so it fails to continue.

- The social dislocations resulting from government policies.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dislocation."

disrupts (verb)

Interfere in someone else's activity.

- Learners should practice how to use "disrupts" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "disrupts" when talking about this idea.

---

distinguishable (adjective)

Capable of being perceived as different or distinct.

- Only the shine of their metal was distinguishable in the gloom.
- A project distinguishable into four stages of progress.

---

duels (verb)

Fight a duel, as over one's honor or a woman.

- Can you use "duels" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "duels" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dwells (verb)

Exist or be situated within.

- This kind of fish dwells near the bottom of the ocean.
- In everyday English, people use "dwells" when talking about this idea.

---

earls (noun)

A British peer ranking below a marquess and above a viscount.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earls."
- He looked up "earls" because he had never seen it before.

---

earnestly (adverb)

In a serious manner.

- Talking earnestly with his son.
- The narrator describes the scene "earnestly" in the final chapter.

---

ecg (noun)

A graphical recording of the cardiac cycle produced by an electrocardiograph.

- The article explained what "ecg" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ecg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

edwin dubois hayward (noun)

United States writer (1885-1940).

- They discussed "edwin dubois hayward" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "edwin dubois hayward" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

effecting (verb)

Act so as to bring into existence.

- In everyday English, people use "effecting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "effecting" in real sentences.

---

electrifying (adjective)

Causing a surge of emotion or excitement.

- She gave an electrifying performance.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "electrifying."

---

electronic counter-countermeasures (noun)

Electronic warfare undertaken to insure effective friendly use of the electromagnetic spectrum in spite of the enemy's use of electronic warfare.

- In class, the teacher used "electronic counter-countermeasures" to mean electronic warfare undertaken to insure effective....
- The article explained what "electronic counter-countermeasures" means with a simple example.

---

emblematic (adjective)

Being or serving as an illustration of a type.

- The free discussion that is emblematic of democracy.

- A crown is emblematic of royalty.

---

emmet (noun)

Social insect living in organized colonies; characteristically the males and fertile queen have wings during breeding season; wingless sterile females are the workers.

- Understanding "emmet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "emmet."

---

englishmen (noun)

A man who is a native or inhabitant of England.

- He looked up "englishmen" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "englishmen" during the group presentation.

---

enslavement (noun)

The state of being a slave; –Shakespeare.

- He looked up "enslavement" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "enslavement" during the group presentation.

---

entrust (verb)

Put into the care or protection of someone.

- The messenger was entrusted with the general's secret.
- In everyday English, people use "entrust" when talking about this idea.

---

enviable (adjective)

Causing envy.

- An enviable position.
- Students compared "enviable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

epidemiological (adjective)

Of or relating to epidemiology.

- Epidemiological studies.
- The speaker chose "epidemiological" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

epidural injection (noun)

Injection of an anesthetic substance into the epidural space of the spinal cord in order to produce epidural anesthesia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epidural injection."
- They discussed "epidural injection" during the group presentation.

---

epithet (noun)

A defamatory or abusive word or phrase.

- They discussed "epithet" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "epithet" means with a simple example.

---

equipments (noun)

An instrumentality needed for an undertaking or to perform a service.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "equipments."
- They discussed "equipments" during the group presentation.

---

eurasian badger (noun)

A variety of badger native to Europe and Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eurasian badger."
- Understanding "eurasian badger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

femoral nerve (noun)

One of a pair of nerves that originate from lumbar nerves and supply the muscles and skin of the anterior part of the thigh.

- He looked up "femoral nerve" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "femoral nerve."

---

fiercest (adjective)

Violently agitated and turbulent; ; - Ezra Pound.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "fiercest."
- Students compared "fiercest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

firehouse (noun)

A station housing fire apparatus and firemen.

- He looked up "firehouse" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firehouse."

flailing (verb)

Move like a flail; thresh about.

- Her arms were flailing.
- The coach explained when to use "flailing" and when to wait.

flaky (adjective)

Conspicuously or grossly unconventional or unusual.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "flaky."
- Students compared "flaky" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

flotilla (noun)

A United States Navy fleet consisting of two or more squadrons of small warships.

- The article explained what "flotilla" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "flotilla" during the group presentation.

followup (noun)

A piece of work that exploits or builds on earlier work.

- In class, the teacher used "followup" to mean a piece of work that exploits or builds on earlier work.
- They discussed "followup" during the group presentation.

foolproof (verb)

Proof against human misuse or error.

- Foolproof this appliance.
- The coach explained when to use "foolproof" and when to wait.

forgetful (adjective)

(of memory) deficient in retentiveness or range.

- Would you call this situation "forgetful"? Explain why.
- Students compared "forgetful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

forgetful person (noun)

A flighty and disorganized person.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forgetful person."
- They discussed "forgetful person" during the group presentation.

forgettable (adjective)

Easily forgotten.

- The speaker chose "forgettable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "forgettable."

forklift (noun)

A small industrial vehicle with a power operated forked platform in front that can be inserted under loads to lift and move them.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "forklift."
- He looked up "forklift" because he had never seen it before.

francois marie charles fourier (noun)

French sociologist and reformer who hoped to achieve universal harmony by reorganizing society (1772-1837).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "francois marie charles fourier."
- The article explained what "francois marie charles fourier" means with a simple example.

---

freeways (noun)

A broad highway designed for high-speed traffic.

- In class, the teacher used "freeways" to mean a broad highway designed for high-speed traffic.
- Understanding "freeways" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

frock coat (noun)

A man's coat having knee-length skirts front and back; worn in the 19th century.

- He looked up "frock coat" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "frock coat."

---

gallantry (noun)

The qualities of a hero or heroine; exceptional or heroic courage when facing danger (especially in battle).

- Understanding "gallantry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "gallantry" because he had never seen it before.

---

gamut (noun)

A complete extent or range:.

- A face that expressed a gamut of emotions.
- Understanding "gamut" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

garlic clove (noun)

One of the small bulblets that can be split off of the axis of a larger garlic bulb.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "garlic clove."
- He looked up "garlic clove" because he had never seen it before.

---

gash (noun)

A strong sweeping cut made with a sharp instrument.

- They discussed "gash" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gash."

---

gawker (noun)

A spectator who stares stupidly without intelligent awareness.

- They discussed "gawker" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gawker" because he had never seen it before.

---

gazelle (noun)

Small swift graceful antelope of Africa and Asia having lustrous eyes.

- Understanding "gazelle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gazelle" to mean small swift graceful antelope of africa and asia....

---

genotype (noun)

A group of organisms sharing a specific genetic constitution.

- They discussed "genotype" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "genotype" means with a simple example.

---

gentler (adjective)

Soft and mild; not harsh or stern or severe.

- The speaker chose "gentler" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "gentler"? Explain why.

---

genus senna (noun)

Genus of shrubs and trees and herbs many of which are often classified as members of the genus Cassia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus senna."
- Understanding "genus senna" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

geronimo (noun)

Apache chieftain who raided the white settlers in the Southwest as resistance to being confined to a reservation (1829-1909).

- In class, the teacher used "geronimo" to mean apache chieftain who raided the white settlers in....
- The article explained what "geronimo" means with a simple example.

girard (noun)

United States financier (born in France) who helped finance the War of 1812 (1750-1831).

- The article explained what "girard" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "girard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

glistening (adjective)

Reflecting light.

- Glistening bodies of swimmers.
- Would you call this situation "glistening"? Explain why.

glycol (noun)

A sweet but poisonous syrupy liquid used as an antifreeze and solvent.

- Understanding "glycol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "glycol" to mean a sweet but poisonous syrupy liquid used as an....

goblet-shaped (adjective)

Resembling the shape of a goblet.

- The speaker chose "goblet-shaped" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "goblet-shaped" when it is resembling the shape of a goblet.

golan heights (noun)

A fortified hilly area between southern Lebanon and southern Syria.

- Artillery on the Golan Heights can dominate a large area of Israel.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golan heights."

gong buoy (noun)

A buoy with a bell on it.

- In class, the teacher used "gong buoy" to mean a buoy with a bell on it.
- The article explained what "gong buoy" means with a simple example.

gopher (noun)

A zealously energetic person (especially a salesman).

- The article explained what "gopher" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gopher" during the group presentation.

gopher state (noun)

A midwestern state.

- He looked up "gopher state" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gopher state" to mean a midwestern state.

governess (noun)

A woman entrusted with the care and supervision of a child (especially in a private home).

- He looked up "governess" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "governess."

gravitate (verb)

Move due to the pull of gravitation.

- The stars gravitate towards each other.
- The conversation gravitated towards politics.

great pyrenees (noun)

Bred of large heavy-coated white dogs resembling the Newfoundland.

- He looked up "great pyrenees" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "great pyrenees."

---

greco-roman deity (noun)

A deity of classical mythology.

- The article explained what "greco-roman deity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "greco-roman deity" to mean a deity of classical mythology.

---

green smut (noun)

Disease of rice; grains covered by a green powder consisting of conidia.

- He looked up "green smut" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "green smut."

---

grinned (verb)

To draw back the lips and reveal the teeth, in a smile, grimace, or snarl.

- He did not know how to use "grinned" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "grinned" in real sentences.

---

guadalupe fur seal (noun)

A fur seal of the Pacific coast of California and southward.

- In class, the teacher used "guadalupe fur seal" to mean a fur seal of the pacific coast of california and....
- Understanding "guadalupe fur seal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guesthouse (noun)

A house separate from the main house; for housing guests.

- Understanding "guesthouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "guesthouse" to mean a house separate from the main house; for housing....

---

gunfight (noun)

A fight involving shooting small arms with the intent to kill or frighten.

- Understanding "gunfight" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gunfight" to mean a fight involving shooting small arms with the....

---

haifa (noun)

A major port in northwestern Israel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "haifa."
- He looked up "haifa" because he had never seen it before.

---

hams (noun)

An unskilled actor who overacts.

- They discussed "hams" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hams" means with a simple example.

---

hamsters (noun)

Short-tailed Old World burrowing rodent with large cheek pouches.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hamsters."
- Understanding "hamsters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

harvester (noun)

Farm machine that gathers a food crop from the fields.

- Understanding "harvester" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "harvester" to mean farm machine that gathers a food crop from the fields.

---

hazel alder (noun)

Common shrub of the eastern United States with smooth bark.

- He looked up "hazel alder" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding "hazel alder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

head smut (noun)

Smut fungus attacking heads of corn or sorghum and causing a covered smut.

- The article explained what "head smut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "head smut" to mean smut fungus attacking heads of corn or sorghum and....

---

heaped (verb)

Bestow in large quantities.

- He heaped him with work.
- She heaped scorn upon him.

---

heartburn (noun)

A painful burning sensation in the chest caused by gastroesophageal reflux (backflow from the stomach irritating the esophagus); symptomatic of an ulcer or a diaphragmatic hernia or other disorder.

- They discussed "heartburn" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "heartburn" because he had never seen it before.

---

heroics (noun)

Ostentatious or vainglorious or extravagant or melodramatic conduct.

- Heroics are for those epic films they make in Hollywood.
- They discussed "heroics" during the group presentation.

---

hesse (noun)

Swiss writer (born in Germany) whose novels and poems express his interests in eastern spiritual values (1877-1962).

- Understanding "hesse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hesse."

---

high-necked (adjective)

(of a garment) having a high neckline.

- A high-necked blouse.
- A "high-necked" approach may work better in this case.

---

hillbilly (noun)

A disparaging term for an unsophisticated person.

- They discussed "hillbilly" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hillbilly" means with a simple example.

---

hillbilly music (noun)

Country music originating in mountainous regions of southern United States.

- In class, the teacher used "hillbilly music" to mean country music originating in mountainous regions of....
- He looked up "hillbilly music" because he had never seen it before.

---

homeopathy (noun)

A method of treating disease with small amounts of remedies that, in large amounts in healthy people, produce symptoms similar to those being treated.

- In class, the teacher used "homeopathy" to mean a method of treating disease with small amounts of....
- The article explained what "homeopathy" means with a simple example.

---

honouring (verb)

Bestow honor or rewards upon.

- Can you use "honouring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "honouring" and when to wait.

---

hustling (verb)

Move or cause to move energetically or busily.

- She tried to use "hustling" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "hustling" when talking about this idea.

imbecile (noun)

A person of subnormal intelligence.

- He looked up "imbecile" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "imbecile" during the group presentation.

impeded (adjective)

Made difficult or slow.

- We blamed our impeded progress on lack of money.
- Would you call this situation "impeded"? Explain why.

impersonation (noun)

A representation of a person that is exaggerated for comic effect.

- In class, the teacher used "impersonation" to mean a representation of a person that is exaggerated....
- The article explained what "impersonation" means with a simple example.

impresses (verb)

Mark or stamp with or as if with pressure.

- In everyday English, people use "impresses" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "impresses" in a sentence that fits this situation?

imprison (verb)

Confine as if in a prison.

- His daughters are virtually imprisoned in their own house; he does not let them go out without a chaperone.
- The suspects were imprisoned without trial.

inductive reasoning (noun)

Reasoning from detailed facts to general principles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inductive reasoning."
- They discussed "inductive reasoning" during the group presentation.

infiltrating (verb)

Pass into or through by filtering or permeating.

- Can you use "infiltrating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "infiltrating" carefully so everyone would understand.

intensifying (adjective)

Increasing in strength or intensity.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "intensifying."
- Students compared "intensifying" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

intensively (adverb)

In an intensive manner.

- He studied the snake intensively.
- Place "intensively" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

interrogating (verb)

Pose a series of questions to.

- Can you use "interrogating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "interrogating" and when to wait.

interviewers (noun)

A person who conducts an interview.

- They discussed "interviewers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "interviewers."

ischemic (adjective)

Relating to or affected by ischemia.

- The speaker chose "ischemic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ischemic."

---

jackal (noun)

Old World nocturnal canine mammal closely related to the dog; smaller than a wolf; sometimes hunts in a pack but usually singly or as a member of a pair.

- Understanding "jackal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "jackal" because he had never seen it before.

---

jaeger (noun)

Rapacious seabird that pursues weaker birds to make them drop their prey.

- He looked up "jaeger" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "jaeger" to mean rapacious seabird that pursues weaker birds to make....

---

james boswell (noun)

Scottish author noted for his biography of Samuel Johnson (1740-1795).

- In class, the teacher used "james boswell" to mean scottish author noted for his biography of samuel....
- Understanding "james boswell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

japanese leek (noun)

Asiatic onion with slender bulbs; used as early green onions.

- He looked up "japanese leek" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "japanese leek."

---

john barth (noun)

United States novelist (born in 1930).

- Understanding "john barth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "john barth" during the group presentation.

---

john thomas scopes (noun)

Tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state law by teaching evolution; in a highly publicized trial in 1925 he was prosecuted by William Jennings Bryan and defended by Clarence Darrow (1900-1970).

- In class, the teacher used "john thomas scopes" to mean tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state....
- Understanding "john thomas scopes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jokers (noun)

A person who does something thoughtless or annoying.

- In class, the teacher used "jokers" to mean a person who does something thoughtless or annoying.
- The article explained what "jokers" means with a simple example.

---

jordans (noun)

An Arab kingdom in southwestern Asia on the Red Sea.

- The article explained what "jordans" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jordans" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

joystick (noun)

A lever used by a pilot to control the ailerons and elevators of an airplane.

- He looked up "joystick" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "joystick."

---

k-lor (noun)

Salt of potassium (KCl) (trade names K-Dur 20, Kaochlor and K-lor and Klorvess and K-lyte); taken in tablet form to treat potassium deficiency.

- They discussed "k-lor" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "k-lor" means with a simple example.

---

kamikaze (noun)

A pilot trained and willing to cause a suicidal crash.

- They discussed "kamikaze" during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "kamikaze" means with a simple example.

---

kelp (noun)

Large brown seaweeds having fluted leathery fronds.

- Understanding "kelp" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "kelp" means with a simple example.

---

king oedipus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a tragic king of Thebes who unknowingly killed his father Laius and married his mother Jocasta; the subject of the drama 'Oedipus Rex' by Sophocles.

- In class, the teacher used "king oedipus" to mean (greek mythology) a tragic king of thebes who....
- They discussed "king oedipus" during the group presentation.

---

kingfisher (noun)

Nonpasserine large-headed bird with a short tail and long sharp bill; usually crested and bright-colored; feed mostly on fish.

- He looked up "kingfisher" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kingfisher" during the group presentation.

---

kiwis (noun)

A native or inhabitant of New Zealand.

- They discussed "kiwis" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kiwis" because he had never seen it before.

---

knotted (adjective)

Used of old persons or old trees; covered with knobs or knots.

- Gnarled and knotted hands.
- His carefully knotted necktie.

---

lackey (noun)

A person who tries to please someone in order to gain a personal advantage.

- The article explained what "lackey" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lackey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lain (verb)

Have a place in relation to something else.

- Learners should practice how to use "lain" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "lain" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

laminate (verb)

Cover with a thin sheet of non-fabric material.

- Laminate the table.
- In everyday English, people use "laminate" when talking about this idea.

---

large yellow lady's slipper (noun)

Plant of eastern and central North America having slightly fragrant purple-marked greenish-yellow flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "large yellow lady's slipper" to mean plant of eastern and central north america having....
- The article explained what "large yellow lady's slipper" means with a simple example.

---

leeches (noun)

A follower who hangs around a host (without benefit to the host) in hope of gain or advantage.

- The article explained what "leeches" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "leeches" to mean a follower who hangs around a host (without benefit....

---

leek (noun)

Related to onions; white cylindrical bulb and flat dark-green leaves.

- The article explained what "leek" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "leek."

---

left hander (noun)

A baseball pitcher who throws the ball with the left hand.

- They discussed "left hander" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "left hander" means with a simple example.

---

left-hander (noun)

A person who uses the left hand with greater skill than the right.

- In class, the teacher used "left-hander" to mean a person who uses the left hand with greater skill....
- They discussed "left-hander" during the group presentation.

---

leviticus (noun)

The third book of the Old Testament; contains Levitical law and ritual precedents.

- In class, the teacher used "leviticus" to mean the third book of the old testament; contains....
- The article explained what "leviticus" means with a simple example.

---

linguist (noun)

A person who speaks more than one language.

- The article explained what "linguist" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "linguist" to mean a person who speaks more than one language.

---

lionel barrymore (noun)

United States actor; son of Maurice Barrymore and Georgiana Barrymore (1878-1954).

- He looked up "lionel barrymore" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lionel barrymore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

liquefied petroleum gas (noun)

Hydrocarbon gases, usually propane or butane, kept under pressure.

- He looked up "liquefied petroleum gas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "liquefied petroleum gas."

---

lms (noun)

A unit of luminous flux equal to the amount of light given out through a solid angle of 1 steradian by a point source of 1 candela intensity radiating uniformly in all directions.

- Understanding "lms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "lms" during the group presentation.

---

long-winded (adjective)

Using or containing too many words.

- Long-winded (or windy) speakers.
- Would you call this situation "long-winded"? Explain why.

---

low-necked (adjective)

(of a garment) having a low-cut neckline.

- A "low-necked" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "low-necked" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lowland fir (noun)

Lofty fir of the Pacific coast of northwestern America having long curving branches and deep green leaves.

- Understanding "lowland fir" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lowland fir."

---

lowland white fir (noun)

Lofty fir of the Pacific coast of northwestern America having long curving branches and deep green leaves.

- The article explained what "lowland white fir" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "lowland white fir" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

luring (verb)

Provoke someone to do something through (often false or exaggerated) promises or persuasion.

- In everyday English, people use "luring" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "luring" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

lute (noun)

A substance for packing a joint or coating a porous surface to make it impervious to gas or liquid.

- He looked up "lute" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lute" to mean a substance for packing a joint or coating a porous....

---

lx (noun)

The cardinal number that is the product of ten and six.

- In class, the teacher used "lx" to mean the cardinal number that is the product of ten and six.
- They discussed "lx" during the group presentation.

---

lynx rufus (noun)

Small lynx of North America.

- In class, the teacher used "lynx rufus" to mean small lynx of north america.
- The article explained what "lynx rufus" means with a simple example.

---

macrophages (noun)

A large phagocyte; some are fixed and other circulate in the blood stream.

- He looked up "macrophages" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "macrophages" to mean a large phagocyte; some are fixed and other....

---

macros (noun)

A single computer instruction that results in a series of instructions in machine language.

- The article explained what "macros" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "macros" during the group presentation.

---

madeira sponge (noun)

A rich sponge cake with close texture; intended to be eaten with a glass of Madeira wine.

- The article explained what "madeira sponge" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "madeira sponge."

---

magpies (noun)

An obnoxious and foolish and loquacious talker.

- He looked up "magpies" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "magpies" to mean an obnoxious and foolish and loquacious talker.

---

manual laborer (noun)

Someone who works with their hands; someone engaged in manual labor.

- The article explained what "manual laborer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "manual laborer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marketplaces (noun)

The world of commercial activity where goods and services are bought and sold.

- He looked up "marketplaces" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marketplaces" during the group presentation.

---

marseilles fever (noun)

A disease (common in India and around the Mediterranean area) caused by a rickettsia that is transmitted to humans by a reddish brown tick (ixodid) that lives on dogs and other mammals.

- The article explained what "marseilles fever" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "marseilles fever" to mean a disease (common in india and around the....

---

marshmallow fluff (noun)

A very sweet white spread resembling marshmallow candy.

- Understanding "marshmallow fluff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "marshmallow fluff" because he had never seen it before.

martha's vineyard (noun)

An island summer resort off of Cape Cod.

- The article explained what "martha's vineyard" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "martha's vineyard" to mean an island summer resort off of cape cod.

marvels (noun)

Something that causes feelings of wonder.

- In class, the teacher used "marvels" to mean something that causes feelings of wonder.
- He looked up "marvels" because he had never seen it before.

masquerading (verb)

Pretend to be someone or something that you are not.

- He is masquerading as an expert on the internet.
- This silly novel is masquerading as a serious historical treaty.

maurice barrymore (noun)

United States actor; husband of Georgiana Emma Barrymore and father of Ethel Barrymore and John Barrymore and Lionel Barrymore (1847-1905).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maurice barrymore."
- He looked up "maurice barrymore" because he had never seen it before.

mauritania (noun)

A country in northwestern Africa with a provisional military government; achieved independence from France in 1960; largely western Sahara Desert.

- They discussed "mauritania" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "mauritania" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

mavis (noun)

Common Old World thrush noted for its song.

- He looked up "mavis" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mavis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

meanest (adjective)

Approximating the statistical norm or average or expected value.

- A "meanest" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "meanest."

meaningfully (adverb)

In a meaningful manner; so as to be meaningful.

- He glanced at her meaningfully.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "meaningfully" naturally.

meatball (noun)

Ground meat formed into a ball and fried or simmered in broth.

- In class, the teacher used "meatball" to mean ground meat formed into a ball and fried or....
- The article explained what "meatball" means with a simple example.

mechanized cavalry (noun)

An armored unit of a modern army equipped with motor vehicles.

- He looked up "mechanized cavalry" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "mechanized cavalry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

medford (noun)

A town in southwestern Oregon; a summer resort.

- They discussed "medford" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "medford" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

merino (noun)

White sheep originating in Spain and producing a heavy fleece of exceptional quality.

- Understanding “merino” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “merino” to mean white sheep originating in spain and producing a....

---

mermaids (noun)

Half woman and half fish; lives in the sea.

- He looked up “mermaids” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mermaids.”

---

microchip (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a small crystal of a silicon semiconductor fabricated to carry out a number of electronic functions in an integrated circuit.

- He looked up “microchip” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “microchip.”

---

migratory quail (noun)

The typical Old World quail.

- Understanding “migratory quail” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “migratory quail” during the group presentation.

---

mingled (verb)

To bring or combine together or with something else.

- Resourcefully he mingled music and dance.
- The coach explained when to use “mingled” and when to wait.

---

mitzvah (noun)

(Judaism) a precept or commandment of the Jewish law.

- The article explained what “mitzvah” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “mitzvah” to mean (judaism) a precept or commandment of the jewish law.

---

mosaics (noun)

A pattern resembling a mosaic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mosaics.”
- Understanding “mosaics” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

muddled (adjective)

Confused and vague; used especially of thinking.

- The speaker chose “muddled” because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A “muddled” approach may work better in this case.

---

mumbling (noun)

Ineffectual chewing (as if without teeth).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “mumbling.”
- They discussed “mumbling” during the group presentation.

---

myocardial inflammation (noun)

Inflammation of the myocardium (the muscular tissue of the heart).

- Understanding “myocardial inflammation” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “myocardial inflammation” during the group presentation.

---

nautilus (noun)

A submarine that is propelled by nuclear power.

- The article explained what “nautilus” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “nautilus” during the group presentation.

---

necked (adjective)

Having a neck or having a neck especially as specified (often used in combination).

- It is useful to describe something as “necked” when it is having a neck or having a neck especially as....

- A "necked" approach may work better in this case.

---

nitric oxide (noun)

A poisonous red-brown gas (NO).

- In class, the teacher used "nitric oxide" to mean a poisonous red-brown gas (no).
- They discussed "nitric oxide" during the group presentation.

---

nox (noun)

Roman goddess of night; daughter of Erebus; counterpart of Greek Nyx.

- They discussed "nox" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "nox" because he had never seen it before.

---

nymph (noun)

A larva of an insect with incomplete metamorphosis (as the dragonfly or mayfly).

- The ancient Greeks believed that nymphs inhabited forests and bodies of water.
- He looked up "nymph" because he had never seen it before.

---

oceanography (noun)

The branch of science dealing with physical and biological aspects of the oceans.

- Understanding "oceanography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "oceanography" to mean the branch of science dealing with physical and....

---

oedipus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a tragic king of Thebes who unknowingly killed his father Laius and married his mother Jocasta; the subject of the drama 'Oedipus Rex' by Sophocles.

- They discussed "oedipus" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "oedipus" because he had never seen it before.

---

oedipus complex (noun)

A complex of males; desire to possess the mother sexually and to exclude the father; said to be a source of personality disorders if unresolved.

- They discussed "oedipus complex" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oedipus complex" to mean a complex of males; desire to possess the mother....

---

offsetting (verb)

Produce by offset printing.

- Can you use "offsetting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "offsetting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

oil of vitriol (noun)

(H2SO4) a highly corrosive acid made from sulfur dioxide; widely used in the chemical industry.

- He looked up "oil of vitriol" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oil of vitriol."

---

old-age pensioner (noun)

An old person who receives an old-age pension.

- Understanding "old-age pensioner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old-age pensioner."

---

orpheus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a great musician; when his wife Eurydice died he went to Hades to get her back but failed.

- In class, the teacher used "orpheus" to mean (greek mythology) a great musician; when his wife....
- The article explained what "orpheus" means with a simple example.

---

paler (adjective)

Very light colored; highly diluted with white.

- Students compared "paler" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "paler" when it is very light colored; highly diluted with white.

---

papaya (noun)

Large oval melon-like tropical fruit with yellowish flesh.

- In class, the teacher used "papaya" to mean large oval melon-like tropical fruit with yellowish....
- The article explained what "papaya" means with a simple example.

---

papaya family (noun)

Trees native to tropical America and Africa with milky juice and large palmately lobed leaves.

- Understanding "papaya family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "papaya family" to mean trees native to tropical america and africa with....

---

papaya tree (noun)

Tropical American shrub or small tree having huge deeply palmately cleft leaves and large oblong yellow fruit.

- Understanding "papaya tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "papaya tree" to mean tropical american shrub or small tree having huge....

---

paper nautilus (noun)

Cephalopod mollusk of warm seas whose females have delicate papery spiral shells.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paper nautilus."
- He looked up "paper nautilus" because he had never seen it before.

---

partisanship (noun)

An inclination to favor one group or view or opinion over alternatives.

- In class, the teacher used "partisanship" to mean an inclination to favor one group or view or....
- He looked up "partisanship" because he had never seen it before.

---

patchwork quilt (noun)

A quilt made by sewing patches of different materials together.

- He looked up "patchwork quilt" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "patchwork quilt."

---

peachy (adjective)

Of something resembling a peach in color.

- Students compared "peachy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "peachy"? Explain why.

---

pearly (adjective)

Of a white the color of pearls.

- A "pearly" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "pearly" when it is of a white the color of pearls.

---

pearly-white (adjective)

Of a white the color of pearls.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pearly-white."
- Students compared "pearly-white" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

pensioner (noun)

The beneficiary of a pension fund.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pensioner."
- They discussed "pensioner" during the group presentation.

---

periodic edema (noun)

Recurrent large circumscribed areas of subcutaneous edema; onset is sudden and it disappears within 24 hours; seen mainly in young women, often as an allergic reaction to food or drugs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "periodic edema."
- The article explained what "periodic edema" means with a simple example.

---

periscope (noun)

An optical instrument that provides a view of an otherwise obstructed field.

- He looked up "periscope" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "periscope."

---

pernicious (adjective)

Working or spreading in a hidden and usually injurious way.

- The speaker chose "pernicious" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "pernicious" when it is working or spreading in a hidden and usually....

---

perversion (noun)

A curve that reverses the direction of something.

- The tendrils of the plant exhibited perversion.
- Perversion also shows up in kinky telephone cords.

---

petty larceny (noun)

Larceny of property having a value less than some amount (the amount varies by locale).

- He looked up "petty larceny" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "petty larceny."

---

phylogenetic (adjective)

Of or relating to the evolutionary development of organisms.

- Phylogenetic development.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "phylogenetic."

---

physiotherapy (noun)

Therapy that uses physical agents: exercise and massage and other modalities.

- They discussed "physiotherapy" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "physiotherapy" to mean therapy that uses physical agents: exercise and....

---

pigmentation (noun)

The deposition of pigment in animals or plants or human beings.

- They discussed "pigmentation" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pigmentation" means with a simple example.

---

pizzeria (noun)

A shop where pizzas are made and sold.

- Understanding "pizzeria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pizzeria" means with a simple example.

---

pom-pom (noun)

Artillery designed to shoot upward at airplanes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pom-pom."
- They discussed "pom-pom" during the group presentation.

---

populate (verb)

Inhabit or live in; be an inhabitant of.

- Populate the forest with deer and wild boar for hunting.
- The coach explained when to use "populate" and when to wait.

---

positional notation (noun)

A numeration system in which a real number is represented by an ordered set of characters where the value of a character depends on its position.

- In class, the teacher used "positional notation" to mean a numeration system in which a real number is....
- They discussed "positional notation" during the group presentation.

---

posthumously (adverb)

After death.

- These piano pieces were published posthumously.
- He was honored posthumously.

prawn (noun)

Any of various edible decapod crustaceans.

- In class, the teacher used "prawn" to mean any of various edible decapod crustaceans.
- He looked up "prawn" because he had never seen it before.

preamble (noun)

A preliminary introduction to a statute or constitution (usually explaining its purpose).

- In class, the teacher used "preamble" to mean a preliminary introduction to a statute or....
- Understanding "preamble" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

predates (verb)

Be earlier in time; go back further.

- The coach explained when to use "predates" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "predates" until he saw an example.

preoccupation (noun)

The mental state of being preoccupied by something.

- In class, the teacher used "preoccupation" to mean the mental state of being preoccupied by something.
- The article explained what "preoccupation" means with a simple example.

prim (verb)

Assume a prim appearance.

- They mince and prim.
- She primmed her lips after every bite of food.

prim out (verb)

Dress primly.

- Learners should practice how to use "prim out" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "prim out" when talking about this idea.

prim up (verb)

Dress primly.

- He did not know how to use "prim up" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "prim up" and when to wait.

propellers (noun)

A mechanical device that rotates to push against air or water.

- He looked up "propellers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "propellers" during the group presentation.

prying (noun)

Offensive inquisitiveness.

- They discussed "prying" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "prying" means with a simple example.

ptolemy (noun)

An ancient dynasty of Macedonian kings who ruled Egypt from 323 BC to 30 BC; founded by Ptolemy I and ended with Cleopatra.

- He looked up "ptolemy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ptolemy."

ptolemy i (noun)

The king of Egypt who founded the Macedonian dynasty in Egypt; a close friend and general of Alexander the Great who took charge of Egypt after Alexander died (circa 367-285 BC).

- The article explained what "ptolemy i" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ptolemy i" during the group presentation.

ptolemy ii (noun)

Son of Ptolemy I and king of Egypt who was said to be responsible for the Septuagint (circa 309-247 BC).

- In class, the teacher used "ptolemy ii" to mean son of ptolemy i and king of egypt who was said to....
- Understanding "ptolemy ii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

puffed wheat (noun)

Puffy wheat berries.

- The article explained what "puffed wheat" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "puffed wheat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pulsing (noun)

(electronics) a sharp transient wave in the normal electrical state (or a series of such transients).

- Understanding "pulsing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "pulsing" to mean (electronics) a sharp transient wave in the normal....

---

pump priming (noun)

Introducing water into a pump to improve the seal and start the water flowing.

- He looked up "pump priming" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pump priming."

---

puree (verb)

Rub through a strainer or process in an electric blender.

- Puree the vegetables for the baby.
- He did not know how to use "puree" until he saw an example.

---

pyrenees (noun)

A chain of mountains between France and Spain.

- They discussed "pyrenees" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pyrenees" means with a simple example.

---

racketeering (noun)

Engaging in a racket.

- Understanding "racketeering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "racketeering" means with a simple example.

---

radars (noun)

Measuring instrument in which the echo of a pulse of microwave radiation is used to detect and locate distant objects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radars."
- The article explained what "radars" means with a simple example.

---

rail-splitter (noun)

A laborer who splits logs to build split-rail fences.

- In class, the teacher used "rail-splitter" to mean a laborer who splits logs to build split-rail fences.
- The article explained what "rail-splitter" means with a simple example.

---

rainier (adjective)

(of weather) wet by periods of rain.

- Would you call this situation "rainier"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rainier."

---

rattlesnake (noun)

Pit viper with horny segments at the end of the tail that rattle when shaken.

- In class, the teacher used "rattlesnake" to mean pit viper with horny segments at the end of the....
- He looked up "rattlesnake" because he had never seen it before.

---

rattlesnake master (noun)

Coarse prickly perennial eryngo of United States thought to cure rattlesnake bite.

- In class, the teacher used "rattlesnake master" to mean coarse prickly perennial eryngo of united states....

- The article explained what “rattlesnake master” means with a simple example.

---

rayon stocking (noun)

Women’s stockings made from a sheer material (nylon or rayon or silk).

- They discussed “rayon stocking” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “rayon stocking” because he had never seen it before.

---

receptacle (noun)

A container that is used to put or keep things in.

- He looked up “receptacle” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “receptacle.”

---

red buckeye (noun)

A shrub buckeye of southern United States.

- They discussed “red buckeye” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “red buckeye” because he had never seen it before.

---

refractive index (noun)

The ratio of the velocity of light in a vacuum to that in a medium.

- The article explained what “refractive index” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “refractive index” during the group presentation.

---

refractory pot (noun)

A small porous bowl made of bone ash used in assaying to separate precious metals from e.g. lead.

- Understanding “refractory pot” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used “refractory pot” to mean a small porous bowl made of bone ash used in....

---

regatta (noun)

A meeting for boat races.

- In class, the teacher used “regatta” to mean a meeting for boat races.
- The article explained what “regatta” means with a simple example.

---

reliefs (noun)

The act of freeing a city or town that has been besieged.

- Understanding “reliefs” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reliefs.”

---

removals (noun)

The act of removing.

- The article explained what “removals” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “removals” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reprisal (noun)

A retaliatory action against an enemy in wartime.

- Understanding “reprisal” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “reprisal.”

---

rescind (verb)

Cancel officially.

- Learners should practice how to use “rescind” in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use “rescind” when talking about this idea.

---

reshape (verb)

Shape anew or differently.

- The new foreign minister reshaped the foreign policy of his country.
- Learners should practice how to use “reshape” in real sentences.

---

reshaping (verb)

Shape anew or differently.

- Can you use "reshaping" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "reshaping" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

revitalize (verb)

Give new life or vigor to.

- This food revitalized the patient.
- Can you use "revitalize" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

right hander (noun)

A person who uses the right hand more skillfully than the left.

- In class, the teacher used "right hander" to mean a person who uses the right hand more skillfully....
- Understanding "right hander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

right-hander (noun)

A person who uses the right hand more skillfully than the left.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "right-hander."
- He looked up "right-hander" because he had never seen it before.

---

risotto (noun)

Rice cooked with broth and sprinkled with grated cheese.

- Understanding "risotto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "risotto" means with a simple example.

---

river prawn (noun)

Large (a foot or more) edible freshwater prawn common in Australian rivers.

- Understanding "river prawn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "river prawn."

---

rock rattlesnake (noun)

Mountain rock dweller of Mexico and most southern parts of United States southwest.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rock rattlesnake."
- He looked up "rock rattlesnake" because he had never seen it before.

---

rose leek (noun)

North American bulbous plant.

- Understanding "rose leek" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rose leek" to mean north american bulbous plant.

---

sagittarius (noun)

A large zodiacal constellation in the southern hemisphere; between Scorpius and Capricornus.

- In class, the teacher used "sagittarius" to mean a large zodiacal constellation in the southern....
- Understanding "sagittarius" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

saint edward the confessor (noun)

Son of Ethelred the Unready; King of England from 1042 to 1066; he founded Westminster Abbey where he was eventually buried (1003-1066).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saint edward the confessor."
- They discussed "saint edward the confessor" during the group presentation.

---

samoan (adjective)

Of or relating to Samoa or its people or language or culture.

- Samoan fishing industry.
- The speaker chose "samoan" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

savagery (noun)

The property of being untamed and ferocious.

- A craving for barbaric splendor, for savagery and color and the throb of drums.
- Understanding "savagery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scorned (adjective)

Treated with contempt.

- It is useful to describe something as "scorned" when it is treated with contempt.
- Would you call this situation "scorned"? Explain why.

---

sea nymph (noun)

(Greek mythology) a water nymph who was the daughter of Oceanus or Nereus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sea nymph."
- Understanding "sea nymph" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seaside alder (noun)

Shrub or small tree of southeastern United States having soft light brown wood.

- Understanding "seaside alder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seaside alder."

---

seething (adjective)

In constant agitation; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- A seething flag-waving crowd filled the streets.
- A seething mass of maggots.

---

self-forgetful (adjective)

Showing lack of self-interest.

- A "self-forgetful" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "self-forgetful" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sequenced (verb)

Determine the order of constituents in.

- They sequenced the human genome.
- In everyday English, people use "sequenced" when talking about this idea.

---

sequentially (adverb)

In a consecutive manner.

- Place "sequentially" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "sequentially," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sexual perversion (noun)

An aberrant sexual practice.

- The article explained what "sexual perversion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sexual perversion" to mean an aberrant sexual practice.

---

shamrock (noun)

Eurasian plant with heart-shaped trifoliate leaves and white purple-veined flowers.

- He looked up "shamrock" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shamrock" during the group presentation.

---

shang dynasty (noun)

The imperial dynasty ruling China from about the 18th to the 12th centuries BC.

- The article explained what "shang dynasty" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shang dynasty" to mean the imperial dynasty ruling china from about the....

---

shearing (noun)

Removing by cutting off or clipping.

- The article explained what "shearing" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "shearing" to mean removing by cutting off or clipping.

shelving (verb)

Hold back to a later time.

- Learners should practice how to use "shelving" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "shelving" when talking about this idea.

shen-pao (noun)

A member of the Taoist Trinity; identified with Lao-tse.

- The article explained what "shen-pao" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "shen-pao" during the group presentation.

shepherd's purse (noun)

White-flowered annual European herb bearing triangular notched pods; nearly cosmopolitan as an introduced weed.

- In class, the teacher used "shepherd's purse" to mean white-flowered annual european herb bearing....
- The article explained what "shepherd's purse" means with a simple example.

short-winded (adjective)

Breathing laboriously or convulsively.

- Students compared "short-winded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "short-winded."

shortness of breath (noun)

A dyspneic condition.

- In class, the teacher used "shortness of breath" to mean a dyspneic condition.
- They discussed "shortness of breath" during the group presentation.

sifting (noun)

The act of separating grain from chaff.

- In class, the teacher used "sifting" to mean the act of separating grain from chaff.
- The article explained what "sifting" means with a simple example.

sighing (verb)

Heave or utter a sigh; breathe deeply and heavily.

- Can you use "sighing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "sighing" and when to wait.

siva (noun)

The destroyer; one of the three major divinities in the later Hindu pantheon.

- The article explained what "siva" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "siva" during the group presentation.

slog (verb)

Strike heavily, especially with the fist or a bat.

- He did not know how to use "slog" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "slog" carefully so everyone would understand.

smooth-shaven (adjective)

Closely shaved recently.

- It is useful to describe something as "smooth-shaven" when it is closely shaved recently.
- The speaker chose "smooth-shaven" because it captured the feeling precisely.

smut (noun)

A black colloidal substance consisting wholly or principally of amorphous carbon and used to make pigments and ink.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "smut."
- The article explained what "smut" means with a simple example.

soars (noun)

The act of rising upward into the air.

- In class, the teacher used "soars" to mean the act of rising upward into the air.
- He looked up "soars" because he had never seen it before.

---

socialized (adjective)

Under group or government control.

- Socialized ownership.
- Socialized medicine.

---

sodium hydroxide (noun)

A strongly alkaline caustic used in manufacturing soap and paper and aluminum and various sodium compounds.

- The article explained what "sodium hydroxide" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "sodium hydroxide" during the group presentation.

---

sop (noun)

A concession given to mollify or placate.

- The offer was a sop to my feelings.
- Understanding "sop" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sop up (verb)

Take in, also metaphorically.

- He did not know how to use "sop up" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "sop up" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

spiraling (adjective)

In the shape of a coil.

- The speaker chose "spiraling" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "spiraling" when it is in the shape of a coil.

---

splice (noun)

A junction where two things (as paper or film or magnetic tape) have been joined together.

- The break was due to an imperfect splice.
- He looked up "splice" because he had never seen it before.

---

sponsorships (noun)

The act of sponsoring (either officially or financially).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sponsorships."
- They discussed "sponsorships" during the group presentation.

---

spoonful (noun)

As much as a spoon will hold.

- He looked up "spoonful" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "spoonful" during the group presentation.

---

spousal (adjective)

Of or relating to a wedding.

- Spousal rites.
- A fitting symbol of spousal love.

---

spousal relationship (noun)

The state of being a married couple voluntarily joined for life (or until divorce).

- They discussed "spousal relationship" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "spousal relationship" means with a simple example.

---

statistician (noun)

A mathematician who specializes in statistics.

- In class, the teacher used "statistician" to mean a mathematician who specializes in statistics.

- The article explained what "statistician" means with a simple example.

---

stds (noun)

A doctor's degree in theology.

- Understanding "stds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stds."

---

stephanie graf (noun)

German tennis player who won seven women's singles titles at Wimbledon (born in 1969).

- They discussed "stephanie graf" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stephanie graf."

---

stinking clover (noun)

Plant of western North America having trifoliate leaves and white or pink spider-shaped flowers; sometimes used as an ornamental.

- In class, the teacher used "stinking clover" to mean plant of western north america having trifoliate....
- The article explained what "stinking clover" means with a simple example.

---

storefront (noun)

The front side of a store facing the street; usually contains display windows.

- In class, the teacher used "storefront" to mean the front side of a store facing the street;....
- Understanding "storefront" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

storeys (noun)

A structure consisting of a room or set of rooms at a single position along a vertical scale.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "storeys."
- He looked up "storeys" because he had never seen it before.

---

striped mullet (noun)

Most important commercial mullet in eastern United States.

- Understanding "striped mullet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "striped mullet" because he had never seen it before.

---

stubble (noun)

Short stiff hairs growing on a man's face when he has not shaved for a few days.

- The article explained what "stubble" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "stubble" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

stunt flier (noun)

A pilot who travels around the country giving exhibits of stunt flying and parachuting.

- Understanding "stunt flier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stunt flier."

---

subsystem (noun)

A system that is part of some larger system.

- They discussed "subsystem" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "subsystem" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

suffocated (verb)

Feel uncomfortable for lack of fresh air.

- The child suffocated herself with a plastic bag that the parents had left on the floor.
- His job suffocated him.

---

summarizing (verb)

Be a summary of.

- Learners should practice how to use "summarizing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "summarizing" when talking about this idea.

---

supple (adjective)

(used of e.g. personality traits) readily adaptable.

- A supple mind.
- A "supple" approach may work better in this case.

---

swahili (noun)

The most widely spoken Bantu languages; the official language of Kenya and Tanzania and widely used as a lingua franca in east and central Africa.

- The article explained what "swahili" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "swahili" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sweet buckeye (noun)

A tall and often cultivated buckeye of the central United States.

- Understanding "sweet buckeye" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sweet buckeye" means with a simple example.

---

syndromes (noun)

A complex of concurrent things.

- In class, the teacher used "syndromes" to mean a complex of concurrent things.
- The article explained what "syndromes" means with a simple example.

---

synergies (noun)

The working together of two things (muscles or drugs for example) to produce an effect greater than the sum of their individual effects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "synergies."
- He looked up "synergies" because he had never seen it before.

---

system of macrophages (noun)

A widely distributed system of free and fixed macrophages derived from bone marrow.

- He looked up "system of macrophages" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "system of macrophages" during the group presentation.

---

tacked (verb)

Sew together loosely, with large stitches.

- The boat tacked.
- He tacked together some verses.

---

teapot dome (noun)

A government scandal involving a former United States Navy oil reserve in Wyoming that was secretly leased to a private oil company in 1921; became symbolic of the scandals of the Harding administration.

- Understanding "teapot dome" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "teapot dome."

---

testicular artery (noun)

A branch of the aorta supplying the testicles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "testicular artery."
- He looked up "testicular artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

thorny skate (noun)

Cold-water bottom fish with spines on the back; to 40 inches.

- Understanding "thorny skate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "thorny skate" because he had never seen it before.

---

tipsy (adjective)

Unstable and prone to tip as if intoxicated.

- A tipsy boat.
- A "tipsy" approach may work better in this case.

---

tirade (noun)

A speech of violent denunciation.

- The article explained what "tirade" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tirade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

topaz (noun)

A mineral (fluosilicate of aluminum) that occurs in crystals of various colors and is used as a gemstone.

- In class, the teacher used "topaz" to mean a mineral (fluosilicate of aluminum) that occurs in....
- They discussed "topaz" during the group presentation.

---

torino (noun)

Capital city of the Piemonte region of northwestern Italy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "torino."
- The article explained what "torino" means with a simple example.

---

trickster (noun)

A mischievous supernatural being found in the folklore of many primitive people; sometimes distinguished by prodigious biological drives and exaggerated bodily parts.

- The article explained what "trickster" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trickster."

---

trinkets (noun)

Cheap showy jewelry or ornament on clothing.

- Understanding "trinkets" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "trinkets" because he had never seen it before.

---

triples (noun)

A set of three similar things considered as a unit.

- The article explained what "triples" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "triples" to mean a set of three similar things considered as a unit.

---

trotsky (noun)

Russian revolutionary and Communist theorist who helped Lenin and built up the army; he was ousted from the Communist Party by Stalin and eventually assassinated in Mexico (1879-1940).

- Understanding "trotsky" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "trotsky" to mean russian revolutionary and communist theorist who....

---

turban squash (noun)

Large squash shaped somewhat like a turban usually with a rounded central portion protruding from the blossom end.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turban squash."
- He looked up "turban squash" because he had never seen it before.

---

turmeric (noun)

Ground dried rhizome of the turmeric plant used as seasoning.

- They discussed "turmeric" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "turmeric" means with a simple example.

---

unchallenged (adjective)

Generally agreed upon; not subject to dispute.

- Students compared "unchallenged" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unchallenged."

---

underestimating (verb)

Assign too low a value to.

- He did not know how to use "underestimating" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "underestimating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

undress (noun)

Partial or complete nakedness.

- A state of undress.
- He looked up "undress" because he had never seen it before.

uninteresting (adjective)

Arousing no interest or attention or curiosity or excitement.

- A very uninteresting account of her trip.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "uninteresting."

unraveling (verb)

Become or cause to become undone by separating the fibers or threads of.

- In everyday English, people use "unraveling" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "unraveling" carefully so everyone would understand.

vandalized (verb)

Destroy wantonly, as through acts of vandalism.

- She tried to use "vandalized" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "vandalized" when talking about this idea.

veneration (noun)

A feeling of profound respect for someone or something.

- His respect for the law bordered on veneration.
- The article explained what "veneration" means with a simple example.

vigilantes (noun)

Member of a vigilance committee.

- He looked up "vigilantes" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vigilantes."

vigour (noun)

An imaginative lively style (especially style of writing).

- Understanding "vigour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "vigour" means with a simple example.

vistas (noun)

The visual percept of a region.

- In class, the teacher used "vistas" to mean the visual percept of a region.
- The article explained what "vistas" means with a simple example.

vitriol (verb)

Expose to the effects of vitriol or injure with vitriol.

- In everyday English, people use "vitriol" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "vitriol" in a sentence that fits this situation?

wagging (verb)

Move from side to side.

- She tried to use "wagging" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "wagging" in real sentences.

waned (verb)

Become pale and sickly.

- Interest in the project waned.
- Interest in his novels waned.

water nymph (noun)

A water lily having large leaves and showy fragrant flowers that float on the water; of temperate and tropical regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water nymph."
- He looked up "water nymph" because he had never seen it before.

water shamrock (noun)

Perennial plant of Europe and America having racemes of white or purplish flowers and intensely bitter trifoliate leaves; often rooting at water margin and spreading across the surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "water shamrock."
- He looked up "water shamrock" because he had never seen it before.

---

welt (noun)

A raised mark on the skin (as produced by the blow of a whip); characteristic of many allergic reactions.

- In class, the teacher used "welt" to mean a raised mark on the skin (as produced by the blow....
- The article explained what "welt" means with a simple example.

---

western rattlesnake (noun)

Widely distributed between the Mississippi and the Rockies.

- He looked up "western rattlesnake" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western rattlesnake."

---

wheezing (adjective)

Relating to breathing with a whistling sound.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "wheezing."
- Students compared "wheezing" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

whistleblowers (noun)

An informant who exposes wrongdoing within an organization in the hope of stopping it.

- The law gives little protection to whistleblowers who feel the public has a right to know what is going on.
- He looked up "whistleblowers" because he had never seen it before.

---

white vitriol (noun)

A colorless water-soluble powder; used as a mordant or to preserve wood or for the electrodeposition of zinc.

- He looked up "white vitriol" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "white vitriol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild leek (noun)

North American perennial having a slender bulb and whitish flowers.

- They discussed "wild leek" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wild leek" because he had never seen it before.

---

william wordsworth (noun)

A romantic English poet whose work was inspired by the Lake District where he spent most of his life (1770-1850).

- He looked up "william wordsworth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "william wordsworth" during the group presentation.

---

winded (adjective)

Breathing laboriously or convulsively.

- A "winded" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "winded" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

wisest (adjective)

Having or prompted by wisdom or discernment.

- A "wisest" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "wisest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wood stork (noun)

An American stork that resembles the true ibises in having a downward-curved bill; inhabits wooded swamps of New World tropics.

- He looked up "wood stork" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wood stork" during the group presentation.

---

woodrow wilson guthrie (noun)

United States folk singer and songwriter (1912-1967).

- The article explained what "woodrow wilson guthrie" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woodrow wilson guthrie."

---

wop (noun)

(ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of Italian descent.

- In class, the teacher used "wop" to mean (ethnic slur) offensive term for a person of....
- He looked up "wop" because he had never seen it before.

---

wordsworth (noun)

A romantic English poet whose work was inspired by the Lake District where he spent most of his life (1770-1850).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wordsworth."
- He looked up "wordsworth" because he had never seen it before.

---

yaw (noun)

An erratic deflection from an intended course.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yaw."
- The article explained what "yaw" means with a simple example.

---

accumulates (verb)

Get or gather together.

- He did not know how to use "accumulates" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "accumulates" when talking about this idea.

---

adapts (verb)

Make fit for, or change to suit a new purpose.

- Can you use "adapts" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "adapts" when talking about this idea.

---

afterthought (noun)

An addition that was not included in the original plan.

- The garage was an afterthought.
- They discussed "afterthought" during the group presentation.

---

agricultural laborer (noun)

A person who tills the soil for a living.

- In class, the teacher used "agricultural laborer" to mean a person who tills the soil for a living.
- Understanding "agricultural laborer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

airman (noun)

Someone who operates an aircraft.

- Understanding "airman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "airman" during the group presentation.

---

airship (noun)

A steerable self-propelled aircraft.

- Understanding "airship" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "airship" during the group presentation.

---

alexandria senna (noun)

Erect shrub having racemes of tawny yellow flowers; the dried leaves are used medicinally as a cathartic; sometimes placed in genus Cassia.

- In class, the teacher used "alexandria senna" to mean erect shrub having racemes of tawny yellow flowers;....
- The article explained what "alexandria senna" means with a simple example.

---

aligns (verb)

Place in a line or arrange so as to be parallel or straight.

- She tried to use "aligns" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "aligns" when talking about this idea.

---

alligators (noun)

Either of two amphibious reptiles related to crocodiles but with shorter broader snouts.

- In class, the teacher used "alligators" to mean either of two amphibious reptiles related to....
- The article explained what "alligators" means with a simple example.

---

aluminum hydroxide (noun)

White crystalline compound that occurs naturally as the mineral gibbsite.

- Understanding "aluminum hydroxide" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "aluminum hydroxide" to mean white crystalline compound that occurs naturally as....

---

amigos (noun)

A friend or comrade.

- He looked up "amigos" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amigos."

---

andrew fielding huxley (noun)

English physiologist who, with Alan Hodgkin, discovered the role of potassium and sodium ions in the transmission of the nerve impulse (born in 1917).

- Understanding "andrew fielding huxley" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "andrew fielding huxley" to mean english physiologist who, with alan hodgkin,....

---

animators (noun)

The technician who produces animated cartoons.

- Understanding "animators" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "animators" because he had never seen it before.

---

annihilate (verb)

Kill in large numbers.

- In everyday English, people use "annihilate" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "annihilate" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

apostle of the gentiles (noun)

(New Testament) a Christian missionary to the Gentiles; author of several Epistles in the New Testament; even though Paul was not present at the Last Supper he is considered an Apostle.

- They discussed "apostle of the gentiles" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apostle of the gentiles."

---

appointee (noun)

A person who is appointed to a job or position.

- They discussed "appointee" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "appointee" means with a simple example.

---

aquatic vertebrate (noun)

Animal living wholly or chiefly in or on water.

- He looked up "aquatic vertebrate" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "aquatic vertebrate" to mean animal living wholly or chiefly in or on water.

---

archetypal (adjective)

Representing or constituting an original type after which other similar things are patterned.

- Archetypal patterns.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "archetypal."

---

arroyo willow (noun)

Shrubby willow of the western United States.

- Understanding "arroyo willow" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "arroyo willow" to mean shrubby willow of the western united states.

---

artful (adjective)

Marked by skill in achieving a desired end especially with cunning or craft.

- The artful dodger.
- An artful choice of metaphors.

---

ascendancy (noun)

The state that exists when one person or group has power over another.

- They discussed "ascendancy" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ascendancy."

---

asiatic cholera (noun)

An acute intestinal infection caused by ingestion of contaminated water or food.

- In class, the teacher used "asiatic cholera" to mean an acute intestinal infection caused by ingestion....
- Understanding "asiatic cholera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assessor (noun)

An official who evaluates property for the purpose of taxing it.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assessor."
- He looked up "assessor" because he had never seen it before.

---

asymmetry (noun)

(mathematics) a lack of symmetry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "asymmetry."
- He looked up "asymmetry" because he had never seen it before.

---

asynchronous (adjective)

Not synchronous; not occurring or existing at the same time or having the same period or phase.

- Students compared "asynchronous" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "asynchronous"? Explain why.

---

asynchronous operation (noun)

Operations that occur without a regular or predictable time relation to other events.

- They discussed "asynchronous operation" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "asynchronous operation" to mean operations that occur without a regular or....

---

atrial artery (noun)

The branch of the coronary artery that supplies the muscles of the atria.

- In class, the teacher used "atrial artery" to mean the branch of the coronary artery that supplies the....
- He looked up "atrial artery" because he had never seen it before.

---

attuned (verb)

Adjust or accustom to; bring into harmony with.

- Can you use "attuned" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "attuned" when talking about this idea.

---

baal (noun)

Any of numerous local fertility and nature deities worshipped by ancient Semitic peoples; the Hebrews considered Baal a false god.

- He looked up "baal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baal."

---

baffles (verb)

Hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires) of.

- In everyday English, people use "baffles" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "baffles" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

banal (adjective)

Repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.

- It is useful to describe something as "banal" when it is repeated too often; overfamiliar through overuse.
- Would you call this situation "banal"? Explain why.

barbershop quartet (noun)

An unaccompanied quartet of (usually male) voices singing sentimental songs in four-part harmony.

- He looked up "barbershop quartet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barbershop quartet."

basking (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- The seals were basking in the sun.
- In everyday English, people use "basking" when talking about this idea.

bean curd (noun)

Cheeselike food made of curdled soybean milk.

- He looked up "bean curd" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bean curd."

befitting (adjective)

Appropriate to.

- Behavior befitting a father.
- Would you call this situation "befitting"? Explain why.

bell-bottomed (adjective)

(of trousers) having legs that flare at the bottom.

- Bell-bottomed trousers.
- Would you call this situation "bell-bottomed"? Explain why.

benched (verb)

Take out of a game; of players.

- He did not know how to use "benched" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "benched" in real sentences.

big-boned (adjective)

Having a bone structure that is massive in contrast with the surrounding flesh.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "big-boned."
- Would you call this situation "big-boned"? Explain why.

black stork (noun)

Old World stork that is glossy black above and white below.

- In class, the teacher used "black stork" to mean old world stork that is glossy black above and....
- The article explained what "black stork" means with a simple example.

blackface (noun)

The makeup (usually burnt cork) used by a performer in order to imitate a Negro.

- Understanding "blackface" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "blackface" means with a simple example.

bluish (adjective)

Of the color intermediate between green and violet; having a color similar to that of a clear unclouded sky; - Helen Hunt Jackson.

- A "bluish" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "bluish"? Explain why.

bluish black (adjective)

Of black tinged with blue.

- It is useful to describe something as "bluish black" when it is of black tinged with blue.
- A "bluish black" approach may work better in this case.

bluish green (noun)

A blue-green color or pigment.

- They painted it a light shade of bluish green.
- Understanding "bluish green" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bluish-white (adjective)

Of white tinged with blue.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "bluish-white."
- The speaker chose "bluish-white" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

bombardier (noun)

A noncommissioned officer in the British artillery.

- The article explained what "bombardier" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bombardier."

---

boned (adjective)

Having bones as specified.

- His lanky long-boned body.
- A boned (or deboned) fish.

---

bookkeeper (noun)

Someone who records the transactions of a business.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bookkeeper."
- He looked up "bookkeeper" because he had never seen it before.

---

booting (verb)

Cause to load (an operating system) and start the initial processes.

- The coach explained when to use "booting" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "booting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

bountiful (adjective)

Given or giving freely.

- Bountiful compliments.
- The bountiful earth.

---

boycotts (noun)

A group's refusal to have commercial dealings with some organization in protest against its policies.

- They discussed "boycotts" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "boycotts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breech-loading (adjective)

(of guns) designed to be loaded at the breech.

- Students compared "breech-loading" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "breech-loading" approach may work better in this case.

---

brimming (adjective)

Filled to capacity.

- A child brimming over with curiosity.
- Eyes brimming with tears.

---

bubble and squeak (noun)

Leftover cabbage fried with cooked potatoes and sometimes meat.

- The article explained what "bubble and squeak" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bubble and squeak" to mean leftover cabbage fried with cooked potatoes and....

---

bulldozer (noun)

Large powerful tractor; a large blade in front flattens areas of ground.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bulldozer."

- They discussed "bulldozer" during the group presentation.

---

button mangrove (noun)

Evergreen tree or shrub with fruit resembling buttons and yielding heavy hard compact wood.

- The article explained what "button mangrove" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "button mangrove" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cabernet (noun)

Superior Bordeaux type of red wine.

- Understanding "cabernet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cabernet."

---

calico (adjective)

Made of calico or resembling calico in being patterned.

- Calico dresses.
- A calico cat.

---

california lady's slipper (noun)

Often having many yellow-green orchids with white pouches growing along streams and seeps of southwestern Oregon and northern California.

- They discussed "california lady's slipper" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california lady's slipper."

---

calvin coolidge (noun)

Elected vice president and succeeded as 30th President of the United States when Harding died in 1923 (1872-1933).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calvin coolidge."
- The article explained what "calvin coolidge" means with a simple example.

---

camus (noun)

French writer who portrayed the human condition as isolated in an absurd world (1913-1960).

- The article explained what "camus" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "camus."

---

canada porcupine (noun)

Porcupine of northeastern North America with barbed spines concealed in the coarse fur; often gnaws buildings for salt and grease.

- They discussed "canada porcupine" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "canada porcupine" to mean porcupine of northeastern north america with barbed....

---

canoeing (verb)

Travel by canoe.

- She tried to use "canoeing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "canoeing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

canvassing (noun)

Persuasion of voters in a political campaign.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "canvassing."
- They discussed "canvassing" during the group presentation.

---

capillary (noun)

A tube of small internal diameter; holds liquid by capillary action.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "capillary."
- Understanding "capillary" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

capillary action (noun)

A phenomenon associated with surface tension and resulting in the elevation or depression of liquids in capillaries.

- They discussed "capillary action" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "capillary action" because he had never seen it before.

---

capillary bed (noun)

A layer of tissue densely packed with capillaries.

- Understanding "capillary bed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "capillary bed" during the group presentation.

---

carols (noun)

A joyful song (usually celebrating the birth of Christ).

- Understanding "carols" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "carols" because he had never seen it before.

---

cartridge remover (noun)

A mechanism in a firearm that pulls an empty shell case out of the chamber and passes it to the ejector.

- The article explained what "cartridge remover" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cartridge remover" to mean a mechanism in a firearm that pulls an empty shell....

---

casanova (noun)

An Italian adventurer who wrote vivid accounts of his sexual encounters (1725-1798).

- He looked up "casanova" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "casanova" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

categorical (adjective)

Not modified or restricted by reservations.

- A categorical denial.
- Students compared "categorical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

catherine of aragon (noun)

First wife of Henry VIII; Henry VIII's divorce from her was the initial step of the Reformation in England (1485-1536).

- Understanding "catherine of aragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "catherine of aragon."

---

celiac trunk (noun)

An artery that originates from the abdominal aorta just below the diaphragm and branches into the left gastric artery and the common hepatic artery and the splenic artery.

- They discussed "celiac trunk" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "celiac trunk" means with a simple example.

---

chariots (noun)

A light four-wheel horse-drawn ceremonial carriage.

- The article explained what "chariots" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chariots" to mean a light four-wheel horse-drawn ceremonial carriage.

---

charlemagne (noun)

King of the Franks and Holy Roman Emperor; conqueror of the Lombards and Saxons (742-814).

- The article explained what "charlemagne" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "charlemagne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

charred pancake cup (noun)

A common name for a variety of Sarcosomataceae.

- Understanding "charred pancake cup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "charred pancake cup" because he had never seen it before.

---

chiang chung-cheng (noun)

Chinese military and political figure; in the Chinese civil war that followed World War II he was defeated by the Chinese communists and in 1949 was forced to withdraw to Taiwan where he served as president of Nationalist China until his death (1897-1975).

- They discussed "chiang chung-cheng" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chiang chung-cheng" means with a simple example.

---

chieftain (noun)

The leader of a group of people.

- The article explained what "chieftain" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chieftain" to mean the leader of a group of people.

---

christening (noun)

Giving a Christian name at baptism.

- In class, the teacher used "christening" to mean giving a christian name at baptism.
- He looked up "christening" because he had never seen it before.

---

cinematographer (noun)

A photographer who operates a movie camera.

- The article explained what "cinematographer" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "cinematographer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cirrhosis (noun)

A chronic disease interfering with the normal functioning of the liver; the major cause is chronic alcoholism.

- He looked up "cirrhosis" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cirrhosis" to mean a chronic disease interfering with the normal....

---

cladding (noun)

A protective covering that protects the outside of a building.

- In class, the teacher used "cladding" to mean a protective covering that protects the outside of....
- He looked up "cladding" because he had never seen it before.

---

clare booth luce (noun)

United States playwright and public official (1902-1987).

- In class, the teacher used "clare booth luce" to mean united states playwright and public official....
- They discussed "clare booth luce" during the group presentation.

---

clean-shaven (adjective)

Closely shaved recently.

- A "clean-shaven" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "clean-shaven" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cleats (noun)

Shoes with leather or metal projections on the soles.

- The football players all wore cleats.
- In class, the teacher used "cleats" to mean shoes with leather or metal projections on the soles.

---

clings (verb)

To remain emotionally or intellectually attached.

- He clings to the idea that she might still love him.
- The dress clings to her body.

---

codeine (noun)

Derivative of opium; used as an antitussive (to relieve coughing) and an analgesic (to relieve pain).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "codeine."
- The article explained what "codeine" means with a simple example.

---

colitis (noun)

Inflammation of the colon.

- The article explained what "colitis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "colitis" to mean inflammation of the colon.

---

combative (adjective)

Having or showing a ready disposition to fight.

- A combative impulse.
- It is useful to describe something as "combative" when it is having or showing a ready disposition to fight.

common lady's-slipper (noun)

Pale pink wild orchid of northeastern America having an inflated pouchlike lip.

- The article explained what "common lady's-slipper" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "common lady's-slipper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

compensatory spending (noun)

Spending money raised by borrowing; used by governments to stimulate their economy.

- Understanding "compensatory spending" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "compensatory spending" because he had never seen it before.

conceited (adjective)

Characteristic of false pride; having an exaggerated sense of self-importance.

- A conceited fool.
- An attitude of self-conceited arrogance.

consecration (noun)

A solemn commitment of your life or your time to some cherished purpose (to a service or a goal).

- His consecration to study.
- The Cardinal attended the consecration of the church.

conspicuously (adverb)

In a manner tending to attract attention.

- There have been plenty of general declarations about willingness to meet and talk, but conspicuously no mention of time and place.
- He answered "conspicuously," which changed the tone of the conversation.

converging lens (noun)

Lens such that a beam of light passing through it is brought to a point or focus.

- He looked up "converging lens" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "converging lens."

counterattack (noun)

An attack by a defending force against an attacking enemy force in order to regain lost ground or cut off enemy advance units etc.

- Understanding "counterattack" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "counterattack" to mean an attack by a defending force against an attacking....

courted (verb)

Engage in social activities leading to marriage.

- She tried to use "courted" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "courted" when talking about this idea.

cranked (verb)

Travel along a zigzag path.

- She tried to use "cranked" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "cranked" when talking about this idea.

crested (adjective)

(of a bird or animal) having a usually ornamental tuft or process on the head; often used in combination.

- Golden crested.
- Crested iris.

cro (noun)

Electronic equipment that provides visual images of varying electrical quantities.

- In class, the teacher used "cro" to mean electronic equipment that provides visual images of....
- The article explained what "cro" means with a simple example.

curie (noun)

A unit of radioactivity equal to the amount of a radioactive isotope that decays at the rate of 37,000,000,000 disintegrations per second.

- Understanding "curie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curie."

---

curie point (noun)

The temperature above which a ferromagnetic substance loses its ferromagnetism and becomes paramagnetic.

- In class, the teacher used "curie point" to mean the temperature above which a ferromagnetic....
- He looked up "curie point" because he had never seen it before.

---

cuteness (noun)

The quality of being appealing in a delicate or graceful way (of a girl or young woman).

- He looked up "cuteness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cuteness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

daddies (noun)

An informal term for a father; probably derived from baby talk.

- He looked up "daddies" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daddies."

---

dangle-berry (noun)

Huckleberry of the eastern United States with pink flowers and sweet blue fruit.

- In class, the teacher used "dangle-berry" to mean huckleberry of the eastern united states with pink....
- He looked up "dangle-berry" because he had never seen it before.

---

darken (verb)

Become dark or darker.

- The sky darkened.
- A scandal that darkened the family's good name.

---

dba (noun)

(law) a name under which a corporation conducts business that is not the legal name of the corporation as shown in its articles of incorporation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dba."
- He looked up "dba" because he had never seen it before.

---

dci (noun)

The head of the United States Intelligence Community and director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

- He looked up "dci" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "dci" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decompression sickness (noun)

Pain resulting from rapid change in pressure.

- He looked up "decompression sickness" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "decompression sickness" to mean pain resulting from rapid change in pressure.

---

defaulted (verb)

Fail to pay up.

- Learners should practice how to use "defaulted" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "defaulted" and when to wait.

---

defuse (verb)

Remove the triggering device from.

- Learners should practice how to use "defuse" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "defuse" when talking about this idea.

---

depositing (verb)

Put, fix, force, or implant.

- The coach explained when to use "depositing" and when to wait.

- Can you use "depositing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

designating (verb)

Indicate a place, direction, person, or thing; either spatially or figuratively.

- Can you use "designating" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "designating" and when to wait.

---

dewitt clinton (noun)

United States politician who as governor of New York supported the project to build the Erie Canal (1769-1828).

- Understanding "dewitt clinton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dewitt clinton" means with a simple example.

---

dickey-bird (noun)

Small bird; adults talking to children sometimes use these words to refer to small birds.

- The article explained what "dickey-bird" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "dickey-bird" during the group presentation.

---

dickey-seat (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- The article explained what "dickey-seat" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dickey-seat."

---

dilation (noun)

The act of expanding an aperture.

- The dilation of the pupil of the eye.
- In class, the teacher used "dilation" to mean the act of expanding an aperture.

---

dishonor (noun)

A state of shame or disgrace.

- He was resigned to a life of dishonor.
- In class, the teacher used "dishonor" to mean a state of shame or disgrace.

---

disintegrate (verb)

Lose a stored charge, magnetic flux, or current.

- The particles disintegrated during the nuclear fission process.
- The material disintegrated.

---

disjointed (adjective)

Taken apart at the joints.

- A disjointed fowl.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disjointed."

---

disparaging (adjective)

Expressive of low opinion.

- Disparaging remarks about the new house.
- The speaker chose "disparaging" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dissenters (noun)

A person who dissents from some established policy.

- In class, the teacher used "dissenters" to mean a person who dissents from some established policy.
- He looked up "dissenters" because he had never seen it before.

---

divest (verb)

Reduce or dispose of; cease to hold (an investment).

- The company decided to divest.
- The board of trustees divested $20 million in real estate property.

---

dodo (noun)

Extinct heavy flightless bird of Mauritius related to pigeons.

- Understanding "dodo" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dodo" during the group presentation.

---

draconian (adjective)

Of or relating to Draco or his harsh code of laws.

- Draconian measures.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "draconian."

---

drosophila (noun)

Small fruit fly used by Thomas Hunt Morgan in studying basic mechanisms of inheritance.

- The article explained what "drosophila" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drosophila."

---

drummers (noun)

Someone who plays a drum.

- The article explained what "drummers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drummers" to mean someone who plays a drum.

---

eastern narrow-mouthed toad (noun)

Small toad of southeastern United States.

- He looked up "eastern narrow-mouthed toad" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eastern narrow-mouthed toad."

---

edward the confessor (noun)

Son of Ethelred the Unready; King of England from 1042 to 1066; he founded Westminster Abbey where he was eventually buried (1003-1066).

- Understanding "edward the confessor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "edward the confessor" because he had never seen it before.

---

eerily (adverb)

In an unnatural eery manner.

- It was eerily quiet in the chapel.
- She spoke "eerily," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

electrochemical (adjective)

Of or involving electrochemistry.

- It is useful to describe something as "electrochemical" when it is of or involving electrochemistry.
- Students compared "electrochemical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

electrochemical series (noun)

A serial arrangement of metallic elements or ions according to their electrode potentials determined under specified conditions; the order shows the tendency of one metal to reduce the ions of any other metal below it in the series.

- They discussed "electrochemical series" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "electrochemical series" means with a simple example.

---

electronic countermeasures (noun)

Electronic warfare undertaken to prevent or reduce an enemy's effective use of the electromagnetic spectrum.

- The article explained what "electronic countermeasures" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "electronic countermeasures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elgin marbles (noun)

A collection of classical Greek marble sculptures and fragments of architecture created by Phidias; chiefly from the Parthenon in Athens.

- They discussed "elgin marbles" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "elgin marbles" because he had never seen it before.

---

elliptic leaf (noun)

A simple leaf shaped like an ellipse.

- He looked up "elliptic leaf" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "elliptic leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

embers (noun)

A hot fragment of wood or coal that is left from a fire and is glowing or smoldering.

- Understanding "embers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "embers" means with a simple example.

---

emotive (adjective)

Characterized by emotion.

- A "emotive" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "emotive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

empirically (adverb)

In an empirical manner.

- This can be empirically tested.
- Using "empirically" can make your explanation more exact.

---

enforces (verb)

Compel to behave in a certain way.

- Can you use "enforces" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "enforces" and when to wait.

---

engels (noun)

Socialist who wrote the Communist Manifesto with Karl Marx in 1848 (1820-1895).

- Understanding "engels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "engels" means with a simple example.

---

entanglement (noun)

An intricate trap that entangles or ensnares its victim.

- He looked up "entanglement" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "entanglement" to mean an intricate trap that entangles or ensnares its victim.

---

epsilon (noun)

The 5th letter of the Greek alphabet.

- In class, the teacher used "epsilon" to mean the 5th letter of the greek alphabet.
- He looked up "epsilon" because he had never seen it before.

---

expeditionary (adjective)

(used of military forces) designed for military operations abroad.

- The French expeditionary force in Indochina.
- The speaker chose "expeditionary" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

fairy bluebird (noun)

Fruit-eating mostly brilliant blue songbird of the East Indies.

- Understanding "fairy bluebird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "fairy bluebird" during the group presentation.

---

faqs (noun)

A list of questions that are frequently asked (about a given topic) along with their answers.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "faqs."
- The article explained what "faqs" means with a simple example.

---

fast of the firstborn (noun)

(Judaism) a minor fast day on Nissan 14 that is observed only by firstborn males; it is observed on the day before Passover.

- They discussed "fast of the firstborn" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "fast of the firstborn" means with a simple example.

federations (noun)

An organization formed by merging several groups or parties.

- Understanding "federations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "federations" during the group presentation.

ferret badger (noun)

Small ferret-like badger of southeast Asia.

- The article explained what "ferret badger" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ferret badger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

finns (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Finland.

- Understanding "finns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "finns" during the group presentation.

firestone (noun)

A piece of flint that is struck to light a fire.

- The article explained what "firestone" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "firestone" during the group presentation.

first baron macaulay (noun)

English historian noted for his history of England (1800-1859).

- They discussed "first baron macaulay" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "first baron macaulay" because he had never seen it before.

firstborn (noun)

The offspring who came first in the order of birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "firstborn."
- He looked up "firstborn" because he had never seen it before.

flat-bottomed (adjective)

Having a flat bottom.

- A flat-bottomed boat.
- Students compared "flat-bottomed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

flees (verb)

Run away quickly.

- He did not know how to use "flees" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "flees" carefully so everyone would understand.

flowery (adjective)

Of or relating to or suggestive of flowers.

- A flowery hat.
- Flowery wine.

frock (noun)

A one-piece garment for a woman; has skirt and bodice.

- They discussed "frock" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "frock" to mean a one-piece garment for a woman; has skirt and bodice.

genetic abnormality (noun)

A disease or disorder that is inherited genetically.

- The article explained what "genetic abnormality" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "genetic abnormality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gens (noun)

Family based on male descent.

- The article explained what "gens" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gens" to mean family based on male descent.

---

genus falco (noun)

A genus of Falconidae.

- The article explained what "genus falco" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "genus falco" during the group presentation.

---

george edward pickett (noun)

American Confederate general known for leading a disastrous charge at Gettysburg (1825-1875).

- Understanding "george edward pickett" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "george edward pickett" because he had never seen it before.

---

get hitched with (verb)

Take in marriage.

- In everyday English, people use "get hitched with" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "get hitched with" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

glutamate (noun)

A salt or ester of glutamic acid.

- He looked up "glutamate" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "glutamate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

goblet (noun)

A bowl-shaped drinking vessel; especially the Eucharistic cup.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goblet."
- The article explained what "goblet" means with a simple example.

---

goblet cell (noun)

An epithelial cell that secretes mucous.

- They discussed "goblet cell" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "goblet cell" means with a simple example.

---

greased (adjective)

Smeared with oil or grease to reduce friction.

- A "greased" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "greased" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

gyro (noun)

A Greek sandwich: sliced roast lamb with onion and tomato stuffed into pita bread.

- They discussed "gyro" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gyro."

---

hag-ridden (adjective)

Tormented or harassed by nightmares or unreasonable fears; - C.S.Lewis.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hag-ridden."
- A "hag-ridden" approach may work better in this case.

---

handsomely (adverb)

In a generously handsome manner.

- India has responded handsomely by providing 3,000 men.
- The volume was handsomely bound.

---

hapless (adjective)

Deserving or inciting pity; ; ; - Galsworthy.

- A hapless victim.

- Would you call this situation "hapless"? Explain why.

---

harnessing (verb)

Control and direct with or as if by reins.

- Learners should practice how to use "harnessing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "harnessing" when talking about this idea.

---

herring gull (noun)

Large gull of the northern hemisphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "herring gull."
- They discussed "herring gull" during the group presentation.

---

hiatus hernia (noun)

Hernia resulting from the protrusion of part of the stomach through the diaphragm.

- The article explained what "hiatus hernia" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hiatus hernia."

---

hiccup nut (noun)

Ornamental African shrub or climber with red flowers.

- The article explained what "hiccup nut" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "hiccup nut" to mean ornamental african shrub or climber with red flowers.

---

hissing (noun)

A fricative sound (especially as an expression of disapproval).

- The performers could not be heard over the hissing of the audience.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hissing."

---

hitched (verb)

Jump vertically, with legs stiff and back arched.

- In everyday English, people use "hitched" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "hitched" in real sentences.

---

hog millet (noun)

Extensively cultivated in Europe and Asia for its grain and in United States sometimes for forage.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hog millet."
- The article explained what "hog millet" means with a simple example.

---

hog-nosed badger (noun)

Southeast Asian badger with a snout like a pig.

- The article explained what "hog-nosed badger" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hog-nosed badger" during the group presentation.

---

homo sapiens (noun)

The only surviving hominid; species to which modern man belongs; bipedal primate having language and ability to make and use complex tools; brain volume at least 1400 cc.

- He looked up "homo sapiens" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "homo sapiens" to mean the only surviving hominid; species to which modern....

---

hooded skunk (noun)

Of Mexico and southernmost parts of southwestern United States.

- The article explained what "hooded skunk" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hooded skunk" during the group presentation.

---

humanistic (adjective)

Of or pertaining to Renaissance humanism.

- The humanistic revival of learning.
- Humanistic studies.

---

hydrogen sulfide (noun)

A sulfide having the unpleasant smell of rotten eggs.

- In class, the teacher used "hydrogen sulfide" to mean a sulfide having the unpleasant smell of rotten eggs.
- The article explained what "hydrogen sulfide" means with a simple example.

---

iconography (noun)

The images and symbolic representations that are traditionally associated with a person or a subject.

- Religious iconography.
- The propagandistic iconography of a despot.

---

igbo (noun)

A member of the largest ethnic group in southeastern Nigeria.

- Most Igbo are farmers.
- The article explained what "igbo" means with a simple example.

---

immigration and naturalization service (noun)

An agency in the Department of Justice that enforces laws and regulations for the admission of foreign-born persons to the United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "immigration and naturalization service."
- He looked up "immigration and naturalization service" because he had never seen it before.

---

impervious (adjective)

Not admitting of passage or capable of being affected.

- A material impervious to water.
- Someone impervious to argument.

---

implausible (adjective)

Having a quality that provokes disbelief.

- Gave the teacher an implausible excuse.
- A "implausible" approach may work better in this case.

---

imposter (noun)

A person who makes deceitful pretenses.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "imposter."
- He looked up "imposter" because he had never seen it before.

---

incurring (noun)

Acquiring or coming into something (usually undesirable).

- Incurring debts is easier than paying them.
- They discussed "incurring" during the group presentation.

---

indeterminate (adjective)

Having a capacity for continuing to grow at the apex.

- An indeterminate stem.
- Of indeterminate age.

---

indian chieftain (noun)

The leader of a group of Native Americans.

- Understanding "indian chieftain" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "indian chieftain" means with a simple example.

---

inertial navigation (noun)

A method of controlling the flight of a missile by devices that respond to inertial forces.

- He looked up "inertial navigation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inertial navigation."

---

inertial navigation system (noun)

A system to control a plane or spacecraft; uses inertial forces.

- They discussed "inertial navigation system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inertial navigation system."

---

infidels (noun)

A person who does not acknowledge your god.

- In class, the teacher used "infidels" to mean a person who does not acknowledge your god.
- The article explained what "infidels" means with a simple example.

---

inflection (noun)

The patterns of stress and intonation in a language.

- They discussed "inflection" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "inflection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

infra dig (adjective)

Beneath your dignity.

- Considered helping with the dishes to be infra dig.
- Students compared "infra dig" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

innocently (adverb)

In a naively innocent manner.

- She smiled at him innocently.
- He claimed to have purchased the contraband innocently.

---

inroads (noun)

An encroachment or intrusion.

- They made inroads in the United States market.
- Understanding "inroads" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

insect repellent (noun)

A chemical substance that repels insects.

- They discussed "insect repellent" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "insect repellent."

---

intercom speaker (noun)

The loudspeaker on an intercom or public address system.

- In class, the teacher used "intercom speaker" to mean the loudspeaker on an intercom or public address system.
- The article explained what "intercom speaker" means with a simple example.

---

intermittent cramp (noun)

Clinical neurological syndrome characterized by muscular twitching and cramps and (when severe) seizures; associated with calcium deficiency (hypoparathyroidism) or vitamin D deficiency or alkalosis.

- He looked up "intermittent cramp" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "intermittent cramp" to mean clinical neurological syndrome characterized by....

---

intractable (adjective)

Not tractable; difficult to manage or mold.

- An intractable disposition.
- Intractable pain.

---

iron putty (noun)

A cement resembling putty; made by mixing ferric oxide and boiled linseed oil; is acid resistant.

- He looked up "iron putty" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "iron putty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

jabs (noun)

A sharp hand gesture (resembling a blow).

- Understanding "jabs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jabs."

jamison (noun)

United States dancer and choreographer (born in 1944).

- The article explained what "jamison" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "jamison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

jimmy doolittle (noun)

United States Air Force officer who electrified the world in 1942 by leading a squadron of 16 bombers on a daylight raid over Tokyo (1896-1993).

- He looked up "jimmy doolittle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jimmy doolittle."

john rutledge (noun)

United States jurist and second chief justice of the United States Supreme Court; he was appointed by George Washington and briefly served as chief justice but was ultimately rejected by the United States Senate (1739-1800).

- The article explained what "john rutledge" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "john rutledge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

john scopes (noun)

Tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state law by teaching evolution; in a highly publicized trial in 1925 he was prosecuted by William Jennings Bryan and defended by Clarence Darrow (1900-1970).

- In class, the teacher used "john scopes" to mean tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state....
- The article explained what "john scopes" means with a simple example.

joseph goebbels (noun)

German propaganda minister in Nazi Germany who persecuted the Jews (1897-1945).

- He looked up "joseph goebbels" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "joseph goebbels" during the group presentation.

juvenile delinquency (noun)

An antisocial misdeed in violation of the law by a minor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juvenile delinquency."
- He looked up "juvenile delinquency" because he had never seen it before.

kauai (noun)

An island of Hawaii to the northwest of Oahu.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kauai."
- He looked up "kauai" because he had never seen it before.

kauai island (noun)

An island of Hawaii to the northwest of Oahu.

- Understanding "kauai island" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "kauai island" to mean an island of hawaii to the northwest of oahu.

kenyans (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Kenya.

- They discussed "kenyans" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "kenyans" because he had never seen it before.

kilt (noun)

A knee-length pleated tartan skirt worn by men as part of the traditional dress in the Highlands of northern Scotland.

- He looked up "kilt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kilt" during the group presentation.

knight's service (noun)

Land tenure by service to the lord as a knight.

- In class, the teacher used "knight's service" to mean land tenure by service to the lord as a knight.
- The article explained what "knight's service" means with a simple example.

kubrick (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1928).

- The article explained what "kubrick" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kubrick."

kuwaiti monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Kuwait.

- The article explained what "kuwaiti monetary unit" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kuwaiti monetary unit."

la plata (noun)

An estuary between Argentina and Uruguay.

- They discussed "la plata" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "la plata" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lady's slipper (noun)

Any of several chiefly American wildflowers having an inflated pouchlike lip; difficult or impossible to cultivate in the garden.

- They discussed "lady's slipper" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lady's slipper."

landscaped (adjective)

(of land) improved by gardening or landscape architecture.

- Carefully landscaped gardens.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "landscaped."

lifesaver (noun)

A life preserver in the form of a ring of buoyant material.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lifesaver."
- Understanding "lifesaver" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

light-boned (adjective)

Having a bone structure that is light with respect to the surrounding flesh.

- The speaker chose "light-boned" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "light-boned" when it is having a bone structure that is light with respect....

litany (noun)

A prayer consisting of a series of invocations by the priest with responses from the congregation.

- The patient recited a litany of complaints.
- A litany of failures.

localised (adjective)

Confined or restricted to a particular location.

- Would you call this situation "localised"? Explain why.
- Students compared "localised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

locket (noun)

A small ornamental case; usually contains a picture or a lock of hair and is worn on a necklace.

- In class, the teacher used "locket" to mean a small ornamental case; usually contains a picture....
- He looked up "locket" because he had never seen it before.

locomotion (noun)

The power or ability to move.

- They discussed "locomotion" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "locomotion" because he had never seen it before.

lounging (verb)

Sit or recline comfortably.

- He was lounging on the sofa.
- In everyday English, people use "lounging" when talking about this idea.

---

mailman (noun)

A man who delivers the mail.

- The article explained what "mailman" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mailman" during the group presentation.

---

manoeuvres (noun)

A deliberate coordinated movement requiring dexterity and skill.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "manoeuvres."
- He looked up "manoeuvres" because he had never seen it before.

---

manus (noun)

The (prehensile) extremity of the superior limb.

- Understanding "manus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "manus" means with a simple example.

---

marksman (noun)

Someone skilled in shooting.

- In class, the teacher used "marksman" to mean someone skilled in shooting.
- They discussed "marksman" during the group presentation.

---

marmalade bush (noun)

Evergreen South American shrub having showy trumpet-shaped orange flowers; grown as an ornamental or houseplant.

- In class, the teacher used "marmalade bush" to mean evergreen south american shrub having showy....
- They discussed "marmalade bush" during the group presentation.

---

marmalade orange (noun)

Any of various common orange trees yielding sour or bitter fruit; used as grafting stock.

- He looked up "marmalade orange" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "marmalade orange."

---

maroons (noun)

A person who is stranded (as on an island).

- They discussed "maroons" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "maroons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

matisse (noun)

French painter and sculptor; leading figure of fauvism (1869-1954).

- Understanding "matisse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "matisse" means with a simple example.

---

maul oak (noun)

Medium-sized evergreen of southwestern United States and northwestern Mexico with oblong leathery often spiny-edged leaves.

- He looked up "maul oak" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maul oak."

---

maven (noun)

Someone who is dazzlingly skilled in any field.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "maven."
- He looked up "maven" because he had never seen it before.

---

medical checkup (noun)

A thorough physical examination; includes a variety of tests depending on the age and sex and health of the person.

- Understanding "medical checkup" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "medical checkup" to mean a thorough physical examination; includes a variety....

mental abnormality (noun)

Any abnormality of mental function.

- They discussed "mental abnormality" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mental abnormality."

mental retardation (noun)

Lack of normal development of intellectual capacities.

- In class, the teacher used "mental retardation" to mean lack of normal development of intellectual capacities.
- The article explained what "mental retardation" means with a simple example.

milliseconds (noun)

One thousandth (10^-3) of a second.

- Understanding "milliseconds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "milliseconds."

mind's eye (noun)

The imaging of remembered or invented scenes.

- I could see her clearly in my mind's eye.
- The article explained what "mind's eye" means with a simple example.

minimizes (verb)

Make small or insignificant.

- In everyday English, people use "minimizes" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "minimizes" in real sentences.

mittens (noun)

Glove that encases the thumb separately and the other four fingers together.

- He looked up "mittens" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "mittens" to mean glove that encases the thumb separately and the....

modifier gene (noun)

A gene that modifies the effect produced by another gene.

- He looked up "modifier gene" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "modifier gene" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

monterrey (noun)

An industrial city in northeastern Mexico.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monterrey."
- The article explained what "monterrey" means with a simple example.

mossad (noun)

The Israeli foreign intelligence agency.

- The primary focus of the Mossad is on Arab nations.
- They discussed "mossad" during the group presentation.

mountain lady's slipper (noun)

Leafy plant having a few stems in a clump with 1 white and dull purple flower in each upper leaf axil; Alaska to northern California and Wyoming.

- In class, the teacher used "mountain lady's slipper" to mean leafy plant having a few stems in a clump with 1....
- The article explained what "mountain lady's slipper" means with a simple example.

mourned (verb)

Observe the customs of mourning after the death of a loved one.

- Learners should practice how to use "mourned" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "mourned" and when to wait.

mourners (noun)

A person who is feeling grief (as grieving over someone who has died).

- The article explained what "mourners" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mourners" to mean a person who is feeling grief (as grieving over....

---

munching (verb)

Chew noisily.

- He did not know how to use "munching" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "munching" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

muscat grape (noun)

Sweet aromatic grape used for raisins and wine.

- In class, the teacher used "muscat grape" to mean sweet aromatic grape used for raisins and wine.
- He looked up "muscat grape" because he had never seen it before.

---

nagoya (noun)

An industrial city in southern Honshu.

- The article explained what "nagoya" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nagoya" to mean an industrial city in southern honshu.

---

nappy (noun)

Garment consisting of a folded cloth drawn up between the legs and fastened at the waist; worn by infants to catch excrement.

- In class, the teacher used "nappy" to mean garment consisting of a folded cloth drawn up....
- He looked up "nappy" because he had never seen it before.

---

neanderthals (noun)

Extinct robust human of Middle Paleolithic in Europe and western Asia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neanderthals."
- He looked up "neanderthals" because he had never seen it before.

---

nears (verb)

Move towards.

- In everyday English, people use "nears" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "nears" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

nerve deafness (noun)

Hearing loss due to failure of the auditory nerve.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nerve deafness."
- The article explained what "nerve deafness" means with a simple example.

---

netted melon (noun)

A muskmelon vine with fruit that has a thin reticulated rind and sweet green flesh.

- The article explained what "netted melon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "netted melon" during the group presentation.

---

neuter (noun)

A gender that refers chiefly (but not exclusively) to inanimate objects (neither masculine nor feminine).

- They discussed "neuter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "neuter."

---

new world porcupine (noun)

Arboreal porcupine.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "new world porcupine."
- The article explained what "new world porcupine" means with a simple example.

---

newlyweds (noun)

Someone recently married.

- He looked up "newlyweds" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "newlyweds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nis (noun)

A hard malleable ductile silvery metallic element that is resistant to corrosion; used in alloys; occurs in pentlandite and smaltite and garnierite and millerite.

- In class, the teacher used "nis" to mean a hard malleable ductile silvery metallic element....
- Understanding "nis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

nitrous oxide (noun)

Inhalation anesthetic used as an anesthetic in dentistry and surgery.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nitrous oxide."
- The article explained what "nitrous oxide" means with a simple example.

norwegians (noun)

A Scandinavian language that is spoken in Norway.

- They discussed "norwegians" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "norwegians" means with a simple example.

odysseus (noun)

(Greek mythology) a famous mythical Greek hero; his return to Ithaca after the siege of Troy was described in the Odyssey.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "odysseus."
- He looked up "odysseus" because he had never seen it before.

old world porcupine (noun)

Terrestrial porcupine.

- Understanding "old world porcupine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "old world porcupine."

omitting (verb)

Prevent from being included or considered or accepted.

- He did not know how to use "omitting" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "omitting" when talking about this idea.

opinionated (adjective)

Obstinate in your opinions.

- Would you call this situation "opinionated"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "opinionated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

oppress (verb)

Come down on or keep down by unjust use of one's authority.

- The government oppresses political activists.
- Learners should practice how to use "oppress" in real sentences.

orange marmalade (noun)

Marmalade made from oranges.

- He looked up "orange marmalade" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orange marmalade."

originator (noun)

Someone who creates new things.

- In class, the teacher used "originator" to mean someone who creates new things.
- The article explained what "originator" means with a simple example.

outfitters (noun)

A shop that provides equipment for some specific purpose.

- The article explained what "outfitters" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "outfitters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

overthrew (verb)

Cause the downfall of; of rulers.

- She tried to use "overthrew" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "overthrew" when talking about this idea.

---

oxidized (adjective)

Combined with or having undergone a chemical reaction with oxygen.

- The oxidized form of iodine.
- It is useful to describe something as "oxidized" when it is combined with or having undergone a chemical....

---

panhandle (noun)

A relatively narrow strip of land projecting from some larger area.

- Wheeling is located in the northern panhandle of West Virginia.
- The article explained what "panhandle" means with a simple example.

---

paradoxical (adjective)

Seemingly contradictory but nonetheless possibly true.

- It is paradoxical that standing is more tiring than walking.
- Would you call this situation "paradoxical"? Explain why.

---

paradoxical sleep (noun)

A recurring sleep state during which dreaming occurs; a state of rapidly shifting eye movements during sleep.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paradoxical sleep."
- They discussed "paradoxical sleep" during the group presentation.

---

paralysed (verb)

Cause to be paralyzed and immobile.

- He did not know how to use "paralysed" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "paralysed" when talking about this idea.

---

parched (adjective)

Dried out by heat or excessive exposure to sunlight.

- Parched soil.
- Parched corn was a staple of the Indian diet.

---

parsley haw (noun)

Southern United States hawthorn with pinnately lobed leaves.

- He looked up "parsley haw" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "parsley haw."

---

passageway (noun)

A path or channel or duct through or along which something may pass.

- The article explained what "passageway" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "passageway."

---

pasty (noun)

(usually used in the plural) one of a pair of adhesive patches worn to cover the nipples of exotic dancers and striptease performers.

- The article explained what "pasty" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pasty" to mean (usually used in the plural) one of a pair of....

---

pate (noun)

Liver or meat or fowl finely minced or ground and variously seasoned.

- In class, the teacher used "pate" to mean liver or meat or fowl finely minced or ground and....
- The article explained what "pate" means with a simple example.

---

patently (adverb)

Unmistakably ('plain' is often used informally for 'plainly').

- It is all patently nonsense.

- The narrator describes the scene "patently" in the final chapter.

---

paul joseph goebbels (noun)

German propaganda minister in Nazi Germany who persecuted the Jews (1897-1945).

- Understanding "paul joseph goebbels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "paul joseph goebbels" during the group presentation.

---

pecking (verb)

Bother persistently with trivial complaints.

- He did not know how to use "pecking" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "pecking" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

pecking order (noun)

The organization of people at different ranks in an administrative body.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pecking order."
- They discussed "pecking order" during the group presentation.

---

pectoral arch (noun)

The bony arch formed by the collarbones and shoulder blades in humans.

- Understanding "pectoral arch" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "pectoral arch" because he had never seen it before.

---

pertain (verb)

Be a part or attribute of.

- My remark pertained to your earlier comments.
- He did not know how to use "pertain" until he saw an example.

---

pesto (noun)

A sauce typically served with pasta; contains crushed basil leaves and garlic and pine nuts and Parmesan cheese in olive oil.

- The article explained what "pesto" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pesto" during the group presentation.

---

petite bourgeoisie (noun)

Lower middle class (shopkeepers and clerical staff etc.).

- He looked up "petite bourgeoisie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "petite bourgeoisie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pituitary dwarf (noun)

A dwarf whose condition is caused by a deficiency of growth hormones, rather than by genetic factors (as in the case of the achondroplastic dwarf).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pituitary dwarf."
- The article explained what "pituitary dwarf" means with a simple example.

---

pius xii (noun)

Pope who maintained neutrality during World War II and was later criticized for not aiding the Jews who were persecuted by Hitler (1876-1958).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pius xii."
- Understanding "pius xii" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plata river (noun)

An estuary between Argentina and Uruguay.

- He looked up "plata river" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "plata river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plowing (noun)

Tilling the land with a plow.

- He hired someone to do the plowing for him.
- In class, the teacher used "plowing" to mean tilling the land with a plow.

---

polity (noun)

Shrewd or crafty management of public affairs.

- We was innocent of stratagems and polity.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polity."

---

porcupine (noun)

Relatively large rodents with sharp erectile bristles mingled with the fur.

- The article explained what "porcupine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "porcupine" to mean relatively large rodents with sharp erectile....

---

porcupine ball (noun)

Meat patties rolled in rice and simmered in a tomato sauce.

- Understanding "porcupine ball" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "porcupine ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

porcupine fish (noun)

Spines become erect when the body is inflated; worldwide in warm waters.

- They discussed "porcupine fish" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "porcupine fish."

---

portia tree (noun)

Pantropical tree of usually seacoasts sometimes cultivated as an ornamental for its rounded heart-shaped leaves and showy yellow and purple flowers; yields valuable pink to dark red close-grained wood and oil from its seeds.

- The article explained what "portia tree" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "portia tree" to mean pantropical tree of usually seacoasts sometimes....

---

prides (noun)

A feeling of self-respect and personal worth.

- They discussed "prides" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "prides" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

primacy (noun)

The state of being first in importance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primacy."
- The article explained what "primacy" means with a simple example.

---

priming coat (noun)

The first or preliminary coat of paint or size applied to a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "priming coat."
- He looked up "priming coat" because he had never seen it before.

---

prioritized (verb)

Assign a priority to.

- He did not know how to use "prioritized" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "prioritized" when talking about this idea.

---

prioritizing (verb)

Assign a priority to.

- She tried to use "prioritizing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "prioritizing" until he saw an example.

---

probed (verb)

Examine physically with or as if with a probe.

- Learners should practice how to use "probed" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "probed" when talking about this idea.

---

propellant explosive (noun)

An explosive that is used to propel projectiles from guns or to propel rockets and missiles or to launch torpedos and depth charges.

- In class, the teacher used "propellant explosive" to mean an explosive that is used to propel projectiles....
- He looked up "propellant explosive" because he had never seen it before.

---

pump-type pliers (noun)

A type of pliers.

- In class, the teacher used "pump-type pliers" to mean a type of pliers.
- He looked up "pump-type pliers" because he had never seen it before.

---

punch pliers (noun)

Punch consisting of pliers for perforating paper or leather.

- They discussed "punch pliers" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "punch pliers."

---

putty knife (noun)

A spatula used to mix or apply putty.

- They discussed "putty knife" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "putty knife."

---

qatari monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Qatar.

- They discussed "qatari monetary unit" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "qatari monetary unit" to mean monetary unit in qatar.

---

radiological (adjective)

Of or relating to radiology.

- Students compared "radiological" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "radiological."

---

rafts (noun)

A large number or amount.

- He looked up "rafts" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "rafts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reagent (noun)

A chemical agent for use in chemical reactions.

- He looked up "reagent" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "reagent" to mean a chemical agent for use in chemical reactions.

---

reckons (verb)

Expect, believe, or suppose.

- Can you use "reckons" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "reckons" when talking about this idea.

---

recombinant human insulin (noun)

A form of insulin (trade name Humulin) made from recombinant DNA that is identical to human insulin; used to treat diabetics who are allergic to preparations made from beef or pork insulin.

- The article explained what "recombinant human insulin" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recombinant human insulin" to mean a form of insulin (trade name humulin) made from....

---

rectory (noun)

An official residence provided by a church for its parson or vicar or rector.

- Understanding "rectory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rectory."

---

referendums (noun)

A legislative act is referred for final approval to a popular vote by the electorate.

- Understanding "referendums" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "referendums" because he had never seen it before.

refractive (adjective)

Of or relating to or capable of refraction.

- The refractive characteristics of the eye.
- A "refractive" approach may work better in this case.

refractory (adjective)

Stubbornly resistant to authority or control.

- A refractory child.
- A refractory case of acne.

refractory period (noun)

(neurology) the time after a neuron fires or a muscle fiber contracts during which a stimulus will not evoke a response.

- In class, the teacher used "refractory period" to mean (neurology) the time after a neuron fires or a....
- The article explained what "refractory period" means with a simple example.

regrettably (adverb)

By bad luck.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "regrettably" naturally.
- The narrator describes the scene "regrettably" in the final chapter.

reintroduced (verb)

Introduce anew.

- The coach explained when to use "reintroduced" and when to wait.
- Can you use "reintroduced" in a sentence that fits this situation?

reorganisation (noun)

The imposition of a new organization; organizing differently (often involving extensive and drastic changes).

- The article explained what "reorganisation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "reorganisation" to mean the imposition of a new organization; organizing....

reprieve (noun)

A (temporary) relief from harm or discomfort.

- Understanding "reprieve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reprieve."

resurfaced (verb)

Reappear on the surface.

- The missing man suddenly resurfaced in New York.
- The coach explained when to use "resurfaced" and when to wait.

retraction (noun)

The act of pulling or holding or drawing a part back.

- The retraction of the landing gear.
- Retraction of the foreskin.

ribbed vault (noun)

Vault that resembles a groined vault but has ribbed arches.

- He looked up "ribbed vault" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ribbed vault" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

riser (noun)

A person who rises (especially from bed).

- He's usually a late riser.
- The article explained what "riser" means with a simple example.

riser main (noun)

A vertical pipe in a building.

- In class, the teacher used "riser main" to mean a vertical pipe in a building.
- He looked up "riser main" because he had never seen it before.

---

rna polymerase (noun)

The enzyme that copies DNA into RNA.

- Understanding "rna polymerase" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rna polymerase" during the group presentation.

---

ruckus (noun)

The act of making a noisy disturbance.

- The article explained what "ruckus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "ruckus" to mean the act of making a noisy disturbance.

---

rutledge (noun)

United States jurist and second chief justice of the United States Supreme Court; he was appointed by George Washington and briefly served as chief justice but was ultimately rejected by the United States Senate (1739-1800).

- Understanding "rutledge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rutledge" to mean united states jurist and second chief justice of....

---

saginaw (noun)

A town in east central Michigan on an arm of Lake Huron.

- Understanding "saginaw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saginaw."

---

saint anthony's fire (noun)

Any of several inflammatory or gangrenous skin conditions.

- Understanding "saint anthony's fire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "saint anthony's fire" during the group presentation.

---

salami (noun)

Highly seasoned fatty sausage of pork and beef usually dried.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salami."
- Understanding "salami" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sandwiched (verb)

Insert or squeeze tightly between two people or objects.

- She was sandwiched in her airplane seat between two fat men.
- Learners should practice how to use "sandwiched" in real sentences.

---

schizophrenic psychosis (noun)

Any of several psychotic disorders characterized by distortions of reality and disturbances of thought and language and withdrawal from social contact.

- In class, the teacher used "schizophrenic psychosis" to mean any of several psychotic disorders characterized by....
- Understanding "schizophrenic psychosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scissor grip (noun)

A wrestling hold in which you wrap your legs around the opponents body or head and put your feet together and squeeze.

- He looked up "scissor grip" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scissor grip."

---

scopes (noun)

Tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state law by teaching evolution; in a highly publicized trial in 1925 he was prosecuted by William Jennings Bryan and defended by Clarence Darrow (1900-1970).

- They discussed "scopes" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "scopes" to mean tennessee highschool teacher who violated a state....

---

screech (noun)

A high-pitched noise resembling a human cry.

- He ducked at the screechings of shells.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "screech."

---

scripps (noun)

United States newspaper publisher and half-brother of Edward Wyllis Scripps (1835-1908).

- He looked up "scripps" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "scripps" to mean united states newspaper publisher and half-brother....

---

sculpting (verb)

Create by shaping stone or wood or any other hard material.

- She is sculpting the block of marble into an image of her husband.
- Can you use "sculpting" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

seared (adjective)

Having the surface burned quickly with intense heat.

- The seared meat is then covered with hot liquid for braising.
- Students compared "seared" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

self-conceited (adjective)

Characteristic of false pride; having an exaggerated sense of self-importance.

- An attitude of self-conceited arrogance.
- The speaker chose "self-conceited" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

self-opinionated (adjective)

Obstinate in your opinions.

- A "self-opinionated" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "self-opinionated."

---

sergeants (noun)

An English barrister of the highest rank.

- In class, the teacher used "sergeants" to mean an english barrister of the highest rank.
- He looked up "sergeants" because he had never seen it before.

---

seychelles monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Seychelles.

- He looked up "seychelles monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "seychelles monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shakespearean (adjective)

Of or relating to William Shakespeare or his works.

- Shakespearean plays.
- The speaker chose "shakespearean" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

shaven (adjective)

Having the beard or hair cut off close to the skin.

- The speaker chose "shaven" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "shaven" approach may work better in this case.

---

shopkeeper (noun)

A merchant who owns or manages a shop.

- He looked up "shopkeeper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shopkeeper."

---

shortness (noun)

The condition of being short of something.

- There was no shortness of money.
- Can cause shortness of breath.

shrill (adjective)

Of colors that are bright and gaudy.

- A shrill turquoise.
- A shrill whistle.

signalled (verb)

Communicate silently and non-verbally by signals or signs.

- He did not know how to use "signalled" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "signalled" carefully so everyone would understand.

silvery-bodied (adjective)

Having a silver-colored body.

- Would you call this situation "silvery-bodied"? Explain why.
- A "silvery-bodied" approach may work better in this case.

sir robert walpole (noun)

Englishman and Whig statesman who (under George I) was effectively the first British prime minister (1676-1745).

- Understanding "sir robert walpole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "sir robert walpole" means with a simple example.

skits (noun)

A short theatrical episode.

- In class, the teacher used "skits" to mean a short theatrical episode.
- They discussed "skits" during the group presentation.

skyrocketed (verb)

Shoot up abruptly, like a rocket.

- Prices skyrocketed.
- The coach explained when to use "skyrocketed" and when to wait.

slanted (adjective)

Favoring one person or side over another.

- The speaker chose "slanted" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "slanted."

slip-joint pliers (noun)

Pliers with a joint adjustable to two positions in order to increase the opening of the jaws.

- He looked up "slip-joint pliers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slip-joint pliers."

slipper orchid (noun)

Any of several chiefly American wildflowers having an inflated pouchlike lip; difficult or impossible to cultivate in the garden.

- He looked up "slipper orchid" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "slipper orchid" to mean any of several chiefly american wildflowers having....

slits (noun)

A depression scratched or carved into a surface.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "slits."
- They discussed "slits" during the group presentation.

snowed (verb)

Conceal one's true motives from especially by elaborately feigning good intentions so as to gain an end.

- She tried to use "snowed" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "snowed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sonnets (noun)

A verse form consisting of 14 lines with a fixed rhyme scheme.

- He looked up "sonnets" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sonnets."

---

soulless (adjective)

Lacking sensitivity or the capacity for deep feeling.

- Would you call this situation "soulless"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "soulless" when it is lacking sensitivity or the capacity for deep feeling.

---

spherical polygon (noun)

A figure on the surface of a sphere bounded by arcs of 3 or more great circles.

- They discussed "spherical polygon" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "spherical polygon" to mean a figure on the surface of a sphere bounded by arcs....

---

sphinx moth (noun)

Any of various moths with long narrow forewings capable of powerful flight and hovering over flowers to feed.

- He looked up "sphinx moth" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sphinx moth."

---

spinal anaesthetic (noun)

An anesthetic that is injected into the spine.

- He looked up "spinal anaesthetic" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spinal anaesthetic."

---

splitter (noun)

A worker who splits fish and removes the backbone.

- They discussed "splitter" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "splitter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spook (noun)

A mental representation of some haunting experience.

- He looked up "spook" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "spook" during the group presentation.

---

stagecoach (noun)

A large coach-and-four formerly used to carry passengers and mail on regular routes between towns.

- He looked up "stagecoach" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stagecoach" to mean a large coach-and-four formerly used to carry....

---

statesmen (noun)

A man who is a respected leader in national or international affairs.

- Understanding "statesmen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "statesmen" to mean a man who is a respected leader in national or....

---

stork (noun)

Large mostly Old World wading birds typically having white-and-black plumage.

- They discussed "stork" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stork" to mean large mostly old world wading birds typically....

---

strode (verb)

Cover or traverse by taking long steps.

- She strode several miles towards the woods.
- He strode confidently across the hall.

---

strong-boned (adjective)

Having strong bones.

- Students compared "strong-boned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

- Would you call this situation "strong-boned"? Explain why.

---

strongman (noun)

A powerful political figure who rules by the exercise of force or violence.

- He is determined to bring down the Iraqi strongman.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "strongman."

---

subjecting (verb)

Cause to experience or suffer or make liable or vulnerable to.

- She tried to use "subjecting" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "subjecting" in real sentences.

---

subordinated (verb)

Make subordinate, dependent, or subservient.

- Our wishes have to be subordinated to that of our ruler.
- Art is sometimes subordinated to Science in these schools.

---

subpoenas (noun)

A writ issued by court authority to compel the attendance of a witness at a judicial proceeding; disobedience may be punishable as a contempt of court.

- He looked up "subpoenas" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "subpoenas" during the group presentation.

---

subside (verb)

Sink to a lower level or form a depression.

- The valleys subside.
- The pain subsided.

---

subways (noun)

An electric railway operating below the surface of the ground (usually in a city).

- Understanding "subways" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "subways" during the group presentation.

---

swoon (noun)

A spontaneous loss of consciousness caused by insufficient blood to the brain.

- Understanding "swoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "swoon."

---

syringes (noun)

A primitive wind instrument consisting of several parallel pipes bound together.

- Understanding "syringes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "syringes" because he had never seen it before.

---

tactically (adverb)

With regard to tactics.

- The tactically useful province is still firmly in the rebels' hands.
- Place "tactically" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

tall oat grass (noun)

Coarse perennial Eurasian grass resembling oat; found on roadside verges and rough grassland and in hay meadows; introduced in North America for forage.

- They discussed "tall oat grass" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tall oat grass" because he had never seen it before.

---

tallied (verb)

Be compatible, similar or consistent; coincide in their characteristics.

- In everyday English, people use "tallied" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "tallied" until he saw an example.

---

tartar (noun)

A fiercely vigilant and unpleasant woman.

- In class, the teacher used "tartar" to mean a fiercely vigilant and unpleasant woman.
- The article explained what "tartar" means with a simple example.

---

tax assessor (noun)

An official who evaluates property for the purpose of taxing it.

- In class, the teacher used "tax assessor" to mean an official who evaluates property for the purpose....
- They discussed "tax assessor" during the group presentation.

---

telepathy (noun)

Apparent communication from one mind to another without using sensory perceptions.

- He looked up "telepathy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "telepathy" during the group presentation.

---

thane (noun)

A man ranking above an ordinary freeman and below a noble in Anglo-Saxon England (especially one who gave military service in exchange for land).

- In class, the teacher used "thane" to mean a man ranking above an ordinary freeman and below a....
- They discussed "thane" during the group presentation.

---

theory of punctuated equilibrium (noun)

A theory of evolution holding that evolutionary change in the fossil record came in fits and starts rather than in a steady process of slow change.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theory of punctuated equilibrium."
- He looked up "theory of punctuated equilibrium" because he had never seen it before.

---

thesaurus (noun)

A book containing a classified list of synonyms.

- In class, the teacher used "thesaurus" to mean a book containing a classified list of synonyms.
- The article explained what "thesaurus" means with a simple example.

---

thorax (noun)

The middle region of the body of an arthropod between the head and the abdomen.

- Understanding "thorax" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "thorax" during the group presentation.

---

thrusters (noun)

A small rocket engine that provides the thrust needed to maneuver a spacecraft.

- He looked up "thrusters" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "thrusters" to mean a small rocket engine that provides the thrust....

---

timings (noun)

The regulation of occurrence, pace, or coordination to achieve a desired effect (as in music, theater, athletics, mechanics).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "timings."
- He looked up "timings" because he had never seen it before.

---

tithe (noun)

An offering of a tenth part of some personal income.

- Understanding "tithe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "tithe" during the group presentation.

---

toffee apple (noun)

An apple that is covered with a candy-like substance (usually caramelized sugar).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toffee apple."
- He looked up "toffee apple" because he had never seen it before.

---

trolled (verb)

Praise or celebrate in song.

- The child trolled her hoop.
- She tried to use "trolled" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

tucking (verb)

Make a tuck or several folds in.

- Can you use "tucking" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "tucking" when talking about this idea.

---

tugging (verb)

Strive and make an effort to reach a goal.

- Can you use "tugging" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "tugging" when talking about this idea.

---

tumor necrosis factor (noun)

A proinflammatory cytokine that is produced by white blood cells (monocytes and macrophages); has an antineoplastic effect but causes inflammation (as in rheumatoid arthritis).

- He looked up "tumor necrosis factor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tumor necrosis factor."

---

ugandan shilling (noun)

The basic unit of money in Uganda; equal to 100 cents.

- He looked up "ugandan shilling" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "ugandan shilling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

unattainable (adjective)

Impossible to achieve.

- An unattainable goal.
- It is useful to describe something as "unattainable" when it is impossible to achieve.

---

underpinning (verb)

Support with evidence or authority or make more certain or confirm.

- Can you use "underpinning" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "underpinning" when talking about this idea.

---

unexplored (adjective)

Not yet discovered.

- Would you call this situation "unexplored"? Explain why.
- Students compared "unexplored" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unsold (adjective)

Not disposed of by purchase.

- The house has been on the market almost a year and is still unsold.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unsold."

---

unsubstantiated (adjective)

Unsupported by other evidence.

- Students compared "unsubstantiated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unsubstantiated."

---

uptight (adjective)

Being in a tense state.

- A "uptight" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "uptight" when it is being in a tense state.

---

veda (noun)

(from the Sanskrit word for 'knowledge') any of the most ancient sacred writings of Hinduism written in early Sanskrit; traditionally believed to comprise the Samhitas, the Brahmanas, the Aranyakas, and the Upanishads.

- Understanding "veda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "veda."

vincent's infection (noun)

An acute communicable infection of the respiratory tract and mouth marked by ulceration of the mucous membrane.

- Understanding "vincent's infection" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "vincent's infection" because he had never seen it before.

virulent (adjective)

Extremely poisonous or injurious; producing venom.

- A virulent insect bite.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "virulent."

visual hallucination (noun)

Illusory visual perception.

- The article explained what "visual hallucination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "visual hallucination" to mean illusory visual perception.

vomited (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- After drinking too much, the students vomited.
- The coach explained when to use "vomited" and when to wait.

wasserman reaction (noun)

A blood test to detect syphilis; a complement fixation test is used to detect antibodies to the syphilis organism treponema; a positive reaction indicates the presence of antibodies and therefore syphilis infection.

- Understanding "wasserman reaction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "wasserman reaction" during the group presentation.

waterfowl (noun)

Freshwater aquatic bird.

- The article explained what "waterfowl" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "waterfowl."

well-shaven (adjective)

Closely shaved recently.

- Students compared "well-shaven" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "well-shaven" approach may work better in this case.

western narrow-mouthed toad (noun)

Small secretive toad with smooth tough skin of central and western North America.

- Understanding "western narrow-mouthed toad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "western narrow-mouthed toad" during the group presentation.

whisk fern (noun)

Chiefly tropical clump-forming plants of skeletal appearance resembling whisk brooms; lacking roots.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whisk fern."
- They discussed "whisk fern" during the group presentation.

white stork (noun)

The common stork of Europe; white with black wing feathers and a red bill.

- In class, the teacher used "white stork" to mean the common stork of europe; white with black wing....
- Understanding "white stork" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

wild oat grass (noun)

Common in meadows and pastures.

- Understanding "wild oat grass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wild oat grass" because he had never seen it before.

windmills (noun)

A mill that is powered by the wind.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "windmills."
- They discussed "windmills" during the group presentation.

---

womanhood (noun)

The state of being an adult woman.

- It's an insult to American womanhood.
- In class, the teacher used "womanhood" to mean the state of being an adult woman.

---

woolly bear caterpillar (noun)

Caterpillar of numerous moths characterized by a dense coat of woolly hairs; feed on plants and some are destructive pests.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woolly bear caterpillar."
- He looked up "woolly bear caterpillar" because he had never seen it before.

---

woolly sunflower (noun)

Any plant of the genus Eriophyllum.

- The article explained what "woolly sunflower" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woolly sunflower."

---

worrisome (adjective)

Not reassuring; tending to cause anxiety.

- The speaker chose "worrisome" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "worrisome" when it is not reassuring; tending to cause anxiety.

---

wort (noun)

Usually used in combination: 'liverwort'; 'milkwort'; 'whorlywort'.

- He looked up "wort" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wort."

---

wreaths (noun)

Flower arrangement consisting of a circular band of foliage or flowers for ornamental purposes.

- He looked up "wreaths" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "wreaths" during the group presentation.

---

wy (noun)

A state in the western United States; mountainous in the west and north with the Great Plains in the east.

- In class, the teacher used "wy" to mean a state in the western united states; mountainous....
- Understanding "wy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

xix (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of eighteen and one.

- The article explained what "xix" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "xix" during the group presentation.

---

yellow lady's slipper (noun)

Maroon to purple-brown orchid with yellow lip; Europe, North America and Japan.

- The article explained what "yellow lady's slipper" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "yellow lady's slipper" to mean maroon to purple-brown orchid with yellow lip;....

---

yuma (noun)

A town in southwestern Arizona on the Colorado River and the California border.

- In class, the teacher used "yuma" to mean a town in southwestern arizona on the colorado....
- The article explained what "yuma" means with a simple example.

---

zealanders (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Zealand.

- The article explained what "zealanders" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "zealanders" during the group presentation.

---

abnormality (noun)

An abnormal physical condition resulting from defective genes or developmental deficiencies.

- He looked up "abnormality" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "abnormality" during the group presentation.

---

acme (noun)

The highest level or degree attainable; the highest stage of development.

- His landscapes were deemed the acme of beauty.
- The artist's gifts are at their acme.

---

addendum (noun)

Textual matter that is added onto a publication; usually at the end.

- In class, the teacher used "addendum" to mean textual matter that is added onto a publication;....
- The article explained what "addendum" means with a simple example.

---

adhesives (noun)

A substance that unites or bonds surfaces together.

- Understanding "adhesives" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adhesives."

---

adrenal cortex (noun)

The cortex of the adrenal gland; secretes corticosterone and sex hormones.

- He looked up "adrenal cortex" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "adrenal cortex."

---

adsorption (noun)

The accumulation of molecules of a gas to form a thin film on the surface of a solid.

- They discussed "adsorption" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "adsorption" because he had never seen it before.

---

affront (noun)

A deliberately offensive act or something producing the effect of deliberate disrespect.

- Understanding "affront" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "affront" during the group presentation.

---

afoot (adjective)

Currently in progress.

- There is mischief afoot.
- Plans are afoot.

---

alkali poisoning (noun)

Poisoning resulting from the ingestion of an alkali compound (as lye or ammonia).

- He looked up "alkali poisoning" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alkali poisoning" during the group presentation.

---

alludes (verb)

Make a more or less disguised reference to.

- She tried to use "alludes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "alludes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

alms (noun)

Money or goods contributed to the poor.

- The article explained what "alms" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "alms" to mean money or goods contributed to the poor.

alms box (noun)

Box for collecting alms, especially one in a church.

- He looked up "alms box" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alms box."

alms-giving (noun)

Making voluntary contributions to aid the poor.

- Understanding "alms-giving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "alms-giving" means with a simple example.

altars (noun)

The table in Christian churches where communion is given.

- They discussed "altars" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "altars" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

alternates (verb)

Be an understudy or alternate for a role.

- Can you use "alternates" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "alternates" and when to wait.

amenable (adjective)

Open to being acted upon in a certain way.

- An amenable hospitalization should not result in untimely death.
- The tumor was not amenable to surgical treatment.

amity (noun)

A state of friendship and cordiality.

- Understanding "amity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "amity" means with a simple example.

andre weil (noun)

United States mathematician (born in France) (1906-1998).

- The article explained what "andre weil" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "andre weil."

annotation (noun)

A comment or instruction (usually added).

- The article explained what "annotation" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "annotation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

antibacterial (noun)

Any drug that destroys bacteria or inhibits their growth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antibacterial."
- He looked up "antibacterial" because he had never seen it before.

antibacterial drug (noun)

Any drug that destroys bacteria or inhibits their growth.

- They discussed "antibacterial drug" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antibacterial drug."

apprenticeships (noun)

The position of apprentice.

- He looked up "apprenticeships" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "apprenticeships."

argumentative (adjective)

Given to or characterized by argument.

- An argumentative discourse.
- Argumentative to the point of being cantankerous.

---

assailants (noun)

Someone who attacks.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assailants."
- He looked up "assailants" because he had never seen it before.

---

asymptomatic (adjective)

Having no symptoms of illness or disease.

- A "asymptomatic" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "asymptomatic"? Explain why.

---

atmospheres (noun)

A particular environment or surrounding influence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "atmospheres."
- He looked up "atmospheres" because he had never seen it before.

---

attila (noun)

King of the Huns; the most successful barbarian invader of the Roman Empire (406-453).

- The article explained what "attila" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "attila" to mean king of the huns; the most successful barbarian....

---

authorizes (verb)

Grant authorization or clearance for.

- The coach explained when to use "authorizes" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "authorizes" in real sentences.

---

baa-lamb (noun)

Child's word for a sheep or lamb.

- They discussed "baa-lamb" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baa-lamb."

---

baccalaureate (noun)

A farewell sermon to a graduating class at their commencement ceremonies.

- The article explained what "baccalaureate" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "baccalaureate" to mean a farewell sermon to a graduating class at their....

---

battle of the somme (noun)

Battle in World War I (1916).

- They discussed "battle of the somme" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "battle of the somme" because he had never seen it before.

---

bearable (adjective)

Capable of being borne though unpleasant.

- Students compared "bearable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "bearable"? Explain why.

---

beehive (noun)

A man-made receptacle that houses a swarm of bees.

- Understanding "beehive" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "beehive" means with a simple example.

---

beehive state (noun)

A state in the western United States; settled in 1847 by Mormons led by Brigham Young.

- The article explained what "beehive state" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "beehive state" during the group presentation.

---

beggar lice (noun)

Eurasian and North American plants having small prickly nutlets that stick to clothing.

- They discussed "beggar lice" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "beggar lice" because he had never seen it before.

---

bell magpie (noun)

Bluish black fruit-eating bird with a bell-like call.

- In class, the teacher used "bell magpie" to mean bluish black fruit-eating bird with a bell-like call.
- The article explained what "bell magpie" means with a simple example.

---

beltway (noun)

A highway that encircles an urban area so that traffic does not have to pass through the center.

- He looked up "beltway" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "beltway."

---

bering (noun)

Danish explorer who explored the northern Pacific Ocean for the Russians and discovered the Bering Strait (1681-1741).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bering."
- Understanding "bering" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bering sea (noun)

Part of the North Pacific between Alaska and Siberia; connected to the Arctic Ocean by the Bering Strait.

- He looked up "bering sea" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bering sea" during the group presentation.

---

bering standard time (noun)

Standard time in the 11th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 165th meridian west; used in the Midway Islands.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bering standard time."
- He looked up "bering standard time" because he had never seen it before.

---

bering time (noun)

Standard time in the 11th time zone west of Greenwich, reckoned at the 165th meridian west; used in the Midway Islands.

- Understanding "bering time" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bering time" because he had never seen it before.

---

big-toothed aspen (noun)

Aspen with a narrow crown; eastern North America.

- The article explained what "big-toothed aspen" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "big-toothed aspen."

---

biosphere (noun)

The regions of the surface and atmosphere of the Earth (or other planet) where living organisms exist.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "biosphere."
- Understanding "biosphere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black mangrove (noun)

An Australian tree resembling the black mangrove of the West Indies and Florida.

- In class, the teacher used "black mangrove" to mean an australian tree resembling the black mangrove of....
- The article explained what "black mangrove" means with a simple example.

---

blasting gelatin (noun)

Mixture of guncotton with nitroglycerin.

- He looked up "blasting gelatin" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blasting gelatin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bleu cheese dressing (noun)

Creamy dressing containing crumbled blue cheese.

- He looked up "bleu cheese dressing" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bleu cheese dressing" to mean creamy dressing containing crumbled blue cheese.

blister beetle (noun)

Beetle that produces a secretion that blisters the skin.

- He looked up "blister beetle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blister beetle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

bloch (noun)

United States composer (born in Switzerland) who composed symphonies and chamber music and choral music and a piano sonata and an opera (1880-1959).

- He looked up "bloch" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bloch."

bodybuilder (noun)

Someone who does special exercises to develop a brawny musculature.

- The article explained what "bodybuilder" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "bodybuilder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

boolean algebra (noun)

A system of symbolic logic devised by George Boole; used in computers.

- He looked up "boolean algebra" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "boolean algebra" during the group presentation.

boron counter tube (noun)

A proportional counter tube for counting neutrons.

- Understanding "boron counter tube" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "boron counter tube" means with a simple example.

botanist (noun)

A biologist specializing in the study of plants.

- He looked up "botanist" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "botanist."

bottomed (adjective)

Having a bottom of a specified character.

- Students compared "bottomed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "bottomed" when it is having a bottom of a specified character.

boutiques (noun)

A shop that sells women's clothes and jewelry.

- The article explained what "boutiques" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "boutiques" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

breech presentation (noun)

Delivery of an infant whose feet or buttocks appear first.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breech presentation."
- The article explained what "breech presentation" means with a simple example.

brittle bladder fern (noun)

Delicate fern widely distributed in North America and European having thin pinnatifid fronds with brittle stems.

- They discussed "brittle bladder fern" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "brittle bladder fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

brownsville (noun)

A city in southern Texas on the Rio Grande near its mouth into the Gulf of Mexico; has a channel that accommodates oceangoing ships.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brownsville."
- The article explained what "brownsville" means with a simple example.

---

buena vista (noun)

A pitched battle in the Mexican War in 1847; United States forces under Zachary Taylor defeated the Mexican forces under Santa Anna at a locality in northern Mexico.

- Understanding "buena vista" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buena vista."

---

buyer's market (noun)

A market in which more people want to sell than want to buy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "buyer's market."
- Understanding "buyer's market" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

caches (noun)

A hidden storage space (for money or provisions or weapons).

- The article explained what "caches" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "caches" during the group presentation.

---

calmness (noun)

A feeling of calm; an absence of agitation or excitement.

- Understanding "calmness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "calmness" because he had never seen it before.

---

canny (adjective)

Showing self-interest and shrewdness in dealing with others.

- The speaker chose "canny" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "canny."

---

cape primrose (noun)

Any of various African plants of the genus Streptocarpus widely cultivated especially as houseplants for their showy blue or purple flowers.

- Understanding "cape primrose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cape primrose" during the group presentation.

---

cartons (noun)

A box made of cardboard; opens by flaps on top.

- In class, the teacher used "cartons" to mean a box made of cardboard; opens by flaps on top.
- He looked up "cartons" because he had never seen it before.

---

cassettes (noun)

A container that holds a magnetic tape used for recording or playing sound or video.

- The article explained what "cassettes" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cassettes" during the group presentation.

---

castile (noun)

A region of central Spain; a former kingdom that comprised most of modern Spain and united with Aragon to form Spain in 1479.

- The article explained what "castile" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "castile" to mean a region of central spain; a former kingdom that....

---

caustic remark (noun)

Witty language used to convey insults or scorn; ; ; –Jonathan Swift.

- In class, the teacher used "caustic remark" to mean witty language used to convey insults or scorn; ; ;....
- He looked up "caustic remark" because he had never seen it before.

---

caveman (noun)

Someone who lives in a cave.

- They discussed "caveman" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "caveman" because he had never seen it before.

centimeter (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one hundredth of a meter.

- He looked up "centimeter" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "centimeter" to mean a metric unit of length equal to one hundredth of a....

chairwoman (noun)

The officer who presides at the meetings of an organization.

- The article explained what "chairwoman" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chairwoman" during the group presentation.

characterisation (noun)

The act of describing distinctive characteristics or essential features.

- Understanding "characterisation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "characterisation" to mean the act of describing distinctive characteristics....

checkered (adjective)

Marked by changeable fortune.

- A checkered business career.
- Would you call this situation "checkered"? Explain why.

cheekbones (noun)

The arch of bone beneath the eye that forms the prominence of the cheek.

- The article explained what "cheekbones" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cheekbones."

chinook wind (noun)

A warm dry wind blowing down the eastern slopes of the Rockies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinook wind."
- He looked up "chinook wind" because he had never seen it before.

chute-the-chute (noun)

Elevated railway in an amusement park (usually with sharp curves and steep inclines).

- The article explained what "chute-the-chute" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chute-the-chute" during the group presentation.

cilantro (noun)

Parsley-like herb used as seasoning or garnish.

- Understanding "cilantro" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cilantro" to mean parsley-like herb used as seasoning or garnish.

circumcised (verb)

Cut the foreskin off male babies or teenage boys.

- During the bris, the baby boy is circumcised.
- He did not know how to use "circumcised" until he saw an example.

civics (noun)

The social science of municipal affairs.

- They discussed "civics" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "civics" because he had never seen it before.

clamped (verb)

Fasten or fix with a clamp.

- The military government clamped a curfew onto the capital.
- Learners should practice how to use "clamped" in real sentences.

clapper valve (noun)

A simple valve with a hinge on one side; allows fluid to flow in only one direction.

- The article explained what "clapper valve" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clapper valve."

---

claps (verb)

Strike together so as to produce a sharp percussive noise.

- In everyday English, people use "claps" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "claps" in real sentences.

---

clementine (noun)

A mandarin orange of a deep reddish orange color and few seeds.

- He looked up "clementine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clementine."

---

clementine tree (noun)

A variety of mandarin orange that is grown around the Mediterranean and in South Africa.

- In class, the teacher used "clementine tree" to mean a variety of mandarin orange that is grown around....
- The article explained what "clementine tree" means with a simple example.

---

climbing bird's nest fern (noun)

Tropical Africa to Australasia and Polynesia.

- The article explained what "climbing bird's nest fern" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "climbing bird's nest fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clipboard (noun)

A small writing board with a clip at the top for holding papers.

- Understanding "clipboard" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "clipboard" because he had never seen it before.

---

co-ordinated (adjective)

Being dexterous in the use of more than one set of muscle movements; - Mary McCarthy.

- The speaker chose "co-ordinated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "co-ordinated" when it is being dexterous in the use of more than one set of....

---

compensatory time (noun)

Time off that is granted to a worker as compensation for working overtime.

- The article explained what "compensatory time" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "compensatory time" to mean time off that is granted to a worker as....

---

concedes (verb)

Give over; surrender or relinquish to the physical control of another.

- She tried to use "concedes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "concedes" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

conceptions (noun)

The event that occurred at the beginning of something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conceptions."
- They discussed "conceptions" during the group presentation.

---

confessor (noun)

A priest who hears confession and gives absolution.

- In class, the teacher used "confessor" to mean a priest who hears confession and gives absolution.
- They discussed "confessor" during the group presentation.

---

connoisseur (noun)

An expert able to appreciate a field; especially in the fine arts.

- Understanding "connoisseur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "connoisseur" means with a simple example.

---

contemplative (noun)

A person devoted to the contemplative life.

- They discussed "contemplative" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "contemplative" to mean a person devoted to the contemplative life.

---

convocation (noun)

A group gathered in response to a summons.

- They discussed "convocation" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "convocation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

corrupting (adjective)

Harmful to the mind or morals.

- Corrupt judges and their corrupting influence.
- The speaker chose "corrupting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

countermeasures (noun)

An action taken to offset another action.

- They discussed "countermeasures" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "countermeasures" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

crosse (noun)

A long racket with a triangular frame; used in playing lacrosse.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crosse."
- He looked up "crosse" because he had never seen it before.

---

cul de sac (noun)

A street with only one way in or out.

- In class, the teacher used "cul de sac" to mean a street with only one way in or out.
- Understanding "cul de sac" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

culpable (adjective)

Deserving blame or censure as being wrong or evil or injurious.

- Culpable negligence.
- It is useful to describe something as "culpable" when it is deserving blame or censure as being wrong or evil....

---

cursive script (noun)

Rapid handwriting in which letters are set down in full and are cursively connected within words without lifting the writing implement from the paper.

- He looked up "cursive script" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "cursive script" to mean rapid handwriting in which letters are set down in....

---

curtain raiser (noun)

A short play presented before the main play.

- Understanding "curtain raiser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "curtain raiser."

---

dag (noun)

A flap along the edge of a garment; used in medieval clothing.

- In class, the teacher used "dag" to mean a flap along the edge of a garment; used in....
- Understanding "dag" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

damsel (noun)

A young unmarried woman.

- In class, the teacher used "damsel" to mean a young unmarried woman.
- Understanding "damsel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

daniel defoe (noun)

English writer remembered particularly for his novel about Robinson Crusoe (1660-1731).

- He looked up "daniel defoe" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "daniel defoe."

day laborer (noun)

A laborer who works by the day; for daily wages.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "day laborer."
- He looked up "day laborer" because he had never seen it before.

daze (verb)

To cause someone to lose clear vision, especially from intense light.

- Learners should practice how to use "daze" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "daze" carefully so everyone would understand.

debugging (verb)

Locate and correct errors in a computer program code.

- The coach explained when to use "debugging" and when to wait.
- Can you use "debugging" in a sentence that fits this situation?

deliciously (adverb)

In a very pleasurable manner.

- They were walking along the beach slowly and deliciously.
- I bought some more of these deliciously sweet peaches.

dickey (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- The article explained what "dickey" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "dickey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

diocesan (noun)

A bishop having jurisdiction over a diocese.

- He looked up "diocesan" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "diocesan."

disorganized schizophrenia (noun)

A form of schizophrenia characterized by severe disintegration of personality including erratic speech and childish mannerisms and bizarre behavior; usually becomes evident during puberty; the most common diagnostic category in mental institutions.

- Understanding "disorganized schizophrenia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "disorganized schizophrenia" because he had never seen it before.

disorganized type schizophrenia (noun)

A form of schizophrenia characterized by severe disintegration of personality including erratic speech and childish mannerisms and bizarre behavior; usually becomes evident during puberty; the most common diagnostic category in mental institutions.

- He looked up "disorganized type schizophrenia" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "disorganized type schizophrenia" during the group presentation.

disputing (verb)

Have a disagreement over something.

- He did not know how to use "disputing" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "disputing" in real sentences.

distorting (verb)

Alter the shape of (something) by stress.

- In everyday English, people use "distorting" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "distorting" until he saw an example.

disused (adjective)

No longer in use.

- The speaker chose "disused" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Would you call this situation "disused"? Explain why.

---

divination (noun)

A prediction uttered under divine inspiration.

- The article explained what "divination" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "divination."

---

doggo (adverb)

Quietly in concealment.

- He lay doggo.
- He answered "doggo," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

dol (noun)

The federal department responsible for promoting the working conditions of wage earners in the United States; created in 1913.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dol."
- They discussed "dol" during the group presentation.

---

dominant allele (noun)

An allele that produces the same phenotype whether its paired allele is identical or different.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dominant allele."
- He looked up "dominant allele" because he had never seen it before.

---

doolittle (noun)

United States Air Force officer who electrified the world in 1942 by leading a squadron of 16 bombers on a daylight raid over Tokyo (1896-1993).

- He looked up "doolittle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "doolittle" during the group presentation.

---

douglas elton fairbanks (noun)

United States film actor noted for his swashbuckling roles (1883-1939).

- Understanding "douglas elton fairbanks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "douglas elton fairbanks."

---

downsizing (noun)

The reduction of expenditures in order to become financially stable.

- Understanding "downsizing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "downsizing" to mean the reduction of expenditures in order to become....

---

dprk (noun)

A communist country in the northern half of the Korean Peninsula; established in 1948.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dprk."
- He looked up "dprk" because he had never seen it before.

---

drunkenness (noun)

The act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.

- In class, the teacher used "drunkenness" to mean the act of drinking alcoholic beverages to excess.
- Understanding "drunkenness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dumas (noun)

French writer remembered for his swashbuckling historical tales (1802-1870).

- He looked up "dumas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dumas."

---

dykes (noun)

A barrier constructed to contain the flow of water or to keep out the sea.

- He looked up "dykes" because he had never seen it before.

- Understanding “dykes” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eastern lowland gorilla (noun)

A kind of gorilla.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “eastern lowland gorilla.”
- The article explained what “eastern lowland gorilla” means with a simple example.

---

ecm (noun)

Electronic warfare undertaken to prevent or reduce an enemy’s effective use of the electromagnetic spectrum.

- The article explained what “ecm” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “ecm” to mean electronic warfare undertaken to prevent or reduce....

---

elmer leopold rice (noun)

United States playwright (1892-1967).

- The article explained what “elmer leopold rice” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “elmer leopold rice.”

---

emigrate (verb)

Leave one’s country of residence for a new one.

- Many people had to emigrate during the Nazi period.
- Learners should practice how to use “emigrate” in real sentences.

---

emulsion (noun)

(chemistry) a colloid in which both phases are liquids.

- An oil-in-water emulsion.
- In class, the teacher used “emulsion” to mean (chemistry) a colloid in which both phases are liquids.

---

endocrine gland (noun)

Any of the glands of the endocrine system that secrete hormones directly into the bloodstream.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “endocrine gland.”
- Understanding “endocrine gland” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ernst werner von siemens (noun)

German electrical engineer (1816-1892).

- In class, the teacher used “ernst werner von siemens” to mean german electrical engineer (1816-1892).
- The article explained what “ernst werner von siemens” means with a simple example.

---

esters (noun)

Formed by reaction between an acid and an alcohol with elimination of water.

- Understanding “esters” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “esters” during the group presentation.

---

euphrates (noun)

A river in southwestern Asia; flows into the Persian Gulf; was important in the development of several great civilizations in ancient Mesopotamia.

- They discussed “euphrates” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “euphrates” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

euphrates river (noun)

A river in southwestern Asia; flows into the Persian Gulf; was important in the development of several great civilizations in ancient Mesopotamia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “euphrates river.”
- Understanding “euphrates river” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evacuating (verb)

Move out of an unsafe location into safety.

- Can you use “evacuating” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “evacuating” and when to wait.

---

exorcism (noun)

Freeing from evil spirits.

- He looked up “exorcism” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “exorcism” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

external carotid (noun)

The branch of the carotid artery that supplies blood to the face and tongue and external parts of the head.

- The article explained what “external carotid” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “external carotid” to mean the branch of the carotid artery that supplies....

fabled (adjective)

Celebrated in fable or legend.

- The fabled Paul Bunyan and his blue ox.
- It is useful to describe something as “fabled” when it is celebrated in fable or legend.

fabricate (verb)

Put together out of artificial or natural components or parts; ; ; He manufactured a popular cereal".

- The company fabricates plastic chairs.
- He did not know how to use “fabricate” until he saw an example.

fairy godmother (noun)

A female character in some fairy stories who has magical powers and can bring unexpected good fortune to the hero or heroine.

- He looked up “fairy godmother” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fairy godmother.”

false oat (noun)

Coarse perennial Eurasian grass resembling oat; found on roadside verges and rough grassland and in hay meadows; introduced in North America for forage.

- The article explained what “false oat” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “false oat” to mean coarse perennial eurasian grass resembling oat;....

fatherhood (noun)

God when considered as the first person in the Trinity.

- He looked up “fatherhood” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “fatherhood.”

femoral (adjective)

Of or relating to or near the femur or thigh.

- Students compared “femoral” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as “femoral” when it is of or relating to or near the femur or thigh.

feuds (noun)

A bitter quarrel between two parties.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “feuds.”
- He looked up “feuds” because he had never seen it before.

fijian (adjective)

Of or relating to Fiji or its people or language or culture.

- The Fijian population.
- Fijian folktales.

filibuster (noun)

A legislator who gives long speeches in an effort to delay or obstruct legislation that he (or she) opposes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “filibuster.”
- Understanding “filibuster” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fillings (noun)

Any material that fills a space or container.

- When he yawned I could see the gold fillings in his teeth.
- He looked up "fillings" because he had never seen it before.

---

fillmore (noun)

Elected vice president and became the 13th President of the United States when Zachary Taylor died in office (1800-1874).

- In class, the teacher used "fillmore" to mean elected vice president and became the 13th....
- They discussed "fillmore" during the group presentation.

---

finalize (verb)

Make final; put the last touches on; put into final form.

- Let's finalize the proposal.
- The coach explained when to use "finalize" and when to wait.

---

financiers (noun)

A person skilled in large scale financial transactions.

- Understanding "financiers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "financiers" means with a simple example.

---

flicking (verb)

Look through a book or other written material.

- He did not know how to use "flicking" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "flicking" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

flourishes (noun)

A display of ornamental speech or language.

- In class, the teacher used "flourishes" to mean a display of ornamental speech or language.
- He looked up "flourishes" because he had never seen it before.

---

fluctuation (noun)

The quality of being unsteady and subject to changes.

- He kept a record of price fluctuations.
- The fluctuations of the sea.

---

fool's parsley (noun)

European weed naturalized in America that resembles parsley but causes nausea and poisoning when eaten.

- In class, the teacher used "fool's parsley" to mean european weed naturalized in america that resembles....
- The article explained what "fool's parsley" means with a simple example.

---

frances hodgson burnett (noun)

United States writer (born in England) remembered for her novels for children (1849-1924).

- In class, the teacher used "frances hodgson burnett" to mean united states writer (born in england) remembered....
- They discussed "frances hodgson burnett" during the group presentation.

---

frank breech delivery (noun)

Position of a fetus in which the buttocks are present at the maternal pelvic outlet.

- The article explained what "frank breech delivery" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "frank breech delivery" to mean position of a fetus in which the buttocks are....

---

fraudulently (adverb)

In a dishonest and fraudulent manner.

- This money was fraudulently obtained.
- Using "fraudulently" can make your explanation more exact.

---

frontal suture (noun)

The suture between two halves of the frontal bone (usually obliterated by the age of 6).

- In class, the teacher used "frontal suture" to mean the suture between two halves of the frontal bone....
- Understanding "frontal suture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fumbles (verb)

Drop or juggle or fail to play cleanly a grounder.

- Learners should practice how to use "fumbles" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "fumbles" carefully so everyone would understand.

gander (noun)

Mature male goose.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gander."
- He looked up "gander" because he had never seen it before.

garter stitch (noun)

A knitting stitch that results in a pattern of horizontal ridges formed by knitting both sides (instead of purling one side).

- In class, the teacher used "garter stitch" to mean a knitting stitch that results in a pattern of....
- He looked up "garter stitch" because he had never seen it before.

gauze (noun)

A net of transparent fabric with a loose open weave.

- In class, the teacher used "gauze" to mean a net of transparent fabric with a loose open weave.
- Understanding "gauze" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gauze-like (adjective)

So thin as to transmit light.

- Students compared "gauze-like" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "gauze-like" approach may work better in this case.

geometrical (adjective)

Of or relating to or determined by geometry.

- It is useful to describe something as "geometrical" when it is of or relating to or determined by geometry.
- The speaker chose "geometrical" because it captured the feeling precisely.

ghoul (noun)

Someone who takes bodies from graves and sells them for anatomical dissection.

- The article explained what "ghoul" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "ghoul" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

giggled (verb)

Laugh nervously.

- The girls giggled when the rock star came into the classroom.
- In everyday English, people use "giggled" when talking about this idea.

gilded flicker (noun)

Southwestern United States bird like the yellow-shafted flicker but lacking the red neck.

- They discussed "gilded flicker" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "gilded flicker" means with a simple example.

gimmicks (noun)

A drawback or difficulty that is not readily evident.

- In class, the teacher used "gimmicks" to mean a drawback or difficulty that is not readily evident.
- He looked up "gimmicks" because he had never seen it before.

goebbels (noun)

German propaganda minister in Nazi Germany who persecuted the Jews (1897-1945).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "goebbels."
- He looked up "goebbels" because he had never seen it before.

golan (noun)

A fortified hilly area between southern Lebanon and southern Syria.

- Artillery on the Golan Heights can dominate a large area of Israel.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "golan."

---

grand duchy of luxembourg (noun)

A grand duchy (a constitutional monarchy) landlocked in northwestern Europe between France and Belgium and Germany; an international financial center.

- In class, the teacher used "grand duchy of luxembourg" to mean a grand duchy (a constitutional monarchy)....
- He looked up "grand duchy of luxembourg" because he had never seen it before.

---

grandstand (verb)

Perform ostentatiously in order to impress the audience and with an eye to the applause.

- She never misses a chance to grandstand.
- Learners should practice how to use "grandstand" in real sentences.

---

grazed (adjective)

Scraped or touched lightly in passing.

- His grazed and bleeding arm proved he had been in the line of fire.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "grazed."

---

greater pectoral muscle (noun)

A skeletal muscle that adducts and rotates the arm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "greater pectoral muscle."
- The article explained what "greater pectoral muscle" means with a simple example.

---

grumbling (noun)

A loud low dull continuous noise.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grumbling."
- The article explained what "grumbling" means with a simple example.

---

guatemalan monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Guatemala.

- He looked up "guatemalan monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "guatemalan monetary unit" during the group presentation.

---

guitarists (noun)

A musician who plays the guitar.

- They discussed "guitarists" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "guitarists" to mean a musician who plays the guitar.

---

haitian creole (noun)

A creole language spoken by most Haitians; based on French and various African languages.

- Understanding "haitian creole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "haitian creole" to mean a creole language spoken by most haitians; based on....

---

hales (verb)

To cause to do through pressure or necessity, by physical, moral or intellectual means :.

- In everyday English, people use "hales" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "hales" until he saw an example.

---

hallucination (noun)

An object perceived during a hallucinatory episode.

- He refused to believe that the angel was a hallucination.
- His dreams of vast wealth are a hallucination.

---

heeled (verb)

Strike with the heel of the club.

- The balloon heeled over.

- In everyday English, people use "heeled" when talking about this idea.

---

helms (noun)

A position of leadership.

- The article explained what "helms" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "helms."

---

henri rousseau (noun)

French primitive painter (1844-1910).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "henri rousseau."
- He looked up "henri rousseau" because he had never seen it before.

---

high-keyed (adjective)

(of persons) excitable.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "high-keyed."
- Would you call this situation "high-keyed"? Explain why.

---

homing pigeon (noun)

Pigeon trained to return home.

- Understanding "homing pigeon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "homing pigeon."

---

honduras rosewood (noun)

Central American tree yielding a valuable dark streaked rosewood.

- In class, the teacher used "honduras rosewood" to mean central american tree yielding a valuable dark....
- He looked up "honduras rosewood" because he had never seen it before.

---

horizontal stabilizer (noun)

The horizontal airfoil of an aircraft's tail assembly that is fixed and to which the elevator is hinged.

- The article explained what "horizontal stabilizer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "horizontal stabilizer" to mean the horizontal airfoil of an aircraft's tail....

---

hovered (verb)

Be suspended in the air, as if in defiance of gravity.

- He did not know how to use "hovered" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "hovered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

hulls (noun)

A large fishing port in northeastern England.

- In class, the teacher used "hulls" to mean a large fishing port in northeastern england.
- He looked up "hulls" because he had never seen it before.

---

huns (noun)

A member of a nomadic people who invaded Europe in the 4th century.

- Understanding "huns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "huns."

---

hutchins (noun)

United States educator who was president of the University of Chicago (1899-1977).

- In class, the teacher used "hutchins" to mean united states educator who was president of the....
- Understanding "hutchins" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hydrophobic (adjective)

Lacking affinity for water; tending to repel and not absorb water; tending not to dissolve in or mix with or be wetted by water.

- The speaker chose "hydrophobic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "hydrophobic" when it is lacking affinity for water; tending to repel and....

---

hydroxide ion (noun)

The anion OH having one oxygen and one hydrogen atom.

- Understanding "hydroxide ion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "hydroxide ion" because he had never seen it before.

---

immaterial (adjective)

Of no importance or relevance especially to a law case.

- An objection that is immaterial after the fact.
- Immaterial apparitions.

---

imprinted (verb)

Mark or stamp with or as if with pressure.

- Learners should practice how to use "imprinted" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "imprinted" and when to wait.

---

indira gandhi (noun)

Daughter of Nehru who served as prime minister of India from 1966 to 1977 (1917-1984).

- He looked up "indira gandhi" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "indira gandhi" to mean daughter of nehru who served as prime minister of....

---

industrialists (noun)

Someone who manages or has significant financial interest in an industrial enterprise.

- Understanding "industrialists" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "industrialists" means with a simple example.

---

inefficiency (noun)

Unskillfulness resulting from a lack of efficiency.

- In class, the teacher used "inefficiency" to mean unskillfulness resulting from a lack of efficiency.
- Understanding "inefficiency" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inertial guidance (noun)

A method of controlling the flight of a missile by devices that respond to inertial forces.

- He looked up "inertial guidance" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inertial guidance."

---

inertial guidance system (noun)

A system to control a plane or spacecraft; uses inertial forces.

- They discussed "inertial guidance system" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inertial guidance system."

---

inertial reference frame (noun)

A coordinate system in which Newton's first law of motion is valid.

- He looked up "inertial reference frame" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "inertial reference frame" during the group presentation.

---

inflationary (adjective)

Associated with or tending to cause increases in inflation.

- Inflationary prices.
- It is useful to describe something as "inflationary" when it is associated with or tending to cause increases in....

---

inflexible (adjective)

Incapable of adapting or changing to meet circumstances.

- An inflexible law.
- Would you call this situation "inflexible"? Explain why.

---

inflow (noun)

The process of flowing in.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inflow."
- He looked up "inflow" because he had never seen it before.

---

instinctive reflex (noun)

An automatic instinctive unlearned reaction to a stimulus.

- In class, the teacher used "instinctive reflex" to mean an automatic instinctive unlearned reaction to a....
- They discussed "instinctive reflex" during the group presentation.

---

intercom (noun)

A communication system linking different rooms within a building or ship etc.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intercom."
- He looked up "intercom" because he had never seen it before.

---

internationale (noun)

A revolutionary socialist anthem.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "internationale."
- Understanding "internationale" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

intersecting (adjective)

Crossed or intersected in the form of an X.

- A "intersecting" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "intersecting" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

intrigues (noun)

A crafty and involved plot to achieve your (usually sinister) ends.

- Understanding "intrigues" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intrigues."

---

invalidated (adjective)

Deprived of legal force.

- A "invalidated" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "invalidated"? Explain why.

---

inwards (adverb)

To or toward the inside of.

- Move the needle further inwards!
- Place "inwards" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

iw (noun)

The use of information or information technology during a time of crisis or conflict to achieve or promote specific objectives over a specific adversary or adversaries.

- Understanding "iw" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "iw" because he had never seen it before.

---

jacking (verb)

Lift with a special device.

- Can you use "jacking" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "jacking" when talking about this idea.

---

jacking off (noun)

Slang for masturbation.

- In class, the teacher used "jacking off" to mean slang for masturbation.
- The article explained what "jacking off" means with a simple example.

---

james george frazer (noun)

English social anthropologist noted for studies of primitive religion and magic (1854-1941).

- The article explained what "james george frazer" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "james george frazer" during the group presentation.

jem (noun)

A terrorist organization founded in 2000; a militant Islamic group active in Kashmir and closely aligned with al-Rashid Trust; seeks to secure release of imprisoned fellow militants by kidnappings.

- He looked up "jem" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "jem" during the group presentation.

jihadi (adjective)

Of or relating to a jihad.

- A "jihadi" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "jihadi"? Explain why.

justifications (noun)

The act of defending or explaining or making excuses for by reasoning; - H.J.Muller.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "justifications."
- They discussed "justifications" during the group presentation.

juvenile rheumatoid arthritis (noun)

A form of rheumatoid arthritis that affects children; large joints become inflamed and bone growth may be retarded.

- Understanding "juvenile rheumatoid arthritis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "juvenile rheumatoid arthritis" to mean a form of rheumatoid arthritis that affects....

keyed (adjective)

Fitted with or secured by a key.

- A keyed instrument.
- The locks have not yet been keyed.

knight-errant (noun)

A wandering knight travelling in search of adventure.

- He looked up "knight-errant" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "knight-errant" to mean a wandering knight travelling in search of adventure.

knighthood (noun)

Aristocrats holding the rank of knight.

- The article explained what "knighthood" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "knighthood" to mean aristocrats holding the rank of knight.

la crosse (noun)

A town in western Wisconsin on the Mississippi River.

- He looked up "la crosse" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "la crosse" to mean a town in western wisconsin on the mississippi river.

laborer (noun)

Someone who works with their hands; someone engaged in manual labor.

- They discussed "laborer" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "laborer" to mean someone who works with their hands; someone engaged....

lamenting (adjective)

Vocally expressing grief or sorrow or resembling such expression; ; ; ; ; - Shakespeare.

- Lamenting sinners.
- A "lamenting" approach may work better in this case.

large-toothed aspen (noun)

Aspen with a narrow crown; eastern North America.

- He looked up "large-toothed aspen" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "large-toothed aspen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lefties (noun)

A person who uses the left hand with greater skill than the right.

- He looked up "lefties" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lefties."

---

lemon curd (noun)

A conserve with a thick consistency; made with lemons and butter and eggs and sugar.

- They discussed "lemon curd" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "lemon curd" because he had never seen it before.

---

lengthened (adjective)

Drawn out or made longer spatially.

- Lengthened skirts are fashionable this year.
- Students compared "lengthened" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

levi's (noun)

A popular brand of jeans.

- He looked up "levi's" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "levi's" during the group presentation.

---

libra the scales (noun)

The seventh sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about September 23 to October 22.

- In class, the teacher used "libra the scales" to mean the seventh sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this....
- He looked up "libra the scales" because he had never seen it before.

---

lifesaving (noun)

Saving the lives of drowning persons.

- He took a course in lifesaving.
- Understanding "lifesaving" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lire (noun)

The basic unit of money on Malta; equal to 100 cents.

- Understanding "lire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "lire" means with a simple example.

---

low-keyed (adjective)

Restrained in style or quality.

- A little masterpiece of low-keyed eloquence.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "low-keyed."

---

machinations (noun)

A crafty and involved plot to achieve your (usually sinister) ends.

- In class, the teacher used "machinations" to mean a crafty and involved plot to achieve your (usually....
- They discussed "machinations" during the group presentation.

---

maha (noun)

A member of the Siouan people formerly living in the Missouri river valley in northeastern Nebraska.

- They discussed "maha" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "maha" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mangrove (noun)

A tropical tree or shrub bearing fruit that germinates while still on the tree and having numerous prop roots that eventually form an impenetrable mass and are important in land building.

- They discussed "mangrove" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mangrove" to mean a tropical tree or shrub bearing fruit that....

---

mangrove family (noun)

Trees and shrubs that usually form dense jungles along tropical seacoasts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mangrove family."

- The article explained what "mangrove family" means with a simple example.

---

marmalade (noun)

A preserve made of the pulp and rind of citrus fruits.

- Understanding "marmalade" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "marmalade" during the group presentation.

---

marmalade box (noun)

Tree of the West Indies and northern South America bearing succulent edible orange-sized fruit.

- The article explained what "marmalade box" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "marmalade box" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

marmalade tree (noun)

Tropical American tree having wood like mahogany and sweet edible egg-shaped fruit; in some classifications placed in the genus Calocarpum.

- He looked up "marmalade tree" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marmalade tree" during the group presentation.

---

marseilles (noun)

A port city in southeastern France on the Mediterranean.

- They discussed "marseilles" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "marseilles" to mean a port city in southeastern france on the mediterranean.

---

martin scorsese (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1942).

- In class, the teacher used "martin scorsese" to mean united states filmmaker (born in 1942).
- The article explained what "martin scorsese" means with a simple example.

---

marys (noun)

The mother of Jesus; Christians refer to her as the Virgin Mary; she is especially honored by Roman Catholics.

- He looked up "marys" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "marys" during the group presentation.

---

mass spectrometer (noun)

Spectroscope for obtaining a mass spectrum by deflecting ions into a thin slit and measuring the ion current with an electrometer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mass spectrometer."
- The article explained what "mass spectrometer" means with a simple example.

---

masts (noun)

A vertical spar for supporting sails.

- In class, the teacher used "masts" to mean a vertical spar for supporting sails.
- He looked up "masts" because he had never seen it before.

---

mexican hairless (noun)

Any of an old breed of small nearly hairless dogs of Mexico.

- In class, the teacher used "mexican hairless" to mean any of an old breed of small nearly hairless dogs....
- He looked up "mexican hairless" because he had never seen it before.

---

middle-ear deafness (noun)

Hearing loss due to problems with the bones of the middle ear.

- They discussed "middle-ear deafness" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "middle-ear deafness" to mean hearing loss due to problems with the bones of the....

---

milled (adjective)

(of grains especially rice) having the husk or outer layers removed.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "milled."
- Would you call this situation "milled"? Explain why.

---

miocene (noun)

From 25 million to 13 million years ago; appearance of grazing mammals.

- He looked up "miocene" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "miocene" during the group presentation.

---

missouri primrose (noun)

Evening-opening primrose of south central United States.

- He looked up "missouri primrose" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "missouri primrose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

moderating (adjective)

Lessening in intensity or strength.

- Students compared "moderating" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "moderating" approach may work better in this case.

---

modifier (noun)

A person who changes something.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "modifier."
- The article explained what "modifier" means with a simple example.

---

molesting (verb)

Annoy continually or chronically.

- Learners should practice how to use "molesting" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "molesting" until he saw an example.

---

moored (verb)

Secure with cables or ropes.

- The coach explained when to use "moored" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "moored" until he saw an example.

---

muzzle loader (noun)

An obsolete firearm that was loaded through the muzzle.

- He looked up "muzzle loader" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "muzzle loader" to mean an obsolete firearm that was loaded through the muzzle.

---

naturalization (noun)

The quality of being brought into conformity with nature.

- The naturalization in English of many Italian words.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "naturalization."

---

newton's first law of motion (noun)

A body remains at rest or in motion with a constant velocity unless acted upon by an external force.

- In class, the teacher used "newton's first law of motion" to mean a body remains at rest or in motion with a constant....
- Understanding "newton's first law of motion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

newton's law of motion (noun)

One of three basic laws of classical mechanics.

- He looked up "newton's law of motion" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "newton's law of motion" during the group presentation.

---

newton's second law of motion (noun)

The rate of change of momentum is proportional to the imposed force and goes in the direction of the force.

- In class, the teacher used "newton's second law of motion" to mean the rate of change of momentum is proportional to....
- The article explained what "newton's second law of motion" means with a simple example.

---

newton's third law of motion (noun)

Action and reaction are equal and opposite.

- They discussed "newton's third law of motion" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "newton's third law of motion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

northern jacob's ladder (noun)

Perennial erect herb with white flowers; circumboreal.

- The article explained what "northern jacob's ladder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "northern jacob's ladder" to mean perennial erect herb with white flowers; circumboreal.

---

numbness (noun)

The trait of lacking enthusiasm for or interest in things generally.

- They discussed "numbness" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "numbness" means with a simple example.

---

o'toole (noun)

British actor (born in Ireland in 1932).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "o'toole."
- The article explained what "o'toole" means with a simple example.

---

oar (noun)

An implement used to propel or steer a boat.

- He looked up "oar" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "oar" to mean an implement used to propel or steer a boat.

---

objecting (verb)

Express or raise an objection or protest or criticism or express dissent.

- Can you use "objecting" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "objecting" until he saw an example.

---

occidental (noun)

A native inhabitant of the Occident.

- Understanding "occidental" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "occidental."

---

oozing (noun)

The process of seeping.

- Understanding "oozing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "oozing" during the group presentation.

---

opiate (noun)

A narcotic drug that contains opium or an opium derivative.

- In class, the teacher used "opiate" to mean a narcotic drug that contains opium or an opium....
- He looked up "opiate" because he had never seen it before.

---

ordinated (verb)

Bring (components or parts) into proper or desirable coordination correlation.

- Learners should practice how to use "ordinated" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "ordinated" when talking about this idea.

---

osprey (noun)

Large harmless hawk found worldwide that feeds on fish and builds a bulky nest often occupied for years.

- Understanding "osprey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "osprey" because he had never seen it before.

---

outscored (verb)

Score more points than one's opponents.

- Learners should practice how to use "outscored" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "outscored" when talking about this idea.

overheated (adjective)

Heated beyond a safe or desirable point.

- The child became overheated.
- Overheated metal.

paddles (noun)

A blade of a paddle wheel or water wheel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paddles."
- He looked up "paddles" because he had never seen it before.

pair of pliers (noun)

A gripping hand tool with two hinged arms and (usually) serrated jaws.

- He looked up "pair of pliers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pair of pliers."

panes (noun)

A panel or section of panels in a wall or door.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panes."
- He looked up "panes" because he had never seen it before.

patten (noun)

Footwear usually with wooden soles.

- He looked up "patten" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "patten" to mean footwear usually with wooden soles.

pelt (verb)

Attack and bombard with or as if with missiles.

- Pelt the speaker with questions.
- They pelted each other with snowballs.

pencil pusher (noun)

A clerk who does boring paperwork.

- He looked up "pencil pusher" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pencil pusher."

pennant (noun)

A flag longer than it is wide (and often tapering).

- In class, the teacher used "pennant" to mean a flag longer than it is wide (and often tapering).
- The article explained what "pennant" means with a simple example.

perfectionist (noun)

A person who is displeased by anything that does not meet very high standards.

- The article explained what "perfectionist" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perfectionist."

peter o'toole (noun)

British actor (born in Ireland in 1932).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peter o'toole."
- He looked up "peter o'toole" because he had never seen it before.

petit juror (noun)

A member of a petit jury.

- He looked up "petit juror" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "petit juror" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

phantoms (noun)

A ghostly appearing figure.

- He looked up "phantoms" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phantoms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

piano tuner (noun)

Someone who tunes pianos.

- The article explained what "piano tuner" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "piano tuner" during the group presentation.

---

pickett (noun)

American Confederate general known for leading a disastrous charge at Gettysburg (1825-1875).

- In class, the teacher used "pickett" to mean american confederate general known for leading a....
- The article explained what "pickett" means with a simple example.

---

pitts (noun)

A British playwright who created the fictional character Sweeney Todd (1799-1855).

- In class, the teacher used "pitts" to mean a british playwright who created the fictional....
- The article explained what "pitts" means with a simple example.

---

playwrights (noun)

Someone who writes plays.

- Understanding "playwrights" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "playwrights" because he had never seen it before.

---

ponce (noun)

A man who is effeminate in his manner and fussy in the way he dresses.

- They discussed "ponce" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ponce" to mean a man who is effeminate in his manner and fussy in....

---

poppies (noun)

Annual or biennial or perennial herbs having showy flowers.

- In class, the teacher used "poppies" to mean annual or biennial or perennial herbs having showy....
- They discussed "poppies" during the group presentation.

---

powys (noun)

British writer of essays; one of three literary brothers (1884-1939).

- Understanding "powys" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "powys" means with a simple example.

---

praxis (noun)

Translating an idea into action.

- Differences between theory and praxis of communism.
- The article explained what "praxis" means with a simple example.

---

preaches (verb)

Speak, plead, or argue in favor of.

- In everyday English, people use "preaches" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "preaches" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

president fillmore (noun)

Elected vice president and became the 13th President of the United States when Zachary Taylor died in office (1800-1874).

- He looked up "president fillmore" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "president fillmore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

prickly-edged leaf (noun)

A leaf having prickly margins.

- He looked up "prickly-edged leaf" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "prickly-edged leaf" during the group presentation.

---

primes (noun)

A number that has no factor but itself and 1.

- Understanding "primes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primes."

---

priming (noun)

The first or preliminary coat of paint or size applied to a surface.

- Understanding "priming" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "priming" means with a simple example.

---

prince's-plume (noun)

Annual with broadly ovate leaves and slender drooping spikes of crimson flowers; southeastern Asia and Australia; naturalized in North America.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prince's-plume."
- The article explained what "prince's-plume" means with a simple example.

---

princely (adjective)

Having the rank of or befitting a prince.

- A princely bearing.
- Princely manner.

---

profited (verb)

Make a profit; gain money or materially.

- The company has not profited from the merger.
- She profited from his vast experience.

---

psoriasis (noun)

A chronic skin disease characterized by dry red patches covered with scales; occurs especially on the scalp and ears and genitalia and the skin over bony prominences.

- They discussed "psoriasis" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "psoriasis."

---

puffed rice (noun)

Puffy rice kernels.

- They discussed "puffed rice" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "puffed rice" means with a simple example.

---

punctuated equilibrium (noun)

A theory of evolution holding that evolutionary change in the fossil record came in fits and starts rather than in a steady process of slow change.

- They discussed "punctuated equilibrium" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "punctuated equilibrium."

---

putty (noun)

A dough-like mixture of whiting and boiled linseed oil; used especially to patch woodwork or secure panes of glass.

- In class, the teacher used "putty" to mean a dough-like mixture of whiting and boiled linseed....
- He looked up "putty" because he had never seen it before.

---

quartz oscillator (noun)

An oscillator that produces electrical oscillations at a frequency determined by the physical characteristics of a piezoelectric quartz crystal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quartz oscillator."
- He looked up "quartz oscillator" because he had never seen it before.

---

quench (verb)

Cool (hot metal) by plunging into cold water or other liquid.

- Quench steel.
- The cold water quenched his thirst.

---

radicalism (noun)

The political orientation of those who favor revolutionary change in government and society.

- They discussed "radicalism" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radicalism."

---

radon (noun)

A radioactive gaseous element formed by the disintegration of radium; the heaviest of the inert gasses; occurs naturally (especially in areas over granite) and is considered a hazard to health.

- He looked up "radon" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "radon" to mean a radioactive gaseous element formed by the....

---

raisin moth (noun)

Moth whose larvae attack dried fruits and cereal products.

- Understanding "raisin moth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "raisin moth" means with a simple example.

---

ramping (verb)

Creep up – used especially of plants.

- Learners should practice how to use "ramping" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "ramping" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

rationalize (verb)

Think rationally; employ logic or reason.

- When one wonders why one is doing certain things, one should rationalize.
- Rationalize the child's seemingly crazy behavior.

---

rationalize away (verb)

Substitute a natural for a supernatural explanation of.

- You can rationalize away all the strange noises you hear–there is no poltergeist in the house!
- She tried to use "rationalize away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reactivity (noun)

Responsive to stimulation.

- In class, the teacher used "reactivity" to mean responsive to stimulation.
- He looked up "reactivity" because he had never seen it before.

---

reassignment (noun)

Assignment to a different duty.

- In class, the teacher used "reassignment" to mean assignment to a different duty.
- The article explained what "reassignment" means with a simple example.

---

recessive gene (noun)

Gene that produces its characteristic phenotype only when its allele is identical.

- The recessive gene for blue eyes.
- In class, the teacher used "recessive gene" to mean gene that produces its characteristic phenotype....

---

reciprocal pronoun (noun)

A pronoun or pronominal phrase (as 'each other') that expresses a mutual action or relationship between the individuals indicated in the plural subject.

- The sentence 'They cared for each other' contains a reciprocal pronoun.
- They discussed "reciprocal pronoun" during the group presentation.

---

recursive definition (noun)

(mathematics) a definition of a function from which values of the function can be calculated in a finite number of steps.

- They discussed "recursive definition" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "recursive definition" because he had never seen it before.

---

recursive routine (noun)

A routine that can call itself.

- Understanding "recursive routine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "recursive routine" to mean a routine that can call itself.

---

red-lead putty (noun)

A cement resembling putty; made by mixing white and red lead in boiled linseed oil; used as luting on pipe fittings.

- In class, the teacher used "red-lead putty" to mean a cement resembling putty; made by mixing white and....
- Understanding "red-lead putty" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

relieves (noun)

The act of freeing a city or town that has been besieged.

- They discussed "relieves" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "relieves" to mean the act of freeing a city or town that has been....

---

repeater (noun)

A firearm that can fire several rounds without reloading.

- The audience consisted largely of repeaters who had seen the movie many times.
- Repeaters can be used in computer networks to extend cabling distances.

---

reprisals (noun)

A retaliatory action against an enemy in wartime.

- The article explained what "reprisals" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "reprisals" to mean a retaliatory action against an enemy in wartime.

---

reruns (noun)

A program that is broadcast again.

- She likes to watch 'I love Lucy' reruns.
- They discussed "reruns" during the group presentation.

---

respiratory quotient (noun)

The ratio of the volume of carbon dioxide expired to the volume of oxygen consumed by an organism or cell in a given period of time.

- They discussed "respiratory quotient" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "respiratory quotient" because he had never seen it before.

---

retardation (noun)

A decrease in rate of change.

- They discussed "retardation" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "retardation" because he had never seen it before.

---

retards (verb)

Cause to move more slowly or operate at a slower rate.

- Can you use "retards" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "retards" when talking about this idea.

---

retort (noun)

A quick reply to a question or remark (especially a witty or critical one).

- In class, the teacher used "retort" to mean a quick reply to a question or remark (especially a....
- He looked up "retort" because he had never seen it before.

---

revitalization (noun)

Bringing again into activity and prominence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "revitalization."
- He looked up "revitalization" because he had never seen it before.

---

rework (verb)

Use again in altered form.

- Learners should practice how to use "rework" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "rework" when talking about this idea.

reworking (verb)

Use again in altered form.

- Learners should practice how to use "reworking" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "reworking" when talking about this idea.

ringed snake (noun)

Harmless European snake with a bright yellow collar; common in England.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ringed snake."
- He looked up "ringed snake" because he had never seen it before.

robert walpole (noun)

Englishman and Whig statesman who (under George I) was effectively the first British prime minister (1676-1745).

- Understanding "robert walpole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "robert walpole" during the group presentation.

round-bottomed (adjective)

Having a rounded bottom.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "round-bottomed."
- A "round-bottomed" approach may work better in this case.

rudely (adverb)

In an impolite manner.

- Try rewriting the sentence and include "rudely" naturally.
- She spoke "rudely," and the audience immediately understood her point.

runes (verb)

Cover by running; run a certain distance.

- He did not know how to use "runes" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "runes" carefully so everyone would understand.

saber rattling (noun)

The ostentatious display of military power (with the implied threat that it might be used).

- He looked up "saber rattling" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "saber rattling" during the group presentation.

saddles (noun)

A seat for the rider of a horse or camel.

- He looked up "saddles" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "saddles" during the group presentation.

sams (noun)

A guided missile fired from land or shipboard against an airborne target.

- He looked up "sams" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sams" during the group presentation.

sanctuaries (noun)

A consecrated place where sacred objects are kept.

- He looked up "sanctuaries" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sanctuaries" during the group presentation.

saracens (noun)

(historically) a Muslim who opposed the Crusades.

- Understanding "saracens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "saracens" means with a simple example.

sawmill (noun)

A mill for dressing logs and lumber.

- They discussed "sawmill" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sawmill" because he had never seen it before.

---

scott joplin (noun)

United States composer who was the first creator of ragtime to write down his compositions (1868-1917).

- They discussed "scott joplin" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "scott joplin" because he had never seen it before.

---

scottish highlander (noun)

A native of the Highlands of Scotland.

- The article explained what "scottish highlander" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scottish highlander" to mean a native of the highlands of scotland.

---

scribes (noun)

A sharp-pointed awl for marking wood or metal to be cut.

- The article explained what "scribes" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scribes."

---

sculptural relief (noun)

Sculpture consisting of shapes carved on a surface so as to stand out from the surrounding background.

- Understanding "sculptural relief" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sculptural relief."

---

second epistle of peter (noun)

The second New Testament book traditionally attributed to Saint Peter the Apostle.

- The article explained what "second epistle of peter" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "second epistle of peter."

---

sewed (adjective)

Fastened with stitches.

- Would you call this situation "sewed"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sewed."

---

sheltering (verb)

Invest (money) so that it is not taxable.

- In everyday English, people use "sheltering" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "sheltering" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

shepherd's pie (noun)

Pie of hash covered with mashed potatoes and browned in the oven.

- They discussed "shepherd's pie" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "shepherd's pie" means with a simple example.

---

shepherd's pipe (noun)

A small bagpipe formerly popular in France.

- The article explained what "shepherd's pipe" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shepherd's pipe."

---

shogun (noun)

A hereditary military dictator of Japan; the shoguns ruled Japan until the revolution of 1867-68.

- In class, the teacher used "shogun" to mean a hereditary military dictator of japan; the....
- Understanding "shogun" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

showings (noun)

Something shown to the public.

- In class, the teacher used "showings" to mean something shown to the public.

- He looked up “showings” because he had never seen it before.

---

shrinkage (noun)

The act of stealing goods that are on display in a store.

- Shrinkage is the retail trade’s euphemism for shoplifting.
- The material lost 2 inches per yard in shrinkage.

---

sir alfred charles bernard lovell (noun)

English astronomer who pioneered radio astronomy (born in 1913).

- In class, the teacher used “sir alfred charles bernard lovell” to mean english astronomer who pioneered radio astronomy....
- Understanding “sir alfred charles bernard lovell” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sir james george frazer (noun)

English social anthropologist noted for studies of primitive religion and magic (1854-1941).

- The article explained what “sir james george frazer” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “sir james george frazer” to mean english social anthropologist noted for studies of....

---

skeptic (noun)

Someone who habitually doubts accepted beliefs.

- They discussed “skeptic” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “skeptic” means with a simple example.

---

slacks (noun)

(usually in the plural) pants for casual wear.

- They discussed “slacks” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “slacks” because he had never seen it before.

---

sleeveless (adjective)

Unproductive of success.

- A sleeveless errand.
- The speaker chose “sleeveless” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

smaller pectoral muscle (noun)

A skeletal muscle that draws down the scapula or raises the ribs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “smaller pectoral muscle.”
- He looked up “smaller pectoral muscle” because he had never seen it before.

---

smalls (noun)

The slender part of the back.

- He looked up “smalls” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “smalls” to mean the slender part of the back.

---

smelting (verb)

Extract (metals) by heating.

- In everyday English, people use “smelting” when talking about this idea.
- Can you use “smelting” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

snow thrower (noun)

A machine that removes snow by scooping it up and throwing it forcefully through a chute.

- In class, the teacher used “snow thrower” to mean a machine that removes snow by scooping it up and....
- The article explained what “snow thrower” means with a simple example.

---

snowstorm (noun)

A storm with widespread snowfall accompanied by strong winds.

- In class, the teacher used “snowstorm” to mean a storm with widespread snowfall accompanied by....
- Understanding “snowstorm” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

socialite (noun)

A socially prominent person.

- The article explained what "socialite" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "socialite."

---

sol rojo (noun)

A small but violent terrorist organization formed in Ecuador in the early 1990s; responsible for bombing several government buildings.

- He looked up "sol rojo" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sol rojo."

---

somatic sensation (noun)

The perception of tactual or proprioceptive or gut sensations.

- In class, the teacher used "somatic sensation" to mean the perception of tactual or proprioceptive or gut....
- The article explained what "somatic sensation" means with a simple example.

---

somme (noun)

Battle in World War I (1916).

- They discussed "somme" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "somme" means with a simple example.

---

somme river (noun)

Battle in World War I (1916).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "somme river."
- They discussed "somme river" during the group presentation.

---

southerly (adjective)

Situated in or oriented toward the south.

- Took a southerly course.
- A hot southerly wind.

---

spectrometer (noun)

Spectroscope for obtaining a mass spectrum by deflecting ions into a thin slit and measuring the ion current with an electrometer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spectrometer."
- They discussed "spectrometer" during the group presentation.

---

spouting (adjective)

Propelled violently in a usually narrow stream.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "spouting."
- A "spouting" approach may work better in this case.

---

squandered (adjective)

Not used to good advantage.

- Squandered money cannot be replaced.
- It is useful to describe something as "squandered" when it is not used to good advantage.

---

star divination (noun)

A pseudoscience claiming divination by the positions of the planets and sun and moon.

- The article explained what "star divination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "star divination" to mean a pseudoscience claiming divination by the....

---

star-spangled banner (noun)

The national flag of the United States of America.

- The article explained what "star-spangled banner" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "star-spangled banner" during the group presentation.

---

sterilized (adjective)

Made infertile.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "sterilized."
- The speaker chose "sterilized" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

steven weinberg (noun)

United States theoretical physicist (born in 1933).

- Understanding "steven weinberg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "steven weinberg" because he had never seen it before.

---

strapping (adjective)

Muscular and heavily built.

- A strapping boy of eighteen.
- It is useful to describe something as "strapping" when it is muscular and heavily built.

---

street sweeper (noun)

A worker employed to clean streets (especially one employed by a municipal sanitation department).

- In class, the teacher used "street sweeper" to mean a worker employed to clean streets (especially one....
- They discussed "street sweeper" during the group presentation.

---

stuns (verb)

Overcome as with astonishment or disbelief.

- In everyday English, people use "stuns" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "stuns" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

subspace (noun)

A space that is contained within another space.

- Understanding "subspace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "subspace" because he had never seen it before.

---

subsurface (adjective)

Beneath the surface.

- Subsurface materials of the moon.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "subsurface."

---

superstructure (noun)

Structure consisting of the part of a ship above the main deck.

- Understanding "superstructure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "superstructure" means with a simple example.

---

surge suppressor (noun)

Electrical device inserted in a power line to protect equipment from sudden fluctuations in current.

- He looked up "surge suppressor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "surge suppressor."

---

surnames (noun)

The name used to identify the members of a family (as distinguished from each member's given name).

- Understanding "surnames" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "surnames" means with a simple example.

---

sustains (verb)

Be the physical support of; carry the weight of.

- She tried to use "sustains" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "sustains" in real sentences.

---

sweeper (noun)

An employee who sweeps (floors or streets etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sweeper."
- He looked up "sweeper" because he had never seen it before.

swish (verb)

Move with or cause to move with a whistling or hissing sound.

- Learners should practice how to use "swish" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "swish" until he saw an example.

sympathizers (noun)

Commiserates with someone who has had misfortune.

- They discussed "sympathizers" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "sympathizers" because he had never seen it before.

synced (verb)

Make synchronous and adjust in time or manner.

- The coach explained when to use "synced" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "synced" until he saw an example.

tabloids (noun)

Sensationalist journalism.

- He looked up "tabloids" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tabloids."

tacoma narrows bridge (noun)

A suspension bridge across Puget Sound at Tacoma.

- In class, the teacher used "tacoma narrows bridge" to mean a suspension bridge across puget sound at tacoma.
- The article explained what "tacoma narrows bridge" means with a simple example.

tamper (verb)

Intrude in other people's affairs or business; interfere unwantedly.

- Someone tampered with the documents on my desk.
- Can you use "tamper" in a sentence that fits this situation?

tampon (noun)

Plug of cotton or other absorbent material; inserted into wound or body cavity to absorb exuded fluids (especially blood).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tampon."
- He looked up "tampon" because he had never seen it before.

tangle orchid (noun)

An orchid of the genus Plectorrhiza having tangled roots and long wiry stems bearing lax racemes of small fragrant green flowers.

- He looked up "tangle orchid" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tangle orchid."

taxonomic category (noun)

Animal or plant group having natural relations.

- In class, the teacher used "taxonomic category" to mean animal or plant group having natural relations.
- He looked up "taxonomic category" because he had never seen it before.

telephony (noun)

Transmitting speech at a distance.

- In class, the teacher used "telephony" to mean transmitting speech at a distance.
- The article explained what "telephony" means with a simple example.

tenerife (noun)

A Spanish island in the Atlantic off the northwestern coast of Africa; the largest of the Canary Islands.

- He looked up "tenerife" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenerife."

testicular vein (noun)

A vein from the testicles.

- In class, the teacher used "testicular vein" to mean a vein from the testicles.
- The article explained what "testicular vein" means with a simple example.

---

the star-spangled banner (noun)

A poem written by Francis Scott Key during the War of 1812 was set to music and adopted by Congress in 1931 as the national anthem of the United States.

- Understanding "the star-spangled banner" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "the star-spangled banner" means with a simple example.

---

thickened (adjective)

Having calluses; having skin made tough and thick through wear.

- Thickened bronchial arteries.
- Flour-thickened gravy.

---

thomas dekker (noun)

English dramatist and pamphleteer (1572-1632).

- In class, the teacher used "thomas dekker" to mean english dramatist and pamphleteer (1572-1632).
- The article explained what "thomas dekker" means with a simple example.

---

tms (noun)

A soft silvery metallic element of the rare earth group; isotope 170 emits X-rays and is used in small portable X-ray machines; it occurs in monazite and apatite and xenotime.

- He looked up "tms" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tms."

---

toffee (noun)

Caramelized sugar cooled in thin sheets.

- The article explained what "toffee" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "toffee" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tomahawk (noun)

Weapon consisting of a fighting ax; used by North American Indians.

- Understanding "tomahawk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tomahawk" to mean weapon consisting of a fighting ax; used by north....

---

tone deafness (noun)

An inability to distinguish differences in pitch.

- The article explained what "tone deafness" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "tone deafness" to mean an inability to distinguish differences in pitch.

---

torched (verb)

Burn maliciously, as by arson.

- The madman torched the barns.
- Can you use "torched" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

torrey tree (noun)

Rare small evergreen of northern Florida; its glossy green leaves have an unpleasant fetid smell when crushed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "torrey tree."
- Understanding "torrey tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

transcendence (noun)

The state of excelling or surpassing or going beyond usual limits.

- They discussed "transcendence" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "transcendence" to mean the state of excelling or surpassing or going....

---

transgression (noun)

The act of transgressing; the violation of a law or a duty or moral principle.

- The boy was punished for the transgressions of his father.

- He looked up “transgression” because he had never seen it before.

trappings (noun)

(usually plural) accessory wearing apparel.

- In class, the teacher used “trappings” to mean (usually plural) accessory wearing apparel.
- The article explained what “trappings” means with a simple example.

triage (noun)

Sorting and allocating aid on the basis of need for or likely benefit from medical treatment or food.

- In class, the teacher used “triage” to mean sorting and allocating aid on the basis of need for....
- The article explained what “triage” means with a simple example.

trotting horse (noun)

A horse trained to trot; especially a horse trained for harness racing.

- He looked up “trotting horse” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “trotting horse.”

tumor suppressor gene (noun)

A suppressor gene that blocks unscheduled cell division.

- In class, the teacher used “tumor suppressor gene” to mean a suppressor gene that blocks unscheduled cell division.
- He looked up “tumor suppressor gene” because he had never seen it before.

ulterior (adjective)

Beyond or outside an area of immediate interest; remote; ; - G.B.Shaw.

- A suggestion ulterior to the present discussion.
- Without...any purpose, immediate or ulterior.

unambiguous (adjective)

Having or exhibiting a single clearly defined meaning; - Mario Vargas Llosa.

- As a horror, apartheid...is absolutely unambiguous.
- A “unambiguous” approach may work better in this case.

undertakings (noun)

Any piece of work that is undertaken or attempted.

- He prepared for great undertakings.
- They discussed “undertakings” during the group presentation.

undetermined (adjective)

Not yet having been ascertained or determined.

- Of undetermined species.
- It is useful to describe something as “undetermined” when it is not yet having been ascertained or determined.

undies (noun)

Women’s underwear.

- In class, the teacher used “undies” to mean women’s underwear.
- They discussed “undies” during the group presentation.

undulating (verb)

Increase and decrease in volume or pitch, as if in waves.

- In everyday English, people use “undulating” when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use “undulating” carefully so everyone would understand.

unfettered (adjective)

Not bound by shackles and chains.

- Students compared “unfettered” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “unfettered.”

unpacking (verb)

Remove from its packing.

- Learners should practice how to use "unpacking" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "unpacking" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

urge incontinence (noun)

Urinary incontinence that is generally attributable to involuntary contracts of the bladder muscle resulting in an urgent need to urinate accompanied by a sudden loss of urine; most common in people over 60 years of age.

- He looked up "urge incontinence" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "urge incontinence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

uterine contraction (noun)

A rhythmic tightening in labor of the upper uterine musculature that contracts the size of the uterus and pushes the fetus toward the birth canal.

- He looked up "uterine contraction" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "uterine contraction" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

venison (noun)

Meat from a deer used as food.

- Understanding "venison" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "venison" to mean meat from a deer used as food.

---

veranda (noun)

A porch along the outside of a building (sometimes partly enclosed).

- They discussed "veranda" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "veranda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

verdicts (noun)

(law) the findings of a jury on issues of fact submitted to it for decision; can be used in formulating a judgment.

- He looked up "verdicts" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "verdicts."

---

veterinarians (noun)

A doctor who practices veterinary medicine.

- They discussed "veterinarians" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "veterinarians" to mean a doctor who practices veterinary medicine.

---

walpole (noun)

English writer and historian; son of Sir Robert Walpole (1717-1797).

- In class, the teacher used "walpole" to mean english writer and historian; son of sir robert....
- The article explained what "walpole" means with a simple example.

---

well-heeled (adjective)

In fortunate circumstances financially; moderately rich.

- Students compared "well-heeled" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "well-heeled" approach may work better in this case.

---

wessex (noun)

A Saxon kingdom in southwestern England that became the most powerful English kingdom by the 10th century.

- They discussed "wessex" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "wessex" because he had never seen it before.

---

wetting agent (noun)

A chemical agent capable of reducing the surface tension of a liquid in which it is dissolved.

- The article explained what "wetting agent" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wetting agent" to mean a chemical agent capable of reducing the surface....

---

whiny (adjective)

Habitually complaining.

- A whiny child.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "whiny."

---

white mangrove (noun)

A small to medium-sized tree growing in brackish water especially along the shores of the southwestern Pacific.

- In class, the teacher used "white mangrove" to mean a small to medium-sized tree growing in brackish....
- Understanding "white mangrove" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wild oat (noun)

Common in meadows and pastures.

- Understanding "wild oat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "wild oat" means with a simple example.

---

wild red oat (noun)

Mediterranean oat held to be progenitor of modern cultivated oat.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild red oat."
- He looked up "wild red oat" because he had never seen it before.

---

william butler yeats (noun)

Irish poet and dramatist (1865-1939).

- The article explained what "william butler yeats" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william butler yeats" to mean irish poet and dramatist (1865-1939).

---

woodland caribou (noun)

Any of several large caribou living in coniferous forests of southern Canada; in some classifications included in the species Rangifer tarandus.

- The article explained what "woodland caribou" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "woodland caribou" to mean any of several large caribou living in coniferous....

---

woolly mammoth (noun)

Very hairy mammoth common in colder portions of the northern hemisphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "woolly mammoth."
- He looked up "woolly mammoth" because he had never seen it before.

---

xt (noun)

The presence of an unwanted signal via an accidental coupling.

- Understanding "xt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "xt."

---

yamamoto (noun)

Japanese admiral who planned the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941 (1884-1943).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yamamoto."
- Understanding "yamamoto" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ys (noun)

A silvery metallic element that is common in rare-earth minerals; used in magnesium and aluminum alloys.

- Understanding "ys" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ys."

---

zaire (noun)

A republic in central Africa; achieved independence from Belgium in 1960.

- They discussed "zaire" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zaire."

---

zaire river (noun)

A major African river (one of the world's longest); flows through Congo into the South Atlantic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zaire river."
- He looked up "zaire river" because he had never seen it before.

accented (adjective)

Bearing a stress or accent.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "accented."
- Students compared "accented" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

adonis (noun)

(Greek mythology) a handsome youth loved by both Aphrodite and Persephone.

- When Adonis died Zeus decreed that he should spend winters in the underworld with Persephone and spend summers with Aphrodite.
- Understanding "adonis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

aegean civilization (noun)

The prehistoric civilization on the islands in the Aegean sea and the surrounding countries.

- By 800 BC the entire Aegean had adopted this style of pottery.
- He looked up "aegean civilization" because he had never seen it before.

aggrieved (verb)

Cause to feel sorrow.

- Learners should practice how to use "aggrieved" in real sentences.
- The coach explained when to use "aggrieved" and when to wait.

albatross (noun)

(figurative) something that hinders or handicaps.

- She was an albatross around his neck.
- They discussed "albatross" during the group presentation.

all-devouring (adjective)

(of animals) both plant-eating and flesh-eating.

- A "all-devouring" approach may work better in this case.
- Would you call this situation "all-devouring"? Explain why.

allusions (noun)

Passing reference or indirect mention.

- Understanding "allusions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "allusions."

american magpie (noun)

A magpie of Rocky Mountains in North America.

- The article explained what "american magpie" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american magpie" to mean a magpie of rocky mountains in north america.

androids (noun)

An automaton that resembles a human being.

- In class, the teacher used "androids" to mean an automaton that resembles a human being.
- He looked up "androids" because he had never seen it before.

anglesey (noun)

An island to the northwest of Wales.

- He looked up "anglesey" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "anglesey" during the group presentation.

anglesey island (noun)

An island to the northwest of Wales.

- They discussed "anglesey island" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "anglesey island" to mean an island to the northwest of wales.

aquarius the water bearer (noun)

The eleventh sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about January 20 to February 18.

- He looked up "aquarius the water bearer" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "aquarius the water bearer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aquifer (noun)

Underground bed or layer yielding ground water for wells and springs etc.

- They discussed "aquifer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aquifer."

---

arm's length (noun)

A distance sufficient to exclude intimacy.

- Understanding "arm's length" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "arm's length" means with a simple example.

---

arouse (verb)

Call forth (emotions, feelings, and responses).

- Arouse pity.
- This movie usually arouses the male audience.

---

arranges (verb)

Plan, organize, and carry out (an event).

- He did not know how to use "arranges" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "arranges" and when to wait.

---

assemblyman (noun)

Someone who is a member of a legislative assembly.

- He looked up "assemblyman" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "assemblyman."

---

at arm's length (adverb)

At some distance.

- Keep someone at arm's length.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "at arm's length" naturally.

---

australian magpie (noun)

Black-and-white oscine birds that resemble magpies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "australian magpie."
- He looked up "australian magpie" because he had never seen it before.

---

autocratic (adjective)

Offensively self-assured or given to exercising usually unwarranted power.

- An autocratic person.
- Autocratic behavior.

---

autographed (adjective)

Bearing an autograph.

- An autographed copy of his latest book.
- Would you call this situation "autographed"? Explain why.

---

babylonian captivity (noun)

The deportation of the Jews to Babylonia by Nebuchadnezzar in 586 BC.

- In class, the teacher used "babylonian captivity" to mean the deportation of the jews to babylonia by....
- The article explained what "babylonian captivity" means with a simple example.

---

bakeries (noun)

A workplace where baked goods (breads and cakes and pastries) are produced or sold.

- He looked up "bakeries" because he had never seen it before.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bakeries."

---

banff (noun)

A popular vacation spot in the Canadian Rockies.

- They discussed "banff" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "banff."

---

basements (noun)

The ground floor facade or interior in Renaissance architecture.

- Understanding "basements" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "basements" during the group presentation.

---

battle of shiloh (noun)

The second great battle of the American Civil War (1862); the battle ended with the withdrawal of Confederate troops but it was not a Union victory.

- In class, the teacher used "battle of shiloh" to mean the second great battle of the american civil war....
- Understanding "battle of shiloh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bed-wetting (noun)

Enuresis during sleep; especially common in children (who usually outgrow it).

- He looked up "bed-wetting" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bed-wetting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bench lathe (noun)

Lathe mounted on a workbench.

- Understanding "bench lathe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "bench lathe" to mean lathe mounted on a workbench.

---

bereaved (noun)

A person who has suffered the death of someone they loved.

- The bereaved do not always need to be taken care of.
- Understanding "bereaved" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bereaved person (noun)

A person who has suffered the death of someone they loved.

- The bereaved do not always need to be taken care of.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bereaved person."

---

bes (verb)

To remain unmolested, undisturbed, or uninterrupted – used only in infinitive form.

- She tried to use "bes" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "bes" and when to wait.

---

bindings (noun)

The protective covering on the front, back, and spine of a book.

- In class, the teacher used "bindings" to mean the protective covering on the front, back, and....
- The article explained what "bindings" means with a simple example.

---

blackouts (noun)

A suspension of radio or tv broadcasting.

- Understanding "blackouts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "blackouts" means with a simple example.

---

blood platelet (noun)

Tiny bits of protoplasm found in vertebrate blood; essential for blood clotting.

- The article explained what "blood platelet" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blood platelet" to mean tiny bits of protoplasm found in vertebrate blood;....

---

blossomed (verb)

Develop or come to a promising stage.

- Youth blossomed into maturity.
- She tried to use "blossomed" carefully so everyone would understand.

blossoming (noun)

The time and process of budding and unfolding of blossoms.

- They discussed "blossoming" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "blossoming" means with a simple example.

blowers (noun)

A fan run by an electric motor.

- He looked up "blowers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "blowers" during the group presentation.

bogota (noun)

Capital and largest city of Colombia; located in central Colombia on a high fertile plain.

- In class, the teacher used "bogota" to mean capital and largest city of colombia; located in....
- The article explained what "bogota" means with a simple example.

boldness (noun)

The trait of being willing to undertake things that involve risk or danger.

- The proposal required great boldness.
- I couldn't believe her boldness.

bolstered (verb)

Support and strengthen.

- The coach explained when to use "bolstered" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "bolstered" carefully so everyone would understand.

bookseller (noun)

The proprietor of a bookstore.

- In class, the teacher used "bookseller" to mean the proprietor of a bookstore.
- The article explained what "bookseller" means with a simple example.

borrows (verb)

Take up and practice as one's own.

- She tried to use "borrows" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "borrows" until he saw an example.

brahms (noun)

German composer who developed the romantic style of both lyrical and classical music (1833-1897).

- Brahms was included in the program.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brahms."

brant (noun)

Small dark geese that breed in the north and migrate southward.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "brant."
- He looked up "brant" because he had never seen it before.

breakage (noun)

The act of breaking something.

- The breakage was unavoidable.
- The total breakage was huge.

breech birth (noun)

Delivery of an infant whose feet or buttocks appear first.

- He looked up "breech birth" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "breech birth" during the group presentation.

---

breech closer (noun)

A metal block in breech-loading firearms that is withdrawn to insert a cartridge and replaced to close the breech before firing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "breech closer."
- The article explained what "breech closer" means with a simple example.

---

breech delivery (noun)

Delivery of an infant whose feet or buttocks appear first.

- They discussed "breech delivery" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "breech delivery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

california dandelion (noun)

European weed widely naturalized in North America having yellow flower heads and leaves resembling a cat's ears.

- In class, the teacher used "california dandelion" to mean european weed widely naturalized in north america....
- He looked up "california dandelion" because he had never seen it before.

---

capitulation (noun)

The act of surrendering (usually under agreed conditions).

- They were protected until the capitulation of the fort.
- The article explained what "capitulation" means with a simple example.

---

cardiologist (noun)

A specialist in cardiology; a specialist in the structure and function and disorders of the heart.

- In class, the teacher used "cardiologist" to mean a specialist in cardiology; a specialist in the....
- The article explained what "cardiologist" means with a simple example.

---

carelessly (adverb)

Without caution or prudence.

- One unfortunately sees historic features carelessly lost when estates fall into unsympathetic hands.
- Carelessly raised the children's hopes without thinking of their possible disappointment.

---

carotid (adjective)

Of or relating to either of the two major arteries supplying blood to the head and neck.

- Students compared "carotid" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "carotid" when it is of or relating to either of the two major arteries....

---

carotid body (noun)

A chemoreceptor located near the bifurcations of the carotid arteries; monitors oxygen content of the blood and helps control respiration.

- He looked up "carotid body" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "carotid body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chaplains (noun)

A clergyman ministering to some institution.

- They discussed "chaplains" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chaplains" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

charade (noun)

A word acted out in an episode of the game of charades.

- He looked up "charade" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "charade" to mean a word acted out in an episode of the game of charades.

---

chardonnay grape (noun)

White wine grape.

- Understanding "chardonnay grape" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "chardonnay grape" during the group presentation.

charles robert redford (noun)

United States actor and filmmaker who starred with Paul Newman in several films (born in 1936).

- Understanding "charles robert redford" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "charles robert redford" means with a simple example.

chimps (noun)

Intelligent somewhat arboreal ape of equatorial African forests.

- Understanding "chimps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "chimps" because he had never seen it before.

chinook (noun)

A Penutian language spoken by the Chinook.

- The article explained what "chinook" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinook."

chromatic colour (noun)

A color that has hue.

- Understanding "chromatic colour" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chromatic colour."

chromatic scale (noun)

A 12-note scale including all the semitones of the octave.

- In class, the teacher used "chromatic scale" to mean a 12-note scale including all the semitones of the....
- The article explained what "chromatic scale" means with a simple example.

chromatic vision (noun)

The normal ability to see colors.

- In class, the teacher used "chromatic vision" to mean the normal ability to see colors.
- Understanding "chromatic vision" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

chronic bronchitis (noun)

A form of bronchitis characterized by excess production of sputum leading to a chronic cough and obstruction of air flow.

- The article explained what "chronic bronchitis" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chronic bronchitis" to mean a form of bronchitis characterized by excess....

clove pink (noun)

Eurasian plant with pink to purple-red spice-scented usually double flowers; widely cultivated in many varieties and many colors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clove pink."
- He looked up "clove pink" because he had never seen it before.

coconuts (noun)

The edible white meat of a coconut; often shredded for use in e.g. cakes and curries.

- Understanding "coconuts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "coconuts" means with a simple example.

coexistence (noun)

Existing peacefully together.

- Understanding "coexistence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "coexistence" means with a simple example.

coiled (adjective)

Curled or wound (especially in concentric rings or spirals).

- A coiled snake ready to strike.
- The rope lay coiled on the deck.

colombian peso (noun)

The basic unit of money in Colombia; equal to 100 centavos.

- The article explained what "colombian peso" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "colombian peso" to mean the basic unit of money in colombia; equal to 100....

---

common carotid (noun)

Runs upward in the neck and divides into the external and internal carotid arteries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common carotid."
- He looked up "common carotid" because he had never seen it before.

---

common dandelion (noun)

Eurasian plant widely naturalized as a weed in North America; used as salad greens and to make wine.

- The article explained what "common dandelion" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "common dandelion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

common evening primrose (noun)

A coarse biennial of eastern North America with yellow flowers that open in the evening; naturalized in Europe.

- Understanding "common evening primrose" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "common evening primrose" during the group presentation.

---

compatriots (noun)

A person from your own country.

- They discussed "compatriots" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "compatriots" means with a simple example.

---

concourse (noun)

A wide hallway in a building where people can walk.

- They discussed "concourse" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "concourse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

confide (verb)

Reveal in private; tell confidentially.

- She tried to use "confide" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "confide" when talking about this idea.

---

converging (noun)

The act of converging (coming closer).

- In class, the teacher used "converging" to mean the act of converging (coming closer).
- The article explained what "converging" means with a simple example.

---

corning (verb)

Feed (cattle) with corn.

- She tried to use "corning" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "corning" until he saw an example.

---

countryman (noun)

A man who lives in the country and has country ways.

- In class, the teacher used "countryman" to mean a man who lives in the country and has country ways.
- The article explained what "countryman" means with a simple example.

---

cpus (noun)

(computer science) the part of a computer (a microprocessor chip) that does most of the data processing.

- They discussed "cpus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cpus" to mean (computer science) the part of a computer (a....

---

cramping (verb)

Prevent the progress or free movement of.

- In everyday English, people use "cramping" when talking about this idea.

- Learners should practice how to use “cramping” in real sentences.

---

cranial cavity (noun)

The cavity enclosed by the cranium.

- Understanding “cranial cavity” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “cranial cavity” means with a simple example.

---

craved (adjective)

Wanted intensely.

- The child could no longer resist taking one of the craved cookies.
- A “craved” approach may work better in this case.

---

craves (verb)

Have a craving, appetite, or great desire for.

- She tried to use “craves” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “craves” and when to wait.

---

crs (noun)

A hard brittle multivalent metallic element; resistant to corrosion and tarnishing.

- He looked up “crs” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “crs.”

---

crutch (noun)

A wooden or metal staff that fits under the armpit and reaches to the ground; used by disabled person while walking.

- He uses drugs as a psychological crutch.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “crutch.”

---

cupboards (noun)

A small room (or recess) or cabinet used for storage space.

- The article explained what “cupboards” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “cupboards” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cursive (adjective)

Having successive letter joined together.

- Cursive script.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “cursive.”

---

cutout (noun)

A part that is cut out or is intended to be cut out.

- He looked up “cutout” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “cutout” during the group presentation.

---

daisies (noun)

Any of numerous composite plants having flower heads with well-developed ray flowers usually arranged in a single whorl.

- In class, the teacher used “daisies” to mean any of numerous composite plants having flower....
- They discussed “daisies” during the group presentation.

---

dandelion (noun)

Any of several herbs of the genus Taraxacum having long tap roots and deeply notched leaves and bright yellow flowers followed by fluffy seed balls.

- In class, the teacher used “dandelion” to mean any of several herbs of the genus taraxacum having....
- He looked up “dandelion” because he had never seen it before.

---

dandelion green (noun)

The foliage of the dandelion plant.

- The article explained what “dandelion green” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “dandelion green” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ddt (noun)

An insecticide that is also toxic to animals and humans; banned in the United States since 1972.

- He looked up "ddt" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ddt" during the group presentation.

---

deafness (noun)

Partial or complete loss of hearing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deafness."
- Understanding "deafness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

decals (noun)

Either a design that is fixed to some surface or a paper bearing the design which is to be transferred to the surface.

- Understanding "decals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "decals" to mean either a design that is fixed to some surface or a....

---

declassified (adjective)

Having had security classification removed.

- It is useful to describe something as "declassified" when it is having had security classification removed.
- A "declassified" approach may work better in this case.

---

deflated (adjective)

Brought low in spirit.

- Left us fatigued and deflated spiritually.
- The speaker chose "deflated" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

defoe (noun)

English writer remembered particularly for his novel about Robinson Crusoe (1660-1731).

- They discussed "defoe" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "defoe" means with a simple example.

---

dekker (noun)

English dramatist and pamphleteer (1572-1632).

- In class, the teacher used "dekker" to mean english dramatist and pamphleteer (1572-1632).
- Understanding "dekker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

demonstrator (noun)

A teacher or teacher's assistant who demonstrates the principles that are being taught.

- In class, the teacher used "demonstrator" to mean a teacher or teacher's assistant who demonstrates....
- The article explained what "demonstrator" means with a simple example.

---

denoting (verb)

Be a sign or indication of.

- The coach explained when to use "denoting" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "denoting" until he saw an example.

---

destruct (verb)

Do away with, cause the destruction or undoing of.

- The engineers had to destruct the rocket for safety reasons.
- She tried to use "destruct" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

determinant (noun)

A determining or causal element or factor.

- Education is an important determinant of one's outlook on life.
- The article explained what "determinant" means with a simple example.

---

deterred (verb)

Turn away from by persuasion.

- Can you use "deterred" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "deterred" when talking about this idea.

---

devonian (noun)

From 405 million to 345 million years ago; preponderance of fishes and appearance of amphibians and ammonites.

- In class, the teacher used "devonian" to mean from 405 million to 345 million years ago;....
- He looked up "devonian" because he had never seen it before.

---

devonian period (noun)

From 405 million to 345 million years ago; preponderance of fishes and appearance of amphibians and ammonites.

- The article explained what "devonian period" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devonian period."

---

devouring (adjective)

(often followed by 'for') ardently or excessively desirous.

- Fierce devouring affection.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "devouring."

---

dias (noun)

Portuguese explorer who in 1488 was the first European to get round the Cape of Good Hope (thus establishing a sea route from the Atlantic to Asia) (1450-1500).

- The article explained what "dias" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dias."

---

disagreeing (verb)

Be of different opinions.

- She tried to use "disagreeing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "disagreeing" and when to wait.

---

disenfranchised (adjective)

Deprived of the rights of citizenship especially the right to vote.

- It is useful to describe something as "disenfranchised" when it is deprived of the rights of citizenship especially....
- A "disenfranchised" approach may work better in this case.

---

disengage (verb)

Release from something that holds fast, connects, or entangles.

- I want to disengage myself from his influence.
- Disengage the gears.

---

disoriented (adjective)

Having lost your bearings; confused as to time or place or personal identity.

- I frequently find myself disoriented when I come up out of the subway.
- The anesthetic left her completely disoriented.

---

displacing (verb)

Take the place of or have precedence over.

- The coach explained when to use "displacing" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "displacing" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

dissect (verb)

Make a mathematical, chemical, or grammatical analysis of; break down into components or essential features.

- Dissect the bodies for analysis.
- Can you use "dissect" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

drywall (noun)

A wide flat board used to cover walls or partitions; made from plaster or wood pulp or other materials and used primarily to form the interior walls of houses.

- They discussed "drywall" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "drywall" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dugout canoe (noun)

A canoe made by hollowing out and shaping a large log.

- Understanding "dugout canoe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dugout canoe" because he had never seen it before.

eagerness (noun)

A positive feeling of wanting to push ahead with something.

- They showed no eagerness to spread the gospel.
- The article explained what "eagerness" means with a simple example.

electrostatic generator (noun)

Electrical device that produces a high voltage by building up a charge of static electricity.

- The article explained what "electrostatic generator" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatic generator."

electrostatic printer (noun)

A printer that uses an electric charge to deposit toner on paper.

- In class, the teacher used "electrostatic printer" to mean a printer that uses an electric charge to deposit....
- He looked up "electrostatic printer" because he had never seen it before.

elliptic (adjective)

Characterized by extreme economy of expression or omission of superfluous elements; ; - H.O.Taylor.

- The dialogue is elliptic and full of dark hints.
- The explanation was concise, even elliptical to the verge of obscurity.

emitter (noun)

The electrode in a transistor where electrons originate.

- In class, the teacher used "emitter" to mean the electrode in a transistor where electrons originate.
- He looked up "emitter" because he had never seen it before.

emporium (noun)

A large retail store organized into departments offering a variety of merchandise; commonly part of a retail chain.

- Understanding "emporium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "emporium" means with a simple example.

empties (noun)

A container that has been emptied.

- Return all empties to the store.
- The article explained what "empties" means with a simple example.

epicenter (noun)

The point on the Earth's surface directly above the focus of an earthquake.

- They discussed "epicenter" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "epicenter."

epidural (noun)

Regional anesthesia resulting from injection of an anesthetic into the epidural space of the spinal cord; sensation is lost in the abdominal and genital and pelvic areas; used in childbirth and gynecological surgery.

- Understanding "epidural" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "epidural" because he had never seen it before.

epistle (noun)

A book of the New Testament written in the form of a letter from an Apostle.

- Understanding "epistle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "epistle" means with a simple example.

epistle of james (noun)

A New Testament book attributed to Saint James the Apostle.

- The article explained what "epistle of james" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "epistle of james" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

equating (noun)

The act of regarding as equal.

- He looked up "equating" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "equating" to mean the act of regarding as equal.

---

erstwhile (adjective)

Belonging to some prior time.

- Erstwhile friend.
- A "erstwhile" approach may work better in this case.

---

espoused (verb)

Choose and follow; as of theories, ideas, policies, strategies or plans.

- She tried to use "espoused" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "espoused" until he saw an example.

---

european magpie (noun)

A common magpie of Eurasia.

- He looked up "european magpie" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "european magpie" to mean a common magpie of eurasia.

---

evening-primrose family (noun)

A large and widely distributed family of plants of the order Myrtales.

- Understanding "evening-primrose family" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "evening-primrose family" means with a simple example.

---

executor-heir relation (noun)

The responsibility of an executor (or administrator) of an estate to act in the best interests of the heir.

- He looked up "executor-heir relation" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "executor-heir relation" to mean the responsibility of an executor (or....

---

exertion (noun)

Use of physical or mental energy; hard work.

- They managed only with great exertion.
- Understanding "exertion" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

expend (verb)

Use up, consume fully.

- The legislature expended its time on school questions.
- She tried to use "expend" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

facilitator (noun)

Someone who makes progress easier.

- In class, the teacher used "facilitator" to mean someone who makes progress easier.
- Understanding "facilitator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fall dandelion (noun)

Fall-blooming European herb with a yellow flower; naturalized in the United States.

- The article explained what "fall dandelion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "fall dandelion" to mean fall-blooming european herb with a yellow flower;....

---

fathered (verb)

Make children.

- Can you use "fathered" in a sentence that fits this situation?

- The coach explained when to use "fathered" and when to wait.

fence mending (noun)

Social action to improve poor relations (especially in politics).

- They moved forward from a period of fence mending to substantive changes in the country.
- They discussed "fence mending" during the group presentation.

ferocity (noun)

The property of being wild or turbulent.

- They discussed "ferocity" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ferocity."

first epistle of john (noun)

The first New Testament epistle traditionally attributed to Saint John the Apostle.

- He looked up "first epistle of john" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "first epistle of john."

first epistle of peter (noun)

The first New Testament book traditionally attributed to Saint Peter the Apostle.

- The article explained what "first epistle of peter" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "first epistle of peter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

flagstaff (noun)

A tall staff or pole on which a flag is raised.

- In class, the teacher used "flagstaff" to mean a tall staff or pole on which a flag is raised.
- He looked up "flagstaff" because he had never seen it before.

flat-coated retriever (noun)

An English breed having a shiny black or liver-colored coat; retrieves game from land or water.

- Understanding "flat-coated retriever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "flat-coated retriever" means with a simple example.

fluidity (noun)

The property of flowing easily.

- Adding lead makes the alloy easier to cast because the melting point is reduced and the fluidity is increased.
- They believe that fluidity increases as the water gets warmer.

flying gecko (noun)

A gecko that has membranous expansions along the sides of its body and limbs and tail that enable it to glide short distances.

- Understanding "flying gecko" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "flying gecko" during the group presentation.

follies (noun)

A revue with elaborate costuming.

- In class, the teacher used "follies" to mean a revue with elaborate costuming.
- Understanding "follies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fortify (verb)

Prepare oneself for a military confrontation.

- In everyday English, people use "fortify" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "fortify" in real sentences.

fouling (verb)

Become or cause to become obstructed.

- Learners should practice how to use "fouling" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "fouling" when talking about this idea.

frank breech (noun)

Position of a fetus in which the buttocks are present at the maternal pelvic outlet.

- The article explained what "frank breech" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "frank breech" to mean position of a fetus in which the buttocks are....

---

frazer (noun)

English social anthropologist noted for studies of primitive religion and magic (1854-1941).

- Understanding "frazer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "frazer" to mean english social anthropologist noted for studies of....

---

frills (noun)

A strip of pleated material used as a decoration or a trim.

- He looked up "frills" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "frills" to mean a strip of pleated material used as a decoration or....

---

fsb (noun)

The internal counterintelligence agency of the Russian Federation and successor to the Soviet KGB; formerly led by Vladimir Putin.

- The article explained what "fsb" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "fsb" during the group presentation.

---

gagged (verb)

Struggle for breath; have insufficient oxygen intake.

- He swallowed a fishbone and gagged.
- The press was gagged.

---

garret (noun)

Floor consisting of open space at the top of a house just below roof; often used for storage.

- The article explained what "garret" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "garret" during the group presentation.

---

gaunt (adjective)

Very thin especially from disease or hunger or cold.

- A nightmare population of gaunt men and skeletal boys.
- The speaker chose "gaunt" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gentleman's-cane (noun)

Tall showy tropical American annual having hairy stems and long spikes of usually red flowers above leaves deeply flushed with purple; seeds often used as cereal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gentleman's-cane."
- Understanding "gentleman's-cane" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genus silvia (noun)

Type genus of the Sylviidae: warblers.

- Understanding "genus silvia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus silvia."

---

giant potato creeper (noun)

Vine of Costa Rica sparsely armed with hooklike spines and having large lilac-blue flowers.

- Understanding "giant potato creeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "giant potato creeper" to mean vine of costa rica sparsely armed with hooklike....

---

gila desert (noun)

A desert area in southern Arizona.

- In class, the teacher used "gila desert" to mean a desert area in southern arizona.
- He looked up "gila desert" because he had never seen it before.

---

gila monster (noun)

Large orange and black lizard of southwestern United States; not dangerous unless molested.

- The article explained what "gila monster" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gila monster" to mean large orange and black lizard of southwestern....

---

gilman (noun)

United States feminist (1860-1935).

- Understanding "gilman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gilman" during the group presentation.

---

giro cheque (noun)

A check given by the British government to someone who is unemployed; it can be cashed either at a bank or at the post office.

- Understanding "giro cheque" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "giro cheque" to mean a check given by the british government to someone....

---

gms (noun)

A metric unit of weight equal to one thousandth of a kilogram.

- The article explained what "gms" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gms."

---

grand larceny (noun)

Larceny of property having a value greater than some amount (the amount varies by locale).

- He looked up "grand larceny" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "grand larceny" during the group presentation.

---

grapevine (noun)

Gossip spread by spoken communication.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grapevine."
- Understanding "grapevine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grapevine family (noun)

A family of vines belonging to order Rhamnales.

- The article explained what "grapevine family" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "grapevine family" during the group presentation.

---

greenland spar (noun)

A white mineral consisting of fluorides of aluminum and sodium; a source of fluorine.

- He looked up "greenland spar" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "greenland spar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grinds (noun)

The grade of particle fineness to which a substance is ground.

- They discussed "grinds" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "grinds" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

groaning (verb)

Indicate pain, discomfort, or displeasure.

- Can you use "groaning" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "groaning" and when to wait.

---

grotto (noun)

A small cave (usually with attractive features).

- They discussed "grotto" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "grotto" because he had never seen it before.

---

groundhog (noun)

Reddish brown North American marmot.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "groundhog."
- He looked up "groundhog" because he had never seen it before.

groundhog day (noun)

If the ground hog emerges and sees his shadow on this day, there will be 6 more weeks of winter.

- The article explained what "groundhog day" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "groundhog day" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gsa (noun)

A central management agency that sets Federal policy for Federal procurement and real property management and information resources management.

- The article explained what "gsa" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "gsa" during the group presentation.

guerilla (noun)

A member of an irregular armed force that fights a stronger force by sabotage and harassment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guerilla."
- He looked up "guerilla" because he had never seen it before.

guerilla force (noun)

An irregular armed force that fights by sabotage and harassment; often rural and organized in large groups.

- Understanding "guerilla force" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "guerilla force" during the group presentation.

guernsey elm (noun)

A variety of the English elm with erect branches and broader leaves.

- Understanding "guernsey elm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "guernsey elm" during the group presentation.

hairless (adjective)

Having no hair or fur.

- A Mexican Hairless is about the size of a fox terrier and hairless except for a tufts on the head and tail.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "hairless."

hans geiger (noun)

German physicist who developed the Geiger counter (1882-1945).

- They discussed "hans geiger" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hans geiger" means with a simple example.

harley granville-barker (noun)

English actor and dramatist and critic and director noted for his productions of Shakespearean plays (1877-1946).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harley granville-barker."
- The article explained what "harley granville-barker" means with a simple example.

heave (noun)

An involuntary spasm of ineffectual vomiting.

- A bad case of the heaves.
- He gave it a mighty heave.

heave up (verb)

Lift or elevate.

- She tried to use "heave up" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "heave up" until he saw an example.

hellfire (noun)

A place of eternal fire envisaged as punishment for the damned.

- The article explained what "hellfire" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hellfire" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

highlander (noun)

A soldier in a Scottish regiment from the Highlands.

- Understanding "highlander" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "highlander."

---

hilt (noun)

The handle of a sword or dagger.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hilt."
- He looked up "hilt" because he had never seen it before.

---

hinterland (noun)

A remote and undeveloped area.

- The article explained what "hinterland" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "hinterland" during the group presentation.

---

hog snapper (noun)

Large wrasse of western Atlantic; head of male resembles a pig's snout.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hog snapper."
- Understanding "hog snapper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

homely (adjective)

Lacking in physical beauty or proportion.

- A homely child.
- Several of the buildings were downright homely.

---

in perpetuity (adverb)

For an indefinitely long time.

- Bequeathed to the nation in perpetuity.
- Desire happiness in perpetuity.

---

inbred (adjective)

Normally existing at birth.

- Students compared "inbred" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "inbred."

---

incase (verb)

Enclose in, or as if in, a case.

- In everyday English, people use "incase" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "incase" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

inclusions (noun)

The relation of comprising something.

- The article explained what "inclusions" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "inclusions" during the group presentation.

---

indescribable (adjective)

Defying expression or description.

- Indescribable beauty.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "indescribable."

---

indoctrination (noun)

Teaching someone to accept doctrines uncritically.

- The article explained what "indoctrination" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "indoctrination" to mean teaching someone to accept doctrines uncritically.

---

inductive (adjective)

Of reasoning; proceeding from particular facts to a general conclusion.

- Inductive reasoning.

- Inductive reactance.

---

inertial frame (noun)

A coordinate system in which Newton's first law of motion is valid.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inertial frame."
- Understanding "inertial frame" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inevitability (noun)

The quality of being unavoidable.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inevitability."
- He looked up "inevitability" because he had never seen it before.

---

infatuated (adjective)

Marked by foolish or unreasoning fondness.

- He was infatuated with her.
- A "infatuated" approach may work better in this case.

---

infatuation (noun)

An object of extravagant short-lived passion.

- He looked up "infatuation" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "infatuation" during the group presentation.

---

infra (adverb)

(in writing) see below.

- Vide infra.
- He answered "infra," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

infraction (noun)

A crime less serious than a felony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "infraction."
- They discussed "infraction" during the group presentation.

---

inhabiting (verb)

Exist or be situated within.

- In everyday English, people use "inhabiting" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "inhabiting" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

inkling (noun)

A slight suggestion or vague understanding.

- He had no inkling what was about to happen.
- He looked up "inkling" because he had never seen it before.

---

innuendo (noun)

An indirect (and usually malicious) implication.

- In class, the teacher used "innuendo" to mean an indirect (and usually malicious) implication.
- The article explained what "innuendo" means with a simple example.

---

insecticide (noun)

A chemical used to kill insects.

- He looked up "insecticide" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "insecticide" during the group presentation.

---

instantaneously (adverb)

Without any delay.

- The narrator describes the scene "instantaneously" in the final chapter.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "instantaneously" naturally.

---

interchangeably (adverb)

In an interchangeable manner.

- These terms can be used interchangeably.
- He answered "interchangeably," which changed the tone of the conversation.

interfaith (adjective)

Involving persons of different religious faiths.

- An interfaith marriage.
- Interfaith good will.

interrogate (verb)

Pose a series of questions to.

- Learners should practice how to use "interrogate" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "interrogate" until he saw an example.

introspective (adjective)

Given to examining own sensory and perceptual experiences.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "introspective."
- Students compared "introspective" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

itch mite (noun)

Whitish mites that attack the skin of humans and other animals.

- Itch mites cause scabies.
- They discussed "itch mite" during the group presentation.

jacob's ladder (noun)

Pinnate-leaved European perennial having bright blue or white flowers.

- The article explained what "jacob's ladder" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacob's ladder."

jacob's rod (noun)

Asphodel having erect smooth unbranched stem either flexuous or straight.

- Understanding "jacob's rod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "jacob's rod" during the group presentation.

javelin (noun)

A spear thrown as a weapon or in competitive field events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "javelin."
- He looked up "javelin" because he had never seen it before.

johan kepler (noun)

German astronomer who first stated laws of planetary motion (1571-1630).

- The article explained what "johan kepler" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "johan kepler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

john of gaunt (noun)

The fourth son of Edward III who was the effective ruler of England during the close of his father's reign and during the minority of Richard II; his son was Henry Bolingbroke (1340-1399).

- The article explained what "john of gaunt" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "john of gaunt" to mean the fourth son of edward iii who was the effective....

john witherspoon (noun)

American Revolutionary leader and educator (born in Scotland) who signed of the Declaration of Independence and was president of the college that became Princeton University (1723-1794).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john witherspoon."
- Understanding "john witherspoon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

joplin (noun)

United States singer who died of a drug overdose at the height of her popularity (1943-1970).

- He looked up "joplin" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "joplin" to mean united states singer who died of a drug overdose at....

---

juarez (noun)

A city in northern Mexico on the Rio Grande opposite El Paso.

- The article explained what "juarez" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "juarez."

---

judea (noun)

The southern part of ancient Palestine succeeding the kingdom of Judah; a Roman province at the time of Christ.

- They discussed "judea" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "judea" because he had never seen it before.

---

kazan (noun)

An industrial city in the European part of Russia.

- They discussed "kazan" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "kazan" to mean an industrial city in the european part of russia.

---

knoll (noun)

A small natural hill.

- He looked up "knoll" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "knoll" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lactic acid (noun)

A clear odorless hygroscopic syrupy carboxylic acid found in sour milk and in many fruits.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lactic acid."
- The article explained what "lactic acid" means with a simple example.

---

landlady (noun)

A landlord who is a woman.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "landlady."
- Understanding "landlady" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

larceny (noun)

The act of taking something from someone unlawfully.

- In class, the teacher used "larceny" to mean the act of taking something from someone unlawfully.
- Understanding "larceny" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lavatory (noun)

A bathroom sink that is permanently installed and connected to a water supply and drainpipe; where you can wash your hands and face.

- In class, the teacher used "lavatory" to mean a bathroom sink that is permanently installed and....
- He looked up "lavatory" because he had never seen it before.

---

leanings (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the vertical.

- He felt leanings toward frivolity.
- The article explained what "leanings" means with a simple example.

---

ligands (noun)

A substance (an atom or molecule or radical or ion) that forms a complex around a central atom.

- In class, the teacher used "ligands" to mean a substance (an atom or molecule or radical or ion)....
- They discussed "ligands" during the group presentation.

---

lingered (verb)

Remain present although waning or gradually dying.

- Her perfume lingered on.
- The shy student lingered in the corner.

linings (noun)

A protective covering that protects an inside surface.

- In class, the teacher used "linings" to mean a protective covering that protects an inside surface.
- The article explained what "linings" means with a simple example.

locales (noun)

The scene of any event or action (especially the place of a meeting).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locales."
- They discussed "locales" during the group presentation.

louis aragon (noun)

French writer who generalized surrealism to literature (1897-1982).

- Understanding "louis aragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "louis aragon" to mean french writer who generalized surrealism to....

lowlands of scotland (noun)

The southern part of Scotland that is not mountainous.

- The article explained what "lowlands of scotland" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lowlands of scotland" to mean the southern part of scotland that is not mountainous.

luminosity (noun)

The quality of being luminous; emitting or reflecting light.

- Its luminosity is measured relative to that of our sun.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "luminosity."

luo (noun)

A Nilotic language.

- In class, the teacher used "luo" to mean a nilotic language.
- The article explained what "luo" means with a simple example.

magpie (noun)

An obnoxious and foolish and loquacious talker.

- The article explained what "magpie" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magpie."

maoist (noun)

An advocate of Maoism.

- They discussed "maoist" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "maoist" to mean an advocate of maoism.

masjid (noun)

(Islam) a Muslim place of worship.

- Understanding "masjid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "masjid" during the group presentation.

materialized (verb)

Come into being; become reality.

- Her dream really materialized.
- In everyday English, people use "materialized" when talking about this idea.

matrimonial (adjective)

Of or relating to the state of marriage.

- A "matrimonial" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "matrimonial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

matrimonial law (noun)

That branch of jurisprudence that studies the laws governing matrimony.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matrimonial law."
- The article explained what "matrimonial law" means with a simple example.

---

maul (noun)

A heavy long-handled hammer used to drive stakes or wedges.

- They discussed "maul" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "maul" because he had never seen it before.

---

maurice chevalier (noun)

French actor and cabaret singer (1888-1972).

- They discussed "maurice chevalier" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "maurice chevalier" because he had never seen it before.

---

meandering (adjective)

Of a path e.g.

- Meandering streams.
- It is useful to describe something as "meandering" when it is of a path e.g.

---

menstruation (noun)

The monthly discharge of blood from the uterus of nonpregnant women from puberty to menopause; ; –Hippocrates; –Aristotle.

- The women were sickly and subject to excessive menstruation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "menstruation."

---

messianic (adjective)

Of or relating to a messiah promising deliverance.

- Messianic cult.
- Would you call this situation "messianic"? Explain why.

---

metering (verb)

Stamp with a meter indicating the postage.

- Can you use "metering" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "metering" until he saw an example.

---

microprocessor chip (noun)

Electronic equipment consisting of a small crystal of a silicon semiconductor fabricated to carry out a number of electronic functions in an integrated circuit.

- Understanding "microprocessor chip" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "microprocessor chip" during the group presentation.

---

mikhail gorbachev (noun)

Soviet statesman whose foreign policy brought an end to the Cold War and whose domestic policy introduced major reforms (born in 1931).

- Understanding "mikhail gorbachev" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "mikhail gorbachev" during the group presentation.

---

minimalism (noun)

An art movement in sculpture and painting that began in the 1950s and emphasized extreme simplification of form and color.

- He looked up "minimalism" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "minimalism" to mean an art movement in sculpture and painting that....

---

misgivings (noun)

Uneasiness about the fitness of an action.

- Understanding "misgivings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "misgivings" means with a simple example.

---

misogynist (noun)

A misanthrope who dislikes women in particular.

- In class, the teacher used "misogynist" to mean a misanthrope who dislikes women in particular.

- Understanding "misogynist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

modalities (noun)

A method of therapy that involves physical or electrical therapeutic treatment.

- They discussed "modalities" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "modalities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motels (noun)

A motor hotel.

- In class, the teacher used "motels" to mean a motor hotel.
- Understanding "motels" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

motivator (noun)

A positive motivational influence.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "motivator."
- The article explained what "motivator" means with a simple example.

---

mts (noun)

A unit of weight equivalent to 1000 kilograms.

- He looked up "mts" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mts."

---

mulch (noun)

A protective covering of rotting vegetable matter spread to reduce evaporation and soil erosion.

- The article explained what "mulch" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mulch."

---

musket (noun)

A muzzle-loading shoulder gun with a long barrel; formerly used by infantrymen.

- They discussed "musket" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "musket" means with a simple example.

---

musket ball (noun)

A solid projectile that is shot by a musket.

- They had to carry a ramrod as well as powder and ball.
- He looked up "musket ball" because he had never seen it before.

---

nance (noun)

Offensive term for an openly homosexual man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nance."
- The article explained what "nance" means with a simple example.

---

nestor (noun)

(Greek mythology) a wise old counselor to the Greeks at Troy.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nestor."
- The article explained what "nestor" means with a simple example.

---

nether (adjective)

Dwelling beneath the surface of the earth.

- Nether regions.
- Gnawed his nether lip.

---

nether region (noun)

(Christianity) the abode of Satan and the forces of evil; where sinners suffer eternal punishment; - John Milton; ; -Dr. Johnson.

- Understanding "nether region" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nether region" during the group presentation.

---

newton's first law (noun)

A body remains at rest or in motion with a constant velocity unless acted upon by an external force.

- The article explained what "newton's first law" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "newton's first law" to mean a body remains at rest or in motion with a constant....

---

newton's law (noun)

One of three basic laws of classical mechanics.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "newton's law."
- The article explained what "newton's law" means with a simple example.

---

newton's second law (noun)

The rate of change of momentum is proportional to the imposed force and goes in the direction of the force.

- The article explained what "newton's second law" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "newton's second law" during the group presentation.

---

newton's third law (noun)

Action and reaction are equal and opposite.

- Understanding "newton's third law" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "newton's third law" means with a simple example.

---

no-frills (adjective)

Characterized by the absence of inessential features.

- He got a no-frills introduction to the job.
- It is useful to describe something as "no-frills" when it is characterized by the absence of inessential features.

---

nom de plume (noun)

An author's pseudonym.

- Understanding "nom de plume" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nom de plume" during the group presentation.

---

non-ionic detergent (noun)

A class of synthetic detergents in which the molecules do not ionize in aqueous solutions.

- He looked up "non-ionic detergent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "non-ionic detergent."

---

nourish (verb)

Provide with nourishment.

- This kind of food is not nourishing for young children.
- She tried to use "nourish" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

nucleic acid (noun)

(biochemistry) any of various macromolecules composed of nucleotide chains that are vital constituents of all living cells.

- Understanding "nucleic acid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "nucleic acid" during the group presentation.

---

numbing (adjective)

Causing numbness or insensitivity.

- The numbing effect of grief.
- Would you call this situation "numbing"? Explain why.

---

nutrient agar (noun)

Any culture medium that uses agar as the gelling agent.

- In class, the teacher used "nutrient agar" to mean any culture medium that uses agar as the gelling agent.
- He looked up "nutrient agar" because he had never seen it before.

---

nutritionist (noun)

A specialist in the study of nutrition.

- Understanding "nutritionist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "nutritionist" to mean a specialist in the study of nutrition.

---

oat (noun)

Seed of the annual grass Avena sativa (spoken of primarily in the plural as 'oats').

- In class, the teacher used "oat" to mean seed of the annual grass avena sativa (spoken of....
- The article explained what "oat" means with a simple example.

---

obscenity (noun)

The trait of behaving in an obscene manner.

- He looked up "obscenity" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "obscenity" during the group presentation.

---

obsess (verb)

Haunt like a ghost; pursue.

- She is obsessing over her weight.
- Can you use "obsess" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

onlookers (noun)

Someone who looks on.

- He looked up "onlookers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "onlookers."

---

orator (noun)

A person who delivers a speech or oration.

- The article explained what "orator" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "orator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oscillations (noun)

A single complete execution of a periodically repeated phenomenon.

- He looked up "oscillations" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oscillations."

---

outweighed (verb)

Weigh more heavily.

- In everyday English, people use "outweighed" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "outweighed" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

overhauled (verb)

Make repairs, renovations, revisions or adjustments to.

- In everyday English, people use "overhauled" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "overhauled" in real sentences.

---

overpaid (verb)

Pay too much.

- Learners should practice how to use "overpaid" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "overpaid" until he saw an example.

---

oxen (noun)

Domesticated bovine animals as a group regardless of sex or age; ; ; - Bible.

- A team of oxen.
- He looked up "oxen" because he had never seen it before.

---

papyrus (noun)

A document written on papyrus.

- Understanding "papyrus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "papyrus" means with a simple example.

patrolled (verb)

Maintain the security of by carrying out a patrol.

- Can you use “patrolled” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use “patrolled” when talking about this idea.

patties (noun)

Small flat mass of chopped food.

- In class, the teacher used “patties” to mean small flat mass of chopped food.
- He looked up “patties” because he had never seen it before.

pectoral muscle (noun)

Either of two large muscles of the chest.

- The article explained what “pectoral muscle” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “pectoral muscle” to mean either of two large muscles of the chest.

pencil eraser (noun)

An eraser made of rubber (or of a synthetic material with properties similar to rubber); commonly mounted at one end of a pencil.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pencil eraser.”
- They discussed “pencil eraser” during the group presentation.

perpetuity (noun)

The property of being perpetual (seemingly ceaseless).

- They discussed “perpetuity” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “perpetuity” means with a simple example.

physical exertion (noun)

The activity of exerting your muscles in various ways to keep fit.

- The physical exertion required by his work kept him fit.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “physical exertion.”

pigeon-breasted (adjective)

Having a chest deformity marked by a projecting breastbone caused by infantile rickets.

- A “pigeon-breasted” approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned “pigeon-breasted.”

pill pusher (noun)

A health professional trained in the art of preparing and dispensing drugs.

- In class, the teacher used “pill pusher” to mean a health professional trained in the art of....
- They discussed “pill pusher” during the group presentation.

platelet (noun)

Tiny bits of protoplasm found in vertebrate blood; essential for blood clotting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “platelet.”
- They discussed “platelet” during the group presentation.

pliers (noun)

A gripping hand tool with two hinged arms and (usually) serrated jaws.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pliers.”
- He looked up “pliers” because he had never seen it before.

pluralism (noun)

The practice of one person holding more than one benefice at a time.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “pluralism.”
- He looked up “pluralism” because he had never seen it before.

polaroid land camera (noun)

A camera that develops and produces a positive print within seconds.

- He looked up "polaroid land camera" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "polaroid land camera" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

polynesian (noun)

The branch of the Austronesian languages spoken from Madagascar to the central Pacific.

- He looked up "polynesian" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polynesian."

---

pooh-bah (noun)

An arrogant or conceited person of importance.

- Understanding "pooh-bah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "pooh-bah" during the group presentation.

---

portability (noun)

The quality of being light enough to be carried.

- The article explained what "portability" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "portability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

posturing (noun)

Adopting a vain conceited posture.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "posturing."
- He looked up "posturing" because he had never seen it before.

---

pouches (noun)

A small or medium size container for holding or carrying things.

- The article explained what "pouches" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pouches" to mean a small or medium size container for holding or....

---

predation (noun)

An act of plundering and pillaging and marauding.

- In class, the teacher used "predation" to mean an act of plundering and pillaging and marauding.
- The article explained what "predation" means with a simple example.

---

preheat (verb)

Heat beforehand.

- Preheat the oven!
- Can you use "preheat" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

prickly pear (noun)

Round or pear-shaped spiny fruit of any of various prickly pear cacti.

- He looked up "prickly pear" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "prickly pear" to mean round or pear-shaped spiny fruit of any of various....

---

prima ballerina (noun)

A leading female ballet dancer.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prima ballerina."
- The article explained what "prima ballerina" means with a simple example.

---

primrose path (noun)

A life of ease and pleasure.

- He looked up "primrose path" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "primrose path" to mean a life of ease and pleasure.

---

pro tem (adverb)

For the time being; temporarily; - J.W.Krutch.

- Accepting pro tem that hypothesis consistent with the facts.

- The narrator describes the scene "pro tem" in the final chapter.

---

pronouncing (verb)

Speak, pronounce, or utter in a certain way.

- She tried to use "pronouncing" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "pronouncing" until he saw an example.

---

propagating (verb)

Transmit from one generation to the next.

- The coach explained when to use "propagating" and when to wait.
- Can you use "propagating" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

prospered (verb)

Make steady progress; be at the high point in one's career or reach a high point in historical significance or importance.

- She tried to use "prospered" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "prospered" in real sentences.

---

protectorate (noun)

A state or territory partly controlled by (but not a possession of) a stronger state but autonomous in internal affairs; protectorates are established by treaty.

- In class, the teacher used "protectorate" to mean a state or territory partly controlled by (but not....
- They discussed "protectorate" during the group presentation.

---

psychopathic (adjective)

Suffering from an undiagnosed mental disorder.

- A "psychopathic" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "psychopathic" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

public lavatory (noun)

A toilet that is available to the public.

- They discussed "public lavatory" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "public lavatory" to mean a toilet that is available to the public.

---

puffed (adjective)

Gathered for protruding fullness.

- Students compared "puffed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "puffed"? Explain why.

---

quarterfinal (noun)

One of the four competitions in an elimination tournament whose winners go on to play in the semifinals.

- He looked up "quarterfinal" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "quarterfinal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

radiator grille (noun)

Grating that admits cooling air to car's radiator.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "radiator grille."
- He looked up "radiator grille" because he had never seen it before.

---

randomness (noun)

The quality of lacking any predictable order or plan.

- Understanding "randomness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "randomness" during the group presentation.

---

recitation (noun)

A public instance of reciting or repeating (from memory) something prepared in advance.

- The program included songs and recitations of well-loved poems.
- In class, the teacher used "recitation" to mean a public instance of reciting or repeating (from....

---

reclining chair (noun)

An armchair whose back can be lowered and foot can be raised to allow the sitter to recline in it.

- In class, the teacher used "reclining chair" to mean an armchair whose back can be lowered and foot can....
- The article explained what "reclining chair" means with a simple example.

---

reconsidered (verb)

Consider again; give new consideration to; usually with a view to changing.

- He did not know how to use "reconsidered" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "reconsidered" and when to wait.

---

rectal (adjective)

Of or involving the rectum.

- Rectal cancer.
- A "rectal" approach may work better in this case.

---

recursive (adjective)

Of or relating to a recursion.

- It is useful to describe something as "recursive" when it is of or relating to a recursion.
- The speaker chose "recursive" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

reevaluate (verb)

Revise or renew one's assessment.

- She tried to use "reevaluate" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "reevaluate" in real sentences.

---

renaming (verb)

Assign a new name to.

- In everyday English, people use "renaming" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "renaming" in real sentences.

---

reprimand (noun)

An act or expression of criticism and censure.

- Understanding "reprimand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "reprimand" during the group presentation.

---

republic of seychelles (noun)

A republic on the Seychelles islands; achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1976.

- Understanding "republic of seychelles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "republic of seychelles" because he had never seen it before.

---

rerun (noun)

A program that is broadcast again.

- She likes to watch 'I love Lucy' reruns.
- He looked up "rerun" because he had never seen it before.

---

retrograde amnesia (noun)

Loss of memory for events immediately preceding a trauma.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "retrograde amnesia."
- The article explained what "retrograde amnesia" means with a simple example.

---

reverting (noun)

A failure to maintain a higher state.

- He looked up "reverting" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "reverting" to mean a failure to maintain a higher state.

---

riddance (noun)

The act of forcing out someone or something.

- He looked up "riddance" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "riddance" during the group presentation.

---

ring blackbird (noun)

European thrush common in rocky areas; the male has blackish plumage with a white band around the neck.

- He looked up "ring blackbird" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ring blackbird."

---

rock-inhabiting (adjective)

Of ferns and lichens that grow on rocks.

- A "rock-inhabiting" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rock-inhabiting."

---

rocket propellant (noun)

An explosive charge that propels a rocket.

- They discussed "rocket propellant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rocket propellant."

---

roger bannister (noun)

English runner who in 1954 became the first person to run a mile in less than four minutes (born in 1929).

- They discussed "roger bannister" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "roger bannister" because he had never seen it before.

---

rugged individualism (noun)

Individualism in social and economic affairs; belief not only in personal liberty and self-reliance but also in free competition.

- In class, the teacher used "rugged individualism" to mean individualism in social and economic affairs;....
- The article explained what "rugged individualism" means with a simple example.

---

russian dandelion (noun)

Perennial dandelion native to Kazakhstan cultivated for its fleshy roots that have high rubber content.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "russian dandelion."
- The article explained what "russian dandelion" means with a simple example.

---

ruthlessly (adverb)

In a ruthless manner.

- The government has been urged to take immediate action to deal ruthlessly with the strikers.
- Using "ruthlessly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

sakes (noun)

A reason for wanting something done.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sakes."
- He looked up "sakes" because he had never seen it before.

---

sales demonstrator (noun)

Someone who demonstrates an article to a prospective buyer.

- He looked up "sales demonstrator" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "sales demonstrator" to mean someone who demonstrates an article to a....

---

satchel (noun)

Luggage consisting of a small case with a flat bottom and (usually) a shoulder strap.

- Understanding "satchel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "satchel" to mean luggage consisting of a small case with a flat....

---

saucy (adjective)

Characterized by a lightly pert and exuberant quality.

- The speaker chose "saucy" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "saucy" when it is characterized by a lightly pert and exuberant quality.

scalar matrix (noun)

A diagonal matrix in which all of the diagonal elements are equal.

- The article explained what "scalar matrix" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "scalar matrix" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

scat singing (noun)

Singing jazz; the singer substitutes nonsense syllables for the words of the song and tries to sound like a musical instrument.

- He looked up "scat singing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scat singing."

scorsese (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1942).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scorsese."
- Understanding "scorsese" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

sculptural (adjective)

Relating to or consisting of sculpture.

- Sculptural embellishments.
- A "sculptural" approach may work better in this case.

seeded raisin (noun)

Seeded grape that has been dried.

- In class, the teacher used "seeded raisin" to mean seeded grape that has been dried.
- The article explained what "seeded raisin" means with a simple example.

self-destruct (verb)

Do away with oneself or itself.

- The machine will self-destruct if you tamper with it.
- He did not know how to use "self-destruct" until he saw an example.

seminole bread (noun)

Small tough woody zamia of Florida and West Indies and Cuba; roots and half-buried stems yield an arrowroot.

- He looked up "seminole bread" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "seminole bread" to mean small tough woody zamia of florida and west indies....

septum (noun)

A partition or wall especially in an ovary.

- He looked up "septum" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "septum."

servo (noun)

Control system that converts a small mechanical motion into one requiring much greater power; may include a negative feedback system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "servo."
- They discussed "servo" during the group presentation.

seychelles islands (noun)

A group of about 90 islands in the western Indian Ocean to the north of Madagascar.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "seychelles islands."
- He looked up "seychelles islands" because he had never seen it before.

shears (noun)

Large scissors with strong blades.

- He looked up "shears" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "shears" during the group presentation.

shepherd's clock (noun)

Weedy European annual with yellow flowers; naturalized in United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shepherd's clock."
- Understanding "shepherd's clock" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shiloh (noun)

The second great battle of the American Civil War (1862); the battle ended with the withdrawal of Confederate troops but it was not a Union victory.

- They discussed "shiloh" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "shiloh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

shrank (verb)

Draw back, as with fear or pain.

- The fabric shrank.
- The balloon shrank.

---

shyness (noun)

A feeling of fear of embarrassment.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shyness."
- Understanding "shyness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sir henry rider haggard (noun)

British writer noted for romantic adventure novels (1856-1925).

- In class, the teacher used "sir henry rider haggard" to mean british writer noted for romantic adventure novels....
- He looked up "sir henry rider haggard" because he had never seen it before.

---

slimmer (adjective)

Being of delicate or slender build; - Frank Norris.

- A "slimmer" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "slimmer" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

snub (noun)

A refusal to recognize someone you know.

- The snub was clearly intentional.
- Understanding "snub" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sobering (adjective)

Tending to make sober or more serious.

- The news had a sobering effect.
- A "sobering" approach may work better in this case.

---

spandex (noun)

An elastic synthetic fabric.

- They discussed "spandex" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "spandex" means with a simple example.

---

spanked (verb)

Give a spanking to; subject to a spanking.

- The coach explained when to use "spanked" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "spanked" in real sentences.

---

sparkles (noun)

The occurrence of a small flash or spark.

- They discussed "sparkles" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sparkles."

---

spew (verb)

Eject the contents of the stomach through the mouth.

- The volcano spews out molten rocks every day.

- The editors of the paper spew out hostile articles about the Presidential candidate.

---

spew out (verb)

Eject or send out in large quantities, also metaphorical.

- The volcano spews out molten rocks every day.
- The editors of the paper spew out hostile articles about the Presidential candidate.

---

spike suppressor (noun)

Electrical device inserted in a power line to protect equipment from sudden fluctuations in current.

- In class, the teacher used "spike suppressor" to mean electrical device inserted in a power line to....
- They discussed "spike suppressor" during the group presentation.

---

sportswear (noun)

Attire worn for sport or for casual wear.

- He looked up "sportswear" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sportswear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

spot welder (noun)

A welder who does spot welding.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spot welder."
- They discussed "spot welder" during the group presentation.

---

spot-welder (noun)

A welder who does spot welding.

- Understanding "spot-welder" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "spot-welder" during the group presentation.

---

squeak (noun)

A short high-pitched noise.

- The squeak of shoes on powdery snow.
- Understanding "squeak" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

squeak by (verb)

Manage one's existence barely.

- She squeaked by me.
- Can you use "squeak by" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

staking (verb)

Kill by piercing with a spear or sharp pole.

- In everyday English, people use "staking" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "staking" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

steakhouse (noun)

A restaurant that specializes in steaks.

- He looked up "steakhouse" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "steakhouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

steers (noun)

An indication of potential opportunity.

- Understanding "steers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "steers" during the group presentation.

---

stratosphere (noun)

The atmospheric layer between the troposphere and the mesosphere.

- Understanding "stratosphere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stratosphere."

---

striped marlin (noun)

Pacific food and game fish marked with dark blue vertical stripes.

- He looked up "striped marlin" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "striped marlin."

---

stucco (noun)

A plaster now made mostly from Portland cement and sand and lime; applied while soft to cover exterior walls or surfaces.

- The article explained what "stucco" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "stucco."

---

suave (adjective)

Smoothly agreeable and courteous with a degree of sophistication.

- Would you call this situation "suave"? Explain why.
- The speaker chose "suave" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

subcontractors (noun)

Someone who enters into a subcontract with the primary contractor.

- Understanding "subcontractors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "subcontractors" during the group presentation.

---

succinct (adjective)

Briefly giving the gist of something.

- Succinct comparisons.
- Would you call this situation "succinct"? Explain why.

---

superficially (adverb)

In a superficial manner.

- He was superficially interested.
- He answered "superficially," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

sweet woodruff (noun)

Fragrant dark green leaves used to flavor May wine.

- Understanding "sweet woodruff" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "sweet woodruff" to mean fragrant dark green leaves used to flavor may wine.

---

sweetener (noun)

Something added to foods to make them taste sweeter.

- In class, the teacher used "sweetener" to mean something added to foods to make them taste sweeter.
- They discussed "sweetener" during the group presentation.

---

syncing (verb)

Make synchronous and adjust in time or manner.

- Can you use "syncing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "syncing" and when to wait.

---

synonym finder (noun)

A book containing a classified list of synonyms.

- The article explained what "synonym finder" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "synonym finder" to mean a book containing a classified list of synonyms.

---

taxonomic (adjective)

Of or relating to taxonomy.

- Taxonomic relations.
- A taxonomic designation.

---

taxonomic group (noun)

Animal or plant group having natural relations.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taxonomic group."
- The article explained what "taxonomic group" means with a simple example.

---

telltale (adjective)

Disclosing unintentionally.

- A telltale panel of lights.
- A telltale patch of oil on the water marked where the boat went down.

---

tennyson (noun)

Englishman and Victorian poet (1809-1892).

- In class, the teacher used "tennyson" to mean englishman and victorian poet (1809-1892).
- The article explained what "tennyson" means with a simple example.

---

testimonials (noun)

Something that serves as evidence.

- In class, the teacher used "testimonials" to mean something that serves as evidence.
- They discussed "testimonials" during the group presentation.

---

thoughtless (adjective)

Showing lack of careful thought.

- The debate turned into thoughtless bickering.
- Students compared "thoughtless" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

thrower (noun)

A person who twists silk or rayon filaments into a thread or yarn.

- They discussed "thrower" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "thrower."

---

thud (noun)

A heavy dull sound (as made by impact of heavy objects).

- They discussed "thud" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "thud" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

tibia (noun)

The inner and thicker of the two bones of the human leg between the knee and ankle.

- They discussed "tibia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tibia" because he had never seen it before.

---

titular (adjective)

Of or relating to a legal title to something.

- Titulary rights.
- Of titular rank.

---

toads (noun)

Any of various tailless stout-bodied amphibians with long hind limbs for leaping; semiaquatic and terrestrial species.

- They discussed "toads" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "toads."

---

torrential (adjective)

Relating to or resulting from the action of a torrent.

- Torrential erosion.
- Torrential adaptations seen in some aquatic forms.

---

tower of babel (noun)

(Genesis 11:1-11) a tower built by Noah's descendants (probably in Babylon) who intended it to reach up to heaven; God foiled them by confusing their language so they could no longer understand one another.

- Understanding "tower of babel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tower of babel" to mean (genesis 11:1-11) a tower built by noah's....

trad (noun)

Traditional jazz as revived in the 1950s.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "trad."
- The article explained what "trad" means with a simple example.

trashing (verb)

Dispose of (something useless or old).

- Learners should practice how to use "trashing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "trashing" when talking about this idea.

treading (verb)

Put down or press the foot, place the foot.

- Learners should practice how to use "treading" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "treading" when talking about this idea.

treading water (noun)

A stroke that keeps the head above water by thrashing the legs and arms.

- The article explained what "treading water" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "treading water" during the group presentation.

trimming capacitor (noun)

Capacitor having variable capacitance; used for making fine adjustments.

- They discussed "trimming capacitor" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "trimming capacitor" to mean capacitor having variable capacitance; used for....

trotting (verb)

Run at a moderately swift pace.

- In everyday English, people use "trotting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "trotting" in real sentences.

tunneling (verb)

Move through by or as by digging.

- She tried to use "tunneling" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "tunneling" in real sentences.

uma (noun)

A benevolent aspect of Devi; 'splendor'.

- They discussed "uma" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "uma" to mean a benevolent aspect of devi; 'splendor'.

unitarian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characterizing Unitarianism.

- A "unitarian" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "unitarian" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

unitarian church (noun)

The Protestant denomination that rejects the doctrine of the Trinity.

- Understanding "unitarian church" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "unitarian church" to mean the protestant denomination that rejects the....

unlawful carnal knowledge (noun)

Forbidden or tabu sexual intercourse between individuals.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "unlawful carnal knowledge."
- The article explained what "unlawful carnal knowledge" means with a simple example.

upholstery needle (noun)

Any of several very heavy and sometimes curved sewing needles used by upholsterers.

- Understanding "upholstery needle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "upholstery needle" during the group presentation.

---

valence (noun)

(biology) a relative capacity to unite or react or interact as with antigens or a biological substrate.

- Understanding "valence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "valence" because he had never seen it before.

---

ventilated (adjective)

Exposed to air.

- A well ventilated room.
- Students compared "ventilated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ventricular fold (noun)

Either of the upper two vocal cords that are not involved in vocalization.

- Understanding "ventricular fold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "ventricular fold" during the group presentation.

---

villager (noun)

One who has lived in a village most of their life.

- Understanding "villager" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "villager" because he had never seen it before.

---

virtuoso (noun)

A musician who is a consummate master of technique and artistry.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "virtuoso."
- The article explained what "virtuoso" means with a simple example.

---

wail (noun)

A cry of sorrow and grief.

- The article explained what "wail" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wail" to mean a cry of sorrow and grief.

---

watertown (noun)

A town in northern New York.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watertown."
- He looked up "watertown" because he had never seen it before.

---

wedged (adjective)

Wedged or packed in together.

- It is useful to describe something as "wedged" when it is wedged or packed in together.
- The speaker chose "wedged" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

welder (noun)

Joins pieces of metal by welding them together.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "welder."
- He looked up "welder" because he had never seen it before.

---

western lowland gorilla (noun)

A kind of gorilla.

- They discussed "western lowland gorilla" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "western lowland gorilla."

---

wetting (noun)

A euphemism for urination.

- Understanding "wetting" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- In class, the teacher used "wetting" to mean a euphemism for urination.

---

weymouth pine (noun)

Tall-growing pine of eastern North America; bark is brown with longitudinal fissures when mature; valued as a timber tree.

- Understanding "weymouth pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "weymouth pine" means with a simple example.

---

white pine blister rust (noun)

Any of several diseases of pines caused by rust fungi of the genus Cronartium and marked by destructive invasion of bark and sapwood and producing blisters externally.

- Understanding "white pine blister rust" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "white pine blister rust" means with a simple example.

---

whitening (noun)

Changing to a lighter color.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whitening."
- He looked up "whitening" because he had never seen it before.

---

whitewater (noun)

Frothy water as in rapids or waterfalls.

- In class, the teacher used "whitewater" to mean frothy water as in rapids or waterfalls.
- He looked up "whitewater" because he had never seen it before.

---

whiz (noun)

A buzzing or hissing sound as of something traveling rapidly through the air.

- He heard the whiz of bullets near his head.
- In class, the teacher used "whiz" to mean a buzzing or hissing sound as of something....

---

whiz-kid (noun)

Someone whose career progresses rapidly.

- The article explained what "whiz-kid" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whiz-kid."

---

wilds (noun)

A wild primitive state untouched by civilization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wilds."
- The article explained what "wilds" means with a simple example.

---

wingman (noun)

The pilot who positions his aircraft outside and behind (on the wing of) the leader of a flying formation.

- The article explained what "wingman" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "wingman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

witherspoon (noun)

American Revolutionary leader and educator (born in Scotland) who signed of the Declaration of Independence and was president of the college that became Princeton University (1723-1794).

- In class, the teacher used "witherspoon" to mean american revolutionary leader and educator (born in....
- They discussed "witherspoon" during the group presentation.

---

wolverines (noun)

A native or resident of Michigan.

- He looked up "wolverines" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wolverines" to mean a native or resident of michigan.

---

woodbury (noun)

United States social economist (1876-1933).

- The article explained what "woodbury" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "woodbury" to mean united states social economist (1876-1933).

---

woodruff (noun)

Old World fragrant stoloniferous perennial having small white flowers and narrow leaves used as flavoring and in sachets; widely cultivated as a ground cover; in some classifications placed in genus Asperula.

- In class, the teacher used "woodruff" to mean old world fragrant stoloniferous perennial having....
- The article explained what "woodruff" means with a simple example.

---

word deafness (noun)

An impairment in understanding spoken language that is not attributable to hearing loss.

- The article explained what "word deafness" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "word deafness."

---

worshiped (verb)

Love unquestioningly and uncritically or to excess; venerate as an idol.

- In everyday English, people use "worshiped" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "worshiped" in real sentences.

---

xenon (noun)

A colorless odorless inert gaseous element occurring in the earth's atmosphere in trace amounts.

- In class, the teacher used "xenon" to mean a colorless odorless inert gaseous element....
- He looked up "xenon" because he had never seen it before.

---

zinc ointment (noun)

An ointment containing zinc that is used to treat certain skin diseases.

- Understanding "zinc ointment" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zinc ointment."

---

abrasion (noun)

An abraded area where the skin is torn or worn off.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "abrasion."
- The article explained what "abrasion" means with a simple example.

---

accrue (verb)

Come into the possession of.

- The house accrued to the oldest son.
- The interest accrues.

---

act involuntarily (verb)

Act in an uncontrolled manner.

- She tried to use "act involuntarily" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "act involuntarily" and when to wait.

---

acumen (noun)

Shrewdness shown by keen insight.

- The article explained what "acumen" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "acumen" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

admirably (adverb)

In an admirable manner.

- The children's responses were admirably normal.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "admirably" naturally.

---

alkali bee (noun)

A common solitary bee important for pollinating alfalfa in the western United States.

- In class, the teacher used "alkali bee" to mean a common solitary bee important for pollinating....
- The article explained what "alkali bee" means with a simple example.

---

allele (noun)

(genetics) either of a pair (or series) of alternative forms of a gene that can occupy the same locus on a particular chromosome and that control the same character.

- Some alleles are dominant over others.
- They discussed "allele" during the group presentation.

---

alumnus (noun)

A person who has received a degree from a school (high school or college or university).

- They discussed "alumnus" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "alumnus" to mean a person who has received a degree from a school....

---

amon (noun)

A primeval Egyptian personification of air and breath; worshipped especially at Thebes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "amon."
- The article explained what "amon" means with a simple example.

---

andean (adjective)

Relating to the Andes and their inhabitants.

- The speaker chose "andean" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "andean" approach may work better in this case.

---

angers (noun)

A strong emotion; a feeling that is oriented toward some real or supposed grievance.

- He looked up "angers" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "angers."

---

anniversaries (noun)

The date on which an event occurred in some previous year (or the celebration of it).

- He looked up "anniversaries" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "anniversaries" to mean the date on which an event occurred in some....

---

aphrodite (noun)

Goddess of love and beauty and daughter of Zeus in ancient mythology; identified with Roman Venus.

- In class, the teacher used "aphrodite" to mean goddess of love and beauty and daughter of zeus in....
- Understanding "aphrodite" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

applauding (verb)

Clap one's hands or shout after performances to indicate approval.

- He did not know how to use "applauding" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "applauding" and when to wait.

---

applicability (noun)

Relevance by virtue of being applicable to the matter at hand.

- The article explained what "applicability" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "applicability" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

approachable (adjective)

Easy to meet or converse or do business with.

- A friendly approachable person.
- Would you call this situation "approachable"? Explain why.

---

aragon (noun)

A region of northeastern Spain; a former kingdom that united with Castile in 1479 to form Spain (after the marriage of Ferdinand V and Isabella I).

- Understanding "aragon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "aragon" during the group presentation.

---

ascii text file (noun)

A text file that contains only ASCII characters without special formatting.

- Understanding "ascii text file" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ascii text file" because he had never seen it before.

asexual (adjective)

Not having or involving sex.

- An asexual spore.
- Asexual reproduction.

aspen poplar (noun)

A poplar that is widely cultivated in the United States; has white bark and leaves with whitish undersurfaces.

- The article explained what "aspen poplar" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "aspen poplar" to mean a poplar that is widely cultivated in the united....

auditioned (verb)

Perform in order to get a role.

- She auditioned for a role on Broadway.
- Learners should practice how to use "auditioned" in real sentences.

automata (noun)

Someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or apathetic way.

- Understanding "automata" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "automata" to mean someone who acts or responds in a mechanical or....

ayn rand (noun)

United States writer (born in Russia) noted for her polemical novels and political conservativism (1905-1982).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ayn rand."
- Understanding "ayn rand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

babel (noun)

A confusion of voices and other sounds.

- He looked up "babel" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "babel" to mean a confusion of voices and other sounds.

balding (adjective)

Getting bald.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "balding."
- Would you call this situation "balding"? Explain why.

banding (noun)

A stripe or stripes of contrasting color.

- The black and yellow banding of bees and wasps.
- The article explained what "banding" means with a simple example.

bannister (noun)

A railing at the side of a staircase or balcony to prevent people from falling.

- In class, the teacher used "bannister" to mean a railing at the side of a staircase or balcony to....
- The article explained what "bannister" means with a simple example.

bare-assed (adjective)

(used informally) completely unclothed.

- A "bare-assed" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "bare-assed" when it is (used informally) completely unclothed.

bed wetter (noun)

Someone suffering from enuresis; someone who urinates while asleep in bed.

- Understanding "bed wetter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bed wetter" means with a simple example.

bellies (noun)

A part that bulges deeply.

- He looked up "bellies" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "bellies" during the group presentation.

---

beryl (noun)

The chief source of beryllium; colored transparent varieties are valued as gems.

- Understanding "beryl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "beryl" during the group presentation.

---

bib-and-tucker (noun)

An attractive outfit.

- She wore her best bib-and-tucker.
- Understanding "bib-and-tucker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bitter pecan (noun)

Hickory of southern United States having many narrow leaflets and rather bitter nuts.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bitter pecan."
- Understanding "bitter pecan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

black jack pershing (noun)

United States general who commanded the American forces in Europe during World War I (1860-1948).

- He looked up "black jack pershing" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "black jack pershing" during the group presentation.

---

blackbird (noun)

Any bird of the family Icteridae whose male is black or predominantly black.

- Understanding "blackbird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "blackbird."

---

bleachers (noun)

An outdoor grandstand without a roof; patrons are exposed to the sun as linens are when they are bleached.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bleachers."
- The article explained what "bleachers" means with a simple example.

---

bling bling (noun)

Flashy, ostentatious jewelry.

- The rapper was loaded with bling.
- In class, the teacher used "bling bling" to mean flashy, ostentatious jewelry.

---

blue columbine (noun)

Columbine of the Rocky Mountains having long-spurred blue flowers.

- He looked up "blue columbine" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "blue columbine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bluebird (noun)

Fruit-eating mostly brilliant blue songbird of the East Indies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bluebird."
- Understanding "bluebird" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

blunders (verb)

Commit a faux pas or a fault or make a serious mistake.

- He did not know how to use "blunders" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "blunders" in real sentences.

---

boron chamber (noun)

An ionization chamber lined with boron or filled with boron trifluoride gas for counting low velocity neutrons.

- Understanding "boron chamber" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- The article explained what "boron chamber" means with a simple example.

---

brats (noun)

A small pork sausage.

- In class, the teacher used "brats" to mean a small pork sausage.
- Understanding "brats" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breech (noun)

Opening in the rear of the barrel of a gun where bullets can be loaded.

- They discussed "breech" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "breech" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

breezes (noun)

A slight wind (usually refreshing).

- Understanding "breezes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "breezes" during the group presentation.

---

buttery (noun)

A small storeroom for storing foods or wines.

- The article explained what "buttery" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "buttery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

caliph (noun)

The civil and religious leader of a Muslim state considered to be a representative of Allah on earth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "caliph."
- He looked up "caliph" because he had never seen it before.

---

cameos (noun)

Engraving or carving in low relief on a stone (as in a brooch or ring).

- Understanding "cameos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cameos" during the group presentation.

---

capital of seychelles (noun)

Port city and the capital of Seychelles.

- Understanding "capital of seychelles" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "capital of seychelles" because he had never seen it before.

---

carcinoma in situ (noun)

A cluster of malignant cells that has not yet invaded the deeper epithelial tissue or spread to other parts of the body.

- They discussed "carcinoma in situ" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "carcinoma in situ" to mean a cluster of malignant cells that has not yet....

---

cardiac pacemaker (noun)

A specialized bit of heart tissue that controls the heartbeat.

- In class, the teacher used "cardiac pacemaker" to mean a specialized bit of heart tissue that controls the....
- Understanding "cardiac pacemaker" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

celiac (adjective)

Belonging to or prescribed for celiac disease.

- A celiac diet.
- The speaker chose "celiac" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

celiac disease (noun)

A disorder in children and adults; inability to tolerate wheat protein (gluten); symptoms include foul-smelling diarrhea and emaciation; often accompanied by lactose intolerance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "celiac disease."
- He looked up "celiac disease" because he had never seen it before.

---

celibacy (noun)

Abstaining from sexual relations (as because of religious vows).

- In class, the teacher used "celibacy" to mean abstaining from sexual relations (as because of....
- They discussed "celibacy" during the group presentation.

---

chancery (noun)

An office of archives for public or ecclesiastic records; a court of public records.

- They discussed "chancery" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "chancery" means with a simple example.

---

characterizes (verb)

Describe or portray the character or the qualities or peculiarities of.

- What characterizes a Venetian painting?
- The coach explained when to use "characterizes" and when to wait.

---

chinese lacquer tree (noun)

Small Asiatic tree yielding a toxic exudate from which lacquer is obtained.

- In class, the teacher used "chinese lacquer tree" to mean small asiatic tree yielding a toxic exudate from....
- Understanding "chinese lacquer tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chinese primrose (noun)

Cultivated Asiatic primrose.

- He looked up "chinese primrose" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chinese primrose."

---

choppy (adjective)

Marked by abrupt transitions.

- Choppy prose.
- Choppy seas.

---

chromatic (adjective)

Based on a scale consisting of 12 semitones.

- A chromatic scale.
- Chromatic lens.

---

chromatic color (noun)

A color that has hue.

- They discussed "chromatic color" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chromatic color."

---

chronologically (adverb)

With respect to chronology.

- He is chronologically older.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "chronologically" naturally.

---

chump (noun)

A person who is gullible and easy to take advantage of.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chump."
- Understanding "chump" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chump change (noun)

A trifling sum of money.

- They discussed "chump change" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "chump change" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

clamping (verb)

Fasten or fix with a clamp.

- In everyday English, people use "clamping" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "clamping" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

clashing (adjective)

Sharply and harshly discordant.

- Clashing interests of loggers and conservationists.
- Clashing colors.

---

cleft lip (noun)

A congenital cleft in the middle of the upper lip.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cleft lip."
- He looked up "cleft lip" because he had never seen it before.

---

clenched (adjective)

Closed or squeezed together tightly.

- A clenched fist.
- His clenched (or clinched) teeth.

---

clogging (adjective)

Preventing movement.

- The clogging crowds of revelers overflowing into the street.
- Would you call this situation "clogging"? Explain why.

---

close-grained (adjective)

Dense or compact in structure or texture, as a wood composed of small-diameter cells.

- Close-grained birch.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "close-grained."

---

clove (noun)

Aromatic flower bud of a clove tree; yields a spice.

- The article explained what "clove" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "clove."

---

clove oil (noun)

Essential oil obtained from cloves and used to flavor medicines.

- They discussed "clove oil" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "clove oil" to mean essential oil obtained from cloves and used to....

---

clove tree (noun)

Moderate sized very symmetrical red-flowered evergreen widely cultivated in the tropics for its flower buds which are source of cloves.

- They discussed "clove tree" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "clove tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

co-ordinate (noun)

A number that identifies a position relative to an axis.

- They discussed "co-ordinate" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "co-ordinate."

---

columbine (noun)

A plant of the genus Aquilegia having irregular showy spurred flowers; north temperate regions especially mountains.

- He looked up "columbine" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "columbine."

---

commemorated (verb)

Be or provide a memorial to a person or an event.

- He did not know how to use "commemorated" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "commemorated" carefully so everyone would understand.

commonwealth of dominica (noun)

A country on the island of Dominica.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commonwealth of dominica."
- The article explained what "commonwealth of dominica" means with a simple example.

comte (noun)

French philosopher remembered as the founder of positivism; he also established sociology as a systematic field of study.

- Understanding "comte" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "comte."

contact dermatitis (noun)

A delayed type of allergic reaction of the skin resulting from skin contact with a specific allergen (such as poison ivy).

- He looked up "contact dermatitis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "contact dermatitis."

converged (verb)

Move or draw together at a certain location.

- The crowd converged on the movie star.
- Social forces converged to bring the Fascists back to power.

cortical epilepsy (noun)

Epilepsy in which the attacks begins with an isolated disturbance of cerebral function (as a twitching of a limb or an illusory sensation or a mental disturbance).

- He looked up "cortical epilepsy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cortical epilepsy" during the group presentation.

countenance (noun)

The appearance conveyed by a person's face.

- A pleasant countenance.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "countenance."

court of chancery (noun)

A court with jurisdiction in equity.

- They discussed "court of chancery" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "court of chancery."

crackling (noun)

The residue that remains after animal fat has been rendered.

- In class, the teacher used "crackling" to mean the residue that remains after animal fat has been....
- He looked up "crackling" because he had never seen it before.

crawls (noun)

A slow mode of locomotion on hands and knees or dragging the body.

- He looked up "crawls" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "crawls" to mean a slow mode of locomotion on hands and knees or....

cross-grained (adjective)

Of timber; having fibers running irregularly rather than in parallel.

- The speaker chose "cross-grained" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "cross-grained" when it is of timber; having fibers running irregularly rather....

crouching (verb)

Bend one's back forward from the waist on down.

- She tried to use "crouching" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "crouching" until he saw an example.

cryptography (noun)

The science of analyzing and deciphering codes and ciphers and cryptograms.

- He looked up "cryptography" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "cryptography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cysts (noun)

A closed sac that develops abnormally in some body structure.

- Understanding "cysts" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cysts."

---

dali (noun)

Surrealist Spanish painter (1904-1989).

- Understanding "dali" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dali" to mean surrealist spanish painter (1904-1989).

---

damping (verb)

Make vague or obscure or make (an image) less visible.

- The coach explained when to use "damping" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "damping" until he saw an example.

---

damping off (noun)

A plant disease caused by a fungus; diseased condition of seedlings in excessive moisture.

- The article explained what "damping off" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "damping off" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dapper (adjective)

Marked by up-to-dateness in dress and manners.

- A dapper young man.
- It is useful to describe something as "dapper" when it is marked by up-to-dateness in dress and manners.

---

deathly (adverb)

To a degree resembling death.

- He was deathly pale.
- Using "deathly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

deere (noun)

United States industrialist who manufactured plows suitable for working the prairie soil (1804-1886).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deere."
- The article explained what "deere" means with a simple example.

---

defection (noun)

Withdrawing support or help despite allegiance or responsibility.

- The article explained what "defection" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "defection" during the group presentation.

---

degenerative arthritis (noun)

Chronic breakdown of cartilage in the joints; the most common form of arthritis occurring usually after middle age.

- They discussed "degenerative arthritis" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "degenerative arthritis" means with a simple example.

---

delightfully (adverb)

In a delightful manner.

- The farm house, though in itself a small one, is delightfully situated.
- Using "delightfully" can make your explanation more exact.

---

dengue fever (noun)

An infectious disease of the tropics transmitted by mosquitoes and characterized by rash and aching head and joints.

- In class, the teacher used "dengue fever" to mean an infectious disease of the tropics transmitted by....

- Understanding "dengue fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dermatitis (noun)

Inflammation of the skin; skin becomes itchy and may develop blisters.

- He looked up "dermatitis" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dermatitis."

---

desiring (verb)

Feel or have a desire for; want strongly.

- Can you use "desiring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "desiring" and when to wait.

---

determinants (noun)

A determining or causal element or factor.

- He looked up "determinants" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "determinants" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

deuce-ace (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of one and one and one.

- Understanding "deuce-ace" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "deuce-ace" to mean the cardinal number that is the sum of one and one....

---

devaluation (noun)

The reduction of something's value or worth.

- He looked up "devaluation" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devaluation."

---

dictatorial (adjective)

Of or characteristic of a dictator.

- Dictatorial powers.
- Students compared "dictatorial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

digitized (verb)

Put into digital form, as for use in a computer.

- In everyday English, people use "digitized" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "digitized" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

disinterested (adjective)

Unaffected by self-interest.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "disinterested."
- A "disinterested" approach may work better in this case.

---

dispensaries (noun)

Clinic where medicine and medical supplies are dispensed.

- In class, the teacher used "dispensaries" to mean clinic where medicine and medical supplies are....
- Understanding "dispensaries" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

disrespecting (verb)

Have little or no respect for; hold in contempt.

- The coach explained when to use "disrespecting" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "disrespecting" until he saw an example.

---

dissected (adjective)

Having one or more incisions reaching nearly to the midrib.

- Students compared "dissected" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "dissected" when it is having one or more incisions reaching nearly to the....

---

diversions (noun)

An activity that diverts or amuses or stimulates.

- Understanding "diversions" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "diversions" because he had never seen it before.

---

dominican peso (noun)

The basic unit of money in the Dominican Republic; equal to 100 centavos.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dominican peso."
- The article explained what "dominican peso" means with a simple example.

---

downplay (verb)

Understate the importance or quality of.

- She tried to use "downplay" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "downplay" when talking about this idea.

---

drapes (noun)

The manner in which fabric hangs or falls.

- The article explained what "drapes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "drapes" to mean the manner in which fabric hangs or falls.

---

drum sander (noun)

A power tool used for sanding wood; an endless loop of sandpaper is moved at high speed by an electric motor.

- They discussed "drum sander" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "drum sander."

---

dss (noun)

The bureau in the State Department that is responsible for the security of diplomats and embassies overseas.

- In class, the teacher used "dss" to mean the bureau in the state department that is....
- Understanding "dss" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dynamical (adjective)

Characterized by action or forcefulness or force of personality.

- Students compared "dynamical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "dynamical" approach may work better in this case.

---

dynamical system (noun)

(physics) a phase space together with a transformation of that space.

- They discussed "dynamical system" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dynamical system" means with a simple example.

---

electra (noun)

(Greek mythology) the daughter of Agamemnon and Clytemnestra; persuaded her brother (Orestes) to avenge Agamemnon's death by helping her to kill Clytemnestra and her lover (Aegisthus).

- He looked up "electra" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "electra" during the group presentation.

---

electra complex (noun)

A complex of females; sexual attraction to the father.

- He looked up "electra complex" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electra complex."

---

elicited (adjective)

Called forth from a latent or potential state by stimulation.

- An elicited response.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "elicited."

---

eluded (verb)

Be incomprehensible to; escape understanding by.

- The thief eluded the police.
- In everyday English, people use "eluded" when talking about this idea.

---

encapsulated (verb)

Put in a short or concise form; reduce in volume.

- Can you use "encapsulated" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "encapsulated" and when to wait.

---

english primrose (noun)

Plant of western and southern Europe widely cultivated for its pale yellow flowers.

- The article explained what "english primrose" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "english primrose" to mean plant of western and southern europe widely....

---

enquire (verb)

Conduct an inquiry or investigation of.

- He did not know how to use "enquire" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "enquire" and when to wait.

---

ensue (verb)

Issue or terminate (in a specified way, state, etc.); end.

- The coach explained when to use "ensue" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "ensue" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

environs (noun)

The area in which something exists or lives.

- Understanding "environs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "environs" because he had never seen it before.

---

epics (noun)

A long narrative poem telling of a hero's deeds.

- He looked up "epics" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "epics" to mean a long narrative poem telling of a hero's deeds.

---

errant (adjective)

Uncontrolled motion that is irregular or unpredictable.

- An errant breeze.
- Errant youngsters.

---

esophagus (noun)

The passage between the pharynx and the stomach.

- The article explained what "esophagus" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "esophagus" during the group presentation.

---

etfs (noun)

A mutual fund that is traded on a stock exchange.

- Understanding "etfs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "etfs" because he had never seen it before.

---

ethyl radical (noun)

The univalent hydrocarbon radical C2H5 derived from ethane by the removal of one hydrogen atom.

- In class, the teacher used "ethyl radical" to mean the univalent hydrocarbon radical c2h5 derived from....
- He looked up "ethyl radical" because he had never seen it before.

---

ethylene (noun)

A flammable colorless gaseous alkene; obtained from petroleum and natural gas and used in manufacturing many other chemicals; sometimes used as an anesthetic.

- He looked up "ethylene" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "ethylene" to mean a flammable colorless gaseous alkene; obtained from....

european blackbird (noun)

Common black European thrush.

- The article explained what "european blackbird" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "european blackbird" to mean common black european thrush.

evaded (verb)

Use cunning or deceit to escape or avoid.

- He evaded the questions skillfully.
- He did not know how to use "evaded" until he saw an example.

evening primrose (noun)

Any of several plants of the family Onagraceae.

- They discussed "evening primrose" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "evening primrose" because he had never seen it before.

exterminate (verb)

Destroy completely, as if down to the roots.

- Hitler wanted to exterminate the Jews, Gypsies, Communists, and homosexuals of Europe.
- She tried to use "exterminate" carefully so everyone would understand.

eyewitnesses (noun)

A spectator who can describe what happened.

- In class, the teacher used "eyewitnesses" to mean a spectator who can describe what happened.
- Understanding "eyewitnesses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

faze (verb)

Disturb the composure of.

- She tried to use "faze" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "faze" until he saw an example.

fertilized egg (noun)

An animal organism in the early stages of growth and differentiation that in higher forms merge into fetal stages but in lower forms terminate in commencement of larval life.

- The article explained what "fertilized egg" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "fertilized egg" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

fine-grained (adjective)

Dense or compact in structure or texture, as a wood composed of small-diameter cells.

- Fine-grained rock.
- A "fine-grained" approach may work better in this case.

fine-toothed comb (noun)

A method of examining in minute detail.

- He went over the contract with a fine-tooth comb looking for loopholes.
- The article explained what "fine-toothed comb" means with a simple example.

flatly (adverb)

In an unqualified manner.

- He flatly denied the charges.
- Place "flatly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

flicked (verb)

Look through a book or other written material.

- The lights flicked on and off.
- He flicked his Bic.

flocked (verb)

Move as a crowd or in a group.

- Tourists flocked to the shrine where the statue was said to have shed tears.
- She tried to use "flocked" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

fluently (adverb)

In a fluent manner.

- She speaks French fluently.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "fluently" naturally.

---

forsake (verb)

Leave someone who needs or counts on you; leave in the lurch.

- In everyday English, people use "forsake" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "forsake" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

fowl pest (noun)

Either of two acute viral diseases of domestic fowl; characterized by refusal to eat and high temperature and discoloration of the comb.

- He looked up "fowl pest" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "fowl pest" during the group presentation.

---

fragrant cliff fern (noun)

Fern or northern Eurasia and North America having fragrant fronds.

- In class, the teacher used "fragrant cliff fern" to mean fern or northern eurasia and north america having....
- Understanding "fragrant cliff fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fusing (verb)

Become plastic or fluid or liquefied from heat.

- The coach explained when to use "fusing" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "fusing" in real sentences.

---

galapagos islands (noun)

A group of islands in the Pacific off South America; owned by Ecuador; known for unusual animal life.

- The article explained what "galapagos islands" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "galapagos islands" during the group presentation.

---

gaussian curve (noun)

A symmetrical curve representing the normal distribution.

- In class, the teacher used "gaussian curve" to mean a symmetrical curve representing the normal....
- Understanding "gaussian curve" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gecko (noun)

Any of various small chiefly tropical and usually nocturnal insectivorous terrestrial lizards typically with immovable eyelids; completely harmless.

- They discussed "gecko" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "gecko" because he had never seen it before.

---

generalize (verb)

Become systemic and spread throughout the body.

- This kind of infection generalizes throughout the immune system.
- Learners should practice how to use "generalize" in real sentences.

---

genus maia (noun)

Type genus of the Majidae; nearly cosmopolitan in distribution.

- Understanding "genus maia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus maia."

---

gila (noun)

A river that rises in western New Mexico and flows westward through southern Arizona to become a tributary of the Colorado River.

- They discussed "gila" during the group presentation.

- In class, the teacher used "gila" to mean a river that rises in western new mexico and flows....

---

gila river (noun)

A river that rises in western New Mexico and flows westward through southern Arizona to become a tributary of the Colorado River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gila river."
- The article explained what "gila river" means with a simple example.

---

giraffes (noun)

Tallest living quadruped; having a spotted coat and small horns and very long neck and legs; of savannahs of tropical Africa.

- They discussed "giraffes" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "giraffes."

---

gondola (noun)

A low flat-bottomed freight car with fixed sides but no roof.

- Understanding "gondola" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "gondola" to mean a low flat-bottomed freight car with fixed sides....

---

gondola car (noun)

A low flat-bottomed freight car with fixed sides but no roof.

- Understanding "gondola car" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gondola car" during the group presentation.

---

grained (verb)

Paint (a surface) to make it look like stone or wood.

- His hands were grained with dirt.
- The coach explained when to use "grained" and when to wait.

---

grandmaster (noun)

A player of exceptional or world class skill in chess or bridge.

- In class, the teacher used "grandmaster" to mean a player of exceptional or world class skill in....
- The article explained what "grandmaster" means with a simple example.

---

grenoble (noun)

A city in southeastern France on the Isere River.

- In class, the teacher used "grenoble" to mean a city in southeastern france on the isere river.
- The article explained what "grenoble" means with a simple example.

---

grills (noun)

A framework of metal bars used as a partition or a grate.

- They discussed "grills" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "grills" to mean a framework of metal bars used as a partition or a....

---

grudges (noun)

A resentment strong enough to justify retaliation.

- The article explained what "grudges" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "grudges" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

guacamole (noun)

A dip made of mashed avocado mixed with chopped onions and other seasonings.

- In class, the teacher used "guacamole" to mean a dip made of mashed avocado mixed with chopped....
- He looked up "guacamole" because he had never seen it before.

---

guadalupe mountains (noun)

A mountain range in southern New Mexico and western Texas; the southern extension of the Sacramento Mountains.

- In class, the teacher used "guadalupe mountains" to mean a mountain range in southern new mexico and western....
- The article explained what "guadalupe mountains" means with a simple example.

---

guadalupe mountains national park (noun)

A national park in Texas that has the highest point in Texas; includes desert wilderness and the ancient Apache hunting grounds.

- He looked up "guadalupe mountains national park" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "guadalupe mountains national park" to mean a national park in texas that has the highest point....

---

hamptons (noun)

United States musician who was the first to use the vibraphone as a jazz instrument (1913-2002).

- He looked up "hamptons" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "hamptons" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

handcrafted (verb)

Make something by hand.

- Learners should practice how to use "handcrafted" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "handcrafted" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

harbinger (noun)

Something that precedes and indicates the approach of something or someone.

- He looked up "harbinger" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "harbinger" during the group presentation.

---

harnessed (adjective)

Brought under control and put to use.

- Electricity from the harnessed Colorado River.
- The harnessed power of the atom.

---

harvests (noun)

The consequence of an effort or activity.

- He looked up "harvests" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "harvests."

---

headshot (noun)

An attempt to put the soccer ball into the net by using the head.

- Understanding "headshot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "headshot" means with a simple example.

---

heartily (adverb)

With gusto and without reservation.

- The boy threw himself heartily into his work.
- 'Yes,' the children chorused heartily.

---

helplessness (noun)

The state of needing help from something.

- The article explained what "helplessness" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "helplessness" during the group presentation.

---

henchman (noun)

Someone who assists in a plot.

- In class, the teacher used "henchman" to mean someone who assists in a plot.
- The article explained what "henchman" means with a simple example.

---

hiccup (noun)

(usually plural) the state of having reflex spasms of the diaphragm accompanied by a rapid closure of the glottis producing an audible sound; sometimes a symptom of indigestion.

- How do you cure the hiccups?
- In class, the teacher used "hiccup" to mean (usually plural) the state of having reflex spasms....

---

hoffmann (noun)

German writer of fantastic tales (1776-1822).

- They discussed “hoffmann” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “hoffmann” means with a simple example.

---

horse wrangler (noun)

A cowboy who takes care of the saddle horses.

- The article explained what “horse wrangler” means with a simple example.
- Understanding “horse wrangler” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hourglass-shaped (adjective)

Shaped in the form of an hourglass.

- Would you call this situation “hourglass-shaped”? Explain why.
- The speaker chose “hourglass-shaped” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hurl (verb)

Utter with force; utter vehemently.

- Hurl insults.
- He did not know how to use “hurl” until he saw an example.

---

hydroxide (noun)

A chemical compound containing the hydroxyl group.

- He looked up “hydroxide” because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed “hydroxide” during the group presentation.

---

ied (noun)

An explosive device that is improvised.

- In class, the teacher used “ied” to mean an explosive device that is improvised.
- The article explained what “ied” means with a simple example.

---

iliad (noun)

A Greek epic poem (attributed to Homer) describing the siege of Troy.

- They discussed “iliad” during the group presentation.
- The article explained what “iliad” means with a simple example.

---

ilk (noun)

A kind of person.

- I can’t tolerate people of his ilk.
- Understanding “ilk” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

imbued (verb)

Spread or diffuse through.

- Learners should practice how to use “imbued” in real sentences.
- She tried to use “imbued” carefully so everyone would understand.

---

impartiality (noun)

An inclination to weigh both views or opinions equally.

- The article explained what “impartiality” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “impartiality” during the group presentation.

---

incessantly (adverb)

Without interruption.

- Using “incessantly” can make your explanation more exact.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include “incessantly” naturally.

---

inertial (adjective)

Of or relating to inertia.

- Students compared “inertial” with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A “inertial” approach may work better in this case.

inertial mass (noun)

(physics) the mass of a body as determined by the second law of motion from the acceleration of the body when it is subjected to a force that is not due to gravity.

- He looked up "inertial mass" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "inertial mass" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ink eraser (noun)

An eraser that removes ink marks.

- In class, the teacher used "ink eraser" to mean an eraser that removes ink marks.
- The article explained what "ink eraser" means with a simple example.

international grandmaster (noun)

A chess player who has been awarded the highest title by an international chess organization.

- He looked up "international grandmaster" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "international grandmaster."

introvert (noun)

(psychology) a person who tends to shrink from social contacts and to become preoccupied with their own thoughts.

- The article explained what "introvert" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "introvert" during the group presentation.

invades (verb)

To intrude upon, infringe, encroach on, violate.

- This new colleague invades my territory.
- She tried to use "invades" carefully so everyone would understand.

invocation (noun)

An incantation used in conjuring or summoning a devil.

- Understanding "invocation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "invocation" during the group presentation.

involuntarily (adverb)

Against your will.

- He was involuntarily held against his will.
- He answered "involuntarily," which changed the tone of the conversation.

iroquois (noun)

A family of North American Indian languages spoken by the Iroquois.

- The article explained what "iroquois" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "iroquois" to mean a family of north american indian languages spoken....

iroquois league (noun)

A league of Iroquois tribes including originally the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga and Seneca (the Five Nations); after 1722 they were joined by the Tuscarora (the Six Nations).

- Understanding "iroquois league" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "iroquois league" to mean a league of iroquois tribes including originally....

irreparable (adjective)

Impossible to repair, rectify, or amend.

- Irreparable harm.
- An irreparable mistake.

issuers (noun)

An institution that issues something (securities or publications or currency etc.).

- Understanding "issuers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "issuers" during the group presentation.

japanese lacquer tree (noun)

Small Asiatic tree yielding a toxic exudate from which lacquer is obtained.

- Understanding "japanese lacquer tree" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "japanese lacquer tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

jean-jacques rousseau (noun)

French philosopher and writer born in Switzerland; believed that the natural goodness of man was warped by society; ideas influenced the French Revolution (1712-1778).

- Understanding "jean-jacques rousseau" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jean-jacques rousseau."

---

jekyll and hyde (noun)

Someone with two personalities - one good and one evil.

- Understanding "jekyll and hyde" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "jekyll and hyde" means with a simple example.

---

jimenez (noun)

Spanish lyric poet (1881-1958).

- He looked up "jimenez" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "jimenez" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

john davison rockefeller (noun)

United States industrialist who made a fortune in the oil business and gave half of it away (1839-1937).

- They discussed "john davison rockefeller" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "john davison rockefeller" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

john deere (noun)

United States industrialist who manufactured plows suitable for working the prairie soil (1804-1886).

- Understanding "john deere" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "john deere" to mean united states industrialist who manufactured plows....

---

john joseph pershing (noun)

United States general who commanded the American forces in Europe during World War I (1860-1948).

- He looked up "john joseph pershing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john joseph pershing."

---

journeyman (noun)

A skilled worker who practices some trade or handicraft.

- He looked up "journeyman" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "journeyman" during the group presentation.

---

kandahar (noun)

A city in southern Afghanistan; an important trading center.

- He looked up "kandahar" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kandahar" during the group presentation.

---

karl popper (noun)

British philosopher (born in Austria) who argued that scientific theories can never be proved to be true, but are tested by attempts to falsify them (1902-1994).

- He looked up "karl popper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "karl popper."

---

kerosene heater (noun)

Heater that burns oil (as kerosine) for heating or cooking.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kerosene heater."
- He looked up "kerosene heater" because he had never seen it before.

---

kilogram calorie (noun)

A unit of heat equal to the amount of heat required to raise the temperature of one kilogram of water by one degree at one atmosphere pressure; used by nutritionists to characterize the energy-producing potential in food.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kilogram calorie."

- Understanding "kilogram calorie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kitchener (noun)

British field marshal (1850-1916).

- The article explained what "kitchener" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kitchener."

---

kuwaiti (adjective)

Of or relating to the kingdom of Kuwait or its people.

- Kuwaiti ports.
- Kuwaiti streets are lined with luxury stores.

---

lacquer tree (noun)

Small Asiatic tree yielding a toxic exudate from which lacquer is obtained.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lacquer tree."
- He looked up "lacquer tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

lactic (adjective)

Of or relating to or obtained from milk (especially sour milk or whey).

- Lactic acid.
- Lactic fermentation.

---

lady's laces (noun)

Perennial grass of marshy meadows and ditches having broad leaves; Europe and North America.

- He looked up "lady's laces" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lady's laces" to mean perennial grass of marshy meadows and ditches....

---

large-grained (adjective)

Not having a fine texture.

- Large-grained sand.
- Would you call this situation "large-grained"? Explain why.

---

larval (adjective)

Immature of its kind; especially being or characteristic of immature insects in the newly hatched wormlike feeding stage.

- Larval societies.
- Larval crayfishes.

---

laterally (adverb)

To or by or from the side.

- Such women carry in their heads kinship knowledge of six generations depth and extending laterally among consanguineal kin as far as the grandchildren of second cousin.
- The body is spindle-shaped and only slightly compressed laterally.

---

lathe (noun)

Machine tool for shaping metal or wood; the workpiece turns about a horizontal axis against a fixed tool.

- He looked up "lathe" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "lathe" during the group presentation.

---

lawlessness (noun)

A state of lawlessness and disorder (usually resulting from a failure of government).

- He looked up "lawlessness" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "lawlessness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

league of iroquois (noun)

A league of Iroquois tribes including originally the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga and Seneca (the Five Nations); after 1722 they were joined by the Tuscarora (the Six Nations).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "league of iroquois."
- He looked up "league of iroquois" because he had never seen it before.

---

leiden jar (noun)

An electrostatic capacitor of historical interest.

- Understanding "leiden jar" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "leiden jar" because he had never seen it before.

---

leopards (noun)

Large feline of African and Asian forests usually having a tawny coat with black spots.

- In class, the teacher used "leopards" to mean large feline of african and asian forests usually....
- They discussed "leopards" during the group presentation.

---

liberally (adverb)

Freely in a nonliteral manner.

- He embellished his stories liberally.
- He gave liberally to several charities.

---

lopsided (adjective)

Turned or twisted toward one side; - G.K.Chesterton.

- It is useful to describe something as "lopsided" when it is turned or twisted toward one side; - g.k.chesterton.
- Students compared "lopsided" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

lower carboniferous period (noun)

From 345 million to 310 million years ago; increase of land areas; primitive ammonites; winged insects.

- Understanding "lower carboniferous period" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "lower carboniferous period" because he had never seen it before.

---

lowlands (noun)

The southern part of Scotland that is not mountainous.

- He looked up "lowlands" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lowlands."

---

lug wrench (noun)

A wrench with jaws that have projecting lugs to engage the object that is to be rotated.

- They discussed "lug wrench" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "lug wrench" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

lunacy (noun)

Foolish or senseless behavior.

- He looked up "lunacy" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "lunacy" to mean foolish or senseless behavior.

---

lunar caustic (noun)

Silver nitrate fused into sticks and formerly used as a caustic.

- In class, the teacher used "lunar caustic" to mean silver nitrate fused into sticks and formerly used....
- The article explained what "lunar caustic" means with a simple example.

---

mantel (noun)

Shelf that projects from wall above fireplace.

- In Britain they call a mantel a chimneypiece.
- They discussed "mantel" during the group presentation.

---

martin van buren (noun)

8th President of the United States (1782-1862).

- Understanding "martin van buren" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "martin van buren" to mean 8th president of the united states (1782-1862).

---

mayday (noun)

An internationally recognized distress signal via radiotelephone (from the French m'aider).

- The article explained what "mayday" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mayday" during the group presentation.

---

melons (noun)

Any of numerous fruits of the gourd family having a hard rind and sweet juicy flesh.

- In class, the teacher used "melons" to mean any of numerous fruits of the gourd family having a....
- The article explained what "melons" means with a simple example.

---

mem (noun)

The 13th letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mem."
- They discussed "mem" during the group presentation.

---

merges (verb)

Mix together different elements.

- Can you use "merges" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "merges" and when to wait.

---

meteors (noun)

A streak of light in the sky at night that results when a meteoroid hits the earth's atmosphere and air friction causes the meteoroid to melt or vaporize or explode.

- They discussed "meteors" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "meteors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

misinformed (verb)

Give false or misleading information to.

- He did not know how to use "misinformed" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "misinformed" and when to wait.

---

morphed (verb)

Cause to change shape in a computer animation.

- The computer programmer morphed the image.
- In the video, Michael Jackson morphed into a panther.

---

move involuntarily (verb)

Move in an uncontrolled manner.

- In everyday English, people use "move involuntarily" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "move involuntarily" in real sentences.

---

mumble (verb)

Grind with the gums; chew without teeth and with great difficulty.

- The old man had no teeth left and mumbled his food.
- Learners should practice how to use "mumble" in real sentences.

---

mummies (noun)

A body embalmed and dried and wrapped for burial (as in ancient Egypt).

- The article explained what "mummies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "mummies" during the group presentation.

---

musketeers (noun)

A foot soldier armed with a musket.

- He looked up "musketeers" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "musketeers" during the group presentation.

---

nad (noun)

A coenzyme present in most living cells and derived from the B vitamin nicotinic acid; serves as a reductant in various metabolic processes.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nad."
- The article explained what "nad" means with a simple example.

napoleonic wars (noun)

A series of wars fought between France (led by Napoleon Bonaparte) and alliances involving England and Prussia and Russia and Austria at different times; 1799-1815.

- They discussed "napoleonic wars" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "napoleonic wars" because he had never seen it before.

nepalese monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Nepal.

- He looked up "nepalese monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "nepalese monetary unit" during the group presentation.

new world blackbird (noun)

Any bird of the family Icteridae whose male is black or predominantly black.

- In class, the teacher used "new world blackbird" to mean any bird of the family icteridae whose male is....
- He looked up "new world blackbird" because he had never seen it before.

newmarket (noun)

A long close-fitting coat worn for riding in the 19th century.

- Understanding "newmarket" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "newmarket" because he had never seen it before.

nodding thistle (noun)

Eurasian perennial naturalized in eastern North America having very spiny white cottony foliage and nodding musky crimson flower heads; valuable source of nectar.

- In class, the teacher used "nodding thistle" to mean eurasian perennial naturalized in eastern north....
- The article explained what "nodding thistle" means with a simple example.

nonpartisan (noun)

A person who is nonpartisan.

- The article explained what "nonpartisan" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "nonpartisan."

norman mailer (noun)

United States writer (born in 1923).

- The article explained what "norman mailer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "norman mailer."

noxious (adjective)

Injurious to physical or mental health.

- Noxious chemical wastes.
- Noxious ideas.

nun buoy (noun)

A buoy resembling a cone.

- In class, the teacher used "nun buoy" to mean a buoy resembling a cone.
- The article explained what "nun buoy" means with a simple example.

oaths (noun)

A solemn promise, usually invoking a divine witness, regarding your future acts or behavior.

- The article explained what "oaths" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "oaths" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

oblong leaf (noun)

A simple leaf that is rounded at each end with parallel sides.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oblong leaf."
- Understanding "oblong leaf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

octagon (noun)

An eight-sided polygon.

- The article explained what "octagon" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "octagon."

---

offsets (noun)

The time at which something is supposed to begin.

- In class, the teacher used "offsets" to mean the time at which something is supposed to begin.
- He looked up "offsets" because he had never seen it before.

---

oligarchs (noun)

One of the rulers in an oligarchy.

- Understanding "oligarchs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oligarchs."

---

opulent (adjective)

Rich and superior in quality.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "opulent."
- Students compared "opulent" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

ordinate (noun)

The value of a coordinate on the vertical axis.

- Understanding "ordinate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ordinate" because he had never seen it before.

---

organist (noun)

A person who plays an organ.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "organist."
- Understanding "organist" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

outed (verb)

To state openly and publicly one's homosexuality.

- This actor outed last year.
- The gay actor was outed last week.

---

outstretched (adjective)

Fully extended especially in length.

- A kitten with one paw outstretched.
- Would you call this situation "outstretched"? Explain why.

---

overbearing (adjective)

Having or showing arrogant superiority to and disdain of those one views as unworthy; ; ; ; ; ; ; - W.L.Shirer.

- Insufferably overbearing behavior toward the waiter.
- Would you call this situation "overbearing"? Explain why.

---

pall mall (noun)

A fashionable street in London noted for its many private clubs.

- The article explained what "pall mall" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pall mall" to mean a fashionable street in london noted for its many....

---

pall-mall (noun)

A 17th century game; a wooden ball was driven along an alley with a mallet.

- He looked up "pall-mall" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pall-mall" to mean a 17th century game; a wooden ball was driven along....

---

parasite yew (noun)

Rare and endangered monoecious parasitic conifer of New Caledonia; parasitic on Falcatifolium taxoides.

- In class, the teacher used "parasite yew" to mean rare and endangered monoecious parasitic conifer of....

- Understanding "parasite yew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

patting (verb)

Pat or squeeze fondly or playfully, especially under the chin.

- In everyday English, people use "patting" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "patting" in real sentences.

---

pecan pie (noun)

Pie made of pecans and sugar and corn syrup and butter and eggs.

- They discussed "pecan pie" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pecan pie."

---

pectoral (noun)

An adornment worn on the chest or breast.

- In class, the teacher used "pectoral" to mean an adornment worn on the chest or breast.
- They discussed "pectoral" during the group presentation.

---

pedal extremity (noun)

The extremity of the limb in vertebrates.

- They discussed "pedal extremity" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pedal extremity" to mean the extremity of the limb in vertebrates.

---

peeping tom (noun)

A viewer who enjoys seeing the sex acts or sex organs of others.

- Understanding "peeping tom" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "peeping tom" during the group presentation.

---

peptide linkage (noun)

The primary linkage of all protein structures; the chemical bond between the carboxyl groups and amino groups that unites a peptide.

- He looked up "peptide linkage" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "peptide linkage."

---

perplexing (adjective)

Lacking clarity of meaning; causing confusion or perplexity.

- Perplexing to someone who knew nothing about it.
- It is useful to describe something as "perplexing" when it is lacking clarity of meaning; causing confusion or....

---

personified (verb)

Represent, as of a character on stage.

- Learners should practice how to use "personified" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "personified" when talking about this idea.

---

pharmacological medicine (noun)

The science or study of drugs: their preparation and properties and uses and effects.

- In class, the teacher used "pharmacological medicine" to mean the science or study of drugs: their preparation....
- The article explained what "pharmacological medicine" means with a simple example.

---

phonetic transcription (noun)

A transcription intended to represent each distinct speech sound with a separate symbol.

- He looked up "phonetic transcription" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "phonetic transcription" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plum-yew family (noun)

A family of Cephalotaxaceae.

- In class, the teacher used "plum-yew family" to mean a family of cephalotaxaceae.
- The article explained what "plum-yew family" means with a simple example.

---

plumb bob (noun)

The metal bob of a plumb line.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plumb bob."
- He looked up "plumb bob" because he had never seen it before.

---

plume thistle (noun)

Any of numerous biennial to perennial herbs with handsome purple or yellow or occasionally white flower heads.

- In class, the teacher used "plume thistle" to mean any of numerous biennial to perennial herbs with....
- The article explained what "plume thistle" means with a simple example.

---

plummeted (verb)

Drop sharply.

- The stock market plummeted.
- Can you use "plummeted" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

polaroid (noun)

(trade mark) a plastic film that can polarize a beam of light; often used in sunglasses to eliminate glare.

- In class, the teacher used "polaroid" to mean (trade mark) a plastic film that can polarize a....
- They discussed "polaroid" during the group presentation.

---

polaroid camera (noun)

A camera that develops and produces a positive print within seconds.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "polaroid camera."
- The article explained what "polaroid camera" means with a simple example.

---

preexisting (adjective)

Existing previously or before something.

- Would you call this situation "preexisting"? Explain why.
- A "preexisting" approach may work better in this case.

---

president van buren (noun)

8th President of the United States (1782-1862).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "president van buren."
- He looked up "president van buren" because he had never seen it before.

---

primrose (noun)

Any of numerous short-stemmed plants of the genus Primula having tufted basal leaves and showy flowers clustered in umbels or heads.

- They discussed "primrose" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "primrose" because he had never seen it before.

---

primrose family (noun)

A dicotyledonous family of the order Primulales with a regular flower; widely distributed in the northern hemisphere.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "primrose family."
- He looked up "primrose family" because he had never seen it before.

---

prohibitions (noun)

A law forbidding the sale of alcoholic beverages.

- He looked up "prohibitions" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "prohibitions" during the group presentation.

---

puddles (noun)

A small body of standing water (rainwater) or other liquid.

- There were puddles of muddy water in the road after the rain.
- The article explained what "puddles" means with a simple example.

---

pulsating (verb)

Expand and contract rhythmically; beat rhythmically.

- The baby's heart was pulsating again after the surgeon massaged it.
- He did not know how to use "pulsating" until he saw an example.

---

pungent (adjective)

Strong and sharp.

- The pungent taste of radishes.
- Pungent satire.

---

putter (noun)

The iron normally used on the putting green.

- He looked up "putter" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "putter" during the group presentation.

---

putter around (verb)

Move around aimlessly.

- Can you use "putter around" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "putter around" when talking about this idea.

---

qatari (adjective)

Of or concerning Qatar or its inhabitants.

- The Qatari ruling family.
- Qatari oil wells.

---

quentin tarantino (noun)

United States filmmaker (born in 1963).

- He looked up "quentin tarantino" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "quentin tarantino."

---

radioactivity (noun)

The spontaneous emission of a stream of particles or electromagnetic rays in nuclear decay.

- In class, the teacher used "radioactivity" to mean the spontaneous emission of a stream of particles....
- The article explained what "radioactivity" means with a simple example.

---

radioactivity unit (noun)

A measure of radioactivity.

- In class, the teacher used "radioactivity unit" to mean a measure of radioactivity.
- The article explained what "radioactivity unit" means with a simple example.

---

ranches (noun)

Farm consisting of a large tract of land along with facilities needed to raise livestock (especially cattle).

- Understanding "ranches" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "ranches" to mean farm consisting of a large tract of land along with....

---

recessive (noun)

An allele that produces its characteristic phenotype only when its paired allele is identical.

- The article explained what "recessive" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recessive" to mean an allele that produces its characteristic....

---

reclining (noun)

The act of assuming or maintaining a reclining position.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reclining."
- He looked up "reclining" because he had never seen it before.

---

redford (noun)

United States actor and filmmaker who starred with Paul Newman in several films (born in 1936).

- He looked up "redford" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "redford" to mean united states actor and filmmaker who starred with....

reeve (verb)

Pass through a hole or opening.

- Reeve a rope.
- Reeve an opening.

refinancing (verb)

Renew the financing of.

- The coach explained when to use "refinancing" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "refinancing" until he saw an example.

relativistic (adjective)

Of or relating to the philosophical doctrine of relativism.

- Relativistic quantum mechanics.
- Relativistic increase in mass.

relativistic mass (noun)

(physics) the mass of a body in motion relative to the observer: it is equal to the rest mass multiplied by a factor that is greater than 1 and that increases as the magnitude of the velocity increases.

- The article explained what "relativistic mass" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "relativistic mass."

remand (noun)

The act of sending an accused person back into custody to await trial (or the continuation of the trial).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "remand."
- Understanding "remand" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

replete (adjective)

Filled to satisfaction with food or drink.

- It is replete with misery.
- The speaker chose "replete" because it captured the feeling precisely.

repugnant (adjective)

Offensive to the mind.

- Morally repugnant customs.
- Would you call this situation "repugnant"? Explain why.

rider haggard (noun)

British writer noted for romantic adventure novels (1856-1925).

- In class, the teacher used "rider haggard" to mean british writer noted for romantic adventure novels....
- The article explained what "rider haggard" means with a simple example.

ringed (adjective)

Wearing a wedding ring; lawfully married; - Tennyson.

- A ringed wife.
- The speaker chose "ringed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

roaches (noun)

A roll of hair brushed back from the forehead.

- The article explained what "roaches" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "roaches" to mean a roll of hair brushed back from the forehead.

roamed (verb)

Move about aimlessly or without any destination, often in search of food or employment.

- The gypsies roamed the woods.
- She tried to use "roamed" carefully so everyone would understand.

roars (noun)

A very loud utterance (like the sound of an animal).

- They discussed "roars" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "roars" because he had never seen it before.

---

robert de niro (noun)

United States film actor who frequently plays tough characters (born 1943).

- The article explained what "robert de niro" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "robert de niro" to mean united states film actor who frequently plays tough....

---

robert macgregor (noun)

Scottish clan leader and outlaw who was the subject of a 1817 novel by Sir Walter Scott (1671-1734).

- They discussed "robert macgregor" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "robert macgregor" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

robert redford (noun)

United States actor and filmmaker who starred with Paul Newman in several films (born in 1936).

- In class, the teacher used "robert redford" to mean united states actor and filmmaker who starred with....
- They discussed "robert redford" during the group presentation.

---

rotc (noun)

A training program to prepare college students to be commissioned officers.

- Understanding "rotc" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "rotc" to mean a training program to prepare college students to....

---

rote (noun)

Memorization by repetition.

- He looked up "rote" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "rote" to mean memorization by repetition.

---

rote learning (noun)

Memorization by repetition.

- Understanding "rote learning" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "rote learning" during the group presentation.

---

rotors (noun)

The rotating armature of a motor or generator.

- There are horizontal rotors on a helicopter or compressor rotors in a jet engine.
- The article explained what "rotors" means with a simple example.

---

rudeness (noun)

A wild or unrefined state.

- The article explained what "rudeness" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "rudeness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ruffled (adjective)

Shaken into waves or undulations as by wind.

- With ruffled flags flying.
- It is useful to describe something as "ruffled" when it is shaken into waves or undulations as by wind.

---

sabah (noun)

A region of Malaysia in northeastern Borneo.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sabah."
- Understanding "sabah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

salinas (noun)

A town in central Kansas.

- The article explained what "salinas" means with a simple example.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "salinas."

---

salomon (noun)

American financier and American Revolutionary War patriot who helped fund the army during the American Revolution (1740?-1785).

- They discussed "salomon" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "salomon" because he had never seen it before.

---

sandal (noun)

A shoe consisting of a sole fastened by straps to the foot.

- The article explained what "sandal" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sandal."

---

scat (verb)

Flee; take to one's heels; cut and run.

- Can you use "scat" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "scat" when talking about this idea.

---

scissor (verb)

Cut with or as if with scissors.

- Learners should practice how to use "scissor" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "scissor" when talking about this idea.

---

scissor hold (noun)

A wrestling hold in which you wrap your legs around the opponents body or head and put your feet together and squeeze.

- They discussed "scissor hold" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scissor hold."

---

seaport (noun)

A sheltered port where ships can take on or discharge cargo.

- He looked up "seaport" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "seaport" during the group presentation.

---

sellout (noun)

An act of betrayal.

- Understanding "sellout" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sellout."

---

seminole (noun)

A member of the Muskhogean people who moved into Florida in the 18th century.

- Understanding "seminole" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "seminole" to mean a member of the muskhogean people who moved into....

---

serra (noun)

Spanish missionary who founded Franciscan missions in California (1713-1784).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "serra."
- Understanding "serra" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

seychelles (noun)

A group of about 90 islands in the western Indian Ocean to the north of Madagascar.

- They discussed "seychelles" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "seychelles" to mean a group of about 90 islands in the western indian....

---

shakers (noun)

A celibate and communistic Christian sect in the United States.

- Movers and shakers in the business world.
- The article explained what "shakers" means with a simple example.

---

shang (noun)

The imperial dynasty ruling China from about the 18th to the 12th centuries BC.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shang."
- They discussed "shang" during the group presentation.

---

shark repellent (noun)

A measure undertaken by a corporation to discourage unwanted takeover attempts.

- He looked up "shark repellent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shark repellent."

---

sharpest (adjective)

(of a musical note) raised in pitch by one chromatic semitone.

- Students compared "sharpest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Would you call this situation "sharpest"? Explain why.

---

shot putter (noun)

An athlete who competes in the shot put.

- Understanding "shot putter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "shot putter" because he had never seen it before.

---

simulators (noun)

A machine that simulates an environment for the purpose of training or research.

- The article explained what "simulators" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "simulators."

---

sixes (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of five and one.

- He looked up "sixes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sixes" during the group presentation.

---

sixth baron byron of rochdale (noun)

English romantic poet notorious for his rebellious and unconventional lifestyle (1788-1824).

- They discussed "sixth baron byron of rochdale" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sixth baron byron of rochdale."

---

skilful (adjective)

Having or showing knowledge and skill and aptitude.

- It is useful to describe something as "skilful" when it is having or showing knowledge and skill and aptitude.
- Students compared "skilful" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

small-grained (adjective)

Consisting of fine particles.

- Students compared "small-grained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "small-grained" when it is consisting of fine particles.

---

snot (noun)

A person regarded as arrogant and annoying.

- Understanding "snot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "snot" during the group presentation.

---

sodas (noun)

A sweet drink containing carbonated water and flavoring.

- In New England they call sodas tonics.
- He looked up "sodas" because he had never seen it before.

---

somatic cell nuclear transfer (noun)

Moving a cell nucleus and its genetic material from one cell to another.

- They discussed "somatic cell nuclear transfer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "somatic cell nuclear transfer."

---

spilt (verb)

Cause or allow (a solid substance) to flow or run out or over.

- The coach explained when to use "spilt" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "spilt" until he saw an example.

---

spinach beet (noun)

Long succulent whitish stalks with large green leaves.

- Understanding "spinach beet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "spinach beet" to mean long succulent whitish stalks with large green leaves.

---

spineless (adjective)

Lacking a backbone or spinal column.

- Spineless fins.
- Students compared "spineless" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

spirals (noun)

A structure consisting of something wound in a continuous series of loops.

- He looked up "spirals" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "spirals" during the group presentation.

---

springing cow (noun)

A cow about to give birth.

- In class, the teacher used "springing cow" to mean a cow about to give birth.
- They discussed "springing cow" during the group presentation.

---

stairwell (noun)

A vertical well around which there is a stairway.

- They discussed "stairwell" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "stairwell" to mean a vertical well around which there is a stairway.

---

stalwart (noun)

A person who is loyal to their allegiance (especially in times of revolt).

- In class, the teacher used "stalwart" to mean a person who is loyal to their allegiance....
- He looked up "stalwart" because he had never seen it before.

---

standardised (adjective)

Capable of replacing or changing places with something else; permitting mutual substitution without loss of function or suitability.

- Students compared "standardised" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "standardised."

---

steeper (noun)

A vessel (usually a pot or vat) used for steeping.

- He looked up "steeper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "steeper."

---

stomped (verb)

Walk heavily.

- The men stomped through the snow in their heavy boots.
- She tried to use "stomped" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

stooges (verb)

Act as a stooge, in a compliant or subordinate manner.

- The coach explained when to use "stooges" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "stooges" in real sentences.

straight-grained (adjective)

Of timber; having fibers that run in parallel.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "straight-grained."
- Students compared "straight-grained" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

streisand (noun)

United States singer and actress (born in 1942).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "streisand."
- He looked up "streisand" because he had never seen it before.

stress incontinence (noun)

Urinary incontinence that occurs when involuntary pressure is put on the bladder by coughing or laughing or sneezing or lifting or straining.

- They discussed "stress incontinence" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "stress incontinence" means with a simple example.

subtraction (noun)

The act of subtracting (removing a part from the whole).

- He complained about the subtraction of money from their paychecks.
- The subtraction of three from four leaves one.

suffix notation (noun)

A parenthesis-free notation for forming mathematical expressions in which each operator follows its operands.

- The article explained what "suffix notation" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "suffix notation" to mean a parenthesis-free notation for forming....

sufi (noun)

A Muslim who represents the mystical dimension of Islam; a Muslim who seeks direct experience of Allah; mainly in Iran.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sufi."
- They discussed "sufi" during the group presentation.

summing (verb)

Determine the sum of.

- Learners should practice how to use "summing" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "summing" until he saw an example.

summing up (noun)

A concluding summary (as in presenting a case before a law court).

- The article explained what "summing up" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "summing up" to mean a concluding summary (as in presenting a case....

sutra (noun)

A rule or aphorism in Sanskrit literature or a group of aphoristic doctrinal summaries prepared for memorization.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sutra."
- They discussed "sutra" during the group presentation.

swiped (verb)

Strike with a swiping motion.

- The coach explained when to use "swiped" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "swiped" in real sentences.

sycamore fig (noun)

Thick-branched wide-spreading tree of Africa and adjacent southwestern Asia often buttressed with branches rising from near the ground; produces cluster of edible but inferior figs on short leafless twigs; the biblical sycamore.

- The article explained what "sycamore fig" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sycamore fig" to mean thick-branched wide-spreading tree of africa and....

synagogues (noun)

(Judaism) the place of worship for a Jewish congregation.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "synagogues."
- He looked up "synagogues" because he had never seen it before.

---

tartan (noun)

A cloth having a crisscross design.

- Understanding "tartan" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "tartan" to mean a cloth having a crisscross design.

---

taut (adjective)

Subjected to great tension; stretched tight.

- Her nerves were taut as the strings of a bow.
- Taut sails.

---

teapot (noun)

Pot for brewing tea; usually has a spout and handle.

- They discussed "teapot" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "teapot" to mean pot for brewing tea; usually has a spout and handle.

---

telephoned (verb)

Get or try to get into communication (with someone) by telephone.

- She tried to use "telephoned" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "telephoned" and when to wait.

---

theorems (noun)

An idea accepted as a demonstrable truth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "theorems."
- Understanding "theorems" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

therefor (adverb)

(in formal usage, especially legal usage) for that or for it.

- Ordering goods and enclosing payment therefor.
- A refund therefor.

---

thoroughfare (noun)

A public road from one place to another.

- He looked up "thoroughfare" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "thoroughfare" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

threading (verb)

To move or cause to move in a sinuous, spiral, or circular course.

- She tried to use "threading" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "threading" in real sentences.

---

tic-tac-toe (noun)

A game in which two players alternately put crosses and circles in one of the compartments of a square grid of nine spaces; the object is to get a row of three crosses or three circles before the opponent does.

- In class, the teacher used "tic-tac-toe" to mean a game in which two players alternately put crosses....
- Understanding "tic-tac-toe" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

topical anesthetic (noun)

Anesthetic that numbs a particular area of the body.

- Understanding "topical anesthetic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "topical anesthetic" because he had never seen it before.

---

traversing (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- Can you use "traversing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

- The coach explained when to use "traversing" and when to wait.

---

triumphed (verb)

To express great joy.

- Learners should practice how to use "triumphed" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "triumphed" until he saw an example.

---

true lover's knot (noun)

A knot for tying the ends of two lines together.

- In class, the teacher used "true lover's knot" to mean a knot for tying the ends of two lines together.
- He looked up "true lover's knot" because he had never seen it before.

---

tuner (noun)

An electronic receiver that detects and demodulates and amplifies transmitted signals.

- In class, the teacher used "tuner" to mean an electronic receiver that detects and demodulates....
- They discussed "tuner" during the group presentation.

---

undervalued (verb)

Assign too low a value to.

- Can you use "undervalued" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "undervalued" and when to wait.

---

undying (adjective)

Never dying.

- His undying fame.
- Students compared "undying" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unequivocal (adjective)

Admitting of no doubt or misunderstanding; having only one meaning or interpretation and leading to only one conclusion.

- Unequivocal evidence.
- Took an unequivocal position.

---

uneventful (adjective)

Marked by no noteworthy or significant events.

- An uneventful life.
- The voyage was pleasant and uneventful.

---

unfathomable (adjective)

Of depth; not capable of being sounded or measured.

- Students compared "unfathomable" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unfathomable."

---

ungodly (adjective)

Characterized by iniquity; wicked because it is believed to be a sin.

- Ungodly acts.
- Would you call this situation "ungodly"? Explain why.

---

unprofitable (adjective)

Producing little or no profit or gain.

- Deposits abandoned by mining companies as unprofitable.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unprofitable."

---

unreported (adjective)

Not reported.

- Unreported results.
- Students compared "unreported" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

unsung (adjective)

Not famous or acclaimed.

- Unsung heroes of the war.
- It is useful to describe something as "unsung" when it is not famous or acclaimed.

---

upper carboniferous (noun)

From 310 million to 280 million years ago; warm climate; swampy land.

- Understanding "upper carboniferous" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "upper carboniferous" during the group presentation.

---

upper carboniferous period (noun)

From 310 million to 280 million years ago; warm climate; swampy land.

- They discussed "upper carboniferous period" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "upper carboniferous period" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vaginas (noun)

The lower part of the female reproductive tract; a moist canal in female mammals extending from the labia minora to the uterus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vaginas."
- He looked up "vaginas" because he had never seen it before.

---

valour (noun)

The qualities of a hero or heroine; exceptional or heroic courage when facing danger (especially in battle).

- They discussed "valour" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "valour" means with a simple example.

---

van buren (noun)

8th President of the United States (1782-1862).

- The article explained what "van buren" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "van buren."

---

vanquished (verb)

Come out better in a competition, race, or conflict.

- Learners should practice how to use "vanquished" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "vanquished" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

velocities (noun)

Distance travelled per unit time.

- They discussed "velocities" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "velocities."

---

venous blood vessel (noun)

A blood vessel that carries blood from the capillaries toward the heart.

- All veins except the pulmonary vein carry unaerated blood.
- Understanding "venous blood vessel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vertical stabilizer (noun)

A stabilizer that is part of the vertical tail structure of an airplane.

- The article explained what "vertical stabilizer" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vertical stabilizer" to mean a stabilizer that is part of the vertical tail....

---

victoria de durango (noun)

A city in north central Mexico; mining center.

- He looked up "victoria de durango" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "victoria de durango" to mean a city in north central mexico; mining center.

---

waterman (noun)

Someone who drives or rides in a boat.

- They discussed "waterman" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "waterman" to mean someone who drives or rides in a boat.

---

weasel-worded (adjective)

Evasively worded in order to avoid an unqualified statement.

- A "weasel-worded" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "weasel-worded" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

weimar republic (noun)

The German republic founded at Weimar in 1919.

- The Weimar Republic was overthrown in 1933 and replaced by the Third Reich.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "weimar republic."

---

weinberg (noun)

United States theoretical physicist (born in 1933).

- They discussed "weinberg" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "weinberg" because he had never seen it before.

---

well-intentioned (adjective)

Marked by good intentions though often producing unfortunate results; ; ; - S.W.Maughm.

- A well-intentioned but clumsy waiter.
- Students compared "well-intentioned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

wetter (noun)

A workman who wets the work in a manufacturing process.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wetter."
- The article explained what "wetter" means with a simple example.

---

whittier (noun)

United States poet best known for his nostalgic poems about New England (1807-1892).

- He looked up "whittier" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "whittier."

---

william felton russell (noun)

United States basketball center (born in 1934).

- The article explained what "william felton russell" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "william felton russell" to mean united states basketball center (born in 1934).

---

windscreen (noun)

Transparent screen (as of glass) to protect occupants of a vehicle.

- In class, the teacher used "windscreen" to mean transparent screen (as of glass) to protect....
- The article explained what "windscreen" means with a simple example.

---

woolly bear moth (noun)

Larva of moth of the family Arctiidae.

- Understanding "woolly bear moth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "woolly bear moth" during the group presentation.

---

wormhole (noun)

Hole made by a burrowing worm.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wormhole."
- The article explained what "wormhole" means with a simple example.

---

yellow bugle (noun)

Low-growing annual with yellow flowers dotted red; faintly aromatic of pine resin; Europe, British Isles and North Africa.

- The article explained what "yellow bugle" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yellow bugle."

yellows (noun)

Yellow color or pigment; the chromatic color resembling the hue of sunflowers or ripe lemons.

- The article explained what "yellows" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "yellows" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

youngstown (noun)

A city in northeast Ohio.

- They discussed "youngstown" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "youngstown" to mean a city in northeast ohio.

yunnan province (noun)

A province of southern China.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yunnan province."
- The article explained what "yunnan province" means with a simple example.

zanzibar (noun)

An island in the Indian Ocean off the east coast of Africa; part of the United Republic of Tanzania.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "zanzibar."
- He looked up "zanzibar" because he had never seen it before.

zola (noun)

French novelist and critic; defender of Dreyfus (1840-1902).

- In class, the teacher used "zola" to mean french novelist and critic; defender of dreyfus....
- They discussed "zola" during the group presentation.

zooming (verb)

Move with a low humming noise.

- In everyday English, people use "zooming" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "zooming" in real sentences.

abysmal (adjective)

Resembling an abyss in depth; so deep as to be unmeasurable.

- Abysmal misery.
- Abysmal stupidity.

adores (verb)

Love intensely.

- She tried to use "adores" carefully so everyone would understand.
- In everyday English, people use "adores" when talking about this idea.

agricultural labourer (noun)

A person who tills the soil for a living.

- The article explained what "agricultural labourer" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "agricultural labourer."

al capone (noun)

United States gangster who terrorized Chicago during prohibition until arrested for tax evasion (1899-1947).

- The article explained what "al capone" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "al capone."

alkali grass (noun)

Plant of western North America having grasslike leaves and greenish-white flowers.

- He looked up "alkali grass" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "alkali grass."

anaesthetic agent (noun)

A drug that causes temporary loss of bodily sensations.

- He looked up "anaesthetic agent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "anaesthetic agent."

---

animal husbandry (noun)

Breeding and caring for farm animals.

- Understanding "animal husbandry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "animal husbandry" because he had never seen it before.

---

antidepressant drug (noun)

Any of a class of drugs used to treat depression; often have undesirable side effects.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "antidepressant drug."
- He looked up "antidepressant drug" because he had never seen it before.

---

antigens (noun)

Any substance (as a toxin or enzyme) that stimulates an immune response in the body (especially the production of antibodies).

- They discussed "antigens" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "antigens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

aorta (noun)

The large trunk artery that carries blood from the left ventricle of the heart to branch arteries.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aorta."
- He looked up "aorta" because he had never seen it before.

---

apostasy (noun)

The state of having rejected your religious beliefs or your political party or a cause (often in favor of opposing beliefs or causes).

- Understanding "apostasy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "apostasy" because he had never seen it before.

---

aram (noun)

The biblical name for ancient Syria.

- The article explained what "aram" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aram."

---

archeological remains (noun)

A relic that has been excavated from the soil.

- He looked up "archeological remains" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archeological remains."

---

argyll (noun)

A sock knitted or woven with an argyle design (usually used in the plural).

- The article explained what "argyll" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "argyll" to mean a sock knitted or woven with an argyle design....

---

arizona sycamore (noun)

Medium-sized tree of Arizona and adjacent regions having deeply lobed leaves and collective fruits in groups of 3 to 5.

- They discussed "arizona sycamore" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "arizona sycamore" means with a simple example.

---

artistically (adverb)

In an artistic manner.

- It was artistically decorated.
- The narrator describes the scene "artistically" in the final chapter.

---

ascii (noun)

(computer science) a code for information exchange between computers made by different companies; a string of 7 binary digits represents each character; used in most microcomputers.

- They discussed "ascii" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "ascii" because he had never seen it before.

---

ascii character (noun)

Any member of the standard code for representing characters by binary numbers.

- In class, the teacher used "ascii character" to mean any member of the standard code for representing....
- The article explained what "ascii character" means with a simple example.

---

ascii character set (noun)

(computer science) 128 characters that make up the ASCII coding scheme.

- The ASCII character set is the most universal character coding set.
- He looked up "ascii character set" because he had never seen it before.

---

ascii control character (noun)

ASCII characters to indicate carriage return or tab or backspace; typed by depressing a key and the control key at the same time.

- The article explained what "ascii control character" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "ascii control character" during the group presentation.

---

ashram (noun)

A place of religious retreat modeled after the Indian ashram.

- In class, the teacher used "ashram" to mean a place of religious retreat modeled after the....
- The article explained what "ashram" means with a simple example.

---

attentions (noun)

The faculty or power of mental concentration.

- She tried to win his heart with her many attentions.
- They discussed "attentions" during the group presentation.

---

audiovisual aid (noun)

Materials using sight or sound to present information.

- Language tapes and videocassettes and other audiovisuals.
- In class, the teacher used "audiovisual aid" to mean materials using sight or sound to present information.

---

austin friars (noun)

An Augustinian monastic order.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "austin friars."
- They discussed "austin friars" during the group presentation.

---

avocados (noun)

A pear-shaped tropical fruit with green or blackish skin and rich yellowish pulp enclosing a single large seed.

- Understanding "avocados" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "avocados" means with a simple example.

---

ayatollah (noun)

A high-ranking Shiite religious leader who is regarded as an authority on religious law and its interpretation and who has political power as well.

- They discussed "ayatollah" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ayatollah."

---

baa (noun)

The cry made by sheep.

- He looked up "baa" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "baa" to mean the cry made by sheep.

---

battlefields (noun)

A region where a battle is being (or has been) fought.

- They made a tour of Civil War battlefields.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "battlefields."

---

beowulf (noun)

The legendary hero of an anonymous Old English epic poem composed in the early 8th century; he slays a monster and becomes king but dies fighting a dragon.

- In class, the teacher used "beowulf" to mean the legendary hero of an anonymous old english epic....
- The article explained what "beowulf" means with a simple example.

---

beret (noun)

A cap with no brim or bill; made of soft cloth.

- Understanding "beret" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "beret" to mean a cap with no brim or bill; made of soft cloth.

---

bird's nest fern (noun)

Tropical Old World or Australian epiphytic fern frequently forming tufts in tree crotches.

- He looked up "bird's nest fern" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bird's nest fern" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bleu (noun)

Cheese containing a blue mold.

- He looked up "bleu" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "bleu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bloomsbury (noun)

A city district of central London laid out in garden squares.

- He looked up "bloomsbury" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "bloomsbury" to mean a city district of central london laid out in....

---

bloomsbury group (noun)

An inner circle of writers and artists and philosophers who lived in or around Bloomsbury early in the 20th century and were noted for their unconventional lifestyles.

- They discussed "bloomsbury group" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "bloomsbury group" because he had never seen it before.

---

blue bugle (noun)

Upright rhizomatous perennial with bright blue flowers; southern Europe.

- They discussed "blue bugle" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "blue bugle" to mean upright rhizomatous perennial with bright blue....

---

bogey (noun)

An unidentified (and possibly enemy) aircraft.

- In class, the teacher used "bogey" to mean an unidentified (and possibly enemy) aircraft.
- The article explained what "bogey" means with a simple example.

---

bolsheviks (noun)

A Russian member of the left-wing majority group that followed Lenin and eventually became the Russian communist party.

- Understanding "bolsheviks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bolsheviks" during the group presentation.

---

booby hatch (noun)

Pejorative terms for an insane asylum.

- They discussed "booby hatch" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "booby hatch" because he had never seen it before.

---

bookshelf (noun)

A shelf on which to keep books.

- The article explained what "bookshelf" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "bookshelf."

---

boron (noun)

A trivalent metalloid element; occurs both in a hard black crystal and in the form of a yellow or brown powder.

- He looked up “boron” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “boron” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brainstorming (noun)

A group problem-solving technique in which members spontaneously share ideas and solutions.

- We had an intense brainstorming session today.
- The article explained what “brainstorming” means with a simple example.

---

bronchitis (noun)

Inflammation of the membranes lining the bronchial tubes.

- The article explained what “bronchitis” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bronchitis.”

---

brotherly (adjective)

Like or characteristic of or befitting a brother.

- Brotherly feelings.
- The speaker chose “brotherly” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

brotherly love (noun)

A kindly and lenient attitude toward people.

- They discussed “brotherly love” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “brotherly love” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

buffering (verb)

Add a buffer (a solution).

- The coach explained when to use “buffering” and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use “buffering” in real sentences.

---

bugle (noun)

A tubular glass or plastic bead sewn onto clothing for decoration.

- They discussed “bugle” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “bugle” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bugle call (noun)

A signal broadcast by the sound of a bugle.

- They discussed “bugle call” during the group presentation.
- He looked up “bugle call” because he had never seen it before.

---

bumblebee (noun)

Robust hairy social bee of temperate regions.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “bumblebee.”
- Understanding “bumblebee” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

busters (noun)

A person (or thing) that breaks up or overpowers something.

- Understanding “busters” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “busters.”

---

butters (noun)

A fighter who strikes the opponent with his head.

- The article explained what “butters” means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “butters.”

---

cactus wren (noun)

Large harsh-voiced American wren of arid regions of the United States southwest and Mexico.

- The article explained what “cactus wren” means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used “cactus wren” to mean large harsh-voiced american wren of arid regions of....

calcium carbide (noun)

A grey salt of calcium (CaC) used in making acetylene.

- He looked up "calcium carbide" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "calcium carbide."

canvases (noun)

The setting for a narrative or fictional or dramatic account.

- In class, the teacher used "canvases" to mean the setting for a narrative or fictional or....
- He looked up "canvases" because he had never seen it before.

capital of gabon (noun)

The capital of Gabon.

- In class, the teacher used "capital of gabon" to mean the capital of gabon.
- Understanding "capital of gabon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

capone (noun)

United States gangster who terrorized Chicago during prohibition until arrested for tax evasion (1899-1947).

- In class, the teacher used "capone" to mean united states gangster who terrorized chicago....
- Understanding "capone" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

carboniferous (adjective)

Of or relating to the Carboniferous geologic era.

- Carboniferous rock system.
- Would you call this situation "carboniferous"? Explain why.

carboniferous period (noun)

From 345 million to 280 million years ago.

- They discussed "carboniferous period" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "carboniferous period."

casings (noun)

The housing or outer covering of something.

- The casings had rotted away and had to be replaced.
- In class, the teacher used "casings" to mean the housing or outer covering of something.

catchers (noun)

The position on a baseball team of the player who is stationed behind home plate and who catches the balls that the pitcher throws.

- They discussed "catchers" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "catchers" means with a simple example.

catechism (noun)

A series of question put to an individual (such as a political candidate) to elicit their views.

- The article explained what "catechism" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "catechism" during the group presentation.

categorize (verb)

Place into or assign to a category.

- Children learn early on to categorize.
- Can you use "categorize" in a sentence that fits this situation?

cathedrals (noun)

The principal Christian church building of a bishop's diocese.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cathedrals."
- Understanding "cathedrals" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

causality (noun)

The relation between causes and effects.

- The article explained what "causality" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "causality" during the group presentation.

---

caustic lime (noun)

A caustic substance produced by heating limestone.

- The article explained what "caustic lime" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "caustic lime" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cayenne pepper (noun)

A long and often twisted hot red pepper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cayenne pepper."
- He looked up "cayenne pepper" because he had never seen it before.

---

chandeliers (noun)

Branched lighting fixture; often ornate; hangs from the ceiling.

- Understanding "chandeliers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "chandeliers" because he had never seen it before.

---

charles andre joseph marie de gaulle (noun)

French general and statesman who became very popular during World War II as the leader of the Free French forces in exile (1890-1970).

- He looked up "charles andre joseph marie de gaulle" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "charles andre joseph marie de gaulle."

---

charles stewart parnell (noun)

Irish nationalist leader (1846-1891).

- Understanding "charles stewart parnell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "charles stewart parnell" to mean irish nationalist leader (1846-1891).

---

chateau-thierry (noun)

A World War I battle in northwestern France where the Allies defeated the Germans in 1918.

- The article explained what "chateau-thierry" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chateau-thierry" to mean a world war i battle in northwestern france where....

---

chatty (adjective)

Full of trivial conversation.

- A "chatty" approach may work better in this case.
- It is useful to describe something as "chatty" when it is full of trivial conversation.

---

chef's salad (noun)

The combination salad prepared as a particular chef's specialty.

- They discussed "chef's salad" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chef's salad."

---

chokes (verb)

Become stultified, suppressed, or stifled.

- Can you use "chokes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "chokes" when talking about this idea.

---

christened (verb)

Administer baptism to.

- In everyday English, people use "christened" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "christened" until he saw an example.

---

chug (noun)

The dull explosive noise made by an engine.

- The article explained what "chug" means with a simple example.

- Understanding "chug" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

churchyard (noun)

The yard associated with a church.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "churchyard."
- They discussed "churchyard" during the group presentation.

---

city of brotherly love (noun)

The largest city in Pennsylvania; located in the southeastern part of the state on the Delaware river; site of Independence Hall where the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution were signed; site of the University of Pennsylvania.

- The article explained what "city of brotherly love" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "city of brotherly love" during the group presentation.

---

clapper (noun)

A mobile mass of muscular tissue covered with mucous membrane and located in the oral cavity.

- They discussed "clapper" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "clapper" to mean a mobile mass of muscular tissue covered with....

---

clarion (noun)

A medieval brass instrument with a clear shrill tone.

- In class, the teacher used "clarion" to mean a medieval brass instrument with a clear shrill tone.
- The article explained what "clarion" means with a simple example.

---

cocked hat (noun)

Hat with opposing brims turned up and caught together to form points.

- In class, the teacher used "cocked hat" to mean hat with opposing brims turned up and caught....
- The article explained what "cocked hat" means with a simple example.

---

coefficient of elasticity (noun)

(physics) the ratio of the applied stress to the change in shape of an elastic body.

- The article explained what "coefficient of elasticity" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coefficient of elasticity" to mean (physics) the ratio of the applied stress to the....

---

coffers (noun)

A chest especially for storing valuables.

- In class, the teacher used "coffers" to mean a chest especially for storing valuables.
- The article explained what "coffers" means with a simple example.

---

cognac (noun)

High quality grape brandy distilled in the Cognac district of France.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cognac."
- They discussed "cognac" during the group presentation.

---

colette (noun)

French writer of novels about women (1873-1954).

- Understanding "colette" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "colette" during the group presentation.

---

combatant (noun)

Someone who fights (or is fighting).

- They discussed "combatant" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "combatant" to mean someone who fights (or is fighting).

---

commie (noun)

A socialist who advocates communism.

- He looked up "commie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "commie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

compels (verb)

Force somebody to do something.

- The water shortage compels conservation.
- He did not know how to use "compels" until he saw an example.

---

compilations (noun)

The act of compiling (as into a single book or file or list).

- Understanding "compilations" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "compilations" means with a simple example.

---

concealment (noun)

A covering that serves to conceal or shelter something.

- The simplest concealment is to match perfectly the color of the background.
- The article explained what "concealment" means with a simple example.

---

concentric (adjective)

Having a common center.

- Concentric rings.
- Would you call this situation "concentric"? Explain why.

---

conceptually (adverb)

In a conceptual manner.

- He can no longer think conceptually.
- Conceptually, the idea is quite simple.

---

confine (verb)

To close within bounds, limit or hold back from movement.

- Learners should practice how to use "confine" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "confine" until he saw an example.

---

congregate (verb)

Come together, usually for a purpose.

- The crowds congregated in front of the Vatican on Christmas Eve.
- He did not know how to use "congregate" until he saw an example.

---

congresswoman (noun)

A member of the United States House of Representatives.

- He looked up "congresswoman" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "congresswoman" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

constructor (noun)

Someone who contracts for and supervises construction (as of a building).

- He looked up "constructor" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "constructor" to mean someone who contracts for and supervises....

---

coolers (noun)

An iced drink especially white wine and fruit juice.

- The article explained what "coolers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "coolers" to mean an iced drink especially white wine and fruit juice.

---

copycat (noun)

Someone who copies the words or behavior of another.

- They discussed "copycat" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "copycat" means with a simple example.

---

corroborate (verb)

Establish or strengthen as with new evidence or facts.

- The coach explained when to use "corroborate" and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use "corroborate" until he saw an example.

---

corroborated (verb)

Establish or strengthen as with new evidence or facts.

- She tried to use "corroborated" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Can you use "corroborated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

cred (noun)

Credibility among young fashionable urban individuals.

- In class, the teacher used "cred" to mean credibility among young fashionable urban individuals.
- The article explained what "cred" means with a simple example.

---

crimson-magenta (adjective)

Magenta tinged with crimson.

- A "crimson-magenta" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "crimson-magenta" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

cur (noun)

A cowardly and despicable person.

- In class, the teacher used "cur" to mean a cowardly and despicable person.
- Understanding "cur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

curd (noun)

A coagulated liquid resembling milk curd.

- Bean curd.
- Lemon curd.

---

cursory (adjective)

Hasty and without attention to detail; not thorough.

- A casual (or cursory) inspection failed to reveal the house's structural flaws.
- A "cursory" approach may work better in this case.

---

dangle (verb)

Cause to dangle or hang freely.

- He dangled the ornaments from the Christmas tree.
- The ornaments dangled from the tree.

---

de niro (noun)

United States film actor who frequently plays tough characters (born 1943).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "de niro."
- He looked up "de niro" because he had never seen it before.

---

dearth (noun)

An insufficient quantity or number.

- Understanding "dearth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dearth" during the group presentation.

---

delilah (noun)

A woman who is considered to be dangerously seductive.

- The article explained what "delilah" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "delilah" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delinquency (noun)

A tendency to be negligent and uncaring.

- He inherited his delinquency from his father.
- The article explained what "delinquency" means with a simple example.

denominated (verb)

Assign a name or title to.

- She tried to use "denominated" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "denominated" in real sentences.

depository financial institution (noun)

A financial institution that accepts deposits and channels the money into lending activities.

- They discussed "depository financial institution" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depository financial institution."

deutschland (noun)

A republic in central Europe; split into East Germany and West Germany after World War II and reunited in 1990.

- The article explained what "deutschland" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "deutschland."

disservice (noun)

An act intended to help that turns out badly.

- He did them a disservice.
- They discussed "disservice" during the group presentation.

distaste (noun)

A feeling of intense dislike.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "distaste."
- He looked up "distaste" because he had never seen it before.

don quixote (noun)

The hero of a romance by Cervantes; chivalrous but impractical.

- Understanding "don quixote" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "don quixote."

double bogey (verb)

To shoot two strokes over par.

- Can you use "double bogey" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- She tried to use "double bogey" carefully so everyone would understand.

double-bogey (noun)

(golf) a score of two strokes over par for a hole.

- Understanding "double-bogey" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "double-bogey" because he had never seen it before.

dribbling (noun)

The propulsion of a ball by repeated taps or kicks.

- They discussed "dribbling" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dribbling" because he had never seen it before.

dryden (noun)

The outstanding poet and dramatist of the Restoration (1631-1700).

- He looked up "dryden" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dryden" during the group presentation.

ducking stool (noun)

An instrument of punishment consisting of a chair in which offenders were ducked in water.

- Understanding "ducking stool" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "ducking stool" because he had never seen it before.

durango (noun)

A city in north central Mexico; mining center.

- Understanding "durango" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "durango" during the group presentation.

---

dwight lyman moody (noun)

United States evangelist (1837-1899).

- Understanding "dwight lyman moody" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "dwight lyman moody" means with a simple example.

---

dwindled (verb)

Become smaller or lose substance.

- Her savings dwindled down.
- In everyday English, people use "dwindled" when talking about this idea.

---

ejaculation (noun)

An abrupt emphatic exclamation expressing emotion.

- The article explained what "ejaculation" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ejaculation."

---

elasticity of shear (noun)

The elasticity of a body that has been pulled out of shape by a shearing force.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elasticity of shear."
- Understanding "elasticity of shear" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

elephant-tusk (noun)

Annual of southern United States to Mexico having large whitish or yellowish flowers mottled with purple and a long curving beak.

- They discussed "elephant-tusk" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "elephant-tusk."

---

enveloped (verb)

Enclose or enfold completely with or as if with a covering.

- Fog enveloped the house.
- She tried to use "enveloped" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

environmentalist (noun)

Someone who works to protect the environment from destruction or pollution.

- In class, the teacher used "environmentalist" to mean someone who works to protect the environment from....
- The article explained what "environmentalist" means with a simple example.

---

epileptic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of epilepsy.

- Epileptic seizure.
- A "epileptic" approach may work better in this case.

---

erasure (noun)

A surface area where something has been erased.

- Another word had been written over the erasure.
- There were many erasures in the typescript.

---

eternal damnation (noun)

The state of being condemned to eternal punishment in Hell.

- In class, the teacher used "eternal damnation" to mean the state of being condemned to eternal punishment....
- The article explained what "eternal damnation" means with a simple example.

---

ethyl alcohol (noun)

The intoxicating agent in fermented and distilled liquors; used pure or denatured as a solvent or in medicines and colognes and cleaning solutions and rocket fuel; proposed as a renewable clean-burning additive to gasoline.

- In class, the teacher used "ethyl alcohol" to mean the intoxicating agent in fermented and distilled....

- Understanding "ethyl alcohol" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

exacerbate (verb)

Exasperate or irritate.

- Learners should practice how to use "exacerbate" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "exacerbate" when talking about this idea.

---

exemplifies (verb)

Be characteristic of.

- In everyday English, people use "exemplifies" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "exemplifies" in real sentences.

---

exonerated (adjective)

Freed from any question of guilt.

- The speaker chose "exonerated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "exonerated" when it is freed from any question of guilt.

---

exquisitely (adverb)

In a delicate manner.

- Place "exquisitely" carefully so the meaning stays clear.
- He answered "exquisitely," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

extinguisher (noun)

A manually operated device for extinguishing small fires.

- The article explained what "extinguisher" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "extinguisher" to mean a manually operated device for extinguishing small....

---

facilitation (noun)

The condition of being made easy (or easier).

- Social facilitation is an adaptive condition.
- They discussed "facilitation" during the group presentation.

---

falsehood (noun)

The act of rendering something false as by fraudulent changes (of documents or measures etc.) or counterfeiting.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "falsehood."
- They discussed "falsehood" during the group presentation.

---

falsified (verb)

Tamper, with the purpose of deception.

- She falsified the records.
- He did not know how to use "falsified" until he saw an example.

---

fantasia (noun)

A musical composition of a free form usually incorporating several familiar themes.

- They discussed "fantasia" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fantasia."

---

favourably (adverb)

Showing approval.

- Using "favourably" can make your explanation more exact.
- She spoke "favourably," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

fertilized (verb)

Provide with fertilizers or add nutrients to.

- The course fertilized her imagination.
- Learners should practice how to use "fertilized" in real sentences.

---

fibrous tissue (noun)

Tissue consisting of or containing fibers in both animals and plants.

- They discussed "fibrous tissue" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "fibrous tissue" to mean tissue consisting of or containing fibers in both....

---

fire extinguisher (noun)

A manually operated device for extinguishing small fires.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fire extinguisher."
- He looked up "fire extinguisher" because he had never seen it before.

---

firestorm (noun)

An outburst of controversy.

- The incident triggered a political firestorm.
- The article explained what "firestorm" means with a simple example.

---

flange (noun)

A projection used for strength or for attaching to another object.

- The article explained what "flange" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "flange" to mean a projection used for strength or for attaching to....

---

flaunt (noun)

The act of displaying something ostentatiously.

- His behavior was an outrageous flaunt.
- Understanding "flaunt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

flawlessly (adverb)

In an adroit manner.

- She spoke "flawlessly," and the audience immediately understood her point.
- Place "flawlessly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

flier (noun)

An advertisement (usually printed on a page or in a leaflet) intended for wide distribution.

- Understanding "flier" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "flier" to mean an advertisement (usually printed on a page or in a....

---

flinch (verb)

Draw back, as with fear or pain.

- She flinched when they showed the slaughtering of the calf.
- The coach explained when to use "flinch" and when to wait.

---

florence fennel (noun)

Aromatic bulbous stem base eaten cooked or raw in salads.

- He looked up "florence fennel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "florence fennel."

---

florentine (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of the city of Florence.

- Florentine art.
- Students compared "florentine" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

fluid dram (noun)

A unit of capacity or volume in the apothecary system equal to one eighth of a fluid ounce.

- In class, the teacher used "fluid dram" to mean a unit of capacity or volume in the apothecary....
- The article explained what "fluid dram" means with a simple example.

---

folk etymology (noun)

A popular but erroneous etymology.

- The article explained what "folk etymology" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "folk etymology" to mean a popular but erroneous etymology.

---

forefathers (noun)

Person from an earlier time who contributed to the tradition shared by some group.

- Our forefathers brought forth a great nation.
- Keep the faith of our forefathers.

---

fractal geometry (noun)

(mathematics) the geometry of fractals.

- Benoit Mandelbrot pioneered fractal geometry.
- The article explained what "fractal geometry" means with a simple example.

---

fragrant shield fern (noun)

Fern or northern Eurasia and North America having fragrant fronds.

- The article explained what "fragrant shield fern" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fragrant shield fern."

---

freehold (noun)

An estate held in fee simple or for life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "freehold."
- Understanding "freehold" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

frisk (noun)

The act of searching someone for concealed weapons or illegal drugs.

- He gave the suspect a quick frisk.
- The article explained what "frisk" means with a simple example.

---

fulfills (verb)

Meet the requirements or expectations of.

- Can you use "fulfills" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "fulfills" and when to wait.

---

fundamentalism (noun)

The interpretation of every word in the sacred texts as literal truth.

- Understanding "fundamentalism" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fundamentalism."

---

gables (noun)

The vertical triangular wall between the sloping ends of gable roof.

- He looked up "gables" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "gables" to mean the vertical triangular wall between the sloping....

---

gabon (noun)

A republic on the west coast of Africa.

- The article explained what "gabon" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "gabon" to mean a republic on the west coast of africa.

---

gad (noun)

A sharp prod fixed to a rider's heel and used to urge a horse onward.

- In class, the teacher used "gad" to mean a sharp prod fixed to a rider's heel and used to....
- Understanding "gad" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

galapagos (noun)

A group of islands in the Pacific off South America; owned by Ecuador; known for unusual animal life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "galapagos."
- He looked up "galapagos" because he had never seen it before.

ganges (noun)

An Asian river; rises in the Himalayas and flows east into the Bay of Bengal; a sacred river of the Hindus.

- They discussed "ganges" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ganges."

ganges river (noun)

An Asian river; rises in the Himalayas and flows east into the Bay of Bengal; a sacred river of the Hindus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ganges river."
- He looked up "ganges river" because he had never seen it before.

gasps (noun)

A short labored intake of breath with the mouth open.

- Understanding "gasps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "gasps" during the group presentation.

george frederick handel (noun)

A prolific British baroque composer (born in Germany) remembered best for his oratorio Messiah (1685-1759).

- He looked up "george frederick handel" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "george frederick handel."

girth (noun)

The distance around a person's body.

- Understanding "girth" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "girth" during the group presentation.

godmother (noun)

Any woman who serves as a sponsor for a child at baptism.

- The article explained what "godmother" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "godmother" to mean any woman who serves as a sponsor for a child at....

gothenburg (noun)

A port in southwestern Sweden; second largest city in Sweden.

- The article explained what "gothenburg" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gothenburg."

governorship (noun)

The office of governor.

- He looked up "governorship" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "governorship."

graf (noun)

German tennis player who won seven women's singles titles at Wimbledon (born in 1969).

- Understanding "graf" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "graf."

green beret (noun)

A soldier who is a member of the United States Army Special Forces.

- They discussed "green beret" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "green beret" because he had never seen it before.

grunts (noun)

An unskilled or low-ranking soldier or other worker.

- Infantrymen in Vietnam were called grunts.
- The article explained what "grunts" means with a simple example.

guadalupe island (noun)

A Mexican island in the Pacific to the west of Baja California.

- They discussed "guadalupe island" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guadalupe island."

---

guatemalan (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Guatemala or its residents.

- Guatemalan coffee.
- A "guatemalan" approach may work better in this case.

---

hallmarks (noun)

A distinctive characteristic or attribute.

- They discussed "hallmarks" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hallmarks."

---

heart murmur (noun)

An abnormal sound of the heart; sometimes a sign of abnormal function of the heart valves.

- Understanding "heart murmur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "heart murmur" because he had never seen it before.

---

hellish (adjective)

Extremely evil or cruel; expressive of cruelty or befitting hell.

- Hellish torture.
- Hellish weather.

---

hemoglobin (noun)

A hemoprotein composed of globin and heme that gives red blood cells their characteristic color; function primarily to transport oxygen from the lungs to the body tissues.

- Fish have simpler hemoglobin than mammals.
- He looked up "hemoglobin" because he had never seen it before.

---

henry david thoreau (noun)

United States writer and social critic (1817-1862).

- He looked up "henry david thoreau" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "henry david thoreau" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

henry hobson richardson (noun)

United States architect (1838-1886).

- He looked up "henry hobson richardson" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "henry hobson richardson" to mean united states architect (1838-1886).

---

hermitage (noun)

The abode of a hermit.

- Understanding "hermitage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "hermitage" to mean the abode of a hermit.

---

hierarchies (noun)

A series of ordered groupings of people or things within a system.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "hierarchies."
- They discussed "hierarchies" during the group presentation.

---

hooves (noun)

The horny covering of the end of the foot in ungulate mammals.

- In class, the teacher used "hooves" to mean the horny covering of the end of the foot in....
- Understanding "hooves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hourglass (noun)

A sandglass that runs for sixty minutes.

- In class, the teacher used "hourglass" to mean a sandglass that runs for sixty minutes.

- The article explained what "hourglass" means with a simple example.

---

hum-vee (noun)

A high mobility, multipurpose, military vehicle with four-wheel drive.

- They discussed "hum-vee" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "hum-vee" means with a simple example.

---

hungarians (noun)

The official language of Hungary (also spoken in Rumania); belongs to the Ugric family of languages.

- He looked up "hungarians" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "hungarians" to mean the official language of hungary (also spoken in....

---

hygienic (adjective)

Tending to promote or preserve health.

- Hygienic habits like using disposable tissues.
- Hygienic surroundings with plenty of fresh air.

---

idiocy (noun)

Extreme mental retardation.

- They discussed "idiocy" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "idiocy" because he had never seen it before.

---

imitated (verb)

Appear like, as in behavior or appearance.

- The mime imitated the passers-by.
- In everyday English, people use "imitated" when talking about this idea.

---

impersonal (adjective)

Not relating to or responsive to individual persons.

- An impersonal corporation.
- An impersonal remark.

---

impregnated (verb)

Infuse or fill completely.

- The egg was impregnated.
- He impregnated his wife again.

---

incompetent cervix (noun)

(obstetrics) uterine cervix that becomes dilated before term and without labor often resulting in miscarriage or premature birth.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "incompetent cervix."
- They discussed "incompetent cervix" during the group presentation.

---

incontinence (noun)

Indiscipline with regard to sensuous pleasures.

- They discussed "incontinence" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "incontinence" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

inhaler (noun)

A dispenser that produces a chemical vapor to be inhaled in order to relieve nasal congestion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inhaler."
- They discussed "inhaler" during the group presentation.

---

injures (verb)

Cause damage or affect negatively.

- Learners should practice how to use "injures" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "injures" until he saw an example.

---

intersex (noun)

One having both male and female sexual characteristics and organs; at birth an unambiguous assignment of male or female cannot be made.

- In class, the teacher used "intersex" to mean one having both male and female sexual....
- He looked up "intersex" because he had never seen it before.

---

intricacies (noun)

Marked by elaborately complex detail.

- Understanding "intricacies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "intricacies."

---

ironed (adjective)

(of linens or clothes) smoothed with a hot iron.

- A "ironed" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "ironed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

james langston hughes (noun)

United States writer (1902-1967).

- In class, the teacher used "james langston hughes" to mean united states writer (1902-1967).
- The article explained what "james langston hughes" means with a simple example.

---

jerked meat (noun)

Meat (especially beef) cut in strips and dried in the sun.

- He looked up "jerked meat" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "jerked meat" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

john dryden (noun)

The outstanding poet and dramatist of the Restoration (1631-1700).

- They discussed "john dryden" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john dryden."

---

john jacob astor (noun)

United States capitalist (born in Germany) who made a fortune in fur trading (1763-1848).

- They discussed "john jacob astor" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john jacob astor."

---

joyce carol oates (noun)

United States writer (born in 1938).

- The article explained what "joyce carol oates" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "joyce carol oates" to mean united states writer (born in 1938).

---

kate chopin (noun)

United States writer who described Creole life in Louisiana (1851-1904).

- Understanding "kate chopin" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "kate chopin" because he had never seen it before.

---

kenneth bancroft clark (noun)

United States psychologist (born in Panama) whose research persuaded the Supreme Court that segregated schools were discriminatory (1914-2005).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "kenneth bancroft clark."
- He looked up "kenneth bancroft clark" because he had never seen it before.

---

lacquer (noun)

A black resinous substance obtained from certain trees and used as a natural varnish.

- They discussed "lacquer" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lacquer."

---

lakeland (noun)

A popular tourist area in northwestern England including England's largest lake and highest mountain.

- In class, the teacher used "lakeland" to mean a popular tourist area in northwestern england....
- They discussed "lakeland" during the group presentation.

---

laments (noun)

A cry of sorrow and grief.

- Their pitiful laments could be heard throughout the ward.
- In class, the teacher used "laments" to mean a cry of sorrow and grief.

---

langston hughes (noun)

United States writer (1902-1967).

- He looked up "langston hughes" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "langston hughes" during the group presentation.

---

lapses (noun)

A break or intermission in the occurrence of something.

- In class, the teacher used "lapses" to mean a break or intermission in the occurrence of something.
- They discussed "lapses" during the group presentation.

---

lavender-tinged (adjective)

Of something tinged with lavender.

- A "lavender-tinged" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "lavender-tinged."

---

lbj (noun)

36th President of the United States; was elected vice president and succeeded Kennedy when Kennedy was assassinated (1908-1973).

- In class, the teacher used "lbj" to mean 36th president of the united states; was elected....
- He looked up "lbj" because he had never seen it before.

---

ldl (noun)

A lipoprotein that transports cholesterol in the blood; composed of moderate amount of protein and a large amount of cholesterol; high levels are thought to be associated with increased risk of coronary heart disease and atherosclerosis.

- He looked up "ldl" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "ldl" during the group presentation.

---

levelling (verb)

Tear down so as to make flat with the ground.

- She tried to use "levelling" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "levelling" until he saw an example.

---

libra the balance (noun)

The seventh sign of the zodiac; the sun is in this sign from about September 23 to October 22.

- The article explained what "libra the balance" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "libra the balance."

---

linemen (noun)

The football players who line up on the line of scrimmage.

- In class, the teacher used "linemen" to mean the football players who line up on the line of....
- The article explained what "linemen" means with a simple example.

---

lipsticks (verb)

Form by tracing with lipstick.

- The coach explained when to use "lipsticks" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "lipsticks" in real sentences.

---

liquefied (adjective)

Reduced to a liquid state.

- Liquefied petroleum gas.
- Students compared "liquefied" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

little wabash (noun)

A river in eastern Illinois that flows southeastward to the Wabash River.

- Understanding "little wabash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little wabash."

little wabash river (noun)

A river in eastern Illinois that flows southeastward to the Wabash River.

- He looked up "little wabash river" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "little wabash river."

loaves (noun)

A quantity of food (other than bread) formed in a particular shape.

- Understanding "loaves" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "loaves" to mean a quantity of food (other than bread) formed in a....

locust pod (noun)

Long pod containing small beans and sweetish edible pulp; used as animal feed and source of a chocolate substitute.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "locust pod."
- Understanding "locust pod" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

long-billed marsh wren (noun)

American wren that inhabits tall reed beds.

- Understanding "long-billed marsh wren" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "long-billed marsh wren" because he had never seen it before.

long-horned beetle (noun)

Long-bodied beetle having very long antennae.

- He looked up "long-horned beetle" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "long-horned beetle" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

lover's knot (noun)

A stylized or decorative knot used as an emblem of love.

- In class, the teacher used "lover's knot" to mean a stylized or decorative knot used as an emblem of love.
- He looked up "lover's knot" because he had never seen it before.

lower carboniferous (noun)

From 345 million to 310 million years ago; increase of land areas; primitive ammonites; winged insects.

- They discussed "lower carboniferous" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "lower carboniferous."

macgregor (noun)

Scottish clan leader and outlaw who was the subject of a 1817 novel by Sir Walter Scott (1671-1734).

- The article explained what "macgregor" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "macgregor" to mean scottish clan leader and outlaw who was the subject....

maidens (noun)

An unmarried girl (especially a virgin).

- They discussed "maidens" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "maidens" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

malevolent (adjective)

Having or exerting a malignant influence.

- Malevolent stars.
- A gossipy malevolent old woman.

malevolent program (noun)

A computer program designed to have undesirable or harmful effects.

- They discussed "malevolent program" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "malevolent program" because he had never seen it before.

---

manchuria (noun)

A region in northeastern China.

- He looked up "manchuria" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "manchuria" to mean a region in northeastern china.

---

mardi gras (noun)

A carnival held in some countries on Shrove Tuesday (the last day before Lent) but especially in New Orleans.

- Understanding "mardi gras" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mardi gras."

---

martyred (verb)

Torture and torment like a martyr.

- Saint Sebastian was martyred.
- She tried to use "martyred" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

mary magdalene (noun)

Sinful woman Jesus healed of evil spirits; she became a follower of Jesus.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mary magdalene."
- They discussed "mary magdalene" during the group presentation.

---

matchups (noun)

The pairing of people or things as for comparison or competition.

- They discussed "matchups" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "matchups."

---

mated (adjective)

Of or relating to a marriage partner.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "mated."
- Students compared "mated" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

matrimony (noun)

The state of being a married couple voluntarily joined for life (or until divorce).

- Understanding "matrimony" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "matrimony" during the group presentation.

---

matures (verb)

Develop and work out fully in one's mind.

- Age matures a good wine.
- Can you use "matures" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

mechanized (adjective)

Equipped with machinery.

- A mechanized factory.
- Students compared "mechanized" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mending (noun)

The act of putting something in working order again.

- In class, the teacher used "mending" to mean the act of putting something in working order again.
- They discussed "mending" during the group presentation.

---

mercilessly (adverb)

Without pity; in a merciless manner.

- He was mercilessly trounced by his opponent in the House.

- She spoke "mercilessly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

meteorologist (noun)

A specialist who studies processes in the earth's atmosphere that cause weather conditions.

- They discussed "meteorologist" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "meteorologist" because he had never seen it before.

---

meyer guggenheim (noun)

United States industrialist (born in Switzerland) who with his sons established vast mining and metal processing companies (1828-1905).

- Understanding "meyer guggenheim" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "meyer guggenheim" because he had never seen it before.

---

microprocessor (noun)

Integrated circuit semiconductor chip that performs the bulk of the processing and controls the parts of a system.

- A microprocessor functions as the central processing unit of a microcomputer.
- A disk drive contains a microprocessor to handle the internal functions of the drive.

---

midweek (noun)

The fourth day of the week; the third working day.

- He looked up "midweek" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "midweek" to mean the fourth day of the week; the third working day.

---

minefield (noun)

A region in which explosives mines have been placed.

- They discussed "minefield" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "minefield" because he had never seen it before.

---

mogadishu (noun)

The capital and largest city of Somalia; a port on the Indian Ocean.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mogadishu."
- Understanding "mogadishu" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

mombasa (noun)

A port city in southern Kenya on a coral island in a bay of the Indian Ocean.

- He looked up "mombasa" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "mombasa" during the group presentation.

---

mongol dynasty (noun)

The imperial dynasty of China from 1279 to 1368.

- In class, the teacher used "mongol dynasty" to mean the imperial dynasty of china from 1279 to 1368.
- The article explained what "mongol dynasty" means with a simple example.

---

morrison waite (noun)

United States jurist who was appointed chief justice of the United States Supreme Court in 1874 by President Grant (1816-1888).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "morrison waite."
- They discussed "morrison waite" during the group presentation.

---

mover and shaker (noun)

A person who wields power and influence.

- A shaker of traditional beliefs.
- Movers and shakers in the business world.

---

murmur (noun)

A complaint uttered in a low and indistinct tone.

- Understanding "murmur" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "murmur" to mean a complaint uttered in a low and indistinct tone.

---

musings (noun)

A calm, lengthy, intent consideration.

- In class, the teacher used "musings" to mean a calm, lengthy, intent consideration.
- The article explained what "musings" means with a simple example.

---

napoleonic (adjective)

Of or relating to or like Napoleon Bonaparte.

- Napoleonic Wars.
- Would you call this situation "napoleonic"? Explain why.

---

narrating (verb)

Narrate or give a detailed account of.

- Learners should practice how to use "narrating" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "narrating" when talking about this idea.

---

native pomegranate (noun)

Small Australian tree bearing edible fruit resembling the pomegranate.

- Understanding "native pomegranate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "native pomegranate" to mean small australian tree bearing edible fruit....

---

necrosis (noun)

The localized death of living cells (as from infection or the interruption of blood supply).

- In class, the teacher used "necrosis" to mean the localized death of living cells (as from....
- Understanding "necrosis" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

netherlands guiana (noun)

A republic in northeastern South America on the Atlantic; achieved independence from the Netherlands in 1975.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "netherlands guiana."
- The article explained what "netherlands guiana" means with a simple example.

---

notches (noun)

A V-shaped or U-shaped indentation carved or scratched into a surface.

- There were four notches in the handle of his revolver.
- In class, the teacher used "notches" to mean a v-shaped or u-shaped indentation carved or....

---

nth (adjective)

Last or greatest in an indefinitely large series.

- To the nth degree.
- It is useful to describe something as "nth" when it is last or greatest in an indefinitely large series.

---

oblique bandage (noun)

A bandage in which successive turns proceed obliquely up or down a limb.

- The article explained what "oblique bandage" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "oblique bandage" to mean a bandage in which successive turns proceed....

---

olfactory impairment (noun)

A disorder in the sense of smell.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "olfactory impairment."
- They discussed "olfactory impairment" during the group presentation.

---

onerous (adjective)

Not easily borne; wearing.

- My duties weren't onerous; I only had to greet the guests.
- A "onerous" approach may work better in this case.

---

orientations (noun)

A predisposition in favor of something.

- The article explained what "orientations" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "orientations" to mean a predisposition in favor of something.

---

osage orange (noun)

Small shrubby deciduous yellowwood tree of south central United States having spines, glossy dark green leaves and an inedible fruit that resembles an orange; its hard orange-colored wood used for bows by Native Americans; frequently planted as boundary hedge.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "osage orange."
- He looked up "osage orange" because he had never seen it before.

---

outsource (verb)

Obtain goods or services from an outside supplier; to contract work out.

- Many companies outsource and hire consultants in order to maintain a flexible workforce.
- He did not know how to use "outsource" until he saw an example.

---

overtones (noun)

(usually plural) an ulterior implicit meaning or quality.

- Overtones of despair.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "overtones."

---

pained (adjective)

Hurt or upset.

- Face had a pained and puzzled expression.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "pained."

---

paradigms (noun)

The generally accepted perspective of a particular discipline at a given time.

- He looked up "paradigms" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "paradigms" to mean the generally accepted perspective of a particular....

---

pardons (noun)

The act of excusing a mistake or offense.

- The article explained what "pardons" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pardons" to mean the act of excusing a mistake or offense.

---

patching (noun)

The act of mending a hole in a garment by sewing a patch over it.

- In class, the teacher used "patching" to mean the act of mending a hole in a garment by sewing a....
- The article explained what "patching" means with a simple example.

---

pecan tree (noun)

Tree of southern United States and Mexico cultivated for its nuts.

- They discussed "pecan tree" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "pecan tree" to mean tree of southern united states and mexico....

---

peeping (verb)

Appear as though from hiding.

- Learners should practice how to use "peeping" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "peeping" when talking about this idea.

---

pendant earring (noun)

An earring with a pendant ornament.

- He looked up "pendant earring" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pendant earring" to mean an earring with a pendant ornament.

---

permeability (noun)

The property of something that can be pervaded by a liquid (as by osmosis or diffusion).

- The article explained what "permeability" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "permeability."

pershing (noun)

United States general who commanded the American forces in Europe during World War I (1860-1948).

- In class, the teacher used "pershing" to mean united states general who commanded the american....
- The article explained what "pershing" means with a simple example.

pharmacological (adjective)

Of or relating to pharmacology.

- Would you call this situation "pharmacological"? Explain why.
- Students compared "pharmacological" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

piano damper (noun)

Damper consisting of a small felted block that drops onto a piano string to stop its vibration.

- In class, the teacher used "piano damper" to mean damper consisting of a small felted block that....
- Understanding "piano damper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pin-tailed grouse (noun)

Sandgrouse of Europe and Africa having elongated middle tail feathers.

- In class, the teacher used "pin-tailed grouse" to mean sandgrouse of europe and africa having elongated....
- He looked up "pin-tailed grouse" because he had never seen it before.

pinot blanc (noun)

Dry white California table wine made from white Pinot grapes.

- In class, the teacher used "pinot blanc" to mean dry white california table wine made from white....
- They discussed "pinot blanc" during the group presentation.

plano (noun)

A city in northeastern Texas (suburb of Dallas).

- He looked up "plano" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plano."

playmaker (noun)

A player in a team sport who leads attacks or maneuvers in such a way that a teammate can score.

- In class, the teacher used "playmaker" to mean a player in a team sport who leads attacks or....
- The article explained what "playmaker" means with a simple example.

plum-yew (noun)

Any of several evergreen trees and shrubs of eastern Asia resembling yew and having large seeds enclosed in a fleshy envelope; sometimes cultivated as ornamentals.

- He looked up "plum-yew" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "plum-yew" to mean any of several evergreen trees and shrubs of....

plumb (noun)

The metal bob of a plumb line.

- He looked up "plumb" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "plumb" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

plumb level (noun)

A carpenter's level with a plumb line at right angles to it.

- Understanding "plumb level" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "plumb level" during the group presentation.

plumb line (noun)

A cord from which a metal weight is suspended pointing directly to the earth's center of gravity; used to determine the vertical from a given point.

- He looked up "plumb line" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plumb line."

plumb rule (noun)

A plumb line attached to a narrow board.

- Understanding "plumb rule" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "plumb rule."

---

plumes (noun)

A feather or cluster of feathers worn as an ornament.

- Grass with large plumes.
- Understanding "plumes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

plunger (noun)

Mechanical device that has a plunging or thrusting motion.

- The article explained what "plunger" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "plunger" during the group presentation.

---

pokes (noun)

A sharp hand gesture (resembling a blow).

- In class, the teacher used "pokes" to mean a sharp hand gesture (resembling a blow).
- The article explained what "pokes" means with a simple example.

---

pomegranate tree (noun)

Shrub or small tree native to southwestern Asia having large red many-seeded fruit.

- The article explained what "pomegranate tree" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "pomegranate tree" during the group presentation.

---

porta (noun)

An aperture or hole that opens into a bodily cavity.

- He looked up "porta" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "porta."

---

possum oak (noun)

Relatively tall deciduous water oak of southeastern United States often cultivated as a shade tree; thrives in wet soil.

- In class, the teacher used "possum oak" to mean relatively tall deciduous water oak of southeastern....
- The article explained what "possum oak" means with a simple example.

---

powder metallurgy (noun)

The metallurgy of powdered metals; how to produce solid metal objects from powdered metal by compaction and sintering.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "powder metallurgy."
- He looked up "powder metallurgy" because he had never seen it before.

---

prairie fowl (noun)

Brown mottled North American grouse of western prairies.

- Understanding "prairie fowl" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "prairie fowl" to mean brown mottled north american grouse of western prairies.

---

presto (adverb)

At a very fast tempo (faster than allegro).

- Presto! begone! 'tis here again.
- Using "presto" can make your explanation more exact.

---

prevailing westerly (noun)

The winds from the west that occur in the temperate zones of the Earth.

- Understanding "prevailing westerly" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "prevailing westerly" to mean the winds from the west that occur in the temperate....

---

prickly lettuce (noun)

European annual wild lettuce having prickly stems; a troublesome weed in parts of United States.

- Understanding "prickly lettuce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prickly lettuce."

---

prickly poppy (noun)

Annual Old World poppy with orange-red flowers and bristly fruit.

- He looked up "prickly poppy" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "prickly poppy" during the group presentation.

---

priestly (adjective)

Associated with the priesthood or priests.

- Priestly (or sacerdotal) vestments.
- Priestly dedication to the people of his parish.

---

printable (adjective)

Fit for publication because free of material that is morally or legally objectionable.

- Printable language.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "printable."

---

procuring (verb)

Get by special effort.

- Can you use "procuring" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "procuring" and when to wait.

---

prodigal (noun)

A recklessly extravagant consumer.

- He looked up "prodigal" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "prodigal."

---

prodigious (adjective)

Of momentous or ominous significance; - Herman Melville.

- A prodigious vision.
- A prodigious storm.

---

propellant (noun)

Any substance that propels.

- The article explained what "propellant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "propellant" to mean any substance that propels.

---

prune whip (noun)

Dessert made of prune puree and whipped cream.

- In class, the teacher used "prune whip" to mean dessert made of prune puree and whipped cream.
- The article explained what "prune whip" means with a simple example.

---

pulley (noun)

A simple machine consisting of a wheel with a groove in which a rope can run to change the direction or point of application of a force applied to the rope.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pulley."
- The article explained what "pulley" means with a simple example.

---

pulley block (noun)

A simple machine consisting of a wheel with a groove in which a rope can run to change the direction or point of application of a force applied to the rope.

- He looked up "pulley block" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "pulley block" to mean a simple machine consisting of a wheel with a....

---

pulley-block (noun)

A simple machine consisting of a wheel with a groove in which a rope can run to change the direction or point of application of a force applied to the rope.

- They discussed "pulley-block" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "pulley-block" means with a simple example.

---

qualms (noun)

Uneasiness about the fitness of an action.

- They discussed "qualms" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "qualms."

---

quotient verdict (noun)

An improper and unacceptable kind of compromise verdict.

- In class, the teacher used "quotient verdict" to mean an improper and unacceptable kind of compromise verdict.
- The article explained what "quotient verdict" means with a simple example.

---

raccoons (noun)

An omnivorous nocturnal mammal native to North America and Central America.

- He looked up "raccoons" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "raccoons" during the group presentation.

---

reappeared (verb)

Appear again.

- The sores reappeared on her body.
- Her husband reappeared after having left her years ago.

---

recaptured (verb)

Take back by force, as after a battle.

- In everyday English, people use "recaptured" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "recaptured" in real sentences.

---

rechargeable (adjective)

Capable of being recharged.

- A rechargeable battery.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rechargeable."

---

recluse (adjective)

Withdrawn from society; seeking solitude.

- A "recluse" approach may work better in this case.
- The speaker chose "recluse" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

recombinant dna technology (noun)

The technology of preparing recombinant DNA in vitro by cutting up DNA molecules and splicing together fragments from more than one organism.

- The article explained what "recombinant dna technology" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "recombinant dna technology" during the group presentation.

---

rectified (adjective)

Having been put right.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "rectified."
- Students compared "rectified" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

refinance (verb)

Renew the financing of.

- In everyday English, people use "refinance" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "refinance" in real sentences.

---

reformist (noun)

A disputant who advocates reform.

- The article explained what "reformist" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "reformist."

---

refresher (noun)

A course that reviews and updates a topic for those who have not kept abreast of developments.

- He stopped at the bar for a quick refresher.
- In class, the teacher used "refresher" to mean a course that reviews and updates a topic for those....

---

refresher course (noun)

A course that reviews and updates a topic for those who have not kept abreast of developments.

- They discussed "refresher course" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "refresher course" means with a simple example.

---

relaxes (verb)

Become less tense, rest, or take one's ease.

- A hot bath always relaxes me.
- Learners should practice how to use "relaxes" in real sentences.

---

remodel (verb)

Do over, as of (part of) a house.

- We are remodeling these rooms.
- Learners should practice how to use "remodel" in real sentences.

---

replaceable (adjective)

Capable of being replaced.

- Would you call this situation "replaceable"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "replaceable."

---

reschedule (verb)

Assign a new time and place for an event.

- We had to reschedule the doctor's appointment.
- The coach explained when to use "reschedule" and when to wait.

---

restarting (verb)

Take up or begin anew.

- He did not know how to use "restarting" until he saw an example.
- The coach explained when to use "restarting" and when to wait.

---

retroactive (adjective)

Descriptive of any event or stimulus or process that has an effect on the effects of events or stimuli or process that occurred previously.

- Students compared "retroactive" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "retroactive" when it is descriptive of any event or stimulus or process....

---

revisionist (noun)

A Communist who tries to rewrite Marxism to justify a retreat from the revolutionary position.

- The article explained what "revisionist" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "revisionist" during the group presentation.

---

ribbed (adjective)

(of the surface) having a rough, riblike texture.

- Students compared "ribbed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "ribbed" approach may work better in this case.

---

robert oppenheimer (noun)

United States physicist who directed the project at Los Alamos that developed the first atomic bomb (1904-1967).

- In class, the teacher used "robert oppenheimer" to mean united states physicist who directed the project at....
- The article explained what "robert oppenheimer" means with a simple example.

---

robs (verb)

Take something away by force or without the consent of the owner.

- Learners should practice how to use "robs" in real sentences.
- He did not know how to use "robs" until he saw an example.

rock-ribbed (adjective)

Tradition-bound and obstinately opinionated.

- Rock-ribbed republican.
- The rock-ribbed coast of Maine.

rubber eraser (noun)

An eraser made of rubber (or of a synthetic material with properties similar to rubber); commonly mounted at one end of a pencil.

- Understanding "rubber eraser" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rubber eraser."

sabotaged (verb)

Destroy property or hinder normal operations.

- The Resistance sabotaged railroad operations during the war.
- She tried to use "sabotaged" carefully so everyone would understand.

sages (noun)

A mentor in spiritual and philosophical topics who is renowned for profound wisdom.

- The article explained what "sages" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "sages" to mean a mentor in spiritual and philosophical topics who....

saskatoon (noun)

A city in central Saskatchewan; the largest city in the province.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "saskatoon."
- They discussed "saskatoon" during the group presentation.

schoolhouse (noun)

A building where young people receive education.

- Understanding "schoolhouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "schoolhouse."

scrub fowl (noun)

Large-footed short-winged birds of Australasia; build mounds of decaying vegetation to incubate eggs.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "scrub fowl."
- He looked up "scrub fowl" because he had never seen it before.

seashore (noun)

The shore of a sea or ocean.

- In class, the teacher used "seashore" to mean the shore of a sea or ocean.
- They discussed "seashore" during the group presentation.

seclusion (noun)

The act of secluding yourself from others.

- The article explained what "seclusion" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "seclusion" to mean the act of secluding yourself from others.

selenium (noun)

A toxic nonmetallic element related to sulfur and tellurium; occurs in several allotropic forms; a stable grey metallike allotrope conducts electricity better in the light than in the dark and is used in photocells; occurs in sulfide ores (as pyrite).

- Understanding "selenium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "selenium."

selenium cell (noun)

A photoelectric cell that uses a strip of selenium.

- In class, the teacher used "selenium cell" to mean a photoelectric cell that uses a strip of selenium.
- The article explained what "selenium cell" means with a simple example.

self-fertilized (adjective)

Fertilized by its own pollen.

- The speaker chose "self-fertilized" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "self-fertilized" approach may work better in this case.

---

semi-skimmed milk (noun)

Milk from which some of the cream has been removed.

- Understanding "semi-skimmed milk" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "semi-skimmed milk" during the group presentation.

---

senile dementia (noun)

Dementia of the aged; results from degeneration of the brain in the absence of cerebrovascular disease.

- They discussed "senile dementia" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "senile dementia" because he had never seen it before.

---

setups (noun)

The way something is organized or arranged.

- He looked up "setups" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "setups" during the group presentation.

---

sharp-tailed grouse (noun)

Large grouse of prairies and open forests of western North America.

- They discussed "sharp-tailed grouse" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sharp-tailed grouse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

short-billed marsh wren (noun)

Small American wren inhabiting wet sedgy meadows.

- He looked up "short-billed marsh wren" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "short-billed marsh wren" to mean small american wren inhabiting wet sedgy meadows.

---

shuttles (verb)

Travel back and forth between two points.

- The coach explained when to use "shuttles" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "shuttles" in real sentences.

---

signatory (noun)

Someone who signs and is bound by a document.

- Understanding "signatory" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "signatory" during the group presentation.

---

siphon (verb)

Move a liquid from one container into another by means of a siphon or a siphoning action.

- Siphon gas into the tank.
- In everyday English, people use "siphon" when talking about this idea.

---

siphon off (verb)

Convey, draw off, or empty by or as if by a siphon.

- She tried to use "siphon off" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "siphon off" and when to wait.

---

slasher (noun)

A weapon (a sword or dagger) used for slashing.

- He looked up "slasher" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "slasher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sloping trough (noun)

Sloping channel through which things can descend.

- The article explained what "sloping trough" means with a simple example.

- In class, the teacher used "sloping trough" to mean sloping channel through which things can descend.

---

slovenian (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of Slovenia or its people or language.

- Slovenian independence.
- The speaker chose "slovenian" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

snagged (verb)

Get by acting quickly and smartly.

- I snagged my stocking.
- In everyday English, people use "snagged" when talking about this idea.

---

somatic cell (noun)

Any of the cells of a plant or animal except the reproductive cells; a cell that does not participate in the production of gametes.

- Somatic cells are produced from preexisting cells.
- In class, the teacher used "somatic cell" to mean any of the cells of a plant or animal except the....

---

spangled (adjective)

Covered with beads or jewels or sequins.

- It is useful to describe something as "spangled" when it is covered with beads or jewels or sequins.
- The speaker chose "spangled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

spiteful (adjective)

Showing malicious ill will and a desire to hurt; motivated by spite.

- A despiteful fiend.
- A truly spiteful child.

---

splashes (noun)

A small quantity of something moist or liquid.

- The article explained what "splashes" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "splashes."

---

sporadically (adverb)

In a sporadic manner.

- He only works sporadically.
- Using "sporadically" can make your explanation more exact.

---

spore sac (noun)

Organ containing or producing spores.

- Understanding "spore sac" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "spore sac."

---

standard generalized markup language (noun)

(computer science) a standardized language for the descriptive markup of documents; a set of rules for using whatever markup vocabulary is adopted.

- They discussed "standard generalized markup language" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "standard generalized markup language."

---

stifled (adjective)

Held in check with difficulty.

- A stifled yawn.
- The speaker chose "stifled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

stinger (noun)

A remark capable of wounding mentally.

- Understanding "stinger" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "stinger" because he had never seen it before.

---

stipulation (noun)

A restriction that is insisted upon as a condition for an agreement.

- A stipulation of fact was made in order to avoid delay.
- In class, the teacher used "stipulation" to mean a restriction that is insisted upon as a condition....

---

stowe (noun)

United States writer of a novel about slavery that advanced the abolitionists' cause (1811-1896).

- He looked up "stowe" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stowe" to mean united states writer of a novel about slavery that....

---

street cred (noun)

Credibility among young fashionable urban individuals.

- They discussed "street cred" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "street cred."

---

stubbornly (adverb)

In a stubborn unregenerate manner.

- She remained stubbornly in the same position.
- Place "stubbornly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

subtropical (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of conditions in the subtropics.

- Even near the equator vegetation at 5000 ft is subtropical rather than tropical.
- Students compared "subtropical" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

sulfide (noun)

A compound of sulphur and some other element that is more electropositive.

- He looked up "sulfide" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sulfide."

---

summation (noun)

The arithmetic operation of summing; calculating the sum of two or more numbers.

- The summation of four and three gives seven.
- They discussed "summation" during the group presentation.

---

superimposed (adjective)

Placed on or over something else.

- Superimposed rocks.
- Students compared "superimposed" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

suppressor gene (noun)

A gene that suppresses the phenotypic expression of another gene (especially of a mutant gene).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "suppressor gene."
- He looked up "suppressor gene" because he had never seen it before.

---

surfacing (noun)

Emerging to the surface and becoming apparent.

- Understanding "surfacing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "surfacing" during the group presentation.

---

tableau (noun)

A group of people attractively arranged (as if in a painting).

- Understanding "tableau" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "tableau" because he had never seen it before.

---

tacit consent (noun)

(law) tacit approval of someone's wrongdoing.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tacit consent."
- The article explained what "tacit consent" means with a simple example.

---

taming (verb)

Overcome the wildness of; make docile and tractable.

- The coach explained when to use "taming" and when to wait.
- Can you use "taming" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

tarnished plant bug (noun)

Widespread plant and fruit pest.

- The article explained what "tarnished plant bug" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tarnished plant bug."

---

taxa (noun)

Animal or plant group having natural relations.

- He looked up "taxa" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "taxa."

---

techs (noun)

A school teaching mechanical and industrial arts and the applied sciences.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "techs."
- He looked up "techs" because he had never seen it before.

---

tenth cranial nerve (noun)

A mixed nerve that supplies the pharynx and larynx and lungs and heart and esophagus and stomach and most of the abdominal viscera.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "tenth cranial nerve."
- He looked up "tenth cranial nerve" because he had never seen it before.

---

tiredness (noun)

Temporary loss of strength and energy resulting from hard physical or mental work.

- They discussed "tiredness" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "tiredness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

toppled (verb)

Fall down, as if collapsing.

- The coach explained when to use "toppled" and when to wait.
- Can you use "toppled" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

trajectories (noun)

The path followed by an object moving through space.

- They discussed "trajectories" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "trajectories" means with a simple example.

---

transgressions (noun)

The act of transgressing; the violation of a law or a duty or moral principle.

- The boy was punished for the transgressions of his father.
- They discussed "transgressions" during the group presentation.

---

transylvania (noun)

A historical plateau region in northwestern Romania that is separated from the rest of the country by the Transylvanian Alps; originally part of Hungary; incorporated into Romania at the end of World War I.

- In class, the teacher used "transylvania" to mean a historical plateau region in northwestern romania....
- They discussed "transylvania" during the group presentation.

---

trotter (noun)

A horse trained to trot; especially a horse trained for harness racing.

- Understanding "trotter" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "trotter" means with a simple example.

truest (adjective)

Expressing or given to expressing the truth.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "truest."
- A "truest" approach may work better in this case.

typhoid fever (noun)

Serious infection marked by intestinal inflammation and ulceration; caused by Salmonella typhosa ingested with food or water.

- They discussed "typhoid fever" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "typhoid fever" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

ufos (noun)

An (apparently) flying object whose nature is unknown; especially those considered to have extraterrestrial origins.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ufos."
- He looked up "ufos" because he had never seen it before.

underpants (noun)

An undergarment that covers the body from the waist no further than to the thighs; usually worn next to the skin.

- In class, the teacher used "underpants" to mean an undergarment that covers the body from the waist....
- He looked up "underpants" because he had never seen it before.

underprivileged (adjective)

Lacking the rights and advantages of other members of society.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "underprivileged."
- A "underprivileged" approach may work better in this case.

underscores (noun)

A line drawn underneath (especially under written matter).

- The article explained what "underscores" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "underscores."

unimpressed (adjective)

Not moved to serious regard.

- Trying to appear unimpressed.
- A "unimpressed" approach may work better in this case.

unreasonably (adverb)

To a degree that exceeds the bounds or reason or moderation.

- His prices are unreasonably high.
- She reacted unreasonably when she learned she had failed.

unrelenting (adjective)

Not to be placated or appeased or moved by entreaty.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "unrelenting."
- Students compared "unrelenting" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

unsupervised (adjective)

Not supervised or under constant observation.

- The school maintains unsupervised study halls during free periods.
- Reliable workers are generally unsupervised.

uterine cavity (noun)

The space inside the uterus between the cervical canal and the Fallopian tubes.

- In class, the teacher used "uterine cavity" to mean the space inside the uterus between the cervical....
- He looked up "uterine cavity" because he had never seen it before.

vassal (noun)

A person holding a fief; a person who owes allegiance and service to a feudal lord.

- Understanding "vassal" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "vassal" to mean a person holding a fief; a person who owes....

---

vegetable hummingbird (noun)

A softwood tree with lax racemes of usually red or pink flowers; tropical Australia and Asia; naturalized in southern Florida and West Indies.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "vegetable hummingbird."
- They discussed "vegetable hummingbird" during the group presentation.

---

vegetative (adjective)

Of or relating to an activity that is passive and monotonous.

- A dull vegetative lifestyle.
- The decaying vegetative layer covering a forest floor.

---

vegetative cell (noun)

Any of the cells of a plant or animal except the reproductive cells; a cell that does not participate in the production of gametes.

- Somatic cells are produced from preexisting cells.
- In class, the teacher used "vegetative cell" to mean any of the cells of a plant or animal except the....

---

velcro (noun)

Nylon fabric used as a fastening.

- The article explained what "velcro" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "velcro" to mean nylon fabric used as a fastening.

---

verne (noun)

French writer who is considered the father of science fiction (1828-1905).

- He looked up "verne" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "verne" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

vying (verb)

Compete for something; engage in a contest; measure oneself against others.

- He did not know how to use "vying" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "vying" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

wabash (noun)

A tributary of the Ohio River that rises in western Ohio and flows southwestward across Indiana.

- In class, the teacher used "wabash" to mean a tributary of the ohio river that rises in western....
- Understanding "wabash" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

wabash river (noun)

A tributary of the Ohio River that rises in western Ohio and flows southwestward across Indiana.

- Understanding "wabash river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wabash river" because he had never seen it before.

---

warranties (noun)

A written assurance that some product or service will be provided or will meet certain specifications.

- Understanding "warranties" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "warranties" means with a simple example.

---

washers (noun)

A home appliance for washing clothes and linens automatically.

- The article explained what "washers" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "washers" during the group presentation.

---

weimar (noun)

A German city near Leipzig; scene of the adoption in 1919 of the constitution of the Weimar Republic that lasted until 1933.

- The article explained what "weimar" means with a simple example.

- They discussed "weimar" during the group presentation.

---

weirdness (noun)

Strikingly out of the ordinary.

- Understanding "weirdness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "weirdness" to mean strikingly out of the ordinary.

---

wheatley (noun)

American poet (born in Africa) who was the first recognized Black writer in America (1753-1784).

- The article explained what "wheatley" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheatley."

---

wheelchairs (noun)

A movable chair mounted on large wheels; for invalids or those who cannot walk; frequently propelled by the occupant.

- The article explained what "wheelchairs" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wheelchairs."

---

white-ribbed (adjective)

Having white ribs.

- It is useful to describe something as "white-ribbed" when it is having white ribs.
- The speaker chose "white-ribbed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

withered (adjective)

(used especially of vegetation) having lost all moisture.

- Withered vines.
- A lanky scarecrow of a man with withered face and lantern jaws.

---

woefully (adverb)

In an unfortunate or deplorable manner.

- It was woefully inadequate.
- The narrator describes the scene "woefully" in the final chapter.

---

workmen (noun)

An employee who performs manual or industrial labor.

- The article explained what "workmen" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "workmen" to mean an employee who performs manual or industrial labor.

---

wrangler (noun)

A cowboy who takes care of the saddle horses.

- Understanding "wrangler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wrangler."

---

yeats (noun)

Irish poet and dramatist (1865-1939).

- He looked up "yeats" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "yeats."

---

yellow horned poppy (noun)

Yellow-flowered Eurasian glaucous herb naturalized in along sandy shores in eastern North America.

- Understanding "yellow horned poppy" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "yellow horned poppy" to mean yellow-flowered eurasian glaucous herb naturalized....

---

yunnan (noun)

A province of southern China.

- They discussed "yunnan" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "yunnan" means with a simple example.

---

a trifle (adverb)

To a small degree; somewhat.

- A trifle smaller.
- Try rewriting the sentence and include "a trifle" naturally.

---

ablaze (adjective)

Lighted with red light as if with flames.

- Streets ablaze with lighted Christmas trees.
- His face all ablaze with excitement.

---

actor's agent (noun)

A business agent for an actor.

- Understanding "actor's agent" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "actor's agent" to mean a business agent for an actor.

---

actor's assistant (noun)

A wardrobe assistant for an actor.

- They discussed "actor's assistant" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "actor's assistant."

---

adriatic (noun)

An arm of the Mediterranean between Slovenia and Croatia and Montenegro and Albania on the east and Italy on the west.

- They discussed "adriatic" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "adriatic" to mean an arm of the mediterranean between slovenia and....

---

adriatic sea (noun)

An arm of the Mediterranean between Slovenia and Croatia and Montenegro and Albania on the east and Italy on the west.

- Understanding "adriatic sea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "adriatic sea" means with a simple example.

---

aegean (adjective)

Of or relating to or bordering the Aegean Sea.

- Aegean islands.
- The speaker chose "aegean" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

aegean culture (noun)

The prehistoric civilization on the islands in the Aegean sea and the surrounding countries.

- By 800 BC the entire Aegean had adopted this style of pottery.
- The article explained what "aegean culture" means with a simple example.

---

aegean island (noun)

An island in the Aegean Sea.

- He looked up "aegean island" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "aegean island" during the group presentation.

---

aegean sea (noun)

An arm of the Mediterranean between Greece and Turkey; a main trade route for the ancient civilizations of Crete and Greece and Rome and Persia.

- In class, the teacher used "aegean sea" to mean an arm of the mediterranean between greece and....
- The article explained what "aegean sea" means with a simple example.

---

aerodynamics (noun)

The branch of mechanics that deals with the motion of gases (especially air) and their effects on bodies in the flow.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aerodynamics."
- They discussed "aerodynamics" during the group presentation.

---

afro-asiatic (noun)

A large family of related languages spoken both in Asia and Africa.

- The article explained what "afro-asiatic" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "afro-asiatic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

agra (noun)

A city in northern India; former capital of the Mogul empire; site of the Taj Mahal.

- The article explained what "agra" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "agra" to mean a city in northern india; former capital of the....

---

alkali metal (noun)

Any of the monovalent metals of group I of the periodic table (lithium or sodium or potassium or rubidium or cesium or francium).

- The hydroxides of the alkali metals are strongly alkaline.
- The article explained what "alkali metal" means with a simple example.

---

alma-ata (noun)

The largest city in Kazakhstan and the capital until 1998.

- He looked up "alma-ata" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "alma-ata" during the group presentation.

---

alternative birthing (noun)

A method of childbirth that avoids intrusive high-tech medicine in favor of more natural and homely settings.

- In class, the teacher used "alternative birthing" to mean a method of childbirth that avoids intrusive....
- Understanding "alternative birthing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

amiss (adverb)

Away from the correct or expected course.

- Something went badly amiss in the preparations.
- If you think him guilty you judge amiss.

---

amphetamine (noun)

A central nervous system stimulant that increases energy and decreases appetite; used to treat narcolepsy and some forms of depression.

- The article explained what "amphetamine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amphetamine" to mean a central nervous system stimulant that increases....

---

amputated (verb)

Remove surgically.

- He did not know how to use "amputated" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "amputated" when talking about this idea.

---

anaesthetic (noun)

A drug that causes temporary loss of bodily sensations.

- The article explained what "anaesthetic" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "anaesthetic" to mean a drug that causes temporary loss of bodily sensations.

---

analogies (noun)

Drawing a comparison in order to show a similarity in some respect.

- They discussed "analogies" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "analogies" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

animator (noun)

The technician who produces animated cartoons.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "animator."
- They discussed "animator" during the group presentation.

---

anomalous communication (noun)

Communication by paranormal means.

- They discussed "anomalous communication" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "anomalous communication" means with a simple example.

antidepressant (noun)

Any of a class of drugs used to treat depression; often have undesirable side effects.

- The article explained what "antidepressant" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "antidepressant" to mean any of a class of drugs used to treat depression;...

aqueduct (noun)

A conduit that resembles a bridge but carries water over a valley.

- Understanding "aqueduct" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "aqueduct" to mean a conduit that resembles a bridge but carries water....

archeological (adjective)

Related to or dealing with or devoted to archaeology.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "archeological."
- The speaker chose "archeological" because it captured the feeling precisely.

archeological site (noun)

The site of an archeological exploration.

- Understanding "archeological site" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "archeological site."

aruba (noun)

A popular island resort in the Netherlands Antilles.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "aruba."
- He looked up "aruba" because he had never seen it before.

assesses (verb)

Estimate the value of (property) for taxation.

- The coach explained when to use "assesses" and when to wait.
- She tried to use "assesses" carefully so everyone would understand.

attributing (verb)

Decide as to where something belongs in a scheme.

- In everyday English, people use "attributing" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "attributing" in a sentence that fits this situation?

audiovisual (noun)

Materials using sight or sound to present information.

- Language tapes and videocassettes and other audiovisuals.
- Understanding "audiovisual" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

authenticated (adjective)

Established as genuine.

- A "authenticated" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "authenticated."

awry (adverb)

Away from the correct or expected course.

- Something has gone awry in our plans.
- With his necktie twisted awry.

barrymore (noun)

United States actor; son of Maurice Barrymore and Georgiana Barrymore (1882-1942).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "barrymore."
- They discussed "barrymore" during the group presentation.

bask (verb)

Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.

- She relished her fame and basked in her glory.
- The seals were basking in the sun.

---

be amiss (verb)

Interpret in the wrong way.

- The coach explained when to use "be amiss" and when to wait.
- Learners should practice how to use "be amiss" in real sentences.

---

beau monde (noun)

The fashionable elite.

- He looked up "beau monde" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "beau monde" during the group presentation.

---

befriend (verb)

Become friends with.

- In everyday English, people use "befriend" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "befriend" in real sentences.

---

bellingham (noun)

A town in northwestern Washington on a bay near the Canadian border.

- They discussed "bellingham" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "bellingham" to mean a town in northwestern washington on a bay near the....

---

blister rust (noun)

Fungus causing white pine blister rust and having a complex life cycle requiring a plant of genus Ribes as alternate host.

- The article explained what "blister rust" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "blister rust" to mean fungus causing white pine blister rust and having a....

---

bogart (noun)

United States film actor (1899-1957).

- The article explained what "bogart" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bogart" to mean united states film actor (1899-1957).

---

boolean logic (noun)

A system of symbolic logic devised by George Boole; used in computers.

- He looked up "boolean logic" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "boolean logic" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brainwashing (noun)

Forcible indoctrination into a new set of attitudes and beliefs.

- They discussed "brainwashing" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "brainwashing" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

brash oak (noun)

Small deciduous tree of eastern and central United States having dark green lyrate pinnatifid leaves and tough moisture-resistant wood used especially for fence posts.

- They discussed "brash oak" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "brash oak" means with a simple example.

---

bribing (verb)

Make illegal payments to in exchange for favors or influence.

- Can you use "bribing" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "bribing" and when to wait.

---

bristles (verb)

Have or be thickly covered with or as if with bristles.

- She tried to use "bristles" carefully so everyone would understand.

- He did not know how to use "bristles" until he saw an example.

---

burnt sienna (noun)

A reddish-brown pigment produced by roasting sienna.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "burnt sienna."
- He looked up "burnt sienna" because he had never seen it before.

---

busier (adjective)

Intrusive in a meddling or offensive manner.

- Would you call this situation "busier"? Explain why.
- It is useful to describe something as "busier" when it is intrusive in a meddling or offensive manner.

---

captained (verb)

Be the captain of a sports team.

- Can you use "captained" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- In everyday English, people use "captained" when talking about this idea.

---

cassius clay (noun)

United States prizefighter who won the world heavyweight championship three times (born in 1942).

- Understanding "cassius clay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "cassius clay" to mean united states prizefighter who won the world....

---

cataract canyon (noun)

A tributary of the Grand Canyon.

- The article explained what "cataract canyon" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "cataract canyon" during the group presentation.

---

caustic soda (noun)

A strongly alkaline caustic used in manufacturing soap and paper and aluminum and various sodium compounds.

- The article explained what "caustic soda" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "caustic soda" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

centralised (adjective)

Drawn toward a center or brought under the control of a central authority.

- Would you call this situation "centralised"? Explain why.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "centralised."

---

chalice vine (noun)

Mexican evergreen climbing plant having large solitary funnel-shaped fragrant yellow flowers with purple-brown ridges in the throat.

- The article explained what "chalice vine" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "chalice vine" to mean mexican evergreen climbing plant having large....

---

chiropractic (noun)

A method of treatment that manipulates body structures (especially the spine) to relieve low back pain or even headache or high blood pressure.

- The article explained what "chiropractic" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "chiropractic" during the group presentation.

---

chopsticks (noun)

One of a pair of slender sticks used as oriental tableware to eat food with.

- The article explained what "chopsticks" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "chopsticks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

chou dynasty (noun)

The imperial dynasty of China from 1122 to 221 BC; notable for the rise of Confucianism and Taoism.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chou dynasty."
- He looked up "chou dynasty" because he had never seen it before.

---

christian johann doppler (noun)

Austrian physicist famous for his discovery of the Doppler effect (1803-1853).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "christian johann doppler."
- He looked up "christian johann doppler" because he had never seen it before.

---

chromatography column (noun)

A vertical glass tube used in column chromatography; a mixture is poured in the top and washed through a stationary substance where components of the mixture are adsorbed selectively to form colored bands.

- Understanding "chromatography column" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "chromatography column" means with a simple example.

---

chum salmon (noun)

A large Pacific salmon with small spots on its back; an important food fish.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "chum salmon."
- Understanding "chum salmon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cinder pig (noun)

Pig iron containing a substantial proportion of slag.

- The article explained what "cinder pig" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "cinder pig" to mean pig iron containing a substantial proportion of slag.

---

citizenry (noun)

The body of citizens of a state or country.

- The article explained what "citizenry" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "citizenry" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

claudius (noun)

Roman Emperor after his nephew Caligula was murdered; consolidated the Roman Empire and conquered southern Britain; was poisoned by his fourth wife Agrippina after her son Nero was named as Claudius' heir (10 BC to AD 54).

- In class, the teacher used "claudius" to mean roman emperor after his nephew caligula was....
- They discussed "claudius" during the group presentation.

---

claudius i (noun)

Roman Emperor after his nephew Caligula was murdered; consolidated the Roman Empire and conquered southern Britain; was poisoned by his fourth wife Agrippina after her son Nero was named as Claudius' heir (10 BC to AD 54).

- They discussed "claudius i" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "claudius i" means with a simple example.

---

clumps (noun)

A grouping of a number of similar things.

- In class, the teacher used "clumps" to mean a grouping of a number of similar things.
- Understanding "clumps" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

cocked (verb)

To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.

- He did not know how to use "cocked" until he saw an example.
- She tried to use "cocked" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

colloquial (adjective)

Characteristic of informal spoken language or conversation.

- Wrote her letters in a colloquial style.
- The speaker chose "colloquial" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

column chromatography (noun)

Chromatography that uses selective adsorption by a column of powders.

- Understanding "column chromatography" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "column chromatography" means with a simple example.

---

combed (adjective)

(of hair) made tidy with a comb.

- With hair combed to the side.
- It is useful to describe something as "combed" when it is (of hair) made tidy with a comb.

---

commas (noun)

A punctuation mark (,) used to indicate the separation of elements within the grammatical structure of a sentence.

- He looked up "commas" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "commas."

---

confidant (noun)

Someone to whom private matters are confided.

- Understanding "confidant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "confidant" to mean someone to whom private matters are confided.

---

confiscate (verb)

Take temporary possession of as a security, by legal authority.

- The police confiscated the stolen artwork.
- He did not know how to use "confiscate" until he saw an example.

---

consecutively (adverb)

In a consecutive manner.

- He was consecutively ill, then well, then ill again.
- The narrator describes the scene "consecutively" in the final chapter.

---

controllable (adjective)

Capable of being controlled.

- The speaker chose "controllable" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "controllable" when it is capable of being controlled.

---

conversing (verb)

Carry on a conversation.

- Learners should practice how to use "conversing" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "conversing" when talking about this idea.

---

coolidge (noun)

Elected vice president and succeeded as 30th President of the United States when Harding died in 1923 (1872-1933).

- He looked up "coolidge" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coolidge."

---

copped (verb)

Take by theft.

- He did not know how to use "copped" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "copped" when talking about this idea.

---

coriander seed (noun)

Dried coriander seeds used whole or ground.

- Understanding "coriander seed" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "coriander seed" to mean dried coriander seeds used whole or ground.

---

cornea (noun)

The transparent dome-shaped anterior portion of the outer covering of the eye; it covers the iris and pupil and is continuous with the sclera.

- Understanding "cornea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "cornea" during the group presentation.

---

crichton (noun)

Scottish man of letters and adventurer (1560-1582).

- In class, the teacher used "crichton" to mean scottish man of letters and adventurer (1560-1582).

- They discussed "crichton" during the group presentation.

---

crumpled (adjective)

Of metal e.g.

- A car with a crumpled front end.
- Would you call this situation "crumpled"? Explain why.

---

cuter (adjective)

Attractive especially by means of smallness or prettiness or quaintness.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cuter."
- The speaker chose "cuter" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

cyclic redundancy check (noun)

An error correction code that is recorded in each sector of a magnetic disk and used to catch errors in the data.

- In class, the teacher used "cyclic redundancy check" to mean an error correction code that is recorded in each....
- The article explained what "cyclic redundancy check" means with a simple example.

---

daimler (noun)

German engineer and automobile manufacturer who produced the first high-speed internal combustion engine (1834-1900).

- Understanding "daimler" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "daimler" because he had never seen it before.

---

dcs (noun)

An electric current that flows in one direction steadily.

- Understanding "dcs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "dcs" because he had never seen it before.

---

decompression (noun)

Restoring compressed information to its normal form for use or display.

- They discussed "decompression" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "decompression" to mean restoring compressed information to its normal form....

---

deflation (noun)

The act of letting the air out of something.

- A constant deflation of the desert landscape.
- Understanding "deflation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

delusions of grandeur (noun)

A delusion (common in paranoia) that you are much greater and more powerful and influential than you really are.

- The article explained what "delusions of grandeur" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "delusions of grandeur" during the group presentation.

---

demeaning (adjective)

Causing awareness of your shortcomings.

- It is useful to describe something as "demeaning" when it is causing awareness of your shortcomings.
- The speaker chose "demeaning" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

dengue (noun)

An infectious disease of the tropics transmitted by mosquitoes and characterized by rash and aching head and joints.

- Understanding "dengue" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "dengue" during the group presentation.

---

denials (noun)

The act of refusing to comply (as with a request).

- He looked up "denials" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "denials" during the group presentation.

---

denominational (adjective)

Relating to or characteristic of a particular religious denomination.

- Denominational politics.
- Would you call this situation "denominational"? Explain why.

---

dermatology (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with the skin and its diseases.

- The article explained what "dermatology" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "dermatology" to mean the branch of medicine dealing with the skin and....

---

detachable (adjective)

Designed to be unfastened or disconnected without damage.

- Shirts with detachable collars.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "detachable."

---

deterministic (adjective)

An inevitable consequence of antecedent sufficient causes.

- Students compared "deterministic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "deterministic" approach may work better in this case.

---

devotee (noun)

An ardent follower and admirer.

- He looked up "devotee" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "devotee."

---

dickie-seat (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- They discussed "dickie-seat" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "dickie-seat" because he had never seen it before.

---

dictating (verb)

Say out loud for the purpose of recording.

- In everyday English, people use "dictating" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "dictating" in real sentences.

---

diggers (noun)

A machine for excavating.

- The article explained what "diggers" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "diggers" to mean a machine for excavating.

---

dill pickle (noun)

Pickle preserved in brine or vinegar flavored with dill seed.

- They discussed "dill pickle" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "dill pickle" means with a simple example.

---

dimes (noun)

A United States coin worth one tenth of a dollar.

- Understanding "dimes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "dimes" to mean a united states coin worth one tenth of a dollar.

---

disfigured (adjective)

Having the appearance spoiled.

- A disfigured face.
- Strip mining left a disfigured landscape.

---

disguises (noun)

An outward semblance that misrepresents the true nature of something.

- He looked up "disguises" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "disguises" during the group presentation.

---

disprove (verb)

Prove to be false.

- The physicist disproved his colleagues' theories.
- Learners should practice how to use "disprove" in real sentences.

---

disrespected (verb)

Have little or no respect for; hold in contempt.

- Can you use "disrespected" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "disrespected" until he saw an example.

---

divulge (verb)

Make known to the public information that was previously known only to a few people or that was meant to be kept a secret.

- She tried to use "divulge" carefully so everyone would understand.
- He did not know how to use "divulge" until he saw an example.

---

docile (adjective)

Willing to be taught or led or supervised or directed.

- The docile masses of an enslaved nation.
- It is useful to describe something as "docile" when it is willing to be taught or led or supervised or directed.

---

doctrinal (adjective)

Relating to or involving or preoccupied with doctrine.

- Quibbling over doctrinal minutiae.
- It is useful to describe something as "doctrinal" when it is relating to or involving or preoccupied with doctrine.

---

dogmatic (adjective)

Of or pertaining to or characteristic of a doctrine or code of beliefs accepted as authoritative.

- Dogmatic writings.
- It is useful to describe something as "dogmatic" when it is of or pertaining to or characteristic of a doctrine....

---

dominica (noun)

A volcanic island in the Windward Islands that was once a stronghold of the Carib Indians.

- Understanding "dominica" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dominica."

---

droves (noun)

A group of animals (a herd or flock) moving together.

- They discussed "droves" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "droves."

---

drunks (noun)

Someone who is intoxicated.

- The article explained what "drunks" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "drunks" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dryness (noun)

The condition of not containing or being covered by a liquid (especially water).

- Her manner assumed a dispassion and dryness very unlike her usual tone.
- Understanding "dryness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dutch guiana (noun)

A republic in northeastern South America on the Atlantic; achieved independence from the Netherlands in 1975.

- The article explained what "dutch guiana" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dutch guiana."

dyeing (noun)

The use of dye to change the color of something permanently.

- He looked up "dyeing" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dyeing."

eases (noun)

A freedom from financial difficulty that promotes a comfortable state.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "eases."
- They discussed "eases" during the group presentation.

echelon (noun)

A diffraction grating consisting of a pile of plates of equal thickness arranged stepwise with a constant offset.

- Understanding "echelon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "echelon" because he had never seen it before.

edifice (noun)

A structure that has a roof and walls and stands more or less permanently in one place.

- It was an imposing edifice.
- They discussed "edifice" during the group presentation.

ela (noun)

An extreme leftist terrorist group formed in Greece in 1971 to oppose the military junta that ruled Greece from 1967 to 1974; a revolutionary group opposed to capitalism and imperialism and the United States.

- In class, the teacher used "ela" to mean an extreme leftist terrorist group formed in greece....
- The article explained what "ela" means with a simple example.

electric sander (noun)

A power tool used for sanding wood; an endless loop of sandpaper is moved at high speed by an electric motor.

- In class, the teacher used "electric sander" to mean a power tool used for sanding wood; an endless loop....
- He looked up "electric sander" because he had never seen it before.

electrostatic bond (noun)

A chemical bond in which one atom loses an electron to form a positive ion and the other atom gains an electron to form a negative ion.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatic bond."
- They discussed "electrostatic bond" during the group presentation.

embossed (adjective)

Embellished with a raised pattern created by pressure or embroidery.

- An embossed satin.
- Embossed leather.

encircled (adjective)

Confined on all sides.

- The encircled pioneers.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "encircled."

endpoint (noun)

A place where something ends or is complete.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "endpoint."
- He looked up "endpoint" because he had never seen it before.

enid (noun)

A town in north central Oklahoma.

- Understanding "enid" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enid."

entailed (verb)

Impose, involve, or imply as a necessary accompaniment or result.

- The coach explained when to use “entailed” and when to wait.
- Can you use “entailed” in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

ethyl (noun)

The univalent hydrocarbon radical C2H5 derived from ethane by the removal of one hydrogen atom.

- He looked up “ethyl” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ethyl.”

---

ethyl group (noun)

The univalent hydrocarbon radical C2H5 derived from ethane by the removal of one hydrogen atom.

- They discussed “ethyl group” during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “ethyl group.”

---

everglades (noun)

A large subtropical swamp in southern Florida that is noted for its wildlife.

- Understanding “everglades” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what “everglades” means with a simple example.

---

everglades national park (noun)

A national park in Florida containing an immense subtropical wilderness with mangrove swamps and rare birds and wild animals.

- In class, the teacher used “everglades national park” to mean a national park in florida containing an immense....
- The article explained what “everglades national park” means with a simple example.

---

excels (verb)

Distinguish oneself.

- She tried to use “excels” carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use “excels” and when to wait.

---

expatriate (noun)

A person who is voluntarily absent from home or country.

- American expatriates.
- They discussed “expatriate” during the group presentation.

---

expats (noun)

A person who is voluntarily absent from home or country.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “expats.”
- Understanding “expats” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

expertly (adverb)

In an expert manner.

- He repaired the TV set expertly.
- The narrator describes the scene “expertly” in the final chapter.

---

facelift (noun)

A renovation that improves the outward appearance (as of a building) but usually does not involve major changes.

- Give your home a facelift.
- More than a facelift, the new model marks a fundamental change of direction.

---

fahrenheit thermometer (noun)

A thermometer calibrated in degrees Fahrenheit.

- Understanding “fahrenheit thermometer” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed “fahrenheit thermometer” during the group presentation.

---

fairway (noun)

A tract of ground free of obstacles to movement.

- They discussed “fairway” during the group presentation.

- The article explained what "fairway" means with a simple example.

---

fao (noun)

The United Nations agency concerned with the international organization of food and agriculture.

- He looked up "fao" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fao."

---

farrow (noun)

The production of a litter of pigs.

- The article explained what "farrow" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "farrow."

---

fibrous joint (noun)

An immovable joint (especially between the bones of the skull).

- He looked up "fibrous joint" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "fibrous joint" to mean an immovable joint (especially between the bones of....

---

fireplaces (noun)

An open recess in a wall at the base of a chimney where a fire can be built.

- He looked up "fireplaces" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "fireplaces" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

fishers (noun)

Someone whose occupation is catching fish.

- In class, the teacher used "fishers" to mean someone whose occupation is catching fish.
- The article explained what "fishers" means with a simple example.

---

flamenco (noun)

A style of dancing characteristic of the Andalusian Gypsies; vigorous and rhythmic with clapping and stamping of feet.

- The article explained what "flamenco" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "flamenco."

---

floored (adjective)

Provided with a floor.

- The speaker chose "floored" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "floored."

---

flustered (adjective)

Thrown into a state of agitated confusion; ('rattled' is an informal term).

- Would you call this situation "flustered"? Explain why.
- Students compared "flustered" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

follicles (noun)

Any small spherical group of cells containing a cavity.

- The article explained what "follicles" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "follicles."

---

folsom culture (noun)

The Paleo-American culture of Central America and North America; distinguished chiefly by a thin finely made flint projectile point having the shape of a leaf.

- Understanding "folsom culture" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "folsom culture" to mean the paleo-american culture of central america and....

---

formalities (noun)

A requirement of etiquette or custom.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "formalities."
- He looked up "formalities" because he had never seen it before.

---

fragrant wood fern (noun)

Fern or northern Eurasia and North America having fragrant fronds.

- The article explained what “fragrant wood fern” means with a simple example.
- They discussed “fragrant wood fern” during the group presentation.

---

franciscan (adjective)

Of or relating to Saint Francis of Assisi or to the order founded by him.

- Franciscan monks.
- Students compared “franciscan” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

franciscan order (noun)

A Roman Catholic order founded by Saint Francis of Assisi in the 13th century.

- In class, the teacher used “franciscan order” to mean a roman catholic order founded by saint francis of....
- Understanding “franciscan order” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

friendliness (noun)

A feeling of liking for another person; enjoyment in their company.

- Understanding “friendliness” helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “friendliness.”

---

gael (noun)

A Gaelic-speaking Celt in Ireland or Scotland or the Isle of Man.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gael.”
- They discussed “gael” during the group presentation.

---

gagging (verb)

Struggle for breath; have insufficient oxygen intake.

- The students were gagging during dinner.
- The coach explained when to use “gagging” and when to wait.

---

gaius caesar (noun)

Roman Emperor who succeeded Tiberius and whose uncontrolled passions resulted in manifest insanity; noted for his cruelty and tyranny; was assassinated (12-41).

- He looked up “gaius caesar” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “gaius caesar” to mean roman emperor who succeeded tiberius and whose....

---

galloping (verb)

Cause to move at full gallop.

- He was galloping down the road.
- The horse was galloping along.

---

garnet lac (noun)

Lac refined by treating with solvent; garnet-colored.

- They discussed “garnet lac” during the group presentation.
- Understanding “garnet lac” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

gaseous (adjective)

Existing as or having characteristics of a gas.

- Steam is water is the gaseous state.
- The speaker chose “gaseous” because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

gaussian distribution (noun)

A theoretical distribution with finite mean and variance.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “gaussian distribution.”
- He looked up “gaussian distribution” because he had never seen it before.

---

gaussian shape (noun)

A symmetrical curve representing the normal distribution.

- He looked up "gaussian shape" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gaussian shape."

---

general anaesthetic (noun)

An anesthetic that anesthetizes the entire body and causes loss of consciousness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "general anaesthetic."
- The article explained what "general anaesthetic" means with a simple example.

---

genus acacia (noun)

Large genus of shrubs and trees and some woody vines of Central and South America, Africa, Australia and Polynesia: wattle; mimosa.

- Understanding "genus acacia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "genus acacia" during the group presentation.

---

genus eucalyptus (noun)

Tall trees native to the Australian region; source of timber and medicinal oils from the aromatic leaves.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "genus eucalyptus."
- Understanding "genus eucalyptus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

genus rhea (noun)

Type genus of the Rheidae; large tall flightless South American birds similar to but smaller than ostriches.

- He looked up "genus rhea" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "genus rhea" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

giant taro (noun)

Large evergreen with extremely large erect or spreading leaves; cultivated widely in tropics for its edible rhizome and shoots; used in wet warm regions as a stately ornamental.

- They discussed "giant taro" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "giant taro" because he had never seen it before.

---

gita (noun)

(Hinduism) the sacred 'song of God' composed about 200 BC and incorporated into the Mahabharata (a Sanskrit epic); contains a discussion between Krishna and the Indian hero Arjuna on human nature and the purpose of life.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gita."
- Understanding "gita" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

glows (noun)

A feeling of considerable warmth.

- He looked up "glows" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "glows" during the group presentation.

---

go off half-cocked (verb)

Act prematurely or without reflection or too soon.

- She wanted to quit her job but her mother told her not to go off half-cocked.
- The coach explained when to use "go off half-cocked" and when to wait.

---

gradients (noun)

The property possessed by a line or surface that departs from the horizontal.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gradients."
- Understanding "gradients" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

grads (noun)

A person who has received a degree from a school (high school or college or university).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grads."
- They discussed "grads" during the group presentation.

---

grits (noun)

Coarsely ground hulled corn boiled as a breakfast dish in the southern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "grits."
- He looked up "grits" because he had never seen it before.

groans (verb)

Indicate pain, discomfort, or displeasure.

- She tried to use "groans" carefully so everyone would understand.
- Learners should practice how to use "groans" in real sentences.

grueling (adjective)

Characterized by effort to the point of exhaustion; especially physical effort.

- A grueling campaign.
- The speaker chose "grueling" because it captured the feeling precisely.

guardianship (noun)

The responsibility of a guardian or keeper.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "guardianship."
- They discussed "guardianship" during the group presentation.

gulp (verb)

To swallow hurriedly or greedily or in one draught.

- The men gulped down their beers.
- He gulped for help after choking on a big piece of meat.

gypsum (noun)

A common white or colorless mineral (hydrated calcium sulphate) used to make cements and plasters (especially plaster of Paris).

- They discussed "gypsum" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "gypsum" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

gypsum board (noun)

Wallboard with a gypsum plaster core bonded to layers of paper or fiberboard; used instead of plaster or wallboard to make interior walls.

- They discussed "gypsum board" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "gypsum board."

hamstring tendon (noun)

One of the tendons at the back of the knee.

- The article explained what "hamstring tendon" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "hamstring tendon" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hao (noun)

10 hao equal 1 dong in Vietnam.

- In class, the teacher used "hao" to mean 10 hao equal 1 dong in vietnam.
- He looked up "hao" because he had never seen it before.

harbours (noun)

A place of refuge and comfort and security.

- In class, the teacher used "harbours" to mean a place of refuge and comfort and security.
- Understanding "harbours" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

hasten (verb)

Act or move at high speed.

- Can you use "hasten" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "hasten" and when to wait.

heady (adjective)

Marked by defiant disregard for danger or consequences; ; -Macaulay.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "heady."
- Students compared "heady" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

healers (noun)

A person skilled in a particular type of therapy.

- Understanding "healers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "healers" to mean a person skilled in a particular type of therapy.

---

hindering (adjective)

Preventing movement.

- Students compared "hindering" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- It is useful to describe something as "hindering" when it is preventing movement.

---

homesick (adjective)

Longing to return home.

- A "homesick" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "homesick" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

horned poppy (noun)

Yellow-flowered Eurasian glaucous herb naturalized in along sandy shores in eastern North America.

- He looked up "horned poppy" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "horned poppy."

---

hos (noun)

A trivalent metallic element of the rare earth group; occurs together with yttrium; forms highly magnetic compounds.

- In class, the teacher used "hos" to mean a trivalent metallic element of the rare earth....
- Understanding "hos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

hotly (adverb)

In a heated manner.

- The children were arguing hotly.
- She spoke "hotly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

humanly (adverb)

In the manner of human beings.

- Humanly possible.
- Place "humanly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

husbandry (noun)

The practice of cultivating the land or raising stock.

- He looked up "husbandry" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "husbandry" during the group presentation.

---

hushed (adjective)

In a softened tone.

- Hushed voices.
- A "hushed" approach may work better in this case.

---

hushed-up (adjective)

(used of information or news) kept secret by using influence.

- Hushed-up stories sometimes leak out.
- The speaker chose "hushed-up" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

hypothetically (adverb)

By hypothesis.

- The narrator describes the scene "hypothetically" in the final chapter.
- He answered "hypothetically," which changed the tone of the conversation.

---

ibuprofen (noun)

A nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory and analgesic medicine (trade names Advil and Motrin and Nuprin) used to relieve the pain of arthritis and as an antipyretic.

- Daily use of ibuprofen can irritate the stomach.

- He looked up "ibuprofen" because he had never seen it before.

---

identifiers (noun)

A symbol that establishes the identity of the one bearing it.

- He looked up "identifiers" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "identifiers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

idly (adverb)

In an idle manner.

- This is what I always imagined myself doing in the south of France, sitting idly, drinking coffee, watching the people.
- She spoke "idly," and the audience immediately understood her point.

---

immigrated (verb)

Come into a new country and change residency.

- Many people immigrated at the beginning of the 20th century.
- Britain immigrated many colonists to America.

---

immobile (adjective)

Not capable of movement or of being moved.

- It is useful to describe something as "immobile" when it is not capable of movement or of being moved.
- The speaker chose "immobile" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

impair (verb)

Make worse or less effective.

- His vision was impaired.
- Learners should practice how to use "impair" in real sentences.

---

inhalation anesthesia (noun)

General anesthesia achieved by administration of an inhalation anesthetic.

- Understanding "inhalation anesthesia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inhalation anesthesia."

---

inverse sine (noun)

The inverse function of the sine; the angle that has a sine equal to a given number.

- The article explained what "inverse sine" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "inverse sine."

---

irradiated (verb)

Give spiritual insight to; in religion.

- He did not know how to use "irradiated" until he saw an example.
- Can you use "irradiated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

isaacs (noun)

(Old Testament) the second patriarch; son of Abraham and Sarah who was offered by Abraham as a sacrifice to God; father of Jacob and Esau.

- He looked up "isaacs" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "isaacs."

---

jacob's staff (noun)

Desert shrub of southwestern United States and Mexico having slender naked spiny branches that after the rainy season put forth foliage and clusters of red flowers.

- They discussed "jacob's staff" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "jacob's staff."

---

james crichton (noun)

Scottish man of letters and adventurer (1560-1582).

- Understanding "james crichton" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "james crichton" means with a simple example.

---

jerked (verb)

Make an uncontrolled, short, jerky motion.

- He turned the handle and jerked the door open.
- He did not know how to use "jerked" until he saw an example.

---

johannes peter muller (noun)

German physiologist and anatomist (1801-1858).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "johannes peter muller."
- They discussed "johannes peter muller" during the group presentation.

---

john barrymore (noun)

United States actor; son of Maurice Barrymore and Georgiana Barrymore (1882-1942).

- Understanding "john barrymore" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "john barrymore" during the group presentation.

---

john xxiii (noun)

Italian pope from 1958 to 1963 who convoked the Second Vatican Council (1881-1963).

- He looked up "john xxiii" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "john xxiii."

---

jugs (verb)

Stew in an earthenware jug.

- In everyday English, people use "jugs" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "jugs" in real sentences.

---

kam-tai (noun)

A family of Sino-Tibetan languages spoken in southeastern Asia.

- He looked up "kam-tai" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "kam-tai" during the group presentation.

---

kharkiv (noun)

A city in northeastern Ukraine; former capital of the Ukraine.

- Understanding "kharkiv" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "kharkiv" during the group presentation.

---

kiddie porn (noun)

The illegal use of children in pornographic pictures or films.

- They discussed "kiddie porn" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "kiddie porn" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

kinetics (noun)

The branch of mechanics concerned with the forces that cause motions of bodies.

- In class, the teacher used "kinetics" to mean the branch of mechanics concerned with the forces....
- They discussed "kinetics" during the group presentation.

---

kipling (noun)

English author of novels and poetry who was born in India (1865-1936).

- In class, the teacher used "kipling" to mean english author of novels and poetry who was born in....
- Understanding "kipling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

layman (noun)

Someone who is not a clergyman or a professional person.

- In class, the teacher used "layman" to mean someone who is not a clergyman or a professional person.
- He looked up "layman" because he had never seen it before.

---

layup (noun)

A basketball shot made with one hand from a position under or beside the basket (and usually banked off the backboard).

- The article explained what "layup" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "layup" during the group presentation.

---

libra (noun)

A small faint zodiacal constellation in the southern hemisphere; between Virgo and Scorpius.

- In class, the teacher used "libra" to mean a small faint zodiacal constellation in the....
- He looked up "libra" because he had never seen it before.

---

lifes (noun)

A characteristic state or mode of living.

- The article explained what "lifes" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "lifes" to mean a characteristic state or mode of living.

---

local anaesthetic (noun)

Anesthetic that numbs a particular area of the body.

- In class, the teacher used "local anaesthetic" to mean anesthetic that numbs a particular area of the body.
- The article explained what "local anaesthetic" means with a simple example.

---

lord macaulay (noun)

English historian noted for his history of England (1800-1859).

- Understanding "lord macaulay" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "lord macaulay" to mean english historian noted for his history of england....

---

macabre (adjective)

Shockingly repellent; inspiring horror.

- Macabre tales of war and plague in the Middle ages.
- Macabre tortures conceived by madmen.

---

macaulay (noun)

English historian noted for his history of England (1800-1859).

- They discussed "macaulay" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "macaulay" means with a simple example.

---

mackintosh (noun)

A waterproof raincoat made of rubberized fabric.

- They discussed "mackintosh" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "mackintosh" to mean a waterproof raincoat made of rubberized fabric.

---

madagascar franc (noun)

The basic unit of money in Madagascar.

- He looked up "madagascar franc" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "madagascar franc" to mean the basic unit of money in madagascar.

---

madeira winter cherry (noun)

Small South American shrub cultivated as a houseplant for its abundant ornamental but poisonous red or yellow cherry-sized fruit.

- They discussed "madeira winter cherry" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "madeira winter cherry" means with a simple example.

---

magnification (noun)

A photographic print that has been enlarged.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "magnification."
- They discussed "magnification" during the group presentation.

---

mechanically skillful (adjective)

Relating to or concerned with machinery or tools.

- It is useful to describe something as "mechanically skillful" when it is relating to or concerned with machinery or tools.
- Would you call this situation "mechanically skillful"? Explain why.

medicated (verb)

Impregnate with a medicinal substance.

- The coach explained when to use "medicated" and when to wait.
- Can you use "medicated" in a sentence that fits this situation?

memento (noun)

A reminder of past events.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "memento."
- The article explained what "memento" means with a simple example.

midwifery (noun)

The branch of medicine dealing with childbirth and care of the mother.

- He looked up "midwifery" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "midwifery" during the group presentation.

milieu (noun)

The environmental condition.

- The article explained what "milieu" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "milieu" during the group presentation.

mistresses (noun)

A woman master who directs the work of others.

- Understanding "mistresses" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "mistresses."

mms (noun)

A metric unit of length equal to one thousandth of a meter.

- The article explained what "mms" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "mms" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

monsignor (noun)

(Roman Catholic Church) an ecclesiastical title of honor bestowed on some priests.

- He looked up "monsignor" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "monsignor."

moonshine (noun)

The light of the Moon.

- He looked up "moonshine" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "moonshine" during the group presentation.

mount saint helens (noun)

An active volcano in the Cascade Range in southwestern Washington; erupted violently in 1980 after 123 years of inactivity.

- The article explained what "mount saint helens" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "mount saint helens" to mean an active volcano in the cascade range in....

mulligan stew (noun)

Irish version of burgoo.

- Understanding "mulligan stew" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "mulligan stew" to mean irish version of burgoo.

mutt (noun)

An inferior dog or one of mixed breed.

- Understanding "mutt" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "mutt" means with a simple example.

mutton quad (noun)

A quad with a square body.

- Since 'em quad' is hard to distinguish from 'en quad', printers sometimes called it a 'mutton quad'.
- He looked up "mutton quad" because he had never seen it before.

---

myocardial (adjective)

Of or relating to the myocardium.

- A "myocardial" approach may work better in this case.
- Students compared "myocardial" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

---

mysore (noun)

A city in southern India to the southwest of Bangalore.

- They discussed "mysore" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "mysore" because he had never seen it before.

---

nachos (noun)

A tortilla chip topped with cheese and chili-pepper and broiled.

- In class, the teacher used "nachos" to mean a tortilla chip topped with cheese and chili-pepper....
- The article explained what "nachos" means with a simple example.

---

naturalistic (adjective)

Representing what is real; not abstract or ideal.

- In naturalistic colors.
- The school of naturalistic writers.

---

nepotism (noun)

Favoritism shown to relatives or close friends by those in power (as by giving them jobs).

- The article explained what "nepotism" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "nepotism" to mean favoritism shown to relatives or close friends by....

---

new caledonian pine (noun)

Very tall evergreen of New Caledonia and the New Hebrides similar to norfolk island pine.

- In class, the teacher used "new caledonian pine" to mean very tall evergreen of new caledonia and the new....
- Understanding "new caledonian pine" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ninth cranial nerve (noun)

Sensory nerve to the pharynx and back of the tongue; motor fibers innervate muscles that elevate the pharynx and larynx; includes parasympathetic fibers to the otic ganglion.

- They discussed "ninth cranial nerve" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "ninth cranial nerve" to mean sensory nerve to the pharynx and back of the....

---

nitric bacteria (noun)

Soil bacteria that convert nitrites to nitrates.

- Understanding "nitric bacteria" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "nitric bacteria" means with a simple example.

---

normality (noun)

Expectedness as a consequence of being usual or regular or common.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "normality."
- Understanding "normality" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oblique-angled (adjective)

Having oblique angles.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "oblique-angled."
- The speaker chose "oblique-angled" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

oblong (noun)

A plane figure that deviates from a square or circle due to elongation.

- They discussed "oblong" during the group presentation.

- He looked up "oblong" because he had never seen it before.

---

ocular muscle (noun)

One of the small muscles of the eye that serve to rotate the eyeball.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ocular muscle."
- The article explained what "ocular muscle" means with a simple example.

---

oliver ellsworth (noun)

United States jurist and the third chief justice of the United States Supreme Court (1745-1807).

- They discussed "oliver ellsworth" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "oliver ellsworth" means with a simple example.

---

operatic (adjective)

Of or relating to or characteristic of opera.

- The speaker chose "operatic" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- A "operatic" approach may work better in this case.

---

operatic star (noun)

Singer of lead role in an opera.

- The article explained what "operatic star" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "operatic star" to mean singer of lead role in an opera.

---

ophthalmology (noun)

The branch of medicine concerned with the eye and its diseases.

- They discussed "ophthalmology" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "ophthalmology" means with a simple example.

---

oppenheimer (noun)

United States physicist who directed the project at Los Alamos that developed the first atomic bomb (1904-1967).

- He looked up "oppenheimer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oppenheimer."

---

oracle of delphi (noun)

(Greek mythology) the oracle at Delphi where a priestess supposedly delivered messages from Apollo to those who sought advice; the messages were usually obscure or ambiguous.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "oracle of delphi."
- The article explained what "oracle of delphi" means with a simple example.

---

orca (noun)

Predatory black-and-white toothed whale with large dorsal fin; common in cold seas.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "orca."
- Understanding "orca" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

oreo cookie (noun)

Chocolate cookie with white cream filling.

- They discussed "oreo cookie" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "oreo cookie" to mean chocolate cookie with white cream filling.

---

osage (noun)

A river in Missouri that is a tributary of the Missouri River.

- They discussed "osage" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "osage" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

osage river (noun)

A river in Missouri that is a tributary of the Missouri River.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "osage river."
- Understanding "osage river" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

osman i (noun)

The conqueror of Turkey who founded the Ottoman Empire and the Ottoman dynasty that ruled Turkey after the 13th century; conquered most of Asia Minor and assumed the title of emir in 1299 (1259-1326).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "osman i."
- They discussed "osman i" during the group presentation.

---

overcomes (verb)

Overcome, usually through no fault or weakness of the person that is overcome.

- Can you use "overcomes" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "overcomes" until he saw an example.

---

overseer (noun)

A person who directs and manages an organization.

- They discussed "overseer" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "overseer" means with a simple example.

---

overstated (adjective)

Represented as greater than is true or reasonable.

- The speaker chose "overstated" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "overstated" when it is represented as greater than is true or reasonable.

---

paddling (verb)

Give a spanking to; subject to a spanking.

- Can you use "paddling" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "paddling" and when to wait.

---

painstaking (adjective)

Characterized by extreme care and great effort.

- Painstaking research.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "painstaking."

---

pall (verb)

Cause surfeit through excess though initially pleasing.

- Pall the beer.
- Wine and beer can pall.

---

palma christ (noun)

Large shrub of tropical Africa and Asia having large palmate leaves and spiny capsules containing seeds that are the source of castor oil and ricin; widely naturalized throughout the tropics.

- Understanding "palma christ" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "palma christ" means with a simple example.

---

panelists (noun)

A member of a panel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panelists."
- They discussed "panelists" during the group presentation.

---

panzer (noun)

An armored vehicle or tank.

- Understanding "panzer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "panzer."

---

paper-pusher (noun)

A clerk or bureaucrat who does paperwork.

- Understanding "paper-pusher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "paper-pusher" because he had never seen it before.

---

parodies (noun)

A composition that imitates or misrepresents somebody's style, usually in a humorous way.

- The article explained what "parodies" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "parodies" during the group presentation.

---

patchy (adjective)

Irregular or uneven in quality, texture, etc.

- A patchy essay.
- Patchy fog.

---

paychecks (noun)

A check issued in payment of wages or salary.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "paychecks."
- He looked up "paychecks" because he had never seen it before.

---

pecan (noun)

Smooth brown oval nut of south central United States.

- The article explained what "pecan" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "pecan" to mean smooth brown oval nut of south central united states.

---

penicillin v potassium (noun)

A form of penicillin V (trade name Ledercillin VK).

- He looked up "penicillin v potassium" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "penicillin v potassium" to mean a form of penicillin v (trade name ledercillin vk).

---

perceptual (adjective)

Of or relating to the act of perceiving.

- Perceptual stimulus.
- The speaker chose "perceptual" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

perceptual experience (noun)

The representation of what is perceived; basic component in the formation of a concept.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "perceptual experience."
- He looked up "perceptual experience" because he had never seen it before.

---

petit mal epilepsy (noun)

Epilepsy characterized by paroxysmal attacks of brief clouding of consciousness (and possibly other abnormalities).

- She has been suffering from petit mal since childhood.
- The article explained what "petit mal epilepsy" means with a simple example.

---

philippine peso (noun)

The basic unit of money in the Philippines; equal to 100 centavos.

- The article explained what "philippine peso" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "philippine peso" during the group presentation.

---

pied piper (noun)

A leader who entices people to follow (especially to their doom).

- He looked up "pied piper" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "pied piper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

pimples (noun)

A small inflamed elevation of the skin; a pustule or papule; common symptom in acne.

- In class, the teacher used "pimples" to mean a small inflamed elevation of the skin; a pustule....
- He looked up "pimples" because he had never seen it before.

---

pings (verb)

Sound like a car engine that is firing too early.

- He did not know how to use "pings" until he saw an example.
- In everyday English, people use "pings" when talking about this idea.

pips (noun)

A mark on a die or on a playing card (shape depending on the suit).

- In class, the teacher used "pips" to mean a mark on a die or on a playing card (shape....
- The article explained what "pips" means with a simple example.

pique (noun)

A sudden outburst of anger.

- Understanding "pique" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "pique" means with a simple example.

plowed (adjective)

(of farmland) broken and turned over with a plow.

- Plowed fields.
- The speaker chose "plowed" because it captured the feeling precisely.

politeness (noun)

A courteous manner that respects accepted social usage.

- Understanding "politeness" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "politeness" because he had never seen it before.

polo mallet (noun)

A mallet used to strike the ball in polo.

- The article explained what "polo mallet" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "polo mallet" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

pomegranate (noun)

Shrub or small tree native to southwestern Asia having large red many-seeded fruit.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "pomegranate."
- Understanding "pomegranate" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

porters (noun)

A person employed to carry luggage and supplies.

- The article explained what "porters" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "porters" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

potholes (noun)

A pit or hole produced by wear or weathering (especially in a road surface).

- Understanding "potholes" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "potholes" means with a simple example.

president coolidge (noun)

Elected vice president and succeeded as 30th President of the United States when Harding died in 1923 (1872-1933).

- Understanding "president coolidge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "president coolidge" because he had never seen it before.

promiscuous (adjective)

Not selective of a single class or person.

- Clinton was criticized for his promiscuous solicitation of campaign money.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "promiscuous."

proto-norse (noun)

The Germanic language of Scandinavia up until about 700.

- Understanding "proto-norse" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "proto-norse" to mean the germanic language of scandinavia up until about 700.

proudest (adjective)

Feeling self-respect or pleasure in something by which you measure your self-worth; or being a reason for pride.

- Students compared "proudest" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "proudest" approach may work better in this case.

---

psychopaths (noun)

Someone with a sociopathic personality; a person with an antisocial personality disorder ('psychopath' was once widely used but has now been superseded by 'sociopath').

- In class, the teacher used "psychopaths" to mean someone with a sociopathic personality; a person....
- The article explained what "psychopaths" means with a simple example.

---

pusher (noun)

A sandal attached to the foot by a thong over the toes.

- The article explained what "pusher" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "pusher" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

rangoon (noun)

The capital and largest city of Myanmar; located in the south near the Irrawaddy river delta.

- In class, the teacher used "rangoon" to mean the capital and largest city of myanmar; located in....
- The article explained what "rangoon" means with a simple example.

---

rbis (noun)

A run that is the result of the batter's performance.

- In class, the teacher used "rbis" to mean a run that is the result of the batter's performance.
- He looked up "rbis" because he had never seen it before.

---

recombinant dna (noun)

Genetically engineered DNA made by recombining fragments of DNA from different organisms.

- The article explained what "recombinant dna" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recombinant dna" to mean genetically engineered dna made by recombining....

---

recombinant protein (noun)

A protein derived from recombinant DNA.

- The article explained what "recombinant protein" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "recombinant protein" to mean a protein derived from recombinant dna.

---

refueling (noun)

The activity of supplying or taking on fuel.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "refueling."
- Understanding "refueling" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

reprimanded (verb)

Censure severely or angrily.

- He did not know how to use "reprimanded" until he saw an example.
- Learners should practice how to use "reprimanded" in real sentences.

---

reproductions (noun)

The sexual activity of conceiving and bearing offspring.

- The article explained what "reproductions" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "reproductions" during the group presentation.

---

republic of nauru (noun)

An island republic on Nauru Island; phosphate exports support the economy.

- In class, the teacher used "republic of nauru" to mean an island republic on nauru island; phosphate....
- The article explained what "republic of nauru" means with a simple example.

---

resell (verb)

Sell (something) again after having bought it.

- He did not know how to use "resell" until he saw an example.

- She tried to use "resell" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

reserving (verb)

Obtain or arrange (for oneself) in advance.

- In everyday English, people use "reserving" when talking about this idea.
- Learners should practice how to use "reserving" in real sentences.

---

resuscitation (noun)

The act of reviving a person and returning them to consciousness.

- Although he was apparently drowned, resuscitation was accomplished by artificial respiration.
- They discussed "resuscitation" during the group presentation.

---

revocation (noun)

The act (by someone having the authority) of annulling something previously done.

- The revocation of a law.
- Understanding "revocation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

roadblocks (noun)

Any condition that makes it difficult to make progress or to achieve an objective.

- He looked up "roadblocks" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "roadblocks."

---

rochelle salts (noun)

A double salt used in Seidlitz powder; acts as a cathartic.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rochelle salts."
- They discussed "rochelle salts" during the group presentation.

---

rosy boa (noun)

Boa of rocky desert of southwestern United States.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "rosy boa."
- They discussed "rosy boa" during the group presentation.

---

russell's body (noun)

An inclusion body found in plasma cells in cases of cancer.

- Understanding "russell's body" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "russell's body" because he had never seen it before.

---

rusted (adjective)

Having accumulated rust.

- Rusted hinges.
- The speaker chose "rusted" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

sagging (adjective)

Hanging down (as from exhaustion or weakness).

- Students compared "sagging" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- A "sagging" approach may work better in this case.

---

saint ignatius (noun)

Bishop of Antioch who was martyred under the Roman Emperor Trajan (died 110).

- The article explained what "saint ignatius" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "saint ignatius" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sardines (noun)

A deep orange-red variety of chalcedony.

- They discussed "sardines" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sardines" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sardinia (noun)

An island in the Mediterranean to the west of Italy.

- The article explained what "sardinia" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "sardinia" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

scalable (adjective)

Capable of being scaled; possible to scale.

- The scalable slope of a mountain.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "scalable."

---

scalar (adjective)

Of or relating to a directionless magnitude (such as mass or speed etc.) that is completely specified by its magnitude.

- Scalar quantity.
- He played some basic scalar patterns on his guitar.

---

scalar field (noun)

A field of scalars.

- Understanding "scalar field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "scalar field" means with a simple example.

---

scalar product (noun)

A real number (a scalar) that is the product of two vectors.

- The article explained what "scalar product" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "scalar product" to mean a real number (a scalar) that is the product of two....

---

scrapbook (noun)

An album into which clippings or notes or pictures can be pasted.

- He looked up "scrapbook" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "scrapbook" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

segmented worm (noun)

Worms with cylindrical bodies segmented both internally and externally.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "segmented worm."
- Understanding "segmented worm" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

selectors (noun)

A switch that is used to select among alternatives.

- Understanding "selectors" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "selectors" to mean a switch that is used to select among alternatives.

---

semiconductor diode (noun)

A semiconductor that consists of a p-n junction.

- In class, the teacher used "semiconductor diode" to mean a semiconductor that consists of a p-n junction.
- The article explained what "semiconductor diode" means with a simple example.

---

semiconductors (noun)

A conductor made with semiconducting material.

- He looked up "semiconductors" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "semiconductors" to mean a conductor made with semiconducting material.

---

sensibly (adverb)

With good sense or in a reasonable or intelligent manner.

- He acted sensibly in the crisis.
- Using "sensibly" can make your explanation more exact.

---

sensitivities (noun)

The ability to respond to physical stimuli or to register small physical amounts or differences.

- They discussed "sensitivities" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "sensitivities" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

separator (noun)

An apparatus that uses centrifugal force to separate particles from a suspension.

- They discussed "separator" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "separator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sequestration (noun)

The act of segregating or sequestering.

- Sequestration of the jury.
- The article explained what "sequestration" means with a simple example.

---

set ablaze (verb)

Set fire to; cause to start burning.

- Lightening set fire to the forest.
- In everyday English, people use "set ablaze" when talking about this idea.

---

sheraton (noun)

A furniture style that originated in England around 1800; simple in design with straight lines and classical ornamentation.

- He looked up "sheraton" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sheraton."

---

shoal (noun)

A sandbank in a stretch of water that is visible at low tide.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "shoal."
- He looked up "shoal" because he had never seen it before.

---

sir bernard lovell (noun)

English astronomer who pioneered radio astronomy (born in 1913).

- He looked up "sir bernard lovell" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "sir bernard lovell" during the group presentation.

---

skilled workman (noun)

A worker who has acquired special skills.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skilled workman."
- He looked up "skilled workman" because he had never seen it before.

---

skimmed milk (noun)

Milk from which the cream has been skimmed.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "skimmed milk."
- The article explained what "skimmed milk" means with a simple example.

---

sledgehammer (noun)

A heavy long-handled hammer used to drive stakes or wedges.

- Understanding "sledgehammer" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "sledgehammer" during the group presentation.

---

sleeved (adjective)

Made with sleeves or sleeves especially as specified; often used in combination.

- Sleeved garments.
- Short-sleeved.

---

smartly (adverb)

With vigor; in a vigorous manner.

- A smartly managed business.
- He was smartly dressed.

smite (verb)

Affect suddenly with deep feeling.

- Learners should practice how to use "smite" in real sentences.
- In everyday English, people use "smite" when talking about this idea.

sniping (verb)

Cultivate, tend, and cut back the growth of.

- The coach explained when to use "sniping" and when to wait.
- Can you use "sniping" in a sentence that fits this situation?

sodium-vapour lamp (noun)

Lamp in which an electric current passed through a tube of sodium vapor makes a yellow light; used is street lighting.

- They discussed "sodium-vapour lamp" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "sodium-vapour lamp."

solicited (verb)

Make a solicitation or petition for something desired.

- Henry IV solicited the Pope for a divorce.
- He was solicited by a prostitute.

somatic (adjective)

Affecting or characteristic of the body as opposed to the mind or spirit.

- A somatic symptom or somatic illness.
- Would you call this situation "somatic"? Explain why.

somatic sense (noun)

The faculty of bodily perception; sensory systems associated with the body; includes skin senses and proprioception and the internal organs.

- In class, the teacher used "somatic sense" to mean the faculty of bodily perception; sensory systems....
- The article explained what "somatic sense" means with a simple example.

splendour (noun)

The quality of being magnificent or splendid or grand.

- He looked up "splendour" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "splendour."

standup comedian (noun)

A comedian who uses gags.

- They discussed "standup comedian" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "standup comedian" because he had never seen it before.

steeply (adverb)

In a steep manner.

- The street rose steeply up to the castle.
- He answered "steeply," which changed the tone of the conversation.

stingray (noun)

Large venomous ray with large barbed spines near the base of a thin whiplike tail capable of inflicting severe wounds.

- They discussed "stingray" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "stingray" because he had never seen it before.

stonehenge (noun)

An ancient megalithic monument in southern England; probably used for ritual purposes.

- He looked up "stonehenge" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "stonehenge" to mean an ancient megalithic monument in southern england;....

straightening (verb)

Get up from a sitting or slouching position.

- Can you use "straightening" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- He did not know how to use "straightening" until he saw an example.

---

subcontinent (noun)

A large and distinctive landmass (as India or Greenland) that is a distinct part of some continent.

- In class, the teacher used "subcontinent" to mean a large and distinctive landmass (as india or....
- They discussed "subcontinent" during the group presentation.

---

subsets (noun)

A set whose members are members of another set; a set contained within another set.

- The article explained what "subsets" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "subsets."

---

subsidize (verb)

Support through subsidies.

- The arts in Europe are heavily subsidized.
- Learners should practice how to use "subsidize" in real sentences.

---

substation (noun)

A subsidiary station where electricity is transformed for distribution by a low-voltage network.

- Understanding "substation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "substation" to mean a subsidiary station where electricity is....

---

sufferings (noun)

A state of acute pain.

- He looked up "sufferings" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "sufferings" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

sumo wrestler (noun)

A wrestler who participates in sumo (a Japanese form of wrestling).

- Sumo wrestlers are large heavy men.
- He looked up "sumo wrestler" because he had never seen it before.

---

swarms (noun)

A group of many things in the air or on the ground.

- The article explained what "swarms" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "swarms" to mean a group of many things in the air or on the ground.

---

symbiotic (adjective)

Used of organisms (especially of different species) living together but not necessarily in a relation beneficial to each.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "symbiotic."
- A "symbiotic" approach may work better in this case.

---

talker identification (noun)

Identification of a person from the sound of their voice.

- The article explained what "talker identification" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "talker identification."

---

tangerine tree (noun)

A variety of mandarin orange.

- They discussed "tangerine tree" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "tangerine tree" because he had never seen it before.

---

tantamount (adjective)

Being essentially equal to something.

- His statement was tantamount to an admission of guilt.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “tantamount.”

taro root (noun)

Tropical starchy tuberous root.

- He looked up “taro root” because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used “taro root” to mean tropical starchy tuberous root.

teaspoons (noun)

A small spoon used for stirring tea or coffee; holds about one fluid dram.

- He looked up “teaspoons” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “teaspoons.”

tetris (noun)

100 tetri equal 1 lari in Georgia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included “tetris.”
- The article explained what “tetris” means with a simple example.

thermodynamic (adjective)

Of or concerned with thermodynamics.

- The thermodynamic limit.
- Students compared “thermodynamic” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

thoreau (noun)

United States writer and social critic (1817-1862).

- He looked up “thoreau” because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included “thoreau.”

thorny (adjective)

Having or covered with protective barbs or quills or spines or thorns or setae etc.

- The thorny question of states’ rights.
- Students compared “thorny” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

tickling (adjective)

Exciting by touching lightly so as to cause laughter or twitching movements.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned “tickling.”
- Students compared “tickling” with similar adjectives in the lesson.

tonnage duty (noun)

A tax imposed on ships that enter the US; based on the tonnage of the ship.

- He looked up “tonnage duty” because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding “tonnage duty” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tortillas (noun)

Thin unleavened pancake made from cornmeal or wheat flour.

- In class, the teacher used “tortillas” to mean thin unleavened pancake made from cornmeal or wheat....
- Understanding “tortillas” helps you talk about this topic clearly.

tosses (verb)

Lightly throw to see which side comes up.

- Can you use “tosses” in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use “tosses” and when to wait.

traversed (verb)

To cover or extend over an area or time period; ,.

- The coach explained when to use “traversed” and when to wait.
- He did not know how to use “traversed” until he saw an example.

tree creeper (noun)

Any of numerous South American and Central American birds with a curved bill and stiffened tail feathers that climb and feed like woodpeckers.

- In class, the teacher used "tree creeper" to mean any of numerous south american and central american....
- The article explained what "tree creeper" means with a simple example.

---

trifle (noun)

A detail that is considered insignificant.

- He looked up "trifle" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "trifle" during the group presentation.

---

trifle away (verb)

Spend wastefully.

- Wanton one's money away.
- She tried to use "trifle away" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

turner's syndrome (noun)

A chromosomal disorder in females who have only one X chromosome; marked by dwarfism and heart abnormalities and underdeveloped sex organs.

- They discussed "turner's syndrome" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "turner's syndrome."

---

tusk shell (noun)

Any of various seashore mollusks having a tapering tubular shell open at each end and a foot pointed like a spade for burrowing.

- The article explained what "tusk shell" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "tusk shell" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

twine (verb)

Make by twisting together or intertwining.

- Twine a rope.
- Intertwine the ribbons.

---

typhoid mary (noun)

United States cook who was an immune carrier of typhoid fever and who infected dozens of people (1870-1938).

- In class, the teacher used "typhoid mary" to mean united states cook who was an immune carrier of....
- He looked up "typhoid mary" because he had never seen it before.

---

unfulfilled (adjective)

Of persons; marked by failure to realize full potentialities.

- Unfulfilled and uneasy men.
- Would you call this situation "unfulfilled"? Explain why.

---

unjustly (adverb)

In an unjust manner.

- He was unjustly singled out for punishment.
- Place "unjustly" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

---

unoccupied (adjective)

Not seized and controlled.

- Unoccupied areas of France.
- An unoccupied telephone booth.

---

uruguayan monetary unit (noun)

Monetary unit in Uruguay.

- Understanding "uruguayan monetary unit" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "uruguayan monetary unit" because he had never seen it before.

---

uterine artery (noun)

A branch of the internal iliac artery that supplies the uterus and the upper part of the vagina.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "uterine artery."
- They discussed "uterine artery" during the group presentation.

---

venous (adjective)

Of or contained in or performing the function of the veins.

- Venous inflammation.
- Venous blood as contrasted with arterial blood.

---

venous blood (noun)

Blood found in the veins.

- Except in the pulmonary vein venous blood is rich in carbon dioxide and poor in oxygen.
- Understanding "venous blood" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

venous blood system (noun)

(zoology) the system of venous blood vessels in an animal.

- The article explained what "venous blood system" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "venous blood system" to mean (zoology) the system of venous blood vessels in an....

---

venous pressure (noun)

The pressure exerted on the walls of the veins by the circulating blood.

- The article explained what "venous pressure" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "venous pressure" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

ventricular (adjective)

Of or relating to a ventricle (of the heart or brain).

- A "ventricular" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "ventricular."

---

viciously (adverb)

In a vicious manner.

- He was viciously attacked.
- Using "viciously" can make your explanation more exact.

---

vindication (noun)

The justification for some act or belief.

- Friends provided a vindication of his position.
- In class, the teacher used "vindication" to mean the justification for some act or belief.

---

violins (noun)

Bowed stringed instrument that is the highest member of the violin family; this instrument has four strings and a hollow body and an unfretted fingerboard and is played with a bow.

- He looked up "violins" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "violins" to mean bowed stringed instrument that is the highest....

---

virginia creeper (noun)

Common North American vine with compound leaves and bluish-black berrylike fruit.

- They discussed "virginia creeper" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "virginia creeper" because he had never seen it before.

---

vishnu (noun)

The sustainer; a Hindu divinity worshipped as the preserver of worlds.

- The article explained what "vishnu" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "vishnu" to mean the sustainer; a hindu divinity worshipped as the....

---

wage earner (noun)

Someone who earn wages in return for their labor.

- The article explained what "wage earner" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "wage earner" to mean someone who earn wages in return for their labor.

watercolour (noun)

The art or technique of painting with watercolors.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "watercolour."
- The article explained what "watercolour" means with a simple example.

wedded (adjective)

Having been taken in marriage.

- The speaker chose "wedded" because it captured the feeling precisely.
- It is useful to describe something as "wedded" when it is having been taken in marriage.

whiter (adjective)

Of or belonging to a racial group having light skin coloration.

- A "whiter" approach may work better in this case.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "whiter."

wickedness (noun)

The quality of being disgusting to the senses or emotions.

- He looked up "wickedness" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "wickedness" to mean the quality of being disgusting to the senses or....

wild senna (noun)

North American perennial herb; leaves are used medicinally; sometimes placed in genus Cassia.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wild senna."
- The article explained what "wild senna" means with a simple example.

william holman hunt (noun)

Englishman and Pre-Raphaelite painter (1827-1910).

- They discussed "william holman hunt" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "william holman hunt" because he had never seen it before.

william randolph hearst (noun)

United States newspaper publisher whose introduction of large headlines and sensational reporting changed American journalism (1863-1951).

- Understanding "william randolph hearst" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "william randolph hearst" means with a simple example.

windfall profit (noun)

Profit that occurs unexpectedly as a consequence of some event not controlled by those who profit from it.

- They discussed "windfall profit" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "windfall profit" because he had never seen it before.

winged spindle tree (noun)

Bushy deciduous shrub with branches having thin wide corky longitudinal wings; brilliant red in autumn; northeastern Asia to central China.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "winged spindle tree."
- He looked up "winged spindle tree" because he had never seen it before.

wishful thinker (noun)

A person who escapes into a world of fantasy.

- They discussed "wishful thinker" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wishful thinker."

wood-creeper (noun)

Any of numerous South American and Central American birds with a curved bill and stiffened tail feathers that climb and feed like woodpeckers.

- He looked up "wood-creeper" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "wood-creeper."

worksheet (noun)

A piece of paper recording work planned or done on a project.

- He looked up "worksheet" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "worksheet."

---

wrappers (noun)

The covering (usually paper or cellophane) in which something is wrapped.

- Understanding "wrappers" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wrappers" because he had never seen it before.

---

wylie (noun)

United States poet (1885-1928).

- Understanding "wylie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "wylie" because he had never seen it before.

---

xxi (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty and one.

- The article explained what "xxi" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "xxi" during the group presentation.

---

xxiii (noun)

The cardinal number that is the sum of twenty-two and one.

- The article explained what "xxiii" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "xxiii" during the group presentation.

---

yarns (noun)

The act of giving an account describing incidents or a course of events.

- They discussed "yarns" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "yarns" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

actor's line (noun)

Words making up the dialogue of a play.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "actor's line."
- The article explained what "actor's line" means with a simple example.

---

affixed (adjective)

Firmly attached.

- The affixed labels.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "affixed."

---

alkali (noun)

A mixture of soluble salts found in arid soils and some bodies of water; detrimental to agriculture.

- He looked up "alkali" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "alkali" to mean a mixture of soluble salts found in arid soils and....

---

altruism (noun)

The quality of unselfish concern for the welfare of others.

- They discussed "altruism" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "altruism" because he had never seen it before.

---

ambience (noun)

A particular environment or surrounding influence.

- He looked up "ambience" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "ambience."

---

american creeper (noun)

A common creeper in North America with a down-curved bill.

- He looked up "american creeper" because he had never seen it before.

- They discussed "american creeper" during the group presentation.

---

american sycamore (noun)

Very large spreading plane tree of eastern and central North America to Mexico.

- The article explained what "american sycamore" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "american sycamore" to mean very large spreading plane tree of eastern and....

---

amorphous shape (noun)

An ill-defined or arbitrary shape.

- The article explained what "amorphous shape" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "amorphous shape" to mean an ill-defined or arbitrary shape.

---

amphibians (noun)

An airplane designed to take off and land on water.

- Understanding "amphibians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "amphibians" during the group presentation.

---

anomalous (adjective)

Deviating from the general or common order or type.

- Advanced forms of life may be anomalous in the universe.
- The speaker chose "anomalous" because it captured the feeling precisely.

---

antioxidant (noun)

Substance that inhibits oxidation or inhibits reactions promoted by oxygen or peroxides.

- They discussed "antioxidant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "antioxidant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

assemblage (noun)

The social act of assembling.

- In class, the teacher used "assemblage" to mean the social act of assembling.
- The article explained what "assemblage" means with a simple example.

---

astor (noun)

United States capitalist (born in Germany) who made a fortune in fur trading (1763-1848).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "astor."
- He looked up "astor" because he had never seen it before.

---

astounded (adjective)

Filled with the emotional impact of overwhelming surprise or shock.

- Astounded viewers wept at the pictures from the Oklahoma City bombing.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "astounded."

---

auld (adjective)

A Scottish word.

- Auld lang syne.
- Would you call this situation "auld"? Explain why.

---

austrians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Austria.

- Understanding "austrians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "austrians."

---

baht (noun)

The basic unit of money in Thailand.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "baht."
- He looked up "baht" because he had never seen it before.

---

baker's yeast (noun)

Used as a leaven in baking and brewing.

- They discussed "baker's yeast" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "baker's yeast" to mean used as a leaven in baking and brewing.

---

barn millet (noun)

A coarse annual panic grass; a cosmopolitan weed; occasionally used for hay or grazing.

- In class, the teacher used "barn millet" to mean a coarse annual panic grass; a cosmopolitan weed;....
- They discussed "barn millet" during the group presentation.

---

bird's-foot fern (noun)

Cliff brake of California and Baja California having purple-brown leafstalks.

- The article explained what "bird's-foot fern" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "bird's-foot fern" during the group presentation.

---

birthing (noun)

The process of giving birth.

- The article explained what "birthing" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "birthing" during the group presentation.

---

birthing coach (noun)

An assistant (often the father of the soon-to-be-born child) who provides support for a woman in labor by encouraging her to use techniques learned in childbirth-preparation classes.

- They discussed "birthing coach" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "birthing coach" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bismarck archipelago (noun)

A group of islands in the southwestern Pacific to the northeast of New Guinea; part of Papua New Guinea.

- They discussed "bismarck archipelago" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "bismarck archipelago" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

bobs (noun)

A short abrupt inclination (as of the head).

- Understanding "bobs" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- They discussed "bobs" during the group presentation.

---

bosh (noun)

Pretentious or silly talk or writing.

- Understanding "bosh" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "bosh" means with a simple example.

---

boycotted (verb)

Refuse to sponsor; refuse to do business with.

- Can you use "boycotted" in a sentence that fits this situation?
- The coach explained when to use "boycotted" and when to wait.

---

brandenburg (noun)

The territory of an Elector (of the Holy Roman Empire) that expanded to become the kingdom of Prussia in 1701.

- He looked up "brandenburg" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "brandenburg" to mean the territory of an elector (of the holy roman....

---

british guiana (noun)

A republic in northeastern South America; formerly part of the British Empire, but it achieved independence from the United Kingdom in 1966.

- Understanding "british guiana" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "british guiana" means with a simple example.

---

brown creeper (noun)

A common creeper in North America with a down-curved bill.

- In class, the teacher used "brown creeper" to mean a common creeper in north america with a....
- The article explained what "brown creeper" means with a simple example.

---

bulgarians (noun)

A native or inhabitant of Bulgaria.

- Understanding "bulgarians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- He looked up "bulgarians" because he had never seen it before.

---

bureaus (noun)

An administrative unit of government.

- The article explained what "bureaus" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "bureaus" to mean an administrative unit of government.

---

burritos (noun)

A flour tortilla folded around a filling.

- Understanding "burritos" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "burritos" to mean a flour tortilla folded around a filling.

---

caledonian canal (noun)

A canal in northern Scotland that links North Sea with the Atlantic Ocean; runs diagonally between Moray Firth at the northeastern end and Loch Linnhe at the southwestern end; now little used.

- The article explained what "caledonian canal" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "caledonian canal" to mean a canal in northern scotland that links north sea....

---

california sycamore (noun)

Tall tree of Baja California having deciduous bark and large alternate palmately lobed leaves and ball-shaped clusters of flowers.

- The article explained what "california sycamore" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "california sycamore."

---

cannibal mound (noun)

Ground beef mixed with raw egg and e.g. onions and capers and anchovies; eaten raw.

- They discussed "cannibal mound" during the group presentation.
- In class, the teacher used "cannibal mound" to mean ground beef mixed with raw egg and e.g. onions and....

---

cantonese dialect (noun)

The dialect of Chinese spoken in Canton and neighboring provinces and in Hong Kong and elsewhere outside China.

- Understanding "cantonese dialect" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cantonese dialect" means with a simple example.

---

cape flattery (noun)

A cape of northwestern Washington.

- Understanding "cape flattery" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cape flattery."

---

carcasses (noun)

The dead body of an animal especially one slaughtered and dressed for food.

- He looked up "carcasses" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "carcasses" to mean the dead body of an animal especially one....

---

caress (noun)

A gentle affectionate stroking (or something resembling it).

- He showered her with caresses.
- Soft music was a fond caress.

---

cascades frog (noun)

Mountain frog found near water; of United States Northwest to California.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cascades frog."
- He looked up "cascades frog" because he had never seen it before.

cat valium (noun)

Street names for ketamine.

- Understanding "cat valium" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cat valium" means with a simple example.

catchphrase (noun)

A phrase that has become a catchword.

- In class, the teacher used "catchphrase" to mean a phrase that has become a catchword.
- They discussed "catchphrase" during the group presentation.

censure (noun)

The state of being excommunicated.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "censure."
- The article explained what "censure" means with a simple example.

cervical glands of the uterus (noun)

Mucus-secreting glands in the mucosa of the uterine cervix.

- Understanding "cervical glands of the uterus" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cervical glands of the uterus."

channeled (verb)

Send from one person or place to another.

- Learners should practice how to use "channeled" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "channeled" carefully so everyone would understand.

chewy (adjective)

(of a consistency) requiring chewing.

- Chewy caramels.
- Students compared "chewy" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

childlike (adjective)

Exhibiting childlike simplicity and credulity.

- Childlike trust.
- Childlike charm.

chopin (noun)

United States writer who described Creole life in Louisiana (1851-1904).

- He practiced Chopin day and night.
- They discussed "chopin" during the group presentation.

circadian rhythm (noun)

A daily cycle of activity observed in many living organisms.

- In class, the teacher used "circadian rhythm" to mean a daily cycle of activity observed in many living....
- The article explained what "circadian rhythm" means with a simple example.

cleanest (adjective)

Free from dirt or impurities; or having clean habits.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "cleanest."
- The speaker chose "cleanest" because it captured the feeling precisely.

cleft (noun)

A split or indentation in something (as the palate or chin).

- He looked up "cleft" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "cleft" during the group presentation.

cleft foot (noun)

A deformity in which the space between the third and fourth toes extends up into the foot.

- Understanding "cleft foot" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "cleft foot" means with a simple example.

---

closed-captioned (adjective)

Broadcast with captions that are seen only on receivers having special equipment; can be provided for hard-of-hearing viewers.

- Students compared "closed-captioned" with similar adjectives in the lesson.
- Her writing became clearer after she learned "closed-captioned."

---

clump (noun)

A grouping of a number of similar things.

- They discussed "clump" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "clump" means with a simple example.

---

cluttered (adjective)

Filled or scattered with a disorderly accumulation of objects or rubbish.

- His library was a cluttered room with piles of books on every chair.
- It is useful to describe something as "cluttered" when it is filled or scattered with a disorderly accumulation....

---

coefficient of viscosity (noun)

A measure of the resistance to flow of a fluid under an applied force.

- The article explained what "coefficient of viscosity" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "coefficient of viscosity" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

coffee senna (noun)

Very leafy malodorous tropical weedy shrub whose seeds have been used as an adulterant for coffee; sometimes classified in genus Cassia.

- They discussed "coffee senna" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "coffee senna" because he had never seen it before.

---

combos (noun)

A small band of jazz musicians.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "combos."
- He looked up "combos" because he had never seen it before.

---

common garter snake (noun)

A garter snake that is widespread in North America.

- He looked up "common garter snake" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "common garter snake."

---

communicative (adjective)

Of or relating to communication.

- Communicative arts.
- Was a communicative person and quickly told all she knew.

---

complicating (verb)

Make more complex, intricate, or richer.

- She tried to use "complicating" carefully so everyone would understand.
- The coach explained when to use "complicating" and when to wait.

---

conceivably (adverb)

Within the realm of possibility.

- The weather may conceivably change.
- Using "conceivably" can make your explanation more exact.

---

concussions (noun)

Injury to the brain caused by a blow; usually resulting in loss of consciousness.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "concussions."

- The article explained what "concussions" means with a simple example.

---

connotation (noun)

An idea that is implied or suggested.

- Understanding "connotation" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "connotation."

---

conrad potter aiken (noun)

United States writer (1889-1973).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "conrad potter aiken."
- He looked up "conrad potter aiken" because he had never seen it before.

---

coriander plant (noun)

Old World herb with aromatic leaves and seed resembling parsley.

- Understanding "coriander plant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "coriander plant."

---

coughed (verb)

Exhale abruptly, as when one has a chest cold or congestion.

- In everyday English, people use "coughed" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "coughed" until he saw an example.

---

creeper (noun)

A person who crawls or creeps along the ground.

- He looked up "creeper" because he had never seen it before.
- In class, the teacher used "creeper" to mean a person who crawls or creeps along the ground.

---

crystal oscillator (noun)

An oscillator that produces electrical oscillations at a frequency determined by the physical characteristics of a piezoelectric quartz crystal.

- Understanding "crystal oscillator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "crystal oscillator."

---

cultivars (noun)

A variety of a plant developed from a natural species and maintained under cultivation.

- They discussed "cultivars" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "cultivars."

---

damper (noun)

A movable iron plate that regulates the draft in a stove or chimney or furnace.

- Rain put a damper on our picnic plans.
- The article explained what "damper" means with a simple example.

---

damper block (noun)

Damper consisting of a small felted block that drops onto a piano string to stop its vibration.

- In class, the teacher used "damper block" to mean damper consisting of a small felted block that....
- They discussed "damper block" during the group presentation.

---

day labourer (noun)

A laborer who works by the day; for daily wages.

- He looked up "day labourer" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "day labourer."

---

deduced (verb)

Reason by deduction; establish by deduction.

- The coach explained when to use "deduced" and when to wait.
- Can you use "deduced" in a sentence that fits this situation?

---

dependant (noun)

A person who relies on another person for support (especially financial support).

- They discussed "dependant" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dependant" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

dependant on (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- It is useful to describe something as "dependant on" when it is determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.
- Would you call this situation "dependant on"? Explain why.

dependant upon (adjective)

Determined by conditions or circumstances that follow.

- Her writing became clearer after she learned "dependant upon."
- A "dependant upon" approach may work better in this case.

depository (noun)

A facility where things can be deposited for storage or safekeeping.

- Understanding "depository" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "depository."

depository library (noun)

A depository built to contain books and other materials for reading and study.

- They discussed "depository library" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "depository library" means with a simple example.

deuce (noun)

A word used in exclamations of confusion.

- The deuce with it.
- Understanding "deuce" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

devil's flax (noun)

Common European perennial having showy yellow and orange flowers; a naturalized weed in North America.

- They discussed "devil's flax" during the group presentation.
- The article explained what "devil's flax" means with a simple example.

diagonally (adverb)

In a diagonal manner.

- She lives diagonally across the street from us.
- Place "diagonally" carefully so the meaning stays clear.

dickie (noun)

A small third seat in the back of an old-fashioned two-seater.

- They discussed "dickie" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "dickie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

direct mailer (noun)

A distributor who uses direct mail to sell merchandise.

- They discussed "direct mailer" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "direct mailer" because he had never seen it before.

disapproved (verb)

Deem wrong or inappropriate.

- In everyday English, people use "disapproved" when talking about this idea.
- He did not know how to use "disapproved" until he saw an example.

dishwasher detergent (noun)

A low-sudsing detergent designed for use in dishwashers.

- He looked up "dishwasher detergent" because he had never seen it before.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "dishwasher detergent."

---

disqualify (verb)

Make unfit or unsuitable.

- In everyday English, people use "disqualify" when talking about this idea.
- She tried to use "disqualify" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

doh (noun)

The syllable naming the first (tonic) note of any major scale in solmization.

- The article explained what "doh" means with a simple example.
- They discussed "doh" during the group presentation.

---

domestic llama (noun)

Used in the Andes as a beast of burden and source of wool; considered a domesticated variety of the guanaco.

- The article explained what "domestic llama" means with a simple example.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "domestic llama."

---

dona (noun)

A Spanish courtesy title or form of address for a woman.

- Dona Marguerita.
- He looked up "dona" because he had never seen it before.

---

donates (verb)

Give to a charity or good cause.

- She donates to her favorite charity every month.
- Learners should practice how to use "donates" in real sentences.

---

doorways (noun)

The entrance (the space in a wall) through which you enter or leave a room or building; the space that a door can close.

- In class, the teacher used "doorways" to mean the entrance (the space in a wall) through which....
- They discussed "doorways" during the group presentation.

---

doped (adjective)

Under the influence of narcotics.

- Knocked out by doped wine.
- Would you call this situation "doped"? Explain why.

---

double indemnity (noun)

A clause in an insurance policy that provides for double the face value of the policy in the case of accidental death.

- In class, the teacher used "double indemnity" to mean a clause in an insurance policy that provides for....
- The article explained what "double indemnity" means with a simple example.

---

dram (noun)

A unit of apothecary weight equal to an eighth of an ounce or to 60 grains.

- In class, the teacher used "dram" to mean a unit of apothecary weight equal to an eighth of....
- Understanding "dram" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

dried apricot (noun)

Apricots preserved by drying.

- He looked up "dried apricot" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "dried apricot" during the group presentation.

---

drove chisel (noun)

A stonemason's chisel with a broad edge for dressing stone.

- Understanding "drove chisel" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "drove chisel" means with a simple example.

earner (noun)

Someone who earn wages in return for their labor.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "earner."
- The article explained what "earner" means with a simple example.

eau de vie (noun)

Strong coarse brandy.

- He looked up "eau de vie" because he had never seen it before.
- Understanding "eau de vie" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

eighth cranial nerve (noun)

A composite sensory nerve supplying the hair cells of the vestibular organ and the hair cells of the cochlea.

- The article explained what "eighth cranial nerve" means with a simple example.
- In class, the teacher used "eighth cranial nerve" to mean a composite sensory nerve supplying the hair cells....

electrostatic (adjective)

Concerned with or producing or caused by static electricity.

- An electrostatic generator produces high-voltage static electricity.
- It is useful to describe something as "electrostatic" when it is concerned with or producing or caused by static....

electrostatic charge (noun)

The electric charge at rest on the surface of an insulated body (which establishes and adjacent electrostatic field).

- Understanding "electrostatic charge" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- The article explained what "electrostatic charge" means with a simple example.

electrostatic field (noun)

Electric field associated with static electric charges.

- Understanding "electrostatic field" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatic field."

electrostatic machine (noun)

Electrical device that produces a high voltage by building up a charge of static electricity.

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "electrostatic machine."
- He looked up "electrostatic machine" because he had never seen it before.

electrostatic unit (noun)

Any of various units of electricity based on forces of interaction between electric charges.

- In class, the teacher used "electrostatic unit" to mean any of various units of electricity based on forces....
- They discussed "electrostatic unit" during the group presentation.

embed (verb)

Attach to, as a journalist to a military unit when reporting on a war.

- The young reporter was embedded with the Third Division.
- He did not know how to use "embed" until he saw an example.

empathetic (adjective)

Showing empathy or ready comprehension of others' states.

- A sensitive and empathetic school counselor.
- Students compared "empathetic" with similar adjectives in the lesson.

emulator (noun)

Someone who copies the words or behavior of another.

- The article explained what "emulator" means with a simple example.
- Understanding "emulator" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

encompassed (verb)

Include in scope; include as part of something broader; have as one's sphere or territory.

- Learners should practice how to use "encompassed" in real sentences.
- She tried to use "encompassed" carefully so everyone would understand.

---

enlisting (noun)

The act of getting recruits; enlisting people for the army (or for a job or a cause etc.).

- She wrote a short paragraph that included "enlisting."
- He looked up "enlisting" because he had never seen it before.

---

enlistment (noun)

A period of time spent in military service.

- They discussed "enlistment" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "enlistment" because he had never seen it before.

---

entrant (noun)

A commodity that enters competition with established merchandise.

- A well publicized entrant is the pocket computer.
- New entrants to the country must go though immigration procedures.

---

envoys (noun)

A brief stanza concluding certain forms of poetry.

- He looked up "envoys" because he had never seen it before.
- They discussed "envoys" during the group presentation.

---

ephesians (noun)

A New Testament book containing the epistle from Saint Paul to the Ephesians which explains the divine plan for the world and the consummation of this in Christ.

- In class, the teacher used "ephesians" to mean a new testament book containing the epistle from....
- Understanding "ephesians" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

eraser (noun)

An implement used to erase something.

- In class, the teacher used "eraser" to mean an implement used to erase something.
- He looked up "eraser" because he had never seen it before.

---

etymology (noun)

The study of the sources and development of words.

- They discussed "etymology" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "etymology" because he had never seen it before.

---

european creeper (noun)

Common European brown-and-buff tree creeper with down-curved bill.

- They discussed "european creeper" during the group presentation.
- Understanding "european creeper" helps you talk about this topic clearly.

---

evidences (noun)

An indication that makes something evident.

- Understanding "evidences" helps you talk about this topic clearly.
- In class, the teacher used "evidences" to mean an indication that makes something evident.

---

exasperated (adjective)

Greatly annoyed; out of patience.

- Had an exasperated look on his face.
- Felt exasperated beyond endurance.

---

excalibur (noun)

The legendary sword of King Arthur.

- They discussed "excalibur" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "excalibur."

exorcist (noun)

One of the minor orders in the unreformed Western Church but now suppressed in the Roman Catholic Church.

- They discussed "exorcist" during the group presentation.
- He looked up "exorcist" because he had never seen it before.

faceted (adjective)

Having facets.

- A faceted diamond.
- Would you call this situation "faceted"? Explain why.

faggots (verb)

Ornament or join (fabric) by faggot stitch.

- In everyday English, people use "faggots" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "faggots" in a sentence that fits this situation?

fags (verb)

Exhaust or get tired through overuse or great strain or stress.

- In everyday English, people use "fags" when talking about this idea.
- Can you use "fags" in a sentence that fits this situation?

federated (adjective)

United under a central government.

- Would you call this situation "federated"? Explain why.
- A "federated" approach may work better in this case.

fennel flower (noun)

Nigella of Spain and southern France.

- They discussed "fennel flower" during the group presentation.
- She wrote a short paragraph that included "fennel flower."